The Growth of An Idea

It has been the ambition of Superintendent P. H. Gwynn, Jr., to develop in Reidsville High School a system of honor of which the school would be proud. For two years this system has been used in the Senior Class, and each year there has been some improvement over the former, showing an appreciation of the standard set by Mr. Gwynn. As yet some weaker students fail to regard the system, but those who are stronger encourage the Faculty in their efforts. The influence of such a system fully developed each year in the Senior Class will broadcast untold good for future classes. The Seniors in High School set the standard for the lower classes, as do the Seniors in college. Students going from a high school having a well-established honor system will enter college with a great handicap removed.

The same system should be observed in athletics, where a high school pupil has a real test which involves self-control and honor. The comments of the leading State papers show that the team that plays the straightest and cleanest game reaches the goal. Our team proves this.

The basic principle held in the Older Boys' Conferences being held in the United States to-day is honor. We are proud of the fact that one was held in Reidsville to which the boys responded most enthusiastically.

In the future we hope that the ideal of our beloved Superintendent will grow gradually to perfection, until the high schools of the State will look with pride to the Reidsville High School whose students have worked out and are practicing a perfect system of honor in studies and in athletics.

FACULTY

Faculty of Ours

(Apologies to Ben Jonson)

How can we leave you,
How can we from you part?
You only have our hearts,
 Faculty of ours!
You have most all our looks
Too closely bound to books,
You've put in us the hooks,
 Faculty of ours!

All through our long school terms,
We've had too little fun,
You've had all our attention
 On things to learn.
Since four long years ago,
We've only sought to know,
Just how to please you more,
 Faculty of ours!

On lessons we have worked,
(We've tried to work our teachers, too),
In fact, we've worked for only you,
 Faculty of ours!
Now that the end is here,
Though we must leave you, teachers dear,
To say farewell we just can't bear,
 Faculty of ours!

Class Poem

This is the history, to a certain degree,
Of the Senior Class of '23,
We shall always remember the R. H. S.,
For in it we've tried to do our best.

We've come up here eleven years,
Altho' we're leaving, we shed no tears;
The teachers were good, we have no kick,
But of school work we're getting sick.

Mr. Parker in the eighth led the boys,
In school work then we had little joys;
The eighth grade girls Miss Chandler led,
And to the ninth they quickly sped.

Mr. Gwynn guided the boys thru the Sophomore year,
Under his leadership we had nothing to fear;
Miss Bryan directed the girls' grade through,
And to her, we know, much credit is due.

Mr. Lambeth led us through the last two years,
We've thrived under him, so it appears;
In everything he has helped us out,
And carried us through without a doubt.

We've shown up well in all our sports,
On baseball field, or basket-ball courts;
In track we have led them all,
And have done well in football.

THE SOUVENIR

HELEN BURNETTE BENSON

*"And when once the heart of a maiden is stoten,
The maiden herself will steal after it soon—"*

Class Vice-President (1, 3); Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3), Captain (1); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Literary Society (1, 2, 3); Class Historian (4); Marshal (3); "Raw Material-Finished Product"; Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club; Most Stylish Girl; Most Seniorly.

"Bill" is our most typical Senior. One never has to look at her twice before deciding that she is pretty. Her dimples are often in evidence, especially when the "Wright" person is present. Her sweet voice has put her in the double trio. She spends most of her time when out of school amusing herself and others, but even then she gets exemption grades on all her studies.

NELLIE BERYL BULLARD

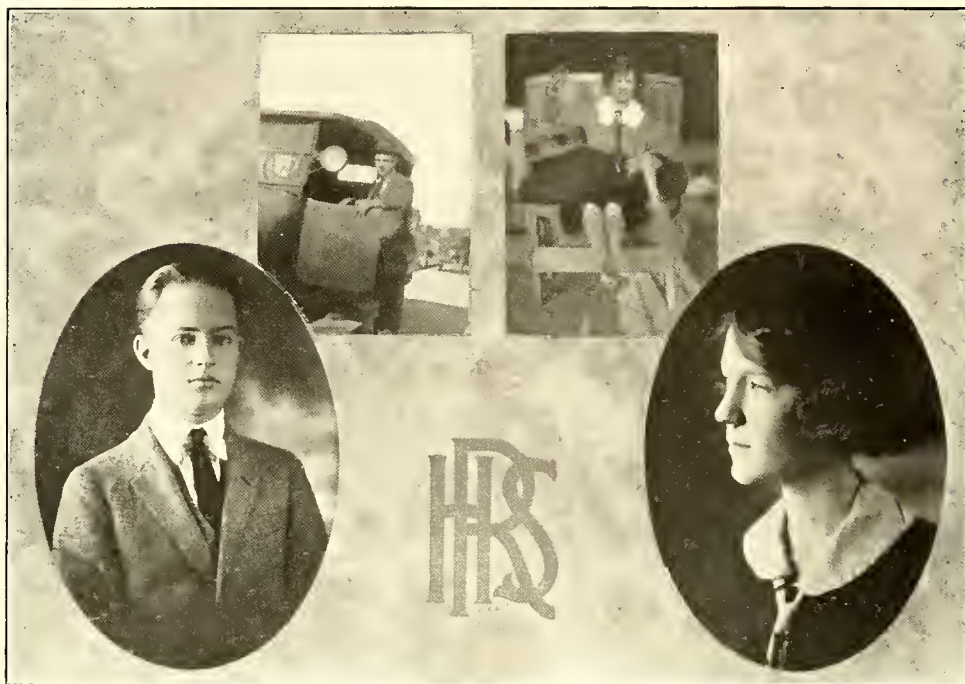

*"Full many a gem of purest ray serene,
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear."*

Class Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4), Captain (2, 3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4), Manager (4); Class Historian (3); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Literary Society (1, 2, 3); Hiking Club (4); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club; Most Athletic Girl.

"Nell," who joined us in our Freshman year, has through her good sportsmanship and the fact that she is a "friend in need," won the admiration of every one in school. She has been on the Varsity basket-ball team for the last three years, and is now its "star player." The school in its mind's eye sees Nell holding this place next year in some N. C. College.

THE SOUVENIR

LAWRENCE LEE BUTLER

"An abridgment of all that is pleasant in man."

Class Basket-Ball (2, 3); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3); Senate—Maine (2); Literary Society (1); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary and Treasurer Class (2); Treasurer (4); Most Polite Boy; Squarest Boy.

Lawrence—the most polite boy in the Senior Class. A reliable one, too, for he is the Treasurer. He keeps us out of debt. He likes basket-ball—plays just for the sport of it, not to make the team. Lawrence has great business ability and also a Buick car which some ladies would like to have an interest in, so "they say."

EVELYN VIRGINIA BUTLER

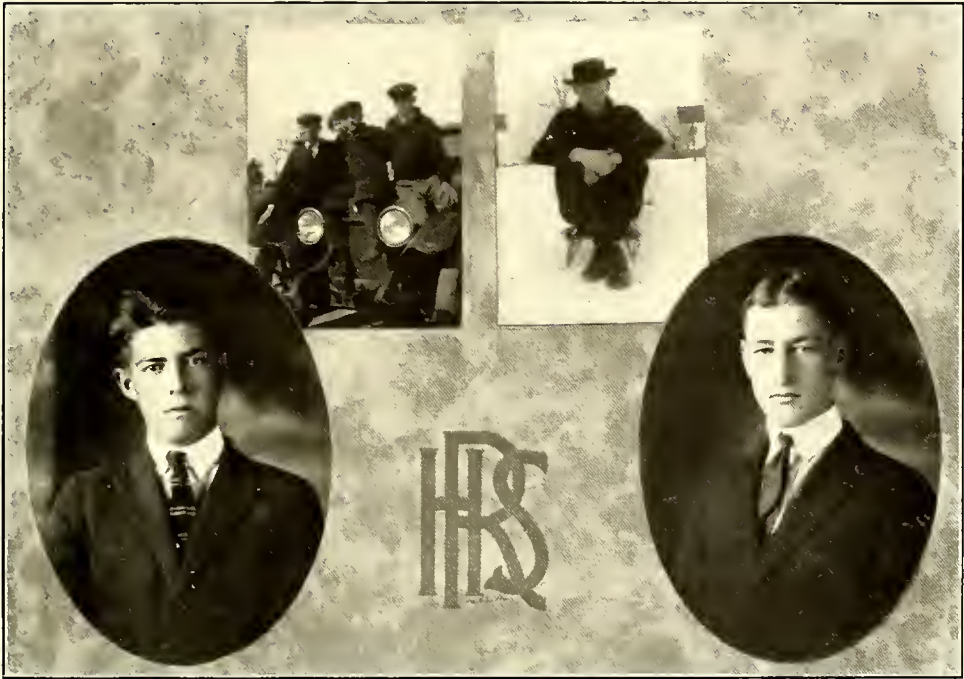

"A mind not to be changed by place or time."

Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Critic of Irving Literary Society (1, 2); Class Secretary (2, 3, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3); Assistant Literary Editor SOUVENIR; Hiking Club (4); Captain Hiking Club (4).

"Puss" is one of our wittiest and best-natured girls. Telling jokes is her favorite occupation. She will occasionally condescend to talk of "Sweet William." Her intellectual ability is recognized by the entire class. She plays basket-ball for all she is worth, and makes a great success as forward. It is needless to say everybody likes her.

THE SOUVENIR

WILLIAM REID BRANDE

"Exceedingly well read."

Varsity Football (4); Varsity Baseball (3); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3); Athletic Association (3, 4); Class Baseball (3, 4); Class Track (4); Monogram Club (4).

Reid is one of our quietest and most studious boys. You may forget he is near until an argument waxes warm, then Reid decides the question. A man of few words but much thought describes him best. To find a book that Reid has not read is no easy task.

EUGENE HASTINGS BROOKS

"I am not only witty in myself, but the cause that wit is in all men."

Vice-President Athletic Association (4); Varsity Football (4); Class Basket-Ball (2); Class Baseball (2); Athletic Association (1, 2, 4); Irvin Literary Society (1); Senate—Louisiana (2); Humor, SOUVENIR; Lion Tamers Club (Big Cheese) (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Monogram Club (4); Peppiest Boy; Most Entertaining.

"Icky" is the real humorist of our class. He criticizes things in a very laughable way, and is not to be outdone in anything. He is very strong in his belief that man is descended from monkey. His long suit is giving Spanish constructions.

THE SOUVENIR

WILLIAM THOMAS CARTER

"What he was yesterday, he is to-day, and will be to-morrow."

Class Baseball (2, 3), Track (3); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Historian (2); President Class (3); Marshal (3); Best All-Round Boy.

"Billy" is one of the most congenial fellows in our class. There is always a ready smile on his countenance, and he is seldom found gloomy. To all who know him, Bill is the best of friends. We are convinced that his sunny disposition will carry him along successfully when he leaves old R. H. S. He was elected the best all-round boy in the class.

JOHN TILLMAN CHANCE

"A lion among ladies is a most dreadful thing."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4); Captain Class Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4); Varsity Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4), Captain (2, 3); Varsity Football (4), Captain (4); R. H. S. Band (1, 2, 3); Class Baseball (2, 3, 4); R. H. S. Quartet (2, 3, 4); Class Track (3, 4); Class Treasurer (3); Secretary and Treasurer Athletic Association (4); Lion Tamers Club (4); Monogram Club (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Best Looking and Most Athletic Boy.

Behold the best looking and most athletic boy in our class! His quiet, courteous manner and sympathetic heart have made him a special favorite with the Faculty and the student body. The motto given to John speaks for him, and lays bare his most prominent social characteristic.

THE SOUVENIR

JULIUS ALWIN COOKE

JOHN WINCHESTER CRADDOCK

"Sometimes I set and think; other times I just set."

"Wise to resolve, and patient to perform."

Class Baseball (2); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3, 4); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Class Basket-Ball (3, 4); Class Baseball (3); Varsity Baseball Squad (3).

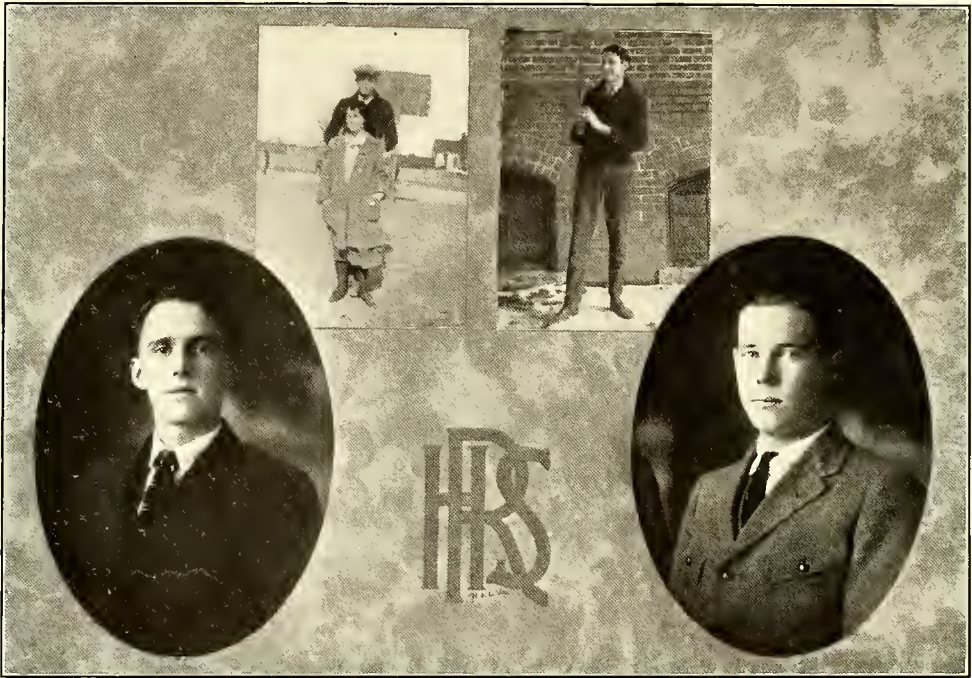

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (4); Varsity Baseball Squad (3, 4); Class Baseball (2, 3).

Alwin, well, what about him? Is he a lady's man, the class's humorist, or the brains of Spanish? His favorite sport is the movies. When the question, "What is on to-day at the theatres?" is asked, Cooke's ready answer will be, "My favorite, "Hoot Gibson" or "Bill Hart." Alwin is an old original.

"Tickles" highest ambition is to be six feet, six inches. He is industrious and always does his work well. Geometry is his hobby. John has shown an excellent class spirit. He is one of the most faithful members of the second basket-ball team.

THE SOUVENIR

WILLIAM WATT DANIEL

*"But he whose inborn worth his acts commend,
Of gentle soul, to human race a friend."*

Class Basket-Ball (3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3, 4); Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Varsity Football (4); Class Baseball (3, 4); Class Track (3, 4); Monogram Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Bill" has the sweetest smile of any boy in our class. That explains why he is so popular with the opposite sex. He is an ardent lover of athletics and spends much of his time playing on the second team. He has done more than his part selling candy for the Annual. Bill has always proved himself a dependable student, and we are expecting great things of him.

ALTON LEIGH GILLIKIN

"If he has any faults, he has left us in doubt."

Athletic Association (4); Class Basket-Ball (4); Varsity Basket-Ball (4); Most Conceited; Monogram Club.

Alton is of the quiet, unassuming type, and has the confidence of every one. His absolute frankness of character is really refreshing, for he says exactly what he thinks. An excellent student who can also find time for all high school activities. The stern look and true blue color of his eyes has won for him many heart-rending sighs from the opposite sex. Judging from his perseverance and sincere interest in his work and fellow men, we see in Alton the qualities of a successful man.

THE SOUVENIR

ROBERT BURTON GLADSTONE

"A malady preys on my heart that medicine cannot reach."

Class President (2, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary and Treasurer Athletic Association (3); Manager Varsity Basket-Ball (3, 4); Class Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball (3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (2); Class Baseball (2, 3, 4); Varsity Baseball (2, 3, 4); Captain (4); Varsity Football (4); Class Track (3, 4); Marshal (3); Lion Tamers Club (4); Monogram Club (4); President, (4); R. H. S. Band (1, 2, 3); R. H. S. Quartette (3, 4); Senate—Oklahoma (2); Raw Material—Finished Product; Most Attractive, Most Influential, Laziest.

"Snag" is an all-round good fellow. The time and "elbow grease" that he has put into school work and athletics have made an exceptional record for him. His sole peculiarity is his unnatural disposition to spurn women. His rapid speed of falling at times makes it quite difficult to tell him from a bouncing rubber ball.

LELA LEONE JOHNSON

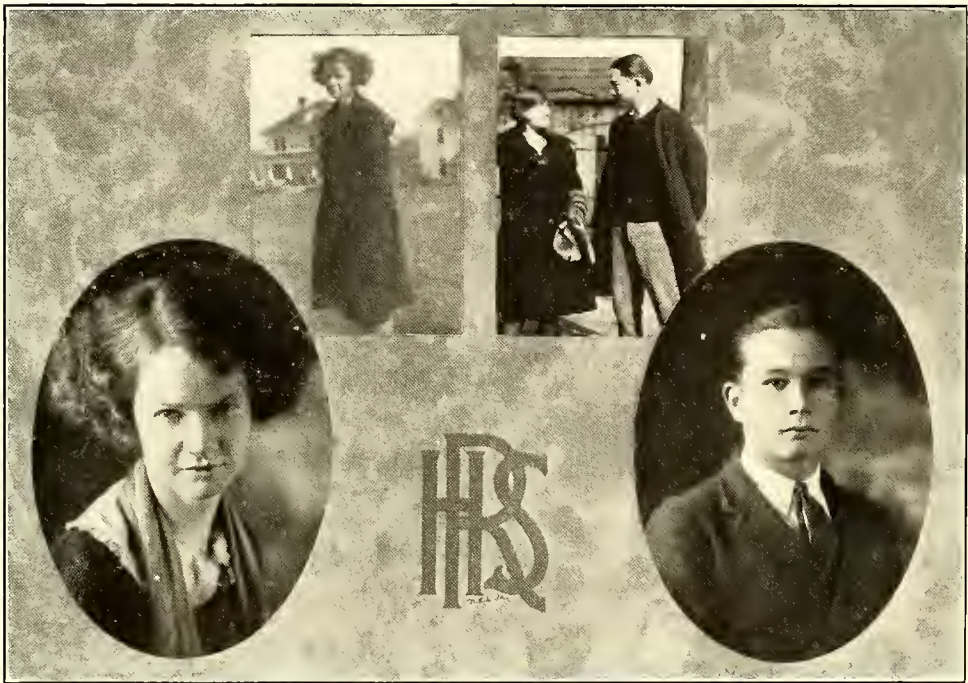

"I'll speak in a monstrous little voice."

Irvin Literary Society (3); Athletic Association (3, 4); Class Basket-Ball Team (3, 4); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club; History Club (4); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3, 4); Hiking Club (4); Laziest.

Lela joined us in our Junior year. She has babyish ways, though very quiet. This Annual fund has been much benefited by her, in that she has purchased so much of the candy which she would later eat in school.

THE SOUVENIR

MAIE JOHNSTON

"A wee small maiden, trimly built."

Athletic Association (4); French Club (4); Class Basket-Ball Squad (4); Class Baby.

Maie, the baby of our class, came to us in our Senior year. Maie has a wonderful talent for memorizing Shakespeare, and is not afraid to attempt the longest passages. She also has a merry way and is ready to laugh at the most trying moments, though she can be serious when the occasion demands it.

HENRY ERNEST LINK, JR.

"For e'en though vanquished, he could argue still."

Class Basket-Ball (3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball (4); Class Baseball (3, 4); Varsity Baseball Squad (1); Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Varsity Football (4); Class Track (3, 4), Captain (3); Class Prophet (4); Lion Tamers Club (4); Monogram Club (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Athletic Association (1, 2, 4); Mcaust, Most Stylish, Most Original.

It was in the Junior year that "Buster" came back to us after a year at Central. He was an old member, even an "old original," and he had been missed very much. However, he had become "educated," and this was to our advantage. He was the leader in the track, winning three first places. He is very original, although some of his ideas are radical; but what good is a question without two sides, or a class without an Ernest?

THE SOUVENIR

BURCH ROANE LIVELY

"Whose little body lodg'd a mighty mind."

R. H. S. Band (1, 2, 3); Treasurer Band (3); Cutest, Most Studious Boy.

Burch is our infant prodigy. He joined us in the fifth grade, and has since made himself indispensable to us by his willing manner, his dry humor, and his never failing supply of ancient jokes. He is our most studious Senior, and is, therefore, entitled to the good grades which he pulls down. In school he is quiet and dignified, for all his short trousers, but outside he lives up to his surname. He was unanimously voted the cutest boy.

HERBERT SPENCER MACE

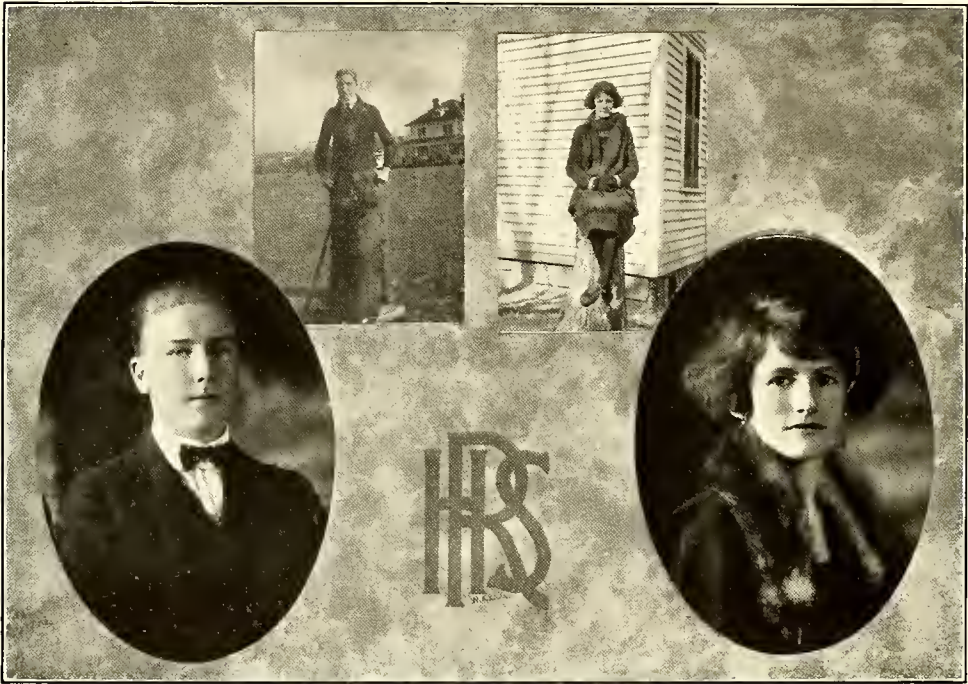

"A noticeable man, with large gray eyes."

Class Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (3, 4); Class Baseball (2, 3, 4); Class Track (3, 4); Varsity Baseball Squad (2, 4); Manager Varsity Football (4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Most Seniorly Boy, Varsity Basket-Ball (4); Monogram Club.

Herbert is very bashful, consequently he doesn't fancy the ladies. He is a great lover of hunting and fishing, and has been very successful in basket-ball. His bicycle has been an extremely useful vehicle for the Faculty and boys of his class. As silence breeds strength, so is he strong; true blue, and always dependable, we predict for him success.

THE SOUVENIR

SAMUEL EGBERT MILES

"My life is one horrid demd grind."

Class Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Baseball (2, 3); Assistant Basket-Ball Manager (4); Senate—Oregon (2); D. L. Society (1); R. H. S. Band (1, 2, 3), Secretary (1), Vice-President (2); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Lion Tamers Club (4); Class Poet (4); Monogram Club (4); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Most Congenial Boy.

Egbert, the poet and most congenial boy in the class, has worked willingly to bring our school to a high standard. Although he may never equal Shakespeare, he will far surpass Ben Jonson in the study of human nature. In every undertaking we have found Egbert a game sport. Even in music he has won honor and fame. Therefore, it is with little difficulty that we predict that he will become a famous man.

MARIE HESTON MITCHELL

*"A daughter of the gods, divinely tall
And most divinely fair."*

Irvin Literary Society (1, 2, 3); Class Basket-Ball (1, 4); Bobbed Hair Club (3); History Club (4); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4), President; Hiking Club (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Most Attractive.

Speaking of a good sport, here's "Heck." She is one of the most popular girls in school, and was voted the most attractive. With her, loafing comes first and the movies second. She's a great lover of fun and never lets an opportunity pass to indulge in it, even though the opportunity comes during class period.

THE SOUVENIR

BLANCHE NUNALLY MOORE

"My words fly up, my thoughts remain below."

Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Irvin Literary Society (1, 2, 3); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4), Treasurer (3, 4); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4); Hiking Club (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; G. and G. Club; Cutest Girl; Most Mischievous, Most Congenial, Most Original.

To say "Shorty," says it all. Everybody knows her and everybody likes her. "Shorty's" originality and wit as well as her sweet disposition have won for her much popularity and many friends. She is a good sport and is always ready for fun. Her favorite "hanging-out place" is "Booker's."

MARGARET E. PETTIGREW

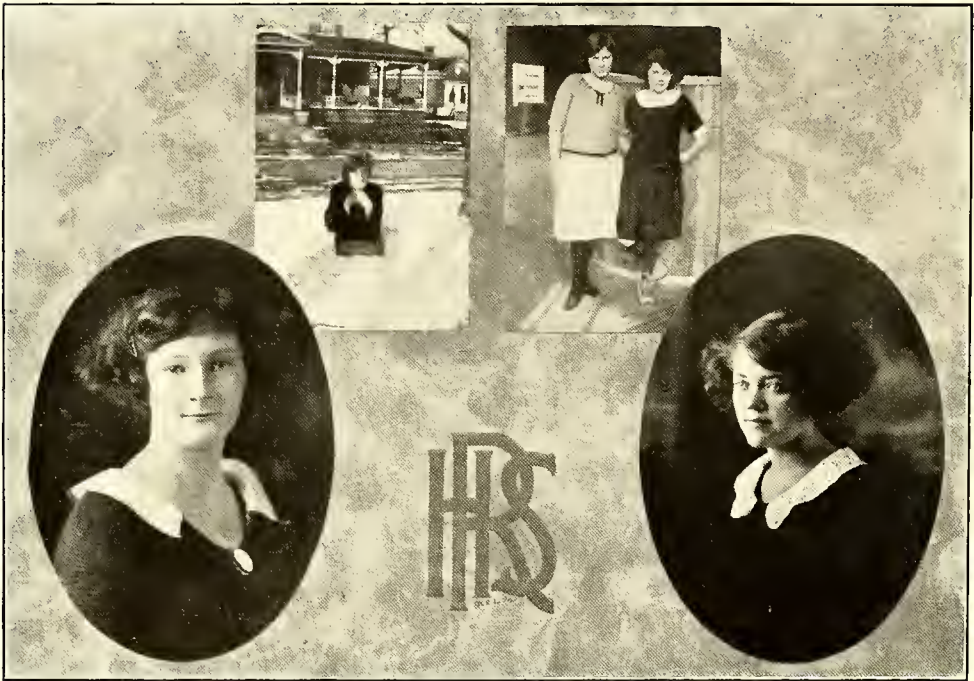

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

History Club (4); Vice-President (4); Class President (2); Associate Editor SOUVENIR (3); Marshal (3); Secretary-Treasurer I. L. S. (2); I. L. Society (1, 2, 3); Athletic Association (4); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4), Vice-President; Hiking Club (4); Assistant Business Manager SOUVENIR (4); Prettiest.

Margaret, or "Shang Hi," as she is called by her closest friends, brings joy to all when she appears. Her willingness and her genial good nature have won for her the love of all who know her. She is always ready to do her part in school activities. If she continues in her happy way of bewitching the opposite sex, we fear her long-looked-for career as a school teacher will be only a dream. As she was voted the prettiest girl, all will surely agree that this is inevitable.

THE SOUVENIR

DORIS ELLEN ROGERS

"I have bought Golden opinions from all sorts of people."

I. L. Society (1, 2, 3); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4); Treasurer (4); History Club (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Most Studious.

Doris is one of the smartest girls of her class, not only in her lessons, but in everything that she attempts. She was voted the most studious member of her class, and truly deserves the honor. She is always ready to help any of her classmates, and thus has won a high place in the estimation of them all.

LULA HAIRSTON SHELTON

"She knows her own mind better than we."

I. L. Society (1, 2, 3); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4); Class Basket-Ball Squad (1, 2, 3, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); History Club (4); Hiking Club (4).

Lula has many worthy characteristics. She keeps up her "rep" as an excellent student, but is rather inclined to be willful. She has always been on the class basket-ball team, but has no desire for Varsity. She plays for the sport of it, and to help her class. Lula is a good sport, and is very popular among her fellow students. She will participate in any fun, and will always stick to the gang.

THE SOUVENIR

MATTIE ESTELLE SANDS

"I chatter, chatter, as I go."

I. L. Society (1, 2, 3); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club; Class Treasurer (2); Raw Material-Finished Product; Class Basket-Ball (1); Athletic Association (1); G. and G. Club; Most Entertaining, Most Conceited Girl.

"A woman nobly painted" is a good description of "Dick." A more popular or more congenial girl than she is not to be found in school. Although she was voted the most conceited girl of the class, we cannot argue that she is. One of her chief and most noticeable qualities is her "Frankness."

MILDRED ANNA STOKES

"The world's no better if we worry, Life's no longer if we hurry."

Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); I. L. Society (1, 2, 3); History Club (4); Hiking Club (4); Squarest Girl.

Mildred, voted the squarest girl in the room, is also one of the most studious. She is a very independent nature, but her lovable disposition has won for her a wide popularity. She has been on the basket-ball team a number of years, and has contributed much to the class team. Her mischievous giggle is often a source of disturbance in one part of the room.

THE SOUVENIR

WILLIAM STAMEY TEACHEY

"The glory of a firm, capacious mind."

Class Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4), Manager (2); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (2, 3, 4); Class Baseball (2, 3, 4), Captain (2); Varsity Baseball Squad (1, 2, 3); Class Track (3, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); R. H. S. Band (1, 2, 3); Marshal (Chief) (3); Senate—Minnesota (2); Business Manager SOUVENIR (4); Vice-President Class (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Most Popular; Varsity Basket-Ball (4); Monogram Club; Honor Roll (4).

Stamey is another one of our hard-working, plucky athletes who sees the value of everything and values everything accordingly. He was voted the most popular boy in the class. All who know him will agree in this. From the grades on his reports we expect great things from Stamey.

MARY FRANCES TURNER

*"I'm most a young lady,
I'll soon wear a train,
And do up my hair,
But I'll never be vain."*

Class Basket-Ball Team (4); Hiking Club (4); I. L. Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4); Mixed Double Quartet (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Athletic Association (4).

If ever you happened along in the Senior Room and heard a series of yells, "ouches," "ohs," etc., from the back left-hand corner, just cast your eyes in that direction and you'll see Frances (otherwise "Rat") at her favorite occupation of "knocking 'em out." She just always would "scrap." But to use her favorite expression, she "can't help it." She must have some way to get rid of her superfluous enthusiasm. "Rat" is always famous for the many questions she asks in Geometry. Besides being an excellent student in all her lessons, she is a general favorite in spite of the fact that she usually "speaks her mind" to every one.

THE SOUVENIR

MARY LEE WARE

*"Another flood of words!
A very torrent!"*

Class President (1); Class Vice-President (2); I. L. Society (1, 2, 3); Secretary and Treasurer I. L. S. (2); Athletic Association (1, 3); Hiking Club (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4); G. and G. Club Voted Sweetest Girl.

"Turnips"—'nough said. We all know her by her ever ready smile and her "golden halo." Mary Lee is one hundred per cent saccharine. She is original and rather independent. Her sweet, unselfish nature makes her a much-desired friend. She will make some man a good old-fashioned wife, Eh?

THELMA ANITA WATLINGTON

"She needs no eulogy—she speaks for herself."

Class Basket-Ball (1); Hiking Club; Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club (4); Secretary (4); History Club (4); I. L. Society (1, 2, 3), Vice-President; Class Historian (2); Assistant Class Historian (3); Athletic Association (4); Raw Material-Finished Product; Girls' Double Trio (3); Mixed Double Quartet (4).

"Spec's" sunny disposition and cheerful smiles have made her a general favorite. Her fascinating manner has charmed the opposite sex especially. Thelma possesses a strong character, although she is the personification of mischief. Her most famous habit is "tickling the ivories."

THE SOUVENIR

BERRIE SUE WILLIAMS

*"And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all she knew."*

Class Treasurer (1), Secretary (2); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4), President (4); History Club (4); Honor Roll (4); Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Club; I. L. Society (1, 2, 3); Hiking Club (4); Editor-in-Chief SOUVENIR (4); Best All-Round, Most Popular, Most Influential.

Berrie is the best "fellow" in the class. She has the distinction of having performed her work so well that she has never taken an examination. Whenever anything is to be "put over," Berrie is the one consulted as to how it shall be done. She is accommodating and diplomatic, and is the leader of her class.

High School History

OUR VOYAGE with Mr. A. T. Weatherly having proved so profitable and pleasant in spite of the handicap of the numerous changes of Captains, we decided to make a second voyage, having organized a party with fifty-six members and having chosen Mr. J. Minor Gwynn as Admiral.

Before sailing, it was discovered that two vessels would be necessary for us. These, the Mauretania, G. and B., were equipped and put under the guidance of Chandler and Parker. Much to the disappointment of some of our crew, the boys were put into one, and the girls into the other.

The fame of our party having spread abroad, sixty-five others decided to join us in our second voyage. These were under Captain Parker, who was transferred to the Cunard from the Mauretania B., and Captain Barber, who commanded the Majestic. The four vessels set sail September the ninth, nineteen hundred and twenty. For the entertainment of the passengers the Irving Literary Society under the leadership of Miss Kathryn Moyer did considerable literary work at the same time. The men on board met in regular sessions of the Senate. For the special delectation of all on board, Captain Parker organized the R. H. S. Band.

On April the fifth, the Majestic and Cunard sighted land and, feeling weary of the smell of salt, decided to land for a while on Smith Island, where they were cordially welcomed by the natives. There were spent several happy hours in reveling and feasting. On the same date the two ships of the Mauretania Line landed on Stokes's Island and enjoyed similar pastimes.

After several months of smooth sailing, the monotony was once more broken by the gathering of the voyagers on the decks of the Majestic and the celebration of a moonlight picnic.

On May the twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, the four ships landed on an unexplored island in mid-ocean. While making explorations here, two pilotless ships, the Olympic and the Admiral, landed on the same island and asked to be admitted to the Gwynn crew. After examination of the records of the eighty-four members on board, Admiral Gwynn decided to admit the same to his party. Captain Moyer was put in charge of the Olympic and Captain Parker was transferred from the Cunard to the Admiral. The lure of gold on Junior Island enticed many of the members to desert the party. The Mauretania B. was cast aside and the combined crew set sail on the Mauretania G. under the guidance of Captain Lambeth.

Everybody was in a great bustle getting things stowed in their places, and scores of their friends were wishing them a good voyage and a safe return. On September the seventh, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, about nine o'clock, the boatswain sounded his pipe and the crew began to man the capstan bars. The boats moved along with smooth sailing until the night of October the thirty-first. Being weary of the monotony of the seaman's life, the members of the crew of the Majestic invited the members of the Cunard to help them celebrate Hallowe'en, which was done in typical sailor style.

"Fifteen men on the dead man's chest"——
Hallowe'en stunts, and all the rest.

Soon after this time, Captain Barber succumbed to Cupid's dart, the vacancy being filled by Captain Robinson.

One member of the crew won particular honor as a triangular debater of the above named Literary Society.

Soon after Christmas the party landed on Junior Island, and the crew of the Mauretania G., being very much impressed with the natives, gave a banquet in their honor which was a royal feast, with music, dancing, and interesting contests. While on this island the crews from the Majestic and Cunard enjoyed an evening of revelry at Guerrant Springs. The various other members of the party indulged in a picnic nearby.

While on this island, the crew met a very charming native, Miss Janie Stacy, who won the hearts of so many members of the party that, after urgent entreaties, she consented to join them.

In September, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, Admiral Gwynn decided to organize a touring party. This company was incorporated September the eleventh, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and was the outgrowth of the voyage of nineteen hundred nineteen, twenty, and twenty-one. The company was capitalized at $375,000.00, six per cent guaranteed stock, for which Mrs. Dora Mills, Miss Emma McKinney, Mrs. Manton Oliver, Mr. Walter Swann, Mr. W. S. Somers, and Mr. Scott Fillman, as Chairman, were trustees. The sole purpose of this company was to furnish reliable first-hand information on

Class Prophecy

PROMPTLY at one o'clock on July the eighth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, the rocket left the earth carrying us on the first experimental trip to the moon. Due to miscalculation we missed the moon by a few thousand feet and sailed on into space.

At about five o'clock we landed on a planet which proved to correspond to our earth in every way. The cities, countries, continents, seas, people, and all were exactly as on the earth, excepting that the new planet was ten years ahead of the earth.

Landing on a spot which looked exactly like Allen's farm just outside of Reidsville, N. C., we walked down the road until we came to a city which, although much larger, we found to be Reidsville.

As we passed the Geoghegan Factory, which covered several acres of ground, I saw a poster advertising the playing of the Imperial Ballet at the Municipal Opera House. Imagine my surprise when I saw that Billie Carter and Reid Brande were the stars. I could hardly wait to see Billie and Reid, so left my companions and hurried to the theatre.

Billie thought me to be the Ernest Link of his planet and wanted to know if I had found the fountain of youth. I explained the best I could who I was and why I was there. Billie, although filled with amazement, managed to tell me what all the old Class of '23 were doing. He told me that Helen Benson was starring in Ringling Brothers' Circus as the greatest bare-back rider of the century.

Eugene Brooks' melancholy disposition had led him to undertake to become an undertaker.

Nellie Bullard was an athletic director in the leading girls' school of the country.

Lawrence Butler had become one of Broadway's greatest comedians.

Virginia Butler was working in Wrigley's Chewing Gum Factory.

John Chance was a street-car conductor on the Piedmont Street line of the Reidsville Traction Company.

Alwin Cook's beauty had won him the nation-wide honor of posing for Arrow collars.

THE SOUVENIR

John Craddock was away on an eighteen month trip of exploration in the Arctic Circle.

William Daniel was President of the Physical Culture Magazine.

Robert Gladstone was employed as head chemist in Lydia E. Pinkham's laboratories.

Lela Johnson was running a huckster wagon. Her uncanny ability to yell her wares was bringing her an enormous business.

Maie Johnston was selling penny post cards at the souvenir counter of the Atlantic City of Reidsville—Park Springs, N. C.

Burch Lively was at the head of the herring industry in Peru.

Herbert Mace was President of U. S. A.

Ernest Link, with the assistance of his band and a few girls, was starring in the late edition of "Zeigfield Follies" in "Broadway Buck, the Lord High Exterminator of Music."

Egbert Miles had just emerged from the Olympic Meet with title of "The Cinder Path Marvel."

Blanche Moore had been voted the best lady barber in Tasmania.

Margaret Pettigrew was Burch Lively's private secretary.

Doris Rogers was running a hospital for old hairpins.

Stamey Teachey was the champion Tiddle-de-Winks player of the Andes.

Frances Turner was working in a bird store, pitching songs for canaries.

Lula Shelton had a trustworthy position with the shipping board embroidering designs on canoes.

Estelle Sands had become an artist that would put Raphael to shame. Her life-size portrait of the Smith Brothers is in itself enough to make her famous.

Mildred Stokes and Mary Lee Ware were startling the world as movie extras.

Thelma Watlington was connected with the Amproco Company indirectly.

Berrie Williams was the successor to Sally Milgrin in the Selznick news.

Heston Mitchell had a very responsible job with Haynes, as is shown by the magazine.

Alton Gillikin was acting as counsellor to the Math professor of Columbia University.

At this time my companions returned, saying that they were ready to return to the earth. I thanked Billie and then we left, ready to give the news of our startling discovery to the world.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of R. H. S., in the County of Rockingham, State of North Carolina, being on this day almost rational, and having heard certain ominous forebodings to the effect that our days in this noble edifice are numbered, do make and publish this our last will and testament.

As to such property, both subjective and objective, as we have we dispose of the same as follows, viz.:

To Earleen Mason we will "Dick" Sand's "Frankness," provided Frank agrees.

To Susie Sharp we will Heston Mitchell's "Bloom of Youth."

To Talmage Moorefield we will our stock in the Brooklyn Bridge.

To W. B. Millner and Charlie Moss, to be used jointly, the Maxim Silencer which has for so long been attached to Lawrence Butler.

To Leo Pritchett we will Ernest Link's particular art in writing and telling stories.

To Mr. Gwynn and Mr. Lambeth we will a bottle of Anti-fat, to be divided share and share alike.

To Maude Griffith we will Lela Johnson's appetite, and also her skill at eating in school without being caught.

To Claude Burton we will Virginia Butler's excessive fat, as we think it will improve his figure.

To Henry Smothers we will John Chance's athletic ability.

To Robbie Hunt Burton we will the title "Class Baby," which Maie Johnston has held.

To Margaret Fels we will Berrie Williams's executive ability.

To Mr. Minor Gwynn we will Alwin Cook's Spanish reader, to be used as a translator.

THE SOUVENIR

To Norman Dixon we will our excess ability to learn memory work.

To Dillard Gardner we will Burch Lively's sense of humor.

To Virginia Newell we will John Chance's particular privileges.

To Russell Tucker we will the old bicycle which has been Herbert Mace's pride and joy for the last eleven years.

To Constance Gwaltney we will Reid Brande's grace and dexterity, to be added to her already sufficient supply of the same.

To Miss Counts we will Macbeth's head, to be kept in her private museum along with John Chance's goat.

We furthermore appoint that our beloved room-teacher, Mr. Watson D. Lambeth, shall have guardianship and tuition of the Junior Class during their minority, and in case of his refusal, renunciation, or decease, we appoint that Miss Janie Stacy shall exercise the said guardianship.

In testimony whereof we, the Senior Class, have to this will set our hand and seal, this the seventh day of February, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. As witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names.

points of interest, languages, manners, customs, and history of the various countries visited. Reidsville was named the home office of this touring party, as that is a progressive and wide-awake town.

The voyagers of nineteen hundred and twenty-one and twenty-two had written such glowing accounts of Admiral Gwynn's management and the wonderful instruction obtained by traveling with this party that applications were received for one hundred and nine new members. Again, after careful consideration of their records, Admiral Gwynn decided to receive them even though the cars were crowded to the utmost.

Miss Mary McConnell was chosen Dietician for the party, which was quite a valuable asset, since a well-balanced diet was essential to the health of a successful touring party.

Admiral Gwynn again placed Captain Lambeth in charge of the European party, which was especially interested in the study of Ancient, Modern, and Medieval History, that they might explore the caves and pyramids and discover new hieroglyphics.

Miss Stacey conducted her party to France, where nine delightful months were spent in the study of the French language, manners, and customs.

Admiral Gwynn took a cruise across the Mediterranean and landed at Gibraltar, from there going by car to Madrid, where they enjoyed the immense Spanish libraries and made a thorough study of the language.

In order to get a foundation for all modern languages and modern government, Miss Whitley decided that she would conduct her party to Italy and there, amid the ruins of Rome, they studied the origin of the Latin language and read selections from Cæsar, Cicero, and Virgil.

Miss Winslow carried her party to Germany, where the scientific laboratories and association with learned men would facilitate their experiments in the department of science.

Miss Holmes, with a party of one hundred and twenty, went to Washington, D. C., and attended the sessions of Congress, that they might more thoroughly understand the laws of the country.

Miss Honaker conducted a party to Arabia and there, from the parchment stained with age, they studied the beginnings of mathematics.

Class Poem

The Ninth Grade pupils, great and small,
Are known in Reidsville by one and all.
In lessons we are very bright,
And our teacher is a teacher right.

She lets us know we must behave
And know our lessons all five days.
And then she gives a long, long test
When we all must do our best.

When the reports are handed out
Every one looks and then comes a shout,
Because our work shows up fine,
Is it partly owing to our very strong minds?

Then here comes promotion time,
There is no use for one to whine,
Because we all are sure of leaving
The dear old Ninth Grade far behind.

Miss Counts and Miss Brown joined forces and traveled with one division of the party to England, where they might get a keener appreciation of Shakespeare, Keats, Milton, and Chaucer.

Miss Stacey's party decided to take advantage of the Passion Play and, much to their surprise, they met Miss Honaker's and Mr. Lambeth's parties who, having finished their explorations, had decided to give themselves this wonderful opportunity also, and all attended the Passion Play at Oberammergau. On the eve of separation Miss Stacey's and Miss Honaker's parties gave a delightful banquet to Mr. Lambeth's party, which was the most interesting social event of the year.

For literary and social development of the tourists, Mr. Lambeth's and Miss Stacey's parties organized the Elite, and Sans Souci, and the Linger-Longer-Laugh-Awhile Clubs.

In the spring of nineteen hundred and twenty-three, Admiral Gwynn called the parties together by wireless to go in quest of certain parchment scrolls which he had been informed had been buried by ancient sages on the top of Mt. Everest. When the tourists met they organized hiking clubs with the following leaders: Robert Gladstone, Margaret Fels, James Neal, Edna Earle McGehee, Harry Weatherly, Sara Johnston, Alva Stacey, Carl Pritchett, Jane Harris. The guides for the mountain climbers stated that only those with strong hearts need attempt the ascent. Jane Harris's party was the first to encamp on the mountain side to recuperate before going further. After one more day's climb, the Johnston, Stacey, and Pritchett Clubs fell by the wayside. The following evening the McGehee and Weatherly Clubs pitched camps about half-way to the summit. The rest pushed forward with strong determination. However, when in sight of the top the Fels and Neal parties were overcome with dizziness and were forced to give up the quest. But great was the rejoicing of the Gladstone party when the following day they reached the summit and in reality found the parchment. At once a wireless was sent to Reidsville, the home office of the party, to Mr. P. H. Gwynn, Jr., who, since the beginning of the first voyage in nineteen hundred and eighteen, had been the earnest supporter of the party, and whose words of encouragement have been a source of inspiration during the entire four years of travel.

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS GUESTS AT THE BELVEDERE HOTEL

R-c-i-d-s-z-v-i-l-l-e—Rah! Rah!—Richardson! Richardson! !

COACH ROBERT RICHARDSON, JR., apparently was the idol of the gang that sat at the six o'clock dinner at the Belvedere Hotel Saturday. It was there that the active members and the subs of Reidsville's High School Football Team were entertained by Principal Minor Gwynn. Members of the local school board and Superintendent P. H. Gwynn also were present as guests of the Principal.

The long table was artistically decorated in the school colors, the guests finding their respective places by means of attractive place cards.

Principal Gwynn acted as toastmaster, and his guests saw to it that there was plenty of pep during the two hours' time consumed in disposing of a tempting menu, interspersed with songs, cheers, yells, speech-making, etc.

This football team made an enviable record during the season just closed, winning all except two of the contests played. Due credit was given Principal Gwynn, but he brushed aside all praise and declared he wanted it distinctly understood that the credit belonged almost exclusively to Coach Richardson. The team members were so well pleased with their coach that they gave him a lovely watch chain as "a slight token of appreciation" for the valuable services rendered them.

The local football team, be it said to its credit, has gained the enviable reputation of having throughout the season engaged in clean, four-square sports, and Reidsville is proud of the record. Starting with a lot of green material, every boy on the squad, by his untiring work, is responsible for the remarkable showing made. As Coach Richardson remarked: "They rose to heights in their play that I had not anticipated. They are the grittiest, gamest, cleanest, most intelligent crowd of boys that have ever represented a school on the gridiron. I feel elated, and every Reidsville citizen owes something to those boys who never give up. I want especially to say that I consider that Minor Gwynn is doing and has done more for the boys of Reidsville than any other one man."

THE SOUVENIR

STEW GIVEN TO FACULTY

On the eleventh of October the Parent-Teachers Association was hostess to the Faculty of Lawsonville Avenue and Franklin Street Schools, the Trustees, and the prospective suitors of the town, at a delicious stew served at the County Playground. Cars were provided by the Association, and about four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon the party arrived at the Playground.

During the first part of the afternoon the guests amused themselves with the swimming pool, slides, and swings. Then supper was served on long tables arranged for the purpose. The menu was composed of stew, crackers, cold slaw, and hot coffee.

After supper all assembled in the Y. M. C. A. hut where, led by Mr. P. H. Gwynn, Jr., they sang old songs and played old-fashioned games. A large bonfire was built and marshmallows and bacon were toasted, which tasted all the better for a little smoke. The guests rode home under a full moon singing the "End of a Perfect Day."

BOX PARTY

On November the eighth the Senior Class gave a box party at the C. and A. Hall for the benefit of the Annual. From eight to nine o'clock there was a social, during which there was much gay conversation and laughter. Chances were sold on a cake.

With the help of Mr. Dunn, the numerous and attractively decorated boxes brought by the girls of the High School were then auctioneered.

Besides having a very enjoyable time, the Seniors made seventy-two dollars.

FRANKLIN STREET FACULTY ENTERTAINED AT THE BELVEDERE

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jones entertained the Faculty of the Franklin Street School at six o'clock dinner Friday, October the twenty-fourth, at the Belvedere Hotel. The guests were royally served with all that goes to make up a delicious turkey dinner.

After dinner, the guests were entertained on the roof garden by readings and original games, the most interesting of which was impersonations of various members of the Faculty.

THE SOUVENIR

LOCAL ROTARIANS ENTERTAIN BOYS

The Rotary Club held a splendid meeting on Tuesday evening. The High School Quartet rendered several selections to the accompaniment of Mrs. Francis Womack.

Mr. J. Minor Gwynn spoke on the work that was being done by the boys, both in the classrooms and on the athletic grounds. Mr. Allen, the county welfare officer, emphasized the need of proper coöperation with the boys. He showed that boys were inclined by nature to do right, and to imitate the action of those who appealed to them. Abe Womack had a few words to say concerning the need of a boys' band. He pointed out the success they had under the leadership of Mr. Parker, and the fact that now in his absence they were without a leader. He invited coöperation in assisting the boys of Reidsville in this particular need.

Two talks were made by high school boys, Dillard Gardner and John Womack. Dillard Gardner told his hearers that Reidsville High School athletics was among the best in the State, in spite of the fact that the school was sadly lacking in equipment. He also spoke of the need of a library and a band.

John Womack represented the Scouts, and earnestly pleaded for assistance in securing a Scout Master. He said that for the past two years the Scouts had had sufficient time to devote to the work.

The presence of these boys was mutually helpful to them and to the Rotarians.

RECEPTION TO SENIORS

A social feature of High School life always anticipated with much pleasure is the annual reception tendered the Senior Class of the Reidsville High School by the Junior Class.

This year the reception was held at the Belvedere Hotel on November the twenty-fourth.

The Faculty and guests were received by the Juniors in the lobby of the hotel. After the guests had assembled in the lobby, all the lights were flashed out and the guests saw over the entrance to the banquet hall a large welcoming sign in the form of a ship with the words, "Seniors, 1923," lighted up in large letters. They were then escorted to the banquet hall, which was beautifully decorated in the Seniors' class colors, blue and white.

THE SOUVENIR

At each end of the table were small blue and white ships, and the place cards were small anchors, emblematic of the Seniors' voyage through High School.

As soon as the guests found their seats, blessing was said by Superintendent P. H. Gwynn, and then James Irvin, of the Junior Class, acting as toastmaster, welcomed the guests.

During a very elegant four-course dinner the following toasts were given: To the Seniors, by James Neal; response by Robert Gladstone; To Our Teachers, by Margaret Fels; response, Miss Whitley; To Our Athletes, by Talmadge Moorefield; response by John Chance; To the Annual Staff, by Janie Sands; response by Berrie Williams; To Our New High School, by Margaret Johnson. Mr. P. H. Gwynn received the unusual toast of having a song sung in his favor, to which he responded with a few words of praise and encouragement to the Juniors and Seniors.

At the conclusion of the banquet the guests formed a long line and marched into the lobby, where a yell was given for Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

The Seniors expressed their appreciation of the pleasure that had been given them; then good-nights were said.

ROTARY CLUB ENTERTAINS R. H. S. QUINT

The Rotary Club gave a banquet to the boys' basket-ball squad on Tuesday, March 27th, at their regular night meeting. Seventeen boys of the squad, Coach J. Minor Gwynn, and Referee G. M. Reed were present.

The hour was made merry by the pep and enthusiasm of the club and by appropriate minute-talks by members of the club and responses by the team. Short talks were given by Miller, captain of the quint; Chance, star forward; Gillikin, center; and Gladstone, on "Athletics and their Relation to Scholarship." William Daniel closed things with a few words on the value of the "scrubs."

With a song and a yell the meeting was adjourned, and the boys' quint expressed the opinion that The Rotary Club knew how to entertain guests of honor.

After having not participated in football for several years, the Reidsville High School staged a "come-back" this year and arrayed probably the most formidable team in this section of North Carolina. The record gives the team only two defeats for the entire season, a most enviable achievement for any amateur squad.

A survey of the schedule will prove that the team met real squads, squads with reputation to sustain. The schedule was short this year due to the fact that being a first year organization no one knew what to expect, but everything considered, the squad made a record of which we may be justly proud.

Even greater praise should be given these boys, almost every one, raw recruits, who under the most capable coaching of Mr. Minor Gwynn and Mr. Robert Richardson, after days of untiring practice emerged a bunch of hard, seasoned veterans. Under the most adverse circumstances they maintained a high moral code of manliness and clean, four-square sportsmanship.

Fels without doubt was the chief ground-gainer, with Captain Chance and Pettigrew coming next in order. The success of the local team was due far more to the teamwork of all, including the substitutes, than to any individual player. Besides the development of teamwork among the boys, it raised the standing of Reidsville High School in the estimation of the public at large. Mr. Robert Richardson, Jr., of R. P. Richardson, Jr., and Co., said of the squad:

“They are the grittiest, gamest, cleanest, most intelligent crowd of boys that ever have represented a school on the gridiron.”

Any organization which can incite such a statement as this is indeed an honor to the institution which it represents.

Dual Debate—1923

PART OF THE STATE-WIDE TRIANGULAR SYSTEM

Reidsville and Leaksville high schools were paired in the state-wide debate this year. As no other school in this immediate section entered the debate this dual arrangement was made.

The results were even, each side winning the affirmative and losing the negative. Reidsville's negative team, composed of Leo Pritchett and Elwood Carroll, lost to Leaksville's team, composed of Sidney Hall and Herman Forbes. The decision was three to nothing for the affirmative.

At home the Reidsville affirmative, Susie Sharp and Dillard Gardner, won a unanimous decision over the visiting negative, Barney Walker and Joseph Bondurant. Roy Voss was Reidsville's alternate.

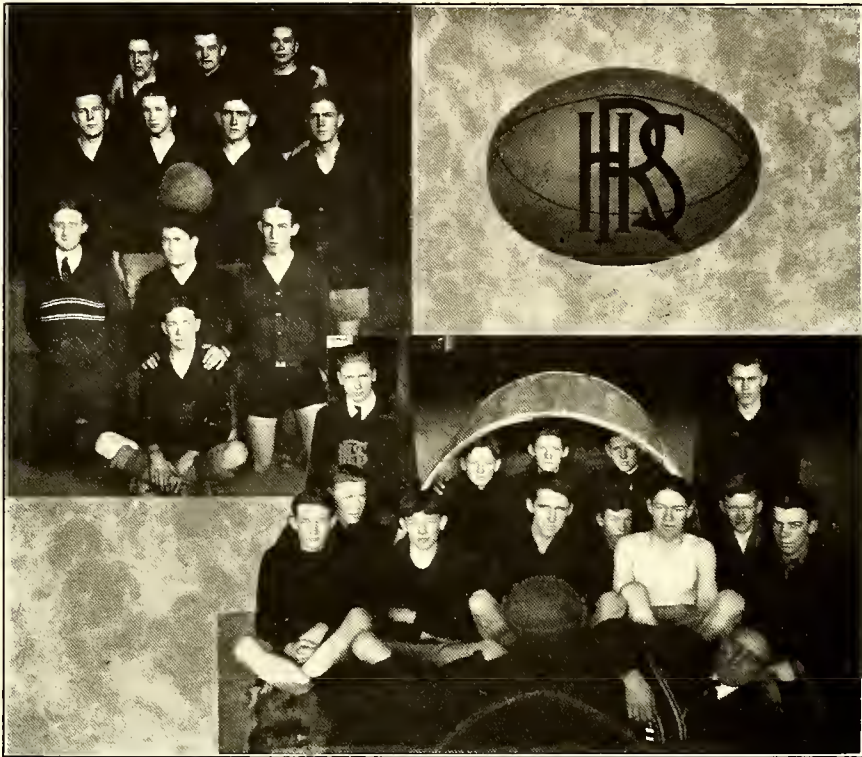

Much of the credit for the splendid showing of the debating teams goes to Miss Brown, who worked long and faithfully with the teams. Another thing of note is that all of these debaters will be back in school next season.

Basket-Ball Season

R. H. S. is most proud of the showing of her basket-ball teams this year, and with good reason. Reidsville is being placed upon the map by the conquests of her squads. Finding no organization in this territory capable of making a game interesting for the "Cyclones," Manager Gladstone planned the schedule this year, with many strong Prep Schools and "Y" quints on it. The first trip was an invasion into the North, the second into the South. The first trip was a triumphant march with the Black and Gold winning from D. M. I. and Chatham Training School by wide margins and from Schoolfield "Y" by 32—28.

The first games of the season were taken from Oak Ridge Institute, 24—21, and Mount Pleasant Institute, 34—24, but the squad dropped the third game to Danville High, 23—21, after a gruelling contest. The next game resulted in a bitterly fought-for victory for Spray "Y". The score at the end of the first half registered 17—9 in Reidsville's favor, but the substitution of Roberson for Hudgins caused a reversal, the final score being 39—37 for the visitors.

During the first trip the other squads of R. H. S. were busy, the second team taking two, one from High Point High, the other from the local All-Stars. The girls in the meantime vanquished Burlington and Martinsville by safe margins. A record in all for this one week-end—eight victories and no defeats, R. H. S. totalling more than 240 points to a little better than 100 points for her opponents.

The second trip of four games resulted in an even break for R. H. S., having taken one game from Mebane (53—13) and another from Chapel Hill High with ease, they dropped two (Carolina Freshmen, 39—24, and Durham, 33—30) after hard fought attempts to win.

Special mention should be given the second team for their record—they have already played five games and have not met with a single defeat. This squad, with one exception, is composed of Juniors, and with the three Varsity men who will not finish this year, there are good prospects for a winning quint next year also.

THE SOUVENIR

At the time of this writing the squad still has several games to play. A glance at the records of both squads given following this will show the successful results of Coach Gwynn's idea of developing all. Not many high school fives in this section are able to compare with the two "Wrecking Crews" of the Black and Gold. Incidental, but more important, is the fact that practically forty boys, or one-third of the High School enrollment, stuck to the squads.

Girls' Basket-Ball

THE SEASON

When the basket-ball season opened the girls of R. H. S. found that their squad must be formed from almost entirely new material.

The team is composed of all new players with the exception of three wearers of R. H. S., Margaret Newnam, Nellie and Ruby Bullard.

Under the leadership of our new Coach, Mr. Gwynn, we determined to work up a fighting team, which would equal any yet produced by Reidsville High School.

We have not had very satisfactory hours, nor a suitable place to practice, but in spite of the difficulties, we have quickly developed a good team.

Greater interest has been shown in our girls' basket-ball this year than ever before, and a larger percentage of the High School has been benefited.

Through the persistent efforts of the girls and the real spirit of sportsmanship we have established a reputation for R. H. S.

"To brag little, to show well, to grow gently in luck, to pay, to own up, and shut up if beaten, are the virtues of a sporting team."

The baseball team was the only one of our athletic organizations that did not meet with shining success, but some measure of good fortune was meted out to them as well. The squad met teams from all over western North Carolina and several from Virginia. The nine opened the season with a series of victories and it seemed that a promising season lay before them, but Fate ruled otherwise. Fighting "till the end," they met defeat after defeat, and finally, like Napoleon at Waterloo, they fell before the onslaught of their opponents. The team lost often, 'tis true, but with all they kept their spirit. It was this spirit born amid defeat and hardship that contributed so heavily to their subsequent successes in other branches of athletic endeavor.

From his advantageous position behind the plate, Captain Chance maneuvered his players like the veteran he is. With the proficient work of G. Pettigrew at first, the almost faultless playing of T. Pettigrew at second, the dexterous fielding of Sprinkle at short stop, and the competent covering of third by Brande, the infield had few peers in this section. The outfield was covered with the expertness of old hands by Daniel, Link, and Gladstone in right, center, and left fields, respectively. The average hitting of the team was low, which counted heavily against them. Much practice was required to develop the coöperation necessary for a good team.

The nineteen hundred and twenty-three practice was called early in March and some promising material showed up; the old outfield and the infield (save G. Pettigrew and Sprinkle), with two of the pitching staff are back. Around these as a nucleus, the Coach is attempting to build a team that will fare much better than our last season's squad.

An Appreciation

On behalf of the different teams and the school in general we wish to express our sincere appreciation to our several coaches for their faithful and efficient work.

We wish to thank Mr. J. Minor Gwynn for his work in the different branches of our athletics, for it is to him that a great deal of credit is due for our success.

Our assistant coaches, Mr. Lambeth and Mr. Robert Richardson, Jr., and our chaperon, Miss Winslow, have been at all times helpful, and we are genuinely grateful to them for what they have done for us.

Parody of Cantique de Noël

O, Examination Night, the lights are brightly shining,
'Tis night before the morn of death.
Long lay our minds, idleness and bliss enjoying,
Till exams appeared, and the soul had no rest.
The stroke of twelve, the weary head is splitting,
And yonder breaks a new and awful morn,
Fall on your knees, O pray for heavenly intervention,
O night distressing, O night, O awful night, O night distressing.

Field Day

SPONSORED by the Rotarians and by the Faculty, a new event in our athletics was inaugurated last spring. After practicing hard all the early part of the spring under the able coaching of Mr. Lambeth, the men were chosen for the great Athletic Meet at Guilford College. Later all the men showed up well in the field day events. Numerous events and suitable rewards for the victors were arranged. The dashes and the runs aroused the greatest interest, because it was these that held the largest number of points.

Finally, after a whole afternoon of events, each one bitterly contested for, the Juniors (38 points) nosed ahead of the Seniors (37½ points), winning the boys' trophy cup. The Sophomores (30 points) came third and the Freshmen (9½ points) fourth. The Senior Class easily captured the girls' cup with a score of 36, their closest rival being the Juniors (18 points). The two winners, Junior boys and Senior girls, were presented with a trophy cup by the Rotary Club.

The crowning achievement of the day occurred when Henry Miller, a Sophomore, equaled the State high school record for that event by a running broad jump of 19 feet 5½ inches.

For the girls the features were the fifty-yard dash and the baseball throw, Miss Dora Walker winning the former and Miss Ruby Smith the latter. Misses Dora Walker, Elizabeth Cardwell, Florence Burton, Bertha McCollum, Ruby Smith, Margaret Newnam, and Mary Coleman were each presented with their class numerals as winners of first places in the different events.

For the boys the most interesting features were the winning of the 100, and the 220-yard dashes; the shot put by Link; and the exceptional athletic ability displayed by Watt, who won first place in the 440 and mile run (tying for first in the pole vault), second place in the high jump, fourth in the half-mile run, and was a member of the winning relay team. Class numerals were presented to the following boys for winning first places: Miller, Watt, Link, Chance, Daniel, G. Pettigrew, Sprinkle, and J. McBryde.

At the time of this writing many men have already signed up for the track practice and are out every afternoon limbering up before the more strenuous work which is to follow. The prospects are indeed good for the 1923 season.

GIRLS' BASKET-BALL CLASS SERIES

Each year the number of girls who take part in girls' basket-ball has increased, this year being no exception. The Seventh Grade, having become High School members, were allowed to enter their team for the first time. Even though almost all of the games were one-sided, each losing team played hard until the final whistle blew. The Junior-Senior game which decided who would hold the cup for the next year ended in favor of the Juniors, score 25—21.

THE SEASON—BOY

The Senior Class won the class cup by duplicating the feat of the Sophomores last year, winning all games played, thus eliminating a post-season series. The nearest rivals of the Seniors were last year's champions who won two and lost two games. The addition of Gillikin greatly strengthened the Senior team and with Chance and Gladstone, Varsity men, the team was easily completed with Varsity "Subs." At the end of this year the cup will revert to the High School to be contested for next year.

PRESIDENT GLADSTONE DELIVERS HIS FAREWELL ADDRESS

Large Audience Hears Eloquent Discourse Delivered by President of the Class of '23

On Friday evening, June the first, enormous crowds gathered and filled to overflowing the large auditorium of the Broadway Theatre to hear R. B. Gladstone, President of the Class of '23, deliver his farewell address. This marvellous oration, which was as follows, will forever remain in the minds of his hearers:

"Friends and classmates, who have been considerate enough of their personal welfare to take council from and follow me in the past year, I come at your special request to bid you farewell.

"What greater privilege could have come to me than that of watching the expansion of your personalities under my tender and careful guidance? Through this entire year I have worked with you, and now, as you go from under my care, I trust that you will not stray from the path to success that I have pointed out to you. You have passed from childhood into manhood, and I know it moves your hearts to more than sadness that now you must face the wider responsibilities and greater struggles of life without the leadership of your president. (Here the speaker had to wait for the audience to wipe away the sudden burst of tears).

"I have dreamed many things of you, but you have obeyed nobly. You, with my help, have accomplished your task here, and are now going away well prepared to take up the task of living.

"Our work combined has been a great pleasure. Your inspiring comradeship has been a strong force, helping to nobility of conduct and to strength of character. (At this point the applause is so great that the firemen and policemen had to be called, and, after a time, succeeded in restoring peace and order). May the years see it steadily increase.

"And, now, in conclusion, my beloved schoolmates and faithful followers, as a father blesses his children and lets them go from under the parental roof, so do I bless you and send you from under my protection.

"I bid you an affectionate farewell." (He flees from the stage to escape the shower of cabbages and carrots, thrown to him by the grateful audience).

MISS COUNTS ENTERTAINS

Brilliant Social Function for Ninth Grade Boys

On Thursday afternoon at two-forty Miss Counts was hostess to the ninth grade boys in the spacious Gwynn parlor on the second floor of the Franklin Apartment House. The room was tastefully decorated with seasoned hickory limbs and hazlenut switches of extreme length and keenness, ruler, books, and other instruments of torture which have been in the family since prehistoric days.

The hostess was very simple but elegantly dressed with that exquisite harmony that can come only of fine natural taste perfected by culture. Her dress was navy blue linsey-woolsey, the only note of color being a corsage of forget-me-nots. But even in the simple regalia she appeared divinely beautiful to her guests.

The special feature of the occasion was an elevating lecture on morals and ethics by the celebrated lecturer from South Carolina. With all the eloquence and fire of her noble countryman, Calhoun, she drove home her points to her hearers, who grew somewhat restive before the entertainment was over.

Realizing that her guests were all highbrows, Miss Counts served delightful mental food, consisting of slices of tongue highly season-

THE PRIDE OF REIDSVILLE

The citizens of Reidsville have many causes for pride, no one of which, however, is as great as the fact that they have within their city limits one of the greatest institutions of learning in the world, or at least in the County. The name of this wonderful place is "Franklin-on-the-Hill," or more popularly, "The Reidsville Convict Camp." The purpose is to teach the young ideas to sprout. Accommodations have been made for all helpless young unfortunates who are placed within its walls. Many courses are offered, the most unpopular being physical torture. The inmates are under the personal care of a faculty of SUPERIOR BEINGS, who dispense much misinformation to them.

SOPHOMORE. NEAR-PLAY

For some time the Sophomore girls had been very mysterious about something. Evesdropping and prying had been in vain, no one could learn what was on foot. But patience has its reward. One afternoon, hearing stealthy footsteps and whispers in the hall, we rushed to the door, to see the Sophomores parading from one end of the hall to the other, bearing numerous and nameless paraphernalia, arrayed in what was without doubt, borrowed raiment. No one class could have possessed such a collection.

After that it got abroad that there was going to be a play. Rumor said it was to be a grand affair; they were leaving no stone unturned that would help its success; we even heard they had borrowed a real coffin. Our imaginations ran riot; interest was keyed to the highest pitch. When the long waited day arrived we marched down to what we thought would be chapel with joyful anticipation. Imagine our consternation, despair, and distress when we were turned out of doors much more starved than usual, as we lacked both mental and bodily food. Since then gossip has gradually died down, and now we wonder whether it was not all a dream, and the shapes we saw in the hall only optical illusions.

Mrs. Heston Mitchell Norman won her divorce suit yesterday in the municipal court. Stolen affections was the charge made by Mrs. Norman, who named Miss Lela Johnson as co-respondent.

COURTHOUSE NEWS

The jury of the Tenth Grade Girls pronounced Claude Burton guilty of the charge of murder of the English language. Judge Brown sentenced him to two years of high school.

Dave Montgomery was brought before Chief Gwynn Monday for assault on his books. He was sentenced to use an eraser vigorously.

Reuben Windsor was called in to court today for assault on the wall with a rubber cannon. Judge Lambeth sentenced him to appear and sit beside his desk for the following week.

Jake Stallings was brought before Chief Gwynn for shooting spitballs at a mouse. Case dismissed.

SOLO DANCING

In the room of Mr. Watson D. Lambeth, Esq., there is a victrola pat. 1654. On every night (Sundays not excepted), one situated at the proper altitude may observe Mr. Lambeth, with a red tablecloth artistically draped around his waist, diligently seeking to acquire the art of tripping the light fantastic toe. This usually continues until the midnight hour. Then, disabled with fatigue or a collision with the table, the unfortunate dancer ceases his performance.

One morning "Uncle Minor" was seen with a very broad grin on his face, and we all wondered why. Later we heard that it was all because of little P. H. Gwynn, III, his nephew, and the High School's "Baby Brother."

P. H. Gwynn, III, was born Dec. 16, 1922. He is a dear little fellow, and is held in deep affection by us all. We are looking forward to the time when he will be large enough to join "Uncle Minor's" basket-ball squad.

Speaking of Activities—

REIDSVILLE SCHOOL BOARD

SCOTT FILLMAN*Chairman*
 W. S. SOMERS*Secretary-Treasurer*

MEMBERS

MANTON OLIVER MISS EMMA McKINNEY
 MRS. DORA MILLS C. W. SWANN

Whenever activities or organizations are mentioned in the High School there is the always recurrent thought that the progressive and far-sighted policy of the local Board has made, and is making, possible the strides that the schools are taking. 'Tis true, the High School has had to undergo tremendous tests of its loyalty, but the same has been true of the grammar schools. Two sessions per day, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, have been held in Franklin Street building all this school year. But there has been relief in sight for more than eighteen months now, and the promised completion of the new High School building portrayed at the beginning of this year-book will in fact furnish that relief.

This building, which is more than twice as large as the picture shows, will be the most modern in this county, and will compare favorably in its complete equipment with any building in the State. Fifteen large classrooms, science laboratories, and lecture rooms, library, complete Home Economics Department and cafeteria, and offices for Principal and Superintendent furnish a home that will accommodate the fast growing needs of the High School for some time to come. In addition, there is a gymnasium 65 x 45 feet, so arranged that it is also the stage of the large auditorium, the two together being capable of seating 1,500 people. A modern heating plant, dressing-rooms, and showers, with excellent locker equipment occupy the basement. The building itself is of three floors, steel and fireproof construction, with plenty of room for the addition of another wing to match the present one when it is needed. The conservative style of colonial architecture and a couple of acres of additional playground space give ample assurance for one of the beauty spots of the city.

The use of this building will leave the Franklin Street School free for the use of the lower grades. The cost of the new structure will total around $150,000. New movable desks will be standard equipment, as will individual lockers, same to be placed in the wide halls.

The growth and achievements of the local High School have been seen in some ways through the pages of this book. Worthy of mention also are their high standard of scholarship and their splendid coöperation in school work proper. The school has become a fixture on the Southern Accredited list (Association of Schools and Colleges of the Southern States), while their graduates are doing good work in many colleges in several states, not to mention those who are steadily making good in business. An example of the increase in the number attending college is seen from the 1922 record—of a graduating class of 29, a total of 21 are in college this term.

Another indication of the growth of a high school is the number of students that it can hold; in other words, is its mortality rate high? At the beginning of the fall term it was found that a "Back to School" campaign was unnecessary—the mortality rate had been less than 2 per cent.

This publication does not intend to become a mere record of statistics, except in so far as statistics can stimulate to further achievement. The enrollment for 1921-22 was 222 in the High School; of that number 16 dropped out of school, and 176 were promoted, an increase in the last mentioned of 6 per cent. The percentage of promotion was just below eighty. This term most of those who dropped out returned to school again, while the general standard of work as measured by preceding years has been higher still. Fifteen made the honor roll for the mid-term out of an enrollment of 321.

This session has shown more clearly than ever before the fine spirit of helpfulness that exists between the students and Faculty. A clear spirit of fairness, an appreciation of difficulties, a high standard of honor, and a genuine fellowship have combined to make Reidsville High School esteemed by her friends, feared yet respected by her rivals, and well and favorably known all over the State.

H U M O R

Clerk: "Now see here, little boy, I can't spend the whole day showing you penny toys. Do you want the earth with a little red fence around it for one cent?"

Small Boy: "Let me see it."

SUICIDE

Mary (making a dream dress): "Miss McConnell, I'm ready to cut my neck."

Miss Brown: "I'm so sorry that your store burned, Doyle. And did it really burn?"

Janie Sands, having been exempt from exams for the first time, remarked that she was observing "exemption week."

David (to Miss Counts): "What are you writing in your book?"

Miss Counts: "Oh, I'm taking the names of all the good-looking boys."

Edwin Glass (waking up): "Miss Counts, did you take my name?"

"What is a hypocrite?" asked the teacher.

"A boy who comes to school with a smile on his face," promptly replied Johnnie.

"Don't you enjoy listening to the honk of a wild goose?"

"Not when he is driving an automobile."

THE SOUVENIR

Miss Winslow: "Charlie Moss, describe water."

Charlie: "Water is a white fluid that turns black when you put your hands in it."

Mother: "Mrs. Howard is going to send her darling, cute Percy to your school."

Son: "Good! Us fellers will percy-cute him all right."

Professor: "Are you sure that this is a purely original composition you have handed in?"

Student: "Yes, sir, but you may have come across one or two of the words in the dictionary."

Johnnie: "Mother, these breeches you made me are tighter than my own skin."

Mother: "Now, Johnnie, you know that isn't so."

Johnnie: "Yes, it is so! I can sit down in my skin but I can't sit down in these breeches."

Mr. Meane: "I have nothing but praise for the new minister."

Mr. Brown: "So I noticed when the plate went around."

Miss Brown: "Thomas Nelson Page is dead and we will write to his wife for some personal characteristics."

V. Whitsette: "But his wife is dead, too!"

Miss Brown: "That is right. Well then, we won't write to her."

Mr. Lambeth: "Name the thirteen original colonies."

Norman: "They are Italy, Spain, France, Portugal, Florida, Germany, Turkey, Greece, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North America, and South America."

Alton (at basket-ball game): "This is the end of the first quarter."

Lou: "Alton, how many quarters do they play?"

Miss Brown: "John Watt will stay in after school for misbehaving to-day."

Class: "John is absent to-day."

THE SOUVENIR

Miss Counts: "What does famous mean?"

Gordon: "Full of fame."

Miss Counts: "And jealous?"

Gordon: "Full of jelly."

Miss Brown: "Girls, you must stop behaving."

Day by day in every way,
My Spanish is getting harder,
I hope the next book I get
Will have a new self-starter.

Frank Chance (stating a problem on Math class): "Miss Holmes, how do you abbreviate refrigerator?"

Robert Butler: "Ice-box, you silly."

C. Moss wants to know what to do and how to do it at a banquet.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF:

Anybody in High School borrowed paper?

Dillard Gardner used a big word?

Virginia Newell gave anybody a bite?

Susie Sharp had a date?

The Grecian Urn got broke?

Eugene Brooks knew his Spanish?

Miss Honaker bought a piece of candy?

Reita Newnam studied her lessons?

Maude Griffith talked?

The Faculty went out at little recess for air?

"Dick" Sands came without rouge?

State Championship—Basket-ball

REIDSVILLE'S REMARKABLE RECORD

The "Rainbow Five," the basket-ball quint representing Reidsville "Hi" made a remarkable showing in the State High School Championship race this year. In all the State, 79 high school teams were entered in the contest, 40 in the West, and 39 in the East.

The quints in the East and West fight separately, each section eliminating the contestants. The winners meet for the championship at the University, Chapel Hill, for the final game in March of each season.

In the western division Reidsville fought its way through to the finals, which is the semi-finals in the State. The local school copped four games in a row, and earned the right to contest Asheville Highs at Chapel Hill on March 8th.

Guilford College High went down before them by the score of 48—21. The entire squad, both regulars and subs, was used in this game. Miller, Chance, and Gillikin were high scorers. Then our old rivals, Leaksville, were met in Greensboro on February 23d, and a stinging defeat of 54—22 was tagged to their banner. All the squad was used in this contest, too.

Fresh from the Leaksville victory, Greensboro was met on the Guilford College Court on February 28th, and the final count showed that we had evened up for the preceding year, when they defeated R. H. S. by a four-point margin and walked on to a championship. The score was 48—24, with Chance and Miller starring.

Welcome High School, unknown until this year's basket-ball series, was next conquered on the Guilford College floor in a hard-fought game. The tally was 27—18, with a rally in the last few minutes being all that staved off defeat. In this contest the quint seemed to begin to show the strain of the long season they had gone through, and appeared a little stale.

Chapel Hill and only two games away from the championship! It looked mighty close, but fate decreed otherwise. The game with Asheville on March 8th was a pretty fight, but the striking offense and clever defense of the Mountain City lads was too much for the locals, and the game ended 27—35 in their favor. This contest was commented on as the cleanest high school championship contest ever played on Bynum Gymnasium floor, only eleven fouls being called on both fives.

The record made in basket-ball this season was just as remarkable as the football record. Of 25 games played, 20 were won and 5 lost. Eleven were played at home, and 14 away, 9 being won here and 11 away from home.

Chance and Miller were the high scorers of the season, while Gillikin and Link were next. Gladstone was injured seriously in the middle of the season and had to stop, while Mace and Thacker were the surprise developments of the squad. Mace, in particular, deserves special mention, both for his perseverance, and for his spectacular work in the championship series.

Chance, Gladstone, Mace, Teachey, and Link ended their high school basket-ball careers with this wonderful season. They will all be sorely missed next year, but good men have been developing to take their places, and Millner, Neal, Irvin, Way, Glass, and Montgomery are expected to fill their places.

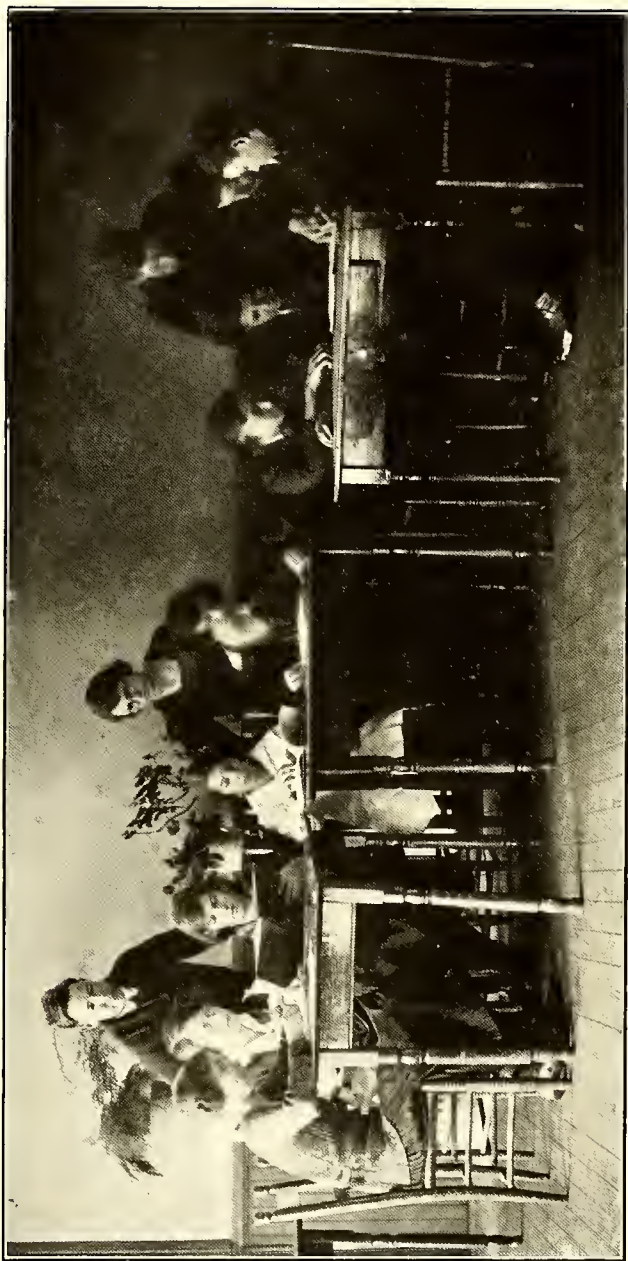

Of the quint, Chance and Miller were put on the All-State quint, and All-West quint by one writer. Mace, Gillikin, and Delancy also were mentioned as deserving special praise.

Girls' Championship Basket-ball Record

In contesting for the girls' championship laurels the State is put into three divisions. Reidsville is in the Central Division.

After a successful practice, following a successful season, the girls' quint entered the championship. They tied the first game with Winston in Greensboro. As the teams were so evenly matched, another court was selected, Guilford College being the place. Though determined to win, the result of the second game with Winston was a tie, also, 18—18. In this game Winston had a lead of 11—2 at the end of the first half, but the locals warmed up in the last half and showed their usual comeback, tying the score in the last few minutes of play.

In the third game with Winston we were just as obstinate in our desire to win, but Lady Luck perched on Winston's banner, and they took the contest by a 10—9 score. Winston promptly went ahead and won from Leaks-ville and Trinity, obtaining the championship.

IN setting the type, printing, and binding this book, our object was not to see how quickly and cheaply we could produce the publication, but how well it could be done.

Our whole aim in this, as in all our work, is to give the greatest attention to all the details, and produce printing that will be a credit to the institutions from which the publications are issued. Our books will be just as good in the many years to come, when an annual is of greatest value, as they are to-day.
