

WITH THE "Y" IN FRANCE

DR. WILLISFORD ENJOYS HUT WORK BACK OF BATTLE LINE

We are indebted to Mrs. E. H. Willisford for the following extracts from letters from Dr. Willisford, who is a Y. M. C. A. secretary in France. His parishioners and other friends in Glendale will be glad for this word from him.

Somewhere in France,
Feb. 12, 1918.

I very much enjoy the "Hut" work. Recently at one o'clock in the morning our men all left us for a march of eight miles to take train for somewhere along the line. They may come back and some may not.

Another secretary and myself made the march with them (we rode back). It was a new and unique experience—one that grips your heart, especially when it is your first experience.

I expect most any day to be changed to another Hut. Such is life in the army. I am really enjoying the work and the experience. I came prepared for any experience and am having quite a variety. The work is everything, from cleaning the Hut to conducting religious meetings. We live in one end of our Hut—a room 16x24 serves as our canteen (or country store), living room, kitchen, bath and dining room.

At the first Hut we ate at the Hut, but here I go to the mess hall. We have good food and good variety, served army style of course. We can supplement our food by getting other things. To night we had soup, roast beef, boiled potatoes, bread, cocoa, rice pudding and cake. This was rather extra as two of the boys and Mr. A. Lincoln had a birthday today.

I am surprised that I do not get more lonesome, partly due to being so busy. I am trying to see the funny side of things. That helps a good deal.

Feb. 18. I have been doing work today that tires not men's souls but their muscles. Have been helping unload freight cars, supplies for the Y. M. C. A. It has been heavy work but I have come through all O. K., but tired. I am to help in this and the warehouse for a few days. Will be back in the Hut work soon. I like that best, but one has to do everything over here. We all feel that we will be qualified for any and all positions when we return.

Of course we see a good deal of movement of troops though we are some miles from the active front. We hear the sound of the heavy guns. Some of the secretaries that I have been with have been sent forward. My time will not come till later. A surprising thing is that we Y secretaries are all anxious to go to the trenches.

Recently I visited the birthplace of Joan of Arc. It was interesting to go over such historic ground. I learn tonight that I am to go in the morning to a new point for a few

PINK LUNCHEON

MRS. R. D. WHITE ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT OF HER DAUGHTER, AILEEN FREEMAN

Mrs. Richardson D. White, of 1431 West Third street, entertained today with a pink luncheon for her daughter, Miss Aileen Freeman, at which covers were laid for fourteen. A surprise was provided for the guests in a dainty place card at each plate, decorated with a roguish Cupid and bearing the bracketed names of Miss Freeman and Smith MacMullin, fiancée of the honoree and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. MacMullin of 1560 Sycamore avenue, this city. In the course of the function announcement was made that the wedding would take place early in June, the bridal month. Pink rosebuds centered the table, which was beautiful in all its appointments, and the color scheme was continued in the pink carnations with which the reception parlor was decorated.

Heien MacMullin, sister of the happy man, has been the chum of Miss Freeman since childhood, and intimately associated as the young people have been it is not surprising that each has come to appreciate the good qualities of the other and that friendship has ripened into love. Such long acquaintance is a good foundation for a happy home. Mr. MacMullin is in the government service in the ship yards at San Pedro.

Guests at the luncheon besides the hostess and her daughter were Misses Helen MacMullin, Winifred Jones, Margaret Gregg, Catherine Lord, Ardis Heisler, Dorothy Weed, Francis Peckham, Frae Morse, Helen Harden, Mesdames Morse Freeman, A. M. Lord, and W. P. MacMullin.

WOMAN'S LAND ARMY

MRS. WILLIAM RICHEL OF GLENDALE HEADS FIRST WORKING UNIT AT ELSNORE

In the first field unit of the Woman's Land Army of America, a national organization with headquarters in New York City, and which has opened one of its first branches on the west coast in Los Angeles, is Mrs. William Richel, who has been spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. R. G. Hollingsworth of 840 Dryden street. Mrs. Richel is the wife of a well-known marine painter of New York, one of whose pictures is in the famous collection recently given to the City of Los Angeles by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and placed in the Exposition Park gallery.

Mrs. Richel has long been thoroughly convinced of the necessity for individual responsibility and effort on the part of each citizen of America in helping to win the war. She has especially felt the need of realization on the part of women of the active part they must take in actual food production as well as conservation. With 600,000 men called from the agricultural work of the nation last year for military service and thousands more to be taken this season, the farm-labor problem has come to be one of very serious moment. In England women took up this burden in an organized way from the beginning of the war, and so important did the labor of their organization become that the government has taken over the direct management of its work.

Feeling that a similar situation was to be met in this country, and especially in California where the care of fruit and vegetables during the summer season is of the utmost importance if these products are to be saved for the canneries, Mrs. Richel went quietly to work several months ago. She registered for and finally completed a full course in a Los Angeles tractor school.

Her plan at the beginning was to buy a tractor when she had reached the proficiency in handling the work which would warrant starting out on contract work. She expected to give the profit of her labors to the Red Cross.

This part of the plan she has not altered, though the manner of her earning has been somewhat modified through her learning of the establishment in Los Angeles of the Woman's Land Army of America. This organization, of which Mrs. Myrtle Francis Sheppard is the chairman for California, grew out of the combined efforts of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association of which Mrs. Marie Ingersoll, editor of Vogue, is national president, and the National Association of Garden clubs in co-operation with the Na-

LUCKY FISHERMEN

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hall and Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Young, who went to Big Bear Lake to fish last Monday, returned this (Saturday) morning and proudly report that they "got the limit." They went and came by the Mill Creek road, which they found in fair condition, although pretty soft at the turns. They are enthusiastic about the outing, which seems to have been altogether delightful. Though the nights were cold, the mid-day temperatures were balmy. They had a cottage at Camp Eureka, where they were joined about the middle of the week by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby and Dr. R. W. Lusby, who occupied a cottage near them and who planned to get back to Glendale this evening. When coming through San Bernardino on the return trip they met Messrs. J. S. Thompson and C. J. Wolf en route for the lake, where they expected to spend the week-end.

SYCAMORE CANYON ROAD

Residents of the district to be assessed for the opening and widening of Sycamore Canyon road have been considerably agitated over the expense of the improvement which, owing to a typographical error in a published statement, was made to appear $138,160 to be divided among 1400 different assessments, when it should have been $38,160 to be thus distributed. In other words, the figures quoted were $100,000 too much. The damages awarded for right of way, etc., aggregate about $35,933 and the court expenses will be in the neighborhood of $2200. As explained by City Clerk Sherer, there will be no excessive burden on any taxpayer and the heaviest assessments will in most cases be largely offset by damages awarded. The increase in property values will make the improvement very much worth while.

BOMBARD NORTH FLANDERS FRONT

GERMANS OPEN ATTACK ON ENTIRE ALLIED LINE FROM LOCRE TO SOUTH OF YPRES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, May 4.—General Haig reports that the Germans opened an intense bombardment along practically all of the north half of the Flanders battle front this morning from Locre to south of Ypres. The French took prisoners in a raid near Locre. The British improved their positions north of the Hinges.

PREPARE FOR SWEEP ON YPRES

ARTILLERY ACTIVITY AT HAZEBROUCK AND YPRES SECTORS INDICATES COMING BOMBARDMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
The Germans began a heavy bombardment of two distinct sectors on the Flanders front this morning, apparently preparing for a simultaneous drive against Hazebrouck and Ypres. The area of artillery activity indicates the attack as it is developing will sweep westward against Hazebrouck and a flanking thrust northward against Ypres. The sector before Hazebrouck which is under fire was firmly held by the French under former attacks. There is a four-mile stretch between these two points.

AMERICANS TAKE PRISONERS

U. S. PATROL SURPRISE ENEMY MACHINE GUN POSITIONS AND CAPTURE REPLACEMENT TROOPS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 4.—Surprising two German machine gun positions and finding another in a shell hole, an American patrol captured their first prisoners on the big battle front last night. The prisoners taken were replacement troops, which indicated that the enemy is making changes in their plan of attack. Minor patrol encounters are reported. The American trenches are being intermittently shelled.

AMERICAN BOYS TAKE GERMAN TRENCHES

(By Henry Wood, United Press Staff Correspondent)
ON THE FRENCH FRONT, May 4.—American infantry have penetrated the German third line trenches in the Lorraine sector. Three hundred Americans conducted the operations. This was the first attack made with exclusive American artillery support.

SEDITION BILL BEFORE SENATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, May 4.—Warning that the passing of the pending sedition bill will "breed discontent and make a great people timorous and fearful" Senator Johnson in the Senate today termed the bill "an attempt to padlock America's lips." "Any effort to stifle the press or speech is a blow to the men in France," Senator Johnson said. The bill imposes a heavy fine and imprisonment on the person abusing the government, the army or navy, or using false rumors, and gives the Postmaster General power to decide what press matter shall go through the mails. The Senate will vote on the bill late today.

SOLDIERS' SENTENCES COMMUTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, May 4.—The four American soldiers sentenced to death for sleeping at their posts will not die, President Wilson decided today. The youngest of the four is fourteen years of age and the oldest is twenty. Two of these were granted full pardon and two were sentenced to three years' penal servitude at Fort Leavenworth.

SMILEAGE CAMPAIGN

COMMITTEE PREPARES TO SELL GLENDALE'S QUOTA NEXT WEEK

The committee in charge of the local Smileage Book sale campaign headed by J. N. McGillis, who was commissioned from Washington to conduct the campaign here held an enthusiastic meeting at the City Hall Friday evening. Besides Mr. McGillis there were present S. C. Packer, vice-chairman; R. L. Kent, secretary; W. R. Phelon, division chairman; Roger Brown, entertainment chairman; and A. T. Cowan, publicity chairman.

Everyone knows what the Smileage plan is. It has the sanction of the government and is a plan to provide clean, high-class entertainment for the boys in the training camps and at the front. It has been demonstrated beyond a doubt that such provision not only keeps the boys from questionable places of amusement but adds to their efficiency as well.

The committee discussed the best method of disposing of Glendale's apportionment, which is 600 Smileage Books. It was thought best not to make a house to house canvass but to ask the various organizations and institutions to be responsible for the sale of the books. The following apportionment was made, the committee being confident that the city's quota could easily be disposed of in this way. The campaign begins Monday and lasts one week.

TRIBUNE STORY FALSE

The Los Angeles Tribune of this Saturday, morning, May 4th carried a story which was false from beginning to end. In glaring headlines it said that the First Methodist church of Glendale had refused the use of their building to the Glendale High School for school commencement exercises. The body of the article said a petition threatening the School Board had been circulated and implying that the Methodists had circulated the petition.

Now the readers of the News all know that such statements are absolutely false. As matters really stand there is a contention on the part of the Catholics to sustain a narrow, sectarian teaching at the expense of the community, the School Board and the graduating class. The law appealed to by Father O'Neil in his contention has greater force against his position than against anything the School Board might do in securing the use of a building for the graduation exercises. The priest's claim is for the recognition of a sectarian teaching and the right of the Catholic church to enforce that claim on the school and the community. Surely this is teaching sectarianism in the public schools with a vengeance. During all the years the Protestant churches in Glendale have made no demands on the school authorities that they and the student body should recognize and conform to some petty, narrow, sectarian teaching.

The Methodist people of Glendale desire to work in harmony with every organization working for the betterment of humanity, but they can not permit falsehoods to be scattered broadcast, and desire that the citizens of Glendale and Southern California may know the facts.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE

A half dozen Sunday School experts are assisting the Christian Church in an Institute which began this afternoon and will continue to night and tomorrow afternoon. Divisional conferences on Primary, Junior and Intermediate work will be held at each session. How to teach Bible Geography, Missions, Story Telling and other phases of up-to-date Sunday School plans will be discussed by leaders. Sunday School workers of all the churches are invited. There will be no fee.

LIBERTY LOAN FIGURES

RETURNS AT GLENDALE HEADQUARTERS INDICATE TOTAL FOR THE CITY OF $275,000

At Liberty Loan headquarters in Glendale the atmosphere is charged with jubilant pride and enthusiasm, for the city has done itself proud and more than justified the confidence of the drive leaders. When all the subscriptions which had been received up to Friday night were summed up by expert accountants, they were found to make a grand total of $255,350. Vice-Chairman Lawshe and his fellow workers knew there were other reports to come in and by ten o'clock this morning subscriptions had been brought in which increased the total to $260,000. All the banks in Greater Glendale will be open this evening from 7 to 9 to receive the last subscriptions and Mr. Lawshe is confident that the close of the drive will find the city with a credit of $275,000, though the quota assigned it was but $112,000. In connection with this fine showing he states that more than 530 residents of Glendale are reported as having purchased bonds in Los Angeles or elsewhere, which means that the city has an additional credit which does not appear in the official figures. The total of $255,350 reported Friday night represented 204 individual purchases through local banks.

A detailed statement of the Glendale drive compiled by the Liberty Loan Committee will be published the early part of next week.

VISITS HEMET AND SAN JACINTO

Roy L. Kent, of Kent & Son, this city, returned Friday evening from a two days' visit to Hemet and San Jacinto, whither he went in response to summons to come and assist a joint reconstruction committee of the two towns in the drafting of building ordinances; for it has been decided that all business structures built there hereafter are to be of reinforced concrete, which will resist earthquakes. While there Mr. Kent had an opportunity to witness the wrecking of a wall pulled over by machine power and of which he secured a snap shot as it was in the act of falling. There was a slight tremor on Friday but, according to Mr. Kent, the people paid no attention to it as they are accustomed to such disturbances and have full confidence in the final stability of their cities. It is twenty years since they had a severe earthquake and some of the buildings which survived that are still standing.

Mr. Kent finds explanation of the earthquakes in the fact that it is a volcanic region, as shown by its red, flour-like soil, which seems to melt away under the action of water, but which is exceedingly fertile. He reports that the business men of San Jacinto and Hemet are going to work with the courage and optimism of the typical westerner to rebuild their cities in a substantial way, but that reconstruction can not begin until controlling building ordinances are in force and that will mean a delay of about thirty days. The frame buildings of the town, he says, suffered practically no damage.

NO DRAFT CALL

CALIFORNIA MAY BE OMITTED FROM MAY CALL FOR CLASS I MEN

No telegram announcing a general call for Class I men has been received as yet by the local Exemption Board, and from the statements published in Los Angeles dailies this morning, Chairman Lanterman thinks it is quite possible that California will be left out of the May call. The statements referred to which are published as emanating from the Secretary of War Baker are to the effect that "the call for a quarter of a million men during May goes to all states except California, Oregon and Nevada, which, with the District of Columbia, already have supplied so large a part of their quotas that it has been decided not to include them this time."

The Board has received a telegram relative to Voluntary Induction Call No. 254 in which it is asked to furnish one boiler maker or helper to report to the Commanding Officer of Engineers at Fort Benjamin Harrison. In obedience to this telegram, Arthur D. Akins of R. F. D. 11, Box 706, Los Angeles, who is a boiler maker, has been summoned to appear at Board headquarters on receipt of notification, prepared to respond to the call.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1918

FROM THE TRENCHES

The following letter from a soldier in France who is apparently up against the real thing, and which is addressed to his mother in Pasadena, has been furnished this paper for publication by W. B. Kirk of this city, a friend of the writer. The pictures referred to are beautiful little water colors, apparently studies of French landscapes.

Somewhere in France,
 Apr. 4, 1918.

My Dear Mother:

It seems strange you do not receive more letters than you do. I get yours all right and I have received every one of your packages, also the packages from others; but as your letters are not censored and mine are, it makes the difference perhaps, although I don't believe I have said anything that should not be said.

I sure have an awful time answering my letters. I have just twenty piled up in front of me now, and from now on I will have the afternoons to answer them in, as I have started working nights and do not get up until 12 o'clock. I have so many things to tell you and so many more things I want to tell you that I am not allowed to, that I don't believe I can remember anything.

Our company has just started receiving out-going letters, so I don't suppose you will have had a letter from me for some time when this reaches you.

I thought for a while I would be able to write nothing but trench cards, but we are allowed to write letters.

Sherman was wrong when he called war what he did, but if he couldn't find a better word I guess we will have to excuse him.

I am writing in an underground dugout, but that is not the best part of it. We have company. We call them "cuties." The French call them "toes-toes," but I guess the real name for them is just plain "crumbs." Then we have a larger but poorer fed companion. I think you and Ruth like them. They are rats. We have no name for them although we should, because they are so large. Just think of rats that are as large as a cat. Last night I was just going to sleep when I felt one crawl up my leg. He got about as far as between my knee and hip. I shook my leg a little and he turned and crawled down. His front legs were every bit of a foot from his hind ones. How I would love to be home and take a bath. Just think! I haven't had a hot shower or bath for two months and only one cold one when I changed my underwear. Of course I am speaking of baths I intended to take, not baths from the rain, for I have had many of them. But all they would do would be to wash the mud off me. Don't think I am complaining for I am not. After it is over we will look back and laugh at it. And don't worry for I never felt better in my life. I am gaining in weight all the time and I don't know whether it is weight of dirt or more flesh, but just the same the fellows say I look fatter. I don't know what it is unless it is the boom of the cannons and the scream of the shells. You always hear about the terrible booming of the cannons; but don't ever think THAT is bad. We know when we hear them go off they are no good any more, but it is the awful scream they make when they are coming or going over your head, there is no sound like it and it sends a thrill through you that a ghost might, if there were such a thing.

I have no ink so can not write with my pen. I hunted all through my things and finally found this dirty paper. It is all I have to write on so don't wonder that I use it.

I am sending you some paintings I found in a house in a deserted village. They are about the only thing I can send, but I thought you might live to have them as long as they came from a war-wrecked, deserted town "somewhere in France."

I received your and Ruth's letters dated March 4th and 5th respectively. Since I left Los Angeles I haven't had over 24 hours' leave and I don't expect one until it will have been a year at least.

Well, dear Mother, take good care of yourself and don't worry about me or anything else.

Your loving son,
 PRIVATE JOHN C. GILLHAM,
 Co. E., 117th U. S. Engineers.

NEW LOCATION SOUGHT

Owing to the intense heat which wilts and burns up the cut flowers and plants displayed in the window of the Red Cross Shop, the chairman of the floral department is seeking a new and cooler location. Any merchant willing to donate a store or half a store for this purpose is invited to communicate with Mrs. Woods, Glendale 394, or Red Cross Manager Lawshe, Glendale 1147. While awaiting a new location, the sale of plants and flowers will be discontinued. It is to be hoped that a few days, as this department within its seven weeks of activity has turned in $75 to the Red Cross. Any location not facing west would be considered. Perhaps some wealthy resident of Glendale would furnish money with which to clean up and decorate a place, for the workers of the floral department under the Glendale Garden Society, who are desirous of fitting up a dainty and artistic Red Cross flower room.

PIONEER THIMBLE CLUB

The Pioneer Thimble Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Pierre V. Potter at her attractive home, 1521 Pioneer Drive. Mrs. C. B. Morgan, who is visiting Mrs. Potter, was a guest of honor, and other special guests who supplemented the club membership were Mrs. Blake Franklin, Mrs. A. J. Shephard, Mrs. Sarah Van Dyke, Mrs. E. P. Fees of Monrovia, and Mrs. Thompson of Fort Collins, Colorado. A musical program of patriotic songs was given in the afternoon, during which the ladies were occupied with knitting and sewing. Roses of many colors in profusion furnished the beautiful floral decorations provided for the occasion, and refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. E. Bahrenberg of this city was hostess at the second of a series of garden parties which she is giving at her pretty home at 322 West Park avenue. Pritchard, assistant pastor, and Mrs. Pritchard, were guests of honor. Miss Edna Buisseret entertained with delightful piano numbers.

OLD-FASHIONED SHOWER

The social room of the Central Christian church was the scene of a very interesting and novel entertainment when on Thursday last the Ladies' Aid of that church gave an informal afternoon. Very becoming costumes of days gone by were worn and old-fashioned games were enjoyed as well as an old-time program. The social was in the form of a dish shower for the church banquet room and an abundance of useful articles was received. Refreshments were served and "a very pleasant time" was the verdict of all who participated.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

The birthday of Blake Franklin, of 1498 West Third street, this city, was delightfully observed by his parents with a family dinner party Friday evening at their home at 200 South Central avenue. The guest list included the Blake Franklin family, Miss Veta Franklin of Long Beach and Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker. Exquisite floral decorations composed of pink rosebuds centered the table, which was perfect in its appointments, and a dinner of several courses was served, followed by a social evening.

"Green Stockings," the play to be put on by the Seniors of Union High, will be given Thursday and Friday evenings, May 16th and 17th, and citizens who wish to see it, and they will be many, will do well to keep these dates in mind and make engagements accordingly.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Kroeck of Los Angeles will assist the choir in rendering the "Festival Te Deum No. 7," by Dudley Buck, at the West Glendale Methodist church next Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Kroeck are baritone and contralto soloists at the First M. E. church of Los Angeles.

Mrs. D. R. Jones of San Francisco and her granddaughter, Mrs. George Brown of Healdsburg, who have been spending the winter in Southern California, have returned from a sojourn at the beach to the home of Mrs. J. J. Davis of Damasco court for a final visit before leaving for their homes in the north.

Warner Grassell, writing from France to relatives under date of March 17, stated that he had participated in three battles up to that date. He is in the 117th Engineering Corps to which a number of Glendale boys belong. Warner was living with his grandmother, Mrs. Patterson, at 494 West Third street at the time he enlisted.

Friends of Lieut. Herbert K. Baisley, who has made his home with his aunt, Miss Mary Hohn, at 1545 Oak street, this city, will be interested to know that he is being transferred to the concentration camp at Dallas, Texas. He has been the guest of his aunt for a few days. He leaves tonight (Friday) for Dallas. He belongs to the Aviation Corps.

The many friends of Miss Margaret Imler of Palm Villa, Park avenue, are rejoicing over her return from the University. She arrived from Berkeley Tuesday. At the Imler home as a house guest is Mrs. Charles B. Oren of Colorado Springs, who has been spending the winter in Long Beach and Los Angeles and who returns to Colorado the first of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gamer, of Butte, Montana, old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Turck, were their guests on Tuesday. They drove their visitors through the San Fernando Valley, with which they were simply entranced, and Mrs. Turck says she was not surprised at their enthusiasm as the country is very lovely now.

Mrs. G. A. Rowe was hostess at a very pretty yellow luncheon given at her home at 516 South Orange street Thursday. Lovely yellow roses centered the beautifully appointed table at this function, which was the first of a series which she will give. Guests were Mrs. Vernon Cowser and her house guest, Mrs. Wynne, Mrs. S. G. Latta, Mrs. W. L. Andrews, Mrs. W. S. Wood, Mrs. W. J. Sanford and Miss Elizabeth Bohannon.

Sergeant Owen C. Emery, who has been spending a two-weeks' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery of 117 South Kenwood street, left Thursday evening for Camp Lewis. He will visit his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Smith at Berkeley for a few hours Friday between trains. He thoroughly enjoyed returning to the beautiful flowers and sunshine of Southern California and meeting his many friends and relatives here.

The great demand for Y. M. C. A. war workers has not affected the effective educational work done by the Los Angeles Young Men's Christian Association. Although twenty of its secretaries have volunteered for service in the home cantonments and European camps, the teaching force is as complete as ever. In fact, the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. schools are planning to train a larger number of young men than ever during the vacation period this summer. Classes will be conducted in bookkeeping, stenography, engineering, assaying, mining, wireless telegraphy and automobile operating, to meet the increasing demand for trained men for government and commercial service.

is carrying the risk on your life. If you will not let us assume that burden of uncertainty your family or your estate is taking chances. You can't escape that fact.

Are you willing that your wife and children shall carry your insurance? Of course you are not, because I know I am talking to a man who loves his family and wants to protect them.

The law of average tells us that 8 or 10 or 12 men out of each thousand (according to age) will die this year. We can't tell which one it will be, and it doesn't make any difference to the life-insurance company, but it might to YOU, and it would make a terrible difference to your family if it were. Delays are dangerous. I could give you many instances.

SCHOOLS AND SOLDIERS

SPEAKER AT CERRITOS P. T. A. TELLS OF PLAN TO TRAIN SOLDIERS AT HIGH SCHOOLS

Miss Ethel Andrus, Principal of Lincoln High School, was speaker of the afternoon at the monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Cerritos street school. Her theme, "The Things Which Interest Me," gave her an opportunity to talk of the work of the High School with which she is connected, especially the industrial work of students, and she told of a plan which is under consideration to keep all the High Schools of Los Angeles open during the summer for the benefit of soldiers in California training camps. If carried out, the government will pay the schools $1.60 to $1.70 per day for each soldier, that amount to cover food and barracks, transportation and mechanical training. In the expectation that the plan will go through, Miss Andrus is negotiating for the purchase of old autos and chassis on which the soldiers can be employed in the training which will be given them.

Officers were chosen for the coming year, Mrs. E. A. Glassburn being elected president, Miss Atwood, teacher in the Cerritos school, secretary, Mrs. W. C. Wattles, treasurer, Mrs. Ella Richardson, first vice-president, Mrs. Bert Roberts, second vice-president.

Excellent reports were submitted by committee chairmen and in many respects it was one of the most interesting and profitable meetings the Association has held.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery of 117 South Kenwood street entertained in honor of their son, Sergeant Owen C. Emery, Wednesday evening. The guests were all old-time friends and relatives who had known the Sergeant since his young boyhood in Iowa. The evening was spent with music and games and light refreshments were served at its close. Those who gathered to wish him Godspeed and a safe return were Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bryant and sons Dean, Hugh and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ferguson and daughter Esther, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby, Dr. Ralph Lusby, Miss Margaret Lusby, Mrs. J. B. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnston, Mrs. Hattie Johnson, Dr. C. R. Lusby and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Goss, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Glendale's Red Cross drive will be organized next week, when committees will be appointed. The vice-chairmen, cashiers and publicity chairmen of all the chapters in this district have been instructed to meet for conference at the Alexandria Hotel in Los Angeles Wednesday at 10 a. m.

A meeting of the Executive Board of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter will take place next Tuesday evening at the residence of the chairman, John Hyde Braly, at 295 North Brand boulevard, when matters in connection with the drive will be considered. Vice-Chairman Lawshe has been appointed campaign manager for the drive.

The annual dues for membership in the local chapter from May, 1918, to May, 1919, are now due and payable at headquarters, and members are asked not to wait for a notice from Mrs. Blackburn, the cashier. days to help arrange some business and material matters pertaining to a new point that is to be opened soon.

Feb. 25. Tomorrow it will be just two months since I left Glendale. I have never for a moment been sorry that I came. I miss the comforts of our good home and the climate of Southern California, but in spite of all the discomforts over here I have not yet undergone any suffering—merely some discomforts. I miss the fire as much as anything. I am staying at a hotel for a few days and the only fire outside the kitchen is in the general room or entrance. I am writing in this room. Today I have done some hard work. With three other secretaries we went some ten miles to take up the floor of a Hut, load trucks, etc. It rained quite hard part of the afternoon. Because of some miscalculation we could not come back on the truck, so we walked about one mile to another Hut where one of our gang had worked. We got in, built a fire and got supper, fried bacon, tea, hard tack and canned peaches. It was all so good. We did our own cooking. Then we got the train and got back about 7:30. Yesterday (Sunday) I spent some time visiting one of the hospitals and talked with quite a number of the patients.

Feb. 26. Four of your letters received today, also a long letter from the Brotherhood and ladies of Glendale. This was written New Year's Eve. Many wrote a few lines. It was very interesting and some of it funny. It did me a lot of good.

Feb. 28. This has been a busy day. On a big motor truck I have ridden about 100 miles, part of the way in the face of a hard, cold, strong, driving rain—a little hail and snow. Most of the day I rode on the seat with the driver to show him the route as I had been over most of the road. We have been hauling lumber for floors, tent covers and frames. I did not have to do so much lifting as we had men for that. We got in about 6:30 p. m. Tomorrow we will do similar work but probably not go so far. Yes, I kept warm. Had on my woolen underwear, flannel shirt, sweater, heavy service suit, heavy long overcoat, raincoat, poncho over all, woolen scarf, 2 pairs woolen socks, leggings, heavy army shoes, hat and gloves. When riding had blanket and canvas over me. My poncho and gloves got wet, otherwise kept dry. We had lunch with some of our men in a French house. One of the men hired the kitchen and cooked the lunch, potatoes, bacon, eggs, coffee and bread. His crew had taken some food with them. We rode through some pretty country, that is, if we had been in a limousine, on a nice sunny day in June, on pleasure bent, we would have said, "How beautiful." But today we did not grow very enthusiastic over the scenery. From the mental standpoint I am not so tired as I would be after a hard day of pastoral duties. For our evening meal here, we usually go to the Y Hut and some 20 secretaries have bread and butter, cheese, jam, soup and tea for one franc each. This is for Y men only. It makes a very good supper.

Mar. 1. Just in from another day of long drives. I find eight letters from you. Happy man! How the boys envy me. Write as often as you can. I am glad to get them.

Mar. 3. We had a concert tonight by a company from Paris, a violinist, a pianist (men) and a singer, a lady. It was simply great. This was the first professional concert I have heard over here. Each day brings some new experience but so far I have had nothing to do but what I expected to have from my reading and interviews. Some of the secretaries are surprised at what they find they need to do.

Mar. 4. Last Saturday night 18 secretaries went out about seven miles to a Y Hut and had dinner together. One of the secretaries did the cooking. We had roast goose, stuffed, fried chicken, fried potatoes, biscuits, coffee, peach and cherry pie. It was some feed. After dinner we were called up to tell our names, where we were from, where born, age, schooling, profession, and why we came here. It was great. The meeting took a very serious turn—a heart to heart talk. It did us all good for we feel now that we know each other. Today it has snowed all day, but we have been out erecting tent frames. No stopping here. It was not very cold. It is surprising how well I stand the rough, hard work.

Mar. 5. Today we have been putting up tents, a warm sunny day. I was in a French public school for a few minutes. The children were studying about George Washington, how he refused to be president for a third term. The teacher insisted that I should translate the story into English for the children. It was a sort of Primary in French and by making a free translation I got along finely, translated three pages. The teacher could tell the children where I was from time to time. We all had a good time.

March 24. It is 10:45 and all our men have gone to their barracks and the Hut is quiet. Some of our aeroplanes are soaring over our field in the moonlight. A number of the men have the mumps and are quarantined. This has been a very busy day. I held a service this evening. The men were very attentive and seemed to enjoy it. There were lots of ball games played today.

You will read of the last big drive and how Paris was hit. We are all safe here, safer than if we were in Paris so do not worry on that line. Next Sunday is Easter and I hope to plan for an outdoor service.

March 26. Just three months since I left and what a lot has taken place in my life. I am glad to be back in the Hut work again. Just spoke to a Los Angeles boy, a member of the First Baptist church. There is plenty to keep me busy.

I am meeting some very fine men. I find that ministers and college professors make mighty good secretaries over here.

The only newspaper that we see daily (and when we are in the out places we often see none for several days) are the Paris edition of the N. Y. Herald (printed in English) and the London Mail. These papers give us a little bit of news. We get very little war news while it is news. I am going to do some carpenter work on a building that will be used for a garage for our machines. All my experience comes in handy. Everything is going nicely and I have kept well all the time.

You see there is lots of every-day hard work and no halos of glory are hanging over our heads, but I am happy and like it all.

national Council of Defense, the national board of Y. W. C. A., the Association of Collegiate Alumni and many other such influential bodies. At a conference held in New York in December, 1917, called by the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, which has been in close touch with the English and Canadian societies handling similar work in those countries since the beginning of the war, the Woman's Land Army of America was formed.

The need for the movement in this state is keenly felt by all those familiar with agricultural conditions. Authorities state that from present indications there will be a shortage of 12,000 agricultural workers for California during the coming season. According to William L. Clark, superintendent of the Los Angeles division of the Public Employment Bureau, operated under Federal control, the most difficult class of male help to find, even this early in the year, is for agricultural work.

The canneries of the locality have met the prospect of woman labor contributed in this well-organized and authorized way with more than an ordinary welcome and are offering generous inducements to persuade not only the laboring class of women, but those who would serve wholly for patriotic reasons, of the great need for their help in this manner of practical food conservation.

The Hemet, Vanomar and Elsinore canneries in particular among the companies in this district, have already taken up with the greatest enthusiasm the work of preparedness for the fruit season through securing promises of woman labor under the auspices of the Woman's Land Army. The Elsinore ranchers and canners have even offered 2 per cent of all profits made through the work of women of the army to the Red Cross. They frankly admit that they can easily afford this contribution since these women will not only save tons of vegetables and fruit which would otherwise have been wasted, but hundreds of acres can be planted through their help which would have lain unproductive through this time of great need, had the Land Army not volunteered for this service.

And the campaign has already been launched there through the placing of the first unit of fifteen women, of whom Mrs. Richel was one, in the field on Wednesday. The unit began work under the direction of Mrs. Orpha Eastman, chairman of the Elsinore Red Cross shop, who is also chairman for organization of the Land Army in Southern California with offices in Room 428, at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

This unit is probably the first to take up agricultural work under the auspices of the Woman's Land Army of America, since the eastern branches will not begin till later in the season. The practicability of the plan has been demonstrated, however, not only in England but in this country, through the work of several units in the east which worked in farm and orchard last summer under the management of Barnard College and other colleges and associations. The national headquarters have asked for photographs of these uniformed women workers, the pictures to be incorporated in a history of the war being compiled by the war department at Washington. Also several moving picture weeklies have recorded their labors, the films to be shown throughout the country, and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will send descriptive literature and pictures of the movement and the women at work to many other cities.

The work Mrs. Richel is doing will doubtless inspire many hundreds of other women to patriotic endeavor. Accustomed to no more active efforts than those usually required in the life of the art studios of this country and those of Europe, she has proved her ability to work at actual production on the soil and to assume labors that most men even on the farms have not yet achieved.

Mrs. Richel, after a preliminary day's tryout at the ranch, has been pronounced by Chief Engineer Caldwell of the Elsinore Development Company, perfectly competent to handle the great 75 horse power Holt tractor which has been assigned to her for the season. Slight in build, she is yet possessed of a force of determination and energy which can not fail to bring success to her patriotic purpose and she has won the unqualified admiration of every man on the big ranch, from the laborers to Mr. Harvey, the manager.

She will have the pleasure of knowing at the end of the season that she personally has broken ground for the planting of hundreds of acres for food production and has been a very material factor in providing tons of actual food for our armies. Glendale should feel very proud of her, and if Glendale women are in any measure influenced by her example to take practical steps toward helping in this great movement where their efforts are so greatly needed, she will feel more than repaid for the hard days of toil she must endure through the long summer months. There are places awaiting every woman who can give even a portion of her time to this cause in the summer season, from the easy "piece work" in the canneries which can be adjusted to the strength of the worker, to the more difficult tasks of the whole-season volunteers in the field and orchards, such as those undertaken by the women of this first history-
