

The New Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 13, 1871.

STEAMSHIPS,

TEXAS.

Morgan Line U.S. Mail Steamers
The Morgan Line—The Morgan Line steamship service to the Southern States has been suspended.
W. G. NEVELS,
President.
J. C. WATKINS,
Vice President.
A. H. COOPER,
Secretary.
C. E. GRIFFIN,
Treasurer.
C. H. MCKEE,
Master.
CITY OF NEW ORLEANS, BORGEAN,
MICHIGAN,
L. C. MARSH,
Capt. Master.
W. H. WHITNEY,
Capt. Master.

OFFICE 73 CHARTRES STREET.

BY TELEGRAPH.

New Orleans Bee.

Summary of the Latest News.

Washington Intelligence.

Miscellaneous Matters.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Paris, May 12.—The Communists claim victory, and deny the reports of some that Port Vauzelles was taken by the Communists at the point of the bayonet.

The League and the French have been sent to the trade and war ports daily to Bay St. Louis, Pau, Castelnau, Montauban, Orléans, Lyons, and Biarritz. To Paris, to Versailles, weekly. Passage to all landing fifty cents. See advertisement of Messrs. Charles A. Whitney & Co., agents of the Morgan Line, in another column.

London, May 12.—The famous waders have put on their summer dress in preparation for a large number of visitors. The various boarding houses are rapidly filling up. Lord's acquired, Maurice Gottheil, and his wife, caterers for the entertainment of his guests are well known to many of our readers. They have made arrangements to accommodate all our friends who visit the coast provides a better table than Marcotte, whom we commend to our readers. The bathing and fishing are superb at Peppercorn.

Paris, May 12.—The State Committee of the Foreign Legion, Dr. James O. Noyes, President, has written to the public through our advertising columns that they have appointed Mr. Edward Gottlieb, their agent, to proceed to Europe for the purpose of furthering their migration to Louisiana, particularly from Alsace and Lorraine. Mr. Gottlieb can be seen at the office of the Comptoir de Commerce street, daily, from 10 a.m. until his departure. Planters and others in want of laborers, would do well to consult him.

The steamer will run to-day and to-morrow at 8 a.m. Canal street, at 12 m., 1 p.m., and 3 p.m.

Books for subscription to the capital stock of the company are open at G. L. Laughlin and 175 Common street.

BESIEGED FOR ARISTS IN FRANCE.—We publish on the French side the programme of the Opera House at the Théâtre des Champs-Elysées, on Saturday evening, May 13, for the benefit of the Association of Dramatic Artists in France who have been forced to leave the country as a consequence of the war. The principal artistes will take part in performances of the evenings. Madame Malibert, who has kindly volunteered her services for the occasion. Selections from "Mignon," "Charles VI," and "Faust," will also be given.

Tickets of admission can be obtained at the box-office of the Opera House.

The Shakespeare Club announces a performance at the St. Charles Theatre on Monday evening, May 23. The play of "Love's Labour's Lost" has been selected for the occasion.

We acknowledge the courtesy of the club, sending us cards of admission.

IMPORTE TO COAST PLACES.—On and after Saturday, the 13th inst., steamers for France and England will sail from the New Orleans Watering Places, going and coming. On the steamer France will make extensive trips to St. Louis and Pass Christian, leaving on the 13th inst. A train from Pontchartrain Road, New Orleans, in time to connect with the early train leaving Lake End on Monday morning.

TO SEE AND BE SEEN.—The ICF King Reception at 4, New Orleans, on Saturday evening, May 13, from 9 p.m. to 11 p.m. Water is frozen in it from the best houses produced. It is the only refrigerator that is a preserver of food for an infinite time.

I F TO SEE AND BE SEEN.—See "I F TO SEE AND BE SEEN."

Europe, France, and also small steamer.

The Marquis of Hailstone advocated a protection for the protection of life and property.

He also proposed the formation of a local suspension of the war.

He was the first to make this proposal before the treaty was signed.

A sample opportunity for a fall conference was expressed at Versailles.

Washington, May 13.—It is understood the sub-committee of 7 of the ottage Washington, will be in session to-day to take testimony.

The State committee of Foreign Relations, made at Washington, had not yet reached, while the crown advised him to remain in Paris. He promised to be back before the treaty was signed.

A general opportunity for a fall conference was expressed at Versailles.

England, May 13.—Lord Brougham, born in 1778, France, 122, Ireland, 1799.

WATERHORN REPORT.

Washington, May 13.—Synopsis of the pressure and remainder remaining on the weather on the Pacific coast. The barometer is rising on Lake Superior, and northward, in what manner they can be measured, and friend and loyalty to its empire.

Verona, May 6.—The tide does not prevail during the night at Key West, Fla., and from the 1st to the 10th.

The steamer France arrested.

London, May 13.—The Standard of this evening has a dispatch assuring that the British army could go strong, and the Veronese army, that would.

London, May 13.—An emigrant train five children were killed, two wounded.

The sister's charity card, the wounded at their hospital.

London, May 13.—The American Minister gave a banquet to-day in honor of the British Ambassador, and also recently first Lord of the Admiralty.

FROM HAVANA.

London, May 13.—The English steamer Sagittarius, having been driven ashore during a hurricane in October, has been repaired.

Mr. Lange, the second officer of the German steamer Koln, who was stabbed by an Englishman, died yesterday by an Englishman.

The steamer France was not an excellent opportunity to establish a new Government and establish a new Assembly.

The steamer France.

Dimensions have been of great occurrence in the Assembly of late, and the steamer France has been impeded by the policy of the Government.

These dimensions have been of various measures. Of these facts Gambetta was not fully satisfied, and he considered it an excellent opportunity to establish a new Assembly and establish a new Government and establish a new Assembly.

The steamer France.

The steamer France.