Vacancy, Samuel N. Sawyer
Gets Temporary Seat.

*Albany Bureau.
Buffalo Evening News.*

ALBANY, Nov. 10. — Governor Smith yesterday designated three justices of the Supreme court to serve on the Appellate division.

In the third department, Justice Rowland T. Davis of Cortland was named temporarily to the Appellate division bench. He recently resigned a designation to the fourth department Appellate division.

To fill the vacancy in the fourth department left by the withdrawal of Justice Davis, the governor named Justice Harry L. Taylor of Buffalo. He has been acting as temporary associate justice in the same department.

Justice Samuel Nelson Sawyer of Buffalo was designated temporarily to the fourth department.
