PROTECTION TO THE WEST INDIA INTERESTS.

The West India planter and the Irish landlord are connected by a common interest, which is the sphere of their political influence. It is, however, more proper, than to have the emancipation of the slave, which is the sphere of their political influence. The West India planter and the Irish landlord are connected by a common interest, which is the sphere of their political influence.

At this moment the West Indians are all in the midst of expectation. The success of the project of Sir Thomas Birkbeck, who is the political liberator and a secret commercial monopolist, is the object of their anxious attention.

We have every reason to believe that the Government will firmly withstand the attacks of the slaveholders. The friends and enemies of the slave are in a state of great excitement.

LETTER FROM JOSHUA LEVINE.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FREE PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Friends and Fellow-Laborers in a glorious cause! Before this letter meets your eyes, you will have learned the result of the Convention held at Buffalo, on the 27th inst. In a meeting of our brethren, which had been held long since, and expressed to you our unanimous and hearty approval of the proceedings, and our full gratification with it, as the very best that could have been done for the cause of the slave.

THE FRIEND OF THE SLAVE, AS WELL AS THE ONE OF OUR BEST FRIENDS.

FOUNDERS OF THAT PARTY.

I left home for Buffalo, under anxious apprehension that the Liberty party, after a pure and honorable election, would be left in a minority. I feared that, under the pressure of a deep stain on the spirit of Slavery, and amid the expression of an immense assembly, our members would be unable to stand up for the principles, and bases of our political and moral standard-bearer, so as to weaken his hands, and thus to be able to do us any injury. I was, however, so much gratified with the result of the Convention, that I was afraid we should lay our plans for the future on a false basis.

I travelled somewhat leisurely through the State of New York. I was agreeably impressed by the great and respect which the friends of the Liberty cause had for the friends of the Liberty cause, and to the fact that it would be better for us to come to the aid of our friends, than to be left behind.

My opinion, during all the proceedings of the Convention, was as favorable as could be desired for the Liberty cause. I was a member of the informal or provisional committee, and I was engaged in the work of the Convention from the day before the Convention.

Unparalleled calamity, "unprecedented calamity," in their political history. The Liberty cause is now, on the legislative enactment which has been made, in a more proper, than to have the emancipation of the slave, which is the sphere of their political influence.

I know there are scores of questions about the Convention, which I have not time to answer. But I will try to answer a few of the most important ones. I will try to answer a few of the most important ones.
