WILLIAMS does not appear to have any additional information which has not been previously reported to the FBI by these officers and other sources.

Information contained in the accompanying letterhead memo has been furnished on an almost daily basis orally by SA JOSEPH M. MYERS to IRS Agents who are conducting an extensive investigation in Fort Worth, Texas. This memo will serve as an up-to-date record of information previously supplied to IRS on a local level. The Bureau may desire to disseminate the letterhead memo to the IRS headquarters at Washington, D.C. Extra copies are being provided the Bureau in the event copies of this memo are being disseminated.

Copies of this memo are being furnished San Antonio for dissemination to the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and to Col. HOMER GARRISON, DPS at Austin, Texas, after approval is given by the Bureau for such dissemination.

Two copies of this letterhead memo will be furnished to the IRS at Dallas, Texas, after approval is given by the Bureau.

For the information of the Bureau, San Antonio Office advised on 4/4/62 that Col. HOMER GARRISON, Director, Texas DPS, Austin, Texas, has informed that no active investigation has been conducted to date although the situation at the Ft. Worth PD has been followed by the DPS. He stated that he would have a representative contact the Dallas Office in the near future.

Subsequently, on 4/4/62, Capt. ROBERT A. CROWDER did contact the Dallas Office as outlined in referenced Dallas letter to Bureau.

For the further information of the Bureau, the sources contained in the letterhead memo are listed below as to each paragraph.

After considerable investigation by Federal agencies in the Fall of 1961 concerning gambling matters, it is reported by one source that Lieutenant OLIVER BALL of the Fort Worth Police Department Vice Squad called all of the gamblers in Fort Worth who had been interviewed by Federal authorities and had these men photographed and fingerprinted since few had ever been fingerprinted or photographed before. It is alleged that none of these people were arrested and that Lieutenant BALL told the gamblers to not ~~lost~~ an address in Fort Worth, Texas, due to the bad publicity it gives the City of Fort Worth and also because Fort Worth City Manager L. P. COOKINGHAM put the pressure on the Fort Worth Police Department when newspapers published the Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas gamblers' names and Fort Worth showed a larger number of gamblers than Dallas.

One source advised that she had on different occasions given $10.00 to $20.00 to Fort Worth Police Department Vice Squad officers E. M. BILGER, H. T. CLUCK, and D. W. McMILLAN for allowing her to work as a prostitute.

One source stated that Chief of Police CATO HIGHTOWER's brother, C. L. HIGHTOWER, formerly operated a building plant known as University Supply and Equipment Company, in Fort Worth until it went into bankruptcy a short time ago. This source stated that 1957 and 1958 Fort Worth Police Department Annuals were printed by this company and were purchased by the officers of the Police Department for $6.00 each. It was estimated that of the annuals purchased, that Chief of Police CATO S. HIGHTOWER, Fort Worth Police Department, had received a cut from this.
