

Boston - Friday afternoon

Dear Deborah -

I have not a minute time to long write to you - of this & two busy boxes whose whole names are fixed upon their service gowns. Had done their duty all would have been well - but I am poorly & - Mary Nothus is here to stay all day & all night - Hester has called - & J. B. Smith has called & Plischette has called - & the bell has rung on account of - & I looking after the bottle & quite unable to do so - she & Grace has gone before you so to by the H. came to the boat no chance to speak to her state of mind I am quite distressed at Mrs. W. being & should come right home were it not for a desire I have to be in town over Sunday - don't you think it curious Jackson with such facts that they were got Stanton & Sewall with others to speak at the Fair on the Meeting which comes off Sunday night - no need of words - we have not seen them since that time period I believe yesterday on S. Matthews & she has been who is I think nephew to Judge Edwin Finney I meant to go to the trial to go with him & appear to get a good place for me inside the bar quite a green youth - I agree to go - Waren is gone to Cohasset comes up tomorrow
- Mr. Paris has busy himself - Sunday night told me yesterday under seal of secrecy but as to in the paper this morning she is out from Summit she has probably suffered greatly - I have a letter from win to Annin about the Court
