TODAY'S GAME

Back before the current college set wore its first safety pins, back before the market crash and the WPA and nuclear fission, Vanderbilt last defeated Tulane in a football game. That was in 1928 and the score was 13-6. Since then the Commodores from Tennessee have tried seven times to do it again with the sole consolation of a 6-6 tie in 1932.

They will try once more this afternoon, on Tulane's Homecoming Day, and it is quite possible that they finally will succeed. Like Green Wave engagements for the past four weeks, this one is a toss-up to be taken by the team that is better prepared.

Although still bedeviled by injuries, the Greenies could not completely blame ill fortune for their 27-6 loss to Kentucky last week. The simple fact was that the hill men beat them to the draw, shredding dreams of extending victories over Auburn and Mississippi State into a season-ending winning streak. Today Coach Raymond (Bear) Wolf's sharpies will have to be considerably faster on the uptake.

For Vandy has been appearing more formidable by the Saturday. Two weeks ago Coach Bill Edwards' boys gave Washington and Lee a fearsome 67-7 shellacking. Last time out they downed Miami, 9-0. Before that they had picked up considerable prestige with a 20-13 triumph over Florida and ties with Ole Miss (21-21) and Northwestern (20-20). Losses have been to Georgia (19-7), Virginia (27-0) and Georgia Tech (30-0).

The visitors are men who can be scored upon, but they are also people who can cause excitement themselves. That is true principally because of their 18-year-old flaming youth, Quarterback Bill Krietemeyer. It is said that he will be greater than the graduated Bill Wade. Tulane will ponder that problem today, already having

One of the best known Tulane traditions is the fraternity house decoration contest for Homecoming. Zeta Beta Tau's "Let's Trim the Blue Grass" was the 1951 winner (above).

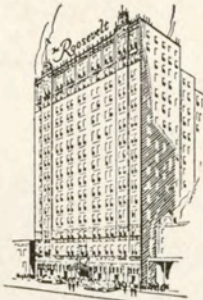

Football fans of the 1930's will quickly recall this action photograph. It's the Tulane-LSU game of Dec. 2, 1933 (below).

The ROOSEVELT
"Pride of the South"

Remember when you saw this scene every football Saturday? The cheerleader is Marian Draper (Mrs. Stephen Manning of Alexandria, Va.) as she led the Tulane cheers in 1923-24-25.

One of the highlights of every Tulane Homecoming is the alumni dance with its featured floorshow. The Tulane barbershop quartet entertains the 1951 crowd.

During the meeting of the Tulane Alumni Association each year an autographed football is given to the oldest Tulane alumnus in attendance. Louis Scherck of New Orleans, 1888 graduate, receives his fourth consecutive football in 1951.

The zip and enthusiasm of Tulane alumni at Homecoming is matched only by the collegiate spirit of Tulane students. Here a past shirt-tail parade gets going on Canal Street. Former Homecoming Queen Violet Whitehead is in the middle.

Rising to acknowledge the plaudits of the 1951 Homecoming Game crowd are Queen Ann Morrison, her Royal Court and escorts.

experienced the "T" artistry of Georgia's Zeke Bratkowski, Georgia Tech's Bill Brigman, Ole Miss' Jimmy Lear, Mississippi State's Jack Parker, and Kentucky's Steve Meilinger.

Speaking of quarterbacks, the Greenies have one of their own to be proud of in Pete Clement. The clever little citizen of Reserve, La., has directed the team with conspicuous poise all season. With Lester Kennedy out for the season with a broken wrist dating to the Mississippi State game, Clement will be handing off to Halfbacks Roy Bailey, Jim Partridge and Ray Weidenbacher and to Fullback Max McGee. As thin as the ranks have been trimmed by injury, Tulane remains a team whose striking power demands all respect.

On this Homecoming Day the Greenies will be the defenders of a fine tradition set by All-American predecessors Jerry Dalrymple, Ralph Wenzel, Harley McCollum, Ernie Blandin, Paul Lea, Lester Gatewood, Don Zimmerman, Little Monk Simons, Charles Flournoy, Willis Banker, Dub Jones and Eddie Price. Those are just a few of the names which have helped make the Green Wave great.
