Ready for Duty.

This is an episode of a soldier's life. One of the first to volunteer; he fought faithfully and well, but returned a physical wreck. Today he lauds the specific which made him hale and hearty.

When President Lincoln called for volunteers to suppress the Rebellion, S. R. Hunter, a blacksmith in South Scitoba, N. Y., immediately left his forge and was one of the first to respond.

"I talked the matter over with my wife and decided to try the pills. Before the first box was half gone I was much better."

A DREAM OF THE ALLIANCE.

"I had longed for one ray of sunshine. But all day long in my dreams, the night was closing round me. Lonely and cold as ever."

On the drill ground, where the minority of battle is gone through the individual soldier, for real work, the army finds himself less conspicuous than at roll call.

On a still higher plane this same feature of esprit de corps with respect to one's own particular assignment is strongly developed in the army.

Managers and Editors: A. W. BLANCHARD, M. E. HAWES. Advertising: $2.50 per year. $2.50 if paid in advance. Advertisements inserted at the usual price.

Entered at the Post Office at WEYMOUTH, MASS., as SECOND-CLASS MATTER. FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1899.

Signs of peace are in the air and such news would be welcomed with thanksgiving. Yet we feel that Spain is not yet ready to accede to the demands of our government and no peace can come until she is ready to submit.

The war is progressing with great credit to the United States and there are not particularly to us. The Fourth was celebrated with more than the usual feeling this year. Foreign nations are being taught a large amount of respect for our ships, guns, and gunners.

No one has complained of the heat. If our soldier boys can fight and march carrying their loads with a heat of 100 degrees, we can do as well as they.

All along the line it was the most patriotic Fourth (if none is patriotism) which Weymouth has ever had within her borders, and now the noise has ceased and the smoke rolled away, we congratulate the people that we have passed through it all without a casualty causing injury to persons or property.

Town Clerk John A. Raymond is showing the most interesting piece of book work in town. Four volumes of town records, worn, scarred and almost unintelligible, and dating back to the earliest settlement of the town, have been through a process of renovating, the browned leaves transformed into white silk and then rebound in fine style. The pages of nearly three centuries ago afford an interesting study to the antiquarian and as a work of art are a pleasure to look at.

The work of the assessors for 1898 is so far completed that it is safe to say the tax rate will not vary 2 cents from $19; it may be 5 cents more or possibly 5 cents less than $19. The above figures will be an improvement of about $1.00 over the previous year and we were in hopes the assessors would have found an increased settlement of taxes which would have brought it still lower, but it is the old story "depreciation in personal." For the sixth or seventh consecutive year we have lost in personal valuation and it would seem that it is about time to touch bottom in this direction. We have before quoted from the controller of the state of New York that "the wisdom of man has not yet devised a way to tax personal property. Year after year we go on building pretty little houses valued at from $1,200 to $3,000, and yet we never quite make a profit for the loss in personal property. In the past year nearly three of these little houses were built in Weymouth and that much added to its wealth and beauty, but personal property strank more than this added wealth. Weymouth is not alone in this matter; in the discussion of this important question in the legislature the past winter, a case was cited where in Worcester county a man had paid simply a poll tax for ten years, death took him, and his estate was valued at $80,000. There may be just cause for tax dodgers in the next world but it will not relieve those who are paying honest taxes in this.

The Fourth. Never was there a hotter Fourth and never was there a noisier Fourth in this vicinity. Surely the thermometer vied with young America to produce a fitting climax to our glorious holiday.

All Sunday night the noise of cannon crackers, fire arms and horns resounded while bells and shouts added their clamor to the din. It continued without cessation throughout the night and during the entire day. At the close of day longed for quiet but at midnight the confirmation of the destruction of Cervara's fleet was learned. And with renewed vigor the delighted crowd celebrated with red lights, green lights, fireworks, guns, cannon crackers etc. Even the cotillionary was seen leading and firing his rifle.

A hand concert in Washington square brought out hundreds of people. This was by the Brantley band and the selections were enjoyed by the hearers despite the noisy Fourth of July interruptions.

No severe accident is reported in our immediate neighborhood. Many sailing parties enjoyed the Fourth. Picnic parties were numerous at the shores and beaches.

A Friend Hands Us the Following Letter. Navy Department. Washington, D. C., July 5, 1898. My dear Sir: I have read with interest your letter of the 1st inst. stating your fears that the high standard taken by our people at the beginning of the war with Spain, may be departed from. May I not say that I think your fears are groundless?

Of course to one can at yet forecast the outcome of the present conflict, but I believe that whatever it may be, we can trust the President to deal with the situation with that high integrity of purpose and devotion to the interests of our Country and people which distinguishes all his actions. Very truly yours, JOHN D. LOUIS.

GALA WEEK AT NEW DOWNERS.

Field Day Tomorrow. It is safe to say that New Downers Land has been visited by a greater number of people the past few days than at any time in the previous history of this charming place. A plan of the attractions will reveal the reason for this and the Quincy & Boston Street Railway Company are to be congratulated for the interest they have taken in the success of the young men in the employ of the company (by request his name is not used) who have charge of the grounds and it is due to his push and stick-to-it-iveness that the public is induced to visit the ticket office night after night.

MAN SHOT AT NEW DOWNERS LAND.

George H. G. Baker the Victim. A shooting accident occurred at New Downers, Monday morning. While George H. G. Baker of 221 Harrison Avenue, Boston, was standing in the rear of the shooting gallery, taking a drink of water, he was hit in the back by a rifle shot which passed through the boards at the back of the gallery.

M. V. A. A. The next meeting of the Weymouth Branch of the Massachusetts Volunteer Aid Association will be held in the vestry of the M. E. Church, East Weymouth, Wednesday, July 15, at 8 o'clock.

Money Collected. Appended is a list of the sums of money contributed for the purchase of works of art for the new High School building.

Captain Zerach Watkins Torrey.

Thanks to the Spanish bullet that pierced the leg instead of the heart of our valiant townsman, this is not an obituary. That Capt. Torrey has not more often resisted his native town and renewed the friendships of his boyhood is because a conscientious fulfillment of every duty as an officer in the regular service has made it practically impossible to do so.

A graduate of the Weymouth High School in 1861, he was a member of the Academy and of West Point, a member of the Old South Church at Weymouth he is just what our town needs.

There is no other emulsion like it; none other does the same work; and no other has the same record of cures.

A Minister's Trials.

This narrative from a minister is of greatest value to those whose nerves are unstrung, health shattered or otherwise ailing. It is particularly appropriate in this age of active, nervous, endless labor.

We are living too fast. "Fast as lightning," expresses it, for we talk by electricity, cook by electricity, travel by electricity and so on. It is a hurry, hurry, hurry from the cradle to the grave.

"I could eat neither meat or vegetables, crowd our ceiling, crowd our pleasure, crowd our sleeping.

"I was used up; helpless, hopeless. I commenced to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. One box was consumed and I felt no better. This discouraged me.

"My wife urged me to try the pills some more, feeling that my life depended upon the result.

"I continued to take them. And he had several months, I have enjoyed life.

"I continued to take them, however, and held revival meetings for fifteen weeks. I have had no muscular exercise for years, but recently, have done considerable hard work in my garden, my muscles standing this test remarkably well.

"I continued to take them, however, and held revival meetings for fifteen weeks. I have had no muscular exercise for years, but recently, have done considerable hard work in my garden, my muscles standing this test remarkably well.

MY SONGS ARE ALL OF THEE.

My songs are all of thee, what though I sing of evening or the midday bright,
Of birds that over the meadows wing,
Of song, of fire, of winds or nights that cling to mountain tops, or all in all,
Of rivers that toward ocean take their flight,
Of summer winds that waft me all in all,
I think no thought that is not thine,
I breathe beyond thy sanctity,
Thou art the voice that I have heard,
And of all sounds thou art the best. From
The music of my song and what it saith
To the least of thy heart, throbbeth through me.

—Richard Watson Gilder.

NORWELL TREASURE.

"Why, it's absolutely absurd, Mr. Harris, and you ought to be ashamed even to listen to it," said the first of the two men, who were sitting at the table in the house where he lived.

"I don't care a bit for your opinion," said the other, who was the younger man, and who had just returned from a long journey.

"I don't care a bit for your opinion," said the other, who was the younger man, and who had just returned from a long journey.

HEARD AND READ.

Being a collection of penitents and scriptures by our editor.

Don't let your friends dare you to swim much further than you have swum before.

Don't swim away from the crowd if you are not certain you are an adept swimmer.

Sweeping is recommended by a competent authority as better than golf for developing full, rounded, feminine arms.

Neatness, when moderate, is a virtue; but when carried to an extreme it narrows the mind.

Never start on a long spin without a warm wrap strapped to the wheel. Never forget that the wrap is there, when stopping in a shady spot to rest.

Some very queer things break into the newspaper business occasionally. One of them runs a Populist newspaper at Altamont, and he announces that the town has "no gambling halls, no saloons, and no banks, or other houses of ill-fame."

The tickets to the village ball were not transferable, and this was the way they read—"Admit this gentleman to ball in assembly rooms. No gentleman admitted unless he comes himself."

Magistrate—Prisoner, have you any visible means of support?
Prisoner—Yes, sir, your honor. (To wife, a laundress.) Bridget, stand up, so that the court can see yee—Ex-Change.

One of the signs of prosperity is the revival of railroad construction. The estimate is that $90,000,000 will be expended on new roads in 1898, the largest showing since 1883.

A teachers' institute out in West Virginia, being unable to think of any new study to recommend for the schools, adopted a resolution protesting against the habit of male teachers parting their hair in the middle.

Mrs. Leland Morton is president of the Chicago Club. She is a woman of culture and is an authority on art, and her art parties are the marvel of the west.

General Martin has done a good thing, and, although it took personal experience to induce the order, it is one of the best. He has ordered that he instructed the police to stop every cyclist who was not observing the rules of the road by "keeping to the right," warn him once, and on repetition of the offense, "run him in."

In one of his books Mark Twain observes that the reason there is comparatively little arable land in Spain is because the great majority of the Spanish people are in the habit of squandering it on their persons, and when they die it is buried with them.

"Don't keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness, speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them.

Don't be silly, it is good advice to bear in mind in regard to the Spanish prisoners we find ourselves suddenly possessed of. They should be treated as prisoners of war and nothing else. The character, made one of his most prominent successes in it. It is a face but so admirably constructed that it never glazes in interest from first to last. The troubles of a somewhat understated married man, arising from his being mistaken for "The new boy" make the foundation for the fun of the comedy. Mr. Walter Perkins repeats the Castle Square to play the title character.

On Monday, August 2, the Castle Square Company is to make a production of Martha Morton's comedy "His Wife's Father" which was played by Mr. W. H. Crane at the Hollis Street Theatre two seasons ago. The story centers on Tuesday afternoon with a character portrait of Miss Marian A. Chapman as Mrs. Capt. Matthews in "Siberia."

Especially Galt's No. 30. Cascares Candy Company, the most wonderful medicinal discovery of the age, prepared and refreshing to the taste, and is especially effective. For small children by E. C. Brown, South Weymouth. For the aged, Mrs. H. H. Brown, South Weymouth. For the young, Dr. J. H. Colman, E. Weymouth. For the sick, Dr. J. H. Colman, E. Weymouth. For the healthy, Dr. J. H. Colman, E. Weymouth.
