4. It has previously been recommended that the Uedai and Okada plants be removed from the list.

5. An OI-1 report was made on the Obu Plant at Obu-machi, Chita-gun which produced parts, in which no recommendation was made. It is, however, now recommended that it be removed from the list.

6. The Wakamiya plant at Hatekeda, Okkawa, Handa City which produced parts is recommended for inclusion on the reparations list.

7. The company also had a Uchiyama Plant at Uchiyama, Okkawa, Handa City, a Yamagata Plant at Yamagata, Shinden, Handa City, and a Kusagi Plant at Kusagai Agui-mura, Chita-gun, all of which formerly produced parts. It is recommended that none of these plants be placed on the list.

8. If the above recommendations are approved, the following plants of the Fuji Industrial Company (formerly Nakajima Aircraft Company) would be listed: Atsuta, Handa, Ogawa and Wakamiya.

SUBJECT : Report Requested by OI 1 (Hqs. I Corps)
Name of Establishment: Fuji Industrial Co., Ltd. (Nakajima) dispersed plants.

TO : Commanding General, Hqs. I Corps, APO 310. (Kyoto, Honshu)

1. The following dispersed plants of Fuji Industrial Co., Ltd. (Nakajima) do not have reconversion permits:

a. Haranoya Branch, Haranoya-mura, Ogasa-gun.
b. Horinouchi Branch, Horinouchi-mura, Ogasa-gun.
c. Kakegawa Branch No. 1, Kakegawa-machi, Ogasa-gun.
d. Kakegawa Branch No. 2, Kakegawa-machi, Ogasa-gun.
e. Washizu Kawai Branch, Washizu-cho, Hamana-gun.

2. Hence the following report is made in accordance with the provisions of OI 1 (Hqs. I Corps) dated 14 February 1946.

a. These plants are not presently operating and have not filed applications for reconversion.
b. Statement of condition of and measures taken to preserve machinery: All machinery from aforementioned plants has been moved to the Arai plant to be cleaned and conditioned. The machinery, however is in poor condition. The buildings of above plants are well guarded and protected from fire hazards.
c. Statement of compliance with OI 1: These companies are complying with all provisions of OI 1 except in the case of preservation of machinery. All the machinery is under the control of the parent company and this office has issued orders to the parent company in regard to the maintenance and preservation of said machinery. Compliance with these orders will be checked within 10 days.

3. The Hamamatsu Miyatake (concealed) plant, included in the Revised List of Aircraft factories, dated 1 June 1946, never was a completed plant, but merely a series of caves into which the Haranoya Branch planned to move its machinery to

1. This headquarters concurs in the recommendation that the Hamamatsu Miyatake plant be removed from Inclosure 1 of Operational Directive No. 5/2, Headquarters Eighth Army, 6 June 1946. This headquarters has made recommendation to higher headquarters that this plant be removed from the reparations list on future revisions of Operational Directive No. 5/2.

2. Additional information is requested as to whether your headquarters recommends the removal of the plants listed in paragraph 1 of the basic communication from Inclosure 1 of OD-5/2. If the plants remain on the list, it will be necessary either to return the machinery which was formerly stored therein to its original location, or to inventory the machinery where it is stored at present. In the latter event, the machinery of each factory would be numbered as though it remained in its original location.

1. Considerable confusion has arisen in regard to which plants of the Fuji Industrial Company (formerly Nakajima Aircraft Company) were intended to be listed on OD-5. After investigation it was found that the following are presently listed:

a. Atsuta Plant - Atsuta, Honmachi, Showa-ku, Nagoya - Parts

b. Uedai (incorrectly listed as Shokudai) Plant - Uedai, Agui-mura, Chita-gun - Parts

c. Okada Plant - Okadamachi, Chita-gun - Parts

d. Handa Plant - Gochohama, Okkawa, Handa City - Airframes

e. Ogawa Plant (added by letter I Corps, file AG 004-BA, dated 29 April 46) - Higashiura-mura, Chita-gun - Parts

f. Obu Plant - Obu-machi, Chita-gun - Parts

2. Your Headquarters has been incorrectly advised that the Handa Plant's proper name is "Uchiyama". Further investigation has shown that the Handa Plant is the Company's main factory.

3. The Yoshino Plant was removed from OD 5 by SCAP 4th Indorsement, dated 2 Apr 46, to letter this Headquarters, dated 5 Feb 46, subject: "Reconversion of Industrial Plant (Yamada Saichi, Ltd. Yoshino Factory)".

Upon inspection of the Nakajima Aircraft Co., Matsusaka Works, pursuant to Operational Directive No. 5, Hq Eighth Army and Radio cite KFX 3576, I Corps, it was learned that Nakajima Aircraft Company used the facilities of the premises from March 1944 until June 1945.

No Nakajima Aircraft Company machinery was present, and it was not known where it had been sent, consequently compliance with para. 2, Operational Directive No. 5, Hq Eighth Army could not be enforced.

Upon request an inventory was submitted of the machinery that was used in those premises by the Nakajima Aircraft Company, and the locations to which said machinery was dispersed. It was forwarded to 107th Mil. Govt. Hq & Hq Co. for action by Military Government Companies in prefectures into which the machinery was sent, that compliance with O. 1. Operational Directive No. 5/4, Headquarters Eighth Army, 22 August 1946, establishes a new procedure for disposal of equipment and machines that are listed in the basic communication. Paragraph 6a and b, Section III of Inclosure 1 to Operational Directive No. 5/4 is quoted for your information:

"a. All machinery, equipment and accessories which, by virtue of initial design, or major structural change, are as individual items special purpose in nature and functionally limited to use in connection with manufacture of equipment or supplies for war or war-like purposes, are designed as "Special Purpose Machines and Equipment."

b. Machinery and equipment so identified and on the list of items to be inventoried, will be inventoried along with other facilities of the plant. Such machinery and equipment will, however, be distinguished from reparation items by painting the letters "SP" after the code number on the inventory sheet on line "P"."

2. The action taken by your headquarters as regards machines listed in the basic communication is considered proper by this headquarters. Inasmuch as the machines have already been inventoried and are described by letter "SP", no further action is considered necessary.

2. Paragraph a, of basic communication indicates that this plant will soon submit an application for reconversion. When this application is received at this headquarters, decision will be made as to whether or not continued operation will be permitted and subsequent notification will be made to your headquarters.

3. This headquarters does not concur in the recommendation made by paragraph f, of basic communication. Even though all machinery belonging directly to the Nakajima Aircraft Co., has been removed from this establishment, there are still a considerable amount of machinery in the plant belonging to the Obu Industrial Company which was used in the manufacture of aircraft parts during the war. It is felt that this machinery should likewise be subject to reparations removals if needed, in order to fill reparations requisitions.

4. Attention is invited to the fact that this installation is now being operated under the name of Obu Industrial Co., rather than under the Nakajima Aircraft Company.

SUBJECT: Report Requested by OI 1 (Hqs I Corps)
Name of Establishment - Nakajima Aircraft Co. (Obu)

TO : Commanding General, I Corps, APO 301 (Kyoto, Honshu)

The Obu plant of the NakajimaAircraft Co. does not have a reconversion permit, hence the following report is made in accordance with the provisions of par 5c of OI 1 (Hqs I Corps) dated 14 February 1946.

a. This plant is presently operated by Obu Industrial Co. who has been ordered to submit an application for reconversion.

b. Statement of condition of and measures taken to preserve machinery.

Machinery now in plant 40% usable after repair.
60% usable at present. All of Nakajima owned machinery has already been moved to Handa plant. The machinery now in the plant is greased and well maintained.

c. Statement of degree of compliance with OI 1:

OI - 1 is being complied with. A 24 hour Japanese guard is being maintained.

d. Degree of completion of reconversion:

The Obu Industrial Co. former owners of the plant (under the name of Obu Textile Co.) have retaken possession of the plant in order to manufacture regrigerators and repair textile machinery. Their equipment was rented by Nakajima Aircraft Co. during the war. This equipment is 40% reconverted at present and the firm expects to be 90% reconverted by June.

e. Products manufactured:

Before War - Cotton Textiles (Obu Textile Co.)
During War - Landing gear parts and wing parts for aircraft
At Present - Repair of textile machinery by Obu Industrial Co.
