

TRUSTEES' MEETING

COUNTY WILL SEND DEPUTY TAX COLLECTOR TO GLENDALE IN APRIL

The Board assembled at eight o'clock p. m. March 11, 1920. There were present Trustees Henry, Jackson, Shaw, Woodberry; absent, Trustee Muhleman. The Board was called to order by the clerk, and in the absence of the Chairman, Trustee Woodberry was appointed Chairman pro-tem. The minutes of the regular meeting of March 4, 1920, were read and approved.

H. A. Wilson appeared before the Board with the request that an exclusive stopping place be set aside for his stages in front of the Pacific Electric depot on Broadway at Brand. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Communication was read from A. J. Richardson, requesting that he be allowed to change the route of his stages so as to pass through Glendale via Glendale Avenue instead of Verdugo Road. On motion of Trustee Henry the request was granted.

The City Clerk reported the filing of an affidavit by the President of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, setting forth the total gross receipts of the company for the year ending March 10, 1920, as being $67,286.23, and in accordance with the terms of the franchise two per cent of this amount, namely, $1,345.72, has been turned over to the treasurer.

READING CIRCLE

The meetings of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle at the home of Mrs. Charles Toll were renewed with a small but most appreciative attendance on Wednesday. Mrs. Horner gave a review of an article entitled "The Point of View of Youth," by Gerald Chittenden. It was a plea for the humanities in education rather than technicalities for making provision for the all-around growth and development of young men and women.

In her report on membership Mrs. Stoff announced an enrollment of 201 members.

Plans were discussed for the celebration of the fourth birthday of the circle which came during the influenza epidemic.

ATTRACTIVE TO POULTRY AND ANIMAL LOVERS

The Poultry and Pet Stock Exchange which C. E. Battey and Fred Hayes opened up Wednesday at 142 North Brand, is a very attractive place to nature lovers. The hundreds of fluffy baby chicks of many different varieties in the show windows and the mamma guinea pig with her two little ones next to them, attract many passersby. Inside is a pen of three beautiful Blue Andalusian hens and a cock, also two pairs of cute little bantams, and many pens of New Zealand Red and Black Flemish Giant rabbits, the does with their families about them. It is the aim of Messrs. Battey and Hayes to eventually have in stock pens of all varieties of chickens as well as rabbits, hatching eggs and chicks the same, in season, and all kinds of poultry equipment and supplies, as they feel that Glendale needs just such an establishment.

QUEEN ESTHERS MEET

Members of "Queen Esther" met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Dorothy Peart, 111 East Elk Avenue, for a cafeteria supper. Covers were laid for about fifteen. A brief but excellent program was followed by a pleasant social hour.

MADE NEW FACES

LIEUT.-COL. MILLER, GLENDALE VISITOR, TELLS WONDERS OF FACIAL SURGERY

Harry S. Hooper and wife of 1439 East Colorado were delighted Wednesday to welcome old friends of Washington, D. C., Lieut.-Col. A. L. Miller, wife and daughter, Evelyn, who are enjoying a tour of the country. Colonel Miller was given a 30 days' furlough and has applied for a two weeks' extension, which he says he is sure to get. They left Washington on February 27 and came west by way of Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake and San Francisco. They expect to go to San Diego Saturday and after spending a few days there come back to Glendale for a brief stay, then go back over the Santa Fe as far as Chicago, stopping (Continued on Page 6)

HAROLD H. PREEMAN

SUDDEN DEATH OF EX-SERVICE MAN SHOCKS HIS MANY FRIENDS AND ASSOCIATES

The sudden death Thursday night of Harold H. Preeman, son of Mrs. Richardson D. White of 504 Raleigh St., this city, which has been a terrible shock to his family and friends is attributed to the effects of his war experiences. He was a young man very highly regarded by members of the Bartlett Music Company with whom he was associated before and after his entrance into service and up to the hour of his death. He was especially devoted to his mother, a great home boy, and seemed to love and appreciate his home and family after his return from France even more than before. He was marked by his consideration for other people, and was of an extremely generous disposition. The terrible sights and experiences of his months of service in the war zone made an indelible impression on an unusually sensitive nature and he never was able to entirely forget them or rise above the mental depression they caused.

At 17 years of age he was a junior in Glendale Union High School and the following year entered the employ of the Bartlett Music Company in Los Angeles. In January, 1918, when 19 years of age, he enlisted with the A. E. F. and was assigned to the 143d Field Artillery. June 26, 1918, he embarked for France with replacement troops and was assigned to duty in the First Division. He saw active service in the St. Mihiel Drive and for thirty days was in the Argonne offensive at the front where he was gassed while going over the top with infantry. He happened to be visiting the trench when the call came to go over the top. It is the belief of his friends that he never recovered from the gassing and the other severe shocks of his war experience. He was discharged at the Presidio in San Francisco, August 15, 1919, when only twenty years old. Subsequently he engaged in business for himself in the management of a department for the Bartlett Music Company, a business which he was conducting at the time of his death, which occurred at the Willard George Hotel at Seventh and Hope Streets, Los Angeles, Thursday evening, March 11, 1920.

The members of his immediate family are his mother, Mrs. Helen M. White, his step-father, Richardson D. White, his brother, Morse M. Preeman, his sister, Mrs. Aileen MacMullin, and his step-sister, Helen White.

Funeral arrangements have not been made, but will be announced later. The body is at the Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking establishment.

SUBURBAN BUILDING

There is considerable building going on adjacent to Glendale in territory most people think is part of the city, which is not recorded in the building permit list. Two very handsome six-room bungalows are practically completed on the north side of Kenneth Road near Grand View Avenue, and the $10,000 home of Mrs. G. C. Woods and her son is rising above the orange trees in the four-acre grove about half a mile north of this corner, facing west on Grand View.

CITIZENS OF OLD TROPICO WORKING FOR BETTERMENTS

Residents of the west side of old Tropic are very much in earnest in their efforts towards restoring the lost prestige of the former exclusive business section comprising both sides of the block along the San Fernando Road, between Los Feliz Road and the junction of the first-named street, with Central Avenue. While many vacant storerooms in this section have filled up within the last few months, there are still several empty ones. Residents of the surrounding district are working almost to a man to secure the temporary location of the Russell furniture factory in the Major Payne building, as this would give added impetus to the growing business of the block in question. These citizens are very hopeful of working out within the coming week a solution to this problem of securing an eventual $100,000 business enterprise for that part of the city. It is confidently believed by many that the proposed widening of Los Feliz Road to 80 feet from San Fernando Road to Brand Boulevard will eventually cause that important street to be lined with business houses for the entire distance mentioned.

NATION'S COAL BILL TO INCREASE

COST OF PRODUCTION WILL ADVANCE IF RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMISSION ARE HEEDED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Approximately $300,000 will be added yearly to the cost of the national coal bill, according to coal operators who claim to know the contents of the majority report of the National Commission forwarded to President Wilson yesterday. This increase would be paid by the public in higher coal prices or increased charges by utility companies and other large consumers of bituminous coal, they said.

According to the operators, the Coal Commission recommended an increase of eleven per cent in the wages of miners over the fourteen per cent increase recommended by former Fuel Administrator Garfield at the close of the nation-wide fuel strike in December. This would necessitate an addition of from 50c to 60c per ton, to the price of bituminous coal at the mines, operators say.

MODIFIED RESERVATION ON ARTICLE 10

SENATOR LODGE INTRODUCES NEW DRAFT OF WATSON-SIMMONS AMENDMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Senator Lodge today presented to the Senate a compromise reservation to article 10 of the league of nations covenant. The compromise is a modification of the Watson-Simmons proposal which itself was a modification of the original Lodge reservation. The original Watson-Simmons reservation provided that the United States assumes no obligation to employ military, naval or economic force or its resources in preserving other nations against aggression. The amended form provides that the United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territory and independence of other nations against aggression. The amended draft leaves no doubt, the senators think, about the intent of the United States to keep from pledging itself beforehand to engage in European wars.

GERMAN PROPAGANDA IN HIGH PLACES

REAR ADMIRAL SIMS DECLARES NAVY DEPARTMENT WAS ITS VICTIM DURING WAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Charges that the Navy Department was a victim of German propaganda, were made by Rear Admiral Sims today before the Senate committee investigating the navy's part in the war. This propaganda misled the navy department into a misconception of the problem of defending the American coast during the war and prevented full co-operation with the allies, Sims declared. The reluctance of the navy department to cooperate with Sims drove him to desperation, he said. Hundreds of thousands of tons of allied shipping were sunk because the navy department held out for a plan of operating ships individually under armed guard instead of in convoys as desired by the allies, Sims said. He also asserted that he made unsuccessful efforts to set up at London a completely centralized control of all allied ships, naval and merchant, but that this was blocked at Washington.

ATTEMPT TO LAUNCH NEW POLITICAL PARTY TO BE HEADED BY PUBLISHER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, March 12.—A movement to launch a third political party founded on progressive principles is under way here, fostered by about fifty Brooklyn citizens. The group has asked William Randolph Hearst, publisher, to assume leadership in organizing the proposed party and become its candidate for president.

COLLAPSE UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION

STAR WITNESS IN MICHIGAN ELECTION FRAUDS SUFFERS NERVOUS BREAK-DOWN

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 12.—Paul H. King, manager of the campaign for the election of Truman H. King to the United States Senate in 1918 today attempted to resume his testimony in the Michigan election fraud trials, but collapsed on the witness stand after a few minutes' examination. King left his bed against the advice of his physician. He suffered a nervous break-down Tuesday following his direct examination. Court adjourned until Saturday morning. Physicians stated they did not believe King would be able to testify under three months as they said he had suffered a complete physical and nervous break-down. As King carried practically the entire weight of the testimony for the defense, it is probable the government attorneys will insist on his completing his testimony before the case goes to the jury.

GREEKS TO ATTACK TURKS

LONDON, March 12.—The peace conference has decided to let the Greeks attack the Turks in Anatolia and take whatever measures are necessary to expel them from that region, it was learned semi-officially today.

HIRAM OGDEN PASSES

DIES IN 91ST YEAR AFTER BUSY AND USEFUL LIFE

Hiram Ogdan passed to his reward this morning at 3 o'clock as one who simply falls asleep. He had been suffering several weeks with bronchial pneumonia and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Ogdan Ryan, with whom he lived, had very little hope from the first. Funeral services, which will be in charge of the Masonic order, of which he was a member for nearly 50 years, will be arranged for later.

Hiram Ogdan was born in Northern Ohio on January 24, 1829, and was one of 14 children. In 1850 the family moved to Iowa, settling near Keokuk. Both his parents died soon afterward and in 1851 he joined a large party crossing the plains and mountains to Portland, Oregon, he driving one of the teams. The journey took six months and was quite uneventful, though several members of the party died of cholera. Wagon trains preceding and following the one he was with were attacked by Indians and lost some of their members, but his escaped. Mr. Ogdan settled in the Willamette Valley and for a few years served off and on as a volunteer in the Indian wars of the Northwest. In 1857 he married Miss Maria Whitaker, who had come across nine years before with a wagon train when but eight years of age. They soon afterward moved to a farm near Walla Walla, Wash., where their six children were born, and four of them died. They moved to Minnesota in 1870, but lived there only five years, coming out to Los Angeles in 1875, and settling on a 20-acre fruit ranch south of the city as it was then, though now it is many city lots comprising the corners of Central and Vernon Avenues. Several years later he sold this ranch and bought four lots at the corner of Seventh and Grand Avenue, where there now stands a mammoth store building. He built a home there and the family lived in it several years. The next move was to a ranch near Burbank, but when his wife died, in 1905, Mr. Ogdan decided to spend the remainder of his days in Glendale with a daughter, Mrs. Mary Ogdan Ryan. She is now living at 419 East Harvard.

Mr. Ogdan had one brother living, in Batavia, Ia. He also is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Grace Tilden, the latter now living in Long Beach; four granddaughters—Mrs. C. E. Hyde of San Francisco, daughter of Mrs. Ryan, and Mrs. Horace Eaton of San Francisco. Mrs. R. E. Myers of Bakersfield and Miss Dorothy Tilden of Long Beach, daughters of Mrs. Tilden; also one great-grandchild, Miss June Myers, of Bakersfield. He was a member of the Lutheran church.

FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Rev. Clifford A., John D. and Forrest Cole, with their families, went to Boyle Heights yesterday afternoon to join the two other sons, Ben and Lawrence, in a surprise on the parents, B. O. Cole and wife of 925 Lorena Street, in celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary. The only daughter, Mrs. Williamson, of Chico, was not able to be present, but sent greetings and a contribution toward the cost of a beautiful easy chair for the happy parents. The sons provided an elaborate feast, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

NEW RESIDENTS FROM CANADA

Mrs. J. Peart and daughter, Miss Jean Peart, arrived this week from Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada. Mrs. Peart is the mother of J. G. Peart and Mrs. C. R. McCulloch of this city, and is now a guest in the home of her daughter. After having made several visits to Glendale she and Miss Jean have now come to make their permanent home here, having become convinced that they prefer the climate of Southern California to that of Saskatchewan.

ENTERTAINS FOR NEW YORK GUEST

Mrs. L. B. Rambeau entertained at dinner yesterday rather informally in honor of her guest from New York City, Mrs. Chas. Giblyn. Those present were Mrs. Fannie Stockbridge and Mrs. Dr. Marlane of Glendale and Mrs. C. D. Pollock of Los Angeles.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Saturday. No important change in temperature.

INFORMAL RECEPTION

BRIDE OF LIEUT. EUGENE H. IMLER INTRODUCED TO GLENDALE FRIENDS

Mrs. Agelaide H. Imler, assisted by her sister, Miss Cora Hickman, entertained with a charmingly appointed but entirely informal evening at Palm Villa Wednesday, complimenting Lieut. Eugene H. Imler and his bride, but recently arrived from Marshfield, Ore., whose marriage in the northern city was a society event. All the blossoms which herald spring were used to enhance the beauty of the rooms in which guests were received and a delightful program of music and dancing was enjoyed, followed by a buffet supper. The guest list included: Messrs. and Mesdames Noble Ripley, John Dunn, Seymour G. Smith, all of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sturtevant of Colegrove, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weddle of Hutchinson, Kas., Mrs. Jane P. Ritchie of Denver, Colo., Misses Dorothy Hobbs, Esther Schremp, Waunita Emery, Carol Hurlbert, Dorothy Hunt, Mary Addison, Margaret Lusby, June Hurlbert, Elizabeth Bullard, Ernestine Lyons, Messrs. Will Richardson, Wayne Smith, Owen Emery, Albert Sullivan, Russell Hurlbert, J. L. Bradley, J. J. Hickman, Homer Bullard, John Sharpe, William Renshaw, Harold Hurlbert, Thomas Phillips and Burt Richardson.

A TRAGEDY OF THE WAR

A tragedy which is an aftermath of the great war has closely touched Glendale in the suicide Thursday night of Harold H. Preeman, of this city, an ex-soldier, who was in service abroad for more than a year with the 143d Field Artillery, and who participated in two major offensives—St. Mihiel and the Argonne—being gassed while going over the top in the last named.

The brief record of his mad act includes the story of his business day in which he assured his business superiors in the Bartlett Music Company that he had thrown off the depression that had been hanging over him and was going to forge ahead vigorously. Late in the afternoon he borrowed some money from his brother, stating that he did not want the bother of cashing a check, and that he was going to a barber shop to be shaved before going home. He went to the barber shop in the Willard George Hotel at Seventh and Hope Streets, and at six o'clock telephoned his mother that he was going away and that he had left a letter for her. He was found in a dying condition from a self-inflicted shot in the abdomen by a couple of patrolmen, and was hurried to a hospital, but died upon the way.

The letter, which he left addressed to his mother, is said to be a rambling, incoherent composition in which he mentions "slandorous statements" by his "enemies," and his friends consider it the strongest possible proof of a mind deranged, the more so because for some time his behavior has not been normal.

He had a host of friends among his former school associates and other young people of this city, by whom he was generally regarded as a "dreamer" because of his idealism and interest in psychology.

BLUE AND IVORY DINNER

MRS. CABLE HONORS BROTHER AND FRIEND LEAVING FOR SEATTLE

Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable entertained Wednesday evening with a dinner in honor of the hostess' brother, J. C. Emerson, and his friend, Mr. Swartz, who are leaving Saturday by boat for Seattle. Mrs. Hartwig and her son, Mr. Bogan, who, like the guests of honor, are from Denver, and Mrs. Helen Bennett and her daughter, Miss Gertrude Bennett, of Los Angeles, were also guests. The hostess had beautifully decorated her home and table with freesias and corn flowers, the color scheme being repeated in place cards and table appointments.

Thursday evening the party was entertained with an auto trip and dinner at the Maryland by Mrs. Bennett and her daughter, and afterwards its members were theatre guests of Mrs. Hartwig and her son.

Mrs. Theodore Pyle of 108 East Chestnut Street has been ill, but is now able to be out.

Buy Efficiency

If you have built a house, a business block, a church or a school and the completed building is not satisfactory—not according to specifications, it is pretty difficult to have the matter made right; expensive as well as disagreeable. It is better to hire a contractor who is responsible, one who has a reputation for reliability, one who will not be likely to fall down on the job.

You might as well have efficiency; you are paying for it. There are many contractors who have these qualifications and we don't hesitate to state frankly that we think we are in this class.

We don't ask you to take our word for it, though. We may be prejudiced.

But we can refer you to those for whom we are building and to scores of those for whom we have built.

We don't hesitate to leave our reputation in the hands of those for whom we have erected buildings

Osage orange trees are to be planted in the canyons of Southern California mountains, it is announced, in an attempt to get something that will not be easily washed out and will hold back the flood waters that come down the canyons occasionally. From our boyhood knowledge back in Iowa, we vote for it every time for holding back any kind of a flood. We've seen it hold back streams of school boys that would have devastated the finest apple orchards if they could have gotten through, and if it will hold that kind of a stream it will hold anything. We had the job one time of digging out a row of hedge by the roots, and after we had dug all over the lot, and half way to Hades, and thought we had out every sprig of the pestiferous root that hedge still bobbed up cheerfully year after year as if nobody had ever even tried to insult it, much less kill it off.

DEATH OF BELA OLSCHVARY

Bela Olschvary died at his home near Burbank, March 9, 1920. He was born December 10, 1844, and was seventy-five years of age at the time of his death. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow and daughter at the ranch home near Burbank, and one son in Glendale, who is employed at the Pacific Electric office and is one of our volunteer firemen. Funeral services were held from the Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking parlors at 2 p. m. March 11th. Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery, with Rev. W. E. Edmonds of the Glendale Presbyterian Church officiating.

DEATH OF HESTER ANN HARDING

Mrs. Hester Ann Harding passed away on March 10th in Sunland. She was born June 30, 1833, in New York, and at the time of her death was 86 years and six months old. She had lived in California thirty-two years, twenty-nine years of this time living in Sunland. At the time of her death she was making her home with Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Frisbee at Sunland. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at two o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn, and will be in charge of Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking Company.

HORSE IS ALMOST LOST IN SNOW WHEN RURAL CARRIER STARTS OVER BIG DRIFT

GENEVA, N. Y.—Bert Eastman, a rural mail carrier connected with the Geneva postoffice, returned from his route after an exciting experience in getting through snow drifts. According to his story, he encountered one of the largest drifts of the season and barely escaped losing his horse. Mr. Eastman stated that he wished to save time and in doing so decided that he would climb a drift, which would take off several miles if he succeeded in scaling the hill of snow. He first got out of his sleigh and tested the strength of the drift by walking upon it and finding that it was almost impenetrable he decided to drive his rig over it.

Returning to his cutter he took hold of the reins and commanded his horse to proceed. The animal responded to the orders of his master and began to mount the drift. When he was on the peak he suddenly struck a soft spot and immediately began to sink into the snow. He sank so deep that he was unable to extricate himself and was left imprisoned in the drift while Mr. Eastman summoned several farmers to assist in freeing the animal so he might proceed with his delivery. Boards and fence rails were procured and with the assistance of the farmers the animal was freed.

In lifting the animal from his bed of snow it was discovered that his legs had been tied with wire and upon closer examination it was found that the drift was above the telephone line and in working his legs to free himself the animal's legs became tangled in the telephone wires. The condition was reported to the local telephone company and men were at once sent out to repair the damaged line.

CIVIL ENGINEERING AS A PROFESSION

"Most boys interested in surveying will want to go on into civil engineering. Much is heard nowadays about the engineering professions being overcrowded," says an article in the February Boys' Life. "When You Grow Up—Civil Engineer?" "Engineering makes a strong appeal to many young men and it is estimated that 10,000 start on engineering courses each year. The schools are turning out many graduates willing to work for small pay while acquiring practical experience. In civil engineering especially salaries in both private and government work have been lowered by this plentiful supply. Yet engineering work as a whole is offering more varied and bigger opportunities every year. There is no end to the problems awaiting solution in all branches of engineering and we are constantly applying the engineer's science and skill in new directions. America needs better roads everywhere, control of her great rivers to prevent frequent and devastating floods, improved transportation, irrigation and drainage, good water supplies and sanitation for cities. "Engineering today like other fields of work is becoming more and more specialized. The best opportunities lie in expert knowledge of a special field. In addition to the older professions of civil, mechanical, electrical, marine and mining engineering, we now have chemical, hydraulic, municipal, and sanitary engineering. There are opportunities for good men in all of these fields and in several of them the demand exceeds the supply."

Our Corset Service

It is not surprising that the ladies of Glendale appreciate our corset service. A woman who wants to look well thinks first of all of her corset. No gown, no matter how beautiful or modish can be made to look well over poorly-fitted underwear or a corset that is worn or does not suit the figure. She knows that if she is going to look well and retain the poise that comes with self-respect her first attention must be given to these details.

That is why we are featuring corset service—why we are carrying such a large stock of corsets in so many different styles—why we maintain a fitting room with a capable corsetiere in charge.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

the matter of the application of the Southern California Edison Company for an order establishing rates for electricity, was read, stating that the hearing will be on Thursday, March 25, 1920, at ten o'clock a. m., in the Union League building, Los Angeles. It was referred to the City Attorney.

A communication was read from Supervisor Jonathan S. Dodge, addressed to the Chairman of the Board, suggesting that for the accommodation of the taxpayers, the Board would be willing to send a Deputy Tax Collector to the City Hall in Glendale for two or three days early in April, provided the plan met with the approval of the Glendale Board of Trustees. On motion of Trustee Jackson it was ordered that the Board approve of and accept the offer made in the communication with an expression of thanks for the same.

A petition, signed by over one hundred Glendale citizens, was presented to the Board, requesting a reconsideration of the Board's decision in refusing to grant a permit to the Russell Manufacturing Company for a furniture factory at the corner of Central Avenue and San Fernando Road. The petition requested further that a permit be issued to the company to manufacture furniture at that place. Trustee Jackson made a motion, which was seconded by Trustee Henry, and carried that the Board reconsider its former action in regard to this matter. Trustee Jackson made a motion, seconded by Trustee Henry, that the request of the Russell Manufacturing Company for a permit be granted for the period of one year. The roll call resulted as follows:

Ayes: Henry, Jackson.

Noes: Shaw, Woodberry.

Absent: Muhleman.

On motion of Trustee Shaw the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

A communication was read from Superintendent R. D. White of the Glendale City Schools, accompanied by a letter from A. J. Hill, County Counsel in reply to the question whether the Board of School Trustees had a legal right to pay the assessment on school property for the improvement of Sycamore Canyon Road. The opinion of Mr. Hill is to the effect that if the property owned by the school district is being used for public school purposes it is not liable for an assessment levied for street purposes; but, if on the contrary, the property is not being used for public school purposes the assessment may legally be made against it, and the Board of Trustees would have the legal right to pay such assessment. The opinion further stated that under the law the Trustees are not permitted to pay such assessment when not legally required to do so. The communication was filed.

A report was presented from the Sanitary Inspector, showing a total of sixteen influenza cases, and of two whooping cough cases reported during the week just ended.

Report was presented from Building Inspector showing the total number of permits issued for the month of February as seventy-seven; valuation $144,514.00; fees $163.00. Plumbing permits issued, 105; valuation, $17,285.00; fees, $125.00. Electric wiring permits issued, 81; fees, $108.26.

Demands were presented and referred to the Finance Committee.

Bids advertised for supplying the City with an automobile were opened and publicly declared. There being but one bid received, that of the Ford Agency, offering to furnish one four-cylinder, two-passenger roadster type completely equipped for the sum of $726.96, on motion of Trustee Henry the bid was accepted.

Owing to the absence of the City Engineer, action in regard to the matter of opening an alley on the west side of the High School property was deferred for one week.

A resolution appointing election officials for the municipal election to be held in the City of Glendale on Monday, April 12, 1920, and designating the places for the holding of such election, was, on motion of Trustee Henry, adopted.

Demands were reported back approved by the Finance Committee, and on motion of Trustee Shaw warrants were ordered to be issued in payment of the same.

On motion of Trustee Henry the ordinance presented at the last meeting, fixing salaries of certain officials and repealing Ordinance No. 123, was taken up and adopted as Ordinance No. 373.

On motion of Trustee Shaw the ordinance prepared for the regulation, construction and maintenance of public and private automobile garages, etc., was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

An ordinance presented at the regular meeting of March 4, 1920, amending sections 4 and 9 of Ordinance No. 356, relating to the salaries of certain city officials, was on motion of Trustee Shaw, adopted as Ordinance No. 374.

Trustee Henry presented an ordinance granting to the Standard Oil Company permission to cross with a spur track a certain street in the City of Glendale, the same being read and laid over for action at the next regular meeting.

A Brief But Amazing Summary

showing what TIMES' subscribers get for 85c per month

The news of the world, furnished by Five Great Newspaper Organizations by the Associated Press—by the TIMES-Chicago Tribune correspondents in Europe, Asia and Washington, D. C.—by THE TIMES' own correspondents in points of special importance to Southern California. THE TIMES also maintains its own network of exclusive correspondents in all principal American cities, throughout the Middle West and in every population center of Southern California.

Special articles on all timely topics. Interesting events, people and places depicted by illustrations. Editorials. Book reviews. Cartoons. Scientific articles. Political and economic news and views. Statistical information. Travelogues.

Brilliantly conducted departments covering every phase of interest for men, women and children.

The TIMES ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE, a complete, bound literary magazine, containing fiction by leading American writers and full of illuminating articles on Southern California—forms a part of the mammoth SUNDAY TIMES.

"Farm and Tractor," a big, illustrated agricultural journal devoted to Southern California's stock-raising, orchard, gardening, poultry-raising, bee-keeping and general farming—another great exclusive feature of the SUNDAY TIMES.

Huge Automobile Section—Dramatic Section—Society Pages—Fashions—Household Hints—News of the Studios.

Every week subscribers also receive THE TIMES' Rotogravure Section—a magnificent art publication, the only one in California.

THE TIMES' "Comics" are genuine laugh-provokers. Plenty of fun every week day and THE TIMES' colored supplement on Sundays.

TIMES' market and Business Pages cover the commercial news of the whole world.

THE TIMES' Real Estate Section publishes the news of all the interesting development projects, new buildings and industrial progress of Southern California. It is generally admitted that all the important news appears first in THE TIMES.

THE TIMES' "Want-Ad" Section is nearly equal to the combined "Want-Ad" sections of all other Los Angeles newspapers put together. These energetic, interesting advertisements are used and read by everyone in Southern California. It constitutes another big exclusive attraction in THE TIMES.

THE TIMES' display advertising embraces hundreds of important announcements found in no other newspaper. Only by reading THE TIMES is it possible to keep in touch with the teeming opportunities of the Southland.

By constantly giving its readers more and better features THE TIMES has grown to be the largest Newspaper in the World.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. George P. Reuter of 318 Fairview Avenue was hostess at a prettily appointed dinner in celebration of her husband's birthday Thursday evening at which relatives were entertained. Violets and jonquils were effectively used in the pretty scheme of decoration devised by the hostess. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. James E. Degnen of Los Angeles, sister and brother-in-law of the guest of honor, Mrs. Marie McManus and son, Walter, of Glendale, Mrs. Adrian Martense and Mrs. J. J. Stoddard of New York, for host and hostess. Mrs. Stoddard is a sister of the hostess and is at present the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. Bateman Bowman, of Hollywood. She will join Mrs. Reuter in about two weeks. A pleasant social and musical evening followed the dinner.

HIS RULING THOUGHT

One hears a great deal about the absent-minded professor, but it would be hard to find one more absent-minded than the dentist who said soothingly as he applied a tool to his automobile, under which he lay: "Now, this is going to hurt just a little."

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell of Ard Eevin, N. Glendale, entertained with a dinner in honor of the hostess' brother, John McPeak, and the bride whom he married in January.

Mrs. R. M. Yost of Verdugo Road has been a victim of great anxiety on account of the serious illness of her little daughter, Tamson Johnson, of appendicitis, but the child is now recovering rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Cole of Paw Paw, Mich., are recent arrivals in Glendale and located at 1115 East Elk Avenue. Mr. Cole published a newspaper in Paw Paw and will likely engage in the same business in Southern California.

The many friends of Mrs. Young, formerly of 1215 East Harvard St., but now living at 3855 South Verdugo Road, Los Angeles, will be sorry to learn that she is seriously ill with heart trouble. Mrs. Young was formerly a dressmaker.

Olin Spencer and family have moved from West Broadway to 603 Alexander Street, a location which is not far from the new city park, and on which Mr. Spencer has built a residence on which he is putting the finishing touches.

Minor improvements to their residences in the shape of one-room additions are being made by Mrs. John Dibbern, 514 South Glendale Avenue, and John O. Seng, 246 North Louise, and C. E. Russell is having a garage put up on his property at 332 North Kenwood.

Twelve members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club who live in North Glendale are combining their forces in the giving of a big tea for the benefit of the Tuesday Afternoon Club building fund. Mrs. Charles H. Toll will be the hostess and the affair will come off next week.

Mrs. L. A. McKnight of Larden, Kas., and Miss Harriet McKnight of Fowler, Ind., were guests of Mrs. J. R. Turner of 120 South Glendale Avenue, Thursday. They are very favorably impressed with California, and Miss McKnight thinks she would like to teach in this state and that it is a good place to live 365 days in the year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson and sons, John and Harold, who came to Glendale in November and have spent the winter here in property they purchased at 361 West Wilson Avenue, are leaving today for Colorado after selling their Wilson Avenue home to Mr. Russell. Their friends expect them to return and make their permanent home here.

Daniel Hunsberger is now living at 412 West California in a little house he built on property he purchased when obliged to vacate the house in which he had been living at 349 West California. He likes his new home very much and is much occupied with the improvement of the grounds. He is also using it as a place of business.

Mrs. J. W. Huber and daughter who came to our city last October from New York City are much occupied with improvements which they are making in property they purchased at 637 North Maryland Avenue. They report that they like Glendale very much but have been too busy to get very well acquainted with its people.

Mrs. Grace B. Hurd of 110 South Adams Street had the pleasure of entertaining last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. E. Gannon of Highland Park, who formerly were residents of this city on Burchett Street, where they lived for several years. They are quite impressed by the changes in Glendale. Next Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Graham of Ridgeway Avenue will be guests in the Hurd home.

Mrs. Chas. Giblyn of New York is spending a few weeks with Mrs. L. B. Rambeau of 122 West Lomita Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Giblyn lived in Glendale until three years ago, owning a home at 203 East Chestnut, which they sold to Mrs. Rambeau just before they left for New York. Mr. Giblyn was Marjorie Rambeau's leading support at that time and is now director of the studio in New York with which she is connected.

Mrs. G. Levinge, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. W. Lindsay of 142 Wabasso Way, will remain in Glendale indefinitely instead of leaving soon for England, as she had planned for her husband, Major Levinge, has been transferred to Egypt. The major was connected with the British forces all through the great war having the rank of captain during that time. Mrs. Levinge's son, Onslow, is now in Shanghai, where he is connected with the Robert Dollar Company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Creech and two children who have been guests for several weeks in the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. O. Lucas on Riverdale Drive left Tuesday for the north to visit a brother in Portland and make a leisurely return to Kentucky via the Canadian Pacific, stopping en route at points of special interest. They do not expect to reach home before April 1st. They were very much taken with California and the Dr. and Mrs. Lucas would not be greatly surprised to learn that they had decided to return and locate here permanently.

MRS. ROGERS ENTERTAINS

Mrs. H. E. Rogers entertained relatives and a few intimate friends with a charming but quite informal little luncheon at her ranch in Montrose Wednesday. A green and white color scheme was carried out in floral decorations and appointments and covers were laid for Mrs. William Farlander, Mrs. Ed Farlander, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. A. S. Chase, Miss Scott, Dr. Chappell, her niece, Miss Chappell, Mrs. Catherine Shank, Mrs. Klopp, of Buffalo, Mrs. R. M. Yost and the hostess.

LA FRIVOLETTE

La Frivolette was entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Harriet Cook at 334 West Harvard Street. Two new members were initiated, Miss Sullivan and Miss Small. Plans were discussed for helping the girls in the school at San Fernando and for visiting the school in the near future. As usual members occupied themselves with fancywork under the instruction of Mrs. Walcott, who will entertain the club at its next meeting.

REVOLUTIONS AND THANKSGIVING IN VLADIVOSTOK

The Y. W. C. A. Hostess House at Vladivostok, Siberia, survived the November revolution with unruffled calm, and proceeded to give a big Thanksgiving party soon afterward, as though the month had held no excitement whatever. A letter just received from Miss Mildred Corbett, of North Adams, Michigan, Y. W. C. A. secretary to Siberia, reports both events.

The Hostess House was well guarded during the attempted revolution, according to Miss Corbett. For weeks beforehand the secretaries had been assured of protection by a squad of United States Military Police, from the moment any trouble started. "When we scurried home from the office as the first shots were fired," Miss Corbett writes, "we found the guard already established. They stayed until all the trouble was over, and we were very glad to be under their care."

For Thanksgiving dinner, each of the nine members of the Hostess House staff invited one guest, and the party which followed included all the military and naval officers, the consul and vice-consuls, the officers of the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. Secretaries, and the few American civilians of the city. It was a gala affair, living up to the reputation of the Vladivostok Secretaries for hospitality of all sorts.

CENTRAL AVENUE P.-T. A.

Central Avenue Parent-Teacher Association had its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at which it was addressed by Judge Lowe, who explained the work of the Glendale Union High School Welfare Association in relation to the school.

An important feature of the afternoon was the indorsement by the association of C. H. Crawford for Trustee on the High School Board, where Daniel Campbell is retiring from office as the representative of the north end of Glendale. The people in that locality feel that they are very fortunate in securing Mr. Crawford as their candidate, for his ability and integrity are well known. The meeting was adjourned after a social half-hour.

Mrs. E. B. Wyman, President.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES' AID

An all-day meeting which was also the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Tropic Presbyterian Church was held Thursday. A work session in the morning was followed by the customary luncheon and in the afternoon officers were elected for the coming year—Mrs. S. E. Brown, Mrs. Julia Hayes and Mrs. H. L. Moody being chosen to succeed themselves in the offices of president, vice-president and treasurer, respectively. Mrs. Server was elected secretary. Plans were discussed and in many respects it was a pleasant and profitable meeting.

THE TENNESSEE COLONY

Mrs. J. T. Griffin, a Tennessean who came to Glendale a short time ago with her son, Jim, and daughter, Jessie, has purchased a home at 130 West Acacia into which she moved Thursday. It is across the street from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Griffin, who are not related to the new comers, although they, too, came from Tennessee. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Alexander moved Thursday into a home they have purchased at 410 Dryden St., in Casa Verdugo. This makes a list of six families from Ridgeley, Tenn., who have recently bought property in Glendale.

Colonel Miller had a lucrative dental practice when the war opened in 1917, which he had built up by 14 years' hard work. He enlisted at once in the department of oral and facial surgery and was commissioned a lieutenant. After considerable experience on this side he went across in December, 1917, and for the first three months was with the great British Base Hospital at Etaples, on the Channel. This hospital was close by an important rail head and was bombed many times by the Germans, many wounded being killed. From Etaples he was transferred to American Base Hospital No. 6 at Talance, near Bordeaux, where he remained till the war closed. He is now attached to General Hospital No. 2 at Baltimore.

Colonel Miller says the stories of the wonders of facial surgery are not a whit exaggerated. He has as-

Samuel Briggs of Glendale,
To his home had come
After months in Europe
Where he fought the Hun.

He had doffed his khaki
As soon as e're he could.
He thought, "These ancient 'civies'
Certainly look good."

Frayed were all the edges,
Shiny was the rear;
Faded, too, and dirty,
But he didn't care.

Starting out one morning
He went from store to store,
Said, "I'm looking for some work,
I'm home now from the war."

Each man looked him over,
Sadly shook his head.
"Sorry we've no vacancies,"
That was what they said.

Samuel deeply pondered
About the course they took
Till the thought came to him,
"It's the way I look."

Samuel went to Berman
As quickly as he could.
A Berman suit—A fine job.
Samuel has made good.

Things You Ought to Know

EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT

Cleanliness is next to Godliness And it is for this reason that We use the Hoffman Steam Press. This way of pressing clothes is acknowledged to be the only guard against carrying and spreading garment germs.

CLEAN, HOT, DRY STEAM APPLIED TO EVERY GARMENT The application of steam (instead of a wet rag and hot iron) renders a thoroughly uniform finish, brings out the color, sets and dries the fabric, and gives the entire garment an appearance of newness. There is no pulling and twisting of the fabric to draw it into shape. The Steam Press does it naturally.

THE VALUE OF CLEAN APPAREL IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE Our cleaning methods are simple but Resultful. In cleaning clothes We use materials that clean without injury to the Fabric. This caretaking process is more costly to us than ordinary methods employed to clean clothes. But We find it pays to serve our patrons in the most Efficient manner.

REPAIRING CLOTHES IS A KNACKFUL PURSUIT

Our skill and expert knowledge came from many years of Experience. So we are prepared to Repair, Reline, and Remodel your clothes in a way which will please and satisfy you.

CARPETS RUGS What is more closely associated with your home life? The FANSET method of cleaning them means 100 PER CENT CLEANLINESS. Our process also raises the nap and gives your rug that Fresh, inviting appearance. Make them a matter of health and pride. Have them cleaned Thoroughly and often, THE FANSET WAY.

WE SAVE YOU 20 PER CENT ON YOUR SPRING CLOTHES! Your Personal Appearance Is Most Essential You select your fabrics from our ample and varied stock of the finest woollens. You specify the style most pleasing to your personality, from fashion plates of the newest models.

Your suit will not look like every other suit in the lot. There is no lot. Your suit is just YOURS, made for you to your measure. To fit your body—your mind—your purse. We are Associated with Lamm & Company, Chicago. The Home of Fine Tailoring.

THE IVANHOE ROUTE

URGENT NEED OF PAVING THIS "AIR LINE" HIGHWAY TO LOS ANGELES

Many Glendale citizens have wondered why the direct route from this city to the heart of Los Angeles, made possible by the building of the long bridge over the Los Angeles river at Ivanhoe three years ago, has never been put in shape for comfortable travel. The road is fairly good as far as Ivanhoe but from there up over the hill past Silver Lake to Lake Shore Avenue it is mighty poor. A contract for paving this stretch of highway was let two years ago or thereabouts, but the work was held up by one cause or another and early this week the company to whom it was awarded asked to be released as materials had advanced so very much that considerable money would have been lost had the work been done at the contract price. The request was granted and now the whole thing is "up in the air" again. The Glendale city authorities are considering taking steps to urge that the work be done soon, says the City Manager. With this highway paved through from Glendale to Lake Shore Drive, being an extension of Brand Boulevard, it would open almost an air line from Glendale to the very heart of the business district of Los Angeles, through the Third Street tunnel.

NO MATTER WHAT IT WAS IT MAY MAKE PRETTY FROCK

By Margaret Robe

Jill's lovely in velvet
In lace she's a queen,
But Oh, she's a knockout
In simple satine.

NEW YORK, March 12.—We've taken the oilcloth from the kitchen table to turn into a nifty chapeau so no one need be surprised when we go further in appropriating the house furnishings to our sartorial needs. Some genius has discovered that the lovely lustrous satine which we use to line our bedspreads and our cretonne window draperies is "just too sweet for words" when done into a chic but simple frock.

The satine frock then is the pet of the mode for spring and early summer wear. Touched up with a bit of bright embroidery in colored crewels it is effective indeed and so elegant and expensive looking withal that one would never suspect of it having a lining past. It comes in so many exquisite shades of old blue, rose, lavender, Nile green, old gold and French grey that it is hard to pass them by for the more sombre charms of black and yet the black satine frock is perhaps the very smartest of all. It is more elaborately yarn embroidered than the colored satines and often shows a motif of applique fruit outlined in the yarn as a distinctive detail.

For the young of the species the little dresses of satine are adorable. From eight years up one may be correctly smart in satine. For the youngsters the little black satine dresses are gay with cerise yarn cherries and stitchings in red and green wool while some stunning old gold models are done in old blue, mauve and black with little frills and vestees of sheer white net and sashes with embroidered ends.

From the simple charms of satine it would seem to be a far cry to the iridescent glories of the peacock and yet to emulate Juno's favorite fowl is the aim of every chic chicken. Calling it by its French name of Paon that peculiar shade of greenish blue found only in the peacock's resplendent tail, is the favored color of the spring. In the use of changeable blue and green taffeta we find again the fashionable fixation on

Loganberries

—for delicious pies there's King's dehydrated Oregon Loganberries. Only the water has been removed; replace this and enjoy all the lusciousness and delightful flavor of the freshly picked, bush ripened berry.

—the pkg., 30c

Raisins

Sun Maid, seeded,
—the 11-oz. pkg., 17c

Prunes

—no more do we see the jokesmith's reference to the lowly prune, for it's lowly no longer, having come into its own—its worth recognized throughout the world. —a health-giving breakfast dish; a most satisfying dessert.

—the 70-80 prunes, the lb., 20c

Spanish Rice

Golden Arrow Spanish rice, in cans, all ready; just heat and serve—the real Spanish rice, with all its piquancy.

—the large can, 19c

Salmon

—several kinds
Libby's Red Alaska, Libby's highest grade, which is saying a lot. —the No. 1 tall, 38c
Pafco Minced salmon, splendidly suited for salads; served in many ways.

—No. 1/2 can, 14c
A pink salmon, superior.
—No. 1 tall can, 24c

Rice

—let's hope that the too-high price of potatoes will turn thoughts towards a better dish, rice.

—rice, properly prepared, served as a vegetable, should hold high rank; with a little good gravy, can you beat it?
—and rice can be served in endless ways, every one good.

—Blue Rose Head Rice, 5 lbs., 87c

Snowdrift

—vegetable shortenings are rapidly becoming the preferred shortenings.

—Snowdrift is just as white and clean and pure as its name indicates; put on the market by the makers of Wesson Oil, and is likewise prepared from cottonseed oil, by a method which makes this just what should be used for better cooking, baking, frying.

—the 1-lb. can, 35c
—the 4-lb. can, 1.35
—the 8-lb. can, 2.68

Pork and Beans

Libby's, and being Libby's, they're good. —the can, 14c

Macaroni

—elbow cut in bulk—what's more to the point, you get all of the pleasure of eating a splendid macaroni without the need of extra expertness with the fork. —comes ready cut. —2 lbs., 25c

Steri-foam

—a special offer

—Steri-foam is a product that does one thing well—it keeps closet bowls odorless, spotless and sanitary. —the quick way; the efficient way.

Here's Steri-foam, and here's a long-handled brush, both for 23c (brush alone worth the money)

Toilet Paper

—startling, isn't it, toilet paper 45c the roll!—yet at 45c it's the cheapest, quality and quantity considered, that can be bought.

—instead of buying a half dozen or more cheap rolls, this one 45c roll does duty. The finest silk tissue, 2500 sheets, tightly rolled; that's why it's so much heavier than the other kind.

—the usual loosely rolled, cheap, heavy, coarse toilet paper is a mere counterfeit, made to look quantity—quality totally lacking. There's true economy in these 45c rolls.

—the box of 4, 1.60

the peacock and the use of its feathers in reality and in embroidered replicas knows no end. A stunning evening gown of black is absolutely plain save for one straggling peacock feather starting at the waist line and embroidered down the front of the skirt. A gown of peacock blue satin has a train which is a mass of embroidered paon feathers and dazzling evening turbans of gold tissues sprouting a half dozen peacock feathers at the right rear go head and hand with a huge unfurled fan of the same tall plumage.

Veiling a bright blue gown with a chiffon, Georgette or net in vivid green or a bright green one in the blue is nothing if not a veiled illusion to the peacock's pride and the wearing of two lengths of maline, one blue, one green, is just another one of these popular peacock effects. For the modern maid is bent on borrowing plumage from Juno's bird and do it she will by fair means or foul.

PACIFIC AVENUE P.-T. A.

Members of the Pacific Avenue Parent-Teacher Association enjoyed an excellent meeting Thursday afternoon which was addressed by Mr. Ross, head of nature study work in the Glendale schools. His talk was an appeal to parents to create the proper home atmosphere and to make their children interested in the home with a sense of responsibility for it and for its inmates, in other words, to make them feel that they are part and parcel of it and that its welfare and success is in some measure dependent upon them. He urged that children be assigned regular duties and to be made in other ways to realize their responsibilities as factors in the home. Mrs. Nanno Woods was present with pupils and gave a five-minute talk on the work of her school, which was followed by some musical readings. The usual social half-hour was then enjoyed.
