The Prince of Wales was prevented landing at several places on the St. Lawrence, on his tour in Canada, on account of excitement between the Orangemen and Ribbonmen. It assumed a fearful ead to bloody riots, but the numerical weakness of name or on my behalf. the Ribbonmen induced them to succumb, and blood shed was thus prevented. The Orangemen at their meetings showed an exceedingly violent and inflam matory spirit. The Queen's Government was denounced as a Government of papists, and they talked of annexation to the United States. The Duke of Newcastle was a " juicy eyed Jesuit," and dared to come ashore that they might tar and feather him and Sir Edmund Head, the Governor General and the Canadian officials were told that they should have no rest until they cleared out from the Province and went to England. During these ebullitions of rage the Ribbonmen (Catholies) wisely kept out of sight.

The ingratitude of man to his fellow man is so often met with in life, that testimonials, prompted by finer feelings of the heart, are oases in the life of those who sacritice their best days in philanthropic devotion to the alleviation of the ills of frail mortaliy. Empiricism floods the columns of our press with raudulent and fictitious letters, singing poeans t the worth of their own egotistical charlatanism. Be-low we append a certificate from a worthy man, who, a brief period since, seemed destined to "shuffle off his mortal coil;" who looked forward to his dissola-tion with that pleasure which only those weighed down by the heavy hand of disease can. Contrary to hope, the ability of a skilful physician has restor-ed him to his former health. Relieved from his ter-rible situation, and impelled by gratitude, he makes known his case, and his remedial agent, and his statement is authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command its public-ity, and it is given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a physician, of whom scores of he worth of their own egotistical charlatanism. Every Demouratic Governor Obio ever had, now TO living, is for Breckinridge and Lane. Ex Governor Wood was President of the late Democratic State Convention, and ex-Governor Medill is warm in the cause, as we also understand is ex Gov. Shannon now in Kansas. Four of the five Judges of the Suprema Court, first elected under the new constitu. tion-Thurman, Bartley, Corwin and Caldwell-are all for the same candidate.

Among the prominent Democrats who support Breckinridge and Lane, may be mentioned the following : Ex-Gov. Dewey, ex-Lieut, Gov. Campbell. ex-Goy, Dodge, ex United States Senator 'Walker, Judge Barron, Judge Cate, Judge Fuller, Hon. E. B. Dean, J. D. Ruggles, N. B. Van Styke, Hon E. F. Ir ok, Hon. Harrison C. Hobart, the latest Demo cratic candidate for Governor, and many other pron inent politicians of the same school.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot (Bell Lincoln) must be thoroughly convinced Treasure, ny County Hospital on the 20th August. His father John O'Brien, was an Irishman of means. He emi grated to this country in 1745 and soon after mared a squaw of the Stockbridge tribe of Indians. John was born in 1751, and was sent to France to study. He returned to this country in the same vessel which bronght Lafayette, and took an active part in many of the battles of the Revolution. Although 109 years at the time of his death, he retained all his faculties, except his sight, to the last.

The following is from Mr. Breckinridge's late

"It is said that Mr. Lincoln represents the most ffensive principles before the country, ought to be efeated, and that I am the only man who stands in the way of his defeat. I agree that he ought to be defeated; I agree that his principles are thoroughly unconstitutional; and if the Republican party at tempt to carry them out, it may be provocative of the greatest disasters to the Union. But does any body pretend that Mr. Lincoln will carry a single Southern State, in any event? No ! Was Mr. Doug mpt to carry them out, it las willing to unite on any practical mode for the de-feat of Mr. Lincole, as many of the wisest and best men in the Union thought? Of the details of such things I know nothing. Did not the Democratic or-ganization of the State of Pennsylvania recommend

"Did not Mr. Douglas, declaring that oil and wa-ter could not mix say that his friends ought not to vote for those electors, but should rend asunder those willing to elect them; and those nominated what they call a straight out ticket for him, which every child in that State and this knows has not any chance to carry that State while it is some Working. chance to carry that State, while it is sequally certain, morally certain, that if the recommendation of that committee had been acquiesed in, the wanted vote of these gentlemen who preferred me and himself would have been cast in such a mode as to defeat Mr. Linhave been cast in such a mode as to defeat Mr. Lin-coln. The same thing, in almost the same language, may be predicted of New Jersey. But now we who stand on these principles which I have defended to-day, he will have none of us; and accordingly he undertakes to break down the only mode by which the Democratic organizations in these States thought it possible to defeat Lincoln. That it could be done in that way seems to be certain. As I have said, Mr. Lincoln State States States States Mr. Lincoln can, in no event, carry a Southern State

Mr. Luccin can, in no event, carry a Southern State of this Union; and if the vote of Pennsylvania and New Jersey had been cast with the South, Lincoln would have been absolutely certain to be defeated. I may as well say it, for I feel it, if Mr. Lincoln is elec-ted, nothing will have accomplished it but the reck-less rule or ruin—the reckless ambition and almost insane policy of one man, and his unreasoning and furious adherents. Insate points, and this unreasoning and furious adherents. What is the object of his coming South? What can be his ob-ject, I ask yon ? Does he expect—does any sane man expect—that he will carry a single Southern State ? ["No, by G—d, no !"] It is said that his friends have claimed Missouri? But yet I suppose he stands no more chance for Missouri than I do for Massachu-setts. What other Southern States can he carry ?— Go from Maryland to the Rio Grande, as gentlemen and honest men, what other Southern State do you expect him to carry ? ACTS TO BE REMEMBERED. -- It should be remem bered that Mr. Douglas was nominated at Baltimore on motion of a delegate, just after the Virginia and other delegates withdrew from the Convention, when only one hundred and eighty members out of THIS MILL IS LOCATED IN THE BEST TIMBER-the Gree hundred and three members were in the TED COUNTRY between the Merced and San room, and without abolishing the two third rule .-Mr. Johnson was not nominated at all, but put upon Lumber of all Dimensions the ticket by a committee which had no authority to do so. Yet Mr. Douglas' followers call these the Convention that nominated him than had Mr Doug ing it. as when he was nominated. Then which of these two is the most sectional candidate?

It should be remembered that more States were represented in the Convention that nominated Mr. Breckinridge than were in either of the other Con ventions. Then has not Mr. Breckinridge the right to be called the regular National candidate ?

It should be remembered, that neither Mr. Breck inridge, Mr. Toombs, or any of his supporters ever advocated or admitted the right of a Territory in its legislative capacity to legislate for or against slavery -the garbled extracts from their speeches to the contrary notwithstanding That all he or his friends have ever contended for, has been that the Territorial Legislature had not power over the subject of alavery and if it should ever exercise its assumed authority in the matter, Congress would be justified in interfering, in the absence of any action by the United States Supreme Court .- New York Day Book.

DOUGLAS' PRINCIPLES -Eli Thayer, the prince of Abolition schemers and agitators, did not err when he abandoned the principles of Congressional prohi bition of slavery from the Territories, to embrace the Douglas idea of Squatter legislation on the ground that it would be a far more effective plan for robbing the South of her rights. The efficacy of this latter plan is acknowledged by the leading anti slavery organs. The following is the testimony of one now before us-the Albany Evening Journal. It says :
