This is an initiative taken by Goa University towards sharing and preserving knowledge in Konkani language.

Goa University has generously approved the re-release of Konkani Vishwakosh under Creative Commons License (CC-BY-SA 3.0) to make it freely available to public and thus preserve Konkani language and culture in the digital era. This encyclopedia will also serve as the main source of building and writing articles on Konkani Wikipedia.

This is a major step towards showcasing Konkani community and language on a global platform such as Konkani Wikipedia!
