DIGEST OF LETTER

TO: General MacARTHUR.

FROM: SUGIMURA, Otojiro (杉村乙次郎)
TOKYO To, SHIBUYA Ku, ONDA
1 Chome 1 Banchi.

DATE: 20 Dec 47.

The writer states that for 30 years, he has been a close friend of OMIYA, Gosaburo (大宮伍三郎), a Diet member residing at KAMAKURA Shi, OGIGATANI. This person was recently purged from public office. The writer believes that this was a great mistake on the part of the Japanese Government and it is his sincere desire to have OMIYA removed from the purge list with the aid of General MacARTHUR.

The writer worked with OMIYA for many years at the Nagoya Newspaper Company. The writer resigned his job in March 1937 but OMIYA continued with his work and became a staff member of the business section of the company. His talents were widely recognized in the publishing circle and he always hoped that militarism would come to an end and always believed that the public news circle would become very active in guiding the public during peace time. However, contrary to OMIYA's expectations, matters progressed in an opposite direction and during the war, the freedom of the press became restricted and the newspapers became a tool of the military. OMIYA, who was a liberalist, was put on the blacklist by the military and was purged from the news circle because he was designated as being detrimental to the war cause.

The reason he was recently purged was because the Japanese Government decided that he was a war supporter and greatly responsible for the path that the newspaper took while he was working for the Nagoya Newspaper Company.

In reality, OMIYA is not a military supporter nor was he in a position to direct the company's policies. He merely held a position as staff member of the company's business section.

The writer believes that OMIYA is a well qualified newspaper man who can educate the people in the ways of peace and friendship. He is an outstanding politician and it is indeed regrettable to have such a great person removed from the Diet.

The writer requests that OMIYA be granted an opportunity to have a re-examination.

DIGEST OF LETTER

TO: General MacARTHUR

FROM: OMIYA, Mitsuko (大宮美津子)
KANAGAWA Ken, KAMAKURA Shi, OGIGAYA, 590
20 Dec 47.

The writer states that on 23 Nov 47, her husband was purged from the House of Representatives.

The writer requests a reinvestigation of the qualifications of her husband OMIYA, Gosaburo (大宮伍三郎). She offers the following reasons why her husband should be reconsidered by the Screening Board:

1) He advocated peace and often rebuked the military clique for their aggressiveness.

2) The Nagoya Newspaper Company was owned solely by OYAMA, Shoju (小山松壽). Gosaburo was only a very poorly paid employee.

3) During a serious discussion on politics he attacked the Tri-partite Agreement. He was later investigated by the MPs.

4) In a community discussion he criticised the Army: He was warned by the police and made enemies among his relatives who were soldiers.

5) He was against the government control of newspaper and when TOJO ordered the newspaper to become a government organ, he was purged from newspaper work by order of the Army.

6) After that he could not find suitable employment.

The writer further states that it is not fair that he should be prosecuted by the very democratic principles he has so religiously and conscientiously upheld.
