

A GOOD BREEZE TO TURN LANDLUBBERS INTO SAILORMEN:
W. B. BELL'S MISTRAL,
 One of the New York Yacht Club's Forty-Footers Which Took Part in the Annual Regatta of the Larchmont Yacht Club in the Sound.
 (Edwin Levick.)

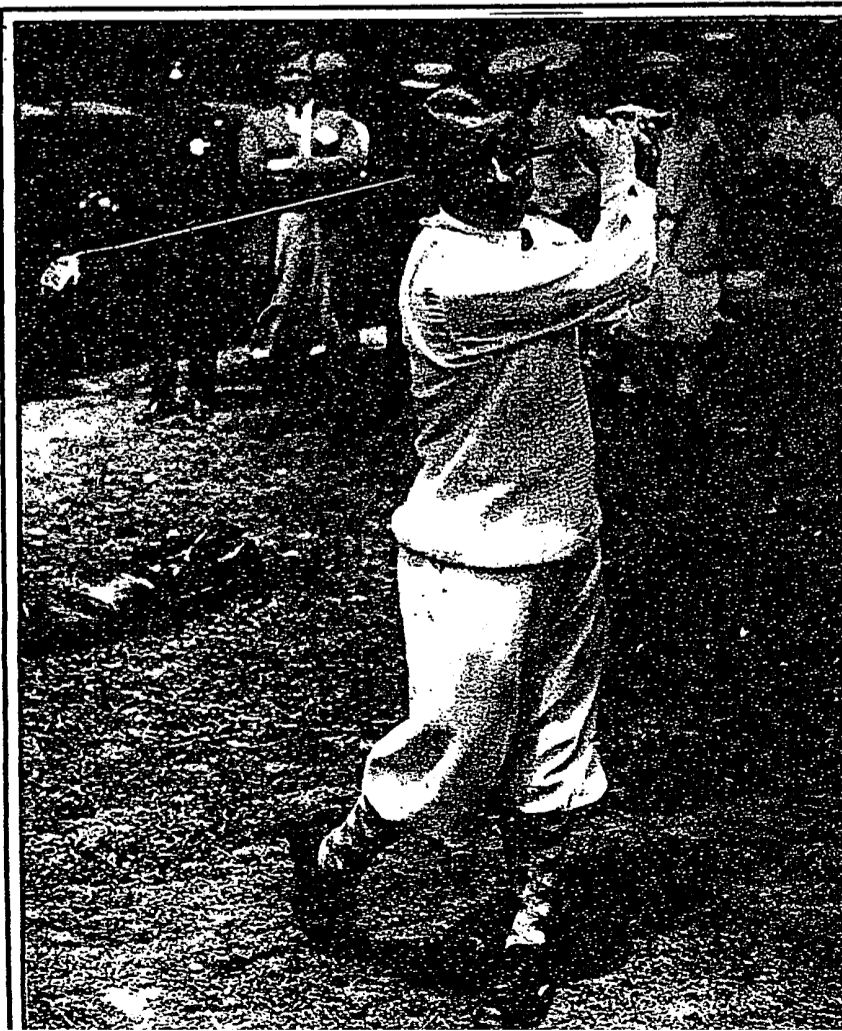

G. T. VAN GEYZEL OF CAMBRIDGE
 Winning the High Jump, With a Mark of 6 Feet 1 1/2 Inches, in the International Track and Field Meet at Atlantic City, in Which the Oxford-Cambridge Athletes Emerged Victorious Over Cornell and Princeton.
 (International.)

LORD BURGHLEY WINNING THE 220-YARD HURDLES in 24 7-10 Seconds at the International Track and Field Meet at Atlantic City, in Which the Oxford-Cambridge Team Overwhelmed the Cornell-Princeton Squad.

THE ONLY WOMAN WHO FINISHED THE RACE:
MME. PREVOST-GARDELLE,
 Who Swam Through the Whole Distance of Twelve Kilometers in the Seine Current.
 (Times Wide World Photos, Paris Bureau.)

STAGING A COMEBACK WITH A CHAMPIONSHIP VICTORY:
GENE SARAZEN,
 Who Won the Metropolitan Open Golf Championship at the Grassy Sprain Golf Club, Yonkers, N. Y., by a Score of 295 for 72 Holes, One Stroke Better Than Joe Turnesa.
 (Times Wide World Photos.)

S. R. BRADLEY OF PRINCETON,
 Who Was Tied With His Teammate, Bontecou of Cornell, and Hyatt of the Oxford-Cambridge Squad for First Place in the Pole Vault at the International Meet at Atlantic City.
 (Underwood & Underwood.)

Left to Right: G. L. Scattergood, Princeton; Lord Burghley, Cambridge; H. M. Cleckley, Oxford, and H. Spelman, Cornell.
 (International.)

A CHAMPION IN PIGTAILS:
MISS PHYLLIS GREEN,
 Holder of the Women's World Record for the High Jump, Breaking Her Own Record With a Mark of 5 Feet at Stamford Bridge, England.
 (Times Wide World Photos.)

THE CHAMPION CONDESCENDS TO GRACE ANOTHER FIELD OF FAME:
SUZANNE LENGLEN,
 Between Matches at Wimbledon, Opens the Putting Competition at Wembley in Aid of a Women's Hospital.
 (Times Wide World Photos.)

