U. S. QUARTER DOLLARS.

57.00	315	1796	Strong, sharp, brilliant impression: entire surface proof: 6 in date almost touches bust: I believe this to be the finest known specimen; a gem for any collection
44.00	316	1796	6 more distant from bust: fine strong impression: everything sharp except centres of stars on left: hair clear and well defined: eagle's head perfectly struck up (more so than in preceding); it has seen but the slightest, if any, circulation
13.00	317	1796	Broken die; very fair
42.00	318	1807	Uncirculated: all sharply struck except a few stars: mint lustre still retained: one of the finest specimens known; that in Randall's sale sold for $90
2.10	319	1815	Barely circulated; clear, bold impression
7.10	320	1818	Uncirculated, brilliant and sharp; nearly all the extra fine quarter dollars of this period came from Mr. White's hoard, as he seems to have paid more attention to this series than any other
7.10	321	1819	Very slight trace of circulation: strongly struck; very desirable in this condition
32.00	322	1820	Large O; uncirculated
2.10	323	1821	Uncirculated
31.00	324	1822	Very fine specimen: barely circulated; desirable in this condition

- 25.00 421 1877 Copper Fifty Dollars: large head of Liberty 1., by Barber: 13 stars surrounding. \mathcal{R} similar to Double Eagle but enlarged: FIFTY DOLLARS below: fine broad planchet (size 32); fine proof. A prominent Philadelphia dealer recently had one of these and held it at $300, which alone will give an idea of the great rarity of this remarkable piece: this fact, however, has not influenced the owner to place any limit whatever on the piece, which will be sold on its merits solely; first and only one ever offered
- 14.20 422 1878 Goloid Metric Dollar. \mathcal{R} composition described within a circle of stars: very few of these pieces struck: desirable;
brilliant proof
- 17.50 423 1878 Silver Dollars. The Morgan accepted and the Barber rejected designs: single specimens have sold as high as $19; in the Warner sale the pair brought $35; brilliant proofs end of a stick in eagle's claw: desirable; brilliant proof

- 1.10 425 1879 Lead Goloid Metric Dollars; one trifle bruised on edge, otherwise fine 2 pcs.
- 4.20 426 1880 Copper Goloid Metric Dollar, the large size: this must not be confounded with the commoner issues of 1879: first ever offered: desirable specimen; brilliant proof
- 4.20 427 1880 Copper Goloid Metric Dollar, the smaller size: remarks relating to preceding lot apply to this also: first offered;
brilliant proof
- 1.50 428 1881 Copper 5-Cent piece: the first pattern for the present issue of nickels; proof
- 1.50 429 1882 Nickel 5-Cent piece: large stars: the same design as
