

Defense Language Institute Honors Three Men

*Japanese Americans Honored
Unprecedented in American History
Government Buildings Named After Nisei
Who Died for the United States*

On Friday, May 9, 1980, Climaxing Asian American Heritage Week at the Defense Language Institute, Presidio of Monterey, California, Three Academic Buildings Were Named in Honor of Three Nisei, Yankee Samurai Who Sacrificed Their Lives in Defense of America During World War II.

George Nakamura

Frank Hachiya

Terry Mizutari

*Sergeant Frank Hachiya
Hood River Valley, Oregon
Silver Star
Distinguished Service Cross*

*Technical Sgt. Terry Mizutari
Hilo, Hawaii
Silver Star*

*Sergeant George I. Nakamura
Watsonville, CA
Silver Star*