The Psalter Noted. It is intended

shortly to publish an adaptation of the Ancient Melodies of the Church to the English Psalter. In this work every syllable is set to a note or notes, after the manner of "Marbeck's Prayer Book noted," which forms, as is well known, the text book for the Ritual Music of the English Church. "THE PSALTER NOTED" will take up the work where Marbeck left it ; for, while in his book the various offices of the Church of England have particular forms of Plain Song assigned to them, and the Canticles are noted throughout, only general directions are given for the Chanting of the Psalms. The Melodies in this work include all the Gregorian Chants for the Psalms in their ferial form ; the intonation being used only in the first verse for each Morning and Evening of the Month. In the distribution of the words, rigid attention has been paid to their accent and emphasis ; the rules of the Ancient Plain Song being carefully observed, literally in most cases, and in their spirit, when it has appeared to the Editor that they are not applicable to the English Language. The whole has had the advantage of having been already used in the actual worship of the Church, in the Chapel of St. Mark's College, Chelsea, and at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brompton. The ancient notation has been adopted, as more fully representing what is intended, than any other ; and as being perfectly intelligible to any musical person who will read the short preliminary directions contained in the work itself. The Chants of the Ancient Church are properly sung in unison (or octaves), with an Organ Accompaniment varied according to the taste of the organist, the character of the words, and the season of the Christian year. But for the use of Churches where there is no organ, or where harmonized vocal music is preferred to the unison, another work has been prepared, entitled,

ACCOMPANYING HARMONIES TO THE PSALTER NOTED.

In this work, the Melodies for each day of the Month are printed in the tenor staff, in notes corresponding to those given in the Psalter ; while, in more modern notes, four other vocal parts are given, together with an Organ (or Pianoforte) arrangement—the harmonies being in general founded on the ancient gamuts, and adapted to the varied character of the Psalms themselves. The Melodies are accented to ensure a right reading of the music ; and a careful attention to these marks will considerably assist in giving the intended effect to these compositions. It is sincerely hoped that they will prove a real benefit to all those who desire to restore the sublimity of our Church Music in this truly congregational part of divine worship. Any profits which the Editor may derive from the sale of these works will be applied to the Metropolitan Church-building Fund.—THOMAS HELMORE, M.A., Priest in Ordinary to the Queen, Precentor of St. Mark's College, Chelsea, and Master of the Children of H. M. Chapels Royal.

Moore's Irish Melodies, with the original Symphonies and Accompaniments for the Pianoforte, by SIR JOHN STEVENSON, Mus. Doc., Edited by FRANCIS ROBINSON. On the 1st of April, 1849, was Published, No. 1, Containing the Instrumental Introduction for the Piano, and Three Songs with the words at full length, occupying Sixteen Quarto-Post Pages, printed from a large and beautiful Music Type, and enclosed in a neat Wrapper, Price One Shilling ; and on the First of each succeeding Month will appear a similar Number, containing Three or Four Songs, so that these popular Melodies, which used formerly to cost Two Shillings a-piece, may now be purchased for about THREE-PENCE EACH SONG. The Harmonization of the Airs is retained, where they originally appeared for not more than Two Voices. The order of the succession will be the same as the original Volumes ; and the Music and Words will be reproduced in their integrity, as left by MOORE and STEVENSON.—The Proprietors of the Copyright for Ireland have long wished to furnish the public with an edition of these National Melodies, wedded to the elegant Lyrics of Mr. Moore, at such a price as should place them within reach of the humblest lover of their Country's Music ; and they feel assured, that the large number of persons who can now possess themselves of this much desired work, will, in the aggregate, make up to them for the low price which they have affixed to so valuable a copyright.
