BOSTON ALMANAC

FOR THE YEAR

1850.

BY COOLIDGE & WILEY.

BOSTON:

PUBLISHED BY B. B. MUSSEY & Co., NO. 29 CORNHILL,

AND THOMAS GROOM, 82 STATE STREET.

P R E F A C E .

THE advent of the year 1850, fraught with Time's mutations, invites the Fifteenth annual issue of the Boston Almanac. The endeavor has been made to sustain its previous high reputation, and improve with the progress of the times. Several new features will be observed in the present number. The RAILROAD MAP, accurately compiled, expressly for this work, presents a view of the iron channels through which flows and will continue to flow the prosperity of our favored city; the plan is intended to embrace all roads now (or soon to be) in operation. It is hoped that the VIGNETTES of the chiefs of the nation, presented in the astronomical pages, will commend themselves as an humble tribute in honor of the most perfect system of human government ever devised. The short sketches of the Presidents accompanying them are believed to comprise information not generally held, nor easily accessible. These, and the account of the CITY ADMINISTRATION, in its various departments, and the PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS in Boston, have been prepared with care and ability by a gentleman familiar with the affairs of the city. The great hive of Business is indexed afresh in the DIRECTORY, and much of its activity presented more fully in the Advertising pages. The whole is submitted without lengthened comment, to the judgment of patrons.

To the public in general, among whom his fame was widely spread during a stirring and inventive career, it is well known that the former proprietor and founder of this work has realized "the last of earth." A brief biographical sketch is given in a subsequent page. The fruits of his exertions for the past fourteen years to establish the Almanac in the public estimation, he rendered available to his bereaved consort, from its future publication, by arrangement with his successors. They enter upon their duties with the desire to render the Almanac worthy of a still increased patronage, and to sustain its position as the favorite annual of New England.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1849, by

MRS. S. N. DICKINSON,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the District of Massachusetts.

THE BOSTON ALMANAC, For the Year 1850.

Being the latter part of the 74th, and the beginning of the 75th, year of the Independence of the United States of America; and the 6563d year of the Julian Period; and the latter part of the 5610th, and the beginning of the 5611th, year since the creation of the world, according to the Jews; and the 2604th year since the foundation of Rome, according to Varro; and the latter part of the 1266th, and the beginning of the 1267th, (lunar) year since the Hegira, or flight of Mahomet.

The Astronomical computations for the Boston Almanac are generally given for Mean Time at Boston. The Sun's Declination is given at Greenwich, Mean Noon; and the Equation of Time at Washington, Mean Noon.

The time of the Sun's Rising and Setting, and the Length of Days, have reference to the Sun's Upper Limb. The Moon's Rising and Setting are also given for the Upper Limb, corrected for a Mean Semi-diameter of $15' 33''.1$, a Mean Equatorial Horizontal Parallax of $57' 4''.7$, and a Mean Horizontal Retraction of $36' 6''.9$.

The Planet MERCURY may be seen for a few evenings about the 22d of January and about the 15th of May, and for a few mornings about the 23d of October. VENUS will be the Evening Star from its superior conjunction with the Sun, 2d of March, until its inferior conjunction with the Sun, 16th of December; and the Morning Star the remainder of the year. This planet will be at its greatest brilliancy on the 10th of November, when it may be seen, in clear weather, through most of the day, about two hours and three quarters behind the Sun. MARS will be Evening Star until its conjunction with the Sun, 29th of November, then Morning Star until the end of the year. JUPITER is Evening Star from its opposition, 8th of March, until its conjunction, 26th of September, and Morning Star the remainder of the year.

ECLIPSES. 1910820

In 1860, there will be two Eclipses, — both of the Sun.

I. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, Feb. 11th and 12th, invisible at Boston.
 This Eclipse will be visible throughout most of the Chinese Empire, India, Arabia, the Red Sea, the greater part of Africa, a part of the South Atlantic Ocean, the Indian Ocean, a part of the Southern Ocean, Australia, and a part of the North Pacific Ocean. The annular phase will traverse the South of Africa, Madagascar, and Sumatra.

II. A Total Eclipse of the Sun, August 7th, invisible at Boston.

This Eclipse will be visible throughout Peru, a part of Brazil, Ecuador, Venezuela, the West Indies, the Isthmus of Panama, Guatimala, Mexico, the southern extremity of Florida, the Gulf of Mexico, a part of Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, California, the Great American Desert, Oregon, a great part of the Pacific Ocean, the Empire of Japan, and New Guinea. The total phase will traverse the middle of the Pacific Ocean, passing north of the Sandwich Islands.

SAMUEL NELSON DICKINSON,

The originator of the Boston Almanac, and its conductor for the first fourteen years, died in Roxbury, Dec. 16, 1848, in the 48th year of his age. He was born in the town of Phelps, Ontario Co., New York, the 11th of December, 1801, being the 7th child of Cotton Dickinson and Nancy Pullen; and was soon left an orphan, in humble circumstances, dependent upon himself and the arbiter of his future course.

In early life he manifested that taste for his calling which distinguished his later years. He began his career in the "Art conservative of all arts," at about the age of twelve, by neatly engraving his name from right to left in alto relievo, on wood, and printing it in his spelling book; a circumstance which occasioned thus early the prophetic intimation that "he was born a printer!" He commenced learning his trade in Geneva, N. Y., with a Mr. Young, printer of the Palladium; but his employer dying, he went to New York City, where he remained a year or two, and then came to Boston. Here he pursued his occupation in the Boston Type Foundry, then located in Salem street. While thus engaged, he was eminent as a skilful workman, and for his assiduous application. He was accustomed to transfer the materials of his employment to his lodgings, and while others sought relaxation from labor, would pursue his avocation into the hours of the night.

In 1829, he started in business for himself, in two small rooms, at No. 52 Washington street. His office rapidly went through a series of transformations, in perfect accordance with his character. Wall after wall was perforated, till his establishment comprised twelve spacious halls and rooms, covering over an acre of ground, crowded with an innumerable variety of materials of the choicest kind, and comprising a perfect Foundry for the manufacture of type. This establishment was sold in 1847, and was nearly consumed by fire in February, 1848.

Few individuals, not in public life, have acquired a more extended reputation. With a perseverance and devotion to his calling almost or quite unparalleled, he wrought a revolution in the Art of Printing in this community. His unremitting assiduity, as related by himself in his last affecting words to his readers of 1849, finally resulted in the ruin of his health; and this, we regret to say, in the unavoidable sacrifice of the gatherings of his life of toil.

During his long continuance in business, he gathered around him a large number of assistants, among whom he has left pleasant remembrances. From the date of his first issue of the Boston Almanac, we have been familiar with his daily pursuits; and we are assured our testimony to his genius and many virtues will have a heartfelt response, among a wide circle of sincere mourners for his departure, in the summer of his years.

What prodigies can power divine perform
More grand than it produces year by year,
And all in sight of inattentive man?
Familiar with th' effect, we slight the cause,

And in the constancy of Nature's course,
The regular return of genial months,
And renovation of a faded world,
See nought to wonder at. COWPER.

An ordinance was passed, June 25, 1849, providing for carrying into effect in this city the laws of the State relating to Births, Marriages, and Deaths. The office of Superintendent of Burials was abolished, and that of City Registrar created in its stead. All births, marriages, and deaths, which take place in the city are now required to be returned to this office to be recorded, with such particulars in regard to each as the law requires. Every parent or other person interested, who neglects to make a return of a birth, is liable to a penalty of $5.00; every person who solemnizes a marriage, and neglects to make a return of such marriage between the first and tenth day of each month, is liable to a penalty not less than $20, nor more than $100; and every undertaker, or other person who shall superintend the burial of any person who dies in the city, who neglects to make a return of such death, is liable to a penalty of $20. It is important that this law should be strictly carried into effect—to the public, that the health and condition of the population may be known; and to every individual, that evidence may be furnished by the records of the three great events of life, the birth, the marriage, and the death. Great personal inconvenience and pecuniary loss have often arisen from want of this evidence. If the importance of records was generally understood, no one would go out of the State to be married, or neglect to have his marriage entered upon the public records.

CITY DEBT.

The City Debt, May 1, 1841, was $1,663,800. During the four subsequent years it was reduced $500,533.38, leaving it, May 1, 1845, at $1,163,266.62. From May 1, 1845, to Jan. 1, 1846, it was further reduced $105,249.96, leaving it, at that time, $1,058,016.66. And there was then on hand, pledged to its reduction, cash, $120,894.68, and bonds and mortgages, $378,143.79, making the net debt then, $558,978.19. The following statement will show the amount of the debt at the close of each financial year, April 30, since that time.

Year.	Ordinary Debt.	Increase.	Water Debt.	Total Debt.	Total Increase.
1846	$1,153,713.16	$	$	$1,153,713.16	$
1847	1,206,669.8	142,913.82	398,893.55	1,605,520.53	541,807.37
1848	1,323,550.05	26,923.07	2,129,056.32	3,452,606.39	1,757,085.86
1849	1,547,515.56	233,965.51	3,787,328.98	5,334,844.54	1,882,238.15

By a standing city ordinance, the proceeds of bonds and mortgages held by the city, the sales of public lands, the balance in the treasury at the close of the year, and a special appropriation of 3 per cent. of the debt, the same not being less than $50,000, are required to be applied annually to the payment of the principal of the debt. Notwithstanding this requirement, no part of the debt has been paid during the last two years, but it has greatly increased over the gross debt of May, 1845, $393,802.40, for the ordinary purposes of the city, and $3,787,328.98 for the water works, or $4,181,131.38 in all, leaving it, on the 1st of May last, at $5,334,844.54. The public works undertaken this year will probably increase this amount more than $1,000,000, making the debt next year between six and a half and seven millions of dollars. An idea of the proportion of this debt to each individual may be formed from the following facts. The city tax this year is $1,175,157; six times this is $7,050,822, or a little over the probable debt. If each tax payer will multiply the amount of his tax by 5½, he will ascertain nearly his own liability under the city debt, being about equal to 5½ years taxes at the present rate.

high water. The fall from the Lake to the Brookline reservoir is 4.26 feet, making the height of the reservoir at its lowest level 120.60 feet above high water mark. The reservoir will, however, retain the water safely $2\frac{1}{2}$ feet higher, or 123 feet above high water, or 16 feet above the floor of the State House. The Fountain Basin on the Common is about $24\frac{1}{2}$ feet above high water, or 96 feet below the minimum level of the Brookline reservoir, and a 3 inch jet has been raised thence 92 feet, or within 4 feet of its source, though that source is at a distance of $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles. In the lower parts of the city, the water conveyed through a hose of the ordinary size of $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches, attached to one of the hydrants, will throw a column of water, without the aid of a fire engine, by the force of the head on the pipe, to the height of 75 or 80 feet. The Fountain on the Common is supplied with the means of furnishing a great variety of jets, many of which are of great beauty, and attract general notice and admiration. One of these is given in the accompanying cut.

The Brookline Reservoir is a beautiful structure, of irregular, elliptic shape. The land purchased, including the surrounding embankment, with the necessary margin for its protection, was 38 acres. The area of the surface of the water is about $22\frac{1}{2}$ acres. It is capable of containing about 100,000,000 gallons of water, a quantity sufficient for the city for a period of two weeks, should the supply by any accident be interrupted so long.

The Beacon Hill Reservoir is a structure of massive stone masonry. Its exterior dimensions are, on Derne street 199 feet and 3 inches; on Temple street 182 feet and 11 inches; on Hancock street 191 feet and 7 inches; and on the rear of Mount Vernon street 206 feet and 5 inches. Its height, from the foundation to the top of the coping, exclusive of the railing, is, on Derne street, 66 feet, and on the rear of Mount Vernon street 43 feet. The foundation or substructure which is to support the basin, or reservoir of water, rests on arches of immense strength, $14\frac{3}{4}$ feet span. The lateral basin walls which are to retain the water, are 12 feet within the faces of the exterior walls on the streets. They are raised from the bottom of the reservoir or basin, to the height of 15 feet and 8 inches, including 20 inches of coping. The contents of the basin will be equal to 2,678,961 wine gallons, and its mean horizontal section equal to 28,014 square feet. The line or level, at this reservoir, corresponding to the maximum level of the water in the reservoir at Brookline, which is about 123 feet above marsh level, or high water mark, will run about 7 inches on the coping, or 14 feet and 7 inches above the bottom of the basin; and the minimum level of the Brookline reservoir will be $2\frac{1}{2}$ feet below this line. It must be apparent that whatever may be the height of water at Brookline, it must, when flowing, be at a lower level on

The number of Hydrants laid in the city, Jan., 1849, was 601, distributed generally 250 to 300 feet from each other.

The Commissioners, in their report of Nov. 9, 1844, gave the following estimate of the cost of the Water Works.

Water Rights and Land Damages, - - - -	$121,600.00
Aqueduct from the Lake to Brookline Reservoir,	718,476.87
Brookline Reservoir, - - - - -	30,715.00

The Commissioners, Messrs. Jervis and Johnson, in their Report of Nov. 18, 1845, estimated the cost as follows:—

Water Rights and Land Damages, including Compensation Reservoirs, - - - - -	$165,000
Aqueduct from Lake to Brookline Reservoir, - - -	1,038,953
Brookline Reservoir, - - - - -	53,244

Additional pipes, for 10,000,000 gallons per day, 65,000

Total cost for furnishing 10,000,000 gallons daily, $2,651,643

From the City Auditor's Thirty-Seventh Annual Report, it appears that the cost of the works up to May 1, 1849, was as follows:—

Water Rights and Land Damages, including Compensation Reservoirs, - - - - -	$330,624.33
Western Division, from the Lake to Brookline Reservoir, including aqueduct, bridges, culverts, gate house, lake roads, &c., and dam, - - - - -	907,116.05

South Boston Reservoir, - - - - -	54,315.62
Distribution, including Iron Pipes, Stop Cocks, &c. 1,046,756.71
Engineering, Superintendence, and Incidental Expenses, - - - - -	145,172.87

Total Expenses to May 1, 1849, - - - - $3,532,577.38

Net Interest paid over what was received, - - 278,046.02

Total Cost, up to May 1, 1849, - - - - $3,810,623.40

In this is not included the cost of the land for the reservoir at South Boston.

The Commissioners, in their Report of March 6, 1849, estimate that the following sums will be required to complete the work:—

Land damages, and other damages, - - - -	$75,000.00
Beacon Hill Reservoir, - - - - -	170,000.00
South Boston Reservoir, - - - - -	40,000.00
Distribution, including Stop Cocks, &c., - - - -	205,375.00
Contingencies, 10 per cent., - - - - -	48,837.00

Total, - - - - - $537,212.00

An Ordinance was passed by the City Council, Aug. 31, 1849, to carry the water to East Boston. The expense of this part of the work is estimated by Messrs. Chesbrough and Whitwell, as follows:

Bridge Work, - - - - -	$54,920.38
Dredging, - - - - -	2,500.00
4 Syphons, including cost of Pipes, - - - - -	30,000.00
21,870 feet of 20 inch Pipe, at $6, - - - - -	131,220.00
Contingencies, - - - - -	43,728.07
Reservoir, - - - - -	50,000.00
Service Pipes, - - - - -	20,000.00
Distribution by Main Pipes, - - - - -	107,753.80
Land Damages, - - - - -	40,000.00

Total, - - - - - $480,122.25

This, with the interest and contingent expenses, yet to be incurred, will increase the cost of the Water Works to more than five millions of dollars. The City Auditor says, "about five millions of dollars." Alterations in the original plans have extended the cost greatly beyond the estimates.

The rates of charges established by the Water Commissioners for the use of water from the Boston Water Works, commencing January, 1849, are as follows:—

"RATES OF CHARGES FOR THE USE OF THE WATER.

1st. For water introduced at the charge of the City, through the first wall of each Dwelling-House, including full supply for all domestic uses, to each family occupying a house, valued, for the assessment of taxes, at $5,000, or any less sum per annum, — $5. 9th. To Rail Road Corporations, for each Locomotive Engine in daily use, supplied for outward and inward trains, $100. For each Engine, watering for the outward trip only, once a great kitchen, scullery, bakery, and laundry, and will uniform level with the lower story of cells in each of the wings which contain the same. The upper story will be finished as one "great central guard and inspection room," reached from the ceiling of the first story up to the roof of the building; this room will measure 70 feet square, and will contain the galleries and stair cases connecting with the galleries around the outside of the cells in the three wings.

The north, south and east wings, to contain the cells, are to be constructed upon the "Auburn plan," being a prison within a prison; the north and south wings will each measure 80 feet 6 inches in length, and 55 feet in width, and 56 feet in height above the surface of the ground; the block of cells within each of the north and south wings will measure 63 feet 6 inches in length, 21 feet in width, and 54 feet in height, and will be divided into five stories; each story will contain ten cells, each of which will measure 8 by 11 feet, and 10 feet high, thus giving to each of these two wings 50 cells.

The east wing will measure 164 feet 6 inches in length, 55 feet in width, and 56 feet in height above the surface of the ground; the block of cells within this wing will be 146 feet 6 inches long, 21 feet wide, and 54 feet high; it will also be divided into five stories in height; each story will contain 24 cells of uniform size with the cells of the northern and southern wings, before described, thus giving to this wing 120 cells.

The spaces around the outside of each block of cells in each of the wings (between the cell walls and the exterior walls of the said wings), are to be "areas," which are to be open from the floor of the lower story of cells in each wing, to the ceiling of the upper story. Galleries of iron will extend the entire length of each of these spaces, outside of the cells, on a level with each of the floors. These galleries will form a communication with other galleries, which are to encircle the interior of the "centre octagonal building," on the same uniform level with the other galleries. Each cell will contain a window and a door communicating immediately with the galleries of the areas.

All the areas around the outside of the cells of the north, south, and east wings, will receive light from the great windows of the exterior walls. These windows will be thirty in number, each measuring 10 feet in width, and 33 feet in height, beneath which other windows, 10 feet wide and 9 feet in height, will be placed, thus yielding an amount of light to the interior of the cells probably four times as great as any prison yet constructed upon the Auburn system. The jail kitchen and guard or inspection room, of the centre octagonal building, will receive light from windows of uniform size, and arranged in the same manner as those windows in the exterior walls of the wings. The guard or inspection room will receive additional light from circular windows placed above the great windows, and from a skylight in its ceiling. The various stories of the west wing will be lighted from windows arranged uniformly with those in the exterior walls of the wings.

The exterior of the structure will be entirely of Quincy granite, formed with split ashler in courses, with cornices, and other projecting portions hammered or dressed; the remaining portions of the entire buildings, both inside and outside thereof, will be of bricks, iron and stone, excepting the interior of the west wing, which will be finished with wood.

Designed by Louis Dwight and G. J. F. Bryant, Architect.
Builders, Luther Munn, Joel Wheeler, Asa Swallow, Samuel Jepson, Charles W. Cummings, and Geo. W. Smith.

Estimated Expense, 193,458 feet of land, and filling up, $165, (45, or about 82 cents per foot; foundation and building, $243,900; total, $409,545.

NEW ALMS HOUSE AT DEER ISLAND.

Hospitals were erected at Deer Island, in May, 1847, as a quarantine establishment, and a general receptacle for foreign paupers, and others, arriving here infected with the ship fever and other contagious diseases. In November, 1848, this establishment was made a branch of the House of Industry, and placed under the directors of that institution.

The City Council decided last summer, to erect a new Alms House on this Island. The building will be in the form of a "Latin Cross," having its four wings radiating at right angles from a central building, somewhat after the form of the New Jail. The central building will be 79 feet square and 75 feet in height; the west wing 50 feet square and 48 feet high; the north and south wings, each 100 feet long, 50 feet wide and 48 feet high; and the east wing 200 feet long, 50 feet wide and 48 feet high. A cellar beneath the entire building. The wings are each to be three stories in height, beside the attic. Each story will be 12 feet in the clear, and the attic 9 feet in the clear. There are to be 8 circular towers attached to the outer walls of the north, south and east wings, each 13 feet in diameter and 65 feet in height. The central building is to be four stories in height. The first three stories are to be uniform in height with the first, second and third stories of the wings; the fourth story, designed for the chapel, will be 31 feet in height, and encircled with a gallery 9 feet above the floor, and a curved ceiling with a circular opening in the centre to receive the light from above. The central building is to have its four corners formed as quadrants of circles, within which all the windows for lighting its interior are to be placed. This building is to be covered with a pitch roof, in the centre of which is to be an observatory, measuring 17 feet square and 31 feet in height above the roof, and surmounted with the cardinal points wrought in iron. The west wing is designed for the family of the superintendent; the north, south, and east wings for the paupers, and will contain accommodations for 1500 inmates. The work was commenced in September, and is to be ready for occupancy in July 1850.

Designed by Louis Dwight, and G. J. F. Bryant, Architect.
Builders, Nathan Drake, Geo. Nowell, Francis Russell.
 Estimated expense, furnished and ready for use, $150,000.

EYE AND EAR INFIRMARY.

This institution was established in 1824, and incorporated in 1827. It is intended exclusively for the poor, and no fees are permitted to be taken. The new building erected for its accommodation in 1849, is situated on Charles street, a short distance southerly of Cambridge bridge. It consists of a main building 67 feet front by 44 feet deep, and 40 feet 4 in. high, and two wings 25 feet front and 34 feet high, one 52 feet deep and the other 63 feet. The front of the principal building is embellished by stone dressings to all the windows, doors, and cornices, in Italian style. The wings retire from the front 11 feet, and are perfectly plain. In the basement are the kitchen, wash-room, laundry, refractory wards, baths, store rooms, &c. In the first story in the main building are rooms for the matron and committee, and receiving and reading rooms; in the wings are the male wards, with operating, apothecary, and bath rooms. In the second story are accommodations for the matron, and private female wards. The building is heated by two furnaces, and provided with a thorough system of ventilating, and the whole surrounded by a spacious, airy ground, shut out from the street by a high brick wall. Architect, Edw. C. Cabot. Contractor, Jonathan Preston. Cost, land, $25,000; building, about $29,000; total, $54,000.

THE NEW ATHENÆUM BUILDING.

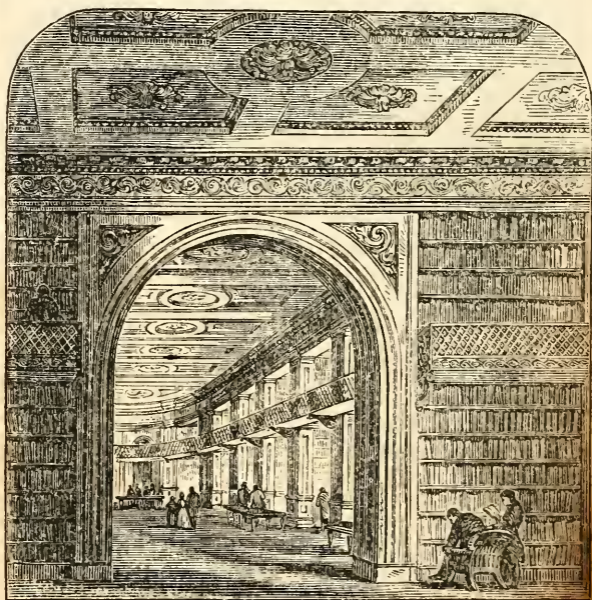

The above illustration is a view of the front elevation of the new building erected for the Boston Athenæum, on the southerly side of Beacon, between Bowdoin and Somerset streets. It is 114 feet in length; of irregular breadth, covering the entire space between the street and the Granary Burying Ground; and 60 feet in height. In the design of this building several objects were to be regarded:—1st, a library of 40,000 volumes, with provision for increase; 2d, suitable places for the exhibition of works of art; and 3d, a museum for miscellaneous collections; beside the usual offices for such a building. The want of unity of plan, together with the extremely irregular form of the lot and the slightly disproportionate height of the stories, made the design one of considerable difficulty, which was sought to be obviated in effect by presenting to the eye a succession of horizontal lines from the base upwards toward the cornice. The elevation is in the later Italian style of architecture, and resembles in the general arrangement some of the works of Palladio, though some of the details belong to a still later style. The material is of Patterson free stone, known here as "Little Fall gray rock," the color of which is a light gray, slightly varying in different stones, and the texture considerably harder than the free stones in general use. The building is 10 feet back from the street, and the ground space in front is surrounded by a bronze lacquered iron balustrade, with stone coping.

The basement story is constructed of solid masonry, supporting the first floor upon groined arches of brick; a room is here fitted up for the use of the janitor and his family. Here also are a furnace with flues, conducting the heat to all parts of the building; rooms for fuel, for binding and packing books, apparatus for hoisting to the upper story, &c.

The entrance to the building is into the first story, by a doorway 14 feet high by 10 feet broad. It opens on a vestibule, or main entry, 32 by 28 feet, which contains staircases ascending to the upper stories, and lighted from the roof and large windows in front. From this vestibule, designed to be finished in beautiful style of architecture, doors open to all the rooms in the building.

In the first story is a hall 80 feet in length, designed for the Sculpture Gallery, entered through the vestibule directly opposite the front door. It is surrounded by a row of iron columns opposite each window pier, for supporting the floors above. Fitting into these columns above are still others supporting the third floor, thus making continuous supports to the floors of each story, in addition to the walls. On the right of the vestibule are two apartments, designed for reading rooms, one in the front for newspapers, the other in the rear for other periodicals. On the left of the vestibule is the Trustees' room. All these apartments are as yet unfinished, but are intended to be in appropriate ornamental style.

The second story is appropriated to the library. The main hall extends the entire length of the rear of the building, and is surrounded by an iron gallery, accessible by iron spiral staircases. It is divided by an archway, one compartment displaying the books in cases lining the walls, the other in alcoves between the pillars. It is highly finished, in Italian style, with agent and commissioner, and the Collector of the Ports of Boston and Charlestown for the time being. Jonathan P. Robinson was Clerk to the Board of Commissioners. In one of the panels of the Rotunda is inserted a Tablet of marble, containing the following inscription :

“ Boston Custom House Building. Authorized by the 23d Congress, A. D. 1835. Andrew Jackson, President U. S. A. ; Levi Woodbury, Sec’y of the Treasury.—Opened August 1st, A. D. 1847. James K. Polk, President U. S. A. ; Robert J. Walker, Sec’y of the Treasury ; Marcus Morton, Collector of the Port ; Samuel S. Lewis, Robert G. Shaw, Commissioners ; Ammi Burnham Young, Architect.”

STORES AND WAREHOUSES.

Within the last few years several blocks of buildings have been erected for the business accommodations of the Merchants of Boston, which, for beauty, convenience and durability, we have never seen surpassed. We select two only, as specimens of these costly structures.

The above is a view of the stores Nos. 35, 37, and 39, fronting on Kilby, and 15 and 17 on Lindall and Hawes streets, owned by Charles R. Codman, Esq., and leased by Messrs. James M. Beebe & Co., for the sale of Dry Goods. The buildings are, in both facades, of Quincy granite of the best quality, and of uniform color. They are four stories high besides a basement and attic. The corner store is 33 feet in width and 86 feet in depth. The two rear stores, which front on Lindall and Hawes streets, are each 25 feet in width and 80 feet in depth. The three stores are connected together in every story by large openings, thus forming in each story an immense salesroom, and is together the most extensive establishment of the kind in the country. All the stories are of great height, and are finished in the best manner, containing every modern convenience, such as sofas, counting rooms, washing sinks, water closets, &c.

Architect, G. J. F. Bryant. Builders, Messrs. Greenleaf, Cushing, and Adams, masons; Samuel S. Perkins, carpenter; John Bolles, 2d., joiner.

GRAY'S BLOCK, fronting on the southerly corner of Summer and Washington streets, is 56 by 135 feet. The two fronts are of Quincy granite, quarried mostly from a single block of stone, having windows of the best French plate glass. The first story, 13½ feet high in clear, is divided into two spacious stores, with basements. One is occupied by Messrs. Jones, Ball & Poor, an interior view of which is in the front of this Almanac, and extends the whole length on Summer street, 28 feet wide in front and 57 in the rear, and is furnished with safes of peculiar construction, and every other convenience; the other is occupied by Messrs. Jacobs, and is 26 feet by 80. The second story is 12 feet high, and divided into 6 rooms; the third story 12 feet high, and divided into 8 rooms; the fourth story 16½ feet high, and divided into 2 large and 2 small halls. The corner hall is 75 feet by 26. The attic is fitted up with suitable rooms for artists, and for storage to accommodate the occupants below. The distinctive features of the exterior of this building are the richness of the materials, its beautiful proportions and cornice, and the windows in the attic; and of the interior, its perfect adaptation to the purposes for which it is designed, and its rich and appropriate finish. Designed and superintended by S. P. Fuller, assisted by Charles Booth. Stone Cutters, A. C. Sanborn & Co.; Masons, I. H. & C. Hazelton; Carpenters, Pratt & Judson. Cost of land and building, about $140,000.

NEW CLUB HOUSE.

The new Club House, situated on the northerly side of West street, is worthy of notice among the improvements of the city. It is 38 feet in front, 80 feet deep, and 52 feet high. The front elevation is built of Connecticut free stone in Italian style, and combines great architectural beauty. The first story is occupied by two stores, and a central passage to the second story, in which is a lobby, reading room, and three parlors. In the third story is a hall 35 by 63 feet, and 22 feet high.

Erected by an association of gentlemen. Architect, H. Billings. Builders—Masons, Messrs. Wheeler and Drake; Carpenter, Chas. Dupee. Estimated cost of land and building, $45,000.

BOSTON SOCIETY OF NATURAL HISTORY.

This institution has recently purchased the estate in Mason street, formerly occupied by the Massachusetts Medical College, and re-modelled the building to adapt it to its present purposes. It contains 9 rooms, one of which is occupied by the librarian, and each of the others by objects of interest in the different departments of natural history. The whole estate cost about $30,000, which was obtained by subscription from the liberal citizens of Boston. All who desire it have free access to the cabinet every Wednesday, and strangers in the city, who cannot conveniently visit it on that day, can obtain admission at any time by application to an officer of the Society. Five volumes of the Boston Journal of Natural History, and three of the Proceedings of the Society at its Monthly Meetings, have been published, containing contributions from our most distinguished naturalists, illustrated by engravings.

NOTE. In computing postage from England to the countries named above, in Table 2, the foreign postage is rated by the $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce for the single letter. Thus, a letter directed to the East Indies, by a British Steamer, if it weighs less than $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce, will be charged 65 cents postage—if $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce, or more, but less than $\frac{3}{4}$ ounce, 75 cents—the foreign postage, only, being added for each additional $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce.

When the correspondence with the countries in the foregoing list (Tables 1 & 2) is from or to Oregon or California, the single letter rate—to be collected by prepayment when sent, or on delivery when received—is to be, in each instance, 35 c. more than the amounts stated in the above tables.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.

On newspapers transmitted between Great Britain and the U. S., the postage is 4 c. for each newspaper—2 c. to be paid in each country.

On newspapers transmitted to or from a foreign country, through Great Britain, the postage is 4 c. each—to be paid by the party sending or receiving it.

On newspapers transmitted by the American line from New York to Bremen, the postage is 3 c. for each newspaper, in addition to our inland postage, which is 1 or 1½ c. (according to distance, as below specified,) to be prepaid in all cases.

On newspapers transmitted to the Island of Cuba, by the Charleston or New York steam packets, the postage is 4½ c. for each newspaper, to be prepaid.

On newspapers transmitted to any of the British American provinces, of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, or Upper or Lower Canada, the postage is 1½ c. for each newspaper, to be prepaid.

On newspapers transmitted to Chagres, Panama, any South American port on the Pacific, or to the Sandwich Islands, by the steam packets from Charleston, S. C., the postage is 4½ c. for each newspaper, to be prepaid.

On newspapers transmitted to Oregon or California, the postage is 4½ c. for each newspaper; to be prepaid on all newspapers except those issued from the office of publication.

On newspapers transmitted within the U. S., if not over 100 miles, or any distance within the state where they are mailed, the postage is 1 c. each. Over 100 miles, and out of the state in which they are mailed, 1½ c. each. The postage on newspapers transmitted within the U. S., must be prepaid, at the time they are deposited in the office, unless they are sent from the office of publication, or legally franked.

Every newspaper mailed, must be so enveloped or folded that it can be distinctly seen to be such; and it must contain no writing, marks, or signs, to serve the purpose of written communications. If not so done up as to be open at the end, it is to be charged as a letter, by weight.

POSTAGE ON PAMPHLETS, MAGAZINES, &c.

Periodical works and pamphlets may be sent from Great Britain to the U. S., or from the U. S. to Great Britain. The U. S. postage is 2 c. each, if they do not exceed two ounces in weight; and 1 c. per ounce, or fraction of an ounce, when they exceed that weight—this postage to be collected in all cases in the U. S.—and they will be subject to an additional like charge in Great Britain, when not exceeding two ounces; but the third ounce raises the British charge to 6 pence, with an additional charge of 2 pence for each additional ounce.

All pamphlets, magazines, periodicals, and every other kind and description of printed matter, transmitted within the U. S., (except newspapers, circulars, handbills, and advertisements,) which shall be unconnected with any manuscript communication whatever, are charged 2½ c. for each copy of no greater weight than one ounce, for any distance. For every additional ounce, 1 c.—any fractional excess, exceeding half an ounce, to be charged as an ounce—any excess of less than half an ounce, not to be regarded.

Circulars, handbills, and advertisements, printed on one sheet, containing no written matter, and which are folded and directed but not sealed, may be transmitted within the U. S., subject to 3 c. postage on each, for any distance, to be prepaid when they are deposited in the office.

DEPARTURE OF STEAM PACKETS.

British Mail Steam Packets. These packets take their departure weekly, from Boston or New York, alternately, except during the months of Dec., Jan., Feb., and March, when they leave every fortnight.

On the days upon which the steamers depart from this port, the foreign mail closes precisely at 10 o'clock, A. M., and the office will be closed for one hour from that time, while the mail is in course of preparation.

On the day next before any day of the departure of a Steamer from New-York, the foreign mail will be closed at this office at 3.45 P. M.

Bremen Mail Steam Packets. A Steam Packet, of the Bremen line, leaves New-York on the 20th day of every month, for Bremen, touching, on her way, at the port of Southampton, in England.

U. S. Mail Steam Packets. A line of U. S. Steam Packets runs between Charleston, S. C. and Havana, in the Island of Cuba—taking the mails for that Island. Also, between New-York and Chagres, and between San Francisco and Panama, the two connecting by a land conveyance across the Isthmus, taking mails for Havana, for Chagres, for Panama, or any other South American port on the Pacific, for the Sandwich Islands, and for Oregon and California.

3. Goods brought on the wharf, by trucks, or otherwise, for public sale, to pay the same wharfage as if landed thereon.

4. Goods taken by one vessel from another, to pay half the wharfage the same would have paid had they been landed or shipped from the wharf, excepting flour and grain, which shall pay the same as if landed; the wharfage to be paid by the vessel nearest the wharf.

5. All goods, excepting iron, salt, flour and grain, that have paid full wharfage, and have not changed ownership, may be re-shipped within thirty days, free of additional wharfage. After thirty days full wharfage will be charged in all cases.

6. Iron, salt, flour and grain, must pay full wharfage in all cases, whether the same may have been just landed and re-shipped by the importer, or sold and shipped by any other person.

7. in addition, fifteen cents per hogshead, per month, wharfage for each and every month after the first landing and charge of ten cents each hogshead.

8. All merchandise on the wharf to be removed in six days from the time of sale, or pay monthly wharfage same as for landing, except for molasses as in 7th article, and in no case to lay over a month without additional wharfage.

9. Mahogany, dye woods, and lumber, landed on the wharf, to be immediately taken away, or piled up by the wharfinger at the expense of the owner or consignee.

11. Vessels at the wharf of 200 tons and over to be allowed 20 days for loading and 20 days for unloading cargo, free from dockage, and after that dockage shall be charged at the foregoing rates without deduction: and dockage shall be charged in all cases when vessels are not so employed.

12. No sand, gravel, or other ballast to be landed on the wharf, unless with the approbation and under the inspection of the wharfinger; nor are the dirt, sweepings of the hold, or other articles, under any pretence whatever, to be thrown into the dock.

15. Vessels lying at the wharf, are to remove at the request of the wharfinger, and if not done at his request, the vessel will be removed by the wharfinger, at the risk and expense of the owners.

16. Vessels hauling to the wharf are to have their jib and spanker booms and sprit sail yards rigged in, lower yards topped, and to accommodate other vessels as much as possible.

17. Vessels being loaded, and coming from, or going to other wharves, to pay double rates of dockage, to remove when directed by the wharfinger, and not to remain at the wharf except with his permission.

18. No vessel with unslacked lime will be allowed to lie at the wharf, except with the particular permission of the wharfinger.

19. No fire will be permitted on the wharf, nor any tar or pitch to be heated on board any vessel lying at the wharf, excepting when such vessel may be afloat, or a special permission be obtained from the wharfinger.

House's Line, 26 State St.—"House's Printing Telegraph," invented by Royal E. House, Esq., of New York, is one of the wonders of the age. The operator, by striking keys (resembling those of a piano,) representing the letters of the alphabet, produces, at the opposite end of the line of communication, hundreds or thousands of miles distant, a despatch raised in relief on paper in Roman capitals! Liability to mistakes in translating is thus avoided, and the services of a copyist dispensed with; the printed slip being immediately delivered to the party addressed. The spectator of the machine in operation, is almost induced to believe, that the fabulous tales of past times are rapidly becoming either the established facts of our own day, or the probabilities of the future. It would require a prophet to portray the changes in the social condition of man, destined to result from the introduction of the Telegraph as an agent of communication. It cannot fail to be a powerful conservator of the peace of the world, by drawing nations and people into closer connection, multiplying the relations of business, and promoting social intercourse.

This line connects with lines to all the principal places of the South and West. Rates to New York for 10 words, 30 c.; to way stations in proportion.

Merchants' Line, 71 State St.—Electro-Chemical Telegraph, connecting with all the O'Reilly lines throughout the South and West.

OREGON TER'TRY
 Thurston, S. F.

MINNESOTA TER.
 Sibley, Charles S.

General Events from Sept. 1, 1848, to Sept. 1, 1849.*

Sep. 1. Numerous assassinations are perpetrated at Rome, from political causes. — The number of victims this day is seven killed and four wounded.

Sep. 2—5. The forces of the king of the Two Sicilies attack the town of Messina, and after a bloody bombardment, capture it.

The city of Leghorn revolts, and a provisional government is organized by the insurgents.

Sep. 5. The German National Assembly (at Frankfort) passes a strong censure on the armistice recently concluded between Denmark, Prussia, and Sweden.

British Parliament prorogued.

Sep. 6—14. The city of Multan, in Northern India, is besieged by the British forces under general Whish. The resistance is obstinate; and after the besiegers have suffered severe losses, they are compelled by the desertion of Shere Singh, a leading chief, to raise the siege.

Sep. 9. Brooklyn, N. Y., is ravaged by a fire, which consumes property to the amount of $750,000.

Sep. 12. The Swiss confederation adopts a new constitution.

Sep. 13. Serious commotions take place at Vienna; the populace attack the official residence of the Minister, Doblhoff, the archives are seized, and M. Doblhoff escapes with difficulty, by a private exit. The cause is the refusal of the Government to guaranty the notes of a "Mutual Help Company," according to an alleged agreement.

Sep. 16. The German National Assembly, having reconsidered its vote against the Danish armistice, the populace in Frankfort raise a tumult, which becomes a dangerous insurrection. They are quelled by the troops. Two leading gentlemen, Prince Lichnowsky, and Major Von Auerswald, are savagely tortured and killed by rioters without the city.

Sep. 27. The Hungarians, at Pesth, murder Count Lamberg, who is sent by the Emperor of Austria to take the command in Hungary.

Sep. 28. A negro takes his seat in the French National Assembly, as representative of Guadeloupe. Two negroes and two mulattoes have been elected.

Sep. 30. Mr. W. Lassell, the astronomer of Liverpool, announces the discovery of "an eighth satellite of the planet Saturn."

Oct. 3. The Hungarian Diet is dissolved by the Emperor of Austria, martial law proclaimed, and the supreme government of the province intrusted to the Ban Jellachlich.

Oct. 5. Tumults occur at Vienna, in consequence of the Emperor's recent proclamation against Hungary.

The Hungarian Diet appoints Kossuth Dictator.

Oct. 6. The popular movement at Vienna increases. Count Latour, the minister at war, orders a body of grenadiers, who had long been quartered in the city, to leave for Hungary. The grenadiers and the populace are incensed at the orders. The railway track is torn up. When the grenadiers march out of the city, the Tabor bridge is barricaded by the National Guard, and the Academical Legion, and a skirmish ensuing, the government troops fraternize with the insurgents. Gen. Brady, the commander of the grenadiers, is slain in the tumult. The insurgents return to the city, and are fired upon from the church of St. Stephen's, by a party of loyal National Guards. The church is attacked, carried, and the commander of its garrison is slain at the altar. The insurgents overpower all opposition. Between five and six P. M. they seize the war office, and finding Count Latour, the minister, concealed in an upper chamber, murder him, and having stripped the body, hang it on a lamp post in the street. At 6½ P. M., the Emperor's forces take refuge in the arsenal, from which they maintain a destructive fire on the rioters; but the building being fired by congreve rockets, at 6 A. M. of the 7th, the garrison surrenders. 50,000 muskets are then distributed to the populace. The diet assembles on the 6th, and having elected a Committee of Safety, prepares an address to the Emperor, demanding, 1. The revocation of the proclamation against Hungary. 2. The removal of Jellachlich. 3. An amnesty for the insurgents. 4. A liberal ministry. The Emperor receives the address, but the Diet deem his answer evasive, and the Committee of Safety is directed to continue the chief executive authority. Early in the morning of the 7th, the Emperor and his family leave Vienna, on the road to Olmutz, with an escort of troops. Before leaving the city, he sends the Diet a proclamation, threatening his return.

Oct. 8. All commotion is over in the city, and the Diet passes a loyal decree. The Emperor requests one of the Diet's ministry to join him. 20,000 imperial troops, stationed outside of the walls, under the command of Count Auersperg, remain in their quarters, without taking part against the city.

Oct. 9. The troops of the Ban Jellachlich move towards the city. Count Auersperg, being requested by the Diet, refuses to enter the city. Jellachlich, also, declines to receive orders from the Diet.

Oct. 11. The troops of the Ban Jellachlich arrive at the walls of Vienna. The Hungarian army also takes up its march toward the city.

Oct. 16. The Emperor of Austria appoints Prince Windischgratz to command his armies.

Oct. 17. The imperial troops close around the city, and Vienna is in a state of siege. The Diet sends frequent deputations to the Emperor.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

12½ cents a Number---once a week.

The editor of this work has always cherished a lively gratitude for the cordial welcome which was given to it, from the very start, by Boston and New England. It was begun here, not merely because the net work of railroads, which stretches toward the Lake Country; and the line of British steamers, which then exclusively terminated at Boston—seemed to foretell a long course of prosperity to this city—but also because the projector believed that if he could shew forth the Age we live in by a copious and well digested collection of its Literature, he should be performing an acceptable service to a community which prides itself upon its advance in Literary and Scientific attainments. There has not been a day of disappointment. The work has steadily increased in sale, and is now spreading farther into the country South and West. To compile the works of others is an humble task; but this is the labour of the schoolmaster—and the writer hopes that he is every week giving an acceptable lesson to many, both young and old, and erecting in many libraries a pleasant memorial of his own residence in the neighbourhood.

When the booksellers were applied to, to risk money on the experiment of publishing so large a collection of matter for 12½ cents, they declined it as too hazardous; and as requiring too large a sale before any profit should be realized. Some idea of the quantity of matter we publish may be found from the fact, that the four volumes we publish in a year are equal to twelve volumes of the Edinburgh Review. In proportion to its contents the Living Age is cheaper than any other reprint. And then it consists of the best matter of all, so that the quality should always be taken into consideration by people who wish to avoid cumbering their shelves with what is not read.

PROSPECTUS.

The LIVING AGE endeavours to deserve its title by taking from every quarter what will give to its readers a true and instructive picture of the Age we live in, adapted to the wants of the people of the United States.

The elaborate and stately Essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, North British, British Quarterly, and other Reviews; Blackwood's noble criticisms on Poetry, his keen political Commentaries, highly wrought Tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain Scenery; the contributions to Literature, History, and Common Life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenæum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the Military and Naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers' admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit and wisdom from Punch; and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British Colonies.

The steamship has brought Europe, Asia and Africa, into our neighborhood; and will greatly multiply our connections, as Merchants, Travellers, and Politicians, with all parts of the world; so that much more than ever it now becomes every intelligent American to be informed of the condition and changes of foreign countries. And this not only because of their nearer connection with ourselves, but because the nations seem to be hastening, through a rapid process of change, to some new state of things, which the merely political prophet cannot compute or foresee.

Geographical Discoveries, the progress of Colonization, (which is extending over the whole world,) and Voyages and Travels, will be favorite matter for our selections; and, in general, we shall systematically and very fully acquaint our readers with the great department of Foreign affairs, without entirely neglecting our own.

While we aspire to make the Living Age desirable to all who wish to keep themselves informed of the rapid progress of the movement — to Statesmen, Divines, Lawyers, and Physicians — to men of business and men of leisure — it is still a stronger object to make it attractive and useful to their Wives and Children. We believe that we can thus do some good in our day and generation; and hope to make the work indispensable in every well-informed family. We say indispensable, because in this day of cheap literature it is not possible to guard against the influx of what is bad in taste and vicious in morals, in any other way than by furnishing a sufficient supply of a healthy character. The mental and moral appetite must be gratified.

We hope that, by "winnowing the wheat from the chaff," by providing abundantly for the imagination, and by a large collection of Biography, Voyages and Travels, History, and more solid matter, we may produce a work which shall be popular, while at the same time it will aspire to raise the standard of public taste.

WASHINGTON, 27 December, 1845.

Of all the Periodical Journals devoted to literature and science which abound in Europe and in this country, this has appeared to me to be the most useful. It contains indeed the exposition only of the current literature of the English language, but this by its immense extent and comprehension includes a portraiture of the human mind in the utmost expansion of the present age.

J. Q. ADAMS.

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT,

So that those who attend places of amusement from out of town can find a convenient stopping place. Travellers arriving late at night, or in the morning trains from New York, will find the house always open and ready to receive them.

The proprietors have introduced the European Plan in regard to sleeping rooms. The Sitting, Reading, and Smoking Rooms, as well as the Dining and Sleeping Apartments, are large and well ventilated, and the improvements made and conveniences adopted make it emphatically a home for the stranger. The Hotel is near the centre of the city, yet retired, free from noise and confusion, as well as the dust of the principal avenues of the city.

It has always been a Temperance House, and the proprietors are determined to adhere strictly to total abstinence principles.

A large fire proof SAFE is kept in the House so as to accommodate those that wish to deposit their valuables, for which service no charge will be made.

Any information cheerfully given as regards the Odd Fellows, Sons of Temperance, Temperance Meetings generally, and Public Lectures. As this Hotel is centrally and pleasantly located, is supplied with new and well furnished apartments, clean beds, good fare, the best attention, and reasonable charges, it deserves the warm support of the public.

Tenny's Carpet Wareroom

COMPRISES THE SPACIOUS

HALL OVER THE MAINE R. R. DEPOT, HAYMARKET SQUARE.

IN length it is 175 feet and in width 80 feet, making the largest salesroom in the city. The idea of establishing a Carpet Store in this part of the city was quite novel, and the project considered a doubtful experiment, but, after nearly a year's trial, it has proved eminently successful. The large Stock of Goods which presents itself to the eye on entering the Hall comprises one of the most complete assortments peculiar to the Carpet Trade that can be exhibited. The ample space of floor allows of unequalled display of the goods, and in the clear and distinct light gives the purchaser superior advantages in comparing the great variety of styles that smaller rooms and limited light will not allow. — Salesmen are ever ready to receive purchasers or visitors, the stock is shown freely, and the satisfaction of all who call is studied—and last but not least, the prices to buyers, either to the trade or at retail, will be found as low as the lowest.

 is copied from the Boston Courier:

TRIUMPH OF ART.—We have just had the pleasure of examin-
 most perfect specimens of the dental art, we venture to say, that was ever produced. It was an entire upper set of teeth upon a gold plate, so admirably adapted to the roof of the mouth, and there so firmly held by the simple power of atmospheric pressure, that a weight of fifteen pounds could be sustained without starting it from its place. It was so perfect in every part, that Nature herself could not excel it in beauty. Well may Boston be proud of the experience, talent and skill of Dr. Cummings.

The Boston Weekly Museum,

BY PUTNAM & MELLEN, 12 School street, is the handsomest paper in America, and contains more reading matter than any other literary paper in the United States. Terms—$2.50 a year, by carrier; $2 by mail, in advance. A few of the many unsolicited notices of the press are subjoined:

The WEEKLY MUSEUM, which has been published in Boston something more than a year, is decidedly the most splendid weekly that we know of in the world.—Eastern Times, Bath, Me.

The MUSEUM has become a popular newspaper, and it is as deservedly so, at present, as at any previous time.—Lynn News.

We recommend the MUSEUM to the public as the best family paper in the country.—Vox Populi, Lowell, Mass.

There is not a more beautifully printed paper in the country than Putnam & Mellen's MUSEUM.—The Democrat, Bangor, Me.

The large amount of reading matter which it (the Museum) contains is of an instructive character; added to which, we find in each number a choice piece of music.—Express, Lancaster, Pa.

The MUSEUM is taking a higher rank in the Republic of Letters than its best friends prognosticated.—Oxford Demo., Paris, Me.

The BOSTON MUSEUM is as good a weekly miscellaneous paper as is printed in the United States.—Boston Post.

It (the MUSEUM) is an admirable paper—one of the few papers that can be read profitably and pleasantly.—Sunday Merc'y, N. Y.

MAYNARD AND NOYES' BLACK WRITING INK.

THIS INK has stood the test of thirty years' experience, and during this time has been constantly increasing in public favor and patronage, and is now the leading article in the country. It flows with freedom, becomes permanently black, does not mould under any circumstances, and is adapted to either metallic or quill pens.

Office of Merchants' Ins. Co.

Boston, November 18, 1848.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

I have used your Writing Ink for the last sixteen years. In 1840, I gave you a certificate of its excellence, and having continued its use ever since, to my entire satisfaction, my opinion is confirmed in its superiority. It flows freely from the pen, and is in all respects the best Ink I have ever used. The other officers in the institution agree with me in the opinion here expressed.

GEORGE HOMER, Sec.

Boston, May 27, 1846.

For twenty years past I have had occasion to use ink daily, and sometimes for the nicest of penmanship; occasionally, necessity or curiosity has led me to make use of the article made by different individuals, — but I can cheerfully state that I have never found any that combined so many good qualities as that made by Maynard & Noyes.

N. D. GOULD,

Teacher of Penmanship.

Registry of Deeds,

Boston, Nov. 26th, 1847.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

I have made use of your Writing Ink for the recording of Deeds, &c. the past twenty-five years, and having found it to suit my wishes and purposes entirely, take pleasure in renewing my testimonial of its superiority. From the appearance of the Records in my office, I am satisfied it is superior to any I have used, and consider it particularly adapted for all purposes, where permanency of color is requisite or desirable. It flows well from the pen, and does not mould; and my oldest Records prove its color to be unalterably black.

H. ALLINE, Register of Deeds.

Boston, Jan. 10, 1848.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen, — It is now, I believe, more than twenty years since the School Committee passed an order for using your Black Writing Ink in the City Schools. I have used it during that period, and deem it a first rate article, and cheerfully recommend it to others. It flows freely from the pen, and increases in blackness after being committed to paper, and the color is durable. I know of no Ink equal to yours, and I have tried many kinds, both English and American.

P. MACKINTOSH, Jr.,

Principal of the Writing Dep.,
Hancock School.

Boston, Oct. 15, 1849.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen, — Your note of the 10th inst., asking us to state the length of time we had used your Writing Ink, and our opinion of its quality, was duly received. We have made use of it generally for the last twenty years, and have found it always of satisfactory quality, being free from those objectionable points so troublesome and common in writing liquids generally. Wishing for it a still more extended sale, we are, gentlemen, Y'r ob't'sv'ts, J. M. BEEBE & CO.

Post Office, Boston, Oct. 2, 1843.

The Black Writing Ink manufactured by Messrs. Maynard & Noyes, has been used in this office for several years past. Other inks have, during that time, been tested, but theirs has been in every instance preferred. For fluidity, blackness, and permanency, the three important requisites, none has been found equal to it.

GEO. W. GORDON, P. M.

COPYING INK.

This Ink gives a copy as distinct and perfect as the original, and combines all the properties of our Writing Ink. This quality particularly adapts it for Court-House use, as it answers all the purposes for which a Writing Liquid is wanted.

For Sale, Wholesale and Retail, by the Manufacturers, 11 Merchants' row, and Stationers and Booksellers generally, in the city and States.
