

ADVERTISING SHEET OF THE New Orleans Bee.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1834.

We this day publish a supplement to our paper, and shall continue to do so once a week.

There is much truth in the subjoined general remarks of the Morning Chronicle.

They who try to do more than the King has confided, or shall entrust, to the construction of a cabinet, the force of circumstances...

English and French Mediterranean Squadron. Extract of a letter of the 17th July from Poyakis in Greece.

A letter from Toulon, of the 9th July, says:—The destination of the Toulon squadron, is the subject of conjecture.

London, July 20.—The Constitutional states, that the Cabinet of St. Petersburg has demanded from England an explanation of her extraordinary armaments.

Stabbing.—A city marshal named John Schoenmaker, the keeper of the battery, was stabbed in Dux, a street, last evening, by an insane person of the name of Wood.

Cold Water.—A woman named Susan Freeman died yesterday in consequence of drinking profusely of cold water when she was overheated.

Intemperance.—A woman named Ann McDonough died in Washington street yesterday afternoon while in an attempt to drink a pint of whiskey at a draught.

THE TREE OF DISSIPATION.

The sin of drunkenness, expels reason, drowns memory, distempers the body, detaches beauty, diminishes strength, corrupts the blood, inflames the liver, weakens the brain, turns men into walking hospitals, causes internal, external and incurable wounds, is a witch to the senses, a devil to the soul, a thief to the pocket, the beggar's companion, a wife's woe, and children's sorrow—makes many become a beast and self-murderer, who drinks to other's good health, and robs himself of his own! Nor is this all; it exposes to the Divine DISCIPLINARY REBELL!

All bidders are requested to extend the amount of their bids for each article, and specify the total amount of each bid. The price and quantity of each delivery at each post, unless they are not specified, will be, one-fourth 1st June, 1st September, 1st December, 1835, and 1st March 1836. The time of which the pork is packed, to be fattened on corn, and each hog to weigh not less than two hundred pounds; and, except when the quality is otherwise designated, will consist of one hog to each barrel, including the feet, legs, ears, and snout. Side pieces may be substituted for the hams.

The pork to be carefully packed with Tusks Island salt, and in pieces not exceeding ten pounds weight each. The pork to be contained in seasoned heart of white oak or white ash barrels, full hoops. The vinegar in iron-bound casks; the beans in air-tight barrels; and the soap and candles, of convenient size for transportation.

Sale will be received by measurement of thirty-two quarts to the bushel. The bidders to have cotton, woolen, and Saint. Peters, must pass St. Louis, for their ultimate destination, by the 15th April, 1835. A failure in this respect will be considered a breach of contract, and the Department will be authorized to purchase to supply their needs. The provisions will be inspected at the time and place of delivery, and all expenses to be paid by contractor, until they are deposited at such store houses as may be designated by the agent of the Department. The Comptroller General reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities, or of disposing with one or more articles, at any time before entering into contracts, and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one-third, subsequent to the contract, on giving sixty days' previous notice. Bidders not heretofore contractors, are requested to accompany their proposals with securities whose responsibility must be certified to by the District Attorney, or by some person well known to the Government; otherwise, their proposals will not be acted on. Advances cannot be made in any case; and evidence of inspection and full delivery will be required, at the Treasury warrants on Banks bearing the points of delivery, or nearest the residence of the contractor, at their option. Each proposal to be sealed in a separate envelope, and marked "Proposals for furnishing Army subsistence."

The price of fresh flour being this day at 50 per barrel, according to the tariff, the bakers must give, during the present week, 41 ounces of bread for a bushel. The loaf which are sold at a profit, for three loaves are required to weigh 25 per cent more. NOTICE. SIX or TWELVE good MULES are wanted. Apply at this office, or at No. 35, Perdido st. sept 8
