It has ortained its present great distinction by A. P. ROMAN. the extraordinary screes which has attended it in the healing air, while every avenue and track have been scarched in vain for its parallel; its discovery is one of the most sacred boons that can be afforded to the unfortunate martyr of dis-STRGEON DENTIST.

IR. J. FONTANGES, having changed his place of abode profits by the occasion to return his thanks to those persons who deigned to honor him with their confidence, and to inform the makes that his new residence is No. 218

WHEREAS A. Longer has applied to me, praying the bond which he subscribed as security with T. F. Bargas as a weigher of correction to honor him with their confidence, and to inform the city of New-Orleans, on the 14th day of July 1820, and the mortgage resulting therefrom be raised and annulled. These are to its healing powers: its usefulness as a general treatment of the life of the city of Palledship classical and annulled. These are to its healing powers: its usefulness as a general treatment of the life of the city of Palledship classical and the city of Palledship classical in writing at the office of the Secretary of State, could furnish thousands of witnesses, to contradiet the base and malicious fabrications which

What, we would ask, can be a stronger proof Given under my hand and the of its utility, than its success in the remayivania Hospital, Philadelphia Alms House, and the Philadelphia and New-York Penitentiaries, and in other public institutions alike serviceable, where the eminent skill which presides over them had been exhausted in vain. "These facts much transport tonggod"—and cannot be gainspeak trumpet tongued' -and cannot be gainsaid. It is much to be lamented that there are so many spurious mixtures manufactured in initation of this invaluable medecine, some assusing to possess equal virtue, and tended under the same titles—some have gone to the daring extremny of refilling the old bottles with the lat bels on; whilst others, to filch the public, have published for their benefit the very certificate which the propriator of the Genuine Catholices had obtained from those who were cured by his medicine, of various distressing diseases. Thus has he been assailed in every form by envy, jealonsy and fraud; and thereby prevent extending the usefulness of this great and long wished for remedy. Just received, direct from the manufactory of
