TO SHIP GRAIN BY PACIFIC ROUTE

OUTCOME OF CONFERENCE
HELD AT CALGARY

Railways Will Be Urged to Reduce Rates—Permanent Organization

Calgary, June 29.—The Panama canal convention special made great time yesterday afternoon after it got on the straight track.

The morning and the early part of the afternoon had been spent in speeches and general discussion, but the delegates got down to brass tacks about the middle of the afternoon, when the resolutions committee brought in its report. It was resolved that the permanent organization be created to carry on the work of arranging for the export of the wheat of Alberta and Western Saskatchewan by way of the ports of the Pacific coast, and to bring into force the wishes of the conference on any other matter relating to the development of Western Canada. A committee was appointed to lay the foundation of this permanent organization, and the framework will be erected and the reef put on before the convention adjourns.

It was unanimously resolved that as the opening of the western route for grain export was of enormous importance to the interests of the three most westerly provinces, every advantage should be taken of present conditions so that the possibilities of the western route should not be lost. What was termed the present system of endeavoring to exploit places instead of working for a complete plan which would satisfy all interests was deprecated.

Want Lower Rates.

With unanimous voice the convention resolved that excessive freight rates between western Saskatchewan and Alberta and British Columbia are seriously hampering the development of the provinces, and the conviction was expressed that the time has arrived when a substantial reduction in rates should be effected, both for the benefit of the producers and consumers and the railways themselves.

Another resolution was to the effect that whereas it is recognized that with the rapid development of the west the present channels for marketing grain will soon be completely blocked, a conservative estimate giving the wheat crop alone of Western Canada for the present year at 250,000,000 bushels, it is advisable to lose no time in providing facilities for the movement of the grain to the Pacific coast, and the handling of it there for export by water. The resolution further stated that it is essential that terminal facilities be erected on the coast if full advantage is to be taken of the western route, and the convention strongly urged that the Dominion government and the grain commissioners for Canada should consider the necessity of at once securing a site and proceeding with the erection of an up-to-date terminal elevator with sacking and shipping facilities attached. It was the opinion that this elevator should be operated as a public utility, and that the governments of the three western provinces should be asked to assist in presenting this matter to the attention of the federal government so that speedy action may be taken.

The convention decided that it would not go on record as favoring the plans of any one of the ports of the coast, but would leave them to work out their own salvation. The assurance was, however, given that Western Saskatchewan and Alberta heartily favored the western export route, and would be prepared to take full advantage of whatever facilities might be provided on the coast.

In this connection a resolution was passed to the effect that in view of the enormous export wheat trade which would flow through Pacific coast ports, following the opening of the Panama, and also because of the great loss to prairie farmers because of the congestion of traffic over present routes, the Dominion government should be urged to give its best attention to any plans approved by its engineers and endorsed by the municipalities interested that will tend to remove present difficulties.

The Columbia Route.

The claims of Revelstoke to a share in the western export of grain were exhaustively laid before the convention by E. S. McEwen, of the Revelstoke Board of Trade. He declared that the Columbia river could be utilized for the export of this wheat which would be taken from the cars at Revelstoke and placed on light draft steamers and barges, and floated down the river to Portland, Oregon. Mr. McEwen stated that the Columbia river is a navigable waterway, and that the Columbia route, but it was relegated to the tender mercies of the committee on resolutions. What they will do to it remains to be seen.

Advantages of Pacific Route.

TO TEST THE B. C. COMPANIES ACT

APPEAL TO BE TAKEN TO THE PRIVY COUNCIL

Company Claims Rights to Do
Business Under Dominion
Charter

Vancouver, June 29.—A test case, to test the powers of the British Columbia Companies Act in regard to extra-provincial and unlicensed companies, is to be carried to the Privy Council by the John Deere Plough Company. An announcement of the plan was made by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper in Supreme court chambers yesterday, in asking for a special appointment for the hearing of evidence.

"My clients propose," he said, "to challenge the decision of the provincial courts on the matter, and to take the question on appeal to the Privy Council. Under these circumstances the proceedings will be of a perfunctory character, and we would like to have a day set during vacation for the hearing."

Mr. Justice Morrison said he would refer the application to Mr. Justice Murphy, who will be the vacation judge.

The test case arises out of an action brought by the John Deere Plough Co. against Agnew & Company, of Elko, B. C. The Agnew company set up in defence that the plaintiffs are not licensed to do business in the province, and therefore debarred from taking legal proceedings against them. The plaintiffs, who are in business in Ontario under a Dominion charter, claim that the Dominion charter entitles them to do business in the province without being licensed under the companies act.

It is anticipated that the provincial courts will uphold the defendants. It will be necessary for the Supreme court and the British Columbia Court of Appeal to pass on the issue before it can be got before the Privy Council. The appellants will have the privilege of going to the Supreme court of Canada at Ottawa before going to the Privy Council, if they desire to obtain the judgment of the highest appeal court in the Dominion before going to the Privy Council.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, K. C., will act for the John Deere Company in the test case which has been decided upon, and will plead that it is ultra vires to the companies act passed by the Dominion government.

ROBLIN MAY RUN FOR FEDERAL HOUSE

RUMOR THAT HE WILL RESIGN PREMIERSHIP

J. A. M. Aikens Regarded as Successor in Provincial Government

Winnipeg, June 29.—As a result of the plan of his admirers at Miami to give him a banquet next week, at which J. A. M. Aikens will speak and Hon. Robert Rogers and other notables will attend, the Tribune this afternoon says if that means anything it means that Sir Rodmond Roblin is about to retire from Manitoba politics, that arrangements have been made with him to contest the federal constituency of Macdonald, rendered vacant by the appointment of "Billy" Staples to the grain commission, and that J. A. M. Aikens has been selected as Mr. Roblin's successor and that he is going to Macdonald to be introduced to his future constituents, both at the banquet and the public meeting which is to follow.

Does anyone suppose for a single second that "the young men of the Miami district" did spontaneously, of their own accord and with malice aforethought, conspire during these dog-days of heat to banquet "R. P." because he had had a little handle added to his name? Nay, nay; verily not. The move is very transparent, a wayfarer, though a fool, could see through it. And besides it has been on the cards for some time and has been on the lips of the man on the street for weeks. Just what such a cabinet shuffle would mean it is impossible to tell. Even Sir Rodmond himself is not likely to have at all sized up. It might mean that "Billy" Sharpe, M. P. for Lisgar, would enter the local cabinet. With J. A. M. as a premier there would sure be quite a shuffle.

Suit was brought by the child through his father. Mr. Justice Clement presided.

CANOE FATALITY.

St. John, N. B., June 29.—A dispatch from R. W. Brock, of the geological survey, to the family of J. Douglas Truman, who was drowned while on a scientific expedition in the Rainy River district of Ontario, indicates that he died a hero. Truman, with a man named Knox, and Dr. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, were in a canoe below the Steep Rock falls, near Steep Rock lake, when the canoe upset. Walcott could not swim and Truman and Knox got him on top of the canoe. Apparently fearing that there were too many to hold on to the frail craft, Truman lay loose to swim ashore, but had not gone far when he called back for help. Knox left to aid him, but before reaching him Truman sank in 20 fathoms of water.

THREE FIREMEN KILLED.

Garnet, Kas., June 29.—Three volunteer firemen are dead and five others injured, one probably fatally, as the result of a fire last night that destroyed part of the J. Q. McEwen furniture factory and the Garnet ice and electric plant. The property loss is placed at $250,000.

BAPTISTS TO MEET NEXT IN VICTORIA

INVITATION ACCEPTED
BY THE CONFERENCE

Declares in Favor of Western Union University—Election of Officers

New Westminster, June 29.—Last evening's session closed the most memorable convention of all the sixteen annual gatherings in the history of the British Columbia Baptists. The convention will be regarded as most important not only in this province, but in the three other provinces, within the Baptist Union of Western Canada. All of these have just declared for a vigorous forward movement in educational work. After most careful consideration of the whole situation the unanimous decision of the convention was to fall into line with the general policy of the east leading to early establishment of a western union university.

Meanwhile the British Columbia College at Summerland is to carry on as an extra, a course of at least two years' arts until a university is founded.

The invitation from the First Baptist church, Victoria, to meet there next year was unanimously accepted by the convention. Upon the recommendation of the committee of nominations, presented by Rev. J. P. Pattison, of Summerland, and other special nominations, the following boards and officers were appointed by the convention:

President—Rev. B. H. West, Jamieson avenue church, Vancouver; vice-president, Mr. C. M. Woodworth, Vancouver; secretary, Rev. F. W. Auvache, Penticon.

Representatives were appointed to the Baptist Union of Western Canada as follows: William Marchant, Dr. Wolverton, Dr. Sawyer, Rev. A. A. McLeod, Messdames Spofford, McLeod and Perry, Rev. J. B. Warnicker, C. M. Woodworth, T. B. Lashby, Dr. McKeehan, J. L. Beckwith, William Stephenson, A. J. and D. J. Walsh, B. Robertson, Dr. Spencer, T. C. Parker and E. B. Morgan. Alternates: Mrs. William Grant, Rev. G. J. Coulter White, D. E. Kendall, M. E. McLeod, Dr. Russell, A. F. Baker, A. J. Perry, J. M. Pattison, Rev. C. W. King.

Rev. D. B. MacDonald presented a resolution, crystallizing some of the convention's convictions. One was on the liquor traffic, in which the convention stood as uncompromisingly opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicants as a beverage, and held for local option as the best means of securing provincial prohibition.

Another resolution was on moral and social reform, calling upon all police commissioners to discontinue the curfew of the provinces to use their power in the enforcement of the criminal code of Canada towards closing all segregated districts. The same resolution protesting vigorously against the low wages some employees are paid whereby many young people are tempted to the life of shame.

Resolutions were passed expressing the warm appreciation of the convention of the splendid services rendered the cause by Rev. Mr. McEwen, Rev. Dr. A. P. McDermid, C. S. Stevens, Rev. D. B. Harkness and the late Mr. John Morton.

UNION OF CONGREGATIONS.

Experiments Will Be Made in Montreal During Summer

Montreal, June 29.—A species of church union will have four distinct trials in this city this summer, members of congregations of one denomination worshipping with churchgoers of another, different up-bringing. No less than eight city churches will be closed down for one month while pastors take a vacation, and in each case matters have been so arranged that a church of a different denomination lo-ated in the same vicinity will temporarily undertake to attend to the spiritual wants of the congregation, whose pastor of worship is for the time being absent.

In the reopening of the church of the visitor the pastor, who has been doing double duty, will take his vacation, and his congregation will worship under the pastor of the reopened church who will by that time have returned from his holiday trip.

Hotel Balmoral, View, Douglas and Fort streets, under new management, newly renovated throughout. Rooms single or en suite. Moderate rates.

REGISTRATION BILL HITS UNIONISTS

NEW MEASURE WILL KILL PLURAL VOTING

Welsh Disestablishment is Causing Unrest in Liberal Ranks

London, June 29.—Politics attract unceasing attention. The air is full of whispers of intrigues, and cabals of Home Rule and Welsh Disestablishment. One section of the Unionists is willing to compromise the dispute over Home Rule, and the secretary adverts to the Lords passing the bill this year, thus accepting it as inevitable, and making Irish self-government a national rather than a partisan gift. This, however, is exceedingly unlikely. The Unionist opposition is generally hardening daily as the bill approaches the end of the committee stage. The Liberals are growing uneasy over the discontent in their own ranks over the Welsh bill. Mr. Lloyd George has privately appealed to the English Nonconformist leaders, to stir up enthusiasm.

The London Daily News, a semi-official government organ, admits mournfully that while Wales puts forward her demand with unabated zeal and enthusiasm, it finds little echo in England. The News declares: "Liberal Churchmen and Nonconformist broad Churchmen seem to have forgotten their ancient faith."

Insurance Act.
The campaign against the Insurance Act is now being revived in full fury in view of the fact that the contributions under the act commence in three weeks. It becomes daily more certain that Lloyd George will make great concessions to the doctors, probably giving them almost, if not all, they demand in extra fees. Responsible Unionist newspapers, such as the Times, and many Unionist administrators, are declaring that it is desirable, now that the act is coming into operation, to make the best of it, and endeavor to operate it successfully. This, however, is not the common view of the opposition. The women's campaign against the act has been flooded into fresh life. Duchesses are declaring that they will passively resist servant taxes. Suburban housewives are pledging themselves not to stick stamps. Even servants are blind to the ultimate benefits, and are supporting systematic resistance. With out this, the act would be difficult enough to put in operation. The necessary work of organizing the collection of the revenue for insurance is apparently hopelessly in arrears. The

WORK OF BAPTISTS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Educational Question is Discussed at Convention at New Westminster

New Westminster, June 29.—The four words, "Evangelization, Consecration, Education and Organization," would fairly express the outstanding features of the Baptist convention. Practically the whole of Thursday's three sessions was devoted to the discussion on Christian Education. A delightful evening hour was spent in the schoolroom where the ladies of Olivet church tendered the delegates a banquet.

The morning session opened with a season of prayer led by D. E. Kendall, of Cranbrook, when the report of the credentials committee by Rev. C. W. King, of Nelson, was presented. There were enrolled 102 accredited church representatives, besides other delegates and visitors. The following new members were present for the first time: J. H. Howe, Nanaimo; O. B. Anderson, Sapperton; R. McCullough, Edmonds; H. S. Smith, Vancouver; N. A. Harkness, Grandview; T. E. Kendall, Cranbrook. Six new churches were also welcomed.

Principal E. W. Sawyer, B. A., D. C. L. of Okanagan College, Summerland, then presented his annual report. The attendance had exceeded that of any previous year, the students' enrolment of this year being 120. Last year it was 102.

Miss E. Colwell, B. A., of Acadia University, has succeeded Miss McLeod, who resigned, as lady principal, owing to ill-health. C. DeLois Denton, M. A., will return to teach mathematics and science. Miss Phyllis Higgins will assist Director Moore in the music department. There are twelve in the faculty. Fifteen diplomas were granted.

The late John Morton, of Vancouver, bequeathed to the board of education a seven-acre block of land valued at $20,000. This was not the first donation from him. The ladies' residence is in honor to his memory, to be known as Morton Hall. The arts work followed the McMaster University's course and the music that of McGill University.

Dr. Sawyer announced the gift of a fine piano by the retiring treasurer, C. S. Stevens, who is succeeded by James Ritchie. This year's deficit was only $1,700 as compared with last year's of $4,400. An increase in the revenue of $2,500 is assured this year through a recent change in financing. Considerable financial ability was expressed by delegates of the convention with regard to this report.

What is probably the most important matter before the convention namely, the educational question, was discussed for nearly four hours. Dr. W. W. Wilson, chairman of the board of education, began the discussion, and at the end the following resolution was adopted:

"1. That there is a present and pressing need for efficient work in each of the four western provinces, the development of such schools being governed by our financial ability."
"2. The committee recommends that, having decided that for the present academic work be developed on a sound financial basis, we look forward, as the next step, to having our theological seminary for the four provinces as soon as $200,000 is assured for this purpose, the question of a complete university, including arts and theology being left to the more distant future."
"3. That this convention put itself on record in endorsing the policy of educational administration by which the Baptist Union of western Canada will appoint a board of education to which will be committed the full administration of all our educational work and which will appoint a committee of management for the detailed supervision of each institution and such other committees as they may deem necessary for the best interests of the work committed to them."

While the government will lose many votes over the Insurance Act, a new registration bill introduced this week will deprive the Unionists of half a million votes, by killing plural voting and lessening the qualifying terms necessary to acquire a vote. The registration bill is generally popular.

Interest in Cricket Wanes.
London is just now keenly discussing the cause of the waning popularity of cricket, while football matches draw scores of thousands of spectators, and 20,000 people sometimes attend a polo match. Big county cricket matches often have only two or three hundred spectators. Critics are agreed that the real causes of the decline in cricket are the slowness of the game, the long waits, the snobbish distinction between amateurs and professionals, and the indifferent play. We have no Grace among us, but the twentieth century youth requires more strenuous amusement.

Attacking Charity Balls.
Society is concerned over the attacks now being made on charity balls and entertainments. The hundred years' ball has brought the criticism to a head. This ball cost fully eighty thousand pounds, and yielded five thousand for charity. Organization of charity entertainments has become a regular business, and very profitable to organizers, but yielding very little to the societies patronized. Artists are asked to give their services for nothing. Free advertising is demanded from newspapers to benefit, often enough, business organizers behind. Miss Helen Gladstone declared that, speaking quite frankly, people cheated a great deal at smart London bazaars. Sir George Alexander demands that charity show-mongers, who organize such projects for personal profit, should be stamped out. "I have had more than one painful experience of their methods," he declares.

GUM DROP CAUSE OF MAN'S DEATH
Peculiar Fatality is Investigated by Coroner at Prairie Capital

Winnipeg, June 29.—A small gum drop was responsible for the death of Gilbert Rendall, by causing suffocation. Rendall, who lived on Inkster avenue, and who worked in the butcher shop of H. A. Paul, Main street, had been eating gum drops and went into the refrigerator. When coming out he stumbled and fell striking his head on the floor. He did not regain consciousness and died a few minutes later.

Coroner Rogers took charge of the body and held a post-mortem examination discovering that the gum drop had become lodged in the trachea and had caused suffocation.

This is one of the most peculiar cases that have been before a coroner here and the explanation is that the man when his head struck the floor must have gulped the candy into the trachea and being unconscious at the time, Rendall was unable to help himself and suffocation followed.

EXCEED SPEED LIMIT.

Montreal, June 29.—As a preliminary move in the anti-speeding campaign following numerous motor car casualties during the past ten days, a local paper yesterday sought out two experienced timers, and arming them with stop-watches, placed them at Victoria square. The men remained on duty from noon until 1.30 p.m., and reported the passage of forty-six machines. The slowest was timed at 12 miles an hour and the fastest at 22.

The average was 18. The maximum allowed under the civic by-law is 9. The square is in the heart of the business section of the city, and the streets along which these motor cars ran are among the busiest in the city.

NOT OFFERED CHAIRMANSHIP
Toronto, June 29.—Co-operation Counsel Drayton got back from Ottawa yesterday, where he was reported to have been Thursday closeted with the minister of railways regarding his reported appointment as chairman of the Dominion railway board. Mr. Drayton was not giving out any information as to his probable acceptance or refusal of the late Judge Mabey's position. "Are you going to take the chairmanship?" he was asked. "It has never been offered me," he replied.

How to Judge Motor Car Values

The main result every purchaser looks for is Satisfactory Service. Reliable performance under all sorts of conditions of roads, and weather, during a long period of time. Getting a lot for your money is a matter principally of having the right standards by which to judge the car you are buying. Some men can pick a thoroughbred horse from a bunch of fifty or seventy-five mixed animals. It is the same with automobiles. It is possible for you to know whether you can get more for a dollar in some cars than others. The Wood Motor Co. does not believe in what is called a Bargain or Cut Prices. We do believe in unusual value at a price. We also believe that the man who goes in the market with the right standards of judgment in mind stands a better opportunity of getting unusual value for his money than the man who goes in without these standards.

WIDENING OF PEMBROKE STREET

FURTHER CONTRACT LET WORSWICK COMPANY

Streets in Spring Ridge Added to Contract—Price Accepted by Company

The perennial subject of expropriations occupied the streets committee of the city council yesterday afternoon, the discussion arising from a proposal to widen Pembroke street from Chambers street to Fernwood road before permanent paving is laid. Several of the aldermen urged that it would be foolish to do anything in the way of paving before the street was approachable for traffic.

Alderman Gleason criticized the action of the council in declining to carry certain expropriation proceedings through, after having planned to do so, as at Front street. As the council had determined to widen the street, the necessary land should be expropriated, and the paving then undertaken.

Alderman Beard defended the committee, saying the cost of certain works rendered it imperative that the city should back out, and this was a case in point.

In the absence of definite information it was decided that the land purchasing agent should bring in a report on the cost of the proposed widening.

New Streets Let. City Engineer Rust reported: "The Worswick Paving Company will practically complete all their contracts within a short time, and as I think it would be good policy on the part of the city to keep both companies working to their full capacity until the close of the season, I have consulted with the Worswick Paving Company, and they are prepared to take the contract for asphalt to the following streets: Busby street, Dallas road, easterly; Jubilee avenue, Leighton road to Oak Bay avenue; Davie street, Leighton road to Oak Bay avenue; Lee avenue, Leighton road to Fort street; Mears street, from Cook street to Quadra street (heavy); Leighton road to Fort street to Richmond avenue; Olive street, from May street to George street; Ontario street, from St. Lawrence street to Dallas road (heavy).

"They will do this work at the prices submitted in their tender of last year, namely, $1.62 per square yard for heavy and $1.45 per square yard for light asphalt. Excavation, other than solid rock, 60¢ per cubic yard. Excavation, solid rock, $2 per cubic yard, and curb and gutter 55¢ per lineal foot.

As we intend increasing the thickness of the base one inch, making a five-inch base for light asphalt and six-inch base for heavy asphalt, and also propose making the mixture 1:3:6 instead of 1:3:5, I would recommend that they be allowed the additional amount of 1¢ a square yard, this being the price allowed to the C. M. R. on Douglas street. The total yardage embraced in these streets is about 23,000, and this with what the C. M. R. have now on hand will keep both companies going until the close of the season. The above prices are reasonable, and I would recommend that your committee award the Worswick Paving Company the above mentioned work.

"Referring to a communication from the city clerk, dated 24th instant, enclosing copy of letter from George Jeeves, addressed to the mayor and aldermen in reference to mixing concrete, in which Mr. Jeeves complains that they are hauling concrete for three or four blocks in a dump cart, the department will see that the concrete is handled with proper care."

Alderman Dilworth mentioned that Mr. Worswick contended that North Douglas street should be let by tender. The arrangement is for the Mineral Rubber Company to do it at the price tendered last year. Alderman Gleason secured the inclusion in the contract of the portion of Gladstone avenue, between Fernwood and Stanley, and Stanley between Pembroke and Pandora avenues, all of which will be let to the Worswick company at the figures mentioned above.

Erie Street.

If Erie street is to be graded, and the rock moved to give access to the industries on the water front, the petitioners will be informed that the work must be done under the local improvement plan, this ruling affecting the Brackman-Ker Milling Company, the Chemical Works and similar industries. The owners wanted the work to be done out of general revenue.

Telephone Matters.

The city engineer reported: "At a meeting of your committee held on the 7th instant I reported upon the telephone poles on Hillside avenue, and referred to the agreement made between the city and the telephone company in reference to their putting their wires underground, the city agreeing to pay 50 per cent of the cost. This work has been completed between Blanchard and Blackwood streets, and it was discontinued on account of the very heavy snowfall in the winter. The telephone company has since then been asked to examine the lines between the committee's section, but the work was not done, and if the by-law made it necessary, the council should continue it.

The engineer will give the street line for the new line of E. line on North Park street, at the usual rate, some separate hearing action as to exactly what has been the street line in the past.

In response to a letter from the city collector, a new by-law will be prepared for Manchester road paving, the old by-law having been closed up last year.

ROOSEVELT SCORED BY LAFOLLETTE

Declares Large Sums Were Spent to Boom the Colonel's Candidacy

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Senator LaFollette has written the following editorial in the current number of LaFollette's Weekly.

"Until Roosevelt came into the open as a candidate for the presidency five months ago, there was a strong and rapidly growing progressive movement within the Republican party. It was based upon clearly defined principles. It stood forth as the representative of modern political thought on fundamental proportions.

"Into this movement, when it gave promise of national success, Roosevelt projected his ambition to be president a third time. He spent weeks carefully planning a 'spontaneous' call for himself. He responded by announcing that he would be a 'receptive' candidate. His candidacy began to drag. He and his friends were then in despair. Then came his defeat in North Dakota. He became desperate.

"An enormous fund was raised. Headquarters were opened in New York, Washington, Chicago and St. Louis, and west newspaper writers were engaged at large prices to boom his candidacy. Special trains were hired and the 'receptive' candidate started in a frantic pursuit of the nomination.

"In the history of American politics there has never been in a preliminary campaign for a presidential nomination an approach to the extravagant expenditure made in his campaign. Men notoriously identified with the steel trust and the harvest trust became his most active supporters. Leading reactionaries, standpatters and political bosses of the Hanna and Quay sort became his closest political friends and representatives in many states.

"A number of the new recruits to the Republican progressive cause, men who before 1910, with three or four exceptions had been indifferent or opposed to the progressive movement, became the noisiest supporters of Roosevelt, the 'winner.' It mattered not to them that Roosevelt had co-operated with Aldrich on legislation during the entire years he was president. They forgot that it was only when Roosevelt was out of office and in Africa, through the united efforts of men who for years had been fighting the special interests, that the progressive cause became a national movement. Then Roosevelt, who was for Taft in 1910 when Taft was denouncing all progressives as 'pirates' and 'traitors,' waited until little more than a year ago, balancing the chances before deciding whether to cast in his lot with the progressive in the presidential year, counted for nothing with the class of progressives who wanted to 'win'—not a real progressive victory—just a victory.

"And they did win precisely that kind of a victory. They carried overwhelmingly the great standpat states of Illinois and Pennsylvania. Their states the Roosevelt administration which the progressive movement had so long fought for, were the only ones to be retained. It had, however, the outward seeming of success, the sort of success that intoxicates—that catches the crowd. If enabled to win in two or three really progressive states. Fortunately it did not enable him to secure the nomination which would have comprised the progressive movement and defeated real achievement for years.

to put into a safe investment. You intend that hundred to be a step to your future prosperity. You will be rather careful where you invest it. You will look for a safe buy where small amounts will grow rapidly and surely. You will look for real property, in a section with a big future, where a few dollars planted now will bring forth many-fold when development reaches you.

Victoria is to be a big city. This everyone concedes. There is but one direction in which it may expand. The map will make this clear. A portion of this area is marked for immediate development. The Saanich Suburban will do this. COLLINGWOOD is in the suburban belt.

Collingwood is a park. It has the soil, the drainage, the beauty, the attributes that give property intrinsic value. Sidewalks will not need to be put two feet above the ground in Collingwood. It fronts on the best and most direct thoroughfare between Victoria and Saanich. The Suburban Electric passes on one side and the Victoria and Sidney Railroad on the other. The stations on both these lines are most convenient to Collingwood.

Monday being a statutory holiday, the Times will not be issued in the evening of that day.

TWO MEMORIAL DAYS.

The recurrence of Dominion Day, together with the fact that it is not alone a statutory, but a public holiday, is invested with the further interest that it is Canada's principal anniversary and memorial day. All but inseparably associated with it in the traditions of Canadian people, Victoria Day and Dominion Day will always remain the chief national festivals of Canada. The fact that these holidays recur at a season of the year when climatic conditions throughout the whole Dominion are peculiarly conducive to the holiday spirit will always lend to them a glamor and advantage from which they will be inseparable. But it is not this observation that the chief sentimental valuation of the holidays will attach. There are many people alive and in good health in the Dominion to-day who have a very vivid recollection of the chief events in the Victoria era of the British Empire. In the calendar Dominion Day falls very shortly after Victoria Day, and in the history of the Empire Canada began to loom up importantly very soon after the accession of Queen Victoria to the throne. Since confederation the Dominion has ceased to loom, its progress being so phenomenal that excitable prophets have already predicted it is destined to be the centre of Empire itself. We are not excessively anxious that such a consummation should take place for a number of generations, but it is impossible to foretell what may be in the womb of time.

None of the Fathers of Confederation could foresee the developments which have taken place since—and probably only because of that event—in their entirety. Yet it is true that, in reality, Canada is only at the beginning of its history as an integral part of the British Empire. With the development of Canadian nationality, the evolutions of distinctively Canadian characteristics, the production of the "Canadian" type, as creditably as it already is unmistakable, the people of Canada will move back far enough from the act of confederation to place the event in its relatively important place. When this is done, and the critical historian shall have produced his analytical summing-up of events, as Macaulay did of England's history, the hand of destiny will be much more apparent. Already it is patent that, in national type, Canada will produce a people not American and not English, yet no one has the temerity to remark that they will not be British. It may not be going too far to say that upon these must depend the destiny of the British Empire.

There seems to be considerable misunderstanding and ambiguity in the public mind with reference to observance of June 2, the birthday of the present King. Employers of labor and even laborers themselves object with justice to the observance of three holidays so closely assembled in the calendar. We think the attempt to make the birthday of the King a public holiday is a mistake. It will tend to blur the memory of the Queen whose name must remain inseparably linked with some of the most important events in Empire history. More than this, a change in the succession must result in a changed date, and confusion worse confounded will be the end. In Great Britain the King's birthday means the simple statutory holiday on which the law courts and other state institutions are closed, with other merely formal recognition. It is not necessary for Canada to out-Britain Britain in the observance of the day. Canadian and British residents in the United States are constantly confused with the observance of birthdays of presidents long since dead and for whom the name only is a hazy memory. It must be so with many of the Americans themselves.

PAYING THE PENALTIES.

One after another the various communities in British Columbia are learning to their cost the nature of the agreement by which the government of Sir Richard McBride has delivered over the province to the Canadian Northern Railway Company. Next to the case of the Songhees reserve from which the Times believes the people of Victoria will learn that its government has paid $40,000 for land which must ultimately be delivered to the company under the terms of the agreement—perhaps Armstrong, B. C. is the latest to suffer. During the election campaign in 1909, when Premier McBride was touring the province elaborating his railway policy and calling for the endorsement of the electorate, he visited and spoke at Armstrong. There he promised the electors of that city that the new railway would run a branch through their growing municipality. His promise was so specific and unmistakable that, since the more recent developments, the electors of that city do not hesitate to give the lie direct to the Premier.

The Canadian Northern Railway Company has issued an ultimatum to the people of Armstrong to the effect that, unless they bonus the railway in the sum of $50,000 cash, it will not be brought into the city. Representations to the government have succeeded in nothing more than eliciting the information that the government is helpless to compel the company to implement the promises upon which the Premier beguiled the electorate. We have seen no plausible explanation of why this is so, yet the explanation is very simple. Under the terms of its agreement with the government the company is entitled to claim 640 acres of Crown land at any point where it may decide to establish a townsite. There happens to be vacant Crown land in the Okanagan valley available for townsite purposes. The company has both the government and the residents in that part of the Okanagan valley absolutely at its mercy. It can select its land and locate its townsite a few miles from Armstrong and Enderby, put its lots on the market, sell the requisite number to establish railway facilities, and then hold the remainder of its 640 acres out of the market, free of taxation, until such time as it decides it is worth while to sell some more. All the improvements, such as schools, sewers, lighting and the like, will have to be provided at the expense of the people who found the new town.

Falling this, the people of Armstrong must pledge their credit to the extent of $50,000 as a bribe to the Canadian Northern not to ruin them by establishing a rival town. The railway company has probably figured out that it can net about $50,000 out of its two-thirds share of the lands which it can claim free from the government. The railway company is not to blame for exacting its pound of flesh from the government which it found so "easy" in the negotiations which enabled Premier McBride and his party to seduce the people, secure a favorable vote and remain in power with control of the "commodore's" office.

While it is somewhat pitiable that the people of Armstrong and of that part of the Okanagan valley should be compelled to suffer for the egregious follies of an asthmatic statesman, we are somewhat inclined to sympathize with the view of the prominent citizen of Armstrong who told the government "boss" at a public meeting in that city that "there seemed to be nothing he could do other than to go to Victoria and tell Premier McBride to his face that he had lied." Not a very cordial endorsement of the policy of Sir Richard McBride when it comes to be worked out in the experience of the people of the province. Yet Victoria and Armstrong are only the first two British Columbia cities to receive the reward of their folly in becoming hysterical over the railway policy. The end is not yet.

Science takes turns at helping the police and the criminal. In England burglars have found an improved method to avoid leaving finger prints. Instead of wearing gloves, which is awkward, they brush their hands with a rubber solution. And their finer tips leave no clew. This knowledge might be useful to the "Rubber Stamps" in the provincial legislature, who, not necessarily criminal, put their fingers on some things from which, in future years, they might desire to erase the evidences of their personality.

The price of tobacco has advanced in England, the workman having to pay four cents a pound more for the grades he commonly uses, though the choicer brands remain stationary in price. In Canada advances are made by reducing the size of the packages and plugs. Perhaps the English dealer is not making all the money he needs on the higher grades.

John Wanamaker, the famous merchant, has been again mentioned as a possible compromise candidate of the Republicans. Probably no man in the United States has a stronger reputation, and no doubt business interests would feel safer with him than with any other candidate whose claims have been considered.

Suggested by the Manitoba Free Press: Song by Hon. L. P. Pelletier after a busy day with the axe:
 "One sweetly soothing thought
 Comes to me o'er and o'er,
 I've thirty-one less Grifts to-day,
 Than o'er I had before."

179 SUITS THAT WERE MARKED AT $8 AND $9 TO CLEAR AT $6.75

And there isn't a suit in the lot that is not a bargain, even at the regular price, but now that they are marked still lower they are a snap. Fancy worsteds, tweeds and serges are the materials in which these suits come, and there is quite an assortment of patterns and colors to choose from. Double-breasted and the popular Norfolk are the styles and you can have either plain or bloomer pants. The quality is just fine, and we strongly recommend any of these suits.

214 SUITS, REGULAR $6.75 AND $7 GRADES, TO GO AT $5.50
 Fine English chevots, serges and tweeds in a fine assortment of colors and patterns are here, and the suits are made up in double and single breasted styles. All are well tailored and trimmed. All sizes, and no better value can be desired at the price.

$5.50 AND $5.75 SUITS WILL BE CLEARED AT $4.75
 This doesn't look like a big reduction, but the suits were marked too low in the first place. There are 120 suits in the lot and all are made of medium weight tweeds and serges. The season's newest colors are well represented, and the suits are made in double or single breasted styles. To see these suits is to be tempted to buy them.

$4.50 AND $5 SUITS ARE MARKED DOWN TO $3.75
 One hundred and twenty suits are to be sold at this price, and all are made of Canadian tweeds and serges. Single and double-breasted styles with bloomer or plain pants. The tailoring and trimming is all that you'll expect of them, probably even better.

$3.75 TO $4 SUITS WILL FIND READY PURCHASERS AT $3
 Tweeds and homespuns are the chief materials in which these suits are to be had. There are 125 in the lot. All are made in the newest styles and the materials are in the latest shades and patterns. Both single and double breasted styles are represented, and you can have either bloomer or plain pants.

60 BOYS CAN HAVE A TWEED SUIT AT $2.50
 That these are a great bargain few will doubt. To see them is to be convinced that they are the best value that you ever saw at the price. They are in heavy weight tweeds and come in both single and double breasted styles.

A two-hour slugging bee was held at the Royal Athletic park yesterday, in which the Beavers did most of the slugging. Doubtless the practice did the batters some good, but it wasn't at all to the liking of the fans and many of them departed homeward before the game was over. When the scorer tallied up it was found that the champions had scored thirteen times and had fattened their batting averages to the extent of seventeen slams, in which home runs, three-baggers and doubles figured, while the locals had rung the bell four times and compiled just a measly thirteen pokes.

Their premier hurler was doing the tossing for Bob Brown's old heads and Narveson was on the mound for Victoria. Clarke hit a couple of batters, made a brace of wild pitches and was pummeled hard throughout, but nevertheless won. Some people haven't any luck! Narveson, considered one of the home talent's two most dependable fingers, hadn't a thing on the ball and in only three periods did the mainlanders fail to acquire less than two hits. Being also wild he was absolutely useless, but was kept in probably because there was no one ready to go in and do better. Wilson and Kaufmann had both been fired into the club-house for making unintelligible remarks to hisumps.

Never at any time this season has there been more beefing than there was yesterday, not only from the stands and bleachers, but from the players. Of course, the arbiter was the goat, let it be said right now, although the crowd by refusing to let him say a few words on one occasion acted like unmanly, loud-mouths, there was something in the shape of a brickbat coming to him. He not only worried the pitchers by some foolish ruling concerning their position in the box, which he has never before bothered about, but he also delayed the game to an unreasonable length by his constant talking to the players when it wasn't necessary. With regard to his decisions, some of these the fans kicked about were all right and some weren't, but no one—not even an official umpire—can be perfect.

The bees, with the exception of Captain Herr Meek, played a nice game in the field. Meek was responsible for the very discouraging start when he dropped Scharnweber's pop fly and let two runs across after one had already been tallied by Bennett in the first session. Again in the third he missed a foul from Frisk's bat and the elongated youngster from the mainland city knocked the next ball pitched out of the lot. Victoria kept up with the visitors until the third inning, Clarke being very erratic, but from the third on to the ninth they quit scoring. In the ninth, with two on, Friene drove the ball to right and lost it in the grass. He came all the way round, chasing in Meek and Kellar ahead of him. The Beavers in the meantime were playing a regular tune on the ball. In only two innings were they blanked.

Silent Ed Kennedy was put out of the game in the first inning for backtalk to the umpire when he was called out at second. He was out by about three feet.

BASEBALL

Rawlings and Meek worked a pretty double steal in the second inning. Meek was on first and Rawlings on third. Meek went down and Lewis tried that old gag of throwing to Bennett just behind the pitcher, but, although the return was perfect, Rawlings bent it by ten feet.

Narveson was caught leaving third before a sacrifice fly was caught. There have been several of that same thing this season, but this is the first time hisumps noticed it.

Our comedian was there again yesterday. His remarks "We do play ball when we get lined up" fell flat.

Yesterday's game was the most interesting of the season and, by his gilly-dallying tactics, Umpire Moran helped make it so. That sort of thing will kill the game here.

The players go over to Seattle tomorrow with the Booster excursion on the G. T. P. boat Prince, George, and return on Sunday night for their two games with Tacoma Monday. They play the rest of the week in Seattle against the Giants. Vancouver plays at Spokane next week and Tacoma at Portland.

Umpire Moran wanted to announce that to-day's game would start at 2 o'clock, but the fans wouldn't let him.

A report was circulated this morning that a dead umpire had been found floating about the harbor, but upon investigation, it was found to be incorrect.

Meek's work at the beginning of yesterday's game, when he dropped an easy pop and a foul almost as easy, did a lot towards putting Victoria on the hammer. It discouraged Narveson mightily.

Double plays came in bunches yesterday. Towards the end of the game the Beavers didn't care whether they were put out or not after they got as far as second. Kellar got one double unassisted.

Stadler came into the game when Kennedy was kicked out and celebrated his return by making a grandstand catch of a hard hit drive by Bennett.

CRICKET JOTTINGS.

The Sons of St. George cricket club will visit Duncan on Dominion Day to play the Cowichan eleven. About twenty-five of the club's supporters will accompany the party, and two of the latter have promised to present bats to players who succeed in scoring fifty runs. A ball is to be presented to any man who performs the hat trick.

On Dominion Day the Albions are at home to Saanich. The match will be an all-day one. A feature of the Albion's work lately has been the great all-round display of E. P. Ward.

An excellent suggestion emanates from Gilbert Jessop writing in a London weekly. He suggests that the winning Test eleven play the strongest team that the other two countries can put into the field. He says: "Supposing England were successful, even the Oval would be taxed to contain comfortably all those who would flock to see Australia cum Faulkner & Co. tackle the Old Country. The more one thinks of such a match the more does the prospect delight, and it will be a thousand pities if the opportunity is allowed to pass."

As a proof of the immaculate length that Barnes, the great English bowler kept up in the Test match versus the Australians it is said that the repeated striking of the ball in one part of the pitch at Lords was a circle in the turf of about a foot in diameter.

S. J. Pegler is the best bowler in the South African eleven. He bowls a very good leg-break, his flight is a little deceptive, and he makes good use of a fast ball, which breaks back. With his high and easy action he is a really artistic bowler who is always interesting to watch. It is interesting to note that H. H. Pegler, the well-known member of the Albion cricket team in this city is a cousin of the famous South African bowler.

FOR ALEXANDRIA CUP.

Genevieve, Spirit II, and Alexandria Will Race From Seattle to Cowichan.

Everett, Wash., June 29.—Everett yachtsmen will have a chance to win the Alexandria cup at the Cowichan Bay races across the border line, July 1. A letter received by Secretary A. M. Chitty, of the Everett Yacht Club, yesterday, from Commodore E. H. Keane, of the Vancouver Royal Yacht Club, stated that he will have the Alexandria in commission and will race against the Genevieve, of Everett, and the Spirit II, from Seattle, at the Cowichan regatta.

The Alexandria cup is the most prized trophy in the northwest. It is believed the Genevieve can beat the Alexandria and bring home the cup. The Everett racer will leave for Cowichan Saturday night.

JOE BAYLEY IS FIRST UNDISPUTED CHAMPION.
Joe Bayley, of Victoria, is the first real legitimate champion boxer of Canada. There have been provincial and sectional champions before, but Thursday at Bassano was the first time that boxers who were recognized as the respective champions for the east and west have ever met. Allen had beaten every lightweight boxer of note in eastern Canada, while Bayley proved himself supreme in the west, and to the winner is attached all the glamor that goes with the title, "undisputed lightweight champion of Canada."

JUNIOR BASEBALL.

Last night at Beacon Hill the Knights went down to defeat at the hands of the High School nine by the score of 9-8. Gordon and McIlbride pitched and caught for High School, while Taughty and Dougan were the battery for the Knights.

That guarantee is our assurance to the Tudhope owner that we have used the utmost care in building his car. Visitors to the Tudhope factory are surprised to see that we manufacture our own motors. Boring the heavy motor castings is a most important operation and one we feel we must do in our own shops. To ensure absolute alignment of the cylinders we bore them at one operation. We could buy these castings already drilled and ground—but if we did, we could not deliver a car as well balanced or as dependable as the Tudhope. We would not have absolute control over the construction. We could not

BAYLEY'S EARLIEST BATTLE KNOWN OF

FOUGHT BARE-FIST FOR TWO HOURS WHEN A KID

Showed Early Signs of Pugilistic Tendencies—Tommy Burns Will Handle Him

With hands and faces spattered with blood, clothing torn and hair dishevelled, two grim little kiddies, scarcely in their teens, staggered to and fro, hitting wildly, but nevertheless doing gruesome damage to one another's features. Covered with perspiration and gasping for breath they flailed away for two solid hours with never a sign of quitting on either side. Finally a couple of the biggest of the boys gathered about judged the battle had gone far enough and separated the combatants. That was a fight which has never been forgotten by the youngsters—now young men in their twenties—who were present. It took place at Macaulay Point, on a warm summer's day about 10 or 12 years ago, one of the principals being Joe Bayley, the same Joe who won the Canadian lightweight championship the other night, possessed with the same indomitable spirit that has carried him from oblivion as a boxer to the highest honors a lightweight can attain in the Dominion in the remarkably short period of eighteen months.

Strange to relate, his opponent in that bout at Macaulay Point was young Ricketts, who is now also a professional lightweight boxer and is fighting in the prairie provinces. Joe and he were school mates and on account of a boyish difference of opinion as to who was the better "man" they decided to settle it once and for all. But they didn't, and probably never will, although Ricketts can hardly consider himself in Joe's class now.

Joe Bayley was never a rowdy nor a troublemaker, but he would back down to nobody, no matter how big he was considered he was in the right. He was always more fond of athletics than book learning and has at different times figured prominently in local lacrosse, football and basketball, generally as a member of a Victoria West team.

His parents reside in Esquimalt district and what education he has he acquired at the Lamson street school. It is plainly apparent that he displayed an early preference to boxing over any other line of sport, and when but fifteen or sixteen years of age represented ed the Victoria West club in various tournaments. He was a bantamweight then and he quickly cleaned up everything in his class in the province at that weight. He then branched out as a lightweight and it wasn't long before he held the B. C. title in that division. When he had beaten almost everyone of his weight a couple of times, acting under the instigation of Sammy Duffy, who, perhaps, was the first to see the boy's possibilities, he decided that he must go farther afield, and early last summer became a professional, meeting Roman in Ladysmith. That fight almost quered Joe in the fifth round and the miners hollered fake. The champion's pugilistic career since then is too well known to Victorians to need any further mention.

After leaving school Joe went to work at Bullen's yards as a boiler fitter's apprentice, which arduous occupation helped considerably to develop his biceps and other muscles. He then became a shingler, at which trade he worked for several years, unconsciously hardening and preparing himself for his career in the ring. His splendid legs, capable of both speed and endurance, were developed by his football, lacrosse and basketball activities. Joe doesn't drink, although he may have taken a glass of beer once in a while, and chews cigarettes absolutely, an occasional cigar being his only smoke. His wind is good and altogether his physique is just about perfect.

Just now Joe is a fighter pure and simple, but with proper handling he ought to develop into a boxer as well. As it is reported that Tommy Burns, former heavyweight champion of the world, is to take him in hand, he has a good chance to become a world-beater. It is in him, say all those who know him, and Burns is the man who can bring it out.

Joe has already received two challenges, since his fight with Allen, one from Charlie Reilly, a Fresno boy, and another from Kid Scaler, of Spokane, who wants to fight for a $1000 side bet. Exactly what Joe's plans are is not known yet.

"BOM" WELLS' ASPIRATIONS KILLED.

New York, June 25.—Bombardier Wells' world's championship aspirations were killed last night when he was knocked out in the third round of a scheduled ten-round bout by Al Palzer, a "white hope," in Madison Square

AL PALZER

Garden. Wells is the heavyweight champion of England. The first round was Wells'. He put Palzer down for the count of six, after sending numerous rights and lefts to the head and giving a pretty exhibition of footwork. He also had slightly the better of the second round, but in the third Palzer's weight began to tell and, after putting his man down twice, Palzer planted a hard right below the heart, under which Wells sank to the floor crumpled in a heap. He lay there helpless while his seconds threw up the sponge, saving the referee the trouble of counting him out. Palzer weighed at the ringside, turning the scales at 228 1/4 pounds, and Wells's weight was given at 185 1/2.

HOWARD REINSTATED.

London, June 25.—J. A. Howard, the negro member of the Canadian Olympic team, the announcement of whose dismissal on the charge of insubordination was made by the team's coach, W. Knox, Wednesday, was officially reinstated yesterday. He promised to place himself absolutely under the coach's orders and not to interfere with other members of the team. NEWS OF THE SEVEN SEAS

SALMON RUN GOOD OFF WEST COAST

QUATSINO CANNING AND UCHUCKLESIT FREEZING

Tees Brings Word That Many Fish Have Been Taken—Expect Record Season

Salmon fishing has commenced off the west coast and the canneries at Uchucklesit and Quatsino are receiving large quantities of fish, according to the officers of the C. P. R. steamer Tees, Capt. Gillam, which returned to this port from Holberg this morning after making a trip to Steveston with a large number of Indians for the canneries there. The Clayoquot cannery has not yet opened, but it is understood that it will be operating about the middle of next month.

While the Uchucklesit cannery is receiving fish it has not yet started to can, the salmon being frozen in ice in order to preserve them. The canning plant of the big Wallace Fisheries station there has not yet been completed and until it is ready the fish are being placed in the cold storage plant, which is adjacent to the other building. The officers of the Tees say that the company has sufficient fish to fill 2,500 cases. The Quatsino cannery has been canning for a short time and has a good pack for this time of the year.

With the new Wallace plant in operation the output of the west coast canneries this year will be more than double that of any previous season. A large fleet of fishing boats will operate in conjunction with the cannery on Alberni canal. The steam trawler Orontea, which arrived here from Scotland a few days ago, is to act as the mother boat for the fleet and will pull the catches from the vicinity of the Clayoquot Bank to Uchucklesit.

At present the fishermen are catching cohoes but very shortly it is expected that the spring and sockeye will start to run. On her next trip to the west coast the Tees will take on 25 tons of coal for the Clayoquot cannery. Many Victorians will cross to Clayoquot for an early opening and the owners there are looking forward to a big catch this year.

San Francisco, June 29.—The British steamer Harlesden, at San Diego, discharging Japanese railroad ties, has been taken on time charter for lumber to Australia. She loads part cargo here and finishes on the Sound, getting a time charter rate of 60s. 6d for the Sydney Pirie range, or 60s. 8d. if she discharges at Fremantle.

The German ship Ellbek, en route from Hamburg for Santa Rosalia, has been chartered by Heatley & Co. for barley from the Columbia river of Puget Sound to the United Kingdom at 37s. 6d., with the option of wheat loading at 35s. 2d.

The British ship Galgate, taken by M. H. Houser, of Portland, on the previous day, got the same rates. Heatley & Co. have also chartered the Norwegian barque Valerie for grain to the United Kingdom, but the rate has not been announced. The Valerie is at present en route from South America—South Africa so her loading period is some time off.

The British ship William T. Lewis, owned by Hind, Rolph & Co., has been chartered by Meyer, Wilson & Co. for general cargo from Hamburg for Honolulu.

The Canadian-Mexican steamship Lonsdale is expected to put in here July 1 en route from Salina Cruz. She will sail the following day for the north.

FEW SHIPS ARE DUE TO ARRIVE AND SAIL.

Inaba Maru, Antiochus and Lonsdale in Next Week—Two Boats Leave

According to schedules three foreign-going vessels are due to arrive here during the coming week and two will sail. Shipping at this port has been rather quiet for the past two weeks, and the next seven days will be about the lightest known here for some time. The liners which will come in include the Nippon Yusen Kaisha steamer Inaba Maru, due on Thursday; the Antiochus of the Blue Funnel line, on Saturday; and the Lonsdale, of the Canadian-Mexican fleet, at the end of the week. The Montevideo is due to sail from here on Tuesday and the new Nippon liner Yokohama Maru will get away the same day.

It is expected that the Inaba will report from sea to-morrow night on her way here from Yokohama. Although she is not scheduled to dock until Thursday morning, it is possible she may get in early Wednesday evening. She is bringing across the Pacific a large list of passengers, including 150 for Victoria and 120 for Seattle. Her cargo totals 3,000 tons, of which 500 tons will be discharged here.

The Antiochus, bound from Liverpool via Oriental ports, will not be in wireless communication with the West Coast stations until about Thursday. She should dock here on Friday, the Holt liners generally making port one day ahead of their schedule. The Antiochus is filled to her capacity with 11,000 tons of general freight, and she will discharge at Victoria about 2,000 tons. She has several hundred Chinese for this port.

The Lonsdale is due along towards the end of the week, having left Salina Cruz on June 22. She has about 2,000 tons of general merchandise aboard, which was shipped from European and Eastern ports via the Tehuantepec railroad.

The two outward boats, the Montevideo and Yokohama Maru, are both going to Yokohama and Hongkong. They will take out fair lists of passengers and full cargoes of freight. The new Nippon liner will have 5,000 tons of general merchandise in her holds when she clears.

ANXIETY BEING FELT FOR GERMAN BARQUE

Schiffbek is Now Out 200 Days From Hamburg to Santa Rosalia—Known Here

Some anxiety is being felt in coast shipping circles for the big German barque Schiffbek, which is 200 days out to-day from Hamburg for Santa Rosalia with general cargo. The wind-jammer left the Elbe river port on December 12 and has only been spoken once. She was sighted in the North Atlantic in January and since that time nothing has been seen or heard of her. After discharging at the Mexican port the Schiffbek was to have come north to Vancouver to load a cargo of lumber at Hastings Mills for the United Kingdom.

Ninety Indian fishermen from Nootka, Ahousat, Christie School, and Clayoquot were taken by the C. P. R. steamer Tees, Capt. Gillam, to Steveston. The vessel returned here this morning from the Fraser River port. On her last trip to the west coast the Tees went as far north as Holberg, and on her return passage she found a large number of Indians awaiting her at different points along the coast. They had been signed by the owners of different canneries on the Fraser and will fish during the salmon season on that waterway.

All are woven from the best selected wools, have a nice, nappy surface, and have just sufficient cotton mixed with the wool to give the blanket a better wearing quality, and prevent shrinkage.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weston, Vining street, yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Mary Olive Weston, was united in marriage with William Sewell Elwell Nason. Rev. B. H. Balderston was the officiating minister. The happy couple took the four o'clock boat on Route for Portland, Ore. They will return to make their home in Victoria. The bride-maid was Miss Jessie Hawkins and the bridegroom was supported by Mr. Frank Nason. The bride was given away by her father. Only the relatives of both families were present.

Among the June home weddings of interest was that solemnized at 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gunn, of Vancouver, when their younger son, Mr. Harry W. Gunn, and Miss Elizabeth Chew, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chew, of Woodstock, Ont., were joined in marriage by Rev. G. K. Bradshaw of Sixth Avenue Methodist church, formerly of Woodstock. The charming young bride, who arrived from the east but a few days ago, wore a becoming tailored costume of cream cloth with hat to match. She was attended by Miss Grace Gunn, a sister of the groom. Miss Gunn wore a gown of navy blue silk. Mr. W. C. Gunn, the groom's brother, acted as groomsmen. Following the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gunn left for Victoria and other coast cities, the bride travelling in a suit of navy blue with smart hat on suit. Both young people were former residents of Woodstock, Ont., and were remembered by their many friends both here and in the east. They will make their home in Victoria.

Does Your Wife Toil Over the Wash-Tub?

Hundreds of women in Victoria still cling to the old custom of wracking their bodies and spoiling their hands "doing" the family wash. They keep on at it either from force of habit or because they do not believe in public laundries. They have to be convinced that public laundries are CLEAN and SANITARY and that they do NOT rot or tear the clothes.

We Must Confess to This

Much of the prejudice that has existed against public laundries WAS well-founded. Poor machinery, incompetent help, inferior ingredients and general carelessness, produced only dissatisfaction.

BUT, as hundreds of thousands of Canadian and American women have learned, the laundry business has been revolutionized and to-day these wise women are emancipated from the tub drudgery of old, while the wash is done better and cleaner and—

ACTUALLY CHEAPER by the "New Method" in laundering. They are cutting down the period of sloop and steam and muss and fuss when the house is turned over to washing and ironing and they are saving the cost of fuel, soaps, starch, bluing and other incidentals that busy housewives target to figure into the weekly budget.

Victoria has a "New Method" Laundry. We wish every housewife in this city and its environs could come out to our big, bright, clean, new works on North Park street and see us handle the immense bulk of work that has come to us in the few weeks since we started.

They would find the place cleaner from ground floor to finishing floor than most homes are on wash day. They would see the elimination of ALL UNSANITARY METHODS and much of the old "pulling" and wringing style of laundering. New machines save the wear and tear of the goods and pure ingredients and fresh, clean water and to spare, do the work.

HAPPY, INTELLIGENT, WHITE HELP all of expert calibre and the most strict and careful oversight, all based on our motto "Quality and Service," are secrets of our rapid success. WE WANT YOU TO GIVE US JUST ONE TRIAL.

LEADER OF BRIDGE MISSION RETURNS

ALDERMAN CUTHBERT ON VISIT TO OTTAWA

Does Useful Publicity Work at Louisville, Ky., for City at Real Estate Gathering

Alderman Cuthbert was a busy man this morning, after his return yesterday from the mission to Ottawa in connection with the Seymour Narrows bridge, and the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges at Louisville, Kentucky, representing the exchange in this city.

He was looking well after the trip and quite satisfied that the deputation had made a real impression on ministers at Ottawa. "If you are going to secure anything at Ottawa," he said to a Times man, "it must be by personal contact with ministers, who show anxiety to be thoroughly apprised of the Vancouver Island situation, and our welcome was of the most cordial kind, particularly from the Prime Minister to the Vancouver Island delegation over the bridge. Mr. Borden expressed his desire to look thoroughly into the matter, and said the case had been presented to him in a way which few delegations had done since he took office. We all worked most harmoniously together, and decided beforehand the arrangements we should make in putting our case. We had the greatest possible benefit from the assistance of F. H. Shepherd, M.P., who was directly responsible in securing Mr. Lugin's audience on behalf of the board of trade with Hon. F. D. Monk, minister of public works, about the harbor. To that meeting we went merely as citizens of Victoria, in an official capacity. So far as our visit to Col. Hughes was concerned it was more in the nature of a social call, as most of us knew him, and he was somewhat familiar with conditions in Victoria.

"I would rather have gone as a Liberal than a Conservative on this particular mission, so that my views might not appear to be biased favorably to the government, but the ministers generally on us, as I have said. We made much use of Mr. Burrell's administration of the department of agriculture, and with the manner in which we were received by the deputy postmaster-general about reforms on the Island in the postal service.

"I went from Ottawa to the convention at Louisville, Kentucky, and there made an attempt to put Victoria on the map. My chief opponents were strangely enough, the delegation from Winnipeg boosting for the convention to be held there in 1913, and they wanted all notice to be given to Winnipeg and Saskatchewan. So I set out to put Victoria on the map, and drew sufficient attention to the city to make people who had never heard of Victoria ask who I was, and where the place was. I represented. There was quite a storm when I drew attention to the absence of Canadian flags in the convention hall, and that the Canadian delegates had nothing really in common with the agenda paper. This is to be altered next year, and the association will in future bear an international denomination, and will meet at Winnipeg. I shall suggest that the Real Estate Exchange prepare to bring a party through the Rockies to the coast at that time. The association represented some 550 delegates, and I was the only representative west of Moose Jaw on the Canadian side. The convention lasted three days, and drew together some of the largest realty operators in the continent."

MILLWORKERS WALK OUT FROM FACTORIES

Dispute Over Hours of Work and Wages Paid—Effect on Building Trade

The mill workers of the city, to the number of about one hundred laid down their tools this morning, and will not resume them on Tuesday unless an arrangement is arrived at by which the employers will concede the two principal changes, for which they are fighting; namely the reduction of the hours of work from ten to nine hours, and an advance of five per cent on an hour per month. The decision to walk out was reached at an enthusiastic meeting of the newly organized Mill Workers' Union last evening, and although the actual number of strikers is small, the importance of the movement can be judged by the promise of the outside crafts, like the carpenters, under whose auspices they were organized, not to handle material cut at mills by imperiled labor if the men's demands are not granted.

Pickets will be put on on Tuesday to watch the situation, and see that no men are not engaged to take their places.

The firms concerned include the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company, Lemon, Gunnison & Co., The King Manufacturing Company, James Leigh & Sons, and The Woodworkers, Ltd. The masters say they cannot pay the extra wages and meet competition from outside. Some of the employers have given their employees voluntarily much better terms than others, so this is the first organized attempt to enforce a uniform rate on the factories, and common hours of labor. In Vancouver the terms of employment are said to be easier, but in Seattle wages are lower than in Victoria in this particular class of trade.

At the meeting last evening the men were resolved determinedly for a strike, and would not even wait for a ballot to decide their action. They said to be easier, but the men individually about grievances, but the men insist on recognition of the union, which dates back only a few months, and has been slowly gaining strength.

AN ISLAND GUIDE.

Comprehensive Pocket Publication on Vancouver Island Cities.

T. Napier Hibben has just issued a much-needed and well-prepared guide to the cities of Vancouver Island, giving road maps from Victoria to Comox district, maps of all the cities, a plan of Crofton and of Uplands, and much information regarding the Island, its cities and certain other matters of interest to residents and to visitors. The guide will be found of great value to visitors, especially as it contains the regulations for visiting automobilists, who must give notice on the regular form of their machines having been brought here to the provincial police.

The map of Victoria shows all places of interest; the large buildings are indicated and indexed so that the stranger can gather at a glance where any prominent place he seeks is situated. Hunting and fishing regulations are given in brief, and the train times for the Island and boat services for the Sound and the Island coast are tabulated.

There is a list of churches and schools, with the attendance at each; rules for the road at sea and much other valuable information. The maps

Recital This Afternoon.—An interesting recital was given this afternoon by a number of Mrs. E. S. Foot's pupils at her residence, 1809 Fernwood street, the following girls taking part: The Misses Ruth and Dorothy Melville, Muriel Marshall, Claudia Cullum, Ethel Browie, Nellie Murray, Beatrice and Elsie Lamb, Carol Tolmie, Gertrude Murray, Mabel and Dorothy Head, Letta French, Norma and Cecil Dumbleton, Gertrude Hickey, Mona Whitmee, Mabel Estey, and Jean Sargent. All the pupils, with the exception of Norma Dumbleton, are students of pianoforte, while this pupil is a student of the violin, and gave a very pleasing demonstration of her playing of this instrument. The programme was augmented by some selections both vocal and instrumental, given by Miss Foot. The afternoon was pleasantly concluded by the serving of tea to the pupils and their parents, quite a number of the latter being present to hear the performance.

Boys Won Prizes.—Ven. Archdeacon Scriven presented the prizes at the annual prize-giving in connection with the closing exercises of K. C. Symons' school for young boys, which was held yesterday afternoon in the grounds of Mrs. F. M. Rattenbury's residence, Beach drive. There were quite a number of people present, mostly the parents of the boys, these last wearing for the first time their school colors of dark blue and black. The programme was very entertaining a song recitation in English, French and Latin, "Ten Little Nigger Boys," was given by the boys, and evoked much laughter. The trial scene from "The Merchant of Venice" was also very effectively given, the costumes being carefully prepared and very handsome. Prizes were given as follows: Best senior boy for the term exams, Arthur Jackson; middle division, George Barton; Junior division, Ross Wilson; conduct, Jack Carey; French and Latin, Frank Holland; progress in the term, W. Holland; best examination work, Frank Rattenbury; drawing prize, Ronald Jackson; beginners prize, A. Kingscote. The donors of the prizes were C. A. Holland, Messrs. Johnson, H. G. Wilson, A. S. Barton, Jackson, and Mrs. Gunnison. Tea was served at the conclusion of the programme, the hostess, Mrs. Rattenbury, being presented with a bouquet of flowers. The boys, on the resumption of the school term in September, will go to the new school, which is in process of completion at the corner of Saratoga avenue and Pleasant street.

EXTRACT FROM "BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL"

March 23, 1907.

"A Most Valuable Food"

At a time when the preparation of artificial foodstuffs is receiving more attention than ever before, and when new forms of easily assimilable fat to take the place of cod liver oil are being frequently brought to the notice of the medical profession, it is desirable that some of the older forms of administering natural fats should not be lost sight of. Among natural fats, butter easily takes first place for nutritive value, and when combined with a suitable soluble carbohydrate, a most valuable food is produced.

The BUTTER SCOTCH which Messrs. Callard & Bowser (Duke's Road, Euston Road, W. C.) have prepared for fifty years, is such an article, which has the great advantage of being palatable, so palatable, in fact, that children are more likely to need restraining from excess than any persuading to take it. This BUTTER SCOTCH is stated to contain 11.7 per cent. of fat and 73.3 per cent. of sugar, and the results of an analysis which we have made recently of a specimen substantially confirm these figures; further chemical examination of the fat extracted showed it to be genuine butter fat. This confection can therefore be recommended, not only as a harmless sweetener, but also as a very useful addition to the diet in suitable cases.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR DOMINION DAY PICNICS

Religious Organizations Will Spend Holiday at Beach and in Country

Some disappointment has been occasioned owing to the unusual pressure on the E. & N. railway this year, which has made it impossible for the St. Andrew's and First Presbyterian churches to hold their Dominion Day picnics at the usual places. On this account both churches have decided to postpone the annual picnic until a later date. Among the churches, however, which will celebrate the day in the usual manner, are Knox Presbyterian church, which will meet at Bowker's Beach, the Willows, the picnic car leaving the Spring Ridge terminus at 9 o'clock. All friends are cordially invited, and are asked to bring luncheon baskets. The day will be devoted to sports and the usual pastimes and games.

Perhaps one of the biggest picnics of the day will be the Metropolitan Methodist Sunday school picnic, which is to be held at Dean Heights, special cars running at 9, 11 and 1 o'clock to carry the guests. The superintendent of the Sunday school, Mr. Knott, has drawn up an excellent programme of sports which is guaranteed to ensure every one against dullness. The Young Men's class will play a game of baseball against the Young People's Bible class during the morning. During the afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock sharp, an entertaining series of events, including running events, egg and spoon races, jumping, three-legged races, sack races, potato races, obstacle races, will be held, one of the most exciting features being the tug-of-war, bachelors v. benedicts. There will be a prize given for the best bouquet of wild flowers collected during the day; all bouquets must be in by 4.30 p. m., and judging will take place at 5 o'clock. Refreshments will be in charge of a committee, and will include ice cream, lemonade, etc.

Emmanuel Baptist church will hold their annual picnic at Macaulay point, leaving the city at 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. while Victoria West Methodist church will also hold their annual Dominion Day picnic at the same place, leaving the church at 9 a. m. and devoting the day to sports and games. Those who go are expected to bring well-filled baskets, as luncheon and tea will be partaken of on the grounds. The First Congregational church and Sunday school will spend the day at Beaver Lake, special cars having been chartered on the trains leaving the V. & N. station, Blanchard street, at 7.45 a. m. and 10.30 a. m. the return trains leaving Beaver lake at 6.30 p. m. and 8 p. m. A full programme of sports and games is being provided, and prizes will be offered for the successful competitors in each event. The grounds chosen will be those of Dr. Currie, and everyone is expected to take a basket of provisions. Tickets, the charge for which will cover the railway fare, are on sale by several members of the Sunday school.

theme discussed by W. C. Blair, secretary of the Vancouver board of trade. He explained that New Westminster had voted half a million as a preliminary fund for the carrying out of harbor development works which will cost in the aggregate some six millions. He told the delegates of the forty miles of waterfrontage on Burrard Inlet, nearly every foot of which may be utilized in the provision of shipping facilities.

Mr. Blair stated that with the opening of the canal the rate on grain from Saskatchewan and Alberta will be nine cents per bushel and the ocean rate via Panama will be thirteen cents to Liverpool, a total of twenty-two cents. This compares with Chicago of twenty-five cents per bushel, via Fort William and the lakes and thirty-six cents per bushel via the winter all-rail route to the Atlantic coast. In addition he pointed out that the port of Vancouver is open all the year round and a saving of approximately five cents per bushel will be effected by western shipment because winter storage charges and insurance will be eliminated. Mr. Blair expressed the opinion that on the opening of the canal at least half of the eight hundred thousand immigrants, who annually land on the Atlantic coast from Europe would be diverted to Pacific coast ports and the several hundred vessels engaged in their transportation would be utilized in the handling of grain. In addition vessels coming to the Pacific coast with cargoes of general merchandise for consumption in British Columbia and the prairie provinces would be returned with grain.

Mayor Lee of New Westminster, after mentioning that present transportation facilities eastbound were inadequate to handle the export grain with dispatch, declared that even were a half dozen additional railway lines provided to the east, Alberta and Saskatchewan would, for five or six months of the year, be unable to ship their grain to the coast. "The faster we can get our products to market the more money we save," declared Mayor Lee.

"If we, on the Pacific coast, can handle to better advantage the things that produce them we should all be agreed that the trade should go to the coast. In British Columbia all the principal ports are taking up the matter of making provision for the handling of the export grain of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Mayor Lee then went into details regarding the scheme of development, which is to be carried into effect at the port of New Westminster.

Premier Sifton Speaks.

Premier Sifton, who had unexpectedly entered the convention hall, jocularly stated that when he had heard of the possible routing of western freight down the Columbia to Portland he had worried about the future of the Pacific coast ports of Canada, but he was glad that the delegates from the coast did not take a gloomy view of the situation.

"Unless something extraordinary happens the railways will not be able to make more than a showing of taking out Alberta and Saskatchewan grain before the frost comes," declared the premier.

Alberta and Saskatchewan must unite in improving conditions for themselves and for British Columbia. These provinces are dependent one on the other and it is essential that they further the interests of each other.

"Before the opening of the Panama canal there will be five trans-mountain railways to carry our grain to the Pacific coast, there will also be an outlet via Hudson's Bay and the three existing trans-continental railways to the coast. It will be for these railways to show Alberta and Saskatchewan which is the cheapest route of transportation.

"Our grain must take the cheapest route to the markets of the world. I am glad to have received information as to the cheapness of forwarding grain via the Pacific coast and the Panama. If you hang together for development you will have three provinces of which you all will be proud."

Making Money

Some men make their money in business, some by toll-savings of their daily wage.

But we submit to you the unquestioned fact that more men have reached a comfortable competence through the ownership of property—houses and land, which bring in a fixed income—more than in any other way.

Business requires your sole attention—property works by itself for you without your care. Select it—select it to work—it takes care of itself and will take care of you.

A good example of this sort of investment is found in the following:

Meetings Next Week.
Tuesday - Vancouver Encampment
No. 1.
Wednesday - Columbia Lodge No. 2.
Thursday - Dominion Lodge No. 4.
Friday - Victoria Lodge No. 1.

The coming week will be a busy one for the Grand Lodge officers, as the officers will be installed in the various lodges during the week. The installation of officers in the encampment will start the ball rolling on Tuesday evening.

Columbia Lodge No. 2.
Those who attended this lodge on Wednesday evening last heard one of the most important discussions that has been held in the lodge room for many years. The younger members of the order realized that the question was one for the veterans to discuss, so they just took note of the pros and cons and stored them away in their noddies for future reference. Well, everything turned out all O. K., and the broad smile illuminating Bro. W. Jackson's countenance at the close of the evening bore testimony that his hopes had been realized and that the hard work of the committee had not been in vain. A cigar, if you please, W. J.

General Relief Committee.
A very important meeting of this committee was held on Monday evening last. The various lodges having sanctioned the proposal to amalgamate
the offices of secretary-treasurer, Bro.
F. Forneri was unanimously chosen as secretary-treasurer for the balance of the year. A new system of carrying on the work of the committee has been inaugurated. This has become imperative owing to the increasing business, which it is necessary for the committee to keep pace with. The committee has at the present time seven members on the list, all of whom are being looked after in a very satisfactory manner.

The Cup Competition.
The long looked for report of the judges on the last competition has arrived at last. The report is certainly an eye-opener in some respects. Dominion Lodge No. 4 shows a gain of 307 points over their previous effort; Victoria lodge shows a gain of 171 points, and Columbia lodge a gain of 131 points. In the second competition Dominion lodge, in comparison with the first competition, lost ground to the extent of 217 points; Victoria lodge made a gain of three points and Columbia lodge a gain of 33 points. In comparing the first and last competitions,
Dominion lodge shows a gain of only 89 points, Victoria lodge a gain of 174 points and Columbia lodge a gain of 174 points. A summary of the three competitions follows:

Table with 3 columns: Competition, Points, and Lodge. Includes data for First, Second, and Third competitions across various lodges.

When it is taken into consideration that 1,000 was the highest number of points that could be scored, the showing of the members of that lodge should be proud of, as they only lost 82 points out of the possible. Another item of interest to remember is that the degree team consists of nineteen members. In counting the points five points were taken off for each mistake, so it is easily understood that there were not many mistakes made. Cut out these figures, boys, and paste them in your hat, then there will be no chance for an argument.

held its bi-monthly meeting on Monday, June 17, at which the regular semi-annual election of officers took place. Those elected for the ensuing be held in New Westminster will be also elected. They are Foresters, J.

Mansell and J. Wilson. The alternates being Brothers H. W. Adams and Wm.
McKay.

Brothers W. F. Fullerton and Whatman acted as scrutineers and gave general satisfaction.

Brother F. Castleton, chairman of the Memorial Day committee, spoke at some length on the details of the Memorial Day Ceremonies to be held on Sunday, July 14.

All loyal Foresters are requested to keep this date free so as to make the day one of the most congenial in the annals of Victoria Foresters. Further particulars will be given later in the local papers.

A communication was received from Court Northern Light requesting Court Vancouver to consider holding its installation jointly with those of the other courts on July 12. In all probability this will be done.

The advisability of reviving the ancient Foresterial sport of archery which was to a considerable extent indulged in by the Victoria Courts some few years ago was discussed and as an energetic committee now has the subject in hand it is likely that something will be done.

On motion the Court decided to omit its next meeting, falling as it does, on the night of July 1. The next meeting will, therefore, be on Monday
July 29.

Victoria Lodge No. 84, I. O. G. T.

held, those intending to go, taking the programme for the evening consisted of songs and recitations, which were given by the talented members of the

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

BOARD EXONERATES NELSON KING, B.A.

TRUSTEE STANELAND DECLINES TO VOTE

Reasons for Punishment Should Have Been Given Boys Before Thrashing Administered

Holding that he should have notified the three boys whom he strapped of the reasons for the strapping before punishment was administered, but that the thrashing was justified, and that there was a lack of home discipline for the O'Neill boys, the members of the school board yesterday afternoon exonerated Nelson King, B.A., of any undue severity, in administering punishment to the boys in connection with the placing of fertilizer in the Central schoolrooms. The resolution was made unanimous by reason of Trustee Staneland declining to vote after first having voted in the negative. He took objection to the statement in the resolution that the boys lacked proper home influence, saying there had been no evidence before the board to that effect. The other trustees, however, wanted the statement put on record, and therefore Trustee Staneland withdrew his negation and remained silent.

Payment of the costs of an appeal by the school board for Mr. King was suggested by the trustees, but no action was taken on it yesterday afternoon. An appeal against the police court fine of $20 will be taken by the teacher. The audience in the room yesterday was large, consisting of school teachers, one of whom, Miss Gibson, was called to give evidence as to her experiences with George and Harold O'Neill, who were in her class room. She said she was a teacher of twelve years' experience, and had both boys in her charge. She had found them both troublesome. He had refused to obey her and she had taken his wrists to pull him from beneath the form and found afterwards that his flesh blackened very quickly. She thrashed both boys, who ran home and were sent back by their parents. She did not think they were a good influence in the school.

The trustees agreed that the teacher should have told the boys the reason they were being thrashed, and held that he did not exceed his authority. The resolution passed without the concurrence of Trustee Staneland as follows: "Resolved, that after a full inquiry into all the facts connected with the depositing of fertilizer in some of the classrooms at the Boys' Central school and the punishment administered to Harold and George O'Neill by Mr. Nelson King, after due consideration of the same, this board is of opinion that the said Harold and George O'Neill were two of the chief offenders in the case and also told untruths in connection with the same, and, inasmuch as the home discipline of the said boys has been lax, it was imperative, both in the interest of the offenders and for the maintenance of school discipline, that some severe punishment be meted out to them."

"And whereas a thin rubber strap weighing only four and a half ounces was the instrument used and no serious bodily harm inflicted, the provocation justified the punishment administered by Mr. King."

"This board is also of opinion that Mr. Nelson King erred, inasmuch as he did not tell the boys before the thrashing what they were to be punished for, and that this resolution be spread on the minutes of the board."

B. C. ELECTRIC TO PAY $800 DAMAGES

Special Jury Finds for Plaintiff in Claim by Mrs. J. Anderson for Wrecked Motor

After a short retirement yesterday afternoon a Supreme Court special jury returned a verdict for $800 in favor of Mrs. James Anderson, of Colwood, who sued the B. C. Electric Company for damages done her automobile over a year ago, in a collision at Esquimalt and Canteen roads. The chief justice had summed up the evidence in favor of the defendant, saying the driver of the automobile could have stopped and avoided the collision, and should have done so.

The collision occurred on the crossing when it was alleged by the plaintiff the street car went down the grade and across the intersecting street at 50 miles an hour. The defendants, however, maintained the car had slowed down to take on probable passengers before reaching the crossing, and that it had not crossed at more than 10 miles an hour. Evidence was given that the motorcar had sounded the bell and that the driver of the automobile had hesitated on the Esquimalt road, before turning into the Canteen road, and that when he did so the machine had proceeded along the road on the track for a short distance.

No damages were allowed for injury, nursing or pain, the plaintiff testifying she had paid $250 for nursing expenses. The machine which was wrecked had cost $1,200, and after the accident had been sold for $200. She asked for the price of the automobile and for the balance up to $10,000 as recompense for illness, pain and injury.

J. A. Aikman and Sidney Child represented the plaintiff and A. E. McPhillips, K.C., appeared for the B. C. Electric Company.

WILLIAM M. PRIEST IS IN LEGAL TOILS

Habitual Litigant Gets on the Wrong Side of Court Because of Uprooted Vegetables

Having appeared as plaintiff on many occasions to charges against relatives, and having written a booklet giving a remarkable account of the many legal actions he has commenced, William M. Priest, known as the habitual litigant, appeared on the wrong side of the police court this morning, and is held on a charge of having done damage to some potatoes and onions, the property of Arthur Spear, 1317 Edmonton road.

The charge reads that he damaged vegetable production, to wit: uprooted onions and potatoes, the property of Arthur Spear, 1317 Edmonton road. Unprepared to defend the charge and complaining that he had not been furnished with a copy of the complaint, but had been thrust into prison, the accused requested an adjournment, unaccused to the remand, except that objection would not suit, a remand was granted until Wednesday, and the accused was promised a copy of the information. He also said he wanted law books.

Street traffic regulations are being rigidly enforced on the city streets, and John Montgomery and J. P. Gould, who left their teams unattended to a metallic object of 15 pounds weight, were each fined $10. Alexander Schultz pleaded not guilty to having unnecessarily whipped a horse, and was remanded until Tuesday. The prosecution is at the instigation of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

OFF FOR HOLIDAYS. School Children Dismissed for Summer Vacation Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon the majority of the boys and girls attending schools throughout the city were dismissed for the summer holidays, most of the institutions having little formality in the closing proceedings. In the graded schools entrance examinations are being held, the results of which will be announced to the senior pupils in the course of the next few weeks.

At the James Douglas school a large number of the parents of the pupils were present for the closing exercises, the honor rolls being presented by Inspector J. S. Gordon to the successful pupils. Miss Laura E. Blackwell, who is to be married shortly, was presented with a silver fern bowl by her pupils, and with a chafing dish by her fellow-teachers.

About sixty grown-ups were present at the closing exercises of the North Ward school, Miss Day, on behalf of her mother, Mrs. R. S. Day, presenting the badges of the Coronation Chapter of the Daughters of Empire. There are now nearly 550 children on the register of the North Ward school, and a larger number have been enrolled as members of the Coronation Chapter than in any other of the city schools.

A number of patriotic songs were sung with spirit, and the honor rolls were presented by W. J. Dowler, city clerk, and J. M. Campbell, principal of the school, gave the prizes for the best day sports, commending the position of their good conduct during the past year.

At Kingston street school the children were assembled to hear the reading of the promotion lists. Erna Lorenz and George Allen being awarded the prize for the best day sports. At the Rock Bay school Trustee P. J. Padden addressed the children about 11 o'clock, after complimenting them on their conduct and neatness, presenting the Children of Empire badge, and reading the promotion lists.

NEW PAVING POLICY GRADUALLY EVOLVING

Better Concrete and Thicker Bases—Meeting to Explain Civic Centre By-law

A number of important matters will come before the city council at its next meeting on Tuesday, owing to Monday being a holiday. The decision to let another block of paving to the Worswick company which will be recommended as a result of the streets' committee meeting yesterday will enable the city to keep on the policy of letting auxiliary streets which are ready, and which will link up the existing permanently paved streets to enable through traffic to pass.

A real effort is now being made with the trunk thoroughfares. It will have been noticed that Mr. Rust is recommending the policy of better concrete and a thicker base than that which has been laid in the past. He advises the city to spend the money and put in superior concrete, paying 13 cents a square yard for the better quality concrete. The cost of the concrete will be paid by the Mineral Products Company.

The air is cleared now so far as the civic centre by-law is concerned, and before the poll on Thursday week an opportunity will be taken to call a public meeting, and explain the situation, at the same time allowing the trustees to put the case for the school extension. Meanwhile the Burnside school and Kingsdale school are held up, and if the ratepayers find the money on this occasion it may be possible to get the former school almost completed before the opening of the fall term.

DO YOU KNOW CANADA?

Do You Know

That This is Canada's 45th Birthday?
The Wonderful Relative Growth of Canada Since 1867?
The Development Under Way in Canada in 1912?

COMPILED BY FRANK YEIGH, TORONTO, AUTHOR OF "THROUGH THE HEART OF CANADA" AND COMPILER OF "5,000 FACTS ABOUT CANADA"

SIR CHARLES TUPPER, BART.
The only surviving member of the 33 Fathers of Confederation.

I AM CONTENT WITH CANADA.

Of countries far and famed have I been told,
And of the joy that foreign travel brings,
Of wonders, beauties, one would fain behold,
To stir the heart with fresh imaginings.

And I myself in storied Switzerland
Have watched the Alps in their mystic calm,
And been by jasmine-scented breezes fanned,
In tropic isles that bear the stately palm.

And many a fabled castle on the Rhine
Has winged my fancy as we drifted by,
Beside the slender and the vine
I dreamed beneath the soft Italian sky.

But I have never been more deeply stirred,
By any loveliness of land or sea,
Than when upon Canadian shores I've heard
The lonely coon or curlew call to me.

Across our own unnumbered Northern lakes,
And over leagues of winding waterways,
Upon whose nameless shores the aspen shakes,
And yellows in the soft autumnal haze.

When on the broad St. Lawrence some gray day,
Among those islands wrought of mist and dreams,
I drift to dreams of unreality,
Where all the world a lovely vision seems;

Or when among the Rockies, I have caught
The sudden gleam of peaks above the cloud,
And on the tumult of my quickened thought
No visions, dreams and aspirations crowd;

Or, thinking of the future and of all
That generations yet unborn will see—
The forests that for axe and ploughshare call,
The wealth of golden harvests yet to be,

I am content with Canada, and as:
No fairer land than has been given to me,
No greater joy, no more inspiring task,
Than to uphold and share her destiny.
—From Songs and Sonnets, by Helena Coleman.

DO YOU KNOW WHEREIN CANADA LEADS?

Do you know that Canada has the largest consecutive wheat field in the world, 900 by 300 miles?

That Canada has the most prolific and extensive sea fisheries in the world.

That Canada has the largest nickel mines in the world.

That Canada has a greater railway mileage than Australia and New Zealand, or Italy and Spain combined, and more than all the South American countries.

That Canada has the largest mountain park system in the world, of over 20,000 square miles.

That Canada has one of the most remarkable constabulary forces in the North-West Mounted Police.

That Canada has the world's largest lift lock, at Peterborough.

That Canada has the largest elevators in the world.

That Canada has one of the greatest mountain areas in the world.

That Canada has the largest pulpwood and white pine forests on the continent, board to the head of the Great Lakes.

CANADA'S BIG CONTRACTS.

Do you know that Canada has some of the biggest contracts in her history under way or in contemplation, involving the expenditure of millions of dollars, and the employment of thousands of men?

Nearly 7,000 miles of railway are under construction or contract, which will bring the present mileage of 25,400 up to 32,000. Nearly every province is witnessing a marked railway development. All the great railway systems are extending their mileage greatly, and the grid-iron of the West radiating from the trunk lines, are increasing at a rapid rate: toward Hudson Bay, the Peace River Country and in British Columbia.

Electric lines, especially rural and radial, are being or planned, from scores of centres, and a net work of trolleys is expanding and transforming the transportation system of the country. Thousands of once isolated farmers now have the world brought to their doors by this means of inter-communication, revolutionizing the facilities of life and the comforts of living. Beginnings are also being made in the electrification of some steam railways.

The harnessing of Canada's water powers goes on apace; already 1,016,521 horse power from water power has been developed, according to estimate of the Commission of Conservation, and the development of this vast "white coal" resource is probably only in its infancy.

What this is worth may be approximately computed as follows: To develop an equal amount of energy in the most modern steam-electric plants would require the burning of 7 1/2 tons of coal per horse power per annum.

Canada is pledged to greatly improve and enlarge in the near future, her waterways. It is not fully realized that ocean-going crafts may now sail from a British or European port, cross the Atlantic and not shift cargo till the head of Lake Superior is reached—a distance of 6,000 miles, or 2,381 miles from the mouth of the St. Lawrence, or that there are 6,000 miles of waterways from the St. Lawrence to the Arctic Ocean, via the Saskatchewan and Mackenzie rivers, with a land break of only 150 miles.

Canada has spent 100 millions on her canal system, and is pledged to enlarge or build a new Welland Canal, while a Georgian Bay canal is being discussed. The St. Lawrence ship canal, 340 miles long between Montreal and Father Point, will accommodate vessels drawing 30 feet of water at low tide, has cost $12,000,000, and more is to be spent to improve the route. Millions more are to be spent in improving and increasing the facilities of the harbors of St. John, Montreal and other ports.

CANADA'S CONFEDERATED FAMILY OF NINE PROVINCES.

Do you know Canada by her provinces?

Canada's four provinces at Confederation have grown to nine.

Canada's nine provinces, great in size as they are, take up only half of Canada's total area; there is, therefore, room for nine more.

Alberta's area of 253,540 square miles is double the size of Great Britain, and as large as France.

British Columbia is Canada's largest province, 295,000 square miles, or 10 per cent of Canada's total area, and is larger than 24 Switzerland.

Manitoba's area is 73,732 square miles; if, and when extended, it will be 252,211.

Ontario's area is 260,863 square miles, and is as large as two England and little less than France and Germany. It comprises 7 per cent of Canada's area, and 34 per cent of population. 140,000 square miles will be added under the proposed boundary extension.

Maritime Provinces' area of 51,597 square miles (Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island) is two-thirds the size of Manitoba.

Quebec, the second largest province, has 251,873 square miles, and is nearly three times as large as the British Isles. When Ungava is added, with 480,000 square miles, Quebec will be by far Canada's largest province.

Canada has an extensive system of wireless telegraphy, and is planning one that will be one of the largest in the world, stretching from the Atlantic seaboard to the head of the Great Lakes.

CANADA'S WORLD-WIDE TRADE. A HYMN FOR OUR NATIVE LAND.

Do you know that Canada's foreign trade for 1910-11 was $769,443,905, and that it increased nearly $100,000,000 in 1911-12?

Do you know how Canada's foreign trade has grown, doubling in a decade? That Canada does business among 87 countries, ranking third among nations per capita.

That Canada's Empire trade has doubled in 14 years, being now 37 per cent of the whole.

That Canada's trade with the United States is 61 per cent of the whole.

That Canada's trade is increasing 25 times as fast with the United States as with Great Britain?

That Canada's foreign trade, 1910-11, was $107 per head; that of the United States, $48.

Lord, while for all mankind we pray,
Of every clime and coast,
Oh hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.

Our fathers' sepulchres are here,
And here our kindred dwell,
Our children, too; how should we love
Another land so well?

Oh, guard our shores from every foe;
With peace our borders bless;
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.

Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth and thee,
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

Lord of the nations, thus to Thee—
Our country we commend,
Be Thou our refuge and our trust,
Our everlasting friend.

HOW BIG IS CANADA?

Do you know how big Canada is? That Canada contains one-third of the area of the British Empire, and is larger in area than the United States, including Alaska, by 111,992 square miles (Canada 3,729,665; United States and Alaska 3,617,673).

That Canada is as large as 30 United Kingdoms and 18 Germanys, twice the size of British India; almost as large as Europe; 18 times the size of France; 33 of Italy.

That Canada's proportion of population is 1.90 square miles; United States, 21; England and Wales, 553; British Empire (outside India), 4.

That Canada is 3,500 miles by 1,400 in area, and that the distance from Halifax to Vancouver is greater than from London to Halifax?

CANADA'S POPULATION.

Do you know how many inhabitants there are in Canada?

Population of Canada by Provinces.

Province	1911	10 Years Increase
Alberta	274,663	301,641
British Columbia	292,480	218,823

Do you know that Canada shows greater increase of percentage in population for the decade, viz., 32 per cent, than any similar increase in the United States, viz., 24 per cent?

That urban population increase 69 per cent; rural, 16 per cent.

That the next Parliament will have 11 additional members, Ontario losing 4, New Brunswick 2, Nova Scotia 2, P. E. I., 1; 4 western provinces gain 5 each.

That the percentage growths of some Canadian cities in 10 years are: Calgary, 975; Hamilton, 55; Halifax, 12; London, 22; Montreal, 74; Ottawa, 44; Quebec, 16; Regina, 1,400; St. John, 5; Toronto, 80; Vancouver, 270; Victoria, 48; Winnipeg, 178.

That Canada has 3,000,000 French-Canadians.

That Canada has 103,601 Indians.

That Canada has received 1,886,538 immigrants from 1896 to 1911 (including 351,595 in 1911); and that 75 per cent of the total arrivals were English-speaking and 25 per cent foreign.

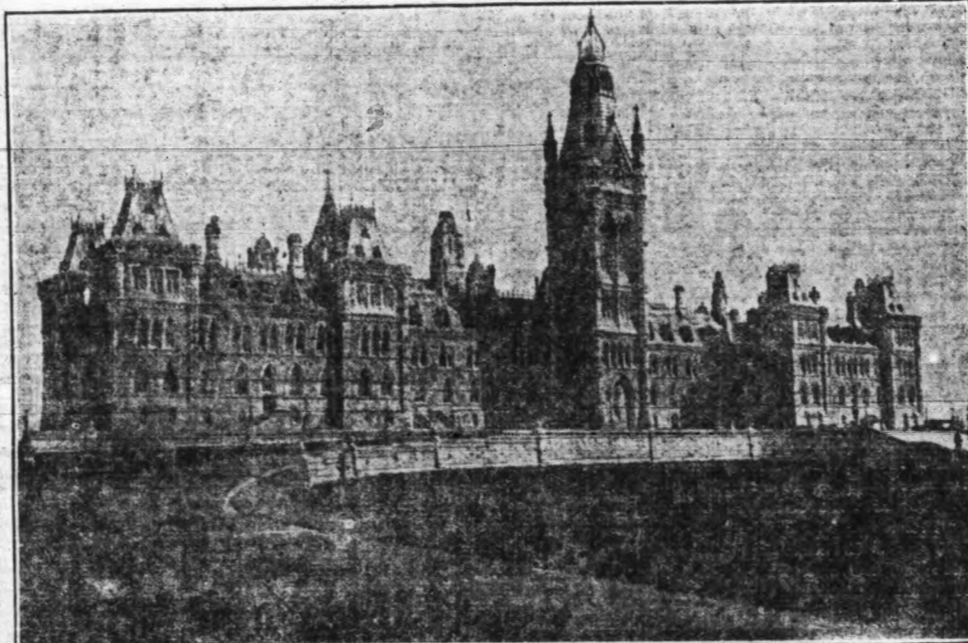

CANADA'S GOVERNOR-GEN. H. R. H. The Duke of Connaught.

THE CANADA OF TO-MORROW.

Do you realize what the Canada of to-morrow will be, or may reveal?

Do you know that Canada is only in the A, B, C of her development; that her natural resources are only beginning to be drawn upon; that her wheat farm is only beginning to show its yield; that most of her mineral lands await exploration and testing; that her fruitful fisheries are only commencing to yield their harvests of the sea?

Do you know Canada?
Do you believe in Canada?
Do you dare dream dreams of her future?
And, while dreaming, help to bring the dream true!

CANADA'S PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS.

CANADA'S GREAT WEST LAND.

Do you know how big Canada's West is? That we have the following titled Canadians: 6 peers, 7 Baronets, 4 G.C.M.G., 1 K.C.B., 16 K.C.M.G., 1 G.C.V.O., 31 K.B., 50 Companionship.

That Canada is 45 years old, dating from Confederation, 153 years old, dating from British conquest of 1759, and 377 years old, dating from arter's first visit of 1535.

That of the 33 Fathers of Confederation, only one survives—Sir Charles Tupper.

That Colonial and Imperial conferences have been held in Ottawa, 1894, and in London, 1897, 1902, 1907 and 1911.

That Canada has 735 legislators, federal and provincial.

That 12 General Elections have been held since Confederation with 7 Premiers of Canada, and 9 Cabinets since then.

That 42 extradition treaties of Britain apply to Canada.

That Canada has had 115 Governors-Generals, 1534-1912.

That Canada's 40 Canadian Clubs have 15,000 members.

That 300 foreign consuls and vice-consuls in Canada.

That during the last census decade, 1901-1911, Canada's trade has doubled, field crops value nearly trebled, savings more than doubled, railway mileage per head highest in world, and third among nations in ratio of trade to population.

That Canada's total vote, General Election of September 21, 1911, 1,307,484, viz.: Conservative, 669,577; Liberal, 628,386. Conservative popular majority, 44,461, or about 3 1/2 per cent. Labor votes, 1,742; Independents, 7,177; Socialists, 3,912.

That some Canadian comparative latitudes are: Edmonton is near the latitude of Dublin; Winnipeg slightly north of Paris, and south of London; Victoria of Havana; Quebec of Bern; Southern Ontario boundary, of Rome.

That Canada is developing a big whaling industry? That one chartered company alone caught 700 whales in 1911 in Pacific waters? That thousands of barrels of oil are being shipped to Europe, and thousands of tons of fertilizer to California?

DO YOU KNOW?

That Canada's Western area (estimated by some at 233,000,000 acres, and by Prof. Saunders at 171,000,000 acres), if cultivated, could supply almost half the world's present wheat consumption.

It should not be forgotten that wheat is the basis of all civilized existence. The world's wheat eaters numbered in 1871, 375 millions; to-day, 517 millions.

According to Prof. Thomas Shaw, the wheat belt has shifted in the United States. The centre of production is North America is now in the Canadian North-west, and this may be shifted yet farther north with the opening up of the Peace River country.

Canada's wheat crop, 1909, 47,967,917 bushels; 1911, 215,000,000 bushels. In the same period, United States wheat production was nearly at a standstill.

In 1900, Canada's wheat production was one-eleventh of that of United States; in 1911, about one-third.

Canada was 7th among world's wheat growing countries in 1910, and 5th in 1911, beating Hungary, Italy and Spain.

Of Canada's total grain values of 1911 of $565,711,600, wheat alone represented one-fourth, or $138,567,000.

Estimated area sown in the West, 1912, 12,000,000 acres.

Watch Canada's wheat standing climb from fifth place to nearer the first.

CANADA'S AGRICULTURAL WEALTH.

Do you know how rich Canada is agriculturally, and what it means to a country to have millions of acres of fertile soil, under varying climatic conditions?

Do you know: That Canada's field crops value reached the record figure in 1911 of $565,711,600, Ontario leading with $198,260,000.

That Canada has nearly 600,000 farmers.

That Canada sold, in 1911, $143,112,950 of agricultural and animal products, which is only 16 per cent of the total grown.

That Canada has 2,000 elevators, with a grain capacity of 105,000,000 bushels.

That Canada sold nearly 50,000,000 bushels of wheat to Great Britain and over 3,000,000 barrels of flour.

That Canada has enough flour mills to supply a population five times that of Canada.

That Canada has nearly 15,000,000 head of live stock, and that Canada's dairy industry yields over $100,000,000 a year.

CANADA AS A RICH WHEAT LAND.

Do you know how rich Canada is in wheat? Do you know that Canada raises the best wheat on the continent, per award of grand prize at New York Land Show, November, 1911, to a Saskatoon settler?

Canada's Western area (estimated by some at 233,000,000 acres, and by Prof. Saunders at 171,000,000 acres), if cultivated, could supply almost half the world's present wheat consumption.

It should not be forgotten that wheat is the basis of all civilized existence. The world's wheat eaters numbered in 1871, 375 millions; to-day, 517 millions.

According to Prof. Thomas Shaw, the wheat belt has shifted in the United States. The centre of production is North America is now in the Canadian North-west, and this may be shifted yet farther north with the opening up of the Peace River country.

Canada's wheat crop, 1909, 47,967,917 bushels; 1911, 215,000,000 bushels. In the same period, United States wheat production was nearly at a standstill.

In 1900, Canada's wheat production was one-eleventh of that of United States; in 1911, about one-third.

Canada was 7th among world's wheat growing countries in 1910, and 5th in 1911, beating Hungary, Italy and Spain.

Of Canada's total grain values of 1911 of $565,711,600, wheat alone represented one-fourth, or $138,567,000.

Estimated area sown in the West, 1912, 12,000,000 acres.

Watch Canada's wheat standing climb from fifth place to nearer the first.

CANADA'S WATER POWER WEALTH.

Do you know what a vast present and potential wealth Canada has in the harnessing of her great water powers? Read what Hon. F. D. Monk, Minister of Public Works, recently said, viz.: Ontario, 532,000 h.p. developed; Quebec, 300,000; British Columbia, 100,000; Manitoba, 48,000; and other Provinces, 33,000 h.p. Of the different uses made of water power, the generation of electrical energy heads the list with 750,000 h.p.; the paper and pulp industry comes next, with over 150,000 h.p., and the remainder is divided among other industries, chiefly lumber and grain mills.

"This total of over 1,000,000 h.p. is being increased very rapidly by new enterprises, and judging by the size which individual additions are assuming it is fair to assume that it will be doubled in the course of a few years. The information regarding the potentiality of Canada with respect to water powers only covers a small portion of the total area of the country. The total obtained from this information comes to over 20,000,000 h.p., but does not include all of the large water powers available in the northern portions of the various provinces."

WHAT CANADA WAS WITHOUT CONFEDERATION.

The advance Canada has made since Confederation is shown by instituting a comparison between 1867 and 1912.

In 1867 there was no telephone, no gramophone, no automobiles, no wireless telegraphy, no cable connection. The first cable telegraph was laid to Canada on August 5, 1868.

In 1867 there was not a mile of railway north of Lake Superior, the Canadian Pacific Railway was unplanned, and the Intercolonial Railway only de-cided upon as an outcome of Confederation. There were only 2,378 miles of railway in all Canada, as against the 25,400 total mileage of to-day.

In 1867 there was no Winnipeg, no Regina, no Calgary, no Vancouver.

Do you know that only 500 motor cars were owned in Canada in 1905, valued at $1,000,000, and to-day 15,000 valued at $20,000,000?

CANADA'S FINANCES.

Do you know these facts about our national finances?

That the budget speech of March 14th, 1912, showed the biggest surplus on record of $39,000,000?

That revenue for 1910-11 was $117,780,400; expenditure, $87,774,198; surplus, $30,000,000.

That the estimated revenue for 1911-12 is $136,000,000; expenditures (estimated), on revenue account, $97,000,000; surplus (estimated), $39,000,000.

That the total expenditure for 1912-13 is estimated at $175,000,000.

That the net debt of Dominion increased by $3,778,505.

That the average rate on Dominion goods is 2.79 per cent.

That the net debt of Canada to 31 March, 1911, was $44,048,052.

That other capital and special expenditures will reach $124,862,714.

That the total estimated expenditure will be $252,785,248.

That the total estimated increased debt on railway from 1904 to March 31, 1912, is $77,235,063.

That Canada's trade has doubled since 1867.

BURLEITH LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS.

To the Editor:—It is now, more than two years since the petition for these improvements was sent to the city council, and as nothing had been done at the end of July, 1911, several owners of property in Burleigh began to stir in the matter. After many and vigorous protests from the ratepayers, work on the sewers was commenced and then the sidewalks and rock blasting were started.

Now, after the combined efforts of the council and all its officials and workmen, the state of the Burleigh property is most deplorable, none of the work undertaken having been completed.

There are probably about a mile of sewer pipes laid, at an enormous cost, as much rock had to be blasted; some of the sewers are useless, and those that are useful cannot be used, as there is no outlet to the sewers. Differences of opinion regarding the outlet are not settled, and the sewers are, for the present, quite useless.

Sidewalks have been laid in most of the streets, but on one street there is no sidewalk, and the sidewalks laid have no corners to connect them, so that in summer you will have to wade through dust to get from sidewalk to sidewalk, and in winter, think of the mud. No electric lights are put in any of the streets. The roads have large trees in the middle on some streets, and all the roadways are like a mass of ruins. The boulevards do not exist.

At the present rate of progress, the winter will be here long before the improvements are finished and then the whole property will be in a dreadful state.

Surely after more than two years the property owners are justified in complaining of the dilatory and unbusinesslike manner in which the council has treated this district, and the present condition of matters is anything but a credit to the council and its officials. BURLEITH.

AWAY FROM THE LAND.

To the Editor:—It is said that the policy of the present government is to get the people back to the land. Does that mean only the moneyed class to get back to it and out the farmer out, for that is what is being followed in this part?

It is also said that we import about $50,000,000 worth of dairy products. If the government follow their present policy in regard to the farmer we will soon have to import double that amount, judging from this part, where there is less than one-half the number of dairy stock kept there was a few years ago. Giving my experience since the inception of the Guaranteed Pure Milk Supply Company in Victoria on June, 1910, up till now, I have been paid on an average of less than 16 cents per gallon for milk; my taxes have been more than doubled in the same time; day labor cannot be had for $3 per day, the standard set by the government, which utilizes all the available white help on the roads, and the cost of living has practically doubled. Besides we pay more for milk-feed, etc., for stock. The result of this is that some farmers are reducing their stock to an amount they can manage without hired help and are allowing land not required to revert back to its wild state. Some depend entirely on government road work, where they make far more than they could off their land with less work and shorter hours, while others have deserted their farms and left with their families for the cities and placed their farms on the market to be cut up and sold to the moneyed class, who only want small places for homes and not to farm. They pay fictitious prices for the few acres they buy and the farmer next door has his land assessed at the same value so that he has to sell out also or get starved out.

LABORER KILLED

WHILE BALLASTING

Employee of Grand Trunk Pacific Meets Death Near Prince Rupert

Prince Rupert, June 29.—In some mysterious manner Patrick Moriarity met his death on the G. T. P. railway at Mile 41, where he was working.

Deceased was working with the ballasting gang, the ballast train being in the neighborhood mentioned when the accident occurred. Moriarity was not killed instantly. His cry or moaning was heard and the work stopped while aid was rendered. The injured man, who was hurt about the head and hands, apparently by a fall or by being dragged along during the process of the work with the ballasting material, lived for a little while, but could not coherently explain how he had come by his injuries, and no one seems to have seen the exact nature of the accident. Moriarity died before he could be gotten to the hospital, and permission was given by the coroner to have the body brought down to Rupert.

IDEAS OF A PLAIN MAN

BY DR. FRANK CRANE

My most constant prayer is that I may be made to realize. I know, but I don't realize.

As a matter of fact I am in the seven seas of bliss, I am at the apex of heaven, I am at the centre of joy.

Yet here I am, biting my fingers in petulance and gnawing my nether lip for ennui.

All because I don't realize. For a child loves me. What do you think of that?

Me. Actually. And a woman is happy when I am glad and depressed when I am miserable.

Also my liver, stomach and their internal machinery are working quietly and modestly. My eyes and ears still operate. I am making a living.

And I am not in jail. These are all commonplace? They are low? Well, suppose they were taken from me? Then I would realize! If the child should cease loving, and the woman grow away from me, if my liver and stomach were to go on a strike and Macnamarize my insides, or if I could read or hear music no more, or be disgraced, or lose what mind I have, and join something; then I should realize. For, as Cy Warman says:

"We never knew we have a heart 'Till it begins to break."

So I pray that I may realize—and not be a fool.

SAVES CHILD'S LIFE.

Quebec, June 29.—By the courage and presence of mind of Miss Ida Ryan, a young lady of Champlain street, the four-year-old girl of John Fitzgerald was saved from death by drowning. The child was playing at the waterfront and fell into the river. The alarm was given and Miss Ryan ran down and jumped into the water, rescuing the child and restoring her to her mother.

The Empress Theatre.
The feature act at the Empress theatre next week is that of Harry Hayward and company, who present "The Firefly," a railroad comedy skit. Harry Hayward has harvested a big load of fun produce from his humor farce, and with two good-looking and sprightly young women to aid he keeps the audience in a continuous round of laughter. The scene is a railroad station lunchroom and everything that pertains to it. The act closes with "The Firefly," a section car, doing a mile-a-minute gait—more or less—with Hayward as the motive power and the actresses as passengers. Miss Frances Stafford and Miss Alma Brad-

Miss Felton playing the name part in which she has successfully appeared in the Canadian cities for two seasons and is now entering on her third. "Merely Mary Ann" is Eleanor Robson's great success, but it is so long since it was played in Victoria that it will on Monday night meet with much popularity, for the advance booking has been the best of the sales the Allen Players have had at the Victoria. There is a bright and happy ending to the story, but the great interest will be found in watching how Miss Felton develops the interest and maintains it for the audience throughout the play. She has achieved more than moderate success as "Mary Ann," and it has

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP MY KIDNEYS

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Me

MR. GEO. W. BARKLEY

"Chesterville, Ont., Jan. 25, 1911.

"For over twenty years, I have been troubled with Kidney Disease and the doctors told me they could do me no good. They said my case was incurable and I would suffer all my life. I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but there was none that suited my case. Nearly a year ago, I tried 'Fruit-a-tives.' I have been using them nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured. I have no trouble now with my Kidneys and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible. I am seventy-six years old and am in first class health.

way. There comes to this home Sir Phillip Errington and his friend George Lorrimer from England. They have heard of the beauty of Olaf Guldman's only daughter, and as an idle whim wish to see her. They are met by Olaf—he has all the dignity of one of the old Vikings and does not receive them cordially. They, however, assure him that they are anxious for the honor of his acquaintance, and after a brief interview he extends to them the cup of friendship. At this moment Thelma appears on the scene. Both young men are struck with her beauty and grace, Sir Phillip especially so. He lingers in Norway for several weeks, and when he returns to England he is accompanied by Thelma as his wife. In England she is thrown into the most aristocratic society, which does not take kindly to the young Norwegian girl. She makes two bitter enemies—Lady Winsleigh, who is in love with Sir Phillip, and Sir Francis Lennox, a society man, who has made love to Thelma and been repulsed. These two scheme to destroy her happiness, and very nearly succeed with the help of an actress, Vera Vere. Miss Mildred Page, as Thelma, will have a chance to do some splendid emotional work, and Richard Tinsdale is expected to make a handsome, polished Sir Phillip. Miss Hallie Mitchell as Britta and Howard Foster ley, who played "Bonita" for many years in "Arizona," are supporting the comedian.

A combination of comedy mixed with some wonderful "billiard shots" will be the offering presented by Bert Cutler, the great billiard expert. Cutler has been in the West before as a member of the all-star team that visited here some years ago. He is a remarkable billiard player. During the process of his exhibition he has a running fire of stories that keeps the audience in good humor. The way the shots are shown to the audience is by the aid of a large mirror placed back of the billiard table and tipped to a proper angle so that every shot is as clearly seen as though one stood close to the table.

The Linden Sisters, two charming and talented English girls, will offer several songs and will exhibit some fine frocks for the delight of the feminine contingent of Empress patrons during the coming week. The Lindens have a good singing and dancing number and doubtless will repeat the successes they have achieved over the circuit. The Lindens are making their initial tour on this continent.

Princeton and Yale, a young man and woman, present a comedy dialogue act in which the man displays his ability as an exponent of slang. The company present a skit entitled "600 Miles from New York." They appear as a couple of stranded actors, sympathize with each other's condition and the usual love story is worked in with the "they-both-lived-happy-afterward" finish.

Elizabeth Kennedy and Anna Mack Berlein present a comedy sketch entitled "Darby and Joan," from the pen of the latter. The sketch deals with the troubles of a young actress whose hotel bill is two weeks overdue, and who is trying to dress the part of a successful artist by buying a gown on the dollar-a-week plan. The lady purloins the gown. The act is a splendid exhibition of dramatic and character portrayals.

"Merely Mary Ann," Monday night Miss Vera Felton and the Allen Players who are engaged in a successful run of summer stock at the Victoria theatre, will be seen in Israel Zangwill's success of three continents, "Merely Mary Ann."

been a strong drawing card for the company over the circuit for the last two seasons. Her support will be taken from the Allen Players, a specially strong cast having been drawn for the holiday week with Irving Kennedy as Launcelot.

"Merely Mary Ann" will run for the usual three nights—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—after which there will be a change of the bill for the rest of the week to be announced on Monday. The Hungarian String Quartette, which forms the orchestra for

REALIZING SALES IN STOCK MARKET

No Material Change in Prices
at Close—List Receives Support

(Courtesy F. W. Stevenson & Co.)
New York, June 29.—As a result of scattered realizing the market closed irregular, but price changes from last night's close were not material. The convention not having assembled for the day during the hours of trading in the market the political news was not regarded as significant. There is no evidence of extreme strain abroad as a result of the half-yearly disbursements, although admittedly a slight flurry in our call money rates is not unlikely owing to the large temporary loss by eastern institutions, but as soon as money starts to return to reserve centres the relative ease which has been in evidence for quite a period is again likely to prevail, though it is said that corporate financing on a broad scale is contemplated in the near future. Strong forces appear to be at work on the conservative side of the stock market using the betterment in the steel and iron industry and the satisfactory state of trade as a basis for their operations. The crop prospects promise to overshadow nearly all other considerations for a few months so that advices from agricultural sections will no doubt do much towards shaping the course of the security prices.

SHARP DROP IN WHEAT PRICES

Local Conditions Factor in Chicago Pit—July
Sold Freely

(By Courtesy F. W. Stevenson & Co.)
Chicago, June 29.—The wheat trade did not have a chance to act on natural conditions to-day without an upset caused by certain local influences. The market began strong and worked up to 110 for July and close to 106 1/2 for September. This strength was on the dry weather all over the Northwest. Soon after the top prices were established brokers for elevator people became active sellers in July. It was then reported, unofficially but very effectually, that the elevator people had won their fight before the warehouse committee of the exchange, which means that they will go on buying wheat in the country as before, and that their houses will all be made regular again July 1. It was this alone that started the drive of selling which broke July 1 to 107 1/2 and September to 105 1/2. All Northwest markets were strong and higher early with Chicago prices. There is no indication of an important movement of new wheat from the southwest to this market. Possibly the settling of the differences between the elevator interests and the board officials will induce more active bidding for wheat in the southwest next week. It is certain that Chicago will get none or very little of the movement from the soft wheat states at the usual time following harvest. Whether there is to be a bull market and higher prices will depend on the amount of rainfall over the Northwest on both sides of the line between new and the beginning of business Monday morning. If present dry conditions continue, nothing will prevent exciting buying and higher prices.
