10. Prize of $500 for the best drilled company in the great military pageant; $300 for second prize and $100 for third prize.

11. Prize of $50 for best float in historical pageant. (Limited to Pennsylvanians.)

Instructions.—Write compositions plainly. Type-written manuscripts are preferred. Do not attach the name to manuscript, but put a number of four figures at the top of the first page. Also write this number and name and address on a sheet of white paper, place that in an envelope, seal it, and write in large figures with ink the number corresponding to the number on the manuscript and send the same with composition. Use same principle for drawings also.

Manuscripts must be in the hands of the Secretary by September 1st, 1913.

LITTLE STORIES OF SUCCESS (Number 4)

Stevens of Troy

From time immemorial Troy and its citizens has been famous. There was Priam who ruled over that ancient part which we are told was located in Western Asia on the shores of the Mediterranean. There was mighty Hector, the son of Priam, whom the still mightier Achilles slew. Then there was that other son of Priam, Parris, who eloped from Greece to Troy with Helen, the most beautiful of women, and as the result caused one of the most famous wars of history.

It is not, however, of this Troy that Henry Vale Stevens, the subject of this sketch, is a citizen, nor has he had a Homer to sing his praises. He is an humble black man, a harness maker, who lives down in Troy, Alabama, which is one of at least thirty-three Troys in the United States. Mention is made of Stevens, not because of any special wonderful thing that he has accomplished, but to call attention to the opportunities which a Negro with trade has in the smaller cities and towns of the South. Stevens received a certificate in harness making from Tuskegee Institute in 1900, and since that time has been working constantly at his trade. Several years ago he started in business for himself and has always had as much or more work than he could do. In connection with his harness making, he carries on carriage trimming and shoe-making. He owns a good home and other property and is a leader of his race in that section. He received the patronage of the best white people of the town and vicinity. That Stevens has impressed himself upon them is evidenced by the appreciative testimonials which they have sent from time to time to Tuskegee Institute concerning him. A. C. Edmonson, the Probate Judge of the city in a recent communication said, "I have known H. V. Stevens for the past five years, and I can say that he has conducted himself in a high-toned and gentlemanly manner since he came here, is well thought of by both white and colored, and has the respect of all. I consider him one of the best harness makers that has ever been in this part of the State. He is certainly master of his profession and has the confidence of all."

"It affords me pleasure to state that H. V. Stevens of this city is an upright man. I have had considerable dealings with him. He is worthy of the confidence of the public; he is a harness maker by trade and his work is of the very highest type. He has not only served the public well in his trade, but has made a reputation for fair dealings and had the confidence of all the citizens of this city."

The three years spent by Stevens at Tuskegee Institute in learning a trade and in acquiring the "Tuskegee Spirit" of spunk and energy, and the "Tuskegee Idea"—"do what you can for the good of the community in which you are located"—have been the greatest value in enabling him to become the useful and highly respected citizen that he is.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

On Friday evening, August 22, an enjoyable surprise birthday party was given by Mrs. James Miller, of 1222 Birch Street, when her daughter, Bertha, was the complimented guest of the evening. Refreshments were served in the parlor, which was tastefully decorated in red and green. The delightful evening was spent in music and games.

Guests enjoying the merriment of the evening were: Mesdames L. D. Bynum, W. Peterson, A. Jackson, A. L. Potts, F. D. Evans, Rev. Mrs. Byers, J. W. Thomas, Emery, V. Newell; Misses Bertha Miller, Mabel Williams, Cleo Browder, Mary Chambers, Lottie Gooch, Gertha Miller, Pearl Collette, Essie Osborne, Bradford, Carrie Jefferson; Messrs. N. Hawkins, Harvey, Isaac Bowman, Scott, F. D. Evans, E. Gooch, Rev. Mr. Byers, W. C. Edmonds.

NO SOCIALIST HE

"Your husband is a Socialist, I believe?" asked a friend at the reception of Mrs. Smith.

"A Socialist?" replied Mrs. Smith. "No, indeed. Why he hates to make calls with me."

A TEN ACRE SITE PURCHASED FOR THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL ORPHAN SCHOOL

The trustees of the National Industrial Orphan School have purchased a ten-acre tract two blocks from the Redondo car line in the city of Watts, which is to be the permanent home of the institution. A public ground-breaking will take place on Sunday, September 21, at 3 p. m. The contract for the buildings have been let which is to be ready for occupancy October 15. A campaign to raise $30,000 to pay for land and cost of buildings is now under way. We sincerely trust that the wealthy colored men of the State will come at once to the rescue of this institution with their checks for $500 to $1000. each. They can make no better investment; this is the only institution of the kind west of the Rocky Mountains. The institution has an enrollment of 145 orphans, which number is being increased weekly. Full account of the ground-breaking and ceremonies will be published in all of the papers.

THE SACRED CONCERT AT WESLEY M. E. CHURCH A SUCCESS

Although the crowd attending the Sacred Concert at Wesley M. E. Church given by the National Industrial Orphan School last Sunday was small, $35 was raised for the school in a few minutes. The aims and objects of the school were ably presented and the audience showed its interest in the school by the contribution, which was large when the size of the audience is taken in consideration. Had there been a hundred persons present, $100, the amount desired, would have been raised. Those who failed to attend that concert lost a golden opportunity to aid a noble though needy cause.

Other concerts will be given and every one will have a chance to aid these needy orphans.

THE KILLING OF "BULL" YOUNG

The killing of "Bull" Young by Jess Willard in the arena at Vernon last week has given some of the white church people spasms. The unlawful killing of a human being at any place and under any circumstances is a thing to be abhorred. But the Christianity that becomes horrified when certain people are killed and are absolutely indifferent at the wanton wholesale killing and brutal torture of others has greatly lessened the influence of the church as a power for good. The man who goes into the prize ring to beat the other fellow half to death for the money there is in it forfeits the protection of society, and should be lose his life the whole thing should be regarded as a case of suicide. The fellow who jumps on a moving car takes all the risk, and so long as prize fighting is protected by law the fighters should assume all of the risks; this would save the tax-payers of the expensive farce that ends in the trial of such cases.

Nothing has so lessened the influence of the white church as a power for righteousness as its attitude toward the lynching outrages of this country. Although hundreds of innocent Negroes suspected of crime are annually lynched, scores burned at the stake with horrible barbarities, with thousands of white women and children as spectators, the white churches of the country have offered no word of protest whatever. A religion that will go into spasms over the killing of a prize-fighter who is particeps criminis, but offers no word of protest against the burning of a human being at the stake, because that human being happens to belong to a dark-skinned race, will never be able to suppress the saloon, the brothel or the white slave traffic. Usually the girls who become inmates of the brothels and victims of the white slave traffic are largely church members, and many of them members of good families, and most of them having enjoyed high school advantages. If the church fought sin and crime regardless of race or color, its assaults upon the saloon and the white slave traffic would be affected.

WESLEY CHAPEL NOTES

Rev. Ambrose Hubbs, of New Orleans, preached a very able sermon on Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday is Freedman's Aid Jubilee and Southwestern Christian Advocate day. At 11 a. m. Pastor Kinchen will use the same subject by special request that he preached on Sunday at the evening service—"True Greatness." A very unique service has been planned for Sunday evening. All graduates of Southern schools are asked to give extracts from their old graduation addresses. Rev. Grant Stewart, whose father gave over $100,000 to prepare colored people for Christian educational work in Africa, will be present and deliver an address on "My Father's Dream for Africa."

Mrs. A. T. Govan, who, with her little son, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Yancy, of 1507 W. 36th, left for San Francisco last Friday where, after a short visit, they will return to their home in Montgomery, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Berni Barbour, of Seattle, Washington, are in the city, stopping at the residence of Prof. Chas. Alexander, 1584 W. 37th Street. Mr. Barbour is Musical Director of the Southland Concert & Jubilee Company, and a music writer of considerable note.

The property owners of the Furlong Home Tract are organizing a benevolent association for the benefit of the men and women who wish to aid themselves while aiding others. The association is an auxiliary to the Progressive League of the Tract.

Property owners having property for rent, lease or sale will do well to list same with the Noah D. Thompson Realty Company, room 209 Thorpe Building, Broadway and Franklin Streets, phones South 1651, Main 2051.

MAY NOT PATRONIZE THAT "JIM CROW" SCHOOL

There is a movement on foot on the part of the patriotic manly Negroes of El Centro to withdraw their patronage from the Jim Crow school established in the red light district of that city. This is a movement in the right direction and is bound to succeed if there is any manhood in the colored men of that town.

That school is carried on in violation of the law and no Negro can be forced to send his children to it. Those Negroes must understand that they are not in Texas, but in California, where the laws are enforced and every citizen, without regard to race, color or creed, is protected in his or her rights. For the Negroes to patronize that school is not only to invite the insults and contempt of the small white people around them, but they are laying the foundation for the destruction of the health and morality of their own defenseless boys and girls. That any colored person would aid in the establishment of Jim Crowism in this State is a thing to be sincerely deplored. There is no language that can depict the horror of the adoption of Jim Crowism and race segregation in the great State of California. All the wealth of this State could not induce us to become the instrument by which Jim Crow cars, Jim Crow streets and Jim Crow sections for Negroes is to be introduced in this State. Even the thought of such a thing is the horror of all horrors. Is there any colored person in this State that can be used for the purpose of introducing Jim Crowism in California? Every self-respecting Negro in this State should rise up and fight this common danger. The liberty, opportunity and virtue of every Negro child in this State is threatened by that Jim Crow red light school in El Centro.

W. T. Vernon, Ex-Register of the Treasury, the silver-tongued orator, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. at Pasadena for the benefit of the National Industrial Orphan School, on or about the 15th of September. See full account later.

MR. HARRY C. CARR HAS FADED FROM THE LIME LIGHT

Since the killing of McCarty in a prize ring in Canada, Mr. Harry C. Carr, sporting editor of the Los Angeles Times, has faded from the lime light. In his eagerness to eliminate Jack Johnson, heavy-weight champion of the world, he made a paper heavy-weight of poor McCarty. We called Mr. Carr's attention to his error at the time, reminding him of the folly of attempting to secure for McCarty what Champion Johnson had won by blows that had been heard around the world. We knew that McCarty was doomed to humiliating failure, but we did not expect such an early tragic ending of his career. When Mr. Carr decided to make McCarty heavy-weight champion of the world, McCarty was in a measure supporting his wife and child, but the moment the Carr dream reached him he abandoned his wife and child, went East, and failing to make enough to pay his board had lots of trouble with hotel keepers, went into Canada and was killed by an ordinary slugger.

Only the absence of an international law to fit such cases prevented Mr. Carr from being extradited to Canada and tried as an accessory to the murder of McCarty. And we would not be at all surprised if Mr. Carr should be hailed into court by McCarty's heirs and sued for their maintenance during their minority and widowhood.

There is one thing certain, and that is, as a heavy-weight champion maker Mr. Harry C. Carr is a dead failure. If Mr. Carr could keep this thing up, he could soon have enough widows and orphans on his hands to occupy all of the Times realty holdings.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

The failure of President Wilson to recognize the Huerta government has doomed the Huerta regime. The nations of the world are beginning to side with the president even the South American states are joining in the Wilson movement to eliminate Huerta. Huerta will eventually learn that to take charge of a palace and betray and murder the lawful ruler of a country is not all that is necessary in this day to make one a military dictator.

If the U. S. Government had had Huerta arrested and tried for murder when he assassinated Madero, peace would long ago have been established in that unhappy republic. The one sure way to secure peace in Mexico without foreign intervention is for the United States to lift the embargo which prevents the constitutionalists from purchasing arms and ammunition in this country. This done Huerta will, in a short time, be either a fugitive from Mexico, or be caught and executed as all assassins deserve to be.

W. E. Burghardt Dubois says—

"Los Angeles is wonderful. The air is scented with orange blossoms, and the beautiful homes lay low crowding on the earth as though they love its scents and flowers.

"Nowhere in the United States is the Negro so well and beautifully housed, nor the average of efficiency and intelligence in the colored population so high. Here is an aggressive, hopeful group—with some wealth, large industrial opportunity and a bouyant spirit."

"Out here in this matchless Southern California there would seem to be no limit to your opportunities: your possibilities. Why, you will ultimately have so many people here as are now living in six or eight European countries put together.

"Anticipate the future and plan well for it.

"Los Angeles is a composite city, representing all the buildings in New York and all the buildings in Chicago."—Geo. W. Perkins, of New York City, speaking on our Commercial Future at the Annual Banquet of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, February 22, 1913.

Now is the time to buy choice Real Estate in this matchless country, where winter is never too cold, nor summer too hot.

We have several of the beautiful homes described by Prof. Dubois for sale at bargain prices, either for cash or on easy payments ($100.00 down, $25.00 or less per month until paid), so that the rents will aid you greatly in paying for the property, which you may hold, either as an investment or for a future residence. Also acreage and unimproved lots on easy terms.

We will gladly furnish you, upon application, further information regarding the opportunity to purchase real estate in this section of the country, and opportunities for business enterprises.

Buy Your Home
Now

When you want to purchase real estate why not buy of a reliable firm—one who's had experience in real estate for twenty years. The real estate investor often stops and wonders why his investment has not turned out right.
The answer is simple—buying real estate through an unreliable firm is responsible for half of the failures in real estate investment; either the value is over-rated to the purchaser or the location is not what it is represented.

This firm is noted for plain, consistent statement in all its transactions.
