THE EUROPEAN WORLD.
New York, November 17, 1856.
The Franklin and Cambria both bring advices from London to the 31st instant, embracing much of interest to the reader who sees the journals of the continent, and retreating on what is going on in the Old World.

France, the quarrel between Louis Napoleon and Changarnier is still open. The former commander-in-chief is still in the hands of the Emperor, and Changarnier is still in the hands of the Emperor. The Emperor is still in the hands of the Emperor, and Changarnier is still in the hands of the Emperor.

LETTERS FROM NEW YORK.
New York, November 16, 1856.
Our journals continue to print the most extravagant eulogies of Jenny Lind. It is not surprising that what quiet superciliousness the British press has to the conclusion, that of that Swedish peasant girl, who has been so long and so gloriously in the eyes of the world.

THE FRIEND OF YOUTH—VOL. II, 1856.
A MONTHLY PUBLICATION.
MRS. MARGARET L. BAILEY, EDITOR.
The Friend of Youth will be issued on the first of every month, in quarto form, 8 pages, in paper, in New York and in all the principal cities of the United States.

DOMESTIC MARKETS.
New York, November 18, 1856.
Flour market quiet at $4.68 a $4.75 for common State brands. Southern, $4.94 a $5.00; $5.00 a $5.05 for extra; $5.05 a $5.10 for superfine. Corn, $1.35 a $1.38.

COL BENTON'S SPEECH AT ST. LOUIS.
We have by telegraph the following synopsis of the speech of the Hon. J. M. Benton, pronounced before the Democracy of St. Louis, on the 6th instant. We expect to publish the speech in this Evening Post on Wednesday next, or earlier.
