H. B. V. & Sept. 1893
MR. GOULD having kindly intrusted me with the revision of this popular work by the late James Lees, I—not without a qualm of hesitancy—venture to try my hand, and submit a general re-setting of the work, embodying corrections and improvements, thus making an advance on the earlier editions which time—as usual—has proved to be somewhat unreliable.

The work now contains all the sound play of the lengthy appendix to the ninth edition with that in the body of the work, also other improvements noted from time to time.

To the problem department have been added a score of notable positions by various experts.

I now launch my efforts on its voyage to the players of the world, hoping they will meet with a favourable reception

JOHN W. DAWSON.

EXCERPT FROM THE ORIGINAL PREFACE.

In the course of my correspondence with Mr. Gould I was made acquainted with his desire to publish a useful work on the Game of Draughts, suitable for all classes of players, a work he had commenced, but which was set aside to allow him to compile and publish his “Book of Problems, Critical Positions and Games,” and his “Memorable Matches.”

At his request I undertook to do for him what his growing business engagements prevented his carrying out, and this volume is the outcome of my offer to do so.

JAMES LEES.

INSTRUCTIONS.

THE Game of Draughts, although apparently simple, is so profound that no player can say, "I have nothing more to learn."

Little instruction, as regards the manner of playing, is required, and on that account the instructions shall be brief. When once the learner has acquired sufficient knowledge to play a game in the most elementary fashion he may be left to consult the accompanying examples, which he will find are sufficient for years of careful study

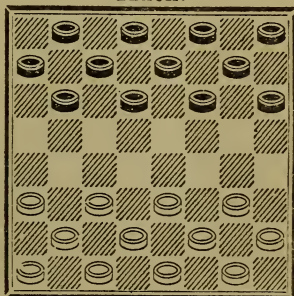

The game is played by two persons, each moving alternately, one square at a time diagonally, unless he has a "take," in which case he may pass over several at the same time. The learner will readily comprehend the method of proceeding by studying the Standard Laws and playing over a game. Number the board and place the men as shown on the following diagrams:—

BLACK.

WHITE.

BLACK.

WHITE.

Now turn to "Single Corner," page 126. Move black 11-15 and white 22-18, black then "takes" from 15 to 22 (remove the man off 18), and white "takes" from 25 to 18 (remove the man off 22), and the game proceeds according to the figures. Study the effect of each move, and the game will gradually unfold its beauties. If the student desires to see the effect of a different move to that in the text, he may try any of the variations. Play say 16 moves, and instead of playing the 17th move—marked f—pass down the notes to (f), and proceed according to the figures there given.

The game is won when one player captures or blocks all his opponent's pieces.

The following games and variations are all carried to a point sufficient to show the win or draw to advanced players but in some cases these may not be apparent to learners; where such occur it will prove interesting to the tyro to demonstrate the terms given.

THE STANDARD LAWS.

THE STANDARD BOARD.

1.—The Standard Board must be of light and dark squares, not less than fourteen and one-half inches, nor more than sixteen inches across said squares.

2.—The Board shall be placed so that the bottom corner square on the left hand shall be black.

THE STANDARD MEN.

3.—The Standard Men, technically described as Black and White, must be light and dark (say red and white, or black and white), turned, and round, and not less than one and one-eighth inch, nor more than one and one-fourth inch in diameter.

PLACING THE MEN.

4.—The men shall be placed on the black squares.

5.—The black men shall invariably be placed upon the real or supposed first twelve squares of the board; the white men upon the last twelve squares.

ORDER OF PLAY.

6.—Each player shall play alternately with black and white men, and lots shall be cast for the colour only once—viz., at the commencement of a match—the winner to have the choice of taking either black or white.

7.—The first move must invariably be made by the person having the black men.

TIME LIMIT FOR MOVING.

8.—At the end of Five Minutes (if the move has not been previously made), "Time" must be called in a distinct manner, by the person appointed for the purpose; and if the move be not completed on the expiry of another minute, the game shall be adjudged as lost through improper delay.

9.—When there is only one way of taking one or more pieces, "Time" shall be called at the end of one minute; and if the move be not completed on the expiry of another minute, the game shall be adjudged as lost through improper delay.

ARRANGING THE MEN DURING A GAME.

10.—Either player is entitled, on giving intimation, to arrange his own, or his opponent's pieces properly on the squares. After the move has been made, however, if either player touch or arrange any piece without giving intimation he shall be cautioned for the first offence, and shall forfeit the game for any subsequent act of the kind.

TOUCH AND MOVE.

11.—After the pieces have been arranged, if the person whose turn it is to play touch one, he must either play it or forfeit the game. When the piece is not playable, he is penalized according to the preceding law.

12.—If any part of a playable piece be played over an angle of the square on which it is stationed, the play must be completed in that direction.

CAPTURING PLAY.

13.—A capturing play, as well as an ordinary one, is completed whenever the hand is withdrawn from the piece played, even although two or more should have been taken.

14.—When taking, if a player remove one of his own pieces he cannot replace it; but his opponent can either play or insist on his replacing it.

FALSE OR IMPROPER MOVES.

15.—Either player making a false or improper move, shall instantly forfeit the game to his opponent, without another move being made.

THE "HUFF" OR "BLOW."

16.—The "Huff" or "Blow" is (before one plays his own piece) to remove from the board any one of the adverse pieces that might or should have taken. But the huff or blow never constitutes a play.

17.—The player has the power either to Huff, compel the take, or to let the piece remain on the board, as he thinks proper.

CROWNING THE MEN.

18.—When a Man first reaches any of the squares on the opposite extreme line of the board it becomes a King, and can be moved backwards or forwards, as the limits of the board permit (though not in the same play), and must be crowned—by placing a man on the top of it—by the opponent. If he neglect to do so, and play, any such play shall be put back until the Man be crowned.

DRAWN GAMES.

19.—A Draw is when neither of the players can force a win. When one of the sides appears stronger than the other, the stronger party is required to complete the win, or to show to the satisfaction of the umpire or referee at least a decided advantage over his opponent within forty of his own moves—to be counted from the point at which notice was given—failing in which he must relinquish the game as a draw.

CONDUCT OF PLAYERS AND SPECTATORS.

20.—Anything which may tend either to annoy or distract the attention of the player is strictly forbidden—such as making signs or sounds, pointing or hovering over the board, unnecessarily delaying to move a piece touched, or smoking. Any principal so acting, after having been warned of the consequence and requested to desist, shall forfeit the game.

21.—While a game is pending, neither player is permitted to leave the room without a sufficient reason, or receiving the other's consent or company.

22.—Any spectator giving warning, either by sound, or remark, on any of the games, whether playing or pending, shall be ordered from the room during the match, and play will be discontinued until such offending party retires.

MATCH GAMES.

23.—A match between equals, wins and draws to count, should consist of an even number of games, so that each player may have the first move the same number of times.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

24.—Either player committing a breach of any of these laws must submit to the penalty; and his opponent is equally bound to exact the same.

UNFORESEEN DISPUTES.

25.—Should any dispute occur not satisfactorily determined by the preceding laws, a written statement of the facts must be sent to a disinterested arbiter, having a knowledge of the game, whose decision shall be final.

THE TWO-MOVE OPENINGS.

THE Two-Move Restriction—which has become very popular—was introduced by the English and Scottish Draughts Associations and is now generally adopted in Draughts Tournaments, Club Matches and other competitions of importance. The system tends to obviate repetition, and has gone far towards bringing skill on to a common platform with memory, whilst it has undoubtedly given a great impetus to the exploration of new paths in the science of the game, thus yielding a wider scope to the cross-board player and analyst alike.

This book was not originally compiled as a “Two-Move Guide,” but seeing that this mode is now so much in vogue, we deem it advisable to include a summary of notes suggestive at a glance of how in several cases the outcome of the ballot may be turned into one or another of the recognised Standard Openings given in its pages.

The limited space at our disposal does not permit of more than a few brief suggestions of the usual continuations adopted by the expert.

(a) The characteristic move of the “Alma.” Notwithstanding all that has been published to the contrary, I hold the opinion that the opening is strong for the first player

(b) 16-20 not so good, the text does more than equalize matters.

(c) If 32-28, then 9-14, 28-19, 14-18 is strong for Black.

(d) If 21-17, then reply 2-7, for W. dare not play 18-15, and must allow the cut by 16-19, which leaves Black with a winning advantage.

(e) 21-17 would lose, see diagram:—

(a) This move gives the title to the opening, and it is one of the best defences White can adopt in reply to the routine 11-15. It is, however, not so popular as it deserves to be; and this is to be regretted for, as the late Mr. Strickland observes, "the opening allows unusual scope for the display of critical and brilliant combinations."

(b) 7-11, 28-24, 3-7, same as var 5 at 2nd move.

(f) The best move at this stage. 26-22 is a plausible move for the tyro to make, but it loses thus:—11-16, 20-11, 3-7, 22-15, 7-23. B. wins.

H. Spayth v. J. D. Janvier.

(a) This “take” completes the formation of the “Doctor” or “Nonsuch” opening. It is generally understood that the title was conferred upon it in compliment to a Fifeshire M.D. who was partial to this mode of opening the game, and who was exceptionally well versed in the many intricate combinations arising from it. The works of Payne and Sturges contain some 20 variations on it, which proves that it was not unknown to the experts of the 18th century. The opening abounds in traps and pitfalls, and no doubt, for this reason, was long a favourite with the veteran Wyllie. It is weak for the second player, and should be avoided by the learner.

(b) These moves were suggested to draw by J. Maize.

(a) This move constitutes the “Boston.” Mr. J. D. Janvier was the first to give it this title. There is no instance on record of its having been played in an important match; consequently it is not recognised as one of the standard openings; but as the works of Payne and Sturges contain play on it, I think it worthy of a place in this treatise.

(a) Until within recent years it was the custom to give the title “Bristol” to all games opened with 11-16; but as the initial move admits of nearly as great a variety of play as 11-15, this classification is rather vague. Mr. J. D. Janvier gave the title “Paisley” to the 24-19 reply, and the present writer has followed his example, and has also adopted the suggestion of the late Mr. J. Robertson, Berwick, and given the title “Bristol-Cross” to the 23-18 reply. There have been over 3000 variations published on this opening—11-16,—which is certainly as good as 11-15; and some beautiful combinations spring from it.

(b) 21-17, 9-14, 25-21, c-16-19, same as “Double Corner” var. 7, at 5th move.

(c) 16-20, same as “Double Corner” var. 8, at the 4th move.

(d) The novice should never attempt to "run off" the man by 27-23, followed by 32-27, etc., as it leads to a very weak ending for White. and requires careful play to draw.

(e) This is much stronger than 20-16, which is given by Anderson, as 20-16 allows Black to form some very strong and critical lines, that require great care on the part of the second player to draw.

(f) 8-12 29-25, 7-11, 27-23, 3-7, 23-16, 12-19, 17-13, 1-5, 21-17, 14-21, 25-22, 11-16, 20-11, 7-16, 24-20, 10-14 20-11, 21-25, 30-21, 14-17, 21-14, 6-9. Drawn.—Drummond

(g) Beware of 29-25, which loses thus:—29-25, 19-23, 26-19, 14-18, 25-22, 18-25, 17-14, 10-17, 21-14, 15-18 30-21, 18-22, 19-16, 22-25, 16-12, 25-30, 27-23, 30-25, 24-19, 25-22. B. wins.

A. Jackson and W. Gardner

(a) Perhaps exception may be taken to the name conferred upon the opening; but the title “New Bristol” is very inappropriate, the fact being that there was play published on this line by a Spanish author in the middle of the seventeenth century. Besides being one of the oldest it is one of the strongest replies to 11-16, and merits a distinctive title for itself

(b) 8-11 allows the following neat “shot,” which, so far as is known, was first published by Juan Garcia Canalejas the Spanish author referred to, in 1650:—8-11, 19-15, 10-19, 18-14, 9-18, 22-8, 4-11, 27-24, 20-27, 31-8 W. wins.

(a) This defines the opening, which is generally considered weak for the first player. The match between Wyllie and McIntosh, in 1848, was the first important contest in which the opening was played, and McIntosh won both sides of it. Judging from published play, the balance of power is pretty equal, though the advantage rather inclines to the White side.

(b) This is certainly the best reply.

(c) If 24 20, 3-7 in reply loses thus:—

J. Wyllie v. R. Martins, 1867.

(a) This move forms the “Cross.” This opening is a favourite with all classes of players; and the reason of this is, no doubt, that experience has proved it to be a very safe defence for White.

(b) 9-14 forms what is termed the “Cross-Choice.” It is best for White to take 18-11, 8-15, 22-17, 4-8, 25-22, 8-11. 26-23. 6-9. 17-13, 14-17, 13-6, 17-26, 31-22, 2-9 23-19. etc., which leads to a very equal game.

(c) 9-13 loses as follows:—9-13, 26-23. 6-9, *30-26. 9-14. 18-9, 5-14, *32-27. 1-5, 19-16, 12-19, 23-16, 11-20, 22-17. W. wins.—A.D.P.

(d) Best at this stage.

(e) 14-18, 22-15, 11-18, 32-27, 9-14 30-26, 5-9, 25-22, 18-25 29-22, 6-10, 27-23, 1 5, 22-17, 9-13, 19-15, 10-19, 23-16, 12-19, 17-10, 8-11, 21-17. Drawn—Anderson.

(f) If 2-7, 31-26 loses, by 1-5, 29-25, 5-9, etc., Ferrie beat Jackson in Scottish Tourney. 1894. But instead of 31-26, play 29-25 and draw, thus:—

(a) The initial move defines the opening. Sturges and Drummond were the first authors to give play on it, as Anderson omitted it from his famous “Second Edition,” published in 1852. Of late years it has become very popular in important matches; and an examination of published play seems to prove it a very safe debut for the Blacks.

R. Martins v. J. Robertson.

(a) The first six moves form the “Douglas.” The late Mr. J. Robertson gave it the title “Lady of Lorna,” in honour of a fair lady who figures in an old traditional episode of Scottish history, but the opening is now known by the shorter title. It is slightly in favour of the first player.

(a) The first move forms the “Dundee.” It received that name from the late Mr. A. J. Dunlap, who was Draughts Editor of the New York Turf, Field and Farm for a quarter of a century, in compliment to the members of the Dundee Draughts Club, for an interesting analysis of the opening which they published in the Dundee Weekly News early in the sixties. It leads to a very cramped game for Black.

(b) Best; though 3-8 is quite safe, thus:—3-8, c-21-17, 9-14, h-25-21. Same as var. 6 at 2nd move.

(c) 23-18 is strong, and was first introduced by Wyllie. Anderson.

(a) This double exchange forms the opening. In Anderson's "Second Edition" the title is explained as follows:—"Dyke (Scotch), a fence or stone wall. The name has probably arisen from observed resemblance; for at various stages of the game the pieces are frequently formed into straight lines." It is considered strong for the first player; but this is merely a matter of opinion, as neither side gets any advantage from the opening moves:

W. Blakeley v. J. Roberts, 1904.

(a) The first move forms the “Edinburgh,” so named by Mr. J. D. Janvier. It is a weak opening for Black, and requires careful play to draw against White’s strongest lines of attack.

(b) 24-20, 11-15, 22-17. Same as “Wagram” trunk, at 5th move.

(c) 23-19, 11-15. Same as “Will o’-the-Wisp” trunk, at 4th move.

(d) 23-18, 12-16, 24-20, 8-12, 27-24, 3-8, e-32-27, 16-19. Same as “Ayrshire Lassie,” var. 6, note (w), at 3rd move.

(e) 18-14, 10-17, 21-14. *6-10, 25-21, 10-17, 21-14, 16-19, 24-15, 11-25, 29-22, 1 6, now if 30-25, 6-10 wins for Black.—G. McMillan. But instead of 30-25, Mr. Clegg, of Providence, U.S.A., gives 32-27 to draw, thus:—

32 27	13 22	30 26	26 23	17 13	23 14
6 10	26 17	f-10 15	g- 6 9	9 18	15 19

(i) If 11-15, then 28-24 draws.

(j) 5-9 is a favourite line with some players, but it leads to a weak end-game:—5-9, 29-25, 7-10, 18-14, 9-18, 23-7, 3-10, 26-23; k-10-14, 24-19, 15-24, 28-19, 11-15, 19-10, 6-15, 31-26, 2-6, 23-18, 14-23, 27-11, 8-15, 26-23, 4-8, 23-18, 15-19. Drawn.—Murray v. Ainger, 1899.

(k) 11-16, 24-19, 15-24, 27-11, 8-15, 23-18, 15-19, 1-31-26, 6-9, and Black draws by careful play.

(l) Mr. W. M. Webster, of Center Sandwith, N.H., U.S.A., thinks 30-26 good enough to win for White.

This game afterwards occurred in a match between W. R. Barker and W. H. Broughton, in 1875.

(a) This move forms the "Glasgow." But another very popular way of forming it is by playing 9-14, instead of 11-16: W. replies 25-22, then 11-16, and the opening is formed. This opening has been known as the "Glasgow" since James Sinclair, of that city, played it against Anderson in their match at Hamilton, in 1828. But it was familiar to the old-time players long before that date. It is the favourite opening of all the leading experts, and is considered equally good for both sides.

(b) 3-8 here draws, but is not so good as 3-7:—3-8, 11-7. 2-11, 28-24, 11-15, 24-20, 15-19. 25-22, c-12-16, 20-11. 8-15, 26-23, 19-26, 30-23, 9-14, 31-26, 5-9, 17-13, 4-8, 32-28, 8-12, 23-19, 15-24, 28-19, 10-15. Drawn.—J. Lees.

(e) The novice should never throw the piece (11-8), as it leads to a very weak game for White.

(a) This is the usual method of forming the "Glasgow-Whilter." The double name was conferred upon it from the fact that it is a compound of the two openings. For practical purposes the defence is untenable; and even in restricted contests it is better that the opening should not be selected, as it is not a fair test of skill for any player to be compelled to form an opening in which the defence is of such a narrow nature.

(b) The "stroke" by 21-17 loses:—21-17, 14-30, 19-16, 12-19, 23-16, 30-23, 27-18, 20-27, 32-23, 11-20, 18-2, 10-15. B. wins.

(a) The "Kelso" is formed by the first move Drummond. In his edition of 1851, gave it this title and it has been known by this name ever since. The opening is rapidly becoming popular and will soon rank in equal favour with 11-16 or 9-14 as an opening move.

(b) 24-20, 15-19, 23-16, 12-19, 22-18, 9-14, 18-9, 5-14, 25-22, 11-15. Same as "Bristol," var. 5, at 2nd move.

(a) Completes the formation of the opening which was the particular favourite of the celebrated Andrew Anderson. The title was conferred upon it by that gentleman in honour of Laird and Lady Cather, who resided in Cambusnethan some ninety years ago. and were partial to the game of Draughts. The opening admits of unusual scope for the formation of intricate combinations and the power of the respective sides is evenly balanced.

No. 21.—“LAIRD AND LADY REFUSED.”

11-15, 23-19, 8-11, 22-17, 9-13, a-b-25-22. See position on diagram below.

(a) Though this defence loses, it has been thought advisable to include it amongst the openings. For some years it was a disputed question whether White could draw or not; but it is now admitted to be a loss. Wyllie considered White's game a complete wreck after 25-22, which forms the opening.

(b) This opening may be formed from the ‘Switcher,’ thus:—11-15, 21-17, 9-13, 25-21, 8-11, 23-19. Same as trunk, at 7th move. Also from the ‘Will-o'-the-Wisp’:—11-15, 23-19, 9-13, 21-17, 5-9, 25-21, 8-11. Same as trunk, at 8th move.

(a) This move distinguishes the opening. Anderson conferred the title upon it in compliment to a miller's daughter in Lanarkshire, who was an accomplished player and was partial to this opening. It is generally considered strong for Black, consequently the second player avoids it by playing 23-19 at 4th move. Restricted match games show the number of wins for either side to be pretty equal.

Sturges, 1800.

(a) This move forms the “Old Fourteenth,” the most popular opening of the game of Draughts. It was so named from being familiar to players as the fourteenth game in Sturges’s work, published in 1800. Drummond conferred upon it the titles of “Old Thirty-Ninth” and “Old Forty-First”; but these, like many other of his fancy names, are now obsolete. The Opening figures conspicuously in nearly every important match; in fact, it is so familiar to experts that it is merely played in matches so as to give the mind a little relaxation

(a) The distinctive move of the opening. As stated in the notes to the “Bristol,” the title was conferred upon it by Mr. J. D. Janvier, who was not, however, the first to treat this defence as a separate opening, as some very fine play can be found on it in “Drummond’s Fourth Edition,” published in 1866. It is the safest defence the learner can adopt in reply to 11-16.

(†) To this point by W. Payne, 1756, continuation by W. Veal, 1900.

(a) The characteristic move of the "Pioneer," so named by Mr. J. D. Janvier. It will be noticed that it acts as a pioneer, for it leads the way to several other openings. It has not, however, been recognised as a regular opening, except by Payne and Sturges.

(a) It is generally understood that the second move gives the title to the opening; but as the 27-20 “take” at this point leads to quite a distinct variety of play, it has been thought best to treat both lines as separate openings. Of the seven possible replies that White has to 11-15, this is the weakest, and the learner should avoid it when second player. However, it will remain notable, since with this opening C. H. Freeman defeated C. F. Barker in 1885.

(b) Best; though 25-22 and also 27-24 draw.

Drawn.—W. Bryden v. R. Taylor.

(a) This “take” is considered very weak. The match between Wyllie and Martins, in 1864, was the first contest in which it was introduced; and since then it has occasionally figured in restricted matches. It is, perhaps, inferior to the alternative and more popular way of taking the piece; still it seems to admit of a fairly firm defence

(b) 28-24, 8-11, c-25-22. Same as trunk at 11th move.

(c) Martins played 24-19 here, against Wyllie in 1864, and lost as follows:—24-19, 3-8, 32-28, 11-16, 20-11, 8-24, 28-19, 4-8, 31-27, 7-11, 18-15 11-18, 21-17, 14-21, 23-5, 8-11, 27-23, 6-9, 23-18, 9-13 25-22, 2-6, 26-23, 6-9, 29-25, 10-14, 19-15, 11-16, 15-10, 14-17. B. wins.

(d) 31-27, 16-20, 30-25, 2-7, 18-15, e-14-18, 23-14, 9-18, 22-17. Same as trunk at 37th move.

(g) By a rather curious coincidence. Messrs Bryden and Taylor came into this position from the "Whilter," thus:—11-15, 23-19, 7-11, 26-23, 3-7, 30-26, 11-16, 24-20, 15-24, 20-11, 8-15, 27-20, 4-8, 32-27, 8-11, 27-24, 9-14, 24-19, 15-24, 28-19, 11-16, 20-11, 7-16, 22-18, 5-9, 25-22. 1-5, 29-25. Drummond, 1866.

(a) This move gives the title to the opening. It has always been popular with all classes of players, as it leaves the forces very evenly balanced and leads to many fine combinations. There has been more play published on this than on any other opening, and although such is the case, there are many lines in it which have never been explored.

(b) The piece is almost invariably taken this way. For play on 26-17, see next opening.

(c) This forms the famous “Flora Temple” line which is considered strong for Black.

(d) The best reply; against anything else Black gains a slight advantage.

(e) The novice will notice, if 24-19 is played here Black gains a piece by 6-10, followed by 1-6, etc.

(i) 10-15 runs into the "Kelso."

(j) 24-19 is a line often adopted by experts. the best reply to which is 9-13; then 28-24 is best for White, as it leads to an even game.

(o) 27-24 here loses, and forms what is known as the "Old Farmer" or the "Goose Walk." It is generally credited to Payne, 1756; but it can be found in Spanish and Italian works published in the preceding century. The play is as follows:—27-24, 15-19, 24-15, 16-19, 23-16, 9-14, 18-9, 11-25, 32-27, 5-14, 27-23, 6-10, 26-22, 23-29, 30-25, 14-18, 22-6, 29-22, 31-27, 1-10, 27-24, 8-11. B. wins.

(p) For upwards of 40 years this line was considered untenable, 17-13 being the usual continuation; but in 1889 Mr. J. Maize published the above play, which has stood the test of criticism. The essential moves of the defence had been discovered by the veteran Martins previous to 1889, but he was holding it in reserve for use in match-play. The best play on the 17-13 line is as follows:—17-13, 7-10, 27-24, 9-14, 18-9, 5-14, 32-27, 1-5, 24-19, 15-24, 28-19, 14-17, 27-24, 5-9, 22-18, 10-14, 19-15, 3-8, 24-19, 2-7, 15-10, 6-22, 13-6, 22-25, 30-21, 14-18, 21-14, 18-27, 31-24, 16-30, 24-19, 30-26, 6-2, 26-23, 19-15. (a) This side “take” is very weak, as it leaves White with a cramped position. Up to the time of Wyllie and Martins’ match in 1864, no play had been published on this line. Since that time it has occasionally been played in matches, the results showing that Black has a decided advantage.

Sturges, 1800.

(a) This defines the “Souter.” Another common way of forming the opening is by playing 8-11, White replies 25-22, Black follows with 6-9, etc., thus avoiding the strong line of defence, as shown in var 16. Though this is a safe opening, it is rather intricate: and experts often use it to puzzle and confuse the learner, who should pay particular attention to the proper defence, as a weak defence in this opening almost invariably leads to disaster.

(b) 14-17, 21-14, 9-25, 29-22. c-10-14, 19-10, 6-15, 24-19, 15-24, 28-19, *1-6 draws, but is very weak.

Drawn — C J. Roger.

(a) The move from which the opening takes its name. As this was the favourite opening of the renowned ‘Herd Laddie.’ I cannot do better than quote his own words in reference to it. He said:—“The ‘Switcher’ was so named by my esteemed and dear old friend, Mr. Geo. Wallace, of Glasgow; and it was not inappropriately titled for with that weak and apparently silly opening I have ‘switched’ and perplexed many an eminent player, especially before publishing the match games played with Mr Martins, in 1864. Indeed, I have probably won more games by this particular opening than by any other opening upon the board.”

(b) 24-19 is often played by experts, but it is inferior to 17-14, thus:— 24-19, 15-24, 28-19, 11-16. 17-14, 10-17, 21-14, 6-10, 29-25, 10-17, 25-21, 1-6. 21-14. 6-10, 30-25, 10-17. 25-21, 2-6. 21-14, 6-10, 22-17, 13-22, 26-17, 4-8, 27-24. Same as var. 14 at 23rd move.

(c) 30-25. 4-8, 24-19, 15-24, 28-19. 11-16, 22-18, 13-22. 26-17, 16-20, 17-14, 10-17, 21-14. Same as “Second Double Corner,” var. 6. at 11th move.

(d) 29-25, 10-17, 25-21, 4-8. 21-14, e-15-18, 22-15, 11-18, f-24-19, 1-6, 30-25, 6-10, 25-21. 10-17, 21-14, 18-22, 26-17, 13-22, 23-18, 22-25. 27-23. Drawn.—J. Wyllie. The end-game is very weak for White.

(e) 15-19. 23-16, 12-19 24-15 11-25, 30-21, 13-17, 27-23. 8-11, 32-27, 11-15, 23-19 Drawn.—J. S. Wilson v. D. R. Hay.

(f) 30-25, *13-17, 26-22 17-26, 31-15, 7-10, 15-6, 1-17, 24-19, 17-21, 25-22, 21-25, 19-15 25-30, 22-17, 30-26, 23-18, 26-23, 17-14, 23-19, 15-10, 19-16. B. wins—J. Wyllie beat R. Martins in 1864.

(g) 29-25, at this stage, was the subject of the greatest controversy which has ever taken place in the history of the game. The question in dispute was whether White could draw after 29-25 was played, or not. It has been considered a draw since 1880, when Wyllie and Martins played 20 games restricted to this move. The following shows one of the strongest lines of attack:—29-25. *18-22, 25-18, 10-15, *24-19, 15-22, 27-24, 4-8, 24-20. 5-9, 14-5, 11-15, 19-10, 7-21, and White has to play very carefully to draw.

Wyllie and Martins' great "Switcher" Match is given complete in Gould's "Memorable Matches."

(h) 7-10, 14-7, 2-11, 27-23, 12-16, 30-26. 22-25, 23-18, 15-22, 26-17, 25-30. 17-14. Drawn—T. W. Walker v J. Lees. 2-6 at this stage allows the following neat win:—2-6, 27-23. 15-18, *14-9, 18-27, 9-2, 8-11, 24 19, 27-32, 19-15, 11-18, 2-11, 32-28, 11-15. W. wins.—Wyllie.

(b) 26-23, 3-7, 21-17, 11-16, 25-21, 7-11. Same as “Alma,” var. 5, at 3rd move.

(c) The characteristic move of the opening when played either at this stage or at the 2nd move, as in note (a). Drummond and Anderson were the first British authors to publish play on the opening; but play can be found on it in Continental works of a much earlier date. Anderson observes, “Whilter,’ or ‘Wholter’ (Scotch)—signifying an overturning, or a change productive of confusion—is remarkably applicable to many of the unexpected changes which occur in this game.”

(d) The best line of defence, though other lines will draw. White may play 29-25 and get an even game, thus:—29-25, 16-23, 27-9, 5-14, 26-23, 8-11, 31-27, 4-8, 23-19, 15-18, 22-15, 11-18, *27-23, 18-27, 32-23, 8-11, 25-22, *11-16, 24-20, 3-7, 20-11, 7-16, 30-26, 16-20, 19-16, 12-19, 23-16, 14-18. Drawn.—G. Gilbert and J. Yates.

(e) Beware of 3-7, which loses thus:—3-7, 22-18, 15-22, 19-15, 10-26, 17-3, 5-9, 30-23, 2-7, 3-10, 6-15, 24-19, 15-24, 28-19, 1-6, 21-17, 9-13, 27-24, 16-20, 23-18, 20-27, 32-23, 8-11, 18-14, 4-8, 23-18, 11-16, 19-15. W. wins.—Anderson.

(f) Drummond has shown that 7-11 here loses, as follows:—7-11, *30-26, g-14-18, 23-7, 16-30, 7-3, 15-19, 24-15, 11-18, 17-14, 8-11, 3-8, 11-15, 8-11, 18-22, 25-18, 15-22, 14-10. W. wins.

(g) 16-20, 19-16, 12-19, 23-7, 2-11, 24-19, 15-24, 28-19, 8-12, 26-22, 11-15, 32-28, 15-24, 28-19, 14-18, 22-15, 12-16, 19-12, 10-19, 17-14, 9-18, 27-23. W. wins.—Drummond.

(h) 10-15 draws but is weak:—10-15, 16-12, 22-25, 12-8, 15-22, 6-3, 7-10, 24-19, 11-15, 19-16, *22-26, 30-23, 15-19, 23-18, 19-23, 3-7, 2-11, 16-7, 25-30, 7-3, 30-26, 3-7, *4 8, 7-14, i-8-12. Drawn.—H. Spayth.

(i) 8-11, *23-24, 26-31, *32-28, 23-32, 24-19, 32-27, 19-15, 27-23, 15-8, j-23-19, 8-3, 31-26, k-3-7, 26-23, forcing White to retreat 7-3 for a draw, as 7-2 would allow Black a beautiful win, thus:—19-15, 18-11, 9-18, 2-9, 5-14, 17-10, 20-24. B. wins.—J. Macfarlane.

(j) 20-24, 28-19, 23-16, 8-3, 16-19, 3-7, 19-16, 7-2, 16-19, 18-15, 9-18, 2-9, 19-10, 9-14. W. wins.—R. H. Wilson.

(k) 3-8, 26-23, 8-12, 23-26 Drawn.—Macfarlane.

(l) This move is not to be found in any previous work on the game; and though the next move forces it back into published play, it limits Black to only two lines of attack, which is an advantage to the second player.

(m) If 7-10, White regains the man by 3-7, and has the best of the ending.

(a) Completes the formation of the "White Doctor." For many years it was considered that the opening did not admit of satisfactory draw for Black; but the various attempts to prove the White win having failed, the conclusion may be accepted that the opening is sound, though critical, for the first player.

(a) This double exchange gives the title to the opening. For many years it was considered very weak for the second player; but this opinion has been greatly modified since W. Beattie introduced the opening with such success in the London tournament of 1891. The 12-16 line of attack was considered very formidable; but Messrs. Martins and Beattie discovered a new defence which, although only superficially elucidated, gives White an equal game.

Drawn.—R. Martins v. C. F. Barker, 1888.

(a) This move gives the title to the opening. The name was conferred upon it by the late Mr. Geo. Wallace, of Glasgow, from the peculiarity of some of the variations where the player finds to his loss that he has been pursuing an ignis fatuus. Published play shows a majority of wins for the second player.

(b) The line most frequently adopted at the present day. Both 8-11 and 13-17 are very weak and should be avoided.

(c) The best reply; anything else gives Black the advantage.

(d) 28-24, 14-18 30-26, 16-19, 24-20, 2-7, 27-23, 18-27, 32-16, 8-11. Drawn. 30-26 at this stage also draws. thus:—30-26, 16-19, 27-23, 8-12, 23-16 12-19, 32-27, 4-8, 27-23, 1-6, 23-16, 8-11, 16-7, 3-19, 25-22. 6 10 31-27, 10-15, 27-23, 2-7, 23-16 14-18 Drawn.—H. Christie v. C. Horsfall

NOTES ON THE POSITIONS.

No. 1 is universally known as the "First Position." This, along with what are termed the Second, Third and Fourth Positions, is to be found in Gould's "Problem Book," which contains 1,084 selected problems suitable for all classes of players. The positions should be thoroughly studied by the learner, as they frequently occur in play, and are not easily carried to a successful issue except by the most experienced players.

Nos. 2, 3, 4, 9, 11, 13, 19, 21 and 22 are simple and have often been published; but they are included in this collection to illustrate the power of "the move" or "opposition."

Nos. 7 and 8 are given to show two different "settings" of the same idea by two of the greatest problemists.

No. 10 is a practical end-game from the "Single Corner." The learner will notice that Black manœuvres his pieces so as to relieve the imprisoned king on 32. When that is accomplished the game is won.

No. 12 is a form of the "Second Position" that should be carefully studied by the novice.

No. 16 contains a cute little manœuvre which frequently occurs in play.

No. 17 is by a cousin of the author, and was drawn across board.

No. 18 is of peculiar interest, as it is a correction of the last game played by the late lamented Wm. Strickland. Mr. Bownas, his opponent, took the exchange (28-24) and the game was drawn.

No. 26 is left as drawn by Sturges, and was accepted as correct by Jas. Tonar in his revision of Sturges in the old "Draught Board," by R. E. Bowen in his "Cross" book, and by J. D. Janvier in his "Sturges." It forms Problem No. 16 of Mr Leggett's "Gems from Two Worlds"; and is a fine specimen of Dr. Brown's genius. Referring to the position, Mr. Janvier remarks, "If Dr. Brown has an idle knot hole around, I would like to engage it for the combined intellect of Bowen, Tonar and myself to retreat to until we recover from the shock that his correction has given us, for we will have to own up that he has laid us all out in the cold."

No. 27 was first published in the Dundee People's Journal, Sept. 28, 1889, and was noticed by the editor, W. Taylor, as a "problem which will rank with the first-class." It afterwards went the rounds of the various columns in this country and America, and was claimed as original by J. Rennie, Draughts Editor of the Toronto Mail; but the credit of this little gem belongs to Mr. Byars.

No. 30 is by a contemporary of Anderson and a contribution to that author's celebrated "Second Edition." Mr. Muir was one of the strongest of the "Andersonian school" of players.

No. 32 is a fine end-game from the "Bristol." The sacrifice of the piece at the 17th move of the solution forces a neat win.

No. 41 is of frequent occurrence; and it is difficult to say who was the first to publish it. It may be appropriately called "Fifth Position," as is suggested by Mr. F. Tescheleit in the "British Draughts Player," "Whilter," Exercise No 9.

The foregoing Notes on the Positions are by the Author of this work. The notes that follow are by the Reviser.

No. 23. A fine practical ending. The win might easily be missed.

No. 28. A beautiful and characteristic touch of strategy by one of the greatest strategists.

No 31. A pretty draw which corrects a game between two London experts.

No. 33. A very narrow draw, the author by a clever ruse brings the White side through.

No. 34. The final coup is cleverly forced.

No. 35. The win is neat, poor White gets quite a shock.

Nos. 36 and 49 are smart corrections of cross board play which occurred between North of England experts, who only made a draw in each case.

Nos. 37, 38, 47, 50 and 51 are exceedingly fine examples of the deferred "shot" or "stroke."

No. 39 is a practical problem of much merit.

No. 42. A beautiful little point in end-play is brought out. Something similar occurred in a Scottish Tourney game.

No. 43. A magnificent conception. A gem of purest ray serene.

No. 44. The touch of a master-hand.

No. 45. A flawless gem.

No. 48. Contains a neat and instructive idea.

No. 52. A brilliant pyrotechnic display by "The Stroke Problem King."
