games of stores which remained open on recent Sundays and have asked for flats for the prosecution of three establishments. The fact that the Board will re-consider the whole question Thursday was interpreted at the City Hall as meaning that the old decision to enforce the law might be relaxed on account of the result of the recent unofficial plebiscite. This plebiscite cannot be ignored, the Mayor admitted Saturday.

The Mayor had intended to discuss the whole situation with Mr. Staneland yesterday but, finding him ill, he postponed this conference. He asked Mr. Staneland, however, to think the question over and come to Thursday's meeting with his mind made up.

To Confer With League.

Officials of the Anti-Blue Sunday League got into touch with the Mayor to-day to ask him whether the Police Commission now intended to abandon its former strict Sunday closing decision. The Mayor replied

COMING HERE TO STUDY CONDITIONS

Nine Hundred Seattle Teachers Due June 3

Nine hundred Seattle public school pupils will arrive in Victoria on Saturday, June 3, on their all-day cruise in connection with the Seattle scheme to acquaint their teachers with the industries and resources of Puget Sound.

The party will be in Victoria two hours, and the Chamber of Commerce with the local Teachers' Association will have representatives to see that the visitors miss none of the local features.

Additional Expense Feared.

Hon. John Oliver advised the directors that it would hardly be feasible to keep open the Provincial Library beyond the present hours, as suggested by the directors, owing to the inability of the Government to employ an extra staff to keep watch over the entire building of ten hours, people having the habit of wandering through the buildings at random when they visit the capitol.

Victoria-Saanich Parks and Beaches Committee write expressing regret that the Chamber of Commerce could not finance the whole project of Memorial Avenue. The Chamber will endeavor to arrange some way to help raise funds for the work.

Victoria Day Celebration.

Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma, Olympia and other American Chambers of Commerce acknowledged the Chamber's invitation to visit Victoria on May 24, and it is believed that many visitors will attend the Victoria Day celebrations from those points.

J. A. Griffith reported on the plans for rebuilding the quarters occupied by the Chamber in the Arcade Building, destroyed by fire, and as chairman of the special committee dealing with greater co-operation between Victoria and the outlying districts, offered some suggestions for the encouraging of settlers on Vancouver Island.

A scheme was placed before the directors by the Empress Sightseeing Company for the directors to make up a party to go to the Portland Rose Festival by way of the Victoria-Sidney-Anacortes car ferry in the big new sightseeing car just built for the company. The secretary will list those who wish to make the trip in this manner.

PARI-MUTUEL PLAN IS TURNED DOWN

Agricultural Association Will Not Allow Old Betting System Here

Efforts to have pari-mutuel racing legalized in connection with the Fall Fair have been turned down by the B. C. Agricultural Association, it was made known to-day. The Association accepted a $5,000 fair grant from the city council some time ago, on condition that no pari-mutuel races were run, so that it feels that it cannot under any consideration change its decision. If members of the City Council care to reopen the question, however, the Association will reconsider its decision, it is understood.

At its last meeting horse racing interests asked the Association to allow pari-mutuel racing and laid plans for a big race meet before the Association directors. The directors explained that they were bound to discontinue pari-mutuel racing but that races without pari-mutuels could be held.

PREMIER TO HURRY EAST AGAIN ON RAIL RAGE FIGHT

In reply to this Premier Oliver has just received a telegram from A. K. Maclean, chairman of the Parliamentary committee, saying that the committee was going to inquire into the question of the effect of the coming into force in July next of the Crow's Nest Pass rate agreement. He asked whether B. C. Government would like to be heard before this committee.

BAKER INQUIRY COSTS B.C. $7,112

The Royal Commission at the end of last year which inquired into the conduct of the B. C. Game Conservation Board, and the activities of Dr. A. R. Baker, chairman, cost the Province $7,112.44, according to final returns on the cost made at the Parliament Buildings to-day.

POLICE CASES.

Hong, found by Sergeant Boulton in possession of 20 bottles of Chinese whisky, all unsealed, was fined $50 and costs in city police court to-day. R. C. Lowe appeared for the accused, who pleaded not guilty. Mr. Lowe took a legal objection, that the provision for a seal had not been made. F. Holmes was fined $5 for parking in front of a fire hydrant.

The man who gets on top doesn't always wait for the elevator.

BANDIT KILLED BY EXPRESS MAN

Seven Other Thugs Were Driven Off

Tucson, Ariz., May 15.—With two well directed bullets, Express Messenger H. Stewart early to-day frustrated a spectacular attempt by eight masked bandits to rob Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific train No. 2, the Golden State Limited, bound from Chicago to Los Angeles. Stewart killed one of the eight, apparently wounded a second, and routed the band empty-handed.

The passengers were not molested in the holdup, which was staged near James, a flag station eight miles west of Tucson.

The body of the slain bandit, whose hands were encased in rubber gloves, was recognized by Sheriff McDaniel, of Pinal County, as the body of Tucson poolroom habitue. On the body was found a sack of dynamite, with which the bandits intended to blow the strong boxes in the mail and baggage cars.

OBITUARY RECORD

At the funeral of the late Fanny Elizabeth Hewarson, on Saturday afternoon at the B. C. Funeral Chapel, a most impressive service was conducted by the Rev. Wm. Stevenson in the presence of a large number of friends. "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Rock of Ages" were sung during the course of the service. The remains were forwarded this afternoon to Vancouver, where cremation will take place at Mountain View Cemetery.

Mr. M. H. McCabe, of 483 Superior Street, had news yesterday night of the death at 8:30 p. m. of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Murray. The deceased lady, who was a resident of Victoria for some years and lived on Simcoe Street, James Bay, before moving to Seattle, died from heart trouble brought on from a severe attack of influenza. The late Mrs. Murray was a native of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and was born 61 years ago.

LABORITES TO HAVE CANDIDATES IN IRELAND

Dublin, May 15.—Labor proposes to take a prominent part in the coming Irish elections. Thomas John, secretary of the Irish Labor Party, announced in a speech here yesterday that Labor had decided to seek a representative in the Irish Parliament, because it had a definite social, economic and industrial programme to put through.

The Labor Party, he said, stood independent of both the Free State and Republican parties and went forward on its own programme, devoting its energies to the workers' interests.

Other speakers expressed the hope of the eventual establishment of a commonwealth.

TROOPS TOLD TO DISLODGE CHINESE FORCE MOVE FOR U. S. RECOGNITION OF SOVIET RUSSIA

Washington, May 15.—The Senate would declare for recognition of the Soviet Government of Russia under a resolution introduced to-day by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho. The resolution, which was ordered to lie on the table, follows:

"Resolved, that the Senate of the United States favors recognition of the present Soviet Government of Russia."

Change City Offices.—City Assessor William Scowcroft and his staff and City Wiring Inspector Daly moved into new offices in the City Hall to-day. These offices were occupied by Dr. Adam Shortt, when he was here recently to investigate the City's financial position.

Newly Built Tally-ho Is Credit to Local Firm

A representative committee of business men and press representatives confirmed the report of the new addition to Victoria's sightseeing trade, namely the specially grey tally-ho, owned by the Empress Garage, which can be seen on sight-seeing tours in this city now. Seventeen passengers were taken on this initial trip. The car was constructed for the touring trade by John Meston & Company, who converted this powerful car into a twenty-passenger sightseeing tally-ho. The car is a comfortable one, being

MUST MAKE USE OF HARBOR WORKS

Ottawa Delegates Address Chamber Directors

Expressing in optimistic terms the conviction that Victoria and Vancouver Island had a great future in store and that the Government's official announcement that the Esquimalt drydock would be completed would mean a wonderful thing for the district if the people will only get down to business and make use of the facilities afforded, Henry Hall, K. C., and William Ivel this afternoon reported to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce the result of their trip to Ottawa, as the delegates of the citizens to get the work on the drydock recommenced.

A very hearty vote of thanks was extended to the delegates, to head whose report Mayor Marchant and the Reeves of the adjoining municipalities had been invited to to-day's luncheon. Hon. John Hart and Thomas B. Booth, of Nanaimo, the other two delegates, were unable to be present at the luncheon.

RUSSIA DESIRES TO JOIN LEAGUE

New Attitude Toward the World Organization Hope Economic Conference Will Benefit Russia

Geneva, May 15.—The Soviet delegates at Geneva have informed the League of Nations experts there that Russia desires to co-operate with the League and become a full-fledged member within a reasonable time, provided the Economic Conference succeeds from the Soviet viewpoint.

The League's experts have just reported this to the League Council, which is meeting here.

The Russians added that, if the Geneva Conference failed, Moscow would continue its policy of opposition to the League on the theory that Russia could not expect anything from an organization composed chiefly of member states with which it had been unable to reach an agreement.

The League officials here regard the Russian overture as significant in view of the bitter opposition of Moscow to the organization in the past.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

The Women's Canadian Club will hold its regular meeting to-morrow afternoon at 2:15 in the Empress Ballroom. The speaker of the afternoon is Professor Sedgwick, of Vancouver.

The car is a No. 48 model Pierce-Arrow and equipped with Firestone tires, 34 x 6, supplied by Moresley-Pauline Rubber Company. It is painted a French grey and attractive black trimming shows the car to advantage. The drive was a delightful one, proving the worthiness of the engine and comfort of seat. Much credit goes not only to O. B. Olson for securing this car for visitors to this city, but to John Meston for constructing the car on such comfortable and artistic lines. Commencing from the Empress taxi station on the corner of Fort and Government Streets, they toured through Beacon Hill Park, around the waterfront of Fowl Bay, Shoal Bay, the Oak Bay golf links and waterfront, Willows beach, Uplands and thence home.

ART COLLEGE RESULTS HIGH

Standard Maintained in Annual Examinations Here

Victoria Arts College maintained its high standard in the 1922 final examinations, results of which were approved by the British Columbia University Senate and Faculty issued here Saturday night. In the second year about eighty-five per cent. of the students were successful, while in the first year there were no failures. This standing delighted Principal E. R. Paul and his staff.

In the second year of the 13 full undergraduates, two passed with First Class, securing 80 per cent. of the maximum marks or more, four passed in the Second Class, securing between 65 per cent. and 75 per cent.; three in the Third Class, securing 50 per cent. and 64 per cent.; two passed with supplementals; two failed.

Of the three conditioned students one passed with supplementals, one failed and one was ill.

Of the fifty-six full undergraduates in the first year, five passed with first-class standing, sixteen with second-class and eight with third-class and eight with supplementals; there were no failures; two wrote in some subject only and six were absent through illness.

Of the fourteen who entered with junior matriculation condition, ten succeeded in passing their first year's work and will be granted full undergraduate standing as soon as their matriculation conditions are removed, an opportunity to do which will be offered to them in June; one passed with a condition in Algebra, three failed.

Eight partial students will be entitled to certificates of standing in the subjects on which they wrote.

ALDERMEN FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA GATHERED FACTS

Portland, Ore., May 15.—That construction of the Trans-provincial Highway in British Columbia would mean untold prosperity for the Province was the opinion expressed by Vancouver aldermen after viewing the scenic wonders of the Columbia River Valley.

"British Columbia has possibilities unsurpassed as a Mecca for tourist trade," said Alderman Fred Crona. "Each year we delay development we are losing millions of dollars. Oregon has spent $65,000,000 on highways and is reaping good returns."

Mayor George E. Baker and the Commissioners of Portland conducted the Vancouver aldermen over forty-two miles of the Columbia-Highway Saturday afternoon, holding a dinner in their honor at Crown Point, the highest point on the road.

"If there is anything we can do to help your city," he wanted to do," said Mayor Baker, in accepting an invitation for a return visit to Vancouver.

The delegates gathered data at the City Hall, the Public Auditorium, the public market, municipal docks, supervised playgrounds, parks, auto camps and the Women's Detention Home.

The Auditorium, which cost approximately $600,000 and has a seating capacity of 4,000, is rented at rates low enough to encourage local musical, theatrical and educational activities.

TRADE AGREEMENT IN AUSTRALASIA

Preferential System for Australia and New Zealand

(Times Correspondence)
Wellington, N. Z., May 14.—New Zealand and Australia have reached a satisfactory trade agreement embodying preference to the products of each other's country. The agreement has to be placed before the respective Parliaments before the details can be disclosed to the press, but it is understood that the following arrangement has been made, pending the operation of the full tariff clauses:
"Goods imported into New Zealand and therefrom shipped to the Commonwealth which, if they had been imported direct from the country of origin to the Commonwealth would have been entitled to be entered under the British preferential tariff in the Commonwealth, shall on production of a certificate from the Customs Department of the Dominion stating the country of origin be entered under such other information as is required be entitled to be entered under the British preferential tariff in the Commonwealth."
A similar provision has been made in respect of goods to be transhipped from the Commonwealth to New Zealand. In general, the new tariff adopts the British preferential as between the two countries, but makes special exceptions where the competition in the same product hits the manufacturers' interests.

A Heel Arrest.
Search in the New Zealand bush, miles from civilization, for an escaped one-armed convict named Arthur D. Plunkett, who had been missing for weeks, resulted successfully when the Sherlock Holmes clue of a peculiar boot-heel was followed. Plunkett was known to be a desperate and cunning criminal. He had lived for months in the bush, securing food without leaving a trace. Two policemen, one of them skilled in tracking, found traces of him in the Lawrence district near Dunedin, South Island, and noting that one of the tracks showed a man wearing a worn rubber heel with a peculiar projecting nail, got on the trail and followed him for miles. Time and again they lost it and the dogs with them also gave up.

However, after having secured reinforcements the constables finally traced their quarry to a cave. The police surrounded it, and well under cover demanded the fugitive's surrender. To their surprise he gave in quietly, and when returned to jail expressed astonishment at his capture. He could not believe in the Sherlock Holmes clue, as he said he had made a point of walking wherever possible on hard surfaces where his footmarks would not show.

Woman Candidate.

New Zealand, although it has woman's suffrage for a longer time than any other British Dominion, has as yet had no woman member of Parliament. There is talk of a woman candidate being put up by the Labor party at the coming general election late in the year. But none of the other parties favor women candidates. New Zealanders have the old-fashioned belief that women should not enter public life. In Australia women candidates are coming forward rapidly. Western Australia has one woman member, and New South Wales had three candidates in the recent election for that state. None got in, but their candidature had an influence on the backward New Zealand women.

CREAMERIES IN IRELAND CLOSED; WAGE DISPUTE

Dublin, May 15.—The Provisional Government, through the Labor Minister, Joseph McGrath, has been for several days attempting to settle the wage dispute between the large combine of creameries and their workmen. The creameries are not co-operative but are run for individual profit, and the workers, alleging that these plants made war profits exceeding £1,000,000, resented a proposed wage cut of 33 per cent.

Attempts at accommodation having failed, the employers decided to close their factories Saturday, thus rendering idle 3,000 workers and affecting also 5,000 families depending upon the creameries for the sale of their milk.

In Munster, where there is a general labor council, the workers were asked to carry on as usual. Hence they took over the factories and business is proceeding. The milk supply is being collected by motor lorries from the surrounding country.

Mr. McGrath described the outlook as very serious.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE TO BE HELD IN PRINCE RUPERT

The Princess Charlotte will leave Victoria at 2.30 p.m. Monday, June 19, and Vancouver at 11 p.m. the same day, arriving at Prince Rupert Wednesday morning.

QUESTION OF TEMPERANCE IS DEBATED IN BRITAIN

London, May 15.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The five years' campaign in behalf of temperance by the combined religious bodies took a forward step on Saturday when the president of the Wesleyan Conference entertained a number of Anglican bishops, the president of the Baptist Union, the Presbyterian Moderator, Salvation Army leaders and others.

Extreme measures were distinctly eschewed and prohibition was not advocated in the main. The points emphasized were local option, the prevention of the sale of liquor to persons under eighteen years of age, Sunday closing, and the extension of the licensing law to clubs. On these points, it was considered that every shade of religious opinion could unite.

The Bishop of London was convinced that an enormous number of people were on the side of temperance, and resolutely refused to become identified with any propagandist movement. He was equally positive that their opponents were powerful and rich, and ready to spend any amount of money to defeat the temperance movement.

While this gathering was in progress in London, there was a gathering at Manchester to protest against the price of beer. The meeting was called by the district licensed trade, but the promoters declared that it was called because their customers constantly asked for the opportunity to protest against the heavy taxation on liquor.

WORK FOR POOR KILLED WOMAN IN NEW YORK

Dr. Alexander Hoffmeyer, who was her physician, said he had known her for the last sixteen years, and that she came of a wealthy Canadian family. She had been engaged, he said, in social work among the East Side poor for a number of years, and had devoted a considerable income to her philanthropic labor.

ATLANTIC AIRMEN RESCUED BY SHIP

Portuguese Aviators Taken to Fernando Noronha

Engine Trouble and Lack of Gasoline

Rio De Janeiro, May 14.—(Associated Press)—The Portuguese aviators, Captains Coutinho and Sacadura, who were rescued from the sea by the steamship Paris City, have described their experiences to a correspondent at Fernando Noronha, where they were taken by the cruiser Republica. They had circled St. Paul Rocks and were returning to Fernando Noronha when their engine stalled Thursday afternoon, compelling a descent. An examination revealed only enough gasoline for a flight of three hours, or for six hours if they traveled on the surface of the water.

The sea was very choppy, slowly filling the pontoons, and the hydro-aeroplane gradually sank lower and lower, the current carrying it north of the line of the rocks. At sundown they took their position and found they were 170 miles from Fernando Noronha. Later they succeeded in restarting their motor but were unable to rise from the sea and returned to the previous course, lying between the rocks and the island, hoping to be picked up by the Republica.

About midnight the lights of the steamship Paris City were sighted and the aviators fired their revolvers. The ship's crew answered and sent a boat to their aid. It was found impossible to raise the plane and only the motor was saved. The airmen expressed their determination to make another attempt if the Government would send another seaplane.

INFORMATIVE.

Quest'ns asked in the House of Commons do not always elicit the precise information sought. Political considerations are often reflected in a convenient form of evasion which frequently characterizes the reply.

In what way are the rights of Canadians in Japan limited as to ownership of land, franchises, mercantile pursuits, fishing, shipping (coastwise and foreign), mining, agriculture, and other pursuits such as are engaged in by Japanese in Canada?

To this part of Dr. Tolmie's inquiry the Prime Minister replied in detail and included in his memorandum certain statistics which show the total number of Japanese who have arrived here since 1912-1913.

In common with other foreigners, Canadians cannot as individuals own land in Japan. They can, however, if they form an association and become "juridical persons" under Japanese law.

Canadian vessels may not engage in the coasting trade between Japanese ports and Canadians may not become owners of ships flying the Japanese flag.

They may not become shareholders of the Bank of Japan, the Yokohama Specie Bank, the Bank of Korea, the South Manchuria Railway Company, the Oriental Development Company and certain other companies, or of shipping companies in receipt of a Government subsidy.

The foregoing is self-explanatory and contains a large amount of matter that will serve to contrast the political systems existing in this country and in the Island Kingdom.

Because a British publisher warns the Government of the Motherland that the Empire will lose the three Prairie Provinces of Canada unless the cattle embargo shall be removed it does not follow that he will be taken seriously on either side of the Atlantic.

other hand it is a poor advertisement for Empire management in the face of our relationship of equality with Great Britain. As the Manitoba Free Press says: "If Canada is a Crown Colony of Great Britain it can talk about seceding or it can attempt to secede if this is its desire; but if Canada is a British nation of equal status with Great Britain, as it will be when there is a redefinition of relationship, there is no room for any talk of secession."

HOPEFUL SIGNS.

One significant statement and one important suggestion have been made by two of Great Britain's prominent Labor Leaders during the week end. Mr. J. H. Thomas, the guiding light of the National Union of Railwaymen, told a meeting of the Railwaymen's Union at Falkirk yesterday that the men's failures, if failures there were, were due not to their leaders nor the Government, but to the jealousies and suspicions existing in their own ranks.

Mr. Frank Hodges, the man behind the gun in the two great coal strikes in Britain, proposes a ten-year truce between Capital and Labor by which both sides would agree to a suspension of the policy of strikes and lock-outs for that period.

Mr. Lloyd George proposed the Conference to revive it. His proposal was "open doors of commerce, not national barriers." So far it has had little appeal.

At the present time there is a disposition on the part of the Labor Party in Great Britain to abandon its unpractical theories and to co-operate with employers in reviving prosperity.

Although it is still without official confirmation the report has gone out from Genoa that the British delegation will leave the Italian City at the end of the week. Such a course would not necessarily mean that the Conference will have been a complete failure.

Because his premier aim at Genoa has been peace, while the premier aim of some of our allies has been money. Because he knows that the money aim can only lead to war—a war without a soul, a war against a despairing Germany with a famishing Russia behind it.

Because America, with her great morale, has not been at Genoa to support Britain in her fight for the peace of the world. The great author and publicist does not spare the Northcliffe press. He is merciful towards Premier Poincare because "daily and hourly he was being deceived" by a chain of newspapers in Great Britain which conducted a studied campaign to impress upon the French Premier and the French people the damaging impression that "Lloyd George was not really thinking about establishing the peace of the world, but only about his own fortunes." From this Sir Hall Caine goes on to say: "Never in the history of the British press has there been a more vicious plot to evade and insult the will of the British Parliament. It is just as if some mean or group of men had said: 'This government must go. They had the mighty power and responsibility of newspapers to be used to instruct the public and influence the destinies of nations. No power was ever more sacred, but they used it to awaken prejudices, to stir up strife, to make bad blood between nation and nation, and to dislocate an angry world. There was no measure in their minds. Hating Genoa and wishing it to fail, they helped its difficulties with joy. As often as a crisis came, they trumpeted it with jubilation. They had no moral scruples over and over again to influence the policy of France against any possible relations with Russia towards cancelling the Russian debts—it was false. They said that although Lloyd George had posed before the world as shocked by the secret treaty between Germany and Russia, he was "understood to have inspired the text of the treaty." It was false. They said that in conversation with a representative of France, Lloyd George had declared the intention to be at an end—it was false.

And every false statement made against the British Premier at Genoa was in the miter at the British Parliament and at the people of this country. The men who have done these things are patriots. I believe they are. Some of the more prominent of them have proved their patriotism by great and noble services to the nation. Yet no greater crimes against the country could have been committed by a traitor.

Even at this distance the Northcliffe "cards" could be seen face uppermost. This section of the British press has forgotten what the world said on November 11, 1918. "Never again!" came from victors and vanquished. But Genoa has discovered those nations which have got over the effects of "the morning after the night before." They are figuratively ready to tap another bottle and get into the mood which takes no stock in anything save that of its own particular cravings. "Never again!" seems a thing of the past. Mr. Lloyd George proposed the Conference to revive it. His proposal was "open doors of commerce, not national barriers." So far it has had little appeal.

At the present time there is a disposition on the part of the Labor Party in Great Britain to abandon its unpractical theories and to co-operate with employers in reviving prosperity. The two utterances from Messrs. Thomas and Hodges lend hope to this sign of the times.

County Kilkenny has formed a league "for the defence of life and property and all rights and liberties immediately connected therewith." The body has also pledged itself to refrain from forcing its political or religious views upon others. Simple and effective but so unpopular with many.

Mr. Lloyd George said yesterday: "A part of non-aggression is fundamental to economic reconstruction. Every nation in Europe must recognize the sanctity of its neighbor's boundaries. Frontiers will then become open doors of commerce, not national barriers. Peace is the first essential." This is what the man in the street says; but many of those who hold high office with salaries paid by him have other ideas.

FLOREAT VICTORIA. To the Editor:—Now the smoke of battle is over on Sunday closing I should like in all seriousness to see the gentlemen who have led the campaign for the plebiscite put to use the same dynamic energy of their organization to make the industrial situation of the Victoria District the most vital question before the citizens to-day.

that there was the necessary energy here, as shown by the campaign proved it, and the same rightly used in the cause of industry to every person who has a stake in the building up of Greater Victoria. At the same time backing up the work of those who have been "on the job" for all time. A "movement" with the object stated should bring in all the municipalities surrounding Victoria, to co-act with all the organizations of Victoria in a combined effort to develop the industrial prosperity of Victoria District. And here I could suggest that from the start a guiding principal should be; that it be considered "Taboo to Knock" any proposal affecting the welfare of Victoria and Vancouver Island, whether in private or public, so as to eventually eliminate the miserable knocker out of Victoria for all time. Now, Victorians, get together in earnest and show Seattle and Vancouver, that Victoria must and will have her industries for the development of Vancouver Island's resources, and make for progress on sane and definite lines, realizing at the same time that the industrial development of the Pacific will need the services of all three ports. Nothing worth while can be gained by anything less than a whole-hearted pride in each other's progress for the National welfare, not sectional only. Thanking you if you can see your way to place this in your paper so that the interest of some at least may be aroused in the community, and do away with this deadly apathy in our midst. G. E. HODGSON. P. S.—Then you will see the tourist crowd over here to see what's doing! Parliament Road, May 14, 1922.

EASY DAYS OF SPOON-FED IMMIGRANTS GONE, SAYS PATTULLO BACK FROM EAST. (Continued from page 1) a large number of people who are already here have been flocking to the cities and have given indication that they expect the Government to work out a solution. "People have got to come to a realization that the way of easy money is over and that only by work and perseverance can progress be made. There is no royal road to development of our resources any more than there is to learning. Necessity is the mother of invention and difficulties are themselves a spur to their own solution. Make Good Citizens. "A careful selection of healthy immigrants in reasonable numbers should not meet with any insuperable difficulty in assimilation. Canada is bound to be a country composed of people of various extractions. In the City of Prince Rupert we have a cosmopolitan population. I venture to say that many of our citizens had nothing when they came here, yet they have rendered a valuable service in helping to build up this city, the city of Prince Rupert, while at the same time they have worked out for themselves a comfortable position in the life of the community. "There is no reason why we should not continue to absorb the virtuous healthy people of many nationalities

THE DRYDOCK. To the Editor:—Now that we have secured the drydock, Vancouver Island need no longer be deemed to be so called, because it belongs to the City of Vancouver. The authorities at Ottawa, which itself is a dry city in more senses than one, no doubt realized how preposterous was the idea of having a drydock in the Terminal City. Fancy a dock kept dry by means of umbrellas! I would add that Victoria should regard the men who fought so valiantly for so successfully for us at Ottawa as real benefactors. A VICTORIAN.

CORRECTION. To the Editor:—In Friday's issue a note appeared in which it was stated that the Memorial Service at the Parliament Buildings on the 4th of June, under the auspices of the Army and Navy Veterans would be concluded by the pipe band of the 15th Battalion, "Canadian Scouts," playing "The Lament of the Flowers." Your correspondent must surely mean "The Flowers of the Forest," which is the best lament written for the bagpipers, the others being "Lochaber No More," "Scots Wha Hae," and "The Land O' the Leal." HIGHLANDER.

SPOKE ON "CIVIC AFFAIRS." Alderman Hayward gave an optimistic address on "Civic Affairs" before a large gathering of Gyrons at their luncheon to-day. Optimism was required to bring about better times, he contended. He called upon everyone to turn the heel for better times and display an optimistic front. Both in business and pleasure optimism repeats itself. Optimism, he asserted, Miss Eleanor McLennan sang an appropriate musical number, which was much appreciated.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY. Victoria Daily Times, May 15, 1897. Ottawa: Hon. Mr. Laurier said in the House to-day that the Government did not want to be bound by the provisions of the treaty between Great Britain and so notified the Imperial authorities. Montreal: Liberals won a sweeping victory in the provincial elections here yesterday. The citizens' committees which are arranging details of the Diamond Jubilee celebration have arranged the whole city for fund-raising necessary to stage an elaborate programme. Thomas Fawcett, the gold commissioner appointed by the Dominion Government for the Yukon country, arrived here from Ottawa last night.

and the time to get them here is when they are young. We cannot expect middle aged men and women to forget the land of nativity. They would be poor citizens of this country who could so soon forget their own, but we can expect that they will be law abiding Canadians, and that their children will grow up to be through and through Canadians.

To Have Conference. "The Minister of the Interior proposed to call a conference of Dominion and Provincial representatives in order to bring about a co-ordination and co-operation of effort that there may be no overlapping. I assured the Minister that British Columbia was only too anxious to co-operate, and suggested to the Minister that wherever immigration work was undertaken, Provincial representatives, nominees of the Provincial Government, should be taken into the Dominion service in order that reliable and first-hand information might be available in the work. For example, it can hardly be expected that a man from the Maritime Provinces would know much of British Columbia, and it seems obvious that someone familiar with each Province should be available to carry on the work." Discussed Reserves. "While in Ottawa Mr. Pattullo also took up the Indian Reserve question, which has been outstanding for a long time, and which the Provincial Government has been desirous of getting finally adjusted. Specifically, reference was made to the Kitilano Reserve, Vancouver, and the Songhees Reserve, Victoria. "The Department of the Interior and the Marine Department assured me that these matters would be pursued without delay." Mr. Pattullo went on.

Urges Parks Development. He also discussed tentatively the matter of park administration in connection with the arrangements made some time ago with the Dominion Government to administer the Banff-Windermere Park. He also pointed out that the Mount Robson Park adjacent to Jasper Park on the Canadian National Railway, is wonderfully attractive, and properly developed would be the rendezvous of thousands of tourists. "While no definite arrangements have been made, I think that with the Dominion and Province co-operating, much more effective work can be done in the development of the park," Mr. Pattullo went on. "This will be advantageous to B. C. in general and Northern B. C. in particular."

Mr. Pattullo also told Ottawa that in connection with the claim of the Prairie Province for the return of their natural resources, B. C. expected consideration of its claim for the return of the "Railway Belt" and the "Peace River Rock."

FINE PROGRAMME FOR CLOSING RECITAL

Ladies' Musical Club Will Say "Adieu" at Wednesday Concert

An attractive programme has been prepared by the Ladies' Musical Club for the final recital before closing for the summer season at the Empress Hotel ballroom on Wednesday.

Of great interest to music lovers will be the fact that the club has been fortunate enough to secure Miss Jay Calvert as solo violinist, this talented young artist having been too seldom heard since her return to Victoria after years of study abroad and in New York under the best of modern masters.

Mrs. Robert Baird, always a favorite with Victoria audiences, will sing the beautiful aria from "Samson and Delilah," "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," and the gavotte from "Mignon."

Mrs. Harry Briggs' fine dramatic soprano will also be heard in a brilliant operatic aria, while Kenneth Angus's rich baritone, and keen dramatic intensity will be given free scope in a duo with Mrs. Baird and also a solo from "Le Bal Masque."

Miss Marjorie Broley, one of the most gifted of local pianists, who for many months past has been studying with Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green, will also contribute to the programme.

Mrs. Clifford Warn will accompany the soloists.

This concert will be open to the general public, but members, of course, are admitted on their tickets being presented at the door.

The season that is just closing has been a highly successful one for the club. Their recitals since last October have musically covered a wide field and have greatly stimulated and interested young students towards a more thorough and comprehensive study of the art.

To be just such a working force in the community is well worth while, for the main mission of the progressive musical club of to-day is one of service. There can be no argument as to the value of organized effort in rendering service to the community for the axiom that "organization compels recognition" is as old as the hills.

ESQUIMALT HAS CORPS OF GIRL GUIDES

Mrs. W. C. Nichol Addressed Inaugural Meeting at the Lampson Street School

Lampson Street School was attended by many interested children and their parents at a meeting held on Friday night under the auspices of the Esquimalt Women's Institute to organize a Girl Guide corps for Esquimalt.

The chief provincial officers of the movement were present, including Mrs. W. C. Nichol, Provincial Commissioner of Girl Guides, who offered hearty support and best wishes for the success of the Esquimalt Girl Guide corps.

Mrs. Nichol explained that the formation of a local unit had been held back by lack of officers, but that two splendid prospective leaders had been found in Miss Douglas-Crompton and Miss Johnson, whom she had much pleasure in introducing. The Provincial Commissioner spoke with great appreciation of the Lampson Street school, which had greeted her on arrival by singing "God Save the King," followed by a group of three charmingly rendered selections. Mrs. Nichol said she had not heard such sweetness of tone and perfection of diction since she heard the celebrated Middle Temple choir in England.

Mrs. Oldston, commissioner for Yokohama, Japan, told how the Girl Guide movement was used to instill truly British tradition in the hearts of the British children in Japan, a proof of whose loyalty was shown by the manner of celebrating St. George's Day, when all the Guides, Brownies and Wolf Cubs assemble at 6 a.m. to remember their British brothers and sisters all over the world and to have the honor of being the first to salute the flag on that day held sacred to the Motherland.

Miss Leighton, commissioner for Victoria district, explained the movement very fully, and told of the play as well as the work enjoyed by the Guides and of her experiences as officer of the first patrol that was formed.

Miss Leighton, secretary of the Victoria District Girl Guides, showed pictures illustrative of camp life in England and also of local Guide experiences, concluding with the popular portrait of Princess Mary in her uniform as head of the movement.

Mrs. Tyrrell Godman, Deputy Provincial Commissioner, in her address touched on some of the broadest and most vital issues of the Girl Guide organization, showing it to be a wide sisterhood, so that Guides know that wherever in the world they may be called upon to go, they need never be lonely, for their sisters in every part are ready to greet them. Each could look on herself as a little link in a great chain of loyalty and love stretching round the world.

Mrs. Ricketts, president of the Esquimalt Women's Institute, who occupied the chair, offered a vote of thanks to Mrs. W. C. Nichol and all ladies who had attended, which was heartily given, as were the thanks tendered by Miss Leighton to Mr. Tait, principal of the school, to Mrs. Waddington's choir and to Miss Riddell, whose sympathetic accompaniments were so helpful to the little singers.

Another group of songs from the choir ended a very successful evening.

The special meetings of the Lady Alderson Chapter, I. O. E., called to consider resolutions for the national annual meeting will be held at headquarters on Wednesday next at 2:30, instead of Tuesday, as previously advertised.

Mme. Lugin-Fahey, Canada's leading concert singer, left for Prince Rupert to-day to appear in the northern British Columbia city this week. She is accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Gibson, who will play her accompaniments during her present tour.

Mme. Lugin-Fahey will return next Sunday to Victoria, where she is visiting at her family home in Esquimalt. Later she will appear in concert in American Coast cities.

The gifted Victoria soprano has appeared in Prince Rupert before and is as popular there as in other Canadian cities in which she has sung from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

The annual meeting of the King's Daughters will be held in the rest room on Thursday next at 8 o'clock. Business:

1. To receive District President's report.

2. To elect District President for 1922.

3. To elect a representative from the District Local on the Board of Directors of the King's Daughters' Hospital, Duncan.

A pleasing ceremony took place on Saturday afternoon at the meeting of the junior branch of the Women's Auxiliary of the Columbia Diocesan Board, when two beautiful banners were presented to the Cathedral Branch and St. Mary's Branch for exceptional records of service. The Cathedral Branch won this commendation on account of its exemplary pledge fund, and St. Mary's for a largely increased membership. The banners were the work of Mrs. John Harvey.

Probably the future looks dark because coming events cast their shadows before.

MAJOR LEAGUE PLAYERS SAIL ON CANADA

Party Booked for New C.P.R. Liner's Departure for Orient October 19

A team of major league ball players, representing the highest type of player the great American game has given to the public, accompanied by their wives, newspaper men and two major league umpires, will sail from Vancouver and Victoria October 19, on the Canadian Pacific "wonder ship" the Empress of Canada for an extended tour of the Orient, visiting Japan, Korea, Manchuria, China, the Philippines and Hawaii, pending Judge Landis's consent.

The party will be in charge of Herbert Hunter, who is well known throughout the Orient because of his accomplishments as baseball coach of Waseda and Keio Universities, two of the most popular institutions of learning in the land of the Mikado. He is also highly esteemed in major league circles, having been affiliated with the Giants, Cuba, Red Sox and Cardinals.

The distinct features of this tour headed by Mr. Hunter are: First, the major league players while in Japan where they play a series of twelve games stretched over a period of five weeks beginning November 4, will be the guests of Waseda and Keio Universities; second, the enterprise purposes solely to stimulate interest in America's national game in Japan and to develop a keener sense of the value of athletics and clean sportsmanship, free from any state of commercialism, in the life of a nation.

Will Speak on Radio.—Perhaps nothing has taken the popular fancy of people on this continent so much, in the past few years, as wireless telephony and the transmission of music by air. Speaking on this subject A. P. Hill, radio engineer of the Sprott-Shaw Institute, will address the regular gathering of the Kiwanis Club to-morrow at the Dominion Hotel, commencing at 12.14 p.m. An excellent musical programme has been arranged for the event.

Veterans Hold Frolic.—One of the liveliest attractions yet staged by the organization, "A Night in a Rest Camp," put on by the Amalgamated Veterans on Saturday evening last, proved a huge success, a substantial sum being realized for the unemployed fund. Fortunes were made and lost on a turn of the wheel, but the money in use was of a low rate of exchange, being "bogus" wealth. Racing hobby horses, and many of the card games played by the Tommies overseas, rounded out the proceedings, which ended with a hearty vote of thanks for those who had planned the successful affair.

Plan Radio Concert.—A radio concert with local artists supplying the programme will be the novel feature that is planned by the Victoria Welsh Choral Society, in conjunction with the Sprott-Shaw School, to take place on Wednesday next. The music will be transmitted on a 400 metre wave length and will be capable of reception by sets using a crystal detector. Forty voices, in many old favorites, will be heard through the medium of the ether.

MOTOR ACCIDENT ON EAST SAANICH ROAD

Dismounting From Stage, Passenger Struck by Passing Car

Mrs. Howe, of 3273 Tennyson Ave., is in the Royal Jubilee Hospital, as a result of a motor car accident at the corner of Brookleigh Road and East Saanich Road, at 5.15 this morning.

Mrs. Howe, who was a passenger of Jones' stage, which was traveling north alighted from the car with two other passengers at Brookleigh Road after the car had stopped.

She crossed in front of the stage, and was struck by an American touring car also proceeding north, and owned by P. K. Reckner, of Anacortes, Washington. The accident was unavoidable for the motorist, owing to the fact that Mrs. Howe was not observed until the car was on top of her, having crossed in front of the stage instead of the back. She was rushed to the Royal Jubilee Hospital by Dr. Kenny in his car, where it was found that she had escaped with minor injuries and bruises.

In response to a call for the ambulance Sergeant Boulton with Constables Pook and Shakespeare responded, rendering what could be done in the way of first aid.

Mrs. Stout was considered to be the more seriously hurt, and was taken to her home in the patrol, where Dr. Bost attended. Mrs. Petticrew and Mrs. Barber were taken home in a private car.

Mrs. Barber was a native of Cockenzie, Scotland, and had resided here for the past thirty-three years. She leaves a son, John Barber, and her daughter, with whom she resided.

Following the inquest, the funeral will take place on Wednesday at 3.30 o'clock at the Sands Funeral Chapel, interment to take place at Ross Bay Cemetery.

ACCUSED DISLIKES NAMING OF BURGLAR'S TOOLS IN KIT

Found with a "Jimmy" and a burglar's lamp in his suit case, Philip Roberts, alias Murphy, was arraigned in the city police court to-day, charged with robbery. The accused, upon cross-examination by C. L. Harrison, for the Crown, displayed a full lack of knowledge as to the uses of these instruments, and was characterized by the "Jimmy" as a chisel, objecting strongly to the use of the former term by the court. The accused was equally sensitive about the use of the term "burglar's lamp" and the use of a pair of smoked glass goggles found in the suit case, holding that these, along with the lamp, had belonged to an individual called Smoky. A warning from an alleged confederate in Vancouver telling the accused and Smoky to lay low at the police were on the look-out in that city, was admitted by the accused, who admitted also serving two jail terms.

Detective Rogers and Constable McLeelan told of the arrest and search of the premises, a room in the Pullman Rooms. They were accompanied, the Crown in the meantime to investigate a statement made by the accused regarding his occupation.

CITY HALL CLOCK DIALS PLAY TRICK WITH PUBLIC

After long years of patient and faithful service, the four-dialled City Hall clock began to manifest dangerous signs of mechanical dementia to-day. Dropping to a full ten minutes behind other clocks at about 11 o'clock, it suddenly began to function separately, and at eleven and by noon, when its official supervisor, former Mayor C. E. Redfern, who has long had technical charge of the clock, was hastily summoned to see what was wrong, it appeared to be in a disgraceful state of intoxication.

"Sunday closing evidently doesn't agree with it," Mayor Marchant asserted when city officials came rushing into his office with the news of the clock's disreputable behaviour.

"Or daylight saving," suggested one of the City Council members who doesn't like early summer time.

"Maybe it's just Spring fever," said John Baxter, the Mayor's secretary. "I cannot understand it," explained Chief Janitor Evan Davis, himself a clock expert, as he hurried off to telephone to Mr. Redfern to tell him that the clock was running wild. "It's a very serious thing, for people depend upon that clock, and may lose street cars, trains and boats if it should go wrong."

Janitor Amazed

The trouble was first noticed when, at a quarter to twelve, the old clock suddenly clanged out half-past eleven. City officials looked at their watches and office clocks and found them registering a quarter to twelve. They hurried into other offices to find out what was wrong. All agreed that it was a quarter to twelve, and that the big clock, for the first time in their memory, had lied deliberately. When Mr. Davis, summoned by the protestations of the officials, climbed to the clock tower, he found the hands on the south dial registering about twenty-five minutes to twelve, while the western dial blatantly informed the world that it was a quarter to twelve, and the other dial straggling along in between. Mr. Davis was so astonished that he almost fell off the ladder, and admitted: "It is hoped to adjust matters to-night."

FIRES OVER WEEK-END.

A blaze at 1219 Langley Street gave the department a run at 11 o'clock Saturday night, little damage being done. At 1.30 on Sunday morning the department was called to an alarm at A. H. Maynard's, Pandora Street, where a small fire was quenched. At 4 a.m. a false alarm occasioned a needless run to the corner of Douglas and View Streets, while the runs of the day were concluded by a trip to 1029 Yates Street yesterday evening.

IS SUIING CITY.

Before Mr. Justice Macdonald in the Supreme Court to-day the suit of Kendall versus the City of Victoria was formally opened by H. A. Maclean, K.C., for the Plaintiff, Charles E. Kendall, who is suing the city for $3,500 damages for alleged failure to give notice of the tax sale of his land. H. B. Robertson, K.C., with H. S. Pringle as acting for the city, deny the claim, stating that notice was given. The evidence this morning turned on a letter from the city written to Mr. Kendall and addressed in the name of "Rendall," an error that led to the whole suit. Argument is continuing before the court this afternoon.

Sings in Victoria!

Sheer good fortune brings Mde. D'Alvarez to Victoria. For several years she has been invited to sing in Pacific Coast cities, but her engagements in the larger centres of the East have made acceptance impossible.

On May 19 Mde. D'Alvarez will sing at the Arena—the following day she sails for Australia. Just as soon as it was announced that Mde. D'Alvarez would sing here, requests for seat reservations were received from Vancouver, Seattle and many Up-Island points.

Musicians everywhere in the Pacific Northwest recognize that this opportunity to hear the world's greatest contralto may not occur again for many years. Important, too, is the fact that Mde. D'Alvarez's voice is now at the full apex of its power and beauty.

For this important musical event special attractions are being made at the Arena, so that everyone can hear Mde. D'Alvarez and admission charges are reasonable in the extreme. Tickets are now on sale at this store.

Avalanche of Hits Smothered Knights

Opening Amateur Ball Game Resulted in Great Display of Hitting Ability of Eagles and a Weird Exhibition of Fielding by Columbus's Followers — Score Was 23-2

After digging deep into the ancient history of amateur baseball in Victoria, Uncle Josh tells us that records galore were smashed in Saturday's opening between the Knights of Columbus and the Eagles at the Stadium.

To begin with the score was a record. The Eagles after their repeat on Sunday, followed by a colossal performance for a mere 23 runs, that's about as near as the official scorers got to it through the fact that he left part of his equipment at home, namely one adding machine. The left hand arms all know how many runs the Knights collected. They tried hard all afternoon but they got so dizzy watching the Eagles flapping around the paths that they could only make the passage twice.

Hit Like the Dickens.

Speaking about hits they just bounced off the Eagles' bats like hail off a tin roof. To be correct there were 25 hits all told and these varied from a high-sailing clout by Deacon McElvride which cleared the right-field wall to a bunt. The Eagles made their blows count for thirty-five bases. They didn't steal any bases because there wasn't the need to exert themselves.

Brown Was Good.

But for the opening game of the season the players showed considerable form. The Eagles were in fine shape and behind the splendid twirling of we Eddie Brown they looked like champions. They did not have Johnnie Cummings nor Smiler Peterson in uniform, owing to their presence in the Metropolis football team, but the team functioned fine just the same.

Pleanty of Hitting.

Herb Cummings led the Eagles with the willow hitting safely on his six trips to the plate. Hap Gandy, McElvride, Green and Robinson, each connected three times, one of Green's hefty wallop going for three bases. The Eagles scored five runs in the first inning and followed this up with three in the second. In the third they laid in at the death, and the paths and crossed the plate in the fourth, three in the fifth and two in the eighth.

Look Like Contenders.

The Eagles showed enough class to make them certain contenders for the flag. They have most of Yarrow's team which won the championship last year. They are snappy in the field and given consistent pitching will be in at the death.

CUBS LOST TO OLD RIVALS IN TENTH

Alexander and Barnes Had Gay Old Pitcher's Battle; Yanks Out of Luck

Only U.S. Competitor in British Ladies' Open Golf Championship, Is Eliminated

Sandwich, Eng., May 15.—Miss Rosamond Sherwood, the only American contestant, was eliminated from the Ladies' Open Golf championship tournament on the Prince's course in the opening round to-day, when Mrs. Fletcher, of Wembley, defeated her three up and two to go.

Last year the United States was represented by a large number of prominent golfers, but this year only one crossed the Atlantic, and since she has been eliminated the only British championship is in no danger of leaving these shores.

New York, May 15.—Jim Barnes, national open golf champion, has announced that he will again seek the British open title in the championship to be held this year at Sandwich, June 22 and 23.

Saints Win Soccer Title But No Cup

South Wellington Files Protest Over Unofficial Referee Handling Their Game With St. Andrew's, and While Saints Succeeded in Defeating Metropolis on Saturday by 2-1, They Cannot Get Their Hands on Cup

Vancouver, May 15.—Disposition of the Daily Province Cup for this, the first year of its existence, now lies with the B. C. F. A., or possibly the D. P. A. The educated toes of Saint Andrew's footballers won it on the field of play, but whether that club secure the fine trophy or not is up to the educated craniums of the football officials.

Ingogs kept up their merry hitting, and still repose at the top of the Victoria and District Cricket League standing with a perfect average. They have won their three matches quite handsily, and it remains to be seen what Victoria and the Garrison can do against them. The Ingogs scored heavily against the Albions, and took the Five C's "A" into camp by a fairly respectable score. On Saturday they message the Army and Navy for another brilliant win.

Season's Biggest Total.

Victoria's batting mood on Saturday and ran up its total to 235, the largest total of the year. The Five C's "B" tried out nine bowlers, but the score mounted rapidly against them. The Army and Navy were dismissed by 72 runs.

Albions Still Going.

Albions continued their winning streak and numbered the Garrison among their victims. This was expected to be the closest match of the afternoon, but the Albions bowlers, Jordan and Hudson, had the Garrison all out for 45, the smallest score of the afternoon.

BEBE DANIELS IS STARRED AT DOMINION

Screen Favorite in Captivating Picture Story All Week

Bebe Daniels, brilliant young star in a new picture, which is admirably suited to her capabilities as an artist, cannot fail to interest young and old screen fans throughout the country. That is why the announcement that Miss Daniels will be seen in Frances Harmer's captivating picture story, "One Wild Week," which was superbly produced by the Realart Pictures Corporation and distributed by Famous Lasky Features Ltd., should be hailed with delight by all concerned. Elmer Harris, who supervised the production of "One Wild Week," is recognized as a distinct force in the screen world. His authorship of original stories for the screen as vehicles for Wanda Hawley and Bebe Daniels, following years of association with the stage and with dramatic journalism, have given him the basic experience and an all-round view necessary to the occupant of his responsible position as supervisor and editor of productions starring Bebe Daniels, Wanda Hawley, Mary Miles Minter, and Constance Binney and several others. "One Wild Week" will play at the Dominion all this week starting today.

Corinne Griffith has become quite a globe-trotter in the last few months. Last December saw her on the Florida Coast, four miles South of Miami, making the exterior for "Island Wives," a story of the South Seas. In January and February, she was at Fort William Henry on the lower end of Lake George taking the "snow stuff" for her latest release, "A Virgin's Sacrifice," the action of which is laid in the Canadian Northwest. Now she is down South again in Charleston, S.C., where she is working on her next picture.

"IS MATRIMONY A FAILURE" IS SUBJECT

An Attractive Home Play Screened at Capitol

Is matrimony a failure? "Maybe it is and maybe it isn't," observes T. Roy Barnes, who plays one of the all-star roles in the new Paramount special comedy, "Is Matrimony a Failure?" which will be shown at the Capitol Theatre all week.

"Be that as it may," continues the actor, "there are many things which are entered up in the books in red on the failure side of the account—little breakers which buffet the matrimonial ship about in its stormy voyage and keep the vessel all shaken up."

A few of these disturbers according to Mr. Barnes might be listed as follows:

Using hubby's best razor to carve corns and open canned goods.

Letting his socks go holey and forgetting to sew the buttons on his coat.

Interference by one parent when the other chastises one of the offspring. This gets the parent's goat and spoils the child.

Too many "important business" appointments by hubby after business hours.

Going through hubby's trouser pockets before he wakes up in the morning.

A few of these are illustrated by

"THE INFIDEL" AT ROYAL THIS WEEK

Katherine MacDonald Appears in Big Drama

The truly unusual picture, the screen product that is out of the ordinary in the matter of its drama, its characterizations, its locale and the other elements that enter into the composition of the big play of the screen, happens only once in a while. When it comes along it is acclaimed an accomplishment of extraordinary calibre and artistic worth. When Katherine MacDonald's latest First National picture, "The Infidel," was shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre this afternoon, the public enjoyed just such a production—a photodrama that can truthfully be described as an outstanding picture.

In "The Infidel" Katherine MacDonald registers as an actress of brilliant attainments. Heretofore regarded largely as an actress of exceptional beauty, Miss MacDonald, in this production, displays a wealth of emotional talent. She is seen in the role of a beautiful young unbeliever, thrown in contact with the missionaries and the natives of the South Sea Isles. She falls in love with the man whose ruin she nearly brings about, when she discovers that she has been made the unwitting tool of another who aims to gain control of the copra trade.

There is an island uprising in which the marines come to the rescue in thrilling fashion. The chain of circumstances changes the viewpoint of the girl; she becomes a believer, and a fascinating romance comes to a happy conclusion.

Charles Logue's story lends itself admirably to the screen. It offers unexampled opportunities not only to Miss MacDonald, but to Joseph Dowling, Robert Ellis, Melbourne MacDowell, Barbara Tennant and others of the capable supporting cast. Photographically "The Infidel" reveals some extraordinarily picturesque and interesting scenes in the far-off isles of the Southern Pacific.

As an added attraction the motion pictures taken on the stage and of the audience during the engagement of Miss Lovely will be shown at every performance.

TOM MIX SCORES IN COLUMBIA OFFERING

Tom Mix did another good job when, as star, he made "After Your Own Heart" for William Fox. And his supporting cast have plenty of opportunity to shine. "After Your Own Heart" will be shown for the first time here to-day at the Columbia Theatre, and it showed that Fox again has scored a bulls-eye in seek-

Famous Vocalist Will Appear at Arena Friday

MADAME D'ALVAREZ AS "CARMEN"

"I consider it a great privilege that Victorians are to hear the famous contralto, Mme. D'Alvarez, so soon after her operatic triumph when she sang at the very height of her success and at her best," said Mrs. Gideon Hicks, President of the Woman's Musical Club. "This opportunity has only come to us as Mme. D'Alvarez is passing through to Australia to sing in the musical centres of that country which are likened to the cities of South America for their musical appreciation. It may be many years before we have a similar opportunity and it is to be hoped that Victorians will realize what a great artist she is. I understand that the Arena, as is done elsewhere, has been taken for the appearance of D'Alvarez with the express purpose of pricing the tickets so low that it will bring this wonderful opportunity within the reach of all."

ing a feature for Mix. The story is full of speedy action and wholesome sentiment. It was written by the well-known fictionist William Wallace Cook.

In "After Your Own Heart" the author took an old-water-hole between two ranches, and from the dispute over this water hole he wove a stirring western picture and put into it a pretty romance.

"TWIN BEDS" AT PRINCESS WEDNESDAY

A change of policy at the Princess that has excited pleasant anticipation on the part of the patrons is announced to take place the coming Wednesday when the company launches forth into a season of musical comedy. The first selection has been "Twin Beds," which will be produced in its musical form. The company intends to do them in the same painstaking manner that has governed all their efforts. So a chorus of pretty girls who can sing and dance has been added to the roster of the company. They are now busy rehearsing their numbers for the opening bill Wednesday night. The parts in "Twin Beds" are very funny ones and should be well done by the cast that has been selected by the stage director. Jack Phipps and Violet Neils in the two leads should romp through their parts, while Harry Leland as the amorous Italian tenor should find a part much to his liking, while Vivian Moore as his wife completes a quartette of great fun-makers. Earl Moore and Lily Dooley aside from their playing of two important parts will offer pleasing musical numbers assisted by the chorus as will Vivian Moore, Nellie Dooley has the chorus in charge and this fact will ensure patrons that their work will be well done. Only five performances will be given including the matinee on Saturday.

"THE GOSSIP" TO BE FEATURE OF REVUE

Two-day Performance at the Pantages This Week

The success enjoyed by local production in the past has given an impetus to the interest being shown in the coming new revue entitled "Patches" and there is little doubt that crowded houses will greet the local artists at Pantages Theatre on May 19-20. Enthusiasm has been the key note of the members of the club, during rehearsal, all having entered into the new songs and sketches with a zest that insures success. One of the many sketches which will no doubt bring many laughs in a short comedy entitled "The Gossip," written by C. H. C. Leitch. The setting is made in the Empress Hotel and the leading roles are taken by Miss Laidie Watkins, Mr. Boothroy-Corby and C. H. C. Leitch, assisted by Miss Wyles and Mrs. Jost.

The writer of the sketch has undoubtedly drawn his idea from every day life in Victoria and centres the play on a honeymoon couple from Winnipeg, the part of the gossip will be presented by the author himself, when he will endeavor to give a correct interpretation and bring out the many humorous and ludicrous situations.

DEATH CALLS POPULAR MUSICIAN

Madame Bennett-Brock Had Resided Here Six Years

Had Traveled Widely in Younger Days

Victorians are the poorer to-day through the death yesterday morning of Madame Evelyn Bennett-Brock, known for the past six years in this city as a most accomplished musician and a wonderfully striking personality.

Born fifty years ago in New York, Evelyn Kallman early developed the beautiful voice which was to win her honors, and a successful career on the operatic stage. After her marriage, which took place at Los Angeles at the age of eighteen to Leon Bennett-Brock, a prominent business man of Buffalo, and a man of culture and wide sympathies, she spent several years travelling about Europe with him. It was finally decided, however, that she should have the best technical training as well as the advantages to be derived from the artistic associations of musical student life in Italy. To Milan, therefore, with her husband, went the young singer, and there for six or seven years worked with fervor and determination to develop the golden mezzo-soprano voice with which Dame Fortune had endowed her. Her master, who was of Spanish birth, taught her the methods of the old Italian school, and later sent her to Barcelona to study there under his own maestro. She made her debut there as an operatic singer, and made rapid progress in her art, singing the leading roles in all the famous operas, two of her favorite roles being "Carmen" and "Aida."

Unfortunately, however, the strain of public life and the arduous demands of her profession proved too exacting for a naturally frail constitution. Fresh from the plaudits of the Barcelona Opera House the young diva was on her way to an engagement at the famous LaScala at Milan when she was overtaken by illness. Ordered a long sea voyage home, Madame Bennett-Brock went first to Australia, as the first stage on a world-journey, but was persuaded to stay there, and try the beneficial effects of the Australian climate. Making her home in Sydney, she remained some years, but decided finally to come to Victoria to join her aunt, Madame Kosche, resident in this city. Coming to Victoria six years ago she opened a studio and engaged in the teaching of her beloved art, prominent among her pupils being Mrs. D. M. McConnan, whose recent debut on the professional stage offered valuable testimony to Madame Bennett-Brock's gift for teaching.

Mme. Brock's public appearances in the city were limited by her frail health to two recitals, arranged for patriotic objects, about three years ago, and two occasions at the Christian Science Church, of which she was a devoted member. Debarred

DRY BONES RATTLE AT QUAL D'ORSAY

Poincaré Orders Early Hours; "Fires" Fifty Girls

Paris, May 15.—The advent of Raymond Poincaré has caused an upheaval in the offices of the Qual d'Orsay. Justifying his reputation as a martinet, the new Premier announced that he would not tolerate any slackness, and many clerks and officials, including some who occupied quite high positions, found it necessary to abandon indolent habits acquired during the reign of casy-going Aristide Briand.

M. Poincaré is in his cabinet at 9 o'clock in the morning sharp and woe betide the man who is not at his post when the Premier rings for him. Some of the older ones—officials holding the title of "Minister" but who have whitened, within the walls of the Qual d'Orsay—are sorely distressed. They shake their heads gloomily when they meet each other in the Ministerial waiting room at all sorts of unheard of hours.

The new Premier has also shown himself a stern adversary of needless expenditure. He has cut down expenses all around and has even gone so far as to dismiss temporary clerks and typists who had begun to imagine themselves permanent fixtures. Eighty girl typists have had to quit the offices which their bright eyes and laughter had brightened ever since the war. And those who remain tremble at the very name of Poincaré.

This disruption has reached even the Political Director himself—Count de Peretti. That most important gentleman, who reigns permanently over the Qual d'Orsay, had a home until M. Poincaré came and monopolized his time to such an extent that he (the Premier) finally insisted on his sleeping at the Ministry so that he should never be out of reach, even in the middle of the night if necessary.

SHIPMENTS MADE.

(Times Correspondence.)

Sidney—Two scows have recently been shipped from the Sidney Island Brick and Tile Company to Vancouver, and the company is busily engaged in loading the third one also consigned to Vancouver. The plant has a staff of about twenty-five men on the job.

A DEFINITION

A teacher asked her class the meaning of the word "furlough." Jack was called upon, and said, "it means a mule; it says so in a book."

The teacher asked for the book and it was brought forward. At last Jack came to a picture of a soldier sitting on a mule.

Lumbago, Neuritis, Sciatica

Rheumatism and similar troubles invariably yield to this T.R.C.'s (Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules) treatment. Many doctors and many hundreds of druggists from coast to coast will confirm this truth. The hundreds of testimonial letters in our files show that T.R.C.'s have successfully treated Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis, Sciatica and acute Rhealgia of all kinds. But the best evidence is your own experience. If you suffer we want you to try this guaranteed non-injurious remedy at our expense. Druggists sell T.R.C.'s $1.00 per box. For free trial write T.R.C. Co., 56 Colborne St., Toronto.

Sold by Bowes, The Owl and Vancouver Drug Stores and the Fernwood Pharmacy.

TEMPTING FATE.

Young Man from the Country—"I say! Is this the way to the cemetery?"

The WEATHER

Daily Bulletin Furnished by the Victoria Meteorological Department.

Kamloops—Barometer, 30.26; temperature, maximum yesterday, 80; minimum, 47; wind, calm; weather, clear.

WISE OLD UNCLE

"Yes," said young Borrowman to his boon companion, "I went to see Uncle Bill, and, as soon as I stepped in he said 'I can see by the looks of you what you want. You want to borrow five shillings.' Then he put them out of his pocket, and handed them to me."

"Liberal old chappie," remarked the friend enviously.

"Liberal? I was just about to ask him for a five pound note and he as good as knew it."

A scenario writer experienced great difficulty in getting his plots accepted. As a rule, they were so uninteresting that a complete hearing was seldom granted. At last he managed to persuade a weary producer to listen to the synopsis of his latest play.

"Imagine," he began, "midnight, all silent as the grave. Two burglars force open library windows, and eventually commence operations on the safe. The clock strikes one—"

"Which one?" yawned the producer.

RETAIL MERCHANTS PROVINCIAL BODY TO MEET HERE

Executive Has Important Session in Victoria Wednesday

The provincial executive meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association which was to have been held in Vancouver last week, was postponed one week, and the venue was changed to Victoria, where the officials will gather next Wednesday afternoon at 2.30. Conventions plans, developments arising out of the last meeting concerning the Oriental question and matters left over from the last provincial meeting will be under consideration.

"The major issue, however," said Provincial Secretary Geo. S. Hougham, "will be a further attempt to clearly define the limits of wholesale and retail trading operations. Complaints are constantly reaching this office from points as far as Quatsino Sound, Duncan, Cranbrook, Kamloops and Prince George, rendering it imperative that some clear understanding be reached, equitable to wholesalers, retailers and the public. "With a view to clearing this matter up," he added, "representatives of many points on Vancouver Island have signified their intention to be present and a meeting of all these people together with the provincial executive and the grocers' section of the Victoria branch will take place during Wednesday."

EFFECT OF GREAT RAND UPHEAVAL

Business Men Here From Johannesburg, Scene of Recent Outbreak.

Thinks Rhodesia Will Eventually Enter South African Union

That the recent great strike in the Rand district of the Transvaal was a direct challenge to the power of capital, and that the rally by the Dutch commandoes had a large share in controlling the outbreak is the statement made to The Times by W. J. Kennedy, a Canadian who has been for the past thirteen years representing American firms on the Rand.

Mr. Kennedy arrived at the Empress Hotel, accompanied by his wife and small daughter, on Saturday, having crossed from Sydney by the Niagara. Mr. Kennedy said in part as follows: "Trouble has been brewing for a long time. During the war gold was such an important factor that the workers engaged in that industry were given all their demands. But now that the price of gold is down to about 80 shillings, if the mine should remain open production cost must decline.

Dilution of Color. "The mining operators sought to decrease the proportion of white men working in the mines. Until recently the proportion was eight to one, and the effort was to make the ratio ten to one. The reason is that while the Kaffir gets 50 to 60 cents a day, the wages of a white man vary from £40 to £100 a month. There was much propaganda by labor leaders, who hoped to secure backing from the republican farmers. That they partially succeeded is shown by the fact that during the strike large quantities of produce were shipped into Johannesburg and neighboring towns from the country gratis for the use of the strikers' families.

Result of Upheaval. "On the other hand," Mr. Kennedy proceeded, "the Chamber of Mines, which controls the mining industry, declared that if the mines were not worked on a cheaper basis 40 per cent. of them would have to close. That would mean the unemployment of 3,000 whites and 70,000 blacks, and a loss to the country of £12,000,000 a year.

"It must be admitted, however, that the most of living has not been reduced since the war in keeping with the standard of wages sought by the owners. The general effect will be to bring about the proportionate decrease sought, and to break down a practice which has prevented the blacks from doing skilled labor, which has hitherto been reserved to skilled white men.

An Expensive Strike. After outlining to The Times briefly the history and sequence of the strike, Mr. Kennedy proceeded: "The cost to South Africa of the strike will run between £5,000,000 and £7,000,000, it is estimated. The disorganization when we left Johannesburg on February 14 was serious. The shopkeepers were wondering how they could make their ends meet, and rents were high. They have enabled the country to make a recovery, in previous periods of financial depression.

Corrects Maps. "What I am quite sure about is this," he remarked. "From personal observation the courses of the tributaries of many of the large rivers of the interior are laid down tentatively on our present maps, and not yet accurately. This is particularly the case with the rivers which flow into the Arctic Ocean, that have their rise in north eastern British Columbia. There are some very large rivers there which you would think from our present maps are only creeks. It is necessary to make detours, and that entails long climbs to the summit of neighboring hills and mountains, to select some pass and valley by which to proceed. In this connection Mr. Perry has made some sketch maps of the approximate location of streams he has traversed, for the use of the provincial Department of Lands.

Breaking New Ground. "You ask me why I claim to have struck territory never before traversed," Mr. Perry said in answer to a question. "The only people who have had business in that section have been fur traders, and they kept to the well-worn routes, as the easiest methods of movement. I have struck across country and have only shaped my course according to the obstacles of nature," he replied.

Sub-Tropical Vegetation. An almost incredible discovery made by Mr. Perry was a small valley close to the Stikine parallel, situated in a country containing many hot springs, where the ground did not freeze, and where vegetation could be found of a sub-tropical luxuriance. Massive ferns and rank grass grew up, together with many remarkable flowers. Overlooking it from neighboring mountains, a heavy blanket of mist separated the area from the cold air above, protecting the vegetation below from extremes of temperature. The vegetation, stimulated by chemical process below, attained to heights almost unknown elsewhere in this Province. "One year," said Mr. Perry, "I had some seeds of grain and roots which I planted. The results when the harvest came, and I returned to the location, were surprising, the ears of grain being twice as high as the normal growth, and the roots of surprising size, owing to the chemical constituents of the soil." Mr. Perry said that he had found a difference of 76 degrees in coming down the mountain to the level of the springs, which fact would in itself indicate the remarkable physical change occurring.

The Natural Oil Route. As was to be expected, Mr. Perry discovered several instances of oil bearing formation. He states that the natural grade of land via the Lizard River, between the headwaters of the Finlay and the Dease, and westward to the Stikine, and thence to the Portland Canal, is the natural highway for oil from the East Norman district, there being no high elevation to cross in making the route to the Coast. Having thoroughly explored the country, he states that there would be no physical obstacle in a route of that nature.
