Dear Sir

Mr. R. D. Webb

writes me about a man named John Gibson (or John Martin) who brought a letter from you, I was represented as one of the Confederates of John Brown. His brother man was with him at the Kennedy Farm, or escaped from Harper's Ferry. As far as I can find from Tidd or Annie Brown, it seems to me he ought not to be exciting sympathy under false pretences.

Will you be kind enough to let me know whether you have any evidence of his genuineness.

Very respectfully
J. W. Higginson

I have just had a call from Mr.
Wageley with your letter.
