LAW ENFORCEMENT

Attorney-General Tells Police Their Status

Must Execute Statutes, However Unpopular

"I find some of our most respectable citizens, with a question mark, patronizing boot-leggers, and yet they sit in the front pew of our churches," Attorney-General A. M. Manson told the Canadian chief constables in convention here this morning.

"Abiding by the law is infinitely preferable to law-breaking, and it is the duty of every good citizen and every officer of the law to see that the law is carried out."

"Sometimes people are prone to break the law because they think the law is not a good law."

Duty to Obey.

"It is your responsibility to see that the law is carried out as made. Democracy is not always perfect but the law is made by the people themselves, and it is our duty to obey. An imperfect law is enforced and soon enough popular opinion will demand a change, but there is no excuse for anyone undertaking to exercise his own individual discretion as to how the law should be carried out," said Mr. Manson.

Attorney-General Speaks.

"A lot of things depend on the spirit in which a man undertakes his task, and in law-enforcing organizations the esprit de corps is a very important factor," Mr. Manson said.

"Police forces heretofore have not been looked upon with the degree of respect and admiration to which they are entitled," the speaker said.

Mayor of Guelph.

"You have one of the finest representations of the Police Chiefs of Canada and as the Attorney-General of B. C. has just said, you are entitled to every respect and admiration," said Mayor Howard of Guelph, Ont.

"You are also entitled to the support of the Board of Police Commissioners and the Ontario system of appointing Police Commissioners is the best in Canada," the speaker said.

Mayor Howard made an inspiring address in which he appealed strongly for the observance of higher ideals. He made a great impression and was heartily received.

A paper by Police Magistrate W. E. Gunday, Windsor, was read by Inspector McKinney in Mr. Gunday's absence, the address dealing with court procedure and emphasizing the necessity of properly presenting evidence on prosecution.

Many Vicissitudes.

"Public opinion is notoriously unstable, and in recent years the police have probably suffered to a greater extent than any other institution, from the alternate favor and disfavor of the population. This applies to police forces generally throughout the world, said Chief Newton, Winnipeg, in explaining the development of police organizations and the many vicissitudes they have passed through since the beginning of such institutions.

Police were subjected to much jest and ridicule until the days of Sir Robert Peel, who in 1829 introduced a bill in the British House of Commons which became the cornerstone of the world's police system as it now stood, he said.

"No police organization is safe nor can it be efficient and work in the interests of the public if controlled in any manner by political strings. Efficient and honest policemen are necessary if the department is to fulfill its functions.

"We cannot guarantee the integrity of the police against the vicious influences of the law-enforceable laws, it is the way a Scotland Yard expert expressed himself," Chief Newton said.

SONS OF CANADA

CONVENTION HERE

Meeting Will Be Held Next Saturday

Fine Programme Has Been Arranged

The Grand Council of the Native Sons of Canada will meet in convention in Victoria on Canada's Natal Day, July 1, the meeting to be held in the Elk's Club during the morning.

The afternoon will be devoted to a combination of business and pleasure. A visit will be paid to Butchart's Gardens and an informal banquet will be held in the Dominion Hotel at 6.45 o'clock. In the evening the visitors will be treated to a theatre party.

Matters of considerable importance to Canadians will be discussed at the convention, and it is hoped that every member will be present at the meetings and take part in the programme. Members will be accompanied by their ladies. It is expected that there will be a large attendance at the banquet and other events planned.

A feature of the theatre party will be that special numbers appropriate to the occasion will be rendered. It is probable that there will be some community singing.

A meeting of the general executive will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in 209 Pemberton Buildings.

HEAD OF WORLD'S GREATEST RAILWAY DETECTIVE SERVICE

Mr. Chamberlain Represents the Canadian Pacific Railway Police at the Chief Constables' Association Convention, Now in Progress Here.

AMENDMENTS TO CODE DISCUSSED

Police Chiefs Assail Gambling and Vice

Effect of Sport Competitions on Public Welfare

The criminal aspect of immigration was dealt with by Chief Belanger, of Montreal, before the convention of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada this morning.

He said in part: "While I am not opposed to a healthy immigration, there should be restrictions that will insure Canada from being over-run by an industrial class, which makes law enforcement all the more difficult in times of stress or crises," stated the speaker.

Encourage Tourist.

"The genuine tourist should be encouraged in every way, and I would suggest that the convention appoint a committee to draw up suggestions for handling this class of business so that it can be carried on unhindered by any industrial class or the necessity of properly presenting evidence on prosecution."

Deportation.

"If a man has been here in Canada forty years, why should he not be deported if he commits a crime. If these people understand that if they do not obey our laws they can be sent back to their own country it will result in securing a better class of immigrants," said Inspector McKinney, Toronto.

Disorderly Houses.

Disorderly houses and methods of abolishing the evil was the topic of Inspector McKinney of Toronto.

Several measures were necessary if this evil was to be combated successfully, he said.

LABOR CONFERENCE IN FEDERAL CAPITAL

National Gathering Will Discuss Unemployment

Dominion and Provincial Delegates to Meet

Ottawa, June 29.—(Canadian Press)—Preliminary steps are being taken toward the calling of a conference of representatives of the Federal and Provincial Governments for discussion of the unemployment situation and other matters connected with labor through Canada.

Present indications are that the conference will be asked to deal with a number of problems besides the direct question of unemployment. Provision was made in the estimates conference in August or early in September next for the holding of such a conference.

The resolutions of the International Labor Conference, some of which come within the scope of Provincial jurisdiction and some of which are Federal, will be taken up, it is expected. Many of these are designed to bring about an improvement of working conditions and Canada is a party to the treaties under which the proposals were agreed to.

Will Correspond.

Before tentative dates are set and before any call is sent out for the conference, it is expected that there will be correspondence between the Federal and Provincial officials regarding the matters which the various Governments wish to have brought up. At this time the likely date of holding the meeting has not been discussed, but it is thought that if possible it will be called for the end of August or early in September in order that plans may be made to cope with the unemployment situation which may arise during the following winter months.

GURDIT SINGH SURRENDERS TO POLICE IN INDIA

Amritsar, India, June 29.—Gurdit Singh, the Hindu merchant who in 1914 was prevented from landing a shipload of Hindu emigrants from the Japanese steamship Komagata in British Columbia, surrendered to the police to-day after evading them for seven years. He will be tried on a charge of seditious principalship for the affair handled upon his orders in Calcutta in October, 1914.

FIRE HALL AND BUILDINGS BURNED IN ARMSTRONG

Armstrong, B.C., June 29.—This town's third fire within a month early this morning destroyed the new fire hall and a large section of Chinatown, and for a time threatened the Methodist church and several business blocks. Assistance in fighting the flames was rendered by the Vernon fire department.

The loss has not been determined.

ORDER ON FREIGHT RATES EXPECTED

Railway Board Probably Will Make Ruling To-morrow

General Cut of Ten Per cent. Mentioned

Ottawa, June 29.—(Canadian Press)—The coming into effect on July 7 of the Crow's Nest rates on eastbound wheat and flour will be preceded, it is expected, by a general order on freight rates other than wheat and flour by the Railway Commission. The crux of the matter lies in the fact that a heavy decrease in freight rates generally is due to come into effect on Saturday next unless the Railway Commission issues a further order.

This decrease, unless the Commission otherwise orders, will be 25 per cent. in the Eastern territory and 30 per cent. in the Western area. It represents the balance of the last big increase granted in September, 1920. Then, following the Chicago labor award, the Railway Commission granted an increase in freight rates of 40 per cent. in the East and 35 per cent. in the West. Of that increase, fifteen per cent. already has been taken off and as the order of September, 1920, expires on July 1, the remainder will lapse on Saturday, bringing into effect the heavy decrease indicated unless the Commission issues a further order.

Speculation.

What the Railway Commission will do is arousing the keenest speculation. The act which gave effect to the recommendations of the special Commons Committee on Transportation Costs gave effect to the Crow's Nest rates on wheat and flour east. With the rates on these commodities the Railway Commission cannot interfere. But the act did not fix rates on any other commodities and the Commission now has these in hand.

It is generally accepted here, although no official information is available, that an order will be issued by the Railway Commission to-morrow either suspending the decrease or modifying it.

Opinions Differ.

A general reduction of ten per cent. or so is suggested as a possible outcome from the coming order by the Railway Commission. On the other hand, an opinion is prevalent that Friday's order will not go as far as a ten per cent. reduction. The view is taken in some quarters that present rates in some directions may be increased.

Ottawa, June 29.—(Canadian Press)—Appointment of the commission to investigate the fisheries situation in British Columbia in regard to the canners' request for an embargo against exportation of raw fish, brought before the Commons Committee on Fisheries during the session, probably will be made during the next week or so. It is expected that the commission will be appointed in time to tour the British Columbia fisheries during August.

The commission is expected to consist of three Eastern members of Parliament and three or four Western members and probably will be under the chairmanship of William Duff, member for Lunenburg, N. S., who is chairman of the standing Committee on Fisheries. The committee at its final meeting brought in a recommendation asking the Minister of Marine and Fisheries to appoint some of its members as a royal commission to complete the investigation during the recess of Parliament.

Earlier advices from Seoul had reported the Japanese consulate at Chientao, a town in Manchuria just across the Korean border. Special dispatches from Seoul, Korea, report three Japanese killed at Chientao, and the hospital and thirty houses burned.

LABORERS REPORTED KILLED OR WOUNDED

Rumor Chinese Leader Assassinated Unconfirmed

Said to Have Been Wounded at Meeting

Manila, June 29.—Chen Chung Ming, whose recent coup d'état drove from Canton Sun Yat Sen, President of the South China Republic, has been assassinated, according to a cable received here to-day from Shanghai by a local Chinese daily newspaper identified with the supporters of Sun Yat Sen.

Reporter's News Agency fails to confirm the report.

Reported Wounded.

San Francisco, June 29.—"Young China," a Chinese language newspaper published here, announced to-day it had received from Hongkong a report that General Chen Chung Ming, the captor of Canton, had been shot and wounded seriously at a meeting with leaders of his own troops ten miles from Canton.

GERMAN MARK AT A NEW LOW LEVEL IN U. S.

New York, June 29.—German marks to-day fell to the lowest level in their history here, being quoted at a fraction under .027, or the equivalent of 460 marks for less than 27 cents. The normal value for the mark before the war was 23 1/2 cents.

LE CANADA, MONTREAL, SAYS LIBERALS HAVE NO SUCH PLAN

Montreal, June 29.—Le Canada, the official organ of French-Canadian Liberalism, says to-day in connection with rumors of a Liberal coalition with the Conservative Farmers' party.

"No attention should be paid to rumors, disseminated designedly by certain papers, that the Liberals at Ottawa are thinking of effecting a coalition. The Liberal Government, having sought at all points to administer affairs according to the general interest of the country, is not to those of a class, has encountered in turn the adhesion and the opposition of both the other parties. The idea of coalition is as superfluous as it is incorrect. The Liberal Party is strong enough to be successful whether in the Commons or before the people, if necessary. Rumors of a coalition are without foundation and nothing justifies them."

RAILROAD STRIKE INQUIRY IN U. S.

Labor Board Summons Workers and Managers

To Consider Causes of Threat For July 1

Chicago, June 29.—The United States Railroad Labor Board to-day cited the national officers of the six shop craft unions, the railway executives now meeting here, and the officers of four other railroad unions to appear before the board to-morrow afternoon at an inquiry into the "threatened interruption of traffic."

In addition to the shopmen, whose strike order already has been issued, the four other unions cited, now taking a strike vote, are clerks, maintenance of way men, stationary firemen and signalmen.

H. M. Jewell, leader of the shopmen, to-day served formal notice on the Railroad Labor Board that the strike call had been issued "on all railroads and Pullman sleeping compartments through the local lodges of six shop crafts."

Crossings Unguarded.

Chicago, June 29.—Railroad maintenance of way men were reported to have quit in West Chicago without waiting receipt of strike orders. It was said the men deserted in droves, leaving many crossings unguarded. Special Edward J. McCabe, of West Chicago, has sworn in a number of special policemen to guard railroad property.

Votes Counted.

Detroit, June 29.—Tabulation of the national strike vote taken by the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers in protest against a wage cut scheduled for July 1 continued here to-day.

Officials say the members are overwhelmingly in favor of a strike provided other unions join in.

Strike Orders.

Chicago, June 29.—Strike orders signed by the six craft presidents of the railroad shopmen's organization were sent out to-day to general chairman representing 400,000 men, authorizing a strike at 12 a. m. on July 1 on "all railroads and in Pullman shops in the United States."

New York's Supplies.

New York, June 29.—Railroad officials and public officers went ahead to-day with the preparation of "buy-up" traffic and necessary food supplies of Greater New York in the event the railroad shop repairmen and maintenance of way workers go out on their threatened strike next Saturday.

Confidence was expressed at the offices of the eleven railroads entering New York City that the strike would be moved and no food shortage would result for the metropolis because of the strike. Rail executives also said passenger schedules would not be interrupted.

Labor leaders estimated that more than 250,000 workers would be involved in Greater New York in a strike of the car repairmen, maintenance men and clerks.

Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, who was here yesterday with other members of the Cabinet inspecting possible new sites for a post office, said he did not think there would be a strike and that Washington did not feel alarmed over it.

JAPAN RATIFIES WORLD NAVAL PACT

Privy Council Asks Regent to Sign It

No Amendment of the Washington Treaty

Tokyo, June 29.—The Privy Council passed the naval treaty adopted at the London Conference and submitted it to-day to the Prince Regent for ratification.

The Council's approval included the clause restricting submarines.

Vicount Ito, reporting for the Council's investigating committee, said the committee found the ratio of ships apportioned to Japan disadvantageous to the empire and requested the Government to use greater care in the future.

The committee of the Privy Council, however, found that the Japanese delegates at Washington were not at fault in failing to make better terms. From a spirit of respect for the Washington Conference in its desire to maintain the world's peace, the committee recommended ratification without amendment.

DENIES FEDERAL COALITION RUMOR

Le Canada, Montreal, Says Liberals Have No Such Plan

Montreal, June 29.—Le Canada, the official organ of French-Canadian Liberalism, says to-day in connection with rumors of a Liberal coalition with the Conservative Farmers' party.

IRISH TROOPS FIND IT A HARD TASK TO OUST THE INSURGENTS

Fighting Continues in Four Courts Area of Dublin; Correspondent of London News Says Unexpected Difficulties Encountered.

London, June 29.—The Dublin correspondent of The Daily News, who seems to be in close touch with the Irish Free State leaders, telegraphed his paper at midnight that "unexpected difficulties have been encountered by the Government forces in their siege of the Four Courts Building."

"It is impossible," he added, "to forecast what the immediate developments will be, but the English public would be unwise to assume that Collins's determination to take the bull by the horns has been definitely successful."

London, June 29.—Fighting in the streets of Dublin is increasing in intensity, according to a Central News dispatch from the Irish capital at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Irregulars on the outskirts of the besieged Four Courts district are receiving reinforcements, the message says.

Three civilians were killed in today's fighting, bringing the total number of dead to nineteen.

Business houses, as well as banks, are closing, the dispatch says, and the newspapers have suspended publication. Irregulars occupied the offices of The Evening Herald for a time during the fighting to-day.

SEVENTEEN SOLDIERS REPORTED CAPTURED

Dublin, June 29.—The insurgent Irish forces captured seventeen troops of the Provisional Government in a battle at a public house in a report late this afternoon which could not be officially confirmed.

Fresh Attack Reported.

London, June 29.—An unconfirmed report was received here to-day that the Provisional Government had a fresh attack on a public house in a report late this afternoon which could not be officially confirmed.

BURST OF FIRING CAUSED A PANIC

Belfast, June 29.—At 11 a. m. today, says a message from Dublin, the inhabitants of Dame Street were thrown into a panic following an outbreak of firing from a building occupied by the insurgents.

The street was full of people, who made a wild rush for shelter.

It appears, says the message, that the fire was aimed at the Provisional Government troops who were guarding the Bank of Ireland, although they had withdrawn inside the building.

I. W. W. HAVE MINE IN DUBLIN STREET

London, June 29.—A Central News dispatch from Dublin to-day reports members of the I. W. W. in possession of some buildings in the city, including Meran's Hotel. They are all armed with revolvers and rifles and have an electric mine laid in the center of the road outside the hotel, the message declares.

A cable is visible running from the mine into the hotel, the correspondent says, the intention evidently being to ambush any Free State force that attempts to renew yesterday's attack.

Fresh Terms.

London, June 29.—Fresh terms were offered the insurgents in the Four Courts Building in Dublin to-day, says Dublin dispatch to The Evening News, but they refused to surrender, and after two hours' delay, firing was resumed. The early evacuation of the stronghold is expected, however, as the water and light have been cut off.

NEWS CENSORSHIP IN IRELAND NOW

London, June 29.—Owing to the vigorous censorship in Ireland, information reaching London to-day on the situation was rather scanty. Little is known what is happening outside the metropolitan area of Dublin, particularly in those districts such as Limerick, Tipperary, Cork and the western counties where the Republican wing of the army is strongest.

The Free State authorities are alive to the possibilities of trouble from these quarters as indicated by the drastic measures taken to prevent help from the outside reaching the Four Courts insurgents in Dublin.

AVIATOR SAW FIRES IN DUBLIN

London, June 29.—The late edition of The Times contains the report of the pilot of an aeroplane which the newspaper sent to Dublin yesterday, where it arrived about 5 p. m. The pilot says smoke was drifting from ten to fifteen miles to sea from the fires burning in the city, but that he could see little except empty streets and courts barricaded with sandbags.

About 8.30 o'clock he took off on the return, circling the city before starting for England. Dublin was still burning, he said, though how extensively he cannot pretend to measure.

TWO DUBLIN OFFICERS KILLED

Belfast, June 29.—Commandant Mandville and Staff Captain Vaughan of the Free State forces, who were shot yesterday, died of their wounds, says a message from Dublin this morning.

The officers were crossing the Lesson Street bridge when their motor car was fired on.

BATTLE STILL IN PROGRESS AT NOON

Dublin, June 29.—Rory O'Connor's command of insurgents of the "Irish Republican Army" was still holding out in its Four Courts stronghold at noon to-day against the continuing attempts of the Free State Government troops to dislodge it.

Firing was in progress all the forenoon and there was an especially heavy burst of fire at 11 o'clock.

Sniping operations were incessant, with the casualties, estimated this forenoon at more than fifty, hourly increasing.

The insurgents have extended their operations in other parts of the city. Shortly before noon an ambush of Free State troops was reported from College Green, and the irregulars were fortifying various outposts. A party of Free State forces on the outskirts of the city poured a volley into a public house in the vicinity of yesterday's ambush.

One of the outraging places seized by the irregulars was the Sackville Club, an old-fashioned aristocratic country gentlemen's club near the Nelson Pillar.

In addition to the various organized operations, the Free State troops and their sympathizers in several parts of the city, acting as insurgents, made many attacks on Free State soldiers.

Much Ammunition.

While the replies from O'Connor's men to the question, "Four Courts Building was feeble, the garrison, which is believed to number about 150, is said, however, to have unlimited supplies of ammunition and plenty of provisions.

NO PASSENGER TRAINS TO DUBLIN

The Free State Provisional Government has ordered that no passenger trains shall enter Dublin.

This seems to point to apprehension that the Free State garrison might be supplemented by the arrival of followers of his from the provinces, in some parts of which the Free State army has strong support.

The same apprehension seems evident in the manifesto issued to-day by Richard Mulcahy, Dail Minister of Defence, in which he makes an eloquent appeal to the army, explaining why it is asked to fight against its old comrades.

Public sentiment from all indications is virtually unanimous in support of the Government's action.

The most menacing feature of the situation from the Provisional Government standpoint is the fact that the insurgents are developing activities along guerrilla lines, particularly in the form of ambushes.

Wires Cut.

Telegraphic communication between Dublin and the North and West of Ireland practically at a standstill. A number of wires between Dublin and London were cut last night near Powell.

The Free State authorities are alive to the possibilities of trouble from these quarters as indicated by the drastic measures taken to prevent help from the outside reaching the Four Courts insurgents in Dublin.

CLASHES IN SEVERAL PARTS OF COUNTRY

In other parts of the country the Provisional Government also has military affairs on its hands. In Drogheda the insurgents, who are occupying the Round Tower Fort on the hill commanding the town, have been invested by Free State troops in the same way as at the Four Courts in Dublin. The Drogheda position of the irregulars is regarded as strong.

From other parts of Ireland there are many rumors of insurgent action, but the reports are difficult of confirmation because of Dublin's almost complete isolation.

Both sides have been active in the insurance of manifestos three statements.

OTTAWA APPROVES LARKIN'S SERVICES

Recommendations of Commissioner in London Adopted

London, June 29 (Canadian Press Cable)—Two leading London newspapers, on receiving a Montreal cable suggesting the retirement of Hon. P. C. Larkin from the post of Canadian High Commissioner in London, consulted Mr. Larkin and received an answer emphatic enough to cause them to refrain from publishing the story. Two other papers, however, published the story without asking the chief man concerned as to its accuracy. Mr. Larkin told the Canadian Press yesterday that the report was made absolutely out of whole cloth in Ottawa. One reason given in the Montreal cable was that the High Commissioner was out of sympathy with the Canadian Government's immigration policy. "The fact is," Mr. Larkin told the Canadian Press, "the Government so far has acted on every suggestion I have submitted to it."

IMPROVED METHODS URGED FOR FARMS

More Education Needed in Canada, Says D. Marshall

Woodstock, Ont., June 29.—Asserting that only by the application of the most up-to-date scientific methods of agriculture would Canada be able to hold her own with the countries of Europe when they returned to greater crop production, Duncan Marshall, formerly Minister of Agriculture of Alberta, and now Federal Commissioner of Agriculture, speaking here yesterday afternoon, made a strong plea for a more comprehensive and extensive system in agriculture. Mr. Marshall urged a closer spirit of unity between the people of the city and the country, and went on to deal with the subject of agricultural education, which, he said, was much neglected by all Governments. He spoke of the rapid growth of Belgium as an agricultural country, and said this was due to the fact that the boys and girls in schools were taught to have a proper understanding of the value of agriculture. Mr. Marshall explained what had been done in the agricultural college in Alberta and said he hoped the day was not far distant when agricultural education in Canada would be placed on the same plane as higher education for the professions.

ECONOMY NEEDED IN NEW ZEALAND

Steps Already Taken Must Be Extended, Parliament Is Told

London, June 29.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The New Zealand Parliament re-assembled yesterday, says a Reuter dispatch from Wellington. In a speech from the Throne, Governor-General Lord Jellicoe said that notwithstanding the rigid economies effected, much more had to be done in order to maintain the desired balance in the Dominion's finances. The greater portion of the recent loan, he said, was needed to expedite land settlement and provide new facilities for international transportation. The Control Act, he said, had effected a reduction of the cost of marketing. The Governor-General forecast legislation providing for the establishment of agricultural banks.

PLANS MADE BY EASTERN FARMERS

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 29.—Endorsation of the platform of the Progressive Party and a decision to place candidates in the field in the next provincial general election marked the annual meeting here yesterday of the United Farmers of Prince Edward Island. S., June 29.—The convention of the Nova Scotia Farmers of Nova Scotia yesterday appointed a committee of five to examine into possible methods of co-operative buying by farmers of the province. County organizers were also appointed. The convention, which opened Tuesday, finished its sessions last night.

TO CHANGE LABOR

BODY'S RULES

International Labor Organization to Meet in Geneva

Ottawa, June 29.—(Canadian Press)—The fourth session of the International Labor Organization (League of Nations), of which Canada is a member, will open at Geneva on October 15. The agenda as settled by the Governing Body is as follows: 1. Revision of Part XIII. of the Treaty of Versailles and the corresponding parts of the other treaties of peace.

(a) With a view to the reform of the constitution of the governing body of the International Labor Office.

(b) With a view to the modification as regards the periodicity of the sessions of the conference. 2. Communication to the International Labor Office of statistical and other information regarding emigration and immigration and the repatriation and transport of emigrants. In communicating this agenda to the Governments that are members of the International Labor Organization, Albert Thomas, the Director of the International Labor Office, explained the circumstances under which it was adopted by the Governing Body. It was decided to include the second item, regarding emigration, in order to give effect to a resolution adopted by the International Emigration Commission last August and laid before the conference at its last session. It was considered inadvisable to attempt to deal, without further preparation, with all the complex and delicate questions on which resolutions were adopted by that commission, but the Governing Body was of the opinion that the question of the communication by the Governments of statistical and other information relating to emigration might be usefully considered by a conference as a preliminary to the consideration at a later date of their emigration problems.

CASE WITHOUT PRECEDENT IN QUEBEC PROVINCE

Montreal, June 29.—A case without precedent in the jurisprudence of the Province of Quebec was decided by Mr. Justice Archibald, Acting Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, here yesterday. The case arose over the right of an illegitimate child who had established his paternity to the use of his father's name. Mr. Justice Archibald decided that Quebec law on this subject was the same as the law of France under the Code Napoleon.

He declared in favor of conferring upon the child the right to be baptized in the name of his father, and thereafter to bear his name, and ordered that a declaration of record be entered in consequence.

AN IMPORTANT BODY.

We are informed that nine-tenths of the recommendations of the Chief Constables Association of Canada for the improvement and more effective enforcement of our laws are adopted by the Dominion and Provincial Governments to whom they are made.

CANADA'S FIRE LOSSES.

It is fairly safe to assume that the average individual would never dream that Canada's loss through fire in the year 1921 amounted to no less a sum than $45,000,000 and exceeded that of any previous year in the history of the country.

Worked out on a per capita basis this enormous sum represents $11.25 per head and constitutes a tax of $50 per annum upon the average family.

COLLINS'S OPPORTUNITY.

The Government of the Irish Free State, assured by the recent election of the support of a large majority of the people, clearly intends to use all the force at its command in destroying the violent resistance of the republican element.

has no other recourse if the will of the electors as just expressed is to be put into effect, and the actions of the gang who have fortified themselves in the Four Courts Building in Dublin afford Mr. Collins and his supporters an excellent opportunity of showing that they mean business.

HE KNEW.

In one of his recent letters from Germany Lord Northcliffe wrote that many eminent Germans still believed that the High Seas Fleet won the Battle of Jutland.

RECORD RYE.

To the Editor.—In your Friday issue I notice where a man in Lethbridge states he has rye 75 inches tall, thereby claiming the tallest rye grown in Canada.

A QUESTION OF LOYALTY.

To the Editor.—With reference to your issue of the 24th inst. I do not know the publisher of the paper "Canada," from which you quote, but whoever was responsible for the "unfortunate" word, lamentably, any sense of humor, in most places they would have selected the excerpt for the humorous column.

CANCER.

To the Editor.—Many years ago it was generally recognized by the medical profession that "cancer" is a highly hunting ground of the quack.

GOLD DIGGERS.

Placer mining on the bed of the Upper Fraser River has taken on new significance since experienced prospectors have begun to don diving suits in their quest for the precious metal.

themselves with the supposition that it might take a little more than twelve months to fill John Bull's till by the process suggested.

Other People's Views

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion.

THE HEALTH CENTRE.

To the Editor.—As a resident of Ward 2 I have been interested in the letters in The Daily Times regarding the Saanich Health Centre.

It was time that the ratepayers got to know a little about this matter, and I am glad that we have at least one or two councillors who are willing to open the open and enlighten the people.

THE MAYOR CORRECTS.

To the Editor.—I noticed in your issue of June 27 last signed by A. T. Purry, secretary of the Victoria and District Unemployed Council, in which he comments upon a statement made at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council on June 21, that "the city has given two weeks holiday with pay to men who have been working on Johnson Street bridge one year, and that some of these men on vacation have been found working on other jobs."

AMENDMENTS TO CODE DISCUSSED.

(Continued from page 1.) cessfully, he said. The inmates of such houses were too busy engaged in honest labor, yet they wished to have the finest things to use and wear, the speaker said.

pite abundant disappointments these mysteries will yet be solved.

There is an ever-increasing number of thoughtful persons and here I refer specially to medical men, who look with doubt and concern at the present day laboratory methods as hindering true progress and "inducing darkness where formerly there was light."

A well-known student of cancer lays much stress on the wear and tear of modern "civilization" and may be a partial consideration to food, drink and other suggested causes.

Evidence before the last Royal Commission brought forth the wise suggestion that a change in modern laboratory methods would be accomplished by great developments in art of healing and that higher and better methods of cancer therapy are present-day cancer medication.

An excellent supper was served in the evening under the capable hands of an energetic committee. Singing contests followed the supper and this event proved the feature one of the day, everyone joining heartily in the competition. The teams consisted of five competitors, and there were five teams. ST. VITUS DANCE

A Nervous Disease Due to An Impoverished Condition of the Blood.

Is your child fidgety, restless or irritable? Are the hands shaky or the arms jerky? Does the face twitch? Do the legs tremble or drag? These are signs of St. Vitus Dance, a nervous disease due to an impoverished condition of the blood. The trouble is confined chiefly to young children, but often affects highly-strung women and sometimes men. The only relief is to enrich the blood, thus enabling it to carry sufficient nourishment to the nerves. For this purpose the very best tonic known is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which promptly enrich the blood and give new strength and tone to the nerves. Mothers whose children are affected with this trouble will be interested in the statement of Mrs. Jacklin, of Chatham, Ont., who tells what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for her young daughter, afflicted with this trouble. Mrs. Jacklin says: "My daughter, Edna, 13 years old, had such a severe attack of St. Vitus dance that she could not feed or dress herself. We did everything for her, and on the doctor's advice took her from school and sent her to the country for three months, but without results. At this stage I read of a similar case in which beneficial results followed the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try this medicine. Very soon she seemed to benefit by this treatment and by the time she had taken eight boxes the trouble had entirely disappeared and she was as well and active as she had ever been. I can therefore strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of St. Vitus Dance." You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

INSTALMENT No. 29

I thought I had suffered everything it was possible to suffer before that night, and yet the pain I had had to bear when Mark sent me away before seemed as nothing compared with the humiliation of the fact that once again I had offered myself to him and been politely refused. "A lie which is half the truth." What had he meant by those words? Some sort of defense, I suppose, and yet what defense was possible?

He had thought less of me than he had done of his farm! Lying awake in the night, my soul writhed at the bitterness of that knowledge.

Why did I love him? He was not worth loving! I wished he would die, so that never again could I run the risk of meeting him; the memory of his eyes haunted me, and the little break in his voice when he said before Lionel came, "You look at me as if—as if—you love me..."

He had asked as if he was glad, and yet... Oh, he was all lies—all lies. I told myself fiercely; no doubt he had heard of the money Aunt Allison had left me, and considered it worth while to try and win me back again.

He would have sold me for money. I was as little as that to him... When at last I fell asleep it was only to wake sobbing with the unbelievable hurt of it all.

Winnie questioned me curiously in the morning. Why had I left so early the night before? "Because my head ached," I answered snappily. "And enough to make anyone's head ache—all that silly music."

She smiled slyly. "I thought perhaps there had been a row," she said. "I know that Lionel was scowling all through dinner because you had been taken in by Mr. Anderson. I quite thought there had been a row when I found you'd all three gone."

"You thought wrong, then," I said, "and I wish you'd mind your own business."

I went to the window and looked out into the street. I wished Lionel would come. He had promised to be round early and take me out. I wished our wedding day could be hurried on sooner. Never until I was safely married could I hope to forget my humiliation.

"I do love you—I have always loved you," I had said that to Mark. My cheeks burned at the bitter memory. I did not come until nearly lunch time.

"I am sorry, dear; I was unavoidably detained," he said when I questioned him fretfully. He avoided my eyes, and I said swiftly: "What's the matter? What has happened?"

"Nothing," Sheltor wanted to see me, that's all. "You mean—about... me?" I could not go on.

"Yes..." He spoke shortly, and I insisted breathlessly. "Tell me, please—you may speak of him just this once only—your money..." He was at Sheltor's office... There was a bit of a scene of course. Lionel tried to draw me to him, but I refused.

"Yes—please tell me, please go on!" I said, my face pale. "But—his money—his life ruined by me than made by your charity."

I could not speak, and he went on: "But—his ended and done with. Sally, he's gone out of our lives. We will forget him."

"I laughed. "Yes—we will forget him," I said, but I knew in my heart that I should never be able to do that.

"The days dragged on, until it wanted but four to my wedding day. "You look like a ghost," mother said one morning when we had been to the dressmaker's, "and if you go on getting any thinner, Sally, nothing will fit you at all."

I had got thin. Lionel's ring was always slipping off my finger, and I had wound some thread round it because I was afraid of losing it.

"I wish the wedding was over and done with," I said. "I wish I was safely married and on the way; it was the truth. I longed to start a fresh life and put the past behind me forever."

Lionel had arranged everything with Mr. Sheltor, and I had had nothing to do with the disposal of my luckless money.

I never heard anything about Mark Anderson, and never asked. And then one afternoon there came a letter from Mrs. Alberry.

"DEAR MISS SALLY—This is just hoping you are well, as we are; leastways, Alberry has rheumatism, and one of the dogs is lame with a thorn in his foot. The weather is beautiful, and we are hoping, as you before long, as you promised. There is no news except that Mr. Anderson's farm was sold last week, and he is leaving England very soon, there being nothing to keep him here now, he says. I dare say you saw in the paper that Miss Nina died—it was pneumonia, and she was only twenty to her funeral, poor young lady! Her mother is broken-hearted..."

Nina dead!... I could not believe it. She was so young—hardly any older than I was.

I felt incredibly shocked, and yet—oh, why was I so pitifully weak!—I fell down in my own heart was a fierce feeling of thankfulness because now Mark Anderson could never belong to her.

It was the morning after that letter came that I was standing in front of the long mirrors in Madame Rosetta's fitting-room, trying on my wedding dress for the last time, when, quite suddenly—for I had not consciously been thinking of him—the face of Mark Anderson floated before my mind.

Madame Rosetta was walking round me, with little exclamations of pride and delight, and mother was sitting watching with a sort of self-satisfied air all mothers wear. I suppose, when they are about to get rid of an unwanted daughter by means of a wealthy marriage, when it seemed as if someone drew back a shutter before my eyes and showed me the picture of Mark's face as it had looked at our last dreadful meeting.

I am not a bit superstitious. I don't believe in ghosts.

MENNEN BORATED TALCUM POWDER
Safest for YOUR Baby

Has soothed MILLIONS OF chafed little legs and baby bodies since Mr. Mennen introduced it over 40 years ago.

don't believe in spiritualism or anything like that, but just for an instant my heart seemed to stand still before it went racing on again. Had something happened to him?

I know that my color faded, and Madame Rosetta must have noticed it, for she asked me suddenly if I felt faint with standing for so long, and glad of the excuse, I said: "Yes, just a little."

They unfastened my wedding dress and took it away, and I sat down trembling.

"Is the frock finished?" mother asked. She was far more concerned about that than she was about me, and Madame Rosetta shook her head as she answered:

"Not quite. It would not be lucky for mademoiselle if we tried it on quite finished." She smiled at me, but I hardly heard what she said. There was a dreadful feeling round my heart which I could not shake off.

Why should I imagine that anything had happened to Mark? And even supposing it had, what concern was it of mine?

I used every effort to put him from my thoughts as I dressed and left the house with mother, but I felt so unnerved that I was thankful we had not got to walk, and as soon as we reached home I went straight up to my room and sat down on the bed, leaning my head against the brass railing.

"Was I going to be ill, I wondered? And for an instant I almost hoped that I might, for it was but two days before the wedding, and I had thought of marriage with Lionel Champion as I had never dreaded anything on earth.

He was thinking of himself, and he loved me, but what was that when I cared no more for him than I did for any friend?

I sat there, with my eyes shut, and my throbbing head resting on the cool bed-rail, almost praying that I might have managed to catch some serious illness, which would indefinitely postpone my wedding day.

I tried to think of everything under the sun but Mark Anderson as I sat there, but there seemed nothing in the world to think of. And against my will I found myself going back to that last dreadful scene at the dressmaker's, remembering every word of his which had sworn to forget—every look.

And there was one sentence which came to my mind again and again, and the words were dismissed: "A lie which is half the truth..."

He had said that in a half-mocking, half-broken voice, until this moment it had not seemed to convey anything special to me.

"A lie which is half the truth..." It seemed to beat like wings against my heart, refusing to go away, and in sheer desperation I found myself repeating the whole verse from which I knew the line was taken and trying to extract some explanation from it.

"And the parson made it his text that day, and he said likewise: 'That a lie which is half the truth is ever the blackest of lies—That a lie which is all a lie may be met and fought with outright, but a lie which is half the truth is a harder matter to fight.'"

I had read it somewhere in a book when I was quite a little girl and had copied it out and left it on my sister's dressing-table when once she had been telling tales of me, that had not been all true or fair, to my mother.

A lie which is half the truth'... Perhaps it was only because I was still sufficiently foolish to want to find some excuse for Mark that I let the words haunt me. If it was not true that he had been willing to give me up in exchange for money with which to free his farm, why had he not honestly said so at once, and for that denial—begged him for it—and I felt my cheeks burn with the renewed shame of that humiliation which I knew I should never quite forget.

And then from the back of my mind, a voice seemed to speak into the silence argumentatively: "Well, he didn't pay the mortgage off, anyway, did he?"

"Bang!" went the Comet. Bright Star did not know just what had happened, but it was all dark for a minute, and then it whirled off and down.

"You poor little Star," said Neptune. "Don't you know you are at the bottom of the Ocean and you can never return to the Sky where you came from? There, there, don't cry; you shall be any kind of a fish you choose to be."

Bright Star had begun to cry, but it stopped when Father Neptune promised it should choose its form. "I am a Star," it said. "I guess I will be a Star Fish, if you please."

"Very well, you shall," replied Neptune, and he waved his three-pronged scepter over Bright Star.

a kindly voice that Bright Star forgot its fright.

"I am a star and I wanted to see what was down here on the Earth," it replied, "so I came along with Mr. Comet. I guess I'll go home now."

"You poor little Star," said Neptune. "Don't you know you are at the bottom of the Ocean and you can never return to the Sky where you came from? There, there, don't cry; you shall be any kind of a fish you choose to be."

BARNESON'S TASTE IN SAIL YACHTS ARE NOW LESS EXPENSIVE

Oil Capitalist Who Got Rid of Invader Has Purchased Westward at $6,000

When Capt. John Barneson, prominent San Francisco capitalist and oil magnate, owned the yacht Invader, rated as the largest and finest pleasure craft of her rig on the Pacific seaboard, he came to the realization that she was costing too much to operate, even for a multi-millionaire, and sold her out of the Barneson service.

Incidents like firing a salute from the miniature "cannon" located on the after deck at sundown and the running down of the flag, were classed among incidents of a cruise, but cost money when the crew hauled down "doubt time" in carrying out this time-honored custom.

The invader was in Victoria with her former owner several seasons ago and she attracted widespread attention when "moored" alongside the G. T. P. docks in the Inner Harbor.

Capt. Barneson's sea requirements are now less expensive. He has just purchased the yacht Westward from the estate of the late John R. Hanify, of San Francisco. It is reported that Capt. Barneson paid less than $5,000 for the Westward.

The Westward was designed by Gardner, of New York, and was built by W. F. Stone & Sons, at Oakland, Cal.

She is best known for the races she won at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

SEATTLE EXPORT OF FLOUR IN 11 MONTHS WAS 872,000 BARRELS

Seattle, June 29.—Approximately 872,000 barrels of flour were exported from Puget Sound during the eleven months ended May 31, the Merchants' exchange department of the Chamber of Commerce reported today.

China took 281,939 barrels, Europe 146,818, Japan 141,430, the Philippines 110,377, Central and Southern America 47,874 and the Hawaiian Islands 42,785.

More than 35,000 cases of canned salmon were shipped from Seattle to the Atlantic Coast last month. The shipments of copper bars from the Tacoma smelter during May aggregated 2,900,000 pounds to the Atlantic coast and 2,238,336 to Europe.

The Pacific Steamship Company's Southwestern Alaska three-ship fleet will arrive to-day with 164 cabin passengers, many of them early excursionists to the North. She will also bring a quantity of fresh fish or her last inward voyage from the coast and the vicinity of Ketchikan.

Owing to a curtailment of personnel in the hydrographic service the radio compass stations at Smith Island, Cattle Point and Dungeness in Puget Sound have been placed on the inactive list, according to notices by Lieut. Commander Paul H. Rive of the United States hydrographic office here.

This will not mean abandonment of the stations, but arrangements have been made for their operation during heavy fogs and adverse weather, he said.

Vancouver Crowds Marvelled at Appointments of S.S. Empress of Canada

Vancouver, June 28.—Five thousand people visited the new liner Empress of Canada on Tuesday afternoon, and an even greater number looked over the ship yesterday.

The visitors included inlanders who had never seen a great ship before, to men and women who were well acquainted with the finest passenger liners of the world. All were impressed with the roomy spaces, sumptuous finishing and elaborate conveniences provided for passengers on the vessel.

The corridors and promenade decks, the richly furnished cabins and suites, the great rotundas, the restful lounge and the card rooms all met favorable comparison. SIXTEEN MAMMALS TAKEN AT KYUQUOT

SS. Princess Maquinna Brings Report of Season's Whaling Operations

Sixteen whales have been harpooned by the two steam whalers of the Consolidated Whaling Corporation stationed at Kyuquot since the commencement of the season at the end of May, according to word brought here by the C.P.R. steamer Princess Maquinna, which yesterday afternoon was back in port from her trip to Rivers Inlet via the West Coast of Vancouver Island. When the Princess Maquinna was at Kyuquot the whaler-trip returned to the station for repairs. Although the whaling season started very late this year the officials at the West Coast plant are confident of a successful year, as the mammals appear to be plentiful.

Indian Recruits

A large number of round trip tourists made the cruise to Rivers Inlet by the Princess Maquinna and had a very enjoyable time. Two hundred Indians and their Kiootchemen were picked up at various points along the West Coast and taken to Rivers Inlet of a strike among the European and Indian salmon fishermen, who are making a strike. The price paid by the cannerymen is 30c per fish, but the fishermen are now demanding 45c per fish. A squad of Provincial police have been sent to Rivers Inlet in case of trouble.

WORK OF HYDROGRAPHIC SURVEY APPRECIATED

Vancouver, June 29.—The towboat Cape Scott, Captain Lewis, is in port and reports a successful voyage from Queen Charlotte Islands to Powell River with two Davis rafts totaling 2,500,000 feet. This boat is owned by B. L. Johnson, Walton and Company. The success of the tow, and the speed in which it was carried out, work largely to the work of the Government hydrographers on the steamer Lillooet are doing. They have surveyed and charted Griffith Harbor, Banks Island, and thus enabled the towboats to enter in safety.

The Cape Scott brought one Davis raft across the sound from the island anchored at Griffith Harbor and went back for the second. The big towboat averaged twenty-eight miles a day with the two rafts, making the trip in fourteen days. Griffith Harbor is named after the captain of the Lillooet. Captain Lewis declared that Coast Hydrographer Faris was doing splendid work in the north and was putting Hecate Straits on the map as a comfortable area from a navigator's point of view.

You know our standard prices are very reasonable, now come in and see what real wallpaper sale prices are. Make this a time to stock up for those rooms which need re-doing—and to paperhangers we say, this is a good time to lay in a few of these regular used patterns at prices which will net you a neat profit.

A Word About Our Quality Paints

From time to time our advertising tells you of the qualities of Bapco Paints and other brands which we sell. Our windows display these paints and we back them up, though each job is sufficient guarantee in itself. Joint Actions Dismissed—The similar actions of Boyd and others versus the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway and the Cowichan Lumber Company versus the same defendants, were dismissed in a judgment handed down by Mr. Justice McDonald yesterday. The claims were for interest on land appropriation awards of Cowichan lake land. The judgment holds that during the date named the defendant company was in the position of a trespasser and not purchaser, and that interest could not be claimed in respect of the occupancy. A. F. Laxton, K.C., appeared for the plaintiffs and R. W. Hannington for the defendant company.

DAUGHTERS OF PITY BUSY FOR HOSPITAL

On Monday evening the Daughters of Pity held their last meeting before the holidays at the home of Miss Collier, when a successful handkerchief shower was held in aid of the Fall sale, the proceeds of which will purchase warm winter clothing for the orphanage children.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to Dr. Boak for his kindness in promising to attend all cases referred to him by the child welfare committee. At present two little sufferers are being treated in the children's ward of the Jubilee Hospital, the society paying all expenses.

It is the society's intention to assist others as they are reported by the school nurse, Miss Herbert. All cases will, of course, be sent to the Jubilee Hospital.

A library will shortly be placed in the children's ward. Miss Thain and Miss Taylor will arrange the purchase of books and shelves. It was also decided to remove the brass memorial plates from the walls and affix them to each dedicated cot.

Members of the society will attend the annual meeting of the board of hospital directors on Friday.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY
 Victoria Daily Times, June 29, 1897.

Ottawa, June 29.—Both houses of parliament have finished all but routine business, and prorogation will take place to-morrow. The Senate Committee met to-day, and appointed Senator Miller chairman. A few minutes after Sir Mackenzie Bowell announced in the House on the first reading of the supply bill that the investigation would be postponed until the next session when there would be a full inquiry.

Topeka, Kansas, June 29.—The worst hailstorm in the history of Kansas struck this city last night. Hailstones weighing twelve to sixteen ounces stripped the trees of their foliage, smashed windows, cut down telegraph and telephone wires, riddled awnings, inflicted unprecedented damage throughout the city. Dogs struck in the streets were instantly killed, while horses were knocked to their knees with the force.

The navy was given a ball at the Assembly Hall last night. The affair proved a huge success. The hall was beautifully decorated and a large attendance showed their appreciation of the event. The Fifth Regiment Band provided the music for the evening.

PROPOSES USE FOR RACE MONEY

Pari-mutuel Takings to Create Pension Fund

Alderman Andros Makes Novel Suggestion

Claiming that $50,000 of the proceeds of the pari-mutuel taking at the races to be conducted at the Willows should be earmarked as a nucleus for a civic employees' pension fund, and taking exception to Mayor Marchant's reported attitude in which he is alleged to have stated that the racing question should at least be reconsidered to secure the city some "better recompense," Alderman Andros, who returned to the city this morning from his country home, declared that he would bring a resolution before the City Council to give his proposal effect.

In making this announcement this morning, Alderman Andros stated as follows: "I was under the impression that the Mayor's objection to racing was a conscientious one, but this, I should gather from the report appearing in last night's issue of The Times, is not the case.

"He has evidently overlooked the fact that in any event we save $5,000, which is no small amount in these times of financial stress, which grant the Agricultural Association will forego, and the city's share of the commissions paid by the pari-mutuel will amount to at least $50,000."

"For some time past it has been realized by aldermen and civic employees alike that there should be a pension fund established for the employees of the city, firemen, police and others, and I intend, when we receive our share of the pari-mutuel money to move that the sum of $50,000 of the city's share be set aside as a nucleus for the civic employees' pension fund. Surely even the Mayor could not find a better use for the money," concluded Alderman Andros.

AMERICAN MASTER ALLOWED FREEDOM

Three Charges Pending Against A. Jensen Have Been Withdrawn

Three charges preferred against A. Jensen, master of the American fishing schooner Clarion, were withdrawn in the Provincial Police Court here to-day by the Dominion Fishery Department prosecuting in the matter. On a first charge some weeks ago Jensen was heard and convicted, being fined $500 and costs for the purchase of fish in an unlicensed boat within the territorial waters of the Dominion. The remaining three charges, withdrawn to-day, accused Jensen of failing to stop when called on in the name of the King, attempting to evade the revenue regulations by bringing dutiable matter into the country, and failure to pay duty on specific articles, mainly gasoline and oil.

The Clarion was seized by the Fishery Protection Cruiser Thielap on April 15 off Kyquagot Sound on the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

"TO A FINISH" IS COLUMBIA OFFERING

Buck Jones Stars There for Balance of Week

Another emphatic hit has been scored by Buck Jones, who opened an engagement at the Columbia Theatre to-day in the Fox production "To a Finish." No star in photography of the cowboy order has been more consistently successful than Buck Jones; and no star in any line of screen work has advanced more rapidly—by his experience as a star covers a period not exceeding eighteen months.

ROYAL VICTORIA

DOMINION

A gigantic steel railroad bridge swaying and trembling against the mighty pressure of a river of ice. Two men, a man and a woman out on the tottering span, working desperately to save the structure, while hundreds of awe-struck men stand watching from the shore, is the breathless climax of the new Rex Beach production, "The Iron Trail," that has its premier at the Dominion Theatre this week.

These scenes actually taken in Alaska show the dynamiting of a real railroad bridge to relieve the pressure of millions of tons of ice breaking up in the Spring thaw, and the mighty rush of the ice flows, as they break through the destroyed bridge and hurt themselves against the concrete foundations of the big steel bridge, that sways as Wyndham Standing as "Eliza Appletton" work on its driving rivets to strengthen it against the force of the frozen flood.

Supporting Miss Janis, who is the leader of the entertainment, will be seen Jurian Thayer, Gus Shy, Bradley Knocks, Monk Watson, Herbert Coffe, Duane Nelson, W. Dornfeld, Lane McLeod, Red Murdoch, Francis Miller, Lewis Reid, James F. Nash, Ian Walker, Chester Grady, Eliza Appletton, Morgan Hayes, Maude Drury, Elva Magnus, Margaret Sousa and the Eight Bobs—Eleanor Ladd, Asta Valle, Aide St. Clair, Florence Courtney, Patricia Meyer, Buddy Merriam, Claire Daniels and Paulette Winston.

CAPITOL

"The horses' comfort first."
This axiom among horsemen received special exemplification during the three weeks spent by the Jack Holt-Bebe Daniels company making scenes for "North of the Rio Grande," a Paramount picture screened in the Arizona cow country, which will be shown at the Capitol Theatre all week. A special tent was fixed up for the use of Jack Holt, but he used it only as a dressing room, moving his cot down to the horse tent. For among the equines are two of his own, "Robin Hood," champion jumper, and "Cannonball," an ordinary occasions Mr. Holt is willing to trust to others, but when it comes to his own horses he must be personally sure of the care they are getting. And the horses got it as the picture proves.

ELSIE JANIS IS COMING NEXT WEEK

Miss Elsie Janis, popular comedienne, after an absence of two seasons, during which she appeared at the head of her own companies in London and then in Paris, where she played in the French language, will be seen at the Royal Victoria Theatre, July 5 and 6. Miss Janis will again be accompanied by her "gang" of entertainers, many of whom are memorable—extraordinary entertainment service for the Allied troops. The vehicle she brings to this city is styled "Elsie Janis and Her Gang in a New Show." It is the same gang, but show.

Elsie Janis, Who Brings Latest Musical Revue to the Royal Next Week, With Her Chorus they come with a complete assortment of "new stuff."

"Fortune's Mask," recently completed Vitaphone feature, starring Earle Williams, is one of the most colorful of pictures. In an early scene Dicky Malone—played by Earle Williams, looking strangely unfamiliar in a blonde wig—rides into the Central American city of Corralito, where he comes off and he turns out to be the most unexpected person in the world.

Richard Walton Tully has practically completed the cast to support Guy Bates Post in Tully's own ten-act stage play, "Omar, the Tent-maker." For the important parts of Omar, the Masquerader, just completed—and which marked the double debut into the picture field of both Tully and Post—the cast may in all truth be called an all-star one, worthy both of Post's consummate art and Tully's glowing scenario. Post, of course, will essay the lovable, farcical part of Rubaiyat fame, Omar Khayyam, just as he did for a hundred and thirty-one weeks on the legitimate stage. For the important parts of Omar, the Masquerader, Nizam and Hasan, Nigel de Brulliere and Douglas Gerard have been selected; both actors great favorites with picture fans. De Brulliere recently scored outstanding hits in "The Virgin of Stamboul" and "The Four Horsemen" while Gerard, in turn, both as director and actor, his performance as Dr. Sonntag in "A Tailor-Made Man," had especially praiseworthy.

SIDNEY PREPARES FOR HOLIDAY

(Times Correspondence)
"Sidney"—The people here expect a big day on Saturday, July 1, at the Athletic Grounds, where sports will be held.

SOOKE VISITORS SAW FISH TAKEN FROM TRAPS

(Times Correspondence)
Sooke Harbor—A party of visitors here was taken out and saw a bit of fish from the traps of the Sooke Harbor Fishing and Packing Co. The lift proved to be one of the finest some twenty-eight tons of salmon being taken. Among the creatures in the traps were seen many strange and weird monsters of the deep—a fourteen-foot shark, a hair seal and an octopus. To those who had never witnessed such a sight before it was one never to be forgotten and the party, piloted by Major Nicholson, returning to the hotel pleased with the trip.

NANAIMO IMPROVES BATHING BEACH

(Times Correspondence)
Nanaimo—Despite caretakers, tag days and various efforts to improve the local bathing beaches, the City Council received a letter from a woman which showed that inasmuch as she and her husband had considerable experience and spent two weeks in bed thereafter. The letter stated in part:

"At the Townsite bathing beach house on the 31st of May I met with an accident, and had to get to hospital to attend to it. As I fell down through a hole in the floor and got my leg bruised and a black eye, and my teeth broken, and I was able to do my household duties. So it put me on considerable expense. I am putting in a claim for thirty dollars. I remain yours, Mrs. Horn."

"At a motion Alderman Randle the letter was referred to the Parks and Properties Committee for investigation. The committee in charge of the bathing beach on the Townsite points out that no work was started on this beach until May 21, or correctly speaking June

FAVORABLE START AT STRAWBERRY GROWING

(Times Correspondence)
Sooke Harbor—Notwithstanding the dry season the reports of the strawberry crop throughout this district are excellent. Many are but starting in, but the growth of the young plants is remarkable, demonstrating very clearly that the soil is adaptable to this small fruit. A. H. Dobson, of Sooke, has produced some magnificent berries upon his small plantation. J. Bradley has been shipping some splendid berries, while Edward Clark, of Shirley, has some remarkable plants, over 200 being counted upon a single plant. There is no doubt that the moisture found in this district, which keeps it green in spite of the Summer sun, has a very beneficial effect upon all plants. Many of the new settlers here are planting out strawberries, and all the young plants are making splendid growth.

Duncan—High School entrance examinations are in full swing. The examinations are being held at the Cowichan Electoral District—32 from Duncan and 22 from Chemainus, Genoa Bay, Cowichan Lake, Cowichan Station and Shaw-Nigan. This is almost a record here, owing no doubt to the fact that no pupil can pass into the High School on recommendation, but must pass the examination. Miss Franfield and Miss Christie are supervising. Matriculation and Advanced Examinations are also being held in the High School.

ELKS COME FROM BEVERLY

C. P. R. Had Long Lead on Amateur Ball Leaders, But Could Not Hold It

Railroaders Had Merry Time in Third and Drove Givens to Duck-pond

With the score 7 to 2 against them in the third inning of last night's Amateur League baseball game at the Stadium, the Elks staged another comeback at the Stadium and defeated the C. P. R. 10 to 9 in a game jammed full of excitement and good baseball. In fairness to the Elks cannot be said that the game was handed to them, as they pounded Chambers at all corners of the lot, but there is no question but that two of their runs were straight donations, two runners scoring from third while one of the C. P. R. athletes was recovering from a slight attack the buck fever or temporary paralysis of his trusty right arm. The C. P. R. also threw one run away when Newman Chamberlain was pegged out at third. However, it's the breaks that make the game and the Elks got their full share in last night's encounter.

Elks Scored First

The Elks were first to break into the scoring column sneaking two runs across in the first inning on a single by Turpel and errors by the Campbell batters.

The Railroaders Secured their first run in the second when Prescott beat out a hit to second and came all the way around the Park to stop him stealing.

The third inning netted the C. P. R. six runs and proved the downfall of Givens, a single, double and a triple being poked out besides various other swags that kept the Elks' infielders peering home in unsuccessful efforts to catch the runners at the plate. Givens called it a day after Prescott had tripled to the center field fence and "Red" McIntyre came to the rescue. "Red" made short work of the remaining hitters, fanning Porter and Sherwood to left and another by Ross on the way to first after he had dumped down a weak roller.

After this inning, the railroaders went down just about as they came up, although they were successful in squeezing a run in in the fifth on a base on balls and Sherwood's double to left and another in the ninth when Cooksey walked, went to second on a wild pitch, stole third and scored while Chambers was being thrown out at first.

In the meantime, the Elks had been gathering runs on the installment plan, chasing one run over in each inning during the third, fourth and fifth and two more in the sixth, bringing the score 5 to 7 with the C. P. R. still ahead. The lucky, or rather unlucky, streak proved a "Waterloo" for the C. P. R. when a base on balls, two hits and a couple of errors gave the Elks three more runs and put the lead back to 8, and they were never headed, the railroaders being able to slip but one more run over during the remainder of the game.

Part Angeles Not Coming

A telegram was received last evening advising that the Port Angeles team would be unable to come over on Saturday. No further games will be played thereafter until the Elks of Columbus meet the Elks next Wednesday evening.

"BIG SIX" TOSSES FIRST STRIKE OVER PLATE IN YEARS

Sarnac Lake, N.Y., June 29.—"Big six" Chrissy Matthews, the baseball star of the country, for the first time since he came here three years ago, his life despaired of, walked out from the mound yesterday, wound up and tossed a perfect strike across the plate, while thousands who had gathered for the occasion cheered themselves hoarse. Two thousand persons who had come out here to see for themselves the fruits of the great fight against tuberculosis that Matty had waged and won, crowded the field. He looked well and gave no sign of having been through his recent illness. He watched the game from centre field.

PRINCETON WINS GOLF

Y., June 29.—Princeton won the inter-collegiate team golf championship yesterday over the links of the Garden City Club in an aggregate total of 1,305 holes, 36 of which were played Tuesday and 36 yesterday. Yale finished second with a total of 1,344; Dartmouth third, 1,352; and Harvard, fourth, 1,388. R. E. Knepper, of the Tigers, won the individual championship by scoring 152 for his card of 36 holes. Princeton's team consisted of four players, three of whom were playing Tuesday and 36 yesterday. Yale finished second with a total of 1,344; Dartmouth third, 1,352; and Harvard, fourth, 1,388. R. E. MOORE SHOWS HE HASN'T ONE NERVE

P. N. W. Champion Played Sensational Golf at Kansas City Yesterday

Hillcrest Country Club, Kansas City, Mo., June 29.—Two rounds of match play in the Western amateur golf tournament yesterday produced some of the greatest contests ever seen in any titular competition and closed with several stars eliminated and several others remaining in the contest only through breaks in luck which came when the players secondarily being defeated. Harrison Johnston, of St. Paul, Minn., state champion and a popular favorite to go through to the semi-finals, fell before Francis Gaines, of Omaha, after he seemed to have the Nebraska well in hand. George Von Elm of Salt Lake City, after winning his hole-in-one morning after winning his hole-in-one through 20 and 40-foot putts when he seemed sure of defeat, started badly in the second round, being behind Reuben in a pit. "Chick" put his second four-hole hole-in-one, conceding "Chick" a birdie three and the match was squarred. "Chick's" drive on the 178-yard sixteenth was ten feet from the pin for a par three, but McKee's drive was hooked well to the left and his pitchback was short. His birdie was a four, which made Evans one up. The strain seemed to be showing, for McKee on the seventeenth put his second in a snafu and then after an almost impossible pitchback to six feet from the cup, missed the putt and lost the hole and match. The following day, Evans' opponent today, is a young collegian brought into golf by McKee.

STEAMER ELEVEN TO PLAY

Cricket eleven representing the steamer Princess Royal and Princess Alice will meet to-night on the football ground at Beacon Hill park at 8.30. This will be the first time that the Royals have put a cricket team in the field, but it is expected that they will be well able to put up a good game against their brethren of the Alice. Two of the former players of the last-named ship have been transferred to the Princess Royal since the last match played by the steamboat men, and as they are both good cricketers, what is the likelihood of the Princess Alice will be a distinct gain to the Princess Royal. The rivalry is keen so a snappy game is expected.

Pigeon Derby Will Be Held To-morrow

Victoria Has Sent Twenty-seven Birds to Sissons, Cal., to Compete Against Vancouver and Nanaimo Birds in Annual Race—Birds Will Fly 490 Miles to Home Loofs

Victoria, Vancouver and Nanaimo racing pigeons will test their wing power to-morrow in the annual Pigeon Derby which is being held from Sissons, Cal. Victoria has 27 birds in the event, while the other two cities also have a large representation. Interest is especially keen in this race, which is the blue ribbon event of the Racing Pigeon Club of this Province. The birds are now at Sissons and will be liberated to-morrow morning. The distance from the starting point to Victoria is 490 and to Nanaimo and Vancouver 550. The Victoria birds were shipped to Vancouver on Tuesday and left there for Sissons on Wednesday morning. The birds are now at Sissons and will be liberated to-morrow morning. The distance from the starting point to Victoria is 490 and to Nanaimo and Vancouver 550.

Longest Race of Year

Since early in the spring the local birds have been in steady training. Races have been held each week and the birds have been covering up to 490 miles. This will be their longest race and it is looked upon as a gruelling test for the birds. Victoria has a number of excellent birds in the race and they are expected to win. The winner of last year's race, owned by Dave Dougan, will be among the starters, while the bird which won for him the first race this season, owned by Eugene Wash, 200 miles, is also to be tested on the longer distance. One of Billy Simpson's birds which finished first in the second race, owned by E. Bosson's flyer which finished second in the same race, are also among the birds to be liberated to-morrow. Another bird to start belongs to Mr. Brandt. This winged messenger finished second in the first Eugene race.

Good Pools

Numerous valuable prizes have been offered with most of the birds entered in the fifty cents and one and two-dollar pools, so that the winning bird if pooled right through will pick up a nice little sum of money. The prize pool is a valuable quantity of silverware. Vancouver and Nanaimo have a number of very fine birds entered and are expected to do well in the competition for the local aerial speedsters. Many prizes for the Derby have been offered by Vancouver and Nanaimo firms, but the local merchants have fallen right into line and have made donations. Brackley, of the local firm, has put up a man-ker Mangle Co. has put up a man-ker Mangle Co. has put up a man-ker Mangle Co.

ST. JOHN WILL STAGE BIG SKATING RACES

Sarnac Lake, N.Y., June 29 (Canadian Press)—According to the officials of the International Skating Union which were discussed at the recent Chicago meeting, St. John, N.B. will receive the sanction for the international races this winter. The United States national events probably will be held in Chicago. The selections were approved by the majority of officials at Chicago, and final decision will be made at a meeting of the union in Montreal in November.

ELEVENTH HOUR TIP

To the Sporting Editor—I have not seen the Rep. team in print for next Saturday's match with Vancouver, so I request is not written from a destructive point of view. I merely suggest to the selection committee that a match be played on one of the evenings of this week, the Rep. team versus the next best eleven that can be obtained. One reason for this request is that we may see some good fielding next Saturday. Some of us remember July 1 last year and how the match was thrown away by bad fielding. The man who cannot be had should never be chosen for a Rep. team.

How They Stand

In the ladies' 50-yard handicap Miss Bernice Greenwood is well in the lead with 12 points, her nearest petitors being Miss DuBois, Miss Watson and Miss Zinger with five each. Dave Barclay and Cecil Clarke are tied for the honors in the men's 50-yard, with 10 points each, being closely followed by Angus McIntyre, Jimmie Muir, Jack Crane and Robt. Thom with nine, eight, eight and seven points respectively. The standing in the diving contest cannot be announced until the judges give their decision on last night's dive.

GARRISON SEEKING REVENGE IN STICK MATCH TO-NIGHT

Steve Redgrave's victorious twelve of black-bad stick-handlers are going out to seek revenge over the V. I. A. in the Victoria and District Amateur Lacrosse League at the Caledon Grounds this evening. Earlier in the season the Tommies took a bad trimming from Alex Stevens's prize points, but they are fully confident that there'll be a different story to tell after to-night's tussle. The Garrison have not won a game to-date, although they gave Sidney a very stiff game last week. The V. I. A. are travelling very fast, and they will no doubt put on a good game this evening.

WALT JOHNSON MAY SET A NEW RECORD

New York, June 29.—Walter Johnson, "smoke ball" king of the Washington Senators, will have no difficulty in reaching the goal of 100 shut-outs for his big league career at the pace he is now maintaining. The veteran pitcher registered his third straight shut-out of the season, the ninety-seventh in his sixteen year career in the majors when he blanked New York yesterday by one to nothing. The Boston Braves increased their lead by beating Cleveland nine to nothing, while Chicago won their second straight from the skidding Detroit club and went into third place. Cy Williams hit out homer No. 11, and Stengel added another to his circuit of blows, while the giants and Phillies split a double-header.

Braves Stop Rout

The Boston Braves ended their losing streak by beating Brooklyn five to four. Pittsburgh climbed back to fourth place after taking another from Chicago seven to two. Ken Collins with four-hits led the Red Sox to victory over the Athletics four to two.

CRICKET REVIVAL IN TORONTO WILL START WITH TWO-DAY MATCH

Toronto, June 29.—The revival and reorganization of the Canada cricket organization is planned in connection with the Toronto cricket club's second day match on Friday with a two-day match between Norman Seagram's English touring eleven and the All-Toronto side captained by William Marsden. Other matches of the week in their order include Ottawa vs. Toronto, Quebec vs. Ontario, Miss Ryan took the match 6-3, 6-0.

Anderson Going Well

A number of contests in men's singles were played, and in these there were several upsets. Notable among these was the elimination of R. J. C. Norton, the South African star, by J. O. Anderson, one of the prime members of the Australian team. The scores were 6-2, 6-2. One of the sensational matches of the day was that in which J. Burgeon, the young Frenchman, won from the Australian team. The scores were 6-2, 6-2. Dean Mahey, the American player, was due to compete with M. Washer, of Belgium, late in the afternoon, but rain began falling and the match was postponed.

WILL FIGHT ANYHOW

Columbus, Ohio, June 29.—The "Tut" Jackson-Jack Johnson negro heavyweight battle originally scheduled for Washington Court House, Ohio, but prohibited by a court order, will be held in Hamilton, Ohio, July 1. The Colorado boxing promoter, announced last night.

THE RIDERS READY FOR STARTER'S GUN

Seven entries already received for annual race from Victoria to Sidney. One of the most interesting events of the celebrations on July 1 will be the annual bicycle race from Victoria to Sidney. Last year this race was a great success and this year it looks as if it will be the same. Six entries have already been received. Charlie Staples, last year's time winner is entered this year. Staples is a fine rider. He competed in Vancouver, and was only beat out of first place by half the length of his bicycle. In this race about forty racers started out. Jim Hubbard and Tom McLaughlin have both been training hard for the Sidney race and promise to give all competitors a good run for first place. Laurie Everett it will be remembered, journeyed around the Georgia Circuit.

Runner-Up Entered

William Peden, last year's runner-up will again try to grab the laurels. William Horsely another good rider will also be ready to start off on Saturday. No word has been received from Sidney relative to entries from that town. It is likely that there will be several entries from there who will give the Victoria boys a run for their money. The race will be the same as last year starting off from Peden Bros. Store on Yates Street, and following the same course as the Flying Mile Stage ending up at Sidney. Any competitor who wishes to enter this race can do so by registering at Peden's Store.

MAINLAND CRICKET ELEVEN IS STRONG

Several Players Who Have Been Hitting Centuries of Late Are on Side

Victoria Bowlers Will Have Their Hands Full Trying to Hold Visitors

Vancouver, June 29.—On Friday night the selected representative eleven of the B. C. Mainland-Cricket League will journey to Victoria for the all-day match against the pick of the capital. The Vancouver team is one of the strongest ever sent to the Island, and comprises men in high standing in the different branches of the sport. In F. A. A. Barrs, the side has a good skipper, one who undoubtedly knows the game from top to bottom and one who will have the confidence of the players all through what portends to be a very hard fought game. Another thing in his favor is that he has had considerable experience in leading previous teams to the Island. W. Silcock, a medium fast bowler, is another experienced cricketer, who at bat gathers his runs in a quick manner. A. Great Batsman.

Peers, the man who has topped the century in two successive Saturdays, should be good for a number of runs, though he only a few weeks ago returned from a vacation in Europe. The other members of the team will be very pleased that they have secured a few of the "horsehair" bats to have an abundance of.

In the representatives of the C. P. R. Club, the Vancouver side will, perhaps, find its greatest strength in the trio from the Railwaymen, Rivers, Nelson and Stocks, help the team in all its departments. The first-named is a left-hand, medium-fast bowler, who keeps a very good length and who is always dangerous. Stocks is a right-hand bowler and on his day seldom sends down a loose ball. In Nelson the side is served by one of the best bats and a wicket-keeper who is extremely good on the leg side.

Another Strong Bat

Eatonshire and Broadfoot with Silcock, come into the team from Burrard. Eatonshire's century against the Potlatch should give him all the confidence needed against the onslaughts of the Victoria attack. During the bowling he encountered on Saturday was rather useful, but during his stay at the wicket he never gave a chance. He with Broadfoot should be responsible for a goodly number of runs. Becton has been playing very sound cricket since the season opened. Peers with Barrs are from the Schools' eleven. The first-named is a useful change-bowling and a good bat, though up to now he has not troubled the scorers by any great extent.

Best and Vickers, with the skipper, are from the local Vancouver eleven. The former, one of the best fielders in the league, will be relied upon to hold up the fast bowling end of the team. Secretary As Reserve.

Radcliffe, the general secretary of the league, is the first reserve, and the side will in no means be weakened by his inclusion, if by chance any one of the eleven is deterred from making the trip. O. L. Bancroft, who has often guided the destinies of the "Oils" in the Victoria cricket week, will accompany the side as scorer.

UMPIRE INJURED

Detroit, June 29.—Umpire "Bric" Owens sustained a bad contusion and the ligaments in his left side were torn when he was struck by a foul tip from Outfielder Veach's bat in the fourth inning of the Chicago-Detroit game here yesterday afternoon. Owens was out of the game for possibly two weeks.

COLORED GIANTS TO PLAY BALL AND DANCE

The Colored Giants are going to figure in another big game, which they have got to figuring that they're going to win. The Giants haven't picked a lemon to win from either, as they have booked the C. P. R. amateur league nine. The teams will meet at the Royal Athletic Park at 7 o'clock. After the game the Giants are going to have a real dance. They have booked the Trades and Labor Hall, Broad Street, and have arranged their own jazz orchestra, which critics say is a real hummer. Dancing will start at 9 o'clock.

FINALS ARE BILLED FOR DOMINION DAY

Junior Tennis Tournament Winners to Be Decided. Another feature has been added to the already long list of sports for Dominion Day, when J. G. Brown, secretary of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, has announced that the first of the junior tennis tournament would be held at the Willows courts on Saturday. Kien competition is being displayed at present in the elimination series, the girls under sixteen, Hope Leeming had been playing some unusually fine games, and is looked upon as a prospective winner in this run. The longest match of the day, and perhaps the longest one in the handicap tournament now being staged at the Willows courts was that between Mrs. Leeming and Mrs. Becton in the ladies' singles, which extended over two and a half hours' play for three set match yesterday. Mrs. Unsworth defeated Mrs. Becton in this match, but not until after a long and strenuous struggle in which all the sets proved to be fairly evenly contested. The best match of the day was played in the mixed doubles, when Mr. and Mrs. Garret defeated Miss Hudson and G. C. Grant in some of the longest drawout sets of the day. Saturday afternoon will see a time dispoising of Miss Hodgins and Hodgins in the mixed doubles, the youngsters making a determined stand and forcing the play in the last set to 11-3. McCallum and Gordon, among the best doubles in the club, turned in one of the easiest wins of the day, their opponents, Moss and Jackson, failing to take a single game. The standard of the play is very good and shows that many of the local players have improved over last season's form. Yesterday's results were as follows:

Mixed Doubles

Mrs. M. and Mr. Garret (-3-0) beat Miss Hudson and G. C. Grant (-1-2), 6-5, 2-6, 6-2. Mrs. McNeill and Rev. W. Carroll (scr.) beat Miss Wolfenden and Loveland (scr.), 10-8, 6-1.

Ladies' Doubles

TWINNED WEDDINGS IN TWIN WEDDINGS

Even Twin Flower Girls and Twin Cakes Used
Twin Honeymoon Being Spent; Only Brides Can Tell Husbands

Toronto, June 29.—It was just as if one couple stood before a mirror while the ceremony was performed, so closely did the participants in an unusual double wedding at Wesley Methodist Church resemble each other. Miss May Scott Henderson was united to Albert Charles McClocklin and Miss Katie Belle Henderson to Alfred Burgess McClocklin. The brides are daughters of Mrs. Robert J. Henderson and the late Robert J. Henderson. The bridegrooms are sons of Mrs. Edwin D. McClocklin and the late Edward D. McClocklin.

With everything identical from the wreath of orange blossoms, which held in place their lovely veils of embroidered tulle, to the dainty white and slippers, the charming twin brides were never so much alike. Simple in design were their frocks of cream Canton crepe with long sleeves of radium lace falling below the hem, and sleeves of the same lovely lace, the bodices adorned with pearl trimmings. Their bouquets were of pink roses and lilies of the valley, and their gifts from their bridegrooms, lovely platinum bracelets set with diamonds, and an emerald (the brides' birthstone), were identical in design.

Married Together.
Rev. I. G. Bowles, who performed the double ceremony, arranged the marriage service so that the first part was read to May and Albert and then repeated it to Katie and Alfred. And in this alternate fashion the brides may truly say they were both married at the same time. Freed from the duties of the twin flower girls, Eileen and Esther McClocklin, daughters of Mrs. F. C. McClocklin, in their dainty frocks of white organdie over pink tulle, with hats to match. They carried baskets of sweetheart roses and wore the grooms' gifts of pearl brooches.

Twin Cakes.
Following the ceremony a reception was held at the brides' home, to which only the immediate relatives and friends were invited. The house was decorated with ferns, and palms and peonies, and a huge wedding cake was shown on the ceremonial table with its twin wedding cakes.

Go Away Dressed Alike.
After toast and merry speeches, the brides changed to their going-away costumes. Again every little detail was identical. Their cape costumes of cream crepe knit lined with grey Canton crepe, grey hats, and grey stockings, with grey and patent shoes, were very smart. The couples will honeymoon together in Detroit.

One of the bridegrooms recalled his school days, when the teacher would call "McClocklin to the board" or "McClocklin to the right" by way of identification. They had a ring, but this they exchanged in a joyous delight of further complications. They were only separated once during their lives, and that was when Alfred (or was it Albert?) held a position in Orangeville for three months.

And their brides are so identical in look and name that one of the bridegrooms confessed this morning that they were sometimes fooled by the girls. The brides, however, state that they know "who is who, and never make a mistake."

A Merry Mix-up.
They have all their relatives and friends, however. The Henderson family don't know the boys apart, if Katie is with Alfred, then they know that Alfred is with Katie, the only safe identification. Mrs. McClocklin is likewise puzzled. If May is with Albert, then she knows it is May.

"They were four months old before I could tell them apart," said the girls' mother. "I kept their clothes separate, and let one wear a string of beads, but they were a puzzle."

THE TOTEM POLE

Its Significance Told This Age.

(By Thomas Deasy.)

The Indian has been a "problem" to many of the white race. His customs, habits and characteristics are difficult to comprehend, even by those associating with the aborigine during the past century. Lacking in history or tradition, and scattered in small bands, with a divergent tongue, it is practically impossible to lead them back, even a century, or to delve into their burial places, for an explanation of their origin, which can only be traced through the Asiatic east of continent, on the western coast of Alaska, and the Queen Charlotte Islands.

The "Totem Pole" is the last standing monument of former days. Many have the idea that this represents the "family tree" of generations of Indians which is a great error. Each "Totem Pole" bears the imprint of the "chiefs" and their "clans." It is the standard of authority which denoted that the owner is the "nephew" of a former "chief," and to him must all bow, whether of the "clan" or a visitor to his "lodges." Before it the thirteen medicine men orated, each with a symbol in his hand, to which was engraved the figure of an animal, or bird, a fish or a reptile. Standing before one of the large buildings in which a number of the relatives of the "chief" resided, it meant that all should also pass through a doorway cut from a tree on which the "crest" of the "chief" is also shown. In the lodge the "Totem Pole" held a conspicuous place, usually in the four corners of the log building.

Its Significance.
Only those capable of giving a "Totem Pole" were able to make, erect and retain their "Totem Pole." At the selection of a "Totem Pole," when the "tree" is brought from the forest and when the completed "Totem Pole" is erected, are "feast days" in honor of the owner. From far and near invited guests appear to do honor to the "chief." All of the "clan" are providing food and presents, while the "opener" in his house, in honor of the donee of pellets, grass and other necessities of life. At times money is distributed while the nights are made joyous with the sound of revelry, or the orgies of those engaged in the secret rites necessary to prove the stamina of the proposed heads of the "clans."

The Clan System.
Along the sea coast from one end of the country to the other we now see deserted villages. The "Totem Poles" are tumbling to decay. When Christianity was introduced the Haidas had hundreds of "Totem Poles" in their villages. On one occasion the greatest chief of the Skidegates set himself a herculean task. He took up axes and cut down sixteen of his "Totem Poles" leaving them to rot on the ground. On another occasion the Massetta made a "Totem Pole" and cut them into kindling wood. When the most intelligent of them was asked the reason, he replied: "They are relics of heathenism."

Yet, the "clans" continue to make their "chiefs" according to the standard adopted long ago. "When the 'eagle' graced the lodge of a 'chief,' the figure of the bird has disappeared, but the 'Eagle Clan' remains. An 'eagle' does not marry an 'eagle'; but must become the partner of a 'bear,' a 'wolf,' a 'trapper' or some other bird, or an animal 'clan.' By this means the danger of consanguinity is avoided. The descent of a family is taken from the "mother." The son of a chief is not the chief's successor. The "nephew" on the "mother's side" is the natural successor of a chief. The wife, sons and daughters are not considered under the Indian custom. The "nephew" inherits all. There is no reason for the father and mother to put aside riches for their progeny.

The Indian was the first "Socialist" and is to this day living under "Socialist" ideas. The rich must give, while the poorer members of the clan must assist in providing material for the "Totem Pole." Those who claim the "Totem Pole" was a different celebration in the olden days, know little of the customs and habits of past generations of Indians.

It is only those who have seen the Indian in his wild state imitating the conduct of his forebearers, who know the extremes of cruelty and endurance under which the aborigine carried out the rites and ceremonies in past ages. Sixty-two years of association with the Indians should be some criterion for knowledge of their customs and habits. The "white man" is blamed for the "passing of a race," but where would the "race" be to-day but for the fostering care of the government of the country—while the same care which is exercised over people of all races living under the flag of the Empire? Christianity has done a great deal for all nations; education and protection of life and property proved of benefit where no law prevailed in the earlier days. Not unlike the "barons of old" the "chiefs" of the "clan" held in his hands the lives of those surrounding him, and also the destruction of "slaves" captured in warfare. Christianity and commerce have done much to the downfall of the "Totem Pole" with its legendary lore, descriptive of the animals and birds, the fishes and the reptiles which graced the long cedar monuments now no longer significant of the strength of this nation or that of the "chiefs" who boasted of his "Totem Pole" on which the Union Jack or the Stars and Stripes float from the top. The Indians of every band are anxious to have an elective body of "chief councillors," replacing the hereditary dictators of the "clan" where the "chiefs" held the "Totem Pole," as he carved his own life the native "carvers" are now making "replicas" of all the "Totem Poles" on which they inscribe the "clans" of the animals of the various "clans."

An Old Industry.
On the top of a mountain ten miles from Skeena village is formation of "black slate" which is known as "jadite." It is buried in blocks beneath the surface of the ground. The Haidas visit this mountain situated near the Honna River. They climb the mountain with probes in their hands and engage in locating the "jadite" which is used for the surface. When a block of the black mineral is found the Indian carries it down to his boat and carries it to his village. He saws the block into "squares" and imbeds the "squares" in "putty." He then shapes and carves the "squares" to represent one of the miniature "Totem Poles." On it he engraves the "crest" of his "clan" with the mythical figures of the "clan" carrying away the "moon," or the "eagle" surmounting the top of the "Totem Pole," as it can still be seen on the giant timbers along the coast. As he carves, into his brain runs a "legend" of the olden days. When the "carving" is complete the "Totem Pole" is brightly polished by a process known only to a few. Strange to say, the Queen Charlotte Islands have the only deposit of the material. The Japanese and others endeavored to duplicate the "jadite" without success. The "art" was dying away; but we endeavored to have the Indians continue the manufacture of the "Totem Poles." The best of the "carvers" are dying off. It will shortly be a "lost art." Thousands of the small "Totem Poles" which depict the "Totem Poles" of former days, have been manufactured and find a ready sale. Now and then one of the "wooden totem poles" is sold or falls from decay and lies mouldering on the ground. The carvers in wood are fast passing away. They no longer make the wood carvings or "feast" and hold "potlaches." A new generation is springing up. Modern habits and customs are superseding the ancient methods. In a few years the only depository of the wooden "Totem Pole" will be the museums of the crowded cities. The "chiefs" and their "nephews" are no longer recognized as heads of the various "clans." The "potlaching" has gone, or is used only when the young bride sits before the "wedding cake" in the "town hall," dressed in orange blossoms and the regalia of a bride. With the "Totem Pole" the "legend" is also becoming "a dream" of the past. Commercialism is replacing the so-called "potlaching" of the early days. The Indian is becoming "modernized." The church and the school are leading the aborigines away from their old ways of life. They are becoming shrewd buyers and sellers with a love for home, although in many cases, far removed from the large centres. As a law-abiding class they are noted throughout the length and breadth of the land. Their conception of our moral teaching is gaining ground; but they have much to learn. One hundred years of progress have passed from the time the first "traders" visited their shores. If the remnant of the tribes will continue to increase as the Haidas have done, another century will show better results than are perceivable in a people with but the century mark to show the advancement they have made.

SCHOOLBOY HUMORISTS

From the latest batch of "howlers" (the 20th selection) published by the "University Correspondent," the following youthful efforts in history, geography, grammar, and literature, are selected:
In his journey to Mount Zion, Christian had a fight with a polygon. Shakespeare wrote tragedies, comedies and errors.
Philip was a brave Queen. She married Edward I.
Henry met Becket on the altar steps, and severely massacred him.
Richard II. is said to have been murdered by some historians.
Chaucer wrote in middle-class English.
Martin Luther did not die a natural death, but was excommunicated by a bull.
Stirling is noted for its fine silver. Julius Caesar was renowned for his strength. He threw a bridge across the Rhine.
Translation errors are equally bright. For example, "un homme singulier" is given as "a bachelor," and "it est unique en son genre" as "he is unique in his gender."

SUFFERED YEARS WITH ECZEMA

"Fruit-a-tives" Cleared Her Skin

Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q.
"I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good."

Then, I used one box of "Sootha-Salva" and two boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return.

I think it is marvellous because no other medicine did me any good until I used "Sootha-Salva" and "Fruit-a-tives," the wonderful medicine made from fruit.

MANSON SAYS BOOTLEGGERS HAVE NO EXCUSE IN B.C.

wants it. So what excuse is there for bootlegging or for trafficking in liquor illicitly?

"In a prohibition Province there might be some excuse for a man who has been accustomed to liquor seeking to get it. But in B. C. there is absolutely no such excuse and if there is no such excuse what sympathy can you or I have with that individual."

Bootlegger Charges More.
"Your biggest source of trouble comes from the private individual who imports liquor and then re-sells it. The bootlegger doesn't sell at an average price lower than our. His price may be so during the day time, but at night after the Government stores are closed it goes up to $6, $7 and $8 a bottle."

"I wish we didn't have to license these export warehouses. But as it is a matter of trade and commerce and comes under the Dominion Government we have no option in the matter of granting licenses to export warehouses. But we put on a high license fee and did our utmost to discourage them."

"But we are not through with them and, perhaps before we are through we will put a few more kinks in these warehouses."

"Seize Whole Stock."
"Every time you get one of these export warehouses breaking the law, seize their whole stock and we will help you to hang on to it. I have got no sympathy with them. They are the worst bootleggers we have got."

"There is your cue from me direct. If you don't enforce the law I will get after your commissioners."

Sir George Foster Changed.
"How morals do change with age," Mr. Manson said when referring to Sir George Foster, who used to pose as a temperance advocate, but now stood out against British Columbia in its efforts to get the bill through at Ottawa giving the Province complete power to control imports so that bootlegging might be checked.

Some Vendors May Lose Jobs.
"War is declared," Mr. Manson went on. "War was declared when I came into office and will never cease on these men trafficking in liquor."

Mr. Manson said that trouble is also caused by liquor vendors in the employ of the Liquor Board who do not use common sense. These men are being watched and if they do not change their ways there will be some new vendors at work.

"Low-Down Drinking Dives."
"Why should you have trouble with clubs?" Mr. Manson continued. "These clubs are privately owned affairs operated for profit by a few individuals. You find at least one individual in Vancouver who has an interest in four different clubs which are being operated for the money they put in his pocket. The great bulk of the people in the Province are against that sort of thing."

Reader Takes Newer Form of Iron—Feels Years Younger
"Six weeks ago I saw a special offer in the paper telling how thousands of people grew old in looks and energy long before they are really old in years, because, as examinations by physicians have shown, an enormous number of people do not take enough iron in their blood. I have been taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks. The results are simply astounding. The roses have come back in my lips and cheeks, and I can conscientiously say that I feel ten years younger."

The above is a typical hypothetical case showing the results that have been achieved by a great many people since we started this "satisfaction or money back" offer on Nuxated Iron. We will make you the same guarantee. If, after taking the two weeks' treatment of Nuxated Iron, you do not feel and look years younger, we will promptly refund your money.

Call at once for a bottle of Nuxated Iron at Vancouver Drug Co., or any other good drug store.

DEVONSHIRE SPEAKS OF SPIRIT OF PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY
London, June 29.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The Duke of Devonshire, presiding last night at a British Empire League banquet given in honor of the Dominion High Commissioners in London, devoted a considerable part of his speech to impressions gathered in Canada and mentioned two outstanding recollections of his residence there while Governor-General.

The first impression was of Canada's firmness of spirit when the Germans made their fierce onset in March, 1915, recognition of which simply meant the necessity for renewed effort. The second impression was in connection with the visit of the Prince of Wales. Canadians, said the speaker, were not naturally demonstrative, but they gave a genuine welcome, showing true faith in the British crown.

plained, has in hand the maintenance of law and order. He declared that the liquor law here is more easy of administration than it is in a prohibition province.

Must Be Like Rhinoceros
"I am convinced that, with a proper spirit of co-operation, under all our police authorities, the law can be administered in this Province," he went on. "I can't think of any one thing that will redound more to our credit than a law-abiding population and a clean Province."

"Our liquor situation is the most difficult situation we have to handle in B.C. No bigger trust was ever put on the shoulders of the Government than the trust put upon it by the passing of that moderation plebiscite. The people stated they desired the Government to take control of the liquor supply. I cannot imagine any government seeking such a trust. Our act is not a perfect one; it is one of which extreme views exist. But no matter what you did you would be subject to violent criticism."

Legislature Responsible.
"The responsibility for the law is not mine. This Province elects 47 members to the Legislature. It is up to them to give expression to what they consider the real views of the people. Answer those who are harsh in their criticism; 'This is the law, the Legislature has said so, and I am sworn to enforce it.'"

Can Assimilate Foreigners.
Mr. Manson also referred briefly to immigration. "We look to the Anglo-Saxon race for that which is best in the making of the country," he said. "But with the vast territory we have we can't populate it with people of our own blood. The country to the south shows that we can take nationals from other countries and make them nationals of our own. If our Anglo-Saxon people discharge the duty upon them, their schools, their churches, you can take almost anything Europe can produce and mould them into Canadians that will go out and fight the battles of this country at any time. You police chiefs are the guiding spirits. You set the pathway of these men to follow. If you set it right they will come to respect the law and order of this country."

Mounted Police to Go.
Mr. Manson said that it was likely that the Royal Canadian Mounted Police would be withdrawn from British Columbia in the near future. He explained that they were brought here only because of exceptional conditions which arose at the end of the war.

AUSTRALIA TO BE REPRESENTED IN U.S.
Government Asks Parliament for Authority to Appoint Commissioner

London, June 29.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Lord Forster, Governor-General of Australia, in the speech from the Throne at the opening of the Parliament of Australia yesterday, says a Royal dispatch from Melbourne, forecast legislation placing the Commonwealth shipping line under independent non-political control.

No relief from taxation was indicated, though a measure was promised to place the taxation laws on a more satisfactory basis.

The Government's policy also includes important agreements in connection with the British and State governments under the Empire Settlement Act, the appointment of an Australian high commissioner to the United States, compensation for military officers retired as a result of reduction of the defence forces, speedy development of the new federal capital of Canberra, extension of commercial aviation services, parliamentary representation for the Northern Territory and drastic economies in the public service, which a special board of commissioners will supervise.

The search for Oil-

OF the petroleum products used in Canada, this country produces less than four per cent. of the raw material. Over ninety-six per cent. of all the oil used is imported in one form or another. Imperial Oil Limited has for many years imported its supply in the form of crude, carrying out the manufacturing process, from raw material to the most highly finished products, right in its own refineries and process works. In this respect it stands alone among oil companies which are serving the Canadian consumer.

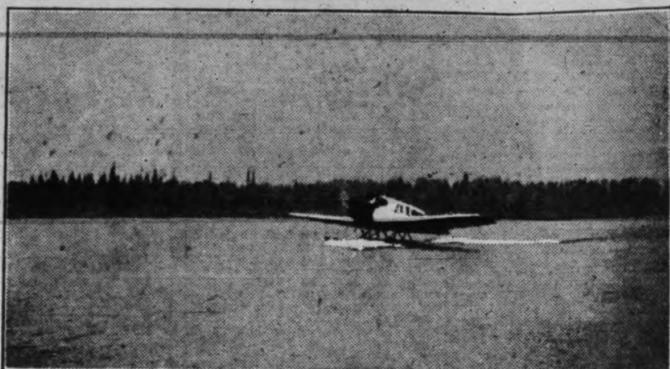

Realizing the position of absolute dependency in which this lack of a Canadian supply of crude places the Dominion of Canada, Imperial Oil Limited has followed a dual policy—first, in furthering the development of its own sources of supply located in foreign lands, and, second, in carrying forward a most exhaustive search for oil within the Dominion.

As the premier oil company of the Dominion, Imperial Oil Limited recognizes its responsibility and its obligations to the people of Canada. No expenditure has been spared and no possibility is being overlooked to make Canada self-sufficient in oil resources, so vital to the economic welfare of the country.

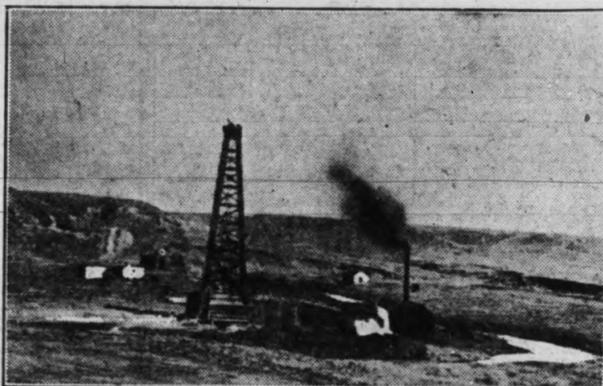

In pursuance of this policy, Imperial Oil Limited placed in the field the most highly-trained corps of geologists ever gathered together in Canada. Commencing at the international boundary line in Alberta, their researches have extended to the Arctic on the North and into British Columbia on the West. Following with the drill, there is now going forward by far the greatest campaign of oil exploration ever undertaken in Canada.

No grant of land, bonus, concession or special favor of any kind has been sought or accepted. The cost to date has amounted to many millions and the result so far in available oil supply has been almost nil, but the Imperial is determined to pursue the quest until Canada is assured of a domestic petroleum supply or the last possibility of finding oil in Canada has been exhausted.

The Imperial is the only large Company engaged in the development of Canada's natural resources of petroleum.
