

longer. No one can over-estimate the distress which has followed them. The place of the man who can never be... the wretchedness of men of which there are... no witness but God and the cowardly perpetrators... the sleepless terror of delicate women and children... homes, and those yet more unhappy ones whose husbands and fathers have gone out to be heard from no more... it is estimated that over fifty families have been... destroyed or plundered. Six persons with whom I was personally acquainted—and three of them... But we have again conquered, though in a terrible cost. It is the final victory of our country... our own persons and in the spoiling of our goods, and the best consolation to those who have lost their friends...

It is not to be crying shame to the confessions to... Freedom and Right in the States, and the preceding article and rapine is not to be... P. S.—Unless aid is sent out during the coming Winter, distress here, want, blankets and other bedding will be needed by many from whom everything of the kind has been plundered.

A BOTTLE-SHED VIEW OF POLITICS.
SPEECH OF J. MINOR BOTS, AT RICHMOND, VA.
I make below some extracts from a speech of Mr. Bots, delivered last week in Richmond. It is, as the reader will see, very strange talk for a leading politician in a slave State. I have taken care to give you a full and true account of the moment there is a serious threat anywhere of a dissolution of the Union. Our first extract will show...

WHAT MR. BOTS THINKS OF THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy they have not only violated the spirit and honor of the South, pledged in good faith... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

MR. BOTS' VIEWS ON THE MISOURI COMPROMISE.
I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the... I charge upon the Democracy that they have violated the...

for many years; hence to have seen him would have been very disagreeable. I was conversing with Dr. Woodcock, Dr. Levert and Judge Dargan. During the conversation, Dr. Levert, he informed me that he was to be present at the meeting of the Union to be held at the Ball Room to examine into the matter.

I expressed my earnest desire to be present at the meeting, and he consented very readily. I was accompanied by Dr. Woodcock, Dr. Levert and Judge Dargan. We were present at the meeting of the Union to be held at the Ball Room to examine into the matter.

I was introduced to the meeting at about half-past six o'clock. There was in the room about thirty gentlemen. Mr. P. C. Douglas's name was mentioned several times, as near as my memory enables me, give him every word which transpired during my examination.

Mr. Boyle produced a copy of Dr. Douglas's book which he had purchased by Dr. Cragin. He asked me if I knew the book or had sold it. I replied that I was sold it to Dr. Cragin, and he (Dr. Cragin) had detailed the circumstances, and he had ordered a copy charged and mailed to Col. Jones.

I know my character only by my friend's description; I know my character only by my friend's description; I know my character only by my friend's description; I know my character only by my friend's description.

I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina. I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina.

I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina. I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina.

I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina. I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina.

I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina. I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina.

I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina. I have one word to say in regard to the Brooks affair, and it is only because I have referred to it before in North Carolina.

FERRING OUT INCENDIARY PUBLICATIONS AT THE SOUTH BY A CLERGYMAN.
I am writing the Alabama River, about five weeks since. I was engaged in a conversation with a gentleman from Louisiana, in course of which he mentioned to me the name of Strickland & Co., and was greatly astonished to find that they kept Rev. Douglas's book for sale.

My reason for bringing this topic again to the notice of the public, is that reports have grown out of it, and it is not to be re-considered. I am writing the Alabama River, about five weeks since. I was engaged in a conversation with a gentleman from Louisiana, in course of which he mentioned to me the name of Strickland & Co., and was greatly astonished to find that they kept Rev. Douglas's book for sale.

NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY STANDARD.
I have written nearly a week for an explanation, extraordinary language, but have waited in vain. It is not to be re-considered. I am writing the Alabama River, about five weeks since. I was engaged in a conversation with a gentleman from Louisiana, in course of which he mentioned to me the name of Strickland & Co., and was greatly astonished to find that they kept Rev. Douglas's book for sale.

MR. BANKS IN WALL STREET.
A notable feature of the campaign in this city, was the speech of Mr. Spenser Banks from the steps of the Exchange in Wall street, on Thursday last week. The scene is described by those who saw it as a grand one indeed—a multitude of men in masses always in the crowd was very great, and it variously estimated from fifty to fifty thousand, according to the political prejudices of the spectators—the ardent Republican seeing double with both of his enthusiastic eyes, his sneering opponent allowing as many as he thought there were to be, and as few as his arithmetical conscience would permit. A fair estimate of the grand crowd would probably return about twenty thousand.

MR. BANKS IN WALL STREET.
A notable feature of the campaign in this city, was the speech of Mr. Spenser Banks from the steps of the Exchange in Wall street, on Thursday last week. The scene is described by those who saw it as a grand one indeed—a multitude of men in masses always in the crowd was very great, and it variously estimated from fifty to fifty thousand, according to the political prejudices of the spectators—the ardent Republican seeing double with both of his enthusiastic eyes, his sneering opponent allowing as many as he thought there were to be, and as few as his arithmetical conscience would permit. A fair estimate of the grand crowd would probably return about twenty thousand.

MR. BANKS IN WALL STREET.
A notable feature of the campaign in this city, was the speech of Mr. Spenser Banks from the steps of the Exchange in Wall street, on Thursday last week. The scene is described by those who saw it as a grand one indeed—a multitude of men in masses always in the crowd was very great, and it variously estimated from fifty to fifty thousand, according to the political prejudices of the spectators—the ardent Republican seeing double with both of his enthusiastic eyes, his sneering opponent allowing as many as he thought there were to be, and as few as his arithmetical conscience would permit. A fair estimate of the grand crowd would probably return about twenty thousand.

MR. BANKS IN WALL STREET.
A notable feature of the campaign in this city, was the speech of Mr. Spenser Banks from the steps of the Exchange in Wall street, on Thursday last week. The scene is described by those who saw it as a grand one indeed—a multitude of men in masses always in the crowd was very great, and it variously estimated from fifty to fifty thousand, according to the political prejudices of the spectators—the ardent Republican seeing double with both of his enthusiastic eyes, his sneering opponent allowing as many as he thought there were to be, and as few as his arithmetical conscience would permit. A fair estimate of the grand crowd would probably return about twenty thousand.

MR. BANKS IN WALL STREET.
A notable feature of the campaign in this city, was the speech of Mr. Spenser Banks from the steps of the Exchange in Wall street, on Thursday last week. The scene is described by those who saw it as a grand one indeed—a multitude of men in masses always in the crowd was very great, and it variously estimated from fifty to fifty thousand, according to the political prejudices of the spectators—the ardent Republican seeing double with both of his enthusiastic eyes, his sneering opponent allowing as many as he thought there were to be, and as few as his arithmetical conscience would permit. A fair estimate of the grand crowd would probably return about twenty thousand.

MR. BANKS IN WALL STREET.
A notable feature of the campaign in this city, was the speech of Mr. Spenser Banks from the steps of the Exchange in Wall street, on Thursday last week. The scene is described by those who saw it as a grand one indeed—a multitude of men in masses always in the crowd was very great, and it variously estimated from fifty to fifty thousand, according to the political prejudices of the spectators—the ardent Republican seeing double with both of his enthusiastic eyes, his sneering opponent allowing as many as he thought there were to be, and as few as his arithmetical conscience would permit. A fair estimate of the grand crowd would probably return about twenty thousand.

MR. BANKS IN WALL STREET.
A notable feature of the campaign in this city, was the speech of Mr. Spenser Banks from the steps of the Exchange in Wall street, on Thursday last week. The scene is described by those who saw it as a grand one indeed—a multitude of men in masses always in the crowd was very great, and it variously estimated from fifty to fifty thousand, according to the political prejudices of the spectators—the ardent Republican seeing double with both of his enthusiastic eyes, his sneering opponent allowing as many as he thought there were to be, and as few as his arithmetical conscience would permit. A fair estimate of the grand crowd would probably return about twenty thousand.

The above is the original, and the book brought before the subject.

Miscellaneous Department.

THE "LONDON TIMES."

The power of the newspaper is familiar in America, and in accordance with our political system. In England it stands in antagonism with the feudal interests...

The morality and patriotism of the Times claims only to be represented by and by no means ideal. It gives to the representation of the nation, but the commanding...

England is full of many clever, well-bred men who possess the talent of writing off-hand pungent paragraphs, expressing their views on the current events...

The most conspicuous result of this talent is the Times newspaper. No power in England is more felt, more feared, or more obeyed. What you read in the morning...

It entered into each municipal, literary, and social circle, and it is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

meter, hard like grubs percha and as tough, these are found under the roots of trees when blown down. The white ants form conical nests of clay three or four feet high...

USE AND POETRY.

MASKING in all ages has looked upon those few who were distinguished by their talents, their genius, their wit, their wit, their wit...

Well, then, could not typography show those unfeeling words to the poet? Has any but a jeweller an interest in the words of the poet? Has any but a jeweller an interest in the words of the poet?

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

look for his text, that very verse was omitted in the print; which gave the first occasion of complaint to the printer of the noble edition...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

It is not only a source of information, but a bold and reasonable service in exposing dangers which threatened the commercial community. It has taken to itself the name of a "public opinion," and it will drive them to the only limit...

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS. Branch Office in Metropolitan Buildings, 110 N. York City. CAPITAL AND RESERVE FUND $1,000,000.

After paying, among all $100,000 per cent. in each year. The surplus is divided among the policyholders...

Charles F. Curtis, President. Charles H. Phillips, Secretary. Charles H. Phillips, Treasurer.

FRANKLIN WOOD, 104 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia. Sole Agent for the State of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PRIZE MEDAL awarded in London, in 1862, for the best quality of the printing...

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS.

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS.

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS.

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS.

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS.

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS.

PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS. PHILADELPHIA ADVERTISEMENTS.