

ERRATA SHEET

KIMURA SUMMATION -- N-11

(Corrected)

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15 . a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397-8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: "a."
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	a. 3348,	add: been. b. 3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19 . a.	KIM-19 . b. add; a. Tr. 31,754 31,808 31,673 a.
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	necessary.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20 . a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

(OVER)

P.33, KIM-67, end	on this document	on this document nor Exh. 873
P.36, footnote, KIM-72	a. Tr. 31,695	a. Tr. 31,695; Exh. 3354; Tr. 31693
P.37, footnote, KIM-73	a. b.	a. Tr. 31,817 b. Tr. 31,817
P.37, KIM-75, end	a. Protocol.	a. Protocol. He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act. b.
P.37, footnote KIM-75		add: b. Tr. 36,414
P.40, KIM-79, line 4-6	Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after KIMURA resigned.	delete
P.42, footnote KIM-80	b. Exh. 1962	b. Exh. 3049
P.49, footnote KIM-89		add: d. Exh. 3355; Tr. 31700
P.76, KIM-129, line 8	in paragraph 70	in paragraph 58
P.82-B, KIM-139-B, line 3 from end	10 April 1943	11 March 1943
P.82-C, footnote KIM-139-B	c. Tr. 36,421	c. Exh. 3369, par. 9. Tr. 31,816
P.83, KIM-140, last line	paragraph 97	paragraph 96
P.83, KIM-140, last line	of this summation.	add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order. b.
P.83, footnote KIM-140		add: b. Exh. 3364, par 8 Exh. 3369, par 8 Tr. 14,385, see KIM-125-26 of this summation
P.85, footnote KIM-142	c. Tr. 36,497	c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

(Corrected)

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763.
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15 . a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397- .8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as "a."
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: been. b.
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	a. 3348,	3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19 . a.	KIM-19 . b. add: a. Tr. 31,754 31,808 31,673 a.
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	necessary.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20 . a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

P.33, KIM-67, end	on this document	on this document nor Exh. 873
P.36, footnote, KIM-72	a. Tr. 31,695	a. Tr. 31,695; Exh. 3354; Tr. 31693
P.37, footnote, KIM-73	a. b.	a. Tr. 31,817 b. Tr. 31,817
P.37, KIM-75, end	a. Protocol.	a. Protocol. He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act. ^{b.}
P.37, footnote KIM-75		add: b. Tr. 36,414
P.40, KIM-79, line 4-6	Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after FIMURA resigned.	delete
P.42, footnote KIM-80	b. Exh. 1962	b. Exh. 3049
P.49, footnote KIM-89		add: d. Exh. 3355; Tr. 31700
P.76, KIM-129, line 8	in paragraph 70	in paragraph 58
P.82-B, KIM-139-B, line 3 from end	10 April 1943	11 March 1943
P.82-C, footnote KIM-139-B	c. Tr. 36,421	c. Exh. 3369, par. 9 Tr. 31,816
P.83, KIM-140, last line	paragraph 97	paragraph 96
P.83, KIM-140, last line	of this summation.	add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order. ^{b.}
P.83, footnote KIM-140		add: b. Exh. 3364, par 8 Exh. 3369, par 8 Tr. 14,385, see KIM-125-26 of this summation
P.85, footnote KIM-142	c. Tr. 36,497	c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

ERRATA SHEET

KIMURA SUMMATION -- N-11

Corrected

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15. a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397-8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as "a."
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: been.
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	a. 3348,	b. 3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19. a.	KIM-19. b. add: a. Tr. 31,754 31,808 31,673
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	necessary.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20. a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

(OVER)

P.33, KIM-67, end	on this document	on this document nor Exh. 873
P.36, footnote, KIM-72	a. Tr. 31,695	a. Tr. 31,695; Exh. 3354; Tr. 31693
P.37, footnote, KIM-73	a. b.	a. Tr. 31,817 b. Tr. 31,817
P.37, KIM-75, end	Protocol.	Protocol. He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act. b.
P.37, footnote KIM-75		add; b. Tr. 36,414
P.40, KIM-79, line 4-6	Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after KIMURA resigned.	delete
P.42, footnote KIM-80	b. Exh. 1962	b. Exh. 3049
P.49, footnote KIM-89		add; d. Exh. 3355; Tr. 31700
P.76, KIM-129, line 8	in paragraph 70	in paragraph 58
P.82-B, KIM-139-B, line 3 from end	10 April 1943	11 March 1943
P.82-C, footnote KIM-139-B	c. Tr. 36,421	c. Exh. 3369, par. 9 Tr. 31,816
P.83, KIM-140, last line	paragraph 97	paragraph 96
P.83, KIM-140, last line	of this summation.	add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order. b.
P.83; footnote KIM-140		add: b. Exh. 3364, par 8 Exh. 3369, par 8 Tr. 14,385, see KIM-125-26 of this summation
P.85, footnote KIM-142	c. Tr. 36,497	c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

ERRATA SHEET

KIMURA SUMMATION -- N-11

(corrected)

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15. a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397-8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as "a."
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: been.
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	a. 3348,	b. 3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19. a.	KIM-19. b. add: a. Tr. 31,754 31,808 31,673
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	a. necessary.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20. a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

/ (OVER)

P.33,KIM-67, end	on this document	on this document nor Exh. 873
P.36, footnote,KIM-72	a. Tr. 31,695	a. Tr. 31,695; Exh. 3354;Tr.31693
P.37,footnote,KIM-73	a. b.	a. Tr. 31,817 b. Tr. 31,817
P.37,KIM-75,end	Protocol.	Protocol. He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act. ^{b.}
P.37, footnote KIM-75		add: b. Tr. 36,414
P.40,KIM-79,line 4-6	Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after KIMURA resigned.	delete
P.42, footnote KIM-80	b. Exh. 1962	b. Exh. 3049
P.49, footnote KIM-89		add:d. Exh. 3355; Tr. 31700
P.76,KIM-129,line 8	in paragraph 70	in paragraph 58
P.82-B,KIM-139-B, line 3 from end	10 April 1943	11 March 1943
P.82-C,footnote KIM-139-B	c. Tr. 36,421	c. Exh. 3369, par. 9 Tr. 31,816
P.83,KIM-140,last line	paragraph 97	paragraph 96
P.83,KIM-140,last line	of this summation.	add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order. ^{b.}
P.83,footnote KIM-140		add: b. Exh. 3364,par 8 Exh. 3369,par 8 Tr. 14,385, see KIM-125-26 of this summation
P.85,footnote KIM-142	c. Tr. 36,497	c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

(corrected)

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15 . a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397-8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: been. "a."
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	a. 3348,	b. 3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19 . a.	KIM-19 . b. add: a. Tr. 31,754 31,808 31,673
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	necessary. a.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20 . a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

P.33, KIM-67, end	on this document	on this document nor Exh. 873
P.36, footnote, KIM-72	a. Tr. 31,695	a. Tr. 31,695; Exh. 3354; Tr. 31693
P.37, footnote, KIM-73	a. b.	a. Tr. 31,817 b. Tr. 31,817
P.37, KIM-75, end	Protocol.	Protocol. He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act.
P.37, footnote KIM-75		add: b. Tr. 36,414
P.40, KIM-79, line 4-6	Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after KIMURA resigned.	delete
P.42, footnote KIM-80	b. Exh. 1962	b. Exh. 3049
P.49, footnote KIM-89		add: d. Exh. 3355; Tr. 31700
P.76, KIM-129, line 8	in paragraph 70	in paragraph 58
P.82-B, KIM-139-B, line 3 from end	10 April 1943	11 March 1943
P.82-C, footnote KIM-139-B	c. Tr. 36,421	c. Exh. 3369, par. 9 Tr. 31,816
P.83, KIM-140, last line	paragraph 97	paragraph 96
P.83, KIM-140, last line	of this summation.	add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order.
P.83, footnote KIM-140		add: b. Exh. 3364, par 8 Exh. 3369, par 8 Tr. 14,385, see KIM-125-26 of this summation
P.85, footnote KIM-142	c. Tr. 36,497	c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

ERRATA SHEET

KIMURA SUMMATION -- N-11

Corrected

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15 . a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397-8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: been. "a"
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	a. 3348,	b. 3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19 . a.	KIM-19 . b. add: a. Tr. 31,754 31,808. 31,673
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	necessary. a.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20 . a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

/ (OVER)

P.33, KIM-67, end

on this document

on this document nor
Exh. 873

P.36, footnote, KIM-72

a. Tr. 31,695

a. Tr. 31,695;
Exh. 3354; Tr. 31693

P.37, footnote, KIM-73

a.
b.

a. Tr. 31,817
b. Tr. 31,817

P.37, KIM-75, end

a.
Protocol.

a.
Protocol. He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act.
b.

P.37, footnote KIM-75

add; b. Tr. 36,414

P.40, KIM-79, line 4-6

Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after KIMURA resigned.

delete

P.42, footnote KIM-80

b. Exh. 1962

b. Exh. 3049

P.49, footnote KIM-89

add; d. Exh. 3355;
Tr. 31700

P.76, KIM-129, line 8

in paragraph 70

in paragraph 58

P.82-B, KIM-139-B, line 3 from end

10 April 1943

11 March 1943

P.82-C, footnote KIM-139-B

c. Tr. 36,421

c. Exh. 3369, par. 9.
Tr. 31,816

P.83, KIM-140, last line

paragraph 97

paragraph 96

P.83, KIM-140, last line

of this summation.

add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order.
b.

P.83, footnote KIM-140

add; b. Exh. 3364, par 8
Exh. 3369, par 8
Tr. 14,385,
see KIM-125-26
of this summation

P.85, footnote KIM-142

c. Tr. 36,497

c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

(Continued)

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763.
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15 . a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397-8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as "a."
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: been. b.
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	3348, a.	3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19 . a.	KIM-19 . b. add: a. Tr. 31,754 31,808 31,673 a.
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	necessary.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20 . a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

/ (OVER)

P.33, KIM-67, end	on this document	on this document nor Exh. 873
P.36, footnote, KIM-72	a. Tr. 31,695	a. Tr. 31,695; Exh. 3354; Tr. 31693
P.37, footnote, KIM-73	a. b.	a. Tr. 31,817 b. Tr. 31,817
P.37, KIM-75, end	a. Protocol.	a. Protocol. He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act.
P.37, footnote KIM-75		add: b. Tr. 36,414
P.40, KIM-79, line 4-6	Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after KIMURA resigned.	delete
P.42, footnote KIM-80	b. Exh. 1962	b. Exh. 3049
P.49, footnote KIM-89		add: d. Exh. 3355; Tr. 31700
P.76, KIM-129, line 8	in paragraph 70	in paragraph 58.
P.82-B, KIM-139-B, line 3 from end	10 April 1943	11 March 1943
P.82-C, footnote KIM-139-B	c. Tr. 36,421	c. Exh. 3369, par, 9 Tr. 31,816
P.83, KIM-140, last line	paragraph 97	paragraph 96
P.83, KIM-140, last line	of this summation.	add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order. b.
P.83, footnote KIM-140		add: b. Exh. 3364, par 8 Exh. 3369, par 8 Tr. 14,385, see KIM-125-26 of this summation
P.85, footnote KIM-142	c. Tr. 36,497	c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

Corrected

Page	Now Reading	Should Read
P.1, footnote KIM-1-A	Exh. 217146	Exh. 2; Tr. 17,146
P.5, KIM-8, line 13-15	as far as these authorities affect those outside of the Organizations under the War Ministry	delete
P.6, KIM-10, end		add: "b"
P.6, KIM-11, line 1	However,	Also,
P.6, footnote KIM-10		add: b. Tr. 31,763.
P.8, KIM-15, end		add: "a"
P.8, footnote		add: KIM-15 . a. Tr. 31719 31720 Exh. 3368 3351 Tr. 14397-8
P.9, KIM-17, line 4	as if	as
P.10, KIM-19, line 3		add: been. "a."
P.10, KIM-19, line 7	a. 3348,	b. 3348,
P.10, footnote KIM-19	KIM-19 . a.	KIM-19 . b. add: a. Tr. 31,754 31,808 31,673
P.10, KIM-20, line 5	necessary.	a. necessary.
P.10, footnote		add: KIM-20 . a. Tr. 31661 Tr. 31708
P.22, KIM-44, lines 5-11	It was customary for a large percentage of the matters under the jurisdiction of the personnel affairs bureau and the Military Affairs Bureau, especially political matters to be decided immediately by the Minister and the bureau directors after having conferences and	delete

(OVER)

P.33,KIM-67, end	on this document	on this document nor Exh. 873
P.36, footnote,KIM-72	a. Tr. 31,695	a. Tr. 31,695; Exh. 3354;Tr.31693
P.37,footnote,KIM-73	a. b.	a. Tr. 31,817 b. Tr. 31,817
P.37,KIM-75,end	Protocol. ^{a.}	Protocol. ^{a.} He also testified that he was politically responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act. ^{b.}
P.37, footnote KIM-75		add: b. Tr. 36,414
P.40,KIM-79,line 4-6	Also, the alleged false reply mentioned in Prosecution's answer to our motion to dismiss was made after KIMURA resigned.	delete
P.42, footnote KIM-80	b. Exh. 1962	b. Exh. 3049
P.49, footnote KIM-89		add:d. Exh. 3355; Tr. 31700
P.76,KIM-129,line 8	in paragraph 70	in paragraph 58
P.82-B,KIM-139-B, line 3 from end	10 April 1943	11 March 1943
P.82-C,footnote KIM-139-B	c. Tr. 36,421	c. Exh. 3369, par. 9 Tr. 31,816
P.83,KIM-140,last line	paragraph 97	paragraph 96
P.83,KIM-140,last line	of this summation.	add: Exh. 1992 is an example of a Vice Minister's Note by Order. ^{b.}
P.83,footnote KIM-140		add: b. Exh. 3364,par 8 Exh. 3369,par 8 Tr. 14,385, see KIM-125-26 of this summation
P.85,footnote KIM-142	c. Tr. 36,497	c. Tr. 36,497; see KIM-41 of this summation

Corrected

ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiations between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- Page KIM-28 -- Strike out: "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister!" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59: "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAYA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818) KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."
- .. Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

- Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.
- Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept. 1944:
"He also testified about the kind of treatment given to the British naval officers."
- Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)
- Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."
- (Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:
- "TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."
- Page KIM-81A -- Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."
- Page KIM-82A -- Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."
- Page KIM-86A -- Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."
- Page KIM-87 -- Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."
- Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".
- Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".

Corrected

ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiations between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- Page KIM-28 -- Strike out; "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister!" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59: "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818). KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."
- Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

- Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.
- Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept 1941
"He also testified about the kind of treatment given to the British naval officers."
- Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)
- Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."
- (Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:
- "TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."
- Page KIM-81A -- Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."
- Page KIM-82A -- Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."
- Page KIM-86A -- Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."
- Page KIM-87 -- Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."
- Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".
- Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".

Corrected
ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiations between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- Page KIM-28 -- Strike out: "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59: "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818) KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."

Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

Def. Doc. 2928

Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.

Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept. 1944:
"He also testified about the kind of treatment given to the British naval officers."

Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)

Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."

(Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:

"TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."

Page KIM-81A -- Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."

Page KIM-82A -- Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."

Page KIM-86A -- Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."

Page KIM-87 -- Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."

Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".

Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".

corrected
ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiations between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- Page KIM-28 -- Strike out: "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59: "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAYA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818) KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."
Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.

Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept. 1941:
"He also testified about the KIMURA given to the British naval officers."

Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)

Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."

(Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:

"TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."

Page KIM-81A -- Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."

Page KIM-82A -- Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."

Page KIM-86A -- Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."

Page KIM-87 -- Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."

Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".

Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".

Corrected
ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiations between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- Page KIM-28 -- Strike out: "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59: "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818) KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."
- Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

Def. Doc. 2928

- Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.
- Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept. 1944:
"He also testified about the kind of treatment given to the British..."
- Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)
- Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."

(Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:

"TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."
- Page KIM-81A -- Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."
- Page KIM-82A -- Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."
- Page KIM-86A -- Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."
- Page KIM-87 -- Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."

Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".
- Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".

Corrected
ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiations between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- Page KIM-28 -- Strike out: "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59: "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAYA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818) KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."

Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

- Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.
- Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept. 1944:
"He also testified about the kind of treatment given to the British naval . . ."
- Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)
- Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."
- (Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:
- "TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."
- Page KIM-81A -- Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."
- Page KIM-82A -- Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."
- Page KIM-86A -- Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."
- Page KIM-87 -- Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."
- Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".
- Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".

Corrected
ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiation between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- ~~Page KIM-28 --~~ Strike out; "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister!" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59: "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818) KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."
Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

- Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.
- Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept. 1944:
"He also testified about the kind of treatment given to the British naval officers."
- Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)
- Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."
- (Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:
- "TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."
- Page KIM-81A -- Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."
- Page KIM-82A -- Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."
- Page KIM-86A -- Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."
- Page KIM-87 -- Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."
- Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".
- Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".

Cancelled

ERRATA SHEET

Def. Doc. 2928
N-11

SUMMATION OF
KIMURA, Heitaro

- Page KIM-27 -- add at bottom of the page: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu testified that the employment of POW's in the construction work of the Burma-Siam Railway was decided through direct negotiations between the Chief of the General Staff and the Minister of War. The construction order was drafted and issued by the General Staff Office. (Tr. 31,816)
- Page KIM-28 -- Strike out: "was that of an aide to the Navy Minister" at the bottom of the page.
- Page KIM-29 -- Add to the end of Par. KIM-59; "KIMURA's position as a Councillor on the Planning Board was explained in Paragraph 42-A of this summation. There is no evidence that KIMURA did anything as such Councillor."
- Page KIM-35 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-70: "TANAKA, Tadakatsu, testified that KIMURA did not support the German-Japanese Military Alliance. (Tr. 31,818) KRETSCHMER said that he observed nothing that indicated that Ott was truthful when he said that KIMURA's position had been enhanced when TOJO became Prime Minister. (Tr. 31,657)
- Page KIM-36 -- Add to the end of Paragraph KIM-72: "General OYAMA also said that further consultation was made with the Legislative Bureau concerning the legality of the Prisoner of War Punishment Act. (Tr. 31,695)
- Page KIM-37 -- Add to end of Par. KIM-75: "He also testified that he was politically and administratively responsible for matters relating to the promulgation of the POW Punishment Act."
- Page KIM-40 -- Paragraph KIM-79, delete the first sentence ending with "after KIMURA resigned."
"Add to the bottom of Page 40: "See also TOJO's affidavit and YAMAZAKI's affidavit concerning this matter."
- Page KIM-43 -- Add after the first sentence in Par. KIM-81: "TOJO when interrogated by the Prosecution stated that he permitted POW's to be worked in factories by Kamamura." (Tr. 14,595)

Page KIM-62 -- Strike the sentence beginning on Page 62 and ending on Page 63.

Add on Page 63, line 4, after Sept- 1944:
"He also testified about the kind of treatment given to the British naval officers."

Page KIM-66 -- Add at the end of Par. KIM-112: "SAKURAI testified that no retaliatory measures were to be taken against those who had rebelled among the Burmese National Army. Those who surrendered were to be protected, so KIMURA ordered". (Tr. 27,561)

Page KIM-81 -- Add to the bottom of the page: "Please remember that comparatively few protests were received before KIMURA resigned. It is true that after he resigned many protests were received."

(Then read from Page 82-C) as follows:

~~"TOJO testified that the only complaints that ever came to my notice were in connection with food and so forth. Atrocities were not brought to my notice at all. I am astounded at the truth regarding atrocities that is now being revealed in the newspapers."~~

Page KIM-81A -- ~~Delete Line 16 and 17, "We have already shown that KIMURA could not discharge a bureau chief."~~

Page KIM-82A -- ~~Add to end of Par. KIM-139: "The POW Punishment Act providing that POW's would be permitted to pledge that they would not attempt to escape and would receive certain benefits in return was passed after KIMURA resigned."~~

Page KIM-86A -- ~~Add after "in command" in line 11: "We wish to call your attention to the fact that most of the atrocities which occurred near Rangoon were after the Headquarters had moved to Moulmein in April."~~

Page KIM-87 -- ~~Add after POW camps in Line 5: "and unlawful acts committed by Japanese troops."~~

Delete in Par. KIM-145 the first 3 sentences, ending with "Prime Minister".

Page KIM-90 -- Delete the last paragraph in KIM-146, beginning with "Neither".