A woman in a dark blue police uniform with gold stripes on her sleeves and a badge on her chest stands in the center of the frame. She is wearing dark sunglasses and has her hands clasped in front of her. To her left is a large abstract painting with concentric circles in shades of blue, white, pink, and dark blue. To her right is another large abstract painting with concentric circles in shades of yellow, purple, blue, and white. The background is a plain white wall.
