E. H. Porter Elected to City Board

E. H. Porter was elected last night to fill the vacancy on the board of trustees caused by the resignation of E. D. Topping. Mr. Porter received the votes of Trustees Mitchell, Sparks, Kariofe and Richards, making it unanimous.

As a resident of Sierra Madre for several years and keenly interested in civic affairs, Mr. Porter is expected to prove a valuable member of the board. He is general agent in Los Angeles for a large insurance company.

Park Improvements
Bids were opened and awards made on various items of improvement for the new city park. The bids were as follows, the low bidder to whom the contracts were awarded being first named in each instance:
Community House: T. M. Webster, $6110; F. M. Hildebrandt, $6877; Clarence P. Day, Pasadena, $6978.

Tennis court retaining walls: F. L. Merrill, $1732.85; H. H. Steinberger, $1900; Clarence P. Day, $2840.
Pool: F. L. Merrill, $390; H. H. Steinberger, $500; Clarence P. Day, $674.

Zoning Litigation
Legal representation for the city in the defense of the zoning ordinance was brought up by a communication from the Civic association. City Attorney Baker not being able to appear in court actions on account of his health, Mayor Mitchell offered to appear through the hearing on the application for a temporary injunction without expense to the city and his offer was accepted. Attorney E. E. Bacon said he expected to appear through the preliminary proceedings to co-operate in the defense regardless of compensation, but would not undertake the responsibility of the case in charge if a further conduct of the case appeared necessary. The arrangement appeared satisfactory to all concerned.

Property owners on Highland avenue between Baldwin and Highland petitioned for sidewalk installation under the Vroman act. The petition was referred to Engineer Gierlich for checking as to sufficiency.
A new street light was ordered installed at the corner of Sunnyside and Alegria.

CLUB OFFERS PRIZE FOR A GOOD VERSE

The Sierra Madre Woman's club offers a prize of $5.00 for the best sentence or short verse descriptive of Sierra Madre's location, physical attractiveness and hospitality. The sentence or verse should be so framed as to follow approximately the words "Sierra Madre, the Wisteria Town." Suggestions may be brought to the News office and will be opened Monday afternoon, at 5 o'clock at the club house. The following have been asked to act as judges: W. E. Doty, J. N. Hawks, George B. Morgridge, Dennis Stovall, Mrs. Elmer Green, Mrs. Homer Tuttle, Mrs. W. J. Lawless.

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL MENU

Chef Beconis of the New Sierra Madre Cafe has a Thanksgiving dinner menu that looks like a regular banquet. How he could serve it for a dollar was a mystery until he said, "We don't care whether we make any money on this dinner or not. We just want to show the people of Sierra Madre what we can do."

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will meet in the church parlors next Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 10 a. m. for an all day meeting. Box luncheon.

P. T. A. ENJOYS MRS. HAMILTON

The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers association was held last Wednesday afternoon in the kindergarten building. A pleasing program was enjoyed by a good attendance of mothers.

Olive Sedgeman, a little girl of the seventh grade, opened the program with a flute solo, being accompanied by master Robert Mitchell of the same grade. The number was beautifully rendered and much appreciated.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. A. L. Hamilton of Alhambra. Mrs. Hamilton has been in P. T. A. work for nineteen years, having filled every office from local president to national vice-president. She gave a most interesting and instructive talk on "The Co-operation of Children at Home and at School." Mrs. Hamilton's address was followed by two beautiful vocal solos rendered by Mrs. Howard Lieben. The Sierra Madre P. T. A. feel very proud to be able to claim a mother with such a wonderful voice.

A clever little play given by several girls of the eighth grade through their own efforts closed the afternoon's entertainment.

The title was "Why Mrs. Gaskell Didn't Hire a Cook" and the cast was as follows:

- Mrs. Gaskell Mary Wark
- Mrs. Langton Marjorie Deutsch
- Nancy Harriet Settel
- Susan Bighead Janet Allen
- Ah Ling Marjorie Bell
- Miss Perkins Margaret Moore
- Bridget O'Flannigan Dorothea Cox
- Maud Angelina Snigginson, Mary Young

The Thanksgiving dinner baskets will be packed at the school next Tuesday morning. The members of the committee urge that every mother take a personal interest in this work and see that their children take their donations to school next Monday, Nov. 26.

Mrs. Hoover, chairman of the committee on Education, announced that on Wednesday, Dec. 1, a Mothers club will be organized at the kindergarten building at 2:30 p. m. Every mother of Sierra Madre if she is a member or not is most cordially invited. Fuller details of this meeting will be given later.

BURBANK TALKS AT C. OF C. LUNCH

The evolution of the text book in the United States was the subject of the talk made by E. D. Burbank at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon last Tuesday. He spoke of two text book publishers and the important part they have played in the education of our people. One was Mr. Larkin, who furnished the horse that Paul Revere made his historical ride upon, and the other A. B. Ginn of Boston, the publisher of a great number of text books. Mr. Larkin revised and published the "New England Primer" which was used over a continuous period of two hundred years, leaving a deep impress upon all American educated people. Mr. Ginn introduced the important change in educational methods of having the student perform the experiments to be learned instead of memorizing it by watching the instructor. Mr. Burbank's speech was most interesting and was greatly appreciated by the luncheon guests.

George A. Oswald presided over the meeting and called upon the secretary to make announcements with reference to the election of directors and to call attention to the fact that the polls close Friday evening. Also to explain the project for a Sierra Madre Merchants' at Home Night. This was followed by a general discussion of the plan led by Mrs. Jessica H. Wright.
Dean Shaw explained the proposition to locate the Southern Branch of the University of California at San Marino on the Huntington estate and the great advantage it would be to our community.

Tonight the Bethany Temple Sunday school will hold a social at 7:30. All members of the school and church and their friends are invited.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL LAGGING

No American, whether man or woman, should be silent when the great annual Roll Call of the Red Cross is being sounded; to make sure of a place in that splendid Roll of Honor and Service is the one thing that every person in this city should do without a moment's hesitation or delay.

So far less than 500 persons have been enrolled this year. This number should be doubled within the next few days. The Roll Call ends with Thanksgiving Day. We take it for granted that everybody realizes, appreciates and approves the work of the Red Cross which has well been called "America's Legion of Mercy."

Wherever War has set its crushing heel; wherever pestilence, famine, earthquake, flood or other calamity has overwhelmed a nation, a city, a village, or a family; wherever any unfortunate has been broken by the storms of fate, the Red Cross comes constantly with supplies to satisfy their need, with balm to heal their wounds, with comfort to assuage their grief.

The American Red Cross receives no subsidy from the government, but is supported entirely by the money received from voluntary contributions. Now is the time for you to give yourself as a member, and a generous contribution of money to carry on this world wide ministry to humanity. The hearts of mothers and fathers and little children throughout all the stricken lands will bless you, and your own heart will not fail to know the joy which always comes as a reward for unselfish ministry to others.

Bring your contribution to headquarters at the office of the Chamber of Commerce, 4 West Central Avenue, and do not wait for any personal solicitation.

EASTERN STAR HAS RECEPTION FOR INITIATES

Receiving six new members and giving a reception for the initiates of 1923, the Eastern Star chapter had a busy and enjoyable session Monday night. Mrs. Twycross, worthy matron, and Mr. Fred Vannier, worthy patron, had provided delightful entertainment in some choice readings by Miss Dorothy LeVoe of Los Angeles. Later refreshments were served by a special committee of which Mrs. Madge Hare was chairman. The new members taken into the order were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Clarkson, Mrs. Birdie Landerman, Mrs. W. C. Sullivan, Mrs. J. A. Sullivan and Mrs. Zayda Leonard.

Plans for the "Pink Ball" to be given by the Woman's Club next Friday night indicate a splendid evening's entertainment. The orchestra which made such a hit at the Halloween ball will furnish the music, and the committee has a number of surprise features planned.

Home Talent Farce Scores Usual Big Hit

The play, "Safety First," produced under the auspices of the Church of the Ascension in connection with the Annual Bazaar, was voted a big hit with those who saw it last night. The cast, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Allen, upheld the traditions of the guild to the very finest detail. "Safety First" is one of the funniest farces ever given by the Sierra Madre players.

The hit of the evening was Fred Griebenow as Abou Ben Mocha, a Turk from Turkey, though Mrs. J. N. Hawks and Jack Buchan both won the hearts of the audience in comedy parts. Mrs. Victor Hill, Miss Edith Blumer and Miss Mattie C. Seely were just as delightful as ever, while the addition of Miss Betty Shultz to the group met the approval of all. J. N. Hawks, C. Hall Perry and DeWitt Jones, cast respectively as an unsuccessful bachelor, an erring husband and a college student in love with a Turkish girl, proved to be successful laugh producers throughout the performance.

The second performance of "Safety First" will be given tonight at the Woman's Club house.

The wonderful chicken dinner served by the ladies of the Guild earlier in the evening, the usual splendid array of holiday offerings, the fortune telling of Mrs. McClellan as "Lois Lyte" and other features of the bazaar filled afternoon and evening with a delightful continuous program.

FINAL PLEDGE DAY AT CHURCH OF ASCENSION

Next Sunday, November 25, is a day of special interest to the members of the Church of the Ascension. It is the day set apart for the annual pledge campaign. At 11 o'clock service special music will be rendered and every member and friend of the parish is urged by the rector to be present at the service.

In the afternoon in the parish house from 4 to 5 o'clock a family gathering will be held and tea and luncheon will be served. All are cordially invited to come.

JOHNSON SELLS CITRUS GROVE ON CANYON AVE

Arthur Johnson, Jr., sold his 10-acre lemon grove, with two houses, at 180 N. Canyon avenue, this week to Col. Herman Hall, a retired army officer. The sale was made through Charles Brooks of Sierra Madre, representing the Blankenhorn Co. The price is not made public but is said to show continued substantial increase in the value of high class Sierra Madre residence property. Col. Hall and his wife, who have traveled widely, chose Sierra Madre for their home after spending several months in search for a Southern California home to their liking.

PAST MASTERS NIGHT TUESDAY

Next Tuesday night will be observed as the annual Past Masters' night of Sierra Madre Masonic Lodge. There will be no degree work, the evening being devoted to entertainment and renewing of old acquaintances as it is expected there will be a number of members who were active in earlier years but have long been absent.

EVANGELIST SPEAKS AGAIN

Dr. E. P. Lyon of Pasadena, evangelist and teacher in the Biola school will continue in charge of the services of Bethany church Sunday morning and evening and Wednesday night. At the Sunday night service Mrs. Lyon, also one of the Biola teachers, will give a reading.

Woman's Club Notes

(Mrs. E. H. Carpenter, Press Chairman)

In her recent talk on "Synthesis" Mrs. J. Glenwood Jones demonstrated her familiarity with "the new movement in the theater" so it is fitting that we look to Mrs. Jones for the development of a modern stage at the Woman's club house. Mrs. Jones is a past master at stage craft and has been directing her co-workers in the art of making the stage as large as possible, as effective as possible and as utilitarian as possible. Under her direction, also, has the new stage lighting system been installed. We owe her a debt of gratitude.

The Art section is bringing to us the third of a series of exhibits. On Wednesday next the etchings and drawings of Miss Loren Barton will adorn the club house walls.

Miss Barton's etchings are well known throughout the country, she having exhibited in all the large eastern cities. She has recently made some etchings for Mr. Henry Huntington of his house and grounds at San Marino. The exhibit of Miss Barton's work may be seen in the club house from Monday to Friday.

The program for Nov. 28 will be under the direction of the Music chairman, Mrs. Homer Glidden, who, with the members of her committee, will be hostess at the tea following Mrs. Manning's concert.

Mrs. Manning's program is as follows:

- I. French Songs—(Hahn.)
 - (a) Payage
 - (b) Infidélite
 - (c) Si mes Vers avient des Ailes
- II. Arias
 - (a) "Gianni Schicchi".....Puccini
 - (b) "Don Quixote".....Massinet
 - (c) "Herodiade".....Massinet
- III. Piano Solos
 - (a) RomanceSibelius
 - (b) Danse de la Tee Dragee.....Tschaikowsky
 - (c) JubaDetc
 - (d) PierrotCyril Scott
 - (e) Country GardensPercy Granger
- IV. Nursery Rhymes
- V. Songs
 - (a) Over the Steppe.....Gretchaninoff
 - (b) The Isle.....Rachmaninoff
 - (c) Autumn Leaves.....Manning
 - (d) Happy SongDel Riego

The "Gianni Schicchi" aria is from the opera by that name—one of the three much discussed "short operas" by Puccini.

Please bear in mind that this wonderful program is Mrs. Manning's gift to us that the proceeds may go to our building fund. Non-members tickets are 75c each and the men are specially urged to attend and enjoy (Continued on Page Nine)

Proclamation

Congratulations to MR. S. R. NORRIS

At this Thanksgiving season, as you are opening your splendid new store after 36 years of service to the people of Sierra Madre, your fellow merchants desire to extend their hearty good wishes and congratulations. Through years of association, or by reason of the high esteem in which they have found you to be held, they feel that you well deserve continued success and abundant prosperity.

Your enterprise in providing a handsome, modern store building, with its many advanced features of arrangement and equipment, is felt to be of material benefit to the entire community, one of the things which tends to invite and promote growth of population and therefore result in increased business for all. For this they wish to accord you full credit, and to express the hope of many more years of pleasant relations.

NEW NORRIS STORE OPENS THIS WEEK

Sierra Madre's pioneer among the retail merchants moved into the newest up-to-date store in town this week. S. R. Norris, a leading retailer since 1887, opened to the public his new building at the corner of Central and Lima, with a finely stocked and equipped grocery, market and general merchandise store.

Mr. Norris has been kept busy receiving the congratulations of friends as he could steal time from the pressure of a multitude of details incident to the opening of the store, the special sale and pure food show. The latter has been staged by manufacturers' representatives, demonstrating numerous food products for the edification of housewives, and the delight of all who will stop to taste their wares.

Handsome Front

The new Norris building is 50x90 feet, with a large basement stock room at the rear. The front presents a fine expanse of display windows, recessed to present an arcade of three spans.

Entrance will be made through the side spans. The central span in front of the door way is planned as a planting space for shrubbery, with a drinking fountain immediately behind it.

Entering the store, one finds the regular retail departments, confectionery, tobacco, bakery goods, etc., along the right hand wall. At the rear in the center is the meat market, with display cases and big refrigerator kept thoroughly cold by pipes from the refrigerating plant in the basement. On the right is the display case for creamery products, similarly cooled. In the rear of this is the wrapping department for the delivery clerks, taking this operation away from the retail counters.

At the left of the meat department is the cashier's desk and office and in the rear of this is the ladies' rest room.

Down the broad center aisle of the store during the opening days the pure food demonstrations are taking place in decorated booths.

Self-serve Department

Occupying the west half of the store room and set apart by an enclosure of shelving and cabinets is

ARCHITECT IS ALSO BUILDER

H. N. Andrews, architect and superintendent of the Norris building, was formerly a resident of Sierra Madre, living on Auburn Ave., before removing to Montrose. The degree to which he has succeeded in making attractive a building of the workaday plainness of a grocery store is worthy of note.

The most striking feature of the building is the front with its arcade entrances and attractive expanse of display windows. The little shrubbery bed in the center arch is not yet installed, but will serve a two-fold purpose—that of making an unusual and attractive front, and also causing people to enter the store through the side archways and thereby to pass along the display windows on one side or the other.

In addition to designing the building and superintending its construction as a whole, Mr. Andrews took the general carpenter contract. Mr. Norris is most enthusiastic in his praise of Mr. Andrews and his work from start to finish.

FOUNDATION OF BUILDING DEEP

To the casual observer the amount of cement and concrete entering into the Norris building it not much in evidence. The building is only one story high, but is so constructed as to admit of another being added. The steepness of the hillside also necessitated a very deep excavation for the basement beneath the rear end. For these reasons Contractor Harvey Steinberger had to put a great deal more concrete into the job than the size of the building might lead one to suspect. In fact at the extreme rear end the basement floor is practically two stories under ground. The basement is entirely floored and walled with concrete, and the foundations are likewise of concrete. Mr. Steinberger's contract also included the expanse of cement walk in front of the store and through the arcade entrance.

As an old neighbor of the Norris

the newest merchandising system introduced into Sierra Madre. It is the Spartan Self-serve cash and carry department. One enters the enclosure, selects groceries or household hardware, notions etc., from the plainly marked stock, takes the articles to the cashier and pays and takes them away.

Mr. Norris expects this to be a big feature of the new store. The elimination of credit, telephone calls clerkhire and delivery makes possible substantial savings in the cost of operation which can be passed on to the customer.

In the spacious basement abundant storage room is provided. Incoming freight is slipped down a long chute directly from the rear door of the building.

New Features

The automatic refrigerating plant and ice making machine in the basement is the first installed in a Sierra Madre store. It will have a capacity of a ton of ice daily in addition to cooling the big refrigerator and display cases. No ice, however, will be made for the present.

By installing this plant Mr. Norris follows the policy of his whole 36 years in business. Each of his three stores represented a distinct advance for the time in which it was built. Mr. Norris brought the first computing scale to Sierra Madre, and pioneered with many other features which later became commonplace and taken for granted.

Store Personnel

Mr. Norris is fortunate, as he reaches the stage in his career where he feels like sharing the store responsibilities, in having associated with him his son and daughter, George Norris and Mrs. Stella Denison, who have virtually grown up with the business and are familiar with its every detail.

The cashier who will take toll at the Self-serve gateway and also serve as general bookkeeper is Mrs. Elizabeth Scott. The meat department is in the capable hands of F. L. C. Roess.

Assistants in the grocery department are Elmer McElroy and Mr. Norris's niece, Miss Marian Decker. The delivery force, preserving contact between store and customer on the outside, consists of Jack Osgood, George O'Banion and Gaston Pesce.

stores, Contractor Steinberger used to buy his chewing gum and candy there long before he ever laid any concrete. So it was particularly appropriate that he should have a hand in the building of the newest store of Sierra Madre's pioneer grocer.

BLINN LUMBER FOR THE JOB

From the extensive and varied resources of The L. W. Blinn Lumber Co., came most of the materials entering into the Norris building. Lumber, lime, cement, sash, doors, etc., were all furnished through the local yard of which E. P. Bradford is the hustling and efficient manager.

As one of the big lumber companies of the Pacific Coast, the Blinn company has yards in a dozen cities, supplied from the company's own sources. Lumber comes from the company's own forests in Oregon and Washington, is sawed in the company's mills and shipped down the coast in the company's boats. The finer grades are milled in the company's own establishments and made up into sash, doors, cabinets and other builders' supplies. In addition to lumber marketed through the company's own yards, The Blinn company does an immense wholesale business which serves a large number of independent retailers.

THE FINISH TELLS THE INSIDE TALE

When the new Norris store had reached that stage where it was possible to begin painting and decorating work, the proprietors faced a special problem. They realized that although they might have put the best of materials into it, they would not get full credit for their pains if that part of the work which is visible on the surface was not the finest possible. In other words, they understood that in theirs, as in all other buildings, it was the finish that would tell the tale.

So Mr. Norris called in his fellow townsman, George E. Hapgood, who is superintendent of decoration (Continued on Page 6) and design for the Sierra Studios, conducted by the Sierra Painting and Decorating Co., at 2451 E. Colorado St., Pasadena. He cooperated with them in working out a suitable scheme of painting and decoration for the entire store.

All tinting was done by the Sierra Company's up-to-date mechanical painting equipment which forces the material under air pressure, deep into every crack and crevice. On such work it supercedes the old method of simply brushing the paint on by hand. The decorative work, which includes stenciling and other elaboration, is not yet all done, but when completed promises to be distinctive in the community.

they opened a down town branch and called it the Sierra Madre Hardware Co. When the business was later taken over by Messrs. Clark, Jones and Hull the two establishments were combined as the Sierra Madre Hardware Co., in the present commodious quarters. Mr. Klunk was with the old firm several years before the last change took place, when Messrs. Clark and Jones retired and the business was incorporated by Messrs. Hull, Griebenow, and Klunk. In point of time the Sierra Madre Hardware Co., is an institution in the same class with Mr. Norris among the pioneers, although the personnel has changed completely. The volume and variety of the stock carried is a source of constant surprise to visitors.

LIGHTING JOB IS EXTENSIVE

With the large space to be illuminated, together with the special equipment such as the refrigeration plant which requires electricity, the electrical installation in the Norris building entrusted to Contractor Claude Vedder is very extensive. Interior illumination is accomplished to excellent effect by a type of pendant ceiling fixture which not only diffuses the light downward but also lights the ceiling so as to give the greatest possible amount of reflection without glare.

Numerous X-ray reflectors light up the show windows in front so that the displays are thrown into brilliant prominence at night. Exterior switches give full control of the window lights from the outside.

Interior switches for the control of the entire store system are conveniently located. Outlets for the attachment of various utilities and small motors are placed at various points about the store. In the basement the refrigerating machine is driven by a Westinghouse motor, and the whole outfit in operation is no more noisy than a clock ticking.

HARDWARE AND GLASS BIG ITEM

One of the big single items of expense in making the Norris store attractive was the plate glass in the display windows. About 70 lineal feet were required and this as well as the builders' hardware, nails, paint etc., were furnished by the Sierra Madre Hardware Co.

As a matter of historical interest it may be mentioned that the Sierra Madre Hardware Co., had its beginnings in a building on the site of the new Norris store. The firm of Clark & Graham still occupied the old frame building at the time

DE TEMPLE DID PLUMBING WORK

As a journeyman plumber and later as an independent plumbing contractor, M. A. DeTemple, more commonly known as "Mike," has had a hand in a large proportion of the plumbing work done in Sierra Madre in recent years. He now has his plumbing shop in the rear of his residence at 265 Mariposa where he carries a big stock of pipe, fittings, fixtures etc. He recently purchased frontage on Central Ave., where he may later establish his business.

The character of the plumbing required for the Norris building was on a par with the rest of the building, meaning the best. Mr. Norris entrusted the job to his near neighbor, Mr. DeTemple, with full assurance that he would get what he wanted.

CARR SIGNS ARE EVERYWHERE

F. L. Carr, the sign man, has his trademark about as widely scattered over the landscape as anyone in this part of Los Angeles county. Having been in the sign business in Pasadena 26 years, Mr. Carr has an acquaintance even wider than the distribution of his signs. He is almost a citizen of Sierra Madre, owning one of the finest cabins in the Big Santa Anita and being familiar with all our mountains through many years of trail travel. Mr. Carr makes a specialty of fine gold lettering and has produced some of the most artistic work of this class to be found anywhere.

A MILLION CAME THIS YEAR—SPENDING MILLIONS

Three hundred thousand of them were motorists!

The pulling power that brings them to the Southland every year in increasing numbers is more than mere sunshine, beaches and highways "as smooth as the inside of your bathtub." The traveling motorist is made to feel probably more quickly in Southern California than in any other region in the world—that he is at home and among friends willing and eager to befriend him!

And what more confusing to a newcomer than having to choose from forty different kinds of gasoline, some poor, some good!

Simply tell him: there's ONE that experienced motorists always count on—that's "Red Crown," the dependable gasoline from the Southern California Refinery of the Standard Oil Company at El Segundo.

It gives quick-starting, sharp, fast pick-up with no sacrifice of power. There's uniform, perfectly balanced gasoline wherever you see the "Red Crown" sign.

SMITH-KING PLAYERS IN A FINE COMEDY

"Beautiful fun is being had by all at the Raymond this week." Reason being that the Smith-King Players are staging one of the funniest farces ever written. New York laughed at it for many, many months—almost a record for a long run. Others cities of the Eastern Seaboard have roared for the past year and now the fun has infected the West coast for the first time. "The Mad Honey-moon" is the name of the thing, but what's in a name?

Not since "Mam'zelle" have audiences responded so heartily to mirth provoking situations, clever comedy lines and unexpected happenings. The curtain is scarcely up before the play is merrily on its way. There are no preliminaries or long drawn out conversation. But action aplenty—something new every minute and these somethings created for nothing but laughing purposes (if that term may be used for the nth time.)

Most every one in the cast has his or her bit of comedy to do. Not one single part has been forgotten in an effort to guarantee a laugh-fest. Wilson Hummel, always a mainstay of the Smith-King organization, and an actor who can prove his exceptional ability if he only says the word "yes," is cast as a correspondence school detective. He failed to make any arrests despite many opportunities, either his badge hadn't arrived from the school or because of his wooden leg. At any rate, he is a scream.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will be presented next week. Philharmonic Concert

The seat sale for the first Philharmonic Orchestra concert of the season at the Raymond will go on sale a week from Monday at the Raymond box office. The first concert will be given on Friday afternoon, Jan. 4, under the direction of Walter Rothwell.

Pasadena Egyptian Theatre

A complete five-act, all star vaudeville show has been secured for the opening of the new Pasadena Egyptian theater Saturday night at 6:30. The bill has been in the process of formation for the past two weeks, taking special care to select the best acts available for this gala occasion, which will possibly eclipse any Southern California theatrical event of recent months. Most of the acts secured have just completed or will soon begin engagements over the Orpheum or Junior Orpheum circuits. The biggest feature picture to be released in months, "The Spanish Dancer," will be the cinema attraction. Leading roles are played by Pola Negri and Antonio Moreno.

ARCADIA WILL STAGE FIRST ANNUAL FAIR

U. S. Army balloon school at Arcadia is taking on a festive effect for the San Gabriel Valley exposition to be held from Nov. 27 to Dec. 1, inclusive. Flags on the roofs of the buildings are one by one breaking out into the breeze, adding greatly to the picturesque setting provided by this famous army station. As will be recalled by many residents of the locality, Ross Field is located on the site of the old Lucy Baldwin race track from which a magnificent view toward Sierra Madre and the Sierra Madre mountains is obtained.

The famous war hero pigeons stationed at Ross Field are being carefully groomed for their big parade before the many thousands of visitors. These war birds seem to sense the nature of things and are making a brave effort to put their best foot forward, although this cannot be said about "President Wilson" who had a leg shot off during the war. However, it is planned to get his wooden leg out of storage and let him wear it on this occasion, as this hero bird likes to wear this wooden leg and is much brighter and more upstanding than usual when he has it on.

The old Spanish days will be recalled by the Spanish type of decoration. Main gateways to the fair will be surmounted with an archway and mission bells. Every effort is being made to take advantage of the wonderful possibilities offered at Ross Field for beautiful scenic effects.

In addition to agricultural and industrial exhibits there will be many other features of interest and entertainment. California Institute of Technology will install an exhibit of its latest glider, of great interest to aerial designers and engineers, and to the public as well.

Keeping our Customers out of trouble,

It is the policy of this garage to treat every customer—including the dust-covered tourist passing through—as if he were a permanent patron for the condition of whose car we were in some degree responsible.

We know that it is a better service to prevent trouble than to cure trouble.

If, for example, in adjusting a distributor, we find some wiring that looks as if it were likely to give trouble, or notice that a valve is beginning to leak, we include all such items in our report to the customer. A little inexpensive preventive work done now may save an expensive breakdown on the road.

If a customer wants advice about motor fuel or lubrication, we tell him the best we know. We carry Red Crown gasoline and Zerolene lubricants because the quality of these products is uniformly reliable. We know what they will do, and they don't change.

By the way, if your speedometer shows that your car has been running about 750 miles, better have us give you Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service, which includes flushing out the crankcase with Calol Flushing Oil and refilling with new, fresh Zerolene of the proper body for your car.

Give!
Something Electrical—

The typical old fashioned Thanksgiving dinner was characterized by its bounty. Good things in extra measure were prepared for the occasion—just a little more than would usually be expected.

And so, in making coffee electrically, you get more than you expected—in flavor, in strength, in aroma, in convenience. Try it yourself and be convinced.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

BOY SCOUTS HONOR HARDING

The flags of 21,500 scout troops were lowered to half-staff in silent tribute to the memory of the nation's late head and honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America, upon the announcement of the death of Warren G. Harding. On several thousand of the standards, coupled with crape were the President's streamers of red, white and blue, Mr. Harding's gift to the troops increasing their membership in the recent scout round-up—treasured mementoes of his warm sympathy and active support of the boy scout movement.

From West to East boy scouts stood at attention in respect to the memory of the dead President, as the train bearing the body of this great-hearted leader and devoted supporter of the scout movement passed on its sad and impressive transcontinental journey to the nation's capital.

At practically every station in city, town and countryside on the route of the funeral train, regardless of hour or whether a stop was made, the scout contingent, usually the length of the train, was drawn up. Where stops were made, an offering of wild flowers, gathered by the scouts and symbolic of the outdoor life of scouting, was placed aboard.

In San Francisco twenty scouts of eagle rank escorted the funeral cortege. In Washington the tribute of esteem was rededicated by Collin H. Livingstone, president of the Boy Scouts of America, James E. West, chief scout executive, other scout officials, and a delegation of scouts to whom a special place in the funeral services was assigned.

Boy scouts have cherished memories in the repeated manifestations of both the President and Mrs. Harding as to their keen appreciation of the fundamental values of scouting in character building and citizenship training. The annals of the Boy Scouts of America contain no finer tribute than Mrs. Harding's request that the scouts be included in all arrangements on the recent trip for guarding the presidential party, because as she expressed it, she always felt better when the scouts were present.

The following telegram was dispatched to Mrs. Harding from the national office upon receipt of information of the President's death:

"Boy Scouts of America, 618,000 scattered everywhere, are especially thoughtful of you in this hour of bereavement. Pray that you will be sustained in strength and courage. Not only have we lost the President of our country, but an unusually sympathetic and helpful honorary president and friend of our organization. Believing it will have your approval we are arranging for a boy scout guard of honor at each railroad station through which your train will pass.

"JAMES E. WEST,
"Chief Scout Executive,
"Boy Scouts of America."

CANADIAN SCOUTS' MESSAGE

Sympathy of the Boy Scouts of Canada in our nation's loss of its late President was expressed to Chief Scout Executive James E. West by Dr. John W. Robertson, Chief Commissioner of the Canadian Boy Scouts' association, through the following telegram:

"The Boy Scouts of Canada desire to associate themselves with the Boy Scouts of America in deep sorrow for the loss the boy scouts of the continent have sustained through the death of the late President Harding; in heartfelt sympathy with Mrs. Harding in her bereavement; and in profound respect for the memory of a leader whose good will springing into friendly action from his noble character made him an inspiration and model for all scouts.—James W. Robertson, Chief Commissioner."

Mr. West explained that the Canadian boy scouts expressed an interest in sending a delegation of scouts to Washington to present in person their tribute of respect to Mr. Harding's memory, but sufficient time was not available to complete the plans.

A SPRINTING SCOUTMASTER.

"Scout's pace" suits Charles Paddock, the world-famous sprinter. He has recently become scoutmaster of Troop No. 26, Pasadena, Cal. The troop is sponsored by the American Legion Pasadena Post No. 13 of which Mr. Paddock is vice-commander.

ALASKA'S GOVERNOR SAYS:

"I am heartily and unqualifiedly in sympathy with the boy scout movement. It is doing wonders for the youth of the land and for all communities where its activities have reached. The boy scouts of Juneau recently took the initiative in making this little capital clean, presentable and attractive in preparation for the visit of President Harding, members of the cabinet and congressman. Success to the movement, now and always!"—Scott C. Bone, Governor of Alaska.

Ford Trucks Are Bought On Performance Records

If you were to ask a hundred—or a thousand—Ford truck owners why they use Ford trucks, in preference to all others, they would likely say, "Because the Ford stands up."

They know that under the endless grind of daily service the Ford stays on the job month in and month out, with very little mechanical care, and with practically no expense for repairs or replacements.

They would emphasize the work this truck does, not its initial cost.

Ford Trucks can be bought through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

Woman's Club Notes

 the arts so ably represented by Mrs.
 Manning and Miss Barton.

Art Committee

The first meeting of the Art committee was held at the home of its chairman, Miss Ella Shepard Bush, on the afternoon of Monday last. It was a most interesting and enthusiastic meeting—the chief point of interest being the plans for the finish and decoration of the club house addition. The next meeting will be held at the club house on Monday,
 Nov. 26, from 2 to 3 o'clock.

Will the young people interested in the success of the "Pink Ball"
 come to the club house on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, to help in decorating the hall for the event?

On Monday afternoon at 1:30 the committee will meet at the club house to perfect their plans and work on the decorations.

In her capacity as chairman on the committee for co-operation with ex-service men and women, Mrs.
 Welscher has discovered some of the things needed to bring a bit of cheer to the shut-ins at the Soldiers' home.
 Thanksgiving and Christmas are coming. The boys are far from home, many of them without money to buy even a post card on which to send a word of greeting to their friends, so Mrs. Welscher has been busy this week on their behalf. She has gone to our townspeople, to some of our business men, to some of our club women, and as a result took to these disabled veterans on Thursday over fourteen hundred and fifty stamped postal cards for distribution among them.

About Dec. 15 in the very attractive office of Mrs. Mesecar, there will be held a basket sale. If you are planning to give baskets for Christmas that will be the time and place to get them and the club's building fund will be enriched thereby.
