Preamble.
Act 10 Geo. 3.

‘ WHEREAS an Act passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for paving, lighting, and watching the Town of Plymouth, in the County of Devon; and for regulating the Carmen and Porters within the said Town: And whereas the said Act was explained and amended by another, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty: And whereas great Doubts and Disputes have nevertheless arisen touching the Limits to which the Assessments for the Purposes of the said Acts do or ought to extend, whereby the Execution of the said Acts hath been, and is still likely to be greatly impeded: And whereas the said Acts would be more beneficial to the Inhabitants of the said Borough, and to other Persons resorting thereto, if some Amendments were made to the said Acts in this and other Respects; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That to quiet the present, and to prevent future Disputes, all Rates made for the Purposes of the said Acts, since the passing of the said Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be legal Rates; and that, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March, in this present Year, none of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which were assessed to the Land Tax for the said Borough for the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, under the several Descriptions expressed in the Schedule hereunto annexed, shall be included in any Assessment under this and the said Acts, other than the special Rate herein-after mentioned; save and except always thereout such Lands and Tenements as shall consist of Houses and Buildings, and such Court-yards and Gardens, as may be thereunto adjoining and belonging, which shall be contiguous to some Street within the populous or Town Part of the said Borough, or situate so that there be no greater Distance than one hundred Feet from some Street within the populous or Town Part of the said Borough, to the nearest of such Houses or Buildings, or Court-yards or Gardens thereunto adjoining and belonging; nor from these to such as shall be next succeeding, and so on from one House or Building, or Court-yard or Garden thereunto adjoining and belonging, to the next or nearest, in whatsoever Direction the same may lie, or how far soever the same may extend in the said Borough; and that the Premises so excepted, and all the other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, within the said Borough, shall be liable to the said Assessment; and that the Premises which shall be so assessed shall be rated in Manner following; that is to say, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to the Assessment on the Owners thereof; and Houses and Buildings, and such Court-yards and Gardens as may be thereunto adjoining and belonging to the Assessment on the Occupiers; and that no Person shall, as a Reliant, be assessed by virtue of this and the said Acts, on account of Residence on any Tenement hereby declared not to be assessable; and that the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, mentioned in the said Schedule, shall be taken to have been assessed to the Land Tax for the said Borough for the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, under the Descriptions therein expressed.

Former Rates declared legal, and Limits settled pursuant to a Schedule.

Tenements of certain Descriptions excepted out of the Schedule, and made assessable.

Power to make a Special Rate for the defraying the Expences of the Act, &c.

II. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for executing the said Acts, and they are hereby required, within three Months after the passing of this Act (in case the unapplied Produce of the Rate made for the general Purposes of the said Acts, and commencing at Lady-day, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, and ending at Lady-day in this present Year, shall be insufficient for defraying the Expences of the obtaining and passing of this Act, and the Expences incurred in in defending and obtaining Judgment on the several Indictments which were preferred at the Affizes for the County of Devon, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, against the Inhabitants of the respective Parishes within the said Borough, for not repairing certain Streets therein), to order and direct a Special Rate (over and above the yearly Rate which the said Commissioners are impowered to make, for effecting the general Purposes of the said Acts) to be made on the several Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, throughout the whole Liberty of the said Borough, in order to raise a Sum sufficient to defray the Expences above mentioned; which Special Rate shall be framed, published, and collected, under the like Regulations as the said yearly Rate, except only that the whole of such Special Rate shall be collected at one Payment, and not by quarterly Portions; and the Sums arising from such Special Rate, together with the unapplied Produce of the aforesaid Rate, commencing as aforesaid, and ending as aforesaid, the said Commissioners are hereby impowered and required, within six Months after the passing of this Act, to apply towards the defraying of the Expences aforesaid, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever.

III. And be it enacted, That all publick Ways within the Town, Part of the said Borough, which are commonly called, known, and distinguished by the Names of Streets, shall be deemed to be Streets within the meaning of the said Acts, in Contradistinction to Highways; and that all publick Ways which shall be adjacent to the said Streets, and contiguous to Lands which shall be assessable to the yearly Rates for the general Purposes of this and the said Acts, shall be deemed Lanes and Passages, within the Meaning of the said Acts, in Contradistinction to Highways, so far as the said Lands shall extend towards the extreme Parts of the said Borough, and no farther.

IV. And whereas there are two Parishes within the said Borough: And whereas it is provided by the said Act, passed in the tenth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, that the Proprietors of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, within the said Town, when and so often as they shall be rated to the repairing of the Pavements of the said Town, shall be discharged from the Payment of any Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, that shall be made for the repairing of the Highways within the said Borough: And whereas the said Proprietors (not being expressly discharged from Statute Labour, or from the Payment of the Composition-money in lieu thereof), as well as other Inhabitants and Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, within the said Borough, are still liable to be called out to repair the Highways of that Parish wherein they respectively reside, or to the Payment of Composition-money in lieu thereof, notwithstanding their being assessed to the Purposes of the said Acts, which is a great Burthen to the said Occupiers, and extremely grievous to the poorer Sort of Inhabitants; for effectual Remedy thereof, be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as relates thereto, shall be repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act, the said Parishes shall not (in respect of the Repair of the Highways, or the Power of the Surveyor or other Officer having the Superintendance thereof, under the Authority of any general Act of Parliament for the Repair of the Highways of this Kingdom) be taken to extend to such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as shall be assessable to the yearly Rates for the general Purposes of this and the said Acts, or to the said Streets, Lanes, or Passages, neither shall the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, nor the said Streets, Lanes, or Passages, be considered (in respect of the Repair of the Highways, or the Power of the Surveyor, or other Officer having the Superintendance thereof, under the Authority of any general Act of Parliament for the Repair of the Highways of this Kingdom) as lying in any Parish, Township, or Place, whatsoever, but the same shall be subject only to Regulations under this and the said Acts; nor, on the other hand, shall the Powers of the said Commissioners, touching the Execution of this and the said Acts, extend to any Distance beyond the Lands which shall be assessable to the said yearly Rates, and the said Streets, Lanes, and Passages: Provided nevertheless, That the present and all future Surveyors, under the Authority of the general Act of Parliament, for the Repair of the Highways of this Kingdom, shall proceed to do their Duty in the Parts of the said Borough not hereby declared to be exempt from their Superintendance.

V. And whereas Difficulties and Inconveniencies attend the Method prescribed by the said Act for the Recovery of Sums of Money which have become due by reason of Rates, or otherwise, by virtue of the said Acts; be it enacted, That any Sum of Money which, by reason of any Rate, hath become due from any Owner or Owners of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, assessed by virtue of the said Acts, and remains unpaid, or which shall become due from any Owner or Owners of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which shall be assessed by virtue of this and the said Acts, shall and may be paid by any one Occupier thereof, and shall and may be recovered of any one Occupier, in like Manner as the Rates are directed to be recovered by the said first-mentioned Act; and such Occupier shall be at Liberty, and is hereby impowered, to deduct and detain out of his or her Rent, such Sum of Money as he or she shall pay, as aforesaid, unless there be an Agreement subsisting between such Occupier and his or her Landlord or Landlords to the contrary; and that any Sum of Money, which by reason of any Rate, or otherwise, by virtue of the said Acts, hath or shall become due from, or hath been, or shall be, received or collected by any Person who hath happened to die, or who shall happen to die, before Payment of the same, shall be deemed to be due from, and shall be recoverable of, his or her Executor or Executors, Administrator or Administrators, in like Manner as it would have been of the deceased Person, in case he or she had happened to have lived, or by Action of Debt to be brought in the Names of any two or more Commissioners, in pursuance of an Order to be made for that Purpose, at some publick Meeting of the Commissioners for executing this and the said Acts.

VI. And whereas a Sum of Money hath been borrowed by virtue of the said Acts: And whereas the Remedy, by ordinary Course of Law, to compel the Payment of the Interest due on any Sums of Money, which have been, or may be, borrowed by virtue of the said Acts, and the making of Rates for that Purpose may be very expensive and inconvenient to the Creditors of whom the said Sums have been or may be borrowed; be it enacted, That so long as there shall be any Money remaining unpaid, which shall have been borrowed and taken up at Interest by virtue of the said Acts, any seven of the said Commissioners shall have Power (any thing in either of the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding) to make Orders for causing the yearly Rates for the general Purposes of this and the said Acts to be made and collected: And that so long as there shall be any Money remaining unpaid, which shall have been borrowed and taken up at Interest by virtue of the said Acts, and when and so often as any Year shall have expired, for which any Rate shall have been made for the general Purposes of this and the said Acts, and any one of the said Creditors shall request any seven of the said Commissioners to proceed to exercise the Powers vested in them, for causing the said yearly Rates to be made and collected, and the said seven Commissioners shall refuse or neglect to proceed for the Space of one Month after they shall have been so requested, the said Creditor shall be intitled to treble the full Costs of obtaining, serving, and enforcing, a Writ of Mandamus, for compelling the said seven Commissioners so to proceed, and shall, by Means of the Rule of Court, by which the said Writ shall be granted, recover of the Persons who shall appear to have neglected or refused to act as aforesaid, the said Costs, together with treble the full Costs of obtaining, serving, and enforcing, the said Rule; and that the same Commissioners, under whose Hands any Order shall have been issued to any Collector or Collectors for collecting and receiving any yearly Rate under this and the said Acts, shall provide, by some Order or Orders, (which shall be irreversible) for the Payment of the Interest due on the said Money once in every Year, the first Payment whereof shall be made within six Months after the passing of this Act; and the Treasurer to the said Commissioners for the Time being shall accordingly pay the same, pursuant to such Order or Orders, without Fee or Reward from any Creditor who shall make Demand thereof: And in case the said Commissioners shall omit or refuse to make and enforce such Order or Orders, as aforesaid, whereby there shall be a Failure of the Payment of the Interest due on any Sum of Money, which hath been, or may be, borrowed by virtue of the said Acts, it shall and may be lawful for any Creditor who shall have been injured thereby to recover of any Person or Persons who shall have issued such Order under their Hands for collecting and receiving, as aforesaid, and who shall have omitted or refused to make and enforce such Order or Orders, as aforesaid, for the Payment of the said Interest, treble the Amount of the Interest due to such Creditor, together with treble the full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt; and in case, at the Time of making Demand as aforesaid, of the Interest due to any Creditor, as aforesaid, there shall be by virtue of the said yearly Rate in the Hands of the said Treasurer Money sufficient to satisfy such Demand, and the said Treasurer shall not comply therewith, or shall exact any Fee or Reward for complying therewith, it shall and may be lawful for any Creditor making such Demand to recover of the said Treasurer treble the Amount of the Interest due to such Creditor, together with treble the full Costs of Suit by Action of Debt.

Part of Acts 10 and 22 Geo. 3. repealed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act, passed in the tenth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, as enables the said Commissioners to contract for cleansing the Streets, Lanes, and Passages, within the said Borough, and also so much of the said Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty, as impowers the Commissioners to dismiss the Scavengers, or other Officers, appointed by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the said Borough, for the Purpose of sweeping, cleansing, and carrying away, the Ashes, Rubbish, Dust, Dung, and Filth, from the said Streets, Lanes, and Passages, and requires the said Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, to appoint others in the Stead of those so dismissed, be repealed: Provided nevertheless, That the said Commissioners shall have Power to order the said Streets, Lanes, and Passages, to be watered so often as they shall think fit, and to defray the Expence thereof out of the Money to be raised by virtue and for the Purposes of this and the said Acts.

Commissioners not personally answerable for Contracts, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Contract already made by the said Commissioners, or which shall be made by them, for any of the Purposes of the said Act, shall be binding upon the said Commissioners personally as Individuals in their private Capacity, neither shall they be personally answerable for any Sum of Money borrowed and taken up at Interest under the Authority of the said Acts, but only as Trustees for carrying the same into Execution; and that Actions and Suits, in the Names of any two or more Commissioners under the said Acts shall and may be maintained on Contracts, which have been, or shall be, made between the Commissioners under the said Acts and any Person or Persons for the Purposes of the said Acts, any such Action or Suit being commenced by virtue of an Order of such Commissioners made for that Purpose at some publick Meeting; and all Sums of Money which shall be recovered by them in such Action, shall be applied to the general Purposes of the said Acts.

Commissioners indemnified out of the Rates.

And be it enacted, That all Money expended by, or recovered against, any Commissioner or Commissioners, touching any Action or Prosecution by the said Acts, directed to be brought by them, or touching the Defence of any Action, Prosecution, or Appeal, which hath been or shall be brought against them, or any other Person or Persons employed by or under them, on account of any Rate, or any Matter or Thing done or omitted (except the omitting to cause Rates to be made and collected, and the Interest of Money borrowed to be paid as aforesaid), in the Execution or Performance of his or their Office or Offices, Employment or Employments, under this or the said Acts, or in pursuance of any Order or Orders of the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, under the Authority of the said Acts, (which Money shall not be recovered again by such Commissioner or Commissioners, or other Person or Persons, from any such Defendant or Defendants, Plaintiff or Plaintiffs) shall be borne and defrayed out of the Money arising from the yearly Rates under this and the said Acts.

Porters, Carmen, and Chairmen regulated.

XII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the first Day of July in this present Year, all Carriages used in conveying Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or other Commodities, landed at any Quay within the said Borough, from the said Quay, through the Streets, Lanes, or Passages, herein-before described, whether for Hire or not; and all Waggon, Wains, Carts, Cars, or Drays, kept by any Person or Persons residing within the said Borough, or elsewhere, and used for the carrying of any Thing whatsoever from one Part of the said Borough to any other Part of the same, through any of the said Streets or Passages, whether for Hire or not, shall have Wheels made with the Soles or Fellies six Inches broad at the least, and with a flat even Surface in all Parts of such Soles or Fellies; and such of the said Carriages, Waggon, Wains, Carts, Cars, or Drays, as shall have four Wheels, shall be so constructed as to roll a Surface of nine Inches on each Side; and if any such Carriage, Waggon, Wain, Cart, Car, or Dray, as aforesaid, shall be drawn through any of the said Streets, Lanes, or Passages, contrary to the said Direction, the Owner or Driver thereof shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, shall have Power to cause to be placed on a conspicuous Part of any one or more House or Houses, Building or Buildings, at or near each End, Corner, or Entrance, of each of the said Streets, Lanes, and Passages, the Name by which each respective Street, Lane, or Passage, is usually called or known; and also may cause every House, Shop, Warehouse, or Building, in each of the said Streets, Lanes, and Passages, to be marked or numbered, in such Manner as they shall think most proper for distinguishing the same, and the Expences attending the same shall be paid out of the Money arising from the yearly Rates under this and the said Acts; and if any Person or Persons shall maliciously destroy or deface any such Name, Mark, or Number, or any Part thereof, or shall maliciously cause or procure the same to be done, every such Person shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding ten Shillings.

Commissioners may order the

XIV. And be it enacted, That in case the Time limited by the said Act passed in the twelfth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, for the Supply of any Vacancy or Vacancies among the thirty-eight Persons directed by the said Act to be added to the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, as Commissioners for executing the said Act, shall lapse, it shall be lawful to proceed at any subsequent Period, as soon as may be, to an Election for that Purpose; to which Election there shall be the like Requisites, in all other Respects, as prescribed by the said Acts; and that no Act of any subsisting Commissioners shall be invalid on account of any Vacancy or Vacancies whatsoever, provided there be a sufficient Number as specified in this and the said Acts, for effecting the several Purposes thereof; and the Persons who shall be elected by virtue of the Provision hereby made, shall have the like Power and Authority in the Execution of this and the said Acts, as any other of the said Commissioners.

the Commissioners.

XV. Provided always, That no Meeting under this and the said Acts shall be adjourned for a longer Time than eight Days; and that in case there shall not be a sufficient Number of the said Commissioners to hold a Meeting within half an Hour after the Time appointed for such Meeting, it shall and may be lawful for any two of the said Commissioners, or the Clerk to the said Commissioners, to adjourn; and that no Order or Orders made, or to be made, by virtue of this or the said Acts, shall be revoked, unless there be seven or more of the said Commissioners present at the revoking of such Order or Orders than were present at the making of the same.

Persons aggrieved
may appeal.

XVI. And whereas the Appeal to the Quarter Sessions for the County of Devon, concerning any Matters within the said Acts greatly obstructs the Execution thereof, and occasions a Waste of the Money raised for the Purposes of the said Acts, as well as much Vexation and Expence to the Land Owners and Inhabitants within the said Borough: And whereas the Appeal to the Quarter Sessions for the Borough of Plymouth concerning the said Matter at present is not sufficiently remedial; be it enacted, That so much of the said Acts as gives a Power of appealing shall be repealed; and that if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves, aggrieved by any Rate hereafter to be made in pursuance of this and the said Acts, such Person or Persons shall be at Liberty to appeal to the next Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held in and for the said Borough (whether originally or by Adjournment), after such Rate shall have been published in the Parish Churches of the said Borough, unless such Court shall be held within twenty-eight Days after such Publication, in which Case the Appeal shall be made to the next Court to be held as aforesaid, after the Expiration of the said twenty-eight Days, such Appellant or Appellants first giving Notice in Writing to the said Commissioners, or their Clerk, of his, her, or their Intention of bringing such Appeal; or if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves, aggrieved by any Thing done or omitted in the Execution of this and the said Acts, for which no particular and effectual Method of Relief is herein or therein appointed, such Person or Persons shall be at Liberty to appeal to the next Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held in and for the said Borough (whether originally or by Adjournment), after such Cause of Appeal shall have arisen, such Appellant or Appellants giving Notice, in Writing, to the said Commissioners, or their Clerk, of his, her, or their Intention of bringing such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof; and the Justices at the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the said Borough, shall have Power to hear and determine the said Appeals in a summary Way, and to order the Assessors to amend the said Rates in like Manner as the said Commissioners may do by virtue of the said first mentioned Act, and as shall be necessary for giving Relief, without quashing the same; and the said Justices shall have Power to award such Costs to the Party or Parties appealing or appealed against as they the said Justices shall think proper; and their Determination in all Appeals touching any Rate, or any Thing whatsoever done, or omitted to be done, under this or the said Acts, shall be binding, final, and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes: And in case any Rate or Thing done, or omitted to be done, under this or the said Acts, shall be unappealed against, after the Time hereby limited for bringing Appeals, such Rate or Thing done, or omitted to be done, shall be deemed legal in every Respect whatsoever; provided that the Justices of the Peace in and for the said Borough for the Time being shall not act as Commissioners for putting this and the said Acts in Execution; any Thing herein or therein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

And that all and every the Clauses, Articles, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things, in the said Acts contained, except such and so many of them as are hereby repealed, altered, or varied by this present Act, shall be, and continue, in as full Force and Effect, as if the same were repeated herein, and shall, to all Intents and Purposes be considered as Parts hereof, and the Whole shall be taken together and construed as one Publick Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whatsoever, without specially pleading the same.

C A P. X.

An Act for reducing the Duty payable upon the Exportation of Gum Senega, granted by an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Gum Senega and Gum Arabic, imported into or exported from Great Britain, and for confining the Exportation of Gum Senega from Africa to Great Britain only.

Preamble.
 Act 5 Geo. 3.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Gum Senega and Gum Arabic, imported into or exported from Great Britain, and for confining the Exportation of Gum Senega from Africa to Great Britain only, a Duty of one Pound ten Shillings was granted upon every Hundred Weight Avoirdupoise of Gum Senega, which should be exported from Great Britain to any Part beyond the Seas: And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the said Duty being so high, has induced illicit Traders to export great Quantities of such Gum privately out of this Kingdom into Foreign Parts, without paying any Duty for the same, and also to export such Gum clandestinely from Senegal, directly to Holland, and other Foreign Parts, contrary to the said recited Act, to the Prejudice of the fair Traders, and to the Loss and Detriment of the publick Revenue; for Remedy whereof, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, the said Duty of one Pound ten Shillings for every Hundred Weight of Gum Senega, granted by the said recited Act, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid; and that, in Lieu and in Stead thereof, there shall be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for every Hundred Weight Avoirdupoise of Gum Senega, which shall be exported from Great Britain to any Parts beyond the Seas, the sum of five Shillings, over and above any other Duty imposed thereon by any former Act of Parliament, and not repealed by this Act, and after those Rates for any greater or less Quantity of such Gum.

After 5 April, 1774, the Duty of 1l. 10s. per Cwt. on Gum Senega to cease; and in lieu thereof 5s. per Cwt. over every other Duty imposed thereon, not repealed by this Act.

The Duty to be collected and applied as by the former Act.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty by this Act granted, shall be raised, levied, collected, and recovered, by the same Rules and Regulations, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and with the like Allowances, for Goods lost at Sea; and shall be paid and applied in such Manner, and to and for the same Purposes, as the Duty by this Act repealed was raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, and applied, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions, relating thereto, were particularly repeated, and again enacted, in this present Act.

No Duty to be charged on Gum Senega exported from Great Britain to Ireland by Licence.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge the Duty hereby granted upon such Gum Senega as shall be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, by Licence from the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, in pursuance of an Act, made in the Sixth Year

Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for explaining Part of an Act, made in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, relating to the Removal for Home Consumption of Spirits made for Exportation; for laying an additional Duty upon the Importation of Silk Crapes and Tiffanics; for allowing the Exportation of a certain Quantity of Gum Senega and Gum Arabic to Ireland, free of Duty, for the Use of the Manufacturers there; for permitting the Importation into this Kingdom from the Isle of Man of a certain Quantity of Bugles; and for altering certain Regulations relating to the Tonnage of Ships exporting and importing Spirits.

C A P. XI.

An Act to allow the Exportation of a limited Quantity of Biscuit and Pease to the Island of Newfoundland, for the Benefit of the British Fishery there.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of Corn, it was, amongst other things, enacted, That whenever the Price of middling British Wheat, at any Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, from whence the same should be intended to be exported, should appear to be at or above the Price of Forty-four Shillings per Quarter, such Price being ascertained in Manner in the said Act mentioned, no Person or Persons whatsoever should, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry, or convey, or cause or procure so to be, out of or from any such Port or Place, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be laden or laid on Board, in any Ship, or other Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of any such Port or Place, any Wheat, Wheat Meal or Flour, or Malt, Bread, Biscuit, or Starch, made of Wheat; and, whenever the Price of middling British Pease should appear at such Port or Place to be at or above the Price of Twenty-eight Shillings per Quarter, no Person or Persons whatsoever should, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry, or convey, or cause so to be, or load or lay on Board, in any Ship or other Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of any such Port or Place, any Pease, ground or unground, or any Bread or Biscuit made of Pease, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act particularly mentioned and inflicted: And whereas it is necessary, at all Times, to export Biscuit and Pease to the Island of Newfoundland, for the Benefit of the British Fishery there; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to ship and export from the Port of Bristol Biscuit and Pease, not exceeding in the whole one hundred and fifty Tons of Biscuit, and three hundred Quarters of Pease, in any one Year; and from the Port of Poole Biscuit and Pease, not exceeding in the Whole two hundred and fifty Tons of Biscuit, and seven hundred Quarters of Pease, in any one Year; and from the Port of Dartmouth Biscuit and Pease, not exceeding in the whole one hundred and fifty Tons of Biscuit, and three hundred Quarters of Pease, in any one Year; and also from the Ports of Topsam and Tingmouth, within the Port of Exeter, Biscuit and Pease, not exceeding in the whole one hundred and fifty Tons of Biscuit, and three hundred Quarters of Pease, in any one Year, to the Island of Newfoundland, for the Benefit of the British Fishery there; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding; so as the Exporter do, before the shipping or laying on Board the same, become bound, with other sufficient Security, in treble the Value thereof, to the Commissioners or Chief Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs belonging to the said Ports of Bristol, Poole, Dartmouth, or Exeter respectively (who hath or have hereby Power to take such Security in his Majesty's Name, and to his Majesty's Use), that such Commodities shall not be landed or sold in any Parts whatsoever other than the said Island of Newfoundland; and that a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs, or if no such, of the Naval Officer, or some other principal Officer there, shall, within the Space of eighteen Calendar Months after the Date of such Bonds (the Danger of the Seas excepted), be returned to the Officers who took the said Bonds, that the said Commodities have been landed in the said Island of Newfoundland; and for the taking of such Security, and for giving such Certificates (which the respective Officers aforesaid are hereby, on Demand, required to give), no Fee or Reward shall be demanded or received: And if any Officer shall make any false Certificate of any such Commodities being so landed, such Officer shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and lose his Employment, and be incapable of serving his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Office relating to the Customs; and if any Person shall counterfeit, raise or falsify, any such Certificate, or knowingly publish any such counterfeit, raised, or false Certificate, he shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and such Certificate shall be void, and of no Effect; which said Penalties for Offences committed in Great Britain or Ireland shall be recovered in the same Courts, and in the same Manner, as the other Penalties inflicted by the said recited Act are recoverable; and for Offences committed in the said Island of Newfoundland, shall be recovered in the High Court of Admiralty, or in any Chief Court of the Civil or Criminal Jurisdiction in the said Island, and shall be divided into equal Moieties between his Majesty and the Informer; and the said Bond or Bonds, if not prosecuted within three Years, shall be void; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when the Exportation of Biscuit and Pease, or either of them, shall, by the said Act, be permitted; then, and in such Case, no such Bond shall be required upon the Exportation to the said Island of Newfoundland, or such of them as shall be so permitted.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That when any Bounty shall be allowed upon the Exportation of the said Commodities, or either of them, the same Bounty shall be allowed upon the Exportation thereof

C A P. XXI.

An Act for more effectually carrying into Execution certain Proposals, made by the most Noble Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the most Noble Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, and others, for redeeming the Annuities granted by the Company of the Bank of Ayr, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, known under the Firm of Douglas, Heron, and Company.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the most Noble Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the most Noble Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, the Right Honourable Patrick Earl of Dumfries, Archibald Douglas of Douglas Esquire, and a considerable Number of other Persons, did, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, enter into a Partnership, and subscribe a Capital or Stock of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, or thereabouts, for carrying on the Business of Banking in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, under the Firm of Douglas, Heron, and Company, with Intention chiefly of improving Manufactures and Agriculture, by accommodating and extending the Credit of the Manufacturers and Farmers of that Part of the Kingdom: And whereas, by too great an Enlargement of the Credit given to the Manufacturers, Farmers, and others, the Partnership did, in June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, come to be in great Want of Money to satisfy the Demands made upon them, owing to the Check given to Credit by the many Bankruptcies that happened at that Time in different Parts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Copartners in the said Company, in order to raise Money to satisfy the Demands upon them, and thereby prevent the Bankruptcy of many, which their stopping Payment would necessarily have occasioned, did raise, on granting Annuities for one and two Lives, the Sum of four hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and upwards, subject to a Power given by the Purchasers of the said Annuities, by verbal Agreement, for the said Copartners to redeem the said Annuities, by repaying the Purchase-money originally given for the said Annuities, and one Half-year's Annuity more, as a Premium for such Power of Redemption: And whereas the said Copartners, in order to extricate their Affairs, and to enable them to redeem their said Annuities, did, at a General Meeting, held on the twelfth Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, resolve to discontinue the said Banking Business, and nominated and appointed the Persons following, being twelve of the Copartners, or any three of them, to be a Committee, with Power to do every Thing necessary for managing and winding up the Affairs of the Partnership that could be done by the Resolutions of a General Meeting: videlicet, The said Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the said Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, Archibald Douglas of Douglas, John Hamilton of Sundrum, Alexander Ferguson of Craigdarroch, Ilay Campbell, David Ferguson, Alexander Wight, John Campbell, Andrew Crosbie, George Home, and Alexander Mackenzie, Esquires: And whereas, at another Meeting of the said Copartners, held on the twenty-first Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, the Persons following were added to the said Committee, videlicet, Thomas Lockhart, Esquire, Commissioner of Excise, and John Syme Writer to the Signet, and any five of the said Committee were declared to be a Quorum, for executing all Business: And whereas the said Committee, after much Consideration of the most proper and effectual Method of redeeming the said Annuities, finding it was impossible to raise any considerable Sum for that Purpose out of the Funds of the Partnership, without bringing great Distress upon their Debtors, and injuring the Credit of that Part of the Kingdom where they chiefly resided, did call a Meeting of the Annuitants together, on the ninth Day of February, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, and deliver to them, in Writing, the following Proposals: First, That his Grace the Duke of Buccleugh, the Duke of Queensberry, Archibald Douglas Esquire, and others, being the present Committee, chosen and appointed by a General Meeting of Proprietors at Edinburgh, to manage the Affairs of the said Messieurs Douglas, Heron, and Company, do execute Bonds of fifty Pounds each, some few broken Sums excepted, to the Amount of the original Sums paid for the said Annuities, with the Addition of half a Year's Purchase, or fifty Pounds more, on every Annuity of one hundred Pounds, and pro rata for every greater or lesser Annuity, the said Committee binding themselves, and their Heirs and Executors, and having a Power to bind all the Partners of the said Company, and their Heirs and Executors, to the due Performance of the Obligations in the said Bonds: Second, That the said Bonds of fifty Pounds each, carrying an Interest of five Pounds per hundred Pounds, be made payable to a Person named, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by Indorsement, and rendered to all Intents and Purposes negotiable and vendable, like East India Bonds, Navy, and Exchequer Bills, or any Effects of a similar Nature: Third, That as the Principal of the said Bonds, the Premium of Redemption included, is estimated nearly at four hundred and eighty thousand Pounds, the Interest at five per Centum thereon is twenty-four thousand Pounds per Annum, it is further proposed, that specifick Estates in Land unentailed in Scotland, to the clear Amount in Rent of thirty-two thousand Pounds per Annum, or upwards, be subjected, by Mortgage, as a corroborative Security for the Discharge of the Principal and Interest of the said Bonds; that is to say, Of the Interest every Half-year in London; and of the Principal by four Installments, videlicet, One fourth Part, as nearly as the Whole may be conveniently divided, at Mid-Summers,

' summer, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight; one fourth Part at Midsummer, one thousand
 ' seven hundred and seventy-nine; one fourth Part at Midsummer, one thousand seven hundred and ' eighty; and the last, whether something more or less than a Fourth, at Midsummer, one thousand seven
 ' hundred and eighty-two: Fourth, That the Care of investigating the Titles and Values of the said
 ' Estates in Lands, and of executing the Securities in due Form, be left to James Montgomery Esquire,
 ' Lord Advocate, and Henry Dundas Esquire, Solicitor General, of Scotland, with the Approbation, and
 ' under the Inspection, of Alexander Wedderburn Esquire, Solicitor General of England, and Joseph
 ' Banks, of Lincoln's Inn, Esquire, upon the recent Precedent of a similar Transaction, when a Loan of
 ' fourscore thousand Pounds was furnished to the said Company on the Security of other landed Estates,
 ' under the Care, and by the Advice, of the same learned Gentlemen: Fifth, That after the said landed
 ' Estates, in the present Instance, to the Amount, in Rent, of thirty-two thousand Pounds per Annum, or
 ' so much thereof as shall be adequate to the Claim of such Annuitants as shall subscribe their Assent to these ' Proposals, shall have been approved of by the said four learned Gentlemen, the Mortgage Deeds, called
 ' Heritable Bonds in Scotland, shall be made out and assigned to Sir William Henry Ashhurst, one of the Judges
 ' of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, the said Lord Advocate and Solicitor General of Scotland, the ' said Alexander Wedderburn Solicitor General of England, Joseph Banks, Richard Glover, and Alexander
 ' Mackenzie, Esquires, or to any other Persons in Scotland or England, in Number more or less, at the ' Election of the Annuitants themselves, for the special Purpose of being Trustees, and holding the said
 ' Estates of thirty-two thousand Pounds clear Rent, in Behalf of the Annuitants, for the full and due Per' formance of the Obligations in the said Bonds, which are to be substituted in lieu of the Annuities by the ' said Committee of Messieurs Douglas, Heron, and Company: Sixth, That in case the said Annuitants,
 ' or any Number of them, shall accept of these Offers, and of the before-named seven Persons as Trustees
 ' for all or such Proportion of the said Mortgages as shall be adequate to the Claim of such Number as shall
 ' subscribe their Assent, it is further provided and earnestly desired, that they will appoint three or five Gen' tlemen, of their own Body, to inspect all the Proceedings relative to this Transaction, and to report the ' same at a publick Meeting to be called by the Inspectors: Seventh, That when, with the Approbation
 ' and Concurrence of the said Inspectors, all the Premises above mentioned shall have passed the regular
 ' Forms, and the Holders of Annuities shall be put in Possession of Bonds to the Amount of seven hundred ' and fifty Pounds for an Annuity of one hundred Pounds on one Life, and eight hundred and fifty Pounds
 ' for an Annuity of one hundred Pounds on two Lives, and pro rata for every greater or lesser Annuity;
 ' and when they shall have received in Money whatever is accrued and due for the Annuities down to the ' Date of the new Bonds; that then the old Bonds and Judgments, or other Securities, by which they ' claimed their said Annuities, shall be given up, and Satisfaction acknowledged on the said Judgments:
 ' Eighth, That in case any of the Annuitants, who shall sign their Assent to these Proposals, should die
 ' before the final Execution of the same, all the Benefit thereof shall remain to their Heirs and Executors,
 ' as fully and effectually as if the original Annuitants were actually alive; but if the said Proposals should ' not be made good, in that Case the present Annuitants shall remain in the same State of Annuitants they
 ' now are: Ninth, That Parliament shall be applied to for an Act, under whose Sanction and Authority
 ' the Bonds may be lawfully issued: And whereas, the Annuitants present at the said Meeting, having ' taken the said Proposals into Consideration, did unanimously agree to the same, and the following Memo' randum was then subscribed by many of the said Annuitants present, and hath since been subscribed by ' many others who were not then present; videlicet, London, Ninth February, one thousand seven hundred ' and seventy-four. We underwritten Purchasers of Annuities from Messieurs Douglas, Heron, and Company,
 ' consent and agree to the within Proposals for the Redemption of the same, and approve of the Trustees named in
 ' the fifth Article; and, in Conformity with the Sixth, appoint Sir Thomas Frankland Baronet, Martin Bladen
 ' Hawke Esquire, George Dempster Esquire, Peregrine Cust Esquire, and Daniel Giles Esquire, to be
 ' our Inspectors over all Proceedings relative to the Execution of the said Proposal: And whereas it would
 ' greatly facilitate the redeeming the said Annuities, and save much Trouble and Expence to the said Co-
 ' partners, if the Committee appointed for settling the Affairs of the said Copartnership, or any five or ' more of them, were enabled to issue Bonds for securing the Payment to the respective Annuitants of the ' principal Money and Interest, according to the said Proposals, or to raise Money thereon for the Redem-
 ' ption of the said Annuities, and to make the said Bonds negotiable by Indorsement thereon; but it being
 ' apprehended that the same cannot be rendered effectual to answer the Intention of the Parties, or the said
 ' Proposals carried into Execution, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament;' may it therefore please
 ' your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with
 ' the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament
 ' assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Henry
 ' Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, Archibald Douglas of Douglas Esquire, John
 ' Hamilton of Sundrum, Alexander Ferguson of Craigdarroch, Ilay Campbell, David Ferguson, Alexander Wight,
 ' John Campbell, Andrew Croftie, George Home, Alexander Mackenzie, Thomas Lockhart, and John Syme, or
 ' any five of them (of which the said Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover,
 ' and Archibald Douglas of Douglas Esquire, or any two of them, or the Survivor of them, shall be three,
 ' two, or one, as the Case may happen), to execute and issue Bonds for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of ' Money, not exceeding in the Whole five hundred thousand Pounds, for redeeming the Annuities so granted
 ' by the Partnership of Douglas, Heron, and Company, as aforesaid, or for raising Money thereon for redeem-
 ' ing the said Annuities, or any Part thereof; each of which said Bonds shall not be for securing less than

The Adventurers may regulate Tunnels in the North West Side of the Rivers Welland and Glen.

XVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Owner or Owners of any Tunnel or Tunnels now laid, or which shall hereafter be laid, through any of the Banks called Deeping Bank, Barston Bank, the Counter Bank, and Gravel Drain Bank, when extended to Swine's Meadow Corner, is, and are hereby required, on or before the thirtieth Day of September in every Year, well and sufficiently to dam, stop, or make up, with Dove-tail or other Piles, all and every such Tunnel and Tunnels already made, or which may hereafter be made, for conveying Water into the said Fens, or any of them: And in case the Owner or Owners of such Tunnel or Tunnels, or his or their Tenant or Tenants, shall refuse or neglect effectually to dam and stop such Tunnel or Tunnels on or before the Time aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Adventurers, their Servants or Agents, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, immediately after the first Day of October in every Year, well and sufficiently to dam, stop, and make up, with Dove-tail or other Piles, in Manner before-mentioned, all and every such Tunnel or Tunnels made, or to be made, for conveying Water into the said Fens, or any of them, as aforesaid, at the Costs and Charges of the Owner or Owners thereof, or his, her, or their Tenant or Tenants, so neglecting to stop and secure the same; and the said Tunnel or Tunnels, when dammed or stopped up as aforesaid, shall so remain till the first Day of May then next following: And in case any such Owner or Owners, Tenant or Tenants, shall refuse or neglect, for the Space of twenty-eight Days, to pay the Expences of the same, after Demand being made by the Agent or Agents of the said Adventurers, it shall then be lawful to and for the said Adventurers, by an Order made at their General Annual Meeting, to take up and entirely remove the said Tunnel or Tunnels, and to sell so much of the Materials thereof as will defray the Expences attending the taking up and removing the same:

And whereas by the said Act of the twenty-second of King Charles the Second, the Adventurers are restrained from holding their publick annual Meetings for assessing and raising the Acre Tax at any Time in the Year except on the Thursday next after the second Sunday in April, and it would be more convenient to many of the said Adventurers if their annual Meetings were to be holden for the future upon the last Thursday in April; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said Act as directs the said Adventurers to meet on the Thursday next after the second Sunday in April, in every Year, shall be, and is hereby repealed; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Adventurers, or any three or more of them, to meet at the Town of Spalding, for the Purpose of assessing and raising the Acre Tax as aforesaid, directed to be assessed and raised by virtue of the said Act, upon the last Thursday in April in every Year, and on no other Day; any Thing contained in the said Act of the twenty-second Year of King Charles the Second to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

XIX. And whereas the Time fixed by the said last-mentioned Act for Payment of the Rates or Taxes directed to be paid for draining the said Fens is too late in the Year for completing the Works necessary to be done in that Year for which such Rates or Taxes are raised, and it would be greatly for the Benefit of the Adventurers if the Money to be raised by the said Rates or Taxes was raised and paid at two separate Payments; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act the Rates or Taxes directed to be laid and raised by all or any of the said former Acts, and by this present Act, for the Purpose of draining and improving the said Fen Lands, shall be laid and made as herein-after directed, and not otherwise; (that is to say), All such Rates and Taxes as shall be laid on the said taxable Lands in the said Fens, at the annual Meetings of the said Adventurers, which shall be held for that Purpose on the said last Thursday in April, in every Year, at the Town of Spalding, shall be paid by the respective Owners of the said Lands or Grounds to the Treasurer, or Deputy Treasurer, or Receiver, to the said Adventurers for the Time being, by two equal Payments, on the twenty-second Day of May, and the eleventh Day of November, in every Year; the first Payment whereof shall be made on the twenty-second Day of May next after the Day on which such Rates and Taxes are laid; and in case the said Owners or Proprietors

Proprietors shall neglect or refuse to pay the same on the respective Days or Times before limited for Payment thereof, or within ten Days after, every such Person so neglecting or refusing shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, and the said taxable Lands to the like Seizures and Sequestrations as they are severally subject and liable to by any former Act or Acts.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be employed by the said Adventurers in the Care, Direction, Execution, or Management, of the said Works, or any of them, shall, at any Meeting (if required), give in his Accounts upon Oath touching all Money received and expended by him, in, about, or concerning such Works (which Oath the said Adventurers, or any three of them, are hereby empowered to administer); and that the said Adventurers may displace any such Person or Persons, if they shall then judge proper.

Every Person shall account upon Oath for the Money received, &c. if thereunto required.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Charges and Expences incurred in relation to the obtaining and passing this Act shall be paid, borne, and defrayed, by the said Adventurers out of any Money now in their Hands, or which shall hereafter come to their Hands by virtue or in pursuance of any former Act or Acts, or of this Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any Thing done in pursuance of the said former Acts, or of this Act, and for which no particular Method of Relief hath been already appointed, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace, at their next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the Division or District in the said County where such Cause of Complaint or Dispute shall arise or happen; or in case the Cause of Complaint shall arise within twenty-one Days next before such General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, then to the second General Quarter Sessions to be held for the said Division or District; such Appellant first giving, or causing to be given, twenty-one Days Notice at the least, in Writing, of his or her Intention to bring such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the said Adventurers, or their Agent, and within four Days after such Notice entering into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace for the said Division or District, with two sufficient Sureties conditioned to try such Appeal, and abide by the Order of, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded by the Justices at the said Quarter Sessions to be held for the said Division or District; and the said Justices, at the said Sessions, upon due Proof of such Notice being given, and of the entering into such Recognizance as aforesaid, shall hear and finally determine the Causes and Matters of such Appeal in a summary Way, and award such Costs to the Parties appealing or appealed against as they the said Justices shall think proper; and the Determination of such Quarter Sessions shall be final, binding, and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Sessions.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against the said Adventurers, or any Person or Persons, for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, until twenty-one Days Notice shall be thereof given to such Person or Persons, or to the said Adventurers or their Agents, or after sufficient Satisfaction, or a Tender thereof hath been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed; and every such Action or Suit shall be laid or brought in the said County of Lincoln, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants, in every such Action or Suit, shall and may plead the General Issue, Not guilty, and give this Act, and the special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the same shall appear to be so done, or that such Action or Suit shall be brought before twenty-one Days Notice shall be thereof given as aforesaid, or after a sufficient Satisfaction made or tendered as aforesaid, or after the Time limited for bringing the same as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other County than as aforesaid, that then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and, upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit; or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then the Defendant or Defendants shall recover treble Costs, and have such Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in any other Cases by Law; nor shall any Person or Persons who secreted and lodged: And if, upon Search, any of the said working Tools, Wool, Yarn, Chain, Woolf, or Abb, or any Cloth with the List, Forrel, or other Marks, taken off, cut, or picked out, shall be found, the said Constable or Constables, Peace Officer or Peace Officers, shall seize the same, and apprehend the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession the same shall be found, and bring him, her, or them, before the same, or some other of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Division, Liberty, or Place aforesaid; and unless such Person or Persons, in whose Custody the same shall be found, can give a good Account how he, she, or they, came by the same, to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices; then, and in such Case, such Person or Persons shall be thereof convicted, and suffer such Punishment as is herein-before directed to be inflicted on Persons not returning the Tools or Materials as aforesaid; and all such Tools, Wool, Yarn, Chain, Woolf, or Abb, or such Cloth as aforesaid, so seized, and not accounted for as aforesaid, shall, upon such Conviction, be delivered over to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish where the same were seized, to be by them sold; and the Monies arising by such Sale, after defraying the Expences of such Sale, shall be applied to the Use of the Poor of the said Parish.

C A P. XXXII.

An Act to enable the Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland to increase the Capital Stock of the said Company.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, (intituled, An Act for erecting a Bank in Scotland;) a Joint Stock, amounting to the Sum of twelve hundred thousand Pounds Scots Money, was allowed to be raised by the Company thereby established for carrying on and managing a publick Bank, and certain Persons, therein mentioned, were authorized to appoint a Book for receiving the Subscriptions of such Persons as were willing to become Adventurers in the said Joint Stock: And by the said Act it was declared, That one thousand Pounds Scots should be the lowest, and twenty thousand Pounds Scots the highest Sum, which any one Person should be allowed to subscribe; and, by the said Act it was also declared, That all and every the Persons, subscribing and paying to the said Stock as aforesaid, should be one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland, under which Name they should have perpetual Succession, and should have a Common Seal; and by the said Act it was directed, That within three Months after the aforesaid Subscriptions should be ended, the Persons in the ‘ said Act named, or any two of them, should appoint a certain Day, and make due Intimation of the ‘ same, that such and so many of the Adventurers, and none other, as should each of them have sub‘ scribed for one thousand Pounds, or upwards, in the said Book, of the Joint Stock, might elect and ‘ chuse, by a Majority of Votes which were to be given, one Vote for every one thousand Pound Share

 ‘ of the Stock, a fit Person of the Subscribers who had subscribed for himself at least for eight thousand ‘ Pounds to be Governor of the said Bank; and another fit Person of the Subscribers, who should have ‘ subscribed for himself at least for six thousand Pounds; to be Deputy Governor of the said Bank; and ‘ also twenty-four other fit Persons, who should have subscribed, each of them for himself, at least
 ‘ for three thousand Pounds in the said Joint Stock, to be Directors of the said Bank; and certain other ‘ Rules and Regulations were thereby prescribed for the better managing and ordering the Affairs of the ‘ said Bank; and, in pursuance of the aforesaid Act, the said Bank was soon after established, and has ever ‘ since continued: And whereas the said Bank has proved a national Advantage, and it would greatly tend
 ‘ to the Advancement of Commerce, and be otherwise highly beneficial and expedient, that the Capital ‘ Stock of the said Bank should be increased, so as such new or increased Stock, together with the ori‘ ginal Stock of the said Bank, shall not exceed in the Whole the Sum of twenty-four hundred thou‘ sand Pounds Scots Money, or two hundred thousand Pounds Sterling; may it therefore please Your ‘ Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with ‘ the Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled,
 ‘ and by the Authority of the same, That within one Month after the passing of this Act, or as soon
 ‘ after as may be, the Court of ordinary Directors of the said Bank shall appoint a Book to be opened,
 ‘ and kept at the Office of the said Bank of Scotland, for receiving Subscriptions for an additional Capital or ‘ Joint Stock, to the Extent of twelve hundred thousand Pounds Scots, or one hundred thousand Pounds
 ‘ Sterling Money, and no more; in which Book, every Person or Persons possessed of a Share or Shares of
 ‘ the present Capital Stock of the said Bank of Scotland, shall be intitled to subscribe for as much of the ‘ said new or additional Stock, as he, she, or they, shall be possessed of, of the old or original Stock, at the ‘ Time of his, her, or their subscribing, and no more; or for a lesser Number of Shares thereof, if such Per‘ son or Persons shall so think proper.

‘ II. And, in order that no Person or Persons possessed of Stock in the said Bank of Scotland may be ‘ deprived of the Benefit hereby intended them, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be ‘ in the Power of every Proprietor of the present Capital Stock of the said Company, by a Writing under ‘ his, her, or their Hands, to authorise any other Person he, she, or they, shall think proper, to subscribe
 ‘ for him, her, or them; and the Subscription of the Person so authorised shall be equally effectual, as if ‘ the Proprietor, who gives such Authority, had subscribed with his or her own Hand.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Privilege and Preference of subscribing to the new or addi‘ tional Stock hereby given to the Proprietors of the present Capital Stock of the said Bank, shall be limited
 ‘ to six Months from the Time of opening the Subscription Book above mentioned; and after the Expi‘ ration of the said Term, in case any Share or Shares of the said new or additional Stock shall not have ‘ been subscribed for, the said Subscription Book shall be shut, and a General Meeting of the Proprietors ‘ called, upon such Notice as a Court of ordinary Directors think fit; at which Meeting the Share or ‘ Shares not subscribed for, shall be sold to the highest Bidder, provided such Bidder be a Proprietor of the ‘ present Capital Stock of the said Bank, or be authorised and empowered to purchase for a Person who is a ‘ Proprietor of the said Capital Stock, by a Writing under his, her, or their Hands: And provided also,
 ‘ That the Shares so purchased, when added to the Shares already held or subscribed for by the Person or ‘ Persons by whom, or for whose Use and Benefit the said new Shares are purchased, do not, in the Whole, ‘ exceed forty Shares, each Share being always one thousand Pounds Scots, of the said Capital Stock.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Premium or Gain be received upon or by the said ‘ Sale or Sales, the same shall be applied for the Benefit of the Governor and Company of the Bank of ‘ Scotland; and that no Proprietor shall hold more than twenty Shares of the Old Stock, or more than Forty ‘ Shares of the Old and New together.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Share or Shares of the New Stock shall not be sold at the ‘ said General Meeting of Proprietors, then, and in that Case, the Subscription Book shall be immediately
 ‘ again opened, and it shall be in the Power of any Person, who is not already a Proprietor, to subscribe
 ‘ to the Extent of forty Shares; but it shall only be in the Power of a Person, who is already a Proprietor,
 ‘ to subscribe for such a Number of Shares as, joined to those he, she, or they, already hold or stand ‘ bound for, do not exceed forty Shares as aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That each and every Proprietor of New Stock shall receive Dividends
 ‘ upon the Money he, she, or they, shall have paid in upon his, her, or their Subscription, in the same ‘ Proportion as the Proprietors of Old Stock receive Dividends upon their Shares; that is to say, if a Pro‘ prietor of New Stock has paid in one-tenth of his Subscription, he shall receive one-tenth of the Sum ‘ which a Proprietor of the same Quantity of Old Stock receives as a Dividend, and so on.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Subscriber of New Stock shall be intitled to draw any Part ‘ of a Dividend, either upon his Old or New Stock, until he has paid his Proportion of any Call of Stock
 ‘ that has been ordered by a Majority of a General Meeting of Proprietors; and each Subscriber of New ‘ Stock failing to pay his Proportion of such Call, shall be charged with the legal Interest upon it until
 ‘ the same be paid, and shall have no Vote at Elections or General Meetings while the same remains ‘ unpaid.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, That a Certificate, under the Hand of the Accomptant of the said
 ‘ Bank, certifying that a Call or Calls has not been paid by any of the Persons who have subscribed them‘ selves to the said New Stock, or by any of the Persons for whom any other Person, empowered as afore-
 ‘ said, has subscribed to the said Stock, shall, when-produced with this Act to the Court of Session, be a Qualification of Governor, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That after the additional Capital has been completed by Subscriptions or Purchases, as above directed, no Proprietor shall be elected Governor, unless he has, upon the Original and New Stock together, paid in the Sum of sixteen thousand Pounds Scots; nor Deputy Governor, unless he has, upon the Original and New Stock together, paid in twelve thousand Pounds Scots; nor Director, unless he has upon the Original and New Stock together, paid in six thousand Pounds Scots.

Qualification of Voters.

X. And be it further enacted, That after the said additional Capital has been completed by Subscriptions or Purchases, as above directed, no Proprietor shall be intitled to give his Vote in Election of a Governor, Deputy Governor, or Directors, or in any Question, in any General Meeting, who is not possessed of two thousand Pounds Scots of Old or New Stock, or Old and New Stock together, and who has not actually paid in the said two thousand Pounds: And that every Proprietor shall have a Vote for each two thousand Pounds which he has actually paid in: Provided always, That no Proprietor shall ever be intitled to more than twenty Votes.

After May 15, 1774, Six-tenths of the additional Capital subscribed for to be paid within three Years.

XI. And it is hereby provided and declared, That Six-tenths of the additional Capital to be subscribed for or purchased, in Manner above mentioned, shall be actually paid in by the Subscribers or Purchasers within the Space of three Years from and after the fifteenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, and that by such Proportions, and at such Times, within the said three Years, as shall be ordered by a Majority of a General Meeting or Meetings of Proprietors; and that the remaining Four-tenths shall be paid in at such Times, and by such Proportions, as shall be ordered by a Majority of a General Meeting or Meetings of Proprietors: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent a Majority of a General Meeting or Meetings of Proprietors to call for the Whole, or any Part of the additional Capital, at such Time or Times, within the said Period of three Years, from and after the said fifteenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, as to them shall seem proper.

Proprietors, after the Capital is completed, may pay the Whole of their Subscriptions before May 15, 1775.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be in the Power of every such Subscriber or Subscribers, Purchaser or Purchasers, after the said Capital has been completed, as above directed, to pay in the Whole, but not a Part of the Sum, he, she, or they, has or have subscribed or purchased, although the same shall not have been called for by a General Meeting, provided that such Payment be made by him, her, or them, between and the fifteenth Day of May, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five; and, upon such Payment being so made, with the legal Interest of the same, from the Day of the yearly balancing of the Bank's Books, immediately preceding the Payment, he, she, or they, making such Payment, shall be intitled to a Share of the Profits accruing to the Bank, and be subject to a Share of the Losses that may arise to it, from and after the aforesaid yearly Balancing, immediately preceding such Payment, in Proportion to the Share or Shares so subscribed for and paid in by him, her, or them; and he, she, or they, shall thereupon be intitled to Votes in the Proportions before mentioned; and he shall be intitled to be elected Governor, Deputy Governor, or Director, if the Sums paid in by him be of the Extent above required to qualify him for these Offices.

Manner of choosing Governor, Dep. Governor, &c.

XIII. And whereas the said Act of the Scotch Parliament, made in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, has not been sufficiently explicit in laying down a particular Mode of electing the Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, to be annually chosen; and it has been the Practice for the Proprietors to send signed Lists to the Directors of the Persons they intended to vote for, and for the Directors to report to a subsequent General Meeting the Persons chosen by the Majority: And whereas, instead of choosing twenty-four Directors, in Terms of the aforesaid Act, it has been the Practice, in consequence of a Resolution of a General Meeting of the Proprietors, held on the twelfth Day of June, one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, to chuse twelve ordinary Directors, and twelve extraordinary Directors, which last only give their Assistance on certain Occasions; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Time to come, a General Meeting of the Proprietors shall be held annually, on the last Tuesday of March, for the Purpose of choosing a Governor, Deputy Governor, twelve ordinary, and twelve extraordinary Directors; and that every Proprietor, present at that General Meeting, shall give in to the Governor, or Deputy Governor, or such of the Directors for the preceding Year as are then present, a List, containing the Names of the Persons for whom he or she means to vote into these respective Offices.

How Intimation of annual Meetings is to be given for Election of Governor, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That regular Intimation shall be made in the News-papers, called The Edinburgh Evening Courant, and Caledonian Mercury, of the Day upon which the Annual General Meeting for the Election of the Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, is to be held, at least thirty Days before such annual General Meeting.

Proprietors may send Lists of Persons they intend for Offices.

XV. And, in order that those Proprietors who cannot attend personally may not be deprived of the Right to vote in such Election, be it also hereby further enacted, That all such Proprietors shall be allowed to send Lists of the Persons whom they mean to vote into the said respective Offices, which List, if holograph, of the Proprietor or Proprietors by whom they are sent, or signed by such Proprietor or Proprietors before two or more credible Witnesses, and addressed to the Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors of the Bank of Scotland, shall be equally effectual as if the Signers of them were personally present: And the Lists being so given in, the Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, of the preceding Year, or such of them as are present, shall immediately proceed to investigate the Lists in Presence of the Meeting; and shall report, to that Meeting, the Names of the Persons who appear to be elected, by the Majority of Votes, into the said respective Offices of Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, ordinary and extraordinary.

An Act to enable the Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of his Majesty's Exchequer, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to compound certain Debts due to his Majesty, and affecting the Estates heretofore of Charles Mason Esquire, deceased, in the Counties of Montgomery and Salop; and, upon Payment of such Composition, to discharge and exonerate the said Estates therefrom.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears by the general Certificate of his Majesty's Imprests, that Charles Mason Esquire, late Treasurer of the Transport Service, on the Foot of his final Account of that Service to the nineteenth of April, one thousand seven hundred and eight, was indebted to the Crown the Sum of three thousand one hundred and twenty Pounds, twelve Shillings and Three-pence: And whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made and pronounced on or about the ninth Day of December, in the twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, in a Cause between Sir Bybye Lake Baronet, Son, Heir, and Executor, of Thomas Lake Esquire, then deceased, Plaintiff, and Charles Mason Esquire, Thomas Paine, Joseph Newell, and George Newell, Defendants; and also in a cross Cause between the said Charles Mason Plaintiff, and Sir Bybye Lake Baronet, Thomas Paine, Joseph Newell, George Newell, Charles Turner, Sherrard, the then Attorney General of the said Queen, William Poultney, and Arthur Lake, Defendants; after stating therein (amongst other Things) certain Mortgages and Securities, whereby all the Estates of the said Charles Mason were conveyed and made over to the said Thomas Lake, and others, his Trustees for securing unto the said Thomas Lake several large Sums of Money therein mentioned, and then due to the said Sir Bybye Lake, as his Executor; and also stating that the said Joseph and George Newell, being indebted to her said Majesty, an Extent issued out of the Court of Exchequer against them, and that, by an Inquisition taken thereon, the said Charles Mason was found to be indebted to the said Joseph and George Newell in the Sums of three thousand five hundred Pounds, and four thousand Pounds, being so much Money paid and expended by them for the Use of the said Charles Mason, and those Debts were seized into her said Majesty's Hands; it was, amongst other Things, ordered and decreed, That Master Browning, one of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, should take an Account of what was due to the said Sir Bybye Lake for principal Money and Interest on the several Mortgages and Sums of Money therein mentioned, and what upon such Account should be found due, together with the Costs of the said Suits, from the Time of the said Hearing of the said Causes, was to be satisfied by a Sale of a competent Part of the said Charles Mason's Estates in the said Counties of Montgomery or Salop; but in case such Sale could not be had within a Year, the said Sir Bybye Lake was to be at Liberty to apply to the Court touching the Foreclosure prayed by his Bill; and it was further ordered, that the said Master should take an Account of all Dealings and Transactions between the said Mason and the Defendants the Newells, and what, upon such Account, should appear to be due to the said Mason, including what he should pay on the said Mortgages to the said Lake, the said Mason was to come in as a Creditor with the rest of the Creditors of the said Newells; but if, upon the said Account, the said Mason should appear to be indebted to the said Newells, then what he the said Mason should be so found indebted should be raised, after Satisfaction of the Monies due to the said Lake, by a Sale of a further Part of the said Mason's Estates in the said Counties of Montgomery and Salop; and the Money, when raised, was to be paid towards Satisfaction of the Debt due from the said Newells to the Crown: And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Arthur, late Earl of Powis, deceased, Father of the present Earl, not long before his Decease, presented a Memorial to the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, thereby stating, amongst other Things, That he had then lately purchased great Part of the said mortgaged Premises; but though the same, by reason of the great Amount of the said prior Incumbrances, would not be sufficient to answer any Part of the said Debt to the Crown, yet so long as the said Debt continued a Charge on the said Estates, it would be such an Objection to the Title as would prevent the Memorialist from settling or making Sale of any Part thereof, and therefore the said Memorialist prayed to be permitted to compound the said Claim of the Crown: And whereas the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury referred the said Memorial to the Solicitor of the Treasury to consider the same, and to report to their Lordships a State of the Case, with his Opinion thereon; and Thomas Nutball Esquire, the Solicitor of the Treasury, by his Report, bearing Date the twenty-fourth Day of November, in the

Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy two, certified, amongst other Things, to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, That, by the Master's Report in the aforesaid Cause, dated the twenty-sixth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy, it appeared there was then due to Bybye Lake Esquire, the legal Representative of the said Sir Bybye Lake Baronet, on his said Mortgages on the said Mason's Estate in Montgomery and Shropshire, for Principal, Interest, and Costs, thirty-eight thousand four hundred and twenty-one Pounds two Shillings and Four-pence; and which, by the said Report, was appointed to be paid to the said Bybye Lake on the fourth Day of July then next ensuing, and which it was represented to the said Solicitor had not been paid; and the said Solicitor further certified to the said Lords Commissioners, That it also appeared, by an Account of the Receiver of the said mortgaged Premises passed in the Court of Chancery for one Year, ending at Lady-day one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, that the yearly Value of the said mortgaged Premises in Montgomery and Shropshire is only one thousand one hundred and four Pounds fifteen Shillings and Ten-pence; he therefore submitted to the said Lords Commissioners Consideration, that, under the Circumstances of the Case, and particularly in regard to the said mortgaged Premises, if sold, would not sell for nearly the Sum reported due to the said Bybye Lake on the twenty-sixth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy, the Claim the Crown has thereon, under the said Decree in one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, could never be satisfied; and therefore the said Solicitor was of Opinion, that if their Lordships should think fit, they might properly consent to the said Estates being discharged from the Debt due to the Crown; but as it appeared, from the Decree and Proceedings in the said Cause in Chancery, that the Solicitor of the Taxes had had the sole Management of the Crown's Interest in this Matter, he submitted it to their Lordships, whether it would not be proper to direct the Matter to be laid before the Solicitor of the Tax Office, who, from the Papers in his Custody, could exactly ascertain what the Crown Debt really amounted to, and who would be better able to advise their Lordships whether any, and what, Composition ought to be paid: And whereas the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury referred the said Report of the said Solicitor of the Treasury to Henry Wilmot Esquire, the Solicitor of the Tax Office, who, by his Report, dated the second Day of July, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, did certify to the said Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury (amongst other Things), That it appeared to him, by the Books at the Tax Office, that so long ago as the Year one thousand seven hundred and seven, or one thousand seven hundred and eight, George Dixon, the then Receiver for the County of Somerset, failed, indebted to her late Majesty Queen Anne in the Sum of twenty-two thousand four hundred and twenty-two Pounds and six Shillings, which, by the said Books, appeared to be still due; and that the before-mentioned Newells were the Securities for the said Dixon; and it also appeared to him, by the Answer of the Attorney General, as stated in the before-mentioned Decree of one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, that an Extent issued against the said Newells, and upon an Inquisition taken thereon upon the thirteenth Day of December, in the sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, Charles Mason was found to be indebted to the said Newells in the several Sums of three thousand five hundred Pounds, and four thousand Pounds, being so much paid by them for the Use of the said Mason, which Debts were seized into her Majesty's Hands; and the said Solicitor of the Taxes did further certify to their Lordships, That the Facts stated in the Report of the said Solicitor of the Treasury, with regard to the Debt due to the aforesaid Master Lake therein mentioned, and with regard to the annual Value of the said mortgaged Premises, are truly stated; wherefore the said Solicitor of the Taxes was of Opinion, That the Interest of the Mortgage to the said Master Lake (whose Debt was prior to that of the Crown), greatly exceeded the whole Income of the mortgaged Estate, and, of consequence, that the said Master Lake's Debt did annually increase; and that he was also of Opinion, That the Debt due to the said Master Lake much exceeded the intrinsic Value of the mortgaged Estate; and the said Solicitor of the Taxes did further inform their said Lordships, That Lord Clive, having, for a small Sum of Money, obtained a Conveyance of the Equity of Redemption of the said mortgaged Premises from the Heir at Law of the said Charles Mason, redeemed Lord Catherlough, the Assignee of the said Master Lake the Mortgagee, afterwards sold to, or exchanged with, the Petitioner, the Earl of Powis, the said mortgaged Premises, or some considerable Part thereof; but that, as the Conveyance obtained by the said Lord Clive from the Heir at Law of Mason, could not bar the Crown, therefore it was of Consequence to the Petitioner the Earl of Powis and to Lord Clive (if any Part of the mortgaged Estate remained in him), to get rid of the Debt due to the Crown, to establish their respective Titles to the said mortgaged Premises; and that, upon the Whole, as the Debt due to the said Master Lake appeared to him greatly to exceed the real Value of the said mortgaged Estate, and as that Debt would always be prior to that of the Crown, and might be set up by the Earl of Powis and Lord Clive against the Crown Debt; and as the Rents of the said Estate would not nearly pay the Interest of that Debt, which consequently would annually increase; and as it would not, in the said Solicitor's Opinion, be at all advisable for the Crown to redeem the said Mortgage; he thought it might be proper for their Lordships to permit the Petitioner, the said Earl of Powis, to apply to Parliament, to enable their Lordships to compound the Debt due to the Crown, and after such Act should be obtained, their Lordships might compound the said Debt at such Sum of Money, as, under all the Circumstances of the Case, their Lordships should think reasonable; but he was of Opinion their Lordships could not compound the same without the Aid of Parliament: And whereas the said Henry Arthur, Earl of Powis, is dead, leaving the Right Honourable George Edward Henry Arthur, now Earl of Powis, his only Son and Heir, who is an Infant, and the Right Honourable Barbara Countess Dowager of Powis, the Mother, and one of the Guardians, appointed by the Will of the said Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, of the said George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, the Infant, hath, since the Decease of the said late Earl, her Husband, applied to the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury in Behalf of her said Son, to compound the said Debt to the Crown, affecting the said Estates late of the said Charles Mason, which

Lord High Treasurer may compound with the Earl of Powis, &c. for a Debt due by Charles Mason to the Crown.

‘ the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty’s Treasury are willing (as it is reasonable) so to do, if enabled thereunto by an Act of Parliament:’ Wherefore, your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subject, the said Barbara Countess Dowager of Powis, for and in Behalf of the said George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, her said Infant Son, doth most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of his Majesty’s Exchequer now being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, or any three or more of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of his Majesty’s Exchequer for the Time being, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered to make an Agreement, and compound with the said George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Guardian or Guardians, Heirs or Assigns, for the Payment of such Sum of Money, by him the said George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Guardian or Guardians, Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in lieu and full Satisfaction of the Debt, Sum or Sums of Money herein-before mentioned to be due from the said Charles Mason, deceased, to the Crown, as Treasurer of the Transport Service, as aforesaid, and from the said Charles Mason, to her said late Majesty Queen Anne, or from the said Charles Mason to the said Joseph and George Newells, Debtor to the said Queen, as aforesaid; and, by the aforesaid Decree of the ninth Day of December, in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, directed to be raised and paid, and which is now due and owing to his Majesty; and also of all Sum and Sums of Money now due, or hereafter to grow or become due, to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for or on Account, or by Reason or Means, of the said Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, as to them the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of his Majesty’s Exchequer, or the Lord High Treasurer, as aforesaid, shall seem meet and reasonable, and by his or their Warrant or Warrants to direct the said George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Guardian or Guardians, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to pay into the Receipt of his Majesty’s Exchequer such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be so agreed for and compounded as aforesaid, and, upon such Payment, entirely to acquit, exonerate, and discharge the said George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, heretofore the Estate of the said Charles Mason, deceased, in the Counties of Salop and Montgomery, or either of them, of and from all Claims and Demands for and on account of the said Debts to due to the Crown, or to his Majesty, as aforesaid.

After Payment of Money so compounded for, Earl of Powis, &c. released of Charles Mason’s Debts to the Crown.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after Payment shall be made into the Receipt of his Majesty’s Exchequer of such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be so agreed for and compounded as aforesaid, the said George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, and all and every the Manors, Messuages, Farms, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, and Hereditaments, which were the Estates of the aforesaid Charles Mason, deceased, in the said Counties of Salop and Montgomery, and comprised in the said Mortgage, as aforesaid, shall be freed, acquitted, released, exempted, exonerated, and discharged of, from, and against, the Payment of the said Debts herein-before mentioned to be due from the said Charles Mason to the Crown, and from the said Charles Mason to her said late Majesty Queen Anne, or from the said Charles Mason to the said Joseph and George Newells, Debtors to the said Queen, as aforesaid; and which, by the aforesaid Decree of the ninth Day of December, in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, was directed to be raised and paid, as aforesaid; and also of, from, and against, all Sum and Sums of Money now due, and hereafter to grow or become due, to the Crown, or to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for, or on account, or by occasion or means, of the said Debts, in any Manner howsoever; and also of, from, and against, all Inquisitions, Extents, Executions, Claims, and Demands whatsoever, of his said Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for, on account, or in respect of, the same Debts, or any Part thereof, in any-wise howsoever.

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of his present Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the general Laws now in being for regulating the Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for other Purposes; so far as the same relates to the continuing and granting an additional Term of five Years to Acts made for amending Turnpike Roads.

Preamble.
Act 23 Geo. 2.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second (intituled, An Act to amend an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Amendment and Preservation of the Publick Highways and Turnpike Roads of this Kingdom; and for the more effectual Execution of the Laws relating thereto), it was, amongst other Things, enacted, for the Encouragement of Broad Wheels, that all Carriages having the Fellies of the Wheels of the Breadth of nine Inches, should pass through all Turnpike-gates without paying any Toll, for three Years: And whereas, in order to make Recompence to the Creditors upon the Tolls of such Gates, for any Diminution of Toll that might arise by such Exemption, it was further enacted, That every Act of Parliament, made in that Session, or theretofore, for repairing and amending Turnpike Roads, should be continued for five Years, to be computed from the Expiration of every such Act, subject to the Tolls, Duties, Penalties, Forfeitures, Remedies, Powers,

Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Rules, Directions, Payments, and Provisions, by such Acts respectively made and enacted: And whereas by one other Act, made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the general Laws now in being for regulating the Turnpike Roads of this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned), the said Act of the twenty-eighth Year of his late Majesty, except so much thereof as continue the Acts then made for repairing and amending Turnpike Roads, subject to the Tolls and Duties by such Acts respectively granted, was repealed: And whereas by one other Act, made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the general Laws now in being for regulating the Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England; and for other Purposes), the said Act of the Seventh Year of his present Majesty, except so much thereof as repealed the several Acts therein mentioned, was also repealed: And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether the said last-mentioned Act, made in the thirteenth Year of his present Majesty, by repealing the said Act of the seventh Year of his present Majesty, in the Manner aforesaid, hath not virtually repealed that Part of the Act of the twenty-eighth Year of his late Majesty, which continued the said Turnpike Acts for five Years; in order therefore to obviate all such Doubts, and to enforce the said Provision for continuing the said Turnpike Acts, as contained in the said Act of the twenty-eighth Year of his late Majesty's Reign; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Provision made by the said Act of the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, for continuing the several Acts, made for repairing and amending Turnpike Roads for five Years, shall be and continue in full Force, and be as effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as the same could, might, or ought to have been, if the said Acts of the seventh and thirteenth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, had not been made; any Thing in those Acts, or in either of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, who hath or have received, or shall hereafter receive, any Tolls, or other Duties, at any Turnpike or Toll-gate; or who hath acted, or shall hereafter act, in any other respect under the Authority of, and in Execution of any of the Powers of any Act or Acts of Parliament so continued, or intended to be continued, by the said recited Act of the Twenty-eighth Year of his late Majesty, shall be, and is and are hereby indemnified for what he, she, or they have so received or done, or for what he or they shall receive, or do by virtue thereof.

Persons who have or shall receive Tolls at any Turnpike by the aforesaid Act indemnified, &c.

C A P. XXXIX.

An Act for the impartial Administration of Justice in the Cases of Persons questioned for any Acts done by them in the Execution of the Law, or for the Suppression of Riots and Tumults, in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New England.

WHEREAS in his Majesty's Province of Massachusetts Bay, in New England, an Attempt hath lately been made to throw off the Authority of the Parliament of Great Britain over the said Province, and an actual and avowed Resistance, by open Force, to the Execution of certain Acts of Parliament, hath been suffered to take place, uncontroled and unpunished, in Defiance of his Majesty's Authority, and to the utter Subversion of all lawful Government: And whereas, in the present disordered State of the said Province, it is of the utmost Importance to the general Welfare thereof, and to the Re-establishment of lawful Authority throughout the same, that neither the Magistrates acting in Support of the Laws, nor any of his Majesty's Subjects aiding and assisting them therein, or in the Suppression of Riots and Tumults, raised in Opposition to the Execution of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, should be discouraged from the proper Discharge of their Duty, by an Apprehension, that in case of their being questioned for any Acts done therein, they may be liable to be brought to Trial for the same before Persons who do not acknowledge the Validity of the Laws, in the Execution whereof, or the Authority of the Magistrate in the Support of whom, such Acts had been done: In order therefore to remove every such Discouragement from the Minds of his Majesty's Subjects, and to induce them, upon all proper Occasions, to exert themselves in Support of the public Peace of the Province, and of the Authority of the King and Parliament of Great Britain over the same; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Inquisition or Indictment shall be found, or if any Appeal shall be sued or preferred against any Person, for Murder, or other capital Offence, in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, Governor to bind in Recognizances to his Majesty all Witnesses the Prosecutor shall desire to attend the Trial, &c. And shall appoint a reasonable Sum for the Expences of every Witness, which the Collectors of the Customs are to pay. Witnesses to be free from all Arrests during their Journey to any Colony, &c. Persons brought before Justices, &c. accused of any capital Crime in the Execution of their Duty, to be admitted to Bail.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and other Justices and Coroners, before whom any Person shall be brought, charged with Murder, or other capital Crime, where it shall appear by Proof, on Oath, to such Justices or Coroners, that the Fact was committed by such Person, either in the Execution of his Duty as a Magistrate, for the Suppression of Riots, or in the Support of the Laws of Revenue, or in acting in his Duty as an Officer of Revenue, or in acting under the Direction and Order of any Magistrate, for the Suppression of Riots, or for the carrying into Effect the Laws of Revenue, or in aiding and assisting in any of the Cases aforesaid, are hereby authorized and required to admit every such Person so brought before him or them, as aforesaid, to Bail; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where it shall be made appear to the Judges or Justices of any Court, within the said Province of Massachusetts Bay, by any Person, against whom any Inquisition or Indictment shall be found, or Appeal sued or preferred for Murder, or other capital Crime, that the Fact was committed by such Person, either in the Execution of his Duty as a Magistrate, for the Suppression of Riots, or in the Support of the Laws of Revenue, or in acting in his Duty as an Officer of Revenue, or in acting under the Direction and Order of any Magistrate, for the Suppression of Riots, or for the carrying into Effect the Laws of Revenue, or in aiding and assisting in any of the Cases aforesaid, and that he intends to make Application to the Governor, or Lieutenant-governor of the said Province, that such Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, may be tried in some other of his Majesty's Colonies, or in Great Britain, the said Judges or Justices are hereby authorized and required to adjourn or postpone the Trial of such Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, for a reasonable Time, and admit the Person to Bail, in order that he may make Application to the Governor, or Lieutenant-governor, for the Purpose aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Governor, or, in his Absence, the Lieutenant-governor, if he shall direct the Trial to be had in any other of his Majesty's Colonies, shall transmit the Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, together with the Recognizances of the Witnesses, and other Recognizances, under the Seal of the Province, to the Governor, or Lieutenant-governor, or Commander in Chief of such

Where Persons are found to have committed Crimes, and desire to be tried in another Colony, Justices to postpone their Trial, &c.

If the Governor directs the Trial to be in any other Colony, he is to transmit the such other Colony, who shall immediately issue a Commission of Oyer and Terminer, and deliver, or cause to be delivered, the said Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, with the said Recognizances, to the Chief Justice, and such other Persons as have usually been Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, Justices of Assize, or General Gaol Delivery there; who shall have Power to proceed upon the said Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, as if the same had been returned, found, or preferred before them; and the Trial shall thereupon proceed in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Offence had been committed in such Place: And in case the Governor, or, in his Absence, the Lieutenant-governor, shall direct the Trial to be had in Great Britain, he shall then transmit the Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, together with the Recognizances of the Witnesses, and other Recognizances, under the Seal of the Province, to one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, who shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, the same, to the Master of the Crown Office, to be filed of Record in the Court of King's Bench, and the Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, shall be tried and proceeded upon, in the next Term, or at such other Time as the Court shall appoint, at the Bar of the Court of King's Bench, in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Offence had been committed in the County of Middlesex, or in any other County of that Part of Great Britain called England where the Court of King's Bench shall sit, or else before such Commissioners, and in such County, in that Part of Great Britain called England, as shall be assigned by the King's Majesty's Commission, in like Manner and Form, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Offence had been committed in the same County where such Inquisition, Indictment, or Appeal, shall be so tried.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case, on account of any Error or Defect in any Indictment, which, in virtue or under the Authority of this Act, shall be transmitted to any other Colony, or to Great Britain, the same shall be quashed, or Judgment thereon arrested, or such Indictment adjudged bad upon Demurrer, it shall and may be lawful to prefer a new Indictment or Indictments against the Person or Persons accused in the said Colony, to which such Indictment, so quashed or adjudged bad, shall have been transmitted, or before the Grand Jury of any County in Great Britain, in case such former Indictment shall have been transmitted to Great Britain, in the same Manner as could be done in case the Party accused should return to the Place where the Offence was committed; and the Grand Jury and Petty Jury of such other Colony or County in Great Britain shall have Power to find and proceed upon such Indictment or Indictments, in the same Manner as if the Offence, by such Indictment or Indictments charged, had been committed within the Limits of the Colony or County for which such Juries shall respectively be impanelled to serve.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, and every Clause, Provision, Regulation, Matter, and Thing, herein contained, shall commence and take Effect upon the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four; and be, and continue in Force, for and during the Term of three Years.

C A P. XLV.

An Act for the better regulating the Government of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New England.

Preamble, reciting Letters Patent of 3 Gul. & Maria.

WHEREAS by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England, made in the third Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, for uniting, erecting, and incorporating, the several Colonies, Territories, and Tracts of Land therein mentioned, into one real Province, by the Name of Their Majesties Province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New England; whereby it was, amongst other Things, ordained and established, That the Governor of the said Province should, from thenceforth, be appointed and commissioned by their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors: It was, however, granted and ordained, That, from the Expiration of the Term for and during which the eight and twenty Persons named in the said Letters Patent were appointed to be the first Counsellors or Assistants to the Governor of the said Province for the Time being, the aforesaid Number of eight and twenty Counsellors or Assistants should yearly, once in every Year, for ever thereafter, be, by the General Court or Assembly, newly chosen: And whereas the said Method of electing such Counsellors or Assistants, to be vested with the several Powers, Authorities, and Privileges, therein mentioned, although conformable to the Practice theretofore used in such of the Colonies thereby united, in which the Appointment of the respective Governors had been vested in the General Courts or Assemblies of the said Colonies, hath, by repeated Experience, been found to be extremely ill adapted to the Plan of Government established in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, by the said Letters Patent hereinbefore mentioned, and hath been so far from contributing to the Attainment of the good Ends and Purposes thereby intended, and to the promoting of the internal Welfare, Peace, and good Government, of the said Province, or to the Maintenance of the just Subordination to, and Conformity with, the Laws of Great Britain, that the Manner of exercising the Powers, Authorities, and Privileges aforesaid, by the Persons so annually elected, hath, for some Time past, been such as had the most manifest Tendency to obstruct, and, in great Measure, defeat, the Execution of the Laws; to weaken the Attachment of his Majesty's well-disposed Subjects in the said Province to his Majesty's Government, and to encourage the ill-disposed among them to proceed even to Acts of direct Resistance to, and Defiance of, his Majesty's Authority: And it hath accordingly happened, that an open Resistance to the Execution of the Laws hath actually taken place in the Town of Boston, and the Neighbourhood thereof, within the said Province: And whereas it is, under these Circumstances, become absolutely necessary, in order to the Preservation of the Peace and good Order of the said Province, the Protection of his Majesty's well-disposed Subjects therein resident, the Continuance of the mutual Benefits arising from the Commerce and Correspondence between this Kingdom and the said Province, and the maintaining of the just Dependence of the said Province upon the Crown and Parliament of Great Britain, that the said Method of annually electing the Counsellors or Assistants of the said Province should no longer be suffered to continue, but that the Appointment of the said Counsellors or Assistants should henceforth be put upon the like Footing as is established in such other of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, the Governors whereof are appointed by his Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal of Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, so much of the Charter, granted by their Majesties King William and Queen Mary to the Inhabitants of the said Province of the Massachusetts Bay, in New England, and all and every Clause, Matter, and Thing, therein contained, which relates to the Time and Manner of electing the Assistants or Counsellors for the said Province, be revoked, and is hereby revoked and made void and of none Effect; and that the Offices of all Counsellors and Assistants, elected and appointed in pursuance thereof, shall from thenceforth cease and determine: And that, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, the Council, or Court of Assistants of the said Province for the Time being, shall be composed of such of the Inhabitants or Proprietors of Lands within the same as shall be thereunto nominated and appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, by Warrant under his or their Signet or Sign Manual, and with the Advice of the Privy Council, agreeable to the Practice now used in respect to the Appointment of Counsellors in such of his Majesty's other Colonies in America, the Governors whereof are appointed by Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain: Provided that the Number of the said Assistants or Counsellors shall not, at any one Time, exceed Thirty-six, nor be less than Twelve.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the said Assistants or Counsellors, so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall hold their Offices respectively, for and during the Pleasure of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; and shall have and enjoy all the Powers, Privileges, and Immunities, at present held, exercised, and enjoyed, by the Assistants or Counsellors of the said Province, constituted and elected, from Time to Time, under the said Charter (except as herein-after excepted); and shall also, upon their Admission into the said Council, and before they enter upon the Execution of their Offices respectively, take the Oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe, the Declarations required, as well by the said Charter as by any Law or Laws of the said Province now in Force, to be taken by the Assistants or Counsellors who have been so elected and constituted as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Governor for the Time being of the said Province, or, in his Absence, for the Lieutenant-governor, to nominate and appoint, under the Seal of the Province, from Time to Time, and also to remove, without the Consent of the Council, all Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, the Attorney General, Provofts, Marshals, Justices of the Peace, and other Officers to the Council or Courts of Justice belonging; and that all Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, the Attorney General, Provofts, Marshals, Justices, and other Officers so appointed by the Governor, or, in his Absence, by the Lieutenant-governor alone, shall and may have, hold, and exercise, their said Offices, Powers, and Authorities, as fully and completely, to all Intents and Purposes, as any Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, Attorney General, Provofts, Marshals, or other Officers, have or might have done heretofore under the said Letters Patent, in the third Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to annul or make void the Commission granted before the said first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, to any Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, the Attorney General, Provofts, Marshals, Justices of the Peace, or other Officers; but that they may hold and exercise the same, as if this Act had never been made, until the same shall be determined by Death, Removal by the Governor, or other Avoidance, as the Case may happen.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Governor, or, in his Absence, for the Lieutenant-governor for the Time being of the said Province, from Time to Time, to nominate and appoint the Sheriffs without the Consent of the Council, and to remove such Sheriffs with such Consent, and not otherwise.

After Aug. 31 1774, the said Letters Patent to be void.

Council how to be composed.

Powers of the said Counsellors.

The Governor to appoint and remove Judges, Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, &c.

Nothing herein contained to annul the Commission granted before July 1774.

Governor to appoint Sheriffs without the Consent of Council.

VI. And

On a Vacancy of the Office of Chief Justice, &c. the Governor may appoint the Successors.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, upon every Vacancy of the Offices of Chief Justice and Judges of the Superior Court of the said Province, from and after the said first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, the Governor for the Time being, or, in his Absence, the Lieutenant-governor, without the Consent of the Council, shall have full Power and Authority to nominate and appoint the Persons to succeed to the said Offices, who shall hold their Commissions during the Pleasure of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that neither the Chief Justice and Judges appointed before the said first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, nor those who shall hereafter be appointed pursuant to this Act, shall be removed, unless by the Order of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, under his or their Sign Manual.

No Meeting to be called without the Consent of the Governor.

VII. And whereas, by several Acts of the General Court, which have been from Time to Time enacted and passed within the said Province, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the several Townships, Districts, and Precincts, qualified, as is therein expressed, are authorized to assemble together, annually, or occasionally, upon Notice given, in such Manner as the said Acts direct, for the Choice of Select Men, Constables, and other Officers, and for the making and agreeing upon such necessary Rules, Orders, and Bye-laws, for the directing, managing, and ordering, the prudential Affairs of such Townships, Districts, and Precincts, and for other Purposes: And whereas a great Abuse has been made of the Power of calling such Meetings, and the Inhabitants have, contrary to the Design of their Institution, been misled to treat upon Matters of the most general Concern, and to pass many dangerous and unwarrantable Resolves: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, no Meeting shall be called by the Select Men, or at the Request of any Number of Freeholders of any Township, District, or Precinct, without the Leave of the Governor, or, in his Absence, of the Lieutenant-governor, in Writing, expressing the special Business of the said Meeting, first had and obtained, except the annual Meeting in the Months of March or May, for the Choice of Select Men, Constables, and other Officers, or except for the Choice of Persons to fill up the Offices aforesaid, on the Death or Removal of any of the Persons first elected to such Offices, and also, except any Meeting for the Election of a Representative or Representatives in the General Court; and that no other Matter shall be treated of at such Meetings, except the Election of their aforesaid Officers or Representatives, nor at any other Meeting, except the Business expressed in the Leave given by the Governor, or, in his Absence, by the Lieutenant-governor.

Jurors to be summoned by the Sheriffs only.

VIII. And whereas the Method at present used in the Province of Massachusetts Bay, in America, of electing Persons to serve on Grand Juries, and other Juries, by the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the several Towns, affords Occasion for many evil Practices, and tends to pervert the free and impartial Administration of Justice: For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the respective Times appointed for the holding of the General Sessions of the Peace in the several Counties within the said Province, next after the Month of September, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, the Jurors to serve at the Superior Courts of Judicature, Courts of Assize, General Gaol Delivery, General Sessions of the Peace, and inferior Court of Common Pleas, in the several Counties within the said Province, shall not be elected, nominated, or appointed, by the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the several Towns within the said respective Counties, nor summoned or returned by the Constables of the said Towns; but that, from thenceforth, the Jurors to serve at the Superior Courts of Judicature, Courts of Assize, General Gaol Delivery, General Sessions of the Peace, and inferior Court of Common Pleas, within the said Province, shall be summoned and returned by the Sheriffs of the respective Counties within the said Province; and all Writs of Venire Facias, or other Process or Warrants to be issued for the Return of Jurors to serve at the said Courts, shall be directed to the Sheriffs of the said Counties respectively, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

When a Sheriff shall be a Party, Writs for Trial to be executed by the Coroner.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whenever the Sheriff of any County shall happen to be a Party, or interested or related to any Party or Person interested in any Prosecution or Suit depending in any of the said Courts; that then, in such Case, the Writ of Venire Facias, or other Process or Warrant for the Summoning and Return of a Jury, for the Trial of such Prosecution or Suit, shall be directed to, and executed by, the Coroner of such County; and in case such Coroner shall be also a Party, or interested in, or related to, any Party or Person interested in such Prosecution or Suit, then the Venire Facias, or other Process or Warrant, for the Summoning and Return of a Jury for the Trial of such Prosecution or Suit shall be directed to, and executed by, a proper and indifferent Person, to be appointed for that Purpose by the Court wherein such Prosecution or Suit shall be depending.

Constables to deliver in Lists to the Justices of the Names of Persons within the respective Towns;

X. And that all Sheriffs may be the better informed of Persons qualified to serve on Juries at the Superior Courts of Judicature, Courts of Assize, General Gaol Delivery, General Sessions of the Peace, and inferior Court of Common Pleas, within the said Province, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Constables of the respective Towns, within the several Counties of the said Province, shall, at the General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for each County, next after the Month of September in every Year, upon the first Day of the said Sessions, return and deliver to the Justices of the Peace, in open Court, a true List, in Writing, of the Names and Places of Abode of all Persons within the respective Towns for which they serve, or the Districts thereof, qualified to serve upon Juries, with their Titles and Additions, between the Age of one and twenty Years and the Age of Seventy Years; which said Justices, or any Two of them, at the said Sessions in the respective Counties, shall cause to be delivered a Duplicate of the aforesaid Lists, by the Clerk of the Peace of every County, to the Sheriffs, or their Deputies, within Ten Days after such Sessions; and cause each of the said Lists to be fairly entered into a Book, by the Clerk of the Peace, to be by him provided, and kept for that Purpose amongst the Records of the said Court; and no Sheriff shall impanel or return any Person or Persons to serve which are to be entered in Books by the Clerks.

and, by virtue of the aforesaid Commission or Commissions, might likewise set down and appoint the Extents, Bounds, and Limits, of every Port, Haven, or Creek, within his Majesty's Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, whereby the Extents, Limits, and Privileges, of every Port, Haven, or Creek, might be ascertained and known; and that it should not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to lade or put, or cause to be laden or put, off or from any Quay, Wharf, or other Place, on the Land, into any Ship, Vessel, Lighter, Boat, or Bottom, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise whatsoever (Fish taken by his Majesty's Subjects, Sea Coal, Stone, and Bestials, only excepted), to be transported into any Place of the Parts beyond the Seas, or carried by Land into the Realm of Scotland, or to take up, discharge, or lay on Land, or cause or procure to be taken up, discharged, or laid on Land, out of any Boat, Lighter, Ship, Vessel, or Bottom (being not in Leak or Wreck), any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise whatsoever (Fish taken by his Majesty's Subjects, Bestials, and Salt, only excepted), to be brought from any of the Parts beyond the Seas, or by Land from the Realm of Scotland, by way of Merchandise, but only upon such open Place, Quay, or Wharf, Places, Quays, or Wharfs, as his Majesty should, from Time to Time, assign and appoint, by virtue of such Commission and Commissions as aforesaid, in his Majesty's Port of London, and the Members and Liberties thereof, and in any Port, Place, Member, or Creek, within his Majesty's Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, without special Sufferance and Leave first had from the Commissioners and Officers of his Majesty's Customs, upon the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, as by the last recited Act, relation being thereunto had, it doth and may, amongst other Things therein contained, more fully appear: And whereas, since the passing of the said recited Acts, the Trade and Commerce of the Port of Kingston upon Hull are greatly increased, and it is highly expedient, for the Security and Improvement of the publick Revenue, and for the Advantage of Commerce, that lawful Quays should be established at the said Port, for the shipping and landing of Goods and Merchandise imported there, and exported from thence, in such Manner as is herein-after expressed; which, by reason of the Exception in the said before-recited Acts, cannot be done without the Interposition of Parliament; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, by his and their Commission or Commissions out of the Court of Exchequer in England, to assign and appoint such open Places, Quays, or Wharfs, at Kingston upon Hull, on the West Side of the Harbour, and on the Walls adjoining the Town's Ditches, to be lawful open Places, Quays, and Wharfs, for the landing and discharging, lading and shipping, of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, exported to, or imported from, foreign Parts, and to set down, appoint, and settle, the Extents, Bounds, Metes, and Limits thereof, subject nevertheless to such Provisions and Regulations as are herein-after in that Behalf expressed or declared; and that it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to lade or put, or cause to be laden or put, off or from any Quay, Wharf, or other Place, on the Land within the said Port of Kingston upon Hull, into any Ship, Vessel, Lighter, Boat, or Bottom, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise whatsoever (except Fish taken by his Majesty's Subjects, Sea Coal, Stone, and Bestials), to be transported into any Place beyond the Seas, or to take up, discharge, or lay on Land, or cause or procure to be taken up; discharged, or laid on Land, out of any Boat, Lighter, Ship, Vessel, or Bottom (being not in Leak or Wreck), any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise whatsoever (Fish taken by his Majesty's Subjects, Bestials, and Salt, only excepted), to be brought from any of the Parts beyond the Seas, by way of Merchandise, but only upon such open Place, Quay, or Wharf, Places, Quays, or Wharfs, as his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, from Time to Time, assign and appoint, by virtue of such Commission and Commissions as aforesaid, at Kingston upon Hull, on the West Side of the Harbour, and on the Walls adjoining the Town's Ditches, or off, from, or upon, such Quays or Wharfs as shall be built and provided in pursuance of this Act, in Manner herein-after mentioned, without special Sufferance or Leave first had from the Commissioners or Officers of his Majesty's Customs, upon the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, so laden or discharged, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, or the Value thereof; H. And, for a due and sufficient Encouragement to any Person or Persons who shall discover any Method or Methods for finding the said Longitude, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the first Author or Authors, Discoverer or Discoverers, of each and every such Method or Methods, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be intitled to, and have the Rewards or Sums of Money herein-after mentioned; that is to say, In case the Method proposed shall be, by Means of a Time-keeper, the Principles whereof have not hitherto been made publick, to the Reward or Sum of five thousand Pounds, if such Method determines the said Longitude to one Degree of a great Circle, or sixty geographical Miles; to the Reward or Sum of seven thousand five hundred Pounds, if it determines the same to Two-thirds of that Distance; and to the Reward or Sum of ten thousand Pounds, if it determines the same to one Half of the said Distance: Which respective Rewards shall be due and paid when such Method shall have been sufficiently tried by the following Experiments and Voyages to be made and performed by such Persons, and under such Restrictions, as the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude at Sea, respectively constituted by the above-recited Acts, or the major Part of them, shall think fit to appoint and direct; (that is to say) When and so soon as two or more Time-keepers, of the same Construction,

Sums, as Rewards, given to Authors, struction, shall have been tried at the same Time, for the Space of twelve Months, at the Royal Observatory at Greenwich, then in two Voyages round the Island of Great Britain, in contrary Directions, and in such other Voyages to different Climates as the said Commissioners shall think fit to direct and appoint; and after their Return from such Voyages, or any of them, for such longer Time, at the said Observatory, not exceeding twelve Months, as the said Commissioners shall judge necessary; and also when and so soon as the said Commissioners, or two-thirds of them, at the least, shall, after such Experiments and Voyages have been made and performed as aforesaid, have declared and determined that such Method is generally practicable and useful, and sufficiently exact to determine the Longitude at Sea within the Degrees or Limits aforesaid, in all Voyages for the Space of six Months (Impediments from cloudy and hazy Weather excepted); and also when and so soon as the Principles and Practice of such Method are fully discovered and explained to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or two-thirds of them at least; and such Author or Authors, Discoverer or Discoverers, shall have delivered up and assigned over to the said Commissioners, for the Use of the Publick, the absolute Property of such Time-keepers as shall have been tried by such Experiments and Voyages as aforesaid, together with all Places, Descriptions, Theories, and Explanations, belonging or relating to the same, and which shall contain the Whole of such Discovery of the Longitude; and in case the Method proposed shall be by Means of improved Solar and Lunar Tables; then, and in such Case, the Author or Authors of such improved Solar and Lunar Tables, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be intitled to and have the Reward or Sum of five thousand Pounds, if such Solar and Lunar Tables shall prove sufficiently exact to shew the Distance of the Moon from the Sun and Stars in the Heavens, within fifteen Seconds of a Degree, answering to about seven Minutes of Longitude, after making an Allowance of half a Degree for the Errors of Observation; and when it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or two-thirds of them, at least, that such Tables are constructed entirely upon the Principles of Gravitation laid down by Sir Isaac Newton, (except with respect to those Elements which must necessarily be taken from astronomical Observations), and also when the Truth of such Tables shall have been further confirmed and proved by Comparison with a Series of astronomical Observations made during a Period of eighteen Years and a Half, which is deemed the Period of the Irregularities of the Lunar Motions; which Reward shall be due and paid, when the said Commissioners, or two-thirds of them, at least, shall have declared and determined, that such Tables are sufficiently exact, to shew the Distance of the Moon from the Sun and Stars in the Heavens, within the Limits above mentioned; and also when the Author or Authors of such improved Solar and Lunar Tables, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall have delivered up, and assigned over to the said Commissioners, for the Use of the Publick, the absolute Right and Property to and in the same, together with the Theory relating thereunto; and in case any other Method shall be proposed for finding the Longitude at Sea besides those before mentioned, that then, and in such Case, the first Author or Authors, Discoverer or Discoverers, of any such Method, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be intitled to and have the Reward or Sum of five thousand Pounds, if it shall determine the said Longitude within one Degree of a great Circle, or sixty geographical Miles; to the Reward or Sum of seven thousand five hundred Pounds, if it shall determine the same to Two-thirds of that Distance; and to the Reward or Sum of ten thousand Pounds, if it shall determine the same to one Half of the same Distance; which respective Rewards shall be due and paid, so soon as the said Commissioners, or Two-thirds of them, at least, shall, after proper Trial has been made by their Appointment and Direction, have determined that such Method shall be generally practicable and useful for finding the Longitude at Sea within the respective Limits above mentioned.

when to be paid.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so soon as any such Method or Methods, for the Discovery of the said Longitude, shall be tried, as before mentioned, and found practicable and useful at Sea, and sufficiently exact to determine the Longitude within any of the Degrees or Limits aforesaid, the said Commissioners, or Two-thirds of them, shall certify the same, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons who shall be the Author or Authors of such Method or Methods; and upon the Receipt of such Certificate, the said Commissioners of the Navy are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treasurer of the Navy, for the respective Sum or Sums of Money to which the Author or Authors of such Proposals, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be intitled by virtue of this Act; which Sum or Sums the said Treasurer is hereby required to pay to the said Author or Authors, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns accordingly, out of any Money that may be in Hands unapplied to the Use of the Navy, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Treasurer of the Navy to pay the Sums, or Rewards, to the Author.

IV. And whereas the several Sums of Money granted by the above now-recited Acts, towards making Experiments of Proposals for discovering the Longitude at Sea, and for improving the Lunar Tables, and making other Discoveries or Improvements useful to Navigation, are, by reason of the several Payments made by the Treasurer of the Navy, pursuant to the Directions of the said Acts, not only expended, but, moreover, several Debts have been incurred, and are now growing due for Services tending to the Benefit of Navigation, and, more particularly, for defraying the Expence of the two Observers who have been sent out to make nautical and astronomical Observations in the Southern Hemisphere: And whereas it is highly necessary that the said Debts should be discharged, and that ingenious Persons should be encouraged to make further Discoveries and Improvements useful to Navigation; be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the above mentioned Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude at Sea shall and may certify the Amount of such Debts, together with the Names of the Persons to whom the same shall be respectively due, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners of the Navy, who are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treasurer of the Navy for such Sum or Sums of Money as may be necessary for discharging the said Debts; which Sum or Sums of Money the said Treasurer is hereby required to pay to the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be respectively due, out of any Money which shall be in his the said Treasurer's Hands unapplied as aforesaid.

Commissioners of Longitude to certify Debts incurred by former Acts to the Commissioners of the Navy

They are also to receive Proposals for discovering the Longitude, and certify the same, with the Names of the Authors, to the Commissioners of the Navy.

Persons making useful Discoveries, to receive less Rewards, agreeable to the Judgment of the Commissioners.

The Sums payable by the Treasurers of the Navy not to exceed 5000 l.

No Person to receive more for Discoveries than the greatest Sum hereby provided.

The Commissioners to administer an Oath for carrying the Act into Execution.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude at Sea, or any five or more of them, shall have full Power and Authority to hear and receive any Proposal or Proposals that shall be made to them for discovering the said Longitude, or for making any other useful Improvement in Navigation; and in case the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall be so far satisfied of the Probability of any such Discovery or Improvement as to think it proper to cause Experiments to be made thereof, they shall certify the same, together with the Names of the Author or Authors of such Proposal or Proposals, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners of the Navy, who are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treasurer of the Navy for any such Sum or Sums of Money as the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude at Sea, or any five or more of them, shall think necessary for making such Experiments; which Sum or Sums the Treasurer of the Navy is hereby required to pay immediately to such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by the said Commissioners to make those Experiments out of any Money which shall be in his the said Treasurer's Hands unapplied as aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall make any Discovery for finding the Longitude at Sea, which, though not of so great Use as to be intitled to any of the great Rewards above specified, shall nevertheless be adjudged by the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude at Sea, or the major Part of them, to be of considerable Use to the Publick, or shall make any other Discovery or Discoveries, Improvement or Improvements, useful to Navigation; then, and in such Case, such Person or Persons, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall, from Time to Time, have and receive such less Reward or Sum or Sums of Money as the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall think reasonable; and certify accordingly, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners of the Navy, who are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treasurer of the Navy for any such Sum or Sums of Money which the said Treasurer is hereby authorized and required to pay immediately to such Person or Persons, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, out of any Money that shall be in his the said Treasurer's Hands unapplied as aforesaid.

VII. Provided always, That all such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy by virtue hereof, as well for the Purpose of discharging the several Debts which have been incurred, and are now growing due for Services tending to the Benefit of Navigation, as of making such Experiments as aforesaid, and of rewarding, in a lesser Degree, lesser Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, and also other Discoveries and Improvements useful to Navigation, do not altogether exceed the Sum of five thousand Pounds: And also provided, That in case any such Reward, or Sums of Money, to be given for any of those Purposes shall not exceed the Sum of one thousand Pounds, that then, and in such Case, it shall and may be certified to the Commissioners of the Navy as aforesaid, under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude, or any five or more of them; but if it shall exceed the Sum of one thousand Pounds, that then it shall be certified by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them.

VIII. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons who shall and may have received any Sum or Sums of Money, by virtue of this Act, as a Reward for any Method of discovering the Longitude at Sea, shall afterwards become intitled to any of the greater Rewards appointed by this Act, for or on account of the same Method; that then, and in such Case, such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall or may have received as aforesaid, shall be considered as Part of such greater Reward, and deducted therefrom accordingly; and that no Person shall receive more in the Whole for any one Method for discovering the Longitude at Sea than the greatest Reward appointed for such Method by this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude at Sea, or the major Part of them, and they are hereby authorized and impowered, for their better Satisfaction, if they see Occasion, to administer an Oath or Oaths to such Person or Persons as they shall think proper, for the Purposes of carrying this Act into Execution; which Oath or Oaths it shall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of the said Commissioners to administer accordingly; and in case any such Person or Persons shall wilfully swear falsely and untruly, every such Person shall be liable to, and suffer the Pains and Penalties inflicted by the several Statutes made, and now in Force, against wilful Perjury.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested, or prosecuted, for any Thing done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, in his or their Defence or Defences; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall discontinue his or their Action or Actions, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him, her, or them, on Demurrer, or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him, her, or them, against any such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

XLIII. And whereas, under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expences and Trouble in attending every Session and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of the Act, to oppose the Discharge of Prisoners clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after having been before one Session heard, and refused a Discharge, to harass their Creditors, constantly gave fresh Notices for each subsequent Session and Adjournment of their intended Application to be discharged; to remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases whatever, the Determination of the Justices in Session, or Adjournment, shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Prisoner shall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objection or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and, that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Prisoner's Discharge is refused by them; and, in all Cases whatever, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at any subsequent Session, or Adjournment, upon Application from the Prisoner, upon due Proof on Oath made to them by two or more credible Witnesses (and which Oath they are hereby impowered to administer), of each Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served, at least ten Days previous to such Application on the Creditor or Creditors who before opposed his Discharge, and of Notice likewise inserted in the Gazette, in Manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them, and if they shall then be of Opinion the said Prisoner is intitled to the Benefit of this Act, to order him to be discharged, he taking the Oath, and in all other Respects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

XLVI. And whereas many Persons, who may take the Benefit of this Act, have been great Dealers, or otherwise engaged in large Transactions, whereby they may be intitled to sundry and great Debts and Demands, of various and intricate Natures, and they may be intitled to Equities of Redemption of Estates, subject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments, or other Incumbrances, or to Reversions, Remainders, or other contingent Estates in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to other Trusts or Interests in Estates, both Real and Personal, which may not be sufficiently described or discovered in the Schedule or Inventory before directed to be delivered in upon Oath, as aforesaid, or which may want his Aid or Assistance to adjust, make out, recover, or manage, for the Benefit of the Creditors; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners who shall obtain his, her, or their Discharge, in pursuance of this Act, or any other Person or Persons, duly authorised by them for that Purpose, from Time to Time, to apply to any two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, where such Person or Persons shall be then residing, thereby desiring that such Person or Persons may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his, her, or their Estate or Effects; whereupon such Justices shall send for, or call before them, such Person or Persons, by such Warrant, Summons, Ways, or Means, as they shall think fit; and, upon such Person's appearing, shall examine him, her, or them, as well upon Oath as otherwise, as to such Matters and Things, as such Assignee shall desire, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Person or Persons; and if any Person or Persons (on Payment, or Tender of Payment, of such reasonable Charges as such Justices shall judge sufficient), shall neglect or refuse to come and appear, not having a lawful Excuse, to be made known to such Justices, and by them allowed, or, being come before them, shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer to all such Questions as by such Justices shall be put to him, her, or them, relating to the Discovery of his, her, or their Estate or Effects so vested, or intended to be vested, in such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or in such Assignees as aforesaid, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to apprehend such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, and him, her, or them, to commit to the common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until such Time as he, she, or they, shall submit him, her, or themselves, to such Justices, and answer upon Oath to all such lawful Questions as shall, by such Justices, be put to him, her, or them, for the Purposes aforesaid.

Assignees may apply for further Examination of Prisoner, touching the Discovery of his Effects, &c.

Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithstanding the Discharge of any Prisoner or Prisoners by virtue of this Act, if it shall hereafter appear the same was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any such Prisoner was not true; then, and in every such Case, every such Discharge shall be void and of none Effect.

Discharge obtained fraudulently, void.

XLIX. And, for the better Discovery of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons who shall have accepted of any Trust or Trusts, and shall wilfully conceal or protect any Estate, Real or Personal, of any such Prisoner from his Creditors, and shall not, within thirty Days after any Assignee or Assignees shall, in pursuance of this Act, be chose of any such Prisoner's Estate, discover and disclose to such Assignee or Assignees such Trust and Estate, in Writing, and deliver up or make over the same to such Assignee or Assignees, he, she, or they, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, and also double the Value of the Estate, either Real or Personal, so concealed, to and for the Use of the Creditors of any such Prisoner; to be recovered by Action of Debt, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Name or Names of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner's Estate, together with Treble Costs of Suit.

Persons concealing any Estate or Effects of the Prisoner, forfeit 100l. and Double Value, with Treble Costs of Suit.

L. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful, at all Times hereafter, for any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any Prisoner or Prisoners, who shall be chose in pursuance of this Act, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of such Prisoner or Prisoners Creditors, who shall be present at a Meeting to be held on twenty-one Days publick Notice being previously given for the Purpose hereafter mentioned in the London Gazette, if the Prisoner was in Custody in London, or within the weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then also in some News-paper which shall be published in the County, City, or Place, in or near which any such Person shall have been in Gaol, to make Composition with any Person or Persons, Debtors, or Accountants, to such Prisoner or Prisoners, where the same shall appear necessary or reasonable; and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debt as can, upon such Composition, be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts, and also to submit any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees and any Person or Persons, for or on account, or by reason or means of any Matter, Cause, or Thing, relating to such Prisoner or Prisoners Estate or Effects, or to any Debt or Debts due, or claimed to be due, to or from such Prisoner or Prisoners to the final End and Determination of Arbitrators, to be chosen by the said Assignee or Assignees, and the major Part in Value of such Creditors, and the Party or Parties with whom they shall have no Difference,

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum of twenty-three thousand six hundred and thirty-seven Pounds eleven Shillings and Ten-pence three Farthings, remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer, on the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, of the two-seventh Parts of the additional Rates and Duties of Excise, granted by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, after satisfying the several Charges and Incumbrances thereupon for the Half Year then ended, be carried to and made Part of the Fund commonly called The Aggregate Fund; and that such Annuities and other Demands payable out of the said Sum, as the growing Produce of the two-seventh Parts of the said Excise shall not be sufficient to answer, shall be charged upon, and payable out of the said Fund, commonly called The Aggregate Fund; and the Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are or is hereby impowered to authorise the Payment out of the said Fund of such Monies as shall be necessary to make good any such Deficiency or Deficiencies.

XXXI. And whereas, by an Act passed in the tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament); it is enacted, That there should be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding seventy-two thousand Pounds, for paying and discharging the Debts claimed and sustained upon the Lands and Estates which became forfeited to the Crown, by the Attainder of George late Earl of Cromarty, and others: And whereas for the better and more easy paying and discharging the Debts of Creditors upon the Lands and Estates of Cromarty, and others, they were thereby directed and required, on or before the fifth Day of July, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy, to produce, or cause to be produced, in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, the Decree or Decrees of the Court of Session, sustaining the said Claims; and upon producing the same, the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer were thereby impowered and required to make out Debentures or Certificates for the several Sums of Money and Interest, which should appear to be due by and under the said Decrees respectively, upon the Receiver General of his Majesty's Land Rents, and Casualties, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and that the said Claim or Claims should not carry any further Interest, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy: And whereas Lady Anne Mackenzie, Sister to George late Earl of Cromarty, entered a Claim upon the Estate of Cromarty, for the Sum of five hundred Pounds, contained in a Bond to her from the said late Earl, with the legal Interest, from the Term of Whitsunday, one thousand seven hundred and forty-four, which Interest she was intituled to receive at two Terms in the Year, in which Bond there was this Condition, "That in case she should die unmarried, the said Sum of five hundred Pounds should return to the said late Earl, and his Heirs, succeeding to him in his Estate of Cromarty, in the same Manner as if the said Bond had not been made to her:" And whereas by a Decree of the Court of Session the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-six, she was found a just and lawful Creditor of the said George late Earl of Cromarty, for the principal Sum of five hundred Pounds, and Interest, from Whitsunday one thousand seven hundred and forty-five, and in Time coming, till Payment, according to the Condition of the Bond: And whereas the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, on account of the Condition in the said Bond, did not think themselves authorised to order the said Lady Anne Mackenzie Payment of the said Sum of five hundred Pounds out of the seventy-two thousand Pounds voted by Parliament, for paying the Debts upon the forfeited Estates, she still remaining unmarried: And whereas the said Lady Anne Mackenzie, by the said Decree, is intituled to receive the Interest of the said Sum of five hundred Pounds yearly, at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum: And whereas it may be a Doubt whether the said Interest ought to be paid out of the Rents of the Estate of Cromarty, since the Annexation thereof: And whereas the said Sum of five hundred Pounds is lying in the Hands of the Receiver-General, without Interest, by which Means the said Lady Anne Mackenzie may be exposed to great Difficulties and Distress; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and they are hereby impowered and required to make out the Debenture or Certificate, under their Hands, to the Receiver-General of his Majesty's Land Rents and Casualties, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for Payment of the said principal Sum of five hundred Pounds, to the said Lady Anne Mackenzie, to be had and retained by her, to her own Use, notwithstanding the Condition in the said Bond; which Sum of five hundred Pounds Sterling is to be paid upon Sight, and without Abatement, out of the Balance in the said Receiver's Hands, remaining, of the said Sum of seventy-two thousand Pounds, granted for paying the Creditors of forfeited Estates; and the said Debenture and Certificate shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Receiver of the said Sum of five hundred Pounds; and upon such Payment, the said Estate of Cromarty shall be for ever acquitted, exonerated, and discharged, against the said Lady Anne Mackenzie, her Heirs, Executors, and Assigns, touching the said Claim, and from all Demands whatsoever in respect of the same.

Out of the said Sum of 72,000l. Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, to make out a Debenture to his Majesty's Receiver-general of Land Rents there, for Payment of 500l. to Lady Anne Mackenzie; which Debenture to be a sufficient Discharge.

WHEREAS Sir Joseph Jekyll Knight, by his last Will and Testament in Writing, bearing Date the fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight, bequeathed several pecuniary Legacies and Annuities for Life to several of his Relations, and directed, that the East India and South Sea Stock, which he should be possessed of at the Time of his Death, should not be transferred or altered by his Executor during the Life of Dame Elizabeth his Wife, but, after her Death, he gave his said East India and South Sea Stock to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, Kings or Queens of England, to be applied to the Use of the Sinking Fund in such Manner as should be directed by Act of Parliament; and all the rest and Residue of his Estate, both Real and Personal, he gave and devised unto Thomas Jekyll, John Jekyll, Joseph Jekyll, Edward Jekyll, Richard Blackett Jekyll, Mary Jekyll, and Hannah Jekyll, the Children of John Jekyll, late of New England, deceased, and to Joseph Jekyll Grocer, the Son of Thomas Jekyll, and to Nicholas Roberts, Thomas Hester, Tryphena Baldwin, and Tryphosa Sanders, and to their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, as Tenants in common; and he appointed the said Joseph Jekyll, one of the Children of the said John Jekyll, Executor of his Will: And whereas the said Sir Joseph Jekyll died soon after the Date of his said Will, possessed of ten thousand Pounds East India Stock, and ten thousand Pounds South Sea Stock, and leaving Elizabeth Kirkham, Dame Mary Blackett, Tryphena Lovell, Thomas Jekyll the elder, Richard Mart, Francis Hill, Tryphena Russell, Mary Parsons, and Tryphena Hester (all since deceased), his Nieces and Nephews, his next of kin; and the said Joseph Jekyll, the Executor, soon afterwards proved the said Will in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the said Dame Elizabeth Jekyll died some Time in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-five: And whereas by an Act, made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second (intituled, An Act to enable his Majesty to allow to the residuary Legatees of Sir Joseph Jekyll Knight, late Master of the Rolls, deceased, Part of the Legacy given by his Will, to the Use of the Sinking Fund), it was enacted, That it should and might be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Warrant or Order under his or their Sign Manual, to permit the said Joseph Jekyll, the Executor, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to sell so much of the East India and South Sea Stock, devised as aforesaid, as would enable him or them to raise, for the Benefit of the said residuary Legatees, the Sum of thirteen thousand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and Two-pence; to be applied by him or them in the same Manner as the Real and Personal Estate of the said Sir Joseph Jekyll was, by his said Will, directed to be applied: And whereas, in pursuance of the said recited Act, his late Majesty did, by Warrant or Order, under his Sign Manual, empower the said Joseph Jekyll to sell the said South Sea Stock and East India Stock, and to apply thirteen thousand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and Two-pence, Part of the Money arising by Sale of the said Stocks, for the Benefit of the residuary Legatees of the said Sir Joseph Jekyll, in the same Manner as his Real and Personal Estate was by his said Will directed to be applied; and to pay the Remainder of the Money arising by such Sale into the Exchequer, pursuant to the said Will; to be applied to the same Uses as the Sinking Fund was applicable; and thereupon the said Joseph Jekyll, soon afterwards, at several Times within the Month of October, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and forty-seven, did sell ten thousand Pounds East India Stock, then standing in the Name of Sir Joseph Jekyll, at several Prices, amounting together (after a Deduction of Commission, and the Charges of the several Transfers), to the Sum of fifteen thousand eight hundred and seventy-two Pounds fourteen Shillings, and applied the Sum of thirteen thousand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and Two-pence, Part of the said Sum of fifteen thousand eight hundred and seventy-two Pounds fourteen Shillings, for the Benefit of the said residuary Legatees, according to the Direction of the said recited Act of Parliament: And whereas the said Joseph Jekyll is dead, and Lady Anne Jekyll, Widow and Administratrix, with the Testamentary Schedule annexed, of the said Joseph Jekyll, is since also dead, after making her last Will and Testament in Writing, whereof she appointed certain Executors; and the said Thomas Jekyll hath obtained Administration to the said Sir Joseph Jekyll, with his Will annexed, of his Goods unadministered by the said Joseph Jekyll: And whereas in pursuance of an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act to enable the Lords of the Treasury to discharge the Executors of Lady Anne Jekyll from a Debt due to his Majesty for the Use of the Sinking Fund, upon Payment of the same into the Exchequer), the Sum of two thousand two hundred and ninety Pounds four Shillings and Ten-pence, the Residue of the said Sum of fifteen thousand eight hundred and seventy-two Pounds fourteen Shillings, has been paid by the Executors of the said Lady Anne Jekyll into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer: And whereas the said Sum of ten thousand Pounds South Sea Stock is still standing in the Name of the said Sir Joseph Jekyll, and all the Dividends accrued due thereon, from Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and forty-five (to which Time they were received by the said Joseph Jekyll), to the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, amounting to the Sum of ten thousand six hundred Pounds, still remain in the Hands of the South Sea Company; and the Dividends that accrued due upon the said ten thousand Pounds East India Stock, from Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and forty-five (to which Time they were also received by the said Joseph Jekyll), to Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and forty-seven (soon after which Time the said ten thousand Pounds East India Stock was sold as aforesaid), amounting to the Sum of one thousand six hundred Pounds, still remain in the Hands of the East India Company, none of the said Sums, or any Part of them, having as yet been appropriated by Parliament, or applied to the Use of the Sinking Fund: And whereas it is apprehended, that the Motive to Sir Joseph Jekyll's bequeathing this Legacy to the Publick was, the Hope of exciting others of Opulence to follow the Example; but, as in the Course of near forty Years this Expectation has not been answered in any Instance; therefore, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, having taken the Premises into Consideration, do most humbly beseech your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Warrant or Order under his or their Sign Manual, to permit and allow the said Thomas Jekyll, the Administrator, or other the personal Representative of the said Sir Joseph Jekyll, to sell and transfer the said ten thousand Pounds South Sea Stock, now standing in the Name of the said Sir Joseph Jekyll, and to receive the Money arising by such Sale, and to receive all Dividends due, and to grow due, on such South Sea Stock; as also to receive all Dividends due and unreceived upon the said ten thousand Pound East India Stock, so sold as aforesaid.

An Act more effectually to improve and complete the Navigation of the River Thames, westward of London Bridge, within the Liberties of the City of London, and to prevent any Vessel or Barge from being moored in Taplow Mill-stream, in the County of Bucks.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by virtue of and under divers Charters, recognized and confirmed by divers Acts of Parliament, the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, have had and exercised, and ought, and have accustomed themselves to have and exercise, the Office of Bailiff and Conservator of the Water of Thames, to be exercised and occupied by the Mayor of the same City for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or by his sufficient Deputies, in, upon, and about the Water of Thames; (that is to say,) from the Bridge of the Town of Staines, in the County of Middlesex, and towards the East unto London Bridge, and from thence to a certain Place, called Kendall, otherwise Yenland, otherwise Yeenleet, towards the Sea, and East, and in Medway, and in the Port of the City of London aforesaid; and upon whatsoever Bank, and upon every Shore, and upon every Wharf of the same Water of Thames, within the Limits and Bounds aforesaid; and in, upon, and about all and every of them; and also for all the Time aforesaid, have had and taken, and ought, and have accustomed themselves to have and take, to their own proper Use, by the Mayor of the same City for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or his sufficient Deputies, all Wages, Rewards, Fees, and Profits, belonging to the same Office of Bailiff: And whereas, by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for improving and completing the Navigation of the Rivers Thames and Isis, from the City of London to the Town of Cricklade, in the County of Wilts, certain powers were granted to the Commissioners thereby appointed, for preserving and improving the Navigation of the said Rivers: And whereas the said Act contains a Clause or Proviso, declaring, That nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away any Rights, Jurisdiction, Power, or Authority of the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, or any other Body Politick or Corporate, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, or to enable the Commissioners to erect Weirs, Locks, Turnpikes, or Toll-gates, within the Liberties or Jurisdiction of the City of London: And whereas the Commissioners, in and by the said Act of Parliament appointed, being restrained, by the said Clause or Proviso, from exercising some of the principal Powers and Authorities in the said Act contained, between the said City of London and the City-stone above Staines Bridge, being the first Part or District of the said Navigation, in and by the said Act described, have not attempted the Execution of the said Act within the said first District: And whereas the Improvement of the Navigation of the River Thames, westward of London Bridge, within the Liberties or Jurisdiction of the City of London, will be a Work of great publick Utility: And whereas the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, are willing to apply the Sum of ten thousand Pounds (if necessary), out of their own Estates, towards carrying the said Work into Execution, without laying any Toll or Duty on Persons navigating the River Thames within the said Liberties or Jurisdiction: And whereas the Powers with which the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, are at present vested are not sufficient to enable them effectually to improve and complete the said Navigation; and it is apprehended, that the Powers granted by the said Act of Parliament, made and passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, to the Commissioners thereby appointed, will clash with the Powers which must necessarily be granted to the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, for improving and completing the Navigation of the River Thames, between the City of London and the City-stone above Staines Bridge: And whereas some further Regulation is necessary for removing certain Inconveniencies in another Part of the Navigation of the said River; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act of Parliament, made and passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as vests the Commissioners thereby appointed, or in pursuance thereof appointed, or to be appointed, with any Power or Powers, Authority or Authorities, for improving and completing the Navigation of the River Thames, between the City of London and the City-stone above Staines Bridge aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, repealed; but so as not to restrain or prejudice such Commissioners from, or in the Exercise of, any of the Powers or Authorities by the same Act granted, so far as the same relate to the improving and completing the Navigation of the River Thames and Isis, from the City-stone above Staines Bridge to the Town of Cricklade aforesaid.

C A P. XI.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the eleventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, For improving and completing the Navigation of the Rivers Thames and Isis, from the City of London to the Town of Cricklade, in the County of Wilts.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty (intituled, An Act for the better carrying on and regulating the Navigation of the Rivers Thames and Isis, from the City of London Westward, to the Town of Cricklade, in the County of Wilts), the Commissioners thereby appointed were, amongst other Things, impowered to make Orders and Regulations touching the Sizes and Draughts of Water of all Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, navigating the said Rivers, and to settle proper Gauges on the Sides thereof, and how deep they should load at all Times, and in different Seasons of the Year, so as no Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, navigating the said Rivers, should draw more than four Feet of Water at any Season of the Year: And whereas by another Act, passed in the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, for improving and completing the said Navigation, the Commissioners thereby appointed were also (amongst other Things) impowered to make Orders and Regulations touching the Sizes and Draughts of all Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, navigating the said Rivers, and to settle proper Gauges on the Sides thereof, and how deep they should load at all Times, so as no Boat, Barge, or other Vessel whatsoever, navigating the said River, should draw more than three Feet of Water, which Depth should be ascertained by a straight white Line one Inch broad, extending from Head to Stern, on each Side of every Barge, Boat, or Vessel; and every Person offending therein, by navigating his Boat, Barge, or Vessel, drawing more than three Feet of Water, or not having the said white Line on each Side thereof, is thereby made liable to a Penalty or Forfeiture, not more than twenty Pounds, nor less than five Pounds, to be levied and recovered in Manner therein mentioned: And whereas the said Restrictions, touching the Depth of Water to be drawn by Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, navigated upon the said Rivers, have been found to be very prejudicial to the Bargemasters, and other Persons employed in the said Navigation, and tend to enhance the Price of Carriage of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandises navigated thereon: And whereas the white Lines before mentioned are frequently worn out or rubbed off by unavoidable Accidents, whereby innocent Persons become liable to the said Penalty, and the Depth of Water would be better ascertained by Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, to be affixed in different Places on each Side of such Boats, Barges, and other Vessels; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be subject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture mentioned in the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, or any other Penalty or Forfeiture whatsoever, in respect of the Depth of Water to be drawn by any Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, navigated on the said Rivers, in any District beyond the Flux of the Tide, unless such Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, shall draw more than three Feet of Water, between the first Day of May and the first Day of November in any Year, or more than three Feet and eight Inches between the first Day of November in any Year and the first Day of May in the succeeding Year; or unless such Person or Persons shall wilfully disobey any Order which shall, from Time to Time, in Scarcity of Water, be made by the Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, at any General Meeting to be held in pursuance of the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, for limiting occasionally the Draught of Water between the first Day of November in any Year and the first Day of May in the succeeding Year, fourteen Days Notice of such Order being first printed in the Reading and Oxford Journals; any Thing in the said two Acts of Parliament contained, or any Order or Regulation made by the Commissioners, in pursuance of the said Acts, or either of them, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And, for the better ascertaining such Depth of Water to be drawn by Boats, Barges, and other Vessels navigated upon the said Rivers, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That instead of the white Line directed by the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty to be had and used for the ascertaining thereof, the same shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be ascertained, as well by Frames, Gauges, or Regulators, to be fixed in every District, at such Places as shall be directed by seven or more Commissioners at any General Meeting, or by three or more Commissioners at any District Meeting, to be held in pursuance of the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, as by three Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, to be nailed or fastened at proper and convenient Distances on each Side of every Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, navigated on the said Rivers, each of which Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, shall be and contain eight Inches in Length, and shall be placed perpendicularly, so as for the Bottom Parts thereof to denote the Depth of three Feet, and the Tops thereof to denote the Depth of three Feet and eight Inches, hereby allowed to be drawn by such Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, during the different Periods of Time herein before mentioned: And if any Person or Persons shall navigate his or their Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, not having the said Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, of the Dimensions aforesaid, nailed or fastened thereon, according to the Directions herein before mentioned, every such Person and Persons so offending shall be subject and liable to the same Penalty and Forfeiture which he or they would have been subject or liable to for not having the white Line on each Side of such Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, if this Act had not been made; to be recovered and levied in the

IV. And whereas by the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, the Commissioners are empowered to fix a Mark or Marks at each Lock or Weir, below or above which Mark or Marks no Owner or Occupier of any Lock or Weir shall knowing or designedly let the Water fall or rise, unless authorised so to do, in Manner directed by the said Act: And whereas, since the passing of the said Act, great Damages have been sustained by the Owners and Proprietors of Lands and Grounds, occasioned by the Owners and Occupiers of the several Locks, Weirs, Bucks, and Flood-gates, or their Agents and Servants, neglecting to draw and keep open the same when the Water is risen to the Gauge and Level fixed and appointed by and under the Authority of the said Act; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as the Water shall be raised to and be level with the High-water Marks, which shall, from Time to Time, be set and appointed by the Commissioners in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, the Tenants or Occupiers for the Time being of the several old Locks, Weirs, Bucks, Dams, and Flood-gates, in and upon the said Rivers, or either of them, or the Person or Persons who for the Time being shall be intrusted with the Opening and Shutting of the same, shall thereupon, with all convenient Speed, open such old Locks, Weirs, Bucks, Dams, and Flood-gates, and keep open the same, till the Water is sunk below the High-water Marks so set and appointed: And in case such Tenant or Occupier, or Person intrusted with the Opening and Shutting of such old Locks, Weirs, Bucks, Dams, or Flood-gates, shall neglect or refuse to open or keep open the same, as aforesaid, and shall be thereof convicted upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for either of the Counties in which such old Lock, Weir, Buck, Dam, or Flood-gate, shall happen to be, or before any two of the Commissioners appointed, or to be appointed, in or by virtue of the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty (such Commissioners having first duly qualified themselves under the said Act), every such Person and Persons so neglecting or refusing, and being thereof convicted, as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds; to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or of such two Commissioners, as aforesaid, and to be applied and disposed of for the Use of the said Navigation.

V. And, for the preventing any Fraud or Abuse in setting the said Water Marks, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Owner or Proprietor, Tenant or Occupier of any old Lock, Weir, Buck, Dam, or Flood-gate, upon either of the said Rivers, shall act as a Commissioner under the said Acts of Parliament, or either of them, for the Purpose of setting or appointing the said Water Marks, or any or either of them, under the like Penalty or Forfeiture which he or they would have been subject or liable to for acting under any Disqualification contained in the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign; and to be recovered, levied, and applied, in the same Manner as such Penalty or Forfeiture under the said last-mentioned Act is thereby directed to be recovered, levied, and applied, and not otherwise.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think him, her, or themselves aggrieved, by reason of any Penalty or Forfeiture being levied in pursuance of this Act, he, she, or they, shall have, and be intitled to, the same Benefit of Appeal to the Justices of Peace, assembled at any Quarter Sessions, as is allowed in and by the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, in any Case where Penalties and Forfeitures are thereby inflicted.

and for enabling the Proprietors of Lands in the North Level, Part of the said Great Level, to raise Money to discharge the Proportion of the said North Level in the Debts of the said Corporation; and for ascertaining and appropriating the Taxes to be laid on the said North Level; and for the more effectual draining and preserving the said North Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the Manor of Crowland*), stating (amongst other Facts), That, at a Court of the said Corporation, held the tenth of March one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, the said Corporation declared, that the several Parts of the said Great Level should be distinguished by the several Names of the North Level, Middle Level, and South Level, respectively, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That all the Money that should arise or be produced by the Taxes on such Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres as lay within the said North Level, and all other the Rents and Revenues arising and payable to the said Corporation, by, from, or out of the said North Level, or any Part thereof, should from thenceforth be applied and disposed of by the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, and their Successors, in and about the several Banks and Works in the said Act after mentioned; said Commissioners to be a Committee to superintend and direct the Repairs to be made in the said Banks and Works; and that it should be lawful for the said Committee, assembled as by the said Act is directed, or the major Part of them, to direct such Works to be done by the Officers of the said Corporation as they should see necessary; and that the Charges and Expences of such Works should be paid by the said Corporation out of the Taxes, Rents, and Revenues, aforesaid, and out of the Money to be raised thereon: And it was thereby further enacted, That it should be lawful for the Governor, Bailiffs, and Conservators, of the said Corporation, with the Consent of the Devisees in Trust under the Will of John late Duke of Bedford, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of such Survivor, until one of the Grandsons of the said late Duke of Bedford, the Sons of the late Right Honourable Francis Ruffel, commonly called Marquis of Tavistock, should attain the Age of twenty-one Years, and then of the Duke of Bedford, his Heirs or Assigns, Lord or Lords, Owner or Owners, of the Manor of Thorney; and of Sir Sampson Gideon Baronet, his Heirs or Assigns, Owner or Owners of Highb and Low Burrough Fen; and of Charles Orby Hunter Esquire, his Heirs or Assigns, Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of the Manor of Crowland, or of the Owners for the Time being, of any two of the said Manors and Lands, to borrow Money upon Bonds, under the Seal of the said Corporation, in such Manner as by the said Act is directed; and that the Rents, Taxes, and Revenues, of the said North Level (but without Prejudice to the Bond Creditors for the said Sum of five thousand Pounds), and the said Taxes charged and assessed by the said Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, should be a Security for the Money so borrowed: And whereas the said Taxes of one Shilling by the Acre for the first four Years, and of Sixpence by the Acre for every Year afterwards, wherewith the said Commissioners for the said several five Districts of the said North Level were enabled, by the Act of the twenty-seventh Year of King George the Second, to charge the Owners and Occupiers of the Lands and Grounds within the said several Districts, have proved ineffectual to maintain and support the Works to which the same were directed by the said Act to be applied; and a considerable Debt hath been incurred by the said Commissioners upon account of the said Works; and it will be for the Benefit of the Owners and Proprietors of the said Lands and Grounds within the said several Districts to provide a further Fund for the Maintenance and Support of the said Works: And whereas the said Banks of Moreton's Leame, Cordyke, and the Folly Drain, to which the Taxes upon such Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres as lie within the said North Level, and the Rents and Revenues of the said Corporation arising from the said North Level, and the Taxes charged upon the said five Districts by the said Acts of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, are directed to be applied, have, by frequent Floods, been much endamaged, and, notwithstanding great Sums have been expended therein, are still liable to Breaches in Cases of great Land Floods, and the said Funds provided for the Repairs thereof are greatly in Debt; and it will be greatly for the Benefit of the Owners and Proprietors of the Lands within the said North Level to provide a further Fund for the immediate Repair of such Banks in Cases of Breaches, or Danger of Breaches therein: But as such Purposes cannot be attained, nor the Lands and Grounds intended to be drained by the said Acts effectually preserved, without the Aid of Parliament; may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for and notwithstanding the said herein before mentioned Acts, or any of them, or any Clauses in them or any of them contained, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, nominated or appointed, elected or chosen, for the five Districts of the said North Level, by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of King George the Second, at their General Annual Meeting on the first Monday in July after the passing of this Act, to assess, rate, tax, and charge, the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of all and singular the Lands and Grounds, situate and being within the said several Districts or Divisions, or any of them (except Great Burrough Fen Common otherwise Peterborough Great Fen Common, the Common now commonly called The Four hundred Acre Common in Alderlands, Little Burrough Fen Common otherwise Peterborough Little Fen Common otherwise Flagg Fen Common, and that Part of Sutton Common which lies South of Old South Eau, and also except all the Lands called Hurts Grounds, in the Parish of Standground, and also all the Lands in Oxney and Tanbolt Farms, Chappel Close, Borough Hill Closes, Padbams, Peakirk Long Meadows, Peakirk Little Meadows, and the Closes adjoining thereto, Newark, Edgerley, and the Closes adjoining thereto towards the West, and North Billingswood, and the Closes adjoining thereto, in the Parish of Passon, the Lands called The Inbams, lying South on the Folly Bank, and the Closes at the South End of the Inbams called Puttock Closes, and also except all the High Lands in Eye-bury and Newark, and all the High Lands in the Parishes of Peterborough, Werrington, Glinton, Peakirk, Eye, Standground, and Whittlesey, or any of them, and the Lands called Portsand otherwise Great Portsand, in the Manor of Crowland), for the Term of three Years, by and with equal and proportionable yearly Rates, Taxes, or Sums of Money, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them that shall be present at such yearly General Meeting, so that the said Rates or Taxes do not exceed in any one Year two Shillings for each Acre of the Lands and Grounds comprised within the five Districts (except as is before excepted), and so as that no Part of the said Lands and Grounds be at any Time charged by virtue of this Act with any greater Rate or Tax than the rest of the said Lands shall be charged with; and also to assess, rate, tax, and charge, the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of the said Lands called Portsand otherwise Great Portsand, for the same Term of three Years, by and with equal and proportionable yearly Rates and Taxes, so that the said Rates and Taxes do not exceed in any one Year one Shilling for every Acre of the said Lands, and so as that the said Lands called Portsand otherwise Great Portsand be not at any Time charged by virtue of this Act with more than Half the Rate or Tax by the Acre that the other Lands in the said five Districts shall be so charged with;
