Lieutenant Joseph A. KUSH, USNR, flight officer of VCSJ, took off from U.S.S. LINGA POINT (CV394) on 28 February 1945 leading a division of four FM-2s on Target Combat Air Patrol over Iwo Jima, Volcano Islands.

The group was ordered to execute a strafing attack on Jap artillery positions. This target had been bombed by FM-1s just previously and was partially obscured by smoke, dust and haze. However, Lieutenant KUSH'S division made two high speed runs over it and the strafing was believed to be accurate.

No estimate of casualties or damage could be made.

No enemy opposition was encountered and all planes returned safely to base.
