The schooner San Felippe had sailed fr m the port to the 25 h of last month for Brassoria with Colonel Stephen Auetto and other Textans; and on the evening of Tuesday fillowing, she heard firing alread. On nearing the place, Captain Hurd perceived the Mexican schooner Correo com manded by Thompson, and an armed sleop engaged in at tacking the American brig Tremont, which was assisted by a steambont. When Captain Hurd advanced the Mexican ships ceased and retreated; and then the ateamboat took much of the rargo and most of the passengers on board; and

Be it so. The democracy of the union feel chagrin at stratagem or device, so long as they continue united. An American party, a White party, or a Harrison party is alike to republicans who contend conjointly and determinedly on principle. The character and principles of their presider tial candidate in public and private life are irreproachableand stand the test of riba'dry or artifice. He is energetic and enlightened and liberal in resolution; prompt and decisive in action. Let us rally onr strength on him at least as our candidate for the presidency. Colonel Johnson will well avail as our other candidate; he is endeared to the south and to the union at large.
