STATIONS, EVENTS, AND ROSTER OF OFFICERS, ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOURTH REGIMENT, NEW YORK INFANTRY.

FIELD AND STAFF.

Muster-roll for—	Date.	Station.	Events.
M. I. roll	Nov. 19, '62	Newport News, Va ...	Left Camp Scott, Staten Island, Nov. 6; arrived at Newport News, Va., Nov. 9, '62. Mustered into service and consolidated with the 155th Regiment, Col. McMahon, on the 19th day of Nov., '62, and was mustered into the United States service on that date as the 164th Regiment New York Volunteers. Left Newport News, Va., Dec. 29, '62, and arrived at Suffolk, Va., Dec. 30, '62.
Nov. and Dec., '62..	Dec. 31, '62	Suffolk, Va
Jan. and Feb., '63..	Feb. 28, '63do	The regiment formed under command of Colonel Gibbs (acting brigadier-general), 130th New York Volunteers, which went out on an armed reconnaissance Jan. 8, '63, and marched to Carsville, Isle Wight County, Va., and through the enemy's country to Summertown, Va.; then returned to Windsor, and then to Suffolk, Va., being absent two days, and having marched some 67 miles, meeting no resistance. Two companies, B and F, forming part of an expedition which left Suffolk, Va., and encountering General Pryor, then in command of the Confederate forces, forced him to battle at the deserted house on the Franklin road, and drove him back to Blackwater. This took place Jan. 30, '63. The Union troops were under command of Brig. Gen. M. Corcoran.
Special muster, Apr. 10, '63.	Apr. 10, '63do	A portion of this regiment formed parts of an armed reconnaissance under the command of its colonel, J. P. McMahon. It left camp at 2 a. m. on the morning of the 15th instant and encountered a regiment of the enemy's infantry (17th Virginia) on the Edenton road, about 4 miles from camp, compelling it to retreat, and capturing 5 prisoners and the entire camp equipage of the regiment. On the afternoon of the 24th instant the entire regiment formed a portion of a large reconnoitering party, under the command of Brigadier-General Corcoran, and marched from camp at 1 p. m., taking its position in the brigade. When arriving a short distance outside of our cavalry pickets it was ordered to report to Colonel Foster, and under his instructions advanced and occupied the rifle-pits of the enemy, remaining there during a sharp engagement, in which the regiment had 15 men wounded, one of whom died the following day.
Mar. and Apr., '63..	Apr. 20, '63do
May and June, '63..	June 30, '63do	This regiment left camp at 3 30 a. m. on the 4th of May, in company with other troops, in pursuit of the retreating enemy; some prisoners (stragglers) captured; no engagement; returned to camp same evening; marched 30 miles. May 27, formed part of a force protecting working party engaged

May and June, '63..	June 30, '63	Suffolk, Va	in destroying Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad between Blackwater and Suffolk. Marched to a point distant about 8 miles from camp; returned the afternoon of May 30. In pursuance of orders left camp at 10 a. m. on the 12th instant, forming part of an expedition to Franklin and other points on Blackwater River; were engaged on the 16th instant as skirmishers on the banks of the river for six hours, during which time had 12 men wounded. Returned to camp the evening of the 18th instant after marching about 125 miles.
July and Aug., '63..	Aug. 31, '63	Centreville, Va	The regiment left camp at Julian Creek, Va., on the evening of July 14, 1863, and embarked on board the George Peabody, United States transport, at Portsmouth, Va., the same evening; sailed for Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th, where we arrived about noon on the 16th; encamped on the Virginia side of Long Bridge. On the 18th left for Centreville; stopped at Springfield Station two nights. On the morning of the 20th reached Fairfax C. H., where we encamped until the 22d; then left for Centreville, where we reached the same day, and encamped, in which encampment we still remain. This regiment left camp on the morning of the 4th Aug. on a reconnoitering expedition, visiting Fairfax C. H., Dranesville, Frying Pan, and other places on that route; returned to camp on the evening of the 6th of Aug., 1863. On the evening of the 7th a detachment from this regiment went out on a reconnoitering party, under Colonel McMahon, through the surrounding country, and returned to camp on the morning of the 8th Aug.
Sept. and Oct., '63..	Oct. 31, '63	Alexandria, Va	This regiment left Centreville, Va., at 4 a. m. on the 25th of Sept. for Alexandria, Va., on detached service to report to Brigadier-General Briggs, superintendent for the removal of drafted men to the Army of the Potomac. The regiment arrived in Alexandria same afternoon, and has been engaged guarding drafted men to the several regiments they are assigned to in the Army of the Potomac, and which duty it is at present performing.
Nov. and Dec., '63..	Dec. 31, '63	Fairfax C. H., Va.....	This regiment was near Alexandria, Va., at the last muster, on detached service, under command of Brigadier-General Briggs, and was engaged guarding drafted men to the Army of the Potomac; left Alexandria Nov. 17 at 8 p. m., with orders to report to Brigadier-General Corcoran, at Fairfax C. H., Va., which place it arrived at 4 a. m. the 18th, and has been engaged doing picket duty and scouting since then.
Jan. and Feb., '64..	Feb. 29, '64	Sangster's Station, Va.	This regiment was at Fairfax C. H., Va., at the time of last muster. Left there the morning of Jan. 17, and arrived at Sangster's Station, Va., same afternoon. Engaged since then doing picket duty and building block houses at four different points on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad between Fairfax and Devereux Stations.
Mar. and Apr., '64..	May 3, '64do	Since last muster this regiment has been engaged scouting after guerrillas, doing picket duty and building block-houses on the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad between Devereux and Fairfax Stations. Left camp Apr. 28 at noon on a scout for the Blue Ridge Mountains; returned at 12 o'clock the night of May 1, after marching about ninety (90) miles. Being marching Apr. 30, not mustered for pay until May 3, to take effect the regular date of muster, April 30.
