FIRE-PROOF MOTION PICTURE MACHINES

PRICE $225.00.

Kleine Fire-Proof Motion Picture Machine, 1906 Model.

After a great deal of experimentation we have finally evolved a model which has not only passed the official Chicago inspection, but has met with the enthusiastic approval of exhibitors to whom the model has been shown.

The various features embodied in this machine are intended to make it thoroughly practical as well as fire-proof. Theatres operating in towns which do not require precautions against fire will find this instrument a profitable investment if for no other reason than that it saves films in case of accident, and may prevent panics.

AMONG ITS POINTS OF MERIT ARE:

A lamp-house entirely enclosed at all times, yet admitting of all necessary adjustments of the lamp; equipped with wire netting and gauze according to city requirements. An electric lamp whose carbon-holders grip the carbons at all points, making perfect contact and holding carbons rigid. A lamp-house base which is absolutely impervious to heat. A heat shield between lamp and film, which is lowered by means of a treadle; when the operator removes his foot the shield returns automatically into place. An upper reel-box made of aluminum into which the flame cannot pass if from any cause the film catches fire. A receiving box into which exposed film passes. At the opening is a trap-door which is closed instantaneously by the operator in case of danger. Four stout $\frac{7}{8}$ -inch steel supports, separately adjustable for inequalities in the floor, to support the complete machine. The moving picture mechanism, lamp-house, etc., are placed upon a heavy aluminum bed plate which rests upon the receiving film box. The lamp-house slides to the right and left for stereopticon adjustment. The crank which actuates the motion picture mechanism is fastened with screws and cannot slip off while in use. The motion picture mechanism is the Edison Exhibition Model, equipped with our special long, short or medium distance lenses, for stereopticon and moving pictures, as may be selected. But other mechanism can be used. The receiving film box is stoutly braced; the entire machine is strong, and will run without vibration. Every machine bears the official approval stamp of the Department of Electricity of the City of Chicago when delivered.

NOTE—For the benefit of exhibitors who are not familiar with inspection regulations, we would explain that conditions are becoming more rigid even in smaller cities, and the fires which are sometimes caused by moving picture machines can be easily avoided by the use of a machine as described.

New York customers can inspect this instrument at our New York address, 127-129 W. 32d St. Main supply depot at our Chicago address.

INDIAN DRAMA

Given One Performance In Milwaukee

That Wm. A. Brady Might Best Chas.
Frohman, Who is Gathering Material For the Same Kind of Play.

THE recent fight between Liebler & Co. and David Belasco, in which the former skillfully moved The Squaw-Man to New York to offset the latter's The Girl From the Golden West, and to establish a prior claim to the origin of that nature of drama, is having a parallel in a little episode now being enacted upon the theatrical checkerboard in which William A. Brady and Charles Frohman figure most prominently.

It is all on account of the poor Indian, who has been bouded about this country ever since the first arrival of the white man. No sooner had Charles Frohman announced that he had sent Mr. DeMille west to obtain local color for a new Indian drama, than Mr. Brady got busy. About seven months ago, it is said, Mr. Brady received from Donald MacLaren, of Milwaukee, a new Indian drama, entitled The Good For Naught. Mr. Brady laid the manuscript aside, intending to produce it next season with Wilton Lackage or Robert Mantell in the leading role. A thought struck Mr. Brady—he would have Grace George and her company give a single performance of the new MacLaren drama in Milwaukee, and by that performance he would establish his claim to the original Indian drama. Miss George was going to Milwaukee, anyway, and it was just the move.

Accordingly, the first performance of The Good For Naught was given Saturday night, Jan. 6, in the Davidson Opera House at Milwaukee. Grace George appeared with great distinction as Adulola, the daughter of the great chief of the Okatchees.

The Good For Naught does not treat of the Indian of to-day, but of the strange race that the whiteman found when he first landed upon this continent—when Indian braves were true braves, and before the war of extermination had begun. Lonawamba, the old chief, is growing old and feeble, and his sight is failing. He calls the council of the tribe to decide who shall be the husband of Adulola, his only child. There are so many suitors that it is at last agreed that Adulola shall meet the young braves who want to marry at the Pool of the Lilies on the following day, and make her own choice.

After the council, one of the warriors taunts Lonawanda about his daughter's fair skin and suggests the taint of white blood in her veins. The old chief kills him and hides the body.

The meeting takes place at the Lily Pool, and each young brave pleads his cause, reciting deeds of conspicuous bravery or notable achievement. But Adulola loves Niatawa, the hunter and the lover of animals, whose gentle and unwarlike character have earned for him the contempt and the nickname Good For Naught, from the more warlike members of the tribe.

The body of the murdered warrior is found and is discovered to be Niatawa's father. Through the faithlessness of Lashota, the faithless squaw of an honored warrior, Sheanagua, who loves Niatawa and is anxious to be rid of her husband so that she may the more openly bid for the love of the hunter, the guilt of the murder is reflected upon Sheanagua, and by a law of the tribe he and Niatawa must fight to the death. Niatawa does not defend himself and is killed. Adulola dies, and the curtain falls on a view of an empty canoe passing down the river towards the falls, bearing the soul of Adulola to the "Happy Hunting Grounds."

The play is in five acts, each beautifully mounted, representing spring, summer, autumn, winter and the lily pool.

RYAN RESIGNS

James A. Ryan, manager of the Grand Opera House at Lafayette, Ind., tendered his resignation, Jan. 1, in order to take up the management of the Cedar Point Pleasure Resort in Sandusky, Ohio, his home city. Mr. Ryan's resignation has caused much regret among his Lafayette friends. He leaves the employ of the Burt syndicate with the understanding that he may at any time return in a managerial capacity.

George Manderbeck, who succeeds Mr. Ryan, is a veteran theatrical manager, and will undoubtedly make good.

LOUISE MOREWIN DEAD

Miss Louise Morewin, of The Heir to the Hoorah Co., and a notice of whose injury at Newark, Ohio, appeared in last week's issue of this paper, died at the Wesley Hospital, Chicago, Ill., Tuesday evening, Jan. 2, of lockjaw.

Miss Morewin's ankle was crushed in a fall down an elevator shaft at the Hotel Warden in Newark Dec. 26. She was taken to the West Main Street Sanitarium in Newark, where she remained until Sunday night, when she was taken by her mother to the hospital in Chicago. Here she was placed under the care of two of the most skillful surgeons in the Windy City, but their efforts were fruitless, and Miss Morewin died late Tuesday night, the victim of lockjaw.

Miss Morewin was the daughter of Madam H. L. Meyers, of 235 Michigan avenue, Chicago. She was a woman of much refinement, and was considered a competent actress. For some time she had been playing the role of the mother-in-law in The Heir to the Hoorah, and it is said that next season she would have had a much more prominent part in a new play. She enjoyed the friendship of a host of people in the profession, and her untimely death is the cause of much sorrow.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Greene's Opera House at Cedar Rapids, Ia., celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary Dec. 28. The house opened Dec. 28, 1880, under the management of T. H. Sellers. The opening attraction was Emma Abbott in The Bohemian Girl. Both Miss Abbott and Mr. Sellers are now dead. The biggest business in the history of the house was done on the night of April 19, 1888, when the receipts reached $3,205. Booth and Barrett were the attractions. The receipt book for that evening bears the name of J. H. Magone, the well-known manager.

BELASCO'S NEW PLAY

David Belasco, having seen his latest completed play, The Girl From the Golden West, is already hard at work on another, which he probably will present in the spring. He will not tell anything about it, except that it deals with locality, a period, and types of character altogether different from any that he has offered heretofore. It is understood, however, that the scene will be laid in America. Mr. Belasco has produced so many plays of other countries that he is inclined, for relief, to come back to America.

MURPHY WILL NOT RETIRE

Messrs. Kennedy & Westfall, managers of Joseph Murphy, vigorously deny the reported retirement of the well known Irish comedian. On the contrary, assert his managers, Mr. Murphy will be on the boards for many seasons to come. It is a fact, however, that Mr. Murphy has turned over to Allen Doone his one-night stands, but he will continue to be seen in all the larger cities as has been his custom for many years.

Mr. Doone has been quite successful under the management of Kennedy & Westfall in the one-night stands in Kerry Gow, and they have decided to keep his in the play at least all of next season.

MILD WINTER

And Good Business In Northern Towns

Prospects Brighter in Smaller Ohio Cities—A Buckeye Critic After Cohan—Notes of Traveling Companies.

THE winter so far has not been severe in the Maritime Provinces, and Prince Webber and the few shows that had the nerve to make the trip are reported to be doing well. Up to Christmas the snow had not been deep enough to interfere with the passenger trains and communication continues with Prince Edward Island.

Washburn has an Uncle Tom's Cabin up there and is getting nice business. The show is not a stranger to Nova Scotia, and the natives turn out in great numbers to see it. Recently Washburn got $185. in the D. J. T. A. hall at Truro, my informant writes, and any one acquainted with the limited capacity of that hall will see that the show had em coming. Then again the D. J. T. A. house is owned by a religious denomination and fully two-thirds of the people would not enter the hall under any circumstances.

Business in the Ohio towns seems to be improving with the new year. It was very bad until Christmas, consequently the improvement will be gladly welcomed by house and traveling managers.

Harry Rosenthal recently joined along the Kennebec as advance agent and is making a splendid showing.

Gus Sun will shortly open the Lyceum Theatre at Springfield, O., as a combination house. He had planned to open it on Christmas, but he could not get it ready in time.

The Mission Girl Co. enjoyed a Christmas spread at St. Mary's, O. In addition to the members of the company, Ambrose and Edward Kohler and their families, of Lima, O., and Miss Marie Grogan, of Chicago, were present.

The Railroad Jack Co. had its Christmas banquet at Dayton, and it also passed off pleasantly.

Eddie Pierson, Nellie Johnson and Al. G. Steiner joined the Heath & Farren's Peck's Bad Boy Co. recently.

Guy Cauffman is seriously considering whether or not to invade the burlesque field next season.

The Volunteer Organist had one thousand paid admissions at the New Year's matinee, and capacity at night, at the Marion Opera House, Findlay, O.

V. A. Varney's Diamond King Co. closed at Lima, Ohio, Christmas Day.

Sandy Bottom laid off a few days at Wapakoneta, Ohio, re-opening there on New Year's Day.

C. L. Magee, manager of the opera house at Winchester, Ind., is sightseeing in Cuba.

Ed. Buck is again this season managing the Grand Opera House at Panding, Ohio. He took the house late in October when there were no bookings, but he has succeeded in getting attractions and is doing a nice business.

John Neer, advertising agent of the Faurot Opera House at Lima, Ohio, piloted a female baseball team through Canada last season, and next summer will take the same team through the northwest.

Rodney Lee, of the Toledo Blade, goes after Cohan, who saw little merit in his Forty-five Minutes From Broadway. The Blade says that Cohan's success made him get swelled on himself. Cohan seems to have a great deal of fun with the critics frequently, by giving them little "jabs" in his Spotlight.

WEBER'S COMPANY SCORES IN NEW MUSICAL FARCE

Corbett and O'Hara Make Good in Comedies

Twiddle-Twaddle Shows Weber in Song and Marie Dressler and Charles Bigelow in Funny Situations—Cashel Byron's Profession Proves Pugilist An Actor—Mr. Blarney From Ireland Bound to Become Popular.

JOE WEBER and his company returned to Weber's Theatre, New Year's night to bid for Broadway patronage in the new musical farce by Edgar Smith and Maurice Levi, entitled Twiddle-Twaddle. The cast:

Philip Grabfelder	Joe Weber
Ebenezer Dodge	Charles A. Bigelow
Richard Jones	Edward J. Connelly
Algeron Fitz-Haggis	Ernest Lambert
The Grand Duke Josef	Bonnie Magin
Captain Schmit	Samie Marion
Emperor Franz Josef of Austria	Sam Marion
Matilda Grabfelder	Marie Dressler
Mrs. "Jack" Van Shalk	Trixie Friganza
Maggie McGurk	May Montfort
Gladys Dodge	Erminie Earle
Count Ladislas	Edythe Moyer
Cheata	Edythe Moyer
Count Rudolf	May Grant
Vera Shapeleigh	May Grant
Selma Mantell	Seima Mantell

Twist tweedledum and tweedledoe 'tis hard to distinguish between the author and the cast as to which is the greatest twiddle-twaddler. Anyway, Broadway hasn't stopped laughing long enough to give the matter serious consideration and probably it doesn't care, so why need any one else. They say that the new farce is a big hit and there is no twiddling about the matter. Joe Weber and his big list of favorites were right up to the minute in the presentation of the various roles, and the initial performance went off exceedingly smooth for a premiere.

Twiddle-Twaddle is a musical farce in two acts. Edgar Smith is responsible for the dialogue and lyrics and Maurice Levi wrote the music. If Smith ever put any seriousness into the piece it dropped out long before Joe and his company ever got hold of it. Like the former Weber successes the new piece is not burdened with a plot. It is a hotty-toty concoction and the spectator needn't mind about what is coming next or what has gone before, because there is enough doing all the time to intoxicate with hilarity the most serious.

Joe Weber has the important role of Phillip Grabfelder. It is a clutch that Phillip is a funny German, but less you are informed you would not suspect that he is also a singer, but it's a fact. Joe, our Joe, sings a song and makes good, too. Mr. Bigelow is the president of a big insurance company. Marie Dressler, Bonnie Magin, Trixie Friganza, Ernest Lambert, Edythe Moyer and the rest of the favorites that made good in Higgledy-Piggledy and The College Widow have prominent roles in the new farce, and they are in line for another successful run in Weber's Theatre.

The theatre was crowded the opening night, in fact you had to buy your seats early for any night in the week. Twiddle-Twaddle is pronounced a success.

Twiddle-Twaddle was first produced on any stage at the Lyceum Theatre in Rochester, N. Y., Saturday night, Dec. 30, proving one of the most notable events in the theatrical history of that city.

MR. BLARNEY FROM IRELAND

Mr. Blarney From Ireland, a new comedy in four acts by Charles E. Blaney, was produced for the first time upon any stage Monday afternoon, Jan. 1, at the American Theatre, New York City, with Fiske O'Hara in the leading role. The cast:

Daniel Blarney	Fiske O'Hara
Michael Murphy	J. P. Sullivan
Charles Murphy	Edwin A. Sparks
Samuel Barker	W. F. Wadsworth
Patrick Croker	John Martin
Jimmie Drake	George Cooper
Jack Trainer	Howard Crampton
Foxy Tabor	Herbert Jones
Thomas Wilson	A. R. Voight
Henry Thomas	C. A. Ward
Felix Watts	W. J. Walsh
Isadore Cohn	J. S. Floyd
Henry Foster	Chas. T. Parr
P. H. Dermott	Albert Retnor
James Conly	Henry Farwell
Song Fay	Albert Retnor
Kate Murphy	Bugendie Hayden
Sadie Croker	Florence Rossland
Sora Scallen	Maggie Weston
Little Mary McCann	Queenie Marble
Mollie Callahan	Blanche Marble
Mabel Jolly	Nellie Barnard
Mother Quinn	Grace Marble
Jennie Cluett	Lou Oberlie
Winnie Thomas	Olive Carr
Arlene Mercer	Myrtle Lorimer
Tillie Dawson	Marie Bennett
Mrs. Isadore Cohn	Olga Wagner
Fannie Clark	Josephine Carr
Sally Parker	Lavender Byers
The Baby	By Himself

It was Mr. O'Hara's first appearance as a star, nevertheless it was under the most auspicious circumstances and the Irish singer-actor was accorded a welcome that almost reached the proportions of an ovation. Of an attractive personality and possessing a rich and melodious voice, Mr. O'Hara took well with the American audiences.

Mr. Blarney From Ireland is of the Blaney type, but combined with the Blaney thrill there is plenty of Irish humor which puts the players to advantage with the audiences that like this variety of comedy. Mr. Blaney probably does not claim for the new piece that it is a literary hit, but it will serve its purpose, that of making Mr. O'Hara popular in the popular-priced houses.

CORBETT IN SHAW COMEDY

Cashel Byron's Profession, a dramatization by Stanislaus Stange of George Bernard Shaw's novel of the same name, was produced for the first time upon any stage, Monday afternoon, Jan. 1, at the Hyperion Theatre, New Haven, Conn., with James J. Corbett and Margaret Wycheley in the leading roles. The cast:

Bashville	Joseph Kilgour
Phoebe	Marion Little
Lord Worthington	Herbert McKensie

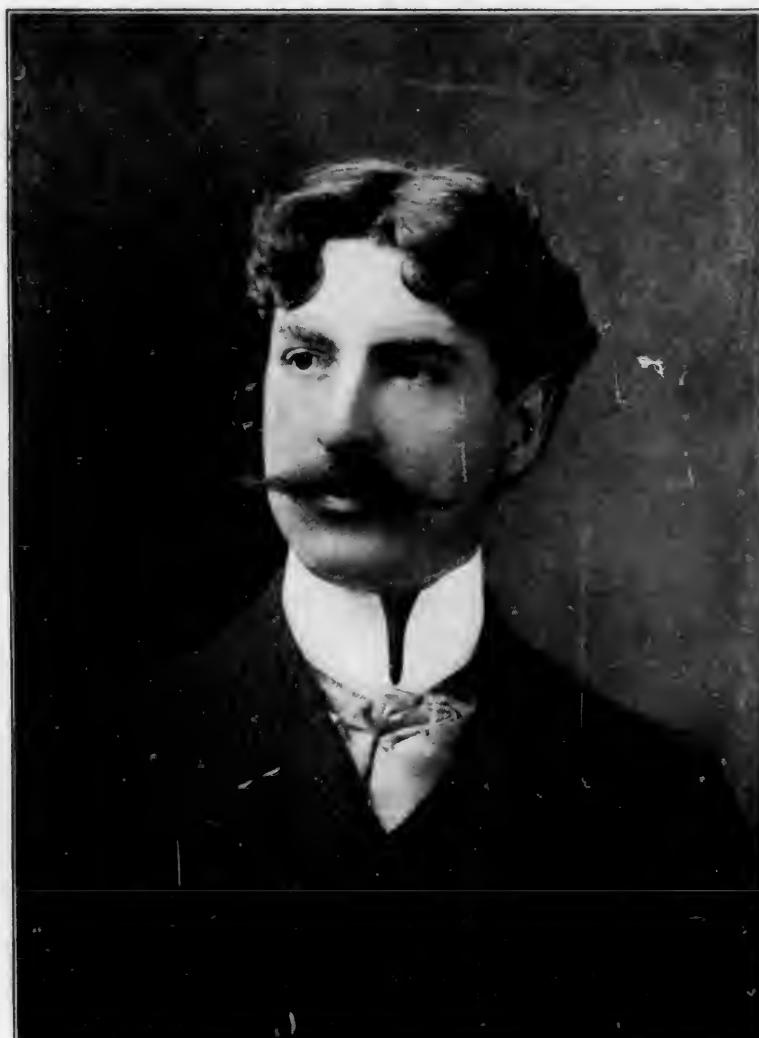

story. Miss Wycheley shared honors with Mr. Corbett in her impersonation of the heroine. The others in the cast contributed worthy impersonations.

At the close of the matinee performance Mr. Corbett was given a dinner at the Union League Club by Col. Theo. MacDonald, Judge Richard Tyrer and W. H. Hamilton. Others present were Miss Wycheley, Mr. and Mrs. Stanislaus Stange, William Harris, Champ S. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. James Forbes and Ben Stern.

HAS ITS SHARE

Terre Haute, in the state that boasts of George Ade and some of the rest of them, claims to have furnished to the stage its full share of actors and actresses. Terre Haute has a population of 63,000 people. Here is its list of stage celebrities: Alice Fisher, of The School for Husbands; May Wheeler, of The County Chairman; Rose Melville, of Sis Hopkins; Ida Melville, of Sis Hopkins' Sister; Cora Beazell, of the Lycen Stock Co.; Pearl Melville, of the Baldwin-Melville Stock Co.; E. F. Roseman, of The Shadows of the Gallows Co.; Geo. Mahare, of York State Folks; Harry Sleight, of The Earl of Pawtucket; Bud Bramen and Mable Griffith, of the Jack Hoefler Shows; Robert Rogers and Louise Mackintosh, of a stock company in Los Angeles, Cal.; Mary Bridwell, of The Prince of Pilsen; Chester Bishop, of the Chas. Edwards Stock Co.; Reese V. Prosser, of Al. G. Field's Minstrels, and Jane Van Buskirk, of the Mrs. Grundy Co., London. Wm. Burcham, of Kellar's Co.; Dwyer Brothers, of the Derando Amusement Co.; Harry Ades, of Savage's Humpty Dumpty Co.; Hugh

JACK DONOVAN

Jack Donovan, whose likeness appears above, will next season star at the head of the Donovan Stock Co. Mr. Donovan is an actor of sterling worth and possesses the gift of winning his audiences upon first appearance. Of a fine stage presence, being over six feet in height, and possessed of a splendid voice, Mr. Donovan, or Jack, as he is familiarly called, has found it not a difficult matter to portray many roles that to a less fortunately endowed player would have been almost impossible.

Ned Skene	John C. Dixon
Bob Millish	Luke Martin
Cashel Byron	James J. Corbett
Lydia Carew	Margaret Wycheley
Alice Goff	Grace Tully
Lucien Webber	Lionel Adams
Captain Trellian	Sidney Blow
Mrs. Skene	Alice Leigh
Miss Gisborne	Kate Lester
Sergeant of Police	Charles Sturges

Reynolds, of The County Chairman Co.; Dave Gibson, of A Gambler's Daughter Co.; Alice York, of The Isle of Bong Boong Co.; Jas. Mac-Alhern, of The Fortune Teller Co.; Louise Gaudy, of The Mascots; Kitte St. Clare, of The Devil's Auction; the Four Keatons, Sidney Jerome, Billie Link, Warren and Hilbert, Marie Royslyn, Hayden and LaLonde, the Smith Brothers, and the Kennedy Sisters, in Vanderville, and the Dwyer Brothers of the Ringling Brothers Show, and the Howdy Brothers and Dwight Allen of the Barnum & Bailey Show.

A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

The opening of the new Rodgers Opera House, Port Arthur, Tex., Dec. 22, was a big success in every respect. Rowland & Clifford's big attraction, Dora Thorne, was the initial bill, and every one of the 900 seats in the new theatre was taken.

Just before the first curtain Mayor Landes escorted Manager Rodgers to the stage and introduced him with words of welcome and congratulations. Mr. Rodgers responded in a happy vein expressing his appreciation of the cordial reception given him and his enterprise.

ALICE NIELSEN

Applauded Vociferously In 'Frisco.

Fitzsimmons Back to Footlights—Bishop Entertains—Belasco and Mayer Close Theatre—Other Coast News.

Christmas week the weather was most delightful and every manager found his house entirely too small to accommodate the demand. In fact, the floating population of the Metropolis of the West—the West Pocket Edition of New York—shows the healthy growth of our city in every line of business. With eight regular houses, ten vaudeville theatres, all charging admission, and five large concert halls, we can hold our own with the best of them. The new year will see five new houses open for business—The Bell, Colonial, Sixteenth Street, Oriental and North Beach with a possibility of one in the Richmond District, and the big Dreamland, modeled after the already famous White City of Chicago, only on a larger scale.

Alice Nielsen was greeted with thunderous applause upon her appearance in Don Pasquale at the Tivoli Dec. 28. The house was packed with the elite of the city, and the performance was much appreciated. The fact that the engagement was limited to one evening performance and one matinee caused many disappointments.

Bob Fitzsimmons, the defeated pugilist, kept the Alhambra full the entire week of his engagement in A Flight For Love. The late write-ups, caused by the desertion of his wife, kept the ticket sellers busy. Besides, Mr. Fitzsimmons is a favorite in this city.

Florence Roberts, the most popular California actress, is booked for an engagement at the Columbia the first week in March.

A new auditorium will be built on the site formerly occupied by the Hazard Pavilion, Los Angeles. The deal has already been consummated, and when the house is completed in May, the Independents will take it for a period of five years.

H. W. Bishop, manager of the Majestic and New Central in San Francisco and Ye Liberty in Oakland, gave a bounteous supper to all his employees in the handsome Majestic Christmas Eve. Frank Bacon was Santa Claus and distributed gifts for all from a big Christmas tree. Mortimer M. Dodge, the genial and popular resident manager, was presented with a handsome gold mounted umbrella by the stage hands.

Messrs. Belasco & Mayer have closed their Belasco Theatre in Portland after a season of thirty weeks. The Belasco was formerly called the Columbia, and under several managements did not prove a success.

Vancouver, B. C., is to have a new theatre in the neighborhood of Georgia and Howe streets. It will be built by local capital and will be managed by J. P. Home, of Seattle, who will lease it for five years. It will play the Independent attractions, and will seat about 1,200 people.

Louis James, supported by Norman Hackett, is booked to open at the Columbia, Jan. 8. During his engagement he will present Virginians, Richellen, Ingomar and The Merchant of Venice.

Autloch, Cal., will have a new theatre after Feb. 1. It will seat about 800 people and will have a very large stage. Senator C. M. Bellshaw is the owner.

Carita, the girl conjurer, daughter of Prof. E. Henry, a retired magician and now a booking agent in San Francisco, was married on Christmas Day to Louis Stern, who is engaged in the leather business. After a bridal tour of Southern California the couple will reside in San Francisco.

Archie Levy, the booking agent, is as proud as a peacock of a new watch which he displays in showing to his many friends. The watch is a real European novelty, set in mother of pearl, and is highly prized by Mr. Levy as it is a Christmas gift from John W. Considine. In addition to the above, Mr. Levy received a check for $500 from the Vaudeville Managers' Association, and many other gifts from admiring friends.

Ed. Holman was also remembered by numerous friends Christmas.

RUBE COHEN.

SMITH OBJECTS

F. F. Smith, correspondent for The Billboard at Coshocton, Ohio, takes exception to an article in the issue of Dec. 23 in which E. E. Meredith stated that the show business in the smaller Ohio towns suffered greatly because of roller skating rinks.

Continuing Mr. Smith says: "In regard to Coshocton having three rinks, I will say that the town never had but two rinks and one of them was leased to the Fountain Dry Goods Co. for a retail store. We have but one rink now in Coshocton. The article also states that the big shows do not get the usual amount of business. Here is a case. My Wife's Family took over $900. Christmas matinee and evening. Miss Janis took over $600, which is more than she took in Newark or Zanesville. It is true that the smaller shows do not get the larger business, but it is that way all the year outside of the larger towns. Manager Callahan and the officers of the Sixth Street Theatre Co. are very well pleased with this season's business."

The new opera house at Romney, Ind., opened Dec. 20.

HOLLIS COOLEY

Is General Manager of Savage Enterprises

Well Known Manager Leaves Burlesque For Musical Field—Showered With Congratulations.

Hollis E. Cooley, for four years manager of the Gau Hill attractions, has been engaged by Henry W. Savage to succeed Col. E. A. Braydey as general manager of all the Savage enterprises. The transfer took place last Monday, and Mr. Cooley has been showered with congratulations upon his success.

There isn't a better known theatrical manager in the business than Hollis E. Cooley. Mr. Cooley began his career as manager of the Opera House at Wichita, Kan. For nine years he managed the Ninth Street Theatre in Kansas City, which he left to manage Corinne. He afterwards became manager for Davis & Keogh, R. M. Gulich & Co.'s Bijou Circuit, manager Star Theatre, New York City; manager Chas. E. Blaney's attractions, and manager for Dolan and Golden in The High Toned Burglar. Mr. Cooley played a trump card in the organization of the Eastern Burlesque Wheel, and was instrumental in bringing that circuit to its present standard and prosperity.

Mr. Cooley has the beat wishes of everyone in the profession, and it is the general belief that Col. Savage could not have selected a better man for the place. Mr. Cooley will make good as general manager of the Savage enterprises.

The acquisition is another feather in Col. Savage's cap.

YVETTE GUILBERT COMING

Charles Frohman has engaged Yvette Guilbert, the Parisian chanteuse, who is now appearing in the continental cities, for a number of matinee recitals at one of his New York theatres, toward the latter end of February and the beginning of March. Mme. Guilbert has been in this country only once. She has surrounded herself by a number of artists, and now gives a full concert performance.

ONE FOR MCKEESPORT

Dr. T. L. White, owner of the White Theatre in McKeesport, Pa., has purchased a site for a new theatre at Walnut street and Seventh Avenue in that city. Dr. White takes possession of the property in March, and will shortly thereafter begin the erection of a $100,000 theatre. The Doctor says that unless he sells his old theatre to some Pittsburgh people he will remodel it into a department store.

GRAFTON'S NEW THEATRE

The new theatre built at Grafton, Ill., by the Ripley Hardware Co., is receiving finishing touches and will open Jan. 20 with a first-class attraction. J. W. Ashenback will manage the theatre.

RELIEF FUND

Harry West, a performer, is serving a twenty year sentence in the Illinois State Prison for a crime of which he claims he is not guilty, having been unfairly convicted. The Billboard is holding a fund for his relief.

MANAGERS DISSOLVE PARTNERSHIPS

Managers Huntington & DeDeyn, of the Huntington-DeDeyn Stock Co., at Lowell, Mass., have dissolved partnerships, and in the future the Huntington Stock Co. will be managed by Mr. Huntington. Mr. DeDeyn, Miss Estelle, Miss Fletcher and Donald Meek withdrew to go into vaudeville, and are now booking their act, entitled Supper for Two.

Miss Vaughn, formerly of the Tanknisher Co., has been engaged to play leads with the Huntington Stock Co., to succeed Miss Fletcher.

DREW CHARTERED SPECIAL CAR

In order that he might occupy the president's chair at the Players' Club on Founder's Night, New Year's Eve, and not miss the New Year's matinee at the Montank Theatre, Boston, John Drew chartered a special sleeper which left New York for the Hub City Monday morning about 2:30 o'clock. This enabled him to remain at the club for all the festivities, and it did not occasion his cancellation of the matinee in Boston.

HELEN GRANTLEY

Miss Helen Grantley is playing the title role in Sidney Bowkett's new comedy, The Lucky Miss Dean, which was produced at the Madison Square Theatre, New York City, Monday, Jan. 8.

GIVE BANQUET

Do Harris and Cohan New Year's Night.

Sam is Toastmaster, But George Carries Off the Prize—There Was Dancing and Much Merriment.

George M. Cohan and Sam. H. Harris celebrated the New Year and the arrival in New York of Forty-five Minutes From Broadway, by giving an elaborate banquet Monday evening, Jan. 1, to the members of the above company, the Little Johnny Jones Co., and to numerous friends, in all about two hundred and fifty people. The celebration took place in the spacious parlors of the Hotel Spalding just following the evening performance at the New Amsterdam and the Grand Theatres.

Sam Harris was toastmaster: that means that everybody had a good time. A number of toasts were made, but the interest did not reach its highest point until Assistant District Attorney Henry J. Goldsmith, on behalf of Mark Klav & A. L. Erlanger, presented George Cohan with a handsome silver loving cup designed by Tiffany. A neat Cohan-esque speech followed the presentation. After a most enjoyable banquet, dancing began and continued until the small hours began to grow quite large.

Prominent among the Cohan-Harris guests were Mrs. Sam. H. Harris, Mrs. George Cohan, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry J. Cohan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Fielding, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carle, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Werba, Mr. and Mrs. William Hepner, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Robinson, Miss Fay Templeton, Miss Adele Rafferty, Tom Lewis, Eddie Dunn, James Whittemore, John H. Springer, Lee Harrison, George Ade, Felix Isman, Joseph Coyne, Victor Moore, Thomas O'Brien, Walter Moore, Fred Mills, Max Silver, Myer Livingston, Tod Sloan, Jack Mayer, Sam Ryan, Eugene O'Rourke, Scamp Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Meehan and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welch.

A serious accident was narrowly averted Dec. 30, when the shout of fire across in the Auditorium at Newark, N. J. Manager Chas. E. Matthews succeeded in quieting the audience before it stampeded.

TAMPA FLA.

The Gagnon-Pollock Stock Co. closed a very successful engagement at the Casino Dec. 30. The company is very popular in Tampa, and it is hoped that they will soon play a return engagement.

Christmas greetings were passed around among the show people in Tampa. Ed. Lawrence and Jimmy Reynolds, of the Metropolitan Theatre, paid the Gagnon-Pollock Co. a visit, and were guests of honor at the Christmas matinee.

Ed. Lynch and his Tampa City Band, are giving public concerts at Ballast Point every Sunday afternoon. They recently closed a very successful engagement at the Florida State Fair.

Pat Chapelle and his minstrel company are headed this way, their engagement being set for Jan. 1.

Foster Hall and Babe Doris are still with the Gagnon-Pollock Stock Co., and are meeting with success. As a Christmas gift Mr. Hall presented Miss Doris with a beautiful gold bracelet.

Manager Chas. C. Parsons, of the Tampa Bay Casino, tendered a big dinner to the house staff Christmas Day at the Tampa Bay Hotel. In return, the boys presented Manager Parsons with a handsome silver mounted ink stand. Stage Manager Johnny Smith making the presentation speech.

Ed. Jordan, one of the best character comedians and buck dancers that ever came to this part of the country, has retired to private life. He is the owner of the Dixie House in Ybor City. Mr. Jordan formerly managed the Criterion and later the Metropolitan Theatre. Mr. Jordan is very successful with the Dixie, as he is well known and quite a public favorite.

Tampa can boast of having an airship, but the "ascension" is still to be heard of. Three attempts were recently made at Ballast Point, but they were unsuccessful.

MANNY NAVARRO.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

With Bernhardt at the Belasco, Arnold Daly at the Columbia and Lew Fields at the National, Washington experienced its banner week.

The ticket sale for Mme. Bernhardt's engagement was immense, many standing in line all night to purchase seats. Manager LaMotte proved very thoughtful by having hot coffee and sandwiches served to the patient waiters.

Geo. Bernard Shaw's You Never Can Tell, was one of the delights of the week. Mr. Daly's portrayal of the leading role was generally satisfactory.

Owing to the big success of the Hippodrome at Convention Hall, it will be continued for another week. The act of Gertrude Breton in her Leap the Gap was a decided feature of the bill. She is claimed to be the only woman doing this daring feat.

Lincoln J. Carter is here looking after the production of his latest efforts, Bedford's Hope. T. T. LANH.

SEATTLE, WASH.

The Innocent Malds did a record-breaking business Christmas week at the Seattle Theatre. The company is a good one and the show contains some splendid turns. Palfrey and Barton do one of the best trick cycle acts ever seen in Seattle.

The Jolly American Tramp did capably business at the Third Avenue Theatre. Clark Ross, Birline Farnsworth, Delta Dooley and William Lee deserve special mention for their character work.

The Star presented one of the strongest bills of the season. Phroso has one of the most wonderful acts in vaudeville. Kenton and Lorraine and Flynn and Dandy made hits. It is not every week that a top line act from the best eastern vaudeville houses visits Seattle, but the Orpheum has one in Bert White who appears in monologue.

The Yankee Consul opened Thursday evening for five performances and did big business. There is nothing more beautiful in modern comic opera than the scenic inventiveness in this piece. Vera Michelena, the prima donna, was particularly attractive. Harry Short as Ahijah Booze was excellent, and the rest of the company were up to the standard.

LEM A. SHORTRIDGE.

FORBES-ROBERTSON RECUPERATING

J. Forbes-Robertson, whose illness caused the closing of his engagement in Mrs. Grundy at the Scala Theatre, London, Eng., has gone to Switzerland to recuperate. The actor's friends insist that he is suffering from a mere temporary ailment, due to an attack of influenza, and that a month's rest in the mountains will completely restore him to health.

STOCK FOR GILLETTE

William Gillette, the author-actor who opened his American season in Clarice in Boston Christmas night, will next year, according to the announced plans of Charles Frohman spend the entire season in New York City, where he will appear in a number of new plays and perhaps revivals in one of Mr. Frohman's theatres.

The nature of the new plays has not been announced, but Mr. Gillette is to have their selection, and will direct their staging.

WELLS MAY BUILD THEATRE

If Jake Wells can make a success of the plans he has under way, Savannah, Ga., will get a new theatre. He is working in connection with the Masonic Building Association to construct a Masonic Temple and theatre in one building. It is believed the plan will work out all right.

WOODS GETS NEW STAR

Miss Marie de Campi, whose marriage to a Chicago broker three years ago was followed by her retirement from the stage, has been engaged by A. H. Woods to star in melodrama for a period of three years. Her company will go into rehearsals shortly at Palm Beach, Fla., and will open in March.

Rumor has it that the Old Columbia Theatre at Wausau, Wis., will soon be opened as a roller skating rink. Polite vaudeville will be given as a special attraction.

By WALTER K. HILL.

CHARLES P. ELLIOTT has left town to take the management for Wm. A. Brady, of Wilton Lackaye in The Pit. He will soon greet his host of Chicago friends for six weeks at McVicker's Theatre.

Nellie McCoy, fully recovered from her recent illness, returns to the Casino on Monday night, replacing Florence Sinnott in her old part of Daisy Fallowfield in The Earl and the Girl.

January 26 and not Jan. 23 has been decided upon as the date for the annual benefit in aid of the Actors' Fund Home on Staten Island, at the Broadway Theatre. Daniel Frohman, president of The Fund, has personal charge of the arrangements.

Jamies Young has been engaged by Manager F. F. Proctor to alternate with A. H. Van Buren as leading man of the stock company at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. Manager Proctor also loses one of his leading men to M. H. Birnberg, of the Yorkville Theatre, who will re-establish a stock company at that house on Jan. 22, with William J. Kelley, of the present One hundred and Twenty-fifth Street company as its head.

"Mark Twain" was the guest at a dinner given in the Players' Club, No. 16 Gramercy Park South, evening of Jan. 3 by friends, who welcomed him as an honorary member of the organization, to which he has belonged since its foundation.

Daniel Frohman is to star Lawrence D'Orsay in The Embassy Ball, which has been rewritten by its author. Augustus Thomas has engaged the following players to support the star: Charlotte Walker, Marlon Barney, Rose Hubbard, Ida Darling, W. E. Hitchcock, Forrest Robinson, George Clarke, Harold Heaton and John Haskell. The Comedy will open in Providence, Jan. 22, and later come to New York for an engagement.

Florence Gerald is in town, having recently closed her engagement with the Woodward Stock Co. in Omaha. She later played two weeks with Ralph Stuart in The Christian, and now joins the road company which is to present The Lion and the Mouse.

Harry Mason, who is to manage the No. 2 Car for the Photo Show this season, is at the Metropolitan Hotel pretty badly shaken up. He was posting in Cortlandt street for the New York Theatre the other day and the rigging broke, precipitating him fifty feet to the unsympathetic sidewalk.

COL. SAVAGE CAPTURES COOLEY

What is Gus Hill's loss will be Col. Savage's gain with the New Year Hollis E. Cooley, the best known and most popular theatrical man in all New York, gave up the general management of the Hill enterprises to take a similar position in charge of the Savage attractions. Mr. Cooley succeeds Col. Edward A. Braden who re-signed his position as general manager for Col. Savage to branch out as a theatrical manager on his own account. Charles A. Barton, who has for many years been in the employ of Gus Hill as a manager of his road attractions, will succeed Mr. Cooley as general manager of the Hill enterprises. The Rialto has not felt so good over any announced theatrical engagement in many months as it did when the fact of Mr. Cooley's transfer of his services to Col. Savage was made known. No man in local theatrical life is so universally popular as Hollis E. Cooley. He is president of the Green Room Club, and only a few months ago was elevated to the distinguished station of a thirty-third degree in Masonry, an honor which had never before been conferred upon a theatrically associated person. His trail of popularity in the show business starts back in Wichita, Kan., where, years ago, he managed the theatre in that town.

After leaving Wichita Cooley became the excursion agent for the promoters of the Cyclorama showing the battle of Missionary Ridge. Two years later he arrived in Kansas City as manager of the Ninth Street Theatre. It was in that position that he laid the foundation of the tremendous acquaintance which he now possesses. Seven years of managerial life in Kansas City led to his becoming the manager of Hopkins' Trans-Oceans, one of the best-known organizations of its day. He next managed the Kimball Opera Co., of which Corinne was the star. Some years ago the firm of Davis & Keogh needed a general manager, and they wisely selected Cooley. Later on he went with the Bijou Theatre Circuit as general manager, acting at the same time as manager of the Star Theatre in this city. Charles E. Blaney won him away from that position and made him his general representative. Then Gus Hill secured his services, and for five years Cooley has been general manager of the Hill enterprises.

NOT ALL MOONSHINE

With the close of her second and last week at the Majestic, Marie Cahill, on Jan. 6, finished her third New York engagement in as many months. Moonshine wears well and the assemblages at John S. Flaherty's beautiful theatre were large and enthusiastic. The good things in the piece go in pairs; to-wit: Miss Cahill and the apostrophe; George Behan and vivacity, the two sprightly girls on the right end of the line and H. Guy Woodward and Frederic Paulding, the diplomats. Of Miss Cahill it can be truthfully said that her spot-light selfishness is unworthy of so clever a woman as she. Nobody else has it and several members of the company need it much worse than she ever could. Her buoyancy of spirit, her magnetism and her nonchalant grasp of bumbling comedy mark her the truest sort of a comedienne. George Behan covers himself with glory and lends much life and action to every scene or situation he engages in. The two diplomats are the real artistic element of the piece. H. Guy Woodward makes a dignified and forceful appearing Brasen, and his perfection in make-up is only rivalled by the Japanese type represented by Frederick Paulding.

ing. The plot of the play centers largely upon these two characters, and it was a wise selection which entranced these important roles to these clever gentlemen. In Moonshine there is much merriment, several girls whose near-beauty is forgotten in their sprightliness, and there are several catchy songs well sung. Dick Temple makes a clever leading man, and the entire company is not at all badly balanced. In fact to bask in Miss Cahill's Moonshine is to spend a pleasant evening, without much wear and tear upon the nerve forces.

THOMPSON & DUNDY WILL EXPAND

As a result of negotiations which have been pending for some time, Thompson & Dundy have purchased Fort George. This fact can be stated with more than the ordinary assurance of correctness usually attendant upon deals of such an important nature. The deal was closed just before Frederick Thompson sailed for Europe a fortnight ago. This is the first published information bearing upon the deal. Fort George has for many years been a modestly popular resort, situated on a high bluff which overlooks the Hudson river just this side of Spuyten Duyvil. It is reached by surface electric cars, and is conveniently handy to transfer passengers from the Suhway. In the hands of Thompson & Dundy it is sure to blossom forth next summer as an immensely popular resort. As Luna Park is more than a score of miles removed from Fort George, there will be no immediate competition between the Coney Island scenes of gaiety and the Hudson river resort. Given the mammoth and vastly popular Hippodrome, the beautiful and enchanting allurements of Luna Park, and the more than probable glories of Fort George, the name of Thompson & Dundy will easily retain its position as a household word among Gothamites who find that hallmark a name to be conjured with in all that is attractive, unusual and worthy of patronage in the way of popular amusement of the very highest class.

SHADES OF SHAKESPEARE!

Jim Corbett, ex-pugilist and vaudeville headliner, opens at Daly's Theatre Monday evening in Casper Byron's Profession. This is the result of hurried determination to send The Crossing upon its one-night stand way, minus any rejoicing. New York theatregoers have failed to patronize Winston Churchill's play in numbers sufficient to warrant its playing out the three weeks originally allotted to it at this theatre. Corbett's manager, Henry B. Harris, held the time immediately following The Crossing and by canceling two weeks out of town, moves in a fortnight earlier than was intended. Personally, James J. Corbett is one of the neatest men it has ever been my pleasure to meet, talk to and know, and it is not my intention to say aught against him as a man among men. But as an actor among actors and a start at Daly's Theatre Mr. Corbett's advent may possibly make Augustin Daly turn over in his grave.

ART AND LABOR UNIONS

The elements of high art and the more prosaic principles of union labor clashed last week at the Metropolitan Opera House. The chorus declined to carol unless there was a substantial increase in their stipend. Herr Conried said he would not recognize the members of the chorus as members of a labor union, and the chorus walked out Wednesday. On Friday evening Trista and Isolde was sung with a chorus which comprised soloists of the Metropolitan forces in its membership. Someone figured it out that the average pay of the soloist chorus would make the figures amount to $2,000 a night for the work. This was the situation at the Metropolitan Opera House Saturday at noon. The oil of high art and the water of union labor refused to mix. However, Saturday afternoon there was an agreement reached, and Manager Conried granted $20 weekly for six performances and $2.50 for each extra performance. Had the strike not been settled, would the Hod Carriers' Union have boycotted the grand opera entertainments, or would the Dish Washers' Amalgamation have withheld its patronage? No end of complications might have been possible.

THE VARIETIES

Harry Pierce, manager of the Miss New York, Jr., Burlesques, writes the following: "We are now in our eighteenth successful week, and our catchy musical comedy, The King of Kokomo, is making a hit. Our star alto is also a strong feature. It includes Wiora Trio, Allen and Bright, Bandy and Wilson, Hayward, Connor and Hayward, The Boston City Quartet and Gagnoux and Gagnoux. Our roster is as follows: Harry R. Pierce, manager; Billy Allen, Jno. F. Vincent, S. Straus, F. W. Kraft, Harry Hayward, Geo. W. Bandy, Jos. Rose, Geo. H. Irwin, Fred. George, Frank Conroy, Ed. Ganoux, Jessie Hayward, Lou Wilson, Jessie Bright, Mayme Barnes, Lillian Franklin, Julia Moore, Bell Ganoux, Betti Wiora, Evelyn Silver, Mora Belmont, Hazel Franklin, Aranka Wiora, Gertrude Pierce, Mae DuVean, Birke Wiora and Vera Beers.

While the Bowery Burlesques were playing the Gaiety Theatre at Pittsburg, Pa., recently, Manager Jos. Hurtig was pleasantly surprised by being presented with an elegant Japanese silk belting smoking jacket and a long robe of the same material. The presents were from Mr. Hurtig's bunch of good-looking chorus girls which include Babydoll Wilbur, Rose Moore, Anna Romaine, Flo Russell, Gertrude Hart, Ida Boyton, Minnie Connor, Irene Gardner, Milder Kenfield, Violet Schaffner, Anna Stien, and Retta Merrill. Mr. Hurtig could hardly express his thanks beyond saying that when in his room he would be arrayed in either his smoking jacket or long-

PLAYHOUSES

Manager A. P. Owens is more than pleased with business at the Masonic Opera House at Oskaloosa, Ia. He took the management about two months ago, and has been meeting with the best of success. Following is the staff of the Masonic: A. P. Owens, manager and treasurer; Robert McCabe and Thomas Gossage, door men; Will Beckman, musical director; Frank Sloan, head usher; Geo. Gordon, electrician; Harry Gilmore, stage manager, and Glen Taylor, property man.

Manager Cone of the Grand Opera House at Wausau, Wis., is being complimented upon the high-class attractions he is playing at his house. Among the attractions he has booked are Taming of the Shrew, Land of Nod, Sultan of Sulu, Peggy From Paris, Yankee Consul, Marching Through Georgia, Liberty Belles, Margaret Ralph, Lyman H. Howe, Floradora, Prince of Pilsen, Piff, Paff, Pouf, and many others.

The new Empire Theatre at Des Moines, Ia., is fast nearing completion, and will soon be opened to the public. The new house, which will be under the management of Manie J. Karger, has been built at a cost of $40,000, and will have a seating capacity of 1,000. It will be devoted to high-class vaudeville.

The Bijou Theatre, Port Huron, Mich., which has been closed since Dec. 15, on account of a lack of patronage, is to be reopened under the name of the Temple Theatre by C. H. Sommers and J. Pearce. The Majestic Theatre on Butler street will probably be completed some time in February.

A new vaudeville house is soon to be opened in Oklahoma City, Okla., under the management of H. A. Carlton. It is said that no expense is being spared to make it one of the finest theatres in the southwest. It will be booked in connection with the Bijou Theatre at Wichita, Kan.

The Coats Brothers new theatre at Greenfield, Tenn., opened Jan. 1 with the Harlequins & Fox Minstrels. The seating capacity of the new house is 800. It is steam heated, has an elevated floor and is equipped with the latest and most comfortable opera chairs. The stage is 25 by 24.

Col. L. N. Scott celebrated his fifteenth anniversary as manager of the Metropolitan Theatre in Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 29. His administration has been marked by success both from a box office as well as from an artistic point.

The Grand Opera House at New Albany, Ind., has been closed and Manager Jas. McNavin has signed an advance manager of the Glick Stock Co. The theatre was closed because of the excessive license exacted by the city authorities.

The Grand Opera House in Bluffton, Ind., was recently sold by The Indianapolis Law Association to Frank Smith and Fred Tangeman for $25,000. The two men are both busslers, and will no doubt make it a paying proposition.

What was formerly the Garden Theatre in Canton, Ohio, has been remodeled and was opened Christmas Day by Thomas & Potts. Mr. Thomas, formerly a vaudeville performer, will be the business manager.

Kld Koster has resigned as advertising agent of the Great Southern Theatre, Columbus, O., and is at present visiting at his home in Bellefontaine. Mr. Koster will be with Barnum & Bailey the coming season.

Because of lack of patronage the Wiliams Opera House at Primghar, Ia., has been permanently closed. It is reported that the same condition confronts many of the managers in northern Iowa.

Manager R. M. Harvey of the Grand Opera House, Perry, Ia., has left to join the Barnum & Bailey Show. His brother, A. M. Harvey, will take charge of the theatre from now on.

Manager Jos. G. Rhode, of the Rhode Opera House at Kenosha, Wis., is sending out a twelve page book containing large illustrations of the factories in that city.

The Bijou Vaudeville Theatre, Port Huron, Mich., will hereafter be known as the Temple. The house will be under the management of Philip McQuade.

The Bijou Theatre at Decatur, Ill., remained closed Christmas Day because of the death of L. Martin, father of Mrs. Lena Hurtig, the headliner for that week.

W. F. Johns has purchased the opera house at Sanford, Fla., and is putting it in shape for the presentation of some good attractions.

I. C. Mishler, manager of the Opera House of Altoona, Pa., last week visited Trenton, N. J., where a new theatre is being built for him.

One of the handsomest theatres in the state of West Virginia was opened Jan. 10, at Lumberport by A Romance of Coon Hollow.

Manager Sturgis of the Grand Opera House, Keokuk, Ia., has given notice of the closing of his house owing to poor business.

A new vaudeville theatre will be opened in Logansport, Ind., Feb. 1, by Wm. Randall, formerly manager of the Crystal.

The Mirror Theatre, Des Moines, Ia., will change from a vaudeville to a stock house about Jan. 8.

Pat-Chats

Chicago Office,
Suite 61,
Grand Opera
House Bldg.,
87 S. Clark St.

By WARREN A. PATRICK.

THE first week of the New Year proved to be a continuation of the splendid business enjoyed by theatrical managers during the week preceding the holidays.

Chicago has been having somewhat of a series of musical comedies, for some time past, with the result that the attendance of some of the houses was not so large as might have been expected. If it could only be arranged that the drama and musical pieces could be happily balanced and dovetailed, there is no doubt it would yield greater satisfaction to theatre-goers generally, and, besides, prove more satisfactory to the box-offices.

Quite a number of changes are registered at many of the houses for the current week. Several of these will be highly welcomed, too, as they will afford a much-needed change from the musical atmosphere that has prevailed so long at several houses.

THE HOLDOVERS

The Grand Opera House is filled to the doors at every performance of The Wizard of Oz. It seems as if Montgomery and Stone, in their original and mirthful creations, The Tinwoodman and The Scare Crow will always be in strong demand. Pretty Mona Desmond and charming Allene Carter are also bright favorites.

Before the appearance of The Ham Tree at the Colonial, the title furnished a puzzle to frequenters of the "Theatre Beautiful." Of course, everybody knew McEntyre and Heath, but their relations with a Ham Tree or any other kind of a tree except a genealogical one could not be surmised. Even now the title is not as much a puzzle as ever, but it is not lost sight of in the acceptable and mirthful entertainment provided. Much praise is given the singing and dancing chorus of this production which is without a doubt the best seen in this city for a long time. Attractive Jobyna Holland forms a striking stage picture in ensembles that include a number of exceedingly pretty girls. It is not generally known that Miss Holland is the wife of Arthur Stringer, the well known New York poet and novelist.

His Honor, the Mayor continues its long and successful run with as much popularity as ever at the Chicago Opera House. Blanche Ring, John Slavin and Mabel Barrison, and—let it not be overlooked—the Pony Ballet, the best ever seen in the city, are winning admirers weekly. At the LaSalle The Umpire is winning splendid support from the public. Cecil Leon has made a big hit in the title role. This week will be the sixth of the run of the piece.

THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The most notable event in theatrical circles during New Year's week was, without doubt, the opening of the Majestic Theatre.

This magnificent modern structure, which embodies every feature and every contrivance that ingenuity could conceive for the comfort, safety and entertainment of its patrons, easily stands at the head of all theatres devoted to vaudeville, if not, indeed, to the legitimate as well. The most artistic eye is pleased by a survey of the interior from any and every point. The restful and well-toned colors prevailed throughout the interior; the magnificent lobbies, with their picture galleries of masterpieces; the noble auditorium and cozy balconies; the gallery with the best appointments ever placed in a theatre; the spacious and artistically finished smoking-room, and the sumptuous rest room for the ladies; all form striking and beautiful objects of a grand and harmonious whole.

No less than sixteen expensive numbers formed the opening program, and everyone was thoroughly enjoyed by audiences that thronged the theatre nightly. The program for the second week promises to surpass its predecessor in excellence and talent. Some of the leading features are Leslie and Dally, in their sketch, Going Abroad; Rose Stahl, the Chorus Lady; Charles Prellie, Lew Sully, the Melancholy Trio, The Three Navaros, etc.

OTHER CHANGES

At McVicker's, Wilton Lackaye will appear in The Pit for the week commencing Sunday, Jan. 7, and the week following. Trilly will be presented. The play for the third week of his stay has not yet been announced.

At the Studebaker, Woodland will be succeeded by The Prince of Illusions, that ever popular musical comedy, which is doing as well in its fourth season as in its first. The old favorites: Jess Dandy, Arthur Donaldson, Ruth Peebles, Ivar Anderson and Louise Willis will appear in the cast.

At the Great Northern, The Sultan of Solu will be followed by David Harum, with Wm. H. Turner in the title role.

VAUDEVILLE JOTTINGS

Marshall P. Wilder, the famous original story-teller, is furnishing high-class entertainment to vaudevillians during his stay here. This week he goes to the Haymarket from the Olympic.

The Allison Troupe have been transferred from the Majestic to the Haymarket.

Ryan and Richefield have been detailed for a second week at the Haymarket, owing to the success of Mike Haggerty's Daughter.

Mrs. Stuart Robson is at the Olympia this week in Edmund Day's sketch, The Savvy of Mrs. Shaw.

THOMAS MEMORIAL

It is just a little over a year since Theodore Thomas died. That he is not forgotten is sweetly proven by the memorial given in his memory at Orchestra Hall last Friday and Saturday.

The program arranged by Director Stock, was one of grand dignity and reverence. The numbers embraced the great elegies of musical literature, and were received with a reverent hearing by the solemn and attentive assemblage. Director Stock's efforts to make the occasion fitting and appropriate have received the highest commendations in Chicago's best musical circles.

THREE NEW PLAYS

Chicago theatregoers, in addition to Just Out of College, will also be treated to local premieres of Monna Vanna and The Marriage of William Ashe. Joseph Wheelock, Jr., will be the star in Ade's latest comedy, during a four weeks' engagement, at Powers' Theatre, beginning Monday night. The company comes direct from Boston, where exchange show that the critics have bestowed much praise both on the author and the production. The company comes heralded as being exceptionally capable and including among its members several players of national reputation.

Perhaps the most prominent of the new plays will prove to be Maurice Maeterlinck's Monna Vanna, which will be seen at the Garrick, Monday evening, for the first time in Chicago. The occasion will be notable as being the first appearance in Chicago of Bertha Kalich as a star in an English-speaking role. Mme. Kalich is a Romanian and the makeup of her company is remarkable for the various nationalities represented. Henry Kolker, who plays the part of Guido, husband of Monna Vanna, is a German by birth; Henry Stanford, who plays the role of Prinzvalle, is an Englishman; Frederick Perry, who plays Marco Colonna, is an American; and Robert Milton is a Russian. Notwithstanding the diversity of nationalities, it is stated that the purest and most perfect English is spoken by everyone in the company. Scenically, the play is said to be exceedingly artistic and beautiful, especially the dawn scene in the third act where the ravishing beauties of an Italian sky betray the hand of a master.

Patrons of the Illinois will welcome Grace George in The Marriage of William Ashe as a successor to Fritz in Tammany Hall, which was scarcely up to the standard demanded by them. Judging from its New York run at the Garrick Theatre, this play should enjoy a popular run here, as from all accounts it gives Miss George the best opportunity she has ever had. As the play is an adaptation from the book of the same name by the clever English authoress, Mrs. Humphrey Ward, its production here is awaited with more than usual interest.

MARXINE ELLIOTT

In order to make way for one of the three promising plays that will be produced during the week, a prime favorite has been withdrawn in Maxine Elliott, whose success in Her Great Match might well be termed a triumph. The Powers' Theatre, where this clever Clyde Fitch play has nightly attracted overflowing audiences for two weeks, is to Chicago what the old Lyceum Theatre and Daly's Theatre, under the old regime, were to New York. The clientele of Powers' is conceded to be the most exclusive and intelligent in Chicago, and when Manager Powers succeeds in providing a play that appeals to those who frequent his cozy theatre, as he generally does, it can always be expected that standing room will be at a premium.

At none of her previous appearances here did Miss Elliott as convincingly prove her claim to be an actress of commanding talents than she did in the happy vehicle which Clyde Fitch has so cleverly constructed. It is with regret that theatregoers say farewell to her at the present time, notwithstanding that Her Great Match will be replaced by George Ade's latest comedy, Just Out of College. Miss Elliott and her company could easily have remained here for four weeks longer, but the complications in bookings must not be overlooked, and systems must be observed at whatever sacrifice.

VAUDEVILLE

McDonald and Hoffman closed their engagement at the Crystal Theatre, Muskegon, Mich., Jan. 7, and are enjoying a two weeks' rest at their home in Flint, Mich., preparatory to taking out their own vaudeville company. They have engaged W. S. Stoddard, Mack and Pearl and E. B. Stockton, and will make week stands in vaudeville through central and northern Michigan.

The Gibbs Sisters are breaking all records through Indiana and Illinois in refined vaudeville, together with moving pictures. The roster is as follows: H. S. Tennis, general manager; W. E. Kerns, advance agent; Mrs. A. Gibbs, treasurer; Miss Lotta Kerns, musical director; Charles Earl, electrician, and Misses Mattie and Myrtle Gibbs.

Eddie Mullane has closed with Oppenheimer's Fay Foster Co., and has joined interests with Charles Summers, formerly of Summers and Winters. They opened at the National Theatre, Kansas City, Mo., week Dec. 18. Mr. Mullane while recently playing in Denver, Colo., was made a member of the T. M. A. Lodge.

George Auger, the tall man, writes that on Jan. 29 he opens in Hot Springs, Ark., for a six weeks' tour of the southern circuits, after which he will prepare for his season with the Barnum & Bailey Show. Mr. Auger uses four people in his playlet, entitled Jack, the Giant Killer, and he says it is a big success.

Hayward and Hayward have severed connections with Charles Farrell and have joined interests with Frank J. Conroy, late of Conroy and Pearl, who will do the black-face comedy part in Marriage Is Sublime. They are still closing the olio with Miss New York, Jr., Co., and are meeting with success.

The new act now being produced by LeChair and West is entitled A Drop Into Safety.

Fred LaMont, of the LaTroupe Car-men, writes that they are introducing two original feats, namely, a backward somersault across shoulders on a tight wire and a flip-flop on a platform held on a tight wire by two members of the troupe.

The Four Seasons, a new vaudeville act on the order of the Vassar Girls, was produced at Jacques Opera House, Waterbury, Conn., week Dec. 25, and proved an instant success. The music and scenic effects are said to be splendid.

The Elsenbarth-Henderson Floating Theatre is now in winter quarters at Marietta, O. The boat will be thoroughly repainted and renovated for the coming season, which starts April 1. About fifty people will compose the company.

Luce and Luce, comedy musical artists, have been making a hit in the vaudeville houses through the middle west. They open on the Kohl & Castle Circuit, Feb. 19, and are booked solid until July.

The Rialto Comedy Quartet, which opened the season seven weeks ago in a small New York town, were last week an added feature at the Arcade Theatre, Toledo, O., where the best of vaudevillians play.

The Martins, novelty musical artists, are laying off in Chicago, rehearsing their big musical comedy act, written by Lawrence Illustrated. They will carry a complete set of scenery and will open about Jan. 16.

Fred Karno's London Comedy Co. has just concluded its third successive week in Hammerstein's Victoria, New York City, and has many excellent bookings to fill during the balance of the season.

Phillips and Hamilton, Alfred and May, have closed a very successful season with the Price Show Boat, and are taking a much deserved rest in Cincinnati. They have signed with the Price Show for next season.

Ferguson and Mack opened at the Tivoli Theatre, Cape Town, Dec. 12, for a six weeks' engagement, and they write that they scored a laughing hit. They will return to this country some time in March.

Reid Miller and Lillian Zerda finished the Crystal Circuit Dec. 27, and opened on the Empire Circuit in San Francisco after which they will play the Sullivan & Considine Circuit.

T. R. Irving, stage manager at the Palm Gardens, Syracuse, N. Y., was on New Year's Day presented with a handsome diamond stud by Manager Austin of the Gardens.

Tobie Stark is scoring heavily on the Western Vaudeville Circuit with her impersonation of Anna Held. Her graceful dancing is bringing many dattering press notices.

John and Maud Brewer opened at Fuller's Opera House, Auckland, N. Z., Nov. 25; at Riccardi's Tivoli, Sydney, Australia, Dec. 30, and at Suva, Tigr Island, Jan. 9.

Walters and Prouty write that they have just closed over the Poll Circuit, on which they made big hits in their new act, entitled The Hebrew and the Singer.

John P. Hill & Co., presenting a tabloid version of Rip Van Winkle in vaudeville, have out some new postal cards that are attractive to say the least.

The Two James, electric musical artists, opened at Marion, Ind., last week for a lengthy engagement over the Western Vaudeville Circuit.

Nilbe and Bordouex are making a hit in the eastern vaudeville houses with their clever act, and flattering press notices are numerous.

Tom Armstrong and Ella Vern, late of the Land of Nod Co., are now appearing in vaudeville and incidentally making a big hit.

John J. Sullivan and Robert J. Murphy have joined interests, and are doing an Irish talking, singing and dancing act.

Alexander Brown, of the Musical Brown Brothers, has signed as stage manager of the Clark Street Museum, Chicago, Ill.

Harry L. Hanson writes that his act met with the best approval over the Keystone Circuit which he has just finished.

After a year's work in the west, Brown and Wilmot are going east. They return to the Coast again in the fall.

Frank Bowen, trapezist and song and dance artist, has closed with the Reh Entertainers and will go into stock.

Noblette and Marshall write that they have a new act which they will shortly present on the Orpheum Circuit.

After a brief engagement in Piff, Paff, Pont, World and Kingston are again making good in vaudeville.

Amann and Hartley opened on the Moan and Stoll Torn, Dec. 18, at The Empire, Manchester, Eng.

Polk, the banjoist, has closed with King Collins, who will continue alone over the Kohl & Castle Circuit.

Stanley and LeRoy, now meeting with success in the middle west, will go in burlesque next season.

Jack and Clara Roof write that they have just closed a successful engagement on the Keystone Circuit.

The Nortons will hereafter be known as Norton and Perkins. They report success in their comedy act.

Dave Deeden has canceled all vaudeville time and has signed with the King of Tramps Co.

Slater and Finch rested Christmas week and opened Monday at the Star Theatre, Muncey, Ind.

Kerns and Cole scored big at the Grand Opera House, Indianapolis, Ind., New Year's week.

Gladwin and Lavigne are booked for sixteen weeks of western time, beginning Feb. 5.

Jim Hennessey has closed his tour of the northwest, and is now invading California.

HARRY EARL

Harry Earl, pictured above, is the general representative for the Bowland & Clifford enterprises, with offices in Chicago. Mr. Earl is too well known to the profession to need introduction. He was last season the general press representative of the Great Wallace Show, is a fine gentleman, thoroughly experienced, and with his characteristic aggressiveness is sure to make a mark in the theatrical world. The Bowland & Clifford officers are now in the Grand Opera House Building.

THE PLAYERS

Just before going on in a comedy role in The Girl From Kay's at Iowa City, Ia., recently, George Decker received a telegram announcing the death of his mother in California. Having no understudy, Mr. Decker was compelled to go through his part.

Chas. E. Kennedy, manager of the Harcourt Comedy Co., starring Chas. K. Harris, writes that they broke the house record Christmas week in Marlboro, Mass., New Year's Day played to turnaway business at the City Opera House in Biddeford, Me.

The Macaulay & Patton Little Homestead Co. played to $152 at the opera house at Sabina, Ohio, Dec. 28, in spite of a rain which began at 11 o'clock in the morning and lasted until after the performance.

During the performance of the Royal Slave at Corry, Pa., Dec. 26, Miss Gertrude Lewis, who plays the part of Isadora, was taken seriously ill. She recovered sufficiently to depart with the company.

Omer J. Kenyon, agent Kerkhoff-Hillman Co., writes that they are doing big business in Kansas and Nebraska. Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and Resurrection are their feature bills.

C. G. Hamilton reports that the National Stock Co. is doing well. Mr. Hamilton wishes to announce that he is not managing the Minelli Brothers or Nina Gennell.

The Missouri Girl and Jerry From Kerr Co.'s, both spent a delightful Christmas in Portland, Ore., and many presents were exchanged.

Robert Dudley and Elaine Dudley, it is reported, will shortly go on tour in Shadows of Old Home, a rural play by Mr. Dudley.

Mr. Max H. Meyers, proprietor of A Runaway Boy and From Rags to Riches, reports great business for both his shows.

Manager Frank W. Nason reports fine business for both his attractions, Neighbors and When Women Love.

R. G. Payton reports good business for his Preston Stock Co., which rested Christmas week in Hancock, Md.

Walter Meyers closed as advance man of the Klimt & Gazzolo's Honest Hearts Co., Jan. 6.

The Shadow of Sin Co. is soliciting excellent business throughout the south.

Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. rested Christmas week in Danville, Ill.

MINSTREL

Promptly at midnight, Dec. 31, at Schenectady, N. Y., the John W. Vogel Big City Minstrel Band began to march through the streets of that city. The streets were crowded with people going from watch meetings and parties. The band finally proceeded to the club rooms of the local Aera of Eagles, where a big banquet was enjoyed.

The Richards & Pringle Minstrels are "going some." Their new first part was used for the first time Christmas matinee at the Tabor Grand, Denver, Col. Messrs. Rensco & Holland have also discarded their car, Westerly, which has been replaced by a new one from the Pullman shop.

A calendar that is a calendar has just arrived from Lew Dockstader. It is a handsomely finished card, 7 by 11 in size, and carries a splendid likeness of the minstrel king. It is a fine piece of work and would grace the desk of any editorial or managerial sanctum.

Walter J. Gossen, the "Alabama wizard," reports that he is in his twenty-eighth successful week with the DeRue Brothers Ideal Minstrels, and that the show has not missed a salary day since its opening.

During their engagement in Oswego, N. Y., the Guy Brothers were banqueted by the Eagles.

The reorganized Peach & Bowers Minstrels opened at Sterling, Ill., Jan. 1.

By C. C. BARTRAM.

JUST now everywhere in London theatredom one finds hustling, hustling preparations for the pantomime season. Truly, some of the pantomimes have opened already; one, even, as early as the end of November. The big day when the vast majority of Xmas plays start their season, is, however, Boxing Day—the day after Christmas. This year pantomimes will occupy the boards of twenty-six London theatres, besides at least a dozen others which will produce "children's plays." If the older folk were not really children grown-up, they might well be jealous of the increasing attention theatre managers pay to the rising generation. But as the grown-ups in England look forward to the annual Christmas pantomimes with quite as much interest as do the children, the manager is quite content in believing that if the children like his Christmas entertainment, they will bring their parents to his theatre with them.

PANTOMIME THEMES

Cinderella and Aladdin are the two most popular themes for pantomime this year. Out of the one hundred and twenty productions in London and the Provinces, each of these subjects have been chosen fifteen times. Next in popularity comes Dick Whittington, with fourteen. This is the third year in succession that these subjects have led the way. In former years the rule was that pantomimes were played at one theatre and remained there until the conclusion of the run; now, the pantomime that does not go on the road at the end of six or eight weeks, is an exception. For this reason, the season is prolonged much more than formerly.

ORIGIN OF THE PANTOMIME

Much has been recently written, said and sung of the decline of pantomimes of the harlequinade, which at one time was the pantomime itself.

If we study the authorities on the subject—the learned people able to trace anything from anything—we shall find the Harlequin is the god Mercury, with a short rod or sword to make himself invisible; that Columbine is Psyche, and that Pantaloan is Charon, the ferryman of Hades. Remembering what a particularly amiable and judicious aldermanic old gentleman Pantaloan invariably is, this last statement will cause surprise. The clown is Momus the buffoon of Elysium, the god of malice and wit, with a gaping mouth in imitation of the ancient masks. To what base uses may a family of distinguished mythological decent be reduced! The "buffoon of Elysium" reduced to stealing sausages, warming pokers, greasing slides, and daubing the trousers of Dundreary swells with black paint. Psyche, aimlessly gabbling across the stage in delirious gauze, and the herald Mercury, suffering adjurations from the stage manager to "go quick and come off quick!" Looking through the bills published throughout the country at this present Christmas season, is it seen that harlequinades are either wholly omitted or woefully abbreviated. In some cases there is just one scene left—a grudging concession to the quidnuncs of conservatism. The clown, however, is no longer the ruler and dispenser of the fest. Managers are troubled more about their "principal boys" and "principal girls" so that almost anyone will do to play the poor old merryman and his now more of less melancholy family.

THEIR COST

But though the harlequinade has practically disappeared, there is no doubt that the number of pantomimes produced each succeeding season is on the increase, and also (alas! say the managers) the cost of producing them has increased to formerly unheard of sums. A pantomime must be gorgeous to earn money nowadays. Therefore, a failure means a loss of a fortune.

HOW ORGANIZED

The principal artists in pantomime are recruited from the ranks of the vaudeville profession, and this year one sees a surprising number of American performers on the English pantomime bills. The music hall naturally suffers, when a couple of hundred acts are taken from the halls to supply casts for the pantomimes. This, of course, opens a market for American and Continental performers, so we are not surprised to see numerous acts from "over the water," both east and west, on the current music hall programs.

Caron and Herbert who closed at the Palace last Saturday are the last to join the pantomime ranks. They open to-day in Liverpool at the Royal, and we expect to hear reports of a big success. For at the Palace they proved that they had "goods" of which the English public seemed never to get enough.

THE DRAMATIC WORLD

Naturally with all the pants opening there has been little doing this couple of weeks in the London dramatic world.

The Pioneer Society produced The Firefly, a story of diplomatic intrigue, by William Toynbee, at the Scala Dec. 17.

At the Duke of York's Peter Pan was successfully revived Dec. 19, which together with the three provincial productions, The Particular Pet, Thy Neighbour's Wife and Her Lost Self is the whole story of this last week at the theatres.

An interesting incident was the sale at Christie's of the Irving collection of theatrical relics. The total amount realized was nearly $100,000. An ivory crucifix, a statue of Irving as Hamlet, a cruciform sword used by Irving in Richard III., a dagger, Charles I.'s Star of the Order of the Garter, some costumes and a cloak were among objects that realized sums varying from seven pounds to three hundred and ten. Albert Jackson, who buys largely for American clients at local sales, was the largest buyer.

Charley's Aunt will be revived at Terry's during the Christmas holidays, commencing on Boxing Day, with Mr. Brandon Thomas in his original part of Sir Francis Chesney.

A VERSATILE AUTHOR

Percy French, the author of Noah's Ark, the children's Christmas play at the Waldorf Theatre, is an astonishing versatile man. His "one man show" of water colors at the Modern Gallery has only just closed, as we hear the announcement of his work as a playwright.

Mr. French, who belongs to an old Irish family, inherited literary tendencies from his father, who was a fine classical scholar. He was one of the best of Ireland landlords who retained their popularity through all the troublous times, though his tenants were sufficiently up-to-date to withhold their rent for many years.

Mr. French was educated at Trinity College, Dublin, and chose engineering for a profession. It was while holding a position under the Board of Works, Ireland, that he began to write some of his best known songs, including the Song of the Prophets and Phil, the Fluter, etc.

He was offered the editorship of the Irish comic paper, The Jarvey, about 1890, and was then well-known on the concert platform as an amateur of some repute, and also as an author to some extent. The Jarvey only lived a couple of years, but Mr. French had definitely turned his back on engineering and continued to make his living by writing, painting and entertaining. Half a dozen years or so ago he came to London, where he speedily made a place for himself as one of the most popular and original entertainers.

A school for the forty odd children who are engaged in the production of Noah's Ark, is now established in the theatre. The classes are held in the wardrobe room daily, and the services of an efficient master and mistress have been ensured. This is in accordance with the London County Council regulations.

NEW VARIETY SKETCHES

Robespierre is the title of a new sketch which is going strong in the "halls." The title takes the form of an episode in the life of the great French revolutionist in which a girl plays a game of cards with the latter for the head of her lover, who has been condemned to death. In order to win she cheats, and a fight with rapiers follows. The girl is wounded and then Robespierre discovers that she is the pretty aristocrat that he has loved at a distance. The inevitable happens. Robespierre offers to save her lover if she will marry him, and just as matters have reached a climax the lover bursts into the room having been liberated through a mistake. Of course, the stern man relents, forgives and all is happiness.

A new and brilliant scene just produced at the Coliseum, is in Bells and Motley, in which Miss Mahel Love appears.

In a village in Arcadia May Day arrives and the villagers are without a "Queen of the May," inasmuch as the test at the Maypole has left them in perplexity, the votes having been evenly distributed between the six maidens who contested for the position. Gaffer Brown, an ancient rustic suggests that the claimants be made to dance, and the May crown be given to the best dancer. This fails to solve the difficulty, as the six are voted to dance equally well. A traveling jester and a fair maid in motley come upon the scene and sing and dance, after which the villagers unanimously acclaim the maiden as their queen.

While executing some very pretty dances to entrancing music the Lord Chamberlain of Arcadia and several courtiers enter in haste and make obeisance at the feet of the maiden who turns out to be the disguised Princess of Arcadia, whose love of adventure has caused her to wander far from her father's court. The festivities proceed and conclude with a stirring chorus "All Hall."

AMERICAN PERFORMERS

Among the American performers who will eat their Christmas dinners in London this year are Robbins, Dare Devil Schreyer, Burke, Moller and Teller, Belle Davis, Jordan and Harvey, Julie Mackey, The Gothams, Collings and Hart, Cliff Ryland, Bookner and Narhls, Bijou Russell, Ella Shields, Albertus and Barratt, Seeley and West, Chung Ling Soo, Three Merrills, Cole de Lawe, Duo, The Harmony Four, Will Van Allen, Grant and Grant, Cooke and Clinton, Wood and Bates, Radford and Valentine, Ahle Mitchell, Berenda and Green, and Hart and Lee.

Monday, Dec. 14, was an unfortunate day for several American gymnasts. At Cardiff, one of McNamee and Hill's bars broke, steel core and all, while they were doing a double trick. Hill broke his collar bone and McNamee fractured his leg. At Chelsea Palace, Jack Stack threw his shoulder out and at the Lyceum, Tom Morris of Morris and Morris fell, sustaining injuries to his back which will compel him to lay off for several weeks.

PERSONAL

In consequence of an accident which occurred to Hackenschmidt at Nottingham, the big match which was to have taken place with Madrall at the Sports' Palace (Olympia) has been declared off. It will be remembered that at the last match between these two, Hackenschmidt put Madrall's arm out. Madrall says that the "Russian Lion's" accident is a lucky one for him, as he (Madrall) intended to put his (Hackenschmidt's) neck out this time.

An interesting aspirant for Parliamentary honors is forthcoming, in the person of Mr. Ben Nathan, of Nathan & Somers, the theatrical agents. Mr. Nathan is desirous of contesting one of the divisions of his native town, Birmingham, as a supporter of Mr. Chamberlain, and if not officially adopted, may stand independently of any organization. He has been a prominent figure in Birmingham politics for many years, and also a founder of the Reform Club in the city. Mr. Nathan made his first appearance in London as an actor at the Gaiety Theatre in the burlesque of Carmen Up-to-date.

On the same date, Dec. 28, that Dare Devil Schreyer opens with his dive at the Sports' Palace, he opens at the Canterbury with his new stage sensation Cylomoto.

A THOMPSON-DUNDY ENTERPRISE

The rapidity with which variety houses have sprung up in London in the last few years is almost phenomenal, but schemes for new ventures continue to be prolific. The latest news is that Messrs. Thompson & Dundy, the managing directors of the palatial New York Hippodrome, are about to extend their enterprising efforts to London, where negotiations are pending for the erection of a companion house to the successful American establishment with a similar building to follow in Paris. Frederick Thompson will sail for England on Dec. 27 for the furtherance of the project.

THEATRE NOTES

Workmen are busy day and night completing the Alywych, which is due to open on Saturday with a revived version of Blue Bell in Fairyland.

A hall has been passed by the London County Council which makes it necessary for all agencies and registries to be registered, but especially exempts concert, theatrical or music hall employment agencies unless a preliminary fee or commission is required or accepted.

A new music hall, called the Coliseum, which is claimed to be the largest in the world, has been built at Eglington street, Glasgow, by the Moss Empire syndicate, and was formally opened this week. The new theatre which has been designed by Messrs. Frank Matcham & Co., London, on the model of the Ardwick Empire, at Manchester, is built on the cantilever principle, with two piers above the pit and stalls. The auditorium, which is seated for four thousand persons, has thirty-six exits, all the doors of which are fitted with automatic alarm bolts. The fireproof curtain is of steel and weighs over eight tons. A novelty has been introduced in the waiting rooms for the audience, that for the "Pitties" being carpeted and furnished with velvet settees.

KANSAS CITY, MO.

The recent engagement of The Darling of the Gods at Convention Hall was little less than a personal triumph for Robert T. Haines, the leading man. Mr. Haines is one of the most widely known of the "native sons" who have left here to make their mark in the theatrical world and that his friends here appreciate the height to which he has risen was shown by the enormous audiences in attendance throughout the engagement.

Although the Woodward & Burgess Amusement Co. has withdrawn its road organizations, indications point to this season as the most prosperous in the history of this successful company. Business at the various houses under the direct control of the Woodward company has been most gratifying thus far, and a continuation will mean the posting of a new record.

Will R. Winch, the truthful press agent of the Orpheum, announces the appearance of the Orpheum Show in February. Mr. Winch further states that reports have it that business with this organization so far this season has been excellent.

"Yours Merrily" John R. Rogers, presented his star, Barney Gilmore, with a solid gold match safe and cigar-cutters during their recent stay at the Auditorium.

Manager Louis Shouse of Convention Hall, has booked the Metropolitan Grand Opera Co. for his house early in April.

James T. Porter, general manager of the Great Minny Shows, was injured in an automobile accident New Year's Day. The driver lost control of the machine in which Mr. Porter was riding, and it ran backward down a steep hill for some distance before it was stopped. Mr. Porter's injuries will not prove serious.

Mrs. Georgia Brown, director of the Auditorium School of Dramatic Art, which has enrolled a large number of students this season, announces the first matinee of the year early in February.

Ted Sparks is finding plenty of work for the performers on his books this winter. Many lodge and club vaudeville shows under his direction are leading Mr. Sparks a strenuous life these days.

Melba comes to the Auditorium January 8.

CHAS. II. SMALL.

OMAHA, NEB.

Xmas week was one of good cheer and banquets for members of the different companies playing here.

After the evening performance at the Orpheum, Xmas night, the players, the employees of the house and the members of the orchestra were the guests of Manager Carl Reiter at a banquet spread on the stage. Mr. Reiter was toast-master, and many clever toasts and speeches were offered. It was a very enjoyable affair and long to be remembered by those present.

The Paul Jones Co. laid over in this city the entire week preceding Xmas. Manager J. H. Garrison reports excellent business for his company.

Doc. Breed and Frank Phelps, manager and treasurer, respectively, at the Krug Theatre, were the recipients of many handsome Xmas gifts from their many friends and from last reports they were still being received.

The gentleman members of the Woodward Stock Co. gave a banquet to the ladies of the company on Xmas night after the performance at the Henshaw Hotel. Toasts were called for by Albert Morrison and responded to by Miss Lang to whom was assigned The Ladies. Other responses were The Stage, Sedley Brown; Our Managers, W. J. Burgess, and The Day, Frederick Fulton. The splendid banquet and speeches were enjoyed by all present.

Johnny Baker, the crack rifle shot, whose act was featured with the Buffalo Bill Wild West Show, visited his old home in this city. Mr. Baker has been traveling around the country buying ring horses to replace those which were killed by the French authorities. He will be here early in January.

BILLY "SWEDIE" HALL

The above is a good likeness of Billy "Swede" Hall, of the well known team of Hall and Colborn, in his famous Swedish character, Olson, the coal man. Miss Colborn's clever acting and beautiful stage presence is attracting wide attention. She possesses a sweet, well-cultivated voice. This team has been very successful ever since they first joined hands.

Managers Burgess and Reiter, of the Boyd and Orpheum Theatres, were presented each with a badge from the newsboys, and as a token of appreciation the newsboys were invited to attend performances at both theatres as guests of the managers.

The Omaha Gunning System report business better at this season of the year than ever before, all the large boards being filled with local and foreign paper.

H. J. ROOT.

"23" FOR ANN LAMONT

Manager John Cort has decided to discontinue the production of Ann LaMont, the problem play in which Florence Roberts has been starring, and accordingly the last performance of that piece was given on New Year's night in Vickburg, Miss.

The members of the company went to Denver, Colo., where they will rehearse Pauline Darcy.

LEADING LADY ILL

Myrtle May, leading lady with the Empire Stock Co., Cleveland, Ohio, closed Saturday, Jan. 6, at the close of The Belle of Richmond, the nervous strain caused by overwork having brought her to the verge of collapse. Grace May Lamkin, second lady, will take her place until a selection has been determined upon.

ULRICH'S NEW PLAY

Charles Ulrich's new western play, entitled A Cowboy's Honor, will be produced for the first time upon any stage Jan. 14, at the Avenue Theatre, Chicago, Ill. Francis Boggs will be seen in the dual role of a cowboy and a road agent, and May Ilsemer will create the part of Mary Buckley, the heroine.

WILL PLAY IN YIDDISH

At the close of her tour in Monna Vanna Berlin, Kallich will return to the Yiddish stage. Her first new production at the Kallich Theatre will be a new play by Zalmen Libin, entitled The Past. Mme. Kallich will appear also in a new play by J. L. Peretz, a Yiddish novellist.

ODDS AND ENDS

The New Coliseum Skating Rink, recently opened in the old Columbia Theatre, Waukesha, Wis., has so far proven a great drawing card. Vaudeville may be added a little later on as a special feature.

Business Manager G. W. Christie, of the American Entertainment Co. writes of good business in Tennessee. The company will soon go into Kentucky and then into West Virginia about March 20.

Sam Schwartz is meeting with a big demand for his Electric Souvenir Selling Ammunition, and is figuring on establishing a plant in Chicago where he will manufacture his devices.

J. C. Fish opened a Nickelodeon in Washington, Pa., Dec. 27, and is making good. The skating rink and bowling alleys run by the Washington Amusement Co. are doing good.

Caylor and Jefferson write that they are taking four and five curtain calls nightly in their playlet, entitled A Woman's Way. They are booked until May.

J. W. Randolph writes that Texas is overrun with all kinds of shows, many of which are traveling on their baggage.

MUSIC

PUBLISHERS' NOTES

THE new production, The Press Agent, which is a musical comedy background with the talents of Peter Dailey, is now running to large audiences at the Lew Fields' Theatre. During the action of the first scene a very novel ditty, entitled I Think It Must Be Love, is interpolated. This is sung by nearly all the members of the company, who render a verse each. The most striking thing in connection with the song, however, is the staging of it by R. H. Burnside, who can think up more original business for a song over night than the average stage manager can in a month. In the case of I Think It Must Be Love, Mr. Burnside has originated an episode in stagecraft that causes a tremendous sensation, for he has cut ten trap doors in the stage and at a given signal they fly open, disclosing an equal number of crimson hearts. In which presently appear the faces of ten pretty girls. This remarkable and striking illustration of the text of the song, added to the rendition by the various artists of a verse each secures for the song as many as twenty encores at a single performance, a fact which makes the song the feature of the show. It was written by Raymond A. Browne.

ANOTHER BLOOM NOTE

A sweet voiced vocalist, who is very popular in Greater New York, is Miss Josie Antoinette, who possesses a voice of great power, beauty and range, and who has in addition a very winsome personality. In her work she makes a specialty of the songs of Sol Bloom, including Raymond A. Browne's Good-bye, Dixie Dear, Harry Clay Smith's Come Back, and William H. Penn's I've Such a Funny Feeling When I Look at You.

F. B. HAVILAND NOTES

Kathryn Miley is singing Just a Little Rocking Chair and You, The Leader of the German Baad, Starlight and Daddy's Little Girl, and they are all going great.

Ed. J. Boyd is singing Daddy's Little Girl and Starlight, illustrated. Pinky Williams, May Stevens and Minnie Dreher also report success with the same songs.

Beecher and May find The Leader of the German Band such an immense hit that they feature it on all their billing. Lily Seville, the great English comedienne, is immensely successful in a new sketch by Porter Emerson Brown. She is featuring Theodore Morse's Just a Little Rocking Chair and You.

Jeanette Dupre is singing many verses of Water, and every one gets a big laugh. John Young is doing fifteen minutes in this song with the Pauline Hall Opera Co. Alf. Grant says it is the best comic song he ever had.

WITMARK WINNERS

Angela May, dramatic contralto and J. Louis MacEvoy, author-raconteur, write from San Francisco that their appearances in artistic concerts over the Pacific coast have been uniformly and legitimately successful. Prominent in their repertoire are Good Night, Beloved, Good Night, Star of My Life, I Love You, Dear, Love is a Tyrant, Awake, My Beloved, Awake, and others of similar character and merit.

These orchestral dance numbers were played at the ball given at the Annual Grand Masque and Dress Carnival, which took place Thursday evening Dec. 7, at Central Turner Hall, Cincinnati; Tammany, Nellie Beau, Just My Style, Dainty Little Ingenue, Heidelberg and in Nordland.

One of the cleverest entertainers in vaudville is Jimmy McDonald, who is making more than good, as usual, with a Witmark number. In Black and White.

FROM HELF & HAGER

I'll Be Waiting in the Gloaming, Sweet Genevieve, J. Fred Helf's big ballad hit, had another week recently, it being the feature song at many prominent theatres of Chas. Falke, Ira Kressner, Mitchell and Marron, Tommy Irwin, Claude Tharold, The Grahams, Boston Quartette, Wilbur Held and others.

STERN & CO.'S BULLETIN

Master Johnny McIndire, the youngest song illustrator in the business, is booked in a chain of Eastern vaudville houses for many weeks to come. He sings Down Where the Silvery Hawk Flows, In the Golden Autumn Time, My Sweet Elaine, My Heart's Tonight in Tennessee. Stern & Co. claim they can hardly supply the demand for these popular numbers.

James O'Dea, author of Illawatha, has handed to Joe W. Stern & Co., what he calls a new Indianesque. It is entitled Young Antelope, and is certainly catchy, novel and characteristic in every respect. Mr. O'Dea heard the melody which was written by Anna Caldwell, and immediately engaged himself upon the lyrics, and the result is that Young Antelope is a very happy inspiration, and a sure fire hit. Many of the best artists in vaudville have signified their intention of using it at once.

Charlie Clark, end man in Austin & Stone's Minstrels, is putting on an entirely new line of Mark Stern songs for the new year. They include the great Boston song favorite, Nobody Has More Trouble Than Me, with an entire chorus working up to it. His other numbers will include You're Crazy with the Heat and Nancy McIntosh, a new waltz song by the author of Nancy Brown.

HARRIS HITS

Miss Charlotte George, a new contralto in the vaudville field, has been receiving favorable press notices in Fall River and Lawrence, for her beautiful rendition of the new song, Dreaming Love of You, which shows her beautiful voice to great advantage, and she meets with unbounded success and applause from her and listeners. There is a treat in store for the Keith patrons.

The Elenore Sisters, who are playing the new Irish song, entitled Larry, The Elenore Sisters are at the top in their line and deservedly so, as they are always on the look out for novelties and good songs. Professional copies of Larry can be had on application; there are no restrictions.

MUSICAL

The Irma Opera Co., was royally entertained by the management Christmas Eve at Fairbury, Neb. A hall was rented and a large Christmas tree and a sumptuous spread were prepared. The festivities opened with an exchange of presents, after which dancing, mirth and music prevailed until a late hour. The company spent the winter quarters of the Campbell Brothers' Circus, where a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. Among the guests of the company on this occasion were Chas. Wright, of Seattle, Wash., Chas. Wahl and Miss York, of Peoria, Ill., and Fred Flathead and C. E. Whitney of the Campbell Brothers Circus.

Billy B. Van, of The Errand Boy, will lay off week Jan. 23, and in company with Prof. Samuel C. James, Dean of the University of Missouri will go on a shooting trip through Indian Territory.

Misses Carlie and Shirlie Bassett are now playing first violins with Trimble's Imperial Orchestra, at the Messenger Theatre, Corry, Pa. They are twins and but seventeen years of age, and are phenomenal violinists.

The Gus Edwards Music Publishing Co., 1512 Broadway, New York, will be glad to send copies of new songs to recognized members of the profession.

MUSICAL COMEDY

The Tenderfoot Co. made merry at the Hotel Delavan in Cedar Rapids, Ia., Christmas by erecting a tree upon which hung gifts for all the members of the company. A swell banquet gave zest to the occasion and good cheer prevailed throughout. The popular manager, Wm. B. Cullen, came in for a heavy share of the gifts and good wishes.

Mrs. Mary Nevins, mother of Marie Nevins of The Ham Tree Co., attempted suicide New Year's Day in New York by cutting her throat with a bread knife. She was taken to the J. Hood Wright Hospital, where she will recover. It is thought that Mrs. Nevins was despondent over being away from her only daughter.

Miss Emma Janvier, playing the wardrobe mistress with so much success in The Mayor of Toledo in New York, has signed with the Richard Carle Amusement Co., to star next season in Furnished Room to Let. In private life Miss Janvier is the wife of David Torrence, who plays Lord Spotash in The Ham Tree.

The roster of Cohan & Sutherland's King of Tramps Co. is as follows: Will H. Hargrave, manager; Oscar Oshea, Dave Denzen, Fred Armstrong, C. C. Roberts, J. H. Pratt, Clyde Long, Kinsel Pearce, Geo. Ebel, Chas. Ewing, Harry Sutherland, Fred Bentley, Hazel Bourne, Esther Evans and Phyllis Thornton.

The Royal Chef Co. spent Christmas Eve in Sioux Falls, S. D., where they attended in a body performance of The Forbidden Land, and then repaired to the Caractar Hotel, where the chef shared honors with the royal one. A Christmas tree served to increase the merriment.

E. Z. Cardner, formerly private secretary for A. L. Erlanger but now in Chicago at the head of an automobile company, renewed acquaintance with the members of The Ham Tree Co., now playing a very successful engagement at the Colonial Theatre in Chicago.

Knute Erickson, who was featured in The Seminary Girl, stopped over in Chicago a few days on his way to New York. Next season Mr. Erickson will star in Daffy Dan, under the management of Melville B. Raymon.

Miss Elfreda Busing, the noted contralto, is in Chicago, visiting her husband, Forrest Huff, the Ernest Everhart of The Ham Tree. Miss Busing will remain during the entire Chicago engagement.

Ada Blauvelt, of The Son of Rest Co., was nearly suffocated by smoke from a fire that broke out in the Kirkwood Hotel in Des Moines, Ia., recently. She was out of the cast several days.

Owling to poor business the Shooting the Chutes Co., was forced to close at Eau Claire, Wis., recently. The company will be reorganized for a southern tour early in the spring.

Albert Strassman, business manager for Sam Bernard maintains this to be a splendid season for business and cites date after date where The Rolllicking Girl played to S. R. O.

Miss Helen Irwin, a member of The Ham Tree Co., was taken seriously ill with an attack of heart trouble Jan. 2. Her physician says she will be all right in a few days.

Miss Rose Wandt, with Superba last season, came from Milwaukee to spend last week with Belle Gold of The Ham Tree, now playing at the Colonial Theatre in Chicago.

Jos. Cawthorne closed in Fritz In Tammany Hall in St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 13, and it is said that he will return to New York to begin rehearsals in The Janitor.

Melville B. Raymond's The Seminary Girl closed its season Dec. 30, in Milwaukee, where the company played to record business at the Alhambra.

Stella Wilmet, of The Ham Tree Co., recovered from her illness sufficiently to open with that company in Chicago. She was threatened with tuberculosis.

Richard Lambert closed as leading man of the Sophie Brandt A Madcap Princess Co. at Hot Springs, Ark.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

The first form of The Billboard, including the last eight advertising pages, goes to press Saturday morning. No advertisements for these pages can be given the desired position, and no changes can be made in standing ads on any of these pages unless the copy reaches us by noon Friday. No ads for the last form will be accepted after noon Monday.

That the instrumentality of The Billboard in adjusting conditions to the satisfaction of both managers and performers on the western vaudeville circuits was more effective than even the most sanguine among those involved dared hope, is evinced by the cessation of all complaints.

The mere expenditure of money on a production is no earnest of its success, to judge from the number of elaborately staged plays of all classes that have failed to elicit a profitable degree of popular approval during the first half of the current theatrical season. It's brains that make the play as the man—brains and cleverness. There's no substitute worthy the name.

The question may be raised, what constitutes a success? To answer superficially but along true lines—a poor company will ruin the best of plays; mediocre comedy will leave the most meritorious music without appreciation; just as the ablest company will fail to elicit enthusiasm for an unmeritorious play, or poor music spoil good comedy. Balance is the representation of brash; equipoise is the chief essential to successful production.

One company which enjoyed all the accessories of lavish production, has just closed a metropolitan engagement because of a lack of patronage. Several of the catchiest airs of the season were among its music, and in places its comedy was sparkling and brilliant. But the piece was ill-balanced. There were intervals of dullness with only the occasional tuneful number and the rare bit of real comedy as oases in the garish desert of inanity.

It is only through such untoward experiences that managers will learn what the people will pay for.

ARTISTS ELECT OFFICERS

The annual election of the International Artists' Lodge, recently held in London, resulted as follows: Max. Berol Konorah, president; Leo. Hirschberg vice-president; Heinrich Blank, treasurer; William Berol and Felix Wagner, secretaries; and Ch. Mertens, Henry DeVry and Sigwart Gentes, auditors. Executive Committee: Jean Clermont, Gustav Wille Nishol Kauffman, Camillo Schwarz, Otto Allison, Adolf

McCLELLAN'S NEW PLAY

C. M. S. McClellan's new play, The Jury of Fate, was produced for the first time Monday evening Jan. 1, at the Shaftesbury Theatre, London, Eng., with Henry B. Irving and Lillah McCarthy in the leading roles.

Reports have it that the new play had the advantage of good acting, but that owing to the novelty of the setting, which was in six tableaux, and the melodramatic character of the piece, it has a doubtful reception at the hands of the English audience. The critics devote unusually long notices to the performance, and admit that the play has a good deal back of it, but they consider that Mr. McClellan did not do himself justice.

Mr. Irving tried to address the public at the close of the play, but, owing to the clamor, he was obliged to content himself with thanking the audience and huddling it good night.

SHOW BOAT SINKS

The steamer Frank, carrying the eighteen members of the James C. Moore Original Show Co., sank in the Mississippi River near O'Brien's Landing, Ill., Tuesday night, Jan. 2, and it was with much difficulty that the people were all rescued. The boat was bound for Columbus, Ky., where the show was booked at the opera house Wednesday night.

The boat was about to cast anchor for the night when Capt. James Conners discovered something wrong. The engines were stopped and the boat began to sink. The passengers all escaped to the shore, clad in their night clothes. They were taken back to Cairo. All the effects of the company were lost and the boat is a complete wreck.

WILL PRODUCE HIS MAJESTY

His Majesty, written by Shafter Howard and produced under his auspices at a private performance at Daly's Theatre, London, Eng., about a year ago, is to be produced at the Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 12, under the direction of Nelson Roberts.

The company has already been engaged and rehearsals are in progress. Among the large cast, the following players will appear in prominent parts: Wallace Brownlow, William Sloan, Mabel Day, Caroline Williams, Walter F. Dyett, Alice Hagemann, Beatrice Vance, Lillian DeNourie, Mildred Morton, Harriet Hisscock, Helen Weatherby, Grace Goodall, Louise Ribhette, Fannie Marlowe and Jeanette Coleman.

PERFORMER UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mlle. Orooco, who created a sensation in the amusement world by her marvelous spiral tower act, was recently compelled to undergo an operation at her home in Orange, Mass., because of an illness with which she was stricken last summer. She is improving and expects to begin work in the early spring.

Mlle. Orooco ascends and descends a spiral tower while she is completely encased in a large globe. The act is spoken of by the press as most mysterious and wonderful and as seemingly defying all laws of gravitation.

DEATHS

Sam Sanford, for many years famous as a negro minstrel, died Dec. 31 at Brooklyn, N. Y., aged 87 years. Though a native New Yorker, Sanford was best known in Philadelphia, as he played a prominent part in stage history there. At the age of 19 he adopted the profession. During the 60's he became connected with a circus, and for one season acted in the capacity of a clown. Minstrelsy, however, was his particular forte. It is said that he was the best end man that minstrelsy ever produced.

Wm. J. Ranch, who for ten years was treasurer of the Grand Opera House at Chicago, Ill., died Dec. 31, at Elgin Ill. Mr. Ranch was forty years of age and the husband of Alma Wiederhauser, an actress. Estrangement from his wife and the continual rush at the box office brought on nervous prostration, which ended in his becoming insane. He is survived by an eight year old daughter, Ethel, who is with her mother in New York.

F. E. Sheldon, better known as Signor Cereno, died at the Grady Hospital in Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 24, of nephritis. Signor Cereno was a number of years celebrated scion under Wm. F. Cody and was a man of great intelligence. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Sheldon, a sister and stepdaughter. He was laid at Westview Cemetery, Atlanta, under the auspices of the Local Lodge of Eagles of which he was a member.

Wm. H. Lyons, aged 24 years, electrician at Smith's Theatre, Bridgeport, Conn., died recently in that city, after an illness of five months. He was in the inventor of many ingenious devices used in electrical work, and was possessed of a sunny disposition, which won him many friends. He is survived by a wife, parents, brother and sister.

Frank Elmer, stage manager of the Savoy Theatre, Atlantic City, N. J., died Dec. 30, of tuberculosis. Before coming to the Savoy he was connected with Wormwood and Bryant and Saville's Minstrels. His remains were taken to Baltimore, Md., for interment.

Mrs. Kate Phillips, mother of Al. Phillips, of Phillips and Hamilton, died of consumption in New York City, Nov. 11. She was formerly with an English opera company, and came to this country where she retired. Besides Alfred, she left another son and four daughters.

Chas. H. Smith, of the Two Johns Co., who was recently shot by F. C. Cooper in Danville, Ill., died of his wounds Dec. 28.

Harry Nichoff, for a number of years a hill-poster with Jno. Robinson's Circus, died Jan. 1, of consumption at his home in Cincinnati. He was 24 years old and had been ill eighteen months.

Carl Dice, for several seasons in the circus business, died at Mankato, Minn., Dec. 11, after three weeks' illness. He leaves a brother and child to mourn his departure.

DRAMATIC

A member of Bennett's Big Show writes: "We are now in our fifteenth week, and business continues satisfactory. Christmas Eve found us in Rapid City, Minn. Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Sights decorated the dining-room profusely with holly and mistletoe and Chinese lanterns. On the dining table in the center of the room was placed a full rigged ship, seven foot long, with the name, 'Prosperity,' on the bow and stern, the handiwork of J. W. Sights, our stage director. The hull of the ship was piled high with presents. About eleven o'clock the entire company assembled around the table, and after Dr. J. E. Shaffer had secured a flash light shot of the ship and room with his kodak, Mr. Sights distributed the presents to the different members. There was over 200 presents exchanged, proving the prosperity and good cheer we are enjoying. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Sights received the lion's share. After the distribution of the presents the table was cleared and a nice lunch was served by the ladies. Our Christmas dinner proved a real old-time affair. Among the meats served were turkey, elk and moose, but the feature was a genuine English plum pudding, prepared by Mrs. Sights. Everything was fully enjoyed, and we were in such good humor that we did not grumble much when our car was laid out at Brandon six hours on account of a wreck, and we did not reach Mooseyln until nine o'clock. We did not expect to give a performance, but a large crowd was waiting, so we hustled to the 'show shop' and rung up at 10:10 to a hall well filled with an appreciative audience. When we passed through Virden the Tom Marks Co. came down to the station and exchanged Christmas greetings."

A member of Horne's Rip Van Winkle writes: "We opened our season Dec. 22, at Geneva, Ohio, to S. R. O. Christmas Day at Connecit, we gave two performances to a packed house, and did the same at Alliance New Year's Day. We have an excellent cast and AI band and orchestra. Our roster is as follows: H. F. Horne and Ed Hale, owners and managers; J. E. Cole, advance man; Arthur Fordam, bandmaster; F. T. Dickerson, Harry Horner, O. E. Owen, L. A. Stenzelbach, H. C. Whitney, A. R. Van Husen, Arthur Jones, James Chest, Peter Christeson, E. C. McFarland, Lillian Montrose, Jennie Tresham, Baby Gladys and Baby Edna.

Several changes were recently made in the cast of the Vla Stock Co. The roster is as follows: E. V. Vla, manager; D. A. Hellman, agent; Ralph McDonald, director; Walter Hille, musical director; Chick Harvey, stage manager; Fred Ecker, electrician; John Walker, master of properties; Grace Porrette, Avo Gordon, Eileen Muntford, Elizabeth Nellymeyer, Marie Denton, J. Willard Bayley, Chas. Denton and L. M. Hunt. The repertoire includes Ascension, Beware of Men, A Gambler's Daughter, Her Mother's Sin, East Lynne, The Man From Yale, in London Town, Cinderella and The Winning Hand.

The members of The Toilers Co., under the management of Gordon & Bennett, gave a New Year's supper at Alexandria, Ind., and invited all the members of the National Stock Co. to partake. An enjoyable time is reported. Edgar Jones, leading man of The Toilers, was master of ceremonies. The Toilers is said to be a financial as well as an artistic success. It is a beautiful production, one scene showing the interior apparatus of a mill.

Under the management of R. R. Spain, the Spain Comedy Co. is meeting with great success through Indiana. Roy Morrison joined the show about two weeks ago. The roster is as follows: The Burkes, novelty sketch artists; Jimmy Kelly, Hebrew impersonator; Roy Morrison, black-face and kid comedian; Bollett Brothers, acrobats and contortionists; Larsen Sisters, singers and dancers, and The Vendomes, musical artists.

The Copeland Brothers Stock Co., a new organization, recently gave their initial performance in Wichita, Kan., their home city and reported a great ovation. The roster included Ed. L. Copeland, business manager; Clare C. Copeland, manager; Bonnie Waddell, L. D. Kirk, Gladys Fox, Gus Rapier, Chas. Hagan, II. Delong, Wm. Hater, Miss Jessalee Rapier, Miss Zela Leroy, Minnie Copeland, Blanche Jeanette and Lee Maynard.

Percy R. Benton's Comedians are now playing in their sixty-ninth consecutive week, and record-breaking business is the rule. They are booked solid until the middle of May. The company includes Percy R. Benton, J. R. Barrett, Chas. Stoddard, Jay Ray, Tommy Robinson, Edgar Mayo, J. B. Dodson, Annette Gray, Anna May, Alice Beauford, Gertrude Hefton, and Baby Carmen.

The members of the Eller Rip Van Winkle Co. enjoyed their Christmas tree in their car, Beatrice, behind an L. & N. flyer in Alabama. Expensive presents were exchanged and not one trooper was forgotten. "Aunt" Helen, the godmother and angel of the company, saw that nothing was lacking to round out a very merry Christmas.

A member of the Franklin Comedy Co. writes as follows: "We have had only two bad weeks out of the eighteen we have been out. Christmas was celebrated by the members of our company and many presents were exchanged. Manager Wm. Franklin received a gold-headed cane and a smoking jacket."

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The United States Post Office Department has announced that uncalled for letters will not be advertised in the newspapers hereafter. First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock's report, following an investigation of conditions, advised a relinquishment of this custom, arguing in behalf of his proposition that 90 per cent. of the uncalled for mail is addressed to persons who do not live in the city to which the office belongs. Mr. Hitchcock did not state that a large portion of this 90 per cent. of unidentified mail is addressed to theatrical and general amusement people, but undoubtedly that is the fact. In view of the contingencies that may grow out of the new order, resulting in the loss of valuable mail matter, The Billboard invites all transient professional people to have their mail addressed in our care. Whenever addresses or routes are not available, the names are advertised in this list.

BIG GAMING TRIP

W. H. McFarland, manager of the side show with the Great Wallace Show, left Peru, Ind., Jan. 8, for his home in Titusville, Fla., for the purpose of enjoying a six weeks' fishing and hunting trip down the Indiana river. Accompanying him upon the trip will be C. A. Bell, W. H. McFarland, Jr., and Harry Creamer, of the Wallace Show; Fred DeWolfe and B. Johnson, of the Forepaugh-Sells Show, and Robert Bell, a merchant of Columbus.

The trip will be made in a fifty-foot yacht, starting from Daytona, Fla., after the automobile races. The route will take them down the Indian river to Miami, thence through the Florida Key to Key West, thence up the west coast of Florida to C. N. Thompson's place at Largo.

The amount of game gathered by these hunters will undoubtedly be great. In fact, they have been so kind as to offer to send to any of their friends all the game they want. Address W. H. McFarland, champion alligator hunter of the world, Titusville, Fla. However, they refuse to ship to any one person more than one barrel of ducks, one barrel of fish, one eighty-pound green turtle, one alligator between seven and twelve feet in length, but they will ship as many rattle snakes as their friends desire.

CONCERNING R. G. BALL FUND

The following letter from Richard G. Ball, Jr., is self-explanatory:

"Editor The Billboard,

"Dear Sir: On Dec. 22 Mr. Joseph Mayer, treasurer of the fund that was raised for my father, R. G. Ball, met W. H. Gardner and myself at Mr. Mayer's office and found that there was a balance left of $967.96, and according to the wish of the majority of the subscribers to my father's fund Mr. Mayer has placed this money in a savings bank to my credit, he acting as trustee.

"I make this statement so that all the subscribers to this fund may know that this money has been handed over to me in the way above stated. Mr. Gardner found that Mr. Mayer's trusteeship of the fund had been rigidly carried out in every respect.

"Thanking all the subscribers for their great kindness to my father and myself, I am,

"Yours truly,
RICHARD G. BALL,
122 Hollywood Ave.,
East Orange, N. J."

CIRCUS GOSSIP

James Brown, for thirteen years connected with the Great Wallace Show, has dropped into New York City and is spending the long green among his many friends. When the boys all get together they have a fine time. The gang consists of Harry Williams, H. Walker and B. Carter, of the Barnum & Bailey Show; B. Lane, Ben Hamilton, H. Jordan and C. Carr, of the Sig. Santelli Show; C. Banks, Wm. Mack and P. Clary, of the Frank Rohrbach Show; A. Martin, B. Link and "Doc" Lane, of the Wallace Show, and Joe Weaver and Mr. Meier of the Buffalo Bill Show.

In a recent issue of The Billboard it was stated that Wm. Merrick would have charge of the Sells-Floto hand next season. This is a mistake. Park B. Prentiss, of the Robinson Show last season, will have the hand with the Circus Beautiful next season, and he says that it will be one of the finest on the road.

Walter L. Main's Hippodrome elephants closed their New York City engagement at Madison Square Garden, Saturday evening, Dec. 30, and went direct to Geneva, Ohio. There are now eight elephants in the Main winter quarters, the largest herd that has ever been housed there.

W. H. Fitzgerald, press agent with the Gentry Brothers' Show last season, and at one time identified with the Shubert Brothers press staff, is spending a few days in Chicago. He is considering a number of offers for next season.

After a very pleasant season as manager of advance car No. 1 of the Norris & Rowe Show, Herman Q. Smith is spending the winter in Minneapolis, Minn. He will go with Norris & Rowe again next season.

W. S. Dunnington has been engaged by W. H. Gardner to manage advertising car No. 4 (exursion car) with the Hagenbeck Show next season. It will be Mr. Dunnington's second year with that organization.

Lin Dice, a brother of Carl Dice, died in Mankato, Minn., Dec. 11, after suffering three weeks from lung trouble. Mr. Dice was well known among circus people, having spent several years in the business.

Col. Fred. C. Cummins has gone to Geneva, Ohio, where he will remain the greater part of the winter. He has a desk in Walter L. Main's office and will stay at the Tuttle House.

M. L. Sliker is to take out his new and novel performing cat and single trapeze act the coming season. He will do an aerial return and casting act the season following.

General contracting agent Sam McCracken, of the Ringling Bros.' World's Greatest Shows, transacted business in Chicago last week, leaving for St. Louis Friday night.

The Great Marinellis, marvelous lady and gentleman ring experts and wonderful equilibriists, are making a big hit with their act wherever they play.

Horace Webb, clown-gymnast, who has been with Ringling Brothers Circus for the past two seasons, has signed with the Hagenbeck Show for 1906.

Col. J. C. O'Brien, of the Campbell Bros.' Shows, is transacting business at the winter quarters of the organization at Fairborn, Neh., this week.

Much activity is being exerted in the winter quarters of the Welsh Brothers' Circus, and the show will go out practically new early in April.

Whiting Allen, formerly of the Barnum & Bailey and Jos. T. McCadden Shows, is ahead of Klaw & Erlanger's Fritz in Tammany Hall.

Jas. Coppinger has purchased the Jefferson Hotel in Cincinnati. He will continue to make the profession feel at home at all times.

Eddie Webb, formerly with the Wehhs, is practicing a new act which he will produce with one of the big shows the coming season.

Haag's Mighty Shows closed the season Jan. 6, at Hattiesburg, Miss., and shipped to winter quarters at Shreveport, La.

Bert Carroll, boss property man last season with the Robinson Show, will go with the Great Wallace Show the coming season.

Fred. M. Ciancay, manager, writes that the Samwell Trained Animal Show will open in April as a twenty-five cent show.

The Ted Sparks Amusement Co. recently purchased the stock and good will of the Bates Balloon Co. of Clinton, Mo.

After a very successful season with the Sells & Downs Show, the DeEpas are in Chattanooga, Tenn., for the winter.

D. J. Higgins writes that he is going to Bradford, Pa., to accept position of general foreman of the Bradford Mfg. Co.

Geo. Wormaid will have charge of the canvas for Norris & Rowe next season. It will be Mr. Wormaid's fourth season.

Otto Ringling and Chas. H. Davis, legal adjuster, with the Ringling Show, spent several days in Chicago last week.

Al. G. Barnes is enjoying a rest in Glenwood Springs, Col. His animals are in training quarters at Anstion, Tex.

Blondell and Bancroft, with the John Robinson Show the past season, are playing vaudeville dates in the west.

Otto Floto and W. R. Muscat, of the Sells-Floto Shows, were welcome callers at our Chicago offices Thursday 4.

The Two Lafayettes write from Jackson, Tenn., that they will be under the white tents the coming season.

Silvers Holland has been engaged to take charge of the canvas with the Great Hagenbeck Show next season.

W. E. Ferguson, began duties as general agent of the Cummins Wild West at Geneva, Ohio, Jan. 1.

J. G. Carroll will next season furnish the Younger Bros.' Wild West with a strong twenty-piece band.

M. Joe Miller will take charge of the properties with the Forepaugh-Sells Show next season.

Gerald Fitzgerald has signed again as press agent with the Wallace Show for next season.

V. O. Woodward will be general agent of the Welsh Brothers Circus next season.

Fifty men started to work for the Cummins Wild West at Geneva, Ohio, Jan. 1.

Doile Castle is spending the winter at the Arlington Hotel, Hot Springs, Ark.

O'Dole and LaVan, acrobats, will be with one of the big ones next season.

E. Houghton will have charge of the Hagenbeck Show train next season.

Jack Schumate passed through Chicago Jan. 2, en route to Denver.

ENGAGEMENTS

The following people have been engaged with The Power of Love Co.: Harry Millarde, Chas. W. Daniels, Arthur R. Rooney, Wm. Ragan, Miss Elizabeth Gillespie (leads), Miss A. H. Burton, Miss Grace Kendall, Miss A. Vaughn Davis, Chas. Black, stage director; Alfred Kreisel, musical director; Harry B. Davis is manager, and H. W. Rosenthal, advance agent.

Rose DeHaven and Martha Adams joined the Four Huntings Co. in Akron, O., Christmas.

Hayden Stevenson for the Roselle Knot Co. playing in When Knighthood was in Flower.

William Swor, formerly of the Swor Brothers, has joined the Son of Rest Co.

Emma Dunn for the role of Peepeta in The Redemption of David Corson.

Albert L. Reis has joined the Kennedy Comedy Co.

TRY AGAIN

Quite a number of those who have been engaged in circus and carnival business have either quit, or are seriously thinking of doing so. In most cases the reason given is that they had too much worry for what they get in return. We wish to call the attention of such to the good old adage, "TRY AGAIN." The principle thing necessary to the success of any amusement enterprise is to begin right, and the first move toward a right beginning to a successful end is to buy your Tents, Paulins, Flags, Cage Covers, Lights, etc., from

DR. M. J. POTTER, 138 E. 25th St., N.Y. CITY

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

If the start of the New Year in the theatrical business in this city is any indication of what is coming, this will be the biggest year that our managers have ever had, and they will all be able to retire with fortune. Never has any one day shown so great an outpouring of people at all of our theatres as the first of the year. It was entirely unexpected, too. Our city councilmen had appropriated $3,000 for prizes for our New Year Shooters—clubs of men who parade the streets in fantastic costumes and give a very fair imitation of the New Orleans Mardi Gras, and it was thought that this would hurt the business at the theatres, but it only helped.

The first indication of the coming crush was at midnight when the four burlesque houses advertised a "midnight matinee." The houses were to open at 12 o'clock and for an hour before that time the streets in front of the theatres were black with people. No tickets could be sold until it was Monday morning, but when the box offices were opened there was a wild scramble which took officers, attaches and everybody off their feet. The crowd was so great in front of the Bijou that Manager Sam Dawson made one of his old-time circus speeches to the crowd, telling them that he did not want their money, but they only laughed at him and then swept down iron gates as if they were made of paper. There was an awful crowd at the Casino, too, it took but a few moments for the houses to sell out and then the doors were closed.

The regular matinees on New Year's Day were just as crowded, but on account of most of the seats being reserved in advance, there was not the same confusion. The weather was beautiful and people gobbled up anything that looked like an admission ticket. At night it was just as bad, and the day above more money taken in than on any other one day since theatres were first started in this city.

Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, having bad large crowds at all holidays, was better able to handle the crowds, but there never had been so many people waiting for admittance as there was on that day. For hours the street in front of the theatre was black with people, waiting for some person to come out so they could squeeze in. One woman said, "Oh, I wish some woman would faint in there, so I could get a chance to get in." Manager Jordan and Press Agent Barnes both unite in declaring that they never saw as many people clamoring for admittance as on that day. The peculiar thing about this house is that no matter how large the crowd of people waiting no "cheasers" are ever put on the hill, but the entire show is given complete. Our people know this, and yet they waited for hours for a chance to get their noses in. All Hall to 1906, and may its opening day be only the forerunner of many more of the same kind.

At the Academy of Music Ben Greet's Play-ers are announced for four performances starting Jan. 11. The advance sale is very large. At the same house the grand opera season is in full force. The Metropolitan Opera Co. come over from New York once a week, bringing scenery and everything complete. The Queen of Sheba was the attraction Jan. 2, and a matinee performance of Hansel and Gretel was given Jan. 4. The Philadelphia Orchestra gives two concerts a week at the same house.

Miller and Kaufman, managers of the Girard and Forpeau's theatres, gave their annual dinner to employees, company and newspaper men Dec. 30. It was largely attended, and proved a big success in every way.

W. S. Yerkes, of the O. J. Gude Co., spent part of the holidays in visiting friends in this city. He has many admirers here who can not help but be pleased with the success he has met with since he went to New York.

Sara Bernhardt, who will play a week's engagement at the Lyric, starting Jan. 8, is being advertised in all cities and towns within a radius of fifty miles. Special excursion trains will be run from many of these points. Charles Strine, who was formerly press agent of the Walnut Street Theatre in this city, is doing some effective advance work for this star.

It is announced that Frank Howe, Jr., has engaged Thomas W. Ross for the leading part in "Blue Grass," the new racing play by Paul Armstrong, which is to be produced in this city in February. As Mr. Ross was a big favorite here during the run of "Checkers," he will no doubt help in swelling the crowds that will attend the premier production.

The new anti-pass regulation put into effect by the Pennsylvania Railroad is very sweeping, and has already affected a number of theatrical men who formerly rode free. When they dive down in their jeans now and produce coin for railroad tickets how they do squirm. As yet nothing definite has been settled about free transportation for circus ad-vance agents.

The funeral of C. A. Bradenburgh, owner of the Museum, was held on Tuesday, Jan. 2, and was largely attended by theatrical and circus people, and numerous societies, to which he belonged. The Museum was closed the afternoon of the funeral. It will be continued by his widow and sons, and the same manage-ment will be retained.

Sam Sanford, who died in Brooklyn on Dec. 31, was buried in this city on Jan. 4 from the residence of his nephew. The interment took place in the Elks Rest in Mt. Moriah Cemetery. The funeral was largely attended. Mr. Sanford started the first permanent minstrel company in this city, and at the same house, the Eleventh Street Opera House, Dumont's Minstrels, the only permanently stationed minstrel company in the world, still continue to perform.

The new German Theatre, which is rapidly approaching completion, has been leased by A. Saake, who will put in a German stock company. He ran the German theatre here for years, and should make the new theatre a suc-cess.

Bert Andrews, formerly with Gentry Broth-ers, is resting for the winter in this city. He has signed as general agent for the Wash-burn & DeAlma Trained Animal Shows next season.

Sanford H. Robison is still general manager of the Billposting Sign Co. His new company, the S. H. Robison Co., which controls the bulletin and sign business of this city, is starting in on its new career with a deluge of orders.

Jack O'Brien, the conqueror of Fitzsimmons, returned to this city on Dec. 31 for one day. He was received at the depot by a crowd of 3,000 people. The delegation was headed by Whitley Jacobs and John Roddy. After spending Sunday here Mr. O'Brien left for Boston, where he joins the Louis Rohle Show for ten weeks at a princely salary.

The Coliseum Skating Rink here is doing a nice business, and it is said that a number of other places of the same kind will soon be started.

Tom Hargreaves will open a new vaudeville house in Chester, Pa., in a week or two. This will be run in addition to the Grand Opera House, which Mr. Hargreaves also controls. He is now busy laying out plans for the entire rehilding and repainting of the Hargreaves Shows which will start from Chester in April. BOB WATT.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Cooks. The National and the Baker theatres continue to give Sunday night concerts, which are proving immensely popular.

When seen here the management of Sara Bernhardt denied that she was to travel under canvas during her tour through the south.

Manager Honghton, of the Batavia (N. Y.) Opera House, is promoting an amusement circuit. He proposes holding a meeting in Batavia this month, when the managers from Poughkeepsie, Perry, Albion, Medina and Warsaw will confer with him regarding the project.

J. J. Collins, for many years manager of Ontario Beach Park, has tendered his resignation, and will no longer be connected with this resort. His successor has not yet been named.

Richard F. Staley and Belle Birbeck, who filled an engagement at Cooks during Christmas week, are spending the holidays here with their friends. Both are Rochesterians.

Brothers Masand are spending a few weeks here with their folks. They have signed with one of the big shows for the coming season.

CLAS. W. NELSON.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

The Princess Skating Rink, recently incorpo-rated, has leased the Old Armory.

Al. Bellman and Lottie Moore, local people, are playing at the Hopkins this week.

Edw. Stair, of Stair & Havlin, was recently in this city looking up the business of his two houses.

Matt Winn has just returned from New York and he says that many improvements will be made on Jockey Club Park before its opening next season.

The Lewis' have closed their show, and are spending the winter here.

Harry Burke, of Macaulay's is looking for a location for a ten-cent vaudeville house.

ORVILLE B. TAYLOR.

John Zouboulakis has been meeting with success on the Sullivan-Considine Circuit in California. He has signed with the Wallace Show for 1906.

THE AIRSHIP INDUSTRY

Chicago has taken rank as the producing center of airships. Three firms, heavily capitalized, have been incorporated for the production of what promises to be, for a time at least, one of the most popular features of the amusement business. We seem to be nearing the consummation of the principles of aerial flight on the one-day stands, but there is little question that it can be effected.

On account of the exploitation of the airship as a feature of amusement, the tent makers of Chicago are daily receiving inquiries and orders for the manufacture of the balloons that are used to lift the apparatus. The manufacturers of gasoline engines are also devoting a great deal of time to perfecting a light machine of great power for the same purpose.

The White City airship, which has been named The Eagle, has already been booked for the Mardi Gras at New Orleans in February, and an attempt will be made to sail out over the Gulf of Mexico. The Bodkin airship and that manufactured by the United States Aerial Co. are also in demand, and it is quite possible that a number of these mammoth birds will be featured with the leading circuses next season. The principal difficulty to be overcome for the circus feature will be the reduction of time necessary to prepare the ship for flight to which thousands of our great scientists have devoted their lives, each, perhaps, perfecting one of the many essentials which work together to make navigation above the clouds possible.

STREET FAIR NOTES

Reports from the European Amusement Co. are to the effect that the company now in the twelfth week of its winter tour which is proving a success. They have seven shows, a merry-go-round and two free acts, besides Prof. Hale's Band of fourteen pieces. Their staff includes A. A. Hatchet, manager; W. E. Stanley, general agent; W. Linn, treasurer; Lew First, advance agent, and Frank Gill, master of transportation. Manager Hatchet was handsomely remembered by the members of the company, who presented him with a fine gold watch Christmas, while the employees of Mr. Wilbur gave him a beautiful diamond horse-shoe pin.

The Tyler-Tomasso Amusement Co., is made up of the leading attractions that were featured at the Atlanta and Tampa State Fairs. They are Jack Shields Lunette Show, The Trip Around the World, Vendome Electric Theatre, Verno, the cigarette stand; Old Plantation, Leavitt & Von Titzer's Crystal Maze, The Whole Damm Family, Igorrotes, Prof. Shultz's Museum of Anatomy, Edison's Ocean Wave, Merry-go-round and Miniature Railway. After filling some excellent time in Florida, the company goes to Cuba for a six weeks' sojourn.

F. E. Pilbeam, formerly of the Pilbeam Brothers United Carnival Co., and who is now managing the Bijou Theatre, Jackson, Mich., writes that he will spring a new system on the amusement world in the near future. His company will be known as the Pilbeam Amusement Enterprises.

Lewis First, advertising agent, late of the Campbell Brothers R. R. Show, is doing excellent programming and promoting queen contests, with the European Amusement Co. Mr. First will consider offers for the coming season, and can be addressed at 304 Stockton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Hampton Amusement Co., recently played to immense business at Troy, Ala. The company will remain out a few weeks longer, after which they will go to winter quarters at Mobile, Ala.

R. M. Peeler is spending a few weeks at his country home near Salisbury, N. C., quail hunting. He writes that his Chicago Amusement Enterprise is doing nicely through southern Georgia.

The Alabama Carnival Co., spent Christmas in Yazoo City, Miss., where many presents were exchanged by the members of the company. Big business is the rule with the show.

The Metropolitan Amusement Co. closed a successful season of thirty-six weeks at Chattanooga, Tenn., and are now in winter quarters at Atlanta, Ga. The company opens in April.

Frank Fox, door talker, formerly with the Minny Shows, was arrested and taken to jail in Charlotte, N. C., for selling goods on the streets. He solicited the aid of his friends.

Mrs. Marie Seeman, wife of Adolf Seeman of the Seeman-Milligan Mardi Gras Co., wishes to inform her husband through these columns of the death of his mother on Dec. 11.

C. E. Cummings, a brother of Mlle. Orroco, whose spiral tower act has created a sensation, was recently married to Miss Ella Nugent, of Orange, Mass.

Carmontella, after filling a two week's engagement at the Exposition in Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 5-20, will rest for the winter in that city.

Madame Leona Bonne closed a successful engagement of two seasons with the Smith Greater Amusement Co., recently.

Harry Small writes that he is taking top money with The West Amusement Co., his rag-time opera being a big hit.

Business men of Kansas City, Mo., propose to have a street fair next spring. The proposition is being pushed.

NEW DREAMLAND PARK

Dennis J. Grauman is the author of a plan for a new Dreamland Park that will cover three blocks in the Richmond district, between California and Lake streets, and Twenty-sixth and Twenty-ninth avenues, San Francisco, Cal., and will rival Luna Park at Coney Island, and the White City in Chicago.

Mr. Grauman has just returned from an eastern trip, taken for the purpose of studying the various amusement resorts that had been successful in the east, and it is reported that while in New York he arranged with Messrs. Thompson & Dundy to include the San Francisco resort in the circuit which they propose to extend across the country. The different attractions will remain three weeks in each place.

DREAMLAND PARK

To finance the plan the Dreamland Construction Co. has been incorporated with a capitalization of $750,000, $300,000 of which will be sold before the construction work begins. The remainder of the bonds will be held in reserve. The company has opened offices in the Kohl Building, San Francisco, and Mr. Grauman states that already $100,000 worth of bonds have been sold.

The site for the new resort has already been leased for a period of ten years, with a privilege of renewal and ultimate purchase. There are twelve acres in the plot upon which Dreamland will be built. Overlooking Baker's Beach and the ocean, the site is a most appropriate one for the creation of a dream city and the delightful climate of that country will aid in making the lawns and gardens all the more beautiful.

Among the attractions that the promoters promise to establish in Dreamland will be a grill and restaurant with an orchestra, a ballroom and skating rink. There will be an ice-skating rink, one of the longest and crookedest scenic railways in the country, a double bump the bumps, double whirl and all the other new sensations to be had next season. There will be no zoo, but a big midway and theatre are promised. Admission to the theatre will be free to all patrons. Also, a large number of outdoor spectacles will be included. Construction work will begin shortly, and the new park will be ready for business in June.

PARK NOTES

Lake Minnequa Park, Pueblo, Col., will be under the management of Joseph D. Glass, the same as last year, and plans are well under way for extensive improvements at that popular resort. Among other advantages, Minnequa Park boasts of being the only amusement place in the United States possessing a DeForest Wireless station.

Fieldman's Pig and Goat Show is now at training quarters in Shreveport, La., after a most successful season through the east and southwest, exhibiting at parks, fairs and other places. Next season the show will open with new and original acts.

Capitalists have purchased a fine tract of land near Charleston, W. Va., for the purpose of establishing a big summer park. Work will begin in the spring and the resort is to be provided with all the first-class attractions on the market.

H. A. Bradwell is very busy at Coney Island, N. Y., on next season's contracts. He will build several new attractions at Coney and will furnish a number of big amusement devices for several of the large parks in other cities.

Harry Bonnell, formerly press agent for the parks at Newark, N. J., writes that he has accepted a position as press representative of the Kenville Amusement Co., 1358 Broadway, New York City.

Wm. A. Brady will soon begin work at Brighton Beach Park, New York, and by May 30 he will have one of the largest outdoor amusement enterprises in this country.

QUEEN CITY BRIEFS

With the New Year came delightfully crisp weather which always serves to bring out the theatre-goers in vast throngs. Good bills are the rule at the playhouses last week, the production of Humpty Dumpty at the Grand being the most conspicuous.

The Drury Lane spectacle proved an immense drawing card and the advanced rate of seats did not stay those who wished to witness the wonderful production. Humpty Dumpty proved to be as great, if not greater, than it was rated, and it satisfied the multitudes.

Undoubtedly the most fashionable audience of the season greeted in New York Town at the Walnut last week. Its a choice bit of entertainment and there are some good players in the piece. Cliff Gordon as Baron Von Essig has one of the best characters seen at the Walnut for a long time. Chas. Howard is fine in a Jew part. Ida Emerson, Clara Austin, Jessie Austin, Kitty Morgan and Lydia Franklin have prominent parts and they sing or dance themselves into favor. Vinnie Henshaw and Orient at the Grand during the afternoon throughout the week.

Many ministers are to witness the production of The Shepherd King, the Biblical drama, which is here this week at the Grand.

Henry M. Ziegler, of the Columbia Theatre, was recently in Chicago, where he attended the formal opening of the Majestic Theatre. Messrs. Ziegler and Max Anderson are financially interested with Kohl & Castle in the new house, which is said to have cost $1,000,000.

Mine. Bernhardt will be seen here in Music Hall in February, when she will give four performances.

Allee De Fonteville, who has distinguished herself at the Royal Theatre in Dresden, has been engaged by Manager Otto E. Schmidt for a prominent part in the cast of the German Stock Co. in this city.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

Many good bills are being presented in Brooklyn week of Jan. 8. Sothern and Marlowe are at the New Montauk, Mrs. Lettingwell's Boots is at Teller's Broadway and Lady Tealor is at the Shubert. These attractions keep a large number of people from going to New York. The advance sale for Fantana at the Shubert next week is very large. The Shubert is being patronized by the elite of Brooklyn and is doing good business.

The management of the Amphion Theatre is having considerable trouble with the departments of health and fire, and it is intimated that its license may be revoked.

Manager Percy Williams started the new year with good bills at all his houses. The Prince of Pilsen Girls headed the one at the Orpheum.

H. A. Brodwell, of Coney Island, is very busy on next season's contracts, for he is to build several new attractions at Coney Island and other parks before the season opens.

Manager E. F. Girard, of the Gotham Theatre, was presented with a handsome enlarged picture of himself by the employee of his theatre last week.

Kellar, the magician, who has been doing big business this season, will shortly appear at the Majestic.

In the Circus Magazine "Punch" Wheeler states that the Floto Shows played Centerville, Ia., Aug. 14, and he mentions that Centerville is the home of Corse Payton. Next time you show Centerville "Punch," don't forget that the Spooners also come from Centerville. They are likewise great favorites in Brooklyn.

Thompson & Dundy have A Society Circus bill thoredly in Brooklyn, and are getting many patrons from this city.

Will Rogers, the western plainsman, made a big hit with his lease act as Hyde & Behrman's this week. GBO. H. HAKES.

TORONTO TOPICS

If nothing happens in the meantime Shea's Theatre will reopen Jan. 15. Theatregoers have missed very much the refined and entertaining bills at this popular resort.

Fred Mace scored strongly at the Princess in Pitt, Pa., Pouf. Ralph Graham, Katherine Osterman and Eileen Dunmore appeared to advantage in good roles.

Yorke and Adams in Bankers and Brokers were well received at the Grand.

The Star has a winner in Miss New York, Jr. The ollo has a number of good features, among them being the Boston City Quartet, World Trio, Allan and Bright, Bandy and Wilson, and Holman and Hayward.

J. A. GIMSON.

ORPHEUM FOR SALT LAKE CITY

The opening of the Orpheum Theatre in Salt Lake City with a Christmas matinee marked another epoch in the theatrical history of that city, and it is now a fact that the city has about every kind of amusement it desires. The citizens of Salt Lake have shown their appreciation of the new enterprise by subscribing liberally for season tickets and in other ways. The Orpheum is not quite completed, but the finishing touches are being added without the slightest interference with the performances. J. Bistes is manager of the Orpheum.

BURLESQUE

Barney Gerard, the successful author of musical comedies, is rapidly putting the finishing touches to the new musical, farcical extravaganza he is writing for Tom Miner, who will produce it next season. The vehicle is for the purpose of exploiting as stars Andy Gardner, Ida Nicolai and Will H. Ward. Andy Gardner is well known throughout the country for his rendition of the character of Patsey Bolivar, Ida Nicolai for her portrayal of the tough but good natured Roxie, and Will H. Ward for his impersonation of Wurts, a German hotel keeper at Palm Beach, Fla. The new musical effort from Mr. Gerard's pen is unnamed, but a suitable caption will be had in due time. Tom Miner will spare no expense in making the production an elaborate one as he is anxious to set a new pace in popular-priced extravaganzas.

Louis Donazetti, of the Five Donazzettis, formerly with The Span of Life Co., is acting as stage manager for Miller & Mohn's Black Crook Co., besides playing an important part in the cast. The acrobatic novelty done by the Five Donazzettis is better than ever.

Fentelle and Radcliffe, the tramp and the bell-boy, are in their twentieth week with the Rentz-Santley Burlesques. They will return to vaudeville at the close of their season.

The High School Girls Spent their Christmas at Grand Rapids, Mich., enjoying a banquet, and Christmas tree at the Billings Hotel.

The entire Trocadero Burlesque Co. were entertained at Scranton, Pa., to an elegant banquet Christmas Eve.

The members of the Liberty Belles Co. enjoyed a Christmas tree at Sioux City, Ia.

IT'S A SURE GO

Theatre Billposting
Co. in New York

Officers Elected and Operations Begun
—Will Do Theatre Posting Only at Present—May Take Commercial Work Later—Now Watch the Fur Fly—Philadelphia, Possibly.

New York, Jan. 6.—The Theatrical Manager's Billposting & Distributing Co. was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware last week with a capital of $100,000. This action was exclusively predicted by The Billboard several weeks ago, and is the result of a long series of preliminary meetings of the members of the New York Theatre Managers' Association at which the proposition was carefully investigated and the plans outlined.

The first purpose of the organization of this company was to prevent the possibility of an exorbitant advance in posting rates being made in New York by the combination of the New York and Van Beuren companies into one corporation. Eventually it is expected that the new company will bid for commercial work, but for the present the needs of the New York theatres will receive first attention. Locations are being secured, and boards will soon be built, so that many of the New York theatres will be posting on the boards of the new plant before long.

The stock of the new corporation is held exclusively by members of the New York Theatre Managers' Association. The officers are Alf. Hayman, manager of Knickerbocker Theatre, president; J. H. Springer, manager of Grand Opera House, vice-president; Henry B. Harris, manager of Hudson Theatre, secretary; Charles Burnham, manager of Wallack's Theatre, treasurer.

At this writing we are informed that final arrangements will be completed at the meeting of the Managers' Association to be held Jan. 10, and that the new company will begin business at once thereafter.

The most serious business that confronts the new company is the matter of locations. The Van Beuren-New York Co. will undoubtedly interpose a strong competition and the rental for space will soar to high figures. The theatre managers are fully able to cope with this contingency as tickets will frequently buy more space than many times the equivalent in real money. In any event there is sure to be a lively fight from now on.

IS PHILADELPHIA IN?

It has been intimated that the theatre managers of Philadelphia will join interests with the New York Managers' Association in the movement for independent plants. This report gains color on account of the recent move on the part of Sanford H. Robison in practically cutting loose from the Billposting Sign Co., of that city.

As first reported in The Billboard last week Mr. Robison has purchased the sign interests of the Billposting Sign Co. and the entire outdoor advertising plants in Camden and Atlantic City, N. J., and organized the S. H. Robison Co. with separate offices. Mr. Robison has always owned the plant at Atlantic City in toto, but was supposed to have but a half interest in the Billposting-Sign Co., holding the position of general manager. It is believed that with the organization of the new company it is the intention of Mr. Robison to sever all connection with the Billposting-Sign Co. which will leave that concern in the hands of the firm of Nixon & Zimmerman, theatre managers, who are the principal owners.

There is a close alliance between that firm and the dominating theatrical interests in New York, and it is just possible that they will unite in this independent billposting movement.

ALLIANCE NOTES

ST. LOUIS LOCAL NO. 5.

George L. Seymour, financial and corresponding secretary of the St. Louis Local No. 5, wishes to hear from the following members of that Local as soon as possible. Address him at 115 Chouteau avenue: H. Reitz, W. E. Baird, E. Blunck, C. A. Borwilek, J. Cavanagh, J. Diehl, F. Ester, J. Huson, H. Hunter, W. Hoskins, E. Lochr, J. LaBrard, H. Moeller, R. Piper, J. C. Robey, F. Rogers, R. Root, O. Stevens, J. Stahl, P. Stinson, T. F. Smith, C. Tisdell.

DENVER LOCAL NO. 6.

The fifth annual grand ball of Denver Local No. 6 was given Dec. 23, and proved a great success. Plans are now being made for a moonlight excursion and trolley ride.

Harry Cooper is off the sick list and working again at the Empire Theatre. George Crahan is with us again with his big and only Uncle Tom. Cliff Redfield has resumed work with the Curran Co., at Boulder after year's absence. He will endeavor to show them along the line that he hasn't forgot how to handle the brush. Brother Johnson of St. Joseph, and Brother G. Root of Local No. 4, are working with us. Everybody is working, and the following members are at these theatres: Tabor Grand, Brother Hall; Orpheum, Bro. Kennedy; Broadway, Ellis Gerson; Empire, Will Redfield; Alcazar, Edward Tappan; New Curtis, Bro. Henry; George Rhoades and E. N. Clark are at the Grand, Salt Lake City.

All members of Local No. 6 are requested to send their addresses to Secretary John W. Davis, Box 348, Denver, for information regarding the coming season.

ALBANY, TROY & COHOES LOCAL NO. 21.
At the last regular meeting of Local 21 officers were elected as follows for the ensuing year: Richard F. Mackey, president; T. Coplorn, vice-president; H. Johnson, secretary; P. Coyne, treasurer. President Mackey has the honor of being elected for the third term.

All road members are requested to send their addresses to the new secretary, H. Johnson, at 57 Hudson avenue, Albany, N. Y.

ALLIANCE NOTES.

Clarence Carey, secretary, calls our attention to the fact that Local No. 18 is at Dayton, Ohio, and not at Omaha, Neb., as was published in a recent issue.

Members of the Alliance are deeply interested in the independent billposting movement, especially in New York City, where they have had trouble with "Boss" Link.

DAUBS

James Doolon, of Dennison, Ohio, has designed a billboard for which he claims 15 to 45 per cent. more posting surface than the ordinary board in a given length of front extension. Mr. Doolon is a practical draphteman, and feels confident that his plan will be adopted by many billboard owners.

O. W. Baumgardner has purchased the interest of his brother C. E. Baumgardner in the plants of the Binton Billposting Co., of Bluffton and Montpelier, Ind., and will conduct the business under the old name.

Jim Curran dispensed Christmas gifts to his employees with lavish hand this season. Turkey boxes of cigars, real money, silk handkerchiefs and neckties were on the list of Santa Claus Curran.

W. T. Cameron, billposter and distributor at Troy, Ala., is now displaying paper for Mallard Whisky, Conagra Gum, Colgate Gum and Cottolene, and distributing for the Southern Mfg. Co.

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Atlantic City Billposting Co., at Camden, N. J. The capitalization is $100,000. Business is booming at that famous resort.

O. W. Johnson, of the Billposting-Sign Co., Philadelphia, was married on Dec. 30, and took an extended wedding trip westward.

Joe Griffith, of Austin, Tex., reports business increasing wonderfully. He will build a number of new boards.

EVERY KNOCK IS A BOOST FOR THE POLYSCOPE

It has stood the test for years, and has come to stay as being the only Perfect Motion Picture Machine and Stereopticon on the market. SILENCE AND STEADINESS are its strongest features. One-third more light than any other machine with the same amount of gas or electric current. Brilliant pictures and absolutely no flicker. The only machine that will absolutely reverse film without damage, and wind up film backward as well as forward.

1906 MODEL POLYSCOPE READY

Greatly Improved and Simplified. One-fourth the bulk and less than half the weight of any standard machine. Cut down your excess baggage and still have the best machine made. Price, Complete with all attachments, $100.

A FILM THAT WILL DRAW THE MONEY FOR YOU

THE GAY DECEIVERS

Fully Copyrighted, photographically perfect, a subject without an equal. DIFFERENT FROM ALL OTHERS IN PLOT. Length 775 feet. Price $30.00.

Don't Forget THE SERENADE

The Greatest Creation of Sensational Motion Picture Photography.

THE HOLD-UP OF THE LEADVILLE STAGE

A wonderfully realistic series of scenes and incidents actually made in Colorado, and following with exceedingly fine accuracy the true events that made Colorado famous. Length, 700 Feet. Send for Illustrated Circular.

STILL HEADLINES: Tracked by Bloodhounds, or A Lynching at Cripple Creek. Length, 450 feet. Price, $54.00. The Girls in the Overalls. Length, 350 feet. Price, $42.00. A Trip Through Samoa and Fiji Islands; only pictures ever taken of those wonderful Islands. Length, 600 ft. Price, $72.00.

Notice—These Films are all made by our New Process, giving perfect details and steady as a stereoscopic slide. Send for complete Catalogue and Circular of Films.

ROBBERS OF CHILDREN, 524 ft. $62.88

A Film Full of Comedy, showing children of the rich who have been stolen by Gypsies. Replete with action and life, and a Sure Hit.

TRAGEDY AT SEA. 393 Feet. $47.16

The tourists embark and the steamer leaves the harbor with everybody in merriment. Soon the heavy sea proves fatal to some of the excursionists and they enter their cabins thinking to find relief by laying down. Suddenly sailors appear and wake up the sleepers. The ship is afire and men and women have to leave the burning vessel by means of life-saving boats. For days the shipwrecked crew is at the mercy of the waves until they are rescued by life-savers.

THE TRAMP. Tinted. 360 ft. $43.20.

A beautiful subject, showing the generosity of a Clergyman in refusing to prosecute a tramp who has stolen from him after he had been given shelter for the night.

THE BICYCLE ROBBER. 360 ft. $43.20.

The best chase film ever made. A man seizes a bicycle and makes off, pursued by a nurse and baby carriage, billposter and ladder, pastry cook with basket, automobile, man on horseback, man leading a donkey, horse and carriage and twenty others. All chase throughout; full of life and action.

The following letter is self-explanatory:

DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICITY, BUREAU OF ELECTRICAL INSPECTION
CITY OF CHICAGO.

WM CARROLL, City Electrician.
GEO. D. BAYLE, Electrical Inspector.

KLEINE OPTICAL CO., 52 State St. Chicago, Ill.

CHICAGO, ILL., December 7, 1905.

Gentlemen - Referring to your letter of November 27th relative to new combination kineto c pe with various attachments and improvements, will say it meets my hearty approval, and I am very glad to see the numerous precautions to prevent fire that have been taken, as there is no combustible material in the make up of the apparatus. I think it is built on the right lines. Yours truly,

(Signed) GEO. D. BAYLE,
Chief Electrical Inspector.

Machine can be seen in New York City at 127-129 W. 32d St.

MOTION PICTURE FILMS.

Our plans for 1906 are comprehensive. We shall offer for sale as heretofore motion picture films of all makes that have merit, and recommend no films of any make that are not adapted to each customer's particular needs, and first quality. We shall also have exclusive films to sell for special purposes. Film users find it profitable to draw their subjects from a house of acknowledged standing. Exhibitors are invited to keep in touch with us for quick information regarding picture novelties.

Our line of lenses is more ample than ever. Pictures 8 feet in size at 80 feet distance, or 8 feet at 28, or other sizes at intermediate distances.

Write us about your lens troubles.
