

Exhibit of
The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
Superintendent's Office,

Chicago Oct. 21, 1893.

Col. W. C. Dorbyshell

Supt. U. S. Mint. Phila.

Dear Sir.

Your favor of 19th at hand.
Sales of medals still continue to boom although not quite reaching the figures of the 13th inst.

Offer I am glad to say is now
feeling entirely well and his mouth
is almost healed up.

Frank Thompson is here also Messrs Leidy & Bond.

We have heard from Herrin
that he has received his letter of detail and we will be ready to give him a hearty welcome upon his arrival.

Mr. Offer has I believe secured quarters for Heim and some one will meet him at the Station if he lets us know when his train is expected to arrive in Chicago.

All join me in kind regards

Very Respectfully

H. S. Beckley

Col. O.C. Bosbyshell
Supt. U.S. Mint Phila.

Dear Sir

You favor of 19th at hand. Sales of medals still continue to boom although not quite reaching the figures of the 12 inst.

Opper I am glad to say is now feeling entirely well and his mouth is almost healed up.

Frank Thompson is here, also Messis Leidy & Pound.

We have heard from Heim that he has received his letter of detail and we will be ready to give him a hearty welcome upon his arrival.

Mr. Opper has I believed secured quarters for Heim and some one will meet him at the Station if he lets us know when his train is expected to arrive in Chicago.

All join me in kind regards.

Very Respectfully,
N.S. Beekley
