

Rev. C. T. Torrey

Pittsfield Aug 3^d 1839

156

Dear Brother Phelps, I find I have not enclosed the paper containing Root's terms, as I intended in the letter sent by Mr. Safford. Could you find it? (Yesterday we had a pleasant meeting here, gentlemen only were invited to sit and deliberate. The day was devoted to elementary discussion. We had a good old fashioned A. S. meeting. "No war, nor battles sound" disturbed the harmony of feeling. Though exceedingly fatigued I lectured to a good house in the evening - and this evening also, I have addressed a small assembly, and received a contribution to our funds - Tomorrow I expect to address the Christians of Pittsfield, on their duties to the lowsloves. Strange that a Christian in free America should need to be addressed on the subject. A few symptoms of mobocracy have disgraced this beautiful village - Last evening some wild youth, a few of them southerners, shouted & yelled around the house & blown a horn to supply us with music. The ring-leaders were disguised, but one was detected by the sheriff, and if he escapes the penalty of the law, it will be a matter of special forbearance.

This evening the mobites were abroad again, some of them present. They made a very slight disturbance, which was checked, by an appeal to the authority of the Law - one of them showed his love for the cause of - Slavery, in a new form - by throwing cents at me, as I stood in the pulpit - two of which I have preserved.
I thanked the hopeful youth for the contribution, told the value of a cent to the cause, as it indicated the origin of the Elmore Correspondence, & promised, that, by God's blessing, these copper should not be lost to the cause of humanity.
I would willingly be pelted till doomsday, by money for the cause of the poor. ¶

If you think the above worth sending to the Abs. send it. The abolitionists here except 2 or 3 perfectionists, all go with us - Monday I lecture in Dalton & expect to form a Society awaiting to ours there in the evening - Tuesday I go to Williamstown yours. C. T. May

P. S. St Clair & myself ordered 200 of Thomas & Kimbels & 200 of Slavery as it is. for Boies & Hunt, to be used in this Co. I have ~~more~~ ordered 100 more of Neddy's Book & 650 Almanacs. Nearly the whole will be disposed of before I leave the County. I have already disposed of 10 dollars worth & began to dispose of more. ~~C. P. S.~~ They are all ordered on account of our Society. C. P. S.

About midnight these hopeful youths shrouded the ~~conscience~~ ~~conscience~~, by demolishing - in part, the steps of the shop of a prominent Abolitionist, and the steps of the Baptist Church, in which the meetings were held - one of the motives, is supposed to be a son of a Florida Patriarch, whose slaves were rather suddenly emancipated by the "poor heathen" Indians, who were unhappily not aware that the patriarchal system was sanctioned by the Bible!
They had never read professor Stuart's Letter: My Editor, won't you translate it into Seminole, and print an edition at my expense to enlighten these poor degraded savages? P. P.

Rev. A. A. Phelps,
Rev. Secy. of Mass. Abol. Society, Boston, ms.