OLD SETTLERS' DAY CELEBRATION A SUCCESS

Many People in Attendance in Spite of Threatening Weather.

Once more have the people of Campbell done credit to themselves as entertainers. For the last 15 years has the 22d of February been observed as a day of celebration in memory of the early inhabitants of this community as well as that of the Father of Our Country. Notwithstanding the showers in the morning and the threatening aspect of the weather throughout the day a large number of people gathered to enjoy the excellent literary and musical program prepared.

Mrs. Farley returned Wednesday after a ten days' absence to the city, where she has been in attendance on her son Guy who has been very ill. He is now much improved, we are pleased to report.

Congregational Church.

The Theme Sunday morning will be "A Monster, almost human," being fourth in the series of character studies leading up to Easter.

C. E. topic: "A Good Citizenship Meeting," Mr. Roy Archibald, leader. Theme for evening service: "Prepared for Life's Best."

The Church is planning for a reception in honor of Dr. T. O. Douglass, "The Grand Old Man of Iowa." This reception will be a rare opportunity for all to meet with Dr. Douglass, as well as enjoy good fellowship with others. Dr. Douglass will speak. Come and enjoy a treat with others.

You are welcome at any and all of our services if you have no other church home. Geo. E. Atkinson, Pastor.

One of the most delightful affairs of the year was a social given recently by the boys of C. E. society to the girls. About fifty young people were present and spent the evening in games, and later in the evening they partook of a hearty supper prepared by the boys.

MATRIMONIAL

Adam-Metzler

An interesting event occurred last Monday evening at the Congregational church when the pastor, Rev. Geo. E. Atkinson, performed the ceremony which made Mr. Alexander Adam, of San Francisco, and Miss Ethel Metzler, of Cleveland, Ohio, husband and wife. Mrs. Lillian Woodley, sister of the bride, from Cleveland, acted as matron of honor and Mr. H. Harper as best man. The ushers were Roy Archibald and Easton Carter. Miss Myrtle Arnett played the wedding march. The church was beautifully decorated in green and white, being the work of the Searchlight class. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Preston. The bride and groom formerly lived in Campbell, where they have a host of friends. They will reside in San Francisco.

Bailey-Lunt

At the home of Mrs. A. P. Merrill, last Wednesday evening, Mr. Ralph E. Bailey and Miss Florence E. Lunt were married by Rev. Geo. E. Atkinson. The bride is a relative of Mrs. Merrill, and only relatives and near friends were present, among them being the bride's parents, Captain and Mrs. Lunt from New England, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chase of Los Gatos. The bride and groom both are from New England and will make their home in the Northern part of this State, where Capt. Lunt has lumber interests.

Ross-Durkee

Mr. Harold Ross, of San Jose, and Miss Louise Durkee, of Berkeley, were married at high noon last Saturday at the Baptist church in San Jose by the new Pastor, Dr. Dean. These young people are well known in Campbell and visited here this past week. They will reside at Berkeley where the groom is manager of a florist company.

Rasmussen-Peacock

Mr. George Rasmussen and Miss Ida Peacock were united in marriage last Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Peacock, at San Jose. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Cliff and has many friends here. The young couple attended the Rebekah dance last Tuesday night.

Lessons in China Painting.

Mrs. Lewis C. Dick is prepared to take several pupils in China painting. Lessons of three hours each, one afternoon per week. Terms, 75c per lesson, or six lessons for $4.00. Kihl for firing. Residence, Harrison avenue, Campbell. Enquire at office of the Press.

Mrs. R. W. Kennedy returned Wednesday from Sacramento where she went Sunday to see her brother, Earnest Giles. Some two months ago Mr. Giles fell from a wagon behind a runaway team and broke his leg. As the wound did not heal properly an operation was necessary to remove a part of the bone last week.

"The Biography of a Boy."

The above caption is the title of a lecture to be given by Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, L. L. D., of the Methodist Episcopal church, to be held at the Victory Theater, San Jose, Friday evening, March 4th, at 8 p. m. The price of admission is 50 cents, and tickets can be secured from the editor of the Press. LADIES' GUILD GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

"The Queen of Fame" Draws a Large Attendance

On Friday evening of last week the Ladies' Guild of the Congregational church gave a novel entertainment, which called for considerable histrionic ability in its presentation. Twenty-six ladies were called upon to personate for the time a like number of representative women celebrated in history. Summoned by the "Goddess of Fame, each was commanded to make her plea to be crowned Queen, by virtue of bearing the fairest name. Although only a short time was spent in preparation, the result was highly creditable to those who participated. Each eloquent claimant in turn seemed to be entitled to receive the crown and only a being possessed of the superior insight of a goddess could give a just award. This was finally bestowed upon the noble character, Frances E. Willard.

A large and appreciative audience was in attendance, and a neat sum was added to the treasury of the Guild. The names of the participants are here given.

Goddess of Liberty, Marion Coneland, who sang Susa's stars and stripes forever, accompanied by four boys and girls bearing flags who joined in the chorus.

Goddess of Fame, Mildred Duncan, who summoned her subjects to appear and show why they should receive the crown.

Following are the names of those who represented the character of some famous woman: Queen Elizabeth, Mrs. Steward; Pocahontas, Cynthia Bursinger; Zantippe, Mrs. Hubbard; Martha Washington, Mrs. Parker; Jenny Lind, Charlotte Davis; Betsey Bobbit, Mrs. Hoag; Maud Ballington Booth, Grace Townsend; Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Mrs. Whitman; Rose Bonheur, Ada Collins; Mrs. Partington, Mrs. Parso; Carrie Nation, Mrs. Richter; Ruth, Ruth Hoag; Florence, Nightingale; Frances E. Willard, Miss Marshman; Mother Goose, Helen Marshman; Harriet Newell, Miss Jessie Lewis; Elizabeth Fry, Mrs. Smith; Harriet Beecher Stowe, Estella Brown; Miriam, Dolly Binkensop. Accompanied by six little girls with umbrellas who joined in the chorus. Sappho, Mrs. Woodard; Jeanne D'Arc, Myra Hoag; Samantha Allen, Mrs. Merrill; Julia Ward Howe, Mrs. Poor; Tabitha Primrose, Winnie Fabinger.

As the Goddess places the Laurel wreath upon the head of Frances E. Willard whom she selects as the one most worthy to be crowned, little girls at a distance begin singing the crowning song and march upon the platform bringing flowers for the Queen. At this point the characters upon the platform gather round the Goddess and Queen and sing the Laurel Wreath. The names of the children who took part were Frank Mendel, Harold Marshman, Earnest Downing, Harold Lancaster, Goy Robson, Gladys Townsend, Genevieve-Davis, Elizabeth Duncan, Ruth Stewart and Ruth Cutting.

Baseball Penant Unfurled.

At the Los Gatos May Festival last year the Campbell high school boys won the baseball penant in the contest of the Interurban Athletic Union. The coveted trophy was finally received and last Monday was unfurled in the presence of the student body. Prof. Smith made remarks appropriate to the occasion.

Freshman Class Banquet.

The Freshman Class of the Campbell Union High School spent a delightful evening with games and music at the home of Vaudine Putnam, one of its members, February 18th.

The feature of the evening was the delicious banquet, which was provided and served by the boys of the class, who insisted that the excellent cakes as well as other refreshments were made entirely by themselves. The dainty place cards were a real work of art and were done by Miss Margart Hinchliffe. Toasts were given by Prof. Snow, Mr. Putnam and members of the class, and were responded to by the Class President Mr. Carl Scholz; Mr. George Beaver an upperclassman also kindly responded to the topic "The Freshman."

After the supper hour games were resumed. The evening was very successful and all present enjoyed a very merry time.

Merle Lloyd and wife, of San Francisco, spent Sunday and Monday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Dembigh, of Berkeley, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson on Virginia avenue this week.

Too bad the pretty little park adjoining the railroad could not have had some attention before the celebration of Tuesday.

The main streets of Campbell look decidedly improved since the hoe and shovel brigade passed along last Monday.

J. H. Comys and family, from Los Gatos, yesterday moved into the Preston house on Campbell avenue, formerly occupied by Harlow Plimpton.

Judge Scott, of the Supreme Court of Cheyenne, Wyo., arrived last Sunday evening for a few weeks' visit with his family, who reside here. Mr. Scott is a son-in-law of D. H. Coates.

A new switch has been placed at the Campbell avenue crossing, connecting the main line with the west siding. This will leave the track used by the Ainsley Packing Co. undisturbed, while cars are being loaded, etc.

C. B. Macle recently purchased the property where the old cannery was located on Santa Cruz avenue, Los Gatos, and is planning as a fine plant running at that place. Mr. Miracle reports a good business in his line at both places, and further states that there will be much building at Los Gatos this spring.

Last Sunday, being the seventeenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walter and also Mrs. Walter's fortieth birthday, an appropriate celebration was enjoyed at the home of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Coates. A son, Geo. Gleason, of Suro, Nevada, was present. In the afternoon Misses Olive and Agnes Scott joined the party and assisted in dispensing with the delicious birthday cake and punch.

Assemblage of Paragraphs That Present Important Occurrences
in Condensed Form.

San Diego.—A J. Morganstern, one of the well known attorneys of this city, Los Angeles and San Francisco, was arrested several days ago in this city on charge of passing bad checks.

Oakland.—A movement has been started here for the erection of an auditorium and convention hall that will be the largest on the Coast. Funds are being raised by public subscription.

Palo Alto.—While the university authorities on the Stanford campus have managed to get the measles epidemic well in hand, and have prevented any further spread of the disease, the children of the local schools have contracted the disease. It may be necessary to close some of the schools.

Seattle, Wash.—The steamship Victoria, once the most handsomely equipped passenger vessel on Puget Sound, was sold at United States Marshal's sale recently for $15,050 to W. D. Hofus, of this city, who, it is said, intends to dismantle her. The Victoria never paid operating expenses.

San Leandro.—That no new City Hall will be built in San Leandro this year was the decision of the members of the Chamber of Commerce after listening to the report made by the committee appointed to select a municipal site. The chairman stated that the committee had been unable to secure any reasonable options on desirable property.

Los Angeles.—Twenty-one saloon licenses were revoked by the Police Commission on the ground that they were held by "dummies" of the so-called "brewery-trust." This action followed a report by a special investigating committee which alleged that the brewers were attempting to control the entire saloon business of the city.

Napa.—At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Napa county the matter of issuing bonds for $400,000 for macadamizing the roads of the county was discussed. It was decided to have a postal-card election throughout the county to see what the sentiment of the voters is on the proposition. A postal vote is to be in by March 12th.

San Francisco.—William Arthur Hammond, aged 19 years, having confessed to the theft of a horse and buggy belonging to J. B. Bocard, was admitted to probation by Judge Cabanis. Hammond said that he was cold and hungry when he stole the horse and buggy, having pawned his watch and overcoat and being desperate. He has been returned to his home in Portland.

Auburn.—Charles Jeffries of Reno, a brother of Big Jim Jeffries, ex-champion of the world, has just purchased the Jim Carson ranch near Auburn, and rumor has it that the pugilist will establish his training quarters here for his coming fight with Jack Johnson. It is an ideal spot, situated on the main county road just outside the city limits. The climatic conditions here are excellent for training purposes.

Seattle.—Max Thurma, charged with being a "white slave" owner, was found guilty by a jury in the Superior Court. Evidence introduced during the trial, consisting largely of correspondence between Thurma and friends in other cities, showed that Thurma was making a profit of $150 a week. The evidence was secured by United States immigration inspectors who are waging a war on the "white slave" trade in the Northwest.

Portland, Ore.—The largest amount ever awarded by a jury in a damage suit for personal injuries in Multnomah County was given by a jury which returned a verdict for $22,500 in the case of Ada E. Blue against the Portland Railway, Light and Power Company. Miss Blue sued for $100,000 damages for injuries sustained when she was thrown off a car while it was rounding a curve and dragged at its steps a quarter of a mile last May.

POWDER EXPLOSION HURLS WORKMEN INTO ETERNITY

Large Part of Alameda County Shaken by Terrific Concussion.

San Francisco.—In an explosion that racked every house within a ten-mile radius of West San Lorenzo, Alameda county, five men were killed instantly, four were fatally injured, while the plant of the Trojan Powder Works is totally destroyed, involving a property loss of $50,000. Two of the dead are Chinese. The explosion was one of the worst ever experienced in this portion of Alameda county. That the list of the dead did not reach twenty or thirty is considered marvelous, in view of the fact that there were fifty employees at work in the various buildings of the plant.

The cause of the explosion may never be known. William Montgomery, the only man alive of the employees in the drying-house that can talk, declares that he was standing near the open waiting for a case of explosive. Suddenly there was a flare of flame and the next thing he remembers was picking himself up off the ground fifty feet away from the building. He had been blown clear through the door, and would have been killed with the others but for its being open. He escaped with a few cuts on his face.

The force of the explosion was terrific. Houses in San Lorenzo, San Leandro and Hayward rocked violently and dishware was thrown to the floor. In the San Lorenzo school a huge plate glass window in the front of the structure was blown out, while several chimneys in San Lorenzo were twisted out of plumb. In the houses within a mile of the plant every window was wrecked, while the Haley place on the Roberts Landing road was twisted on the foundation.

Still After Sugar Companies.

New York.—Following further presentation of testimony regarding the sugar underweighing frauds to the Federal Grand Jury it was intimated that further indictments of higher-up sugar company officials might be expected shortly. It was stated that the Federal Sugar Refining Company had practically agreed to pay the Government an amount in excess of $100,000 which the Government claims on account of underweighing of raw sugar cargoes.

Jail, But no Fine, for Banker.

Salem, Ore.—J. Thorburn Ross, president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company of Portland at the time of the failure of that institution and who was indicted and convicted of serious irregularities in the conduct of the bank's affairs, must serve the five-year prison sentence imposed by the lower court. The Supreme court affirmed the conviction, but remitted the fine of $576,853 which had been assessed against the banker.

Last Chief of the Tribe.

Redding.—Two hundred Wintoon Indians, the last survivors of a once famous tribe, gathered at Antler to pay their last tribute to Chief Alexander, who died a few days ago at the age of 90 years. The old chief, who was buried with all the honors due his rank, was in early days a great friend of the white race. No successor to Alexander will be chosen.

Mixed Doughnut and Machine Oil.

Laurel, Md.—A mistake in the delivery of two barrels of oil nearly caused fatal results here when fifty persons were made violently ill by eating doughnuts prepared in machine oil instead of cooking oil. It developed that the machine oil had been ordered by a hardware dealer, who received instead the barrels intended for a baker.

Appointed By Governor.

Sacramento.—Governor Gillett appointed Theodore T. Gier of Oakland and H. A. Jastro of Bakersfield, as members of the State Board of Agriculture to succeed themselves in the expired terms. A. J. Fairbanks of Wilts was reappointed to the Board of Managers of the Mendocino State Hospital to succeed himself, term expired.

Old Indian Captures Bad Man.

El Paso, Tex.—Tom Hanson, the Arizona ex-convict, who, after his release from prison, carried out his threat and killed two men whose testimony had convicted him, was captured last week in the mountains near Globe, A. T. The capture was made by Chief Chilchauna, who is 70 years old.

Premier Laurier's Wife Fined.

Ottawa, Ont.—Lady Laurier, wife of Canada's Premier, was fined $20 and costs by Magistrate O'Keefe because her automobile exceeded the speed limit of ten miles an hour allowed in city streets. The judge held the owner and not the driver of the machine guilty.

What the Nation's Lawmakers Are Doing at Washington

Washington.—Secretary Meyer had the last word on his plan for the reorganization of the navy before the house committee on naval affairs last week. In all probability the committee will vote that a year be allowed in which Secretary Meyer can carry out his new plans. During his address Meyer spoke on submarines, advocating that the surplus of the naval appropriation at the end of each fiscal year be expended for the building of submarines for the protection of the Pacific Coast. This suggestion struck the committee quite favorably, for, as the surplus at the end of each year is in the vicinity of $2,000,000, it would enable the Pacific Coast to have built at least four submarines a year without any extra appropriation. Secretary Meyer will give the committee more detailed data on this subject in the near future.

The Senate appointed as its committee to investigate the increased cost of living Senators Lodge, Gallinger, McComber, Crawford, Simmons and Clarke of Arkansas. Senator Elkins declined the chairmanship because he was busy with the administration bill. Tokio.—The leading newspapers comment conservatively on the action of the Committee on Immigration of the House of Representatives in unanimously voting to report favorably the Hayes exclusion bill. They express the conviction that Congress will not pass the measure, which, while not mentioning Japan, nevertheless would prevent subjects of the Emperor from exercising the treaty rights which the Japanese government practically waived without convention out of consideration for the wishes of the people of the Pacific Coast of the United States two years ago.

Buildings Erected Since Great Fire Number Thousands

San Francisco.—In a report to the Board of Public Works, Adjuster E. J. Jolly shows that $138,754,622 has been expended for new buildings in the rehabilitation of San Francisco. The insurance companies admit having adjusted losses in the sum of $180,000,000. This leaves a considerable margin yet before the insurance payments are offset by the cost of new buildings.

Since the great fire 386 buildings have been torn down, 242 having been razed last year. The number of buildings altered for the same period is 8,295. There have been 14,534 frame buildings erected, 3,258 having been put up the year of the fire, 4,195 the next year, 4,154 in 1908 and 2,928 last year. The total of class A buildings is 96, of which 42 were erected in 1907. The total of class B structures is 1,115, of which 59 were built in 1907. Class C buildings have reached a total of 1,585, of which 552 were erected in 1906, 487 in 1907, 253 in 1908 and 295 in 1909. These figures give a total of 1,796 buildings of slow burning construction and 141,534 frame buildings, or a total of 163,330 new buildings in three and a half years. The number of buildings destroyed in the fire was 28,188, leaving 11,858 not rebuilt. Of the buildings destroyed 24,671 were frame and 3,517 slow burning.

According to Jolly's figures $10,624,017 has been expended in alterations. The totals for new buildings are given as follows: Frame, $59,959,224; class A, $21,547,260; class B, $8,472,871; class C, $48,775,267. These figures show that the 1,706 buildings of slow burning construction cost of $78,795,398, or an average of $48,726. For the 14,534 frame buildings the cost is given as $59,959,224, or an average of $4,125.

Now He Knows Why a Sausage Is Called "Hot Dog"

Los Angeles.—The question, "Why is a wiener sandwich called a hot dog?" was answered in the development that followed the finding of two mutilated bits of metal in one of the sausages which Mrs. G. E. Sewright cooked for her husband's midday meal. Sewright was enjoying the wieners when his teeth struck a hard substance, which on being drawn out, proved to be a bit of brass bearing the word "dog." The second piece found in the same sausage was engraved with the number 1443.

Sewright stopped eating and hurried to the license bureau at the City Hall, where his suspicions were verified by the information that license No. 1443 had been issued to Miss Anna Bell of 300 South Los Angeles street. "Did you own dog license 1443?" Sewright asked, when he reached Miss Bell's home. "Oh, do you know where Sparker is?" eagerly inquired the young woman. "Only part of him," replied Sewright as he departed.

Chained Wife to Wall of Room Because He Loved Her

Paris.—The disappearance of the young wife of a druggist named Parat, whose pharmacy is near the scene of the Steinheil murder, was cleared up the other day when the police broke in and found the woman heavily chained between the bed and the wall, horribly scarred.

In addition to the chain, which was strongly padlocked around the neck, a cruel contrivance resembling a coat of mail, but strengthened by a belt of copper rings, enveloped the body. Both objects could be removed only by the use of keys.

The woman told a pitiful tale of two years' imprisonment and martyrdom. Last November, when still in chains, she gave birth to her fifth child. The husband refused to call a doctor.

Parat, who was arrested, declared that he loved his wife, but was extremely jealous of her.

School Children Must be Vaccinated Declares Court

Santa Cruz.—The state law making the vaccination of public school children compulsory was sustained by Superior Judge Lucas F. Smith in granting a preliminary writ of mandate to the State Board of Health, which petitioned for an order preventing unvaccinated school children from attending the public schools of Watsonville. It is said that about 250 children in that town will be affected by the order. The Watsonville Board of School Trustees, which refused to obey the order of the state health officers to enforce vaccination, was cited to appear on February 25th to show cause why a permanent writ should not be granted. The Trustees, backed by County School Superintendent Price, propose to fight the matter to the court of last resort.

Canal Will Be Finished on Time.

San Francisco.—That the Panama canal would be completed by January 1, 1915, was the assurance received a few days ago by the exposition officials from Colonel C. A. Devol, chief quartermaster at the isthmus. Devol was for many years in charge of the transport service at San Francisco and has watched the movements for the great fair in 1915 with deep interest.

Plumed Knights Will Parade.

San Francisco.—Plumed knights will parade the streets of San Francisco Thursday afternoon, April 21, the opening day of the conclave of the grand commandery of the Knights Templar of California. As a departure the state gathering this year will be semi-public, with the result that thousands of Masons will be attracted from all parts of the state for the pageants and business sessions.

PREACHER'S LOUD RAIMENT TOO STARTLING FOR FLOCK

Fancy Socks and Other Insignia of the Sport Prove His Undoing.

La Jara, Col.—If a minister—a Methodist minister—wears gay hose, turned up trousers and fashionable shirts, is he a sport and unfit to lead his flock?

Apparently the official board of the First Methodist Church of La Jara and Bowen thinks such a mode of dressing indicates a "sport," for, as a result of charges brought against him, Rev. B. F. Turner, pastor of the church, who came to La Jara from the East three months ago, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted.

When Rev. Turner came to La Jara he was immediately placed under investigation. Mrs. Ella Hamilton, one of the church stewards, finally acquainted the minister with the following beliefs:

That he turned up his trousers.
That he wore a cap.
That his shirts were fashionable.
That his trousers were light-colored.
That he went skating with young people of the church.

Summarized, she believed him a "man of the world."

Heated discussions before the board resulted in the minister's resignation, but failed to bring harmony, for the church board also has resigned.

Didn't Want to be Called a Sausage.

San Francisco.—Casti Beato, who was severely beaten by Luigi Casella while returning home from a dance in an Italian hall, recovered $750 damages from his assailant by the verdict of a jury rendered in Judge Sturtevant's court. The trouble all started over the offer of a dancer to stand on his ear and pick up a piece of paper from the floor in his mouth. There was much discussion over the possibility of this acrobatic feat, in the midst of which Beato called Rafael Casella a sausage. This fired the blood of the man thus smirched and he gave Beato a beating.

Bond Election Illegal.

San Anselmo.—Keen disappointment is felt by citizens here at the rejection of the $15,000 sewer bonds by E. H. Rollins & Co., the bond brokers of San Francisco. According to the contention of the firm's attorney the bonds should not be accepted because the entire town of San Anselmo did not vote on the issue, but only the section known as the Bush tract, in which the sewer system was to have been installed. The $40,000 bonds for road work, however, have been accepted, and much needed repair work on local streets will be commenced next month.

Boni's Parents Want Gould Money.

Paris.—The Marquis and Marquise De Castellane have instituted suit against the Princess De Sagan for $13,600 back annuities which they allege the Count and Countess, in the marriage settlement of 1898, engaged themselves to pay at the rate of $5600 a year. This annuity was paid until the Count and Countess De Castellane were divorced, when the Countess, who was formerly Miss Anna Gould, refused to contribute further to the support of her former husband's parents.

Jeff Says Dice Were Loaded.

Nevada City.—James J. Jeffries is defendant in a suit over a gambling debt alleged to be due Charles J. Stout and Charles J. Miller, and the pugilist has been summoned to appear in court here February 28 to fight the case. Stout and Miller allege that Jeffries gave them his "I O U" for $5,000. Jeffries declared the dice were loaded and refused to settle.

Has Army of Homeless Cats.

Chicago.—There are 700,000 homeless cats in Chicago, according to Hugo Krause, superintendent of the Anti-Cruelty Society. Since the advent of cement sidewalks and modern flat buildings, he says, cats are not needed to catch rats and mice, and therefore he recommends that the surplus of felines be put out of existence by means of charcoal fumes.

Death of Major Androus.

Pomona.—Major S. N. Androus, former Assemblyman and Senator from this district, at one time postmaster here, is dead at the age of 70 years. Major Androus was at one time president of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, and by reason of his political affiliations was well known in the State.

Record Fine for Autoist.

Boston.—Christian de Guigne, son of the wealthy mine owner of California and student at Harvard university, paid a fine of $125 in the Roxbury police court recently for reckless automobile driving. The fine imposed upon the Californian stands as a record for the Boston police court.

Happenings in Almost Every Part of the Earth.

Washington.—A number of army and navy officers will soon leave for Panama to select sites for canal fortifications.

Washington.—The national legislative convention of the American automobile association adopted resolutions favoring uniform state automobile legislation and federal registration of motor cars.

Huron, S. D.—The worst snow and wind storm of the winter prevailed throughout Central and Eastern South Dakota last week. Railroad traffic was badly tied up, and wire communication delayed.

Montgomery, Ala.—Edward Bowman, 11 years old, was shot by Mrs. W. H. Pierson and died a few days later. The lad ran up to put a valentine on the porch and was taken for a burglar, the woman shooting through the door.

Kansas City.—A train of sixteen cars of oranges from Colton, Cal., to Kansas City, made a record freight run, covering the distance in twenty-two hours and twenty minutes ahead of schedule. The record for the distance was six days flat.

London.—Having been ostracized by King Edward and English society on account of her half naked dances, Lady Constance Richardson will appear in vaudeville in New York. Her husband, Sir Edward Richardson, has suffered financial reverses and needs the money.

New York.—Miss Augusta Mallett, formerly a governess in the home of Joseph W. Harriman, a nephew of the late E. H. Harriman, was committed to the psychopathic ward of the Bellevue hospital on the complaint of Mrs. Harriman and others, who testified that she had bombarded them with rambling letters.

New York.—The new sixteen-inch coast defense gun at Sandy Hook, said to be the largest piece of its kind in the world, has just had its first trial from its position overlooking New York harbor. The strictest secrecy was maintained, but the concussion following the firing was plainly felt at Atlantic Plains, six miles away.

Cleveland, O.—Mrs. S. K. Wateman, a leader among the militant suffragettes of America, died here of pneumonia contracted while lobbying in behalf of an anti-cigarette law before the Ohio Legislature. Mrs. Wateman was known as an ardent Republican stump speaker and was several times a candidate for office.

Ontario.—Within fifteen minutes of the hour of his wife's death a year ago, Judge William M. Smith passed away. His passing seemed the fulfillment of a wish, for on February 3d he expressed a desire to die on the anniversary of the demise of his wife. Judge Smith was mayor of Ontario when illness compelled his retirement to private life four months ago.

Harrisburg, Pa.—The strange fatality that has pursued some of the principal figures in the capitol scandal was again brought to public mind when John E. Stott, one of the chief witnesses in the celebrated case, was found dead in the bathroom of the house where he made his home while in Harrisburg. He is the sixth man in the case to die. His death was due to heart trouble.

Santiago, Chile.—The condition and behavior of Japanese emigrants to Chile are matters of comment generally. It appears that, as in the case of other batches of emigrants, a very large number of ill-conditioned and inferior Japanese coolies have gone to South America, and the result is that not only among the people of that country, but among their own nation they have an extremely bad reputation.

Halifax, N. S.—The new naval college which is to be built in connection with the Canadian Government's navy, will be located at Halifax, as the Atlantic station of the two new Bristol cruisers, the six destroyers and the cruiser Niobe, which is to be purchased at a cost of $2,000,000. Halifax will be the Atlantic naval headquarters. The annual estimated cost of the Halifax naval station will be about $3,000,000. The pay of officers and men for the boats will total nearly $1,000,000.

Oldest Land in the World.

Stretching across Canada, north of the St. Lawrence, and ending in the Mississippi, is a range of low granite hills called the Laurentian Highlands, says Charles D. Stewart in the Atlantic.

These hills are really mountains that are almost worn out, for they are the oldest land in America, and, according to Agassiz, the oldest in the world.

In the days when there was nothing but water on the face of the globe, these mountains came up—a long island of primitive rock with universal ocean chafing against its shores. None of the other continents had put in their appearance at the time America was thus looking up. The United States began to come to light by the gradual uplifting of this land to the north and the appearance of the tops of the Alleghenies, which were the next in order. Later the Rockies started up. The United States grew southward from Wisconsin and westward from the Blue Ridge. An early view of the country would have shown a large island which is now northern Wisconsin, and a long, thin tongue of this primitive rock sticking down from Canada into Minnesota, and these two growing states looking out over the waters at the mere beginnings of mountain ranges east and west. They were waiting for the rest of the United States to appear.

A Sight Worth Seeing.

Sea captains are good "yarn spinners," and some of their tales are so funny that they ought to have happened, whether they really did or not. One of the commanders of the transatlantic fleet, says the Washington Star, tells this story and vouches for its truth:

"One trip," he said, "there was a woman who bothered the officers and me to death about whales. Her one desire was to see a whale. A dozen times a day she besought us to have her called if a whale hove in sight.

"I said rather impatiently to her one afternoon:

"But, madam, why are you so anxious about this whale question?"

"'Captain,' she answered, 'I want to see a whale blubber. I must be very impressive to see such an enormous creature cry.'"

A teal Danger.

"Gentlemen," said the president of the public service corporation, in his address to the stockholders, "it is my duty and pleasure to inform you that our balance sheet for the year now closing will show a highly satisfactory condition of affairs. We have added materially to our assets, and our profits have been such that we shall be able to declare a very handsome dividend. In fact, gentlemen," he added, lowering his voice, "our prosperity gives me some uneasiness. I cannot disguise or conceal from you an apprehension that J. Pierpont Morgan may have found it out and may be even now preparing to open his jaws and engulf this corporation in his capacious and insatiable maw!"

A dense silence ensued, and a thrill of horror ran through the assembly.

Well may we ask, "Who is safe these days?"—Chicago Tribune.

"Now when I come home she bawls out, 'Clean off dem boots before you comes in dat dore, you black moke!'"

Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, does not stain or color the hair even to the slightest degree. Gray hair, white hair, blonde hair is not made a shade darker. But it certainly does stop falling hair. No question about that.

FERTILE TRACT WILL BE OPEN TO ENTRY MARCH 1.

Climate, Soil and Range of Products Cannot Be Excelled.

A partial opening of the Yuma Irrigation Project is to take place in the local land office at Los Angeles March 1st at 9 o'clock a. m. The lands to be available for entry at this time are the most desirable in the project, owing to their location being a part of the Indian Reservation adjoining Yuma. These lands are on the California side of the Colorado River and are level and remarkably fertile. A system of distributing canals with concrete headworks and bridges has been constructed and about fifty miles of levees built and tested. The levee system protects the bottom lands from the summer floods, and are an important feature of the system.

The lands covered by the canals of this project have yielded an average crop return above $50 an acre in cereals and forage and from $150 to $500 an acre in fruit and vegetables. The Yuma Valley in climate, soil and products closely resembles the famous valley of the Nile and under an adequate and permanent system of irrigation Yuma will become the center of one of the most productive areas in all the west.

Practically all the crops of the temperate and many of those of the semi-tropical zones are successfully grown here, and owing to the wonderful fertility of the soil and the favorable climatic conditions the crop yields are very large. Alfalfa yields from 7 to 12 tons per acre and sells at $6 to $10 loose in the stack, and baled hay about $15. Yuma oranges, grape fruit, cantaloupes and vegetables are the first on the market and their quality is unsurpassed.

The Southern Pacific Railroad, which crosses the Colorado River at Yuma, furnishes excellent transportation to the markets, and a branch line extends through the Reservation, connecting with the main line at Yuma.

The public notice just issued covers three points which are briefly these:

1. Land value $10 per acre for the total area in each entry to be paid in installments of $10 per acre for 10 years.

2. Cost of water $55 per acre of irrigable land, payable in installments of $5.50 per acre for 10 years, or full payment may be made of balance due government at any time after certificate of commissioner of general land office that all requirements of the land have been complied with.

3. Cost of operation and maintenance for the present will be $1 per acre of irrigable land. Later when data is available a minimum charge per acre will be fixed in proportion to amount of water used.

Entries must be accompanied by application for water rights in due form, and by the first installment of not less than $7.50 per acre for all irrigable land plus $1.00 per acre for the non-irrigable land. A second installment will become due on December 1st, 1910.

Applicants should note that before making application they must personally see the land and be ready to make oath to this effect.

The Deaf Congressman.

Gen. Ketcham, once in Congress from New York, was very deaf. One story told of him by the Washington correspondent of the Pittsburg Gazette-Times, is familiar. A stranded constituent approached him for a loan of $5. "Hey?" said the general, putting his hand to his ear. "I said could you let me have $10?" shouted the constituent. "You said $5 the first time," retorted the general with asperity.

Another story is less familiar.

The general was at a dinner one evening. A young woman who sat beside him endeavored to be entertaining, but gave it up and devoted herself to a young man next to her. Soon some fruit was passed and the young woman beamed on the general, with the inquiry:

"Do you like bananas, general?"

"Hey?" said the statesman-hero, leaning toward her.

The question was repeated right in to his ear.

"Oh," said the general, apparently comprehending. "No, I don't. I still stick to the old-fashioned night-shirt."

Time to Intervene.

A Newark newspaper prints the following amusing little story: While on his way home one night recently a small boy rushed up to Policeman John Eckerline, of the First Precinct, and, in great excitement, said:

"Hey, officer, my father and another man have been a fightin' around the corner for the last hour."

"Well, why didn't you call an officer sooner?" asked Eckerline, as he accompanied his guide to the scene of the combat.

"Why," said the precocious youngster, "paw was gettin' the best of it up to a few minutes ago, but de other guy has got his second wind now, an' he's wipin' de street wid de old man."

Physicians in Japan.

Medical students in Japan must have had eleven or twelve years of preliminary training in the lower schools. No one may practice medicine who has been convicted of a crime. All physicians for the first ten years during which they follow their calling must keep full written records of all their cases, and they must not issue boastful advertisements or claim the exclusive right to any healing invention with a secret formula.

Why?

So they lingered there, waiting, waiting,

FIFTEENTH YEAR No. 33

LOCAL OPTION LAW NEEDED

California needs a State local option law, that will permit the voters of that part of any county lying outside of the incorporated towns, and the voters of any incorporated town, to legally say, by their ballots, whether or not they desire to have saloons licensed in their respective communities. This simply means, a law that will permit local self government, or permit the majority to rule, upon a subject in which the people are vitally interested.

It is not a prohibition measure. If such a law were passed by the Legislature, it would not close one saloon. It would only mean, that the voters of a town or county may decide by ballot, whether or not they shall adopt the license policy or reject it. Some communities would vote in favor of licensing saloons, others would vote against it.
Is it not the great principle of this free republic, that the people shall govern themselves, by majorities? Is it not safe to put this question into the hands of the people? At present, the people of California are disfranchised upon this subject, and have no legal right to vote their convictions, on the question of licensing saloons.

We use the principle of local option, whenever we vote for bonds, or vote to incorporate a town, or to adopt a Constitutional Amendment, and we use it upon other subjects, in cities where we have the "initiative." What harm could come from our employing the principle of local option, or the local question of licensing saloons in various communities? It is therefore no new nor revolutionary privilege asked.
California is one of six States only, in the Union, that have no local option law.

You will understand that such a law is needed, when you learn that within the past two years, the Anti-Saloon League has gone to the Board of Supervisors in nine California counties, with a petition signed by a majority of the voters, asking for an election to decide whether or not saloons should be licensed in those counties, and in every case the Supervisors refused the election. In seven different California towns the people went to the town trustees with similar petitions, and they turned them down. Strong petitions were presented to the Supervisors of two counties asking for an election on the saloon question; they granted the request. The elections were held, and a majority voted against issuing saloon licenses, but the Supervisors in both of these counties ignored the vote of the majority and refused to enforce their will, but continued to license saloons.

Is it fair to permit a Board of Supervisors or Trustees to override the will of the people? We are now at the mercy of these officers.
They can act independent of, and contrary to the will of the people.

If this is a government of the people; we want a law that will compel Supervisors, and Trustees to grant an election when it is asked for, and then compel them to pass an ordinance in harmony with the expressed will of the majority at the polls.

The only elections that have been held have been by permission of boards favorable to temperance. We have no law on our Statute books which will permit an election to be held on the saloon question.

The elections that have been held have been special elections and have been regarded not as legal elections but "straw votes" only, and bound nobody. The election laws qualifying electors and governing regular elections do not govern these "straw vote" elections, hence the people are often robbed of a victory by colonizing of unqualified voters.

The Appellate Court of this State has decided that you cannot put the question of "Saloon or no Saloon," on the ballot at the regular elections because there is no Statute providing for it.

However much the people of California may want relief from saloon domination, they have at present, no law by which they can obtain it.
The last Legislature voted to disfranchise the people of California by refusing to pass a law, permitting them to vote on the saloon question, saying in substance to the people of the State, "You must tolerate saloons, whether you want them or not."

The forces are at work which will ask the next Legislature to untie the hands of the voters of the State, by passing a State Local Option Law, which will let them vote their desires, concerning the licensing of saloons in their respective communities.

What we want is to elect to the Legislature, Senators and Assemblymen, who will support such a measure.

The citizens of Santa Clara are jubilant over the fact that an old Chinese wash-house which has so long been an eyesore in the business center is to be done away with. The property has been purchased by Vic Scheller and a modern structure will take its place.
What a shame that these pest houses should ever be allowed in any community on American soil. They might easily be starved out if decent people would not patronize them. However, we do not see how anyone can call himself decent and live in clothes washed in such a place.

The Easter edition of the Santa Clara News is to be edited and managed by the Woman's Club of that place. The ladies are working like Trojans to assure its success. It is said that Mrs. Lulu Blanchard, the able editor-in-chief, is handling her difficult work like a cosmopolitan editor and her staff of special writers are doing remarkable work under her supervision.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

After March 1st the Interurban Press expects to be located on the corner of Campbell avenue and First street, opposite the drugstore.
The present quarters are entirely too small to accommodate the needs of any increased business, or even the present requirements. We are much pleased with the increased interest in the paper, which is being manifested on every hand. Each week we are obliged to leave out a column or more of local news which might make interesting reading.
We are now considering the advisability of increasing to a seven-column paper. This would add considerable to the running expenses aside from the extra time on the part of the editor. There are a great many people in the community who do not subscribe for the paper and whose only excuse seems to be "nothing in it in the way of local news."
Now there is no question about news that can be found; but we must have more subscribers and more advertising to meet the necessary expense. If each of our readers will see that their own paper is paid for, and then seek to obtain a new name, we can assure you a much better paper.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will have an interesting program at their meeting with Mrs.
Hill next Wednesday afternoon. Subjects to be considered, "Good Citizenship," and "How may we Best Keep the Lord's Day?"—the latter in the form of a story,—and "Mother's Problems."
Discussions will follow the readings.
Young Mothers especially invited.

The government probably will discontinue the practice of printing stamped envelopes with the address of business firms in the corner. For several years printers' unions have been laboring to that end, claiming it was an invasion of their field and forced private firms to enter into competition with the Federal government. It is stated that the House Committee on Postoffices and Postroads will include in its regular appropriation bill for the department a provision declaring that the practice shall cease.—
