C A P. XXVIII.

An Act for altering, explaining, and amending several Acts of Parliament of Scotland, respecting Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the Statute Law of Scotland, as explained by the Judges of the Courts of Law there, many Colliers and Coal-bearers and Salters are in a State of Slavery or Bondage, bound to the Collieries and Salt-works where they work for Life, transferable with the Collieries and Salt-works, when their original Masters have no further Use for them: And whereas Persons are discouraged and prevented from learning the Art or Business of Colliers or Coal-bearers, and Salters, by their becoming bound to the Collieries and Salt-works for Life, where they shall work for the Space of one Year, by means whereof there are not a sufficient Number of Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters, in Scotland, for working the Quantities of Coal and Salt necessarily wanted; and many new-discovered Coals remain unwrought, and many are not sufficiently wrought, nor are there a sufficient Number of Salters for the Salt-works, to the great Loss of the Owners and Disadvantage to the Publick: And whereas the emancipating or setting free the Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters in Scotland, who are now in a State of Servitude, gradually and upon reasonable Conditions, and the preventing others from coming into such a State of Servitude, would be the Means of increasing the Number of Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters, to the great Benefit of the Publick, without doing any Injury to the present Masters, and would remove the Reproach of allowing such a State of Servitude to exist in a free Country; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of July, in this present Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, no Person who shall begin to work as a Collier, Coal-bearer, or Salter, or in any other Way in a Colliery or Saltwork, in Scotland, shall be bound to such Colliery or Salt-work, or to the Owner thereof, in any other Way or Manner different from what is permitted by the Law of Scotland with regard to Servants and Labourers; and that they shall be deemed free, and shall enjoy the same Privileges, Rights, and Immunities with the rest of his Majesty's Subjects, any Law or Usage in Scotland to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for all Owners and Lessees of Collieries and Salt-works, and for Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters, to take Persons bound by Contract or Indenture, as Apprentices, After July 1, 1775, no Person who shall begin to work as a Collier or Salter in Scotland to be bound in any other Way than other Servants. Owners of Collieries and Salt-works, &c. may take Apprentices.

to learn the Art or Business of Coal-hewing, Coal-bearing, or making Salt, for any Term of Years permitted by the Law of Scotland with regard to Apprentices in other Arts and Mysteries.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons under the Age of Twenty-one Years, upon the said first Day of July, employed as Colliers, Coal-bearers, or Salters, in Scotland, and bound to any Colliery or Salt-work, shall, after seven Years Service from the said first Day of July, be free from their Service and Servitude, and at Liberty to engage themselves as Servants or Labourers in any other Colliery or Salt-work, or in any other Kind of Labour whatever.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all bound Colliers and Salters in Scotland, above the Age of twenty-one Years, and under the Age of thirty-five Years, upon the said first Day of July, after a Service of ten Years; and all Colliers and Salters above the Age of thirty-five Years, but under the Age of forty-five Years, at the said first Day of July, after a Service of seven Years; and after their having respectively found and sufficiently instructed a Person as an Apprentice, if required so to do by the Master or Lessee of the Colliery or Salt-work, within one Year after the said first Day of July next, in the Art or Mystery of Coal-hewing or making of Salt, of the Age of eighteen Years at least; when such Instruction shall be perfected, shall be free from any other Servitude or Bondage to the Colliery or Salt-work to which they were bound.

V. And be it also enacted, That all Colliers and Salters, bound to any Colliery or Salt-work in Scotland, above the Age of forty-five Years upon the said first Day of July next, shall, after three Years, be free and discharged from any further Servitude or Bondage to the Colliery or Salt-work to which they are bound.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any bound Collier or Salter shall not sufficiently instruct an Apprentice in the Art or Mystery of Coal-hewing or making of Salt, if required by the Master or Lessee of the Colliery or Salt-work to which he is bound, as directed by this Act, such Collier or Salter shall nevertheless be free, after the Performance of an additional Service of three Years at the Colliery or Salt-work to which he is bound.

IX. Provided always, That in case it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Sheriff, that the Person so applying by Petition has, subsequent to the passing of this Act, been guilty of entering into any unlawful Combination with the other Colliers or Salters to leave off working, in order to distress or injure the Proprietor or Lessee of such Coal or Salt-work, or in order to compel him to increase the Wages or Allowances usually paid for the said Work; or that the Person so applying shall have wilfully deserted the said Works; then, and in that Case, the Person guilty of such Offences shall not be intitled to the Benefit of the said Act until the Expiration of two Years after the respective Periods at which, in Terms of this Act, he would have been intitled to his Freedom, if he had not been guilty of such Offences.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be competent for the Respondent or Respondents to such Petition to remove the Proceedings upon it into the Court of Session in Scotland, by Advocation, or to complain of any Decree by Appeal or Suspension, or to sue for Reduction of any such Decree; and that every Decree upon such Petition, finding and declaring the Freedom of the Petitioner, shall be final and conclusive against the Person to whom the Petitioner was bound.

XI. C A P. XXIX.

An Act to repeal two Acts, made in the Parliament of Scotland, the twenty-eighth Day of June, one thousand six hundred and thirty-three, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, and the fifteenth Day of June, one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, intituled, Act for the Jusiciary in the Higblands, so far as relates to the Mac Gregours; and to revive an Act of the said Parliament of the twenty-sixth Day of April, one thousand six hundred and sixty-one, relative to the People called Mac Gregours.

Preamble.

Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1633, Car. I. recited.

WHEREAS in the Parliament of Scotland, being the first Parliament of King Charles the First, holden at Edinburgh, the twenty-eighth Day of June, one thousand six hundred and thirty-three, an Act passed, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, ratifying and approving all Acts of Council and of Parliament made theretofore against the Clan of Mac Gregour, and ordaining the Clan or People of the Name of Gregour or Mac Gregour, and every one of them, at arriving at the Age of Sixteen, to give Security to the Privy Council of Scotland for their good Behaviour and Obedience; and that the said Clan Gregour should take to them some other Surname; and that upon their Failure to appear, it should be lawful to any of his Majesty's Lieges to take and apprehend them to be presented to the Privy Council, there to be taken Order with; and if it should happen any of the said Clan Gregour to be hurt, mutilated, or slain, the Party so doing and their Accomplices should no Ways be subject or liable to Law therefore, nor incur any Pain or Skaith in Body or Goods, and should be free of all Pursuit, Criminal or Civil, and the same should be holden as good Service done to his Majesty; and that for the better extinguishing and extirpating the said Clan, no Minister or Preacher within the Bounds therein mentioned should at any Time thereafter baptize or christen any Male Child by the Name of Gregour, and that no Clerk or Notary at any Time coming should make or subscribe any Bond or other Security under the Name of Gregour: And whereas in the first Parliament of King Charles the Second, holden at Edinburgh, Anno one thousand six hundred and sixty-one, an Act passed, bearing Date the twenty-sixth Day of April in that Year, whereby his Majesty, considering that those who were formerly designed by the Name of Mac Gregour had, during the Troubles, carried themselves with such Loyalty and Affection to his Majesty as might justly wipe off all Memory of their former Milcarriages, and take off all Mark of Reproach put upon them for the same; and his Majesty being desirous to reclaim his Subjects from every evil Way, and to give all due Encouragement to such as lived in due Obedience and Submission to his Majesty's Authority and Laws of the Kingdom, therefore his Majesty, with Advice and Consent of his Estates of Parliament, rescinded, called, and annulled the thirtieth Act of the First Parliament of King Charles the First, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, and declared the same void and null in all Time coming, and that it should be thereafter free to all Persons come of the Name and Race of the Clan Gregour to keep and make use of the said Name of Gregour, or Mac Gregour, and enjoy all Privileges and Immunities as other Subjects, notwithstanding the said Act, or any other Acts, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary: And whereas in the Reign of King William and Queen Mary an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, the fifteenth of June, one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, intituled, Act for the Jusiciary in the Higblands, whereby their Majesties, with the Advice and Consent of the Estates of Parliament, revived the Act of Parliament of one thousand six hundred and thirty-three against the Clan Gregour, notwithstanding the same was rescinded in the Year one thousand six hundred and sixty-one, which Act rescissary their Majesties did, by this Act, annul and make void: And whereas those Persons who were the Objects of the aforesaid Acts did generally give Obedience to the Law, by assuming other Names, and many of the Descendants of those Persons now bear the Names that were by them so assumed: And whereas the Causes inductive of the Acts for suppressing the Name of Gregour, or Mac Gregour, are now little known, and have long ago ceased, and those Acts being incapable of Execution ever since the Powers of the Privy Council of Scotland were abolished, many Persons considering them to be ineffect, and for the most part obsolete, do now use the Name of Mac Gregour: And whereas many Persons of the Surname of Mac Gregour have found divers Inconveniences arising to them from the said Acts of the Parliament of Scotland, particularly by being disabled, and apprehending themselves disabled thereby, from suing and defending in their own true Names in Courts of Law and Justice in North Britain; and are desirous to re-assume the real Name of their Ancestors and Families, but are unwilling so to do while there is the Appearance of a legal Prohibition standing against them; and for as much as they cannot be fully relieved without the Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please your Majesty (upon the humble Petition of Gregor Drummond, Esquire, for himself and and many others), that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament

Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1661, Car. II. recited.

Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1693, Gul. at Maria, recited.

The above-recited Acts of the Parliament of Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act of the Parliament of Scotland, of the twenty-eighth Day of June one thousand six hundred and thirty-three, and the said Act of the Parliament of Scotland, of the fifteenth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, so far as respects the Clan Gregour, or Mac Gregour, shall be and stand repealed, rescinded, annulled, and void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the said Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made the twenty-sixth Day of April one thousand six hundred and sixty-one, be and the same is hereby revived, and declared to be in full Force and Vigour in Time coming.

C A P. XXX.

An Act for allowing the Officer appointed to mark or stamp the Weights to be made use of in weighing the Gold and Silver Coin of this Kingdom, in pursuance of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, to take certain Fees in the Execution of his Office.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act for regulating and ascertaining the Weights to be made use of in weighing the Gold and Silver Coin of this Kingdom, it is enacted, That exact Duplicates or Copies of the several Standard Weights therein mentioned shall be delivered to and lodged in the Custody of an Officer, to be from Time to Time appointed for that Purpose, with a Salary not exceeding the yearly Sum of two hundred and fifty Pounds; and that, from and after the Day therein mentioned, all Weights to be made use of for weighing the said Gold and Silver Coin shall be ascertained by the said Duplicates or Copies; and after having been tried and compared therewith, and found to be just and true, shall, in Testimony thereof, be marked by the said Officer with a Stamp or Mark, which the said Officer is thereby directed to provide; and is also required, upon Application made to him, at all reasonable Hours, to stamp or mark, in Manner therein mentioned, all Weights to be used for weighing the said Gold and Silver Coin which should be brought to him for that Purpose, and which he should find to be just and true, according to the said Duplicates or Copies of the Standard Weights of a Guinea, and of a Shilling, and of the Parts and Multiples thereof respectively, by the said Act directed to be lodged in his Custody, without Fee or Reward, and without wilful Delay: And whereas the Officer appointed for the Purpose aforesaid, in pursuance of the said Act, hath hitherto duly executed the same, but is unable by himself to give that Dispatch therein which the present Demands of the Publick require; and it would greatly tend to the speedy carrying the Intention of the said Act into Execution, if the said Officer were permitted to take a small Fee for the stamping or marking the said Weights, towards reimbursing him the necessary Expence of procuring an extraordinary Number of Assitants adequate to the said Demands, which, as the Law now stands, he is not allowed to do: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for John Whitehurst, the present Officer, and every other Officer to be from Time to Time appointed for the Purpose aforesaid, in pursuance of the said Act, and he and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered, to ask, demand, and receive, of and from all and every Person and Persons bringing Weights to the said Office, to be stamped or marked in pursuance of the said Act, any Sum of Money not exceeding one Penny for every twelve Weights so stamped or marked before he delivers the same; any Thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXXI.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for the better Accommodation of the Persons belonging to Vessels employed in the Newfoundland Fishery, it shall and may be lawful for the Masters and Crews belonging to any Vessels fitted out and employed in that Fishery, in pursuance of this or any other Act, to occupy and use, for the Purpose of curing, salting, drying, and husbanding their Fish, any vacant or void Space whatever on any Part of Newfoundland which is not then occupied and used for the said Fishery, without any Let, Disturbance, or Hindrance, from any Person or Persons whatsoever, although such unoccupied Places may not before have been reputed Ships Rooms; and all such unoccupied Places shall from henceforth be deemed and taken to be Ships Rooms, any Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And in order to induce his Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain and Ireland; and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Man, to carry on the Whale Fishery on the Coasts of Newfoundland, and the Seas adjacent, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Bounties hereafter mentioned shall be allowed annually, for eleven Years, for five Vessels employed in that Fishery, under the Limitations and Restrictions herein after expressed; that is to say, Such Vessels shall appear by their Register to be British built, and owned by his Majesty's Subjects residing in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, and navigated with Three-fourths of his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, besides the Master, and shall be fitted and cleared out from some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and after that Day in each succeeding Year, and shall take and kill one Whale at least in the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, or on the Coasts of Labrador, Newfoundland, or in any Seas to the Southward of the Greenland Seas and Davis's Straights, and shall return within the same Year to some Port in England with the Oil of such Whale or Whales so taken as aforesaid; and on the Master and Mate of such Vessel, and two of the Mariners belonging to her, making Oath before the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of her Arrival (which Oath they are hereby authorized and required to administer), that such Oil is the Produce of one or more Whale or

Whales

Whales taken and killed by the Crew then belonging to such Vessel, mentioning the Time when she departed from Great Britain, Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, and from what Port, and the Time and Place where such Whale or Whales was or were taken and killed, such Oil may be landed without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and the Collector and Comptroller of such Port shall thereupon forthwith transmit such Oath to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs at London, any four or more of whom are hereby authorized and required to order the Receiver General of his Majesty's Customs to pay, out of any Money in his Hands arising by any Duties under their Management, for the Vessel which shall so arrive in each Year with the greatest Quantity of Oil taken as aforesaid, five hundred Pounds; for the Vessel which shall in like Manner arrive in the same Year with the next greatest Quantity of Oil so taken as aforesaid, four hundred Pounds; for the Vessel which shall in like Manner arrive in the same Year with the next greatest Quantity of Oil so taken as aforesaid, three hundred Pounds; for the Vessel which shall in like Manner arrive in the same Year with the next greatest Quantity of Oil so taken as aforesaid, two hundred Pounds; and for the Vessel which shall so arrive in the same Year with the next greatest Quantity of Oil so taken as aforesaid, one hundred Pounds; the said Oil so to be imported by each of the said Vessels being the Produce of one Whale at the least; which said several and respective Bounties shall be paid by such Receiver General, within two Months after the Expiration of each Year in which such Vessel shall arrive, to the Owner or Owners of such Vessels so intitled thereto, or their Assigns duly authorized to demand the same.

IV. And in order to obviate any Doubts that have arisen, or may arise, to whom the Privilege or Right of drying Fish on the Shores of Newfoundland does or shall belong, under the before-mentioned Act, made in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of King William the Third, which Right or Privilege has hitherto only been enjoyed by his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain, and the other British Dominions in Europe; be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Right and Privilege shall not be held and enjoyed by any of his Majesty's Subjects arriving at Newfoundland from any other Country except from Great Britain, or one of the British Dominions in Europe.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any of his Majesty's Subjects residing in Ireland to ship and lade there, and to transport directly from thence to Newfoundland, or to any Part of America where the Fishery is now or shall hereafter be carried on, on Board any Ship or Vessel which may lawfully trade or fish there, any Provisions, and also any Hooks, Lines, Netting, or other Tools or Implements necessary for and used in the Fishery by the Crews of the Ships or Vessels carrying out the same, and the Craft belonging to and employed by such Ships or Vessels in the said Fishery, such Provisions, Hooks, Lines, Netting, or other Tools or Implements, being the Product and Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland; and that it shall and may be lawful for any of his Majesty's Subjects residing in the Ile of Man, in like Manner to export directly from thence any of the Articles herein before mentioned for the Purpose aforesaid, such Articles being the Product or Manufacture of Great Britain, or the said Ile of Man, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel shall produce to the proper Officer of the Customs in the Colony or Plantation where he shall arrive, a Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs in the Port where he shall have fitted out, that Oath hath been made before him by the Shipper of such Provisions, Hooks, Lines, Netting, or other Tools and Implements, that the same are of the Product and Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Ile of Man respectively, as the Fact may be, and that the several Articles before mentioned (except the Provisions), specifying the Quantities and Particulars of each Sort, are to be used in the Fishery by the Crews of the respective Ship or Vessel carrying out the same, and by the Craft belonging to and to be employed by such Ship or Vessel in the said Fishery, and for no other Use or Purpose whatsoever (which Oath and Certificate such Collector or other Officer is hereby authorized and required to administer and grant without Fee or Reward); and on Failure of producing such Certificate, or if any such Hooks, Lines, Netting, Tools and Implements, are used or disposed of for any other Purpose, the same, and the Ship or Vessel having the same on Board, shall be liable to be seized and forfeited in the same Manner as they would have been subject and liable to if this Act had not been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, all Vessels fitted and cleared out as Fishing Ships in pursuance of this Act, or of the before-mentioned Act, made in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of the late King William the Third, and which shall be actually employed in the Fishery there, or any Boat or Craft whatsoever employed in carrying Coastwise, to be landed or put on Board any Ships or Vessels, any Fish, Oil, Salt Provisions, or other Necessaries, for the Use and Purpose of that Fishery, shall not be liable to any Restraint or Regulation with respect to Days or Hours of working, nor to make any Entry at the Customhouse at Newfoundland, except a Report to be made by the Master on his first Arrival there, and at his clearing out from thence; and that a Fee not exceeding two Shillings and Sixpence shall and may be taken by the Officers of the Customs at Newfoundland for each such Report; and that no other Fee shall be taken or demanded by any Officer of the Customs there, upon any other Pretext whatsoever relative to the said Fishery, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. IX. And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trades, and for the better securing the Plantation Trade), and by other Acts of Parliament, it is lawful for any Person or Persons to import into England Train Oil or Blubber of Greenland, and Parts adjacent, and those Seas, or of Newfoundland, or of any other his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations, made of Fish, or of any other Creature living in the Seas, and Whale Fins caught in any Ships or Vessels truly and properly belonging to England or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and imported in such Ships, without paying any Custom or Duty for the same, which Liberty, by a subsequent Act of Parliament, is extended to Ships belonging to Great Britain; and it is reasonable that the same Indulgence should be extended to Oil and Blubber of Fish, and other Creatures living in the Sea, and to Whale Fins caught in any Part of the Ocean by Ships belonging to Great Britain, Ireland, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Man; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, the Liberty granted by the said Act to import into this Kingdom Oil or Blubber of Fish, or other Creatures living in the Sea, or Whale Fins taken within the Limits therein mentioned, Duty-free, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to such Oil or Blubber, or Whale Fins, as shall be so taken in any Part of the Ocean by, and imported in any Ship or Vessel truly and properly belonging to, his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into this Kingdom any raw and undressed Seal Skins taken and caught by the Crews of Vessels belonging to and fitted out either from Great Britain, Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man respectively, and whereof the Captain or Master and Three-fourths at the least of the Mariners are his Majesty's Subjects, or by Persons employed by the Masters or Owners of such Vessels, without paying any Custom, Subsidy, or other Duty, for the same, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give Liberty of importing any such Seal Skins Duty-free, unless the Captain or Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel importing the same shall make Oath before the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation (who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath), that all the Skins imported in such Ship or Vessel were really and bona fide the Skins of Seals taken and caught by the Crews thereof, or by Persons employed by the Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel, or of some other Ship or Vessel qualified as aforesaid; and such Seal Skins shall be also duly entered at the Customhouse for the said Port, and landed in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs appointed for that Purpose; and on Failure of any of these Conditions, such Skins shall be liable to pay the same Duties as they would have been subject and liable to if this Act had not been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And whereas it has been a Practice of late Years for divers Persons to seduce the Fishermen, Sailors, Artificers, and others, employed in carrying on the Fishery, arriving at Newfoundland, on Board Fishing and other Vessels from Great Britain, and the British Dominions in Europe, to go from thence to the Continent of America, to the great Detriment of the Fishery and the Naval Force of this Kingdom: Now, in order to remedy the said Evil, and to secure the Return of the said Fishermen, Sailors, Artificers, and others, employed as aforesaid, to the British Dominions in Europe, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, it shall not be lawful for the Master, or Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel trading to or from any Place within the Government of Newfoundland, to carry or convey, as Passengers, any such Fishermen, Sailors, Artificers, and others, employed as aforesaid, from thence to any Part of the Continent of America, without the Permission under the Hand and Seal of the Governor of the said Island of Newfoundland, under the Penalty of forfeiting two hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

XIII. And whereas in several Acts, passed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of William the Third, the eighth of George the First, and second and twelfth of George the Second, Provision has been made to prevent Seamen and Mariners in the Merchant Service being wilfully left beyond Sea, and to secure and provide for their Return home to such Part of his Majesty's Dominions whereto they belong: And whereas, for want of such Provisions being extended to Seamen and Fishermen going out as Passengers to Newfoundland, and hired and employed in the Fisheries carried on there, great Numbers of them remain in that Country at the End of every Fishing Season, who would otherwise return home, and some of them have frequently turned Robbers and Pirates; for Remedy of which Evil, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, employ, or cause to be employed, at Newfoundland, for the Purpose of carrying on the Fishery there, any Seaman or Fisherman going as Passengers, or any Seaman or Fisherman hired there, without first entering into an Agreement or Contract in Writing with every such Seaman or Fisherman, declaring what Wages such Seaman or Fisherman is to have, and the Time for which he shall serve, which shall be signed by both Parties; wherein it shall be stipulated (amongst other Things) that the Person so hiring or employing shall be at Liberty to reserve, retain, and deduct, and he is hereby authorized, required, and directed, to reserve, retain, and deduct, out of the Wages of every Person so hired or employed, a Sum of Money equal to the then current Price of a Man's Passage home, not exceeding forty Shillings for each Man, which Money such Hirer or Employer shall, at the End of each Fishing Season, or at the Expiration of the covenanted Time of Service of such Seaman or Fisherman, pay, or cause to be paid, to the Master of a Passage or other Ship, who shall undertake or agree to carry such Seaman or Fisherman home to the Country whereto he belongs, and shall also convey such Seaman or Fisherman to and on Board such Passage or other Ship, taking the Master's Receipt for the Passage Money, which Receipt he shall immediately thereupon deliver to such Seaman or Fisherman.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Hirer or Employer of any such Seaman or Fisherman shall pay or advance, or cause to be paid or advanced, to such Seaman or Fisherman, in Money, Liquor, and Goods, or either of them, during the Time he shall be in his Service, more than one Half of the Wages which shall at any Time be due to him; but such Hirer or Employer shall, and is hereby required and directed, immediately at or upon the Expiration of every such Man's covenanted Time of Service, to pay either in Money, or in good Bills of Exchange, payable either in Great Britain or Ireland, or in the Country to which such Seaman or Fisherman belongs, the full Balance of his Wages, except the Money herein before directed to be retained for his Passage home; and it shall not be lawful for any such Hirer or Employer to turn away or discharge any such Seaman or Fisherman, except for wilful Neglect of Duty, or other sufficient Cause, before the Expiration of his covenanted Time of Service; and in case the Hirer or Employer of any such Seaman or Fisherman shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the Terms herein before mentioned, or shall otherwise offend against this Act, every such Person so offending shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, besides the Balance that shall be due to such Seaman or Fisherman, the Money herein before directed to be retained for his Passage home, the Sum of ten Pounds, to the Use of such Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where Disputes shall arise concerning the Wages of any such Seaman or Fisherman, the Hirer or Employer shall be obliged to produce the Contract or Agreement in Writing, herein before directed to be entered into with every such Seaman or Fisherman.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Fish and Oil which shall be taken and made by the Person or Persons who shall hire or employ such Seaman or Fisherman, shall be subject and liable, in the first place, to the Payment of the Wages of every such Seaman or Fisherman.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such Seaman or Fisherman shall at any Time wilfully absent himself from his Duty or Employ, without the Leave and Consent of his Hirer or Employer, or shall wilfully neglect or refuse to work according to the true Intent and Meaning of such Contract or Agreement, he shall, for every Day he shall so absent himself, or neglect or refuse to work as aforesaid, forfeit two Days Pay to such Hirer or Employer; and if any such Seaman or Fisherman shall wilfully absent himself from his said Duty or Employ for the Space of five Days, without such Leave as aforesaid, he shall be deemed a Deserter, and shall forfeit to such Hirer or Employer all such Wages as shall at the Time of such Desertion be due to him (except so much as is herein before directed to be reserved and retained for the Purpose of paying his Passage home); and it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governor of Newfoundland, or his Surrogates, or the Commissary of the Vice Admiralty Court for the Time being, or for any Justice of the Peace in Newfoundland, to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants to apprehend every such Deserter, and on the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses to commit him to Prison, there to remain until the next Court of Session which shall be holden in pursuance of the Commission of the said Governor for the Time being; and, if found guilty of the said Offence at such Session, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Session to order such Deserter to be publicly whipped as a Vagrant, and afterwards to be put on Board a Passage Ship, in order to his being conveyed back to the Country whereto he belongs.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Disputes which shall arise concerning the Wages of every or any such Seaman or Fisherman, and all Offences which shall be committed by every Hirer or Employer of such Seaman or Fisherman, against this Act, shall and may be inquired into, heard, and determined, and the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby incurred shall and may be recovered in the Court of Session herein before mentioned, or in the Court of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction in the said Island of Newfoundland.

XIX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That no Mariner or other Person who shall serve on Board, or be retained to serve on Board, any Privateer, or Trading Ship or Vessel, that shall be employed in any Part of America, nor any Mariner or other Person being on Shore in any Part thereof, shall be liable to be impressed or taken away by any Officer or Officers of or belonging to any of her Majesty's Ships of War, impowered by the Lord High Admiral, or any other Person whatsoever, unless such Mariner shall have before deserted from such Ship of War: And whereas the said Privilege or Exemption so given by the said Act to Mariners serving on Board Ships or Vessels employed in any of the Seas or Ports of the Continent of America, or residing on Shore there, is prejudicial to the Fisheries carried on by his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, and others his Majesty's Dominions in Europe, and has proved an Encouragement to Mariners belonging thereto to desert in Time of War, or at the Appearance of a War, to the British Plantations on the said Continent of America; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Clause, so far as it relates to the exempting of Mariners or other Persons serving, or retained to serve, in any Ship or Vessel in the Seas or Ports of the Continent of America, or other Persons on Shore there, from being impressed, be and the same is hereby repealed.

XX. And whereas the immoderate Use of Rum and other Spirits, imported into Newfoundland from his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America, has been found to be highly detrimental to the Fisheries

Rum, &c. imported into Newfoundland from America, to pay a Duty of 1 s. per Gallon. How such Duty is to be collected, recovered, and applied.

' XXI. And whereas the Bounties given by an Act of Parliament, made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Support and Establishment of the Greenland and Whale Fisheries, have been found of great Advantage to the Navigation, Trade, and Manufactures of this Kingdom; and it is just and expedient that the like Bounties which are granted by that Act to Ships fitted out from Great Britain, or any of his Majesty's Dominions in America, for those Fisheries, be it should in like Manner be granted to Ships fitted out for that Purpose from the Kingdom of Ireland; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, the respective Bounties herein after mentioned shall be allowed for every Ship or Vessel British built, and owned by his Majesty's Subjects of Ireland, and whereof the Captain or Master and at least One-third of the Mariners are his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain or Ireland, which shall proceed from any Port in the said Kingdom of Ireland within the Time limited by this Act on the Whale Fishery to the Greenland Seas, and Davis's Streights, and the adjacent Seas, under the several Rules and Restrictions herein after expressed; that is to say, Every such Ship or Vessel, before she proceeds on such Voyage, shall be visited by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs belonging to such Port, who shall examine into such Ship or Vessel, and take an Account of the Tonnage thereof by Admeasurement, and shall certify such his or their Visitation, Examination, and Admeasurement, to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue in Ireland; and if it appears by the Certificate of such Officer or Officers that she hath on Board such a Number of Men, Provisions, Boats, Fishing Lines, and Instruments to be used in such Fishery as herein after are mentioned; that she is strongly built, and otherwise a proper Ship for such Voyage and Fishery, and hath on Board among her Crew a sufficient Number of Harpooners, Steersmen, and Line-managers, who have been before employed in such Voyages (the Names of such Persons to be contained in such Certificate); and if it further appears by the Oath of one or more Owner or Owners, and of the Master or Chief Officer of such Ship, written at the Foot of such Certificate, and made before the Collector or Comptroller of such Port (who are hereby empowered and required to administer the same), that it is really and truly their firm Purpose and determined Resolution, that such Ship shall, as soon as Licence shall be granted, forthwith proceed, so manned, furnished, and accoutred, on a Voyage to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or the Seas adjacent, and there in the then approaching Season to use the utmost Endeavours of themselves and their Ship's Company to take Whales, or other Creatures living in the Sea, and on no other Design or View of Profit in such Voyage, and to import the Whale Fins, Oil, and Blubber thereof, into the Kingdom of Great Britain (naming the Port to which it is their Intention to return); and if the Master, after such Certificate had, and Oath made, do also become bound, with two sufficient Securities, unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Penalty of such Sum as shall be equal to treble the Bounty intended by this Act (which Bond the said Collector, with the Approbation of the Comptroller, is hereby required to take, and is to be in Force for the Term of three Years against the Master and Sureties for the faithful Dealings of the said Master and Ship's Company in regard to the said Ship and Voyage); then, and in all such Cases, it shall and may be lawful for any three or more of the said Commissioners of the Revenues in Ireland for the Time being, on receiving such Certificates and Oaths made, and it being certified to them by the Collector and Comptroller of such Port, that sufficient Security hath been given as aforesaid, to give and grant, and they are hereby required to give and grant to the Master and Owners of such Ship, full Licence and Authority to proceed on such Voyage as aforesaid.

' XXII. And to prevent any Disputes that may arise whether a Ship be properly qualified and duly fitted out for the Whale Fishery, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and intituled to a Certificate thereof from the Custom-house Officers, it is hereby enacted, That every Ship of the Burthen of two hundred Tons, designed for this Fishery, shall and is hereby obliged to have on Board forty Fishing Lines of one hundred and twenty Fathom each, forty Harpoon Irons, four Boats with seven Men, including a Harpooner, a Steersman, and a Line-manager, to each Boat, making in the Whole twenty-eight Men besides the Master and Surgeon, with six Months Provision at the least for such Number of Men; and every Ship of larger Burthen an Increase of six Men, one Boat, ten such Lines and ten Harpoon Irons more, for every fifty Tons above the said two hundred Tons, together with Provisions in proportion; proportion; and every Ship which shall be so employed in the said Fishery shall have on Board an Apprentice, indentured for the Space of three Years at the least, for every fifty Tons Burthen, who shall be accounted as one of the Number of Men required to be on Board such Ship as aforesaid.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on the Return of such Ship to the Port to which the Master and Mate declared on Oath their Intention to return, the proper Officers of the Customs at such Port shall immediately repair on Board, and view the Condition of such Ship and her Lading, and certify the same, together with their Observations thereon, as also of the real Tonnage of the said Ship; and the said Officers are also to take an Account or Schedule of the Names of the Master, Mate, and other Persons on Board, distinguishing therein the Harpooners and Persons more immediately employed in the said Fishery, and to certify the same; and the Master and Mate shall make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller (who are hereby impowered and required to administer the same), on the Back of, or annexed to the Licence granted as aforesaid, which they are hereby then required to deliver up, that they did in pursuance thereof, mentioning the Day of their Departure, proceed on a Voyage directly to the Places aforesaid, and have not since been on any other Voyage, or pursued any other Design or View of Profit; and that they did there (mentioning the Time of their Stay in those Seas) use the utmost Endeavour of themselves and their Ship's Company to take Whales, and other Creatures living in those Seas; and that all the Whale Fins, Oil, and Blubber, imported (if any) in such Ship, was really and bona fide caught and taken in the said Seas by the Crew of such Ship only, or with the Assistance of the Crew of some other Ship duly licensed for that Voyage, pursuant to the Directions of this Act; all which Schedule, Certificate, Licence, and Oath, shall be transmitted by the Collector and Comptroller of such Port to the respective Commissioners of the Customs for that Part of Great Britain where such Ships shall arrive; and such Commissioners being fully satisfied of the faithful Dealings of the Master and other Persons employed in such Ships with respect to such Voyage and Fishery, shall, on Demand, cause Payment to be made to the Master or Owners, or to his or their Assigns, by the Receiver General of the Customs for that Part of Great Britain where such Ship shall arrive, the Bounty or Premium following, according to the Admeasurement of such Ship, duly certified as aforesaid; (that is to say,) For every such Ship as shall proceed on the said Fishery, from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, to the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, the Sum of forty Shillings per Ton; and for every such Ship as shall proceed on the said Fishery, from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, to the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, the Sum of thirty Shillings per Ton; and for every such Ship as shall proceed on the said Fishery, from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, to the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, the Sum of twenty Shillings per Ton.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall be allowed or intitled to receive the Bounty herein before granted, for any Ship which shall proceed on the said Whale Fishery after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, unless such Ship shall sail from the Port where she shall be surveyed, and cleared directly on her intended Fishery, on or before the tenth Day of April in each and every Year, and shall continue with her Crew in the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or the adjacent Seas, diligently endeavouring to catch Whales, or other Creatures living in those Seas, and shall not depart from thence before the tenth Day of August then following, unless such Ship shall be laden with the Blubber and Fins of one Whale, caught by the Crew thereof, or with the Assistance of the Crew of some other licensed Ship, before that Time, or shall be forced by some unavoidable Accident or Necessity to depart sooner from those Seas; which Accident or Necessity shall be verified on the Oaths of the Master and Mate belonging to such Ship, upon her Return from the said Fishery, before the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port where she shall arrive, who shall transmit the same, together with the Schedule, Licence, and other Documents by this Act required, to the respective Commissioners of the Customs for that Part of Great Britain where she shall arrive.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively to order the respective Receivers General of the Customs, in case the Monies remaining in their Hands arising from the Old Subsidy shall not be sufficient at any Time or Times, during the Continuance of this Act, to satisfy the said Bounty of forty Shillings per Ton, and thirty Shillings per Ton, and twenty Shillings per Ton, during the several Periods herein before limited, payable on all Ships employed in the said Fishery, according to the Directions of this present Act, to pay the same out of any Money that shall be in their Hands arising from any of the Duties and Revenues under their Management respectively.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for encouraging the Manufactures of Rape Oil, and other Vegetable Oils, in this Kingdom, by reducing the Duties on Rape Seed, and other Seeds producing Oil imported from Ireland; and for allowing the free Importation of Rape Cakes for Manure from Ireland to this Kingdom.

Preamble.
Act 22 Car. II.

by Act 11 Geo. I.
made perpetual.

After Aug. 3. 1775, when Rape Seed shall be above 17^h. 20s. per Last, all former Duties on such Seed imported from Ireland shall cease; and in lieu thereof of 1s. per Last shall be paid, and no more. How Duties are to be collected, and applied.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable on Merchandise exported and imported, heavy Duties have been imposed upon Rape Seed, and upon Oil extracted from Rape Seed, and other Vegetable Oils imported from Ireland, which Duties, by an Act passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, have been made perpetual; and the said Duties have been found by Experience to amount to a Prohibition of the Importation of the said Commodities from his Majesty's said Kingdom of Ireland: And whereas this Kingdom, not being able to supply its own Consumption, is obliged to purchase large Quantities of Oils of different Sorts from Foreigners, in the place of many of which Sorts now imported on low Duties, Oils made in this Kingdom of Rape Seed imported from Ireland might be advantageously substituted, and particularly for the Use of the Woollen Manufacture: And whereas there is Reason to apprehend that there may be a Deficiency in the Quantity of Whale Oil and other Fish Oil, so necessary for a Variety of Manufactures, which Deficiency may be best provided against by a Supply of Vegetable Oil to be manufactured in this Kingdom; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, whenever the Price of middling British Rape Seed, at the Ports and Places where Rape Seed shall be imported into this Kingdom, shall appear, according to the Methods directed by the several Acts of Parliament for ascertaining the Rates and Prices of Corn and Grain imported, to be at or above the Price of seventeen Pounds and ten Shillings per Last, all Duties heretofore imposed upon or payable on Account of any Rape Seed, or other Seed, commonly made use of for the Purpose of extracting Oil from the same, imported from Ireland, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid; and in lieu thereof, there shall be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Duty of one Shilling per Last, and no more, upon all Rape Seed, and upon all other Seeds commonly made use of for the Purpose of extracting Oil therefrom, such Seeds being of the Growth of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties shall be levied, collected, paid, and applied, in such and the same Manner, and for such and the same Uses and Purposes, as the Duties granted by the said Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second are directed to be levied, collected, paid, and applied.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August next, it shall and may be lawful to import, into any Part of Great Britain, from Ireland, all Rape Cakes, or Cakes made of Rape Seed, commonly used for the Purpose of Manure, Duty-free.

Rape Cakes for Manure may be imported from Ireland Duty-free.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act to permit the free Importation of raw Goat Skins into this Kingdom for a limited Time.

‘ WHEREAS it would tend greatly to encourage and improve the Manufacture of red, green, and blue Leather in this Kingdom, if the Importation of raw and undressed Goat Skins Duty-free was permitted for a limited Time;’ may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twentieth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to import and bring into this Kingdom, in British-built Ships or Vessels, navigated according to Law, from any Port or Place whatsoever, any Goat Skins raw or undressed, without paying any Subsidy, Custom, or other Duty whatsoever for the same, for the Space of five Years from the said twentieth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, or at any Time thereafter before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Preamble:

After June 20, 1775, raw Goats Skins may be imported from any Place into this Kingdom Duty-free for 5 Years.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That due Entry shall be made of all such Goat Skins at the Custom-house belonging to the Port into which the same shall be imported, in such Manner and Form as was used and practised before the making of this Act; and such Goat Skins shall be landed in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs appointed for that Purpose; and if any Person or Persons, upon the Importation of such Goat Skins, shall not observe and perform the said Rules and Regulations herein-before mentioned, every such Person shall be liable to pay such and the same Duties as such Goat Skins would have been subject and liable to if this Act had not been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Due Entry of all such Goat Skins to be made at the Custom-house;

and on Default, to be liable to former Duties.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to enable the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrants to make out New Writs for the Choice of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Room of such Members as shall die during the Recess of Parliament; and for enabling the Speaker of the House of Commons to make out New Writs for the Choice of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Room of such Members as shall during the Recess of Parliament become Peers of Great Britain, and be summoned to Parliament; and for suspending the Execution of the said Act with respect to the Borough of Shaftesbury, in the County of Dorset, during the next Recess of Parliament.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth Year of his present Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act to enable the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrants to make out New Writs for the Choice of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Room of such Members as shall die during the Recess of Parliament, the Speaker of the House of Commons is required to issue his Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown to make out new Writs in the Room of Members who die during a Recess of Parliament for more than twenty Days, whether by Prorogation or Adjournment, the Deaths of such Members having been certified in Writing to him under the Hands of two Members of the House of Commons, and fourteen Days Notice being first given by the Speaker of the House of Commons thereof, and of his Intentions to issue such Warrants, by inserting such Notice in the London Gazette: And whereas Inconveniencies might arise if such Notice should be inserted in the London Gazette, and such Warrant should be issued by the Speaker of the House of Commons, in the Case of the Death of a Member, which shall not be certified to the Speaker of the House of Commons so long before the actual Meeting of the House of Commons for the Dispatch of Business as that the said Notice may be inserted, and the fourteen Days expire, before the said Meeting of the House of Commons; or in the Case of the Death of a Member against whose Election or Return a Petition had been presented to the House of Commons, and was depending at the Time of such Prorogation or Adjournment:’ For preventing the same, be it declared and enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing in the said Act contained extends, or shall be construed to extend, to require the Speaker of the House of Commons to insert Notice in the London Gazette, or issue his Warrant to make out a new Writ in the Room of any Member deceased, whose Death shall not be duly certified to the Speaker of the House of Commons so long before the actual Meeting of the House of Commons for the Dispatch of Business as that the Speaker of the House of Commons may be able to insert Notice thereof, and of his Intention to issue such Warrant, fourteen Days at the least before such Meeting of the House

Preamble. Act 10 Geo. III. recited.

Explanation of said Act with respect to the issuing of Writs for Members to serve in Parliament.

House of Commons; or for the Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, Shire, City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Place, in the Room of any Member deceased, against whose Election or Return for such County, Shire, City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Place, a Petition had been presented to the House of Commons, and was actually depending at the Time of such Prorogation or Adjournment.

Speaker to issue his Warrants, during a Recess, for electing Members in the Room of those become Peers of Great Britain.

II. And whereas it would tend still further to promote the Purposes of the said Act of the tenth Year of his present Majesty, and to prevent those Inconveniencies and Disorders which may be occasioned for want of more speedy Elections of Members of the House of Commons, if the Provisions of the said Act were extended to the Cases of Members who shall become Peers of Great Britain, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful for the Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being, during the Recess of Parliament for more than twenty Days, whether by Prorogation or Adjournment, and he is hereby required to issue his Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out new Writs for electing Members of the House of Commons in the Room of such Members as shall, during such Recess, become Peers of Great Britain, as soon as he shall receive Notice, by a Certificate under the Hands of two Members of the House of Commons, that a Writ of Summons hath been issued under the Great Seal of Great Britain to summon the said Members to Parliament.

The like Notice to be given as of Members deceased.

III. Provided also, That after the Receipt of such Certificate, the like Notice in the London Gazette shall be given by the Speaker, as is required in the Case of Members deceased; and such Notice and Warrant shall be subject and liable to the same Exceptions and Regulations as are required by the said Act and by this present Act, in the Case of Notices to be given, and Warrants to be issued in the Room of Members dying during a Recess.

Speaker not to issue any Warrant, &c. for the Borough of Shafton.

IV. And whereas it has appeared to the House of Commons, that there was the most notorious Bribery and Corruption at the last Election of Members to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Shafton otherwise Shaftesbury, in the County of Dorset: And whereas, in consequence thereof, and until the House of Commons shall have an Opportunity of making a further Inquiry into the Persons concerned in the said Bribery and Corruption, the House of Commons have provided, that no Writ do issue for the electing of a Burgess to serve in Parliament for the said Borough during the present Session of Parliament; but as it may happen that, during the next Recess of Parliament, the Speaker of the House of Commons may, by virtue of the said recited Act of the tenth Year of his present Majesty, be required to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the electing of a Burgess to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Shaftesbury: And whereas the issuing such Writ during the next Recess of Parliament might tend to defeat those Measures which it may be proper to take in consequence of the said notorious Bribery and Corruption; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Speaker of the House of Commons shall not be enabled, by virtue of the said recited Act, to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the said Borough of Shafton otherwise Shaftesbury, in the County of Dorset, during the said next Recess of Parliament.

An Act to permit the Importation of Painted Earthen Ware (except Galley Tiles), the Manufacture of Europe, to be sold in Great Britain, and for charging the same with a Duty ad valorem.

Preamble.
Act 3 Edw. IV. recited.

Act 11 Geo. I. recited.

After June 20, 1775, any Sort of Earthen Ware, being the Manufacture of Europe, may be imported into this Kingdom, (except Galley Tiles.)

Former Rate of 20 s. per lb. to cease.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the third Year of the Reign of King Edward the Fourth (intituled, Certain Merchandises not lawful to be brought ready wrought into this Realm), amongst several Articles therein mentioned, any Manner of painted Wares are prohibited to be brought into this Realm, to be uttered and sold within the same: And whereas by the additional Book of Rates, made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, Earthen Ware of all Sorts (except India or China not to be uttered or sold, and not otherwise rated), the Pound Weight, broken or whole, is rated at Ten-pence, which Rate is considerably under the true real Value of such Earthen Ware: And whereas, notwithstanding the said recited Act, great Quantities of Earthen Ware, made and painted in foreign Parts of Europe, have been clandestinely brought and imported into this Kingdom, and run on Shore and sold here, and there is great Reason to believe that several Parcels of such painted Earthen Ware, which have been entered not to be uttered or sold, and paid the Duties imposed thereon by Law, according to the Rate before mentioned, of Ten-pence the Pound Weight, have nevertheless been afterwards sold and disposed of in this Kingdom, to the Discouragement of the Manufactures of this Sort of Ware carried on in several Parts of Great Britain, and to the Prejudice of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the China Earthen Ware imported by them being subject to a much higher Duty: Now, for Remedy thereof, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twentieth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into this Kingdom any Sort of painted Earthen Ware, being the Manufacture of Europe, to be uttered or sold in Great Britain (except Galley Tiles), any Thing in the before-recited Act, made in the third Year of the Reign of King Edward the Fourth, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twentieth Day of June, the before-mentioned Rate of Ten-pence the Pound Weight, for Earthen Ware of all Sorts (except India or China not to be uttered or sold, and not otherwise rated), shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the several Duties payable upon the Importation of such Earthen Ware according to that Rate, Rate, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid; and in lieu and instead thereof, all Earthen Ware (except India or China) not otherwise rated, whether painted or not, which, from and after the said twentieth Day of June, shall be imported or brought into this Kingdom, either for private Use, or to be uttered or sold in Great Britain, shall be liable to and pay for the old Subsidy, granted by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, ten Pounds ten Shillings for every one hundred Pounds, according to the true Value and Price of such Earthen Ware; to be ascertained by the Oath or Affirmation of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, in the Presence of the Customer, Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of his Majesty's Customs at the Port of Importation, or any two of them; and the several further Subsidies, additional Duties, and all other Imposts and Duties whatsoever, to which such Earthen Ware was subject and liable to, at the Rate of Ten-pence per Pound Weight, before the making of this Act, shall in like Manner be paid proportionably according to such Value and Price, and not according to any other Rate or Value.

and instead thereof, all Earthen Ware, &c. to pay 10l. 10s. for every 100l. ad valorem; to be ascertained on Oath of the Importer, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Earthen Ware shall be subject and liable to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, that other unrated Goods, undervalued by the Importer or Proprietor, are subject and liable to by Law; and the several Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties, made payable by this Act upon such Earthen Ware, shall be raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid and applied, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Discounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, as the said former Subsidies and other Duties were raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, and applied, and were subject and liable to; and all the Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles, and Clauses, contained in the several Acts of Parliament which granted or continued the same respectively, shall continue in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the raising, levying, collecting, recovering, paying, and applying the said respective Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Clauses, Powers, and Provisions, had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Earthen Ware subject to the same Rates, &c. as other unrated Goods, &c. Duties, &c. to be collected and applied as the former Duties; and the Powers of the Acts which granted the same continued in full Force.

C A P. LII.

An Act for enlarging the Term of Letters Patent, granted by his present Majesty to William Cookworthy of Plymouth, Chymist, for the sole Use and Exercise of a Discovery of certain Materials for making Porcelain, in order to enable Richard Champion of Bristol, Merchant, (to whom the said Letters Patent have been assigned) to carry the said Discovery into effectual Execution for the Benefit of the Publick.

WHEREAS his present Majesty King George the Third hath been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to William Cookworthy Chymist, in the Words or to the Effect following; that is to say,

Preamble

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth: To all to whom these Presents shall come, greeting: Whereas William Cookworthy, of Plymouth, in Our County of Devon, Chymist, has, by his Petition, humbly represented unto Us, that he hath, by a Series of Experiments, discovered, that Materials, of the same Nature with those of which the Asiatick Porcelain is made, are to be found in immense Quantities in Our Island of Great Britain, which Ingredients are distinguished in Our two Counties of Devon and Cornwall by the Name of Moorstone and Growan and Growan Clay; that the Ware which he hath prepared from these Materials hath all the Characters of the true Porcelain, in regard to Grain, Transparency, Colour, and Infusibility, in a Degree equal to the best Chinese or Dresden Ware, whereas all the Manufactures of Porcelain hitherto carried on in Great Britain have been only Imitations of the genuine Kind, wanting the Beauty of Colour, the Smoothness and Lustre of Grain, and the great Characteristick of genuine Porcelain, sustaining the most extreme Degree of Fire without melting: That this Discovery hath been attended with great Labour and Expence, and, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, in regard to this Kingdom, is new, and his own, the Materials being, even at this Time, applied to none of the Uses of Pottery, but by him, and those under his Direction; and that he verily believes this Invention will be of great Advantage to the Publick: He, therefore, most humbly prayed Us, that We would be pleased to grant him Our Royal Letters Patent for the sole making and vending this new-invented Porcelain, composed of Moorstone or Growan and Growan Clay, within that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for the Space of fourteen Years, according to the Statute in that Case made and provided: We, being willing to give Encouragement to all Arts and Inventions which may be for the Publick Good, are graciously pleased to condescend to the Petitioner's Request: Know ye therefore, that We, of Our especial Grace, certain Knowledge, and meer Motion, have given and granted, and by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do give and grant unto the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, Our special Licence, full Power, sole Privilege and Authority, that he, the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, by himself and themselves, or by his and their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or such others as he the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall at any Time agree with, and no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, during the Term of Years herein expressed, shall and lawfully may make, use, exercise, and vend, his said Invention, within that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in such Manner as to him, the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, or any of them, shall, in their Discretions, seem meet; and that the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall and lawfully may have and enjoy the whole Profit, Benefit, Commodity, and Advantage, from Time to Time, coming, growing, accruing, and arising, by reason of the said Invention, for and during the Term of Years herein mentioned; to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy, the said Licence, Powers, Privileges, and Advantages, herein before granted, or mentioned to be granted, unto the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during and unto the full End and Term of fourteen Years from the Date of these Presents next and immediately ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, according to the Statute in such Case made and provided: And to the End that he the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, may have and enjoy the full Benefit and the sole Use and Exercise of the said Invention, according to Our gracious Intention herein before declared, We do, by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, require and strictly command all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, and all other Our Subjects whatsoever, of what Estate, Quality, Degree, Name, or Condition soever they be, within that said Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed aforesaid, that neither they, nor any of them, at any Time during the Continuance of the said Term of fourteen Years hereby granted, either directly or indirectly, do make Use or put in Practice the said Invention, or any Part of the same, so attained unto by the said William Cookworthy as aforesaid, nor in any-wise counterfeit, imitate, or resemble the same; nor shall make, or cause to be made, any Addition thereto, or Subtraction from the same, whereby to pretend himself or themselves the Inventor or Inventors, Devisor or Devisors thereof, without the Licence, Consent, or Agreement of the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in Writing, under his or their Hands and Seals, first had and obtained in that Behalf; upon such Pains and Penalties as can or may be justly inflicted on such Offenders for their Contempt of this Our Royal Command; and further to be answerable to the

His Majesty's
Royal Letters
Patent to William Cookworthy, Chymist, recited.

" said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, according to Law, for his and " their Damages thereby occasioned. And moreover, We do, by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and " Successors, will and command all and singular the Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs,

 " during the said Term hereby granted, in any-wise molest, trouble, or hinder the said William Cookworthy,
 " his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or any of them, or his or their Deputies, Servants, or
 " Agents, in or about the due and lawful Use or Exercise of the aforesaid Invention, or any thing re-

 " ration thereof, to be made by Us, Our Heirs or Successors, under Our or Their Signet or Privy Seal, " or by the Lords and others of Our or Their Privy Council, or any six or more of them, under their " Hands, these our Letters Patent shall forthwith cease, determine, and be utterly void to all Intents and " Purposes; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.
 " Provided also, That these Our Letters Patent, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be " construed to extend, to give Privilege unto the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators,
 " or Assigns, or any of them, to use or imitate any Invention or Work whatsoever which hath heretofore
 " been found out or invented by any other Our Subjects whatsoever, and publickly used or exercised in " that said Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, or Town of " Berwick upon Tweed aforesaid, unto whom like Letters Patent or Privileges have been already granted
 " for the sole Use, Exercise, and Benefit thereof: It being Our Will and Pleasure, that the said William
 " Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and all and every other Person and Persons " to whom like Letters Patent or Privileges have been already granted as aforesaid, shall distinctly use and " practise their several Inventions, by them invented and found out, according to the true Intent and " Meaning of the said respective Letters Patent, and of these Presents. Provided likewise, nevertheless,
 " and these Our Letters Patent are upon this express Condition, That if the said William Cookworthy, his " Executors or Administrators, or any Person or Persons which shall or may at any Time or Times here" after, during the Continuance of this Grant, have or claim any Right, Title, or Interest, in Law or " Equity, of, in, or to, the Power, Privilege, and Authority, of the sole Use and Benefit of the said In" vention hereby granted; shall make any Transfer or Assignment, or any pretended Transfer or Assign" ment, of the said Liberty and Privilege, or any Share or Shares of the Benefit or Profit thereof, or shall " declare any Trust thereof to or for any Number of Persons exceeding the Number of five; or shall open,
 " or cause to be opened, any Book or Books for publick Subscriptions to be made by any Number of " Persons exceeding the Number of five, in order to the raising any Sum or Sums of Money, under " Pretence of carrying on the said Liberty or Privilege hereby granted; or shall by him or themselves, or " his or their Agents or Servants, receive any Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever of any Number of Per-

 " during such Time as such Person or Persons shall have any Right or Title, either in Law or Equity, " in or to the said Premises, which will be contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of a certain Act of " Parliament, made in the sixth Year of the Reign of Our late Royal Great Grandfather King George the

 " these Our Letters Patent, and all Liberties and Advantages whatsoever hereby granted, shall utterly " cease, determine, and become void, any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any " wise notwithstanding. Provided also, That if the said William Cookworthy shall not particularly describe " and ascertain the Nature of his said Invention, and in what Manner the same is to be performed, by an " Instrument in Writing, under his Hand and Seal, and cause the same to be enrolled in Our High Court
 " of Chancery, within four Calendar Months next and immediately after the Date of these Our Letters Pa" tent; that then, these Our Letters Patent, and all Liberties and Advantages whatsoever hereby granted,
 " shall utterly cease, determine, and become void, any Thing herein before contained to the contrary " thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And lastly, We do by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and " Successors, grant unto the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, that " these Our Letters Patent, or the Inrolment or Exemplification thereof, shall be in and by all Things good,
 " firm, valid, sufficient, and effectual in the Law, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof,
 " and shall be taken, construed, and adjudged, in the most favourable and beneficial Sense for the best " Advantage of the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, as well in all
 " Our Courts of Record as elsewhere, and by all and singular the Officers and Ministers whatsoever of

" Us,

“ Us, Our Heirs and Successors, in that Part of Our said Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed aforesaid, and amongst all and every the Subjects of Us, Our Heirs and Successors, whatsoever and wheresoever, notwithstanding the not full and certain describing the Nature or Quality of the said Invention, or of the Materials thereto conducing and belonging: In Witness whereof, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent. Witness Ourself at Westminster, the seventeenth Day of March, in the eighth Year of Our Reign.”

“ And whereas the said William Cookworthy hath, by an Instrument in Writing, under his Hand and Seal, described and ascertained the Nature of the said Invention, and the Manner in which the same is to be performed; and hath caused the same to be inrolled in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, within the Time and in the Manner directed by the said Letters Patent: And whereas, by a Deed of Assignment, bearing Date the sixth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, the said William Cookworthy (for the Considerations therein mentioned) hath assigned all his Interest, Benefit, and Property, in the said Letters Patent, and Invention, unto Richard Champion of Bristol, Merchant, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns: And whereas the said Richard Champion hath been at a very considerable Expence, and at great Pains and Labour, in prosecuting the said Invention; and by reason of the great Difficulty attending a Manufacture upon a new Principle, hath not been able to bring the same to Perfection until within this last Year; and it will require further Pains, Labour, and Expence, to render the said Invention of publick Utility; for all which Trouble and Expence the said Richard Champion will not be able to receive an adequate Compensation, unless the Term granted by the said Letters Patent be prolonged: To the End therefore that the said Richard Champion may be encouraged to prosecute and complete the said Invention, may it please your Majesty (at the humble Petition of the said Richard Champion) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Powers, Liberties, Privileges, Authorities, Rights, Benefits, and Advantages, which in and by the said Letters Patent were originally given and granted to him the said William Cookworthy, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and no further or greater than he, or the said Richard Champion, would have been intitled to if this Act had not been made, shall be, and the same are hereby given and granted to the said Richard Champion, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and shall be held, exercised, and enjoyed, by him the said Richard Champion, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during the present Term of fourteen Years granted by the said Letters Patent; and from and after the End and Expiration of the said Term of fourteen Years thereby granted, for and during the further or additional Term of fourteen Years, in as full, ample, and beneficial Manner, in all Respects, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as he the said Richard Champion, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, could have held and enjoyed the same, under and by virtue of the said Letters Patent for the Term thereby granted, in case the said Letters Patent had been originally granted by his Majesty to him the said Richard Champion, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns.

All the Powers, Privileges, &c. contained in the before-recited Letters Patent, by this Act granted to Richard Champion, his Executors, &c. with a further Term of 14 Years.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said Richard Champion shall not cause to be inrolled in the High Court of Chancery, within four Months after passing this Act, a Specification of the Mixture and Proportions of the Raw Materials of which his Porcelain is composed, and likewise of the Mixture and Proportions of the Raw Materials which compose the Glaze of the same (which Specification is now in the Hands of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain); or if the same shall not be a true and just Specification of the Mixture and Proportions of the said Materials; then this Act shall cease, determine, and be absolutely void, any Thing herein before contained to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Bookseller, Printer, or other Person whatsoever, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, shall print, reprint, or import, or cause to be printed, reprinted, or imported, any such Book or Books; or, knowing the same to be so printed or reprinted, shall sell, publish, or expose to Sale, or cause to be sold, published, or exposed to Sale, any such Book or Books; then such Offender or Offenders shall forfeit such Book or Books, and all and every Sheet or Sheets, being Part of such Book or Books, to the University, College, or House of Learning respectively, to whom the Copy of such Book or Books shall have been bequeathed or given as aforesaid, who shall forthwith damask and make waste Paper of them; and further, that every such Offender or Offenders shall forfeit one Penny for every Sheet which shall be found in his, her, or their Custody, either printed or printing, published or exposed to Sale, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; the one Moiety thereof to the King’s most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same; to be recovered in any of his Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Wager of Law, Essoin, Privilege, or Protection, or more than one Impar lance, shall be allowed.

And whereas many Persons may through Ignorance offend against this Act, unless some Provision be made whereby the Property of every such Book as is intended by this Act to be secured to the said Universities, Colleges, and Houses of Learning within the same, and to the said Universities in Scotland, and to the respective Colleges of Eton, Westminster, and Winchester, may be ascertained and known; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to subject any Bookseller, Printer, or other Person whatsoever, to the Forfeitures or Penalties herein mentioned, for or by reason of the printing or reprinting, importing or exposing to Sale, any Book or Books, unless the Title to the Copy of such Book or Books, which has or have been already bequeathed or given to any of the said Universities or Colleges aforesaid, be entered in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers kept for that Purpose, in such Manner as hath been usual, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five; and of all and every such Book or Books as may or shall hereafter be bequeathed or given as aforesaid, be entered in such Register within the Space of two Months after any such Bequest or Gift shall have come to the Knowledge of the Vice Chancellors of the said Universities, or Heads of Houses and Colleges of Learning, or of the Principal of any of the said four Universities respectively; for every of which Entries so to be made as aforesaid, the Sum of Sixpence shall be paid, and no more; which said Register Book shall and may, at all seasonable and convenient Times, be referred to and inspected by any Bookseller, Printer, or other Person, without any Fee or Reward; and the Clerk of the said Company of Stationers shall, when and as often as thereunto required, give a Certificate under his Hand of such Entry or Entries, and for every such Certificate may take a Fee not exceeding Sixpence.

and the Clerk so refusing shall, for every such Offence, forfeit twenty Pounds to the Proprietor or Proprietors of every such Copy Right; to be recovered in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Wager of Law, Effoin, Privilege, Protection, or more than one Impar lance, shall be allowed.

VI. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by vesting the Copies of printed Books in the Authors or Purchasers of such Copies during the Times therein mentioned, it is enacted, That nine Copies of each Book or Books, upon the best Paper, that, from and after the tenth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ten, should be printed and published, as therein mentioned, or reprinted and published with Additions, shall, by the Printer or Printers thereof, be delivered to the Warehouse Keeper of the said Company of Stationers for the Time being, at the Hall of the said Company, before such Publication made, for the Use of the Royal Library, the Libraries of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, the Libraries of the four Universities in Scotland, the Library of Sion College in London, and the Library commonly called The Library belonging to the Faculty of Advocates in Edinburgh, respectively; which such Warehouse Keeper was thereby required, within ten Days after Demand by the Keepers of the respective Libraries, or any Person or Persons by them, or any of them, authorised to demand the said Copy, to deliver the same for the Use of the aforesaid Libraries; and if any Proprietor, Bookfeller, or Printer, or the said Warehouse Keeper of the said Company of Stationers, should not observe the Direction of the said Act therein, that then he and they so making Default, in not delivering the said printed Copies as aforesaid, should forfeit as therein mentioned: And whereas the said Provision has not proved effectual, but the same hath been eluded by the Entry only of the Title to a single Volume, or of some Part of such Book or Books so printed and published, or reprinted and republished, as aforesaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall be subject to the Penalties in the said Act mentioned, for or by reason of the printing or reprinting, importing or exposing to Sale, any Book or Books, without the Consent mentioned in the said Act, unless the Title to the Copy of the whole of such Book, and every Volume thereof, be entered, in Manner directed by the said Act, in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers, and unless nine such Copies of the whole of such Book or Books, and every Volume thereof printed and published, or reprinted or republished, as therein mentioned, shall be actually delivered to the Warehouse Keeper of the said Company, as therein directed, for the several Uses of the several Libraries in the said Act mentioned.

VII. be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the Securities purchased with the Surplus Money mentioned in the said recited Act, and out of the Interest produced, and to be produced, from such Securities, and out of the Surplus Interest produced, or to be produced, from Securities purchased in pursuance of the several Acts in the said recited Act mentioned, and out of the Interest produced, or to be produced, from Securities purchased in pursuance of the said recited Act, such Sum and Sums of Money as the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or the Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, shall, in his and their Discretion, deem necessary to be paid by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court, and be applied under the Direction of the said Court in paying and defraying the Charges and Expences attending the passing and obtaining of this Act, and in purchasing the said Ground belonging to the said Society of Lincoln's Inn herein before mentioned and described, and in building thereon an Office for the said Six Clerks, and the Offices thereto belonging, as well as in carrying into Execution the Purposes of the said recited Act, except so much thereof as relates to the rebuilding the said Six Clerks Office in the Place where the same now stands, and except so far as the said recited Act is hereby altered or varied.

III. And whereas the said Office of the said Six Clerks, and the Offices thereto belonging, and the said Six Clerks, and the Sworn Clerks, Waiting Clerks, and Clerks of Inrolments of the said Court of Chancery, executing their several Offices within the Liberty of the Rolls in the County of Middlesex, for and in respect of their said several and respective Offices, have, pursuant to divers Acts of Parliament, been taxed, rated, and assessed, to the Payment of the Land Tax within the said Liberty, and it will be a great Injury to such Liberty if the said Offices shall not continue to be rated and assessed within such Liberty; be it further enacted, That from and after the Removal of the said Offices respectively into the Building so to be erected upon the Ground belonging to the said Society of Lincoln's Inn, and notwithstanding such Removal, such Offices shall respectively continue to be taxed, rated, and assessed, for the Payment of the Land Tax within the said Liberty of the Rolls only, and shall not be taxed, rated, or assessed, within any other Division, Parish, or Place whatsoever, nor shall the said Offices, or any of them, be taxed, rated, or assessed, for the Payment of any other Rates, Taxes, or Assessments whatsoever, imposed or to be imposed, save as herein-before is mentioned; nor shall the said Society of Lincoln's Inn be rated or taxed, for or in respect of the said Offices, to any Rates, Taxes, or Assessments whatsoever.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Officer or Officers belonging to the said Offices shall neglect or refuse to pay the Sum or Sums of Money, which shall be rated or assessed upon them, or any of them, by virtue of any Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, any two or more of the Commissioners, appointed by such Act for the Liberty of the Rolls, shall and may certify by Writing, under their Hands and Seals, such Neglect or Refusal, and the Sum payable by virtue of such Act, to the Commissioners for executing such Act in the County or Place where such Officer or Officers reside, and any two or more of such Commissioners are hereby authorized and required, upon Receipt of such Certificate, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower the respective Collectors of the Parish or Place where such Officer or Officers reside to distrain the Goods and Chattels of such Officer or Officers, and the Distress or Distresses so made to detain and keep for the Space of four Days; and if such Officer or Officers do not pay the said Sum or Sums of Money, for which such Distress shall be made as aforesaid, within the Space of four Days, that then the said Goods and Chattels so distrained as aforesaid shall and may be appraised and sold by two such honest and sufficient Persons as the said Commissioners who shall sign the said Warrant shall nominate and appoint, and the Monies arising thereby shall be paid to the Collectors of the said Liberty of the Rolls, for and towards Satisfaction of the said Sum or Sums of Money, and the Surplus (if any be) shall be returned to the Owner of the said Goods, after the Charge of the said Distress and Sale shall be deducted.

V. And whereas the said Six Clerks are possessed of Chambers or Rooms over the said Office, called The Six Clerks Office, which were anciently the Residence of the said Six Clerks, but it will be greatly inconvenient and dangerous if any such Chambers are erected over the Office for the said Six Clerks, to be erected in pursuance of this Act, whereby the said Six Clerks will lose the Benefit and Emolument arising from such Chambers: And whereas, by reason of the said Office, called The Six Clerks Office, and the Offices thereto belonging, being, in pursuance of this Act, to be erected on the said Ground belonging to the said Society of Lincoln's Inn, the Ground whereon such Offices now stand will, from and after the Building and Removal of the said Offices, be no longer applied for the Purposes of such Offices; be it therefore further enacted, That when and so soon as conveniently may be after the new Building for the said Six Clerks Office, and the Offices thereto belonging, shall be completed, the said Ground belonging to the said Six Clerks, and the Buildings standing thereon, shall, by Order of the said Court of Chancery, be sold, in such Manner as the said Court shall direct, and the Money to arise by such Sale shall be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant-general of the said Court; and upon Payment by the Purchaser or Purchasers respectively of his, her, or their Purchase-money into the Bank of England, as aforesaid, the said Six Clerks shall grant, convey, and deliver the said Ground and Premises, or such Part or Parts thereof respectively as shall be so sold unto such Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as the said Court shall direct.

VI. And be it further enacted, That upon every such Sale and Conveyance of the said Ground and Premises as aforesaid, the Money to arise by such Sale or Sales shall be paid by such Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, and their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, as aforesaid, into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privity of the said Accountant-general of the said Court, to be placed to the Account of Money arising by Sale of the Six Clerks Office, pursuant to the Method prescribed by the Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the First, Chapter the thirty-second, and the general Orders of the said Court, and without Fee or Reward, pursuant to the Act of the twelfth Year of King George the Second, Chapter twenty-fourth; and the same shall there remain, until the same shall, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court, to be made for that Purpose from Time to Time, be placed out in one entire Sum, or in Parcels, on such Government or Parliamentary Securities as in and by such Order shall be directed, to the Intent that the Interest and annual Produce, arising from the Money so to be placed out, may be applied for the Purposes herein-after mentioned; and that the said Court of Chancery may, by Order or Orders of the said Court, from Time to Time, change the Security or Securities on which the said Monies shall be so placed out, as the said Court shall think expedient.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Interest and annual Produce which shall arise or be produced from Securities, to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, with Money arising by Sale of the said Ground and Premises, shall, from Time to Time, be received by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and placed to the Credit of an Account, to be raised in the Books kept there for the Suitors of the said Court, of Interest arising from Money placed out in pursuance of this Act, and shall from Time to Time be paid, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court, to the said Six Clerks and their Successors, in Lieu and Recompence of the Chambers so belonging to their several Offices, and for the Purpose pose of keeping the said Offices to be erected in pursuance of this Act in proper Repair, and what shall be so ordered to be paid to the said Six Clerks shall be considered as a Freehold Estate in them respectively, as coming in Lieu of their said Chambers.

VIII. Provided always, That from such Time as the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal for the Time being, shall deem the Purposes of the said recited Act, and of this Act, so far as respects the Funds provided by the said recited Act to be fully satisfied, and shall in Testimony thereof, by an Order of the said Court, declare the same, and direct the Accountant-general of the said Court not to issue any Draft, and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England not to issue any further Sum or Sums of Money out of the Funds provided by the said recited Act for any of the Purposes aforesaid, the Appropriation by the said recited Act and herein-before made of the Surplus Money, placed to the Account of Interest arising from Monies placed out in pursuance of the said Act of the twelfth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second, and of the Surplus Money placed to the Account of Interest arising from Monies placed out in pursuance of an Act of the fifth Year of His present Majesty, and also of the Interest of Securities to be purchased pursuant to the said Act of the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty, shall from thenceforth cease and be at an End.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, that no Casement, Privy, or House of Office whatsoever, be erected on any Part of either of the Pieces or Parcels of Ground herein-before described above the Level of the Ground Floor of the said Offices; and that no Building whatsoever be erected on the last mentioned Piece or Parcel of Ground to rise above the Level of the Springing of the Arches in the Fronts of the Buildings, intended to be erected by the said Society, or within thirty Feet of the Western Boundary of the said last-mentioned Ground; and also, that the said last-mentioned Ground be inclosed on the Western Boundary by an open Iron Pallisade Railing only, and those Parts of the Eastern Boundary not built against by a Wall, the Top of the Coping of which shall be on a Level with the Springing of the said Arches; and also, that the external Plan and Elevations of the Basement and Ground Story of the Buildings to be erected on the said Pieces or Parcels of Ground do correspond with the Buildings intended to be erected by the said Society; and that the Chimney Shafts be erected regularly, and be carried up to such Heights as not to annoy or be offensive to the Rooms or Chambers in the said Buildings intended to be erected by the said Society; and that no Act or Thing be done upon any Part of the said several Premises to annoy or be offensive to any of the said Chambers, or the Occupiers thereof.

Proviso with respect to different Parts of the Building.

X. Provided also, and be it enacted, That the said Society do not erect any Building or Buildings whatsoever between the East Front of the Buildings now carrying on by the said Society and the Western Boundary of the said first-mentioned Piece or Parcel of Ground.

Proviso.

XI. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That the said Offices or Buildings to be erected in pursuance of this Act, and the Offices or Buildings to be erected adjoining thereto, for the Use of the Register and Accountant-general of the said Court of Chancery, and all other Buildings already erected, or begun, or which may hereafter be erected or begun, on any Part of the Ground or Premises of Old Lincoln's Inn, shall not be subject to all or any of the Regulations and Directions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further and better Regulation of Buildings and Party Walls; and for the more effectually preventing Mischief by Fire within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Liberties thereof, and other the Parishes, Precincts, and Places, within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, the Parishes of Saint Mary le Bon, Paddington, Saint Pancras, and Saint Luke at Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex; and for indemnifying, under certain Conditions, Builders and other Persons against the Penalties to which they are or may be liable for erecting Buildings within the Limits aforesaid contrary to Law; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. LXI.

An Act vesting in James Watt, Engineer, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the sole Use and Property of certain Steam Engines, commonly called Fire Engines, of his Invention, described in the said Act, throughout his Majesty's Dominions, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

His Majesty's Letters Patent granted to James Watt recited.

Specification of the Fire Engine.

WHEREAS his most Excellent Majesty, King George the Third, by his Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the fifth Day of January, in the ninth Year of his Reign, did give and grant unto James Watt, of the City of Glasgow, Merchant, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the sole Benefit and Advantage of making and vending certain Engines, by him invented, for lessening the Consumption of Steam and Fuel in Fire Engines within that Part of his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and also in his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, for the Term of fourteen Years; with a Proviso, obliging the said James Watt, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to cause a particular Description of the Nature of the said Invention to be inrolled in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, within four Months after the Date of the said recited Letters Patent: And whereas the said James Watt did, in pursuance of the said Proviso, cause a particular Description of the said Engine to be inrolled in the said High Court of Chancery, upon the twenty-ninth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, which Description is in the Words and Form, or to the Effect following; that is to say, "My Method of lessening the Consumption of Steam, and consequently Fuel, in Fire Engines, consists of the following Principles: First, That Vessel in which the Powers of Steam are to be employed to work the Engine which is called The Cylinder in common Fire Engines, and which I call The Steam Vessel, must, during the whole Time the Engine is at Work, be kept as hot as the Steam that enters it; first, by inclosing it in a Case of Wool, or any other Materials that transmit Heat slowly; secondly, by surrounding it with Steam, or other heated Bodies; and, thirdly, by suffering neither Water, or any other Substance colder than the Steam, to enter or touch it during that Time. Secondly, In Engines that are to be worked wholly or partially by Condensation of Steam, the Steam is to be condensed in Vessels distinct from the Steam Vessels or Cylinders, although occasionally communicating with them; these Vessels I call Condensers; and, whilst the Engines are working, these Condensers ought at least to be kept as cold as the Air in the Neighbourhood of the Engines, by Application of Water, or other cold Bodies. Thirdly, Whatever Air or other elastic Vapour is not condensed by the Cold of the Condenser, and may impede the Working of the Engine, is to be drawn out of the Steam Vessels or Condensers by means of Pumps, wrought by the Engines themselves, or otherwise. Fourthly, I intend in many Cases to employ the expansive Force of Steam to press on the Pistons, or whatever may be used instead of them, in the same Manner as the Pressure of the Atmosphere is now employed in common Fire Engines: In Cases where cold Water cannot be had in Plenty, the Engines may be wrought by this Force of Steam only, by discharging the Steam into the open Air after it has done its Office;" [which Fourth Article the said James Watt declares, in a Note affixed to the Specification of the said Engine, should not be understood to extend to any Engine where the Water to be raised enters the Steam Vessel itself, or any Vessel having an open Communication with it.] “Fifthly, Where Motions round an Axis are required, I make the Steam Vessels in Form of hollow Rings, or circular Channels, with proper Inlets and Outlets for the Steam, mounted on horizontal Axles, like the Wheels of a Water Mill; within them are placed a Number of Valves, that suffer any Body to go round the Channel in one Direction only; in these Steam Vessels are placed Weights, so fitted to them, as entirely to fill up a Part or Portion of their Channels, yet rendered capable of moving freely in them, by the Means herein after mentioned or specified: When the Steam is admitted in these Engines, between these Weights and the Valves, it acts equally on both, so as to raise the Weight to one Side of the Wheel, and by the Re-action on the Valves, successively, to give a circular Motion to the Wheel, the Valves opening in the Direction in which the Weights are pressed, but not in the contrary; as the Steam Vessel moves round, it is supplied with Steam from the Boiler, and that which has performed its Office may either be discharged by means of Condensers, or into the open Air. Sixthly, I intend, in some Cases, to apply a Degree of Cold, not capable of reducing the Steam to Water, but of contracting it considerably, so that the Engines shall be worked by the alternate Expansion and Contraction of the Steam. Lastly, Instead of using Water to render the Piston or other Parts of the Engines Air and Steam tight, I employ Oils, Wax, resinous Bodies, Fat of Animals, Quicksilver, and other Metals, in their fluid State.” And whereas the said James Watt hath employed many Years, and a considerable Part of his Fortune, in making Experiments upon Steam, and Steam Engines, commonly called Fire Engines, with a View to improve those very useful Machines, by which several very considerable Advantages over the common Steam Engines are acquired; but upon account of the many Difficulties which always arise in the Execution of such large and complex Machines, and of the long Time requisite to make the necessary Trials, he could not complete his Intention before the End of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, when he finished some large Engines as Specimens of his Construction, which have succeeded so as to demonstrate the Utility of the said Invention: And whereas, in order to manufacture these Engines with the necessary Accuracy, and so that they may be sold at moderate Prices, a considerable Sum of Money must be previously expended in erecting Mills, and other Apparatus; and as several Years, and repeated Proofs, will be required before any considerable Part of the Publick can be fully convinced of the Utility of the Invention, and of their Interest to adopt the same, the whole Term granted by the said Letters Patent may probably elapse before the said James Watt can receive an Advantage adequate to his Labour and Invention: And whereas, by furnishing mechanical Powers at much less Expence, and in more convenient Forms, than has hitherto been done, his Engines may be of great Utility in facilitating the Operations in many great Works and Manufactures of this Kingdom; yet it will not be in the Power of the said James Watt to carry his Invention into that complete Execution which he wishes, and so as to render the same of the highest Utility to the Publick of which it is capable, unless the Term granted by the said Letters Patent be prolonged, and his Property in the said Invention secured, not only within that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, but also within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for such Time as may enable him to obtain an adequate Recompence for his Labour, Time, and Expence: To the End, therefore, that the said James Watt may be enabled and encouraged to prosecute and complete his said Invention, so that the Publick may reap all the Advantages to be derived therefrom in their fullest Extent, may it please your most Excellent Majesty (at the humble Petition and Request of the said James Watt) that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the sole Privilege and Advantage of making, constructing, and selling the said Engines, herein before particularly described, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, shall be, and are hereby declared to be, vested in the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during the Term of twenty-five Years; and that he the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, by himself and themselves, or by his and their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or such others as he the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall at any Time agree with, and for no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times, during the Term of Years herein before mentioned, shall and lawfully may make, use, exercise, and vend the said Engines, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and in his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, in such Manner as to him the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall in their Discretions seem meet; and that the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall and lawfully may have and enjoy the whole Profit, Benefit, Commodity, and Advantage, from Time to Time coming, growing, accruing, and arising, by reason of these his said Inventions, for the said Term of twenty-five Years, to have, hold, receive and enjoy the same, for and during and to the full End and Term of twenty-five Years, as aforesaid; and that no other Person or Persons within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations abroad, shall, at any Time during the said Term of twenty-five Years, either directly or indirectly, do, make, use, or put in Practice, the said Inventions, or any Part of the same, so attained unto by the said James Watt as aforesaid, nor in any wise counterfeit, imitate, or resemble the same; nor shall make, or cause to be made, any Addition thereunto, or Substraction from the same, whereby to pretend himself or themselves the Inventor or Inventors, Devisor or Divisors thereof, without the Licence, Consent, or Agreement of the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, first had and obtained in that Behalf, upon such Pains and Penalties as can or may be justly inflicted on such Offenders for their Contempt of this Act; and further, to be answerable to the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, according to Law, for his and their Damages thereby occasioned.

This Act not to extend to hinder any Person from making or using any Fire Engine, &c. which is not the present Invention of the said James Watt.

Proviso.

The Privileges granted by this Act not to be transferred to more than 5 Persons;

II. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice or hinder any Person or Persons from making or using any Fire or Steam Engine, or any particular Contrivance relating to the same, which is not at present of the Invention of the said James Watt, or which has been publicly used or exercised by any other Person or Persons before the Time of the Date of the said Letters Patent herein recited; but that all such Engines and Contrivances which are not at present of the said Invention of the said James Watt, or are not particularly specified in this Act, shall be and remain to the Publick, and to the respective Inventors thereof, as if this Act had never been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided also, That every Objection in Law competent against the said Patent, shall be competent against this Act to all Intents and Purposes, except so far as relates to the Term hereby granted.

IV. Provided always, That if the said James Watt, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or any Person or Persons who shall at any Time, during the said Term of twenty-five Years, have or claim any Right, Title, or Interest, in Law or Equity, of, in, or to the Power, Privilege, or Authority, of the sole Use and Benefit of the said Invention, shall make any Transfer or Assignment, or pretended Transfer or Assignment, of the said Liberty or Privilege hereby granted, or any Share or Shares of the Benefit or Profits thereof; or shall declare any Trust thereof to or for any Number of Persons exceeding the Number of five; or shall open, or cause to be opened, any Book or Books for publick Subscriptions, to be made by any Number of Persons exceeding the Number of five, in order to the raising any Sum or Sums of Money, under Pretence of carrying on the said Liberty or Privilege hereby granted; or shall by him or themselves, or his or their Agents or Servants, receive any Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever, of any Number of Persons exceeding in the Whole the Number of five, for such or the like Intents or Purposes; or shall presume to act as a Corporate Body; or shall divide the Benefit of the Liberty or Privileges hereby granted, into any Number of Shares exceeding the Number of five; or shall commit or do, or procure to be committed or done, any Act, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, during such Time as such Person or Persons shall have any Right or Title, either in Law or Equity, which shall be contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of an Act of Parliament, made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the better securing certain Powers and Privileges intended to be granted by his Majesty, by two Charters, for Assurance of Ships and Merchandises at Sea, and for lending Money upon Bottomry, and for restraining several extravagant and unwarrantable Practices therein mentioned; or in case the said Power, Privilege, or Authority, shall at any Time become vested in or in Trust for more than the Number of five Persons, or their Representatives, at any one Time, otherwise than by Devise or Succession (reckoning Executors and Administrators as and for the single Persons whom they represent, as to such Interest as they are or shall be intitled to in Right of such their Testator or Intestate); that then, and in every of the said Cases, all Liberties and Advantages whatsoever hereby granted shall utterly cease, determine, and become void, any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

on Penalty of forfeiting the same.

Publick Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Publick Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

C A P. LXII.

An Act for completing and maintaining the Pier at the Town of Mevagiffey, in the County of Cornwall.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Town of Mevagiffey, in the County of Cornwall, is situated on the South Side of the said County, contiguous to the British Channel, and hath been for a long Series of Years found a very convenient Situation for carrying on the Pilchard Fishery; and the same has been done to the great Advantage, not only of the Publick in general, but of many Persons concerned or employed therein; and for the Safety and Protection of Vessels employed in the said Fishery, and others who might have Occasion to navigate to and from the said Town, a small Pier was formerly erected and kept in Repair by the Owner of the Ground and Soil near to the same; and certain small Dues were taken from the Owners of all such Vessels as partook of the Protection thereof: And whereas the said Pier having been found very inconvenient, difficult of Access, and inadequate to the Increase of the said Fishery, and the Resort of Vessels to the said Town, the same hath been suffered to fall into Ruin and Decay; and it hath been judged necessary to erect a new Pier upon a more extended and enlarged Plan; for which Purpose the Sum of one thousand three hundred Pounds, or thereabouts, hath been subscribed and paid; which hath been expended in executing Part of the Work intended to be carried into Execution; and in order to make and erect the proper Embankments, Quays, Wharfs, Ways, Passages, and Approaches to the said Pier, and for the Protection thereof, it is necessary to vest in Commissioners the Soil of a sufficient Quantity of Ground; and for that End, and for completing the several Works aforesaid, and in making Satisfaction to the Owners of the Ground and Soil which will be used in effecting the same, it hath been found, that the further Sum of three thousand Pounds, or thereabouts, will be necessary; and that, by laying a reasonable Tonnage or Duty on all Ships and other Vessels which shall partake of the Benefits resulting from the said Improvements, not only the said further Sum, but the Interest thereof, and of the Sums already advanced, may be kept down, and the said Pier and Works at all Times kept and maintained in good and sufficient Repair; yet, nevertheless, the good Ends and Purposes

VIII. Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give any Power or Authority to the said Commissioners to make or widen any Cut, or set down any Sluice, or other Work, in or through the Banks of the said River, or either of them, or in or through the Turnpike Road, without making good such Part or Parts of the said Banks or Road where the said Cut, Sluice, or other Work shall be made, and maintaining and supporting the same so long as the said Cut, Sluice, or other Work shall continue; or to alter, take up, or disannul any Sluice, Cut, or other Work, made or to be made, in or through the said Banks, or either of them, without making good the Breaches occasioned thereby; or to set up, or have any other Mill or Mills (other than and except the said White and Red Engines) for the carrying of the Waters from the said Lands and Grounds, so abutted and described as aforesaid, into the said River, through any other Part of the Banks of the same than such Part thereof as is situate between Guyhirn Cross and Bevis Hall; or to remove the said White and Red Engines, or either of them, from the respective Places where they now stand; and that no Earth shall be taken for any Purpose whatsoever from any Place or Places within sixty Feet of Murrow Bank, or of any of the Banks of the said River Nene; and also that no Earth shall be taken from any of the adjacent Lands and Grounds, unless the said Lands and Grounds, so described and abutted as aforesaid, shall be overflowed with Water in such Manner that Earth cannot be had or taken therefrom within fifty Yards of the Place where the said Earth is to be laid by virtue of this Act.

IX. And, for the preventing of the Waters in the said Drain from overflowing the Banks thereof, or running too high between the White and Red Mills, to the Damage of the Lands lying on each Side thereof, in the Parish of Leverington and in The Nine Hundred, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid,

That

That in case the said Commissioners shall at any Time or Times make any Alteration in the Dimensions of the said White Mill, by enlarging the same, then, and in such Case, the said Commissioners shall also enlarge the said Red Mill proportionably, and so as to exceed the Dimensions of the said White Mill in such Proportion as Sea Mills usually exceed the Dimensions of Land Mills; and that an Overfall of Brick shall be set up and built near the said White Mill, of such Height, and in such Manner, as they the said Commissioners shall think proper and necessary for the effectual stopping of the said Waters, and preventing their overflowing the Banks of the said Drain, or running too high in the same, to the Damage of the said Lands on each Side of the said Drain.

If the White Mill be enlarged, the Red Mill to be also enlarged.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said Commissioners shall at any Time or Times think proper to widen the said Drain between the Poor Houses at or near Tun Green, in the Parish of Leverington, and the Turn of the said Drain near Little Dowgate, then the said Commissioners shall take the Earth from each Side of the said Drain in an equal Proportion, except at such Places where the taking of the Earth from each Side thereof will interfere with private Property, and there the Earth shall be taken on that Side of the said Drain where the taking thereof will not interfere with such Property.

How Earth may be taken away to widen the Drain at Tun Green, &c.

XI. And, forasmuch as the Preservation of the said Lands and Grounds, so abutted and described as aforesaid, in a great Measure depends upon the keeping of a sufficient Bank between the said Lands and Grounds and the Common of Leverington, and Leverington Parson Drove, and therefore the Owners and Proprietors of the said Lands and Grounds, notwithstanding the said Bank is now repaired, supported, and maintained, by the Land Owners of Leverington and Leverington Parson Drove aforesaid, are desirous of taking upon themselves the Burthen and Expence of raising, supporting, and maintaining the same, from Murrow Bank to the White Engine; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the said Commissioners shall have full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, at their Will and Pleasure, to amend, raise, support, maintain and keep, at their own Expence, the said Bank, from Murrow Bank aforesaid to the White Engine, of a Height and Breadth sufficient for the Defence of the said Lands and Grounds, so described and abutted as aforesaid, against the Waters of Leverington and Leverington Parson Drove; and that they the said Commissioners, for the amending, raising, supporting, maintaining, and keeping up of the said Bank, shall, and lawfully may, from Time to Time, and at all Times, enter upon the said Common, and take from thence all such Earth as shall be necessary and wanting for the amending, raising, supporting, maintaining, and keeping of the said Bank of the said Height and Breadth, without paying or making any Recompence for the same: Provided, that no Earth shall be taken for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, at a greater Distance than thirty Feet from the Brink of the present Drain running between the said Lands and Grounds and the said Common.

Commissioners impowered to support the Bank from Murrow Bank to the White Engine.

Provido.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners shall be, and they are hereby authorised and directed to lay down Bridges in all Places where all or any of the Drains already cut and thrown out, or to be cut and thrown out, under and by virtue of this Act, shall cross any Road or publick Highway, and the said Bridges to support and keep as publick Bridges, for the Passage of Horses, Beasts, Cattle, and Carriages of all Sorts.

Bridges to be provided where necessary.

XIII. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Proprietors of the Lands lying on the North Side of the said Drain, between Little Dowgate and the Red Mill, shall and may have a Passage into their said Lands over the said Drain, for Horses, Carts, and Carriages; and shall and may, from Time to Time, and at all Times, have free Liberty to lay Bridges, or raise Arches, over any Part or Parts thereof, between Little Dowgate aforesaid and the Red Mill, for such Passage, and from Time to Time to repair, amend, and keep up the said Bridges and Arches, provided that they the said Proprietors do not thereby, or by Means thereof, lessen or narrow the said Drain, or choak or fill up the same with Earth, Bricks, Rubbish, or in any other Manner whatsoever.

Proprietors of Lands lying on the North Side of the Drain between Little Dowgate and the Red Mill to have free Passage over the same.

XIV. WHEREAS his present Majesty King George the Third hath been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to Elizabeth Taylor Widow, in the Words, or to the Effect following; that is to say,

Preamble.

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, greeting: Whereas Elizabeth Taylor, of Our Town of Southampton, Widow, Relict and Executrix of Walter Taylor, late of the same Place, Blockmaker, deceased, has, by her Petition, humbly represented unto Us, that her said late Husband had, by his Ingenuity, Labour, and Industry, and at a great Expence, invented a Set of Engines, Tools, Instruments, and other Apparatus, for the making of Blocks, Sheavers, and Pins, whereby she the Petitioner has been enabled to supply Our Navy with all Kinds of Ship Rigging and Gun Tackle, Blocks, Sheavers, and Pins, in Iron, Brass, and Wood, more certain and efficacious in their Operation than any ever before used, and which will be the Means of a great Saving of the Ships Cordage and Rigging: That the said Blocks were first examined by the Principal Officers of Our Admiralty and Ordnance, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine; and in the Month of July last, a Trial was made between them and the best Blocks before used, in the Presence of the Principal Officers of Our Navy in Our Yard at Deptford, on which Trial those made by the Petitioner were found to be greatly superior to all others: That the Commissioners of Our Navy have contracted with the Petitioner for supplying Our Navy with a Quantity of the said Blocks, Sheavers, and Pins, and are desirous of having the whole Navy supplied therewith; but forasmuch as the Petitioner is apprehensive, that by employing a great Number of Workmen under her, the Method of constructing the said Engines, Tools, Instruments, and other Apparatus, and of making the said Blocks, will be discovered, whereby she may be deprived of the Benefit of the said Invention, and hath therefore most humbly prayed Us to grant unto her, her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, Our Royal Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the sole making and using the said Engines, Tools, Instruments, and other Apparatus, so first invented by her said late Husband, within that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for the Term of fourteen Years, according to the Statute in that Case made and provided, in order thereby to secure to the said Petitioner, her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the full Benefit and Advantage of the said Invention: We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and being willing to give Encouragement to all Arts and Inventions which may be for the Public Good, are graciously pleased to condescend to the Petitioner's said Request: Know ye therefore, that We, of Our especial Grace, certain Knowledge, and mere Motion, have given and granted, and by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, do give and grant unto the said Elizabeth Taylor, her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, Our especial Licence, full Power, sole Privilege, and Authority, that she the said Elizabeth Taylor, her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, by herself and themselves, or by her and their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or such others as she the said Elizabeth Taylor, her Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall at any Time agree with, and no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter during the Term of Years herein expressed, shall and lawfully may make, use, exercise, and vend her said Husband's Invention, within that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and that he and they were to be considered as private Persons only, and not in their Politic Capacity; and for Default of Performance of such Acts and Services which ought so to be done and performed, and for Default of Payment of any such Fines and Sums of Money which ought so to be paid, such Forfeitures and Penalties should accrue and become due, and it should be lawful for the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors for the Time being of the said Royal Hospital, in the Name of any one of them, to use and take all such Ways and Means for recovering and taking Advantage of the said Forfeitures and Penalties as might be lawfully used or taken by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in case the said Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, had continued to be or were actually vested in his said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and that he and they were to be considered as private Persons only, and not in their Politic Capacity; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding: And it was thereby also further enacted, That the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir John Thompson, William Fawkener, and William Baxter, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Executors and Administrators of such Survivor, should stand possessed of and interested in the Barony, Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, by two several Indentures, both bearing Date the sixteenth Day of February, one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, in the Act now reciting particularly mentioned, respectively bargained, sold, and assigned unto the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir Edward Bellamy, Sir John Thompson, William Fawkener, and William Baxter, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during all the Rest, Residue, and Remainder then to come and unexpired, of the several Terms of five hundred Years and five hundred Years in the same Indentures mentioned; and that they the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir John Thompson, William Fawkener, and William Baxter, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, of such Survivor, should stand seized and possessed of and interested in the Sum of three thousand Pounds in the Act now reciting mentioned, and the Barony, Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, charged with the Payment thereof, in Trust, for the Commissioners or Governors and Directors, for the Time being, of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, and to the Intent that the said last-mentioned Terms of five hundred Years and five hundred Years might attend and wait upon the Freehold and Inheritance of the Premises therein respectively comprised, and by the Act now reciting limited to the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir John Thompson, Sir James Creed, Peter Burrell, William Fawkener, William Baxter, Edward Vernon, Thomas Ripley, David Cockburn, James Spilman, William Allix, Fitzwilliam Plumtre, William Young, and Francis Dansays, and to protect the same from all mesne Incumbrances, if any should happen to be; but subject nevertheless, and without Prejudice, to the said Term of five hundred Years therein before limited to the said Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox and Henry Fox, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, as aforesaid: And it was thereby further enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for the Commissioners or Governors and Directors, for the Time being, of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or any seven or more of them, from Time to Time, and at all Times thereafter, to appoint Stewards, Receivers, or Bailiffs, of the said Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and to invest them with full Power to receive and get in the Rents; Issues, and Profits thereof, and to give Receipts, Discharges and Acquittances for the same, and to hold Courts, and to do and perform all Acts, Matters, and Things, necessary for the managing the said Premises, usually done and performed by Stewards, Receivers, and Bailiffs, and also to assign and allow such Salaries and Rewards to the said Stewards, Receivers, and Bailiffs, as the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Royal Hospital for the Time being, or any seven or more of them, should think requisite and necessary in that Behalf; and also that it should and might be lawful to and for the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Hospital for the Time being, or any seven or more of them, from Time to Time, and at all Times thereafter, to contract for the Sale of, and accordingly to make Sale and dispose of, all or any such Part or Parts of the Timber or Timber Trees on the said Estates, as they the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors, or any seven or more of them, should think fit, and to authorise and appoint any Person or Persons to make any Contract or Contracts for the Sale of all or any Part or Parts of such Timber and Timber Trees, and to receive the Purchase-money for the same, without being obliged to make any Application for all or any of those Purposes to his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, or to any Person or Persons whatsoever: And it was thereby also further enacted, That the Money to arise by the Sale of the said Timber should be applied to the Use of the said Hospital; but so nevertheless as that no Person or Persons who should purchase any Part of such Timber should be answerable for the Application of such Purchase-money; and that it should and might be lawful to and for the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Hospital, or any seven or more of them, to direct the cutting down, from Time to Time, such Timber and Timber Trees from off the said Estates as they should at any Time adjudge necessary or fitting to be used in the repairing any Houses, Tenements, Buildings, or Erections, on the said Estates, or to be used in the building any new Houses, Tenements, Edifices, Buildings, or Structures, as they should judge fitting to be erected on the said Estates, or should think it necessary or reasonable to build or erect for any Tenants of the said Estates, or for the Benefit or Improvement of the Premises, or any Part thereof: And it was thereby further enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for the Commissioners or Governors and Directors for the Time being of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or any seven or more of them, from Time to Time, and at all Times thereafter, to demise and grant all and every or any of the Mines of Lead, Coal, and other Minerals, as well opened as not opened, within and under any of the aforesaid Lands and Premises, to any Person or Persons, for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding twenty-one Years, and to grant Leases of all or any of the aforesaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, unto any Person or Persons for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding twenty-one Years, to take Effect in Possession, and not in Reversion, reserving in every Lease, Demise, or Grant of Mines, such Dues, Rent or Rents, and Profits, as they should judge most reasonable; but it was thereby enacted, That in every such Demise and Lease there should be contained a Condition of Re-entry for Non-payment of the Rent and Rents thereby respectively to be reserved; and it should be requisite for the respective Lessees to execute Counterparts of all such Demises and Leases; and no Clause should be contained in any of the said Demises or Leases, other than in the Demises or Leases of the said Mines or Minerals, whereby to give Power to any Lessee to commit Waste, or to exempt him, her, or them, from Punishment for committing the same: And after reciting that the Fines, Customs, and Services, by and under which several of the Tenants held their Farms, Lands, Tenements, and Estates, lying and being within several of the aforesaid Manors, were agreed, ascertained, or expressed, in some Articles, Indenture, Deed or Writing, then or late in the Custody or Power of some of the said Tenants, which, if produced, might be a Means to prevent Disputes, Differences, and Suits, concerning the said Fines, Customs, and Services, and for the Quiet and Benefit both of the Lord and Tenants; and it might happen that such Tenants might refuse to produce or shew such Articles, Indenture, Deed, or Writing, it was therefore enacted, That it should and might be lawful, to and for any seven or more of the Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Hospital for the Time being, to apply to his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, by a Motion in a summary Way, against any Tenant or Tenants holding any Farms, Lands, Tenements, or Estates, lying and being within the said Manors, or any of them, of whose having in his, her, or their Custody or Power any such Articles, Indenture, Deed or Writing, probable Evidence should be shewed to the Satisfaction of the said Court, for such Tenant or Tenants to produce and shew forth the same; upon which Motion it should and might be lawful to and for the said Court of Exchequer to examine and inquire into the said Matter, and make such Order or Orders with respect to the producing and shewing forth any such Articles, Indenture, Deed, or Writing, by any such Tenant or Tenants appearing to the said Court to have the same in his, her, or their Custody or Power, and with respect to any Copy or Copies to be had and made thereof, and such other Order or Orders concerning the same, as the said Court should think proper and just: And it was thereby further enacted, That so soon as it should happen that so many of them the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir John Thompson, Sir James Creed, Peter Burrell, William Fawkenor, William Baxter, Edward Vernon, Thomas Ripley, David Cockburn, James Spilman, William Allix, Fitzwilliam Plumptre, William Young, and Francis Dansays, the Trustees nominated and appointed in and by the said Act, for and on Behalf of the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, should happen to die, so as that the Number of such Trustees should be reduced to eleven, or to any lesser Number, that then, and in that Case, it should and might be lawful to and for the Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Hospital for the Time being, or any seven or more of them, and they were thereby authorized and impowered at any Time thereafter, by any Deed or Instrument in Writing under their respective Hands and Seals, to be inrolled in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, to nominate such other Persons as they the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Hospital, or any seven or more of them, should think fit, in the Place of such of the said Trustees as should so happen to die; and that it should and might be lawful to and for the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Hospital for the Time being, or any seven or more of them, and they were thereby authorized and impowered, from Time to Time, and at all Times afterwards, when and so often as any other of the said Trustees, or when and so often as any of such other Persons as should be so nominated as aforesaid, or any other Persons to be afterwards nominated in pursuance of the said Act (which they were thereby authorized and impowered to nominate accordingly) should happen to die, by any such Deed or Instrument in Writing as aforesaid, to nominate such other Persons as they the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors, or any seven or more of them, should think fit, in the Place of all and every the Person and Persons so dying: And it was thereby also enacted and declared, That from and immediately after every such Nomination, all and singular the Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and Powers, therein before limited and given to the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir John Thompson, Sir James Creed, Peter Burrell, William Fawkenor, William Baxter, Edward Vernon, Thomas Ripley, David Cockburn, James Spilman, William Allix, Fitzwilliam Plumptre, William Young, and Francis Dansays, and their Heirs as aforesaid, should be well vested in the Persons who from Time to Time should be so nominated as aforesaid, jointly with the Survivors of the said Trustees, or such other Persons as aforesaid, and in their Heirs, in Trust, for the said Commissioners or Governors and Directors of the said Hospital, as fully

And whereas by an Act, passed in the sixth Year of his present Majesty, certain Persons therein named, their Successors and Assigns, were incorporated by the Name of The Company of Proprietors of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation, and were thereby enabled to make a navigable Canal from the River Severn, between Bewdley and Titonbrook, in the County of Worcester, to join and communicate with a Canal then intended to be made between the River Trent and the River Mersey, at or near Haywood-mill, in the County of Stafford; and to raise such Sums of Money for accomplishing the said Undertaking as are therein particularly mentioned; which said Sums being found insufficient for completing the said Navigation, the said Company of Proprietors, by another Act, passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, were authorised to raise such further Sums of Money as are therein mentioned for completing the same, and the said Navigation hath been since accordingly completed: And whereas a great Inducement to the said Company of Proprietors to undertake the making of the said Navigation was, the Advantage expected to arise from Coals to be navigated on the said Canal in general, and particularly from Autherley near Wolverhampton, in the said County of Stafford, down to the River Severn, which is a Distance of twenty-five Miles and upwards: And whereas the Navigation intended to be made by virtue of this Act will fall into and communicate with the said Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation, at or near a certain Place called The River Stour Aqueduct, near Stourton, in the said County of Stafford, which, by the Course of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal, is about twelve Miles and an Half distant from the River Severn, where the said Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal falls into the said River; by means whereof the Owners of Coal-mines lying in the Neighbourhood of Stourbridge will be enabled greatly to undersell the Owners of Coal-mines lying in the Neighbourhood of Bilston, Coseley, and Tipton, in the County of Stafford, at the Severn Markets, which will tend to the manifest Injury of the said Collieries as well as of the said Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation, unless Powers are given to the said Company of Proprietors of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation to regulate their Tonnage upon Coals in such Manner as to bring the same, from all the said respective Coal-mines, to the Market of the Public, upon a nearer Footing of Equality, by advancing the Tonnage in Manner herein after directed upon the said last mentioned Canal Navigation, and by reducing the Tonnage upon all or any Part of the said Navigation, pursuant to an Agreement for that Purpose: And whereas the said Company of Proprietors of the said Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation were impowered, by virtue of the said Acts of the sixth and tenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, to receive and take a Tonnage of one Penny Halfpenny per Mile upon the said Canal Navigation, but were not thereby impowered to make any partial or particular Reduction thereof, and the same cannot be done without the Aid of Parliament;’ be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better carrying the said Agreement into Execution, and for the Benefit and Relief of the Owners of Coal-mines near Bilston, Coseley, and Tipton, in the said County of Stafford, and of the Proprietors of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation in Manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful, to and for the said Company of Proprietors of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation, their Successors and Assigns, or such Person or Persons as they shall, from Time to Time, authorise and appoint, to lay, impose, demand, take, and receive, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, such Tolls, Rates or Duties, upon all Coals which shall be brought down the said intended Stourbridge Canal Navigation, and which shall be navigated, carried, or conveyed, upon, through, or along, the said Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation, for the sole Use and Benefit of the said Company of Proprietors of the said Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal Navigation, as the said Company of Proprietors, their Successors or Assigns, shall think fit, not exceeding the Sum of Two-pence for every Ton of Coals which shall be so navigated, carried, or conveyed, for the Space of one Mile, and so in proportion for any Quantity greater or less than a Ton, and for any Space greater or less than a Mile; which said Tolls, Rates, or Duties, shall be paid to such Person or Persons,

C A P. XXIX.

An Act for vesting in John Liardet, Clerk, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the sole Use and Property of a certain Composition or Cement of his Invention, throughout his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, and in the Colonies and Plantations abroad, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

WHEREAS his most Excellent Majesty King George the Third, by his Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster the Third Day of April, which was in the Thirteenth Year of his Reign, did give and grant unto John Liardet, of Great Suffolk-street, in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Clerk, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, his sole Privilege and Authority to make, use, exercise, and vend, a certain Composition or Cement, for all the Branches concerning Buildings to which the same was applicable, within that Part of Great Britain called England, his Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in any of his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, for the Term of fourteen Years: And whereas, unless the Term granted by the said Letters Patent be prolonged, and the Property of the said John Liardet in the said Invention better secured, not only within that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, but also within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it will neither be possible for the said John Liardet, to receive an adequate Recompence for his Labour, Expence, and Time, nor for the Public at large to reap the various Advantages in Point of Utility and Oeconomy, as well as Ornament in Building, which would arise from this Invention were its Use universally diffused, and its Price lowered, upon which the Demand, and consequently the Profits of the Proprietor, must depend: And whereas the Cement from its Nature grows too hard for Use if not used soon after it is made, and therefore must be made where used, or near it, from which Circumstance the Use thereof has hitherto been confined to the Metropolis and a few Miles about it, as training Workmen and erecting Works is difficult and expensive: And whereas, if the Term is not enlarged, the same narrow Plan must be continued, a general Plan of erecting Works and training Men all over the Kingdom, which is necessary if

• the Use of the Cement is to be universal, cannot upon so short a Prospect be undertaken, the Circle cannot be enlarged, and the Price must continue such as may indemnify the Proprietor for his Expence; out of the Profits arising from a very small Consumption only, during his present Term: To the End therefore that the said John Liardet may be enabled and encouraged to prosecute and complete his said Invention, so that the Public may reap all the Advantages to be derived therefrom in their fullest Extent, may it please your Majesty (at the humble Petition of the said John Liardet) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the sole Privilege and Advantage of making, using, exercising, and vending, the said Composition or Cement mentioned in the said Letters Patent, with the Additions and Improvements since made therein, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, shall be, and the same is and are hereby declared to be, vested in the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during the Term of Eighteen Years from thenceforth next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended; and that he the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, by himself and themselves, or by his or their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or such others as he, the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall at any Time agree with, and no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times during the Term of Years herein before last mentioned, shall, and lawfully may, make, use, exercise, and vend, the said Composition or Cement herein before mentioned, with all and every the Additions and Improvements thereof, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and in his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, in such Manner as to him the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, or any of them, shall in his or their Discretion seem meet; and that the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, shall, and lawfully may, have and enjoy the whole Profit, Benefit, Commodity, and Advantage, from Time to Time coming, growing, accruing, and arising, by Reason of the said Invention, for and during the said Term of eighteen Years herein before mentioned, to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy, the said Privileges and Authorities, and every Part thereof, unto the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during and unto the full End and Term of eighteen Years as aforesaid; and that no other Person or Persons, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or in any of his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, shall at any Time, during the said Term of eighteen Years, either directly or indirectly, make, use, or put in Practice, the said Invention, or any Part of the same, nor in anywise counterfeit, imitate, or resemble the same, nor shall make, or cause to be made, any Addition thereunto or Subtraction from the same, whereby to pretend himself, herself, or themselves, the Inventor or Inventors, Devisor or Devisors thereof, without the Licence, Consent, or Agreement, of the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals first had and obtained in that Behalf, upon such Pains and Penalties as can or may be justly inflicted on such Offender or Offenders for his, her, or their Contempt of this Act, and further to be answerable to the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, according to Law, for his and their Damages thereby occasioned.

The sole Privilege of making and vending the Cement vested in John Liardet, his Executors, &c. for eighteen Years.

Penalty on other Persons making Cement without Licence, &c.

• II. And whereas the said John Liardet has hitherto furnished the said Cement at the Rate of Sixpence per Foot Square on the Surfaces of all plain Buildings, and Two-pence per Foot running Measure for Arrises; to the End therefore that the Public may be assured of the Advantage of this Invention at the same Price during the Continuance of this Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, during the Continuance of this Act, to ask, demand, or take, any greater Price than Sixpence by the Foot Square, and Two-pence per Foot as aforesaid for Arrises, for covering any plain Work with the aforesaid Cement or Composition.

IV. And be it hereby declared and enacted, That every Objection which might have been made to the said Cement's not being a new Invention, within the true Intent and Meaning of an Act of the twenty-first of James the First, sufficient to invalidate Letters Patent, may be made in Bar to any Action brought by virtue or in consequence of this Act.

V. Provided always, That if the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or any Person or Persons who shall, at any Time during the said Term of eighteen Years, have or claim any Right, Title, or Interest, in Law or Equity, of, in, or to, the Power, Privilege, or Authority, of the sole making, using, exercising, and vending, the said Composition or Cement, shall make any Transfer or Assignment, or pretended Transfer or Assignment, of the said Liberty or Privilege hereby vested in the said John Liardet, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, or any Share or Shares of the Benefit or Profits thereof, or shall declare any Trusts thereof to or for any Number of Persons exceeding the Number of Five; or shall open, or cause to be opened, any Book or Books for public Subscriptions to be made by any Number of Persons exceeding the Number of Five, in order to the raising of any Sum or Sums of Money under Pretence of carrying on the said Liberty or Privilege hereby vested in the said John Liardet, his

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act to remove the Danger of Fire amongst the Ships in the Port of Bristol, by preventing the landing certain Commodities on the present Quays; and for providing a convenient Quay and proper Places for landing and storing the same; and for regulating the said Quay, and the Lighters, Boats, and other Vessels carrying Goods for Hire within the said Port of Bristol; and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

WHEREAS the Port of Bristol is a Place of great Trade and Commerce, and the Ships and Vessels lying at the Quays thereof are by the Efflux of the Tide left dry twice in every twenty-four Hours, whereby they frequently receive Damage: And whereas great Quantities of Timber, Deals, Staves, Tar, Pitch, Rosin, and Turpentine, have for many Years past been imported into the said Port, particularly in the Summer Months, during which Time it has frequently happened that there has not been Room within a convenient Distance from the said Quays for storing the same, by reason whereof, and of the Expence of removing the same, which on Articles so cumbrous and of such low Value amounts to a great Charge, the Quays have been often through Necessity greatly incumbered, and the Danger of Fire to the Ships in the Port much dreaded: And whereas the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty, of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the said City of Bristol, have from Time to Time expended very large Sums of Money for the Benefit of the Navigation and Trade of the said Port, and with a View to provide a Remedy for the afore-mentioned Inconveniencies, have purchased certain Docks and Yards in the Parish of Clifton, in the County of Gloucester, adjoining to the River Avon within the said Port, and have, at a very considerable Expence, rendered one of the said Docks, now called The Floating-dock, capable of receiving and floating the largest Ships using the said Port: And whereas the Danger of Fire to the Ships in the said Port and to the City of Bristol would be greatly lessened, and it would be more beneficial to all Persons using the Trade of the said Port, if the said Floating-dock was enlarged on the North-western Side thereof, and rendered capable of containing a greater Number of Ships than at present, and if a convenient Quay, with proper Storehouses, Warehouses, Sheds, and Yards, were built, erected, made, and laid out, for landing, storing, and laying up, the afore-mentioned Articles of Trade: And whereas the said Society are willing to enlarge the said Floating-dock, and to build such Quay as aforesaid, and to erect and make the several other Works before mentioned; but cannot effect the same, and completely remedy the Inconveniencies afore-mentioned, without the Aid of Parliament; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Commonalty, of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the said City of Bristol, and they are hereby authorized and impowered to enlarge the said Dock called The Floating-dock, on the North-western Side thereof, in such Manner as they shall think proper; and likewise to build and make a convenient Quay on such North-western Side, with proper Storehouses, Warehouses, Sheds, Yards, and Places, for landing, storing, and laying up the said Goods.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Land and Ground situate on the North-western Side of, and adjoining to, the said Floating-dock, and extending in Breadth on or towards the North-west from the Quay-wall of the said Floating-dock (whether in its present State, or as the same shall be enlarged) two hundred Feet, and extending of the same Breadth from the Water of Avon to the North-east End of the said Dock (whether in its present State, or as the same shall be hereafter enlarged), shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be, a Quay for the landing all Sorts and Kinds of Timber (including Mahogany), Planks and Boards, Deals and Staves, Tar, Pitch, Rosin, and Turpentine, in whatever Quantities the same shall from Time to Time be imported into the said Port of Bristol in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever: Provided the Owners of such Goods do first pass a regular Entry thereof, and pay the Custom and other Duties, and before they unship any of the Goods give Notice of the Day and Hour of Landing, in Writing, to the principal Officers of the Customs at the said Port of Bristol for the Time being, that they may direct the proper Officers to attend accordingly; and provided that none of the Goods be unshipped but in the Presence of a Waiter or Officer so appointed thereunto, otherwise the said Goods to be liable to Forfeiture according to Law.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whomsoever to land any Timber, Planks, or Boards of any Sort or Kind, Deals, Staves, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Rosin, or other the Commodities aforesaid, on any Part of the present Quays within the said City of Bristol, from or out of any Ship or Vessel coming into the said Port of Bristol (except in the Cases herein after mentioned), Two Third Parts of the Cargo whereof shall consist of all or any of the said Articles, or from or out of any Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel, bringing the same from any such Ship or Vessel, upon Pain of forfeiting, for every such Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds; and the Master or Owner, or other Person having the Command, Charge, or Care, of any Ship or Vessel coming into the said Port of Bristol after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, which shall be in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, Two Third Parts of the Cargo whereof shall consist of all, any, or either of the said Articles (the Proportion of such Cargo to be ascertained by the Tonnage of the whole Cargo), shall cause the said Ship or Vessel to be unladen of all such Articles at the said new-intended Quay, upon Pain of forfeiting fifty Pounds for each Offence.

VII. And, in order to defray the Expence of making, building, maintaining, and supporting, the said new Quay, and the Storehouses, Warehouses, Yards, Sheds, and Places, to be built and made for the Purposes aforesaid; be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, there shall be paid to the said Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the said City of Bristol (over and above the Charge for piling Deals and other Goods usually piled, and other Labour now usually paid for in the said Port of Bristol), by the Proprietors of such Goods, for all such Timber (including Mahogany), Planks, and Boards, Deals, Staves, Tar, Pitch, Rosin, and Turpentine, and other the Commodities aforesaid, as the Owner, or Person having the Care thereof, shall chuse to have stored or placed in the said Storehouses, Warehouses, Sheds, Yards, or Places, to be built and made as aforesaid, the several Rates ascertained in the Schedule inserted at the End of this Act.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whomsoever to leave on the said new-intended Quay any Tar, Pitch, Rosin, or Turpentine, for any longer Time than seven Days after the same shall be gauged or passed by the proper Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs; and in case any Person or Persons shall leave any of the said Articles upon the said Quay, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, that then, and as often as such Case shall happen, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Master, Wardens, and Commonalty, of the Society aforesaid, by their Agents or Servants for the Time being, to house or store all such Tar, Pitch, Rosin, and Turpentine, in the Warehouses, Storehouses, or Places, to be provided for that Purpose as aforesaid; and the like Rates shall be paid as if the Owner thereof had directed the same to be stored or housed by the said Society.

X. And, in order to prevent Inconveniencies from Balks, Masts, Spars, Timber, Planks, or other Articles not usually piled, being suffered to remain on the said new-intended Quay, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Society of Merchants shall set out and appoint from Time to Time one or more Piece or Pieces of the Ground adjoining the said new-intended Quay, within the Meads called Rownham's Meads, for laying and placing Balks, Masts, Spars, and Timber (including Mahogany), and also Planks of the Thickness of three Inches or upwards, and of the Length of twenty-five Feet or upwards, and all other Articles not usually piled; and in case the said Society of Merchants shall omit or neglect so to do, then it shall and may be lawful for the Mayor and Justices of the Peace of the said City and County of the City of Bristol, in their Court of Quarter Sessions, on Complaint being made to them by any three or more Persons interested in such Goods, from Time to Time to set out and appoint one or more proper Piece or Pieces of the Ground adjoining the said new-intended Quay, within the Meads commonly called Rownham's Meads, and also from Time to Time to change or alter the same, and to set out and appoint any other Piece or Pieces of Ground within the said Meads commonly called Rownham's Meads (and not being at that Time built upon), for laying and placing Balks, Masts, Spars, and Timber (including Mahogany), and also Planks of the Thickness of three Inches, or upwards, and of the Length of twenty-five Feet, or upwards, and all other Articles usually piled; and in case any Balks, Masts, Spars, or Timber (including Mahogany), or any Plank of the Dimensions aforesaid, or other Articles usually piled, shall, after the Landing thereof, be left on the said new-intended Quay for any longer Time than shall be necessary for removing the same to such Place or Places as shall be set out and appointed for laying or placing the same as aforesaid, that then, and as often as it shall so happen, it shall and may be lawful for the said Society, by their Agents or Servants, to remove the same, at the Expence of the Proprietors thereof, to such Place or Places as shall be so set out and appointed for placing or laying the same as aforesaid.

Assemble.

WHEREAS a Pilchard-fishery hath for many Years been carried on in the Bay of Saint Ives, in the County of Cornwall, and the carrying on and Improvement thereof is of great Importance to this Nation, by increasing the Trade and Navigation thereof, and being a Nursery for Seamen, and otherwise a Means of employing and providing for a Number of industrious poor People: And whereas the said Fishery hath hitherto been conducted and carried on according to, and regulated by, certain Customs or Regulations which have from Time to Time been devised by the Fishermen and Fishcurers concerned and employed in the said Fishery, which by mutual Consent have been observed and complied with; several of which Customs or Regulations are by Experience found proper to be strictly observed and continued in Force; and others improper to be any longer pursued or observed: And whereas of late Years the Number of Adventurers in the said Fishery, and the Craft employed therein, hath been greatly increased, and in several Instances many of the aforesaid Customs or Regulations, which are most proper to be observed, have been infringed and disregarded, and several unwarrantable Practices have been introduced into such Fishery, and used by the Fishermen employed therein, whereby great Losses and Inconveniencies have happened to divers Persons, and the said Fishery hath been much prejudiced: For Remedy whereof, and for the better Preservation of the said Fishery, and for preventing the fishing within the said Bay of Saint Ives with unsizeable and improper Nets, and for ascertaining the Times and Seasons, and Manner of fishing, within the said Bay, and for the regulating the said Fishery, and reforming Abuses therein; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the six several Stems or Stations for taking Fish within the said Bay of Saint Ives respectively, called or known by the Names of Carrick Gladden, The Poll, The Leigh, Porthminster, Pedn Olver, and Carrick Leggoe otherwise Carn Crowze Stems, shall, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, be deemed and taken to be bounded and limited in Manner herein after particularly mentioned; that is to say, The Carrick Gladden Stem is to be unlimited towards the South, and towards the East, and to extend towards the North as far as the Marks or Boundaries herein after directed to be set up and erected in Porth Repta River; The Poll Stem is to extend towards the North from the said Marks or Boundaries in Porth Repta River aforesaid, as far as the North Side of a certain Hedge or Fence, being the fourth Fence from a House called The Signal-house, on Porthminster Hill, to the Southward of the said House; The Leigh Stem is to extend towards the North from the End of The Poll Stem, according to the Boundary herein before mentioned, as far as the Carrick Rock opposite Porthminster Point; the Porthminster Stem is to extend towards the North from the said Carrick Rock, as far as the Marks or Boundaries which are already fixed and erected on the Banks of Porthminster River; the Pedn Olver Stem is to extend towards the North from the said Marks or Boundaries on the Banks of Porthminster River, as far as the South Corner of the Church-yard in the Town of Saint Ives; and the Carrick Leggoe or Carn Crowze Stem is to extend towards the South from the aforesaid South Corner of the said Church-yard, and to be unlimited towards the North.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if the Warp-rope of the Seyne-net belonging to the Boat intitled to the first Turn or Stem, upon any of the said six several Stems or Stations, shall be landed before any other Boat, which may have put out to Sea, shall have shot out one End or Part of her Seyne, it shall and may be lawful for the Hower of the Seyne, on Board the Boat so intitled to the first Turn or Stem, to forbid the other Boat from shooting her Seyne; and if such Boat shall shoot her Seyne, notwithstanding such Forbiddal, then and in such Case all the Fish which shall be taken by her shall belong and be forfeited to the Owner or Owners of the Boat so intitled to the first Turn or Stem; and the Owner or Owners of the Boat, from which the Seyne-net shall be so shot after such Forbiddal as aforesaid, shall also forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

XX. Provided always, That if such last mentioned Boat or Boats shall have shot out any Part of her or their Seyne before the Warp-rope of the Seyne belonging to the Boat intitled to the first Turn or Stem is landed, then, and in such Case, the Hower of the Seyne on Board the Boat, intitled to such first Turn or Stem, shall have no Right to interrupt or forbid the Persons belonging to such other Boat or Boats as aforesaid from proceeding in shooting out the Remainder of their Seyne.

Proviso.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Boat, having or holding a Second or other Turn or Stem upon any of the aforesaid six several Stems or Stations, shall be put out to Sea, until the Boat intitled to the first Turn or Stem upon that Station shall have shot out all her Seyne, or shall desist from shooting out the same; and that if any Boat, holding Second or other following Turn or Stem upon any of the aforesaid six several Stems or Stations, shall be put out to Sea before the Boat intitled to the first Turn or Stem upon such Station shall have shot her whole Seyne, or, having begun to shoot, shall desist from shooting the same, the Hower or Howers of such Boat shall, upon Conviction of such Offence, by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any such Justice of Peace as aforesaid, forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, the Sum of ten Pounds; and if any Fish shall be taken by such Boat or Seyne, all such Fish shall be forfeited to the Owner or Owners of the Boat and Seyne then intitled to the first Turn or Stem.

Second Boat not to put to Sea till the first Boat hath shot her Seyne.

XXII. And whereas it frequently happens, that, after Fish are within the Limits of any of the said six several Stems or Stations, and the Boat then holding Turn or Stem upon some one of such Stations hath begun to shoot out her Seyne, the Fish start back or pass into the Limits of one of the next Stems or Stations; be it therefore enacted, That in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for every Boat, which hath begun to shoot her Seyne when the Fish were within the Limits of the Stem or Station upon which she held or was intitled to Turn or Stem as aforesaid, to continue to shoot out the Remainder of her Seyne in the adjoining Stem or Station into which the said Fish shall go or pass.

When Seyne is partly shot in one Stem, the Remainder may be shot in the adjoining Stem, if the Fish go thither.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, that when any Seyne-net shall be shot within the Limits of any of the aforesaid six several Stems or Stations, such Seyne-net may be worked or haled through the Limits of any adjoining Stem or Station, and brought to a convenient and proper Mooring-place, and moored and secured within the Limits of any of the said six several Stems or Stations for the Preservation of the said Seyne, and the Fish inclosed therein.

When Seyne is shot, it may be worked through and moored in any other Stem.

drive, the Owners of such Seynes to replace the Seyne.

XXV. And whereas, when more than two Seyne-nets are moored together, it may frequently happen, by the Violence of the Tide or otherwise, that the Anchors of some of the outermost of the said-Seyne-nets may drive or start, or the Mooring-ropes belonging or fastened to such Anchors may part or break, by Means whereof the Sides of the inner Seyne-net or Nets may be forced too near together, so as to endanger the Loss of the Fish enclosed therein; be it therefore further enacted, That in all such Cases the Owners of such outermost Seyne-net, whose Anchors shall drive, or Mooring-ropes part, as aforesaid, shall, upon Notice being given to any one of such Owners, or to the Hewer of such Seyne or Master Seyner thereof, immediately assist and send one Boat, manned with five Men at the least, to replace the said outermost Seyne in its proper Birth or Station again; and in case of any Neglect or Refusal to afford such Assistance as aforesaid, the Owners or Master Seyner of the inner Seyne-net or Nets, so in Danger of losing their Fish as aforesaid, shall be at Liberty to replace such outermost Seyne into its proper Birth or Situation, and the Owner or Owners of such outermost Seyne neglecting to afford such Assistance as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, upon Conviction thereof, by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before such Justice of Peace as aforesaid, forfeit the Sum of one Pound to the Owner or Owners of the said inner Seyne-net or Nets, for and towards the Expence of replacing the said outermost Seyne-net as aforesaid.

One Anchor to the Bunt of every Seyne.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Bunt or Middle of every Seyne-net in which Fish shall be inclosed shall be moored with one sufficient Anchor at the least, when such Seyne shall be haled into her proper Birth, and there moored on the Sleeves or Sides as aforesaid.

Seyne that is

ing of every other Seyne.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Seyne-net with Fish inclosed therein shall be moored within any Cove or Birth, and it shall be necessary to moor any other Seyne-net or Nets in the said Cove, the Owner or Owners or Hewer of the Seyne so first moored shall send out a Boat, manned with four Men at the least, to attend the Mooring of such other Seyne-net or Nets, to see that the Seyne first moored shall receive no Damage by the haling in or mooring such other Seyne-net or Nets in the said Cove; and in case the Owners of the Seyne first moored shall neglect to send out such Boat, so manned as aforesaid, the Owners of such other Seyne-net or Nets shall not be answerable for any Damage to be done, or which shall happen by haling such other Seyne-net or Nets into a proper Birth in the said Cove and Mooring there.

Penalty for cutting off any Rope belonging to Seynes, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, either by Day or Night, wilfully and maliciously cut or cast off, or cause to be cut or cast off, any Warp-rope, Tow-rope, or Mooring-rope, of or belonging to any Seyne or Thwart-net in the Water, or shall wilfully and maliciously cut, break, or destroy, any such Seyne or Thwart-net in the Water, or shall wilfully and maliciously said Pier or Harbour, or shall wilfully cut, cast off, or unbend, any Hawser or Rope fastened on Shore, or bent to an Anchor then used for mooring any Boat whatsoever lying within the said Pier or Harbour;

then, and in any of the said Cases, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and transported to one of his Majesty's Plantations Abroad, for seven Years, or shall be committed to Prison for any Time not exceeding three Years, at the Discretion of the Judge or Court before whom such Offender shall be tried; and any Indictment for such Offence shall and may be enquired of, examined, tried, and determined, in any adjacent County, within that Part of Great Britain, in such Manner and Form as if the Facts had been therein committed.

XXV. And, in order to discover any fraudulent Entries or Commitments of Prisoners in any Gaol or Books, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices, at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, are hereby authorized, at the Request of any Creditor or Creditors of any Prisoner, to convene before them, at some certain Time to be appointed by them, any Person or Persons who was or were Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Gaol or Prison within their respective Jurisdictions, on the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, or at any Time since; and to examine every such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, on Oath, touching the Commitment and Continuance in Custody of any such Prisoner, as the Justices, at any such General or Quarter Session, or Adjournment thereof, shall think fit: And if any Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, shall neglect or refuse to bring before such Justices, at any Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, any Prisoner as shall be directed and required by Warrant of any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, or to attend on being summoned for that Purpose; or if any Gaoler or Keeper attending, shall refuse to make Answer and Discovery in the Premises, as shall be reasonably required at such General or Quarter Session, or any Adjournment thereof, he, she, or they, so offending in the Premises, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds; to be recovered, by and in the Name, and for the Use, of the Party injured, by Action of Debt, to be brought in his or her Name, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, together with Treble Costs of Suit.

Court, at the Request of a Creditor, may summon the Person who acted as Gaoler on Jan. 22, 1776, or since, and examine him, on Oath, &c. Sheriff or Gaoler, disobeying Order of Court, to forfeit 100^l. with Treble Costs.

XXVI. And whereas a great Number of Workmen, skilful in the several Trades and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and also many able Seamen and Mariners, finding themselves unable to satisfy the Whole of their respective Debts, and dreading the Miseries of a Gaol, have chose to leave their Employments and Native Country, and have entered themselves in Foreign Service: And whereas their Continuance abroad must be of great Prejudice to the Trade of this Kingdom; in order therefore to ‘ induce

Debtors who were beyond the Seas on Jan. 22, 1776, surrendering themselves, may take the Benefit of this Act, upon the same Terms as other Prisoners;

except in certain Particulars.

‘ induce and enable such Persons to return,’ be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Debtor and Debtors, who was or were actually beyond the Seas, in Foreign Parts, on the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and did not go into such Foreign Parts with the View or Intent to gain or have the Benefit of an Insolvent Debtors Act, who shall return and surrender himself or themselves, within fourteen Days next immediately after his or their landing in England, unto the Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers of the Prisons of the King’s Bench, Marshallsea, or Fleet, or to the Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of the Prison or Prisons of such County, City, Town, Riding, Division, Liberty, or Place, where such Debtor or Debtors last dwelt, for the Space of six Months (which said Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers, is and are hereby required and impowered to receive and detain such Debtor or Debtors, surrendering as aforesaid, in order to their Discharge, as herein after mentioned), and who, from and immediately after such Surrender, do continue in actual Custody of such Gaoler and Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers, until the Time of his Discharge, shall be deemed a Prisoner or Prisoners within, and be, to all Intents and Purposes, intituled to the Benefit of this Act; and shall, upon due Proof of the said Premises, by the Oath of such Debtor or Debtors (not disproved by any credible Witness), be discharged in the same Manner as if he, she, or they, had been actually in Prison on the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and continued therein as aforesaid; subject nevertheless to the same Restrictions and Provisions, and a Compliance with the like Terms, Conditions, and Qualifications, herein before imposed upon the said Prisoners actually in Custody upon the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and also subject to the Terms and Provisions relating to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, as aforesaid; excepting only such Particulars thereof as require the Name of a Prisoner to be inserted in the Gaoler’s or Keeper’s List, as aforesaid, as relate to the Oaths of such Gaoler or Keeper herein before appointed to be taken; which Particulars cannot possibly be applied to the Case of Persons surrendering themselves as aforesaid; and also except the said Oath herein before appointed to be taken by Prisoners in Custody upon the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six; instead whereof, the Person or Persons so surrendering shall take an Oath, in open Court, at some General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or some Adjournment thereof, of the County, City, Town, Riding, Division, Place, or Liberty, in the Prison of which any such Fugitive or Debtor shall be held, after the Surrender of any such Fugitive or Debtor, to the Effect following; which the said Justices, authorized to put this Act in Execution, are hereby required and impowered to administer in such Manner as the Oaths herein before mentioned are to be administered:

Fugitive’s Oath.

‘ I A. B. upon my corporal Oath, in the Presence of Almighty God, solemnly swear, protest, and declare, That I was actually, on the twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, beyond the Seas in Foreign Parts; videlicet, at _____ and that I did, within fourteen Days next immediately after my landing, surrender myself to the Custody of the Keeper of _____ [as the Case may be]; and that I have ever since such my Surrender continued a Prisoner in his Custody; and that the Schedule now delivered, and by me subscribed, doth contain, to the best of my Knowledge, Remembrance, and Belief, a full, just, true, and perfect Account and Discovery of all the Real Estate, Goods, Effects, and other Personal Estate, in any-wise belonging to me; and also of all such Debts as are to me owing, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for me; and of all the Securities and Contracts whereby any Money now is, or will or may hereafter become payable, or whereby or wherefrom any Benefit or Advantage may accrue to me, or to my Use, or to any other Person or Persons in Trust for me; and the Names and Places of Abode of the several Persons from whom such Debts are due and owing; and of the Witnesses that can prove such Debts or Contracts [if any such there be]; and that neither I, nor any Persons in Trust for me, is or are seized of any Real Estate, in Possession, Reversion, or Remainder, or Expectancy, or of any Personal Estate of any Kind whatsoever, other than what are in the said Schedule contained; except my Wearing Apparel, and Bedding for myself and Family, my Working Tools, and necessary Implements for my Occupation and Calling, together with a Sum of Money not exceeding forty Shillings, and not exceeding in the Whole the Value of twenty Pounds; and that I have not, directly or indirectly, sold, lessened, or otherwise conveyed, disposed of in Trust, or concealed, all or any Part of my Real Estate, Money, Goods, Chattels, Stocks, Debts, Securities, Contracts, or Personal Estate whatsoever, whereby to secure the same, so as to receive or expect any Profit or Advantage therefrom to myself or Family, or with any View, Intent, or Design, to defraud or deceive any Creditor or Creditors, to whom I am indebted in any-wise howsoever, or prevent their recovering or attaining their respective Debts.

‘ So help me GOD.’

Fugitives arrested, intending to surrender, intituled to the Benefit of this Act.

XXVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Fugitive intending to surrender to the Terms of this Act, shall, within the Space before mentioned of fourteen Days, be arrested in any Suit or Action, which Cause of Action accrued before the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, such Fugitive giving Notice (as before directed) to any Justice of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions, and in all other Respects complying with the Terms and Conditions of this Act, shall be intituled to the Benefit of the same; and every Sheriff, Bailiff, or Officer, Gaoler, or Keeper of a Prison, in whose Custody such Fugitive shall be detained, shall conform him or themselves to the Directions of this Act, in like Manner as before mentioned.

XXVIII. And whereas a great Number of Commission and Warrant Officers, in his Majesty’s Sea and Land Service, who, through unavoidable Misfortunes, have involved themselves in Debt (and many of them, through Necessity, have taken up Money on Terms very disadvantageous to themselves, tending to hasten their Ruin), are now unable, though willing, to serve their King and Country, because, to avoid

‘ avoid the Disgrace and Shame of a Prison, they have taken Shelter in privileged Places, and cannot come forth without Danger of being immediately arrested, or have been thrown into Prison, without Hopes of being released by any Discharge of their Debts, and are therefore become useless and a heavy Burthen, instead of being serviceable to the State: And whereas many of them are not under the Description of those Persons who can take Benefit by the Provisions of this Act, without some Extension thereof, yet are very proper Objects of such Relief as is hereby intended to be given;’ be it therefore enacted, That all and every Commission or Warrant Officer or Officers, in his Majesty’s Sea or Land Service, now upon the full or half-pay List, who shall, on or before the twenty-sixth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, surrender himself or themselves to the Gaoler or Keeper of any of his Majesty’s Prisons, in such Manner as is herein directed for Fugitive Debtors returning from Foreign Parts, who mean to claim the Benefit of this Act, and who shall, subsequent thereto, conform themselves in all Respects to the like Terms and Conditions prescribed to such Fugitive Debtors (except as to so much of the Oath required to be taken by them, as declares that such Debtors were in Foreign Parts on a certain Day, and did surrender within fourteen Days after their Return); instead whereof, every such Debtor shall swear, that he did, on or before the twenty-sixth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six [as the Case may be], surrender himself to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of [insert the Name of the Prison], and who shall, in all other Respects, take the same Oath as every such Fugitive Debtor is required to do, shall be deemed and taken to be a Prisoner or Prisoners within the true Meaning of this Act, and be intitled to the Benefits thereof, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, or his Deputy or Deputies, shall, without just Cause, to be approved of by the Justices at some General Quarter Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, within their respective Jurisdictions, refuse or delay to bring any such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid to any such General Quarter Session, or some Adjournment thereof, in order to his or her Discharge; or shall neglect, refuse, or designedly omit to insert, in any such List, the Name or Names of any such Prisoner or Prisoners who was or were actually in Custody in his or their respective Gaol or Prison, on the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, or since; or shall neglect or refuse to make out, fix up, or deliver, such Lists as aforesaid; or if any such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, shall neglect or refuse to take any of the said Oaths before mentioned, and hereby required to be taken by him; or shall, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, take or receive more than the said Sum of one Shilling herein before allowed for his or her Attendance in order to be discharged of such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid; or shall detain any such Prisoner after he or she shall be discharged as aforesaid; or if the Printer of the London Gazette, or other Newspaper, as aforesaid, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to insert therein the Notice by this Act directed to be given, on reasonable Request to him made for that Purpose, and Tender of the Money hereby directed to be paid; or shall take or receive any Fee or Gratuity more than Two-pence as aforesaid for doing thereof; every such Gaoler and Keeper of such Prison or Prisons, his Deputy or Deputies, and every such Printer as aforesaid, shall respectively forfeit and pay to each Prisoner, in any such Case injured, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; which shall and may be recovered, with Treble Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Gaoler or Gaolers, or Keeper or Keepers, or any deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Prison, shall, in taking of the aforesaid Oaths, forswear or perjure himself, and shall thereof be lawfully convicted, such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of such Prison or Prisons (over and above such Penalties as may be inflicted on Persons convicted of Perjury), shall, upon every such Conviction, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; to be recovered, with full Costs, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, or Action of Debt, in any of his Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, by and in the Name of such Person or Persons, his and their Executors and Administrators, to whom any Assignment or Conveyance, in pursuance of this Act, shall be made, of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners; and if no such Assignee or Assignees shall be living, then in the Name or Names of any other Creditor or Creditors who shall sue for the said Penalties; to be applied, one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety towards Satisfaction of the Debts of such his Creditor or Creditors.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, shall delay or refuse to give every or any such Prisoner so discharged as aforesaid, within fourteen Days after his or her Discharge, a Copy of his or her Discharge, on the Payment of two Shillings and Sixpence; or shall take more than the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence for such Copy; or shall take more than one Shilling for an Assignment or Conveyance of such Prisoner’s Estate or Effects; every such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, who shall so offend, and who shall be convicted at any such General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, of any such Offence, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to every such Prisoner the Sum of twenty Pounds, as the Justices of the Peace, at any such General Quarter Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, shall order; and who are hereby empowered to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of any such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, so offending.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Prisoner as aforesaid, or any other Person or Persons who shall take the Benefit of this Act, shall forswear or perjure himself, her-

Any Commission or Warrant Officer, who shall surrender himself, as is herein directed for Fugitive Debtors, before June 26, 1776, shall be intitled to the Benefit of this Act.

Gaoler, or Printer of the Gazette, &c. not complying with the Regulations of this Act, to forfeit 100*l.* for each Offence, with Treble Costs.

self, or themselves, in any Oath to be taken under this Act, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, he, she, or they, so offending, shall be adjudged a Felon, and suffer as such, without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons discharged by this Act, not liable to Imprisonment for Debts, &c. contracted before Jan. 22, 1776:

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person to be discharged by this Act shall, at any Time hereafter, be imprisoned by reason of any Judgment or Decree obtained for Payment of Money only, or for any Debt, Damages, Contempts, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, contracted, incurred, occasioned, owing, or growing due, before the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six; but that upon every Arrest upon every Judgment, or such Decree, or for such Debts, Damages, Contempts, Costs, Sum and Sums of Money, it shall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court where the Process issued, upon shewing the Copy of the Order of such Prisoner's Discharge or Discharges, to release and discharge out of Custody such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid; and shall, at the same Time, order the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in such Suit or Suits, to pay such Prisoner or Prisoners the Costs he, she, or they, shall have incurred on such Occasion, or so much thereof as to such Judge shall seem just and reasonable; and every such Judge is hereby impowered so to do on such Prisoner's causing a Common Appearance to be entered for him in every such Action and Suit.

But no Prisoner to be discharged of Debts subsequent thereto.

XXXIV. And whereas, under former Acts of this Kind, Doubts have arisen what was to be done with such Prisoners who applied at any Session to be discharged, who owed and stood charged with Debts, as well previous as subsequent to the Day limited by the respective Acts; to remedy which, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Prisoner or Prisoners shall be discharged of any Debts subsequent to the twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six; and if it shall appear to the Justices, in any Session or Adjournment, that any Prisoner or Prisoners, then applying to them to be discharged, shall stand charged as well with Debts previous to as subsequent to the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, that in such Cases, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices to discharge him or her of all Debts previous to the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and to remand him or her back to the Custody of the Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she was brought, for all Debts with which he or she stands charged with in his Custody, subsequent to the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six.

Justices, &c. may plead this Act to any Action brought against them, and recover Treble Costs.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action of Escape, or any Suit or Action, be brought against any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper of any Prison, for performing their Office, in pursuance of this Act, they may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

Persons discharged may plead generally, &c. to all Actions or Judgments brought against them before Jan. 22, 1776, &c.

and in other Suits, may plead in Discharge of their Persons from Execution.

Plaintiff may reply generally, &c.

but if nonsuited, to pay Treble Costs.

Attornies or Servants embezzling Money, &c. excluded the Benefit of this Act.

XXXVII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to release or discharge any Attorney at Law, or Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting or pretending to act as such, with regard to any Debt with which he or they shall stand charged for any Money, or other Effects, recovered and received by him or them, for the Use of any Person or Persons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, and by any Attorney, Solicitor, or other Person or Persons acting as such, embezzled, concealed, or converted, to his or their own Use; or to release or discharge any Servant or Agent, or any Person or Persons employed or intrusted as such, with regard to any Debt or Demand with which he, she, or they, shall stand charged, for and on account of any Money, Goods, or other Effects, received or possessed by him, her, or them, for the Use, and on account of his, her, or their Master or Masters, or Employers, and by such Servant or Agent embezzled, concealed, or converted to his, her, or their own Use; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

XXXVIII. And whereas many evil-disposed Persons, to support their profligate Way of Life, have, by various subtle Stratagems, Threats, and Devices, fraudulently obtained divers Sums of Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, ‘ Money, to the great Injury of industrious Families, and to the manifest Prejudice of Trade and Credit;’ be it enacted, That no Prisoner, who knowingly and designedly, by false Pretence or Pretences, shall have obtained from any Person or Persons, Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; but the Justices, at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, before whom any such Prisoner shall be brought, upon due Proof of the Matter, made to their Satisfaction, shall remand such Prisoner to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she shall have been brought, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ XXXIX. And whereas many Debtors have, with a view to defraud their Creditors, sold, transferred, conveyed, or assigned their Estate and Effects to some Person or Persons, subsequent to their being in Custody of Law, or imprisoned under some Process for Debt: And whereas such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance, or Assignment, has been frequently made, to the infinite Prejudice of the fair and honest Creditor, though sufficient Proof could not be obtained to convict the Party of a fraudulent Design;’ be it enacted, That whenever it shall be proved by one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to the Satisfaction of the Court, to which any Prisoner shall be brought up, in order to obtain his or her Discharge, that such Prisoner has sold, transferred, conveyed, or assigned, to any Person or Persons, all or any Part of his Estate or Effects, subsequent to the Time of his Imprisonment, or of his being in Custody of Law, without just Cause for so doing, to be allowed by the Justices presiding in such Court as aforesaid; every such Prisoner shall lose all the Benefits and Advantages that he might have otherwise claimed under the Authority of this Act, and shall not be intitled to his or her Discharge.

‘ XLI. And whereas several Persons, who have taken the Benefit of Acts of Insolvency, from a Difficulty of obtaining a new Credit to set themselves up in their usual Trades and Occupations, (as their future Effects have been made liable to their Debts previous thereto) have gone Abroad for the better Maintenance of themselves and Families, carrying the Arts and Manufactures of this Country to our Enemies, or Rivals in Trade:’ In order to prevent such Evil for the future, be it enacted, That the future real Estates, as well Freehold and Copyhold, as customary Copyhold, or Money in the Funds, or lent upon real Security only, of every such Person or Persons, Prisoner or Prisoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, which, after the Time of his, her, or their, total Surrender of his, her, or their Estates and Effects, under such Acts, he, she, or they, shall or may be seized of, in his, her, or their own Right or Use, by Grant, Demise, or Purchase, shall remain and be liable to his, her, and their respective Creditors, as before the making of this Act; and any Creditor or Creditors of any such Prisoner or Prisoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, may, at any Time hereafter, sue out Execution, Extents, or other Process, against such real Estate or Money in the Funds as aforesaid, of such Person or Persons, on any Judgment at the Time of such Discharge recovered, or Statute-staple, or Recognizance acknowledged by, or Decree obtained against, any such Prisoner or Fugitive, but not against his, her, or their Person, or his, her, or their personal Estate or Effects, except Money in the Funds obtained or accrued since such Time of such Discharge, other than as aforesaid.

XLII. And be it also enacted, That any Creditor or Creditors of any Prisoner or Prisoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, who shall be discharged under this Act, may, at any Time after any such Discharge, commence and prosecute any Action or Suit against any such Prisoner or Fugitive, his, her, or their respective Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, for the Recovery of any Sum or Sums of Money which shall be due from any such Prisoner or Prisoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, at the Time of his or their said Discharge, but shall not hold the Person of any such Prisoner or Fugitive to Special Bail; nor shall take the Person, or personal Estate and Effects, other than as aforesaid, of any such Prisoner or Fugitive, in Execution, by any Judgment, Sentence, or Decree, which shall have been, or hereafter may be, recovered or obtained against any such Prisoner or Fugitive; and any Judge of the Court, out of which such Execution shall issue, shall have Power to discharge the same by virtue of this Act: And in any Action or Suit, which shall be hereafter commenced against any such Prisoner or Fugitive, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, no Benefit or Advantage shall be had or taken for that the Cause of Action did not accrue within three Years next before the commencing of any such Action or Suit; nor shall any Statute or Limitation be pleadable, or be allowed to be pleaded in Bar of or in any such Action or Suit, which shall be hereafter commenced by any such Creditor or Creditors against any such Prisoner or Prisoners, unless such Cause of Action or Suit did not accrue within three Years next before any such Prisoner or Fugitive shall be discharged under this Act; and, in any such Case, the same may be pleaded by any such Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Administrators.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it likewise enacted, That by the Discharge of any Prisoner or Fugitive by Force of this Act, no other Person or Persons who was or were Partner or Partners in Trade with any such Prisoner Justices may assemble at or near any County Gaol, and hold a Session there for Discharge of Prisoners.

XLVI. And whereas there is but one Common or County Gaol for each of the respective Counties of York, Lincoln, Lancaster, and Durham, which said Counties are each of them divided into several Ridings or Divisions, all which have several Commissions of the Peace; and if the Gaolers of those Gaols be obliged to carry the Debtors, Prisoners therein, to the Quarter Session of each Riding or Division, the same will be a very great Charge, not only to such Gaolers, but also to the Prisoners in those large Counties; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for two or more Justices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Divisions in the respective Counties (or any other County or Counties where the Prisons are at a Distance from the Place where the Sessions are held), at the Common or County Gaol thereof respectively, or at some convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to assemble and meet, and to hold Session there, by Adjournment from their respective Quarter Session, from Time to Time, for the Discharge of the respective Prisoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Justices for the County of Surrey may assemble at the Town-hall of Southwark for administering Oaths, &c.

XLVII. And whereas the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Surrey, which shall happen after the passing of this Act, may be in the County, and upwards of twenty Miles from any of the said Prisons; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for such Justices as shall be assembled at the General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County of Surrey, next after the passing of this Act, and they are hereby required forthwith to adjourn the said Session to the Town-hall in the Borough of Southwark, for the Purpose of administering the Oaths required to be taken and subscribed by this Act, by the several Gaolers within the said County wherein any Prisoner or Prisoners are confined, and to the discharging such respective Prisoner or Prisoners confined therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Prisoners who are kept in Custody for Payment of Fees, &c. to be discharged.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Debtors and others, who were in Prison on or before the said twenty-second Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, or since, in any of the Gaols of this Kingdom, and now remain there for not paying their Fees, Rents, or other Demands due, or claimed as due, to the Keeper or Gaoler of any Prison respectively, or to any other Officer of such Prison, and upon no other Account, shall be discharged therefrom, he, she, or they, taking the Oath by this Act required to be taken by Prisoners.

This Act not to extend to Debtors to the Crown;

XLIX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge any Person out of Prison, seeking his or her Discharge under this Act, with respect to any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the Suit of the Crown, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other public Officer, upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to his Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, or Salt Duties, or either of them.

not to Prisoners who owe more than 1000l. to one Person, unless such Creditor consent: Exception.

L. Provided also, That this Act shall not extend to discharge any Person out of Prison, seeking his or her Discharge under this Act, who shall be charged by any Body Politic or Corporate, or by any one Person, on or before the said twenty-second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, in any Sum exceeding the Sum of one thousand Pounds, besides Interest and Costs, and whose Discharge shall be in Court opposed by such Body Politic or Corporate, or one Person (except such Person or Persons who shall have been bound in Security for any other Person or Persons to a larger Amount, and it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of the Court, that such Person or Persons so bound, or giving, or joining in, such Security, hath or have not received or applied to his, her, or their own proper and separate Use or Benefit, any Part of the Sum or Sums of Money so due and owing as aforesaid): And if any such Body Politic or Corporate, Creditor or Creditors, to whom a Sum exceeding one thousand Pounds shall be owing, shall oppose the Discharge of such Prisoner (except as aforesaid), and shall insist that such Prisoner be continued in Gaol; that then, and in such Case, such Body Politic or Corporate, or Creditor or Creditors, opposing the said Prisoner's Discharge as aforesaid, shall at his, her, or their proper Costs and Charges, allow and pay, in the whole, such a weekly Maintenance to the said Prisoner, not exceeding four Shillings, nor less than three Shillings and six Pence per Week, in such Manner as the said Justices, in their General Quarter Session, or Adjournment thereof, shall order; and, upon Non-payment of the same for the Space of two Weeks, the said Prisoner, upon Application to the said Justices in their General Quarter Session, held as aforesaid, shall be discharged, pursuant to the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

LII. And whereas, under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expences and Trouble in attending every Session and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of the Act, to oppose the Discharge of Prisoners clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after having been before one Session heard, and refused a Discharge, to harass their Creditors, constantly gave fresh Notices for each subsequent Session and Adjournment of their intended Application to be discharged; to remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases whatever, the Determination of the Justices in Session or Adjournment shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Prisoner shall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objection or Objections, for which they refused his Discharge; and, that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Prisoner's Discharge is refused by them; and, in all Cases whatever, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at any subsequent Session or Adjournment, upon Application from the Prisoner, upon due Proof on Oath made to them, by two or more credible Witnesses (which Oath they are hereby impowered to administer), of each Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice, served, at least ten Days previous to such Application, on the Creditor or Creditors who before opposed his Discharge; and of Notice likewise inserted in the Gazette, in Manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them, and, if they shall then be of Opinion the said Prisoner is intitled to the Benefit of this Act, to order him to be discharged, he taking the Oath, and in all other Respects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

LIII. Provided always, That every Fugitive or Fugitives, intitled, or to be intitled, to the Benefit of this Act, shall obtain their respective Discharges on or before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or shall be excluded from all Benefit of this Act.

LIII. And whereas it may happen that several Persons, who may claim and be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, are seized of an Estate Tail, in some Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which Entail, with the Remainders thereupon expectant, they have, by Law, Power to defeat and bar, either by levying a Fine or Fines, suffering a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries, or by Surrender or Surrenders thereof, whereby such Person or Persons' said Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, would be liable to the Payment of their Debts, and be delivered up, according to the Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case, such Person or Persons so seized as aforesaid, and who shall be intitled to, and claim the Benefit of this Act, shall, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever in Law, be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby declared to be seized of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in Fee: Provided the same shall be delivered up to the Creditor or Creditors of every such Prisoner, in the same Manner as if such Person or Persons had actually levied a Fine, suffered a Common Recovery or Recoveries, or made a Surrender or Surrenders thereof, and thereby had become seized in Fee; any Law, or Construction of Law, to the contrary thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

LIV. And whereas many Persons who may take the Benefit of this Act, have been great Dealers, or otherwise engaged in large Transactions, whereby they may be intitled to sundry and great Debts and Demands, of various and intricate Natures, and they may be intitled to Equities of Redemption of Estates, subject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments, and other Incumbrances, or to Reversions, Remainders, or other contingent Estates in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to other Trusts or Interests in Estates, both Real and Personal, which may not be sufficiently described or discovered, in the Schedule, or Inventory, before directed to be delivered in, upon Oath, as aforesaid, or which may want his Aid or Assistance to adjust, make out, recover, or manage, for the Benefit of the Creditors: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners who shall obtain his, her, or their Discharge, in pursuance of this Act, or any other Person or Persons, duly authorized by them for that Purpose, from Time to Time, to apply to any two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, where such Person or Persons shall be then residing, thereby desiring that such Person or Persons may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his, her, or their Estate or Effects; whereupon such Justices shall send for, or call before them, such Person or Persons, by such Warrant, Summons, Ways, or Means, as they shall think fit; and, upon such Person's appearing, shall examine him, her, or them, as well upon Oath as otherwise, as to such Matters and Things, as such Assignee shall desire, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Person or Persons; and if any Person or Persons (on Payment, or Tender of Payment, of such reasonable Charges as such Justices shall judge sufficient) shall neglect or refuse to come and appear, not having a lawful Excuse, to be made known to such Justices, and by them allowed, or, being come before them, shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer to all such Questions as by such Justices shall be put to him, her, or them, relating to the Discovery of his, her, or their Estate or Effects, so vested, or intended to be vested, in such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or in such Assignees as aforesaid, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to apprehend and on Non-payment for two Weeks, Prisoner to be discharged.

Creditor opposing Prisoner's Discharge to allow him 3s. 6d. per Week;

Determination of Justices to be final with respect to the Retention of any Prisoner; unless the Prisoner get rid of the Objections for which they refused his Discharge.

Justices, on Proof by two Witnesses of Objections being removed, &c. may discharge such Prisoner.

No Fugitive to obtain a Discharge after Aug. 1, 1778.

Persons seized of an Estate Tail, claiming the Benefit of this Act, are to deliver up the same to Creditors.

Assignees may apply for further Examination of Prisoners, touching the Discovery of their Effects; and Justices may send for and examine them accordingly. Persons refusing to appear, or answer upon Oath, may be committed.

prehend such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, and him, her, or them, to commit to the Common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until such Time as he, she, or they, shall submit him, her, or themselves, to such Justices, and answer upon Oath to all such lawful Questions as shall, by such Justices, be put to him, her, or them, for the Purposes aforesaid.

LV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Person and Persons, who shall, within twelve Months after the Discharge of such Prisoner or Prisoners, voluntarily come in and make a Discovery of any Part of such Debtor or Debtors Real or Personal Estate, as shall not be comprised in such Schedule as aforesaid, before any Justices aforesaid, shall be allowed after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, out of the Net Produce of such Debtor or Debtors Estate which shall be recovered on such Discovery, and which shall be paid to such Person or Persons so discovering the same, by the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner's Estate and Effects.

LVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithstanding the Discharge of any Prisoner or Prisoners by virtue of this Act, if it shall hereafter appear the same was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any such Prisoner was not true; then, and in every such Case, every such Discharge shall be void, and of none Effect.

LVII. And, for the better Discovery of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons who shall have accepted of any Trust or Trusts, and shall wilfully conceal or protect any Estate, Real or Personal, of any such Prisoner, from his Creditors, and shall not, within thirty Days after any Assignee or Assignees shall, in pursuance of this Act, be chose of any such Prisoner's Estate, discover and disclose to such Assignee or Assignees, such Trust and Estate, in Writing, and deliver up or make over the same to such Assignee or Assignees, he, she, or they, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, and also Double the Value of the Estate, either Real or Personal, so concealed, to and for the Use of the Creditors of any such Prisoner; to be recovered by Action of Debt, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Name or Names of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner's Estate, together with Treble Costs of Suit.

LVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful, at all Times hereafter, for any Assignee or Assignees, of the Estate or Effects of any Prisoner or Prisoners, who shall be chose in pursuance of this Act, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of such Prisoner or Prisoners Creditors, who shall be present at a Meeting to be held on twenty-one Days public Notice being previously given for the Purpose hereafter mentioned in the London Gazette, if the Prisoner was in Custody in London, or within the weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then also in some Newspaper, which shall be published in the County, City, or Place, in or near which any such Person shall have been in Gaol, to make Composition with any Person or Persons, Debtors, or Accountants, to such Prisoner or Prisoners, where the same shall appear necessary or reasonable; and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debt as can, upon such Composition, be gotten in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts, and also to submit any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees, and any Person or Persons for or on Account, or by Reason or Means of any Matter, Cause, or Thing, relating to such Prisoner or Prisoners' Estate and Effects, or to any Debt or Debts due, or claimed to be due, to or from such Prisoner or Prisoners, to the final End and Determination of Arbitrators, to be chosen by the said Assignee or Assignees, and the major Part in Value of such Creditors, and the Party or Parties with whom they shall have no Difference; and to perform the Award of such Arbitrators, or of any Umpire to be chosen by them, or otherwise to settle and agree the Matters in Difference or Dispute between them, in such Manner as the said Assignee or Assignees, with such Consent as aforesaid, shall think fit and can agree; and the same shall be binding to all the Creditors of such Prisoner or Prisoners; and every such Assignee or Assignees is and are hereby indemnified for what they shall fairly do in the Premises, in pursuance of this Act.

LIX. And whereas, under former Acts of this Nature, no Provision was ever made as to what should become of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner or Prisoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, not got in, obtained or recovered, by any Assignee or Assignees chose pursuant to the Directions of the several Acts, at the Time of his or their Death or Deaths, and whose Heir or Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, refused to act or meddle therein; to remedy which, be it enacted, That in all such Cases, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Creditors of every such Prisoner or Prisoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, to chuse a new Assignee or Assignees in Manner and Form as herein before is directed, and to obtain a new Assignment from the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, pursuant to the Order of the Justices, and which said Order the said Justices are hereby required and empowered to direct, (on due Proof on Oath being made to them of the Death of such former Assignee or Assignees, and Refusal of his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to act or meddle therein;) and the said Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, are hereby empowered to obey the same, and execute such Assignment accordingly, in Manner and Form as if no former Assignment had ever been made; the said Assignee or Assignees, Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, hereby conforming to all Orders and Directions made by this Act, relative to them or any of them; and to be liable to all such Pains and Penalties as are inflicted on them, or any of them, by virtue of this Act, for Disobedience in any Part thereof, or Neglect of Duty whatever; and in case any such Assignee or Assignees shall die, and his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall refuse to act, that then, and in such Case, it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees, with the like Powers and Authorities as are given by this Act; and the said Justices shall have Power, in a summary Way, to oblige the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, of such Assignee or Assignees, signees, to account and deliver up all such Estate and Effects as shall remain in his or their Hands, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

Clerk of the Peace to obey the Order, as if no Assignment had been made.

LX. And, to the Intent and Purpose that the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners as shall be discharged by virtue of this Act may be duly and faithfully applied for the Benefit of his, her, or their real Creditors, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Courts at Westminster, and the Courts of Great Sessions in Hales, and the Precinct of Chester, and the Counties Palatine of Lancaster and Durham, respectively, from whence any Process issued upon which any such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were committed; or where the Process issued out of any other Court, to and for the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, or of Great Sessions aforesaid, within their respective Jurisdictions, or any one of them, from Time to Time, upon the Petition of any such Prisoner, or the Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner or Prisoners, complaining of any Insufficiency, Fraud, Mismanagement, or other Misbehaviour of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any such Prisoner or Prisoners, to summon all Parties concerned, and, upon hearing the Parties concerned therein, to make and give such Orders and Directions therein, either for the Removal or displacing such Assignee or Assignees, and appointing any new Assignee or Assignees in the Place or Stead of such Assignee or Assignees so to be removed or displaced, or for the prudent, just, or equitable Management or Distribution of the Estate and Effects of any such Prisoner for the Benefit of the respective Creditors, as the said Courts or Judges respectively shall think fit; and in case of the Removal or displacing of any Assignee or Assignees, and the appointing of any new Assignee or Assignees, the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners shall, from thenceforth, be divested out of the Assignee or Assignees so removed or displaced, and be vested in, and delivered over to, such new Assignee or Assignees, in the same Manner, and for the same Intents and Purposes, as the same were before vested in the Assignee or Assignees first chose as aforesaid; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas many Persons are often committed on Attachments for Contempts, for not paying Money awarded to be paid under Submissions to Arbitrators by Rules of Court, or under Submissions to Arbitration Bonds, and which Submissions have been made Rules of Court, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of William the Third, for determining Differences by Arbitration; and likewise for not paying of Costs duly and regularly taxed and allowed by the proper Officer, after proper Demands made for that Purpose; and also upon any Writ of Excommunicato Capiendo, or other Process for, or grounded on, the Non-payment of Costs or Expences in any Cause or Proceeding in any Ecclesiastical Court, or for any Contempt to such Court, it is hereby declared and enacted, That all such Persons are and shall be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, on and subject to the same Terms and Conditions as are herein expressed and declared with respect to Prisoners for Debt only.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person who shall have taken the Benefit of any Act heretofore passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, within the Space of eight Years last past, shall have or receive any Benefit or Advantage of or under this Act, nor be deemed to be within the Intent and Meaning thereof, so as to be discharged under the same; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding; unless such Person shall be willing to serve, and shall actually enter himself to serve, on Board some one of his Majesty's Ships of War for the Term of Seven Years, or shall enlist as a Soldier in some of his Majesty's Land Forces.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That when any Prisoner, who may have taken the Benefit of any Insolvent Act within the Space of eight Years last past, shall under this Act apply for his Discharge, every such Prisoner shall produce to the Court (to which he shall make Application for such Discharge) a Certificate in Writing, signed by an Officer properly authorized to engage or enlist Men for his Majesty's Sea or Land Service [as the Case may be] setting forth that he was on the _____ Day of _____ [insert the Date] engaged or enlisted [as the Case may be] to serve as a Mariner or Soldier in his Majesty's Sea or Land Service, which Certificate shall be attested by one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses; and in case such Certificate shall not be produced, or shall not be properly authenticated in Manner aforesaid, to the Satisfaction of the Justices before whom any such Prisoner shall be brought, he shall be remanded back to the Prison from whence he came, there to remain till he shall have fully complied with the Directions aforesaid, or shall by other legal Means sooner obtain his Discharge.

This Act not to extend to Scotland.

Clause of Relief for Bankrupts, who have not obtained Certificates and Discharge of their Debts.

LXVII. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

LXVIII. ' And whereas Bankrupts who have not obtained their Certificates and Discharge of their Debts, under some one of the Acts relating to Bankrupts, have not been deemed to be within the Meaning of Acts of Insolvency, as such Bankrupts have no Schedules to deliver up according to the Terms and Conditions of such Acts; nevertheless, as many Bankrupts are confined in Prison for Debt only, though they have already delivered up their whole Estates and Effects, or, from a Fear of being arrested and thrown into Prison, are frequently induced to abscond from their Homes, and go into Foreign Parts: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Person or Persons, against whom a Commission of Bankruptcy hath been awarded and issued, on or before the twenty-second Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, or who shall have been really an actual Prisoner or Prisoners, in the Custody of any Gaoler or Gaolers, or Keeper of any Prison respectively, on or before the twenty-second Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and against whom a Commission of Bankruptcy shall have since been awarded and issued, and who hath or have duly conformed, or shall duly conform, him, her, or themselves, to the several Acts of Parliament relating to Bankrupts, and hath not or have not been committed to any Prison by a Warrant of the Commissioners, in such Commission named, for Contumacy or Noncompliance to those Laws, and who now is or are in Prison for Debt, Damages, Contempt, Costs of Suit, or any Sum or Sums of Money due and accrued previous to such Commission, or who now are secreting themselves in Fear of their Creditors; and shall be hereafter sued, arrested, or held to Bail, or shall surrender him, her, or themselves, or be surrendered, in Discharge of his, her, or their Bail, or taken in Execution in any Suit or Action for any such Debt or Debts as aforesaid, shall and may apply to any one of the Judges of the Court wherein such Process or Processes hath or have issued, to summon his, her, or their Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, to shew cause why such Bankrupt or Bankrupts should not be discharged from his, her, or their Imprisonment, or Arrest as aforesaid, such Bankrupt or Bankrupts first making Oath before such Judge, (or if at a Distance from such Judge, then before a Justice of the Peace) who is hereby authorized to administer such Oath, that such Debt or Debts did accrue previous to the issuing such Commission; and such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs not appearing, or not proving that such Bankrupt or Bankrupts hath or have concealed any Part of his, her, or their Estate or Effects, or hath or have not duly conformed him, her, or themselves, to the Laws now in Force against Bankrupts, such Judge shall and may discharge such Bankrupt or Bankrupts from such Imprisonment or Arrest as aforesaid; such Bankrupt or Bankrupts causing a common Appearance to be entered for him, her, or them, where necessary, in every such Suit or Action; and if any such Bankrupt or Bankrupts shall be afterwards again sued and arrested, or taken in Execution, or imprisoned, in any Suit or Action, for such Debt or Debts, previous to such Commission as aforesaid, any Judge of the Court wherein such Process issued shall, upon Summons of the proper Party or Parties, immediately discharge such Bankrupt or Bankrupts from such Arrest or Imprisonment; nevertheless such Bankrupt or Bankrupts shall, in all other Respects, be deemed subject to the Laws in Force against Bankrupts; and every Sheriff and Sheriffs, Bailiff and Officer, Gaoler and Keeper of a Prison, is and are hereby required, on proper Notice being given of such Judge's Discharge, to release and set free such Bankrupt or Bankrupts out of his or their Custody, and each and every of them is and are hereby indemnified from any Action or Actions that may be brought, commenced, or prosecuted against him or them, for any Escape for or on account thereof.

LXIX. And whereas many Bankrupts, having in all Respects strictly conformed themselves to the Directions of the Bankrupt Laws, have, notwithstanding, been unable to obtain their Certificates, and have, on that Account, been discouraged from exerting their Industry in the Pursuit of their several Occupations; either living in the most unhappy and distressed Situation at Home, or seeking Relief in foreign Countries, where they can earn and secure to themselves the Profit of an industrious Application to Business; some of whom have carried with them the Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce of this Country, to the great Prejudice thereof: And whereas some Relief given in such particular Cases, might prevent the Evils arising to the Public, and be an Encouragement for such Individuals to follow their different Occupations at Home; be it enacted, That any Person or Persons against whom a Commission of Bankruptcy hath been awarded and issued, on or before the twenty-second Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and who hath or have in all Things conformed to the several Acts now in Force concerning Bankrupts, by his, her, or their Surrender and Submission thereto, and who shall not have been committed for any Act of Contumacy or Nonconformity, yet who hath not or have not gained a total Discharge from his, her, or their Creditors, of his, her, or their Debts, arising or accruing previous to such Commission, for want of their Certificate, shall have Liberty, after the Expiration of twelve Calendar Months from the Day of the Date of every such Commission respectively, to petition or to apply, by Motion of Court, to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Time being, setting forth the true Circumstance of the Case relative to such Commission and Certificate; and the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners as aforesaid, shall have Power and Authority to direct and order the acting Commissioners in the respective Commissions named, to certify to the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners, the Conformity or Nonconformity of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and such other Matter as to them shall seem necessary concerning the same (the said acting Commissioners being hereby authorized and required so to do); and the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners, as aforesaid, shall thereupon have Power and Authority, if he or they shall so think fit, to direct and order an Advertisement to be inserted in the London Gazette, for the Allowance of such Bankrupt's Certificate, (although the same shall not appear to have been signed or consented to by four-fifths in Number and Value of the said Bankrupt's Creditors, agreeable to the

Clause with respect to Bankrupts who have conformed themselves to the Bankrupt Laws;

Lord Chancellor, &c. empowered to allow such Bankrupts Certificates, although not signed by four-fifths of their Creditors.

Laws now in being), in the same Manner and Form as if the said Certificate had been signed as aforesaid; and in case no sufficient Cause shall be shewn to the contrary within the Time limited by the said Advertisement, the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners as aforesaid, shall have Power and Authority to allow such Bankrupt's Certificate, in the like Manner as if the same had been signed agreeable to the Laws now in being, and grant or make such other Order thereupon, for the Relief and Discharge of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts from his, her, or their Debts as aforesaid, or otherwise, as to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners, shall seem proper; which Certificate, if so allowed, shall be as full and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been duly obtained and allowed agreeable to the Directions of the several Laws now in Force concerning Bankrupts; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXX. And whereas the Case of Thomas Touchet, late of Manchester, Merchant, and now a Prisoner in the King's Bench Prison, is attended with very particular Circumstances, and that the said Thomas Touchet is lunatick; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That although the Sum due and owing by the said Thomas Touchet to one Creditor does exceed the Sum of one thousand Pounds, and notwithstanding his said Lunacy, he the said Thomas Touchet shall be intitled to all the Benefits of this Act, in all Respects whatsoever, as if the said Thomas Touchet had not owed more than one thousand Pounds to one Person, and was not lunatick, any Thing in this Act to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding; and that all Acts done or consented to by the Committee of his Estate and Effects shall be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were done and consented to by the said Thomas Touchet himself.

Clause in favour of Thomas Touchet, Merchant.

III. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the tenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That, for and during the Time therein mentioned (which Act hath been since continued, and is now in Force), the Officers of his Majesty's Customs, and Naval Officers in the British Colonies or Plantations in America, shall be deemed to be intitled to, and shall and may lawfully demand and receive, such Fees as they and their Predecessors respectively were and had been generally and usually accustomed to demand, take, and receive, before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, and shall have the like Remedy for the same, according to the true Intent and Meaning of an Act, made in the fifth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, therein particularly recited and referred unto; And whereas, the Officers of his Majesty's Customs now established in the Island of Newfoundland not being able to discover and ascertain what Fees were taken and received by their Predecessors, before the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, Doubts have arisen what Fees they are intitled to demand and receive, in pursuance of the said in Part recited Act? For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so long as the said recited Act shall be continued and remain in Force, the Officers of his Majesty's Customs in the said Island of Newfoundland shall be, and are hereby declared to have been intitled to ask, demand, take, and receive, such Fees, for all Business done by them in the Execution of their Duty, as were legally demanded and taken by the like Officers of the Customs at the Port of Halifax in Nova Scotia, on or before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight; provided the said Fees so taken are not contrary to the express Directions of any Act of Parliament made in Great Britain; and the said Officers of the Customs shall have the like Remedy for the same; and be liable to the same Penalties and Disabilities for exacting or receiving any greater or other Fees than such as are herein before allowed to be taken, as are prescribed and insisted in such Cases by the said recited Acts, or either of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been again repeated and enacted in this present Act.

Fees to be taken by the Officers of the Customs in Newfoundland.

AN ACT, intituled, AN ACT, intituled, O. A. B. XLVIII.

An Act for allowing further Time for the Exportation of, or Payment of the Duties upon, Bugles, when warehoused upon Importation into this Kingdom, to empower the Commissioners of the Customs to order all Bonds relative to that Revenue, upon which no Prosecutions have been had for the Space of five Years (except Bonds for Duties, and for the good Behaviour of Officers in the Execution of their Duty), to be destroyed; and for repealing the Duties upon Feather Beds imported into this Kingdom, and for charging the same with the like Duties as are payable upon Feathers for Beds.

Preamble. Act 5 Geo. III. recited.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for more effectually supplying the Export Trade of this Kingdom to Africa with such coarse printed Callicons and other Goods of the Product or Manufacture of the East Indies, or other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, as are prohibited to be worn and used in Great Britain for encouraging the Importation of Bunches into this Kingdom; for the better Supply of the Export Trade thereof, and for discontinuing the Bounty payable in Great Britain; and all Bounties and Allowances in Ireland upon the Exportation of Corn, Gram, Malt, Meal, and Flour, from thence to the Isle of Man; it is, amongst other Things, enacted and provided, That if such Bugles as shall be imported into this Kingdom, and lodged and secured in such Warehouse

Warehouse belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as in and by the said recited Act is prescribed, shall not be either exported, or the full Duties paid for the same, within five Years from the Importation thereof, but shall then continue and be still remaining in the said Warehouse, in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs, for the Time being, or any three or more of them, to cause the said Bugles, so remaining, to be publickly sold, in Manner and for the Purposes therein prescribed; And whereas it has been usual to export such Bugles from this Kingdom to Africa in Exchange for Negroes, to be carried from thence to the British Colonies in America, which Trade being much interrupted by the Disturbances, and Rebellion in several of those Colonies, great Quantities of such Bugles do now remain warehoused at several Ports in this Kingdom, and cannot be disposed of without great Loss to the Proprietors thereof, and it is therefore expedient to enlarge the Time limited by the said recited Act for the Exportation of such Bugles, or paying the Duty for the same; It is therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, for such of the said Bugles as have been imported into this Kingdom before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and lodged and secured in any Warehouse belonging to his Majesty, as in and by the said recited Act is prescribed, and still remain unsold, the said Term of five Years shall be extended and enlarged to the Term of ten Years, from the Importation thereof, any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

The aforesaid Term of five Years extended to 10 Years, in relation to Bugles imported before May 1, 1776, and warehoused, &c. Act 8 Anne recited.

II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, *An Act for continuing several Impositions, additional Impositions, and Duties, upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and for taking off the Oversea-duty on Goods exported in British Bottoms, and for better preventing Frauds in Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods; and for ascertaining the Duties of Corans imported in Venetian Ships; and to give further Time to foreign Merchants for Exportation of certain foreign Goods imported; and to limit a Time for Prosecutions upon certain Bonds given by Merchants, and for continuing certain Fees of the Officers of the Customs; and also to prevent Embarkments by such Officers; and for appropriating the Money granted to her Majesty, and for replacing Monies paid on so to be paid for making good any Deficiencies on the Annuity Acts; and for a further Term in a like Manner in her Majesty's Plantations; and to give further Time for registering Debentures as therein mentioned; it is amongst other Things, enacted, That the Bonds commonly called Plantation Bonds; and the Securities entered into, in pursuance of an Act, made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, intituled, *An Act for the more effectual employing the Port, by the encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, upon the Exportation of wrought Silks, and other Commodities in the said Act mentioned; in case there shall be no Prosecution for such Breach or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof within three Years after the Date thereof, or if upon such Prosecution Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty within the Space of two Years after the Breach is committed, then such Security shall be void, and all such Securities to and to be delivered up, by the respective Officers having the same in their Keeping, to be cancelled, without Fee or Reward; and if any Officer of his Majesty's Revenue having the Custody of any Bonds so required to be delivered up to be cancelled, shall, upon reasonable Demand, refuse or neglect to deliver up such Bonds according to the Purport and Meaning of that Act, then the Officer so offending shall be liable to answer to the Party grieved all his Damages, together with Treble Costs of Suit; And whereas there are now remaining, in the Possession of the Officers at several Custom-houses in this Kingdom, great Number of such Bonds and Securities, as well as other Bonds and Securities taken for the due Exportation of other Goods, and for the due Performance of Ships Voyages, in pursuance of divers other Acts of Parliament, which have lain for many Years without any Prosecution having been commenced thereon; no Proof being discovered that the Conditions of such Bonds have not been duly performed; though no Certificate has been produced in Discharge thereof, nor any Application made to the Officers for Delivery thereof by the Parties concerned therein, without which sufficient Provision is not made for cancelling or destroying such Bonds, though they are useless and of no Effect, and are an unnecessary Incumbrance to the Offices where they are lodged, and occasion great Perplexity and Inconvenience to the several Officers in the Execution of their Duty; for Remedy whereof; and to prevent the Discouragements which Merchants do and may lie under by the said Bonds lying out against them, by reason that the Goods may have been vended in foreign Parts, from whence no Certificate can be produced conformable to the several Statutes requiring the same, although the Conditions of the said Bonds are or shall have been performed; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, all Bonds, which have been or shall hereafter be taken by any Officer, relating to the Revenue and Business of his Majesty's Customs, upon which no Prosecutions hath been or shall be commenced, for the Breach or Non-performance of any Covenant or Condition therein contained, within the Space of five Years from the Date of such Bond or Security (except Bonds for Duties, or other Money due to the Crown, and for the good Behaviour of the Officers in the Execution of their Duty) shall be void; and it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland, respectively, or any three or more of them, to order and direct the several Officers under their Management, having the Custody of such Bonds, to cancel and destroy the same in such Manner as they shall think proper, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After July 5, 1776, all Bonds, taken by any Officer, relating to the Revenue of the Customs, on which no Prosecution hath been or shall be commenced within 5 Years from the Date thereof, (Exception) shall be void.

III. And whereas by the Book of Rates, annexed to the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Feathers Beds, old or new, the Piece, are rated at two Pounds thirteen Shillings and Four-pence, and Feathers for Beds the one hundred and twelve Pounds are rated at six Pounds: And whereas, in order to evade the Payment of the Duties due and payable

The Rate of Feather Beds, according to the Book of Rates 12 Car. II. repealed; and, in lieu thereof, all Feather Beds, and Feathers heretofore entered under that Denomination, which shall be imported into this Kingdom, shall be liable to the same Duties as Feathers for Beds, according to the Rate before mentioned.

payable by Law, according to the before-mentioned Rate upon Feathers for Beds imported from foreign Parts, Attempts have been made fraudulently to bring into this Kingdom large Quantities of such Feathers, packed up in old Ticking, coarse Cloth, or other old Packages, and to enter the same under the Denomination of Feather Beds, to the great Prejudice of the public Revenue, and to the Detriment of the fair Trader; for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, the before-mentioned Rate of two Pounds thirteen Shillings and Four-pence, for Feather Beds old or new, the Piece, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the several Duties payable upon the Importation of such Feather Beds, according to that Rate, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid; and, in lieu and instead thereof, all Feather Beds, and all Feathers which have been heretofore entered under that Denomination, dressed or undressed, new or old, which shall be imported into this Kingdom in any sort of Package whatsoever, shall be liable to and pay the several Subsidies, additional Duties, and all other Imposts and Duties whatsoever, to which Feathers for Beds are and shall be liable, according to the Rate before mentioned of six Pounds for every one hundred and twelve Pounds Weight of such Feathers; which said Subsidies, Imposts, and Duties, shall be raised, levied, and collected, recovered, paid, and applied, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Discounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, as the former Duties upon Feathers for Beds were raised, levied, collected, paid, and applied, and were subject and liable to; and all the Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles, and Clauses, contained in the several Acts of Parliament which granted or continued the same respectively, shall continue in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the raising, levying, collecting, recovering, paying, and applying, the said Subsidies, Imposts, and other Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Clauses, Powers, and Provisions, had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Preamble.

II. And whereas, by several Acts of Parliament now in Force for granting, continuing, and better securing the Duties payable ad valorem upon unrated East India Goods, and for ascertaining the Values thereof, according to which such Duties shall be paid, the Importer or Importers thereof are to give Security by Bond for Payment of the said Duties according to the real Values of the said Goods, to be ascertained according to the respective Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made (except Coffee), as soon as the said Goods shall be sold, and also for exposing the said Goods to Sale openly and fairly, by Way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Term of three Years after the Importation thereof: And whereas by an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting further Time to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, to expose to Sale the Singlo and Bohea Teas remaining in their Warehouses unfold on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, and for allowing the Drawbacks on the Exportation of such Teas, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That for such of the said Bohea Teas as were then imported, and which remained unfold on the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, the said United Company might, at any Time within the Space of four Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, expose such Teas to Sale; and that after such Sale or Sales there should be allowed the like Discounts, on Payment of the Duties on such Teas, as if the same had been exposed to Sale within the Term of three Years before mentioned, or any other Time theretofore limited by Law: And whereas a great Part of the said Bohea Tea, imported by the said United Company, and remaining in their Warehouses unfold on the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, yet remains unfold; and over and besides such Bohea Tea, the said Company have since that Time imported a further considerable Quantity of Bohea Tea, which remained in their Warehouses unfold on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and they expect to import and receive, before the thirty-first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, a further considerable Quantity of Bohea Tea in sundry Ships now coming Home from Cbina; and the said Company had also in their Warehouses unfold, on the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, a great Quantity of Singlo Teas and Coffee, and by reason of the Interruption given to Trade by the Disturbances in several of the British Colonies in America, the said Quantity of Bohea Tea, imported before the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, and remaining unfold on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, cannot be expected to be sold by the said Company within the Term of four Years allowed for that Purpose by the said Act of the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; nor can it be expected that the said other Bohea Teas herein before mentioned, the said Singlo Teas, and Coffee, should be sold by the said Company within the Term of three Years, to be computed from the respective Times of the Importation of such Teas and Coffee, and it is necessary that some further Time should be granted to the said Company to put their said Teas and Coffee up to Sale; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as well for such of the said Bohea Teas, Singlo Teas, and Coffee, as remained unsold on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, as also for such Bohea Teas as hereafter shall be imported at any Time or Times on or before the thirty-first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, the said United Company may, at any Time within the Space of five Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, expose fresh respective Teas and Coffee to Sale, and after such Sale or Sales there shall be allowed the like Discounts, on Payments of the respective Duties on such Teas and Coffee, as if the same had been exposed to Sale within the Term of three Years, or any other Time heretofore limited by Law, any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of an Act 14 Geo. III.

East India Company to be allowed usual Discounts on the Sale of all Teas and Coffee, within five Years after the Importation thereof.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for and during the said Term of five Years, to be computed as aforesaid, there shall be drawn back and allowed for all the said Teas and Coffee, which shall be exported from this Kingdom as Merchandise to Ireland, or any of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, to the Exporter or Exporters thereof, such and the same Drawbacks or Allowances, and under such Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as such Exporter or Exporters would have been intitled to in case such Teas and Coffee had been exported within the Term of three Years from the respective Times of the Importation thereof; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Term of three Years extended to five, in relation to the Drawback on exporting Teas and Coffee to Ireland and America.

IV. And whereas, by reason of the said Interruption to Trade, a great Part of the Coffee imported by the said United Company in the Ship Shrewsbury, an other Vessel, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, and which hath been sold by the said United Company, is yet remaining uncleared in their Warehouses, belonging to the Buyers thereof, and the same cannot be exported within three Years after the Importation thereof, be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said Coffee, imported by the said Ship Shrewsbury, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, and now remaining uncleared in the said Company's Warehouses, shall be exported at any Time within five Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, there shall be drawn back and allowed for the same, to the Exporter or Exporters thereof, such and the same Drawbacks or Allowances, and under such Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as such Exporter or Exporters would have been intitled to in case such Coffee had been exported within the Term of three Years from the Importation thereof; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The same Time allowed for exporting Coffee, brought by the Shrewsbury, in 1773, and yet remaining in the Company's Warehouses.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall at any Time neglect to keep the Market supplied with a sufficient Quantity of Tea at reasonable Prices, to answer the Consumption thereof in Great Britain, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or for the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to grant Licences to any other Person or Persons, whether by Law Public or Corporate, to import into Great Britain, from any Parts of Europe, in such and such Manner, and subject to such Duties, and under such Restrictions and Limitations, and upon such Conditions, and with such Licences, as are by any Act or Acts now in Force prescribed and directed with respect to Tea to be imported from any Parts of Europe by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

In case the Company neglect to supply the Home Market with Tea, at reasonable Prices, Commissioners of the Treasury may grant Licences to any Persons to import the same.

C A P. LIII.

An Act to continue the Corporation of the Guardians of the Poor within the Ile of Wight, and to confirm the Powers and Authorities now vested in the said Corporation, and to provide new Powers and Regulations for the Members of the same; and to repeal an Act, passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing a House or Houses of Industry in the Isle of Wight, for the Reception, Maintenance, and Employment, of the Poor belonging to the several Parishes and Places within the said Island.

Preamble.
Recital of the former Act, II Geo. III.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing a House or Houses of Industry in the Isle of Wight, for the Reception, Maintenance, and Employment, of the Poor belonging to the several Parishes and Places within the said Island, all and every the Person and Persons qualified as therein is mentioned were incorporated, by the Name of The Guardians of the Poor within the Isle of Wight; and the said Guardians were thereby required to meet at a certain Time and Place therein mentioned, and being so assembled, to proceed in the Manner therein directed, by Way of Ballot, to the Choice of twenty-four of the Guardians, which twenty-four Persons so chosen should be called Directors of the Poor within the Isle of Wight: And whereas it was thereby enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for the said Directors (until the acting Guardians therein directed to be chosen should be chosen) and for the said Directors and acting Guardians (after the said acting Guardians should be chosen) from Time to Time, to borrow any Sum or Sums for the Purposes of the said Act, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of twelve thousand Pounds, at an Interest not exceeding four Pounds per Centum per Annum; and to assign over, in the Manner therein mentioned, all or any Part of the Poor's Rates, to be collected within the said Ile of Wight in pursuance of the said Act, as a Security for the Repayment of the Principal and Interest of the Money so to be borrowed: And, in order that the Sum to be borrowed for the Purposes of the said Act might be the less burthenome, it was enacted, That the several Workhouses then belonging to the several and respective Parishes in the Ile of Wight aforesaid, together with the Lands thereunto belonging, should be vested, and the same were thereby vested, in Sir John Barrington of Swainston in the said Ile of Wight Baronet, Sir Richard Worsley of Appuldurcombe in the said Ile of Wight Baronet, and Sir William Oglander of Nunwell in the said Ile of Wight Baronet, and their Heirs and Assigns for ever, upon Trust, that they the said Sir John Barrington, Sir Richard Worsley, and Sir William Oglander, and their Heirs, should sell and convey the said several and respective Houses and Lands to such Person or Persons as should be willing to purchase the same, and should pay the Monies arising by such Sale or Sales into the Hands of the Treasurer or Treasurers of the said Corporation, to be applied for defraying the Expences of obtaining and other the Purposes of the said Act; most of which said several Houses and Lands have been since sold and conveyed accordingly: And by the said Act his Majesty was enabled to make a Grant, under the Exchequer Seal, of such Part or Portion of the Forest of Parkhurst, in the said Ile of Wight, (of which Forest his said Majesty is in the said Act mentioned to be seised in Right of his Crown) as his said Majesty's Governor of the Ile of Wight for the Time being, Sir John Barrington of Swainston in the said Ile of Wight Baronet, Sir William Oglander of Nunwell in the said Ile of Wight Baronet, James Worley of Stenbury in the said Ile of Wight Esquire, Henry Roberts of Standen in the said Ile of Wight Esquire, and the Reverend Leonard Troughbear Holmes of Westover in the said Ile of Wight Clerk, or the Survivors of them, or any three or more of them, (of which Number the Governor for the Time being to be one) should, within six Months from the passing of the said Act, set out and allot for the Purposes of the said Act not exceeding eighty Acres, (such Grant to be made to the Guardians of the Poor within the Ile of Wight, incorporated by the said Act, for such Time and Term of Years as his Majesty should think proper, notwithstanding the Limitations of the Civil List Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne) and subject to such Rents and Reservations, and under such Clauses and Conditions, as are usually reserved and contained in like Cases; and the Lands so to be granted should be held by the said Guardians, and their Successors, in such Manner, and to and for such Uses, Intents, and Purposes, as from Time to Time, should seem most proper and convenient for effecting and accommodating the Purposes of the said Act: And whereas, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the twenty-first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, his said Majesty did demise, grant, and to farm let, unto the Guardians of the Poor within the Ile of Wight, for the Time being, and their Successors, all that Piece or Parcel of Land (Part of the Forest of Parkhurst, in the Ile of Wight, in the County of Southampton) situate, lying, and being, on the east End of the said Forest, and containing, by Estimation, eighty Acres of Ground, Statute Measure; bounded on the East by a Part of a certain Farm there, called Dodner Farm, and by Part of a certain other Farm there, called Saint Cross Farm; on the West by a certain High Road or Way, leading from the Town of Newport, through the said Forest, to West Coves; on the North by other Part of the said Forest, commonly called or known by the Name of Verrow Common; and on the South by other Part of the said Forest; together with all Ways, Passages, Waters, Watercourses, Profits, Commodities, Advantages, Hereditaments, and Appurtenances whatsoever, to the said Piece or Parcel of Ground belonging or in anywise appertaining (except as in the said recited Letters Patent is excepted); which said Piece or Parcel of Ground, being of an irregular Form, is more particularly described in a Plan thereof remaining in the Office of his Majesty's Surveyor General; to have, hold, and enjoy, the said Piece or Parcel of Land by the said Letters Patent granted and demised, with their and every of their Appurtenances (except as therein is excepted) unto the said Guardians and their Successors, for the Term of nine hundred and ninety-nine Years, to begin, commence, and be computed, from the Date of the said Letters Patent, from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, at and under the yearly Rent of eight Pounds seventeen Shillings and Nine-pence, payable as therein is mentioned, and under divers Covenants and Agreements therein contained: And whereas the Directors and acting Guardians of the Poor within the said Ile of Wight, from Time to Time chosen and elected under and by virtue of the said Act, have made a considerable Progress in erecting a House of Industry, together with all other convenient Buildings for the Lodging and Employment of the Poor, as thereby directed, and in carrying into Execution the other Powers thereby to them granted; but find, that by reason of the Insufficiency of the Sum of Money they are authorized to borrow for the Purposes of the said Act, (and which they have already taken up and borrowed) and on Account of some Defects therein, the good Purposes intended by the said Act cannot be completely effected without the further Aid of Parliament: And whereas the Purposes thereby intended might be better effected, if the several Clauses, Powers, and Regulations, for the good Government of the Poor of the said Island, already made and provided by the said Act, and hereby further intended to be made and provided, were reduced into one Law; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Corporation erected by the above-recited Act, by the Name of The Guardians of the Poor within the Ile of Wight, shall for ever, in Fact and in Name, be one Body Politic and Corporate in Law, to all Intents and Purposes; and shall have perpetual Succession, and a Common Seal, and shall be, and be called, The Guardians of the Poor within the Ile of Wight, and shall be enabled to sue and plead, and be sued, by that Name, in all Courts and Places of Judicature within that Part of Great Britain called England; and by that Name shall and may, without Licence in Mortmain, purchase, take, or receive, any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the Gift, Alienation, or Demise, of any Person or Persons, for any Estate or Interest whatsoever; and all Persons whatsoever are hereby enabled to convey or devise the same, and to give or bequeath any Money, Goods, and Chattels whatsoever, for the Use and Benefit of the Corporation aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who are now Members of the said Corporation, shall continue and be Members of the same, until the last Thursday in June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six inclusive, and so long after as they have any of the Qualifications next herein after required, and no longer; and that, on and after the last Thursday in June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, all and every Person and Persons who shall then be, and from Time to Time thereafter shall become seized or possessed, in his, her, or their own, or Wife's Right, of Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Tithes, either in Fee or for Life, or for a long Term of Years absolute, or determinable upon any Life or Lives, and rated to the Poor's Rates, in the respective Parishes and Places within the said Ile of Wight, at the Value of fifty Pounds per Annum; and all Heirs-apparent to Lands, Tenements, Tithes, or Hereditaments, rated as aforesaid at the Value of one hundred Pounds per Annum; and also all Rectors and Vicars, for the Time being, of the several Rectories and Vicarages within the said Ile of Wight; and also all and every Person and Persons who then, and from Time to Time thereafter, shall be rated to the

An Act for lighting and watching the Town of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton; and for explaining and amending an Act, passed in the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for the better paving and cleansing the Streets and other public Passages in the said Town, and for preventing Nuisances and Annoyances therein, and for widening and rendering the same more commodious.

C A P. LX.

An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for opening certain Passages, and for paving the Streets, and other Places, in the Parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the County of Middlesex, and for preventing Annoyances therein; and for extending the Powers of the said Act to such Part of a Lane, called Hog-lane, as lies within the Liberty of Norton-Falgate, in the said County.

C A P. LXII.

An Act to enable the Commissioners of Sewers for several Limits in the Eastern Parts of the County of Kent, more effectually to drain and improve the Lands and Grounds within the General Vallies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS there are in the Vallies from Fordwich-bridge to Sandwich-haven, in the County of Kent (commonly called The General Vallies), upwards of seven thousand Acres of valuable and improveable Arable Lands, Marsh Lands, Meadow Lands, and Low Grounds, within the Limits of the Commission of Sewers herein after mentioned; and, although considerable Sums of Money have for several Years past been annually raised and expended in draining the said Lands and Grounds, they are frequently overflowed: And whereas, if the Commissioners of Sewers for the Time being for the several Limits herein after particularly described, in the Eastern Parts of the said County of Kent, were empowered to make a proper Cut or Drain from the River Stour, at or near the Salt-works at Stonar, into Sandwich-haven, the Lands within the said General Vallies would be much better and more effectually drained, and at less Expence, than they have been for several Years past: And whereas the Commissioners of Sewers for the said Limits are willing and desirous to make the said Cut or Drain, and such other Works as shall be necessary for the better and more effectual draining the Lands and Grounds within the said General Vallies; but Doubts have arisen whether they have sufficient Powers, by the Laws now in being relating to Sewers, to effect the same: And whereas the draining of the said Lands and Grounds will not only be of great Benefit to the Owners and Occupiers thereof, but also of public Utility; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Commissioners of Sewers for the Time being, for the several Limits between Mersham, Ashford, Chart, and Canterbury, and between Canterbury, Fordwich, Chislett, Reculver, and the Town and Port of Sandwich, and the Liberties thereof, and within the whole Isle of Thanet, and within the whole Lath of Saint Austin's, and between Deal, Eastry, Wingham, and Sandwich, and between Hernehill, Whitstable, and Seafalter, and in the Borders or Confines of the same, and in Mersham, Ashford, Chart, City of Canterbury, and the Liberties thereof, and in Sandwich and in the Liberties thereof, and in Graveney and Hernehill aforesaid, and in Brokebridge and Fordborne, in the Eastern Parts of the County of Kent, or in the Borders or Confines of the same, shall, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to make a Cut or Drain at or near the Salt-works at Stonar, in the said County of Kent, from the River Stour aforesaid, into Sandwich-haven, of such Dimensions as they shall think fit; and from Time to Time to cleanse, scour, widen, deepen, alter, maintain, and support the same in such Manner as they shall think proper, so that the said Cut or Drain shall never exceed forty Feet in Width; and also to make, raise, maintain, and support, such sufficient and proper Banks, and all such other Works on the Sides of the said Cut or Drain, as they shall think necessary; and to make proper and convenient Floodgates within the said Cut or Drain (each Floodgate not to exceed four Feet six Inches in Width); and the said Commissioners of Sewers shall have full Power and Authority over all and singular the said Works to be made, raised, erected, and set up, by virtue of this Act; and shall and may from Time to Time alter, remove, repair, rebuild, enlarge, widen, deepen, scour, and cleanse the same, paying to such Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Corporate, Politic, or Collegiate, as shall or may have a Right or Property in or to any Lands or Grounds through which the intended Cut or Drain shall be made, or from which any Earth shall be dug or taken, or through or upon which any such Banks and other Works as aforesaid shall be made, raised, erected, built, or set up, his, her, or their Guardian, Trustee, or Committee, or any Person or Persons claiming in his, her, or their Right, such Sum or Sums of Money for the Damages they shall respectively sustain thereby, as shall be ascertained and fixed by the said Commissioners of Sewers, who have full Power and Authority to ascertain and fix such the Amount thereof, notwithstanding their being Owners or Occupiers of Lands or Estates lying within the said General Vallies: And in case the said Commissioners of Sewers and such Owners or Proprietors cannot agree touching such Recompence and Compensation, the said Commissioners shall and are hereby required to cause a Jury of the County of Kent to be summoned to ascertain and fix the Money to be paid for the Lands and Premises so made use of for making the said Cut or Drain or other Works as aforesaid; and in case the Jury give a Verdict for the same, or for a less Sum than was offered by the said Commissioners of Sewers, the Owner or Proprietor of such Lands or Premises as aforesaid shall bear all the Expences attending the Jury; but if a Verdict shall be given for a greater Sum than was offered by the said Commissioners of Sewers to such Owner or Proprietor as aforesaid, then the said Commissioners of Sewers shall bear all the Expences attending such Jury, any Thing in this Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding; and that the said Commissioners of Sewers shall not proceed in such Works until such Money so ascertained by the Commissioners, or in case the Proprietors of such Lands shall refuse to accept the same, then such Sum as shall be ascertained and settled by the said Jury, shall be fully paid and satisfied, or legally tendered in Payment and Satisfaction unto such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, as aforesaid.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to authorise or empower the said Commissioners of Sewers, or their Servants, Agents, or Workmen, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, to make use of the said Cut or Drain, so to be made from the River Stour, at or near Stonar, into Sandwich-haven, as aforesaid, or any other Works to be by them made and erected at or near the said intended
