SS. GOVERNOR'S MISSING LIST TWENTY-ONE

Beer Finally Dead; Liquor Bill Passes Without Any Change

Uphill's Amendment Comes Up But Only 11 Members Vote to Consider It, with 34 Opposed; Pussyfooters Blamed For Failure of "Wet" Amendment.

Beer is dead.
In spite of repeated attempts on the part of the friends of the famous malt beverage the death-blow was struck in the Legislature yesterday afternoon, when the Uphill amendment calling for a full-strength beer was defeated by 34 to 11. Right to the last a strenuous fight for life was made, although for upwards of two weeks even the firmest advocates of beer had little hope.

Thomas Uphill, labor member for Fernie, who held out for the sale of beer, made a spirited address in defence of his amendment, and when the final vote was taken he had the support of the following members: Lister and Pooley, of the Conservative Opposition; Perry, Anderson, Farris, Sloan, Ian Mackenzie, Kargin and Pattullo, of the Government forces, and Major Burde.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith was the only absent member.

The 34 opponents of the amendment, who stood up when Speaker Manson called for a show of names, were: Schofield, Ealing, A. Macdonald, Pearson, Cathwood, McRae, Guthrie, Neelands, Hanes, Duncan, Menzies, Clearburn, Jackson, Hunter, Hinchliffe, W. A. McKenzie, Jones, Bowser, Rose, Patterson, Yorston, Dr. K. C. Macdonald, Dr. Sutherland, Dr. A. Macdonald, Dr. King, Premier Oliver, McLean, Hart, Barrow, Whiteside, Buckingham, Pauline, Hen-

Last Minute Attempt To Assist Municipalities

Though the present session of the Legislature is rapidly approaching its dying hours, an attempt will yet be made to provide temporary financial relief for the municipalities of British Columbia this year, it was learned today.

While preferring not to go into details until he had considered the matter further, David Whiteside, Liberal member for New Westminster, who has managed the Municipal Committee recently in the absence of Hon. Mrs. Smith, stated this morning that he would make recommendations on the municipal finance problem to the House almost immediately.

The Municipal Committee as a whole, he said, probably would not make any suggestions on the matter unless it was decided to call another meeting of the members to-night.

When the committee's proposals or amendments to the Municipal Act were brought before the House to-night or to-morrow, he would urge that further financial assistance be extended to the municipalities, he stated.

"I am collecting data on the matter now and will draw up some proposals," said Mr. Whiteside. "I have had an opportunity to consider the matter fully to-day, however, it would be premature to discuss the question in detail."

It was suggested by Mr. Whiteside that his proposals might come to a vote in the session to be of any avail.

Should Sit Longer If Necessary.
"I consider that no question before the Province to-day is more important than that of the municipal taxation," he replied. "I believe that, if necessary, the House should sit here a couple of extra days to deal with the problem. There is absolutely no doubt that the representatives of the municipalities, when they meet the members and the Government, did not exaggerate the seriousness of the situation. The addition of many municipalities is a dead acute. The land cannot bear a present load of taxation."

BLOOD-STAINED AUTOS ON ROAD

More Violence in Ireland; Two Constables Killed

Brifast, April 1.—A police patrol at Rockcorry, near Bally Bay, Monaghan, yesterday found on the road-side two small automobiles which had been abandoned. The engines of the cars were still warm. The machines bore splashes of fresh human blood. No trace was found of the former occupants of the cars.

Two Killed.
Dublin, April 1.—Search of the ruins of Roscommon police barracks, which were destroyed yesterday morning during an attack by Sinn Feiners, is impossible owing to explosions. In the debris, confirmation has been received, however, that only two officers, Sergeant Shea and Constable Borias, were killed. They were buried under the walls of the building when the front of the structure was blown down with goliathine.

The barracks were defended by the head constable, two sergeants and nineteen constables and all have been accounted for. Head Constable Neary and eight privates were wounded during the fight.

2,200,000 Coal Miners Are Idle In Britain

London, April 1.—All work ceased in the coal mines of England to-day with the exception of a few districts and approximately 200,000 miners were idle to-day as a result of the controversy over the wage issue. In two collieries in Yorkshire, one in Northumberland, one in Scotland, one in North Wales the men have promised to continue at their posts without prejudice to any terms that may be agreed upon, but all other pit workers, including mechanics, pumpmen, ventilating men and pony men came out with the miners.

It is feared that the mines may be closed throughout, and many may be driven from an industry which has been the backbone of the country. Strenuous efforts are being made everywhere to enroll volunteers. Yorkshire pumpmen have volunteered to remain at work, and hope expressed to-day that others will follow their example.

Canadian Railway Statistics For Year 1919

Ottawa, April 1.—(Canadian Press).—A preliminary report on the railway statistics for the year ended December 31, 1919, issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, shows that passenger traffic increased nearly ten per cent. over the previous year.

Single track mileage increased only 162 miles.

Freight carried decreased 5,211,792 tons, or 4.3 per cent.

The average number of employees increased 14,351, or 9.4 per cent. The salaries and wages increased 24,353, 079, or 11.7 per cent.

Dividends.
There were only five steam railways that paid dividends during the year. They were the Canada Southern (Michigan Central), Canadian Pacific, Niperville Junction, Thousand Islands and Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo.

The total capital expenditure on Government railways is shown as $413,690,678.

NO REQUEST.
Ottawa, April 1.—The Government has not received from the Progressive Party of Montreal a resolution calling for abolition of the Civil Service Commission, according to an answer given by the Government to a question in the Commons.

Colonel "Jim" Sclater Leaving for Australia

With a military record and a personal reputation and popularity of which he may be justly proud, Lieutenant-Colonel James Sclater will leave Victoria to-morrow afternoon by the Makura to take up an important position with the Canadian-Australasian Line in the Southern Commonwealth.

Colonel Sclater hails from the Orkney Islands, where he first saw the light of day on February 15, 1867. Thirteen years afterwards he gained the first prize in the annual competitive examinations for Orkney and the Shetlands. In the following year he was articled to a law firm. For more than forty years he has been associated with military organizations, and it was small wonder that the age limit did not deter him from taking a very active part in the Great War. His distinguished career with the British Army and in an instructional capacity in the Allied Schools in France and Italy is reflected in the number of coveted decorations which adorn his tunic.

Came 1889.
Colonel Sclater reached Vancouver in 1889 and entered the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway as ticket clerk under Mr. (now Sir) George McL. Brown in the little wooden station ticket office that old-timers will remember. In 1891 he became chief clerk in the general passenger department under D. E. Brown, and in 1893 succeeded George McL. Brown as ticket agent.

In 1902 he left the Canadian Pacific Railway to enter the firm of Macdonald, Marpole & Co. He remained with this concern until war broke out and on his return from overseas was appointed Prohibition Commissioner in January, 1919, and resigned in January, 1921, to accept the post with the Canadian-Australasian Line.

Colonel Sclater has long been interested in military work. From 1891 to 1894 he was a bandsman in the

Radio Plant Here First to Pick Up Distress Signals

First S. O. S. signals sent out by the West Hartland and the Governor, in collision last midnight off Port Townsend, resulting in the sinking of the latter ship in forty-five minutes, were picked up by the Canadian Government wireless plant on Gonzales heights here.

The officer-in-charge of the wireless station was on duty and the distress signals were promptly relayed and broadcasted, causing several vessels to change their course to render assistance to the sinking Governor.

Flash From Hartland.
Immediately after the receipt of the first message from the West Hartland at 12:07 a.m. the Gonzales station broadcasted the news and called up Seattle, giving all particulars.

Adelaide Changed Course.
At 12:22 a.m. the station flashed the details of the disaster to the Canadian Pacific steamship Princess Adelaide, which left Victoria at 11:45 p.m. for Vancouver.

Captain Hunter, commander of the Princess Adelaide, at 12:25 a.m. altered his course, and informed the station that he expected to make the scene of the disaster by 2:30 a.m.

When about half way across the Straits, at 1:10 a.m. Captain Hunter was notified that the Governor had gone down, the West Hartland reporting that no assistance was then needed, when the Princess Adelaide again shaped her course for Vancouver.

The first S. O. S. was sent out by the freighter West Hartland at seven minutes past the midnight hour, and was picked up by the Gonzales station. It said: "Struck Admiral boat off Point Wilson. Require immediate assistance."

The particulars were at once broadcasted and relayed to Seattle,

LIGHTKEEPER SAYS NIGHT WAS CLEAR

Saw SS. Governor Sink After Collision With Freighter Attention Was Attracted by the Crash

Seattle, April 1.—William G. Thomas, veteran keeper of the Point Wilson lighthouse, was almost an eyewitness of the collision between the freighter West Hartland and the passenger liner Governor this morning, which resulted in the sinking of the latter.

Describing the scene for The Associated Press over the long distance telephone, he said:

Heard Crash.
"It was just 12:05 this morning when I heard the sound. I turned in the direction of the sound, I saw the West Hartland with her nose rammed into the Governor's starboard side midships. It was clear and the vessels were plainly in sight about three-quarters of a mile away. I immediately called Port Townsend and tried to get the coast-guard cutters Abvata and Snohomish. Both were out of port. I finally got several launches out. I could see the boats putting out, and it wasn't more than an hour before the Governor sank. We had no way of knowing whether any lives were lost, but were advised that three boats were adrift."

HUNGARIANS ARE WARNED BY ALLIES

Are Told Hapsburg Is Not Wanted as King

Paris, April 1.—A resolution protesting against restoration of Charles Hapsburg to the throne in Hungary and warning the Hungarian Government that the consequences of such a step would be disastrous, was adopted by the Council of Ambassadors here to-day. The resolution was presented by Jules Cambon, acting in the name of the French Government.

His Idea.
Steinmayer, West Hungary, April 1, 11 a.m.—Charles Hapsburg, former Emperor of Austria-Hungary, declared here this morning that his departure from Hungary would be conditioned upon permission to issue a proclamation to the Magyars explaining the "unfavorable circumstances" compelling his withdrawal and saying that he, as King, temporarily confirmed the regency of Admiral Horthy.

Hapsburg made this declaration on receiving a refusal from Admiral Horthy, the Regent, that he be allowed to return to Budapest, coupled with a threat of military measures against him.

No Confirmation.
Paris, April 1.—The French Charge d'Affaires in Budapest telegraphed to the Foreign Office here to-day that he was unable to confirm the various press reports of Hungarian troop movements, adding that absolute calm prevailed in the Hungarian capital.

Count Teleky, said the Charge's message, was at present in conference with Charles Hapsburg, former Emperor of Austria-Hungary, for whom a safe conduct had been demanded of the Austrian Government.

Reports.
Fribourg Switzerland, April 1.—Count Andrássy, former Hungarian Foreign Minister, has been appointed Premier of Hungary by Charles Hapsburg, former Emperor of Austria-Hungary, and has sent a ultimatum to Budapest, says a dispatch (Continued on page 4.)

BIG SHIP ALMOST CUT IN HALF

SS. West Hartland Drove Into SS. Governor

Incidents Described by Survivors at Seattle

Seattle, April 1.—Carl Taylor and C. A. Brockwell, of Seattle, traveling freight and passenger agents for the Southern Pacific Railroad, were among the survivors of the steamship Governor, which here this afternoon was reported to have sunk off Point Wilson, West Hartland.

On board the Governor they were in the same stateroom and were retiring when the crash came.

"The collision came about 12:04 o'clock," said Taylor. "The blow almost cut the Governor in half and the bow of the other ship drove into her engines. We soon learned the danger and Brockwell and I had no trouble getting off. Every man that I saw obeyed the rule of women and children first."

Mother and Children.
Mrs. F. A. Hawthorne, of Tulare, California, was forced to come to Seattle with only $20 in her possession when she was refused landing at Victoria, B. C., under the Canadian immigration regulation requiring immigrants to show $50 in cash. She was accompanied by her two children, Felix, aged seven, and Frank, aged four.

"I had some difficulty in handling Felix going up the ladder," said Mrs. Hawthorne.

Awakened.
"I was awakened by the collision but did not know what had happened and started for the upper deck," she added. "I asked a man who passed to help me with Felix and he did. We lost all our clothes and other belongings and money."

The two boys were barefooted but cheerful. Mrs. Hawthorne said that before leaving Victoria she had wired to her husband to send her money at Seattle.

Survivors of Lost Liner Governor Are Landed At Seattle

Twenty-One Reported Missing But Re-checking of Lists May Bring Total Down; Freighter West Hartland Struck Liner.

Seattle, April 1.—Twenty-one persons, including eighteen passengers and three members of the crew of the Admiral Line steamship Governor, may have lost their lives when the big liner sank off Point Wilson, Washington, early to-day after she had been rammed and sunk by the United States Shipping Board freight steamship West Hartland.

A check-up of survivors arriving on the West Hartland when the freighter docked here at 10 o'clock this forenoon disclosed the fact that twenty-one persons carried on the passenger and crew lists of the Governor were not accounted for.

The revised list of missing, as compiled by newspapermen from the vessel's original passenger list and after a check of those on the West Hartland, follows:

Passengers—J. Lister, Margaret Kier, Agnes McLaughlin, Ellen Woodbridge, C. J. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. F. Duty, Mr. and Mrs. W. Eyles, Mrs. Elizabeth Ladd, V. Brulena, Gladys Woodcock, F. C. Mather, Alfred Kissean, J. Clancy, Mrs. W. W. Washburn, Neah Bay, Wash.; Miss Sadie Washburn, Miss Olene Washburn.

Crew—Grant Christensen, second assistant junior engineer; C. M. Aubrettan, fireman; H. Webster, waiter.

Children.
Several children, at least two of them babies in arms, were included among the survivors and were brought off the West Hartland in blankets.

Reported Safe.
San Francisco, April 1.—According to a statement by the Pacific Steamship Company here, Margaret Kier, Agnes McLaughlin, Ellen Woodbridge and C. J. Bauer left the steamship Governor at Victoria, and are safe. They were included in the list of missing.

Washburns and Clancy.
Los Angeles, April 1.—Four of the passengers of the Pacific Coast steamer who are reported to have boarded the vessel at San Pedro when she started north last Sunday, it was stated to-day at the local offices of the Pacific Steamship Company. They were Mrs. W. W. Washburn, Miss Sadie Washburn and Miss Olene Washburn, who were believed to be residents of Seattle, and J. Clancy, who also boarded passage to that port but was believed to make his home in some British Columbia city.

It was said that W. W. Washburn planned to join his wife and daughters at San Francisco. He is believed here to be an official of a railroad or steamship company.

Found None.
Seattle, April 1.—At 7:30 a.m. the master of the Pacific Coast Company's tug Warrior, which was en route to the spot where the steamship Governor sank after collision with the steamship West Hartland, from Seattle immediately after the collision, reported by wireless he had

SEIZURE OF LIQUOR TESTED AT LAW

Vancouver, April 1.—Claiming that the Provincial laws relating to the seizure of liquor are ultra vires of the British Columbia Legislature, Morris Plant, of this city, has entered suit in the British Columbia Supreme Court for the recovery of 1,312 cases of rye whisky, or the value of the same, claiming wrongful seizure by the prohibition authorities of the Province. The whisky is valued at $40,000. It was seized last July in Morris Plant's premises here. Plant was fined a total of $800 at that time on two charges of keeping and selling liquor illegally. These convictions were sustained last October in a higher Provincial court. Now the legal right of the Province to keep the liquor is challenged, and the claimant also asks for damages for wrongful detention.

PROHIBITION WORK DIFFICULT IN U. S.

Washington, April 1.—Difficulties in enforcing national prohibition include hostile public sentiment, lack of co-operation by the states, bootlegging on the borders and issuance of too many dealers' permits, according to John F. Kramer, Federal Prohibition Commissioner. He said that the Volstead law was sound, that he was not advocating any radical revision of the law, and that enforcement problems largely were administrative.

WISH MAGISTRATE SUPERANNUATED

Returned Soldiers in Vancouver Pass Resolution

Vancouver, April 1.—Superannuation of Magistrate South of this city is asked in a resolution passed at a meeting last night of the Returned Soldiers' Council in the City Hall. The resolution reads as follows: "That whereas Magistrate South has not acted in the best interests of the community in sentencing Isaac Bussey, convicted of smuggling opium, the Attorney-General be requested to superannuate Magistrate South and replace him by a younger man." It was decided to take up with the Minister of Justice the case of the returned soldier Kehoe, sentenced in court to receive twenty-four lashes for robberies said to have been committed under the influence of drugs. The action of the Council is a step toward securing enforcement of more severe penalties on drug peddlers.

URGE PLEBISCITE ON CREATION OF A NEW PROVINCE

Prince Rupert, April 1.—A plebiscite of the people affected by the question of establishing a new northern Province of the Dominion, consisting of Northern British Columbia and the Yukon Territory is asked by the Federal Government in a resolution unanimously adopted by a mass meeting of citizens here last night. The meeting was well attended. The feeling of the meeting was that the North is rich enough in natural resources and has a sufficiently large population to administer its own affairs. It was asserted the desire of the people generally in the North was strong for a separate Province.

Toronto, April 1.—William Watt, aged seventy-eight, and Matilda Harrison, aged seventy-four, were quietly married here yesterday. Mr. Watt was born in Plymouth, Eng., and Mrs. Watt came from Worcestershire. Neither was a stranger to the wedding service. The groom had already placed the ring on a lady's finger on three previous occasions, and the bride had been predeceased by her first husband sixteen years ago, while living in Calgary.

USE OF THE "GAD" URGED BY JUDGE

Calgary, April 1.—"The man is no more guilty than I am," declared Mr. Justice Ives yesterday after a jury had convicted A. L. Balderson, a retired farmer, of improper relations with his sixteen-year-old step-daughter. This was after the jury would not apply for a reserve case. "I will grant your application," said the judge. "It is time fathers and mothers of this country and city woke up and restored the 'gad' to its proper place in the household."

BOUNDRIES SUBJECT OF OTTAWA DEBATE

Commons Discussed Oil and Linen Yarn

Ottawa, April 1.—Boundries on linen yarn and crude petroleum occupied the attention of the Commons yesterday afternoon and last evening. For the greater part the House was in supply on estimates of the Department of Trade and Commerce, and the discussion followed a placid course.

A. R. McMaster, Brome, charged that the petroleum business was profitable and there was no need to assist it with boundries. "It's rank, raving lunacy," Mr. McMaster declared.

"But," retorted Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, "the policy of paying boundries to producers of crude petroleum was inaugurated by a Liberal Government."

Then, rejoined Mr. McMaster, "there were no doubt different when the policy was inaugurated."

On the question of flax and linen yarn, there was some opposition. The farmers have been encouraged to grow flax and now found themselves with a crop on their hands. What advice, it was asked, had Sir George to offer?

Sir George held that he would be a pretty bold man who would take the responsibility of giving advice in such a case. The producer must decide himself.

There were no direct intentions on the part of the Government to encourage farmers to grow flax, Sir George said.

The bounty had been given to encourage production of linen thread during the war. He thought farmers had grown flax rather because of high prices than because of the bounty.

Royalty and Bonus.
Brigadier-General W. A. Griesbach, Edmonton West, asked why the Government insisted on the payment of a royalty for oil produced in the West rather than a bonus on production elsewhere.

New and rich oilfields were being discovered in the west, Sir George replied, and it was thought the Government would be better off to have the oil produced. The situation was not similar to that which prevailed when the bounty was first granted.

Incentive.
Major Redman, Calgary, said if it was a question of paying the bounty years ago, it was more so now. The bounty was an incentive to increased production.

Dr. Michael Clark, Red Deer, charged it as a waste of public money. There were only two classes of companies to which bounties should be paid. One was making good and the other not. The latter class should not be kept alive by bounties. It was better to make the implements of production free.

OFFICER OF SHIP VISITS SIDNEY HOME

Sidney, April 1.—Norman P. Hocking, Chief Officer of the S.S. Canadian Prospector, is home with his family after close to four months' absence overseas with his ship. After spending a few days with his family at Sidney, he will leave to rejoin his vessel, which is to sail for Egypt about April 15.

Visited Sidney.
H. J. Palmer, representing the Canadian Export and Import Company, of Vancouver, was in Sidney on a business trip.

Mr. Palmer, who is a son of Chief of Police Palmer, of Esquimalt, was overseas for four years with the Royal Air Force. During an aerial engagement he had the misfortune to be brought down once, receiving a bullet wound in the left leg.

The Canadian Air Force is offering inducements to young men with aerial experience, and Mr. Palmer is seriously thinking of joining that branch as the work appeals to him strongly.

VANCOUVER CUSTOMS SHOW DECREASE

Vancouver, April 1.—Receipts of the Vancouver customs house for the month of March approximated $667,350, as against $583,196 a year ago. Duty on imports contributed $223,625, the balance being made up of excise and luxury taxes. February collections were $677,883, and January $600,456.

At the post office yesterday they came to the end of a fiscal year and the receipts from stamp sales during that period amounted to $33,571. The previous fiscal year's total was $32,126.

HAWAIIANS WANT BEER AND WINE

Honolulu, March 31.—A resolution petitioning Congress to sanction the manufacture and sale in Hawaii of beer containing 4 1/2 per cent, and wine containing 15 per cent, of alcohol was introduced in the territorial House to-day by Representative Evan da Silva, of Hilo.

The resolution said that the people of Hawaii had had no chance to express their convictions on prohibition and that their feelings had increased since the territory since prohibition became operative.

SUPPORT PROMISED ALBERTA TEACHERS

Toronto, April 1.—A resolution pledging moral and financial support to Alberta school teachers, should they go on strike was passed by the Ontario Public Teachers' Association at their session at the convention of the Ontario Educational Association yesterday. A resolution proposing a special assessment for a "strike fund" was dismissed as unconstitutional, but the teachers promised to subscribe generously and generally.

AN ONTARIO DEATH.

Kingston, Ont., April 1.—Rev. Father Joseph Pitzer, of the Archdiocese of Kingston, died last night following an operation for appendicitis. He was born in Central Europe sixty-four years ago.

Follow Paris fashions if you must, but make certain that you wear one pound of clothing to every stone of your weight.—Sir James Cantile.

STATEMENTS ARE WHOLLY MISLEADING

Villard's Irish "Inquiry" Denounced by British Officials

Washington, April 1.—A statement issued by the Embassy here, commenting on the report of Oswald Garrison Villard's "Commission of the committee of one hundred," which said it was "investigating" in the United States the situation in Ireland, states:

"The report of the commission on conditions in Ireland is entitled to exactly the amount of weight which should be given to any judgment based on the evidence of ex-parte statements put forward for the most part by persons admittedly holding extreme views. It is biased and wholly misleading."

Most Preposterous.
"Ireland, far from being a devastated country, is the most prosperous part of the United Kingdom, and probably of Western Europe. A reliable index to the general prosperity of the country can be found in the returns of deposits in joint stock banks, which have increased as follows:

1914	£147,000,000
1919	£166,000,000
1920	£200,000,000

"This prosperity continues, and is only affected in a very minor degree—and that mainly in the north—by the general industrial depression."

Murders.
"The report of the commission lays stress on the so-called reprisals, and ignores the fact that before the propaganda suggested in September, 1920, that reprisals were taking place, ninety-two policemen, twelve soldiers and twenty-three civilians had been murdered in the cold blood, and 153 policemen, fifty-six soldiers and seventy-four civilians wounded, in most cases without a chance of defending themselves. Twelve hundred buildings had been burned and wholly or partly destroyed."

"Sinn Fein has established its position by the terror of the revolver, which has silenced the moderate opinion of the vast majority of Irishmen. It desires to claim for the 'Irish republican army' the status of belligerents, ignoring that the members of that force constantly, indeed, invariably, violate the laws of war. Their methods are those of the assassin."

"Increasing pressure by Crown forces has succeeded in forcing them more and more to abandon the methods of individual assassination in favor of organized attack by armed bands, but the furtive character of their activities still continues."

Patient.
"That the Crown forces, under almost incredible provocation, patiently have during many months had on some occasions broken the bonds of discipline and committed unjustifiable acts of violence is not denied, but to say that such acts have been ordered, encouraged or condoned by the British Government is false."

"The total ration strength of the Crown forces in Ireland is 6,000. The antecedents of all recruits are carefully investigated, and no man of known bad character is retained."

Minstrels, Royal Victoria, next Wednesday. Come!

Re-grading of Ministers' Salaries Is Proposed; Would Cause Trouble

Following close upon the decision to raise members' and Ministers' indemnities, regrading of Ministers' salaries was proposed to the Legislature yesterday afternoon by F. W. Anderson, Liberal member for Kamloops, when estimates were under consideration.

"The Government should consider the regrading of Ministers' salaries in respect of the relative importance of their work," Mr. Anderson urged. "Take the Attorney-General, for instance. He does about ninety per cent. of the work in connection with legislation and is the shock absorber of the Government. The liquor bill was just another wild cat shovelled upon his shoulders. It is not right to ask him to administer this department for a measly $5,000 when members of the Liquor Control Board probably will be getting twice as much. If a man is able to hold the position of Attorney-General he could easily make three times the salary of that office in private practice. When he leaves office his legal practice is gone and everything is a complete loss for him."

OPTOMETRY BILL PASSES HOUSE

One Medical Practitioner Is Put on Board of Five Examiners

The Optometry Bill went through its committee stage in the Legislature yesterday afternoon with little alteration. The only important amendments approved provide that one of the board of examiners of applicants to practice optometry shall be a medical practitioner, and that the act shall come into force on proclamation by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council instead of on July 1, as originally planned.

BEER FINALLY DEAD; LIQUOR BILL PASSES WITHOUT ANY CHANGE

House without considerable difficulty. Premier Oliver objected to the re-opening of the bill in committee stage, while Mr. Uphill, who had visions of his last hope disappearing into thin air, rose and denounced what he termed was an alleged attempt to stifle him and the "cause" for which he stood sponsor.

ness, and still as the result we have an act that is not workable. "There are always the few who are trying to take the pleasure and joy out of life. People still listen to the 'whisper' that takes them out of interfering with other people's business and neglecting their own."

Whisky and No Beer

Mr. Uphill deprecated the condition of affairs in the Province during the past two years under prohibition, saying that the people had been deceiving themselves in a foolish manner.

Beer Drinkers Not Wife Beaters

"We are not after revenue if it means the nation's downfall," he added, and asked who had ever heard of a man beating up his wife as the result of drinking beer.

Real Beer and No Camouflage

"That is right," he replied. "And I intend to keep out of them as long as I can. I know what they are."

More Drunkenness From Prohibition

"Everybody broke the prohibition law," said Mr. Pooley, and he went on to state that he had had lunch with a former advocate of prohibition.

Prospective 'Jamborees'

Major Burde pleaded also for beer, saying that men were being poisoned through drinking wood alcohol and other adulterated beverages.

Last Gasp Heard

"The whole thing has gone double-headed into politics," he charged, predicting that the Act would be a failure, and that he himself would be one of the first to break the law, and that deliberately.

SOUTH VANCOUVER NOW KNOWS BETTER

People Have Paid Price For Mistakes, Member Says

Ratepayers of South Vancouver have learned their lesson from the mistakes they made in the past and for which they have paid the price, Thomas Pearson, Conservative member for Richmond, told the Legislature yesterday when the bill to restore autonomy to South Vancouver was put through the committee stage.

Does Not Go Far Enough

Mr. Bowser declared that the Government was justified in bringing down the South Vancouver administration act, but now that conditions have improved the local franchise should be given back, but it can be done in a better way than that provided for in the bill.

Urges Amalgamation

"It is for the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to say to what extent the powers of the receiver are to be abridged. This is not necessary to protect the public. You have here now an empty franchise handed to the municipality. This bill will not suit the people of South Vancouver at all."

Vigorous pleas by M. B. Jackson, K. C. Liberal Member for the Islands, and Kenneth Duncan, Independent Member for Cowichan failed yesterday afternoon to prevent the Legislature from adopting the report on their healing methods.

Are Persecuted

The chiropractors, Mr. Duncan asserted, had been subjected to "a certain degree of persecution at the hands of the Medical Society," though they undoubtedly were securing results in the practice of their healing methods.

BRITAIN IN TROUBLE.

While last year's strike in the coal mining industry of Great Britain was one of unprecedented gravity, the walk-out which commenced at midnight bids fair to become even more serious by reason of the fact that the danger of absolute destruction exists in all cases where the engineers and pumpmen have left their posts.

How serious has become the invasion of the British market by the American coal mining industry when it is pointed out that France and Italy may purchase their supplies on this side of the Atlantic at about half the current prices of Welsh coal.

SUPERANNUATION.

Popular approval will be accorded the superannuation measure which the Government has caused to be introduced to the Legislature. Its main provisions contemplate the "rainy day" and provide the machinery whereby practically every class of worker may enter into a co-operative arrangement with his employer and mitigate to some extent the economic penalty which advancing years relentlessly impose.

"LOVES" LABOR LOST.

Nobody seriously anticipated an impartial conclusion upon the Irish question by the sort of impartial committee that Oswald Garrison Villard had called together to conduct the investigation. Villard himself is an American citizen of German birth and inclinations and his disloyalty to his adopted country prior to its entry into and during its prosecution of the war, as well as his complete distaste of anything British, were sufficient material evidence upon which to base the promise of a biased report from his "committee of one hundred." And if this obvious handicap were not sufficient to establish Great Britain's "infamy" and "persecution" the inclusion of William Randolph Hearst and Jane Addams on the personnel of the committee would have guaranteed just the kind of verdict that has been delivered.

But it is a fortunate circumstance that the American people as a whole will regard the thirty thousand word report with no more seriousness than they did the selection of the investigating body. Nearly all the influential newspapers in the United States denounced the inquiry as a typical example of the lengths to which some people will go in an effort to stir up strife between the peoples of the two great English-speaking nations if a personal grudge may be satisfied in the process.

UP TO THE PEOPLE.

Where is the slightest ground for the suggestion that the Provincial Government intends to inaugurate a policy of state care of the tuberculous population of this Province in a half-hearted fashion? Surely our contemporary realizes that provincial acquisition of the King Edward Sanatorium at Tranquille is synonymous with an expansion of the magnificent work carried on by the Anti-Tuberculosis Society for fifteen years.

NOT IN DESPAIR.

While the danger of more serious developments in Germany may not be considered past the manner in which the authorities have dealt with the various individual outbreaks during the last few days indicates that German thoroughness does not intend to be discredited by Bolshevik machinations. It is similarly noteworthy that her repressive measures do not suggest a country in despair or ready to throw up the sponge in the face of an indignity forced upon the national spirit by an army of occupation. It rather implies the existence of sufficient vanity and national consciousness to encourage the Allied Supreme Council to call Germany's bluff upon any and every occasion.

TURKISH PAPERS THANKING ALLAH

Constantinople, March 31.—(Associated Press.)—Turkish newspapers today in big headlines address thanks to Allah for the victory of the Turks over the Greeks at Eski-Shehr, in Asia Minor. The state of the city is in the balance, according to reports. Anatolia is being illuminated nightly with bonfires and electric lights on the hills. The wildest enthusiasm is said to prevail.

THE PROPER COURSE.

Osmond Thomas Grattan Esmonde has been allowed to leave the Makura at Vancouver in consideration of his agreement to depart for Montreal and Great Britain without delay. This is the only sensible course that could be taken by the immigration authorities and the young Irish enthusiast will discover that his period of fame will be brought to a natural conclusion as soon as he reaches the other side of the Atlantic.

HOSPITAL TAG DAY.

Until the hospitals of this Province may count upon sufficient financial assistance to enable them to perform their functions without the periodical appeal to the generosity of the people it will be necessary to juggle the collecting box at the street corner from time to time. One of these necessary appeals is to be made to-morrow in aid of the Royal Jubilee Hospital. Its needs are as well known as its inability to supply them out of its own revenue.

NOTE AND COMMENT

According to the Helsingfors correspondent of The London Times the Soviet Government of Russia has decided upon the concentration of troops on the frontiers of Poland and Roumania. In view of the fact that the treaty with Poland was signed a few days ago it may be safe to take this item with a large grain of salt.

Now that the people of the United States have been told in an official communication from the British Embassy in Washington that Ireland is not in need of help from this side of the Atlantic it may be taken for granted that those organizations which have rounded up funds to lift the Irish folk out of their "poverty and distress" will take the hint and confine their benevolent acts to movements without political significance.

Social Personal

A quiet wedding was solemnized Easter Monday at the Parsonage of Ernest J. Lindsay, when Miss Emma Way, the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Way, 1571 Pembroke Street, was united in marriage to Edward Washon, of Swinton, Manchester, England. The bride was gown in a navy blue suit and hat of pale blue georgette, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Way, who wore a navy blue suit and hat to match. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Ernest J. Lindsay. The duties of the groomsmen were ably performed by Harry Way, the bride's brother. After the wedding supper at the young couple left for their home, 1574 Pembroke Street, where they will reside.

ST. JOSEPH NURSES' DANCE TO-NIGHT

Alumnae Association, Hostesses at Function at Alexandra Ballroom

To-night at the Alexandra Ballroom, the Alumnae Association of St. Joseph's Hospital will hold their long-anticipated dance, and the affair gains an added interest in view of the graduation exercises of the 1921 nursing class held last evening. This dance will be the second arranged by the nurses this season, the success of their first venture being so pronounced as to pave the way to further efforts, and an energetic committee has been working indefatigably to perfect the arrangements for the function.

Mrs. W. B. Naylor, of Mayne Island, has been entertaining this week-end at her home on the island. Mrs. Naylor and Master Robert Mowat of Victoria. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Naylor held a reception in honor of her guests, and yesterday Mrs. Bert Emery entertained the Victoria visitors.

Miss Alina Stewart-Williams entertained yesterday afternoon at the tea-hour at her home on the Strathcona Hotel. The guests included Mrs. M. S. Kerr, of Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta; Mrs. A. S. McLaughlin, of Cardiff, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. McGreggor, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Elliott, of Edmonton, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Haas, of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Butler, of San Francisco, are registered at the Strathcona Hotel.

Miss Hazel Conacher, who has been spending the Easter holidays with her mother, left this morning for French Creek. She was accompanied as far as Parksville by Miss Myrtle Pottinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCarter, of Mount Edward Apartments, returned home after spending the Easter holidays in Vancouver, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Diether.

W. J. White, P. L. Dale and Mrs. Dale, of Calgary; W. J. White, of Toronto, and A. S. Sherwood, of Seattle, are registered at the Dominion Hotel.

Miss Kentish-Rankin, of Vancouver has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dorian de Bretigny in this city for the past few days.

John E. Reale, of Kelowna, and F. N. Emmett, of Ducks, are new arrivals at the Dominion Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McNab, of Wabigoon, have arrived at the Empress Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Medland, of Winnipeg, are guests at the Empress Hotel.

CABARET TO AID RELIEF FUND

G. W. V. A. Function of Next Thursday to Be Brilliant Affair

Great interest is being shown in the Grand Cabaret to be held at the Empress Hotel on Thursday, April 7, in aid of the relief fund of the Great War Veterans' Association. The proceeds are to promote the association's excellent work of helping alleviate the distress prevalent among the families of returned men owing to the unemployment situation. His Honor the Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. W. C. Nichol and Capt. Adams, C.B.E., R.N., have consented to act as patrons of the affair, and it is anticipated there will be a great demand for tickets to support such a worthy cause.

Those assisting in directing the cabaret and arranging the programme have the benefit of former successful affairs, and are confident that the forthcoming cabaret will surpass all others. They are Mrs. R. H. Pooley, Mrs. Seldon Humphries, Mrs. A. J. Gibson, Miss Edith Dunsmuir, Miss Martha Allen, of New York, and Gordon Cameron, who has also consented to assist.

An excellent programme is being arranged, and the best local talent are giving their support. Heaton's eight-piece orchestra has been engaged, and is preparing a programme of the latest "hits."

Tickets are on sale to-morrow morning at Wilkerson's Jewellery Store only, and table reservations may also be made at Wilkerson's Jewellery Store or through Mr. Cameron, telephone 504.

FLOWERS CAME TO LIFE AT KIDDIES' BALL LAST NIGHT

Lovely Children in Fascinating Costume at Gonzales Chapter, I.O.D.E., Function

A charming scene which might have found place in one of Maeterlinck's delightful fantasies was enacted at the Alexandra Ballroom last evening when a host of kiddies attended the flower ball held under the auspices of the Gonzales Chapter, I. O. D. E. in the city and their heads came to life at the touch of a fairy wand. Flaming poppies, brilliant fuschias, demure little crocuses, modest violets, nodding daffodils, roses by scores, brown-eyed susans and humble buttercups swayed to the perfect rhythm of the music of Professor Heaton's orchestra. Even the elusive four-leaf clover was to be found, while a tiny Ewe rabbit darted about a fitting background. A miniature Robin Hood, complete to his bow, was present in this Arcady.

Vivid Colorings.

The vivid colorings of the costumes blended harmoniously into one of the most picturesque scenes ever witnessed in Victoria, and enhanced the beauty of the little dancers, who were representative in every sense, of the flower of the city's childhood. The artistic decorations of the hall provided a fitting background. A host of tiny trailing their way around the walls, while flags draped the mirrors and huge replicas of the order's emblem occupied a position of honor on the north wall.

The striking feature of the costumes was the ingenuity displayed in their fashioning. Crepe paper was the favorite medium—every lovely hue from Nature's palette being represented in the most meticulous care. The difficult task of judging fell to the regent of the chapter, Mrs. L. B. Kent, Mrs. J. J. Shalcross and Miss Josephine Crease, and after mature consideration the prizes were awarded as follows: Boys' first, Elibeck Wilson, Scottish thistle; second, Philip Belson, purple crocus; Girls' first, Kathleen McIntyre, pink rosebud; second, A. M. F. Forbes, sunflower; her costume being carried out along early Victorian lines, suggesting this flower's association with an old-world garden.

Little Guests.

Among the little dancers were: Marian Fosmas, a rose; Nancy Hone, rosebud; Elibeck Wilson, Scottish thistle; Gloria Wilson, pink carnation; Roger Wilson, golden-glow; Grace Hardie, wild rose; Isabel Hardie, narcissus; Marie Hardie, scarlet; and white; Lester; Irene; Kathleen Polly; Margaret Goward, black-eyed Susan; Lillian Goward, Michaelmas daisy; Rhoda Goward, pyrethrum; Sonny Goward, four-leaved clover; Doreen Egan, yellow crocus; Philip Belson, purple crocus; Archie Miller, pierrat; Merville Cameron, Highlander; George Cameron, pierrat; Elaine Gallier, bluebell; Margaret Gallier, pierrat; Mary Mogg, water-lily; Joan Hennell, a resplendent capot; Trude Green, buttercup; Elehor Everall, pink rose; John Mogg, Robin Hood; Alison Mitchell, pink dith; Doris McMorrin, scarlet poppy; Millicent Umbach, fuchsia; Maud Worthington, forget-me-not; Marjorie Gibbons, daffodil; Laddie Barrie, Katherine; Catherine, daffodil; Alice Bell, brown-eyed Susan; Milled Bell; Elinor McIntyre, scarlet carnation; Douglas McIntyre, Brer Rabbit; Paula Cantwell, narcissus; Comfert Tedcastle, forget-me-not; Edith Hill, forget-me-not; Henry Moss, Worthington garden of tulips; Gwen Dorman, rosebud; Katherine Hodson, lily; Maudie Pemberton, pierrat; Margaret Ross, Night; Mary Ross, Betty; Jack Morryson, Bob Hennell Knave of Hearts; Frances Orchard (Toronto), French doll; Gregory Crawley, "Fatter" Hampton (Hull—Lawrence); Testy Hull (Winnipeg), as Glynda; Joan Saunders, Marguerite; Ethel Stewart, daffodil; Nora Jacobs, violet; Inez Ker, the Spirit of Charivari; Alice Goepel, rose; Beatrice Camassa, daffodil; Doris Pimley, pink rose; Mary Malcolm, Cecilia; pink rose; yellow hollyhock; Gladys Garesche, daffodil; Roy Heaton, pierrat; and many others.

Life is neither a frivol nor a grizzle; it is a glorious opportunity.—Rev. G. H. McNew

PRETTY CEREMONY AT NURSES' GRADUATION

St. Joseph's 1921 Class Principals in Delightful Programme Last Night

With all the pretty ceremony which tradition associates with the important step of graduation, the 1921 nursing class of St. Joseph's Hospital held their graduation exercises in St. Ann's Academy. The auditorium was filled to overflowing, the big audience including most of the medical men of the city and their wives, as well as the many proud relatives and friends of the girl graduates, who were as follows: Lillian Manifold, Nanaimo; Eleanor Stuart, Victoria; Lizzie Swanson, Victoria; Grace Ledingham, Victoria; Grace Curtis, Quenel; Frances McCaffrey, Calgary; Margaret Mason, Victoria; Maud Byrd, Victoria; Lillian Graham, Victoria; Doris Taylor, Victoria.

The nurses in their snowy uniforms and becoming caps, wearing the scarlet and white ribbons of St. Joseph's, were seated on the stage, the graduates occupying the front seats. Banked at the front of the platform and forming a vivid splash of color against the snowy backdrop were the lovely floral tributes sent to the successful graduates.

Dr. R. L. Fraser formally presented the diplomas and medals, each recited as she came forward being greeted with warm applause. A special ovation was given to Miss Grace Curtis, the winner of the gold watch presented by A. A. Clayton to the winner of the highest marks in the surgical nursing examination, and to Miss Deryl Thompson, the winner of the bursary presented by the Victoria Graduate Nurses' Association to the most efficient nurse in first year work.

The graduates were addressed by Right Rev. Alex. MacDonald, Bishop of Victoria; W. P. O'Boyle, D.D., Director of Catholic Hospitals in B. C., and Dr. W. T. Barrett, President of the hospital staff, the general tenor of the addresses being congratulatory and inspiring the nurses to strive for the highest ideals of their splendid profession. The valedictory was given by Miss Manifold.

The musical programme included a piano solo by Miss Byron, pianoforte duet by the Misses Margaret Gladwin and Queenie Jones, and vocal solos by Miss McKay and T. Kelway.

The programme closed with the singing of the school song, "Loyal and True," and the National Anthem. At the conclusion of the formal proceedings, the members of the medical fraternity and their wives, together with the nurses, adjourned to St. Joseph's Hospital, where delicious refreshments were served, an informal dance bringing to a close another successful chapter in the history of St. Joseph's Hospital.

"I want to be procrastinated at the next corner," said the negro passenger to the train-car conductor. "You want to do what?" demanded the conductor. "Don't lose yeh temper. I had to look in de dictionary myself befo' I found out dat 'procrastinate' means 'put off'."

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT

NOT ALL ILL WIND FOR MR. COON

If Jimmy Crow had not stolen the shiny tin spoon from the farmhouse, the wind, good or bad, would not have bothered Mr. Fox. But Jimmy did steal the spoon and took it to a tree by the pond and hid it.

Mr. Fox, strolling along early one morning, caught sight of Madam Duck swimming on the pond with her young family, and his eyes began to twinkle as he thought of the nice dinner he was certain to have.

So he crept close under the bushes, right under the trees, where Jimmy Crow had hidden in a crotch the shiny tin spoon, but, of course, Mr. Fox did not know this, nor would he have cared if he had.

Neither did Mr. Coon know about the spoon, but he did see Mr. Fox creeping along carefully, and he knew there must be something around worth watching.

Mr. Coon had broken his rule of getting home by daylight that morning, but he had been through a rather hard time the night before, and had not been able to get home earlier; he was on his way when he happened to spy Mr. Fox.

"Now what does he see, I wonder," thought Mr. Coon. "I'll wait and find out." So he hid himself behind a well-screened bush and watched.

In a few minutes he saw Madam Duck and her family, and they were headed for that side of the pond where Mr. Fox was waiting.

"Well, I wish it were chickens," thought Mr. Coon. "I don't care as much for a duck as a nice plump chicken, but as I have had nothing to eat since yesterday, I won't be fussy, and Mr. Fox surely cannot mind if I take one. He could not catch all of them, anyway."

So unknown to each other the two hunters watched Madam Duck swim slowly toward them, and it was not long before she came to the bank and began to waddle up, followed by all her young family.

Mr. Fox was so certain of getting one or two of them that he kept very still, waiting for them to be well away from the pond before he sprang from his hiding place.

Madam Duck waddled slowly along, and just as Mr. Fox thought she had reached the pond before he made a dash for a place of safety which he knew about not far away.

He ran, and back to pond they waddled, and were some way before Mr. Coon recovered from his surprise, for of course he saw or heard nothing to frighten him away.

He did wonder what had sent Mr. Fox off in such a hurry, and now that all was quiet, he determined to find out for Mr. Coon is of a rather inquisitive turn of mind.

Very carefully he crept to the spot where Mr. Fox had been waiting, and there on the ground he saw the shiny tin spoon which he had seen Mr. Fox pick up and trotted off for home, quite satisfied with his prize, even if he was hungry.

So while it was at the dinner table he lost his spoon and for Mr. Fox because he lost his dinner, it was a good wind for Madam Duck and her children, and also for Mr. Coon, who carried off the prize.

He ran, and back to pond they waddled, and were some way before Mr. Coon recovered from his surprise, for of course he saw or heard nothing to frighten him away.

THE RIDDLE OF THE FROZEN FLAME

By MARY E. AND THOMAS W. HANSHAW

Dollops left, and Cleek then rejoined the two men who stood talking in the low square. "Now," said he briskly, "if you're ready, Mr. Lake, I am. Let us be off. Sir Nigel, I hope by dinner time I'll have some sort of news to impart to you, whether good or ill remains to be seen. By the way, have you in your employ, a dark, square-faced individual, with close set eyes and a straggling moustache? Rather undershot, too, I believe? It would be interesting to me to know."

"Tell you the truth, Mr. Headland, I can't fit the description in any where among the people here," he said after a pause. "Dimmock's faithful—though he has got a moustache, but it's a military one, and Borkins is, of course, smooth-shaven. The other men are clean-shaven, too, except for old Doughty, the head gardener, and he wears a full, gray beard. Why?"

"Nothing important, I was only wondering. Now, these fellows will be late if you loiter any longer, and our friends will be waiting. Good-bye, Sir Nigel, and good luck. Lunch at one—different for him—"

He swung upon his heel and linked his arm with Mr. Narkom's, then, taking his cap from a peg on the wall, he slapped it on his head and went down and out to the task that waited him, and a discovery which was, to say the least of it, startling in the extreme.

They walked for some time in comparative silence, puffing at their cigarettes. Then of a sudden, Cleek spoke. "I say, old man, you'll want to keep a close lookout upon your own personal safety," he said, abruptly, wheeling round and meeting his friend full in the eye.

"What do you mean?" Headland asked. "What I say. 'Someone's got wind of our real purpose here. I have a grave suspicion that that Borkins fellow is listening to us. He's been here when I was talking to Dollops. Later—well, somebody or other tried to get me in bed. But I was one too many for him—"

"My dear Cleek!" "Mr. Lake, I beg of you—not so loud!" ejaculated Cleek. "There are policemen everywhere, which you as a policeman ought to know. I don't remember my name and don't go losing any sleep over me. I can take care of myself, all right. But I had to do it pretty energetically last night. A thoughtful visitor, I'm afraid, I low I'd placed in bed instead of my humble self, and cut an incision three inches deep. Hit the mattress, too!"

"Headland, make an o. I tell you I can take care of myself, but you do the same. No one in the house knows a word about it, and I don't intend that they shall. The less said the better, in case like this. Only those Frozen Flames are trying to eat up something that is either very serious or very money-making. One thing or the other. Hello, here's Hammond. All ready for the search, I see."

The two constables, clad in plain clothes and accompanied by Dollops, were holding in their hands long pitchforks which were more as they were ready for haymaking than for the gruesome task ahead of them. Petrie carried upon his arm a roll of rope. They swung into step behind the detectives, across the uneven, marshy ground.

It was a chilly morning, and inclined to rain. Across the flat horizon the mist hung in watery, billowing forms of cloudy gray, and the deep grass into which they plunged their feet was beaded with dew. For a moment they waited on quietly until they had gone perhaps a quarter of a mile. Then Cleek halted.

"Better separate here," he said, waving his arm out across the sweep of flat country. "Dollops, you take the right with Petrie. Hammond, you'd better try the left. Mr. Narkom, and I will go straight ahead together. Any discovery made, just give the usual signal."

You can be happy-footed in a moment. Use "Tiz" and never suffer with tender, raw, burning, blistered, swollen, tired, smelly feet. "Tiz" and only "Tiz" takes the pain and soreness out of corns, callouses and bunions.
As soon as you put your feet in a "Tiz" bath, you just feel the happiness soaking in. How good your poor old feet feel! They want to dance for joy. "Tiz" is crackling. It instantly draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause sore, inflamed, aching, sweaty, smelly feet.
Get a box of "Tiz" at any drug store or department store. Get instant foot relief. Laugh at foot sufferers who complain. Because your feet are never, never going to bother or make you limp any more.

THE BOY WE WANT

Into the office of a business man rushed a bright-faced lad, he waited for three minutes, and then began to show signs of impatience.
"Excuse me, sir," he said at last. "I'm looking for a job."
"Well, what do you want?" asked the business man.
"A job!"
"Got to hurry," replied the lad, briefly. "Left school yesterday and haven't struck anything suitable yet. The only place where I can stay long is where they pay me for it."
"How much do you want?"
"Fourteen shillings a week for a start."
"And when can you come?"
"Don't need to come; I'm here. I could have been at work five minutes ago if you'd only said so."

Beauty Secrets Revealed.

Anna Q. Nilsson the Popular Actress Tells How

To Instantly Have a Beautiful Rosy-White Skin and Complexion.

Anna Q. Nilsson

New York—"The secret of beauty is the proper care of the skin," says Miss Nilsson, the popular Metro star. "It only requires a few moments time and anyone is more than paid for the little effort it takes. In the first place the skin should be kept scrupulously clean. Use a good cleansing cream (Lilifa cold cream is kept scrupulously clean). Follow this by bathing the face with warm water then rinse with cold water and dry thoroughly with a coarse towel. After this process select a beautifier which in addition to being a beautifier has a healing effect on the skin. The very best I have found for this purpose is Derwillo, as it instantly beautifies the complexion and its continued use makes the results permanent." Derwillo takes the place of face powder, as it stays on better and is wonderful for a shiny nose, oily, dark, yellow skin, freckles, etc. Wipes off other facial blemishes. Just make this test: Put derwillo on one side of your face, then look in your mirror and compare it with the other side—you will see no further argument to convince you that nothing beautifies like derwillo. It imparts a youthful appearance and if you would keep your complexion at its best all the time make derwillo a part of your toilet as you now do face powder and note the favorable comments of your friends. Short sleeves are now in vogue, use derwillo to beautify your hands and arms and protect them from roughness and redness, which always follows exposure to sun, dust and wind. It is guaranteed absolutely harmless on the most delicate skin and will positively not stimulate or produce a growth of hair. Give it a thorough trial and you will never be without it. Accept no substitutes as there is nothing "better," "just as good" or "just like it."

NOTE—Ask your druggist about derwillo and he will tell you that he has never sold any toilet article which has become so popular in so short a time. This is due to the satisfaction it gives. It is guaranteed by every druggist or department store to give complete satisfaction or they will refund your money. If you don't like it take it back. Could anything be fairer? It is sold at all toilet counters in this city, including Owl Drug Co. and Whitcomb Drug Co.

LEADING AUCTIONEER SETTLING IN CITY

Alexander McCloy, of Cadboro Bay, Has Had Notable Career

Alexander McCloy, one of the most well-known auctioneers in New Westminster, and a leading business man in the city for a long time, has purchased the Hargreaves property on the Cadboro Bay Road, near Uplands, and will make his home there, with Mrs. McCloy and their son.

Mr. McCloy was formerly of the firm of Duncan Keith and McCloy, Glasgow, Scotland, which was established in 1824 and has a wide reputation.

ALEXANDER McCLOY

tion as experts in antiques. Mr. McCloy has been a licensed auctioneer for twenty-five years and engaged in business on this coast for the past ten years.

He has been prominent in club and business circles of the Royal City, and was a member of the New Westminster Board of Trade. Well known in Masonic circles and in Elksdom, he was the first president of the New Westminster branch of the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada. A keen sportsman, he is accredited with being an expert rifle shot, belonging to the Fraser Valley Rod and Gun Club, of which he was treasurer and well known among anglers for his fly-fishing exploits.

Two years president of the Royal City Burns Club, Mr. McCloy is a member of the Caledonia Society of New Westminster, and also well known in kennel clubs of the neighborhood. West Highland white terriers are his hobby and he has been accredited with several pedigreed dogs of this class.

An amateur dramatic artist of more than usual ability Mr. McCloy was a comedy star of the New Westminster Operatic Society for several years. His son is well known among junior yachting circles and won several trophies in the Kitten class of sailing craft, besides being an all-around athlete of some promise. Mr. McCloy intends to go into business in this city as an auctioneer at an early date. He has been appointed Victoria director for the Royal Agricultural and Industrial Society.

SAYS SPECULATORS ONLY GET WHAT IS COMING TO THEM

"I'm opposed to the cancellation of any of these subdivisions," said Councillor Kingwell last night, when the San Juan Council was discussing the application of R. D. Chandler for permission to revert a West Road subdivision to acreage.

"Real estate speculators subdivide lands with the idea of milking the public, and I consider that, when such schemes fail, the promoters should stew in their own juice," he said.

Reeve Watson remarked that speculators had generally paid heavily for their undertakings, the subdivision under discussion having paid taxes since 1913 on a lot basis of assessment, in place of being classed as farm land.

The Council then authorized the cancellation of the plan, provided the municipal assessor was satisfied that the interests of all persons who purchased lands from the syndicate have been protected.

COUNTY COURT DAY IS SET FOR MONDAY

Geo. E. Ruston (Wootton) vs. Edgar B. Knowton (Walls).

The profiteer's wife read a paragraph in the morning paper in which it said that a certain dinner party had ended with great eclat.

"What's eclat?" she asked her husband.

"Those choicest things with cream in 'em," was the answer.

EXPLAINS HOW TO BRING PROSPERITY

B. A. McKelvie, Made-in-B. C. Campaign Manager, at Chamber of Commerce

The position of the consumer who falls to patronize his home market, and thus develop industries of such volume as to enable competition with outsiders, was pointed out by B. A. McKelvie at last night's meeting of the Forum of the Chamber of Commerce, in dealing with the Made-in-B. C. campaign, of which Mr. McKelvie is manager.

Mr. McKelvie's address was full of interesting data and he endeavored to enlighten his audience as to how prosperity could easily be obtained for British Columbia.

Mr. McKelvie said in part:

Not Yet Normal.

"Canada has passed through a tremendous trial," said Mr. McKelvie. "Conditions are not normal in this country. The Dominion is still convalescing from the convulsions of war. There exists to-day just as great a demand on the patriotism of the people of Canada as existed during the hectic days from 1914, under the signing of the armistice. But the brand of patriotism that is demanded in the year 1921 is not the same spectacular character as formerly, but a silent, individual work for the good of the country and the Empire that will win."

"How are we measuring up to the demands on us to-day? Let me give you an illustration of the way in which Canadians are helping to re-establish their country's home they are assisting the return of substantial prosperity to this Province and the Dominion."

Canada's Exchange Pro Rata.

"You are all conversant with the struggle that Germany is making against the payment of her war indemnity. The Allies have demanded from her the sum of $31,000,000,000. This is to be paid within forty years. There are 70,000,000 inhabitants in the German Empire. The per capita payment of that indemnity is $5 per annum.

"The per capita payment of the people of Canada in exchange alone, on the goods that are imported from the United States last year was just $17.25—nearly three and one-half times as great as the German war indemnity. Germany says that she cannot afford to pay. I ask you, as sensible business men, can Canada continue to pay tribute to this extent?"

"Sir Henry is my authority for the statement that in eleven months ending February, 1921, we have imported from the United States $72,000,000 in merchandise, an increase over the previous corresponding eleven months of $35,000,000—and we are paying an average of nearly 15 per cent. on our imports."

Province's Share.

"In British Columbia you paid approximately $9,950,000 in exchange on goods that you might have purchased from the producers of your own country. That was last year—and the imports are increasing.

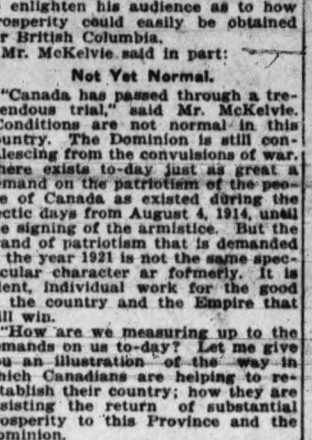

"Every municipality in British Columbia is financially crippled all day. Educational facilities are being cramped, because you and I and the other fellow cannot afford to pay the taxes necessary to meet the expenditures that they require, and yet we can afford to pay $9,950,000 to the United States. That is direct taxation."

"Indirectly, we are building roads, are supporting municipalities and educational institutions in communities we are not interested in, for people we have never seen—and in British Columbia we have to deny ourselves these things. Is it good business?"

Is Good Business.

"This Made-in-B. C. campaign is a plain, straightforward business proposition. No attempt is being made to capitalize sentiment. People cannot wear sentiment, or eat sentiment. We are endeavoring to show that it is good business to give preference to the goods manufactured and produced in British Columbia first; to those of the Dominion second, and those of the Empire third. In doing so, we are helping the manufacturers that they produce merchandise that is equal in quality and price to the goods that are imported from other countries."

"There has been some criticism of the movement on the ground that we should not seek to have first preference given to the products of British Columbia for consumption over, believe that such criticisms were the result of mature thought. For, if we do not patronize our own goods, how can we expect others to do so? How can we expect them to produce for export if we do not have our own home market? Is it reasonable business to pile up costs by sending

HAD BAD COUGH FOR THREE YEARS

The constant hacking, racking, persistent cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it, is the kind that is dangerous.

The longer the cough sticks, the more serious menace it becomes to your health.

There is no remedy that will relieve coughs—coughs that won't let go—like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It has a healing and soothing action on the air passages, and at the same time acts as a disinfectant of the respiratory organs, destroying germs that produce serious lung complications.

Mrs. John Miller, Minburn, Alta., writes:—"I had a very bad cough for three years. I went to several doctors and tried different cough medicines, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend told me about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and after using several bottles I became completely relieved. I always keep a bottle in the house, and also recommend it to others."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been used for over 20 years, and so great has been its success, it is only natural that a great many imitations have been placed on the market. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; the pine tree is the trade mark; price 35c and 60c.

a commodity produced in British Columbia to Ontario and pay freight on a similar commodity from Ontario to British Columbia for consumption in this province? It is like the tenants of an apartment block taking exception to one of their number improving the interior of his own dwelling.

"We are not at this time asking—and I submit that you will consider it a reasonable request—entire preference for B. C. goods in the purchases of the citizens of this province, but for only 25 cents a day for the products of this province. Purchases have to be made by or for the daily wants of the 555,000 persons in this province. We ask for preference in this buying of twenty-five cents.

What It Means.

"Let us analyze what this would mean. It would mean that the merchandise of British Columbia would have an increased sale of $12,500 a day. Fifty per cent. of the ultimate selling price of the average article represents wages paid directly or indirectly for its production and sale. This would mean an addition of $6,250 to the daily wage sheets of the province. In other words it would represent an addition of $21,000,000 to the pay rolls of industry every year.

"To study these figures further: They mean employment to between 16,000 and 18,000 men and women. Then mean $5,500,000 more spent in groceries; 120,000 suits of clothes, and 160,000 pairs of boots and shoes, and in addition millions of dollars to be spent in amusements, luxuries and the necessities of life.

"That is what 25 cents a day can do for this province. Do you think that it is good business to endeavor to stimulate sales to such an extent? It increases the output of the factories and farms."

The Situation.

"Let us examine for a moment what it would mean if we patronized our own producers. We will take the question of shoes. There are in British Columbia four factories turning out foot-wear for men and boys. The males over the age of 15 years, in this Province spend annually $8,600,000 on boots and shoes. This gives employment to 3,500 workers. Four

Fear Death From Oversight—Expressing a desire for a more systematic plan to keep Councilors in touch with progress of matters authorized, Councillor Kingwell last night moved that a system of indexing items in the minutes of the Saanich Council be adopted when no final report was available for presentation to ensuing meetings. Reeve Watson protested the motion as an unwarranted reflection on the conduct of municipal business, and repeatedly asked for the naming of any items from the minutes then before the Council. Councillor Kingwell cited his resolution calling for an application to the Provincial Government for legislation authorizing the formation of ward or school areas for school assessments, and on being informed by Reeve Watson that the request had been duly forwarded to the Government, but had not yet been acknowledged, Councillor Kingwell retorted, "That's just my point, the matter might very well die from oversight so long as the Provincial authorities ignore our request. His proposal for a closer tab on pending matters was then adopted."

Gaoler Worried—The usual plethora of telephone calls that haunt the police department on the first of this month were again in evidence to-day. Party after party rang and rang at the local station, and were regretfully informed by Gaoler Varney that they had been made the subject of an "April Fool." The police, it might be stated, fall to appreciate the joke, which no doubt is very funny for the several perpetrators.

A. O. F. Whist Drive—Patrons of the military 504 are requested to note the Foresters' drive will take place this evening in the large hall, and not in the small hall as announced.

Miss Clay's Address—A meeting of the Burnside Parents' Association will be held in the Burnside School on Monday at 8 o'clock. Miss Clay, of the Public Library staff, will give an address on "Children and Books." The public is invited.

Naval Association Meets—The Royal Naval and Marine Association meets at G. W. V. A. rooms to-night at 8 o'clock, and all ex-Imperial naval men and former members of the R. N. C. V. R. are urged to attend. Former naval nurses are also invited to be present.

Deserter Sought—Ginsaku Suyama, a Japanese, alleged to have deserted from the Tajima Maru at the port of Vancouver, is being sought by the police. He is described as eighteen years of age, about 5 feet 2 inches in height, with dark complexion.

Divorce Granted—In the Supreme Court yesterday before Mr. Justice Gregory a decree nisi was awarded the husband, the petitioner in the divorce action of McClure vs. McClure. J. A. Alkman appeared for the petitioner. The suit was undefended.

Cemetery Association Meets—The Shady Creek Cemetery Association will hold its annual meeting on Monday, April 4, at 8 o'clock at the Keating Temperance Hall. Secretary J. L. Brooks will report on the past year, and the attendance of everyone interested is hoped for.

Ward Seven Ratepayers—A meeting of Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association will be held in Tillicum School at 8 o'clock next Monday evening, when the principal subject for discussion will be the proposed extension of the Gordon Head water system. Other matters also will be considered.

H. B. Boggs Chapter—At a meeting of the Herbert Beaumont Boggs Chapter, I. O. O. F., at municipal headquarters, last evening, with the regent, Mrs. Anderson, in the chair, it was decided to vote the sum of $5 for the upkeep of soldiers' graves. The regent tendered her resignation, as she will leave the city shortly, and the question of her successor was laid over until the next meeting.

Building Statistics—No improvement in building activities in Victoria is shown by the records for March, thirty-three permits only having been issued for a total of $29,220 in value. February's total was $21,750. For March last year the total was $67,794. Since the first of the year 97 permits have been issued for a total of $134,971.

G. W. V. A. Dance To-night—To-night at the Trades and Labor Hall, the Women's Auxiliary to the G. W. V. A. will hold a dance in aid of their funds which have been sadly depleted by the many calls to relieve distress this winter. Mrs. Saville is the convener in charge of the general arrangements and Mrs. Morrison is superintending the supper. A good orchestra will furnish the music, and a big crowd is expected.

Sunny March—During the month of March Victoria enjoyed 174 hours 13 minutes of sunshine, or 33 hours more than the average for the month. Only three days without sunshine were recorded, according to Superintendent Denison, of the Meteorological Station at Government Hill. Rainfall amounted to 1.23 inches, or 1.10 below the average, while the mean temperature was 44 degrees.

To Hear Telephone Argument—A deputaion of the Saanich Council will be present at the Victoria City Hall on April 11, when the Railway Commission hears argument regarding the proposed extension of the telephone poles. The resolution passed by the Council at a previous meeting went on record as opposed to any raise.

Raise Official's Retainer—The Saanich Council last night raised the annual retainer to be paid Medical Health Officer Dr. Vye to $200, in addition to any payments for services required. "I move the retainer be made the same as that enjoyed by the members of the Council," said Councillor Vantreight, after some discussion.

Threatens With Gun—Three boys fishing for trout at Goldstream recently were approached by a man who demanded to know what they had caught, and who seized and searched one of the boys. The two other lads ran away, whereupon the individual pulled a revolver and ordered the lads back. The two returned, and were searched. The individual, the boys stated to the police, stated he was connected with the fishery inspection work, but his name or identity was not known. The city and provincial police are trying to locate the man.

ACTING DEPUTY JOHN FRY, OF THE VICTORIA CITY POLICE

To-day was the date set for the appointment of Acting Deputy Chief John Fry to become effective as Chief of the local police, but up to this afternoon Mr. Fry had no notification to that effect. The resolution passed by the Board of Police Commissioners at their first meeting called for the installation of John Fry as Chief of Police, in succession to J. M. Langley, whose resignation was accepted at the meeting, effective at the end of last month.

Commissioner Dr. Ernest Hall, in response to a query from The Times, reiterated the statement that according to the resolution passed, Mr. Fry became Chief at twelve o'clock last night. At the police headquarters to-day Deputy Palmer was Acting Chief as usual, since the absence of J. M. Langley, and Mr. Fry, who is in the office of the Deputy Chief, in his capacity of Acting Deputy.

HEALERS TAKEN IN BY MEDICAL ACT

Amendments to Cover Chiropractors and Others Introduced in House

Amendments to the Medical Act to cover chiropractors and druggless physicians who want the right to practice in this Province, and be given a professional standing have been introduced in the Legislature by the Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary.

The sections to be inserted in the Medical Act are:

Nothing in this Act shall prevent or prohibit any duly qualified chiropractor from practicing his profession for reward or gain within the Province from and after the enactment of this section:

"Provided that all practitioners of chiropractic within the meaning of this Act shall be duly qualified chiropractors of a recognized school or college of chiropractic, and for the purpose of this Act a recognized school or college of chiropractic shall be deemed to be an institution which teaches a residence course of three years of six months each or more:

"Provided further that before any such chiropractor shall be lawfully entitled to practice chiropractic within the Province, such chiropractor shall take and successfully pass an examination satisfactory to the Council on the following subjects: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, toxicology, pathology, bacteriology, histology, neurology, physical diagnosis, osteiatrics, gynecology, minor surgery, hygiene, principles and practice of chiropractic.

"The Council, for the purpose of such examination of applicants for registration as chiropractors under this Act, shall appoint a chiropractor, who shall prescribe the examination for such applicants in relation to the principles and practice of chiropractic.

"Any duly qualified chiropractor who shall successfully pass such examination shall be entitled to be registered under this Act as a member of the College:

"Provided that such chiropractor shall be restricted wholly to the practice of chiropractic."

Similarly worded clauses deal with druggless healers.

TALKING PHOTOPLAY TO BE SCREENED HERE

Producer of Film Is Here; Will Be Presented at Romano

The question has often been asked: "Is it possible for the 'movies to talk'?" Now comes an ex-Canadian soldier with an all-Canadian production who will demonstrate that such is not only a possibility, but an accomplished fact. An attempt to make motion pictures talk was made some years ago by Thomas Edison, but synchronization was never really perfect.

The latest innovation is accomplished entirely with the human voice without mechanical aid, and that it has vast possibilities goes without saying. It is not a mere demonstration of its possibilities, but a complete thrilling story is screened, in which some 2,500 words are spoken and heard by the audience. "The Winnipeg Telegram" says: "One forgets he is looking at a moving picture, so realistic is the entire production."

This remarkable film has recently been screened to capacity business in Winnipeg, Calgary and Edmonton, and it will be shown at the Romano Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next.

Sergeant J. J. Atherton, the author and producer, is in the city. He himself enacted the role of the principal character in a thrilling "after-the-war" story with keen audience guessing until the happy "fade out."

TO TOUR CIRCUIT

Charles L. Harris, editor of The Island Motorist, this month will leave for a complete tour round the Georgian circuit. He will be the first motorist of the year to make the trip. The circuit was first conceived by Alderman Todd, of Victoria, in January, 1916, in August of that year the formal dedication took place at Port Angeles.

Ask Dominion Aquatic Events Be Held Here

President Warren, of B. C. Branch of C. A. S. A., Asks Parent Body to Award Championships to Victoria; Annual Meeting of Provincial Body Set For Tomorrow; Edna Curry's Case Coming Up.

Application has been made by George Warren, president of the British Columbia branch of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, to have several of the Dominion swimming championships held in this city during the summer. The West is usually neglected by the C. A. S. A. in the annual allotment of championships and an effort is being made early to let the officials in the East know that British Columbia wants a little fairplay in the matter. The last Dominion swimming championships in Victoria were held in the Y. M. C. A. tank about nine years ago.

The annual meeting of the B. C. branch of the C. A. S. A. is to be held to-morrow night at 8 o'clock at Room 510, Sayward Building, and several very important matters will come up for discussion. About eight delegates are expected over from Vancouver.

Not Real National Title.
The meeting is expected to endorse the action of President Warren in asking for the Dominion championships. The West never has the chance to let its swimmers go after any Dominion titles owing to the heavy cost of transportation to the Eastern centres. Literally the championships won in the so-called Dominion swimming games are only Eastern titles. The West boasts of many splendid aquatic stars who are at least entitled to a chance to show in the championships, local officials claim. It is proposed to hold the championships, provided they are awarded, at the Gorge during the summer. It is possible that some of the prairie swimmers will be here and some of the Eastern champions may be able to have their clubs finance them on trips to Victoria.

Several other important matters are coming up for discussion. The local branch proposes change of the constitution of the B. C. body. Early last month President Warren sent copies of these changes to the headquarters of the C. A. S. A. in the East, but as usual no reply has been received.

Curry Case To Be Discussed.
The case of Edna Curry will probably cause considerable discussion. Edna was suspended for competing in the Ladies' International Hockey League, when she played games in the intervals between the professional matches. Statements have been made that some of the prairie swimmers will be here and some of the Eastern champions may be able to have their clubs finance them on trips to Victoria.

Arrangements will be made for the British Columbia swimming championships which will be held during the summer.

CANADIAN BOWLERS WORLD'S CHAMPIONS

Saunders, of Toronto, Victor Over 1,000 Teams Which Competed at Buffalo

Toronto, April 1.—Another world's championship has come to Toronto and sportsmen were out in full force yesterday to welcome the Saunders ten-pin team who came to the head honours at the American Bowling Congress tournament at Buffalo.

There were 1,000 teams competing. This is the first time that the bowling championship has been won by a Canadian team.

TAIT GETS DECISION

Milwaukee, Wis., April 1.—Clonie Tait, Canadian lightweight champion, was given a shade verdict over Johnny Mendelsohn, Milwaukee lightweight, in newspaper decisions of a 10-round no-decision boxing contest here Wednesday night.

Blankenship Was Almost Vancouver Victorious In Very Rough Battle

Ottawa Beaten By Millionaires at Six-Man Hockey; Senators Drew Seven Penalties For Bad Work; Smoky Harris Was Butt of Most of Ottawa's Rough Work; Vancouver Was At Full Strength; Score 3-2.

Vancouver, April 1.—Staging one of the most sensational comebacks in the history of the puckchasing sport, fighting along on even terms with their rivals for two periods and then turning in the winning goal in the closing chapter, Vancouver stickhandlers last night pulled even with Ottawa in the 1921 world's series in a wildly exciting puck duel—the most strenuous witnessed in the West in recent years—a battle in which sticks were wielded freely and in which heavy checking featured. The final count was 3-2. It was the third match to be decided by a one-goal margin in the four starts.

On even terms, with two victories each, the teams will clash in the final and deciding match Monday night. The winners will pack the old Stanley Cup in the family locker for the ensuing twelve months.

Plenty of Rough Stuff.
With the Millionaires in full strength and all hands travelling at top speed, the Pacific Coast champions stepped right out from the start, took all the Senators had to hand out and handed it right back, played the visitors at their own game and came through with colors flying high.

It was a wildly exciting affair which developed into a regular Donnybrook in which batting averages soared. There was a regular procession of players to the penalty coop while the Senators ran them selves ragged hopping in and out of the fracas. Ottawa players, seven of them, were chased for a total of 35 minutes, while the Vancouverians had five substitutions made during the proceedings. Two Ottawa penalties were majors. Darragh drew the first one when he tried to talk and later in the game Denney was frisked away when he deliberately rushed Harris from behind and tried to double up the local player with a cross check.

Heaps of Action.
Players on both teams cut loose with heavy checking from the start. They wielded wicked sticks, tripped each other with gay abandon and spills were numerous, stuff bodies, checking sending the puckhandlers into talpains on numerous occasions.

There was more action tossed into the sixty minutes play than in all of the other encounters and with the nine thousand fans in an uproar from the time the puck was thrown into the game until the finish the Vancouverians carried the fight right to the Hoops, outgeneraled them in the pinches and outskated and outchecked for over two-thirds of the distance. Ottawa was always dangerous but marred their play with the penalty timers made the going tough for them. Vancouver played better hockey than the N. H. L. stickhandling brigade but after the first period the game developed into a slam-bang affair and good hockey was only on tap in spots.

Vancouver Scored First.
The Vancouverians found the N. H. L. rules no handicap. They checked everything they possessed into the fight, held their own through a grueling first period and then stepped into the calcium with the first counter which shot their hopes high and although Ottawa tied the score before the finish of the second period, the Millionaires came right back in the last session, skated the visiting folks dizzy and rammed in two drives which found the net. Cook picked off one net, long shot from centre which landed up against the post and rattled into the net behind Benedict, but the other goals were the result of pretty rushes by Duncanson who carried the puck the

Blanks So Thankful.
For a time the immigration people argued that they did not want any more ball players in Victoria, as they had just deported one, Harry Morton, to the other side of the line. However, after about an hour's discussion Cliff was allowed to jaunt down the gangplank and rejoin his family. Cliff is very thankful that the authorities changed their minds as he hates to think what might have happened had he been forced to proceed to Seattle. The fact that he might have dropped into the cold waters of the Sound about midnight last night causes Cliff's teeth to chatter every time he thinks about it.

A Successful Trip.
"I had a mighty successful trip, and have a fine string of players ready to report here between April 5 and 10," said Blankenship this morning. "I have twenty-six players who are ready to report here if we wish to bring them all North. I have given unconditional release to Cy Neighbors, Cy Young, Carman, Cunningham and Zienke, and am now trying to arrange for a trade for Morton."

"We'll have just about as nice a ball club as has been seen in these parts in many years."

COMING BACK TO TWIRL FOR CAPS

Lefty Lawson, who will be one of the best bets on the Victoria pitching squad this summer, according to Manager Blankenship, returned from California this morning. Lawson is in fine shape and has been playing ball for some time in the South. Recently he pitched 30 innings without being scored on.

ELKS SWIMMING CLUB ORGANIZES FOR YEAR

A. T. Weight Again Elected President, With Jimmie Stewart as Secretary

Arrangements for a very active season were completed at the annual meeting of the Elks Swimming Club, which was held last evening in the Elks' Lodge Rooms. There was a fair attendance of members and much interest was evinced in the future activities of the club.

A number of important questions pertaining to future activities of the club were fully discussed and plans for the coming season were laid before the meeting. Although the junior swimming organization in the city, the Elks have one of the largest memberships and are hoping to develop some of the best swimmers in the city. Already several of Victoria's premier swimmers have thrown in their lot with the antierd club and will wear its colors at future galas.

The most important business at last evening's meeting was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Hon. President—M. W. Graham, Exalted Ruler of B. P. O. E.; Hon. Vice-Pres., G. Watson; President, A. T. Weight; Vice-Pres., Miss G. Woods; Secretary, J. Stewart; Treasurer, F. C. Dillabough.

WITH THE BOWLERS
The Wests were returned victors over the Travellers in an exciting game in the City Bowling League last night. Monty West and Art Wilcox broke into the charmed circle with scores of 183 and 119 respectively. Harrows was high in the second game with 155. The Wests won out by 135 pins.

VICTORIA TENNIS CLUB WILL MEET ON MONDAY
The annual meeting of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club will be held on Monday evening next in the Board Room, No. 418 Belmont Building. Every member of the club is urged to be present. The annual report of the president and financial statement of the secretary-treasurer will be read. The election of officers and commit-

Second-Round of Jackson Cup Series On To-morrow

To-morrow's soccer card is arousing more interest than any matches have done here in a long time. The second round of the Jackson Cup series is to be played, and four teams of fairly even calibre are to fight for the right to enter the finals.

The Wests are scheduled to meet the Comrades, while the G. W. V. A. will kick off against the Metropolis eleven. Both games will be staged at the Royal Athletic Park, the Vets and Mets playing first and the Comrades and Wests following.

All teams are keyed up to the limit over the prospects of hard games. They are turning out their strongest elevens.

Wests Improve Line.
The Wests have decided upon their line-up and are not taking any chances. They have tried to improve their forward line, and Sid Sherritt has been shoved up from centre-half to inside right, playing with his brother Jimmie on the wing. The Mets will rely upon their old eleven to slip over a win on the War Vets. The ex-tommies are greatly strengthened for this game, and undoubtedly it will prove to be the stellar attraction of the afternoon. Both teams are fast and aggressive, and there should be little opportunity for slackening the pace. The War-Vets are keen to win. They tramped on Yarrows two weeks ago, and want to repeat to-morrow.

Comrades Uncertainty.
The Comrades are a bit of an uncertainty. They have a real hard cup team to buck against, as the Wests are fairly reliable in championship events. The Comrades, however, have always shown good form, and may spring a surprise by scoring a win over the Wests.

The Wests will line up as follows: Goal, Shandley; backs, Whyte and Copar; half backs, Baker, Muir and Thomas; forwards, J. Sherritt, S. Sherritt, J. Peden, Allan and Mulcahy.

tee for the ensuing year will take place and many other matters of importance are on the agenda for discussion at 8 o'clock prompt.

PRUDHOMME SIZES UP LOCAL BOXERS

Thinks There Is Fine Material in City; Stepped Six Lively Rounds Last Night

Art Prudhomme, the Princess Pat's champion boxer, is greatly puzzled as to why Victoria boxers were not entered for the Canadian Olympic trials last year. Prudhomme has already sparred with four of the V. I. A. boxers: Al Davies, George Corrie, Ted Beales and Harry Pica, and he considers them on a par with the best amateur boxers of the continent. He thinks Al Davies would have been a sure winner at Antwerp in the bantamweight class.

Last evening Prudhomme boxed six fast rounds, three with George Corrie, the V. I. middleweight, and three with Ted Beales, the light-heavyweight boxer. The last bout was fast and furious, both boys travelling at top speed and mixing it up as if a championship were at stake. Prudhomme predicts that Beales will develop into one of the finest lightweights on the continent.

ST. MARY'S AND FIRST CHURCH WINS LAURELS
At the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night the 125-lb. junior basketball championship was won by the First Presbyterians who defeated St. Andrew's with a score of 23 points to 15.

The 135-lb. championship furnished a surprise. St. Mary's, after a hard uphill fight, beating the First Presbyterians by two points, the score being 14-12. The teams were as follows:

V. I. A. BASKETBALL

The V. I. A. Ladies' "B" team experienced no difficulty in decisively defeating the St. Saviour's ladies last evening. The V. I. girls played a splendid game, their combination and shooting being very much superior to that of their opponents. Miss Audrey Griffin, on the Church team, played a great game and if it had not been for her wonderful checking, the score would have been doubled.

Miss Mona Dunn and Mrs. W. H. Davies were the chief point scorers for the winning team, Miss Audrey scoring 10 points and Mrs. Davies 9 points. The final score was: V. I. Ladies, 27; St. Saviour's, 9.

The Senior men's game between St. Saviour's and the Navy resulted in a win for the former, the score being 39 to 18. The sailors played a very skilful game, and with a little more practice in shooting they will round into a first class team.

LAST MINUTE ATTEMPT TO ASSIST MUNICIPALITIES

Municipalities Anxious. The municipalities of the Province are awaiting eagerly any move calculated to relieve their present distress.

NEEDS SENTIMENT PLUS ADVERTISING

Made-in-B. C. Campaign is Bound to Be Success, Says J. F. Scott

Sentiment in favor of home products, linked up with sensible advertising is bound to bring success, said J. F. Scott, President of the Forum of the Chamber of Commerce last night during the discussion of the plans for the Made-in-B. C. campaign.

It was a united and forceful gathering of manufacturers, retailers and consumers that took up the question of bettering conditions in British Columbia following the inspiring speech of B. A. McKelvie, manager of the provincial movement, who explained that the campaign on Vancouver Island would be directed by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

E. J. Palmer pointed out the necessity of Canadians turning out goods at a more reasonable rate. He quoted instances to show that even after paying extra freight and exchange rates the American article could be obtained cheaper than the Canadian.

Manufacturers should make articles and sell them as cheaply as possible. A concern that cannot sell on a better basis than forty per cent. over what articles can be obtained elsewhere needs either readjustment or Government investigation.

Must Meet Consumer. Mr. McKelvie answered that the Campaign was to educate the manufacturer into seeing that he must not capitalize sentiment but must produce at the lowest possible price and he can then honestly expect the consumer to buy.

Mr. Maynard instanced the Leckie shoe, a B. C. product, to show what could be done as the result of quality production and good advertising. The result was that 80 per cent of the school boys demanded Leckie's boots.

Mr. McKelvie replied that it was easy for large and wealthy concerns to advertise heavily, but it was the young industries that needed encouragement, and the whole campaign was to be carried out as economically as possible, consistent with the right kind of service.

Amusement was caused by Mr. McKelvie's remark that though the Government had assisted a mainland concern to start manufacturing ink, it had refused to purchase the home-made product.

Council to pay 3 1/2 per cent. more per foot, simply to protect these manufacturers," he stated.

Pays to Advertise. Mr. Maynard instanced the Leckie shoe, a B. C. product, to show what could be done as the result of quality production and good advertising.

Mr. McKelvie replied that it was easy for large and wealthy concerns to advertise heavily, but it was the young industries that needed encouragement, and the whole campaign was to be carried out as economically as possible, consistent with the right kind of service.

Amusement was caused by Mr. McKelvie's remark that though the Government had assisted a mainland concern to start manufacturing ink, it had refused to purchase the home-made product.

In answer to Mr. Williams of the firm which has taken over the Nag Paint Company, Mr. McKelvie stated that there were eighty manufacturers in Victoria. Mr. Williams claimed that the people of Victoria were too slow in advertising. He expressed a great belief in the benefits to be derived from advertising.

George Bell and J. E. F. Bell were of the opinion that it was necessary to turn out the goods that appealed to the consumer. "Though I reluctantly admit that the Yankees turn out some goods in better style than we do, at the same time we are very disloyal to B. C. goods," said Mr. Bell.

P. B. Scurrell agreed that if manufacturers would put out the right goods and advertise them it would prove a profitable investment. He cited cases of sweaters and suits manufactured in Vancouver and sold in Hamilton and Montreal.

Blames Retailers. J. G. Westgate spoke of the handling of local preserves and thought the local retailers were a little lax in promoting sales of Made-in-B. C. goods.

If a larger output and demand were created, we could sell cheaper," declared Mr. Westgate, and this opinion was voiced by numerous other speakers as well. "The greatest difficulty we have to face to-day is the education of the clerk in the retail store. They know nothing about the goods," it was claimed.

R. W. Mayhew, manager of the Sidney Roofing Company, told of a man buying imported material at $80 a barrel, which is produced and sold here at $30. "I am 150 per cent. for this campaign, as I believe it is beneficial for the manufacturer and the consumer as well," declared Mr. Mayhew.

Mr. McKelvie cited an instance of an inquiry being made of a big local house for a 23-foot material similar to a sample obtained which had been obtained from Eaton's, Winnipeg, and the reply was given that nothing of the sort was manufactured in this Province. The Sidney Roofing people, explained Mr. McKelvie, were turning out a better and a cheaper article than the sample called for. This showed that co-operation was needed.

Robert Clark, of Fairalls, Limited, said that every member of the Chamber of Commerce should take a hand in speeding up the movement.

"We are even carrying on this campaign in Chinatown," said Mr. McKelvie, "because half the goods bought in British Columbia are bought by the Chinese cooks."

A REAL SPORT. A woman heard that her two sons were in the habit, each at separate times, and quite unknown to each other, of taking one of the maids "out for a lark."

Fearing to bring down on their heads the wrath of their father by making a bother about it, she asked them if it were true, but could get no satisfactory answer to her inquiry.

It occurred to her that by a little strategy she might get the truth from the girl, so she said, in a jocular manner: "Now, Mary, I want you to answer me candidly. Which of my sons do you like going out with best—George or Joseph?"

"Well, madam," replied the girl, reassured by her mistress's manner, "if ye maun ken, of the two I like George best; but for a rale downright guid spree, gis me the maister!"

MARRIED MEN ONLY! Street seller: "Here you are, gentlemen, the greatest invention of the age."

Onlooker: "What is it?" Street seller: "A magnetized key-hole plate for front doors. It will attract an ordinary steel key from a distance of two feet. All you have to do to find the keyhole is to take out your key and hang on to it."

(Three men were injured in the crowd that rushed to buy.)

Women Oppose Proposed Raise For Members

Strong resentment at the action of the Legislature in planning to raise the salaries and indemnities of members and ministers was expressed at a specially-called meeting of the executive of the Women's Independent Political Association to-day.

Attention was drawn to the fact that the step had been contemplated in the face of the Government's recent refusal to give greater assistance towards the relief of distress caused by unemployment in the province, than by way of a loan of nearly half a million dollars to the municipalities, while not one cent had been given outright for this purpose.

One member pointed out that by its action, the Legislature was proposing to expend an extra $48,000 per annum for the benefit of 47 members out of a population of 200,000 in the province, at a time when men were walking the streets looking for work and their families facing starvation. Only recently the salaries of Government employees working on the reserve were cut by $1 per day.

The opinion was also freely expressed that the action of the Legislature was particularly deserving of censure in view of its erstwhile 67 1/2 per cent of economy when approached for assistance for various urgent causes, such as the support of hospitals, and several members passed scathing comment upon the force of the example set by the Legislature in raising salaries at a time when reductions was the key-note in every other walk of life.

The sentiments of the meeting were crystallized into a strong resolution of censure which will be sent out to the various women's organizations throughout the province for endorsement.

A REAL MOWGLI. Remarkable Story From the Northeast Frontier of India.

In the undeveloped country round the Cachar Hills on the North-East frontier of India says the London Times, it is customary for villagers to mend roads instead of paying taxes and on a recent occasion when Stewart Baker, F. Z. S., who is in charge of road-mending there, asked a villager to do his share of work, the man told him that he was afraid to leave his village. His wife having died a short time before, his little wild son might run into the jungle and get lost.

This aroused Mr. Baker's curiosity. He paid the villager a visit, and found a child of about seven years of age, with innumerable white scars of tiny cuts and scratches all over its body. He learnt from the father that five years before the village of Cachar had killed two leopard cubs. The mother leopard had prowled about the jungle bordering on the village. A few days later the villager's wife left her child on a cloth and reaped price, and the leopard took the child away. The villagers searched for it, but failed to find it. About three years after a sportsman killed a leopard, mentioning it to the villagers that the dead leopard had two cubs. The villagers searched the jungle and found the two cubs and a wild human boy. Every one recognized in the latter the village's lost child. It ran on all fours almost as fast as a big man, dodged and hid in bushes most cleverly, bit and fought with every one who tried to catch it, and tore its pieces and ate with extraordinary rapidity any village fowl which came its way.

"Kipling's 'Jungle Book' describes a naked brown baby lost in the jungle and rescued by a wolf from the jaws of Shere Khan, the tiger. The "man-cub" is borne to a cave, suckled by the Mother Wolf, and given the name of Mowgli (the Frog). Mowgli is after much discussion, adopted into the Pack, and is allowed to run with them and share their life unharmed.

The old lady sat on the hotel veranda watching the children play. Presently a boy came up to her. His hands were full of walnuts.

"Can you crack nuts?" he asked. "The old lady smiled sadly. 'I'm afraid I can't,' she said, 'I lost all my teeth years ago. I do so wish—' Then hold these while I get some more," said the boy.

O'Connell's Brings Down Clothing Prices

The day of high prices for clothing seems to have gone. We hope never to return. This new era of lower clothing prices is observable at this store to a marked degree, for we were COMPELLED to purchase clothing—when prices were at their lowest—in order to build up our stock after the disastrous fire which occurred in our store premises last Fall. The result is that to-day we are first in the field with NEW CLOTHING AT NEW PRICES. In order to make known the fact that there has been a tremendous cut in clothing prices we will commence on Saturday morning

A Ten-Day Price-Reduction Sale

The new prices which we have marked our clothing at this Spring have been still further reduced. We want the public to know that PRICES ARE REALLY DOWN TO A REASONABLE LEVEL, therefore we are sacrificing our profits for the next ten days in order to bring this fact home to every man in Victoria.

GOVERNOR SUNK AFTER CALL HERE

Ill-fated Admiral Liner Delayed Northbound; 59 Passengers Landed.

The fates were against the Admiral liner Governor which last night was sunk in collision with the United States Shipping Board freighter West Hartland off Point Willeming and San Francisco, running six hours behind schedule, owing to heavy weather encountered on the trip from California ports.

Had the Admiral liner made this port on time she would have made the run into Puget Sound before darkness set in.

Three Hours Out. As it was the Governor left this port at 9:30 o'clock last night and was about three hours out when the disastrous collision occurred off Port Townsend.

Dirty Passage. Captain Baggett on arrival here last night reported meeting with head seas practically throughout the trip, and under the adverse weather conditions the Governor was unable to reef off her customary clip during the run from San Francisco.

Disembarked Here. Fifty-seven first-class passengers and two steerage left the ship here after she berthed at the Outer Docks.

The following passengers were routed from Wilmington to Victoria. Mrs. E. Rubino, Rose Appleburn, Margaret M. Merkle, F. B. Jacques, Mrs. Jacques, H. MacKenzie, Bernice Des Brisay, O. W. Benjamin, James S. Walker, Mrs. W. A. Jennings, A. Mead, J. T. Beattie, George A. Watson, Mrs. Watson, B. F. Braslier, Margaret Kerr, Mrs. M. Lord, Jessie Choate, Mrs. J. Sutherland, Eleanor Reid, Josephine Field.

The above is the only Victoria list available at the offices of R. P. Rithet & Co., local agents for the Admiral Line.

Nothing is known at the local offices regarding the San Francisco passengers for Victoria, as the list left here had no reference to the names of people who boarded the liner at San Francisco for British Columbia.

Routed to Seattle. The following first class passengers were routed to Seattle: From San Francisco for Seattle: J. Murka, A. G. Heunusch, Mrs. Vivian Heunisch, Miss Barbara Heunisch, Agnes McLaughlin, E. H. Curtis, Miss E. H. Marshall, Hilda Swanson, Dorothy Tovey, F. Ditty, Mrs. Netty Ditty, Raye Sutton, Mrs. R. Five Boarded Here. Five people boarded the Governor at Victoria for Seattle, but they were not traveling as passengers. They were Carl Taylor and Lester A. Brockwell, traveling passenger agents for the Southern Pacific Lines; U. S. Customs Officer Strawbridge, M. Burton, of the Admiral Line, and O. T. Goldsmith, Outer Wharf, well known in shipping circles here.

Mr. Goldsmith was among the passengers landed from the West Hartland this morning at Seattle. Mrs. Goldsmith about noon received a telegraphic message from Mr. Goldsmith announcing that he was "safe and sound."

Nothing is known at the local offices regarding the San Francisco passengers for Victoria, as the list left here had no reference to the names of people who boarded the liner at San Francisco for British Columbia.

Routed to Seattle. The following first class passengers were routed to Seattle: From San Francisco for Seattle: J. Murka, A. G. VICTORIA AGENT TO REPRESENT LINE ON ORIENTAL TOUR

Fred O. Finn, of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, to Sail by Wenatchee

Among the large party of travelers sailing by the Pacific Company's new passenger liner Wenatchee on her maiden voyage to the Far East, will be Fred O. Finn, Victoria agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, who will make a thorough study in the interests of the big American railroad corporation. Mr. Finn will look into business conditions in the Far Eastern countries chiefly from the standpoint of trade development and transportation, making a comprehensive report to his company on the results of his tour upon his return in June.

Elaborate Itinerary. The itinerary of the tour covers a very wide field. It includes Manila, Hongkong, Cebu, Singapore, Saigon, Haiphong, Yokohama, Kobe, Osaka, Nagoya, and Tokyo. On the return voyage Mr. Finn will sail from Yokohama June 17 by the liner Fushimi Maru, arriving back here June 30. Mr. Finn's office is in the local office of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, well known to Victorians.

Montreal, April 1.—The C. P. O. S. announces 120 sailings to Montreal during the coming St. Lawrence season, and prospects are that there will be few vacancies on the third class deck. What with widespread unemployment and a reign of terror in Ireland, the Canadian immigration authorities are overwhelmed with applications. For the first time Canada is in a position to select her settlers, and very many are called but few are chosen.

Returning to this coast from her maiden voyage to the United Kingdom, the Coughlin steamship City of Victoria, B.C., is expected to arrive at the Victoria wharf on Monday next and will complete her cargo here and at Genoa Bay.

Local agents of the Pacific Steamship Company are of the opinion that to-morrow's schedule sailing for San Francisco will be cancelled, as it is not expected that a boat will be available at such short notice to take the place of the S.S. Governor, sunk at midnight in collision with the freighter West Hartland off Point Wilson.

Arriving from the Orient, the N. Y. K. steamship Tatsuno Maru picked up a pilot off the breakwater at 8 o'clock this morning and proceeded to Vancouver. The Tatsuno Maru had 2,500 bales of raw silk in her cargo.

OLD COUNTRY NEWS

A set of twelve Williams and Mary high-backed chairs, the property of Mrs. Whitmore Jones, of Chastleton, Gloucestershire, were sold for £740 (Houghton) at Messrs. Sotheby's.

In consequence of the refusal of Jersey States to adopt the scale of salaries proposed by the original education committee, the staff of the Victoria High School on Saturday tendered their resignations.

An unframed portrait of George Washington, by Gilbert Stuart, the Anglo-American artist aroused considerable interest at a sale at Christie's. The portrait, which belonged to an unnamed owner, was bought by E. Selwyn for £160 guineas.

The death has taken place, at Hford, of Henry Munday, who was for fifty years on the printing staff of the Times. He joined the paper as a boy, and when he retired some years ago held the position of overseer in one of the printing departments. Mr. Munday was eighty-three years of age.

The barriers erected in front of Government offices in and near Downing-street were removed on Monday. They were placed in position after the collapse of a wall on the occasion of the unemployed demonstration a few months ago. The wall has now been restored.

A mountain is on the move at Trevelyan, near the old town of Rhymney, South Wales, and great damage to property is reported. Walls of dwelling-houses are cracking up, and a publichouse is in danger of collapse. The railway, gas, and water services are seriously affected. At one point a road has sunk 1ft. 9in.

The death is announced, at Tenthredon, Mid-Lathian, of Mrs. Cameron Miller, a daughter of the late Mr. Cameron, of the pen firm of Macdonald and Cameron. Mrs. Cameron Miller was widely known throughout Scotland as an artist under the name of Mary Cameron. She spent many years in Spain, and many of her pictures portray life in that country. She was also fond of painting animals.

VARIETY

Just how far in the wrong direction may a woman go and then retrieve through her better sense? A big question which makes an interesting story in "A Slave of Vanity," the screen version of "Iris," by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's great drama, in which Pauline Frederick makes her debut as a Robertson-Cole star. This finished picture, directed by Henry Otto, is now showing at the Variety Theatre. The story opens showing Pauline Frederick as Iris Bellamy, a hothouse plant of the upper strata of life, who is a victim of the strange will of her lately-deceased husband, which provides that she shall sacrifice her entire fortune should she marry again. Besieged by admirers, she at last falls a prey to the crafty deception of a wealthy man of affairs, with the result that her social prestige is swept away and she is hurried into the abyss of wasted lives, where her former friends can only visit her at the risk of their own reputations.

THE MISERY OF BACKACHE

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Meaford, Ont.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache, and I also had a female weakness. I felt dizzy and nervous, and was without energy. I had to force myself to do my work, and was always tired. Saw a Pinkham advertisement which induced me to take the Vegetable Compound, and my back gradually stopped aching and I felt lighter in spirits. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound with pleasure to all I meet who complain as I did."—Mildred Brook, Meaford, Ont.

The one which she should most treasure is her health, but she often neglects to do so in season until some ailment peculiar to her sex has fastened itself upon her. When so affected, women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has been wonderfully successful in restoring health to suffering women.

Medical authorities are commencing to recognize the danger of the flood of literature which has come into the market on the subject of the care of babies. The danger is not in the information contained in the many volumes but in the various ways in which beneficial results are obtained.

A modern Dick Turpin of society, who is first aided and then, followed by a frail sapper, is one of the principal figures of "Risky Business," in which Gladys Walton is starring at the Romano Theatre to-day and to-morrow. The more adventurous and daring criminals have always had a glamor or fascination about them, appealing alike to writers and readers of fiction. The polished adventures in this story by Douglas Doty and John Colton is enough of the ordinary to establish himself as a distinct type in cinema crookdom. Played by Louis Willoughby, he arrives at Palm Beach with authentic credentials from a society leader in England. Accompanied by his valet, he is correct in every detail of social usage, and in the seclusion of his room plans the coup that is to net him and his confederate a fortune. The almost priceless rope of pearls worn by his hostess is the object of his prey, and he actually has the assistance of the young daughter of the house in his exploit.

Vancouver Kiwanis Glee Club Heralded With Sustained Merriment

"Nothing succeeds like success" runs the old adage, and judging by the success of the Glee Club of the Vancouver Kiwanians in their minstrel show—the fame should be increasing by leaps and bounds. The local Kiwanians are now busy disposing of tickets for a minstrel show to be staged by their Vancouver fellow members, when that Glee Club will entertain a local audience on Wednesday next with two and a half hours of the most side-splitting variety of merriment and clean witicism.

At one of their first performances in Vancouver this talented band of minstrels produced a gate receipt for $1,000. The local committee of the magnificent sum of $1,071, and since that time have been urged to repeat their performance for a large number of different bodies on the mainland.

That news of their fame is not confined to the mainland but has spread to the Vancouver entertainers' general performers at the Nanaimo Minstrel show which was such an outstanding success last night in Nanaimo. The people of Nanaimo are willing to laugh at the occasion, and the performance was one of the stellar occasions, many of the stellar occasions being reduced to a stage of incapacity that was truly infectious.

At the Nanaimo entertainment last night two Victorians assisted, Messrs. J. H. and J. W. Brown, of the local committee, in a sketch called the Parisian Escamotour, which was wonderfully well presented and a delight to the audience. The local committee of the Kiwanis Club handling the sale of tickets are finding no difficulty in obtaining a very ready sale for their program, and the success of the local entertainment is now well assured.

Laughter, medical advisers tell us, is one of the very best preservatives and remedial medicines that can be used to alleviate the suffering of that quaint individual usually referred to as the "tired business man" and if the controlled laughter of medical advisers is to be treated with the seriousness that is its due, the "tired business man" is a man who has been affected the tired business man for many a long, long day. Charles Royal leader of the troupe, with his talented violinist, and great bristles of hair on all occasions in the Terminal City, and the local committee is looking for a thoroughly successful event on the evening of Wednesday, April 6.

AT ROYAL NEXT WEEK

The attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre beginning to-day will be "Dinty," in which young Wesley Barry makes his bow to the picture-loving public in his first actual starring vehicle. "Dinty" is a story all Neilan, who also wrote the story himself.

Musical Prodigy Has Now Become Leading Violinist

Kathleen Parlow, the famous woman violinist, will be welcomed by many friends and admirers when she appears at the Empress Hotel on Monday next.

Miss Parlow is a Canadian by birth, claiming Calgary as her home city. Even as a very young child, she showed remarkable aptitude for the violin, and began her musical training at an early age. So remarkable was her talent that she was taken to Petrograd, to study under Leopold Auer, master of so many famous violinists. After eighteen months' tutelage under Auer, the young artist started upon her first continental tour.

One of Portland's prominent musicians happened to be studying in Berlin when Miss Parlow made her debut there.

A Critical Audience

"I remember the concert hall was crowded with critical musicians and music students that night," she said, in telling of the event. "For the fame of Kathleen Parlow's playing had preceded her. It could hardly be called a sympathetic audience, but it was an audience that knew good playing.

HAROLD LLOYD IS FAMOUS COMEDIAN

Is Now One of the Highest Paid Screen Artists in the World

Just a year ago Paul Brunet, of Pathe, announced he would star Harold Lloyd in a series of two-reel comedies. Lloyd had been making good comedies—in fact excellent comedies. But there was a good deal of slapstick, knock-down and drag-out in them. In those early days (two or three years ago) it was believed that anything more refined than a hot horsehoe applied to the bottom of the trousers would wrap over the head with a beer bottle, or a display of some other physical discomfit or distress would "get over" with the dear public.

Two Essentials

Pathe decided to set a new standard in screen farce-comedy. They declared for a genuine humor, based on comic plot, and situation. The requirements were stipulated by the producers: The photoplays must be funny—screamingly funny, if possible—from start to finish. And they must be clean. No suggestive, vulgar or indecent action would be tolerated. They were determined to demonstrate that motion picture public really wanted wholesome entertainment.

Still, it was something of an experiment, and, sensibly enough, Lloyd agreed to work for what was a modest salary for a man of his box office power. He realized that his contract gave him every opportunity in the world to "make good." And Pathe realized that it also had something to do. Everybody "got busy."

Lloyd dropped slapstick like a hot potato. He made his bow as a clean-shaven, well-tailored, rather scholarly-looking young man wearing large, shell-rimmed spectacles—such a lad you may see on the Yale or Harvard campus every day in the school year. He secured blonde, sweet-faced Mildred Davis as his leading woman. Then things began to happen to them. They were involved in all sorts of ludicrous difficulties, provided in the story material. And, like the skilled raconteur of witty jokes, each keeps a serious face through it all and allows the audience to enjoy its laugh at their expense.

"Dropping Into Broadway," their first release, bore a prophetic title. It was a sure-fire hit. Lloyd promptly bumped into every big theatre on Broadway and on the rival of every other city. "Captain Kiddie," "From Hand to Mouth," "His Royal Snyiness," "An Eastern Westerner," "Haunted Spooks," "High and Dizzy," "Get Out and Get Under" followed in rapid succession—each funnier than its predecessor. "High and Dizzy"

These features have established Harold Lloyd. He takes first place in the ranks of screen comedians. His pictures have proven that sanitary stories, framed with a maximum of ingenuity for "getting the laughs," are what picture audiences want and need. Healthy, happy-hearted laughter is the tonic par excellence. The public has shown its appreciation and gratitude in patronage. The producers have scored over their competitors. And, incidentally, Lloyd has received a tremendous amount of merited publicity.

All this time the comedian has been heart and soul in his work. He has been patient. He has been willing to bide his time. He has not been nagging for more salary, although he has become a tremendous box-office asset; nor has he been threatening to break his contract, although many have tried to "buy him away." He has been just as fair and square and white and decent as a man could possibly be. And now comes his reward—at the end of a year, mind you.

The Associated Exhibitors are banded together to promote certain big productions which they believe picture fans have "coming to them." They sponsored "The Riddle: Woman," with Geraldine Farrar, and are back of "The Devil," in which George Arliss will make his debut before the motion picture public. They have had an eye on Lloyd for a long time. Finally they said: "It's high time Lloyd was the highest paid comedian in the world. Suppose we take him under our widespread wing. They proceeded to make him a proposition which suited him "right down to the ground." From now on the money and the glory will be split three ways, Lloyd coming in for his proper share. Under his new contract he is to receive $250,000 for every photoplay accepted by the Associated Exhibitors. The Rolin Film Company will continue to make the pictures. Pathe will continue to release them. The Exhibitors feel that they have done a good deed, so everyone is "perickly happy," thank you!

Under New Contract

Lloyd's last comedy under his old contract is one of the best, "Number, Please!" features a love-sick swain who can eliminate his rival only by communicating with his adored one's "Momma" about a certain matter at a given time. He attempts to do this at a nickel-in-the-slot telephone station. Anyone who has tried to transact any important business over a pay-station telephone can readily imagine our hero's predicament.

In a lecture delivered in Paris, General Gouraud said there were 200,000 natives of the Lebanon who spoke French. He announced that it was proposed to hold an exhibition of French wares at Beirut in April.

Says Present Reserves on Coal Land Keep Up Price of Coal to the Consumer

Government Has Question Under Investigation; Urge Province Should Get More Results From Mining Development Work.

Assertions by W. J. Bowser, K.C., Leader of the Opposition, that the Government's policy of maintaining reserves on coal areas is helping to keep up the price of coal to the consumer were answered in the Legislature yesterday afternoon by the announcement of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, that the Government had the whole coal reserve question under consideration and might change the present system as a result of investigations now under way.

While he realized that the operating coal companies of the Province, in view of their large investment, must be protected, Mr. Bowser held that every inducement should be held out to other companies to develop coal areas. Such development, he asserted, was impossible under the present policy of the Government in keeping coal lands under reserve. These reserves stifled competition, and as long as they remained the country was faced with the question of whether or not the coal dealers' profits were excessive.

Perpetuates Monopoly.

"The policy is a mistaken one," he went on, "and I would like to know from the Minister whether he considers it has been a good policy and to what extent it has developed better conditions and whether the Government still feels that the reserves should be maintained. Unless you allow any person to locate coal areas you will never reduce the price of coal to the consumer because you perpetuate the monopoly of those companies at present operating and shipping coal. I have not yet seen a reason that would justify me in changing my opinion that this placing of reserves on coal lands is a backward step which would close up valuable areas of coal for centuries in the future as during centuries in the past."

Should Allow Development.

As the Government was not in a position to develop coal areas, private individuals, he urged, should be given an opportunity to do so. In view of the present agitation of coal consumers against high prices and the resulting formation of a commission to investigate coal profits, Mr. Bowser considered it high time that people should be allowed once more to go out and strike coal lands. In this way it might be possible to reduce the price of coal to the consumer.

Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, while pointing out that the question of coal areas did not come under his department, doubted that the lifting of coal reserves would result in any immediate development.

Investigating Question.

Mr. Pattullo explained that coal leases had become very complicated and reserves had been placed on coal lands so that the whole matter could be cleared up. In view of the alienation of large coal areas it had been deemed advisable to take stock of the areas still left.

Consideration is being given by the Government to coal areas and also to oil areas," Mr. Pattullo added.

As a result of this investigation new legislation on the subject might be recommended at the next session of the House, he intimated.

J. M. Yorston, Liberal Member for Cariboo, thought that the present

Should Get More For Mining Work. A long debate, featured by political ### charges, was provoked by appropriations for mining development while estimates were under review.

Frederick Anderson, Liberal Member for Kamloops, thought that the Government, when it assisted the development of mining properties by road building and drilling, should get more for its efforts than the return of twice its investment. If the mining development proved successful the Government should be given an interest in the mines, he thought.

This brought R. H. Pooley, Conservative Member for Esquimalt, to his feet with the assertion that the Government had paid out $47,000 on the development of the "Snowstorm" group of claims, the property of Stuart Henderson.

Mr. Sloan claimed that the "Snowstorm" group contained twenty-three properties which were being developed under an asset of great value to the Province.

Lots of Money For Good Liberals. "There's no money for the unemployed, but lots for Stuart Henderson and other good Liberals," Samuel Guthrie, Socialist Member for Newcastle, complained. He strongly objected to the practice of handing out money to such corporations as good Liberals may be interested in.

Government Should Get Increase.

After Mr. Sloan had read reports to show the value of the "Snowstorm" group, Mr. Pooley urged that the Government, for its efforts to develop the property, should get a substantial share in the mine. The risk taken by the Government should entitle the people of the Province to at least half the mine, he thought.

Province can afford this sort of thing," said David Whiteside, Liberal Member for New Westminster.

"We're all familiar with the enthusiastic optimism of mining men. I would suggest that we confine ourselves to building roads and trails and keep away from drilling on private properties."

Should Help Prospectors.

W. K. Esling, Conservative Member for Rossland, criticised the Government for assisting producing mines and failing to assist prospectors who needed help far more than did wealthy corporations. If prospectors were assisted development of mining properties would be more rapid, he held.

"There has never been a request by a prospector for proper assistance approved by the resident engineer which has been turned down," Mr. Sloan replied.

J. M. Yorston, Liberal Member for Cariboo, thought that the present system tended to assist the prospector to the greatest possible extent.

Political Charges.

Stuart Henderson had taken a very active part in the last election campaign in Fort George, Mr. Bowser charged. "Well might he do so because he had a friend at court, and because they would keep developing his mining property for him," he added. "There are other politicians who will give the Government support if they know that public moneys are going to be spent in this way."

The Minister of Mines, he declared, was "throwing good money after bad."

In developing mines "under ground" contrary to the intention of the Act, the Minister, he said, had no assurance that the "Snowstorm" mine was a good security.

Need Aggressive Mining Policy.

Mr. Sloan claimed that his Department was carrying out the policy intended by the Act, and he emphasized that development of mining resources was essential if British Columbia was to become a great Province. If the previous Government had spent less money on expensive buildings and a railway that led nowhere, and more on mining development, the Province might be better off to-day, he remarked.

The last few years, he pointed out, had seen the development of such valuable properties as the "Premier," "Engineer," "Surf Inlet," "Dolly Varden" mines, and only recently the Canadian Pacific Railway had determined to prospect the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway belt with a view to its development.

ITALIAN MUSICIAN TO HAVE STUDIO LOCATED HERE

Cav. C. di Castri, Mus. Doc., Locates Here

The opening of a studio by Cav. C. Di Castri, Music Doc., in Victoria, at 1907 Government Street, brings to Victorians an Italian musical education at home, with the recognized standard in singing, generally known as "Il Bel Canto."

Cav. C. Di Castri is a native of Italy, where he began and completed his musical studies. His mother was a pianist, and an intimate friend of the famous Adelina Patti. He began his study of the piano at the age of six years, and at the age of thirteen entered St. Pietro a Mailella, the Royal College of Music in Naples, Italy. Here he studied the piano, singing and composition, with such famous instructors as Platania, De Nardis, Serras, Romanello, Magrini, etc. St. Pietro a Mailella, begun under the control of the National Department of Education, requires an equal literary and classical education with every musical degree granted. Cav. Di Castri's unremitting studies secured for him the college certificate, or "Licenza Liceale."

His Scholastic Career.

His first composition was a "Madrigale" for four voices, dedicated to E. Platania, Director of the College. The Milan Musical Review said: "Though of a modern character, it is modelled on the Polyphonic style of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries." It was sung for the first time before the public by the Choral department of the college.

At the age of eighteen, he became conductor at High-Mass of an orchestra of sixty, including the choir, at the cathedral of his native city, on the 8th day of December, 1906. During his studies at the aforesaid college he obtained the degree of Master of Music, or "Licenza e Magistero," and the honor of Gold Medalist, was conferred upon him.

In recognition of his talent the college appointed him Professor of Physiology and Pedagogy of Singing. Inspired by the "Neapolitan Muse," he composed during this period several songs of a popular type. Later on he was appointed examiner of the Singers Bureau of one of the leading Italian opera houses—"Petrusilli."

He studied in Rome with Mascagni, and took his post graduate degree. During this time he composed several numbers of classical character, and was awarded a gold medal by Queen Margherita, in appreciation of a musical composition.

The position of a regimental bandmaster was entrusted to his talent. But observing the success of some of his colleagues on this continent, he decided to leave Italy for North America.

In Canada

In this country Cav. Di Castri has spent most of his time in teaching. During the world war he joined the Canadian Army as Lieut.-Bandmaster of the 218th Battalion. He was complimented by Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, while in Edmonton, upon the progress made by the band under his leadership, and Sir Robert expressed a desire to meet Cav. Di Castri. Cav. Di Castri has spent a little over two years in Vancouver.

Caruso Pleased

Last year while in New York, Cav. Di Castri submitted an outline of his special manner of teaching, according to the individual requirement of the student, to Signor E. Caruso, the world-famed tenor, who expressed himself greatly pleased.

Cav. Di Castri is now working on the translation into English of some of his theoretical productions published in the Italian language, especially a "Treatise of Practical Harmony."

BRITISH ADDRESS BY EDUCATIONALIST

Dr. Suzzallo Speaks on Anglo-Saxon Ideals

Under the auspices of the Victoria College, Dr. Suzzallo, President of the University of Washington, Seattle, last night delivered an eloquent address on some phases of the Anglo-Saxon, and their ideals. Over 200 students, with their parents, and a representative gathering of the leading educationalists in Victoria were present for the address.

E. B. Paul, Principal of the Victoria College, briefly introduced Dr. Suzzallo, with a brief resume of his noted achievements.

His "Spiritual" Ancestry. "I am glad, as an American, to be speaking to a Canadian audience," stated Dr. Suzzallo, in opening. "America may not be part of the British Empire, but because of the deep underlying ideals it is part of the great English-speaking races. There is not a single drop of Anglo-Saxon blood in my veins, but thank God I can choose my spiritual and political ancestry, and I have chosen the Anglo-Saxon ideals for my ancestry."

"I wish to speak to you on Anglo-Saxon Ideals."

"Out of the ethics of British History we can see a careful blend of idealism and Realism making the whole efficient. There are a number of political elements in the British Empire, a number of seemingly opposite and radical political fields of thought, but let me tell you they are balanced by the Athenian sense balanced into a careful mixture of idealism and realism, a blend that makes the composite result efficient."

A Tolerant People. "The Anglo-Saxon people are rated as a people of great tolerance, yet too they must be intolerant to preserve their existence for as long as they have. Complete tolerance would lead to license and abuse of the English-speaking races. They are in habit and in battle the most stubborn people in the world, but stubborn only when there is no principle that will apply. We are ruled by principle in the sense that where there is a principle to follow we will not swerve from that, and there is a very real consistency on the other hand it is balanced consistency in the Athenian sense, tolerance and intolerance, realism and idealism making the whole effective."

"The opposite extremes of political thought in the Anglo-Saxon race are not truly opposed, but merely are the same great circle and the adherence to principle is the making of the Golden Mean of political thinking of the Anglo-Saxon."

No nation in the world loves freedom more, and no nation is so jealous of the rights of the individual, we are a tolerant people believing in giving every man rein to express his ideas, yet not tolerant of the intolerant who would not have existed so long. Tolerance alone would degenerate into license.

Atmosphere of Law and Order. "Why is it we have not seen the ideals that govern us. It is like the air we breathe, we never miss fresh air until it is taken away from us, and we struggle for breath. We are living in a political atmosphere of law and order that is one of the most sacred privileges of history. It happens to our political atmosphere that we appreciate greatly, and temporarily, our great privilege of law and order. We appreciated it in Winnipeg for a little while, and we appreciated it again in Seattle, for three weeks. Guaranteed integrity to govern with law and order is one of the traditions of our race."

"What group of nations has ever fostered ideals of personal obligation more so than the Anglo-Saxon races? A great many nations do, many of the Latins think we are inconsistent, and sometimes hypocritical, yet they see taking notice of our personal obligations, sometimes with great self sacrifice."

Opposite Arcs of Circle. "On the other hand they see us compelling law and order with force, and they think we are inconsistent, but we are not, it is a carefully balanced blend of tolerance and intolerance making for efficiency and moderation of the whole—the opposite arcs of the same circle."

Dr. Suzzallo here dealt with some phases of group psychology to illustrate a further point. One is never the same person, all people are to different degrees, he contended—unconsciously an attitude is assumed with every new group met.

"One of the great dangers facing England and the United States today under the majority system of government is that a sub-stratum of the populace is not getting its vertical philosophy of home—but getting it horizontally from outside—Russia and even Germany."

"Some people contend that the inherent discipline of the race will save us—there is no such thing as a saving discipline. Liberty and law have gone together always with personal freedom and personal uprightiness. Don't forget as you march towards democracy that you will not escape control of some power."

Tyranny of the Crowd. "As we approach monarchy we approach discipline that becomes more and more internal—more and more the ideals of conscience, and less and less obedience to follow man. Of all the tyrannies that are hated by the Anglo-Saxon race will be in the future the tyranny of the crowd—as we have hated the tyranny of the despot in the past."

Dr. Suzzallo here enunciated five main principles of the Anglo-Saxon races which briefly were: That in freedom of democracy it must be remembered that freedom meant obedience to ideals rather than to man; That government of the people, by the people was ineffective unless everyone remembered that it was mainly government for the people that constituted democracy; That democracy arrived through the intellectual growth of a people by rational discussion, not agitation or licensed "free speech"; wise adherence to our traditions of leadership, men well chosen and well followed; and finally the wise blend of tolerance and intolerance that made for moderate and efficient control.

Your Dollar Is Bigger In Importance At Any Of Our 38 Quality Tailor Shops—Every Garment Made To Individual Measure

ENGLISH & Scotch Woollen Co. Tailored-to-Measure Suits & Overcoats are tremendous values; they are good clothes and are worth a great deal more than our Standardized Prices.

Not a pattern or weave is ever offered to the public until we are sure the cloth will give long service and satisfactory wear, that is why the wheels of our big tailor shops keep going full speed without intermission.

Every garment we make is to individual measure for the man who orders it, the style is the one that the individual likes and the fit of the clothes are as nearly perfect as clothes can be made. Our Tailoring is honest and will give the best of service.

Suits and Overcoats Tailored-To-Your-Measure

WE do not believe that in all the land there is another concern that is offering Clothes the equal of our Tailored-to-Measure Garments from materials as fine as we are showing and workmanship of like quality at prices that are within 100 per cent of our Known Standardized Prices.

In all fairness to yourself you should visit one of our 38 Quality Tailor Shops—in that way you will know that no other concern can or does offer such tremendous values as we do. Seeing is believing—you had best see our fabrics before making an investment. Let us take your measure today.

LADIES—Do you want good quality materials for your new dress or suit? We have thousands of yards to be sold as low as $2.75 per yard. This is 1/2 regular price; width 54 and 56 inches. This is an exceptional opportunity to get materials of better quality than is usually found in women's fabrics. Take care of the children's needs.

Trousers—We are showing exceptional values in odd trousers from special trouser lengths. Many of these clothes are shown in very limited quantities, and are exceptional values.

WILLIE'S WARNING

A golfer was returning from the links when he saw his bus just ready to start. He was about to board it when a woman hailed him from a near-by house.

"Here, mister!" she cried.

He hesitated a moment, and the bus was gone, so he shouldered his heavy golf-bag and made towards the house.

The woman's head had disappeared from the window, but he could still hear her in an upper room calling "Here, mister!"

After considering whether he should leave, he loaded bag downstairs or take it up with him, he decided on the former, and toiled up numerous flights of stairs.

When he reached the top of the house the woman said, "Won't you?"

"Won't I what?" asked the golfer.

"Won't you take Willie away in your bag if he is not a good boy?"

The origin of the happenings being discussed, the representatives of different nations eagerly disclaiming responsibility for the atrocity. Finally an Irishman said, "Well, I'll tell you the truth about it. The Irish invented it and sold it to the Scotch as a joke; and the Scotch ain't seen the joke yet!"—The Watchman-Examiner (New York).

A CHALLENGE TO DR. E. HALL.

To the Editor:—Re the report of the inaugural session of the city Police Commissioners in The Daily Times on March 28, 1921. Dr. Ernest Hall, referring to Detective Victor Heather, asks the question: "Was not this detective charged publicly before some 500 people with being a liar and a perjurer? I would like to ask Dr. Hall to state through the press, when, where and by whom this accusation was made, also the exact words contained in the accusation, together with the incident which led the accuser to make this statement.

I challenge Dr. Hall to turn his inquiry question into a frank statement of the facts, and give the opportunity of defending myself.

V. HEATHER.
3559 Marine Drive, Point Grey, B. C., March 30, 1921.

A CORRECTION.

To the Editor:—The report of the committee in charge of the Home for the Aged and Infirm, dealing with the bequest of the late Daniel Eustace, erroneously stated that the said Mr. Eustace was a former inmate.

This statement does a grievous injustice to the memory of Mr. Eustace and is calculated to be embarrassing to his many friends. His relationship to the home was confined to that of friend and benefactor of the inmates. He always took the kindest interest in their welfare during his lifetime, and made suitable arrangements for a continuation of his benefactions after his decease.

The report in question was prepared in good faith by the permanent officials of the Council, who join with the committee in an expression of sincere regret for the most unfortunate error.

May we take this opportunity to appeal to other citizens to follow the splendid example set by Mr. Eustace. The committee have it in their hearts to do much more for the aged and infirm in their care than the present financial state of the municipality will permit. If private citizens will be good enough to co-operate with the committee many comforts can be added to the declining years of the inmates.

E. S. WOODWARD,
Chairman, Home Committee,
City Hall, Victoria, B. C., March 31, 1921.

BOY SCOUTS PROGRESS.

To the Editor:—As this association has received a fair amount of support from the public in the way of donations and subscriptions during the year 1920, it is felt that the general public should be acquainted with the way in which their money has been spent. With this idea in view the association balance sheet for the eleven months ending December 31, 1920; February 1, 1920, being the date upon which the association opened its office and commenced to pay an organizational secretary.

It will be observed that there was a considerable deficit at the end of the year, and consequently the association was unable to give as much assistance to the Local Troops and Packs as it would like to have done.

Although three months of the New Year have already passed, this deficit is still very much in existence, and it is in the hands of the association to make good this deficit. The lowest figure that the association can work on is two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per annum, it is felt that in order to carry on the work successfully the association should have headquarters in which the different Troops and Packs could meet, which would require another two thousand dollars ($2,000) to fully equip and maintain. These are the lowest figures, but more is required if the movement is to expand.

With the exception of the paid officers at headquarters all the other workers are voluntary, and to run a Troop or Pack requires a certain amount of money, which it is hardly fair to ask the individual scoutmasters and cubmasters to find. It is into this breach that the association should be able to step. The local office and secretary are necessary, but a surplus is required for helping the individual Troops and Packs. There are three grades of members to the association: Life members, fee $50; ordinary, fee (annual) $5; and parents of active Scouts and Cubs, fee (annual) $1. More members are needed.

R. ROSS SUTHERLAND,
President Victoria Boy Scouts Local Association.

THE CANDY MINT WITH THE HOLE

5¢ ON SALE EVERYWHERE

The pure tinfoil Life Saver package is a simple thing—but it guarantees the fresh crispness of every Life Saver, to the last one in the package.

As you remove one or more Life Savers from a package, by a gentle pressure of the thumb nail between the mints, re-seal the package by folding back the slightly torn tinfoil.

You can carry them for any length of time, and find their palate-pleasing flavor as satisfying as when you munched the first one. Buy Life Savers wherever candies are sold.

HALF MILLION IS VALUE OF LANDS EXEMPTED IN SAANICH

The assessed value of property in the Saanich municipality exempt from taxation totals $448,000. This figure was given in a report on the matter tabled by the municipal assessor at the request of Councillor Kingwell last evening. The report continues:

"I have not gone closely into the area in the city watershed, as the level of the lake makes large differences in this, and some of the property registered is at this time under water. The total area is 1,000 acres, approximately, and about 600 acres of this is covered by the lake.

"The area in the C. N. R. right-of-way is fairly accurate, and all lands owned in connection with this is shown on schedules. The exemptions are divided as follows:

C. N. R. area in right-of-way, 108 acres, more or less, at say, $350	$ 37,800
Seventeen miles of rails, and so forth, at $3,200 per mile	57,700

VANCOUVER ISLAND NEWS

A Pretty Wedding.

Nanaimo—A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday in the Wallace Street Methodist Church when Miss Laura Elsie Hathway, only daughter of Mrs. F. Piper, became the bride of Frederick Noel Wagstaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wagstaff, of Selby Street. The bride was charmingly attired in a pretty dress of white georgette and satin daintily embroidered in pearls. She wore a pretty white picture hat and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of roses and carnations. Mrs. George Vincent acted as matron of honor and was prettily gowned in white satin with hat to match. After a luncheon at the home of the bride, the happy couple left on the afternoon train for Victoria and other points. The bride traveled in a very smart navy blue outfit. On their return they will take up their residence on Milton Street.

Logging Activity.

Campbell River—A large number of men have arrived for the reopening of camps along the coast is being looked forward to in the next few weeks, although not on as large a scale as last year owing to the lack of lumber. The I. T. Company has transportation facilities in connection with the logging camps at this time, and has been busy for about twelve miles of the coast of the village, to which a railroad is being built to bring out the logs to the coast. There are six large camps with a total of 1000 men at present time.

1,200,000 COAL MINERS ARE IDLE IN BRITAIN. (Continued from page 1.) estimated at 1,000,000 tons the price of household fuel already has risen two shillings per ton. London and other centres are believed to have several weeks' supply on hand, owing to the fact that export of coal has been completely stopped by the Board of Trade except in cases where special permits have been issued.

May Spread. Apprehension is felt that the National Union of Railwaymen and the Transport Workers' Union, partners with the miners in the labor dispute, may be tempted to strike in sympathy with the coal strikers. In such an event the nation would be confronted by a crisis of unprecedented gravity.

One of the largest works in London took precautionary steps yesterday and formed a company of special police to protect its property. Orders were issued last night to employees of various Government departments to stand by to report for transport duty tomorrow.

According to The Hamburg Echo, the Bremen trade unions' Executive Committee has a company of special police to protect its property. Orders were issued last night to employees of various Government departments to stand by to report for transport duty tomorrow.

"PUBLIC SCANDAL" EXPLAINED TO HOUSE

In reply to questions from G. S. Hanes about a report that a member of the judiciary has referred to certain indebtedness of the Sheriff of Victoria to one Williams as a "public scandal," Attorney-General Farris yesterday gave the Legislature this information:

"On January 5, 1918, R. T. Williams, of Victoria, wrote to the late Hon. H. C. Brewster, stating that 'The Court remarked that it was a public scandal that I was not paid long ago.' On the examination of Williams before the Registrar at Victoria on December 5, 1917, a letter from Justin Gilbert, official stenographer to J. R. Green, of counsel for Williams on that examination, dated July 17, 1917, was produced and read into the record. The letter is as follows:

"Dear Sir, Replying to your favor of yesterday, it is a matter of great astonishment to me that any one should claim that Judge Clement made use of any such expression as you suggest. An expression of that kind would be very striking and would not escape me. I am confident nothing of that kind occurred at the trial from beginning to end. I gave you a true and accurate report of what did occur. There was no episode during the trial at which such language could have been used. Yours truly, Justin Gilbert."

Provincial Appointments. Dr. Karl E. Topf of Sandon has been appointed health officer and medical inspector of schools for Sandon and district, according to the agreement to-day from the Provincial Secretary's office.

To Distribute Stumping Powder. The amendment to the Agricultural Act to give the department power to make use of organizations other than the Farmers' Association for the distribution of stumping powder, was put through committee in the Legislature yesterday.

LIQUOR WILL BRING TOURISTS; NO NEED FOR PUBLICITY NOW Americans Will Follow Birds When They Are Feeling "Dry"

When the new Liquor Act comes into effect it will not be necessary to advertise the glories, scenic and otherwise, of British Columbia in the United States, H. G. Perry, Liberal member for Fort George, told the Legislature last night.

GOOD ROUTE FOR WEST COAST ROAD HAS BEEN FOUND Surveys conducted last year discovered the route of a very satisfactory West Coast road by way of Cowichan Lake. Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, stated in the Legislature last night when the estimates of his department were under review...

MR. BOWSER ATTACKS SALARY INCREASES Speaks Against the Increased Sessional Indemnities; Mrs. Smith's Position

Declaring that the Government, while preaching economy, was adding to the overhead expenses of the Legislature by over $20,000 per annum, W. J. Bowser, K. C., in the House this afternoon, attacked the proposal to increase salaries of members, and the indemnities of the members. He also declared that Hon. Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith was not legally a member of the Executive Council, unless Premier Oliver, contrary to press stories, had resigned his position as President of the Council, or that one of the ministers had resigned in favor of Mrs. Smith, in order to make her head of a department.

BORROW MONEY FOR CHANGING CAR TRACKS FOR NEW ROAD RULE

It will cost $400,000 to change the tracks and rolling stock of the B. C. Electric in the Province in order to conform with the right hand rule of the road, according to latest estimates made by the Department of Public Works and officials of the railway. The change will have to be made by the railway before the end of the year as the new rule of the road will come into force in the lower part of the Province at that time.

Turn Down Attempt to Kill "Political Clause." The attempt of M. B. Jackson, Liberal member for the Islands, to quash the "political clause" in the new Elections Act amendments was turned down by the Legislature late Wednesday night. Mr. Jackson previously had described the clause as "most undesirable and calculated to fasten party politics upon the administration of affairs of the Province."

"Time Saver" ELECTRIC WASHER and WRINGER

Takes the gloom out of washday

NO MAN would toil at a washtub as a woman does—bending, stooping, twisting, rubbing, pulling. Then why should a woman tax her strength? Husbands don't know what a woman goes through on washday or they wouldn't let their wives do it. There's no reason why they should. The Made-in-Canada "TIME SAVER" will wash and wring anything—work clothes with the dirt ground in, portieres, spreads, heavy things too big for you to manage yourself. And dainty things, silks, laces, blouses you're afraid to wash with your own careful fingers.

The "TIME SAVER" makes fine things last many times longer because it doesn't scrub. It cleans the clothes by forcing steaming jets through the meshes of the cloth again and again. It moves the clothes 120 times a minute. Washed by hand clothes get more wear in the washing than they do on your back. Every rainy day the cloth it is important to remember that there is no wear when clothes are washed by the "TIME SAVER."

Then look at the time you save when you wash with a "TIME SAVER." A tubful of clothes washed in 10 minutes—a big wash out to dry within an hour—without hard work, without strain on your part. You've an abundance always of clean clothes, fluffy blankets, and immaculate linen.

The "TIME SAVER" is as simple and easy to operate as any other labor-saving device so common in your home. The "TIME SAVER" is ten times easier to operate than a sewing machine. Any woman or girl can run a "TIME SAVER." To start the washer simply turn on the current and put down the lid. To start the wringer pull a lever. Very simple and easy to operate.

DOES the "TIME SAVER" clean the clothes? Yes, it does. But we don't ask you to take our word for it. Dozens of letters from satisfied users have been using it, and they say it cleans clothes just as well and better than they can wash their clothes by hand. 120 times a minute gallons of hot soapy suds are passed through the meshes of the cloth. Do you wonder that the "TIME SAVER" is so clean?

Phone or write for our illustrated circular; or, better still, let us send you a "TIME SAVER" on trial at no cost to you whatever.

PACIFIC COAST OFFICERS' ASSOCIATION JOINS PROTEST

The Pacific Coast Officers' Association have added their voice to the protest against the removal of the Victoria men from Esquimalt Military Hospital to the Vancouver hospital, and have dispatched wires to federal members. The telegram read as follows:

MOOSE "KRAZY TOMMY" DANCE

The specialty dance held in the K. of P. Hall last evening under the auspices of Victoria Lodge No. 1390, Loyal Order of Moose, attracted a very large crowd of enthusiasts. The prizes, to the number of twenty, were given away in Tombola fashion and consisted of articles from the distribution down to feeding bottles.

FAILING STATE GRANT, WILL RELY ON SUBSCRIPTIONS

Seattle, April 1.—Undismayed by Governor Hart's action in vetoing the $50,000 appropriation for the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association's work of advertising Washington's attractions, W. J. Hoffman, of Portland, president of the association, has started a campaign to raise the necessary money by private subscription in this state.

You Are Paying for a "TIME SAVER"

Electric Washer and Wringer WHY NOT HAVE IT?

WHAT do you pay the washer woman? — $2.50 a day, a meal or two, and car tickets. Do you know that with this money you can pay for a "TIME SAVER" in 13 1/2 months. Rid yourself forever of the bogey of the "big wash."

Take advantage of our instalment offer — $10.00 a month — no interest.

THE "TIME SAVER" will endure strain and run as well after many years as when new. The first "TIME SAVER" sold on the Pacific Coast was used every wash day for 18 months and sold for more than it cost the user. All the working parts are set on a solid iron bed plate, and years of hard work cannot shake them loose. The tub is Louisiana cypress, "the wood eternal." It will last a lifetime.

Phone or write for our illustrated circular; or, better still, let us send you a "TIME SAVER" on trial at no cost to you whatever.

Strengthening the Sinews of Industry

THROUGH the difficult days of reconstruction, — times of financial anxiety and caution due to abnormal conditions — we have unremittingly striven to transfuse into the businesses we serve that lifeblood which is judicious credit.

While stability could be promoted in some instances only through the influence of contraction or restraint, in all cases where necessary and advisable, broad financial accommodations have been willingly extended. In no case has our decision been based upon favor, but solely upon a full appreciation of circumstances. By such scrupulous meeting of all obligations, not only has sound progress been achieved, but an added mutuality of interest and prestige has resulted.

Our resolve for the future is to duplicate past performances—strengthening the sinews of industry by giving timely counsel and encouragement.

We cordially invite you to test our ability to serve by placing any of your banking requirements — business or personal — in our care.

MOTHER DIED WITH DAUGHTERS

Mrs. W. W. Washburn Lost in Governor Disaster

Tacoma, April 1.—A recital of mother love was given here to-day concerning Mrs. W. W. Washburn, of Nash Bay, who though she might easily have saved her life when the steamship Governor was sinking; preferred to go with her two daughters to death.

The girls were pinned beneath falling timbers. When rescuers came to the freighter West Hartland, it is said, they took Mr. Washburn off. When they returned for his wife, she refused to leave without her daughters. Taken by force, she broke away at the rail and ran back to the cabin.

The Governor at that time was settling rapidly and it was impossible to save Mrs. Washburn.

Near Shore.—The collision occurred less than a mile off shore directly opposite the Point Wilson lighthouse near Port Townsend, in the Strait of Juan de Fuca. The Governor is believed to lie in about twenty-five fathoms of water.

According to Purser Holzer, the Governor was on her course, it being customary to steam close to shore in making the Point Wilson light.

Ship's officers declared the night was fairly clear, with a light fog overhanging.

Engineer Lost.—Chief Christensen, second assistant engineer, is believed to have gone to his death when he insisted on going down to the engine room to see if he could keep the ship's engines running.

Much credit was given Chief Cook A. L. Bodkin, colored, who laughed and joked through all the passengers said, kept many of them from hysteria.

"That is a new suit I bought in 'Frisco," he was quoted as saying. "Suit, I bid you one last farewell."

CHICAGO GRAINS TAKE FURTHER SLIDE

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.) Chicago, April 1.—Wheat started higher on overnight confirmation of good sized export sales yesterday, but outside buying failed to follow the advance and renewed selling carried prices to new low levels.

About a recovery of wheat and unimpaired sales as much as three million bushels. Ordinarily this should have been sufficient to bring about an advance, but heavy selling persisted. Local crop authorities estimate condition of winter wheat at 91, indicating a crop of 430,000,000 to 440,000,000 based on average. Cash prices in all markets were persistently lower and Omaha reported wheat 10 lower and grain at terminals is increasing daily. With domestic affairs, meeting a far greater influence than the export situation it is expected that prices will continue to work lower.
