ALLIED CONFERENCE ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE

BUILDING OCCUPIED BY LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SOLD TO SYNDICATE FOR $90,000

Frontage of Fifty-two Feet Is Appraised at Nearly $1,000 Per Foot; Group of Hollywood Capitalists New Owners

SALE of the Citizens Building and accompanying land on South Brand boulevard to a group of Hollywood capitalists for the record price of upwards of $90,000, was reported this morning by W. B. Kelly, local realtor, who represented the Citizens Building company in the transaction.

The sale price is said to set a record figure for local business sites, not located on corners. Based on the fact that several banks have appraised the land involved at approximately $50,000, it is figured out that the realty alone in the purchase will entail a cost of about $1000 per foot.

The new owners of the property, which is located at 150 to 154 South Brand boulevard, are headed by William Gumbiner and L. H. Gumbiner. The building has a width of practically fifty-two feet on Brand boulevard and a depth of 120 feet.

At the present time the structure on the property house the Chamber of Commerce, offices and banquet rooms on the upper floor, and the Glen Inn and The Newton Electric Company on the ground floor. The building is two stories in height.

The Gumbiner brothers are reported to be shrewd and conservative business investors. It is understood that they do not con-

U. S. MAY PROPOSE PREMIERS UNABLE TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES TO AGREE UPON REPARATIONS

Harding and Harvey Hold Conference; Discuss Way To Prevent Strife

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
 For International News Service.
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—With the French and British on the verge of splitting at Paris over reparations—a split that officials of this government would view as incalculable menace to world peace and stability—an important series of conferences began here today out of which may come some "American proposals" for adjustment of the question that has kept Europe in industrial and economic ferment for three years.

Colonel George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain, summoned home at this critical stage of allied affairs to consult with President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes, slipped into the capital late last night, almost unobserved.

Hold Conference
 Colonel Harvey went direct to the White House, despite the lateness of the hour and talked with Mr. Harding until far into the night.

Colonel Harvey will remain at the White House during his Washington visit.

With Colonel Harvey in Washington and Ambassador Herrick hastening back to Paris from the Riviera, the stage will be set for whatever "proposals"—if any—the American government may decide to put forward in the present tense situation.

Examine Into Plans
 President Harding kept the day virtually free for conversations with his advisers and members of the cabinet. He had no engagements until noon, and none in the afternoon.

Both at the White House and state department today the French and British "plans" were under close scrutiny.

No official comment on their respective merits could be obtained.

New German Proposals
 Herr Bergmann, German economic expert, who brought fresh proposals from Chancellor Cuno, said he had not been apprised when the German plan would be received.

During the morning King Albert of Belgium conferred with Premier Millerand on reparations.

The amount of indemnity Germany would pay under the British plan varies with the amount of time taken by the Germans to pay up. The scheme calls for a fifty billion gold mark settlement in bonds, but the twentieth paragraph of the plan reads:

Payment Estimates
 "If the adoption of the plan led to a rapid revival of German credit Germany might be able, through raising loans to pay off the whole annuity in the first few years, and at the present exchange values the total of reparations might not be more and probably would be less than thirty billion gold marks."

Premier Poincare estimated that under the British plan the Germans, by speedy, efficient manipulation, might escape with 25,000,000,000 gold marks indemnity.

CALL MEETING ON BOND ELECTION

Grade Schools Seek Total of $447,600 to Expand Glendale's System

A mass meeting will be held Thursday night, January 11, in the Wilson Avenue Intermediate school to consider a bond election for $447,600 for the expansion of the local grammar school system.

A mass meeting will be held Saturday night in the Cerritos school to consider the advisability of recommending to the grammar school board of education whether it should improve the Cerritos school or the Magnolia school.

These two meetings were discussed last night in the offices of the grammar school board of education, 109-A South Brand boulevard, by the grammar school board of education and the citizens' committee of fifteen which has been investigating the local school system.

Favor Public Park
 Recommendation that the Magnolia school should be improved and the Cerritos school grounds transformed into a public park was made by William Griffin of 806 South San Fernando road and L. H. Griffin of 1024 South San Fernando road, representing the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement Association.

Discussion on this subject was deferred until after Saturday night's mass meeting in order that the attitude of the residents in the vicinity of the two schools might be learned.

CAMP HOTEL MAY LOCATE IN CITY

Institution for Benefit of Auto Tourists Makes Survey of Situation

Glendale stands a good chance of being chosen by the Huckleberry Hotel System as a site for one of a chain of tourist hotels and camp grounds which the system will establish from the Atlantic to Pacific coasts.

Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by Jesse E. Smith, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Smith explained that the camping hotel project had not been given out for publicity because negotiations are as yet in an immature state.

He said that the tourist hotel and camp grounds for this vicinity will either be located in Glendale or Hollywood.

Surveys Are Made
 The Huckleberry company has already taken surveys of the desirable camping grounds in this territory, Mr. Smith stated.

He asserted, as did James Rhoades, secretary of the chamber, that the establishment here of the project outlined would mean that several hundred campers and tourists would reside in this community the year round. They would spend considerable money in Glendale, Mr. Rhoades believes.

Mr. Smith intimated that if the deal materializes, the new hotel and grounds will be located on a five-acre tract of land on the San Fernando road towards Burbank.

CHOBES DESERVES REWARD

YEAR after year the citizens of Glendale who have witnessed the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena on New Year's day, have been given great cause to rejoice on account of the representative float of this community and the favorable comment given it by the spectators.

And especially have the people here rejoiced when the report is given out time after time that "Glendale wins first prize." Indeed, it would be gratifying to the citizens of any community to know before hand that the local entry would always come to the forefront.

So the time has come when the public has expressed itself as favoring, in a substantial way, the recompense of L. W. Chobe for his superior talent, which, expressed through the medium of flowers in floats, has given this city hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of publicity and making Glendale known the length and breadth of America.

In response to this demand the members of the float committee met at the Chamber of Commerce this morning with Jesse E. Smith, president of the Chamber, acting as chairman, and after listening to a statement by J. C. Huntley, chairman of the committee, which report explained that the expense of the float proper is being taken care of, passed a resolution that R. F. Kitterman of the Security Trust & Savings Bank be named as the person to whom all checks may be made payable by persons who deem it a privilege to participate in subscribing to a Chobe Honor Fund in behalf of the great good he has accomplished for Glendale in the last few years.

Before adjourning members of the committee immediately made out checks payable to R. F. Kitterman for amounts of $10 and upward.

UNIQUE DESIGNS BOOST GLENDALE

L. W. Chobe Sets Record in Capturing Prizes at Pasadena Event

FREE FLOAT PICTURES
 Present subscribers and new subscribers will each be given free of charge a picture of the Glendale float, and its designer, as published in today's Evening News. The picture will be printed on enamel paper stock.

Four consecutive times has L. W. Chobe "said it with flowers," designing prize-winning floats for Glendale in Pasadena's annual Tournament of Roses parade three times out of four winning first prize for this city by his unique and artistic creations.

Mr. Chobe's first triumph came in 1920, when Glendale won major honors with his magnificent float depicting a green valley at the foot of a range of mighty mountains rising in pinnacles of purple violets, capped with deep snow of white carnations. On the grassy turf at the foot of these imposing ranges, watered by a tumbling cataract, grew orange trees and a spacious California bungalow, basked in the sunshine.

First Prize Again
 The 1921 entry, also designed by Mr. Chobe, repeated Glendale's winning first prize again. This lovely float depicted a violet-studded dale stretching away to distant snowy mountains over which the sun was rising. Out of the rich turf sprang three marvelous roses, of graded sizes, each one composed of thousands of roses. The smallest represented the Glendale of the past, 1910. The middle bloom represented the Glendale of today, 1920. While the largest represented the Glendale of tomorrow, 1930. Little Anna Louise Muhleman stood watering the 1920 bloom, that it might prosper and grow into the fulness of its strength and size by 1930.

Scout Council Will Hold Annual Meeting

The Verdugo Hills District council of the Boy Scouts of America will hold its first annual meeting in the banquet hall of the Citizens' building, Friday night, January 12.

As soon as these plans have been completed they will be published in The Evening News. It is thought, however, that this annual meeting of the council will be one of the most enthusiastic assemblages that has ever been held in the honor of the boyhood of the district. The past year has been the greatest year in the annals of the local Boy Scouts. The membership has been increased over 200 per cent.

STREET CAR LINE PLANS DISCUSSED

Glendale Advancement Club Believes New Service Is Soon Assured

The first general meeting in two weeks was held yesterday noon in the Broadway Inn by the Glendale Advancement Association.

The establishment of an electric service on South Glendale avenue was the chief subject of discussion.

"I don't know of anything which is more sure of being carried through than the extension of this railroad," stated Herman Nelson, manager of the Glendale Avenue Branch of the Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings Bank.

According to Mr. Nelson, certain arrangements are being deputed by the Glendale & Montrose railroad until the $25,000 bonus, promised upon completion of the construction work, is actually in the bank. He emphasized the fact that this money would be retained in the bank in charge of Dr. Henry H. Hattower, S. C. Kinch and Peter L. Perry, and would not be paid over to the railroad company until street cars were actually in operation.

To speed up the collection of subscriptions, already pledged, a committee was appointed consisting of C. E. Stanley, Mrs. W. E. Mercer and C. P. Stuart.

The association congratulated itself in having had a share in defraying a portion of the expenses incurred in creating Glendale's peacock.

PARK IN SOUTH SECTION IS PLAN

Site Now Being Occupied by Cerritos School May Be Secured, Announced

The San Fernando Avenue Improvement Association is carrying on negotiations with city officials and the board of education looking forward to the acquisition of the site now occupied by the Cerritos school for a proposed city park.

Information to this effect was given the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday by L. H. Wilson, president of the San Fernando avenue organization.

Mr. Wilson, together with several members of the Glendale Avenue Development Association, was a guest at the chamber directors' regular weekly luncheon.

He told the assembly that the southern terminus of the city's intent on having a park. "After making a survey of that section of Glendale," he said, "the members of my organization have decided to take the Cerritos school property is impractical and inadequate as a school site, but very desirable for a civic park."

City Council Approves
 Mr. Wilson stated that he had taken the matter up with the city council and that the latter approved of the San Fernando avenue association's plans as far as the Cerritos school site is concerned.

He said also that his organization is now working to obtain the consent of the board of education to move the membership of the Cerritos avenue school to the Magnolia avenue school. He said this action would be requested (Continued on page 10)

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Speedy Action Needed Highway Legislation Two Quit State Offices Jobs Are Poorly Paid

By Gil A. Cowan

WAR FRAUDS in construction are claimed by the department of justice, as having emanated from no less authority than an assistant secretary of war during the Wilson administration.

In other words, the man who made officers also made them crooks, if the charges are substantiated. The man who has the fullest confidence of the cabinet and the president at the same time betrayed the men who fought for freedom, according to the allegations.

Speedy trials are promised and it is to be hoped that early conviction or complete vindication of the parties named be accomplished in order that a blot will not be permitted in the history of those who served faithfully, even unto death.

One out here in the west, who did his bit and still is doing it, is overwhelmed at the story revealed recently of these high officials' actions, if they be truly pictured in the news dispatches.

Permission for the state and counties to provide funds to build and maintain highways through municipalities is to be sought of the next legislature.

Indeed, this is one big piece of highway legislation that amounts to very little in either words or money, but much in results.

There are scores of literally bankrupt cities that will be benefited by such legislation and the burden will be shifted to all of the people who benefit from having "connecting links" kept in equally as good condition as the highway "a mile out of town."

Endorsement of such a measure should be given by every Chamber of Commerce and civic group in order that its importance will be placed before the legislators in an emphatic manner.

No hot tears should be shed over the resignation of Chester Rowell from the railroad commission or Al McCabe from the office of state insurance commissioner. Both were politicians, both were important cogs in the Stephens' machine, if not entitled to the term of chief engineers.

Rowell, who also writes "Comments," is going to tour the world. McCabe is going to stick to San Francisco and politics. In our humble opinion, however, both are going to fade into insignificance a lot faster than they expect.

For, as they say in Los Angeles, take a speedy person to keep up with the procession of the city, and it is the same in California politics, it would appear to a rank outsider.

Secretary of the Interior, A. B. Fall, is another public servant who soon leaves his seat in the Harding cabinet.

The country is being combed for a man to become governor of the federal reserve board. Other opportunities exist for "big men" to go into "cheap offices" and while the temptation is large, one cannot help thinking a business man sacrifices more in political service than he is given credit by the public.

Fact is, most politicians are financially broke and subject to corrupt influence—all because the average voter thinks $5,000 high pay and $12,000 the limit.

A really big man is chosen at any price, providing he brings efficiency and results to his office.

NEW YEAR'S DAY AUTO ACCIDENTS ARE FEW

Collisions Reported Were of Minor Nature; Slight Damage Done Cars

Very few auto accidents were reported at the clerk's office in Eagle Rock for New Year's day, which is considered remarkable, taking into consideration the jam of traffic from early morning until late at night. Those reported were of a minor nature and resulted chiefly in slight damage done to the various cars that came in contact.

Machines driven by George Corry and C. A. Zobram collided at the intersection of Colorado boulevard and Satsuma avenue. Front fenders of the machines were somewhat disfigured, but no one injured.

George D. Richmond of 300 South Wilton, Los Angeles, and Mrs. M. H. Robinson, of Long Beach, collided with their machines on Colorado. The latter reported a smashed radiator and bent hood.

R. N. Farnsworth of 1239 Linton avenue, Glendale, reported that his car was damaged by coming in contact with a car driven by F. C. Hagge, of Los Angeles. The fender on this car was bent out of shape.

CITY TRUSTEES OF EAGLE ROCK IN MEETING

Routine Business Matters Are Discussed; Urge Street Work

The board of trustees of the City of Eagle Rock met in the city hall last night with all members present. After reading and approving the minutes of the last meeting, the board took under consideration various propositions that citizens introduced and then proceeded with the regular routine.

Wm. R. Johnston, G. E. Hegge and others addressed the board relative to improvements on various streets. Several communications addressed to the board were read and disposed of in proper order.

After concluding the business of the evening, the board adjourned to meet at the usual time next week.

A communication addressed to the Board of Trustees of the City of Eagle Rock from Dr. George P. Clements, was read at the meeting Tuesday evening.

Dr. Clements drew attention to the auto camp at the foot of Acadia street, by the burning of rubbish, oil and waste, and asked that the city immediately take action to curb it. He said the stench was so bad at times that residents had to seal their homes.

On motion, the matter was ordered turned over to Dr. Carl H. Phinney, the city health officer, who is expected to make an examination at once, and to correct any nuisance in evidence.

CALL MEETING ON BOND ELECTION

Grade Schools Seek Total of $447,600 to Expand Glendale's System

(Continued from page 1) Way, chairman of the committee, which has been investigating this subject, recommended that such a school should be located as near the north and south dividing line as possible. He admitted that the only difficulty about such a location was the price of the site.

The Francis-Barnum-Walters Company, promoters of Spanish Heights, submitted the following proposition: "We will sell the city of Glendale the school site designated on the attached map for the sum of Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($13,600.00). We will sell this tract to you without cash payment, nor will we require any payment during a period not to exceed twenty-four months. Provided one thing, however, viz: that the school board should obligate itself to take over and pay for said property within the two years, to improve the premises with adequate school buildings.

Should you not take over the property within the next twelve months, we think it proper that your board shall add to the above price an amount equivalent to the taxes for that fiscal year, the 1922-23 taxes being already paid.

Relative to price we beg to advise you that the street and curb improvements, including water and electricity, properly chargeable to this location will cost us approximately $5,115 and that therefore the price quoted you is extremely low. You, of course, well know that we could retail in lots, this tract of ground for not less than three times as much as we are quoting you."

Besides the members of the grammar school board of education, last night's meeting was attended by the following members of the Committee of Fifteen: W. E. Hewitt, Mrs. Myrtle Buckman, H. V. Henry, W. C. Wattles, O. G. Thompson, Mrs. E. S. McKee, John L. Holen, Mrs. O. W. Esselman, and James W. Everington.

PRESIDENT INTRODUCES RIGID ECONOMY

BIG ENROLLMENT IN SCHOOLS OF EAGLE ROCK

E. E. Harwood Says Gain of Thirty Pupils Noted After Holidays

By E. E. HARWOOD Superintendent Eagle Rock Schools Eagle Rock schools re-opened Tuesday with an increase of about thirty pupils over the number enrolled at the closing before the holidays. The growth in the school attendance this year has been steady and of about the same rate as was anticipated, by the school authorities last June. Provision was made at that time to handle 1400 pupils by the beginning of the fall term, 1923, the present enrollment is 891.

Special subjects are being given more attention this year than in the past. Special teachers have been provided for manual training, sewing, cooking, music, art, and penmanship. The first four of the subjects are being handled by teachers who were in the system last year. Art classes are being taught by Miss Clara Jordan, who has had a number of years' experience in her line of work. Her work in the local schools has met with a great deal of success.

The penmanship is taught by Miss Louise M. Spencer, who is principal of the Spencer School of Rhythical Penmanship, located in Second and Broadway. Her work has aroused a great deal of interest. At the teachers' institute just held in Los Angeles, a group of Eagle Rock pupils demonstrated this method of penmanship, a demonstration which was viewed by hundreds, in fact the exhibit was so crowded that the superintendent of the Eagle Rock schools had to view it from the doorway of the exhibition room.

Considerable attention is being given to placing children in age and ability groups, promoting those of superior ability through three or four half grades in a year instead of only two as is generally done. One of the local trustees, Peter H. Ducker, has recently returned from an eastern trip. While there he observed some of the newer methods in practice which are of a similar nature to those being introduced here.

The spring term will open February 5. At this time pupils may enter the kindergarten and first grade. The graduating class of the eighth grade has thirty-five pupils. The grade and room arrangements will not be changed materially next term. At present there are twelve classes attending half-day sessions, with the prospect of having one or two more classes attending half day after the new term begins.

More room is badly needed, as the present system of half-day classes is quite unsatisfactory for supervision and other purposes. With the constant growth in school attendance it will be necessary to make the largest plans possible for the opening in September. The present bonding capacity is less than $100,000. The Board of Education is making plans now for a six-grade school with kindergarten at each of the end schools. The plans are being outlined by Architect J. J. Austin, who will have a report for the next meeting of the board.

Vacation trips would be much more pleasant if the first stop wasn't the savings bank.

ANNEXATION DATA GIVEN TRUSTEES LAST NIGHT

Election Will Be Called If Sufficient Signatures Can Be Obtained

The report of City Attorney Rollin L. McNitt in reference to the annexation question was submitted to the Board of Trustees of the City of Eagle Rock at the last session of the board last night.

The report said that if the Board of Trustees found that there were a sufficient number of bona fide signatures and the petitions were presented in proper form, it would be required to call an election at some future time. The first question was to ascertain if there were enough signatures from citizens of Eagle Rock. This could be determined by comparing the names on the petitions with the registration of Los Angeles county as shown by the last regular election. It requires the signatures of twenty-five per cent of the electors in Eagle Rock to call such an election.

A resolution was offered and passed by unanimous vote that the city clerk proceed to make such examination of the records as suggested in the report of Attorney McNitt.

When asked as to when a report on the subject would be forthcoming, City Clerk Ben B. Fartsch stated it would necessarily require some time. He said he was not prepared to say just when his report would be ready, but that he would begin the work of checking shortly.

Bible Class for Women Will Meet

The Thursday Morning Bible Class for Women will meet as usual in the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. During the holiday season nearly 150 women have been present each week. Now that the holidays are past the class officers are expecting a large increase in the attendance. Mrs. A. L. Dennis, the teacher, is reported to be bringing each week a virile and stirring message. The class is un denominational and unsectarian and all women have been cordially invited to attend.

C. OF C. MAY BE REORGANIZED BY EXPERTS

Executive Officers Decide Issue Should Be Put Up to Members

The question of employing professionals to reorganize the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce is to be put squarely up to the members themselves. This was decided upon last night by the executive officers at their meeting in Dr. Crawford's office, and the matter was referred to the next open meeting of the chamber which is set for the last Tuesday in January.

The outline of the plan as presented by the professional organizers is briefly as follows: To raise the yearly dues to $12 per year; to employ a paid secretary at a salary of from $150 to $200 per month, to rent office space and carry on a six weeks' intensive membership drive, through publicity in the newspapers, dimers and personal work of committees. The last four days of the campaign, the membership committee would canvass practically every home in the city and secure the memberships or pledges. As compensation for their work, the organizers would be allowed 20 per cent of the yearly income derived through the addition of the new members and pledges.

Many Views Taken—As there has been so many divergent views in the past on the matter of what should properly constitute the yearly dues, and the question of a salaried secretary, it was thought best to have the whole question put before the entire membership.

Owing to the fact that George Van Sands is now connected with a Los Angeles newspaper and is no longer in charge of The Eagle Rock Daily News, he requested that the salary of $30 a month be discontinued. His suggestion was accepted by the committee.

Milton H. Berry, Jr., was extended a vote of thanks when it was learned that since the big "Eagle Rock" sign has been installed, he has personally taken the responsibility of lighting it every night. The secretary was authorized to instruct the Edison company to install a time-switch clock that will automatically relieve Mr. Berry of this duty.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Nelson of 152 N. Ellenwood Drive are enjoying a visit from Mr. Nelson's mother, Mrs. Robinson, of Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Robinson is very much impressed by the beauty of Eagle Rock City, as this is her first visit here. She will make quite an extended visit.

THE CHEMISTRY OF OPTIMISM

A friend of mine has worked out for himself a formula which he considers shows the part which mental science can play in healing sickness.

This is the formula:

Indigestion equals bad health. Indigestion plus worry over indigestion equals worse health. Indigestion plus courage and optimism equals better health. Perhaps ultimately good health. Substitute the formula still bodily ill and the formula still holds true. My friend picks out indigestion because it is the thing he himself has had to fight.

Give Your Body a Chance

His philosophy as expressed at more length is this. If anyone has a basic physical defect he should consult a physician and let that physician do what he can to correct it. That should not be neglected. But neither should one stop there. One should do what one can to aid the physician by removing anything else which the body has to fight against so that it may concentrate its force in fighting against the physical ailment.

Optimism and pessimism both have definite chemical effects upon the body.

Optimism, courage, hope, faith, increase the body's ability to get rid of disease germs or of diseased conditions.

Pessimism, worry, cowardice,

BEAUTY CHATS

GROW OLD GRACEFULLY

We advocate, we who talk together in this space each day, that no woman should grow old as long as it is possible for her to hold on to her youth. But when she must grow old—and she must some inevitable day—she must do so gracefully. There is nothing more terrible than the woman who is actually old, but will not admit it by actions or appearance.

I know of two who won't quite admit being old, and who make their masquerade graceful and that's because both are superb actresses and can do things ordinary women cannot. One is Ellen Terry, who says: "I am nothing but an old lady," but who wears drapery, classic in its lines and never in her out of fashion, who makes her pretty cheeks a very delicate pink and does something clever to her eyes. But she makes herself into a Dresden china grandmother doll and the art is so superb one likes it.

The other is Sarah Bernhardt whom I once saw in Paris off the stage. Since the loss of her leg she will not walk (for what could be more of an anti-climax than the divine Sarah limping on crutches?) she is carried in a litter, usually half covered with vivid flowers. Her intense dramatic instinct makes her dramatize even this part of her life—she remains graceful, aloof, "divine" as she has been called. She is made-up off as well as on the stage—but for her indeed, "all the world's a stage"—so it seems quite all right and natural.

And there is one other woman, whose name I cannot use as she's a "private citizen." She's—well, 60 odd at least, with snow white hair. But she's bobbed her hair and has it always exquisitely waved, and I know she uses rouge and lip stick. She too, looks like a white-haired china shepherdess—but I'd hesitate to advise any woman to try such an experiment on herself.

Happy Hearted—Rub your chapped hands and elbows with either vanishing cream, or the honey-almond lotion, every night at bedtime. If a week or two of this treatment does not correct your trouble, use cosmetic gloves on the hands after each one has been generously coated with a nourishing cold cream—not a cleansing cream.

You did not say what caused the extraordinary chapping. Of course if you do much housework, or if your hands are often ing hurriedly at cheap restaurants where the food is bad. But you should have something hot. Can't you carry hot milk or else make yourself tea or chocolate at the office? Many places are now equipped so the girls can prepare hot things to drink.

T. F.—Send me a letter with a s. s. c. for the hair tonic formula. This is particularly good for hair that is going gray too soon.

Tomorrow—Simply Hints

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

MUSIC CLUB TO OFFER PROGRAM

Charles Wakefield Cadman And Princess Tsianina to Appear Thursday

Glendale music lovers who are not members of the Glendale Music Club find themselves frequently envious of those more fortunate, particularly when such a treat is in store for the club members as on Thursday night when Charles Wakefield Cadman, musician and composer, and Princess Tsianina, mezzo soprano, will give a joint program of Indian music in the Glendale Union high school auditorium.

Their program is to be presented in three parts:

- PART I
- (a) Vocal solos by Princess Tsianina, accompanied by Mr. Cadman. "Invocation to the Sun God" (harmonized and translated Zuni song) (Troyer). "Lover's Proposal" (Zuni tune) (Troyer).
 - "By the Waters of Minnetonka" (Cheyenne Melody) (Lieurance).
 - (b) Piano solos by Mr. Cadman. "The Pampolour's Fan" (Cadman).
 - "To a Vanishing Race" (Navajo) (Cadman).
 - "The Wolfe Dance" (From Thunderbird Suite) (Cadman).
 - (c) Vocal solos by Princess Tsianina, accompanied by Mr. Cadman. "Pale Moon" (Logan).
 - "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" (Omaha) (Cadman).
 - "Ho, Ye Warriors" (Sioux) (Cadman).

PART II

- (b) Vocal solos by Princess Tsianina, accompanied by Mr. Cadman. "Tell Her My Lodge Is Warm" (Ojibway) (Cadman) dedicated to Princess Tsianina.
- "The Naked Bear" (Ojibway) (Barton).
- Aria, "Gone Song" (from opera "Shanewis") (Cadman).
- (c) Mr. Cadman will exhibit a genuine Indian flageolet and play several Indian love songs, followed by a few brief remarks on Indian folk songs.

PART III

Selections from the American opera "Shanewis": "The Robinwoman" (Cadman), Princess Tsianina, accompanied by Mr. Cadman.

Aria, "Indian Lament" ("Into the Forest Near to God I Go").

The Indian Princess has not been to the Pacific coast for four seasons and during that time she has been in Europe studying. She was born in America and an interesting experience of her in recent years was serving as entertainer overseas during the war. For this service she was honored with membership in the American Legion.

Elks Will Conduct Cornerstone Services

The cornerstone of the new Mission Playhouse at San Gabriel will be laid on Sunday afternoon next at 2 o'clock. The ceremony will be conducted by Alhambra Lodge No. 1328, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, assisted by all other Elks' lodges in the southern California jurisdiction.

The oration of the day will be delivered by John G. Mott, past exalted ruler of Los Angeles Lodge No. 99, and a noted and eloquent attorney of that city. Santa Monica lodge will send its famous brass band to participate in the event.

An elaborate musical program will be rendered, a notable feature of which will be the rendition of two anthems by the Los Angeles Gratiof Society of 120 voices. The public is invited to witness the ceremonies as guests of the officiating Elks.

John Steven McGroarty, author of the Mission Play, invited the Elks to lay the cornerstone of his new playhouse for the reason that the Elks' order was founded by actors and is traditionally in sympathy with the theatre and the drama.

The Elks' ritual has never been used at a public cornerstone laying in the state of California before. It is a most beautiful and colorful ritual and will prove intensely interesting to those who hear and witness it.

dous importance of maintaining highways properly. Enactment of the Federal Highway Act brings matured plans for a connected system of highways covering the whole Nation. Road-building is being directed with greater intelligence than formerly. Plans of federal, state and county experts are co-ordinated. The whole general purpose is to "provide complete and economical highway transport service throughout the Nation." In this there should be the widest and fullest co-operation, so that the highway system of the United States may be made pre-eminent by the best in the world.

MERCILESS NEURITIS

Imps of Hades armed with red-hot pitchforks could scarcely inflict more cruel, agonizing torture than that endured by many sufferers from neuritis.

The sharp stabbing pains caused by this disease are usually centered about the shoulder, neck, forearm, and leg in the back or along the thigh nerve. Sometimes they move from one part to another, sending out lightning jabs which produce untold misery.

If you want prompt relief, apply Tysmol over the part that hurts, and the pain should disappear.

Tysmol is absorbed through the pores of the skin and has a soothing, healing effect upon the inflamed, diseased nerves. Contains no "dope." Guaranteed harmless. Price 31 at Roberts & Echols, Tysmol Company, 425 Chestnut, Sutter St., San Francisco. Advertisement.

Diet and Health By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

H. K. and G.—The condition of excessive perspiration is technically known as hyperidrosis, and when there is a bad odor as bromidrosis. In the latter case the odor is caused either by the skin excreting products in the perspiration which have a bad odor, or there is a decomposition of the perspiration after it is excreted. This is usually caused by a little germ called the bacillus fetidum. This little evil minded invader can be killed thoroughly by a solution made of a quart of water with an ounce of formalin in it. After bathing the parts night and morning and drying them, rub on some of the solution. After a while it won't be necessary to apply it so often.

Formalin is a 40 per cent solution of the gas, formaldehyde, in water. It is under the name of formalin that formaldehyde is sold in the drug stores. Any drug clerk who does not know this simple chemical fact needs to do a little studying. I make this somewhat sarcastic remark because I have seen two or three letters saying some drug clerks stated that what my followers wanted was formaldehyde.

Mrs. Y. & S. E.—Your S. O. S. that I have helped one bewhiskered lady, why not another, is heard. The article on superfluous hair has been forwarded from the office if you enclosed a stamped addressed envelope. Did you?

Now for the Fullers Earth clay clump. As I said in the article, I doubt if these masks will give the astounding results that are advertised.

They Say That

Another corroborating word of encouragement and inspiration about economic conditions in this country comes from the United States Employment Service. Increase in employment in the United States was greater in November than during any month since January. Employment gains were noted particularly in the iron and steel, metal, tobacco, textile and oil industries. "All manifestations point to a steady upward trend in employment," the report says. There has been and is an actual shortage in common labor. This has been relieved, partially by the release of farm workers, but the shortage persists in many parts of the country.

What a striking contrast this is to conditions which prevailed only a few months ago! The Nation was startled then by lugubrious announcements that from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 men were in involuntary idleness. And now reports come in terms of labor shortages—more jobs than there are men to fill them.

More roadbuilding was done, during the past year, in the United States, than ever before in the history of the country, in a similar period. This is the assertion of Thomas H. McDonald, chief of the Federal Bureau of Public Roads, in his annual report to the Secretary of Agriculture. Ten thousand miles of road construction was the year's record for highways which were given federal aid. More than this mileage doubtless was constructed without federal assistance, the public, too, has become awakened to the tremen-

SPORTS

The World Over By Franklin B. Morse. Pacific Sports Service

Death exacted a heavy toll during 1922 from among the ranks of the old-time sportsmen and, as usual, the greater number of the dead are numbered among those who were, in one way or another, associated with baseball.

Baseball: Michael J. Finn, part owner of the Omaha club; Dan O'Leary, who played in the 1880's with the old Union association; James C. Dunn, president and chief owner of the Cleveland Americans; Jack O'Connell, once a Pacific Coast umpire; Herbert H. Drake; Charles Homphill, American League outfielder; Len Tifer, catcher in the San Joaquin Valley league; George Cuppy, a big league pitcher, who retired in 1922; Jake Stahl, manager Boston Americans; Sam Thompson, old Detroit National League; Pat Killallon, catcher in the Pacific Coast and Western leagues; George Gibson, pitcher, Coast and Western leagues; Austin McHenry, star outfielder of the Cardinals; Dick Padden, St. Louis Brown second baseman; Charles E. Shuler, Dermod, former National League umpire; Frank Geninis, National League outfielder; Garnett W. (Midge) Craven, of the Brooklyn Nationals; Emil Frisk, Pacific Coast and Northwestern leagues; Benjamin F. Sillio, president Philadelphia Americans; William P. (Bunker) Rhinos, old time pitcher; J. D. Baldwin, captain and coach of Oregon Aggies in 1918; Bill Dillioufer, Cardinals; John Comarata, business manager Chicago White Sox; Adrian C. "Pop" Anson; Dr. Walter J. "Spike" Hennessey, one-time owner of the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast league; Dr. Harold C. Ernst, star Harvard pitcher in the 1870's.

Boxing: Sam Fitzpatrick, trainer of Peter Jackson and Kid Lavigne; Louis Barroso; Richard K. Fox, publisher; Henry E. Buermeyer, a founder of the New York Athletic club and the first U. S. amateur heavyweight champion; John J. Jack Kelly, once Pacific coast veler champion, Johnny Vizard, light heavyweight of Tacoma; James F. Carroll; Edward O. Hare, light heavy; Johnny O'Leary, former Canadian lightweight.

Shooting: William A. Baillie-Grobban, who won more than 70 important British and American trophies; Philo Jacoby, few shooters won more trophies than Jacoby.

There has been a lot said pro and con as to whether Ty Cobb hit better than 400 this year. The alteration has come about on a disputed hit early last season and Ben Johnson has announced Cobb is entitled to the hit. That gives Cobb the lone hit necessary to boost his average for 1922 over the 400 mark. That hitting 400 and better in a season is a worthy feat is admitted by all fans and the worthiness of the accomplishment is further enhanced when it is known that since the year 1871 only forty-three players have accomplished the feat. Of this number fifteen registered four hundred or better in one year, in 1887. In those days a hit was given to any man who got his base on balls and incidentally the year 1887 was the time when four strikes were in vogue.

Ty Cobb, now that he has been officially given that extra hit shares honors with Jesse Furkert of being the only major league to bat 400 or better three times in their career. Burckett as a member of the Cleveland team in 1895 hit 423 and in 1896 419 and his third year was registered in 1899 when he was with St. Louis, his average for the year being 402. The highest Cobb has hit was 429 in 1911 being 402 and he followed this the next year with 410 and now in the 1922 season we find him with better than 400.

Hitting better than 400 in the minors is just as rare as in the majors. Last season, that of 1921, Duffy Lewis, former Boston American and now manager of the Salt Lake team of the Pacific coast league, hit 403 in 165 games, this being the first time any player of regular batting had done the trick.

The list of players who have hit 400 or better in the majors and in the days gone by are:

The MUCKER by Edgar Rice Burroughs

The dog, bored by the inaction, had wandered back into the summer kitchen and resumed his broken slumber.

Quite unexpectedly he lost his balance, the table tipped, he was thrown still farther over toward it, and all in the flash of an eye, tramp, table, and family Bible crashed to the floor.

With a little cry of alarm the woman rushed forward to gather up the Holy Book, in her haste forgetting the shotgun and leaving it behind her leaning against the arm of a chair.

Almost simultaneously the two tramps saw the real cause of her perturbation. The large book had fallen upon its back, open, and as several of the leaves turned over before coming to rest their eyes went wide at what was revealed between.

United States currency in denominations of five, ten, twenty-dollar bills lay snugly inserted between the leaves of the Bible. The tramp who lay on the floor, as yet too surprised to attempt to rise, rolled over and seized the book as a football player seizes the pigskin after a fumble, covering it with his body, his arms, and sticking out his elbows as a further protection to the invaluable thing.

At the first cry of the woman the dog rose growling and bounded into the room. The tramp leaning against the wall saw the brute coming—a mongrel hound-dog, bristling and savage.

The shotgun stood almost within the man's reach—a step and it was in his hands. As though sensing the fellow's intentions the dog wheeled from the tramp upon the floor, toward whom he had leaped, and sprang for the other ragged scoundrel.

The muzzle of the gun met him halfway. There was a deafening roar. The dog collapsed to the floor, his chest torn out. Now the woman began to scream for help; but in an instant both the tramps were upon her choking her to silence.

One of them ran to the summer kitchen, returning a moment later with a piece of clothesline, while the other sat astride the victim, his fingers closed about her throat.

Eleven hundred dollars in bills were hidden there, because the woman and her husband didn't believe in banks—the savings of a lifetime. In agony, as she regained consciousness, she saw the last of their little hoard transferred to the pockets of the tramps, and when they had finished they demanded to know where she kept the rest, loosening her gag that she might reply.

"She told them that that was all the money she had in the world, and begged he makin' not to take it. 'You've got more coin than dis,' growled one of the men, 'an' youse had better pass it over, or we'll find a way to make youse.'"

But still she insisted that that was all. The tramp stepped into the kitchen. A wood fire was burning in the stove. A pair of pliers lay upon the window sill. With these he lifted one of the hot stove-hole covers and returned to the parlor, grinning.

"I guess she'll remember she's got more w'en dis begins to work," he said. "Take off her shoes, Dink."

The other growled an objection. "Yeh poor boob," he said. "De dicks'll be here in a little while. We'd better be makin' our get-away wid w'at we got."

"Gee!" exclaimed his companion. "I elean forgot all about he dicks," and then after a moment's silence during which his evil face underwent various changes of expression from fear to final relief, he turned an ugly, crooked grimace upon his companion.

"We got to creak her," he said. "Dey ain't no udder way. If dey finds her alive she'll blab sure, an' dey won't be no trouble 'bout gettin' us or identifyin' us neither."

The other shrugged. "Let's beat it," he whined. "We can't more'n do time for dis job if we stop now; but de udder'll mean—" and he made a suggestive circle with a grimy finger close to his neck.

"No, it won't nothin' of de kind," urged his companion. "I got it all doped out. We got lots o' time before de dicks are due. We'll creak de skirt, an' den we'll beat it up de road an' meet de dicks—see?"

RADIO EXPLAINED BY LIEUT. JOHN R. IRWIN INSTRUCTOR U. S. AIR SERVICE

As previously stated, it is our intention to first deal with the propagation of damped waves, as the apparatus is simple and easily adjusted, but the principles of damped and undamped waves are the same in many respects, so that much of what is described regarding damped wave apparatus applies as well.

Damped oscillations are produced when a condenser discharges in a circuit containing inductance. The condenser is discharged by placing it in series with a spark gap and applying a voltage to it high enough to break down or spark across the gap.

APPARATUS AND DEVICES BY RALPH BROWN, RADIO ENGINEER

These coils are a departure from the present method of making inductances of this type, as they are impregnated in Dupont enamel and no varnish is used in their makeup.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE LACE CURTAIN. "Oh, dear! Are you going out again?" asked Nurse Jane of Uncle Wiggily one day, as she saw him taking his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch from the clock shelf.

"Why, I go out nearly every day to have an adventure," said the bumpy uncle with a twinkle of his pink nose. "Why shouldn't I see out today? Do you happen to see the Wozzie Wolf or the Fuzzy Fox waiting to nibble me?"

"No, nothing like that," answered Nurse Jane with a sigh. "But I was rather hoping that you would stay in today and help me."

Uncle Wiggily quickly made a low and polite bow of his tall silk hat. "Of course I'll stay in and help you," he said. "What do you want done?"

"I want some new lace curtains draped over the windows," said the misshapen lady housekeeper. "I bought some at a special sale in the seven and eight-cent store, and now, as the holidays are over, I want to put the lace curtains up where they will show. The windows are too high for me to reach, but you—"

"My bangalow will be a fine place with all these curtains up," said Uncle Wiggily, as he started to fasten one bit of lace over the window.

"Oh, look out! It's upside down!" suddenly cried Nurse Jane. "What is? The step ladder?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "If it is I am standing on my head and I didn't know it!"

"No! No! The ladder isn't upside down!" laughed Nurse Jane. "You'd know if it was. But you have the lace curtain upside down. You have the bottom up top."

"That is easily changed," said the bumpy uncle, and was about to fasten it to the rods when again Nurse Jane cried.

"What's the matter now?" asked Uncle Wiggily, holding fast to the step ladder. "Am I falling down?"

"No, you would know if you were falling," laughed Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "But you have the wrong curtain, even if you have it right side up. That is a left hand curtain and on that window belongs a right hand curtain. Stand there and I'll give you the right one."

"Dear me," said the bumpy gentleman as he handed down one bit of lace and took another from Nurse Jane. "Hanging curtains is not as easy as it seems."

"That's why I wanted you to stay home and help me," said the muskrat lady housekeeper. "There, I think you are all right now."

"I hope so," said Uncle Wiggily to himself. "Then he fastened the lace curtain on the rod, but no sooner was it in place than Nurse Jane fairly screamed."

"What's wrong now?" asked the bumpy. "The curtain is inside out!" said Nurse Jane. "You'll have to take it down and put it up over again."

"Oh, dear!" gasped Uncle Wiggily. He took the curtain down in such a hurry that it fell over his head and hung down like a lady's veil. And just then the door opened and in came the

More Than Two Billion Dollars Worth of Products Manufactured in California Annually

California has already become famous throughout the nation for her climate, her tourists, her scenery, her fruit and her gold.

Wide Range of Industries

Lumber and timber products, printing and publishing, the production of beet sugar, tanning, currying and finishing of leather, production of tinware, manufacture of confections—all represent industries which return their millions of dollars to California every year.

Few people realize that in addition California manufactures iron and steel, food preparations of various kinds, women's clothing, men's clothing, bags and paper products, furniture, steam, gas and water engines, condensed milk, paints, electrical machinery, soap, cement, tobacco products, and chemicals. Each of these lines of industry represents a total output of more than ten million dollars per year.

And there are dozens of other lines which contribute their millions to the state's total production. A few of these are chocolate and cocoa, automobile bodies and parts, agricultural implements, photographic supplies, explosives, rubber tires, tubes and rubber products, roofing materials, fertilizers, shoes, jewelry, fur goods, etc.

California is a great industrial state as well as a leader in agricultural wealth and natural resources.

Help Us Tell the Nation These Amazing Facts About Our State

This advertisement is one of a series of three, the first devoted to telling of California's agricultural wealth, the second to California's natural resources, and the third to California's industries. These are facts of which you can well be proud.

Beautiful booklets and descriptive literature about California have been prepared by such organizations as Californians, Inc., San Francisco; by the All-Year Club of Southern California, Los Angeles, and by the San Diego-California Club, San Diego.

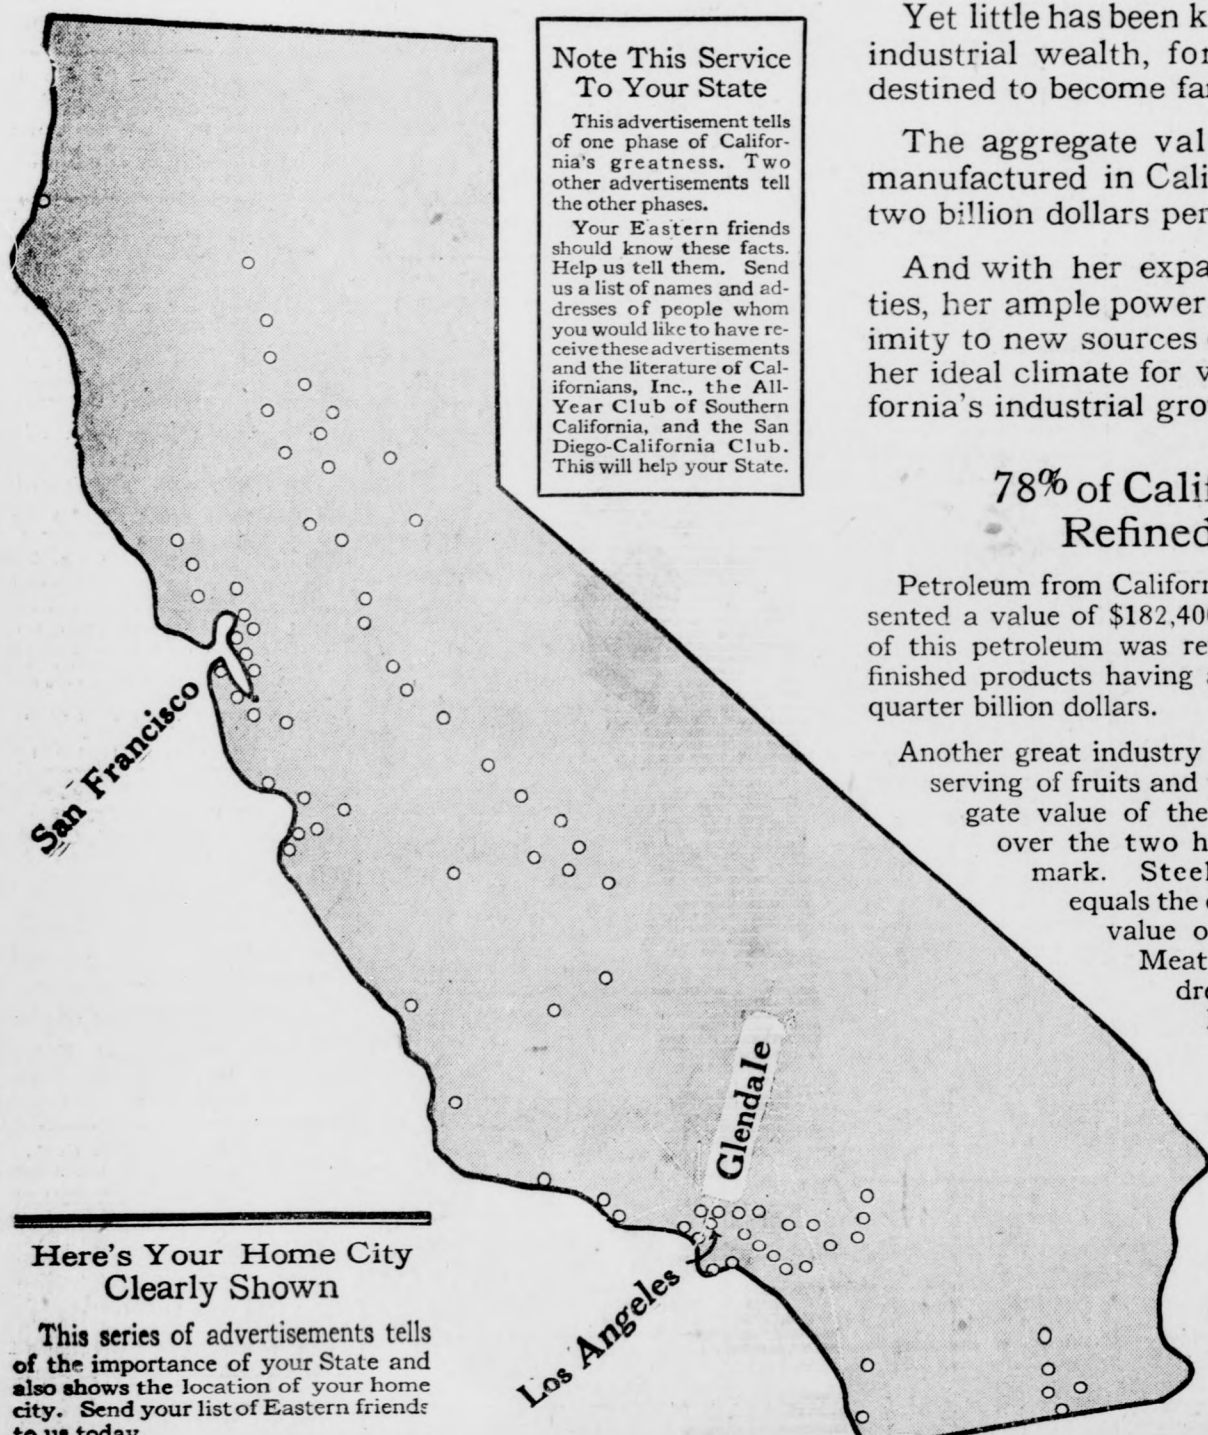

There are thousands of people in other states who have no conception of California's greatness. Some of them are your friends. Help us tell them.

If you will send to the Southern Pacific Company a list of the names and addresses of your friends, living elsewhere, whom you would like to have receive this series of advertisements, as well as the California literature prepared by these organizations which have for their sole purpose the advertising of California, we will see that your friends get this California literature.

Your Own Community

Note the map which shows where your town is located. Your friends will be glad to know. The list of names you send us will be turned over to your own Chamber of Commerce or other civic organization and literature will be sent to your friends and kinsmen telling them interesting facts about your own particular community.

Simply attach your list to the coupon below and send it to us—no obligation on your part. Do it today before you forget. In this way you will help to spread this message of California's greatness throughout the land and perform a valuable service not only to your State but to yourself and to your community.

Note This Service To Your State

This advertisement tells of one phase of California's greatness. Two other advertisements tell the other phases.

Your Eastern friends should know these facts. Help us tell them. Send us a list of names and addresses of people whom you would like to have receive these advertisements and the literature of Californians, Inc., the All-Year Club of Southern California, and the San Diego-California Club. This will help your State.

Yet little has been known of California's industrial wealth, for which she is also destined to become famous.

The aggregate value of the products manufactured in California is more than two billion dollars per year.

And with her expanding harbor facilities, her ample power resources, her proximity to new sources of raw material, and her ideal climate for work and play, California's industrial growth has just begun.

78% of California Oil Refined Here

Petroleum from California wells last year represented a value of $182,400,000. More than 78% of this petroleum was refined in California, the finished products having a value of more than a quarter billion dollars.

Another great industry is the canning and preserving of fruits and vegetables. The aggregate value of the finished products runs over the two hundred million dollar mark. Steel shipbuilding almost equals the canning industry in total value of finished products. Meat packing is over the hundred million dollar mark. Flour milling reaches $75,000,000.

Here's Your Home City Clearly Shown

This series of advertisements tells of the importance of your State and also shows the location of your home city. Send your list of Eastern friends to us today.

C. OF C. NAMES COMMITTEEMEN

Much Business Is Effected By Directors at First Session of Year

Plans for a bigger and greater Glendale Chamber of Commerce during 1923 blossomed forth yesterday at the chamber directors' first meeting.

Briefly, three additional committeemen have been appointed by the chamber directors to cooperate with the organization in work that they will be called on to handle. The men are: H. S. McCormack, business counselor, who will attend to the chamber's publicity department, George B. Karr, who will look after civic affairs, and C. F. Stuart, who will function on the chamber's membership committee.

Mr. McCormack will work under the supervision of W. L. Twining, chairman of the publicity committee. The new publicity department was created for the purpose of consolidating all publicity that is issued by the Chamber of Commerce.

The three new appointees, who were present at the meeting, made a few remarks at the request of Jesse E. Smith, president of the Chamber, who presided.

A resolution that the Chamber of Commerce present at the Pasadena Rose Tournament, with a vote of thanks, was unanimously passed.

President Smith, who moved that some such resolution be passed, stated that the publicity that Glendale receives from its float displays each year can be traced directly to Mr. Chobe.

James Rhoades, secretary of the chamber, announced that Rex B. Goodcell, internal revenue collector for the Los Angeles district, desired to address the business people of Glendale the night of January 11 or 12.

President Smith, on motion of the directors, directed the secretary to arrange for Mr. Goodcell's address at the chamber's assembly room. The exact date that Mr. Goodcell will appear will be duly published by The Evening News.

The chamber directors emphasized that everybody in Glendale interested in income taxes will be welcomed to the meeting.

Mr. Goodcell is reputed to be a forceful talker and one who is well versed regarding income tax problems. His talk will be confined to the latter subject.

Hotel Project Discussed

Before adjourning, and on motion of C. F. Stuart, a member of the Glendale Avenue Advance association, the directors of the chamber, 6 to 2, voted to appoint a committee of twelve to work with the Glendale avenue organization in furtherance of its hotel project.

P. J. Hazelden, who talked on the hotel project also, reported that the Strauss interests, of San Francisco, will undoubtedly erect the new state, in his opinion.

He said he had no new developments to report, due to inactivity of the hotel committee during the holidays.

Saturday morning the party motored through picturesque Palm canyon to the Salton sea, that great dry cavity several hundred feet below the Pacific's level, where the marks of the ancient tides are still to be seen on the cliffs, and whose sands are scattered with myriad aquatic reminders of that long gone era.

The party stopped at El Centro Saturday night, pushing over the pass to San Diego early Sunday morning, and thence to Coronado, where they spent Sunday night. Next morning the return trip was begun, bringing them into Glendale by sundown Monday night, after a stop-over at La Jolla for dinner.

TROOPS GUARD HEARING OF KLAN

State of Louisiana Opens Case of Mob Murder at Bastrop on Friday

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
 (Special National News Service)

BASTROP, La., Jan. 3.—Violence stalked in the shadow lands of Morehouse parish today where the state government of Louisiana, aided by federal forces, is playing a game of human checkers with the "wild of the wisp" authority of the Ku Klux Klan.

A troop of cavalry is patrolling this little town where the state will conduct an open hearing Friday on the brutal double murder of Watt Daniels and Thomas F. Richards of Mer Rouge, by a "hooded mob" last August. By the cavalry arrived in the early dawn from Jennings, La., as reinforcements for the three other detachments of national guardsmen already patrolling the parish.

Troops Excite Folks

The feeling of tension, which has existed throughout the countryside for weeks, was heightened by the arrival of mounted troops. Rumors fled from lip to lip that their presence meant the launching of sweeping "wholesale arrests" of men connected with the "hooded mob" murders.

Federal agents who are gathering evidence to support the state's case, declared there would be no sensational round-up of suspects for the present.

Back From Trip

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles of 328 North Orange street, have returned from a motor trip to Elgin where they spent a very pleasant week-end as guests at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Corwin, former residents of Glendale. It will be interesting to many Glendale people to hear that the Corwins' daughter and husband, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Harold Scott, and family who returned from Germany during the past year, are now in Elsinore.

Lieut. Scott, who is a dental surgeon, has received his discharge from the United States service and he has purchased a ranch near his parents. The other daughter, Mrs. John Dean, and family, who lived many years in Glendale, are also making their home on a ranch in that vicinity.

A special initiation is extended to the new members of the church, and newcomers in the vicinity. Mrs. John W. Cotton, president of the society will be in charge.

Execute Four More Irish Republicans

DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—The iron hand of Free State military punishment fell upon republican irregulars again today when four prisoners were executed in Kerry.

The executed men were Mathew Moroney, Thomas Devane, Cornelius Cassey and Dermot O'Connor. All were members of republican guerrilla bands which had been harassing the Free State troops in the wilds of West Ireland. The executions were in reprisals for ambushes.

General Murphy, commanding the Free State troops in County Kerry, issued public warning three weeks ago that the men who were held as hostages, would be executed if further ambush attacks were made.

Factions in Italy Starting Civil War

ROME, Jan. 3.—Hostilities between royal guards and Fascisti have reached serious proportions at some places, according to advices received here.

At Naples, guardsmen attacked the Fascisti headquarters, burning the furniture.

Hostile demonstrations against the Fascisti by royal guards were reported from Genoa, Piza and Parma.

The fighting between royal guards and Fascisti at Turin was more serious than first reported. An official communique said three guardsmen and one member of the Fascisti were killed and 15 wounded. Rioting at Turin began on Sunday.

POLICE IDENTIFY SCHOOL INTRUDER

Ralph Geyer Is Ex-Convict From Illinois Prison; Partner Held

The importance of the capture of the two men who were in the act of ransacking the Cerritos school Monday night was emphasized this morning by Col. J. D. Fraser, chief of police.

Baggage checks found in the possession of the man, who attempted to shoot Officer Louis Nunn, enabled the police to obtain possession of two suitcases belonging to him. They were brought to the local police station from Los Angeles. Both of these were crammed with stolen property, including a number of watches, several pieces of jewelry, flash lights, shaving sets, cuff links and a miscellany of various stolen articles.

The criminal record of this man was found, also. A document showed that he served seven years in the Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet under the name of Ralph Geyer, after having been convicted in Chicago on a charge of burglary. He was sentenced, according to Illinois law, to an indeterminate sentence of from one year to life.

Released From Joliet

Upon promise that he would leave the State of Illinois, Geyer was released with the understanding that his parole papers would be forwarded to him as soon as he had notified the superintendent of the Illinois Department of Pardons and Paroles that he had arrived in California.

Col. Fraser regards this as a flagrant example of one state trying to foist an undesirable criminal upon another state.

Upon arrival in California, Geyer was arrested upon suspicion and detained for 160 days in the county jail while his case was investigated.

A brief diary kept by Geyer explains some of his actions since leaving Illinois. Frequent mention is made of "Virginia" who is reported to be Miss Virginia Meyers of Los Angeles. There are a number of notations in code also which have not yet been deciphered.

Erick Vaughn is believed to have been an innocent accomplice in Monday night's escapade. It is understood that the two men did not meet until they found themselves together on a freight train. They were put off together at Glendale and broke into the Cerritos school where they proceeded to rob themselves a meal in the domestic science department.

PETITIONS STATE FOR HIGHWAY AID

C. of C. Adopt Resolution Calling on Legislature For Road Funds

The directorate of the Chamber of Commerce, at its luncheon yesterday in the chamber's assembly room, went on record as favoring a state law which would permit of the state and counties appropriating funds for the expense of building and maintenance of certain streets in communities which form connecting links to state highways and county roads.

Favorable action on the matter was taken following the reading of a resolution on the proposition as amended by the Huntington Park Chamber of Commerce. The latter organization in its communication, said that all the chambers of commerce in southern California will be asked to adopt a similar resolution.

James Rhoades, secretary of the local chamber, told the directors that the Huntington Park amendment to the state law, if successfully recorded, will lift a burden from the shoulders of a great many cities. He said that San Fernando boulevard, between Burbank and Glendale, is now kept in repairs by the cities of Burbank and Glendale, despite the fact that the highway is used considerably by both the state and county for transportation purposes.

Reads Resolution

The resolution adopted by the Huntington Park Chamber of Commerce follows:

"Whereas, certain streets in every town in California are necessarily connecting links to the boulevards and highways in the state of California;

"Whereas, increased transportation of freight over these streets going from town to town, as well as increased travel of passenger motor busses, constitutes a large part of the traffic over these certain streets, and

"Whereas, the present law does not provide for any help from the state or counties in the maintenance of these streets, and

"Whereas, each town must bear all expense of the upkeep and maintenance of these streets, now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Huntington Park Chamber of Commerce in regular board of directors meeting assembled the 14th day of December, 1922,

"That we do endorse and recommend to the members of the state legislature an amendment to the act of state law enabling the state and counties to appropriate funds toward the expense of building and maintenance of these certain streets forming these connecting links to the state highway and county roads. Also,

"That the copies of these resolutions be forwarded to the state representatives of Southern California and to the secretaries of the chambers of commerce urging endorsement of such a measure."

They call it good liquor now if it has sufficient kick to make one forget how rotten it is.

STAR AGENCY TO OPEN ON FRIDAY

Dilley & Armstrong Announce Date to Show Models of New Auto

Formal opening of the Star Automobile Agency at 115 West Harvard under the banner of Dilley & Armstrong is announced for Friday and Saturday of this week.

The new agency is the latest addition to Glendale's auto row and introduces to this part of Southern California a new medium priced car which it is asserted has gained wide popularity in other parts of California as well as in the east and middle west.

On the opening day six different models will be on display for the approval of the public. A service department with a full line of parts will be conducted by the firm, and will be placed in charge of an expert mechanic, thereby assuring the best possible service to owners.

Messrs Dilley and Armstrong are old experienced men for an automobile business and for a number of years past were located in Bakersfield.

Drug Cure Is Taken By Juanita Hansen

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Following the discovery of two large cabinet drawers of correspondence at the Barker-Karpis hideout in Gales street it was revealed today that another film star, Juanita Hansen, preceded Wallace Reid, the screen hero, in his fight to rid himself of the habit of using narcotics. According to friends and relatives, Miss Hansen conquered the habit and at present is in the east.

Mr. Charles Blessing who operates the local sanitarium, in which Miss Hansen and Reid are said to have taken the cure, declares he is in no way connected with Dr. John Scott Barker, who is under arrest in Oakland for violating the Harrison narcotic laws.

However, the pharmacy board agents say they found correspondence between the two doctors when the plan was raided. Dr. Blessing explained that he called his institution the "Barker-Karpis sanitarium" because he used the Barker system of cure.

Miss Hansen is said to have recommended the local sanitarium to Reid who went there on October 19, last, and remained for two weeks.

Miss Hansen's mother said the actress is now living in the McAlpin hotel in New York, weighs 145 pounds and had been offered a new contract to make pictures.

Dr. and Mrs. Christ Locate in Glendale

With the arrival in Glendale of Dr. O. E. Christ and wife, this city gains not only two new residents but also two highly accomplished professional people.

Dr. Christ, who specializes in diseases of the eye, ear and nose, has taken up offices in the Monarch building, room 17. Dr. Christ is a graduate of Stanford university. He also took up special work in Vienna.

Mrs. Christ, who is a teacher of the piano and organ, has established a studio at her home, 615 South Louis.

Previous to taking up individual instruction of pupils, Mrs. Christ was head of the piano and organ department of the University of Iowa. She is a member of the American Guild of Organists, of which there are only twenty in California.

Mrs. Christ's musical education was completed under the supervision of Alfred Grundfeld, foremost violinist and composer of Vienna.

J. A. Pope Winner Of 'Pumpkin' Auto

J. A. Pope, of 111 South Brand boulevard, is the fortunate one in Ed N. Radke's "pumpkin" contest and today he is riding around Glendale in a bright and shiny 1923 model touring car of a certain popular make, all for being lucky enough: first, to guess the exact number of seeds (444) in the aforesaid pumpkin; and second, to be the one out of six guessing that number to be chosen in the final drawing.

The way they selected the winner was to put the six lucky tickets in a hat, which W. C. Waring held gently but firmly, while Manager Thomas of the Glendale Security Trust & Savings Bank drew and Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson took down the numbers. The last ticket to remain in the hat was to be the winner—and this, it turned out, was held by J. A. Pope.

Hey? Yes, the car given away is the kind made famous by Henry Ford.

Another need of the times is a fancy food that will delight fish as it delights fishermen.

Girl Bandit Leader and Gang Will Die

MOSCOW, Jan. 3.—Madameoiselle Rosa Vinokurova, a beautiful Russian woman, Alexiev Kotoff and eight others, all members of a notorious outlaw band which was accused of 116 murders, today were sentenced to death by a revolutionary tribunal.

Mile, Vinokurova and Kotoff were reputed ring leaders.

The outlaw organization had six women and seven men members. They have operated between Moscow and provincial towns for more than a year. They were accustomed to raid a house, murder the inmates, and make off with all the family possessions. After the loot was sold the persons buying it were put to death, and the stolen goods recovered for another sale.

FRANCE REFUSES PLAN OF BRITISH

Reparation Movement Not Acceptable in Present Form, Says Cabinet

By FRANK E. MASON
For International News Service.
PARIS, Jan. 3.—The French cabinet, at a meeting just before noon, held that the British reparations plan is not acceptable to France in its present form. When the second plenary session of the allied conference opened both the Italians and Belgians were making an effort to establish a common basis for British and French negotiations.

The chief trouble arose from the French view that the guarantees demanded by the British from Germany were not enough to protect France.

British experts worked until after midnight examining the French plan to ascertain whether it could be amended to meet the British view.

The United States may have an observer in Paris during the remainder of the meeting. Myron T. Herrick, American ambassador to France, is on his way from the French Riviera to watch the proceedings and report to the state department.

Hope of French

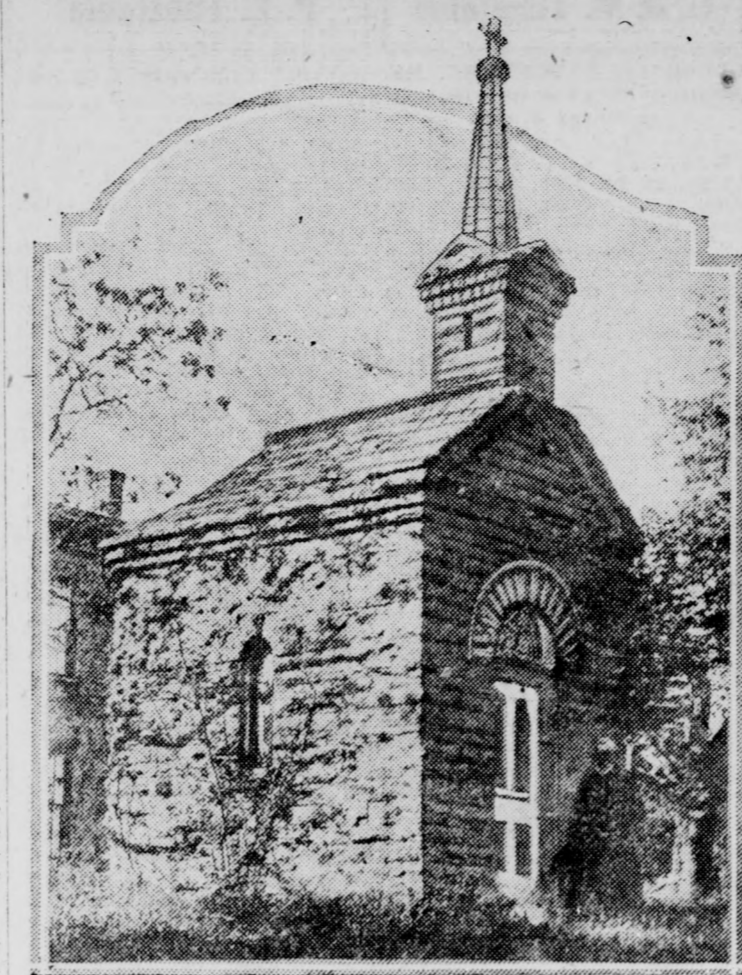

The French are pinning their hopes upon Belgium and Italian mediation and realization by the British that an Anglo-French rupture would spell disaster in the Near East.

The French are hopeful that the conference can be saved, but this hope is not general. Premier Theunis of Belgium is active in behalf of mediation. He has worked out a conciliatory program, half way between the British and French plans, to be submitted this afternoon.

High officials of the French government believe that the occupation of the Ruhr will become inevitable. It is reported the military arm of the government already is making preparations for a march into the German coal fields.

Speed doesn't appeal to us, but we would like to see a straw hat given a fair chance on a good track in a high wind.

SMALLEST CHURCH IN THE WORLD

This unique chapel is located high up among the Kentucky hills and is so small that only three persons can worship there at one time. It was built by monks who formerly lived in the neighborhood and only one of their number survived.

second prize, and an additional award for the most unique float. This entry, too, was designed by Mr. Chobe, and the popular sentiment was that it should have been awarded major honors. But, be that as it may, the float was a magnificent piece of artistry, depicting in parallel scenes the snowbound east and the sunshiny west, in two cottages and lawns separated by a fence. One cottage was white with snow and bore a sign "for rent," while the other was set like a jewel in a green lawn and surrounded by fruit trees, the end of the trail indicated by a sign—"Southern California straight ahead." The trail beginning in foottracks in the white snow of the adjoining yard. Little Martelle McKee added the last touch of beauty to the California yard, seated there playing on the sands of the Pacific.

First Prize in 1922

And now again, in 1923, Mr. Chobe has "said it with flowers." Once more Glendale is the proud possessor of a silver cup indicating the award of first prize to her entry. This time it was a beautiful purple and gold peacock, measuring thirty-four feet in length by fourteen in height, composed of violets and cornflowers, with eyes of marigolds. The big bird drew a trailer banked high with flowers of brilliant hues, and bearing with just pride the three precious cups. Seated in the trailer, attired in peacock blue satin and holding the snail reins, was little Randolph Bennett, perhaps the proudest citizen of all.

Another year, another float, another triumph, is the determination of Glendale and of designer L. W. Chobe.

Committee Meets

The float committee met last night to transact further business in connection with the Glendale float.

The treasurer reported $710 collected to date, as follows:

City of Glendale	$250.00
Glendale Chamber of Commerce	250.00
Elks Lodge	50.00
Kiwanis Club	25.00
Rotary	25.00
Exchange Club	25.00
Glendale Advancement Association	25.00
Knights of Columbus	25.00
Glendale Realty Board	25.00
Masons Blue Lodge	10.00
Total	$710.00

The bills presented amounted to $781, leaving a deficit of $71.00, without an allowance for Mr. Chobe.

The committee wishes to thank the organizations that have responded to the appeal, and hopes that the other twenty or more organizations will contribute their share, thus providing sufficient money to care for the remaining bills, and something for Mr. Chobe who has done more to advertise Glendale than could be accomplished by many times this amount expended in any other way.

Jim Gonzales, and George Fraley were the driver and operator of float. Mr. C. E. Vandusen, carpenter, put in much over time. The float committee: J. G. Huntley, P. L. Ferry, L. W. Chobe, Mrs. Mabel Ticht, C. C. Cooper, E. F. Sanders, Harry Roberts.

Pupils Cross Tracks
"First," he asserted, "the attendance of the Cerritos avenue school has fallen off during the past year, and secondly, the site of the school makes it necessary for children to cross the railroad tracks on Glendale avenue. Further, the Cerritos school is in need of repairs, and it is the sense of the San Fernando Improvement Association that funds available for the maintenance of schools should be applied to the Magnolia school property."
