Title 3—
The President

Proclamation 4636 of February 1, 1979

Red Cross Month, 1979

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Since its founding in 1881, the American Red Cross has had one basic purpose: The concern for others in distress. Indicative of this concern is the fact that over five million people successfully completed Red Cross safety courses last year. Many of them received instructions in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first aid techniques for choking. Exemplifying this concern is the Certificate of Merit, which is presented to our fellow Americans who have saved or sustained a human life with the skills learned in a Red Cross first aid, small craft or water safety training program. Since 1928, well over 6,000 persons have received this award.

The Red Cross also operates its Blood Services, which collects and processes half of the supply of blood needed by the Nation's medical facilities. Red Cross is continuously seeking new and more economical uses for blood and blood products. And there is always a need for more volunteer blood donors to meet the ever-increasing need for this lifesaving gift.

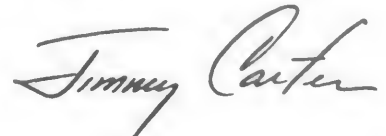

The Red Cross serves members of the armed forces, their families and veterans through financial assistance, counselling and emergency communications. Thousands of disaster victims each year receive a variety of Red Cross services, including emergency food, shelter and clothing, first aid and medical help, replacement of occupational tools and other vital services.

And Red Cross volunteers may be found each day performing compassionate, personal tasks to aid the elderly, the handicapped and the homebound. Young people develop leadership skills as they assist in Red Cross programs in their schools and communities.

Each year, March is observed as Red Cross Month. Although the American Red Cross works closely with government, there are no Federal funds appropriated for its support. The Red Cross depends upon the American people for membership and voluntary contributions to carry out the functions of its Congressional Charter.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIMMY CARTER, President of the United States of America and Honorary Chairman of the American Red Cross, designate March 1979, as Red Cross Month. I urge all Americans to give generous support to the work of their local Red Cross chapter.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this first day of February, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and third.

Title 7—Agriculture

CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

PART 959—ONIONS GROWN IN SOUTH TEXAS

Expenses and Rate of Assessment

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This regulation authorizes expenses for the functioning of the South Texas Onion Committee. It will enable the committee to collect assessments from first handlers on all assessable onions and to use the resulting funds for its expenses.

EFFECTIVE DATE: During fiscal period ending July 31, 1979.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Charles R. Brader, Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, AMS, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. Telephone: (202) 447-6393.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Findings. Pursuant to Marketing Order No. 959, as amended (7 CFR Part 959), regulating the handling of onions grown in South Texas, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, established under the marketing order, and upon other information, it is found that the expenses and rate of assessment, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to provide 60 days for interested persons to file comments, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date until 30 days after publication (5 U.S.C. 553), as the order requires that the rate of assessment for a particular fiscal period shall apply to all assessable onions handled from the beginning of such period. Handlers and other interested persons were given an opportunity to submit information and views on the expenses and assessment rate at an open meeting of the committee. It is necessary to effectuate the declared purposes of the act to make these provisions effective as specified.

This regulation has not been determined significant under USDA criteria for implementing Executive Order 12044.

The regulation is as follows:

§ 959.218 Expenses and rate of assessment.

(a) The reasonable expenses that are likely to be incurred during the fiscal period ending July 31, 1979, by the South Texas Onion Committee for its maintenance and functioning and for such other purposes as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate will amount to $126,632.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler in accordance with this part shall be two cents ($0.02) per 50-pound container or equivalent quantity, of onions handled by him as the first handler thereof during the fiscal period.

(c) Unexpended income in excess of expenses for the fiscal period may be carried over as a reserve.

(d) Terms used in this section have the same meaning as when used in the marketing agreement and this part.

(Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; (7 U.S.C. 601-674).)

Dated: January 30, 1979.

D. S. KURYLOSKI,
Acting Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background and Purpose.
II. Discussion of Comments.

I. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

On May 12, 1978, the ERA issued a final rule which amended the Mandatory Petroleum Allocation Regulations to include liquid synthetic fuels in the entitlements program (43 FR 21429, May 18, 1978). The purpose of the final rule was to eliminate the inconsistencies that had previously existed in the regulations regarding the differing treatment under the entitlements program of synthetic liquid fuels and imported crude oil. This inconsistency was intended to be redressed by providing for the issuance of entitlements with respect to certain synthetic fuels, thus allowing these synthetic fuels to receive the same treatment under the program that imported crude oil receives.

The final rule provides that shale oil produced from domestic oil shale and used in a refinery as a feedstock or fuel automatically will receive entitlement benefits on the same per barrel basis as crude oil. The rule also provides that the ERA may, on a case-by-case basis, grant entitlements benefits for liquid petroleum substitutes produced from domestic sources of biomass, coal, solid waste, and tar sands, as well as shale oil used outside a refinery, to promote the development of petroleum substitutes from non-petroleum domestic resources and thus reduce our dependence on imported crude oil.

On August 24, 1978, the ERA issued proposed guidelines to be used in the evaluation of applications for designation as a producer, marketer, or consumer of a petroleum substitute (43 FR 38844, August 31, 1978). The purpose of that notice was to propose and receive public comments on the guidelines. The purpose of this notice is to discuss those comments and to advise the public of our adoption of the guidelines appended to this notice.

The guidelines are intended to advise potential applicants as to the general procedures and criteria that will be applied in determining when and how the ERA will provide for entitlement issuances with respect to a petroleum substitute. They are not intended to create any fixed and absolute rules. The criteria established in the guidelines are intended to operate as flexible decisional standards, and the ultimate determination of whether or not entitlement issuances should be provided will depend upon all the relevant facts and circumstances of the particular case.

II. DISCUSSION OF COMMENTS

There were a total of twenty-three (23) comments submitted on the guidelines. The majority of the comments favored the inclusion of liquid petroleum substitutes under the entitlements program.

Two main questions were raised in a number of comments. First, eleven of the twenty-three commenters stated that the guidelines should be expanded to include both solid and gaseous petroleum substitutes, as well as liquid petroleum substitutes, within the program. However, we have concluded that to expand the guidelines to grant entitlements to other than liquid petroleum substitutes would be beyond the scope of the rule adopted on May 12, 1978, and would necessitate a change in the current rule which these guidelines are intended to implement. In the process of reviewing all comments and information available to us, we are attempting to determine the necessity for and benefits of such a regulatory modification.

The second area that generated substantial comment concerned the decisional criteria set forth in the guidelines for the evaluation of applications, specifically the criteria concerning "net energy gain" and "higher valued fuel." In particular, some commenters contended that the production of alcohol for blending into gasohol may involve a net energy loss and should therefore be excluded from the program. Others, however, contended that the alcohol is, when blended into gasohol, a higher-valued fuel than that consumed in the process of manufacture, and should therefore be included in the program. It is not our purpose, and it would not be appropriate, for us to make a broad categorical determination here concerning gasohol or any other liquid synthetic fuel. We intend to evaluate applications on a case-by-case basis, balancing the net energy gain or loss against the question of whether the process results in a higher-valued fuel, without prescribing a particular priority among these potentially competing criteria. Our decisions will be based upon the exercise of sound discretion and will depend upon all of the relevant facts available to us at the time of the decision on the particular application. Therefore, no a priori categorical determination can or should be made with respect to whether a particular fuel should or should not receive entitlements. The guidelines adopted have therefore preserved our flexibility to decide these matters on the basis of the totality of the facts presented in a particular case. The flexibility of these guidelines will also provide for an ability on our part to respond to changing circumstances in the future.

We should also note that, in general, any grant of entitlements pursuant to this program would not be intended to create vested rights in the recipient to continue to receive entitlements, regardless of changes in relevant circumstances or in the general regulatory program. Prior grants would therefore in principle be subject to review and possible modification, if warranted.

A few commenters expressed the viewpoint that petroleum substitutes should not be included in the entitlements program at all. We believe, however, that the thrust of these comments is beyond the purposes and scope of this proceeding, which is to provide guidelines for the implementation of the final rule previously adopted.

Given that no other substantial objections or concerns were mentioned in the comments, and in view of the foregoing, the ERA is adopting the guidelines essentially as proposed, as set forth below.

Issued in Washington, D.C. January 19, 1979.

HAZEL R. ROLLINS,
Deputy Administrator, Economic Regulatory Administration.

GUIDELINES FOR EVALUATION OF APPLICATIONS FOR DESIGNATION AS A PRODUCER, MARKETER OR CONSUMER OF PETROLEUM SUBSTITUTES IN THE ENTITLEMENTS PROGRAM

1. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

On May 12, 1978, the Economic Regulatory Administration (ERA) issued a final rule amending the Mandatory Petroleum Allocation Regulations to include petroleum substitutes¹ in the entitlements program (43 FR 21429, May 18, 1978). The final rule provides for the automatic inclusion in the entitlements program of petroleum substitutes made from domestic oil shale and used by a refiner in a domestic refinery as feedstock or fuel. The final rule also provides that the ERA may, on a case-by-case basis, grant entitlement benefits for petroleum substitutes made from domestic biomass, coal, solid waste or tar, sands, and for non-refinery uses of domestic shale oil. These guidelines set forth the procedures and criteria under which ERA will review each application and determine an applicant's eligibility to participate in the program.

2. WHO MAY APPLY

If you are currently producing a petroleum substitute, constructing a facility to produce a petroleum substitute, or planning, designing, or otherwise considering the development of a facility to produce a petroleum substitute from domestic biomass, coal, oil shale, solid waste, or tar sands, you may apply for designation as a producer of a petroleum substitute that is eligible to receive entitlements. If you are a marketer or consumer (including a refiner) of a petroleum substitute, you may apply for entitlements whenever the producer (and any other entity through which you directly or indirectly obtain the substitute) does not desire to apply. However, you must obtain and provide ERA with the written agreement of the producer and any other entity preceding you in the distribution chain not to claim entitlements with respect to such substitute. After review of the application, if ERA determines that the petroleum substitute qualifies for entitlements, it will designate the entity in the production and distribution chain that will participate in the entitlements program with respect to that petroleum substitute. The direct entitlement benefit will be given to only one member in the production and distribution chain, although other entities in the production and distribution chain may receive the benefits indirectly in their cost for raw materials or for the petroleum substitute. Each designee (whether a producer, marketer, or consumer of a petroleum substitute) will, if qualified, receive the entitlement benefits when the petroleum substitute is actually produced and sold or consumed as a petroleum substitute. Benefits will be granted only for the volume of petroleum substitute being sold or consumed by the designee.

3. CONTENTS OF APPLICATION

The application will consist of a completed Form ERA-83 and any supplementary information requested in the instructions to the form.

4. WHERE TO MAIL YOUR APPLICATION

If you want ERA to designate you as a producer, marketer, or consumer of a petroleum substitute for inclusion in the entitlements program, submit a completed Form ERA-83 to the following address:

Economic Regulatory Administration, Fuels Regulation, Petroleum Substitutes, P.O. Box 19326, Washington, D.C. 20036.

5. CRITERIA FOR REVIEW OF APPLICATION

ERA will review applications to determine that each of the following criteria are met:

(a) Liquid Form. The petroleum substitute produced in the described process is in liquid form.

(b) Source—Domestic. The petroleum substitute produced must be derived from domestic sources of biomass, coal, oil shale, solid waste, or tar sands. Petroleum substitutes derived from oil shale and used by a refiner in a domestic refinery as feedstock or fuel are automatically included in the entitlements program and no application is needed. Under no conditions will imported supplies of biomass, coal, oil shale, tar sands or solid waste be considered eligible sources of petroleum substitutes for purposes of this program.²

(c) Usage—Fuel, Feedstock. Once produced the petroleum substitute must be consumed or marketed for consumption and used in one or more of the following manners before the ERA can designate it as a petroleum substitute:

- (1) Refinery feedstock;
- (2) Fuel blendstock;
- (3) Boiler or engine fuel; or
- (4) Any other direct use as a fuel.

(d) Net Energy Gain and/or Higher-Valued Fuel. The determination to grant the entitlements will be in part dependent upon whether production of the substitute results in a net gain of energy and/or whether the substitute is a higher-valued fuel than that consumed in the process. The description of the process by which the petroleum substitute is manufactured should demonstrate the relative energy value (in BTUs) of the petroleum substitute produced compared to the energy value (in BTUs) of the fuel consumed by the process. The process description should further demonstrate why the petroleum substitute produced is a higher-valued fuel than those fuels consumed in its production.

The primary factors in the determination of whether a fuel is a higher-valued fuel are: (1) The availability in the United States of the fuels consumed in production, and the degree of dependency of consumers upon such fuels; and (2) the availability in the United States of fuels which the petroleum substitute will supplant, and the degree of dependency of consumers upon such fuels. Fuels which are in short supply will ordinarily be considered higher-valued fuels, and consumption of substantial quantities of such fuels to manufacture the petroleum substitute will be less likely to result in a determination that the resultant product is a higher-valued fuel.

(e) Environmental impact of the petroleum substitute. You should identify the particular components of the petroleum substitute that differ from those of the crude oil-based fuel that the petroleum substitute will replace, and identify the incremental environmental effects of burning or evaporating the petroleum substitute or of its production. You should assess the environmental effects in light of the quantities and expected uses of the substitute. If prior studies or determinations concerning the environmental effects of the substitute have been made, you should provide a copy of the relevant portions of these studies or determinations. If you do not know the environmental effects of your project, indicate this in your application and ERA will assist you.

(f) Petroleum substitution. You should describe how, when and the circumstances under which the petroleum substitute will be substituted for the use of crude oil or refined petroleum products. A showing that such a substitution will occur is necessary in order to obtain entitlements benefits.

(g) Who will receive entitlements benefits. The entitlements benefits will be given to only one person, group, firm or corporate entity in the distribution chain from the producer of the petroleum substitute to the consumer of the final product. The producer of the petroleum substitute will in many cases be the recipient of the entitlements issuances, although the ERA may issue the entitlements to any refiner in the chain that is already a participant in the entitlements program for reasons of administrative simplicity.

(h) Entitlement benefits. Petroleum substitutes derived from oil shale, and petroleum substitutes having a gross heating value of 5.7 million BTUs or more per barrel, will receive entitlement benefits on the same per barrel basis as crude oil. For all other petroleum substitutes, entitlements will be granted to each barrel on the basis of the same ratio to a full entitlement as the gross per barrel heating value of the substitute bears to 5.7 million BTUs.

6. PROCESSING PROCEDURES

As the applicant, you must identify and notify all parties involved in the production and distribution chain of the substitute of the pendency of the application. If you are unable to identify all such parties, you should indicate this in the application. ERA reserves the right to make available to such parties copies of the application and supporting documentation (except to the extent that information contained therein may be withheld from the public under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4)), for the verification of any information submitted and the receipt of their views concerning the granting of the application. As the applicant, you must follow the general and formal filing procedures provided in Subpart G of Part 205 of Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (10 CFR 205.9 and 205.90 et seq.). We recognize that some applicants may not have had any previous experience with government regulations. Consequently, our Office of Fuels Regulation will, in addition to receiving the applications, render assistance to any small enterprises that need help in completing these filing requirements.

Applicants must submit two copies of the application. One copy (the "confidential" version) should contain all relevant information. The other copy (the "non-confidential" version) should not contain any information which you believe is confidential or non-disclosable to the public under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4). ERA may consult with other offices of the Department of Energy or other agencies of the Federal or State governments on certain aspects of the application in order to verify the energy consumption or determine any potential environmental effects of the production process or the use of the substitute. ERA also reserves the right to make any additional consultations it deems necessary. Normally, the applicant will be advised of such consultations.

7. DECISIONS AND ORDERS

All decisions and orders will be issued by the Assistant Administrator for Fuels Regulation. All decisions and orders will set forth the relevant facts, the criteria applied, and the decision made, together with a concise statement of the analysis used in reaching the decision.

The order shall identify the recipient of the entitlement benefits (if granted) and shall specify the manner in which the amount of the entitlements will be determined.

A decision and order issued under this program may be appealed to the Office of Hearings and Appeals in accordance with the procedures set forth in 10 CFR 205.97 and 205.100 et seq.

[Docket No. 18142; Amdt. No. 11-16]

PART 11—GENERAL RULEMAKING PROCEDURES

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment prescribes procedures for the publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, in each appropriate case, of (1) petitions, or summaries of petitions, for rulemaking or exemptions; (2) denials of petitions for rulemaking, and grants or denials of petitions for exemptions. The amendment enhances the public's ability to comment on any published petition, or summary of a petition. Public participation before the initiation of rulemaking procedures and in the exemption process, is expected to improve the quality of administrative decision making. Further, the publication of denials of petitions for rulemaking and grants or denials of petitions for exemptions should increase public awareness of agency actions. As a result, this amendment furthers the intent of Executive Order 12044. This amendment is not applicable to rules concerning airspace assignment and use and to petitions for medical exemptions.

² Certain synthetic crude oil made from tar sands and imported from Canada is already included in crude oil runs to stills for purposes of the entitlements program. See 10 CFR 211.67(d)(3), and 40 FR 39847, August 29, 1975. However, petroleum substitutes made in the United States from imported tar sands are not included.

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 20, 1979.

Mr. Edward P. Faberman, Regulations and Enforcement Division, Office of the Chief Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20591; telephone (202) 426-3073.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

BACKGROUND

This amendment is based on a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (Notice No. 78-10) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 24, 1978 (43 FR 3936). That Notice invited comment by all interested persons. All persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all matters presented.

This amendment is part of the FAA's continuing effort to expedite its rulemaking and exemption programs and to make them more responsive to the public. This amendment increases early public participation in the agency's rulemaking process and enhances public awareness of agency actions.

DISCUSSION OF COMMENTS

The FAA received twenty comments from members of the general public, aviation industry, organizations representing consumer groups, and organizations representing pilots and flight attendants. The majority of the comments received were on the overall rule. These comments will be discussed first with a discussion of comments received on specific sections of the amendment to follow.

Those in support of the proposal and their comments were the following:

Avco Lycoming Williamsport Division (Avco) states that they were in "full agreement" with the NPRM if it will facilitate FAA action. As to the publication of summaries, they stated that this "will fill a current gap in public information."

The County of Los Angeles Department of Consumer Affairs states "with regular publication and invitations to comment, the public will be provided with improved opportunity to express its thoughts * * *."

The Association of Flight Attendants (AFA) states that the FAA "is to be congratulated for its efforts to open its rulemaking procedure to the public."

The Air Line Pilots Association states that it concurs with the basic intent of the NPRM which is in keeping with the Administration's policies to increase public participation in the regulatory process.

The Town-Village Aircraft Safety & Noise Abatement Committee (Town-Village Committee) stated "it is gratifying to see that steps are being considered to let the public become aware of change at the beginning and not after it is too late to alter decisions."

Both the Council on Environmental Alternatives, Inc., and the Independent Federation of flight Attendants both "strongly" supported the proposal. Letters supporting the proposal were also received from New York State Department of Transportation (NYDOT), Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA), Flight Engineers' International Association, Independent Union of Flight Attendants (IUFA) and Mr. Jay Lewin.

Those opposed to the proposal were the following:

M. Richard Berryman states that the proposal concerning exemptions would have the effect of interfering with the leasing of U.S.-registered aircraft to foreign carriers which would impede the optimum utilization of U.S. aircraft, detract from U.S. trade, and adversely impact the U.S. balance of payments.

Cathay Pacific Airways Limited (Cathay) states that as a result of the proposal, the FAA's existing timetable for processing exemptions would be lengthened which would lead to a severe reduction in the lease of U.S.-registered transport aircraft from U.S. sources. Itavia Airlines objected for a similar reason.

The New Hampshire Aeronautics Commission states that it is not in favor of any further enlargement of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The Air Transport Association (ATA) states that the proposal is not adequately justified, would provide no significant improvement to the existing rulemaking process, would needlessly complicate the process for obtaining exemptions, and that it would cause additional delays to the current procedures.

The Aerospace Industries Association of America (AIA) states the information made available to the public is unlikely to provide a response from the public that will contribute to reasonable and objective rulemaking and exemptions and will have an adverse effect upon the exemption processing time.

In discussing these proposals, it must be noted that under current Part 11, individuals can submit comments on petitions for rulemaking and exemptions (14 CFR 11.31). Comments received are reviewed in connection with the disposition of the petition. Although the FAA has not received a substantial number of comments on petitions, it has been our experience that analysis of the comments received has not delayed consideration of these petitions.

The effect of this amendment, therefore, would not be to create a new comment procedure but to expand it so that all interested parties are notified of petitions pending before the agency and are given the opportunity to submit comments on petitions for rulemaking or exemption.

Section 1 of Executive Order 12044 (March 23, 1978) states that "regulations shall be developed through a process which ensures that * * * opportunity exists for early participation and comment by other Federal agencies, State and local governments, business, organizations and individual members of the public."

The FAA believes that this amendment is consistent with the President's directive. The number of comments received in support of this proposal is evidence that the public will submit comments under the new procedures and does want to participate in the development of agency regulations and exemptions. In addition, this early public and industry participation will assist the FAA in meeting other objectives contained in Executive Order 12044 including consideration and analysis of meaningful regulatory alternatives.

The FAA believes that the benefits to the public and the agency as a result of this increased participation in the agency's rule-making process far outweigh the additional material that will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER or the fact that processing time for certain petitions might be increased. The FAA further believes that this amendment will result in a lessening of the time required to process many petitions as a result of increased public awareness of the type of exemptions granted by the agency and of the information required to be submitted in support of those petitions. The cost and time involved in the submission of petitions by the public should be lessened by making readily available all petitions previously denied or granted. This should further result in fewer petitions submitted which are identical to ones previously denied. In addition, the amount of time spent by agency officials in assisting petitioners in the submission of documentation should also be lessened. As a result of this and since the quality of petitions submitted to the agency should be improved, the FAA believes that this amendment will accelerate the decisionmaking process involved in the review of petitions.

The FAA is concerned by the amount of time expended on processing petitions. Petitions must be submitted in accordance with the requirements of § 11.25(b)(1) which requires that petitions "be submitted at least 120 days before the proposed effective date of the exemption." The FAA will closely monitor these procedures to ensure that delays do not develop as a result of these new procedures. If necessary, adjustments will be made to eliminate any problems encountered.

It must be emphasized that submission of all information required by these procedures by petitioners will assist the FAA in the handling of petitions in a timely manner. Failure to submit all required information, particularly summaries as required by § 11.25(c) and (d), will increase FAA processing time and delay publication.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS

AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION

The Town-Village Committee suggests that since many individuals do not receive the Federal Register, then notices should be mailed to individuals on a mailing list. The FAA does have a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) Distribution system in which members of the public can obtain copies of specific NPRMs or to receive copies of NPRMs relating to a specific FAR Part. Persons interested in obtaining copies of NPRMs in accordance with these procedures should contact:

Federal Aviation Administration, Office of Public Affairs, Attn.: Public Information Center, APA-440, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20591.

The FAA is reviewing the possibility of including distribution of information submitted to the FEDERAL REGISTER pursuant to this amendment in a similar manner.

AFA suggests that a summary of rulemaking actions maintained in the Offices of the Regional Counsel for each region should be maintained in the Office of the Chief Counsel. The Office of Chief Counsel does maintain dockets for regional actions, however, these actions will not be included in summaries maintained under this amendment. As a result of the number of actions handled by the regions, summarizing them might create an undue administrative burden on the agency. The FAA will reexamine this decision based upon experience with the operation of this amendment.

PROPOSED EFFECTIVE DATE

AFA suggests that since petitions for exemptions are submitted without a proposed effective date, it is difficult for interested parties to know when their comments must be submitted. Therefore, they suggest that § 11.25(b) should clearly specify that a proposed effective date of the exemption is required. Under new § 11.27(c), twenty days will be allowed for public comment. Final action will not be taken until the comment period has been completed. Thus, the public will know the specific date by which their comments must be submitted.

COMMENT PERIOD

AFA suggests that subsections (b) and (c) of Section 11.27 should be amended to state that summaries will be published within 7 days after receipt. While the FAA will make every effort to publish the summaries when received, priorities and staffing limitations may prevent publication of these summaries immediately. In addition, FAA documents are only published twice a week as a result of FEDERAL REGISTER requirements. Therefore, the FAA believes that requiring publication of these summaries within a certain time frame would create an undue administrative burden on the agency.

Section 11.27(c) states that 20 days will be allowed for public comment after publication of a petition for exemption. The IUFA states that "as NPRMs will be allowed 60 days, so should the petitions for exemptions." NYDOT suggests that 30 days rather than 20 days should be allowed for public comment petitions for exemptions. In determining the time period allowed for the submission of comments, the need to provide adequate time for public response must be balanced against the continued handling of petitions in a timely manner. The FAA believes that a 20 day comment period will enable the agency to meet both of these objectives. In this connection, it must be noted that § 11.47(a) states that comments submitted after the closing date "are considered so far as possible without incurring expense or delay."

ACAP recommended in its comments that the proposal be modified to state that the agency has 120 days after the close of the initial comment period to initiate rulemaking or else deny the petition. They state that "by acting in this time frame, the Administrator can assure the petitioner and the public at large that it is moving swiftly on the resolution of important safety questions." Although the agency does respond to most petitions for rulemaking within this time frame, the response to a particular petition is dependent upon regulatory priorities within the agency (many involving safety issues), staffing limitations, and the complexity of the issues raised. Since these factors vary and to a large extent are not under the agency's control, a time limitation such as the one proposed by ACAP would not be beneficial and in fact would in many cases result in the premature denial of petitions.

The agency is aware, however, that as a result of these priorities agency action on a particular petition is often delayed without the petitioner having knowledge of its current status. The FAA does believe that a person who has submitted a petition for rulemaking should be kept apprised as to where it is in the regulatory process. Therefore, a paragraph (k) is added to § 11.27 which will require that a petitioner be advised of the status of a petition for rulemaking 120 days after it is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and every 120 days thereafter until it is denied or issued as a notice of proposed rulemaking.

CONTENT OF SUMMARY

The AFA suggests that the following information be contained in the published summary:

1. If the Administrator determines to reduce the public comment period, deviations should be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as should the basis of the Administrator's determination.
2. The basis upon which the disposition was made and the reasons why contrary comments submitted to the FAA were rejected.
3. FAA's findings on each safety issue to be stated with the justification for those findings.

As to the suggestion that deviations to the length of the public comment period be published, if a period other than stated in the regulation is utilized, that information will be included in the summary. The purpose of the publication of the summaries is to keep the public advised as to FAA rulemaking activities. The summary is not intended to be a complete synopsis of agency documents. Instead, it is intended that parties interested in a particular petition for exemption or rulemaking will write to the FAA or go to the FAA docket section to obtain a copy of the document which interests them. Therefore, it is not necessary to publish the basis upon which the disposition was made or why certain public comments were rejected since that information will be contained in the final disposition.

DOCUMENTS TO BE PUBLISHED

AFA suggests that "emergency exemptions" be published as required by § 11.27(e), (f), (g) and (h). They state that publication, although after the fact, would inform the public of the FAA's actions in emergency situations. The FAA concurs. The provisions of § 11.27(f), (g), and (h) will apply to emergency actions.

AFA suggests that petitions for rule-making and exemptions involving Airworthiness Directives and those involving Part 139 should be subject to the same publication and comment requirements as are other petitions. ALPA states that exemptions from the requirements of Part 139 and deviations allowed by the Administrator from the provisions of Part 121 "should be made subject to the formal processing," since they raise questions concerning such matters as the adequacy of the crash, fire and rescue status at airports, and operating requirements such as survival equipment aboard aircraft.

Exemptions processed under Part 139 and exceptions to airworthiness directives are processed by FAA regional offices and basically concern local situations which are of limited interest to the general public. To subject these regional actions to the publication requirements of § 11.27(c) would create an undue administrative delay which would slow down the regulatory process. After further review, however, the FAA agrees that exemptions granted or denied under Part 139 or airworthiness directives should be published in accordance with § 11.27(f) and (g). Accordingly, § 11.27(i) and (j) are amended to require publication of these summaries.

As to ALPA's suggestion that regulatory deviations be included in the exemption process, the FAA does not believe that deviations are analogous to the regulatory actions included in this amendment. Deviation authority is contained in specific regulations. The public was given the opportunity to comment on the deviation authority when the regulation in which it was contained was promulgated. As a result of this and since deviations are granted at the local level primarily for specific factual situations, the FAA does not believe that they should be included within the publication requirements of this amendment.

The FAA does agree that deviation requests should be documented and available to the public. Therefore, the FAA is instituting a new procedure whereby deviation requests submitted by a carrier will be maintained in a docket by the FAA certificate holding office having jurisdiction over the carrier's operations. Individuals wishing to examine a particular docket should contact the certificate holding office in order to make arrangements to review the docket.

The NPRM specifically solicited comments on the usefulness of publishing medical exemptions from Part 67. The only comments received on this issue were from NYDOT and AOPA. NYDOT stated that they did not see any value in publishing summaries of FAA actions on medical exemptions. AOPA stated that if action is taken to insure that the published exemptions do not violate the airman's privacy, then they feel that publication of these exemptions will be particularly helpful. As a result of the large number of these petitions processed monthly (75-100), the FAA does not believe that it would be beneficial to publish summaries of agency action on medical exemptions at this time. The FAA will reexamine this decision after experience is gained with this amendment.

Several commenters have expressed the view that the proposed procedures might interfere with the leasing of U.S.-registered aircraft to foreign carriers. They state that timely processing of these petitions for exemption is essential to insure optimum utilization of U.S. aircraft, develop U.S. trade, improve relations with foreign governments, and stabilize U.S. balance of payments. These commenters state that in order to complete such a lease agreement, it is often necessary to obtain exemptions from various sections of the Federal Aviation Regulations relating to issuance of U.S. airman certificates, maintenance requirements, and minimum equipment lists. They further state that expeditious handling of a petition for exemption in these situations is essential before the lease agreement can be completed.

As previously stated, the FAA believes that these procedures will not delay the agency's exemption process. In this connection, it must be noted that a petitioner seeking expedited handling of a petition for exemption is obligated under § 11.25(b)(1) to submit the petition at least 120 days before the proposed effective date of the exemption unless good cause is shown. The FAA does agree, however, that in certain circumstances, such as in foreign lease arrangements, a one or two day period may be critical to the consummation of the lease. In a situation where a petitioner has met the obligation to show why the petition is not submitted 120 days before the proposed effective date and where any delay might be detrimental, the FAA believes the public comment procedures of § 11.27(c) should not apply. A situation in which detriment to the petioner is shown would fall within the "good cause" provision of § 11.27(j)(3).

In order to maximize public involvement in the exemption process, however, the types of petitions to which this exception is applicable will be strictly limited. Section 11.27(j)(3) is amended to set forth these limitations. The factors considered in this "good cause" determination are (1) whether the relief sought is routine and similar to other exemptions issued in the past or would set a precedent; (2) whether the time required for publication would be detrimental to the petitioner, and (3) whether the petitioner has filed the petition in a timely manner. It must be emphasized that the burden to show that "good cause" exists under § 11.27(j)(3) is on the petitioner. The petitioner must present sufficient information in the petition, so that a determination under this section can be made.

Although in these cases, a summary of the petition for exemption will not be published in accordance with § 11.27(c), a summary of a grant of exemption (§ 11.27(e)) or a denial of exemption (§ 11.27(g)) will be published. In this connection, it must also be noted that under new § 11.55(a) and (b), effective November 9, 1978 (43 FR 52203) there are procedures for reconsideration of denials or grants of petitions for exemption. Therefore, the public will have an opportunity to submit their views if they contest the grant of an exemption and submit a petition for reconsideration.

VI. REVIEW OF COMMENTS

ACAP states that proposed § 11.27(g) is broadly written and could be interpreted as permitting the Administrator to deny a petition solely on the basis of adverse initial reaction during the comments phase. Under this section, the agency is required to make a determination as to whether the petition justifies the relief requested. This determination must satisfy judicial requirements. Therefore, the FAA does not believe that this section need be amended.

ADOPTION OF AMENDMENT

Accordingly, the Federal Aviation Administration amends Part 11 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 11) as follows:

1. By revising the first sentence of § 11.11 to read as follows:

§ 11.11 Docket.

Official FAA records relating to rule-making actions, including (a) proposals, (b) notices of proposed rule making, (c) written material received in response to notices, (d) petitions for rule making and exemptions, (e) written material received in response to summaries of petitions for rule making and exemptions, (f) petitions for rehearing or reconsideration, (g) petitions for modification or revocation, (h) notices denying petitions for rule making, (i) notices granting or denying exemptions, (j) summaries required to be published under § 11.27, (k) reports of proceedings conducted under § 11.47, (l) notices denying proposals, and (m) final rules or orders are maintained in current docket form in the Office of the Chief Counsel.

§ 11.15 [Amended]

2. By amending the second sentence of § 11.15 to read: "The procedural requirements of §§ 11.53, 11.71, and 11.91, and the publication and comment procedures of § 11.27 need not be followed."

3. By revising § 11.25 by adding new paragraphs (c) and (d) to read as follows:

§ 11.25 Petitions for rule making or exemptions.

(c) A petition for rule making filed under this section must contain a summary, which may be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as provided in § 11.27(b), which includes—

- (1) A brief description of the general nature of the rule requested; and
- (2) A brief description of the pertinent reasons presented in the petition for instituting rule-making procedures.

(d) A petition for exemption filed under this section must contain a summary, which may be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as provided in § 11.27(c), which includes—

- (1) A citation of each rule from which relief is requested; and
- (2) A brief description of the general nature of the relief requested.

4. By revising § 11.27 to read as follows:

§ 11.27 Action on petitions for rule making or exemptions.

(a) General. Except for the publication and comment procedures provided for in this section, no public hearing, argument, or other formal proceeding is held directly on a petition, filed under § 11.25, before its disposition by the FAA.

(b) Publication of summary of petition for rule making. After receipt of a petition for rule making, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (i) of this section, the FAA publishes a summary of the petition in the FEDERAL REGISTER which includes—

- (1) The docket number of the petition;
- (2) The name of the petitioner;

(3) A brief description of the general nature of the rule requested;

(4) A brief description of the pertinent reasons presented in the petition for instituting rule-making procedures; and

(5) In appropriate situations, a list of questions to assist the FAA in obtaining comment on the petition.

Comments on the petition for rule making must be filed, in triplicate, within 60 days after the summary is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER unless the Administrator, for good cause, finds a different time period appropriate. Timely comments received will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the petition.

(c) Publication of summary of petition for exemption. After receipt of a petition for exemption, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (i) and (j) of this section, the FAA publishes a summary of the petition in the FEDERAL REGISTER which includes—

- (1) The docket number of the petition;
- (2) The name of the petitioner;
- (3) A citation of each rule from which relief is requested; and
- (4) A brief description of the general nature of the relief requested.

Comments on the petition for exemption must be filed, in triplicate, within 20 days after the summary is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER unless the Administrator, for good cause, finds a different time period appropriate. Timely comments received will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the petition.

(d) Instituting rule-making procedures based on a petition. If the Administrator determines, after consideration of any comments received in response to a summary of a petition for rule making, that the petition discloses adequate reasons, the FAA institutes rule-making procedures.

(e) Grant of petition for exemption—summary. If the Administrator determines, after consideration of any comments received in response to a summary of a petition for exemption, that the petition is in the public interest, the Administrator grants the exemption and, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (i) of this section, the FAA publishes a summary of the grant of the petition for exemption in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A summary of a grant of a petition for exemption includes—

- (1) The docket number of the petition;
- (2) The name of the petitioner;
- (3) A citation of each rule from which relief is requested;
- (4) A brief description of the general nature of the relief granted; and
- (5) The disposition of the petition.

(f) Denial of petition for rule making. If the Administrator determines, after consideration of any comments received in response to a summary of a petition for rule making, that the petition does not justify instituting rule-making procedures, the FAA notifies the petitioner to that effect. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (i) of this section, the FAA publishes a summary of the denial of the petition for rule making in the FEDERAL REGISTER in accordance with paragraph (h) of this section.

(g) Denial of petition for exemption. If the Administrator determines, after consideration of any comments received in response to a summary of a petition for exemption, that the petition does not justify granting the requested exemption, the FAA notifies the petitioner to that effect. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (i) of this section, the FAA publishes a summary of the denial of the petition for exemption in the FEDERAL REGISTER in accordance with paragraph (h) of this section.

(h) Summary of denial of petition for rule making or exemption. A summary of a denial of a petition for rule making or exemption includes—

- (1) The docket number of the petition;
- (2) The name of the petitioner;
- (3) In the case of a denial of a petition for exemption, a citation of each rule from which relief is requested;
- (4) A brief description of the general nature of the rule or relief requested; and
- (5) The disposition of the petition.

(i) General exceptions. The publication and comment procedures of paragraphs (b) through (h) of this section do not apply to the following:

- (1) To petitions for rule makings or exemptions processed under § 11.83.
- (2) To petitions for exemptions from the requirements of Part 67 of this chapter.

(j) Exceptions to publication of summary of petition for exemption. The publication and comment procedures of paragraph (c) of this section do not apply to the following:

- (1) To petitions for emergency exemptions processed under § 11.15.
- (2) To petitions for exemptions processed under Part 139 of this chapter.
- (3) Whenever the head of the Office or Service concerned, subject to the approval of the Chief Counsel with respect to form and legality, finds for good cause shown in a petition for exemption that action on the petition should not be delayed by the publication and comment procedures. Factors that may be considered in determining whether good cause exists, include—
 - (i) Whether a grant of exemption would set a precedent or whether the petition for exemption and the reasons presented in it are identical to exemptions previously granted;

(ii) Whether the delay in acting on the petition for exemption that would result from publication would be detrimental to the petitioner; and

(iii) Whether petitioner acted in a timely manner in filing the petition for exemption.

(k) Status of petition for rule making. Within 120 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of a summary of petition for rule making and every 120 days thereafter, unless sooner denied under § 11.51 or issued as a notice of proposed rule making under § 11.65, the Office or Service concerned shall advise petitioner in writing of the status of the petition.

(l) Additional specific provisions. Specific provisions covering actions on petitions are set forth in Subpart C of this part.

(Secs. 313 and 601 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1354 and 1421); sec. 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).)

The Federal Aviation Administration has determined that this document is not significant in accordance with the criteria required by Executive Order 12044, and set forth in the proposed "Department of Transportation Regulatory Policies and Procedures" published in the FEDERAL REGISTER June 1, 1978 (43 FR 23925). In addition, this amendment is procedural in nature and the Federal Aviation Administration has determined that the expected impact of it is so minimal that it does not require an evaluation.

Administrator.

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS
DIRECTIVES

Augusta Model A109A Helicopters

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment adopts a new airworthiness directive (AD) that would require the installation of nuts of improved design on the tailboom attachment bolts of Costruzioni Aeronautiche Giovanni Agusta Model A109A helicopters. The AD is prompted by the reported failure of a nut, which possibly could result in excessive deflection of the tailboom and inflight contact with the main rotor blades.

DATES: Effective March 5, 1979.

Compliance is required within the next 50 hours time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished.

ADDRESSES: The applicable service bulletin may be obtained from: Costruzioni Aeronautiche Giovanni Agusta, Cascina Costa (Gallarate), Italy.

A copy of the service bulletin is contained in the Rules Docket, Room 916, 800 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20591.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

D. C. Jacobsen, Chief, Aircraft Certification Staff, AEU-100, Europe, Africa, and Middle East Region, Federal Aviation, c/o American Embassy, Brussels, Belgium, Telephone 513.38.30.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A proposal to amend Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to include an airworthiness directive requiring replacement of nuts, bolts, and washers attaching the tailboom of Agusta Model A109A helicopters was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER at 43 FR 24849.

The proposal was prompted by the reported failure of a tailboom attachment nut and a determination by FAA that failure of such attachment nuts could result in excessive deflection of the tailboom and possible inflight contact with the main rotor blades.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and one comment was received. That comment stated that the proposed airworthiness directive is not required because Service Bulletin 109-8 has been accomplished on the three Agusta A109A helicopters on the U.S. Register, and will be accomplished on all other applicable helicopters prior to delivery from the factory, therefore negating the need for an AD. However, voluntary compliance with a manufacturer's service bulletin does not relieve the FAA from taking airworthiness directive action, as appropriate.

Upon further review, the FAA has determined that certain changes are needed to convey its original intent—full compliance with the service bulletin. Consequently the AD also requires that the removed hardware be discarded, and provides that the bolts be torqued, checked for torque, and retorqued and rechecked, if necessary, in accordance with the service bulletin.

The amendment is adopted as proposed with the exception of minor clarifying changes and the additions noted above.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of the additions, further notice and public procedure thereon are considered impracticable.

ADOPTION OF THE AMENDMENT

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 39.13) is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

COSTRUZIONI AERONAUTICHE GIOVANNI AGUSTA. Applies to Model A109A helicopters, certificated in all categories, serial numbers 7135 and below.

Compliance is required within the next 50 hours time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished.

To prevent possible failure of the tailboom attachment provisions, remove and discard the nuts MS 21042-L6, the bolts NAS 626-20, and washers MS 20002-C6 and AN 960-616, and install in their place new nuts 42-FLW-624, bolts NAS 626-20, washers MS 20002-C6 and, as needed, one or more washers AN 960-616 and AN 960-616L, torque bolts, inspect bolts for torque, and retorqued and re-inspect torque, if necessary, all in accordance with Agusta Bollettino Tecnico No. 109-8, dated February 6, 1978, or an FAA-approved equivalent approved by the Chief, Aircraft Certification Staff, Federal Aviation Administration, Europe, Africa, and Middle East Region, c/o American Embassy, APO New York, N.Y. 09667.

This amendment becomes effective March 5, 1979.

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS
DIRECTIVES

T210M Airplanes

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This Amendment adds a new Airworthiness Directive (AD) applicable to Cessna Models TU206G, T207A and T210M airplanes equipped with an AiResearch turbocharger (Cessna P/N C295001-0101, AiResearch P/N 406610-5), having a serial number HE0101 through HE0160. On airplanes so equipped it requires replacement of either the turbocharger center housing or the complete turbocharger. This replacement is necessary because it has been determined that the specified serial numbers of the aforementioned turbochargers which may be installed on the above aircraft have thrust bearing anti-rotation pins which have failed or may fail and be ingested into the turbocharger oil scavenge pump. This may cause failure of the oil pressure and scavenge pump drive shaft with resultant loss of engine oil pressure.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 12, 1979.

Donald L. Page, Aerospace Engineer, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Federal Aviation Administration, Central Region, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64106, Telephone (816) 374-3146.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The FAA has determined that the problem described in the summary is an unsafe condition which is likely to exist or develop in other airplanes of the same type design. The agency also determined that an emergency situation existed, that immediate corrective action was required, and that notice and public procedure thereon was impractical and contrary to the public interest. Accordingly, the FAA notified all known registered owners of the airplanes affected by the AD by airmail letters dated December 21, 1978. The AD became effective as to these individuals upon receipt of the letter. Since the unsafe condition described herein may still exist on other Cessna Models TU206G, T207A and T210M airplanes, the AD is being published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as an amendment to Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 39) to make it effective to all persons who did not receive the letter notification.

ADOPTION OF THE AMENDMENT

§ 39.13 [Amended]

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, § 39.13 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Section 39.13) is amended by adding the following new Airworthiness Directive.

CESNA: Applies to Model TU206G, (S/Ns U20604459, U20604465, U20604473, U20604474, U20604480, U20604482 thru U20604484, U20604486, U20604487, U20604491, U20604493, U20604507, U20604567), Model T207A (S/Ns 20700453, 20700455, 20700456), and Model T210M (S/Ns 21062673, 21062699 thru 21062702, 21062704 thru 21062708, 21062711, 21062712, 21062715, 21062717 thru 21062722, 21062724, 21062726, 21062728 thru 21062730, 21062732, 21062734 thru 21062736, 21062738 thru 21062741, 21062746, 21062747 thru 21062752, 21062766, 21062767, 21062818) airplanes certificated in all categories.

Compliance: Required as indicated unless already accomplished.

To preclude failure of the engine oil pressure and scavenge pump drive shaft and resulting oil pressure loss caused by turbocharger oil scavenge pump ingestion of failed turbocharger thrust bearing anti-rotation pins, within the next 10 hours' time-in-service after the effective date of this AD, accomplish the following:

(A) Check the Cessna P/N C295001-0101 (AiResearch P/N 406610-5) turbocharger nameplate to determine if the serial number is HE0101 through HE0160.

(B) If the serial number on the turbocharger nameplate is not one of those specified in Paragraph (A), make an entry in the aircraft maintenance records indicating compliance with this AD and no further action is required.

(C) If the serial number on the turbocharger nameplate is one of those specified in Paragraph (A) replace the turbocharger or replace the turbocharger center housing in accordance with applicable Cessna or AiResearch service instructions.

(D) Airplanes may be flown in accordance with FAR 21.197 to a location where replacement required by Paragraph (C) may be accomplished.

(E) Any equivalent method of compliance with this AD must be approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA, Central Region.

This amendment becomes effective on February 12, 1979, to all persons except those to whom it has already been made effective by an airmail letter from the FAA dated December 21, 1978.

(Secs. 313(a), 601 and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421 and 1423); Sec. 6(c) Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)); Sec. 11.89 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Sec. 11.89).)

NOTE.—The FAA has determined that this document involves a proposed regulation which is not considered to be significant under the procedures and criteria prescribed by Executive Order 12044 and as implemented by interim Department of Transportation guidelines (43 FR 9582; March 8, 1978).

Issued in Kansas City, Missouri on January 26, 1979.

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Lockheed Aircraft Corp.; Model 382 Series

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: A telegraphic airworthiness directive (AD) was adopted on December 29, 1978, and made effective immediately upon receipt of the telegram to all known U.S. operators of Lockheed Model 382 series airplanes. This directive required repetitive visual checks by the flight crew of the Main Landing Gear Ballscrew Assembly, P/N 8353, manufactured by the Calco Company and replacement, if necessary, prior to further flight. This AD was needed to prevent the collapse of the Main Landing Gear which could result in loss of the aircraft. On January 5, 1979, this AD was amended to include a Rockwell hardness test of the Main Landing Gear Ballscrew Assembly, P/N 8353, with a lower mounting flange (-25) casting only, manufactured by the Calco Company.

DATES: This amendment is effective February 5, 1979, and was effective upon receipt for all recipients of the telegram dated December 29, 1978, as amended by the telegram dated January 5, 1979, which contained this amendment.

ADDRESSES: The Lockheed Alert Service Bulletin, A382-32-28, may be obtained from the Lockheed-Georgia Company, Marietta, Georgia 30063, (404) 424-3560 (Model 382 Field Service). A copy of the Bulletin is also located in Room 275, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA, Southern Region, 3400 Whipple Street, East Point, Georgia 30320.

Don Buckley, Aerospace Engineer, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Flight Standards Division, Federal Aviation Administration, P.O. Box 20636, Atlanta, Georgia 30320, telephone (404) 763-7407.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: There was a report of a failure of the Main Landing Gear (MLG) Ballscrew Assembly, P/N 8353-25, lower mounting flange manufactured by the Calco Company and used on Lockheed Model 382 series aircraft. Failure of the MLG P/N 8353-25 flange would result in the collapse of the MLG and possible loss of the aircraft. Since this condition was likely to exist or develop in other aircraft of the same type design, a telegraphic AD was issued on December 29, 1978, which required repetitive visual checks by the flight crew of the MLG P/N 8353 assembly lower mounting flange for cracks and its replacement, if cracks were detected, prior to further flight. Subsequent to the issuance of the initial telegraphic AD, it was determined that visual inspection of the P/N 8353-25 flange was not reliable due to restricted accessibility. Consequently, on January 5, 1979, the telegraphic AD was amended to include a Rockwell hardness test of the Calco P/N 8353-25 lower mounting flange in addition to the repetitive visual checks. Also, at this time the initial AD was clarified to make the AD applicable to the Calco P/N 8353-25 flange made from a casting and not a forging. Both the Calco cast and forged lower mounting flange are stamped with the same part number, P/N 8353-25.

Since a situation existed that required immediate corrective action, it was found that notice and public procedure thereon were impractical and contrary to the public interest, and good cause existed for making the AD effective immediately to all known U.S. operators of Lockheed Model 382 series aircraft by the initial telegram dated December 29, 1978, and the January 5, 1979, amendment. This condition still exists and the telegraphic AD as amended, and with further additional clarification, is hereby published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ADOPTION OF THE AMENDMENT

§ 39.13 [Amended]

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 39.13) is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

LOCKHEED: Applies to all Model 382 series aircraft with Calco manufactured ballscrew assembly, P/N 8353, installed in the main landing gear (MLG). Compliance required as indicated.

To prevent the collapse of the MLG due to a failure of the ballscrew P/N 8353 lower mounting flange and consequently possible loss of the aircraft, accomplish the following:

Within 10 hours time in service after the effective date of this AD and at each pre-flight thereafter on all airplanes with suspect P/N 8353 ballscrew assemblies, lower mounting flange P/N 8353 (castings only, not forgings), perform the repetitive visual check of the MLG Calco P/N 8353 Ballscrew Assembly in accordance with Lockheed Alert Service Bulletin A328-32-28.

NOTE.—Four (4) ballscrew assemblies per airplane).

The checks required by this AD may be performed by the flight crew. If cracks are detected or suspected in the lower mounting flange of the P/N 8353 ballscrew assembly as a result of the above service bulletin inspection requirements, replace the P/N 8353-25 casting with a serviceable forging prior to further flight. In addition to the above repetitive visual checks the following inspection of the P/N 8353-25 casting is required:

1. Prior to 50 hours time in service from the effective date of this AD, perform a Rockwell hardness test to determine that the P/N 8353-25 casting is within acceptable hardness limits to RC-35 of RC-45. If these limits are exceeded the P/N 8353-25 casting must be replaced prior to further flight except that if only one casting per aircraft is determined to be outside these limits, a ferry flight to a place of repair is permissible.

2. If the Rockwell hardness test confirms that the P/N 8353-25 casting is within the prescribed above limits, the casting must be replaced with a serviceable forging within 25 landings or 150 flight hours, whichever occurs first.

NOTE.—The manufacturer's specifications and procedures identified and described in this directive are incorporated herein and made a part hereof pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(1). All persons affected by this directive who have not already received these documents from the manufacturer may obtain copies upon request to Lockheed-Georgia Company, Marietta, Georgia 30063. These documents may also be examined at FAA, Southern Region Office, 3400 Whipple Street, East Point, Georgia, and at FAA Headquarters, 800 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. A historical file on this AD which includes the incorporated material in full is maintained by the FAA at its Headquarters in Washington, D.C. and at the Southern Regional Office.

This amendment is effective Feb. 5, 1979.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE AND REPORTING POINTS

Amendment to Transition Area

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment revises the legal description of the Ogallala,

Nebraska 1,200' transition area. Subsequent to final rule (issued on August 24, 1978, 43 FR 37682), it was revealed the name of Ogallala VOR should be Searle VOR. This amendment deletes the Ogallala VOR and adds the Searle VOR (latitude 41°07'08.3" N., longitude 101°46'32.6" W.) to the description of the Ogallala, Nebraska 1,200' transition area within the State of Colorado.

EFFECTIVE DATE: 0901 G.m.t., April 19, 1979.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

HISTORY

On Thursday, August 24, 1978, the FAA issued final rule for the Ogallala, Nebraska 1,200' transition area within the State of Colorado (43 FR 37682). Subsequent to the final rule, it was revealed that the name of the VOR used in the description of the Ogallala transition area was Searle rather than Ogallala. Therefore, it is necessary to change the legal description of the transition area. It was further determined that issuance of a notice of proposed rulemaking for this amendment would be impractical and not within the interest of the public.

RULE

This amendment to subpart G of Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (FAR's) deletes the Ogallala VOR and adds Searle VOR (latitude 41°07'08.3" N., longitude 101°46'32.6" W.) to the legal description of the Ogallala 1,200' transition area within the State of Colorado.

ADOPTION OF THE AMENDMENT

§ 71.181 [Amended]

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 71) is amended effective April 19, 1979, as follows:

By amending subpart G, section 71.181 (44 FR 442) to read:

OGALLALA, NEBR.

"... and that airspace within the State of Colorado extending upward from 1,200' above the surface within 9.5 miles south of the Searle VOR (latitude 41°07'08.3" N., longitude 101°46'32.6" W.) 258 radial extending to 18.5 miles west."

NOTE.—The Federal Aviation Administration has determined that this document does not contain a major proposal requiring preparation of an Economic Impact Statement under Executive Order 11821, as amended by Executive Order 11949, and OMB Circular A-107.

Issued in Aurora, Colorado on January 26, 1979.

Title 24—Housing and Urban Development

CHAPTER X—FEDERAL INSURANCE ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

SUBCHAPTER B—NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM

[Docket No. FI 5085]

PART 1914—AREAS ELIGIBLE FOR THE SALE OF INSURANCE

Suspension of Community Eligibility

AGENCY: Federal Insurance Administration, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule lists communities where the sale of flood insurance, as authorized under the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP), will be suspended because of noncompliance with the flood plain management requirements of the program.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The third date ("Susp.") listed in the fourth column.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Richard Krimm, Assistant Administrator, Office of Flood Insurance, Room 5270, 451 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, DC 20410, (202) 755-5581 or Toll Free Line 800-424-8872.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP), administered by the Federal Insurance Administration, enables property owners to purchase flood insurance at rates made reasonable through a Federal subsidy. In return, communities agree to adopt and administer local flood plain management measures aimed at protecting lives and new construction from future flooding. Section 1315 of the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended (42 U.S.C. 4022) prohibits flood insurance coverage as authorized under the National Flood Insurance Program (42 U.S.C. 4001-4128) unless an appropriate public body shall have adopted adequate flood plain management measures with effective enforcement measures. The communities listed in this notice no longer meet that statutory requirement for compliance with program regulations (24 CFR Part 1901 et seq.). Accordingly, the communities are suspended on the effective date in the fifth column, so that as of that date subsidized flood insurance is no longer available in the community.

In addition, the Federal Insurance Administration has identified the special flood hazard areas in these communities by publishing a Flood Hazard Boundary Map. The date of the flood map, if one has been published, is indicated in the sixth column of the table. Section 202(a) of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub. L. 93-234), as amended, provides that no direct Federal financial assistance (except assistance pursuant to the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 not in connection with a flood) may legally be provided for construction or acquisition of buildings in the identified special flood hazard area of communities not participating in the NFIP, with respect to which a year has elapsed since publication of a flood insurance map. This prohibition against certain types of Federal assistance becomes effective for the communities listed on the date shown in the last column.

The Federal Insurance Administrator finds that delayed effective dates would be contrary to the public interest. The Administrator also find that notice and public procedure under 5 U.S.C. 553(b) are impracticable and unnecessary.

In each entry, a complete chronology of effective dates appears for each listed community.

Section 1914.6 is amended by adding in alphabetical sequence new entries to the table.

PART 1915—IDENTIFICATION AND MAPPING OF SPECIAL FLOOD HAZARD AREAS

Communities With Minimal Flood Hazard Areas

AGENCY: Federal Insurance Administration, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Federal Insurance Administrator, after consultation with local officials of the communities listed below, has determined, based upon analysis of existing conditions in the communities, that these communities' Special Flood Hazard Areas are small in size, with minimal flooding problems. Because existing conditions indicate that the area is unlikely to be developed in the foreseeable future, there is no immediate need to use the existing detailed study methodology to determine the base flood elevations for the Special Flood Hazard Areas.

Therefore, the Administrator is converting the communities listed below to the Regular Program of the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) without determining base flood elevations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Date listed in fourth column.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

In these communities, the full limits of flood insurance coverage are available at actuarial, non-subsidized rates. The rates will vary according to the zone designation of the particular area of the community.

Flood insurance for contents, as well as structures, is available. The maximum coverage available under the Regular Program is significantly greater than that available under the Emergency Program.

Flood insurance coverage for property located in the communities listed can be purchased from any licensed property insurance agent or broker serving the eligible community, or from the National Flood Insurance Program. The effective date of conversion to the Regular Program will not appear in the Code of Federal Regulations except for the page number of this entry in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 1915—IDENTIFICATION AND MAPPING OF SPECIAL FLOOD HAZARD AREAS

Communities With No Special Hazard Areas

AGENCY: Federal Insurance Administration, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Federal Insurance Administrator, after consultation with local officials of the communities listed below, has determined, based upon analysis of existing conditions in the communities, that these communities would not be inundated by the 100-year flood. Therefore, the Administrator is converting the communities listed below to the Regular Program of the National Flood Insurance Program without determining base flood elevations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Date listed in fourth column of List of Communities with No Special Flood Hazards.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Richard Krimm, Assistant Administrator, Office of Flood Insurance, (202) 755-5581 or Toll Free 800-424-8872, Room 5279, 451 Seventh St., S.W., Washington, D.C. 20410.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In these communities, there is no reason not to make full limits of coverage available. The entire community is now classified as zone C. In a zone C, insurance coverage is available on a voluntary basis at low actuarial non-subsidized rates. For example, under the Emergency Program in which your community has been participating the rate for a one-story 1-4 family dwelling is $.25 per $100 of coverage. Under the Regular Program, to which your community has been converted, the equivalent rate is $.01 per $100 of coverage. Contents insurance is also available under the Regular Program at low actuarial rates. For example, when all contents are located on the first floor of a residential structure, the premium rate is $.05 per $100 of coverage.

In addition to the less expensive rates, the maximum coverage available under the Regular Program is significantly greater than that available under the Emergency Program. For example, a single family residential dwelling now can be insured up to a maximum of $185,000 coverage for the structure and $60,000 coverage for contents.

Flood insurance policies for property located in the communities listed can be obtained from any licensed property insurance agent or broker serving the eligible community, or from the National Flood Insurance Program.

The effective date of conversion to the Regular Program will not appear in the Code of Federal Regulations except for the page number of this entry in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The entry reads as follows:

PART 110—ANCHORAGE REGULATIONS

Special Anchorage Areas, Cabin Creek, Grasonville, Md., and Wye River, Wye, Md.

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DOT.

ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: This rule establishes special anchorages at Cabin Creek, Grasonville, Md., and Wye River, Wye, Md. This regulation is needed to provide anchorage space for small fishing and recreational vessels. Vessels not more than 65 feet in length, when at anchor in any special anchorage area are not required to carry or exhibit anchor lights. Establishing these two special anchorages will safely accommodate small vessel desiring to anchor without the necessity of carrying or displaying anchor lights.

Title 40—Protection of Environment

CHAPTER I—ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

[FRL 1050-5]

PART 15—ADMINISTRATION OF THE CLEAN AIR ACT AND THE CLEAN WATER ACT WITH RESPECT TO FEDERAL CONTRACTS, GRANTS, OR LOANS

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: Executive Order 11738 (September 10, 1973) establishes a program for compliance with clean air and water standards by recipients of Federal contracts, grants, loans and subagreements and directs EPA to identify to Federal agencies certain facilities violating air or water standards, in order for the Federal taxpayer to avoid subsidizing seriously violating facilities.

Section 5 of E.O. 11738 authorizes EPA to issue regulations necessary to implement this program. These regulations were promulgated on April 16, 1975 (40 FR 11724). These regulations assigned responsibility for the maintenance of a list of Violating Facilities ineligible for use in new Federal contracts or assistance to EPA's Office of Federal Activities.

On September 8, 1978, an Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) organizational change became effective. This change transferred the responsibility for administration within EPA of the Executive Order 11738 Program from the Office of Federal Activities to the Office of the Assistant Administrator for Enforcement. The regulations are amended to reflect that internal reorganization.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 5, 1979.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Due to the internal reorganization mentioned above, the regulations must be amended to reflect the replacement of the Director, Office of Federal Activities by the Assistant Administrator for Enforcement. Since these amendments merely change references in the regulation from one EPA official to another and do not change any substantive rules, they are being promulgated today as technical amendments to the existing regulation. These amendments are considered minor and do not meet the criteria for significant EPA regulations.

Additionally, EPA is appending to these regulations a procedural statement explaining the decision-making process within EPA relating to the placement of facilities on the list.

Dated: January 29, 1979.

MARVIN B. DURNING,
Assistant Administrator for Enforcement.

Part 15 of 40 Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

1. Section 15.2 is deleted and a new § 15.2 is inserted:

The Listing Official will prepare a Notice of Proposed Listing for each case in the Docket, and will answer any requests from the facility or the recommending official prior to the Listing Proceeding. At any point prior to a Listing decision, the Recommending Official may request the Listing Official to withdraw the Notice of Proposed Listing due to a change in circumstances, e.g., settlement of the enforcement action.

D. CASE EXAMINER

The Listing Proceeding (40 CFR 15.20(a)(3)) will be chaired by the Case Examiner. A Case Examiner will be appointed for each case on the docket by the Assistant Administrator for Enforcement. The Case Examiner will be an EPA official familiar with pollution control in the media in question, subject to the following restraints:

1. He or she may not be the Listing Official;

2. He or she may not be the Recommending Official or anyone subordinate to the recommending official;

3. He or she may not have been closely involved in the preparation of the enforcement case.

E. LISTING REVIEW PANEL

The Listing Review Panel shall consist of the Assistant Administrator for Enforcement, who will serve as Chairman, the Assistant Administrator for Planning and Management, the General Counsel, and a representative from the Office of the Deputy Administrator who shall serve as a non-voting member. The panel members or their designees should attend and participate in the Listing Proceeding. No later than thirty working days after the close of the record of the Listing Proceeding, the Panel shall review the recommended decision of the Case Examiner and issue a final decision based on a majority vote of the three voting Panel members.

PART 65—DELAYED COMPLIANCE ORDERS

Delayed Compliance Order for the City of Independence Power and Light Department, Independence, Mo.

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Administrator of EPA hereby issues a Delayed Compliance Order to the City of Independence Power and Light Department. The Order requires the company to bring air emissions from its Blue Valley Station at Independence, Missouri into compliance with certain regulations contained in the federally-approved Missouri State Implementation Plan (SIP). The City of Independence Power and Light Department's compliance with the Order will preclude suits under the federal enforcement and citizen suit provisions of the Clean Air Act for violation(s) of the SIP regulations covered by the Order during the period the Order is in effect.

DATES: This rule takes effect on February 5, 1979.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Peter J. Culver or Renelle Rae, Environmental Protection Agency, Region VII, 1735 Baltimore, Kansas City, Missouri 64108—Telephone 816/374-2576.

ADDRESSES: The Delayed Compliance Order, supporting material, and any comments received in response to a prior FEDERAL REGISTER notice proposing issuance of the Order are available for public inspection and copying during normal business hours at:

Environmental Protection Agency, Region VII, 1735 Baltimore, Kansas City, Missouri 64108.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On December 6, 1978, the Regional Administrator of EPA's Region VII Office published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, 43 FR 57163, a notice setting out the provisions of a proposed delayed compliance order for the City of Independence Power and Light Department. The notice asked for public comments and offered the opportunity to request a public hearing on the proposed Order. No public comments or requests for a public hearing were received in response to the proposal notice.

Therefore, a delayed compliance order effective this date is issued to the City of Independence Power and Light Department by the Administrator of EPA pursuant to the authority of Section 113(d)(1) of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 7413(d)(1). The Order places the City of Independence Power and Light Department on a schedule to bring its Blue Valley Station, Units 1, 2, and 3 at Independence, Missouri into compliance as expeditiously as practicable with Missouri Air Quality Standards and Air Pollution Control Regulations for the Kansas City Metropolitan Area Regulation III (10 CSR 10-2.040), a part of the federally-approved Missouri State Implementation Plan. The Order also imposes interim requirements which meet Sections 113(d)(1)(C) and 113(d)(7) of the Act, and reporting requirements. The inclusion in the Order of emission monitoring requirements would be unreasonable. If the conditions of the Order are met, it will permit the City of Independence Power and Light Department to delay compliance with the SIP regulations covered by the Order until June 30, 1979. The company is unable to immediately comply with these regulations.

EPA has determined that the Order shall be effective upon publication of this notice because of the need to immediately place the City of Independence Power and Light Department on a schedule for compliance with the applicable requirement(s) of the Missouri State Implementation Plan.

Dated: January 26, 1979.

DOUGLAS M. COSTLE,
Administrator.

In consideration of the foregoing, Chapter I of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

SUSCHAPTER B—MEDICARE PROGRAM

PART 405—FEDERAL HEALTH INSURANCE FOR THE AGED AND DISABLED

Subpart D—Principles of Reimbursement for Provider Costs and for Services by Hospital-Based Physicians

EFFECT OF CAPITAL STOCK TRANSACTIONS

AGENCY: Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), HEW.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: These final regulations clarify existing Medicare program policy concerning certain effects of capital stock transactions. Specifically, these rules make clear that if a provider's capital stock is acquired, the provider's assets will not be revalued for purposes of computing depreciation, nor will interest expenses incurred in acquiring the stock be recognized as allowable costs. However, they do allow for assets to be revalued when there is a statutory merger or a consolidation between unrelated corporations. The intent is to ensure clarity and uniform interpretation of these policies.

DATE: Effective on February 5, 1979.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

William Goeller, Division of Provider Reimbursement and Accounting Policy Medicare Bureau, Room 405 East Building, Baltimore, Maryland 21235, (301) 594-9820.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

BACKGROUND

Since the inception of Medicare, it has been the policy of the program administrators that: (1) The acquisition of a provider's capital stock is not in itself a basis for revaluation of the provider's assets for purposes of computing depreciation; (2) interest expenses incurred in acquiring such stock are not allowable costs; and (3) statutory mergers between related corporations do not justify revaluation of assets. Although no single provision of the Medicare regulations explicitly set forth these policies, our position has been based on the interaction of three regulations: 42 CFR 405.415 concerning allowance for depreciation based on asset costs; 42 CFR 405.427, concerning cost related organizations, and 42 CFR 405.626(c), Concerning change of ownership. We continue to believe that our interpretation and application of these regulations are reasonable and consistent with our statutory mandate to determine the scope of reasonable costs for Medicare providers.

However, the Provider Reimbursement Review Board has not adopted the same view. In several decisions, the Board has considered provider stock transactions to be in substance a purchase of assets and has accordingly allowed revaluation for purposes of computing depreciation. The Commissioner of Social Security and the Administrator of the Health Care Financing Administration have reversed the Board's rulings. The issue is being litigated in various Federal courts. We, therefore, find it necessary to adopt these regulations. Our intent is not to change existing Medicare policy, but merely to state explicitly in the Code of Federal Regulations that which has been stated in the past in less formal settings. (See, for example, Health Care Financing Administration Ruling 78-33, MBR-1(11/78) at page 82; "Wolkstein Letter" of January 24, 1974.)

We have, therefore, amended regulatory provisions in § 405.415 by adding a new paragraph (1), entitled "Transactions involving provider's capital stock," and have amended § 405.419 to indicate that interest expense incurred as a result of transactions described in paragraph (1) are not allowable.

Paragraph (1) of § 405.415 now specifies Medicare treatment of provider capital stock acquisitions, statutory mergers, and consolidations, as they relate to revaluation of assets for purposes of computing depreciation. When the capital stock of a provider is acquired (even if 100% of that stock), the provider's assets may not be revalued. Since assets are properly revalued only if there has been a change of ownership, this rule follows from the basic principle of corporate law that a transfer of corporate stock does not constitute a change of ownership of the corporate assets. A corporation and its stockholders are distinct legal entities, with title to the corporate property vested in the corporation itself, and not in the stockholders. Only if the assets are transferred by means of a bona fide transaction between unrelated parties would revaluation be proper. Medicare regulations are consistent with this view. 42 CFR 405.626(c) states that a transfer of corporate stock does not in itself constitute a change of ownership for purposes of terminating a provider agreement. The existing provider agreement continues in effect and we, therefore, see no valid reason to change the basis for determining Medicare reimbursement to the provider.

With regard to statutory mergers, the new paragraph (l) provides that if the merger is between unrelated parties, the assets of the merged corporation may be revalued. This rule differs from the rule for provider stock transactions because, while the acquisition of capital stock does not affect the legal status of the corporation, in a merger, the merged corporation ceases to exist as a corporate entity. In a merger, the surviving corporation does not become a mere stockholder of the merged corporation but takes over the merged corporation entirely. Since the merged corporation no longer exists, there has indeed been a transfer of ownership and revaluation is proper. Of course, the basis of the assets already owned by the surviving corporation would not be affected by the transaction. The assets of the merged corporation could be revalued regardless of whether the merged corporation was a provider before the merger. The regulation makes clear that if the merged corporation was a provider, it is subject to the provisions of § 405.415(d)(3) and (f) concerning recovery of accelerated depreciation and the realization of gains and losses.

If the statutory merger is between related parties, the rule provides that no revaluation of assets is permitted. This is consistent with § 405.427 which states that costs applicable to facilities furnished to the provider by organizations related to the provider by common ownership or control are includable in the allowable cost of the provider at the cost to the related organization. Thus, the assets of the merged corporation would be included in the allowable cost of the surviving corporation, but at the cost to the merged corporation, not at a revalued market price. In determining what is a related party, the criteria specified in § 405.427 will be used.

A particularly important example of this form of transaction is one in which one corporation purchases the capital stock of a second corporation and a statutory merger of the two corporations follows. No revaluation of assets would be allowed. The two parts of the transaction must be viewed separately. In accordance with § 405.415(l)(1), revaluation is not allowed upon acquisition of a provider's stock. With regard to the second part of the transaction, under § 405.415(l)(2)(ii), revaluation is not allowed after statutory merger between related parties. (The parties would be related in that one corporation would be the sole shareholder of the other.)

This rule also provides that assets may be revalued if two or more unrelated corporations consolidate to form a new corporation, but revaluation is not allowed if related corporations consolidate. The reasoning underlying this distinction is the same as our reasons for adopting a like rule with regard to statutory mergers. The rule would apply only if at least one of the consolidating corporations was a provider and would apply only to the assets of those consolidating corporations that have been providers. Assets of non-provider corporations have never been valued for Medicare purposes, so "revaluation" would be impossible.

The rule also amends § 405.419(d) to provide that loans made to finance capital stock acquisitions, mergers, or consolidations for which revaluation of assets is not allowed under § 405.415(l) are not reasonably related to patient care and are not a basis for allowable interest costs.

The final rule does not differ in substance from the proposed rule published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 1, 1977 (42 FR 17485). However, we have made the following changes. The part of the rule that pertains to interest expense was transferred from § 405.415, which deals with depreciation, to § 405.419, which properly deals with interest expense. We have deleted that part of the proposed rule that stated, with reference to capital stock transactions, that any excess paid over the book value of the provider's assets may not be included in equity capital. The deleted portion did accurately reflect program policy and we are not changing that policy. However, since no goodwill at all is recognized, under any circumstances, for transactions occurring on or after August 1, 1970 (see 42 CFR 405.429(b)(2)), we do not consider it necessary at this date to adopt a regulation denying goodwill in a specific instance. For those transactions which occurred before August 1, 1970, the program policy of not recognizing goodwill in connection with provider stock transactions is still applicable. That policy, however, is effected through the Bureau's interpretation of regulations effective at that time, not through this regulation.

Clarifying nonsubstantive changes are made in section 405.415 (a), (b), (d), and (g). The date is indicated in each paragraph to eliminate the cross references to paragraph (h), which is vacated. Captions are provided in paragraph (g).

DISCUSSION OF COMMENTS

Comments on the April 1, 1977 notice of proposed rulemaking were received from a few major provider chain organizations, from the major hospital organizations such as the American Hospital Association and the Federation of American Hospitals, and from a few Medicare intermediaries and independent accountants. None of the comments or recommendations was accepted. A summary of these comments and our responses follow:

1. Postpone the final rule pending resolution of existing litigation. This rule clarifies policy and is expected to minimize additional litigation. To postpone the effective date of the rule pending the resolution of existing litigation would unnecessarily extend the period of time during which providers would not have the benefit of this clarification of policy. We have no way of knowing when pending cases will be finally decided and we do not wish to postpone the effective date of this rule for an indeterminate, possibly lengthy, period of time.

2. Make this policy prospective only. This rule is effective on the date of publication. The rule itself will not be applied retroactively. However, the policy which this rule clarifies has always been Medicare policy, and we are not changing that policy. Thus, for transactions occurring before the effective date of this regulation, the policy will be based on our interpretation of three related sections of the Medicare regulations, i.e., 42 CFR 405.415, 405.427, and 405.626.

3. The policy is contrary to generally accepted accounting principles, specifically Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 16, which calls for the revaluation of assets pursuant to certain business combinations. Generally accepted accounting principles are considered in the development of Medicare reimbursement policy, but are not the controlling factor. Medicare reimbursement regulations are based on and designed to implement title XVIII of the Social Security Act. The situations referred to in the comment typically involve the purchase of one corporation by another, followed some time later by a liquidation of the assets of the purchased corporation. In our view, the purposes of title XVIII are not served by allowing the purchasing corporation to revalue the assets and, thus, obtain a higher level of Medicare reimbursement. The increased expenditures charged to the Medicare program in this instance do not appear to us to be necessary for the efficient delivery of needed health services.

4. The Medicare program should recognize the substance of the transaction over form and allow revaluation of the assets based on the intent of the parties. Substance is not being subordinated to form because this policy conforms with the legal principle that a corporation is considered an entity separate and apart from its owners (stockholders), and transactions involving the capital stock of a corporation generally have no bearing upon the operation or assets of the corporation. The assets are owned by the corporation and in turn the stockholders are not responsible for corporate liabilities.

Furthermore, the Medicare program reimburses only those costs related to the furnishing of care to Medicare patients. A transaction involving a provider's capital stock generally has no bearing on the operation of the provider and, therefore, for Medicare program purposes, is not related to patient care.

5. The phrase "in itself" in § 405.626(c) indicates that there may be exceptions to the general rule that a purchase of stock does not give rise to a revaluation of assets. Section 405.626(c) provides that a transfer of corporate stock would not, in itself, constitute a change of ownership. This means that a transaction that involves a transfer of stock does not, by virtue of that transfer, constitute a change of ownership. However, a transaction in which a transfer of stock is part of a larger arrangement (e.g., one including a transfer of assets) might constitute a change of ownership. In any case, with the adoption of this rule, reference need no longer be made to § 405.626 to determine Medicare treatment of provider stock transactions.

6. The rule denies a reasonable rate of return on equity capital. The rules as adopted concern only the revaluation of assets for purposes of computing depreciation and the recognition of interest expense. No mention is made of return on equity capital. However, these rules will necessarily affect the computation of equity capital, since § 405.429(b)(1)(ii) provides that in computing the amount of equity capital upon which a return is allowable, investment in facilities is recognized on the basis of historical cost, or other basis, used for depreciation and other purposes under the health insurance program. Strickly speaking, the rule affects only the determination of the total amount of equity capital upon which the return is based, not the rate of return itself. (See § 405.429(a)(1), which specifies how the rate itself is determined.) However, we acknowledge that the limitation on revaluation will result in a lower valuation of the equity capital, and accordingly, a lower return. We consider this return to be reasonable since the assets in question have been valued at their full fair market value at the time of their original acquisition.

7. The rule will discourage business combinations. It is not clear what effect this rule will have on business combinations, although it is clear that the rule will be one of a great number of considerations which businessmen will take into account when making professional judgments. Certainly the rule will not discourage statutory merger and consolidations between unrelated parties, since it allows the revaluation of assets for those transactions. If the rule does serve to discourage, to some extent, the purchase of a corporation through the acquisition of its stock, we consider this result to be a necessary consequence of our implementation of our mandate to reimburse only those costs which are reasonable, necessary, and related to patient care.

1. Section 405.415 is amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (a)(3)(ii) is amended by deleting the phrase "the date specified in paragraph (h) of this section" each time it appears and inserting the phrase "August 1, 1970".

b. Paragraph (b)(1) is amended by deleting the phrase "the date specified in paragraph (h) of this section" (lines 5 and 6) and inserting the phrase "July 31, 1970."

c. Paragraph (d)(2) is amended by deleting the phrase "the date specified in paragraph (h) of this section" (line 3) and the phrase "with the date specified in paragraph (h) of this section" (lines 13 and 14) and inserting in both places the phrase "August 1, 1970".

2. Section 405.415 is further amended by revising paragraph (g), vacating paragraph (h), and adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

§ 405.415 Depreciation: Allowance for depreciation based on asset costs.

(g) Establishment of cost basis on purchase of facility as an ongoing operation.—(1) Assets acquired after July 1, 1966 and before August 1, 1970. The cost basis for the assets of a facility purchased as an ongoing operation after July 1, 1966, and before August 1, 1970, shall be the lowest of:

(i) The total price paid for the facility by the purchaser, as allocated to the individual assets of the facility; or

(ii) The total fair market value of the facility at the time of the sale, as allocated to the individual assets; or

(iii) The combined fair market value of the individually identified assets at the time of the sale.

(2) Assets acquired after July 31, 1970. For depreciable assets acquired after July 31, 1970, in addition to the limitations specified in paragraphs (g)(1) of this section, the cost basis of the depreciable assets shall not exceed the current reproduction cost depreciated on a straightline basis over the life of the assets to the time of the sale.

(3) Transactions other than bona fide. If the purchaser cannot demonstrate that the sale was bona fide, in addition to the limitations specified in paragraphs (g) (1) and (2) of this section, the purchaser's cost basis shall not exceed the seller's cost basis, less accumulated depreciation.

(h) [Reserved]

(1) Transactions involving provider's capital stock.—(1) Acquisition of capital stock of a provider. If the capital stock of a provider is acquired, the provider's assets may not be revalued. For example, if Corporation A purchases the capital stock of Corporation B, the provider, Corporation B continues to be the provider after the purchase and Corporation A is merely the stockholder. Corporation B's assets may not be revalued.

(2) Statutory merger. A statutory merger is a combination of two or more corporations under the corporation laws of the State, with one of the corporations surviving. The surviving corporation acquires the assets and liabilities of the merged corporation(s) by operation of State law. The effect of a statutory merger upon Medicare reimbursement is as follows:

(i) Statutory merger between unrelated parties. If the statutory merger is between two or more corporations which are unrelated (as specified in § 405.427), the assets of the merged corporation(s) acquired by the surviving corporation may be revalued in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section. If the merged corporation was a provider before the merger, then it is subject to the provisions of paragraphs (d)(3) and (f) of this section concerning recovery of accelerated depreciation and the realization of gains and losses. The basis of the assets owned by the surviving corporation are unaffected by the transaction. An example of this type of transaction is one in which Corporation A, a nonprovider, and Corporation B, the provider, are combined by a statutory merger, with Corporation A being the surviving corporation. In such a case the assets of Corporation B acquired by Corporation A may be revalued in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section.

(ii) Statutory merger between related parties. If the statutory merger is between two or more related corporations (as specified in § 405.427), no revaluation of assets is permitted for those assets acquired by the surviving corporation. An example of this type of transaction is one in which Corporation A purchases the capital stock of Corporation B, the provider. Immediately after the acquisition of the capital stock of Corporation B, there is a statutory merger of Corporation B and Corporation A, with Corporation A being the surviving corporation. Under these circumstances, at the time of the merger the transaction is one between related parties and is not a basis for revaluation of the provider's assets.

(3) Consolidation. A consolidation is the combination of two or more corporations resulting in the creation of a new corporate entity. If at least one of the original corporations is a provider, the effect of a consolidation upon Medicare reimbursement for the provider is as follows:

(i) Consolidation between unrelated parties. If the consolidation is between two or more corporations which are unrelated (as specified in § 405.427), the assets of the provider corporation(s) may be revalued in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section.

(ii) Consolidation between related parties. If the consolidation is between two or more related corporations (as specified in § 405.427), no revaluation of provider assets is permitted.

3. Section 405.419 is amended by revising paragraph (d) to read as follows:

§ 405.419 Interest expense.

(a) Principle. Necessary and proper interest on both current and capital indebtedness is an allowable cost. However, interest cost incurred as a result of judicial review by a Federal court (as described in § 405.454(l)) is not an allowable cost.

(b) Definitions. * * *

(2) Necessary. Necessary requires that the interest:

(i) Be incurred on a loan made to satisfy a financial need of the provider. Loans which result in excess funds or investments would not be considered necessary.

(ii) Be incurred on a loan made for a purpose reasonably related to patient care.

(d) Loans not reasonably related to patient care. (1) The following types of loans are not considered to be for a purpose reasonably related to patient care:

(i) For loans made to finance acquisition of a facility, that portion of the cost that exceeds:

(A) Historical cost as determined under § 405.415(b); or

(B) The cost basis determined under § 405.415(g); and

(ii) Loans made to finance capital stock acquisitions, mergers, or consolidations for which revaluation of assets is not allowed under § 405.415(l).

(2) In determining whether a loan was made for the purpose of acquiring a facility, we will apply any owner's investment or funds first to the tangible assets, then to the intangible assets other than goodwill and lastly to the goodwill. If the owner's investment or funds are not sufficient to cover the cost allowed for tangible assets, we will apply funds borrowed to finance the acquisition to the portion of the allowed cost of the tangible assets not covered by the owner's investment, then to the intangible assets other than goodwill, and lastly to the goodwill.

CHAPTER X—INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

[Amendment No. 2 to Service Order No.

PART 1033—CAR SERVICE

Atlanta and West Point Rail Road Co., Clinchfield Railroad Co., Georgia Railroad, Seaboard Coast Line Railroad Co., and Western Railway of Alabama To Deliver Locomotives to Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co.; Regulations for the Use of Locomotives

AGENCY: Interstate Commerce Commission.

ACTION: Emergency Order. Amendment No. 2 to Service Order No. 1340.

SUMMARY: On September 22, 1978, the Commission ordered the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad and other lines members of its system collectively to furnish 100 locomotives to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, also a system railroad. Amendment No. 2 allows the LN to return fifty locomotives to the SCL subject to immediate return to the LN should the LN in any week furnish less than forty percent of the cars ordered for coal loading by its single-car shippers located in Eastern Kentucky and Eastern Tennessee. The order is printed in full in Volume 43 of the FEDERAL REGISTER at page 44536. Amendment No. 2 of the order extends the expiration date of the order until April 30, 1979.

DATE: Expires 11:59 p.m., April 30, 1979.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION:

Decided January 30, 1979.

Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 1340 (43 FR 44536, 44606; 44 FR 874 and 3717), and good cause appearing therefor:

On August 3, 1979, the Commission entered an order requiring the six railroads named above (collectively known as the Family Lines), all of which are owned or controlled by the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad Company (SCL), to show cause why the Commission should not issue two proposed service orders. One proposed service order, entitled Regulations For The Use Of Locomotives, would have ordered the other five members of the Family Lines collectively to deliver 100 locomotives to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company (LN). The other proposed service order, entitled Regulations For The Distribution Of Hopper Cars, would have ordered the LN to supply weekly each coal mine ordering cars for single-car or non-unit-train shipments a minimum of forty percent of its daily mine rating multiplied by the number of working days in the week. The order to show cause was entered as a result of the Commission's conclusion that an acute shortage of locomotives and hopper cars for transporting single-car shipments or coal originating at stations on the LN in Eastern Kentucky existed.

Numerous responses to the show cause order were filed by the Family Lines, by producers and receivers of coal and other commodities, and by public officials in the States served by the Family Lines. The Commission held oral argument on the show cause order on September 7, 1978.

In a decision served September 22, 1978, the Commission ordered that the proposed service order entitled Regulations For The Use Of Locomotives be issued in modified form. The Commission deferred issuance of the proposed service order entitled Regulations For The Distribution Of Hopper Cars.

On October 11, 1978, the Commission denied an appeal of the Family Lines railroads seeking a stay of the order.

A subsequent appeal of the Family Lines seeking revocation of the order and of Tesoro Coal seeking broadening of the reporting requirements imposed upon the Family Lines by the order were denied on December 27, 1978. In that order the Commission stated that it would accept additional pleadings at any time up to ten days prior to the January 15, 1979, expiration date of the order.

Five such pleadings have been received. However, because of holiday delays in the distribution of the order dated December 27, 1978, and in the publication of that order in the FEDERAL REGISTER (Publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER was not accomplished until the issue date January 3, 1979), all petitions in this proceeding received in the Commission's offices on or before January 10, 1979, will be accepted.

To provide sufficient time to evaluate the varied opinions expressed in these petitions the Commission, on January 12, 1979, ordered a brief extension until January 31, 1979, of Service Order No. 1340.

The Family Lines request that Service Order No. 1340 either be vacated or allowed to expire. A similar request is made by The Fertilizer Institute (TFI). Tesoro Coal Company requests the extension of Service Order No. 1340. A group of petitioners comprising both of Kentucky's United States Senators, its two Congressmen from Eastern Kentucky, the governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the Hazard and Harlan Coal Operators Association, hereafter described as the joint petitioners, seek both extension and modifications to the order.

In its pleading, the Family Lines stated that the fifty locomotive units which the parent SCL has leased from the Southern Pacific Transportation Company (SP) and sub-leased to LN will remain on LN through March 1979, by which time LN will have received approximately forty of seventy new locomotives scheduled to be delivered by the builders during February, March and April. LN argues that it can return fifty locomotives to SCL during the month of January and February without any appreciable effect on its ability to move its Eastern Kentucky coal traffic. It expects a seasonal increase in coal traffic in March and April which will require eighty more locomotives than it now has, but expects this need largely to be met by the scheduled delivery of seventy new locomotives during February, March and April. SCL itself pledges that if Service Order No. 1340 is vacated or allowed to expire, it will see that the LN has available at least the eighty locomotives which LN says it will need.

The Family Lines argue that although the percentage of cars furnished to single-car shippers of coal to cars ordered has improved since Service Order No. 1340 became effective, this improvement is a result of a decrease in the number of cars ordered rather than the result of an increase in the number of cars furnished. The weekly car distribution reports furnished by the LN do indeed reflect a decrease in car orders commencing in the week starting November 19, 1978, the week containing the Thanksgiving holiday. However these reports also disclose an erratic but increasing car supply both in the Eastern Kentucky coal fields and on the LN as a whole. We are not convinced that the increased availability of locomotives to move coal cars, both loaded and empty, has had no beneficial effect on the supply of cars to single-car coal shippers served by the LN.

The LN asserts that it can operate at present traffic levels with eighty fewer locomotives than it now has. However its weekly reports of trains held for power would indicate otherwise. During the seven-day period ending January 13, 1979, the LN reported that a total of 109 trains were released after being held 12 or more hours awaiting the availability of locomotives. During the two immediately preceding reporting periods 92 trains were reported held during the week ending January 6 and 103 during the week ending December 31. A total of 123 trains were released after locomotive delays of 12 hours or more during the week ending October 15, 1978. The latter date is the date the first 24 additional SCL units were reported in service on the LN. During each period substantially more trains were reported as being held for shorter periods. We cannot accept as valid the LN's belief that it can operate at existing traffic levels with eighty fewer locomotives than it is now using without excessive delays to trains and cars and consequent aggravation of shortages of cars for coal loading.

Subsequent to the issuance of this order, 54 locomotives were returned by the LN at the request of non-Family Line owners. Numerical replacement of these locomotives with locomotives furnished by SCL was not accomplished until some time between November 1 and November 15, 1978. At the time the "Show-Cause" order in this proceeding was served, on August 4, 1978, the LN was operating 120 leased locomotives, including 26 furnished voluntarily by SCL. As a result of the recall of fifty locomotives by Consolidated Rail Corporation and the Norfolk and Western the number of leased units had declined to 96 on October 15, in spite of the furnishing by SCL of 24 additional units as required by the order. On November 1, the LN was operating 103 leased locomotives, including eleven SP units.

On November 15, it was operating 127 leased locomotives including 37 SP units. (Four Detroit, Toledo and Iron-ton locomotives were recalled and returned between October 15 and November 15). On January 1, 1979, the LN was operating a total of 130 leased locomotives, ten more than the number operated when the proceeding was opened and 34 more than were operated on October 15, 1978, when the first report of trains held for power was due.

Although the reports received from the LN reveal that substantial progress has been made in reducing the number of trains and cars held for power, the large numbers of trains currently being reported as held for power indicates a continuing need for the locomotives furnished to it by the SCL as required by the order.

The Family Lines argue at length with respect to a "National Energy Policy" which they conceive as one which emphasizes the substitution of coal for other fuels in the generation of electricity and in major industrial uses. They allege that problems related to the implementation of this policy as it affects the producers and users of Eastern Kentucky coal, rather than deficiencies of the LN are the causes of its shortages of cars for coal loading and of shortages of locomotives for the prompt movement of coal, and that the LN should not be expected to furnish all of the cars and service required by its Eastern Kentucky coal shippers until the National Energy policy is clarified and the role of the Eastern Kentucky single-car coal shippers is more precisely determined. The LN contends that, with the exception of the Tennessee Valley Authority, all major utilities have received in a timely manner all of the coal they require.

Recent car distribution reports received from the LN for the two weekly periods ending January 6, 1979, and January 13, 1979, indicate that all orders for cars placed by non-unit-train coal shippers in the three Eastern Kentucky car distribution districts and in the Eastern Tennessee area were filled.

The level of car orders in the four eastern districts mentioned has declined steadily from the peak of 29,942 cars ordered during the week ending November 11, 1978, had decreased to 5,527 cars during the week ending January 13, 1979. Of significance was a decrease of 1,350 cars ordered between the holiday week ending January 6 and the normal week ending January 13, 1979.

Under ordinary circumstances we would consider the continuing decline in car orders and the recent ability of the LN to fill all orders for cars for coal loading as sufficient grounds for terminating our order. However, we are disturbed by the continued excessive delays to large numbers of trains attributed by the railroad to a lack of motive power and by the adverse effect such delays have on the availability of freight cars for placement for loading.

In its petition the LN states that if Service Order No. 1340 is vacated or allowed to expire it will retain fifty of the sixty SP locomotives leased by the SCL and sub-leased by that line to LN until replaced by new LN locomotives received from builders or until recalled by SP whichever occurs first.

We will extend Service Order No. 1340 until April 30, 1979. However, in view of the present ability of the LN to fill all orders for cars for coal loading by single-car shippers we will authorize the temporary return of fifty SCL locomotives to that line. The LN and other Family Lines railroads will be required to continue to furnish reports of trains held for power and the LN additionally will be required to continue its weekly reports of cars ordered by and furnished to single-car coal shippers and its bi-monthly report of locomotives operated on its line.

Should the LN, during any weekly reporting period, furnish less than 40 percent of the number of cars ordered by single-car shippers of coal served by its lines in Eastern Kentucky, and Eastern Tennessee, the SCL shall, no later than Wednesday of the following week return to the LN the locomotives it has recalled. Thereafter the base requirement of this order that the SCL furnish 100 locomotives to the LN shall remain fully in effect unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

The Fertilizer Institute (TFI) asks that we vacate Service Order No. 1340. TFI asserts that SCL needs all of its locomotives in order to provide adequate service to shippers of phosphate and phosphate fertilizer who are predominantly served by the SCL's network of lines in the vicinity of Mulberry, Florida. Although SCL is required by the order to furnish 100 locomotives tives to LN it has, in fact, transferred only fifty of its own locomotives to LN. It has successfully sought and leased fifty locomotives from SP and sub-leased these units to LN in order to complete its obligation to furnish a total of 100 locomotives to that line. Further SCL was given credit for twenty-six locomotives it had leased to LN prior to the issuance of this order. The net effect is that SCL transferred only 24 of its locomotives to LN as a result of this order.

By our action today we are authorizing the temporary return to SCL of the fifty locomotives it has leased to LN subject to possible return to that line should it again encounter severe car supply problems attributed to its inability to move car promptly because of a shortage of locomotives. We are also requiring that each of the Family Lines continue its weekly reporting of trains delayed because of a shortage of locomotives as suggested by TFI.

In a joint petition the Honorable Walter D. Huddleston and the Honorable Wendell H. Ford, United States Senators from Kentucky, Congressmen Carl D. Perkins and Tim Lee Carter, the Honorable Julian M. Carroll, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, The Hazard Coal Operators Association and the Harlan Coal Operators Association (joint petitioners) ask that the Commission extend Service Order No. 1340 until June 15, 1979, and that SCL be required to furnish 100 of its own locomotives to LN. The joint petitioners argue that SCL's lease of locomotives from SP for sub-lease to LN does not constitute compliance with the order.

We do not agree. The order directed SCL and its affiliates other than LN to furnish a total of 100 locomotives to LN. No constraints were placed on the SCL's method of compliance. The SCL properly in our opinion, located and arranged for the lease, repair and subsequent sub-lease to LN of a group of locomotives owned by SP which that line was unable to repair and use on its own lines. SCL temporarily interrupted its own locomotive repair program in order to restore the SP locomotives to operating condition. By its action SCL successfully met the Commission's requirement that it furnish 100 additional locomotives to LN while at the same time minimizing the effects of the order on its own operations and upon the shippers dependent upon it for rail transportation.

Tesoro Coal Company also asks that Service Order No. 1340 be continued in effect, but offers no suggestions as to a new expiration date.

Shamrock Coal Company requested that the Commission extend and modify this order but subsequently withdrew its request because of errors in its initial petition. Shamrock now takes no position with respect to the continuance of Service Order No. 1340.

It is ordered, That Service Order No. 1340 is extended to expire at 11:59 p.m., April 30, 1979.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad is authorized to return to the SCL, subject to recall, fifty SCL locomotives furnished by the SCL to the LN in accordance with the requirements of Section (a) of Service Order No. 1340. These locomotives must be returned to the LN no later than Wednesday of the week immediately following any week during which the LN furnishes less than 40 percent of the cars ordered by single-car coal shippers served by its lines located on its Corbin and Knoxville divisions in Eastern Kentucky and Tennessee. A week is defined as the period Sunday through Saturday inclusive.

Notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

[Service Order No. 1335-A]

PART 1033—CAR SERVICE

Repair and Retirement of Freight Cars

ACTION: Emergency Order. Service Order No. 1335-A.

SUMMARY: On September 7, 1973, the Commission ordered each railroad owning plain forty-foot boxcars to show cause why they should not be required to repair and restore certain such cars to service and why certain restrictions should not be placed on the retirement of these cars. Replies were filed by sixty railroads. Recent changes in the Interstate Commerce Act by Public Law 95-607 nullified the previous action of the Commission in this matter.

Service Order No. 1335 is vacated and set aside effective upon date of service of this order.

DATE: Effective upon date of service of this order.

Charles C. Robinson, Chief, Utilization and Distribution Branch, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423, Telephone (202) 275-7840, Telex 89-2742.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION:

Decided January 29, 1979.

On September 7, 1978, the Commission ordered all railroads owning plain forty-foot boxcars to show cause why they should not be required to repair and restore such cars to service within specified time periods and why certain restrictions should not be placed on the retirement of these cars. Each railroad was requested to furnish detailed information in response to ten questions propounded by the Commission. Replies were due on September 23, 1978. Upon petition of the Association of American Railroads (the Association), the time for the filing of replies was extended until October 13, 1978, (43 F.R. 40891 and 43719). Replies were timely filed by the Association and by sixty railroads.¹ In addi-

¹Replies were received from the Association of American Railroads, and from the following railroads: Angelina and Neches River Railroad Company; Ann Arbor Railroad System, Michigan Interstate Railway Company, Operator; The Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company; Bangor and Aroostook Railroad Company; Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad Company; Birmingham Southern Railroad Company; Boston and Maine Corporation, Robert W. Meserve and Benjamin H. Lacy, Trustees; Burlington Northern Inc.; Cambria and Indiana Railroad Company; Carbon County Railway Company; Chessie System (The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company and Western Maryland Railway Company); Chicago & Illinois Midland Railway Company; Chicago and North Western Transportation Company; Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Company; Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company; Chicago, South Shore and South Bend Railroad; Clinchfield Railroad Company; The Colorado & Wyoming Railway Company; Conemaugh & Black Lick Railroad Company; Consolidated Rail Corporation; The Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad Company; Duluth, Missabe and Iron Range Railway Company; Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway Company; Galveston Wharves; Grand Trunk Western Railroad Company; High Point, Thomasville & Denton Railroad Company; Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Company; Illinois Terminal Railroad Company; Johnstown and Stony Creek Rail Road Company; Lake Erie, Franklin & Clarion Railroad Company; The Lake Terminal Railroad Company; Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company; Louisville, New Albany & Corydon Railroad Company; Maine Central Railroad Company; McKeesport Connecting Railroad Company; Mississippi Export Railroad Company; The Newburgh and South Shore Railway Company; Norfolk and Western Railway Company; Northampton and Bath Railroad Company; Patapsco & Back River Railroad Company; Philadelphia, Bethel-tion, comments were submitted by eighteen non-carrier interested parties.²

On November 30, 1978, The Consolidated Rail Corporation (Conrail) filed a motion to dismiss the proceeding citing recent changes in the Interstate Commerce Act made by Public Law 95-607, enacted November 8, 1978, which, in its opinion, nullified the previous action of the Commission in this matter.

The language cited by Conrail is contained in Public Law 95-607 § 402. The pertinent portion of Public Law 95-607 reads:

Section 1(14) of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U.S.C. 1(14) is amended by redesignating subdivision (b) as subdivision (c), and by inserting immediately after subdivision (a) the following new subdivision:

"(b) If the Commission finds, upon petition of an interested party and after notice and a hearing on the record, that a common carrier by railroad subject to this part has materially failed to furnish safe and adequate car service as required by paragraph (1) of this section, the Commission may require such carrier to provide itself with such facilities and equipment as may be reasonably necessary to furnish such service, if the evidence of record establishes, and the Commission affirmatively finds that—"(i) the provisions of such facilities or equipment will not materially and ²The following non-carriers submitted comments. Statements in support of the proposed Service Order were received from The United States Department of Agriculture; American Farm Bureau Federation; National Cotton Council of America; National Farmers Organization. Statements seeking modification of the proposed order to include additional car types were submitted by American Paper Institute, Inc.; General Mills Inc.; Grocery Manufacturers of America; Hunt Wesson Foods Inc.; Southern Hardwood Traffic Association. Statements in opposition to the proposed order were filed by the Honorable Henry S. Reuss, House of Representatives; Armstrong Cork Company; Bid, Inc.; Canners League of America; Carnation Company; Gerber Products Company; H. J. Heinz Company; The National Association of Shippers Advisory Boards; Pacific Coast Shippers Advisory Board.

adversely affect the ability of such carrier to otherwise provide safe and adequate transportation services;

"(ii) the expenditure required for such facilities or equipment including a return which equals such carrier's current cost of capital, will be recovered; and

"(iii) the provision of such facilities or equipment will not impair the ability of such carrier to attract adequate capital".

The newly enacted provisions clearly give the Commission authority to require a railroad found to be deficient in the furnishing of safe and adequate car service, to provide itself with such additional facilities and equipment as may be necessary to overcome its car service deficiencies. While the statute does not specifically refer to the repair of freight cars, an order requiring a railroad having a severe shortage of freight cars of any type to acquire additional cars while at the same time allowing that railroad indefinitely to defer repairs to existing cars of the same type would be ineffective. It requires from eight to eighteen months to receive new cars from the date orders are placed with the car builders for the purchase of cars, whereas an effective program for repairs to un-serviceable cars can be started within a few weeks. Further, the operation of an adequate repair program will maintain the railroad's serviceable car fleet at the maximum level. For most railroads reporting severe car shortages, a combination of new car purchases and an adequate repair program will be required if an adequate supply of cars is to be made available to transport the level of traffic presently being offered.

The Commission's authority to require a carrier to provide itself with adequate facilities and equipment to enable it to furnish safe and adequate car service is more explicitly stated in Public Law 95-607 § 402 than it was before the enactment of that law. However, that law clearly authorizes such action only after petition of an interested party and only upon a finding by the Commission that:

"(i) the provision of such facilities or equipment will not materially and adversely affect the ability of such carrier to otherwise provide safe and adequate transportation services;

"(ii) the expenditure required for such facilities or equipment including a return which equals such carrier's current cost of capital, will be recovered; and

"(iii) the provisions of such facilities or equipment will not impair the ability of such carrier to attract adequate capital".

This proceeding was opened by the Commission on its own motion on September 7, 1978, two months prior to the enactment of Public Law 95-607, which now limits the Commission's authority in this area to proceedings initiated by a petition of an interested party. Since no such petitions had been received urging the Commission to require the carriers to increase their fleets of serviceable freight cars by repairs to defective cars or by limiting retirements of cars based on age and estimated cost of repairs, the Commission believes that this proceeding should be discontinued without prejudice to the reopening of a similar proceeding upon receipt of a petition requesting such action. Any such petition should be supported by evidence indicating a significant deficiency in the carrier's supply of cars, locomotives or other facilities.

It is ordered, That §1033.1335 Repair and retirement of freight cars—order to show cause, Service Order No. 1335 is vacated and set aside, effective upon date of service of this order.

(49 U.S.C. 10304-10305 & 11121-11126); (1(14)(b) P.L. 95-607 §402, Stat. 3079 (1978).)

This order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and car hire agreement under the terms of that agreement and upon the American Short Line Railroad Association. Notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D.C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

By the Commission. (Chairman O'Neal, Vice Chairman Brown and Commissioners Stafford, Gresham, Clapp and Christian).

proposed rules

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains notices to the public of the proposed issuance of rules and regulations. The purpose of these notices is to give interested persons an opportunity to participate in the rule making prior to the adoption of the final rules.

[4810-33-M]

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Comptroller of the Currency

[12 CFR Parts 19 and 24]

RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

AGENCY: Comptroller of the Currency.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: This proposed revision of 12 CFR Part 19 incorporates changes in the Comptroller's supervisory and adjudicatory authority made by Titles 1 and 8 of the Financial Institutions Regulatory and Interest Rate Control Act of 1978 (Pub. L. 95-630). The proposal also establishes rules of practice and procedure applicable to hearings held by the Comptroller under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.) and to formal investigations conducted under 12 U.S.C. 481, 1818(n), and 1820(c). The Comptroller proposes to revoke Part 24, entitled "Procedures and Standards Applicable to Suspensions and Prohibitions, Where A Felony is Charged", because this subject is covered by the Financial Institutions Regulatory and Interest Rate Control Act of 1978 and the proposed implementing provisions of 12 CFR Part 19.

DATES: Written comments must be received on or before March 7, 1979.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be addressed to Mr. John E. Shockey, Chief Counsel, Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C. 20219.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. William B. Glidden, Staff Attorney, Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C. 20219, Tel. No. (202) 447-1880.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The regulation presently obtained in 12 CFR Part 19 is entitled "Rules of Practice and Procedures Applicable to Proceedings Relating to Cease and Desist Orders". The proposed revision is entitled "Rules of Practice and Procedure" and is divided into Subparts A thru H. Subpart A prescribes general rules that will be followed by the Comptroller of the Currency in formal hearings. However, in connection with any particular matter, reference should also be made to specific requirements of practice and procedure that may be contained in the statute involved or the rules found in other subparts of 12 CFR Part 19, which special requirements are controlling. The essential purpose of Subpart A is to state clear procedures that comply with due process concerns of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 554-557). The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have also been considered and to some extent incorporated in the proposal.

Subparts B thru E embody changes in the Comptroller's supervisory and adjudicatory authority made by the Financial Institutions Regulatory and Interest Rate Control Act of 1978, Pub. L. 95-630 ("Act"). Subpart B reflects that section 107(a) of the Act subjects bank-related individuals as well as banks to the Comptroller's cease-and-desist powers. A bank-related individual is any officer, director, employee, agent, or other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of a bank.

Subpart C is based upon sections 101, 103, 107, and 801 of the Act, which provide for the assessment of a civil money penalty against a bank or a bank-related individual for violation of certain laws and regulations or of a cease-and-desist order which has become final.

Subparts D and E prescribe hearing procedures related to suspension and removal of an officer, director or other person participating in the affairs of a bank and are based on sections 107 and 111 of the Act respectively. Subpart E involves suspension or removal where the individual concerned has been charged with or convicted of a crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year. In such circumstances, the Comptroller must afford the subject individual an opportunity for an informal hearing. Under Subpart D, on the other hand, the Comptroller conducts a formal hearing and the presiding officer certifies the record to the Federal Reserve Board for a determination of whether a final removal order should be issued.

Subpart F, as authorized by sections 15B(c) and 23 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78o-4(c) and 78w, prescribes rules applicable to any disciplinary proceedings that may be instituted by the Comptroller against certain banks acting as municipal securities dealers and persons associated with such dealers.

Subparts B through F are relatively brief. They generally set forth the scope of the particular proceeding involved, the nature of any notice or order that might be served on a bank or individual, and incorporate any specific time or other procedural requirements contained in the statute being implemented. The detailed rules of practice and procedure are set forth in Subpart A and cover such items as answers to charges, the filing and service of papers, the designation of a presiding officer and the conduct of formal hearings, access to agency process by parties afforded a hearing, various time requirements, and the certification of the hearing record to the Comptroller for decision.

Subpart G applies to informal hearings afforded a party seeking an exemption from certain provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78a et seq. Like Subpart E, which also involves informal hearings, the rules in this subpart establish a different framework from that which is set forth in Subpart A. The thrust of Subpart G is to permit considerable flexibility in the conduct of hearings while at the same time providing for the development of a meaningful record that can assist the Comptroller in arriving at a decision.

Subpart H will govern formal investigations conducted by the Comptroller's Office. Even though no adjudication is involved, these rules are included in 12 CFR Part 19 because they prescribe rules of practice and procedure and because formal investigations will frequently lead to or supplement an adjudicatory proceeding. As already noted, the Comptroller also proposes to revoke 12 CFR Part 24 because the provisions contained therein are rendered obsolete by section 107 and 111 of the Financial Institutions Regulatory and Interest Rate Control Act, amending 12 U.S.C. 1818(e) and (g) respectively.

The comment period on the proposed revisions is limited to 30 days because the effective date of the statute being implemented is March 10, 1979; there is thus a need to issue final regulations as soon as possible.

DRAFTING INFORMATION

The principal drafter of this document was Staff Attorney William B. Glidden.

(c) The term "party" means a bank or person named as a party in any notice which commences proceedings, or any person who is admitted as a party or who has filed a written request and is entitled as of right to be a party. The Comptroller's interested division shall be deemed to be a party to Part 19 proceedings.

(d) The term "presiding officer" means an administrative law judge, or any agency employee or other person designated by the Comptroller to conduct a hearing. Ordinarily an administrative law judge will conduct a formal hearing.

§ 19.1 Scope.

This subpart prescribes rules of practice and procedure followed by the Comptroller of the Currency in formal hearings. In connection with any particular matter, reference should also be made to any special requirements of practice and procedure that may be contained in the statute involved or the rules adopted by the Comptroller in Subparts B, C, D or F of Part 19, which special requirements are controlling. These rules in Subpart A do not apply to the informal hearings described in Subparts E and G of this part or in Part 5 (12 CFR Part 5) or to any other informal hearing that may be ordered by the Comptroller.

§ 19.2 Commencement of proceedings; notice and answer.

(a) Notice. Proceedings are commenced by notice served upon the party or parties afforded a formal hearing. The notice may be a notice of charges, described in § 19.19 or § 19.35, a notice of assessment of civil money penalties, described in § 19.23, or a notice of intention to remove from office described in § 19.27. The matters of fact and law alleged in a notice may be amended by the Comptroller at any stage of the proceedings, and such amended notice may require an answer from the party or parties served and may set a new hearing date.

(b) Answer is required within 20 days. Except as otherwise provided in this part, a party who does not wish to consent to a final order must file an answer within 20 days after being served with a notice which commences proceedings. Any subsequent notice which contains amended allegations and by its terms requires an answer must similarly be answered within 20 days.

(c) Answer shall specifically admit or deny. An answer filed under this section shall concisely state any defenses and specifically admit or deny each allegation in the notice. Any allegation not specifically denied is deemed to be admitted. A party who lacks information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any particular allegation shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. A party who intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an allegation shall specify what is true and deny only the remainder.

(d) Effect of failure to answer. Failure of a party to file an answer required by this section within the prescribed time constitutes a waiver of the right to appear and contest the allegations contained in the notice and authorizes the presiding officer, without further notice to the party, to find the facts to be as alleged and to file a recommended decision containing such findings and appropriate conclusions. The Comptroller or the presiding officer, for good cause shown, may permit the filing of a delayed answer.

§ 19.3 Appearance and practice before the Comptroller.

(a) Representation of a party or person. An attorney who desires to act on behalf of a client shall file a statement that the client has authorized such representation and that the attorney is currently a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of a state, possession, territory, commonwealth, or the District of Columbia. Any other person desiring to act in a representative capacity may be required to file a power of attorney showing authority to act in such capacity and to show to the satisfaction of the Comptroller the possession of requisite qualifications. Attorneys and other representatives of parties afforded a hearing shall file a notice of appearance. Except with permission of the presiding officer, only one representative of a party may question a witness or assert objections to questions being propounded by another party at a deposition or a hearing.

(b) Representation of multiple interests may be prohibited. An attorney representing a bank which is a party shall not also represent other persons unless the attorney informs such other persons of any actual or potential conflict of interest. The presiding officer shall resolve the issue of multiple representation if it arises when a hearing is in session or is raised by motion of an opposing party.

(c) Summary suspension. Contemptuous conduct at any hearing before the Comptroller or a presiding officer shall be grounds for exclusion from the hearing and suspension for the duration thereof.

§ 19.4 Filing and service.

(a) Filing. Any notice which commences proceedings, any response or answer thereto, any amended notice and answer thereto, any notice of hearing, every order or ruling except one which is entered during the course of a hearing and is part of the hearing transcript, every paper relating to discovery, every written motion, memorandum, notice, appearance, proof of service or similar paper, every stipulation of the parties, the hearing transcript together with all exhibits accepted into evidence, proposed findings and conclusions by the parties, the findings and conclusions and recommended decision of the presiding officer, parties' exceptions thereto, and the decision and final order of the Comptroller shall be filed with the Deputy Comptroller for Administration or other person designated to receive papers for the agency in a proceeding. Papers required to be filed may be sent by mail or express but must be received at the office of the Comptroller in Washington, D.C., or postmarked by a post office, within the time limit, if any, prescribed for such filing.

(b) Service. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, each party who files papers is responsible for serving a copy thereof upon the presiding officer and upon the attorney or representative of record of every other party. A copy of all papers filed by the presiding officer shall be served upon the parties. Service shall be by personal service or by registered, certified or regular first-class mail. If a party is not represented, service shall be made at the last known address of the party or an officer thereof as shown on the records of the Comptroller.

(c) Proof of Service. Proof of service of papers filed by a party shall be filed before action is to be taken thereon. The proof shall show the date and manner of service, and may be by written acknowledgement of service, by affidavit of the person making service, or by certificate of an attorney or other representative of record. Failure to make proof of service shall not affect the validity of service. The presiding officer may allow the proof to be amended or supplied, unless to do so would result in material prejudice to a party.

§ 19.5 Form and signature of papers.

All papers filed by a party shall be printed or typewritten, and copies served upon the presiding officer and the parties shall be clear and legible. The original of all papers filed by any party shall be signed by that party's attorney. If a party is not represented by an attorney, the papers shall be signed by the party, an officer thereof, or a duly authorized representative.

§ 19.6 Time.

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this part, the date of the act or event from which the period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday. Whenever a party is required or permitted to do some act within a prescribed period of time from the date of service, and service has been made by mail, 3 days are added to the prescribed period of time. Any paper that is mailed is timely if postmarked by a post office on or before the last day of the period prescribed for filing or service.

(b) Change of time limits. Except as otherwise provided by law, the presiding officer may extend time limits prescribed by these rules or by any notice or order issued in the proceedings. Prior to the appointment of a presiding officer and after the filing of a recommended decision pursuant to § 19.11(b), the Comptroller may grant such extensions. Subject to the approval of the presiding officer, the parties may by stipulation change the time limits specified by these rules or any notice or order issued thereunder.

§ 19.7 Motions.

(a) How made. An application or request for an order or ruling, unless made during a hearing session, shall be made by written motion supported by a memorandum which concisely states the grounds therefor.

(b) Opposition. Within 7 days after service of any written motion, or within such other period of time as may be fixed by the ruling authority, any party may file a memorandum in opposition thereto. The moving party has no right to reply except as permitted by the ruling authority. No oral argument will be heard on motions except as otherwise directed by the ruling authority. The ruling authority has discretion to waive the requirements of this section as to motions for extension of time and may rule upon such motions ex parte.

(c) Rulings and orders. After being designated and until such time as a recommended decision is filed pursuant to § 19.11(b), the presiding officer rules on all motions and may issue appropriate orders, except that the presiding officer for good cause and if unavailable may refer matters to the Comptroller. The Comptroller rules upon motions properly submitted by a party or referred by the presiding officer.

(d) Interlocutory review. All orders and rulings on motions become part of the record. The presiding officer shall not certify a ruling for interlocutory review to the Comptroller unless a party so requests and shows good cause.

§ 19.8 Subpoenas.

(a) Issuance. Upon written application of a party and a showing of the general relevance and reasonable scope of the testimony or other evidence sought, the presiding officer may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents at a designated place of hearing. During sessions of a hearing the applications may be made orally on the record. Where it appears to the presiding officer that a subpoena may be unreasonable, oppressive, excessive in scope, or unduly burdensome, the presiding officer has discretion to refuse to issue a subpoena or to issue it only upon such conditions as fairness requires. In making this determination, the presiding officer may inquire of the other parties whether they will concede the facts sought to be proved. Such inquiry shall not disclose the identity of the person sought to be subpoenaed except with permission of the party requesting the subpoena.

(b) Motions to quash. Any person to whom a subpoena is directed may, prior to the time specified therein for compliance but in no event more than 5 days after the date the subpoena was served, with notice to the party requesting the subpoena, apply to the presiding officer to quash or modify the subpoena, accompanying such application with a brief statement of the reasons therefor. The presiding officer may deny the application or, upon notice to the party in whose behalf the subpoena was issued and after affording that party an opportunity to reply, may quash or modify the subpoena or impose reasonable conditions including, in the case of a subpoena duces tecum, a requirement that the party in whose behalf the subpoena was issued shall advance the reasonable cost of collecting and transporting documentary evidence to the designated place of hearing.

(c) Service of subpoena. Service of a subpoena shall be made by personal service or by certified mail addressed to the person named therein and by tendering the fees for one day's attendance and mileage as specified in paragraph (d) of this section, except that when a subpoena is issued in behalf of the Comptroller's interested division the fees and mileage need not be tendered at the time of service.

(d) Attendance of witnesses. The attendance of witnesses and the production of documents at a designated place of hearing may be required from any place in any state or territory subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. Witnesses who are subpoenaed shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the district courts of the United States. Fees required by this paragraph shall be paid by the party upon whose application the subpoena is issued.

§ 19.9 Depositions.

(a) Application to take a deposition. Any party desiring to preserve testimony for use at a hearing by taking a deposition shall make written application to the presiding officer setting forth the name and address of the witness, the subject matter concerning which the witness is expected to testify, its relevance, the time, place, and name and address of the person before whom it is desired the deposition be taken, and the reasons why such deposition should be taken. The application may include a request that specified documents be produced at the deposition. A copy of the application shall be served on the other parties.

(b) Subpoena; notice to other parties. Upon a showing that the proposed witness will or may be unable to attend the hearing, the testimony or other evidence sought will be material, and the taking of the deposition will not result in any undue burden to the witness or any party or undue delay of the proceeding, the presiding officer may issue a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum. Notice of the issuance of such subpoena shall be served upon the parties at least 5 days in advance of the date set for deposition.

(c) Deposition by notice. The requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section may be waived by agreement of the parties and the witnesses whose testimony or documentary evidence is sought. Such agreement shall be embodied in a stipulation which becomes part of the record and may provide for the taking of depositions upon notice and without leave of the presiding officer.

(d) Procedure on deposition. Each witness whose testimony is taken by deposition shall be sworn or shall affirm before any question is propounded. Examination and cross-examination of deponents may proceed as permitted at the hearing. Objections to questions or documents shall be in short form, stating the ground of objections relied upon, but the person before whom the deposition is taken shall not have power to rule upon questions of competency or materiality or relevance of evidence. Failure to object to questions or evidence is deemed a waiver if the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time. The questions propounded and the answers thereto, together with all objections made (but not including argument or debate) shall be recorded by or under the direction of the person before whom the deposition is taken. The deposition shall be signed by the witness, unless the witness refuses and states the reason therefor on the record, and shall be certified as a true and complete transcript by the person recording the testimony. The person before whom the deposition is taken shall promptly file the transcript and all exhibits. Interested parties shall make their own arrangements with the person recording the testimony for copies of the testimony and the exhibits.

(e) Introduction as evidence. Subject to appropriate rulings by the presiding officer on such objections and answers as were noted at the time the deposition was taken or as would be valid were the witness personally present and testifying, the deposition or any part thereof may be received in evidence by the presiding officer. Only such part of a deposition as is received in evidence at a hearing shall constitute a part of the record upon which a decision may be based.

(f) Payment of fees. Deponents whose depositions are taken and the reporter taking the same shall be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States, which fees shall be paid by the party upon whose application the deposition is taken.

§ 19.10 Conduct of formal hearing.

(a) Authority of presiding officer. Formal hearings are subject to the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 554-557). The presiding officer designated by the Comptroller has complete charge of a hearing and must conduct it in a fair and expeditious manner.

(b) Pre-hearing conferences and memoranda. The presiding officer shall when possible schedule pre-hearing conferences aimed at expediting the proceedings. In this regard, the presiding officer may require the submission of pre-hearing memoranda which, among other things, specify the witnesses to be called, exhibits to be offered in evidence at the hearing, and such other matters as the presiding officer deems advisable. Any agreements reached among the parties, at pre-hearing conferences or otherwise, shall become part of the record and find the parties thereto unless the presiding officer permits otherwise for good cause shown.

(c) Attendance at hearing. Unless the Comptroller determines, after considering the views of the party or parties afforded a hearing, that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest, a hearing shall be private and shall be attended only by the parties, their representatives or counsel, witnesses while testifying and their counsel, and other persons having an official interest in the proceedings.

(d) Hearing rules. The Comptroller's interested division shall open and close. Every party has the right to present its case or defense by oral and documentary evidence and testimony and to conduct such cross-examination as may be required for full disclosure of the facts. Irrelevant or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded. Objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence shall be concise and, together with rulings thereon, become part of the record. Argument on objections may at the discretion of the presiding officer take place off the record. Failure to object to admission or exclusion of evidence or to any ruling constitutes a waiver of objection.

(e) Transcript. A hearing shall be recorded. The transcript shall be duly certified by the official reporter and together with all exhibits accepted into evidence shall be filed. Copies shall be furnished to the presiding officer and the interested division and are available to other parties upon payment of the cost thereof. Parties to the proceeding shall be promptly notified when the hearing transcript has been filed.

§ 19.11 Proposed findings and conclusions; recommended decision.

(a) Proposed findings and conclusions by parties. Within 30 days after the hearing transcript has been filed, any party may file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(b) Recommended decision by presiding officer. Within 30 days after the expiration of time allowed under paragraph (a) of this section, or within such further time as the Comptroller for good cause allows, the presiding officer shall file a recommended decision and findings and conclusions. A copy shall promptly be served upon the parties.

§ 19.12 Exceptions.

Within 15 days after being served with a copy of the findings and conclusions and recommended decision of the presiding officer, any party may file exceptions thereto and to any failure to adopt a proposed finding or conclusion.

§ 19.13 Oral argument before the Comptroller.

Upon the Comptroller's own initiative, or upon the written request of any party made within the time for filing exceptions to the recommended decision of the presiding officer, the Comptroller may order and hear oral argument on the recommended decision and the findings and conclusions on which it is based. Oral argument before the Comptroller shall be recorded unless otherwise ordered.

§ 19.14 Notice of submission to the Comptroller.

Upon the expiration of the time for filing exceptions to the recommended decision of the presiding officer, or after any hearing of oral argument by the Comptroller, the parties shall be promptly be notified that the case has been submitted to the Comptroller for final decision.

§ 19.15 Decision of Comptroller.

Staff who have not engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions in the case, or in a factually related case, may advise and assist the Comptroller in the consideration of the case. Copies of the decision and order of the Comptroller shall be served upon the parties.

§ 19.16 Proceedings are confidential.

Unless and until otherwise ordered by the Comptroller, any information obtained and any papers and documents filed during the course of a proceeding are for the confidential use only of the Comptroller, the presiding officer, and the parties.

§ 19.17 Retained authority.

Nothing in these rules is in derogation of powers of examination and investigation conferred on the Comptroller of the Currency by 12 U.S.C.

481, 1818(n) and 1820(c) or any other provision of law.

Subpart B—Cease-and-Desist Proceedings

§ 19.18 Scope.

The rules in this subpart and in Subpart A apply to cease-and-desist proceedings instituted by the Comptroller of the Currency against a bank or any director, officer, employee, agent or other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of such bank, based upon practices or violations described in section 8(b) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1818(b)).

§ 19.19 Notice of charges and answer.

A cease-and-desist proceeding is commenced by service of a notice of charges. The notice shall specify the violations or practices being complained of and shall fix a time and place for hearing. The hearing date shall be no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days after the service of the notice unless an earlier or later date is set by the Comptroller at the request of any party so served. A party served with a notice of charges shall file an answer as prescribed by § 19.2. Any party afforded a hearing who does not appear personally or by a duly authorized representative shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of a cease-and-desist order.

§ 19.20 Temporary cease-and-desist orders.

Whenever the Comptroller determines that any violation or threatened violation or practice specified in the notice of charges, or the continuation thereof, is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the bank, or is likely to seriously weaken the condition of the bank or otherwise seriously prejudice the interest of its depositors prior to completion of administrative proceedings, the Comptroller may issue a temporary order requiring the bank or bank-related individuals to cease and desist from any such violation or practice and to take affirmative action to prevent such insolvency, dissipation, condition, or prejudice pending the completion of the proceedings. A temporary order is effective upon service and, unless set aside, limited or suspended by a court as authorized under section 8 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1818), remains effective and enforceable pending the completion of the administrative proceedings and until the Comptroller dismisses the charges, or if a cease-and-desist order is issued pursuant to § 19.21, until the effective date of any such order.

§ 19.21 Cease-and-desist orders.

In the event of consent, or if upon the record filed by the presiding officer the Comptroller finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the Comptroller may issue and serve upon the bank or person concerned an order to cease and desist from any such violation or practice. Such order may, by provisions which may be mandatory or otherwise, require the bank or its directors, officers, employees, agents, and other persons participating in the conduct of the affairs of the bank to cease and desist from the same and, further, to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from any such violation or practice. A cease-and-desist order is effective 30 days after service (except in the case of a cease-and-desist order issued upon consent, which is effective at the time specified therein), and shall remain effective and enforceable as provided therein, except to such extent as it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the Comptroller or a reviewing court.

Subpart C—Assessment of Civil Money Penalties

§ 19.22 Scope.

Pursuant to authority in sections 101, 103, 107, and 801 of the Financial Institutions Regulatory and Interest Rate Control Act of 1978 (Pub. L. 95-630), the Comptroller of the Currency may assess a civil money penalty against a bank or an officer, director, employee, agent, or person participating in the conduct of the affairs of a bank, for a violation of one or more of the following laws, including any regulations issued thereunder: (a) Section 22 or 23A of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 371c, 375, 375a, 376); (b) any provision of the National Bank Act or other law referenced in 12 U.S.C. 93; (c) a cease-and-desist order which has become final and was issued pursuant to section 8 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1818); or (d) section 106(b) of the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970 (12 U.S.C. 1972). The rules in this subpart and in Subpart A apply to assessment proceedings.

§ 19.23 Notice of assessment; request for hearing; answer.

Proceedings are commenced by service of a notice of assessment of civil money penalty. The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or violations, the amount of civil money penalty being assessed, and shall inform the bank or person being assessed of the right to request an agency hearing within 10 days after the notice is served. If a hearing is not requested within the prescribed 10 day period, the assessment constitutes a final and unappealable order. A party request-

§ 19.24 Notice of hearing.

A bank or person requesting a hearing shall be informed by notice of the time and place set for hearing. The notice of hearing shall be given at least 30 days in advance of the date set for hearing. Any party afforded a hearing who does not appear at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of an assessment order.

§ 19.25 Assessment orders.

In the event of consent, or if upon the record filed by the presiding officer the Comptroller finds that any violation specified in the notice of assessment has been established, the Comptroller may serve an order of assessment of civil money penalty upon the bank or person concerned. An assessment order is effective immediately upon service, or upon such other date as may be specified therein, and shall remain effective and enforceable until it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the Comptroller or a reviewing court.

Subpart D—Removals, Suspensions, and Prohibitions Generally

§ 19.26 Scope.

The rules in this subpart and in Subpart A apply to proceedings by the Comptroller of the Currency to remove or suspend any director or officer of a bank or any other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of a bank, and prohibit such officer, director or other person from further participation in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of a bank, upon the grounds set forth in section 8(e) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1818(e)). The Comptroller may by notice suspend from office or prohibit the subject individual from participating in bank affairs until the administrative proceedings are completed. Following the hearing, the findings and conclusions of the presiding officer shall be certified to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System for determination of whether any final order of removal or prohibition should be issued.

§ 19.27 Notice of intention and answer.

Proceedings are commenced by service of a notice of intention to remove from office or prohibit an individual from further participation in any manner in the affairs of a bank. The notice shall state the grounds for removal or prohibition and shall fix a time and place for hearing. The hearing date shall be no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days after the notice is served, unless the Comptroller sets an earlier or later date at the request of the subject individual and for good cause shown, or at the request of the Attorney General of the United States. A party served with a notice shall file an answer as prescribed in § 19.2. Any party afforded a hearing who does not appear at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of an order of removal or prohibition.

§ 19.28 Suspension or prohibition by notice.

The Comptroller may, by notice served upon the subject individual and the bank, suspend from office or prohibit the individual from further participation in the affairs of the bank pending administrative proceedings which could lead to a final order of removal or prohibition. A suspension or prohibition by notice is effective upon service of the notice and, unless stayed by a court as authorized in 12 U.S.C. 1818(f), shall remain in effect until the charges are dismissed and the administrative proceedings are completed, or until the effective date of any final order of removal or prohibition that is issued by the Federal Reserve Board.

§ 19.29 Removal or prohibition by order.

In the event of consent, or if upon the record certified by the presiding officer the Federal Reserve Board finds that any of the charges has been established, the Board may issue an order of removal from office or prohibition from participation in the affairs of a bank. Such an order is effective 30 days after service (except in the case of an order issued upon consent, which is effective at the time specified therein), and shall remain effective and enforceable until stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the Federal Reserve Board or a reviewing court.

Subpart E—Removals, Suspensions, and Prohibitions Where a Crime Is Charged or Proven

§ 19.30 Scope.

The rules in this subpart apply to informal hearings afforded to any officer, director or other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of a bank, and who has been suspended or removed from office and prohibited from further participating in bank affairs by a notice or order served by the Comptroller of the Currency, upon the grounds set forth in section 8(g) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1818(g)).

§ 19.31 Suspension or removal.

The Comptroller may serve a notice of suspension or order of removal upon a director, officer or other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of a bank. A copy of such notice of order shall be served upon the bank, whereupon the individual concerned shall immediately cease service to the bank or participation in the affairs of the bank. Any notice or order shall indicate the basis for suspension or removal and shall inform the individual of the right to request in writing, within 30 days of being served with such notice or order, an opportunity to show at an informal hearing that continued service to or participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank does not, or is not likely to, pose a threat to the interest of the bank's depositors or threaten to impair public confidence in the bank.

§ 19.32 Informal hearing.

(a) Upon receipt of a request for hearing, the Comptroller shall notify the individual of the time and place fixed for hearing and shall designate one or more agency employees to preside. The hearing shall be scheduled to be held no later than 30 days from the date when a request for hearing is received unless the time is extended at the request of a party afforded a hearing.

(b) An individual may appear personally or through counsel to submit relevant written materials and oral argument thereon. Oral testimony may be presented only if expressly permitted by the Comptroller.

§ 19.33 Decision of Comptroller.

Within 60 days following the hearing, the Comptroller shall notify the subject individual whether the suspension or removal from office, and prohibition from participation in any manner in the affairs of the bank, will be continued, terminated, or otherwise modified. A removal or prohibition by order remains in effect until terminated by the Comptroller. A suspension or prohibition by notice remains in effect until the criminal charge is finally disposed of or until terminated by the Comptroller. The Comptroller in deciding upon any suspension will not consider the ultimate question of the guilt or innocence of the individual with respect to the criminal charge which is outstanding. A finding of not guilty or other disposition of the charge shall not preclude the Comptroller from thereafter instituting removal proceedings pursuant to section 8(e) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1818(e)) and Subpart D of this part.

Subpart F—Disciplinary Proceedings Involving Municipal Securities Dealers

§ 19.34 Scope.

The rules in this subpart and in Subpart A apply to proceedings by the Comptroller of the Currency to determine whether, pursuant to authority contained in section 15B(c)(5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78o-4(c)(5) ("Exchange Act"), to take disciplinary action against a bank which is a municipal securities dealer, or any person associated or seeking to become associated with such a municipal securities dealer, upon the grounds specified in section 15B(c) (2) and (4) of the Exchange Act, 15 U.S.C. 78o-4(c) (2) and (4). Nothing in these rules is in derogation of powers conferred on the Comptroller by other provisions of law. In addition to the issuance of disciplinary orders after opportunity for hearing, the Comptroller may serve any notices and temporary or permanent orders and take any actions that are authorized by section 8 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1818) and other subparts of this part.

§ 19.35 Notice of charges and answer.

Proceedings are commenced by service of a notice of charges upon a bank or associated person. The notice shall indicate the type of disciplinary action being contemplated and the grounds therefor and shall fix a time and place for hearing. The hearing shall be set for a date at least 30 days after service of the notice. A party served with a notice of charges shall file an answer as prescribed in § 19.2. Any party who fails to appear at a hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of a disciplinary order.

§ 19.36 Disciplinary orders.

In the event of consent, or if upon the record filed by the presiding officer the Comptroller finds that any act or omission or violation specified in the notice of charges has been established, the Comptroller may serve upon the bank or persons concerned a disciplinary order. Such order may impose censure, limit the activities, functions or operations, or suspend or revoke the registration of a bank which is a municipal securities dealer, and may censure, suspend or bar any person associated or seeking to become associated with a municipal securities dealer. A disciplinary order is effective when served upon the party or parties involved and remains effective and enforceable until it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the Comptroller or a reviewing court.

Subpart G—Exemption Hearings Under Section 12(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

§ 19.37 Scope.

The rules in this subpart apply to informal hearings that may be held by the Comptroller of the Currency to determine whether, pursuant to authority in section 12(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78l-h ("Exchange Act"), to exempt in whole or in part an issuer or a class of issuers from the provisions of section 12(g) or from section 13 or 14 of the Exchange Act, 15 U.S.C. 78l-g, 78m or 78n, or whether to exempt from section 16 of the Exchange Act, 15 U.S.C. 78p, any officer, director, or beneficial owner of securities of an issuer. The only issuers covered by this subpart are banks whose securities are registered pursuant to section 12(g) of the Exchange Act, 15 U.S.C. 78l-g. The Comptroller has discretion to deny an application for exemption without holding any hearing.

§ 19.38 Application for exemption.

An issuer or an individual (officer, director or shareholder) may submit a written application for an exemption order to the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C. 20219. The application shall specify the type of exemption sought and the reasons therefor, including an explanation of why an exemption would not be inconsistent with the public interest or the protection of investors. An applicant shall be informed in writing whether a hearing will be held to consider the matter.

§ 19.39 Newspaper notice.

Upon being informed that an application will be considered at a hearing, the applicant shall publish a notice one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the community where the issuer's main office is located. The notice shall state: (a) The name and address of the issuer and the name and title of any individual applicants; (b) the type of exemption sought; (c) the fact that a hearing will be held; and (d) a statement that interested persons may submit to the Securities Disclosure Division, Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C. 20219, within 30 days from the date of the newspaper notice, written comments concerning the application and a written request for an opportunity to be heard. The applicant shall promptly furnish a copy of the notice to the Securities Disclosure Division, and to bank shareholders in conformity with 12 CFR Part 11.5(c)(8).

§ 19.40 Informal hearing.

(a) Notice of hearing. Following the comment period, the Comptroller shall send a notice which fixes a time and place for hearing to each applicant and to any person who has requested an opportunity to be heard.

(b) Presiding officer. The Comptroller shall designate a presiding officer to conduct the hearing. The presiding officer shall determine all procedural questions not governed by this subpart and has the authority to limit the number of witnesses and to impose such time and presentation limitations as are deemed reasonable.

(c) Attendance. The applicant and any person who has requested an opportunity to be heard may attend the hearing, with or without counsel. In addition, the applicant and any other hearing participant may introduce oral testimony through such witnesses as the presiding officer shall permit.

(d) Order of presentation. (1) The applicant may present an opening statement of a length within the discretion of the presiding officer. Then each of the hearing participants, or one among them selected with the approval of the presiding officer, may present an opening statement. Such opening statements should summarize concisely what the applicant and each participant intends to show. (2) The applicant shall have an opportunity to make an oral presentation of facts and materials or submit written materials for the record. Then one or more of the hearing participants may make an oral presentation or a written submission. (3) After the above presentations have been concluded, the applicant, and then one or more of the hearing participants may make concise summary statements reviewing their position.

(e) Witnesses. The obtaining and use of witnesses is the responsibility of the parties afforded the hearing. All witnesses shall be present on their own volition, but any person appearing as a witness may be questioned by each applicant, any hearing participant, and the presiding officer.

(f) Evidence. The presiding officer has authority to exclude data or materials deemed to be improper or irrelevant. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply. Documentary material must be of a size consistent with ease of handling and filing. The presiding officer has discretion to determine the number of copies that must be furnished for purposes of the hearing.

(g) Transcript. A transcript of each proceeding shall be arranged for by the Comptroller's Office, with all expenses of such service, including the furnishing of a copy to the presiding officer, being borne by the applicant.

§ 19.41 Decision of Comptroller.

Following the conclusion of the hearing and submission of the record, the Comptroller shall notify the applicant and all persons who have so re-requested in writing of the final disposition of the application. Any exemption granted shall be by an order which specifies the type of exemption granted and its terms and conditions.

Subpart H—Formal Investigations

§ 19.42 Scope.

The rules in this subpart apply to formal investigations initiated by order of the Comptroller of the Currency and pertain to the exercise of powers specified in 12 U.S.C. 481, 1818(n) and 1820(c), and section 21 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78u. These rules do not restrict or in any way affect the authority of the Comptroller to conduct examinations into the affairs or ownership of banks and their affiliates.

§ 19.43 Formal investigations are confidential.

Information or documents obtained in the course of a formal investigation shall be confidential and shall be disclosed only in accordance with the provisions of Part 4 (12 CFR Part 4).

§ 19.44 Order to conduct formal investigation.

A formal investigation begins with the issuance of an order signed by the Comptroller. The order shall designate the person or persons who will conduct the investigation, which persons are authorized, among other things, to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, to administer oaths, and receive affirmations as to any matter under investigation by the Comptroller. Upon application and for good cause shown, the Comptroller may limit, modify, or withdraw the order at any stage of the proceedings.

§ 19.45 Rights of witnesses.

(a) Any person who is compelled or requested to furnish testimony, documentary evidence, or other information with respect to any matter under formal investigation shall upon request to be shown the order initiating such investigation.

(b) Any person who, in a formal investigation, is compelled to appear and testify or who appears and testifies by request or permission of the Comptroller of the Currency may be accompanied, represented, and advised by counsel. The right to be accompanied, represented, and advised by counsel shall mean the right of a person testifying to have an attorney present at all times while testifying and to have this attorney (1) advise such person before, during and after the conclusion of testimony. (2) question such person briefly at the conclusion of testimony to clarify any of the answers given, and (3) make summary notes during the testimony solely for the use of such person.

(c) Any person who has given testimony and counsel who has represented such person may for cause be excluded from the taking of testimony of any other witness.

(d) Any person who is compelled to produce documents for inspection or copying is entitled to retain such documents. Any person who is compelled to give testimony is entitled to inspect any transcript that has been made of the testimony but may not obtain a copy if the Comptroller's representative conducting the proceedings has cause to believe that the contents should not be disclosed pending completion of the investigation.

(e) Any designated representative conducting an investigative proceeding shall report to the Comptroller any instances where any person has been guilty of dilatory, obstructionist or contumacious conduct during the course of the proceeding or any other instance involving a violation of these rules. The Comptroller may thereupon take such further action as the circumstances may warrant, including exclusion of the offending individual or individuals from participation in the proceedings.

§ 19.46 Service of subpoena and payment of witness fees.

Service of a subpoena shall be made by personal service or by certified mail addressed to the person named therein. Witnesses who are subpoenaed shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the district courts of the United States. The fees and mileage need not be tendered at the time a subpoena is served.

[Docket No. 79-NW-1-AD]
AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Boeing 707-300/-400/-300B/-300C

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) DOT.

ACTION: Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM).

SUMMARY: It is proposed to adopt an Airworthiness Directive (AD) which would require repetitive inspections of the Boeing aircraft 707-300/-400/300B/300C horizontal stabilizer to detect spanwise stress corrosion cracks in the rear spar upper and lower chords. If cracks exist and go undetected, a safety of flight problem could result.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before March 15, 1979.

ADDRESSES: Send comments on the proposal in duplicate to: Federal Aviation Administration, Northwest Region, Office of the Regional Counsel, Attention: Airworthiness Rules Docket, Docket No. 78-NW-1-AD, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington, 98108.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Harold N. Wantiez, P.E., Airframe Section, ANW-212, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington, 98108, telephone (206) 767-2516.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communication should identify the regulatory docket or notice number and be submitted in duplicate to the address specified above. All communications received on or before the closing date for comments specified above will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received. All comments submitted will be available both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons. A report summarizing each FAA-public contact concerned with the substance of this proposal will be filed in the Rules Docket.

AVAILABILITY OF NPRM'S

Any person may obtain a copy of this notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) by submitting a request to the Federal Aviation Administration, Northwest Region, Office of the Regional Counsel, Attention: Airworthiness Rules Docket, Docket No. 79-NW-1-AD, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington 98108.

DISCUSSION OF THE PROPOSED RULE

Recent inspections of Boeing 707-300 aircraft have detected spanwise stress corrosion cracks in the vertical leg of the upper end and lower chord of the horizontal stabilizer rear spar. The cracks are located along a rivet line and at the tangent of the radius and have been found as far outboard as stabilizer Sta 265 and inboard to stabilizer Sta 96. To date, cracks have been found on 50% of the aircraft inspected.

The cracks do not pose an immediate safety of flight problem, however, if they should coalesce, the structural capability of the outer portion of the horizontal stabilizer could be compromised. It is proposed that an AD be issued which requires repetitive inspection of the vertical flange rear spar upper and lower chords. The manufacturer is currently preparing Service Bulletin 3356 which will contain approximately the same information contained in Boeing Service Letter 707-SL-55-2 which has been released to all operators.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

§ 39.13 [Amended]

Accordingly, the Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend Sec. 39.13 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 39.13) by adding the following new Airworthiness Directive:

BOEING: Applies to all Boeing 707-300/-400/-300B/-300C airplanes noted in Boeing Service Bulletin 3356:

A. Unless inspected within the last 6 months prior to the effective date of this AD, within the next 6 months at intervals thereafter not to exceed 18 months, eddy current inspect the vertical flange of the horizontal stabilizer rear spar upper and lower chord from station 92 outboard in accordance with Boeing Service Bulletin 3356. If cracks are found, proceed in accordance with paragraph B or C of this AD, or by a method approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region.

B. If cracks do not exceed the limits of Boeing Service Bulletin 3356 Figure 1 Paragraph 2(a) and 2(b), airplanes may continue in service if eddy current inspections are accomplished at intervals not to exceed 400 landings or 6 months, whichever occurs first.

C. If cracks exceed the limits of Figure 1 Paragraph 2(a) and 2(b), Boeing Service Bulletin 3356, repair prior to further flight in accordance with Figure 2 of that service bulletin, or in a method approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region.

D. Inspections may revert to normal when the preventive modification of Boeing Service Bulletin 3356 or a modification approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region, has been accomplished.

E. For purpose of complying with this AD subject to acceptance by the assigned FAA Maintenance Inspector, the number of landings may be determined by dividing each airplane's hours time-in-service by the operator's fleet average from takeoff to landing for the airplane type.

F. Upon request of the operator, an FAA Maintenance Inspector, subject to prior approval of the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region may adjust the inspection interval if the request contains substantiating data to justify the increase for that operator.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423); sec. 6(c) Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)); 14 CFR 11.85).

NOTE.—The FAA has determined that this document involves a regulation which is not considered to be significant under the procedures and criteria prescribed by Executive Order 12044 and as implemented by interim Department of Transportation guidelines (43 FR 9582; March 8, 1978.)

Issued in Seattle, Washington, on January 26, 1979.

J. H. TANNER,
Acting Director,
Northwest Region.

MARINE SANCTUARY REGULATIONS

AGENCY: National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Proposed General Regulations for Marine Sanctuaries.

SUMMARY: These proposed regulations revise existing regulations which prescribe the procedures for nominating and designating marine sanctuaries, establishing appropriate management systems within designated sanctuaries and enforcing compliance with these management systems. The regulations reflect new approaches and interpretations developed by NOAA during the administration of the program to date.

DATE: Comments due: April 6, 1979.

ADDRESS: Send comments to: JoAnn Chandler, Acting Director Sanctuary Programs Office, Office of Coastal Zone Management, Page Building 1, 3300 Whitehaven Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20235.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

JoAnn Chandler (202) 634-1672.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 27, 1974, NOAA published regulations setting forth the procedures for nominating, designating and managing areas of the oceans and Great lakes as marine sanctuaries under Title III of the Marine Protection Research and Sanctuaries Act of 1972, P.L. 92-532, 16 U.S.C. 1431-1434, (The Act). Four years of experience have revealed a number of areas where criteria and procedures could be refined to ensure greater certainty in the administration of the Program. These are as follows:

MAJOR CHANGES:

I. REVIEW OF RECOMMENDED SITES

During the past year, NOAA has received over 100 recommendations of possible marine sanctuary sites. Many of them are overlapping and only a small percentage of them can be pursued actively at any given time. Moreover, examination may indicate that certain sites already are protected under existing mechanisms so that designation would not provide significant additional protection. Also analysis must be conducted of the effect of designation on other existing or potential uses of an area. As a result of such factors and the limited resources available for the program, relatively few sites may be found to warrant designation.

Those sections of the current regulations which describe review procedures (primarily § 922.20, Nominations, and § 922.21, Analysis of nomination) provide that upon receipt of a nomination for designation as a marine sanctuary, a "preliminary review to determine feasibility" will be undertaken and, if designation appears feasible, and in-depth study leading to the preparation of a draft environmental impact statement will follow.

The initial reviews conducted under these procedures have indicated areas where additional specificity can be articulated. These include the scope and criteria for the "preliminary review," the time limits within which it and subsequent steps in the designation process should be accomplished and the way in which the public will be kept informed of the progress of any nomination.

Accordingly, these sections have been substantially rewritten and new § 922.22, Effect of Placement on the List, § 922.23.

Selection of Active Candidates, and § 922.24, Review of Active Candidates, have been added to reflect the approach NOAA has developed over the past year, involving generally the following stages:

(1) Placement on the List of Recommended Areas:

Within three months of receiving a recommendation of any site, NOAA will determine whether the site appears to contain any of the significant resources listed in § 922.21(b) (see discussion of Criteria in II below), in which case it will be placed on a master list cataloguing such areas. (§ 922.21(a)) Experience indicates that many areas recommended contain significant resources and will therefore be listed; consequently, the list will contain many more sites than could or should be designated as marine sanctuaries.

NOAA may or may not consult other Federal agencies and/or outside parties at this stage but in any event the recommender will be notified of the determination within the prescribed period and a notice of listing published in the FEDERAL REGISTER if listing is determined to be appropriate.

(2) Selection of Active Candidates:

From the comprehensive list of Recommended Areas, those areas which may be most suitable for designation as marine sanctuaries will be identified as Active Candidates from time to time as program resources allow. The criteria on which this selection will be based are set forth in § 922.23(a). (See II below)

(3) Review of Active Candidates and Designation as Marine Sanctuaries Active candidates will be subjected to extensive review procedures including consultation with interested Federal and State and local agencies, Regional Fishery Management Councils and the public at large. (see §§ 922.24(b), 922.25 and 922.26(a)) Ultimately the designation must be approved by the President. Sections 922.24, 922.25 and 922.26 outline the new review procedures, time limits and public notice requirements. The latter will include public workshops prior to issuance of an EIS discussed in § 922.22 of the current guidelines.

During the review of any Active Candidate, NOAA's policy has been to seek the close cooperation of any affected State and this policy is emphasized by new § 922.25.

II. ADDITIONAL CRITERIA

Taken together §§ 922.10 and 922.21(b) of the current regulations suggest a number of factors which are relevant in determining whether or not designation may be appropriate. Questions and suggestions have revealed that additional clarification in some areas would be helpful. The proposed regulations respond to these concerns by defining more precisely the features that must be present for a site to be a potential sanctuary, i.e. on the List of Recommended Areas (§ 922.21(b)) and the priorities for selection of Active Candidates (§ 922.23(a)). The categorization of types of sanctuaries presently found in § 922.10 has not been particularly useful because most sanctuary candidates fall in several categories, and it has been dropped.

New §§ 922.24 and 922.25 incorporate the other requirements of old §§ 922.22 and 922.23 and replace these sections.

III. SPECIFICATION OF REGULATORY SCOPE

New § 922.26 requires specification of the "terms" of the designation in a Designation document, including the geographic area to be included, the character of the area that requires protection, and the types of activities that may be subject to regulation after designation. They make explicit NOAA's interpretation of the Act that not every activity taking place within a sanctuary must be subject to additional control by NOAA. These sections ensure that the only activities that will be subject to additional regulatory control are those identified at the time of designation. Before any additional activities may be regulated, the Designation must be amended through the same review procedure used in making the original Designation.

These amendments also provide that existing regulations of other agencies and any permits and licenses issued pursuant to these regulations will remain unaffected unless specifically provided otherwise by the regulations implementing a particular Designation. Thus, even for those activities included in the Designation, certain licenses or permits issued by other authorities may remain valid until such time as provided otherwise by regulation. The amendment provisions are found in new § 922.25(b) and (c). The new sections replace §§ 922.26 and 922.27.

IV. INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION

The present regulations (§§ 922.12 and 922.13) which describe the effect of designating a sanctuary upon foreign nationals have been combined and reworded slightly to emphasize the nonterritorial nature of any regulation in a sanctuary beyond the territorial sea and that the only basis for their application is consistency with recognized principles of international law or authorization by international agreement.

PUBLIC REVIEW AND COMMENT: NOAA invites public review and comment on this proposed revision to the regulations. Written comments should be submitted to; JoAnn Chandler, Acting Director; Sanctuary Programs Office; Office of Coastal Zone Management; Page Building 1; 3300 Whitehaven Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20235 on or before April 4th, 1979. Following the close of the comment period and review of the comments received final regulations will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subpart A—General

§ 922.1 Policy and objectives.

(a) The purpose of the marine sanctuaries program is to identify distinctive areas in the oceans from the shore to the edge of the continental shelf and in the Great Lakes and to preserve and restore such areas for their conservation, recreational, ecological or esthetic values by designating them as marine sanctuaries and providing appropriate regulation and management.

(b) The primary emphasis of the program will be the protection of natural and biological resources and in most cases higher priority will be afforded candidate sites that meet this objective in accordance with Congressional design.

(c) The presence of actual or potential conflicts among existing or potential human uses of a candidate site is not of itself a basis for designating a site as a marine sanctuary. Human activities will be allowed within a designated sanctuary to the extent that such activities are compatible with the purposes for which the sanctuary was established, based on an evaluation of whether the individual or cumulative impacts of such activities may have a significant adverse effect on the resource value of the sanctuary.

(d) The marine sanctuaries program will be conducted in close cooperation with related Federal and State programs, including particularly the coastal zone management and estuarine sanctuary programs under the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 1451 et seq., the fishery management programs of the Regional Fishery Management Councils under the Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq. and leasing programs of the Department of the Interior for the Outer Continental Shelf under the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, as amended 43 U.S.C. 1331 et seq.

§ 922.2 Definitions.

(a) "Act" means Title III of the Marine Protection, Research and Sanctuaries Act of 1972, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 1431-1434.

(b) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, United States Department of Commerce.

(c) "Assistant Administrator" means the Assistant Administrator for Coastal Zone Management, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, United States Department of Commerce.

(d) Continental Shelf means the Continental Shelf, as defined in the Convention on the Continental Shelf 15 U.S.T. 74 (TIAS 5578), which lies adjacent to any of the several states or any territory or possession of the United States.

(e) "Ocean waters" means those waters lying seaward of the baseline from which the territorial sea is measured, as provided for in the Convention on the Territorial Sea and the Contiguous Zone, 15 U.S.T. 1956, TIAS 5689.

(f) "Person" means any private individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity; or any officer, employee, agent, department, agency or instrumentality of the Federal government, or any state, local or regional unit of government.

§ 922.10 Effect of marine sanctuary designation.

The designation of a marine sanctuary and the regulations implementing it are binding on any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. In no case does a designation constitute any claim of territoriality on the part of the United States, and the regulations implementing it apply to foreign citizens only to the extent consistent with recognized principles of international law or authorization by international agreement.

SUBPART B—INITIAL REVIEW OF AREAS RECOMMENDED AS SANCTUARIES

§ 922.20 Submission of recommendations.

(a) Any person may recommend a site to be considered for potential designation as a marine sanctuary. Recommendations should be addressed to:

Director, Sanctuary Programs Office, OCSM, NOAA, 3300 Whitehaven Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20235.

Further information can be obtained by contacting this office.

(b) Recommendations should be submitted in the following format:

Site recommended:

General description of area
Approximate coordinates
Area in square miles
Name of person or organization submitting recommendation.

Principal Contact:

Name, Title
Address
Telephone number
Detailed description of the feature or features which make the site distinctive (See sec. 922.21).

Available Data on the Resources and Site:

Summary of existing research and other data to support description
Principal data deficiencies
Description of present and prospective uses of site.

Impacts of present and prospective uses on site and its distinctive features.

Probable effects of marine sanctuary designation and regulations:

Present uses of resources
Future uses of resources
Uses of adjacent areas (including those on shore).

Management:

Summary of who should manage area and why
Summary of activities which must be regulated to ensure protection of distinctive features

(c) The Assistant Administrator may request such additional information as is necessary to make the determination called for by § 922.21.

§ 922.21 Analysis of recommendations.

(a) Within 3 months of receiving a recommendation for any site the Assistant Administrator will review the site in accordance with the criteria of paragraph (b) to determine if it should be placed on the List of Recommended Areas and will notify the recommender in writing of this determination. Notification of the placement of any site on the List will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) A candidate area shall have one or more of the following resource values to be eligible for placement on the List of Recommended Areas for marine sanctuaries:

(1) A marine ecosystem characterized by the significant presence of one or more species which (i) is rare, endangered or threatened, (ii) has limited geographic distribution, or (iii) is rare in the waters to which the Act applies.

(2) A marine ecosystem of exceptional richness indicated by the abundance and variety of marine species and the productivity of the various trophic levels in the food web.

(3) An important habitat during one or more stages in the life cycle of species described in paragraph (1) or habitat on which one or more commercially or recreationally valuable marine species depends for one or more stages in its life cycle. Life cycle activities include breeding, feeding, and rearing young.

(4) Intensive recreational use growing out of its distinctive marine characteristics.

(5) Historic or cultural remains of widespread public interest.

(6) Distinctive or fragile geologic features of exceptional scientific or educational value.

(c) Where overlapping or adjacent sites are recommended or where the recommended boundaries of an area appear either excessive or inadequate to protect the identified features the Assistant Administrator may prepare a combined or revised description for placement on the List.

(d) All recommendations submitted prior to the effective date of these regulations will be reviewed in accordance with this section and an initial List of Recommended Areas will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER within 3 months of such date. Thereafter the List will be updated semi-annually and a cumulative list published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 922.22 Effect of Placement on the list.

(a) Placement of a site on the List is a prerequisite for designation as a marine sanctuary but does not imply that designation will occur and does not establish any regulatory controls. Such controls can be established only after designation in accordance with § 922.26.

(b) The list provides a source of information on recommended sites that may be relevant to federal agencies and others conducting activities that affect these sites.

SUBPART C—SELECTION OF ACTIVE CANDIDATES AND DESIGNATION OF SANCTUARIES

§ 922.23 Selection of active candidates.

(a) Sites on the List will be selected for active consideration for designation as marine sanctuaries based primarily on the significance of the resources identified during listing under § 922.21(b) and the extent to which the means are available to the Assistant Administrator to support full review within the time specified in § 922.24. In addition the following factors will be taken into account:

(1) The severity and imminence of existing or potential threats to the resources including the cumulative effect of various human activities that individually may be insignificant.

(2) The ability of existing regulatory mechanisms to protect the values of the sanctuary and the likelihood that sufficient effort will be devoted to accomplishing those objectives without creating a sanctuary.

(3) The significance of the area to research opportunities on a particular type of ecosystem or on marine biological and physical processes.

(4) The value of the area in complementing other areas of significance to public or private programs with similar objectives, including approved Coastal Zone Management programs.

(5) The esthetic qualities of the area.

(6) The type and estimated economic value of other natural resources and human uses within the area which may be foregone as a result of marine sanctuary designation, taking into account the economic significance to the nation of such additional resources and uses and the probable impact on them of regulations designed to achieve the purposes of sanctuary designation.

(b) Before selecting a site as an Active Candidate, the Assistant Administrator shall consult on a preliminary basis with relevant Federal agencies, state and local officials, Regional Fishery Management Councils and other interested parties including the recommender to discover if significant objections to designation exist and to gather additional information as necessary to conduct the review process.

(c) Selection of any site as an Active Candidate for designation shall be announced in the FEDERAL REGISTER and all Active Candidates shall be placed on a separate list published and updated concurrently with the List of Recommended Areas as provided in § 922.21(d).

§ 922.24 Review of active candidates.

(a) Within six months of selection as an Active Candidate as specified in § 922.23, the Assistant Administrator shall conduct a Public Workshop to solicit the views of interested persons to aid in determining whether the site should be further considered for designation. This workshop shall be before and in addition to the public hearings required under section 302(e) of the Act.

(b) Based on the views obtained at the Public Workshop and other relevant information, the Assistant Administrator shall determine whether the site should continue to be an Active Candidate and shall announce that decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER within 90 days of the Public Workshop. If appropriate, the Assistant Administrator shall commence preparation of a draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS), Designation document, and regulations implementing the Designation, with the participation of relevant Federal, State and local officials, Regional Fishery Management Council members and other interested parties in the preparation of such documents.

(c) No less than 30 days after EPA publishes a Notice of Availability in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Assistant Administrator shall hold at least one public hearing on the DEIS in the coastal areas most affected by the proposed designation in accordance with section 302(e) of the Act.

§ 922.25 Coordination with states.

(a) The Assistant Administrator shall make every effort to consult and cooperate with affected states through the entire review and consideration process. In particular the Assistant Administrator shall:

(1) Consult with the relevant state officials prior to selection of a candidate for active consideration pursuant to § 922.23(b).

(2) Ensure that any state agency designated under sections 305 or 306 the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 and any other appropriate state agency is consulted prior to holding any public workshop pursuant to § 922.24(a) or public hearing pursuant to § 922.24(c).

(3) Ensure that such public workshops and public hearings include consideration of the relationship of a proposed designation to state waters or to an approved state Coastal Zone Management program.

§ 922.26 Designation.

(a) After filing a final environmental impact statement with EPD and after final consultation with all appropriate Federal agencies and Regional Fishery Management Councils, the Administrator may transmit to the President for approval the proposed Designation to make the site a Marine Sanctuary.

(b) The Designation shall specify by its terms the geographic coordinates of the Sanctuary area, its distinctive features that require protection, and the types of activities that may be subject to regulation. The terms of the Designation may be modified only by the same procedures through which the original designation was made.

(c) The Assistant Administrator shall promulgate regulations consistent with and implementing the terms of the Designation. Such regulations shall set forth procedures for the review and certification of permits, licenses or other authorization pursuant to other authorities. All amendments to or revisions of these regulations must remain consistent with the Designation.

(d) If the Governor of a state whose waters are included in the sanctuary certifies that any terms of the Designation are unacceptable, such terms and any regulations implementing them will not become effective for the part of the Sanctuary in state waters until the certification is withdrawn. If the Governor so certifies, the Designation may be withdrawn if the sanctuary, as modified, no longer achieves the objectives specified in the Act, the regulations and the Designation.

§ 922.27 Boundaries.

(a) Sanctuary boundaries should include an area sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that the resource value of the area can be protected against degradation or destruction. The boundary will not include an area greater than that appropriate to protect the resource. The determination of boundaries should consider the following elements, depending on the resource values that justify establishing the sanctuary:

(1) The range and interrelations of key elements of the ecosystem,

(2) The potential for adverse impact from human activities at some distance from where they are conducted, whether as a result of normal operations or foreseeable accidents,

(3) The economic, safety, and other effects of displacing certain human activities to other locations to the extent such displacement is likely to occur.

(4) The feasibility and cost of conducting surveillance and enforcement activities in managing the area.

(b) At any time prior to the designation of any candidate site as a marine sanctuary, the boundary proposed for such site may be revised in conformance with the criteria of this section to reflect new information. Notification of the revision will be made at the next update of the List of Recommended Areas or Active Candidates List, as appropriate.

Subpart D—Enforcement

§ 922.30 Penalties.

Any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States who violates any regulation issued pursuant to the Act will be liable for a civil penalty of not more than $50,000 for each such violation. Each day of a continuing violation will constitute a separate violation. No penalty will be assessed under this section until the person charged has been given notice and an opportunity to be heard. Upon failure of the offending party to pay an assessed penalty, the Attorney General, at the request of the Administrator will commence action in the appropriate district court of the United States in order to collect the penalty and to seek such other relief as may be appropriate. The notice of violation shall inform the person of the procedures for demanding a hearing and may provide that, after a period of 30 days from receipt of the notice, any right to a hearing will be deemed to have been waived.

§922.32 Enforcement hearings.

Hearings demanded under §922.31 will be held not less than 60 days after demand. Such hearings shall be on a record before a hearing officer. This part explains policies and outlines procedures that govern collecting personal information and safeguarding, maintaining, using, accessing, amending, and disseminating personal information kept by the Department of the Air Force in systems of records. It implements 5 U.S.C. 552a, Pub. L. 93-579 and DOD Directive 5400.11, August 4, 1975. It is published in Title 32 CFR 806b and applies to all Air Force activities, including the Reserve Components, except for the office of the Chief, National Guard Bureau; Air National Guard technicians; and Army-Air Force Exchange Service activities, including Motion Picture Service Activities. It does not apply to civilian employee records which are maintained by Air Force activities and are covered under the Civil Service Government-wide systems of records, reprinted in AFP 12-36, Part Three. Such records are subject to Parts 293, 294, and 297 of Civil Service Commission regulations and the Federal Personnel Manual and Air Force Supplements. In case of a conflict, this part takes precedence over any existing Air Force directive that deals with the personal privacy and rights of individuals regarding their personal records, except for disclosures of personal information required by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. 552, as amended by Pub. L. 93-501 and implemented by AFR 12-30.

Subpart A—General Information

§ 806b.1 Air Force policy.

It is Air Force policy to:

(a) Protect the privacy of individuals from unwarranted invasion as required by the Privacy Act of 1974. Individuals covered by this protection are living citizens of the United States or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence. A legal guardian or parent has the same rights as, and may act on behalf of, a minor. (A member of the Armed Forces is not a minor for the purposes of this part.)

(b) Collect, keep, and use only that personal information needed to support Air Force operations and programs as authorized by law or Executive Order. Disclose this information only as authorized by the Privacy Act of 1974 and this part.

(c) Keep only that personal information that is timely, accurate, complete, and relevant to the purpose for which it was collected.

(d) Safeguard personal information to prevent unauthorized use, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

(e) Let individuals know what records the Air Force is keeping on them, and to let them review or get copies of these records, subject to exemption procedures authorized by law and published in this part.

(f) Let individuals amend records about themselves that they can prove are in error, or are untimely, incomplete, or irrelevant.

(g) Let individuals ask for an administrative review of decisions that deny them access to, or do not let them amend, their records.

(h) Keep personal information only for as long as it is needed to protect the rights of the citizen and the Government, and to provide for the administrative needs of the Air Force.

§ 806b.2 Terms explained.

Terms, and their meanings, used in this part are:

(a) Access. Reviewing or obtaining copies by individuals of their own records that are part of a system of records.

(b) Agency. For purposes of disclosing records subject to § 806b.15, the Department of Defense is an agency as defined by the Privacy Act. For all other purposes, including applications for access and amendment, appeals from denials, exempting systems of records, etc., the Department of the Air Force is an agency.

(c) Confidential source. Any individual or organization that has given information to the Federal Government under:

(1) An express promise that the identity of the source would be withheld, or

(2) An implied promise to withhold the identity of the source made before September 27, 1975.

(d) Confidentiality. An explicit promise to withhold the identity of a source. For a promise of confidentiality to be effective, the information furnished must be put into a system of records that is authorized for an exemption under the Privacy Act and for which the Secretary of the Air Force has claimed an exemption.

(e) Disclosure. Giving information about an individual, by any means, to an organization or to an individual who is not the subject of the record. In the context of the Privacy Act and this part, this term only applies to personal information that is part of a system of records.

(f) Individual. A living citizen of the United States or an alien admitted for permanent residence. The Privacy Act rights of an individual may be exercised by the legal guardian of an incompetent, or by the parent of a minor. (NOTE: The Privacy Act confers no rights on deceased persons, nor may their next of kin exercise any rights for them.)

(g) Maintain. Includes "hold," "collect," "use," "control," or "disseminate."

(h) Minor. Any individual under the age of majority as determined by state law that governs the location of the facility where the records are kept. If there is no prevailing state law (for example, overseas), a minor is any individual under 18 years of age.

(i) Official Use. Any action by a member or employee of the Department of Defense which is prescribed or authorized by a regulation, and is intended to complete a mission or function of the department.

(j) Personal Information. Any item of information about a person that is not a matter of public record and is usually considered to be personal to the individual. It includes, for example, information about the individual's financial, family, social, and recreational affairs; his or her medical, educational (except military training), employment, political, or criminal history; or information that identifies, describes, or gives a basis for inferring personal characteristics, such as voice or fingerprints.

(k) Privacy Act Request. A request from an individual for information about the existence of, or for access to or amendment of, a record about him or her that is in a system of records. The request must cite or indicate a knowledge of the existence of the Privacy Act of 1974.

(l) Record. Any item, collection, or grouping of information about an individual that is kept by the Government.

(m) Routine Use. Any use or disclosure of information from a system of records that has been listed in a published systems notice and that is consistent with the purpose for which the information was collected.

(n) System Manager. The official responsible for the policies and procedures for operating a system of records. The local systems manager operates and has immediate contact with the system.

(o) Statistical Record. A record kept for statistical or reporting purposes which is not used by making judgments about individuals. The identity of specific persons must not be discoverable using usual statistical or data manipulation methods.

(p) System of Records. Any group of records from which personal information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some personal identifier, such as the individual's Social Security Number (SSN). If such retrieval is possible but not actually done, the group does not constitute a system of records. Likewise, if retrieval depends on the operator's memory, no system of records exists. However, the creation of a retrieval index, arranged by personal identifier for a system that is filed at random, makes that system a system of records. Notices for all systems must be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and no system may be operated or maintained until this is done.

(q) Workday or day. An official duty day, not including Saturdays, Sundays, and official Federal holidays.

§ 806b.3 Air Force supplements.

Commands will not change, through supplements or other publications, the policies and procedures set by this part. Send copies of each major command (MAJCOM) or separate operating agency (SOA) publication that implements this part to HQ USAF/DAAD(S), Wash DC 20330.

§ 806b.4 Responsibilities assigned.

(a) The Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force (SAF/AA) has overall responsibility for the Privacy Act within the Air Force and is the final decision authority on all appeals.

(b) The Director of Administration, HQ USAF, manages and administers the program through the Air Force Privacy Act Office, HQ USAF/DAAD(S).

(c) HQ USAF Deputy Chiefs of Staff (DCS) (and comparable officials) and SAF offices make sure that their deputies or offices comply with this part and name a Privacy Act Officer to assume the responsibilities in (g) of this subparagraph.

(d) MAJCOM and SOA Commanders implement this part within their commands and ensure compliance with its requirements.

(e) MAJCOM and SOA Directors of Administration monitor and administer the command-wide program. They may give these responsibilities to another staff function, if HQ USAF/DA approves. They name a command Privacy Act Officer within the Documentation staff function, and a Privacy Act Officer at each installation or tenant unit. They send the name, grade or rank, and telephone number of the current command Privacy Act Officer to HQ USAF/DAAD(S). Privacy Act monitors may be appointed at subordinate organizations and staff elements, if required.

(f) Command Privacy Act Officers:

(1) Serve as the primary point of contact within the command on all Privacy Act matters.

(2) Make sure that appropriate command personnel are trained or oriented in the provisions of the Act.

(3) Develop the command supplement to this part, if required.

(4) Gather material for the annual report and record system notices for HQ USAF/DAAD(S).

(g) Local Privacy Officers:

(1) Act as liaison between the command Privacy Act Officer and individuals who are responsible for operating systems of records.

(2) Implement, administer, and monitor the Privacy Act program within their areas of jurisdiction.

(3) Make sure that personnel are trained or oriented in the provisions of the Act.

(4) Compile material for the annual report, and records system notices for the command Privacy Act Officer.

(h) Record system managers may serve at any level in the Air Force. They determine the content and set rules for operating the system. System managers are responsible for sending public notices for proposed new or changed systems of records to the local Privacy Officer and for evaluating the systems each year, as required by § 806b.13. In many cases, record system managers also operate the system as the local system manager.

(i) Local records system managers or custodians answer requests for information from individuals, keep accountability records of disclosures, and send the Privacy Officer data needed for the annual report.

§ 806b.5 Delegation of authority.

(a) Access authorities. (1) The person named or position listed in the record system notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, either as the one to whom the request is to be sent or as the system manager.

(2) Reports of the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI) released under rules in Part 952. Reports on investigations that are not complete and on which no final action has been made, are released by the commander of the organization that requests the investigation. Reports on completed investigations may only be released by HQ AFOSI.

(3) Inspector General complaint records, released only with the approval of HQ AFISC/IC.

(b) Denial authorities. The authority to deny access to, or to refuse to amend records must not be delegated to levels lower than those shown below, unless approved by SAF/AA. Send requests for waiver, with justification, to HQ USAF/DAAD(S), Wash DC 20330. Only the following officials, or their designees, have the authority to refuse to release or amend records:

(1) At SAF or HQ USAF, Deputy Chiefs of Staff and chiefs of comparable offices or higher level.

(2) At MAJCOM or SOAs, Commanders.

(3) For personnel records on civilian employees, Chief, Office of Civilian Personnel Operations (OCPO/MPK), Randolph AFB TX 78148.

(4) For OSI investigative records, Commander, AFOSI, HQ AFOSI, Wash DC 20314.

NOTE.—The officials named above may designate one alternate denial authority. Send a copy of the letter of appointment to HQ USAF/DAAD(S), Wash DC 20330.

(c) Authority to request law enforcement records. The Commander, AFOSI; the Chief, Air Force Office of Security Police; Base Chiefs of Security Police; and AFOSI District Commanders and their designees are authorized to ask for records from any source for law enforcement activities under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(7). These requests must be in writing and indicate the particular part of the record desired and the law enforcement activity that is asking for the record.

§ 806b.6 Judicial sanctions.

The Privacy Act has both civil remedies and criminal penalties for violations of its provisions.

(a) Civil remedies. An individual may file a civil suit against the Air Force, if Air Force personnel fail to comply with the Privacy Act.

(b) Criminal Penalties. A member or employee of the Air Force may be found guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000 for willfully:

(1) Maintaining a system of records without first meeting the public notice requirements. (See § 806b.12.)

(2) Disclosing individually identifiable information to one not entitled to have it.

(3) Asking for and getting another's record under false pretenses.

Subpart B—Collecting Personal Information

§ 806b.7 Collecting from the individual.

Collect personal information, as much as possible, directly from the individual. Do not collect this information from third parties unless:

(a) The accuracy of information supplied by an individual must be verified with a third party.

(b) The information can only be obtained from a third party, such as information about how an employee performed in an earlier job or assignment.

(c) Getting the information from the individual would present exceptional difficulties or would result in an unreasonable cost.

(d) Other compelling and unusual circumstances make third party involvement necessary.

§ 806b.8 Privacy Act statements.

If the information asked for would be releasable under the FOIA, there is no requirement to give the person a Privacy Act Statement (some examples of this kind of information are name, grade, organization, duty assignment, and official telephone number). In all other cases, give individuals who are asked for information about themselves a Privacy Act Statement. This must be done regardless of how you collect or record the information, whether you use a form in the usual sense (that is, a printed document with a control number and edition date) or a blank page. You may advise individuals orally or display a sign in areas where they are frequently required to supply the same type of information; however, printed copies must be available and given to the individual on request. A Privacy Act Statement, whether given orally or placed on a form, must include:

(a) The number of the statute or executive order that authorizes collecting the information.

(b) The principal purposes for which the information will be used (for example, why the information is requested).

(c) The routine uses to be made of the information (for example, how the information is going to be used).

(d) Whether furnishing the information is mandatory or voluntary. Responding is mandatory, only if the information is essential to the Air Force mission, and if failure to furnish it could make the person liable to some administrative or disciplinary action.

(e) What will happen to the individual, if he or she does not give all or any part of the information requested?

NOTE: If you ask an individual for his or her SSN, you must state whether disclosure is voluntary or mandatory, give the statute or authority for requesting it, and state how it will be used.

(1) An individual may not be denied any right, benefit, or privilege provided by law for refusing to give his or her SSN unless disclosure:

(i) Is required by Federal statutes; or

(ii) Was required under statute or regulation adopted before January 1, 1975 for a system of records operating before that date.

(NOTE: Executive Order 9397, November 22, 1943, authorizes the use of the SSN as a system of numerical identification of individuals.)

(2) The fact that disclosure of the SSN is not required by Federal statute or is not for a system of records operating before January 1, 1975, does not preclude Air Force officials from asking for it. However, the Privacy Act Statement must make clear that disclosure of the SSN is voluntary. If the individual refuses to disclose it, be prepared to use other means for identification.

NOTE.—The Forms Management office provides information on preparing and processing forms that should have Privacy Act Statements. The Publications Management office ensures that a Privacy Act warning statement is in the preamble of each regulation that calls for collecting personal information.

§ 806b.9 Promise of confidentiality when collecting information about individuals from third parties.

Give these promises rarely, and only for information that could not be obtained by other means. These promises can only be given for information that is put in an exempt system of records (see Subpart E). In order to exempt information under subsections (k)(2), (k)(5), and (k)(7) of the Privacy Act, sources must be given an express promise that their identities will not be revealed.

Subpart C—Maintaining Information in Systems of Records

§ 806b.10 Air Force Standards.

The Air Force must maintain information on individuals with such accuracy, relevancy, timeliness, and completeness as is reasonably necessary to make sure that determinations about them are made fairly.

(a) No record in a system of records will be kept unless it is authorized by statute or by Executive Order and is directed by an Air Force regulation.

(b) No record in a system of records will be kept unless it is relevant and necessary to carry out the mission or a function of the Air Force.

(c) No record will be kept that describes how an individual exercises any right guaranteed by the First Amendment to the Constitution unless expressly authorized by statute, by the individual concerned, or unless authorized for a law enforcement purpose.

(d) No system of records or revised system of records will be operated until the requirements for public notice and report to the Office of Management and Budget have been met. (See § 806b.12.)

(e) An activity must not issue a Request for Proposal or an Invitation to Bid for computer or communications systems and services to support a new or altered system of records until the requirement for a report to the Office of Management and Budget has been met. (See § 806b.12.)

(f) No record from a system of records will be released except according to Subpart D.

§ 806b.11 Protecting records.

Any activity that operates a system of records must set rules of conduct, operating procedures, and physical safeguards to keep the records safe from unauthorized disclosure. The level of protection should be in line with the level of sensitivity of the information.

(a) Disposition of Records. Dispose of records that have personal data and are eligible for disposal (as directed by AFM 12-50, Disposition of Air Force Documentation) by tearing into pieces, shredding, pulping, macerating, or burning.

(1) Dispose of magnetic tapes or other magnetic medium by degaussing or erasing.

(2) Activities may dispose of computer cards and printouts in a volume of 5 cubic feet or more without removing information subject to the Privacy Act from the records. This amount is sufficient to make sure that any one item of information becomes lost in the accumulated whole. It is not a disclosure under the Privacy Act. The carbon paper associated with these products may be disposed of through normal waste disposal methods. Systems managers may ask for a waiver of the required volume from command Privacy Act Officers. Systems managers must give substantial reasons to justify any reduction. Command Privacy Act Officers review the request in consultation with the Staff Judge Advocate. If there is disagreement, the request may be sent to HQ USAF/DAAD(S) for a final determination.

(b) Safeguarding Personal Information in ADP Systems. See AFR 300-13, Safeguarding Personal Data in Automatic Data Processing Systems.

§ 806b.12 Public notice and reporting requirements.

The Privacy Act requires that a report on all new or altered systems of records be published for public inspection. In addition, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) requires a report on new systems and certain kinds of altered systems. Instructions on how to prepare both the OMB report and the systems notice are in § 806b.21. New systems notices, changes to current systems notices, and the OMB report, if required, must reach HQ USAF/DAAD(S), Wash. DC 20330 at least 90 days before the date an activity will begin to operate a new system, change an existing system, issue any data collection forms or instructions, or issue a request for proposal or invitation to bid for computer or communications systems or services to support the new or altered system.

(a) A new system of records is one for which no notice has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. It requires both a systems notice and an OMB report.

(b) An altered system of records, requiring both an OMB report and a systems notice, is one that:

(1) Significantly increases the number or changes the types of individuals on whom records are kept.

(2) Expands the categories of information. For example, a system that has physical training records is expanded to include medical records.

(3) Alters the way in which records are organized or in which they are indexed or retrieved so as to change the nature or scope of the records. For example, combining two or more existing systems as a result of centralizing a unit's responsibilities is an alteration.

(4) Alters the purpose for which the information is used.

(5) Alters the computer environment (for example, equipment configuration, software, or procedures) so as to create the possibility for greater or easier access (for example, adding a remote terminal at an office that did not previously have access to a system).

(c) An altered system of records that requires an amended systems notice but not an OMB report, is one that:

(1) Alters or adds routine uses within the scope of the original purpose for which the information was collected.

(2) Decreases the number of persons on whom records are kept.

(3) Adds a new data element clearly within the scope of the existing categories, or decreases the number of categories.

(d) A system manager who decides a system of records must be exempted from some or all of the requirements of the Privacy Act must send a letter through the command Privacy Act officer to HQ USAF/DAAD(S) Wash. DC 20330, giving specific reasons. This request must be processed by the Air Force Privacy Act Office for secretarial approval (see Subpart F).

§ 806b.13 Evaluating systems of records.

Each system manager must evaluate the system of records and each category of information in the system at least once a year to make sure they are still relevant and necessary. Send any amendments or deletions as prescribed in § 806b.12. Take into consideration:

(a) How the system and each item of information in it relate to the program it supports and to the statutory purpose of the program.

(b) What the specific adverse consequences of dropping the system or any item of information in it would be.

(c) The possibility of meeting information requirements by using other than personal data.

(d) The possibility of early purging of any item of information.

(e) The cost of running the system as it is, in relation to the result of discontinuing it.

Subpart D—Disclosing Information from Systems of Records

§ 806b.14 Disclosures to the subjects of records.

Individuals may ask whether the Air Force is maintaining records about them. If such records exist within systems of records, the Privacy Act gives the individual a right of access to the record, and a right to request its amendment.

(a) How to identify a Privacy Act request. To be considered under the Privacy Act, a request must:

(1) Come from a person whose records are in the system, or who is a designated agent or legal guardian. The request can be either oral or written.

(2) Cite the Privacy Act or at least show an awareness of the Act's requirements. For example, it could be addressed to the Privacy Act Officer, system manager, or FOIA manager, even if it does not cite the Act in the text of the request. Because people sometimes confuse the Privacy Act and FOIA, a request that cites or implies FOIA will be treated as a Privacy Act request, if it meets all the other criteria in this section.

(3) Pertain to records that are in a system of records. If the records the person wants are not in a system of records, the request falls into a category other than Privacy. The request does not have to name the system, but it should be fairly specific. Do not accept blanket requests for "all records about me." Instead, refer the person to AFP 12-37, Access Guide for Making Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act Requests, and ask for more details.

(b) How to identify a functional request. Other Air Force directives give individuals the right to have access to their records. If an individual asks for his or her records and does not cite, or reasonably imply, the Privacy Act or FOIA, and another prescribing directive authorizes the release of the records, use that directive as authority for the release. Apply the schedule of fees in Part 813. Do not count the request as a Privacy Act request. An example is when an officer asks a personnel clerk for a copy of his or her Officer Effectiveness Report (OER). If the officer does not cite Privacy Act or FOIA, the clerk may give him or her the record under AFR 36-10, Officer Evaluations, and charge according to Part 813.

(c) How to process a Privacy Act request for existence or access that cites Privacy Act, FOIA, or both. Regardless of whether a person cites or implies the Privacy Act or the FOIA, process the request so as to give the most information possible. This may mean processing part of the request under one Act and part under another.

(1) Verifying identity. When local systems managers receive a request for information about the existence of, or for access to, records, they must verify the requester's identity, unless the record sought is available to anyone under the FOIA. The person does not have to state a reason for the request, nor can the request be denied, if the person does not give his or her SSN, unless disclosure of the SSN is required by Federal statute or by a regulation adopted before January 1, 1975.

(2) Notifying the requester. Once the requester's identity is assured, the local system manager or custodian should:

(i) Within 10 working days from the date the request was received, tell the person if the system of records has a record about him or her, and when and where it may be reviewed.

(ii) Within 30 working days from the date the request was received, let the person review the record, or obtain a copy, unless it is exempt and listed in § 806b.22.

(A) If the requester wants to bring another person, the local manager may ask for written authorization for the other person to be present during any discussion of the content of the record.

(B) There is no requirement to create a record to fulfill a request; the record must be in existence at the time of the request. However, do not deny a record just because it is not readily available in a convenient format. Information in a system of records on magnetic or computer tape should be given in a format the requester can read.

(3) Assessing fees. When providing documents under the Privacy Act, charge fees for reproduction only.

(i) Use the following fee schedule:

Office copy (per page).....	.10
Microform media (paper copy) (per image).....	.25
Microfiche (per fiche).....	.95

(ii) Do not charge fees for:

(A) Performing record searches.

(B) Reproducing a document for the convenience of the Air Force.

(C) Reproducing a record only in order to let a requester review it. If he or she wants a personal copy, use the fee in (3)(i) of this subpart.

(D) Reproducing a record for a requester who shows that he or she cannot pay the allowable charge.

(iii) Waive the fee, if the total amount is less than $5.

(4) Denying access. If the local systems manager decides the record should not be released, he or she sends a copy of the record (or records), and the reasons for recommending denial, including the exemption being applied, to the Denial Authority, through the command Privacy Act Officer. This must be done within 5 workdays from the date the request was received.

(i) Evaluation of record. No record may be withheld just because it is in an exempt system. Before recommending denial, the local manager must:

(A) Make sure the system is covered by an exemption approved by the Secretary of the Air Force and listed in § 806b.22.

(B) Make sure that each document is, in fact, covered by the exemption, since all documents in a system are not automatically exempt.

(C) Determine that no part of the record could be released, either by careful editing or in the form of a summary. If a record has both releasable and exempt material, the releasable part must be separated and made available.

(ii) Medical records. If, in the judgment of a physician, releasing a medical record to the subject could harm the subject's mental or physical health, the system manager may require the requester to name a physician to receive the record. This is a denial of the record, only if the subject refuses to name a physician.

(iii) Third party information. A record with personal information about someone else can be released after the third party information has been taken out. If the information is releasable under the FOIA, it is not deleted. If the record is one to which the requester has already had access, such as an order or effectiveness report, it is released intact. In all other cases, personal information such as home addresses and SSNs of others should be deleted.

If there is information in the record, the disclosure of which would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of someone else's privacy, that information should be withheld.

(iv) Information compiled for litigation. Information in a system of records compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding may be denied. The requester should be informed of his or her right to appeal this denial.

(v) Denial Authority action. (A) The Command Privacy Officer reviews the denial recommendation and consults with the servicing Staff Judge Advocate and the office responsible for the program under which the record was created. He or she makes a recommendation to the Denial Authority, consistent with the results of this review.

(B) The Denial Authority, after examining the case, notifies the requester whether or not access will be granted. If the Denial Authority decides to grant access, he or she instructs the local systems manager to release the record. If the Denial Authority denies access, he or she must tell the requester why, and that the decision may be appealed to the Secretary of the Air Force within 45 days after the denial letter is received. The requester will be told to resubmit the original request and send any supporting material back to the Denial Authority for forwarding to HQ USAF/DA, Washington, D.C. 20330. The requester should be cautioned that failure to follow this procedure may delay the appeal.

(d) How to process a request for amendment. Individuals may ask the Air Force to amend records about them that are in a system or records. The amendment sought must change, delete, or add material to make a record factually accurate, timely, relevant, or complete. A request that asks for an amendment of information that is subjective, or involves a matter of opinion or interpretation, is not processed under this part. It is sent back, and the person told to send it to the Air Force Board for the Correction of Military Records under Part 865, Subpart A of this chapter, under grievance procedures in AFR 40-771, Appeal and Grievance Procedures, or any other appropriate directive.

(1) Requests to amend may be made orally or in writing. But, only requests asking for minor corrections are accepted orally. In either case, the local systems manager verifies the identity of the person seeking the amendment.

(2) Local systems managers routinely correct any record, if the requester can conclusively show it is factually in error, or if no lawful purpose would be served by not correcting the record. In these cases, the manager makes the change, notifies all holders of the record, and informs the individual when the correction is made.

(3) If the manager decides not to amend the record, he or she sends a copy of the record, the reasons for denial, and the request to the Denial Authority through the command Privacy Act Officer. The Command Privacy Act Officer reviews the denial recommendation and consults with the servicing Staff Judge Advocate and the office responsible for the program under which the record was created. He or she makes a recommendation to the Denial Authority based on the results of this review. A Denial Authority who decides to support, or partially support denial, sends the requester a letter stating why the request was denied and how to appeal the decision.

If a review does not support denial, the system manager must be told to amend the record and notify all subsequent recipients of the change.

(f) Appeals of initial refusals to grant access or to amend records. (1) Request for secretarial review. An individual may request a review of the initial refusal by writing to the Secretary of the Air Force within 45 days of the denial. The request should be addressed to the Secretary of the Air Force (SAF/AA), Wash DC 20330 and sent back to the initial Denial Authority for forwarding to HQ USAF/DA, Wash DC 20330. The Denial Authority sends a complete file in the following order:

- (i) The request for review.
- (ii) The initial request for access or amendment.
- (iii) The initial refusal.
- (iv) A copy of the record or portions involved.
- (v) Any internal records or coordination actions that relate to the initial refusals.

(vi) Denial Authority comments on the appellant's arguments.

(2) Responsibilities for Review. (i) The Air Force Privacy Board reviews the initial denial and makes recommendations to the Vice Chief of Staff (CV). Members of the Board are representatives from HQ USAF/DA (Chairperson), the Office of The Judge Advocate General (HQ USAF/JA), and an Air Staff function not having primary responsibility for the record in question. The Chairperson may also call upon subject matter experts to advise the Board. CV may designate another official to serve as Chairperson or, if the record is the primary responsibility of HQ USAF/DA or HQ USAF/JA, may choose a member from another Air Staff organization to sit on the board instead.

(ii) The Office of the CV considers the recommendations of the Board and decides whether to direct the initial Denial Authority to grant access to or amend the record, or to uphold the denial. If the decision is to uphold, this recommendation is passed to SAF/AA through SAF/GC for a final decision.

(iii) SAF/AA considers HQ USAF/CV recommendations to uphold a denial, decides to grant or deny the appeal, and notifies both the individual and the initial Denial Authority of the decision. If SAF/AA upholds the denial, the individual is advised of his or her right to send a statement of disagreement to the system manager.

(3) Time limits for appeal. Table 3 shows the necessary actions and time limits for each part of the appeal process.

(e) Time limits: Requesters should be told what action will be taken on their request within 10 workdays from the date the first Air Force office receives it. If access is granted or a record is amended, that should usually be done within 30 workdays. Table 2 gives time limits for the persons responsible for these actions. If the 10-day time limit cannot be met, the requester should be sent a letter telling why a delay is needed and giving an approximate response date. That date should be no more than 20 workdays after the first Air Force office receives the request. Send a copy of this letter to HQ USAF/DAAD(S), Washington, D.C. 20330, through Privacy Act channels.

4		overrule denial of access OR overrule denial of amendment	Notify individual. Instruct Denial Authority to have access granted or record amended

*Time from receipt of appeal by HQ USAF/DA.

(g) Statements of disagreement. If an individual submits a statement of disagreement with the Secretary of the Air Force's decision not to amend his or her record, the local system manager:

(1) Flags the record so that the disagreement may be seen by anyone who discloses or gains access to the record.

(2) Files the statement with the record. If this is not possible, maintain it to allow ready retrieval when the disputed portion of the record is used.

(3) Advises previous recipients that the record has been disputed and gives them a copy of the disagreement statement, if they can be identified.

(4) Lets subsequent users know that the record is disputed and gives them a copy of the statement along with the record. The manager may include a brief summary of the reasons for not amending the record. Summaries are limited to the reasons SAF/AA gives to the individual. The summary is treated as a part of the individual's record, but is not subject to the amendment procedures.

(h) Privacy Act case files. Except for the statement of disagreement, do not file documents used in processing notification, access and amendment requests (including appeals) in or with the system of records to which they pertain. Instead, set up Privacy Act case files. These files should include requests from, and replies to, individuals on whether a system has a record about them; requests for access, approvals, refusals, appeals, and final review action; and coordination actions and related papers. Do not keep copy of the disputed record in the case file.

Use the file solely to process requests and as a source of statistics. Do not use it as a source of precedents for processing similar actions. Do not use it to make any other kind of determination about the individual. Set up Privacy Act case files at each office that processes a request.

§ 806b.15 Disclosures to third parties and organizations.

The fact that the Air Force lets an individual know why we are collecting the information and how it will be used does not mean we have his or her consent to release it. Thus, when we decide to release information as authorized below, we must first consider all the consequences of that disclosure. Before we release any information, we must make a reasonable effort to ensure that it is accurate.

(a) With subject's consent. Unless prohibited by other statutes or directives, we may disclose information from a system of records if the subject of the record writes and asks us to, or if he or she has given prior written consent by signing a release form. For example, medical information could be released to an insurance firm with the subject's written authorization. Make sure, however, that there is no statute or directive that prohibits release. For example, drug or alcohol abuse treatment information kept in connection with a drug or alcohol prevention function may be released only as authorized by 21 U.S.C. 1175 and 42 U.S.C. 4582. For this information to be released, the subject's specific consent is needed; general consent is not enough.

(b) Without subject's consent. A person's records may be disclosed without his or her consent to:

(1) Department of Defense officials and employees who need the record to perform their duties and who use it for the purpose for which we collected it.

(2) The public, as required by the FOIA. See Part 806 of this chapter.

(i) Some examples of information that can be released for military personnel without an unwarranted invasion of privacy are: name; rank; date of birth; marital status; name, age, number and sex of dependents; date of rank; gross pay; present and past duty assignments and future assignments which are firm; office and unit address and phone number; source of commission; military and civilian education level, including major area of study, school, year of graduation and degree; promotion sequence number; awards and decorations; duty status at any given time; official photograph; and home of record without street address. See Federal Personnel Manual Supplement 990-1, Part 294, on release of civilian personnel information.

(ii) Disclosing a person's home address, SSN, or home telephone number without his or her consent is usually considered to be a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy. Thus, disclosure under FOIA usually should not be made.

(iii) Apply a balancing test to decide whether disclosure would be clearly unwarranted invasion of the individual's privacy. Weigh the individual's right to privacy versus the public's right to know. Consider the nature of the information to be disclosed; do individuals usually expect this information to be kept private? Are the identities of the subject and the recipient already in the public eye? What is likely to happen to the individual as a result of the disclosure? How old is the information; is it still relevant? To what degree is the information already in the public domain?

(iv) We may release information, if the balancing test described above weighs in favor of disclosure. For example, we may be permitted to disclose home addresses to a requester who wanted to enforce a court order for alimony or child support payments, or to local and state tax authorities to enforce tax laws.

(v) We may not sell or rent lists with individuals' names and home addresses. Likewise we may not, without individuals' consent, release lists of names and home addresses to the public. We must allow individuals to decide if they want their home addresses and phone numbers included in base directories.

(3) Agencies outside the Department of Defense for a routine use which has been listed in the systems notice describing the system of records and has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The routine use must be compatible with the purpose for which the information was collected and must be within the expectations of the person when he or she furnished it.

(4) The Bureau of the Census to plan or carry out a census or survey under Title 13, U.S.C.

(5) A recipient for statistical research or reporting. The recipient must give us advance written assurance that the record will be used solely as a statistical research or reporting record. The record must not be used, in whole or part, to make any decisions about the individuals' rights, benefits, or entitlements. It must be sent in a form in which the identity of the individual cannot be found out through usual research methods.

(6) The National Archives of the United States has a record with enough value to warrant keeping it, or for evaluation by the Administrator of the General Services Administration to see if the record has such value. However, when we send records to Federal Records Centers for storage, they stay under Air Force control. These transfers are not disclosures under this subpart and do not need an accounting.

(7) An agency outside the Department of Defense for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity authorized by law. The head of the agency or a designee must send a written request to the systems manager. The request must specify the record or part needed and the law enforcement purpose for which it is wanted. A record may also be disclosed to a law enforcement agency by the Air Force office that has it if criminal conduct is suspected. This disclosure is a routine use for all U.S. Air Force records systems and has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(8) Another person or agency under compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of an individual. The individual whose records are disclosed does not have to be the one in danger. For example, records on several persons could be disclosed to identify individuals injured in an accident. When individual records are disclosed in this way, we must send the subject a notification at the last known address.

(9) Either House of Congress, a congressional committee or subcommittee, for matters within their jurisdictions.

(10) A congressional office acting for a constituent who is the record subject. This disclosure is allowed by a blanket routine use.

(11) The Comptroller General or any authorized representatives on business of the General Accounting Office.

(12) A court of competent jurisdiction that has ordered us to do so. When a record is disclosed under compulsory legal process and the court makes public the fact that it has issued an order or subpoena for the records we must make reasonable efforts to notify the individual by mailing a disclosure statement to his or her last known address.

(13) A contractor who is operating a system of records under a contract to perform an Air Force function, such as personnel, payroll, or health systems management. In this case, the contractor is considered an employee of the Air Force and the system of records is considered an Air Force system. Disclosure of records to the contractor does not need the subject's consent nor does it require that an accounting be kept.

(c) Accounting for disclosures. (1) For those disclosures for which an accounting is required, each local record system manager must keep an accurate record showing the date of the release, the specific information released, the basis for making the disclosure, and the name and address of the recipient (see table 4). Accounting is required, even if the subject gives written consent. Systems managers may file the disclosure accounting record in any way they want, as long as they can reconstruct it to:

(i) Give to the subject on request.
(ii) Pass corrected or disrupted information in the record to previous recipients.

(iii) Provide a cross-reference to show the basis for making the disclosure.

(iv) Provide an audit trail for reviews of Air Force compliance with the conditions of disclosure outlined in this subpart.

(2) For some systems of records, subsections (j)(2) and (k) of the Privacy Act permit withholding the accounting record from the subject. § 806b.22 lists those systems. Also, an accounting of disclosures that were made for law enforcement purposes may be withheld.

(3) Dispose of the accounting record according to AFM 12-50.

NOTES

1 When a request cites neither PA or FOIA but another Air Force directive authorizes the release of the information, then disclosure is under that directive.

2 Notify the individual at his or her last known address.

3 Notify the individual as soon as the compulsory legal process becomes a matter of public record at his or her last known address.

Subpart E—Exempting Systems of Records

The Secretary of the Air Force may exempt Air Force systems of records from certain parts of the Privacy Act. There are two kinds of Exemptions: general and specific. The general exemption relieves systems of records from most requirements of the Act; the specific exemption from only a few.

§ 806b.16 Exemption index and cross reference.

The index below shows for which parts of the Privacy Act exemptions may be claimed. "No" means that no exemption may be taken; "yes" means that an exemption may be taken. Note that the index provides a cross reference to this part.

§ 806b.17 General exemptions.

Only US Air Force activities actually engaged in law enforcement may claim the general exemption for a system of records. These include the Staff Judge Advocate and correctional activities. This exemption appears in the Privacy Act in subparagraph (j)(2).

(a) To qualify for the exemption, a system must consist of:

(1) Data, compiled to identify individual criminals and alleged criminals, which consists only of identifying data and arrest records; type and disposition of charges; sentencing, confinement, and release records; and parole and probation status;

(2) Data that supports criminal investigations (including efforts to prevent, reduce, or control crime) and reports of informants and investigators that identify an individual; or

(3) Reports on a person, compiled at any stage of the process of law enforcement, from arrest or indictment through release from supervision.

(b) When we claim a general exemption for a system of records, the only parts of the Privacy Act we are required to comply with are subsections

(b), (c)(1) and (2), (e)(4)(A) through (f), (e)(6)(7)(9)(10) and (11), and (i). See figure 1.

§ 806b.18 Specific exemptions.

(a) The Secretary of the Air Force has exempted a few systems of records that have the following kinds of information from certain parts of the Privacy Act. The Privacy Act exemption number appears in parentheses after each category below.

(1) Classified Information in any Air Force system of records. Before denying a person access to classified information, the Denial Authority must make sure that it was properly classified under the criteria of Executive Order 11652 or 12065, and that it must remain so in the interest of national defense or foreign policy [(k)(1)].

(2) Investigatory data for law enforcement purposes (other than that claimed under the general exemption). But, if this information has been used to deny someone a right, we must release it unless doing so would reveal the identity of a confidential source [(k)(2)].

(3) Data kept to protect the President of the United States and others, as authorized by 18 U.S.C. 3056[(k)(3)].

(4) Statistical data required by statute and used only for statistical purposes and not to make decisions on the rights, benefits, or entitlements of persons [(k)(4)].

(5) Data compiled to determine suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal service, Federal contracts, or access to classified information. We may withhold this information, only if disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source [(k)(5)].

(6) Tests to find out whether to appoint or promote a person in the Federal service. We may withhold this information, only if disclosure would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the examination process [(k)(6)].

(7) Information to determine promotion potential in the Armed Forces. We may withhold this information, only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source [(k)(7)].

PROPOSED RULES

(b) We do not have to comply with the following parts of the Privacy Act in operating a system for which we claim a specific exemption: subsections (c)(3); (d); (e)(1); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f) (see figure 1).

Subpart F—Other Administrative Actions

§ 806b.19 Training.

There are three kinds of training:

(a) Orientation. Command and local Privacy Officers must make sure that everyone in their areas of responsibility gets an initial orientation on how the Act works and what are the individual's rights and responsibilities under it. In addition, they must regularly conduct refresher training through Commanders Calls, articles in base bulletins, papers, and so forth.

(b) Specialized. This training takes place at USAF technical schools. It is for personnel who actually operate systems of records, or supervise their operation. Training elements that develop new blocks of instruction or alter old blocks must send them to HQ USAF/DAAD(S) for review.

(c) Management. Command and local Privacy Officers give commanders and their deputies management training that supplements the basic orientation. This training lets top managers know how the Act affects their operational decisions. For example, managers need to know that they will not be able to operate a system of records until 45 days after it has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for public comment. Also, this training gives Denial Authorities the information they need to act in this capacity.

§ 806b.20 Annual Privacy Act Report, RCS: DD-A (A&AR) 1379.

(a) Each Command Privacy Act Officer must report the following statistical information to the Air Force Privacy Act Office no later than March 1 of each year. The Report Control Symbol is DD-A(A&AR) 1379. The report must cover the previous year's activity. Data should be given for each system of records. The data must include the number of:

- (1) Requests for existence of records.
- (2) Requests for access to records under the Act.
- (3) Privacy Act requests returned for lack of sufficient information to identify the records.
- (4) Requests for access totally granted and number partially granted.
- (5) Requests for amendment of records under the Privacy Act.
- (6) Requests for amendment totally granted and number partially granted.
- (7) Exemptions used to deny access by citation number (j2, j5, k1-k7 and d5).

(b) Each Privacy Act Officer should also keep a record of any unusual problems that arise in the course of the year about the administration of the Act. Report these in narrative form.

(c) The Air Force Privacy Act Office provides statistical reporting forms and instructions no later than December 31 of each year.

§ 806b.21 Systems notice requirements.

Each system of records operated by the Air Force must be covered by a systems notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. You must send two copies of this notice, with a report of a new system, through the command Privacy Act Officer to HQ USAF/DAAD(S) at least 90 days before operating the system. All items of information must be completed, and you should be as specific as possible. Use the following format:

HOW TO PREPARE SYSTEMS NOTICES AND REPORTS

(a) Report of a new or altered system of records. The report of a new or altered system must be sent through the Defense Privacy Board to the Congress and Office of Management and Budget by the Air Force Privacy Act Office. Systems managers must provide HQ USAF/DAAD(S), no later than 90 days before using the system or implementing the reportable change:

- (1) System identification number and title of the system.
- (2) Reason for creating the new system or for changing an existing system.
- (3) A description of the change.
- (4) The estimated number of individuals on whom records are kept in the system.
- (5) Methods used to ensure accuracy of information in the system.
- (6) A discussion of alternatives to using the system.
- (7) The name, title, address and AU-

TOVON number of the person who knows how the system operates.

A complete system notice must be attached.

(b) Nonreportable amendments or deletions. Any change in the published systems notice that does not require a report to the Congress or to Office of Management and Budget must be sent at once to the Air Force Privacy Act Office. The following changes must be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for public comment and must be sent at least 75 days in advance:

- (1) Those that change the nature of or add to the routine uses of the system.
- (2) Those that change the notification or access procedures.

§ 806b.22 General and specific exemptions claimed.

(a) General exemption for criminal investigative files. The Air Force claims the general exemption for the following systems of records: Counter Intelligence Operations and Collection Records, F12408 07YLNKA; Criminal Records, F12410 07YLNKA; Incident Investigation Files, F12501 SPO I; Investigative Support Records, F12404 07YLNKA.

(b) Specific exemptions. These are the systems for which we claim specific exemptions:

(1) Classified records. All records in systems of records that are properly classified per Executive Order 11652 or 12065, are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), regardless of whether the entire system is otherwise exempt.

(2) Air Force Academy Candidate System (F05302 OBXQPCB). (i) Exemption. This system of records (Candidate Evaluation Record, Liaison Officer Evaluation, Letter of Evaluation from High School or College, and Drug Abuse Certificate) is exempted from 5 U.S.C. 552a(d), (e)(4)(H), and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5).

(iii) Reasons. Insure the frankness of information used to determine whether cadets are qualified for graduation and for commissioning as officers in the United States Air Force.

(3) Air Force Personnel Test 851, Test Answer Cards (F03506 DPMAW A). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f).

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(6).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the integrity of the promotion testing system by keeping the test questions and answers safe.

(4) Cadet Personnel Record System (F03502 OBXQPCB). (i) Exemption. Parts of this system are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(d), (e)(4)(H), and (f), but only insofar as disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7).

(iii) Reasons. To maintain the candor and integrity of comments needed to evaluate an Air Force academy cadet for commissioning in the US Air Force:

(5) Cadet Records (F04501 OKPNQSA). (i) Exemption. Portions of the system (Detachment POC Selection Rating Sheets; AFROTC Form 0-24-Disenrollment Review; Memoranda for Record and Staff Papers with Staff Advice, Opinions, or Suggestions) are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the identity of a confidential source who furnished information necessary to make determinations about the qualification, eligibility, and suitability of cadets for graduation and commissioning in the US Air Force, under a promise of confidentiality.

(6) Child Advocacy Case Files (F16802 SGPCA). (i) Exemption. Parts of this system are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3) and (d), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(2) and (5).

(iii) Reasons. To encourage those who know of child abuse or neglect to come forward by protection their identities. Also, to protect the integrity of on-going and civil law investigations of criminal and civil law violations. Giving subjects access to their files could result in them concealing, altering, or fabricating evidence; could hamper the identification of offenders and alleged offenders; and could jeopardize the safety and well-being of parents and their children.

(7) Civilian Personnel Occupational and Suitability Employment Examinations (F04002 DPCMS D). (i) Exemption. Parts of this system are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f).

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5) and (6).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the confidentiality of a source who gives information about whether a person is qualified and suitable for civilian employment in the Federal service. Also, to protect test material used to determine qualifications so as to be fair to all candidates.

(8) Class Committee Products (F01103 XOBXQPCD). (i) Exemption. Parts of this system are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(d), (e)(4)(H), and (f), but only to the extent that they would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7).

(iii) Reasons. To maintain the candor and integrity of comments needed to evaluate an Air Force Academy cadet for commissioning in the US Air Force.

(9) Effectiveness/Performance Reporting Systems (F03501 DPMVO 1).

(i) Exemption. The parts of this system that have completed AF Forms 705, Lieutenant Colonel Promotion Recommendation Report, and AF Forms 706, Colonel Promotion Recommendation Report, are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7).

(iii) Reasons. To make sure that selection boards get candid evaluations of the potential of officers being considered for promotion to the grades of Colonel and Brigadier General.

(10) Equal Opportunity in Off Base-Housing (F03005 PRENC A). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f).

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(2).

(iii) Reasons. To enforce civil laws, court orders, and the activities of the Departments of Housing and Urban Development and Justice.

(11) General Officer Personnel Data System (F03501 AFDPG O). (i) Exemption. The parts of this system that have completed AF Forms 78, Air Force General Officer Effectiveness Report, are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that they would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7).

(iii) Reasons. To make sure selection boards get candid evaluations of the potential officers being considered for promotion to Major General, Lieutenant General and General.

(12) Historical Airman Promotion Master Test File (F03508 DPMAW M).

(i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f).

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(6).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the integrity, objectivity, and equity of the promotion testing system by keeping test questions and answers safe.

(13) Inspector General Records (F12001 IGQ A). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f). But, if a person is denied any right, privilege, or benefit he or she would otherwise be entitled to as a result of keeping this material, we must release the material unless doing so would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(2).

(iii) Reasons. Granting individuals access to information collected while an Inspector General inquiry is in progress could interfere with the just, thorough, and timely resolution of the complaint or inquiry and could possibly enable individuals to conceal wrongdoing or mislead the inquiring officer. Disclosure might also subject sources, witnesses, and their families to harassment or intimidation.

(14) Investigative Applicant Processing Records (F12401 07YLNGB). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5).

(iii) Reasons. To protect those who gave information in confidence during Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI) applicant inquiries. Fear of retaliation or exposure could cause sources not to make frank and open responses about applicant qualifications. This could compromise the integrity of the AFOSI personnel program that relies on selecting only qualified people.

(15) Master Cadet Personnel Record (RR/Active) (F03502 OBXQPCE) and Master Cadet Personnel Record (RR/Historical) (F03502 OBXQPCD). (i) Exemption. Parts of these systems are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(d), (e)(4)(H) and (f), but only to the extent that they would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7).

(iii) Reasons. To maintain the candor and integrity of comments needed to evaluate a cadet for commissioning in the US Air Force.

(16) Military and Leadership Order of Merit System (F03001XOBXQPCB). (i) Exemption. Parts of this system are exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(d), (e)(4)(H) and (f), but only insofar as they reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7).

(iii) Reasons. To maintain the candor and integrity of comments needed to evaluate AF Academy cadets for commissioning in the US Air Force.

(17) Personnel Files on General Officers and Colonels Assigned to General Officer Positions (F03501 AFREP T). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the integrity of information used in the Reserve Initial Brigadier General Screening Board, the release of which would compromise the selection process.

(18) Personnel Security Case Files (F20503 DAI A). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the identity of those who give information in confidence for personnel security and related investigations. Fear of retaliation or exposure could cause sources to refuse to give this information in the frank and open way needed to pinpoint those areas in an investigation that should be expanded to fully develop or put to rest charges of questionable conduct. It is essential that all such allegations be resolved fairly and quickly.

(19) Security and Related Investigative Records (F12406 07YLNGA). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the identity of those who give information in confidence for personnel security and related investigations. Fear of retaliation or exposure could cause sources to refuse to give this information in the frank and open way needed to pinpoint those areas in an investigation that should be expanded to fully develop or put to rest charges of questionable conduct. It is essential that all such allegations be resolved fairly and quickly.

(20) Special Security Files (F20505 SPIC). (i) Exemption. This system is exempt from 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3); (d); (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I); and (f), but only to the extent that disclosure would reveal the identity of a confidential source.

(ii) Authority. 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5).

(iii) Reasons. To protect the identity of those who give information in confidence for personnel security and related investigations. Fear of retaliation or exposure could cause them to refuse to give this information in the frank and open way needed to pinpoint those areas in an investigation that should be expanded to fully develop or put to rest charges of questionable conduct. It is essential that all such allegations be resolved fairly and quickly.

CAROL M. ROSE,

U.S. MARINE SAFETY INFORMATION SYSTEM

Notification of Tank Vessel Ownership
Information, Names, and Country of Registry

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DOT.

ACTION: Withdrawal of Proposed Rule.

SUMMARY: On April 13, 1978, the Coast Guard published a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (43 FR 15586) proposing a requirement that certain oil tankers report ownership information, all registered names the vessel has had, and the country of current registry. Because the Coast Guard has obtained some of this information from other sources and because stockholder information has been found to be impractical and unnecessary to obtain, the Coast Guard is withdrawing the proposed rule.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Lieutenant Commander Edward H. Bonekemper, III, Project Manager, Office of Marine Environment and Systems (G-WLE-1/73), Room 7319,
Department of Transportation,
Nassif Building, 400 Seventh Street,
S.W., Washington, D.C. 20590 (202-426-1927).

DISCUSSION

The Coast Guard proposed requiring each oil tanker of 20,000 deadweight tons that calls at U.S. ports, places, or deepwater ports to engage in commercial services to report certain ownership information, all registered names the vessel has had since it began operation, and the country of current registry. The proposed regulations would have prohibited a vessel from entering the navigable waters of the United States or from entering the safety zone of a U.S. deepwater port unless the required information had been disclosed to the Captain of the Port. The ownership information which would have been required included the stockholders of a corporation owning five or more percent of the voting stock issued and outstanding.

A large majority of the comments received at three public hearings and in 30 letters were opposed to portions of the proposal, particularly the stockholder ownership disclosure requirement.

Since the time of the publication of this proposal, the Coast Guard has been able to obtain, through primarily commercial sources, information concerning vessel names, ownership, and registry. Additional information is being obtained from the Federal Maritime Commission. All this information is in the process of being incorporated into the Coast Guard Marine Safety Information System.

Numerous commenters, including several foreign governments, explained that it would be impractical and in many cases impossible for anyone to provide stockholder information where a corporation is the owner of a vessel. This would be particularly true where bearer shares are used as evidence of ownership. Other commenters indicated that providing this information would be costly and inflationary and would serve no useful purpose. One commenter indicated that Coast Guard disclosure of the names of shareholders would be of great value to persons attempting to enforce boycotts against nations friendly to the United States.

In light of the information which the Coast Guard has obtained from other sources and the reasons stated in the substantial adverse comment received, the Coast Guard has determined that this rulemaking is not appropriate at this time.

In consideration of the foregoing, the proposal published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (42 FR 15586) on April 13, 1978 entitled "U.S. Marine Safety Information System: notification of tank vessel ownership information, names, and country," CGD 77-213 is hereby withdrawn.

Dated: January 29, 1979.

Premanufacture Notification Requirements and Review Procedures: Notice of Meetings and Availability

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

ACTION: Notice of Meetings and Availability.

SUMMARY: On January 10, 1979, the Environmental Protection Agency proposed rules and notice forms that would implement the premanufacture notification requirements of section 5 of the Toxic Substances Control Act concerning new chemical substances (44 FR 2242). This notice supplements in two ways the January 10 notice of proposed rulemaking.

First, in the preamble to the January 10 proposal, EPA stated that it would provide an explanatory appendix to the forms. This notice announces the availability of that appendix. Second, EPA is revising the schedule for public meetings on the proposal. The February 14, 1979 meeting in Washington, D.C. has been postponed until March 7, 1979. In addition, EPA will hold a public meeting on March 9, 1979 in New York city to receive comment on international aspects of the proposed rules and forms.

DATES: The February 14, 1979 meeting in Washington, D.C. has been postponed until March 7, 1979. In addition, EPA will hold a public meeting on March 9, 1979 in New York city to receive comment on international aspects of the proposed rules and forms. The comment period on the January 10 notice of proposed rulemaking ends March 26, 1979.

ADDRESSES: The March 7 meeting in Washington, D.C. will be held at: North Building Auditorium, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, 330 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201.

The March 9 meeting in New York, N.Y. will be held at: Conference Room 305C, Federal Building (Worth and Broadway Streets), 26 Federal Plaza, New York, N.Y. 10007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. John B. Ritch, Jr., Director Industry Assistance Office (TS-799), Office of Toxic Substances, Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20460, 800-424-9065 toll free; in Washington, D.C. call 554-1404.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Explanatory Appendix.—By this notice, EPA announces the availability of the explanatory appendix to the proposed notice forms. The appendix is being made available to aid interested persons in providing comment on the proposed notice forms, and may be obtained at the address given under "For Further Information Contact". The appendix is based on the Support Document which was made available at the time of proposal of the Premanufacture Notification Requirements and Review Procedures. It provides further explanation of reporting requirements contained in the proposed regulations and forms and explained in the Support Document. In addition it contains some examples of ways to respond to the questions.

The comment period on the proposed rules and notice forms ends March 26, 1979. Persons interested in considering the appendix before filing their comments will have ample opportunity to do so. Therefore, EPA is not extending the comment period.

EPA has established a public record for this rulemaking. All written comments will become a part of this public record. Comments should bear the docket number OTS-050002 and should be submitted to the Document Control Officer (TS-793), Office of Toxic Substances, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street S.W., Washington, D.C., 20460. The public record is available for inspection in the Office of Toxic Substances Reading Room from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on working days (Room 710E, 401 M St., S.W., Washington, D.C., 20460).

Public Meetings.—As described in the preamble to the January 10 notice of proposed rulemaking, EPA has scheduled a series of public meetings on the proposed rules and notice forms. EPA has received comments that it should postpone the two public meetings in Washington, D.C., scheduled for February 13 and 14, 1979, to allow more time for interested persons to prepare meaningful comments on the proposal. EPA believes that the schedule of public meetings allows adequate time to prepare meaningful comments. However, for the convenience of participants, EPA is postponing to March 7 the public meeting previously scheduled for February 14. (The dates and locations of the other public meetings, including the February 13 meeting in Washington, D.C., remain the same). Both the February 13 and March 7 meetings will be held at: North Building Auditorium, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, 330 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201.

EPA also has scheduled an additional public meeting, to provide a separate forum for the presentation of comments on international aspects of the proposed rules and forms, particularly their application to importers: New York, NY—March 9, 1979. Conference Room 305C, Federal Building (Worth and Broadway Streets), 26 Federal Plaza, New York, NY 10007.

A number of issues in the proposal relate especially to persons involved in international trade in chemical substances. Under § 720.21 of the proposed rules, persons who intend to import new chemical substances must use a separate form, Premanufacture Notice Form for Importers (44 FR 2314). Under § 720.21(c), an importer must request the foreign manufacturer and supplier of his new substance to complete a separate form and submit to EPA test data related to the effects of the substance on health or the environment. Finally, certain requirements imposed on both importers and domestic manufacturers alike may, as a practical matter, have a special impact on persons involved in international trade. Because importers, exporters, and the governments of countries involved in trade with the United States, make up a distinct constituency with regard to the proposed rules and forms, EPA believes that a separate meeting to receive comment on these issues would be beneficial to all parties.

Although EPA has scheduled the March 9 New York meeting solely for comment on international trade issues, persons may raise such issues at any of the other public meetings. Persons who wish to comment on international issues and who are unable to attend the meeting in New York should attend another public meeting, or submit written comments to EPA.

As described in the preamble to the January 10 notice of proposed rulemaking, the purpose of these meetings is to enable interested persons to provide oral comments on the proposed rulemaking to EPA officials who are directly responsible for developing the rules and notice forms.

All meetings will begin at 9:00 a.m. and end at 4:30 p.m., with a one-hour recess for lunch. The meetings will start with a short summary by EPA of the proposed rules and notice forms, to be followed by oral presentations from the floor of no more than 10 minutes per person, company, or organization. (Less time may be allotted depending upon the number of presentations.)

should contact EPA no later than four days before the meeting date by calling Dr. Doug Bannerman toll-free at 800-424-9065 (in Washington, D.C., call 554-1404), or by writing to the address listed under "Further Information". EPA will allot speaking times on a first-come basis, although the Agency reserves the right to alter the order depending upon the nature of the particular comments and other relevant factors. If time permits, following these prepared presentations EPA will receive any other comments from the floor.

Presenters are urged, but not required, to submit copies of their statements on the day of the meeting. All such written materials will become a part of EPA's record for this rulemaking. In addition, the Agency will transcribe each meeting and will include the written transcripts in the public record.

Dated: February 1, 1979.

Assistant Administrator for Toxic Substances.

MEDICARE AND MEDICAID

Nursing Home Provider Agreements: Effective Dates; Effect of Change in Ownership

AGENCY: Health Care Financing Administration, HEW.

ACTION: Proposed Rules.

SUMMARY: These proposed regulations would make Medicare and Medicaid rules identical on (1) the beginning effective dates of nursing home provider agreements and (2) the effect of a change in ownership on the continuation of Federal payments to nursing homes. Provider agreements under both programs would be effective on the date of the onsite health and safety certification survey if all Federal requirements are met. If all requirements are not met, the effective date would be the date on which the State survey agency subsequently finds that those requirements are met or on which the facility submits an acceptable plan of correction or waiver request. Existing provider agreements would be assigned to new owners under both programs when ownership changes, subject to the terms and conditions of the original agreement. The intent is to simplify administration and prevent unnecessary interruption of benefits to nursing home patients.

DATES: Consideration will be given to written comments and suggestions received by April 6, 1979.

ADDRESS: Address comments to: Administrator, Health Care Financing Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, P.O. Box 2372, Washington, D.C. 20013. When commenting, please refer to HSQ-55-P. Agencies and organizations are requested to submit their comments in duplicate. Comments will be available for public inspection beginning approximately 2 weeks after publication, in Room 5225 of the Department's offices at 330 C Street, S.W., Washington, D.C., on Monday through Friday of each week from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (area code 202-245-0950).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

BACKGROUND

Medicare and Medicaid have developed differing policies as to when a nursing home provider agreement may begin. Provider agreements are agreements between the Secretary and the facility (Medicare) or the State and the facility (Medicaid) which authorize reimbursement under the programs. Their issuance is based primarily on Federal and State survey agency findings that the facilities meet Federal statutory and regulatory standards. (See, generally 42 CFR Part 405, Subparts F and S, and Part 442, Subparts A-C.)

Medicaid regulations at 42 CFR 442.12(b) provide that the term of the provider agreement begins on the date of the survey agency's certification that the facility meets Federal standards. The certification paperwork delays the effective date. Medicare regulations at 42 CFR 405.606(b) do not specify the beginning date, but Medicare practice is to permit earlier effective dates, sometimes to a point as early as the facility's application for the program. As a result, providers participating in both programs are usually reimbursed by Medicare months before Medicaid.

The two programs also differ in the ways they treat the continuing participation of a facility which has changed ownership. Medicare reimburses providers throughout the process of certifying the new owners; under Medicaid a new State health and safety survey and related certification paperwork must be completed before payment is continued. The divergent Medicare and Medicaid policies have produced uncertainties for patients, facilities, and the States as to when Federal payment may be expected for otherwise qualified nursing home care. For example, a Medicare patient who becomes ineligible for Medicare and would be eligible for Medicaid may find that the facility is not qualified under Medicaid because the Medicaid certification paperwork has not been completed. These inconsistencies are not required by statute and pose administrative hardships for Federal and State agencies and potentially significant financial hardship for patients, providers and States.

MAJOR PROVISIONS

The proposed regulations would make Medicare and Medicaid rules identical on the beginning dates of provider agreements and on the effect of a transfer of facility ownership.

1. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PROVIDER AGREEMENTS

Under the proposed rules, provider agreements for both programs would be made effective as of the date the onsite survey is completed, if all Federal requirements are met on that date. If all requirements are not met, the agreement would be made effective as of the date on which:

(a) All requirements are fully met, as determined by the State survey agency; or

(b) The facility submitted, in fully acceptable form, all necessary plans of correction or waiver requests.

Our intent, under the last provision, is that the plans of correction and the waiver requests must be approvable as submitted. If a plan of correction or waiver request is not fully acceptable and requires subsequent revision, the date of resubmission of a fully acceptable plan or request would govern.

We also intend for the date of survey to refer to the last day on which a survey occurred, if more than one day is required or more than one survey is required.

Under the proposed rules, if the agency surveyed January 1, found deficiencies, resurveyed March 1 and found those deficiencies corrected, the provider agreement would be effective March 1 (assuming all other Federal requirements were met on that date). If a facility surveyed on January 1 was cited for deficiencies and submitted a plan of correction on February 1 and that plan of correction was fully acceptable in the form submitted, the provider agreement would be effective February 1 (assuming all other federal requirements were met on that date). But if the plan was not acceptable and the facility resubmitted its plan on March 15, and it was found to be fully acceptable, the provider agreement would be effective March 15 (again assuming all other federal conditions were met on that date).

The regulations would permit dating of provider agreements as of the date on which all requirements were met. Thus, if a State made a determination that all requirements were met, as of April 1, but made that determination after April 1 and did not issue a provider agreement until May 1, it could make the agreement effective on April 1.

We considered but rejected certain alternative policies:

(a) For both programs, adopt the Medicaid policy establishing the date of certification as the effective date of the provider agreement. This option was rejected since it delays participation to otherwise qualified facilities pending the completion of the certification paperwork.

(b) For both programs, adopt the Medicare practice permitting provider agreements to begin on the date on which the facility first applies for the program. This option was rejected because the Medicare and Medicaid statutes permit payments only for qualified facilities. Prior to survey, there is no generally reliable evidentiary method for establishing a facility's satisfaction of those standards. In addition, a beginning date prior to survey fails to provide adequate incentive to potential providers to request participation prior to admitting patients.

2. CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

If a participating facility changes ownership, the existing provider agreement would automatically be assigned to the new owner without any action required on the part of the State agency (for Medicaid) or HEW (for Medicare). The assignment would be subject to all applicable statutes and regulations and the terms and conditions of the existing agreement, including the previous owner's plan of correction and the expiration date of the existing agreement.

This approach protects providers and Medicare and Medicaid patients already in the facility from loss of federal funds during a period in which the facility meets federal payment criteria. It eliminates the need for a re-survey of a facility before the normal term of the agreement ends. It would also avoid some of the delay in correcting deficiencies that has occurred under current rules, when the new owner is absolved from the responsibility of fulfilling the facility's former plan of corrections. Changes in ownership would not avoid meeting plans of correction.

We considered but rejected the possibility of retaining the Medicaid rule:

Invalidate the former owner's agreement and require a new survey. This option was rejected because (1) it increases survey costs and State scheduling and workload problems; and (2) it could potentially do financial harm to States, facilities, and patients already in the facility by ruling out payments during a period when the facility actually met federal standards.

PART 405—FEDERAL HEALTH INSURANCE FOR THE AGED AND DISABLED

1. Section 405.606 is revised to read as follows:

§ 405.606 Acceptance of provider as a participant.

(a) Secretary's determination. If the Secretary determines that a provider, as defined in § 405.605, meets the requirements for participation, he will:

(1) Send written notice of the determination to the provider; and

(2) Send the provider two copies of the provider agreement specified in section 1866 of the Act.

(b) Submission and acceptance of provider agreement. (1) If the provider wishes to participate, it shall submit to the Secretary both copies of the agreement duly signed by an authorized official.

(2) If the Secretary accepts the agreement, he will return one copy to the provider with his written notice of acceptance.

(c) Notice of acceptance. The notice shall: (1) Specify the date on which the agreement was signed by the authorized official of the provider and the date on which the agreement was accepted by the Secretary;

(2) In the case of an agreement filed by a skilled nursing facility, specify the term of the agreement, as determined in accordance with § 405.604; and

(3) Specify the effective date of the agreement.

(d) Effective date of agreement. The effective date of the provider agreement shall be:

(1) The date on which the onsite health and safety certification survey is completed, if all Federal requirements are fully met on that date; or

(2) If any Federal requirement is not fully met on that date, the date on which:

(i) All requirements are fully met, as determined by the State survey agency; or

(ii) The facility submitted, in fully acceptable form, all necessary plans of correction or waiver requests.

(e) Admission policies and procedures. If a participating hospital, skilled nursing facility, or home health agency has any restrictions on admissions or types of treatment, the Secretary expects that those restrictions will not be applied to Medicare

Subpart A—General Provisions

* * * * *

ACTION: Extension of time to file comments and oppositions.

SUMMARY: The Commission grants one week extension, until January 29, 1979 for parties to file pleadings addressed to amended gateway applications filed in the International Record Carrier's Scope of Operations in Docket No. 19660; RM-690. The extension is granted because of the voluminous nature of the pleadings filed in this proceeding.

DATES: Time to file oppositions and reply comments directed towards petitions to deny and comments extended to January 29, 1979.

ADDRESS: Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D.C. 20554.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Helene Bauman, Common Carrier Bureau, 202-632-7834

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Adopted: January 19, 1979.

Released: January 24, 1979.

The Commission has before it a letter filed January 12, 1979 by RCA Global Communications, Inc. requesting an extension of time to file oppositions to the petitions to deny and other comments addressed to its amended gateway expansion applications of RCA Globcom. The letter asks that the time for filing oppositions be extended from January 22, 1979 to February 5, 1979 for the reasons that (1) review of the pleadings addressed to the applications is burdensome, and, (2) the officer responsible for RCA Globcom gateway expansion program is unavailable until the week the pleadings are now due. In addition we are considering here the comments addressed to the letter that Western Union Telegraph Company has filed.

Review of the reasons underlying the request does not convince us that RCA Globcom warrants a two week extension of time. As RCA recognizes this proceeding has had a long pendancy following the Commission's release of its Tentative Decision in favor of expanding the gateways. See International Record Carriers' Communications, 54 FCC 2d 532 (1975). During the more than three year period since that decision and more particularly since the Commission's Notice of Inquiry and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, released July 28, 1978, RCA Globcom has had more than ample time to analyze its gateway requirements and to anticipate the nature of any opposition which might arise to that expansion. However, because of the voluminous nature of the pleadings an additional seven days will be authorized for preparation of responses.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That the time for the parties to file oppositions and reply comments directed towards the petitions to deny and comments addressed to the applications of the international record carriers for new gateway cities is extended until January 29, 1979.

LARRY F. DARBY,

MID-ATLANTIC FISHERY MANAGEMENT COUNCIL

Public Hearing

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service, NOAA.

ACTION: Notice of Public Hearings.

SUMMARY: The Mid-Atlantic and New England Fishery Management Councils will hold hearings to discuss the Draft Environmental Assessment/Amendment No. 1 for the Fishery Management Plan for the Surf Clam and Ocean Quahog Fisheries. This amendment would extend to December 31, 1979, certain provisions of the present plan which are now scheduled to end prior to December 31. The provisions affected cover the quarterly quotas on landings and the moratorium on the entry of new vessels into the surf clam fishery. The amendment also provides for processor reporting requirements which the Mid-Atlantic Council has established to comply with amendments revising the Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976. The proposed amendment will assure the continuation of the current plan until the completion and adoption of a revised plan for the surf clam and ocean quahog fisheries.

Materials Transportation Bureau

[49 CFR Part 195]

[Docket No. PS-56; Notice 11]

TRANSPORTATION OF LIQUIDS BY PIPELINE

Highly Volatile Liquids

AGENCY: Materials Transportation Bureau, DOT.

ACTION: Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This advance notice of proposed rulemaking invites comments on means to reduce the potential for accidents on pipelines used in interstate and foreign commerce to transport highly volatile liquids (HVL). These means are: (1) Make line pipe easier to weld and with tougher longitudinal seams, (2) add water to anhydrous ammonia to inhibit stress corrosion cracking, (3) use lower design and operational stress levels in accordance with population density, and (4) conduct periodic hydrostatic tests. Accident report statistics indicate that pipelines transporting highly volatile liquids have caused a substantially higher percentage of deaths, injuries, and property damage than liquid pipelines transporting less volatile commodities. Materials Transportation Bureau (MTB) expects that each of the proposed means would reduce the potential for accidents in HVL pipelines.

DATE: Comments must be filed by May 4, 1979. Late filed comments will be considered so far as practicable.

ADDRESS: Comments should identify the docket and notice numbers and be submitted in triplicate to the Docket Branch, Materials Transportation Bureau, 2100 Second Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20590. Comments are available at Docket Room 6500.

Frank Robinson, (202) 426-0135.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

NEED FOR THIS ADVANCE NOTICE

This advance notice of proposed rulemaking invites comments on means to reduce the potential for accidents on pipelines transporting highly volatile liquids. The Federal pipeline safety regulations for transporting hazardous liquids are set forth in Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. These regulations are applicable to pipelines transporting highly volatile liquids.

The definition of a highly volatile liquid which was proposed for adoption under Part 195 of Notice 1 of Docket PS-51 (43 FR 35513, August 10, 1978) was: "A highly volatile liquid (HVL) means a liquid which has an absolute vapor pressure of 100 kPa (14.5 psia) or more at 37.8° C (100° F)." Although the final definition may differ from that proposed, the intent is to identify those liquids with a vapor pressure high enough to form a vapor cloud when released to the atmosphere, such as liquefied petroleum gas, natural gas liquids, and anhydrous ammonia.

Materials Transportation Bureau (MTB) accident statistics show that HVL pipelines have caused a substantially higher percentage of deaths, injuries, and property damage than liquid pipelines transporting less volatile commodities. The record of liquid pipeline accidents reported on Form DOT-7000-1 from 1968 through 1976 shows that although HVL accidents comprise only 10 percent of the liquid pipeline accidents, the HVL accidents caused 66 percent of the deaths, 50 percent of the injuries and 30 percent of the property damage.

These statistics clearly illustrate the higher risk posed by an HVL spill than by spills of other liquids. The higher potential for damage is because HVL when released into the atmosphere, forms a gas cloud which is a markedly different and more insidious hazard than that presented by spills of less volatile liquids. The gas cloud will move downhill or downwind depending on the terrain, type of liquid involved and atmospheric conditions. Because it is generally heavier than air, the gas cloud will tend to hug the ground as it continues to move. If a source of ignition is encountered a petroleum gas cloud will burn or explode. If anhydrous ammonia is spilled, the greatest danger is that of toxicity or asphyxiation. For either commodity, the hazards are severe.

OTHER CURRENT RULEMAKING TO REDUCE POTENTIAL FOR HVL ACCIDENTS

MTB recently published the following three notices of proposed rulemaking in an effort to reduce the probability and severity of accidents involving HVL: Docket PS-51, Procedures for Operation, Maintenance, and Emergencies (43 FR 35513, August 10, 1978), Docket PS-53, Valve Spacing on Pipelines Carrying Highly Volatile Liquids (43 FR 39402, September 5, 1978), and Docket PS-55, Testing Highly Volatile Liquid Pipelines (43 FR 52504, November 13, 1978.) Docket PS-51 proposes more stringent requirements for handling emergencies, training operating and maintenance personnel and public education for HVL pipelines. Docket PS-53 proposes automatic or remotely controlled valves at 12 kilometer intervals on new HVL pipelines and equipping most block valves for remote operation on existing HVL pipelines. Docket PS-55 proposes hydrostatic testing HVL lines which have not been previously tested to 1.25 times maximum operating pressure for 24 hours.

OBJECTIVE

Because of the high potential for damage to persons and property from even a single HVL accident, MTB is considering further means to reduce the probability of such accidents. MTB is considering these means but needs additional information in order to determine the technical feasibility and economic practicability of each means.

This advance notice is not a proposal to amend the existing regulations. Its only function is to generate information to use in evaluating means for improving HVL pipeline safety. If the evaluation leads to the conclusion that the regulations should be amended, MTB will publish a notice of proposed rulemaking setting forth the proposed amendments and inviting comment on those proposals.

MEANS BEING CONSIDERED

MTB is considering several means to reduce the potential for an HVL accident. Some have been recommended to MTB by a Battelle Laboratories

Study, and by an NTSB report. The means being considered are as follows:

1. PIPE USED FOR HVL PIPELINES

The Battelle Study "Transportation of Highly Volatile, Toxic, or Corrosive Liquids by Pipeline" (DOT/OPSO-75/06 available for inspection in MTB Docket Room 6500) makes various recommendations to enhance safety on HVL pipelines. Among these is a recommendation that Part 195 impose on carriers more stringent requirements regarding pipe manufacture.

In regulating the type of pipe a carrier may use, part 195 does not delineate how line pipe is to be manufactured. However, it is stated in Sections 195.112 and 195.114 that new and used pipe shall be made of carbon, low alloy-high strength or alloy-type steel suitable for service intended and must be made according to a written specification.

The Battelle study on page 5 recommends two additional requirements related to the manufacture of pipe to be used in HVL service: First, Battelle argues that the weldability of the steel pipe can be improved by limiting the "carbon equivalent" to 0.55 percent. The "carbon equivalent" is defined as the percent by weight of carbon plus one-fourth the percent by weight of manganese. The purpose in improving weldability is to reduce the number of welds that have cracks as a result of the welding process.

Pipe used for HVL pipelines is commonly manufactured to American Petroleum Institute (API) specification 5L or 5LX, which allow a "carbon equivalent" of approximately three times the amount recommended by the Battelle Study.

Secondly, the Battelle Study recommends that the longitudinal weld areas be made tougher by "normalizing" the seam weld areas in pipe which is manufactured by electric resistance welding (ERW). The normalizing treatment consists of heating the weld seam and adjacent material to approximately 1600°F after the pipe has been welded and the weld area has cooled to 1330°F or lower. Normalizing causes transformation of the weld area back to a material more like that of the pipe steel before being welded and results in considerably higher toughness than weld areas that have not been normalized. The purpose of normalizing is to prevent failures in the longitudinal seam weld. Neither Part 195 nor API 5L or 5LX require weld areas to be normalized.

Comments are requested regarding whether limiting the "carbon equivalent" will reduce cracked welds, and whether "normalizing" will reduce weld seam failures. If these manufacturing practices were adopted as regulatory requirements, should they apply to new pipelines and repairs to existing pipelines? What would be the costs to comply with these requirements? What problems might be encountered in an effort to keep HVL pipe so manufactured segregated from pipe intended for other service?

2. ADD WATER TO ANHYDROUS AMMONIA PIPELINES

In the same study noted above Battelle recommends adding 0.2 percent water by weight to pipelines transporting anhydrous ammonia (NH³) to inhibit stress corrosion cracking—a type of cracking caused by a combination of stress and electrochemical corrosion.

Although there is no specific requirement in Part 195 to add water to or monitor water content of NH³ pipelines, Section 195.6 authorizes the Secretary to determine whether and in what manner such commodities may be transported without undue hazard. Under Section 195.6, MTB has required NH³ pipeline carriers to monitor water content and add water where necessary to obtain 0.2 percent water content by weight.

MTB solicits comments regarding whether stress-corrosion cracking is a problem in NH³ pipelines? What operational or maintenance problems might be caused by adding 0.2 percent water? What alternative means exist to inhibit stress corrosion cracking? How often should water content or other inhibitor level be monitored?

3. DESIGN AND OPERATIONAL STRESS LEVELS IN ACCORDANCE WITH POPULATION DENSITY

Under Federal gas pipelines safety standards (49 CFR Part 192), pipelines are classified according to their location near populated areas. Such class locations enable standards to be prescribed so that they become more stringent with increased population density.

Unlike Part 192, Part 195 does not provide more stringent standards for pipelines according to population density. Because an HVL vapor cloud may pose a greater hazard to persons and property than a gas leak, should HVL pipelines be designed, constructed, operated, and maintained to similar or more stringent standards than gas transmission pipelines? If so, should existing standards for HVL pipelines be amended to become more stringent according to class locations?

Commenters who believe that standards of increasing stringency are justified should recognize that a vapor cloud can travel a mile or more before being ignited. Given this circumstance, what should be the size of the class location unit? What population densities should define the class locations? Should the design factor change according to class location similar to that in § 192.111? Should the depth of cover vary with class location similar to § 192.327? Sections 192.609, 192.611, and 192.613 prescribe remedial actions when class locations change due to encroaching population. Should similar requirements be prescribed if class locations are adopted for HVL pipelines?

Section 192.619 prescribes factors by which the test pressure must be reduced to obtain the maximum operating pressure. Should maximum operating pressure for HVL pipelines be determined in a like manner? If so, what should be the factors for the various class locations? Section 192.705 prescribes the intervals for patrolling pipelines in accordance with class similar patrol intervals be prescribed for pipelines transporting HVL? Would an accident prevention program encompassing a one-call system negate the need for patrolling more often than two weeks as now required by Part 195?

Assuming a classification scheme similar to that of Part 192, what would be the initial cost of determining class locations along an HVL line?

4. PERIODIC HYDROSTATIC TESTING

Section 195.302 requires that each new pipeline system and each part of a pipeline system that has been relocated or replaced must be hydrostatically tested before it is placed in service. This requirement provides for an initial test of pipeline integrity. There is no current requirement in Part 195 for periodic hydrostatic testing to reconfirm pipeline integrity after a pipeline is placed in service.

The National Transportation Safety Board has suggested periodic hydrostatic testing (Report Number: (NTSB-PAR-73-2) as a means to enhance pipeline safety. Although the NTSB report concerns pipeline defects due to corrosion, periodic hydrostatic testing can locate and remove all defects above a certain size existing at the time of the test, that would later cause accidents.

Although periodic hydrostatic testing seems to be an obvious means of removing pipeline defects before those defects cause accidents there are several disadvantages. Among these are: (1) The pipelines being tested must be taken out of service, (2) testing costs can be substantial, and (3) the results of hydrostatic tests cannot be utilized for preventive maintenance because no information is gained concerning gradual deterioration that might be taking place but has not yet reached the point of failure during hydrostatic testing.

MTB solicits comments regarding periodic hydrostatic testing as a means to prevent accidents on HVL pipelines. Is there a need to periodically revalidate the integrity of a pipeline? Is so, is hydrostatic testing a feasible means of revalidation? What should the testing intervals be? What initial construction costs would be incurred to prepare pipelines for periodic testing? What costs would be incurred by loss of throughput when lines are taken out of service for testing? Are there feasible alternative means, such as electronic pigs, to revalidate pipeline integrity? Would these alternative cost less than periodic hydrostatic testing? Would these alternatives provide information on which preventative maintenance programs could be based?

Pursuant to Section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; the Council on Environmental Quality Guidelines (40 CFR Part

AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC., AND PAN
AMERICAN WORLD AIRWAYS, INC.

International Excess Baggage Charges; Order

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 18th day of January, 1979.

In the matter of increased international excess baggage charges proposed by American Airlines, Inc. (Docket 34224) and increased international excess personal and courier accompanied baggage proposed by Pan American World Airways, Inc. (Docket 34516).

By tariff revisions¹ variously marked to become effective January 12, and February 1, 1979, American Airlines, Inc. (American) and Pan American World Airways, Inc. (Pan American) propose to modify and increase excess baggage charges in international markets.

AMERICAN

American proposes to increase excess baggage charges applicable after the first three free pieces, between the U.S. on the one hand, and Barbados, Haiti, Jamaica and Santo Domingo, on the other, as follows:

Weight	Charge per piece
	Present	Proposed
35 lbs. or less.....	$6.00	$15.00
36 lbs. to 70 lbs.....	20.00	30.00
71 lbs. to 125 lbs.....	40.00	55.00
126 lbs. or more.....	40.00	70.00

In support of its proposal, American asserts that its proposed levels conform to the standard of seven-tenths of one percent of the economy fare; the proposed charges are less than freight charges for similar movements; and since a substantial amount of excess baggage moves on freighter aircraft during the holiday season, it is reasonable to assume that the cost of this excess baggage is equal to that of freight.

A complaint requesting suspension pending investigation of the American proposal has been filed by DHL Corporation (DHL), an air courier service. DHL alleges that: although it does not offer courier service in the markets involved, it objects to American justifying its proposed levels as related to freight rates; for overseas and international excess baggage charges, carriers are required to construct such charges reflecting the Board's decision in Baggage Allowance Tariff Rules in Overseas and Foreign Air Transportation (Excess Baggage Case), i.e., seven-tenths of one percent of the economy fare per kilogram; and it does not want freight-rate related excess baggage charges to slip in to effect and be cited for establishing higher excess baggage charges in other markets.

The Board will dismiss DHL's complaint against American's proposal. The proposed levels are almost always less than the Board recommended formula for excess baggage development in the Excess Baggage Case.

PAN AMERICAN

Pan American proposes two levels of charges for (1) personal passenger baggage and (2) courier accompanied baggage. Currently, excess baggage charges are not differentiated on the basis of the character of the accompanying passenger.

It proposes, for personal baggage, to (1) limit the number of excess pieces acceptable at currently effective charges to four pieces, over and above the two checked pieces carried free and, (2) to increase the charges for more than six checked pieces to twice the otherwise applicable charge. For example, each bag in excess of six will be assessed, in the New York to London market, $70. For courier accompanied baggage, it proposes to charge 130 percent of the applicable general commodity freight rate, with certain exceptions. The exception is that the applicable freight rate is held to the 300 kilogram rate even when lower rates at higher weights are published.

In support and in answer to the complaint, Pan American asserts that: since its previous excess baggage proposal was suspended, its baggage problems have become more severe; it has recently completed a comprehensive systemwide survey designed to measure the impact piece count baggage rules are having on standard baggage weights and as a result it has experienced new averages of 15 kilograms per bag and as much as 20 kilograms per bag in selected markets; it is experiencing greater passenger loads per flight stemming from use of higher density seating and increased load factors; higher baggage loads have been inevitable as a result of greater loads; aggravating the problem is an airworthiness directive, published by the FAA, which instructs the carrier to reduce the baggage capacity on B-747 aircraft; the combination of increased amounts of baggage per flight and reduced belly capacity is inconveniencing both passengers and freight shippers; it is proposing to institute revisions on a systemwide basis in the interest of efficiency and to have the conditions serve as a deterrent to any incipient baggage problem; rating of commercial shipments transported by couriers under the current baggage system serves to disadvantage those shippers who ship similar items on an unaccompanied basis as freight rated under the freight tariffs; the intent is to continue to permit courier shipments to be treated as part of the courier's baggage but assessed rates which reflect the nature of the material being shipped and the priority service being accorded the traffic; in the absence of contrary decision from the Board, Pan American is entitled to assume that the general commodity rate approved or permitted to become effective is a reasonable predicate for other rates; it would be impractical and inconsistent with the nature of the courier business to attempt to cost justify the proposed courier rates; this filing either matches or is patterned after United Air Lines, Inc., (United) current domestic baggage rule which the Board has found acceptable; and its implementation will remove the unintended incentive currently available on many routes for passengers to check as baggage items which are essentially air freight.

A complaint requesting suspension pending investigation or rejection of these proposals has been filed by DHL. The complaint alleges, among other things, that: in interstate markets, it is satisfied that the current proposal of $24 is reasonably related to costs; but that in overseas and foreign markets the excess baggage rates must be justified by costs as the Board decided in the Excess Baggage Case; the proposed courier baggage proposal violates the principle of res judicata in that it contradicts previous Board precedents; Pan American has again failed to demonstrate a systemwide need for the proposal and if certain markets have problems, it should establish special rates for those markets; the proposal is unreasonably high—the fact that there is a shortage of air service which is restricted by the government should not justify the supplier's making extraordinary profits; customers use the baggage service rather than the only alternative, air freight, because it is the only way one can be assured of timely receipt of many items; excess baggage charges at the current rates generally exceed average freight revenues; most current excess rates are cost related and international excess baggage rates are related to cost factors established in the Excess Baggage Case; baggage rates should not be tied to any freight rates unless the freight rate has been shown to be cost justified and the costs of handling baggage are the same as handling freight; Pan American's justification provides no economic rationale for its deviation from the piece system and it provides no justification for limiting couriers to the 300 kilogram weight break and not the lower yields of the higher weightbreaks for larger shipments; and these proposed increases exceed the zone of reasonableness authorized for interstate rates in Public Law 95-504 and by the Board.

The Board finds that Pan American's proposals may be unlawful and should be investigated. The Board further concludes that they should be suspended pending investigation.

As indicated, Pan American previously attempted to attack the excess baggage problem with a somewhat similar proposal with higher surcharges aimed at both air couriers and regular passengers. By Order 78-5-155, May 12, 1978, the Board found the previous proposal with higher surcharges unjust and unreasonable and ordered it cancelled. The Board found that the earlier proposal was unjustified, that there was insufficient evidence that the increased charges should be applied system-wide, and that the charges were not cost-related. According to Pan American, that proposal was intended to alleviate continuing problems with the volume of excess baggage that passengers had been presenting at check-in time and, because of aircraft volume and weight limits, it has been unable to board all the baggage tendered. Pan American, in order to overcome the Board's objections to the earlier filing, has filed two separate proposals—one dealing with courier-accompanied baggage and the other with regular passenger baggage. We believe Pan American's current filing suffers from most of the shortcomings of the earlier filing.

As indicated, with respect to overseas and international excess baggage, the Board found in the Excess Baggage Case that an excess baggage charge of seven-tenths of one percent of the economy fare per kilogram bears a reasonable relationship to cost and held that a passenger should not be required to pay for excess baggage unless the carriage of the excess amount imposes additional costs on the carrier. Pan American's current personal baggage proposal results in charges greater than those resulting from the recommended formula and no indication has been made that the cost of handling courier material is any more than regular passenger baggage of similar weight. In fact, it is often conceded that baggage is less costly than regular freight if for no other reason that baggage requires less paperwork and handling. The fact remains that these proposed increases have not been justified as the Board previously requested and we do not believe that these sharply increased charges should be permitted without complete justification.

The complainant makes an allegation of discrimination with respect of couriers vs. other passengers. We find it hard to differentiate the problem as caused by multiple-baggage pieces tendered by couriers vs. similar amounts of similar materials that are tendered by, for example, an employee on a business trip. Pan American does not clearly indicate how this distinction is to be made.

The carrier admits that the problem is aggravated in certain selected markets, particularly to Africa and South America. By its own data, such punitive charges are not necessary in all markets and the carrier should make an effort to localize the problem, separating out the markets causing the problem and apply charges accordingly. While we are sympathetic to the carrier's plea for consistency and efficiency in applying tariffs systemwide, we do not believe the burden of such charges should be placed upon customers in markets where if a similar problem exists, it is relatively insignificant.

Although we will suspend the proposal, we would be receptive to a filing of charges based on the Excess Baggage Case formula of seven-tenths of one percent of the economy fare per kilogram applied to the actual weight of the excess baggage or, in the alternative, a charge per piece for excess baggage based on a showing that the per piece charge is calculated on the basis of the average weight of the excess baggage multiplied by the recommended formula. Since courier bags are typically much heavier than regular passenger baggage, we would not object to different rates reflecting the actual or average weight in each service.

Accordingly, pursuant to section 102, 204(a), 403, 404, 801, and 1002 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958:

1. We institute an investigation to determine whether the provisions set forth in Appendix A, and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such provisions, are or will be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful, to take appropriate action to prevent the use of such provisions or rules, regulations, or practices;

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the tariff provisions specified in Appendix A are suspended and their use deferred from February 1, 1979, to and including January 31,

1980, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made in them during the period of suspension except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. We shall submit this order to the President² and it shall become effective on January 30, 1979; and

4. Except to the extent granted herein, the complaints of DHL Corporation in Dockets 34197 and 34224 are dismissed; and

5. Copies of this order shall be filed with the tariffs and served on Pan American World Airways, Inc., and the DHL Corporation, which are hereby made parties to the investigation instituted above.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

COMMENTS: No comments have been received with respect to any of the foregoing applications. DECISION: Applications approved. No instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign articles for such purposes as these articles are intended to be used, is being manufactured in the United States. REASONS: Each of the foreign articles provides a range of cutting speeds 0.1 to more than 20 millimeters per second. The most closely comparable domestic instrument is the Model MT-2B ultramicrotome which is manufactured by Ivan Sorvall, Inc. (Sorvall). The Model MT-2B has a range of cutting speeds from 0.09 to 3.2 millimeters per second. The conditions for obtaining high-quality sections that are uniform in thickness, depend to a large extent on the hardness, consistency, toughness and other properties of the specimen materials, the properties of the embedding materials, and geometry of the block. In connection with a prior application (Docket Number 69-00665-33-46500), which relates to the duty-free entry of an article that is identical to those to which the foregoing applications relate, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW) advised that "smooth cuts are obtained when the speed of cutting, (among such [other] factors as knife edge condition and angle), is adjusted to the characteristics of the material being sectioned. The range of cutting speeds and a capability for the higher cutting speeds is, therefore, a pertinent characteristic of the ultramicrotome to be used for sectioning materials that experience has shown difficult to section." In connection with another prior application (Docket Number 70-00077-33-46500) which also relates to an article that is identical to those described above, HEW advised that "ultrathin sectioning of a variety of tissues having a wide range in density, hardness etc." requires a maximum range in cutting speed and, further, that the "production of ultrathin serial sections of specimens that have a great variation in physical properties is very difficult." Accordingly, HEW advises in its respectively cited memoranda, that cutting speeds in excess of 4 millimeters per second are pertinent to the satisfactory sectioning of the specimen materials and the relevant embedding materials that will be used by the applicants in their respective experiments.

For these reasons, we find that the Sorvall Model MT-2B ultramicrotome is not of equivalent scientific value to the foreign articles to which the foregoing applications relate, for such purposes as these articles are intended to be used.

The Department of Commerce knows of no other instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to any of the foreign articles to which the foregoing applications relate, for such purposes as these articles are intended to be used, which is being manufactured in the United States.

DOCKET NUMBER: 78-00410. APPLICANT: DHEW, NIH, NIDR, Laboratory of Biological Structure, 9000 Rockville Pike, Building 30, Room 211, Bethesda, Md. 20014. ARTICLE: LKB 8800A Ultratome III Ultramicrotome and Accessories. MANUFACTURER: LKB Produkter AB, Sweden. INTENDED USE OF ARTICLE: The article is intended to be used for sectioning mineralized and demineralized tooth and bone, exocrine glands, and tissue culture cells which have been embedded in hardened epoxy resins. Studies will be conducted on the process of mineralization, exocrine gland structure and function, cytochemical studies on various cellular organelles, electron diffraction of mineralized tissues, and energy dispersive X-ray analysis of various tissues. ARTICLE: LKB 8800A Ultratome III Ultramicrotome and accessories. MANUFACTURER: LKB Produkter AB, Sweden. INTENDED USE OF ARTICLE: The article is intended to be used in experiments concerned with understanding the functional organization of primate retina. Decision on Application for Duty-Free Entry of Scientific Article

The following is a decision on an application for duty-free entry of a scientific article pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Pub. L. 89-651, 80 Stat. 897) and the regulations issued thereunder as amended (15 CFR Part 301).

A copy of the record pertaining to this decision is available for public review between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. in Room 6886C of the Department of Commerce Building, at 14th and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20230.

DOCKET NUMBER: 78-00411. APPLICANT: DHHR—Division of Health, Louisiana State Chemical Laboratory, 325 Loyola Ave., State Office Building, Room 827, New Orleans, Louisiana 70112. ARTICLE: Sample Fusion Rotary Burner. MANUFACTURER: Saskatchewan Research Council, Canada. INTENDED USE OF ARTICLE: The article is intended to be used for the study of uranium levels in drinking water.

COMMENTS: No comments have been received with respect to this application.

DECISION: Application denied. An instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, is being manufactured in the United States. REASONS: Two firms, one domestic, GEOCO, Inc. Golden, Colorado (GEOCO) and one foreign firm Saskatchewan Research Council, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada (Saskatchewan), offered to meet the applicant's technical requirements with comparable instruments. The National Bureau of Standards (NBS) advises in its memorandum dated November 22, 1978 that the bid response from the domestic manufacturer indicates ability to provide an instrument equivalent to the foreign article at a slightly greater price. The applicant makes no claim that there are any capabilities of the foreign article not available in the domestic instrument available from GEOCO. In reply to Question 8 of the application form which requires a listing of the differences between an available domestic instrument and the foreign article, the applicant alleges, "cost" is the pertinent feature of the foreign article.

The determination of scientific equivalency is based on a comparison of pertinent specifications of the instruments in question. However, as defined in §301.2(n) of the regulations, the term "pertinent specifications" does not include cost of the instrument or apparatus. Accordingly, we find that cost of comparable domestic instrument cannot be a basis for duty-free entry.

For these reasons, we find that the domestic sample fusion rotary burner manufactured by GEOCO is of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article for such purposes as the article is intended to be used.

EXPORTERS' TEXTILE ADVISORY COMMITTEERenewal

In accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, (5 U.S.C. App. (1976)) and Office of Management and Budget Circular A-63 (Revised), and after consultation with the General Services Administration, the delegate of the Secretary of Commerce has determined that the renewal of the Exporters' Textile Advisory Committee is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed on the Department of Commerce by law. The Exporters' Textile Advisory Committee was initially established by the Secretary of Commerce on March 24, 1966. The Committee lapsed on April 5, 1977 and was reestablished on June 24, 1977.

The Exporters' Textile Advisory Committee, based on its members' experience and expertise in textile and apparel exporting, will continue to advise Department officials on the identification and surmounting of barriers to the expansion of textile exports, and on methods of encouraging textile firms to participate in export expansion. The Exporters' Textile Advisory Committee provides advice and information for Government officials who are seeking to stimulate expanding textile and apparel exports. Foreign governments' import rules and requirements are complex, extensive, and frequently changing. Exporters are the group most directly affected by these rules and quickly learn of their effects. They are best able to apprise the United States Government of the impact of foreign restrictions and other factors affecting textile exports. The functions of the Committee cannot be accomplished by any government organizational element or other committees.

The membership of the Committee will consist of approximately 30 members, appointed by the Secretary of Commerce. The Exporters' Textile Advisory Committee membership is associated with the textile and apparel exporting industry and consumer or public interest groups. Members are appointed by the Secretary of Commerce for two year terms to insure a balanced representation of the textile and apparel exporting industry and public interest views.

The Committee will function solely as an advisory body and in compliance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act. Copies of the Committee's revised charter will be filed with appropriate committees of the Congress, and a copy will be forwarded to the Library of Congress concurrent with the publication of this notice.

Interested persons are invited to submit comments regarding the renewal of the Exporters' Textile Advisory Committee. Such comments, as well as any inquiries, may be directed to Mr. Arthur Garel, Director, Office of Textiles, Bureau of Domestic Business Development, Industry and Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone (202) 377-5078.

MANAGEMENT-LABOR TEXTILE ADVISORY COMMITTEERenewal

In accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, (5 U.S.C. App. (1976)) and Office of Management and Budget Circular A-63 (revised), and after consultation with the General Services Administration, the delegate of the Secretary of Commerce has determined that the renewal of the Management-Labor Textile Advisory Committee is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed on the Department of Commerce by law.

The Committee was initially established by the Secretary of Commerce on October 18, 1961, pursuant to a Presidential directive of October 18, 1961. Its purpose was and continues to be to advise Department officials on problems and conditions in the textile and apparel industry. The Committee furnishes information on world trade in textiles and apparel to officials in the Department of Commerce and to the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements, the Textile Trade Policy Group, U.S. representatives to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, and U.S. negotiators of textile agreements.

The Management-Labor Textile Advisory Committee advises the Government on the operation and effectiveness of textile agreements in order to prevent import disruption to the domestic market from imports. This advice enables Federal officials to take early action to insure effective operation. The information and recommendations of the Committee are not only essential to the effective functioning of the textile agreements but are invaluable to U.S. negotiators in developing new textile agreements. The Committee represents consumers and people from the industry directly affected by the textile program. It is essential that there be a mechanism for obtaining their views and advice. The Committee's functions cannot be accomplished by any government organizational element or other advisory committees.

The Committee will have balanced representation of approximately 40 members associated with the domestic textile and apparel industry, labor unions, and consumer or public interest groups. Members will be appointed by the Secretary of Commerce and serve two year renewable terms.

The Committee will continue to function solely as an advisory body and in compliance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

Copies of the Committee's revised charter will be filed with appropriate committees of the Congress, and a copy will be forwarded to the Library of Congress concurrent with the publication of this notice. Inquiries or comments may be addressed to Mr. Arthur Garel, Director, Office of Textiles, Bureau of Domestic Business Development, Industry and Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone (202) 377-5078.

Office of Hearings and Appeals

CHEVRON U.S.A. INC.

Application for Exception; Public Hearing

AGENCY: Office of Hearings and Appeals, Department of Energy.

ACTION: Notice of Public Hearing.

SUMMARY: The Office of Hearings and Appeals of the Department of Energy (DOE) gives notices of a public hearing to be held in Washington, D.C. to receive comments with respect to an Application for Exception filed by Chevron U.S.A. Inc. (Chevron) on January 30, 1979, Case No. DEE-2135. In its submissions, Chevron requests relief from the provisions of 10 CFR 211.10 which requires that allocations of motor gasoline be determined by reference to volumes supplied during 1972, as adjusted. The purpose of this hearing is to provide interested persons an opportunity to make oral presentations regarding the basis for Chevron's request that exception relief be granted to Chevron which permits the firm to determine allocation levels on the basis of 1978 supply levels.

DATES:

HEARING: February 13, 1979.

Request to Speak: February 8, 1979.

ADDRESSES:

Request to Speak: Debra Kidwell, Office of Public Hearing Management, Box WS, 2000 M Street, NW., Room 2313, Washington, D.C. 20461, (202) 254-5201.

Hearing Location: Room 2105, 2000 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20461.

Comments and Further Information to:

Thomas O. Mann, Associate Director, Office of Hearings and Appeals, 2000 M Street, NW., Room 8014, Washington, D.C. 20461, (202) 254-8606.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Currently pending before the Office of Hearings and Appeals is an Application for Exception filed by Chevron U.S.A. Inc. (Chevron) on January 30, 1979. In its Application for Exception, Chevron states that the firm's current supply of gasoline is insufficient to meet the needs of its customers. According to the Chevron submission, the DOE price regulations have held Chevron's gasoline prices at levels below those charged by other major oil companies. Chevron states that this situation has resulted in an increased demand for Chevron's products. Chevron indicates that until recently, it has had enough surplus gasoline available to meet both the growing demand for its 1972 base period purchasers and a substantial number of new customers, many of whom have no base period allocation with Chevron. However, Chevron claims that its surplus declarations in the next few months will not be sufficient to meet the increasing demand for its gasoline. According to the firm, if Chevron were required to allocate gasoline according to the 1972 base period, a hardship will result to those of its customers whose actual sales in 1978 far exceed their base period volumes, and to those new customers who have no base period allocation from Chevron.

Chevron contends that in order to equitably distribute its available supplies of gasoline until demand returns to normal levels, an exception should be granted which permits it to use an allocation method which more closely reflects current demand than the 1972 base period specified in §211.102 of the DOE allocation regulations.

Since granting exception relief will affect the customers of Chevron and may have a precedential effect on other purchasers and suppliers, the DOE has determined that it would prove beneficial to convene a public hearing at which all interested parties will have an opportunity to make oral presentations regarding the merits of the underlying Chevron exception application.

Any party that wishes to make an oral presentation at the hearing should contact the individual whose name appears at the beginning of this notice by February 8, 1979. The Office of Hearings and Appeals reserves the right to limit the number of persons to be heard and to establish the procedures governing the conduct of the hearing. Those individuals selected to make oral presentations will be notified by February 9, 1979. The Director of the Office of Hearings and Appeals or his designee will preside at this hearing. Please submit 100 copies of the Proposed Statement by 4:30 p.m. on February 12, 1979.

At the hearing, representatives from Chevron will be afforded an opportunity to make an initial statement. Following those statements, interested parties, including customers affected by the exception application, will be permitted to make statements subject to reasonable time constraints. If any person wishes to ask a question of any person who has made an oral presentation at the hearing, he or she may submit the question, in writing, to the presiding officer. The presiding officer will determine whether the question is relevant and whether the time limitations permit it to be presented for an answer.

At the conclusion of all initial oral statements, each person who has made an oral statement will be given the opportunity to make a rebuttal statement. The rebuttal statements will be given in the order in which the initial statements were made and will be subject to time limitations. Any further procedural rules needed for the proper conduct of the hearing will be announced by the presiding officer.

A transcript of the hearing will be made and may be purchased from the reporter. The entire record of the hearing will be retained by DOE and will be made available for inspection at the Office of Hearings and Appeals Public Docket Room, Room B-120, 2000 M Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20461, between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m., e.s.t., Monday through Friday. Issued in Washington, D.C., January 31, 1979.

MELVIN GOLDSTEIN,

Director,

Office of Hearings and Appeals.

distribution and sale of existing stocks of these products shall be permitted until the supply is exhausted or for one year after the effective date of cancellation, whichever occurs earlier: Provided, That these products shall be used only in a manner consistent with the label and labeling registered with EPA. Production of these products after the effective date of cancellation will be considered a violation of FIFRA.

Requests that the registration of these products be continued may be submitted in triplicate to the Process Coordination Branch, Registration division (TS-767), Office of Pesticide Programs, EPA, 401 M St., SW., Washington, D.C. 20460. Any comments filed regarding this notice of intended cancellation will be available for public inspection in the office of the Process Coordination Branch from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The notice includes the title of each request received; the name of the agency sponsoring the proposed collection of information; the agency form number, if applicable; and the frequency with which the information is proposed to be collected.

Written comments on the proposed CAB and FCC requests are invited from all interested persons, organizations, public interest groups, and affected businesses. Because of the limited amount of time GAO has to review the proposed requests, comments (in triplicate) must be received on or before February 20, 1979, and should be addressed to Mr. John M. Lovelady, Assistant Director, Regulatory Reports Review, United States General Accounting Office, Room 5106, 441 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20548.

Further information may be obtained from Patsy J. Stuart of the Regulatory Reports Review Staff, 202-275-3532.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

The CAB requests clearance of new Form 296B, Registration and Amendment under Part 296 of the Economic Regulations of the Civil Aeronautics Board. This form must be filed by every air freight forwarder and cooperative shippers association before the start of operations as an indirect air carrier, pursuant to Part 296 of the Board's Economic Regulations and Section 407 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended. This form is a simplified application form for indirect cargo carriers (air freight forwarders, foreign air freight forwarders and cooperative shippers associations) and replaces the current detailed operating authorization application, Form 351. Respondents are estimated by CAB to number 400 and reporting burden is estimated to average 30 minutes per registration.

The CAB requests clearance of new Form 296R, Financial and Operating Report for U.S. and Foreign Indirect Air Carriers. This form will be filed by air freight forwarders, foreign air freight forwarders and cooperative shippers associations pursuant to Part 296 of the Board's Economic Regulations and is mandatory under Section 407 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended. This form combines and simplifies the reporting requirements for this class of carrier and supersedes CAB Forms 244 and 244A. The CAB estimates respondents will number approximately 400 and that reporting burden will average 30 minutes per annual report.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

The FCC requests clearance of revisions to Form 730, Application for Registration of Equipment to be Connected to the Telephone Network. Form 730 is required by Part 68 of the FCC Rules and Regulations and is being revised to facilitate the processing of the requested information. The form is used by equipment manufacturers to provide data and information to obtain registration of telephone equipment. The form is used by the Commission to assist in making a determination that such equipment will not cause harm to telephone networks. FCC estimates there are approximately 900 respondents who complete the form annually and that respondent burden averages 24 hours per response.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

CERTAIN APPARATUS FOR THE CONTINUOUS PRODUCTION OF COPPER ROD

Commission Determination Amending Complaint and Notice of Investigation

Background. On April 11, 1978, Southwire Company filed a complaint which led to the institution of this investigation on May 15, 1978 (43 FR 21951 (May 22, 1978)). On November 3, 1978, complainant Southwire Company moved, pursuant to Commission rule 210.20(d) (19 CFR 210.20(d)), to amend its complaint (Motion 52-68) to include a charge of infringement of U.S. Patent No. 4,129,170 (hereinafter the '170 patent). Complainant had been informed by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on October 17, 1978 that the patent application under consideration would issue on December 12, 1978. The patent in fact issued on December 12, 1978, and a copy was filed with the Commission on January 10, 1979. The investigation, as instituted by the Commission, is based on allegations of patent infringement and misuse of patents owned by complainant involving apparatus for the continuous production of copper rod. In addition, allegations have been made that complainant's know-how and trade secrets have been misappropriated by respondents.

On December 7, 1978, Administrative Law Judge Saxon recommended that the Commission grant complainant's motion and amend the notice of investigation accordingly.

Commission determination. Having considered the recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge and the submissions of the parties, the Commission DETERMINES that complainant here shows good cause for amendment to the complaint and that amendment would not prejudice the interests of the public and the rights of the parties (rule 210.20(d)). Thus, the complaint and the notice of investigation are amended in accordance with the proposed amended complaint attached to Motion 52-68, so as to add an allegation of violation of section 337 by reason of infringement of U.S. Letters Patent No. 4,129,170, the effect or tendency of which is to destroy or substantially injure an industry, efficiently and economically operated, in the United States, or to prevent the establishment of such an industry, or to restrain or monopolize trade and commerce in the United States.

Opinion. Complainant's motion was made under Commission rule 210.20(d), which states:

(d) Amendment of complaint. The complaint may be amended at any time prior to the institution of the investigation, and, after institution, may be amended for good cause shown upon such conditions as are necessary to avoid prejudicing the public interest and the rights of the parties to the investigation by a change in the scope of the investigation which results from such amendment.

The Administrative Law Judge recommended granting the motion and certified the motion to the Commission pursuant to Commission rule 210.22.

Respondents oppose the motion to amend on the grounds that (1) the Commission lacks authority to investigate infringement of this newly issued patent; (2) the complainant has failed to show "good cause" to allow the amendment of the complaint; and (3) this amendment will result in respondents' being prejudiced in the preparation of the defense of this investigation.

Imports occurring after the issue date of this patent could be in violation of section 337, and the Commission has the authority to investigate such possible violation. If the petitioners had alleged the infringement of their patent rights prior to issuance of their patent, the matter would have been premature since there is no provision whereby a complainant may request the Commission to act to restrain acts which would infringe a pending patent application. However, the patent has now been issued and the question of its infringement is properly before the Commission.

Complainant has fulfilled the "good cause" requirements of Commission rule 210.20(d) governing amendment of complaint. The amendment of the complaint and notice of investigation will allow all the issues related to the alleged unfair acts of respondents to be resolved in one investigation. To require the Commission to commence a separate investigation of the '170 patent would result in needless expenditure of time, funds, and energy by the parties and the Government. We therefore find there is good cause to amend the complaint and notice of investigation. Respondents claim that the addition of a new allegation of patent infringement at this stage of the investigation will leave them in a position of being unable to conduct full discovery and unable to fully prepare for hearings. We find respondents' claim of prejudice unconvincing since the '170 patent is closely related to the subject matter of this investigation. A second investigation of the same subject matter would cause unnecessary expense, delay, uncertainty, and duplication of effort. The parties here, as well as the Commission, have an interest in the speedy and economical resolution of this matter; this interest will be protected by allowing the investigation to cover this patent, which is so closely related to the patent presently involved in this investigation. Respondents' interest in and rights to full discovery are adequately protected, as pointed out by Judge Saxon:

Since the Commission designated this a more complicated investigation, there will be additional time available for discovery, and respondents will not be precluded from a fair hearing because of a need for extensive discovery.

Furthermore, Judge Saxon has ordered that full discovery on the '170 patent proceed during Commission consideration of the proposed amendment.

Since there is authority for the Commission to consider the alleged infringement of this new patent and since good cause exists to allow the amendment and since there will be no prejudice to other parties or the public, the Commission grants the motion to amend the complaint.

Issued: January 31, 1979.

By order of the Commission.

KENNETH R. MASON,
Secretary.

Law Enforcement Assistance Administration RESPONSE TO PUBLIC COMMENT AND NOTICE OF ISSUANCE

AGENCY: Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, Department of Justice.

ACTION: Response to public comment and notice of issuance.

SUMMARY: The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 18, 1978 (43 FR 48086-7) the draft Change 4 to Guideline Manual M 4100.1F, State Planning Agency Grants. This notice sets forth the comments received, the changes made, and the issuance, distribution and availability of the final Change 4.

COMMENTS RECEIVED: No public comments were received within the 60 day period. As a result, only minor revisions were made to the draft to clarify that the plan submission dates apply to juvenile justice formula grant as well as block grant applications, and that all plan special requirements must be submitted by July 31, 1979. In addition, technical revisions were made to Appendix 5 "Explanation of General Grant Conditions and Assurances" to conform with the requirements of the 1977 Amendments to the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act.

ISSUANCE AND DISTRIBUTION: Guideline Manual M 4100.1F, State Planning Agency Grants, sets forth requirements for the application for, award, and administration of Part B planning grants and Parts C and E block grants under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, as amended, and of formula grants under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, as amended. The Guideline Manual is of primary concern to all State Planning Agencies, Regional Planning Units, and local criminal justice planning and coordinating bodies.

All holders of M 4100.1F, State Planning Agency Grants will, in accordance with normal LEAA procedures, receive notice of Change 4 along with replacement pages for insertion in the manual.

Other interested persons may obtain copies of M 4100.1F (including Change 4) by writing LEAA, 633 Indiana Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20531.

EXPLANATION OF FINAL CHANGE: Change 4 to LEAA Guideline Manual M 4100.1F, State Planning Agency Grants, makes the following revisions:

1. Chapter 1, paragraph 7, is modified to require the submission of fiscal year 1980 planning grant applications by May 31, 1979, and fiscal year 1980 block and formula grant applications by July 31, 1979.

2. Chapter 3, paragraph 43, is modified to suggest the following timetable for phased submission of fiscal year 1980 comprehensive plan components where such submission is necessary:

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN COMPONENT AND SUBMISSION DATE

(1) Crime analysis; (2) resources, manpower, organizations, capabilities, and systems; and (3) problem analysis, March 30, 1979.

(1) Goals and objectives; (2) criminal justice standards; and (3) priorities, May 30, 1979.

(1) Comprehensive multiyear action plan; (2) annual action plan; (3) program descriptions; and (4) special requirements, July 31, 1979.

3. Chapter 3, paragraph 63 is modified to require the submission by the State Planning Agency of a report on plan implementation by no later than August 31, 1979. Paragraph 63 is further modified to delete subsection 63a(2)(b) in its entirety. Information about continuation support for programs and projects previously funded with block grant moneys is no longer required as part of the State report on plan implementation, since it will be obtained by other means.

4. Appendix 4, "General Grant Conditions and Assurances," paragraph 3, is modified to add at the end of the paragraph the following: "The State further agrees that any application for funds, technical assistance, or training involving purchase or use of electronic surveillance equipment to monitor wire or oral communications or other action touching on the subject of electronic surveillance of such communications, will be reviewed to assure that the State has enacted enabling legislation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. section 2516(2) or meets the requirements of the special justification in Appendix 5."

5. Appendix 5, "Explanation of General Grant Conditions and Assurances" is modified to reflect the 1977 amendments to the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act and to add the following paragraph 49:

Under 18 U.S.C. section 2512, transactions involving devices "primarily useful for the purpose of the surreptitious interception of wire or oral communication," advertisement thereof, and advertising which promotes the use of any devices for such purposes are prohibited unless, in the case of a State officer, his conduct with regard to such a device falls within "the normal course of activities of . . . (the) State . . . 18 U.S.C. section 2515(2)(b).

Normally, officers of a State which has no enabling statute under 18 U.S.C. section 2516(2) would have no occasion to use, possess, or otherwise deal with devices within the scope of 18 U.S.C. section 2512(1). Without such legislation only consensual use is permitted. No grants relating to such devices and their use will be authorized in States which do not have enabling legislation unless special justification, as explained below, is furnished. Accordingly, all applications that list the acquisition of equipment, with either Federal or matching funds, that may be utilized for electronic surveillance purposes, in a state that does not have any enabling legislation, must include as part of the budget narrative for such equipment the following information:

(1) A complete description of each item of equipment to be obtained.

(2) A statement of how each item of equipment will be used.

(3) The legal citations and justifications for the purchase and intended use of each item of equipment.

(4) A description of the controls to be established over access to, the use of and ultimate disposal of such equipment.

Each application must contain the following statement signed by the Project Director: "(Applicant) agrees not to purchase or use in the course of this project any electronic, mechanical, or other device for surveillance purposes in violation of 18 U.S.C. section 2511 and any applicable State statute related to wiretapping and surveillance."

The SPA will review all grant applications to assure compliance.

6. Chapter 2, paragraph 15 is modified to clarify that States may continue juvenile justice and delinquency prevention projects funded under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, as amended, for a period beyond the maximum length of time allowed under the assumption of costs policy. The State planning agency may extend a project for one year with possible extension for one additional year, based upon the following criteria:

a. The project has been evaluated, and the evaluation indicates that the project is effective and is being operated efficiently;

b. Discontinuation would have a negative impact on State or local juvenile-related activities; and

c. The project has demonstrated a good faith effort to obtain funding elsewhere and intends to continue such efforts over the period of the extension.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. PRM-2-6]

ECKERT, SEAMANS, CHERIN & MELLOTT

Filing of Petition for Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that Eckert, Seamans, Cherin & Mellott, 600 Grant Street, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, by letter dated December 29, 1978, has filed with the Nuclear Regulatory Commission a petition for rule making to amend the Commission's regulations.

The petitioner requests the Commission to amend its regulation "Rules of Practice for Domestic Licensing Proceedings", 10 CFR Part 2 and any other pertinent regulations to prescribe time periods for completion of licensing review by the Commission's Regulatory Staff and Atomic Safety and Licensing Boards.

The petitioner states that:

The timely completion of Commission licensing proceedings is in large measure dependent on (1) the duration of application review by the Regulatory Staff under the immediate direction and control of the Director of Nuclear Reactor Regulation, and (2) the duration of the hearing process controlled by the Atomic Safety and Licensing Boards. The Commission's existing Rules of Practice are silent with regard to the responsibilities of the Regulatory Staff in this regard and only prescribe some time limits for the Atomic Safety and Licensing Boards. In recent years there has been an increasing tendency by the Regulatory Staff to miss, without apparent justification, scheduling commitments, and other evidence of Staff difficulty in properly managing its review function so as to bring it to a conclusion within a reasonable length of time. It is believed that such unnecessary delay on the part of the Regulatory Staff can be attributed in part to the lack of any regulations prescribing time periods for application review. It is therefore submitted that regulations of the type proposed which would prescribe time limitations for Regulatory Staff application review, limitations which could be modified for good cause shown, are needed to insure that the Staff pays more than mere lip service to the Commission's mandate for timely decision making.

The petitioner proposes that a Subpart J—Duration of Commission Review—be added to 10 CFR Part 2 in order to insure the making of both sound and timely licensing decisions by the Regulatory Staff. Two amendments to existing sections of Part 2 also are proposed by the petitioner with the view of insuring timely completion of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board hearing process. The text of the proposed Subpart J and the amendments of §§ 2.751a(a)(4) and 2.760 is set out in the petition.

A copy of the petition for rule making is available for public inspection in the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C. A copy of the petition may be obtained by writing the Division of Rules and Records at the below address.

All persons who desire to submit written comments or suggestions concerning the petition for rule making should send their comments to the Secretary of the Commission, U. S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555. Attention: Docketing and Service Branch, by April 6, 1979.

TEXAS UTILITIES GENERATING CO., ET AL.
(COMANCHE PEAK STEAM ELECTRIC STATION, UNITS 1 AND 2)

Availability of Applicant's Environmental Report, Consideration of Issuance of Facility Operating Licenses, and Opportunity for Hearing

Notice is hereby given that the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) will consider the issuance of facility operating licenses to Texas Utilities Generating Company, Dallas Power & Light Company, Texas Electric Service Company, and Texas Power & Light Company (the applicants) which would authorize the applicants to possess, use, and operate the Comanche Peak Steam Electric Station, Units 1 and 2, in accordance with the provisions of the license and the technical specifications appended thereto, upon: (1) the completion of a favorable safety evaluation on the application by the Commission's staff; (2) the completion of the environmental review required by the Commission's regulations in 10 CFR Part 51; (3) the receipt of the report on the applicants' application for facility operating licenses by the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards; and (4) a finding by the Commission that the application for the facility licenses, as amended, complies with the requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I. Notice of Receipt of Application for Operating Licenses was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 12, 1978 (43 FR 20583). Construction of the facilities, which are located in Somervell County, Texas, was authorized by Construction Permit Nos. CPPR-126 and CPPR-127, issued by the Commission on December 19, 1974. Construction of Unit 1 is anticipated to be completed by August 1, 1981, and Unit 2 by August 1, 1983.

The applicants have also filed, pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 and the regulation of the Commission in 10 CFR Part 51, an Environmental Report which discusses environmental considerations related to the proposed operation of the facilities. The Environmental Report is being made available at the State Clearinghouse, Governor's Budget and Planning Office, Executive Office Building, 411 West 13th Street, Austin, Texas 78701, and the North Central Texas Council of Governments, P.O. Drawer COG, Arlington, Texas 76011.

After the Environmental Report has been analyzed by the Commission's staff, a Draft Environmental Statement will be prepared. Upon preparation of the Draft Environmental Statement, the Commission will, among other things, cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a notice of availability of the Draft Statement requesting comments from interested persons on the Draft Statement. The notice will also contain a statement to the effect that any comments of Federal agencies and State and local officials will be made available when received. The Draft Environmental Statement will focus only on any matters which differ from those previously discussed in the Federal Environmental Statement prepared in connection with the issuance of the construction permits. Upon consideration of comments submitted with respect to the Draft Environmental Statement, the Commission's staff will prepare a Final Environmental Statement, the availability of which will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Prior to issuance of any operating licenses, the Commission will inspect the facilities to determine whether they have been constructed in accordance with the application, as amended, and the provisions of the construction permits. In addition, the licenses will not be issued until the Commission has made the findings reflecting its review of the application under the Act which will be set forth in the proposed licenses, and has concluded that the issuance of the licenses will not be inimical to the common defense and security or to the health and safety of the public. Upon issuance of the licenses, the applicants will be required to execute an indemnity agreement as required by Section 170 of the Act and 10 CFR Part 140 of the Commission's regulations.

By March 5, 1979, the applicants may file a request for a hearing with respect to issuance of the facility licenses and any person whose interest may be affected by this proceeding may file a petition for leave to intervene. Requests for hearing and petitions for leave to intervene shall be filed in accordance with the Commission's "Rules of Practice for Domestic Licensing Proceedings" in 10 CFR Part 2. If a request for a hearing or a petition for leave to intervene is filed by the above date, the Commission or an Atomic Safety and Licensing Board, designated by the Commission or by the Chairman of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel, will rule on the request and/or petition and the Secretary of the Commission, or designated Atomic Safety and Licensing Board will issue a notice of hearing or an appropriate order.

As required by 10 CFR § 2.714, a petition for leave to intervene shall set forth with particularity the interest of the petitioner in the proceeding, and how that interest may be affected by the results of the proceeding. The petition should specifically explain the reasons why intervention should be permitted with particular reference to the following factors: (1) the nature of the petitioner's right under the Act to be made a party to the proceeding; (2) the nature and extent of the petitioner's property, financial, or other interest in the proceeding; and (3) the possible effect of any order which may be entered in the proceeding on the petitioner's interest. The petition should also identify the specific aspect(s) of the subject matter of the proceeding as to which petitioner wishes to intervene. Any person who has filed a petition for leave to intervene or who has been admitted as a party may amend the petition without prior approval of the presiding officer at any time up to fifteen (15) days prior to the first prehearing conference scheduled in this proceeding, but such an amended petition must satisfy the specificity requirements described above.

Not later than fifteen (15) days prior to the first prehearing conference scheduled in the proceeding, the petitioner shall file a supplement to the petition to intervene which must include a list of the contentions which are sought to be litigated in the matter, and the bases for each contention set forth with reasonable specificity. A petitioner who fails to file such a supplement which satisfies these requirements with respect to at least one contention will not be permitted to participate as a party.

A request for a hearing or a petition for leave to intervene must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission, United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Docketing and Service Section, or may be delivered to the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C., by March 5, 1979. A copy of the petition should also be sent to the Executive Legal Director, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission Washington, D.C., 20555, and to Nicholas S. Reynolds, Esq., Debevoise & Liberman, 1200 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, attorney for the applicants. Any questions or requests for additional information regarding the content of this notice should be addressed to the chief Hearing Counsel, Office of the Executive Legal Director, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555.

Nontimely filings of petitions for leave to intervene, amended petitions, supplemental petitions and/or requests for hearings will not be entertained absent a determination by the Commission, the presiding officer, or the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board designated to rule on the petition and/or request, that the petitioner has made a substantial showing of good cause for the granting of a late petition and/or request. That determination will be based upon a balancing of the factors specified in 10 CFR § 2.714(a)(1)(i)-(v) and § 2.714(d).

For further details pertinent to the matters under consideration, see the application for the facility operating licenses dated February 27, 1978, and the applicants' Environmental Report dated January 1979, which are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and at the Somervell County Public Library, On the Square, P.O. Box 417, Glen Rose, Texas 76043. As they become available, the following documents may be inspected at the above locations: (1) the Safety Evaluation Report prepared by the Commission's staff; (2) the Draft Environmental Statement; (3) the Final Environmental Statement; (4) the Report of the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards on the application for facility operating licenses; (5) the proposed facility operating licenses; and (6) the technical specifications, which will be attached to the proposed facility operating licenses.

Copies of the proposed operating licenses and the ACRS report, when available, may be obtained by request to the Director, Division of Project Management, Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555. Copies of the Commission's staff Safety Evaluation Report and Final Environmental Statement, when available, may be purchased at current rates from the National Technical Information Service, Department of Commerce, 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, Virginia 22161.

AGENCY FORMS UNDER REVIEW

EDITOR'S NOTE: This class of document, "Agency Forms Under Review," was formerly titled "Clearance of Reports; List of Requests."

BACKGROUND

When executive departments and agencies propose public use forms, reporting, or recordkeeping requirements, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) reviews and acts on those requirements under the Federal Reports Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35). Departments and agencies use a number of techniques including public hearings to consult with the public on significant reporting requirements before seeking OMB approval. OMB in carrying out its responsibility under the Act also considers comments on the forms and recordkeeping requirements that will affect the public.

NOTICES

LIST OF FORMS UNDER REVIEW

Every Monday and Thursday OMB publishes a list of the agency forms received for review since the last list was published. The list has all the entries for one agency together and grouped into new forms, revisions, or extensions. Each entry contains the following information:

The name and telephone number of the agency clearance officer;

The office of the agency issuing this form;

The title of the form;

The agency form number, if applicable;

How often the form must be filled out;

Who will be required or asked to report;

An estimate of the number of forms that will be filled out;

An estimate of the total number of hours needed to fill out the form; and

The name and telephone number of the person or office responsible for OMB review.

Reporting or recordkeeping requirements that appear to raise no significant issues are approved promptly. Any repetitive reporting requirement or form that requires one-half hour or less to complete and a total of 20,000 hours or less annually will be approved ten business days after this notice is published unless specific issues are raised to OMB about this form; such forms are identified in the list by an asterisk (*).

COMMENTS AND QUESTIONS

Copies of the proposed forms may be obtained from the agency clearance officer whose name and telephone number appear under the agency name. Comments and questions about the items on this list should be directed to the OMB reviewer or office listed at the end of each entry.

The timing and format of this notice have been changed to make the publication of the notice predictable and to give a clearer explanation of this process to the public. If you have comments and suggestions for further improvements to this notice, please send them to Stanley E. Morris, Deputy Associate Director for Regulatory Policy and Reports Management, Office of Management and Budget, 726 Jackson Place, Northwest, Washington, D.C. 20503.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ARKANSAS-MISSOURI POWER CO.

Post-Effective Amendment Regarding Issuance and Sale of Short-Term Bank Notes

JANUARY 29, 1979.

Notice is hereby given that Arkansas-Missouri Power Company ("Arkansas-Missouri"), 405 West Park Street, Blytheville, Arkansas 72315, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Middle South Utilities, Inc., a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission a third post-effective amendment to the declaration in this proceeding pursuant to Sections 6(a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") regarding the following proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the amended declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

By orders in this proceeding dated May 4, 1976, April 19, 1977, and April 12, 1978 (HCAR Nos. 19511, 19993, and 20501), Arkansas-Missouri was authorized to issue and sell, from time to time until April 12, 1979; up to $5,500,000 of unsecured, short-term promissory notes to Worthen Bank & Trust Company, Little Rock, Arkansas, for the account of a group of participating banks. As of January 11, 1979, $3,000,000 of such notes were outstanding.

It is now proposed that Arkansas-Missouri issue and sell to Worthen Bank & Trust Company, for the account of a group of participating banks, from time to time during the period commencing on the effective date of the supplemental order herein and continuing for one year thereafter, up to $5,500,000 of unsecured, short-term promissory notes. The notes will be payable in not more than 270 days from the date of issuance and may be renewed from time to time, but will mature not later than one year from said effective date. As the notes mature, they will be renewed or repaid out of funds then available to the company. The notes will, at the option of the company, be prepayable in whole or in part, at any time without premium or penalty. The names of the participating banks and the estimated maximum amounts of their respective participations in the new borrowings to be made by Arkansas-Missouri are to be supplied by amendment.

It is stated that the notes will bear interest, payable quarterly and at maturity, on the unpaid principal amount thereof at the prime commercial loan rate of Chemical Bank, New York, New York, in effect from time to time on borrowings having a 90-day maturity by responsible and substantial corporate borrowers; provided, however, that such rate will not exceed the maximum rate of interest chargeable to corporate borrowers under applicable laws. On the basis of Chemical Bank's prime commercial loan rate of 11¼% per annum in effect on January 23, 1979, but giving effect to the current interest rate limitation of 10½% per annum chargeable by the bank on Arkansas-Missouri's proposed borrowings (which the company understands is 1% in excess of the Federal discount rate), Arkansas-Missouri's cost of money in respect of the proposed borrowings would be 10½% per annum. Arkansas-Missouri will not be required to maintain any compensating balances with, or pay any commitment fee to, any of the participating banks in connection with the proposed borrowings.

Arkansas-Missouri will apply the net proceeds received from the new borrowings to the payment at maturity of the then outstanding bank borrowings referred to above (estimated at that time to aggregate $4,000,000), and the balance of said proceeds to the company's construction program. It is stated that the proposed new borrowings will be in addition to other bank borrowings by the company from the First National Bank in Little Rock, Arkansas, which will total not in excess of $5,500,000 at any one time outstanding (File No. 70-6255).

It is represented that no special or separable expenses are anticipated in connection with the proposed notes and that no state commission and no federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than February 20, 1979, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the post-effective amendment which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail upon the declarant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the declaration, as amended or as it may be further amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive any notices or orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

All interested persons are referred to the declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

Arkansas-Missouri proposes to issue and sell short-term, unsecured notes to the First National Bank in Little Rock, Arkansas, for the account of a group of participating banks, for a period of one year commencing on the effective date of the order herein, in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $5,500,000 at any one time outstanding. These borrowings will be in addition to other bank borrowings by the company from Worthen Bank & Trust Company, Little Rock, Arkansas, which also may not exceed $5,500,000 at any one time outstanding (File No. 70-5838).

The proposed notes will be issued and sold to the First National Bank in Little Rock for the account of the participating banks, and will be payable not more than 270 days from the date of issuance. The notes may be renewed from time to time but will mature not later than one year from the effective date. The notes will, at the option of the company, be prepayable in whole or in part, at any time without premium or penalty. Arkansas-Missouri will not be required to maintain any compensating balances with, or pay any commitment fee to any of the participating banks in connection with the proposed borrowings. The names of the participating banks and the maximum amount of their respective participations in the borrowings to be made by Arkansas-Missouri are to be supplied by amendment.

It is stated that the net proceeds to be received from the issuance and sale of the proposed notes will be applied by Arkansas-Missouri in part to the payment at maturity of $3,190,000 in principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series D due March 1, 1979, and in part to its construction program. The company currently intends to repay the $5,500,000 of borrowings proposed herein from the proceeds of permanent financing or with funds that might otherwise become available.

The fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated not to exceed $4,000. It is stated that no state commission and no federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than February 20, 1979, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the filing which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. [Release No. 20902; 70-6256]

GEORGIA POWER CO.

Proposed Sale of Assets and/or Land of Nine Substations.

JANUARY 29, 1979.

Notice is hereby given that Georgia Power Company ("Georgia"), 270 Peachtree Street, NW., Atlanta, Georgia 30303, an electric utility subsidiary company of the The Southern Company, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration and an amendment thereto with this Commission designating Section 12(d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") and Rule 44 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction. All interested persons are referred to the amended declaration which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transaction.

Georgia proposes, pursuant to a certain letter agreement with North Georgia Electric Membership Corporation ("NGEMC"), an electric membership corporation organized, existing and operating under the laws of the state of Georgia, to sell to NGEMC eight substations ("Substations") including the land upon which such Substations are located, and certain assets located at a ninth substation, for an aggregate sales price of approximately $2,394,000. Such sales price represents Georgia's original book cost of the assets, including land, being transferred. Georgia's depreciated cost for such assets, including land, as of December 31, 1978, was $1,827,461.86. Georgia will obtain a release of such Substations, land and other assets from the lien of its First Mortgage Indenture.

Under the General Warranty Deed ("Deed") and Bill of Sale for eight of the Substations, Georgia will convey the Substations and the land on which they are situated, except assets which comprise or are reasonably necessary to the use or enjoyment of Georgia's high voltage electric transmission lines, certain telecommunication facilities and revenue metering equipment. The Deeds will also reserve to Georgia a perpetual easement in and over all of the property to be conveyed thereby for the purposes of installing, using and maintaining electric transmission or distribution lines, ground fields, ground wire protective systems and telecommunication systems.

NGEMC purchases its electricity requirements from the Tennessee Valley Authority ("TVA") and such electricity is transmitted through certain of Georgia's transmission facilities to the Substations, which, except for one substation, are used exclusively for distribution of electricity to NGEMC's customers. Georgia had previously operated, maintained and rented the Substations to TVA pursuant to an interchange agreement between Georgia and TVA which expired November 1, 1978. It is stated that in connection with negotiations for a new interchange agreement with TVA, it was determined that ownership of the Substations by NGEMC would result in more efficient and economical operations among NGEMC, Georgia and TVA. Georgia will continue to have certain transmission, distribution and telecommunication facilities located on, or which pass through or over, the Substation property, which are necessary to service Georgia's customers in northern Georgia.

A statement of the fees, commission and expenses to be paid or incurred, directly or indirectly, in connection with the proposed transaction will be filed by amendment. It is stated that no state commission, and no federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than February 21, 1979, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail upon the declarant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the declaration, as amended or as it may be further amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rule 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive any notice or orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

OHIO EDISON CO. AND PENNSYLVANIA POWER CO.

Supplemental Order Authorizing Increase in Short-Term Borrowing

JANUARY 30, 1979.

Ohio Edison Company ("Ohio Edison"), Akron, Ohio, an electric utility and a registered holding company, and its electric utility subsidiary Pennsylvania Power Company ("Penn Power") New Castle, Pennsylvania, have filed with this Commission a post-effective amendment to their application-declaration previously filed and amended in this matter pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 12(b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") concerning the following proposed transaction.

By order dated June 30, 1978 (HCAR No. 20609), Ohio Edison and Penn Power were authorized to make short-term borrowings and/or guarantees of short-term borrowings of Quarto Mining Company (or of the owner-trustee under lease arrangements with said mining company), a non-affiliated coal supplier, of up to $137,000,000 and $20,000,000, respectively, through June 30, 1979. Jurisdiction was reserved in said order with respect to possible increased amounts, pending a showing of need by them, up to maximum amounts of $218,500,000 and $40,700,000, respectively, which amounts were those initially sought by applicants-declarants.

By post-effective amendment it is stated that the aggregate amount of short-term borrowings and guarantees by Ohio Edison will be approximately $165,000,000 during the first week in February 1979, such increase largely attributable to the postponement of a contemplated sale by Ohio Edison of its common stock from December 1978 to the latter part of February 1979. Ohio Edison requests that its authorization for short-term borrowings and guarantees be increased to $165,000,000 through June 30, 1979, with said authorization to revert to $137,000,000 upon the completion of Ohio Edison's next issuance and sale of common stock, which sale is the subject of a separate application before this Commission (File No. 70-6252).

There are no additional fees or expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transaction. No state commission and no federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Upon the basis of the facts in the record, it is hereby found that the applicable standards of the Act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary; and that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration, as amended by said post-effective amendment, be granted and permitted to become effective:

It is ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Act and the rules thereunder, that Ohio Edison be, and it hereby is, authorized effective forthwith to make short-term borrowings and/or guarantee short-term borrowings of Quarto Mining Company, through June 30, 1979, in the amount of $165,000,000, with said authorization to revert to $137,000,000 upon the completion of the issuance and sale of common stock planned in Commission File No. 70-6252, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule 24 promulgated under the Act, except that certificates thereunder shall be filed quarterly.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and it hereby is, reserved with respect to any additional amounts of short-term borrowing authorization by either Ohio Edison or Penn Power pending a showing of further need.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

UNION GAS LTD. COMMON STOCK, NPV
CLASS A&B

Application for Termination of Unlisted Trading Privileges

JANUARY 25, 1979.

The above named issuer, an Ontario corporation, has submitted an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission, pursuant to Section 12(f)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78(1)(f)(4) (the "Act") and Rule 12f-3 thereunder, to terminate the unlisted trading privileges for the specified security on the American Stock Exchange, Inc. ("Amex").

The reasons alleged in the application for terminating the unlisted trading privileges include the following:

The common stock of Union Gas Limited ("Union Gas") has been traded on the Amex pursuant to unlisted trading privileges since August 15, 1931. The stock is also traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange. The aggregate number of issued common shares is approximately 18,000,000. Of that number, approximately 380,000 shares are held by individuals having addresses in the United States.¹ In

¹Union Gas has by mail notified each of its shareholder having addresses in the 1978, only 19,800 shares of Union Gas common stock were traded on the Amex. Union gas asserts that the increasing costs of maintaining unlisted trading privileges on the Amex are not justified by the limited traded volume. The common stock of Union Gas will continue to be traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Any interested person may, on or before February 25, 1979, submit by letter to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549, facts bearing upon whether the Commission should issue an order granting the Union Gas application. In accordance with Section 12(f)(4) of the Act, the Commission will issue an order terminating the unlisted trading privileges in the common stock of Union Gas on the Amex if the Commission finds that such is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Office of the Secretary

CERTAIN CARBON STEEL PLATE FROM POLANDAntidumping: Withholding of Appraisal
Notice

AGENCY: United States Treasury Department.

ACTION: Withholding of Appraisal.

SUMMARY: This notice is to advise the public that an antidumping investigation has resulted in a tentative determination that certain carbon steel plate from Poland is being sold at less than fair value. Appraisal for the purpose of determining proper duties applicable to entries of this merchandise will be suspended for not more than six months. Interested parties are invited to comment on this action.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 5, 1979.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

David P. Mueller, Operations Officer, Office of Operations, Duty Assessment Division, Technical Branch, United States Customs Service, 1301 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20229, 202-566-5492.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 25, 1978, an "Antidumping Proceeding Notice" was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 49875). This investigation was initiated by the Treasury Department in conjunction with its administration of the "Trigger Price Mechanism" (TPM), a program established in December 1977 to monitor prices at which certain steel mill products enter the United States. As stated in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 30, 1977 (42 FR 65214), the TPM consists of four major parts: (1) the establishment of trigger prices for certain steel mill products imported into the United States; (2) the use of a Special Summary Steel Invoice ("SSSI") applicable to imports of all steel mill products; (3) the continuous collection and analysis of data concerning (a) the cost of production and prices of steel mill products exported to the United States, and (b) the condition of the domestic steel industry; and (4) where appropriate, the expedited initiation and disposition of proceedings under the Antidumping Act of 1921 with respect to imports entering the U.S. at prices below the Trigger Prices.

This case was initiated after information developed from SSSI's indicated that imports of carbon steel plate from Poland produced by Stahlexport Przedsiębiorstwa (Stahlexport) were being sold at prices less than the appropriate "trigger price" for that product and further investigation revealed the possibility that the subject carbon steel plates were being, or were likely to be, sold at less than fair value within the meaning of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160 et seq.) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"). Evidence also was developed regarding injury or the likelihood of injury to the U.S. domestic industry caused by Stahlexport's allegedly less than fair value exports to the U.S.

For purposes of this determination, the term "carbon steel plate" means hot rolled carbon steel plate, not coated or plated with metal and not clad, other than black plate, not alloyed, and other than in coils. This merchandise is classified under item 608.8415 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, Annotated.

TENTATIVE DETERMINATION OF SALES AT LESS THAN FAIR VALUE

On the basis of the information developed in this investigation and for the reasons noted below, I hereby determine that there are reasonable grounds to believe or suspect that the purchase price of carbon steel plate from Poland produced by Stahlexport is less than the fair value, and thereby the foreign market value, of such or similar merchandise.

STATEMENT OF REASONS ON WHICH THIS TENTATIVE DETERMINATION IS BASED

A. Scope of the Investigation. The only evidence of sales to the U.S. of carbon steel plate from Poland at prices below the applicable "trigger prices" was with respect to carbon steel plate manufactured by Stahlexport and this tentative determination only applies to carbon steel plate manufactured by Stahlexport. It was determined that 100 percent of the U.S. imports of this merchandise from Poland were manufactured by Stahlexport during the investigatory period.

B. Basis of Comparison. For the purpose of determining whether the merchandise in question is being, or is likely to be, sold at less than fair value within the meaning of the Act, the proper basis of comparison appears to be between the purchase price of Stahlexport's U.S. sales and the home market price of such or similar merchandise manufactured in Spain. Purchase price, as defined in section 203 of the Act (19 U.S.C. 162), was used since all shipments of carbon steel plate produced by Stahlexport and exported from Poland were sold to unrelated purchasers in the United States prior to the date of exportation. Home market prices of carbon steel plate manufactured in Spain were used, pursuant to § 153.7(a)(1), Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.7(a)(1)). Poland is considered to be a state-controlled-economy country and therefore, pursuant to section 205(c) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 164(c)), Stahlexport's home market prices or prices of exports to third countries cannot be used in determining fair value.

Stahlexport has proposed the use of data regarding sales of this product in Finland as a surrogate for its home market prices. The Treasury Department has not established that Finland constitutes an economy at a level of economic development comparable to Poland, pursuant to § 153.7(a)(1), Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.7(a)(1)), nor was the data submitted in a timely manner. Therefore, the use of home market prices from Spain, a country which has been considered to be at a stage of economic development comparable to Poland, was obtained, verified and utilized.

In accordance with § 153.31(b), Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.31(b)), pricing information was obtained concerning Stahlexport's sales to the United States which were exported in the months of August-September 1978. Information concerning home market prices of carbon steel plate in Spain was obtained for the period in which the contracts covering Stahlexport's exports to the U.S. during August and September 1978, were concluded. A time period shorter than the normal 6-month period of investigations was chosen to enable the Department to conduct the necessary investigation and render this tentative determination on an expedited basis, as it has stated it would do for all investigations associated with trigger price violations.

C. Purchase Price. Purchase price has been calculated on the basis of f.o.b. prices on sales to the United States with a deduction for Polish inland freight. The f.o.b. prices used were the base prices, net of all charges for size and quality extras, for ASTM-A36 carbon steel plate. This is the only carbon steel plate exported during the period of investigation.

D. Home Market Prices in a Non-State-Controlled Economy. For purposes of this tentative determination, the ex-factory home market prices in Spain, net of charges for size and quality extras, were developed from information available to the U.S. Customs Service for the Spanish equivalent of the carbon steel plate exported by Stahlexport to the U.S. The merchandise being comparable, no adjustments for difference in merchandise under § 153.11, Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.11), were made.

E. Results of Fair Value Comparisons. Using the above criteria, fair value comparisons were made on 100 percent of Stahlexport's exports to the U.S. during the period of investigations. Margins were tentatively found on 82 percent of the exports, ranging from 0 to 44.2 percent. The weighted-average margin on all sales compared was 20.3 percent.

Accordingly, Customs officers are being directed to withhold appraisal of carbon steel plate from Poland produced by Stahlexport, in accordance with § 153.48, Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.48).

In accordance with § 153.40, Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.40), interested parties may present written views or arguments, or request in writing that the Secretary of the Treasury afford an opportunity to present oral views.

Any request that the Secretary of the Treasury afford an opportunity to present oral views should be addressed to the Commissioner of Customs, 1301 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20229, in time to be received by his office not later than February 12, 1979. Such requests must be accompanied by a statement outlining the issues to be discussed.

Any written views or arguments should likewise be addressed to the Commissioner of Customs in time to be received no later than February 25, 1979. All persons submitting written views or arguments should avoid repetitious and merely cumulative material. Counsel are requested to serve copies of all written submissions on counsel for all other known interested parties and to file their submissions with the Commissioner of Customs in ten copies.

TREASURY NOTES OF FEBRUARY 15, 1987—

Auction

FEBRUARY 1, 1979.

1. INVITATION FOR TENDERS

1.1. The Secretary of the Treasury, under the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites tenders for approximately $2,250,000,000 of United States securities, designated Treasury Notes of February 15, 1987, Series B-1987 (CUSIP No. 912827 JK 9). The securities will be sold at auction with bidding on the basis of yield. Payment will be required at the price equivalent of the bid yield of each accepted tender. The interest rate on the securities and the price equivalent of each accepted bid will be determined in the manner described below. Additional amounts of these securities may be issued to Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks for their own account in exchange for maturing Treasury securities. Additional amounts may also be issued for cash to Federal Reserve Banks as agents of foreign and international monetary authorities.

2. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

2.1. The securities will be dated February 15, 1979, and will bear interest from that date, payable on a semiannual basis on August 15, 1979, and each subsequent 6 months on February 15 and August 15, until the principal becomes payable. They will mature February 15, 1987, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2.2. The income derived from the securities is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The securities are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, any possession of the United States, or any local taxing authority.

2.3. The securities will be acceptable to secure deposits of public monies. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

2.4. Bearer securities with interest coupons attached, and securities registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000. Book-entry securities will be available to eligible bidders in multiples of those amounts. Interchanges of securities of different denominations and of coupon, registered and book-entry securities, and the transfer of registered securities will be permitted.

2.5. The Department of the Treasury's general regulations governing United States securities apply to the securities offered in this circular. These general regulations include those currently in effect, as well as those that may be issued at a later date.

3. SALE PROCEDURES

3.1. Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226, up to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Tuesday, February 6, 1979. Noncompetitive tenders as defined below will be considered timely if postmarked no later than Monday, February 5, 1979.

3.2. Each tender must state the face amount of securities bid for. The minimum bid is $1,000 and larger bids must be in multiples of that amount. Competitive tenders must also show the yield desired, expressed in terms of an annual yield with two decimals, e.g., 7.11%. Common fractions may not be used. Noncompetitive tenders must show the term "noncompetitive" on the tender form in lieu of a specified yield. No bidder may submit more than one noncompetitive tender and the amount may not exceed $1,000,000.

3.3. All bidders must certify that they have not made and will not make any agreements for the sale or purchase of any securities of this issue prior to the deadline established in Section 3.1. for receipt of tenders. Those authorized to submit tenders for the account of customers will be required to certify that such tenders are submitted under the same conditions, agreements, and certifications as tenders submitted directly by bidders for their own account.

3.4. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, and primary dealers, which for this purpose are defined as dealers who make primary markets in Government securities and report daily to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York their positions in and borrowings on such securities, may submit tenders for account of customers if the names of the customers and the amount for each customer are furnished. Others are only permitted to submit tenders for their own account.

3.5. Tenders will be received without deposit for their own account from commercial banks and other banking institutions; primary dealers, as defined above; Federally-insured savings and loan associations; States, and their political subdivisions or instrumentalities; public pension and retirement and other public funds; international organizations in which the United States holds membership; foreign central banks and foreign states; Federal Reserve Banks; and Government accounts. Tenders from others must be accompanied by a deposit of 5% of the face amount of securities applied for (in the form of cash, maturing Treasury securities or readily collectible checks), or by a guarantee of such deposit by a commercial bank or a primary dealer.

3.6. Immediately after the closing hour, tenders will be opened, followed by a public announcement of the amount and yield range of accepted bids. Subject to the reservations expressed in Section 4, noncompetitive tenders will be accepted in full, and then competitive tenders will be accepted, starting with those at the lowest yields, through successively higher yields to the extent required to attain the amount offered. Tenders at the highest accepted yield will be prorated if necessary. After the determination is made as to which tenders are accepted, a coupon rate will be established, on the basis of a 1/2 of one percent increment, which results in an equivalent average accepted price close to 100.000 and a lowest accepted price above the original issue discount limit of 98.000. That rate of interest will be paid on all of the securities. Based on such interest rate, the price on each competitive tender allotted will be determined and each successful competitive bidder will be required to pay the price equivalent to the yield bid. Those submitting noncompetitive tenders will pay the price equivalent to the weighted average yield of accepted competitive tenders. Price calculations will be carried to three decimal places on the basis of price per hundred, e.g., 99.923, and the determinations of the Secretary of the Treasury shall be final. If the amount of noncompetitive tenders received would absorb all or most of the offering, competitive tenders will be accepted in an amount sufficient to provide a fair determination of the yield. Tenders received from Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks will be accepted at the price equivalent to the weighted average yield of accepted competitive tenders.

3.7. Competitive bidders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection of their tenders. Those submitting noncompetitive tenders will only be notified if the tender is not accepted in full, or when the price is over par.

4. RESERVATIONS

4.1. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders in whole or in part, to allot more or less than the amount of securities specified in Section 1, and to make different percentage allotments to various classes of applicants when the Secretary considers it in the public interest. The secretary's action under this Section is final.

5. PAYMENT AND DELIVERY

5.1. Settlement for allotted securities must be made or completed on or before Thursday, February 15, 1979, at the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or at the Bureau of the Public Debt, wherever the tender was submitted. Payment must be in cash; in other funds immediately available to the Treasury; in Treasury bills, notes or bonds (with all coupons detached) maturing on or before the settlement date but which are not overdue as defined in the general regulations governing United States securities; or by check drawn to the order of the institution to which the tender was submitted, which must be received at such institution no later than:

(a) Monday, February 12, 1979, if the check is drawn on a bank in the Federal Reserve District of the institution to which the check is submitted (the Fifth Federal Reserve District in case of the Bureau of the Public Debt), or

(b) Friday, February 9, 1979, if the check is drawn on a bank in another Federal Reserve District.

Checks received after the dates set forth in the preceding sentence will not be accepted unless they are payable at the applicable Federal Reserve Bank. Payment will not be considered complete where registered securities are requested if the appropriate identifying number as required on tax returns and other documents submitted to the Internal Revenue Service (an individual's social security number or an employer identification number) is not furnished. When payment is made in securities, a cash adjustment will be made to or required of the bidder for any difference between face amount of securities presented and the amount payable on the securities allotted.

5.2. In every case where full payment is not completed on time, the deposit submitted with the tender, up to 5 percent of the face amount of securities allotted, shall, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be forfeited to the United States.

5.3. Registered securities tendered as deposits and in payment for allotted securities are not required to be assigned if the new securities are to be registered in the same names and forms as appear in the registrations or assignments of the securities surrendered. When the new securities are to be registered in names and forms different from those in the inscriptions or assignments of the securities presented, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for (securities offered by this circular) in the name of (name and taxpayer identifying number)." If new securities in coupon form are desired, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for coupon (securities offered by this circular) to be delivered to (name and address)." Specific instructions for the issuance and delivery of the new securities, signed by the owner or authorized representative, must accompany the securities presented. Securities tendered in payment should be surrendered to the Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226. The securities must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder.

5.4. If bearer securities are not ready for delivery on the settlement date, purchasers may elect to receive interim certificates. These certificates shall be issued in bearer form and shall be exchangeable for definitive securities of this issue, when such securities are available, at any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226. The interim certificates must be returned at the risk and expense of the holder.

5.5. Delivery of securities in registered form will be made after the requested form of registration has been validated, the registered interest account has been established, and the securities have been inscribed.

6. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive tenders, to make allotments as directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to issue such notices as may be necessary, to receive payment for and make delivery of securities on full-paid allotments, and to issue interim certificates pending delivery of the definitive securities.

6.2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering. Public announcement of such changes will be promptly provided.

SUPPLEMENTARY STATEMENT: The announcement set forth above does not meet the Department's criteria for significant regulations and, accordingly, may be published without compliance with the Departmental procedures applicable to such regulations.

PAUL H. TAYLOR,
Fiscal Assistant Secretary.

8 3/4% TREASURY BONDS OF 2003-2008

Auction

FEBRUARY 1, 1979.

1. INVITATION FOR TENDERS

1.1. The Secretary of the Treasury, under the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites tenders for approximately $2,000,000,000 of United States securities, designated 8 3/4% Treasury Bonds of 2003-2008 (CUSIP No. 912810 CE 6). The securities will be sold at auction, with bidding on the basis of price. Payment will be required at the bid price of each accepted tender in the manner described below. Additional amounts of these securities may be issued to Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks for their own account in exchange for maturing Treasury securities. Additional amounts may also be issued for cash to Federal Reserve Banks, as agents of foreign and international monetary authorities.

2. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

2.1. The securities offered will be identical to the 8 3/4% Treasury Bonds of 2003-2008 (CUSIP No. 912810 CE 6) issued under Department of the Treasury Circular, Public Debt Series—No. 27-73, dated October 26, 1978, except that the interest will accrue from February 15, 1979, and payment for the securities will be calculated on the basis of the auction price determined in accordance with this circular, plus accrued interest from November 15, 1978. With this exception, the securities are as described in the following excerpt from the above circular:

"2.1. The securities will be dated November 15, 1978, and will bear interest¹ from that date, payable on a semi-annual basis on May 15, 1979, and each subsequent 6 months on November 15 and May 15, until the principal becomes payable. They will mature on November 15, 2008, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after November 15, 2003, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest on any interest payment date or dates, on 4 months' notice of call given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial call, the securities to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Interest on the securities called for redemption shall cease on the date of redemption specified in the notice of call.

¹On November 3, 1978, the Secretary of the Treasury announced that the interest rate on the bonds would be 8 3/4 percent per annum.

"2.2. The income derived from the securities is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The securities are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, any possession of the United States, or any local taxing authority.

"2.3. The securities will be acceptable to secure deposits of public monies. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

"2.4. Bearer securities with interest coupons attached, and securities registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000. Book-entry securities will be available to eligible bidders in multiples of those amounts. Interchanges of securities of different denominations and of coupon, registered and book-entry securities, and the transfer of registered securities will be permitted.

"2.5. The Department of the Treasury's general regulations governing United States securities apply to the securities offered in this circular. These general regulations include those currently in effect, as well as those that may be issued at a later date."

3. SALE PROCEDURES

3.1. Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. 20226, up to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard time, Wednesday, February 7, 1979. Noncompetitive tenders must show the term "noncompetitive" on the tender form in lieu of a specified price. PRIVACY ACT OF 1974

Reinstated Systems of Records

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Department of Treasury.

ACTION: System Notice.

SUMMARY: The Office of the Secretary consolidated its personnel records in the 1977 annual publication of Privacy Act Issuances, 42 FR 49099, September 26, 1977, in an effort to reduce the number of systems of records for ease of use. The consolidation failed to list all the uses and authorities of the incorporated systems, hence the consolidation was imperfect and misleading to the public. In the consolidation, the substance (contents and the uses) of the systems were not intended to be changed, only the systems descriptions. For this reason, the systems of records, as they appeared in the 1976 FEDERAL REGISTER annual notice, 41 FR 45164, October 14, 1976, and the full text of their descriptions, are reinstated to replace consolidated systems OS 001, Administrative Personnel System and OS 003, General Personnel System, which were last published in the Department's 1978 Annual Notice of Systems of Record; 43 FR 42509, September 20, 1978.

This is an administrative action which has been initiated for the benefit of the public to properly reflect the system descriptions in the FEDERAL REGISTER. It does not require submissions to the Congress and OMB nor does it require a public comment period as it is a reinstatement of previously approved systems of records.

A review of each system reinstated by this notice is presently being undertaken in order to determine whether updating, or other changes, may be necessary and appropriate.

DATE: These changes are effective immediately.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

PROCEDURES FOR IMPLEMENTING EXECUTIVE ORDER 12044, "IMPROVING GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS"

Final Report

AGENCY: Veteran Administration.

ACTION: Final Report.

SUMMARY: The Veterans Administration issues these final procedures for developing, simplifying, and reviewing its regulations in accordance with Executive Order 12044, "Improving Government Regulations". The plan proposes procedures for developing both significant and nonsignificant new regulations, for drafting a regulatory analysis, and for reviewing and simplifying existing regulations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 30, 1979.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. William E. Stewart, VA Central Office, Management Services (61), 810 Vermont Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20420 (202-389-3770). Comments are requested by April 6, 1979.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On page 21983 of the FEDERAL REGISTER dated May 22, 1978, the Veterans Administration published a draft report to implement Executive Order 12044, (43 FR 12661, March 24, 1978). One comment was received from the Director, Task Force on Sex Discrimination, United States Department of Justice, July 12, 1978, at whose request we are including additional provisions for: (1) A review of all proposed regulations for a determination that no unnecessary gender-specific terminology or element of substantive sex discrimination is used; (2) A prohibition against classifying any proposed regulation as nonsignificant if it will have a disparate impact based on sex; and (3) A factor in the review of existing regulations for correcting unnecessary gender-specific terminology. However, it should be noted that we formalized a policy prohibiting sex-discriminatory terminology several years ago (VA Regulation 13, March 25, 1974, 38 CFR 1.13). Every new and revised regulation has since been screened carefully to eliminate gender-specific terminology resulting in thousands of such eliminations. This is an on-going procedure, and applies not only to regulations but to publications and to any communications within the agency or to veterans, dependents, beneficiaries, or members of the public.

Since the procedures contained herein have been expanded from our earlier draft report, and are to be incorporated in our "Policy Manual", comments are solicited on: (1) Whether this final plan is easy to read and understand, and (2) Whether the proposed procedures are an effective means of complying with Executive Order No. 12044. If appropriate, we will then incorporate these views into our manual.

Approved: January 30, 1979.

MAX CLELAND,
Administrator
Veterans' Affairs.

IMPROVING GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

SECTION I. BACKGROUND

Executive Order 12044 of March 23, 1978, directed Federal Agencies to improve their regulatory procedures to provide for:

- (1) The use of clear and simple English that will be easily understood;
- (2) The achievement of legislative goals with a minimum of paperwork and red tape;
- (3) Agency-head oversight of and responsibility for the processing of new or revised regulations;
- (4) Agency-head signatures on and approvals of regulations;
- (5) Early and meaningful opportunities for public participation in the development of regulations i.e., 30-60-day comment periods;
- (6) Criteria for defining "significant regulations";
- (7) Appropriately scheduled reviews of existing regulations to insure that they are in accord with the provisions of the Executive Order.
- (8) Regulatory analyses of those regulations with potentially "major" consequences for the general economy, the environment, individual industries, regions, or the public in general; and
- (9) Publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, at least semi-annually, of an agenda of "significant regulations" under development or review.

SECTION II. DEFINITION

A. VA regulations are basically rules of general applicability which implement federal legislation or Presidential Executive Orders administered by or pertaining to the VA. All matters of a regulatory nature issued in accordance with the authority vested in the Administrator which confer a right, privilege, authority, or immunity, impose an obligation, or prescribe a penalty or a course of conduct, and which are applicable to veterans, their dependents, beneficiaries, or third parties (such as educational institutions, home loan institutions, civilian hospital affiliations, state approving agencies for schools, etc.) are promulgated in permanent form as VA regulations and given legal effect by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. VA is benefits-oriented and is mainly called upon to implement legislative mandates.

B. In general, material pertaining to purely internal guidance and procedures is not included in regulations. Such matter is published in VA manuals, circulars, and other types of administrative media.

SECTION III. PROCESS FOR DEVELOPING REGULATIONS

A. Initiation. 1. Department or staff office heads initiating proposed new or revised regulations will immediately notify the Administrator, Deputy Administrator, the General Counsel, and the Inspector General of their intent. Insofar as practicable these notifications will be in writing. They will contain as much background information as possible, including at least the following:

- (a) Justification;
- (b) Authority or mandate;
- (c) Names of other government agencies that may be affected;
- (d) Possible overall impact;
- (e) Involvement of other VA department or staff office heads;
- (f) Alternative approaches to be explored;
- (g) Whether the proposal is considered significant and why;
- (h) A plan for public participation; and
- (i) Tentative target dates for completion of steps in the development process.

2. The Administrator or Deputy Administrator, in consultation with the General Counsel, will review this notification, approve or disapprove the proposal, and determine whether it is needed and if so whether it is significant. In the event the Administrator or Deputy Administrator disapproves the proposal submitted by a department or staff office head, or when there is a disagreement as to whether a proposal is significant or not, the Administrator or Deputy Administrator will notify the affected officials in writing of the decision(s).

3. The Inspector General is required to review regulations concerning: (1) The impact on the economy and efficiency in the administration of the programs and operations; and (2) the prevention and detection of fraud and abuse in the programs and operations. The Inspector General will inform the originating department and staff office head of the results of this review by issuing a "Notice of Review."

B. Significant Regulations. 1. In determining whether regulations will be designated as significant, the VA will take into consideration at least the following factors:

- (a) The type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, and state and local governments affected;
- (b) The compliance and reporting burdens imposed;
- (c) The anticipated direct and indirect effect on the environment, public, businesses, institutions, etc.;
- (d) The costs that may be involved for the public, businesses, institutions, etc.; to comply;
- (e) The effect of the proposals on other programs and agencies; and
- (f) Any other factors that appear relevant in each case.

2. When proposed or reviewed regulations are determined to be both needed and significant, the responsible department or staff office heads will proceed to develop them, in coordination with other affected departments or staff offices as appropriate. They will:

- (a) Consider other approaches and select the least burdensome alternatives;
- (b) Develop plans for subsequent evaluation;
- (c) Insure public participation, and provide for a 60-day comment period or explain why it is not feasible;
- (d) Consider direct and indirect effects;
- (e) Consider anticipated impact on the environment and the economy;
- (f) Estimate the reporting burdens or recordkeeping requirements necessary for compliance;
- (g) Consider the impact on state or local governments; and
- (h) Consider any other factors that appear relevant in each case.

3. When significant regulations have been drafted and concurred in by the affected department or staff office heads, the originators will obtain the concurrences of the General Counsel and the Assistant Administrator for Information Services. In addition they will obtain the "Notice of Review" required for the Inspector General. The proposed regulations will then be forwarded to the Director, Management Services, for final review and assembly. Management Services will forward the proposals to the Administrator of Deputy Administrator for final consideration and signature. Upon receipt of the proposed regulations, properly signed, Management Services will forward them to the Office of the Federal Register for publication and inform Information Services so that that office may forward notices or copies of proposed significant regulations simultaneously with FEDERAL REGISTER publication to other publications likely to be read by those affected. In addition, Management Services will send copies to the Senate and House Committees on Veterans' Affairs and to interested service-oriented individuals and organizations simultaneously with FEDERAL REGISTER publication.

4. Proposed significant regulations will normally provide for at least a 60-day public comment period. If this cannot be done, the preamble will include an explanation of the reasons and the name of the policy official responsible for this determination. The name, title, address and telephone number of the appropriate official who may be contacted for additional information will also be included.

5. Upon expiration of the public comment period, the responsible department or staff office heads will evaluate the comments, and revise the proposed regulations if appropriate. The final significant regulations will be routed for the concurrences of the General Counsel and the Assistant Administrator for Information Services, "Notice of Review" obtained from the Inspector General, and then forwarded to the Director, Management Services, for editing and final review. Management Services will prepare the documents necessary for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, obtain approvals and signatures of the Administrator or Deputy Administrator, and forward the completed documents to the Office of the FEDERAL REGISTER for final publication.

6. Copies of final notices will be transmitted simultaneously with FEDERAL REGISTER publication to:

- (a) Publications likely to be read by those affected;
- (b) The House and Senate Committees on Veterans' Affairs; and
- (c) The interested service-oriented individuals and organizations.

C. Nonsignificant Regulations. 1. When proposed or reviewed regulations are determined not significant, the originating department or staff office heads will proceed to develop them, coordinate them with other departments and staff offices, as appropriate, obtain concurrences from the General Counsel and the Assistant Administrator for Information Services, obtain "Notice of Review" by the Inspector General, and forward the completed proposals to the Director, Management Services, for final review and assembly. Management Services will forward the proposals to the Administrator or Deputy Administrator for final consideration and signature. Upon receipt of the proposed regulations, properly signed, Management Services will forward them to the Office of the Federal Register for publication.

2. When proposed nonsignificant regulations are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the preambles will provide for at least a 30-day public comment period, unless an explanation is given for a shorter or no comment period (see SECTION VII C, "Public Participation," below). The preambles will also set forth the need for and probable effect of the proposed regulations, and an explanation why they do not meet the VA's established criteria for significant regulations.

SECTION IV. CRITERIA FOR PREPARING REGULATORY ANALYSES

A. For all proposed or existing significant regulations, the originating department or staff office heads, in collaboration with the Administrator, Deputy Administrator, and the General Counsel, will determine whether they are likely to have major economic consequences for the general economy, individuals, industries, geographical regions, levels of federal, state, or local governments and institutions. When it is determined that regulations will have a major economic impact, regulatory analyses will be prepared and used during the initial stages of development.

B. Regulations will be considered likely to have major economic consequences and impact when they will:

- (1) Have an effect on the national economy of $100 million or more in any given year;
- (2) Create major increases in costs or prices;
- (3) Impose a major burden of some sort, for example in recordkeeping requirements necessary to show compliance by individuals, industries, institutions (such as schools, loan organizations, hospitals, businesses), or state or local governments;
- (4) Cause major additional cost to recipients of federal financial assistance; or
- (5) Have major economic impact for any other reason in the judgment of the Administrator of Deputy Administrator.

C. Where it is determined that a regulation will have a major economic impact, the regulatory analysis will be prepared and used during the initial stages of its development in order to facilitate the careful examination of alternative approaches early in the decisionmaking process. It will serve as a basis for initial as well as final decisions. When a proposed significant regulation, which has a major economic impact, is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as a "Notice of Proposed Rulemaking," the Notice will announce the public availability of the "draft" regulatory analysis and how members of the public can obtain the supporting documentation. In addition, a summary portion of the draft regulatory analysis will be included in the Notice.

D. After the end of the public comment period, the draft regulatory analysis will be reviewed taking into consideration the comments received. If changes are appropriate, the analysis will be changed and coordinated with affected department or staff office heads.

E. When the final regulation is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the summary portion of the final regulatory analysis will be included. This final notice will again indicate how members of the public can obtain the supporting documentation.

F. If it is determined that the significant regulation does not have a major economic impact, the responsible department or staff office head will prepare a statement justifying this determination and describing the possible effects of the regulation. This statement will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER along with the final notice.

G. Each regulatory analysis shall consist of a summary and

- (1) A brief statement of the problem;
- (2) The mandate for such action;
- (3) A description of the major alternative ways of dealing with the problem (non-regulatory alternatives may be included);
- (4) A brief analysis of the economic consequences of each alternative, direct as well as indirect effects; and
- (5) An explanation of the reason(s) for choosing one alternative over the other(s).

H. The supporting documentation should include, but not be limited to the following:

- (1) An analysis of each reasonable and feasible policy alternative (legislative authority, legal or other obstacles to implementation, enforceability, sunset provisions);
- (2) A detailed explanation of the reasons for choosing one alternative over the other(s); and
- (3) A detailed analysis of the economic consequences of each alternative, direct as well as indirect effects, such as:

- (a) Specific burdens imposed by each alternative on state and local governments, individuals, industries, geographic regions and demographic groups;

(b) Compliance and reporting requirements or burdens for those who must comply; and

(c) Other relevant costs and burdens.

SECTION V. REVIEW OF EXISTING REGULATIONS

A. Administrator's Memorandum No. 00-78-6 dated June 9, 1978, "Review of Administrative Issues Bearing Approval of the Administrator or One of the Deputies", sets forth guidelines and responsibilities for the complete review of all issues, including VA Regulations. Regulations are to be reviewed to insure that they are:

- (1) Current and accurate;
- (2) Consistent with existing laws;
- (3) Essential to efficient operation and administration of the VA;
- (4) Written in plain and simple English;
- (5) Void of gender-specific terminology or substantive sex discrimination; and
- (6) In good taste.

B. Even though all regulations are being reviewed and a target date of August 31, 1979, has been set for completion, the following regulations will be given the first priority for review:

- (1) Education regulations;
- (2) Home Loan Guaranty regulations;
- (3) Department of Medicine and Surgery regulations pertaining to Special Programs and Grants; and
- (4) Regulations that have a major economic impact requiring a regulatory analysis.

C. The following criteria will be considered during the review in an effort to reduce the paperwork and regulatory burden on the public, veterans, and the VA:

- (1) Whether the regulation continues to be necessary to achieve statutory or policy goals;
- (2) Whether the regulation has been the subject of significant public controversy, complaints, or suggestions;
- (3) Whether the regulation is particularly burdensome for some segment of the public, veterans, or VA;
- (4) Whether the regulation is confusing, difficult to interpret, or unnecessarily complex;
- (5) Whether the regulation is duplicative or inconsistent with other VA or other agency regulations treating the same or similar subjects;
- (6) Whether the regulations is consistent with the most recent technological advances;
- (7) Whether a revision of the regulation needs to be considered in light of changed economic or other conditions affecting its appropriateness;
- (8) Whether the regulation has been or probably will be subject to change as a result of legislative action;

(9) Whether court decisions have altered the meaning or effectiveness of the regulation;

(10) Whether agency operating personnel consider the regulation inefficient, burdensome or a proper subject for revision;

(11) Whether the regulation is discriminatory if effect or formulation; and

(12) Whether requests have been received for exemption from a regulation and whether granted.

D. It is the intent of VA that regulations not achieving their intended purpose or imposing unnecessary paperwork or regulatory burden on the public, veterans, or VA be revoked or revised.

SECTION VI. SEMI-ANNUAL AGENDA OF REGULATIONS

A. To give the public adequate notice and opportunity for comment, the VA will publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER in December and June of each year a semiannual agenda of all significant regulations scheduled for development or review. In addition, nonsignificant regulations may be included in the agenda if the responsible department or staff office head feels it would be beneficial and of sufficient interest to the veteran population. Supplements to this agenda may be published at other times during the year, if warranted. B. The semiannual agenda of regulations must be concurred in the General Counsel and will be signed by the Administrator or Deputy Administrator.

C. The agenda will include:

- (1) The regulations or significant regulations under development or being considered;
- (2) Those regulations under review;
- (3) The need and legal basis for such action;
- (4) The status of regulations previously listed in other agendas;
- (5) The name, title, address, and telephone number of a responsible official who may be contacted for additional information; and
- (6) If possible, whether or not a regulatory analysis will be required.

D. The Director, Management Services, will forward copies of the agenda to the Senate and House Committees on Veterans' Affairs as well as other interested, service-oriented individuals and organizations. The Assistant Administrator for Information Services will also send notices of the agendas to publications likely to be read by those affected. Both services will send copies simultaneously with FEDERAL REGISTER publication.

SECTION VII. POLICIES

A. Oversight by Agency Head. VA Regulations appear in Title 38, Code of Federal Regulations, "Pensions, Bonuses, and Veterans' Relief." VA Procurement Regulations (excluded from the provisions of Executive Order 12044) appear in Title 41, Code of Federal Regulations, "Public Contracts and Property Management", Chapter 8. VA regulations are issued by or at the direction of the Administrator of Veterans Affairs to implement Federal legislation or to implement Presidential Executive Orders. Decisions pertaining to these regulations are made by the Administrator or the Deputy Administrator. All regulations, proposed or final, new or revised, whether considered "significant" or not, are personally reviewed, approved, and signed by the Administrator or the Deputy Administrator before publication.

B. Clarity. VA regulations will be written in plain and simple English. Every effort will be made to insure that they will be easily understood by the general public, especially those who must comply with them, and still meet legislative requirements with a minimum of paperwork and redtape. Drafts of all proposed or final regulations will be submitted to the Assistant Administrator for Information Services for editing and suggestions to improve readability and simplicity.

C. Public Participation. 1. In general it has been and will continue to be VA policy to afford the public an opportunity to comment on proposed new or revised regulations prior to formal promulgation. Exceptions will be fully justified, concurred in by the General Counsel, and approved by the Administrator or Deputy Administrator. Such exceptions will be limited primarily to matters of a nondiscretionary or internal VA administrative character. For those regulations which are considered "significant" the public will be afforded a 60-day comment period if at all possible. This will be accomplished by first announcing them by publication as notices in the daily FEDERAL REGISTER, inviting written public comment, and specifying how such comment may be made. When a 30- or 60-day comment period (or less) cannot be provided, the regulation will be accompanied by a brief statement explaining why, and will include the name of the policy official responsible for this determination. During the comment period interested persons will be invited to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposal to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs (271A), Veterans Administration, 810 Vermont Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20420. Notices will also include the name, title, address and telephone number of an appropriate official who may be contacted for additional information. All written comments received within the comment period will be considered. They will also be available for public inspection at the above address, room 132, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday (except Holidays), during the stated comment period and for an additional 10 days thereafter. Persons visiting Central Office for the purpose of inspecting any such comments will be received by the Central Office Veterans Services Unit (271A) in room 132. Persons visiting or calling any VA field station will be informed that the records are available for inspection only in Central Office and upon request furnished the proper address, room number, name and phone number of the person to contact for additional information.

2. As in the past, VA will continue sending copies of proposed and final regulations to the Senate and House Committees on Veterans' Affairs and to other especially interested service-oriented individuals and organizations simultaneously with FEDERAL REGISTER publication. In addition, the Assistant Administrator for Information Services will send notices of proposed and final regulations to publications likely to be read by those affected.

3. If occasions should arise where open public hearings are necessary, advance notices will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER setting forth the following:

(a) Reason for the hearing;

(b) Name, address, and telephone number to call for additional information or to make reservations to attend; and

(c) Place and time of hearing.

D. Comments from the Public. Upon receipt and evaluation of comments from interested parties and organizations the regulations will be revised and re-coordinated, as appropriate, by the department or staff office originators. They will then be forwarded for the second time to the Office of Management Services for review and processing. The Office of Management Services will prepare the necessary documents for final approval by the Administrator or Deputy Administrator and resubmission to the Office of the Federal Register for republication as adopted. The preamble to these republications will summarize the steps previously taken to publish the proposed regulations as notices inviting written public comment, and what actions if any were taken as a result thereof.

E. Words and Statements Denoting Gender. 1. In determining the meaning of any Act of Congress, unless the context indicates otherwise, words importing the masculine gender include the feminine as well (1 U.S.C. 1). VA publications, regulations, and communications (within the agency or to beneficiaries or members of the public), should avoid words and statements denoting gender, which may appear to preclude benefits or services for female veterans, dependents, or beneficiaries. For example, terms such as "his or her," "veteran's," or "service-persons" will avoid giving grounds for the misconceptions which may arise from the use of such terms as "his" when in fact both sexes are eligible for the benefits under discussion. Similar care will be exercised in using other words and phrases denoting gender.

2. In reviewing existing regulations and in processing all new or revised regulations, the following rules will be observed:

(a) No unnecessary gender-specific terminology or element of substantive sex discrimination will be used;

(b) Proposed regulations will not be classified as nonsignificant if they will have a disparate impact based on sex; and

(c) Unnecessary gender-specific terminology will be corrected during the review of existing regulations.

F. Involvement of State and Local Governments. National organizations representing general purpose state and local governments (National Conference of State Legislatures, Council of State Governments, National League of Cities, United States Conference of Mayors, National Association of Counties, International City Management Association) have been asked to systematically review VA's semiannual agenda of significant regulations, which will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER in December and June of each year. If one of these organizations believes that a regulation in an agenda would have a major intergovernmental impact, it is requested to notify the Executive Assistant to the administrator (00A), Veterans Administration, 810 Vermont Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20420 (202-389-5151) of its concern. Upon such notification, the Executive Assistant to the Administrator, General Counsel and originating department of staff office head, will develop together a specific plan for consultation with state and local governments in the development of that regulation. Such consultation will include solicitation of comments from the above-named groups, other representative organizations, and individual state and local governments as appropriate. Even without such notification, a department or staff office head who originates a proposed regulation and believes it may have an impact on state or local governments will bring the matter to the attention of the Executive Assistant to the Administrator and the General Counsel in writing. In addition, the originating department or staff office head will arrange for the Director, Management Services, to send advance copies or notices of the proposed regulations to any concerned state or local government officials and request their comments. When proposed regulations identified as having major intergovernmental significance, are submitted to the Office of Management and Budget for review or are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, they will be accompanied by a brief description of how state and local government officials were involved, the nature of their comments, if any, and how such comments were dealt with.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR CARRIERS WHO REQUEST OPERATING AUTHORITY UNDER EX-PARTE NO. MC 118

AGENCY: Interstate Commerce Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This Notice explains the accounting and reporting requirements that applicants will be required to follow should they request operating authority in accordance with Ex Parte No. MC-118. With the issuance of this order, the Commission is now able to grant motor carrier operating authority to applicants who intend to use it as a supplement to the carriage of their own goods and non-transportation business. Ex Parte MC-118 appears at 43 FR, November 24, 1978, at p. 55051.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 21, 1979.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Bryan Brown, Jr., Tel. (202) 275-6236.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: With the issuance of Ex Parte No. (MC-118), the Commission is now able to grant motor carrier operating authority to an applicant who intends to use it as a supplement to the carriage of its own goods and non-transportation business. MC-118 provides that motor carrier operating authority can be granted to an applicant, provided (1) that the standard criteria for motor common carrier applications or motor contract carrier applications, as the case may be, are met, and (2) that the applicant is agreeable to the imposition of conditions requiring it to conduct its for-hire motor carrier activities and its other activities independently and to maintain separate records for each.

For accounting and reporting purposes, common and contract carriers of property subject to the Interstate Commerce Act are grouped into the following three classes:

Class I—Carriers having annual carrier operating revenues of $3 million or more.

Class II—Carriers having annual carrier operating revenues of $500,000 but less than $3 million.

Class III—Carriers having annual carrier operating revenues of less than $500,000.

The class to which any carrier belongs is determined by annual carrier operating revenue. Any carrier which begins new operations is classified in accordance with a reasonable estimate of its annual carrier operating revenues.

If at the end of any calendar year, a carrier's annual operating revenue exceeds the maximum revenue level for its class, the carrier will be required to comply with the accounting and reporting rules of the higher class. Class II carriers will adopt a Class I classification beginning January 1, of the following year. Class III carriers will adopt a Class II or Class I classification beginning January 1, of the second succeeding year.

Applicants for MC-118 operating authority have no basis for developing reasonable estimates of expected annual operating revenues for accounting and reporting classification purposes. Therefore, all applicants will be classified as Class III motor carriers for their first year of operations. Class III motor carriers are not required to maintain a uniform system of accountants. Class III carriers are required to prepare and file Annual Report Form M-3 in a timely manner.

Carriers with MC-118 operating authority will file Annual Report Form M-3 for the reporting year ending December 31, 1979. These carriers will be reclassified, if necessary, based upon the annual operating revenues reported in Form M-3 for the reporting year ending December 31, 1979. Those carriers reclassified to Class I or Class II motor carriers will not be required to comply with the accounting and reporting requirements of their new classification until January 1, 1981.

H. G. HOMME, Jr.,
Secretary.

ATCHISON, TOPEKA & SANTA FE RAILWAY CO.

Petition for Declaratory Order—Amtrak Supplies

AGENCY: Interstate Commerce Commission.

ACTION: Notice of institution of a declaratory order proceeding.

SUMMARY: A petition was filed by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company (the Santa Fe) for a declaratory order. The National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak) answered and Santa Fe replied.

The dispute concerns the amount of compensation Amtrak should pay the Santa Fe for transporting repair parts, materials, and supplies under a Basic Agreement formulated by the carriers pursuant to sections 401 and 402 of the Rail Passenger Service Act (the Amtrak Act), 45 U.S.C. 501 et seq. Santa Fe submits that at all times it transported Amtrak's shipments as a common carrier of freight under its lawfully published tariff rates. Amtrak submits that charges for the shipments are based on the agreement, and therefore the lawfully published rates were not applicable.

By order served concurrently with this publication, a proceeding is being instituted to resolve this controversy. The order directs participants to address in their statement such specific issues as jurisdiction and legality.

DATES: Interested parties are asked to submit a statement of intent to participate on or before February 26, 1979. Parties should indicate whether they intend to actively participate or whether they merely wish to receive copies of decisions and releases of the Commission.

Active participants must serve copies of their statements on all parties on the service list. An original and six copies of written statements must be filed with the Commission. An original and one copy of the statement of intent to participate must also be filed.

The filing and service of statements shall be as follows: (a) opening statements on or before March 19, 1979, (b) reply statements on or before April 9, 1979. A service list will be sent to all active participants to enable them to comply with the filing deadline.

ADDRESSES: Statements and replies should be sent to: Office of Proceedings, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Janice M. Rosenak, or Harvey

Gobetz, Section of Rates, Office of Proceedings, Washington, D.C. 20423 (202-275-7693).

CORPORATE DISCLOSURE REPORTS

Request for Comments and Recommendations

AGENCY: Interstate Commerce Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission's Bureau of Accounts is announcing by this Notice that it will consider changes for the Corporate Disclosure Report.

ADDRESSES: Submit written suggestions to Mr. Bryan Brown, Jr., Chief, Section of Accounting and Reporting, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Bryan Brown, Jr., Telephone (202) 275-7331.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION: In Docket 36141, Corporate Disclosure Regulations, served June 17, 1977, the Commission required all carriers with annual gross operating revenues of $20 million or more to file an annual Corporate Disclosure Supplement beginning with the year 1977. Docket No. 36141 appears at 42 FR, July 12, 1977, at p. 35853.

The purpose of this reporting requirement was to furnish the Commission with timely and accurate information on carrier ownership and control to help identify possible conflicts of interest, misuse of insider information, exertion of undue influence facilitated by concentration of control, and other similar problems contrary to the public interest.

The Bureau of Accounts has established a policy of analyzing accounting and reporting requirements to (1) determine the adequacy of the reporting, (2) determine the sufficiency of the instructions and reporting format to obtain the required data and (3) evaluate the continuing need for the data.

It is the intent of this Notice to determine the following:

(1) Who uses the information in the corporate disclosure reports, and why?
(2) How is the information used?

(3) Does the report accomplish its purpose?

(4) What changes are recommended to improve the usefulness of the data?

(5) What part of the information, if any, should be published and why?

All interested parties are requested to furnish responses to the above inquiries, together with other pertinent comments, by February 16, 1979.

By the Commission.

H. G. HOMME, Jr.,
Secretary.

MOTOR CARRIER BOARD TRANSFER PROCEEDINGS

The following publications include motor carrier, water carrier, broker, and freight forwarder transfer applications filed under Section 212(b), 206(a), 211, 312(b), and 410(g) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Each application (except as otherwise specifically noted) contains a statement by applicants that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of the application.

Protests against approval of the application, which may include request for oral hearing, must be filed with the Commission, on or before March 7, 1979. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest must be served upon applicants' representative(s), or applicants (if no such representative is named), and the protestant must certify that such service has been made.

Unless otherwise specified, the signed original and six copies of the protest shall be filed with the Commission. All protests must specify with particularity the factual basis, and the section of the Act, or the applicable rule governing the proposed transfer which protestant believes would preclude approval of the application. If the protest contains a request for oral hearing, the request shall be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence sought to be presented cannot reasonably be submitted through the use of affidavits.

MARINE SANITATION DEVICES

Certifications Granted

The purpose of this document is to notify interested persons that the Commandant, U.S. Coast Guard, has certified the design of certain marine sanitation devices in accordance with §159.15 of the U.S. Coast Guard Marine Sanitation Device Regulations (33 CFR, Part 159) and has authorized the manufacturer to label the devices so certified in accordance with the provisions of 33 CFR 159.16.

When the Coast Guard determines that a device successfully satisfies the Design, Construction, and Testing requirements of Subpart C of 33 CFR, Part 159, the manufacturer is authorized by the Coast Guard to label each device that he manufactures that is in all material respects substantially the same as the test device. This label includes the certification number assigned to the device. The roman numeral at the end of the certification number identifies the type of device (I, II, or III) as defined in 33 CFR 159.3. The label serves as the purchaser's verification of the certification on such devices.

Listed below are the certifications issued as of 31 August 1978. Entries under the heading "Vessel Applicability" refer to the status of the devices relative to inspection requirements of Title 46, Subchapters F, J, and T of the Code of Federal Regulations. An entry of "Inspected" indicates that the device has been found to be in compliance with the applicable requirements of the U.S. Coast Guard Marine Engineering Regulations (46 CFR Parts 50 through 64) and U.S. Coast Guard Electrical Engineering Regulations (46 CFR Parts 110 through 113). An entry of "Subchapter T" indicates that the device has been found to be in compliance with the applicable requirements of the U.S. Coast Guard Small Passenger Vessel Regulations (46 CFR Parts 175 through 187). An entry of "Uninspected" indicates that the design of the device either does not meet or was not reviewed for compliance with the above mentioned regulations.

Dated: January 10, 1979.

Federal Highway Administration

[FHWA Docket No. 76-9]

BAYONNE BRIDGE, GOETHALS BRIDGE, GEORGE WASHINGTON BRIDGE, AND OUTER BRIDGE CROSSING TOLLS

Order of the Federal Highway Administrator

By Orders of August 9, 1977, the Administrator issued a decision and order in this proceeding which found that the toll increase instituted in May 1975 by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey (Port Authority) on four New York area bridges to be reasonable and just under section 4 of the General Bridge Act of 1906, 33 U.S.C. 494 (1970 edition). The subject bridges are the Bayonne, Goethals, and George Washington Bridges and the Outerbridge Crossing.

The decision that the existing toll schedule on the subject bridges was reasonable and just required the Port Authority to submit a study concerning the economic feasibility, traffic management and environmental effects, and impact on mass transit of various alternative rate structures of commuter and carpool discounts and of peak-hour pricing. This study was required to be submitted to the Administrator within one year of the date of the final order (November 7, 1977). Upon petition of the Port Authority requesting an extension of time for filing this study, the Administrator by Order of October 19, 1978, extended the date for the submission of the study to January 30, 1979.

This study has now been submitted to the Administrator and was served on all parties by the Port Authority on January 11, 1979. Therefore, in accordance with the Order of August 9, 1977, the parties hereby have 90 days from the date of this Order to submit comments pertaining to this study.

Based upon this study and comments thereon, the Administrator will then dispose of this remaining issue as he deems appropriate in the circumstances.

Issued this 23rd of January 1979.

KARL S. BOWERS,
Federal Highway Administrator.

[FRA Waiver Petition Docket RST-78-3]

ILLINOIS CENTRAL GULF RAILROAD

Petition Regarding Temporary Waiver of Compliance With Track Safety Standards

As required by 45 U.S.C. 431(c) and in accordance with 49 CFR 211.41 and 211.9, notice is hereby given that the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad (ICG) has submitted a waiver petition to the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) seeking a temporary waiver of compliance with 49 CFR Part 213 (Track Safety Standards). That part requires that certain minimum physical conditions for track structure and rails be met in order to assure the safe operation of railroad trains.

The ICG seeks a temporary waiver of compliance with specific provisions of that regulation in order to continue operating trains over a segment of trackage in the State of Indiana. This trackage involves a line of railroad extending from Bloomington, Indiana to Bargersville, Indiana, a distance of approximately 40 miles.

The ICG states that no service is being rendered over this line and that it has embargoed future traffic. Additionally, the ICG states that it has applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) for authority to abandon this line. This abandonment request is identified as ICC Docket AB-43 (Sub. No. 42).

The trackage on this line, according to ICG, does not comply with the provisions of § 213.53 (gage), § 213.55 (alignment) and § 213.109 (cross-ties). The estimated cost for bringing this line into compliance with the FRA's minimum requirements is in excess of one million dollars and ICG indicates that it does not have the financial resources available to it to permit the expenditure of such funds.

In view of the pending abandonment, ICG has not provided any plan for the rehabilitation of this line.

However, ICG has indicated that it will make some effort to correct what it deems critical conditions and has in fact done some work on the track in the area of the Shuffle Creek Bridge. The petitioner notes that discussions have been conducted with the State of Indiana concerning financial assistance for the needed rehabilitation of this line.

The requested waiver would permit the ICG to provide service to the customers on the line for period of time needed to resolve this matter either through abandonment or rehabilitation done with state assistance. Consequently, the ICG seeks a temporary waiver for a period not to exceed June 1, 1979. The scope of the waiver requested by ICG involves the previously identified areas of noncompliance as well as responsibility for potential civil penalties based on prior operation over the line.

Interested persons are invited to participate in this waiver proceeding by submitting written data, views or comments. The FRA does not anticipate scheduling a public hearing in connection with this proceeding since the facts do not appear to warrant a hearing. However, a public hearing will be scheduled if requested in writing by an interested person before February 12, 1979.

All communications concerning this proceeding must identify the appropriate docket number (FRA Waiver Petition RST-78-3) and should be submitted in triplicate to the Docket Clerk, Office of the Chief Counsel, Federal Railroad Administration, 2100 Second Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20590. Communications received before March 2, 1979 will be considered by the FRA before final action is taken. Comments received after that date will be considered to the extent practicable.

The information submitted by ICG concerning this petition and any comments that are received will be on file with the Docket Clerk. This material is available for examination during regular business hours in Room 4406, Trans Point Building, 2100 Second Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20590.

(Sec. 202, Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970, as amended (45 U.S.C. 431); Sec. 1.49(n), Regulations of the Office of the Secretary of Transportation (49 CFR 1.49(n)).

Issued in Washington, D.C. on January 26, 1979.

ROBERT H. WRIGHT,
Acting Chairman,
Railroad Safety Board.

ADVANCED AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE

Change in Public Comment Procedure

On January 22, 1979 (44 FR 4547), the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration published a notice announcing that the Transportation Systems Center will hold a conference on basic research directions for advanced automotive technology at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel on February 13 and 14. The notice stated that there will be three panels to discuss specific topics: engines; fuels and powertrain systems; and vehicle structures and materials. Meetings of these panels will take place simultaneously in the morning and afternoon of February 13, and in the morning of February 14. The conference will convene at 9 a.m. on the first day.

The purpose of this notice is to announce a change of the public comment procedure for the conference and to publish the discussion paper which will serve as the starting point for the panel sessions and for the public comments. The January 22 notice stated that questions and oral comments would be entertained from the audience at certain points in the panel discussions. Public response to that notice has been so extensive, however, that it is believed that the short time available for such questions and comments would preclude the panels from hearing many of the persons who have already indicated their desire to comment during the panel sessions.

To provide an opportunity for all interested persons to make their views known, the Department has decided to change the procedure for public comment at the conference. The public, including persons unable to attend the conference, are invited to submit written statements of up to five pages in length to Ms. Susan Swain at Transportation Systems Center, Kendall Square, Cambridge, Massachusetts, by Monday, February 12, or at the conference before 9 a.m. on Tuesday, February 13. These comments will be summarized and read orally at the end of the day in the appropriate panel sessions. Attachments, regardless of length, to the five-page comments will be accepted. However, the major points must be made within the five-page limit. To ensure the accuracy of the summaries of the written statements, commenters are urged to submit an abstract of their statement of 200 words or less. All of the comments that are received will be made a part of the proceedings of the conference and will be available from the Transportation Systems Center.

The discussion paper for the conference is set forth below. It is requested that commenters restrict their comments to the subjects in that paper.

Questions about the conference may be directed to Ms. Susan Swain at the address given above or by calling 617-494-2392.

Issued on February 1, 1979.

LINDA HELLER KAMM,
General Counsel.

BASIC RESEARCH DIRECTIONS FOR ADVANCED AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY

DISCUSSION PAPER

Introduction

On December 5, 1978, Secretary of Transportation Brock Adams called for a major program to develop a new generation of automotive technology to meet the challenging conditions we will face in the 1990's and beyond. Noting that automobiles will continue to be the major mode of personal transportation for the foreseeable future, he called for a conference of government and industry leaders, members of the research community, and others to discuss what form this program should take, and how it can be implemented.

As one step toward the conference called for by the Secretary, the Department of Transportation has organized a technical meeting in Boston, Massachusetts on February 13 and 14 to discuss basic research directions for advanced automotive technology. The purpose of the conference is to obtain views from knowledgeable and interested people from various fields and institutions on the basic research objectives and priorities that would help to create a pool of technological options which automobile manufacturers can develop and commercialize in vehicles meeting the automotive transportation needs and conditions in the 1985 to 2000 time frame.

The fundamental aspects of automobile and light truck design and technology, and federal government automotive regulatory requirements, are essentially set through model year 1985. Although there will be major changes in them, the 1985 motor vehicles will not be particularly unfamiliar:

They will probably be powered by conventional gasoline or Diesel engines driving through multi-speed transmissions, and will use today's fuels;

Nearly all structural parts of the body and chassis will probably still be made of steel, although there will be increased use of aluminum and plastics for nonstructural components; and Front-wheel drive vehicles will probably become more prevalent.

For the purposes of the Boston meeting, the 1985 downsized motor vehicle, with an electronically controlled internal combustion engine, perhaps turbocharged, will be taken to represent the baseline state of the art.

Looking beyond 1985, some obvious general areas where further improvement in the motor vehicle system may be needed include:

energy requirements,
safety to users and others,
environmental effects,

reliability and durability,
the cost of manufacture, ownership, and use.

By 1985, we will not have exhausted the potential for improvements in motor vehicle performance based on currently known technologies. However, further improvement beyond that date will be far more limited than it is today if we do not now take steps to: (1) expand our basic knowledge and understanding of the principles behind the technologies used in motor vehicles, and (2) generate new ideas for the technology of the next generation of motor vehicles.

The central question to be addressed at the Boston meeting is: What basic research is needed to provide a foundation for a successful national policy to reduce the country's dependence on imported petroleum, consistent with our national goals of improved highway safety, improved air quality, and continuing freedom of personal mobility at reasonable cost?

Beyond defining the vehicle performance characteristics that may be important in the 1990's, we must be sensitive to the practical constraints involved in automotive transportation. Automobiles and light trucks are popular consumer products, and as such must be low cost, durable units that can be serviced in the field. Large numbers of automobiles are built each year and they are used by people of all levels of skill and concern for them.

There are many systems in a motor vehicle and a number of technology choices for virtually all of them. The Boston meeting is designed to gather ideas on what basic research questions must be addressed in order to catalyze advances in existing technologies and the adoption of new technologies to improve the performance characteristics of motor vehicles beyond what is currently contemplated. In this process it will be important to recognize and assess the current, ongoing research and development programs of the federal government, the automobile industry, and independent research institutions and to identify other promising research directions.

When this has been done, more specific basic research programs can be defined. Priorities among these programs can then be established on the basis of their scope, their likelihood of success, the potential contribution of each program to the success of a technology that would enhance motor vehicle performance, and the value given such performance by society.

At the Boston meeting, we would like to have participants provide and discuss their ideas on basic research projects and priorities. Three panels have been formed for the meeting, and the remainder of this paper will discuss each of them.

PANEL A: ENGINES

Scope.

This panel will discuss basic research needs for heat engines. The scope of discussion will include any engine that utilizes combustible fuels to generate mechanical energy through a thermodynamic cycle, and that is suitable for use in an automobile or light truck. Research areas would include the nature of the thermodynamic cycle; combustion processes, emissions, and related factors; engine configurations; engine materials and associated manufacturing processes; diagnostic and control systems; and any other areas of research that could have direct implications for the performance of heat engines.

Research Goals.

Heat engine technology affects a number of motor vehicle performance characteristics: fuel economy, emissions, driveability, cost of production and maintenance, and vehicle size and weight, to name some of the more important ones. The engine characteristics that affect these performance attributes include thermal efficiency, combustion completeness, susceptibility to after-treatment of emissions, internal friction and other parasitic losses, flexibility and transient responses, external size, and weight.

Research goals to be addressed by this panel are for the conception and development of practical technologies to improve these characteristics.

Current Research Directions

In the late 1960's continuous combustion engines such as the Rankine (steam), Stirling, and gas turbine engines were under active investigation because of their low exhaust emission potential. In the mid-1970's the goals were changed to emphasize fuel economy and multi-fuel capability. These programs were initiated to provide alternatives to the conventional spark ignition and Diesel engines that were then in production. In parallel with this activity, numerous development programs were undertaken on internal combustion engines that have resulted in substantial improvements in their fuel economy and exhaust emission characteristics.

The fuel economy potential of the Stirling and gas turbine engines is directly dependent upon the availability of materials that can withstand prolonged exposure to high temperature gases. In the case of the Stirling engine, materials that can contain hydrogen gas while transferring heat rapidly are needed. Material requirements for some key engine components are quite severe, and research is currently underway on high temperature super alloys and ceramics to advance continuous heat engine technology.

The attainable fuel economy and emission limits of vehicles powered by internal combustion engines are dependent on the states of knowledge and development in thermodynamics, engine configuration, gas heat transfer, liquid atomization, and chemical kinetics. Materials do not limit the efficiency of internal combustion engines because they are not subject to high heat loads. During the past ten years, advances in internal combustion engine technology, including catalytic converters, precision fuel metering, turbo-charging, electronic engine controls, alternative configurations (such as the rotary engine), and systems to vary the basic engine parameters (such as valve timing, compression, and even the number of cylinders that are in operation) have been based on a preexisting research base. Few resources have been expended on long term basic research. Current research and development on internal combustion engines is directed toward near term technological improvements to meet statutory performance requirements.

Illustrative Heat Engine Research

A number of studies have identified key research needs for the advancement of automotive propulsion technology including the following:

Combustion Related Research. To provide a basic understanding and insight into the chemical and physical processes that control combustion and the formation of pollutants in heat engines.

Fluid Mechanics. To provide a basic understanding of heat, mass, and momentum transfer and their effect on thermodynamic processes within heat engines.

Materials Research. To provide a basic understanding and insight into metallurgy, ceramics, and chemistry to identify improved materials with high temperature and other characteristics needed for heat engines.

Tribology Research. To provide a basic understanding of friction mechanisms under various material, surface, and lubrication conditions so as to be able to reduce engine/drivetrain friction losses.

PANEL B: FUELS AND POWERTRAIN SYSTEMS

Scope.

The panel on fuels and powertrain systems will discuss the basic research needs relating to the motor vehicle powertrain system and the tailoring of fuels for it. The most efficient and least environmentally degrading use of available energy resources is a function of the complex relationship between the energy source, the refined fuel, and the powertrain. Many research questions therefore arise regarding how the source and refining of fuels (or generation of electricity) help to determine the most desirable technology for the vehicle powertrain. Other research questions for this panel will be concerned with on-board energy storage (of fuel or electricity), mechanical and electrical energy conversion (transmissions and motors), regenerative systems, and other questions relating to powertrain technology.

Research Goals.

The choice of a fuel/powertrain system for a vehicle will obviously affect the fuel or energy economy of the vehicle. That choice can also have an important effect on the acquisition or developmental costs for the energy resources, and environmental costs, and can affect trade balances.

Thus, the specific research goals to be addressed by this panel include improving the matching of energy resource and powertrain technology for greater overall efficiency, better tailoring of fuels to engine characteristics, improving on-board energy storage systems such as batteries and hydrogen storage mechanisms, raising the efficiency of conversion of mechanical and electrical energy, and control and other systems for electric and hybrid vehicles.

Current Research Directions.

During the past several years major research and development efforts have been undertaken to tailor lead-free and low sulfur petroleum derived fuels for use in internal combustion engines equipped with catalytic converters for emission control. Additional research and development programs are under way on wide range and continuously variable transmissions, and electric and hybrid-electric vehicles. The latter work includes extensive research and development on batteries, electric motors, and electric motor controls. With the exception of the work on electric and hybrid vehicles and the continuously variable transmission, the great majority of these programs have been planned for relatively near term commercialization.

There have also been many studies of energy sources, refinement, and conversion for use in transportation. Illustrative Fuel/Powertrain Related Research.

A number of studies have identified key research needs for the advancement and optimization of the fuel/powertrain system. These include:

Fuel Composition and Combustion Studies. To develop fundamental understanding and insight into the chemical and physical processes that control combustion behavior over a broad range of operating conditions to identify problems associated with combustion, fuel composition, and fuel quality.

Fuel Synthesis. To provide insight into the fundamental thermodynamic, kinetic, and processing aspects of the conversion paths in the extraction and refinement of transportation fuel from its source.

Electrochemical Studies. To develop a basic understanding of the energy loss mechanisms involved in charge/discharge cycles of appropriate electrochemical couples to identify the potential for optimization of high energy and power density batteries.

PANEL C: VEHICLE STRUCTURES AND MATERIALS

Scope.

This panel will discuss basic research directions affecting all aspects of the motor vehicle technology other than powertrains. This will include the basic layout or configuration of a vehicle (the placement and relationship of its components), its structure and crash energy absorption mechanisms, chassis components (wheels, tires, brakes, steering, and so on), occupant crash protection systems, and the materials used to construct the vehicle.

The research areas for this panel will include new applications of known materials, composite materials and other combined material systems, designs for structural rigidity and for crash energy management, biomechanics and occupant restraints, friction and adhesion characteristics of materials corrosion and fatigue resistance, and the scraggage and recycling potential of vehicle components.

Research Goals.

The central research challenge in the areas of vehicle structures and materials is to facilitate further resizing and weight reduction without compromising vehicle function, convenience, comfort, durability or reliability, while improving occupant safety and reducing hazards to impacted pedestrians.

To achieve these objectives, the research goals are to find light weight materials or material systems that are derived from plentiful resources and that can be used for rigid and durable structures and for energy absorbing components in the vehicle. Research into fastening methods could enhance the applicability of certain materials to vehicle use.

Other types of basic research on material properties may also be able to help meet the objectives for vehicle systems. These could include materials for tire construction to improve strength, traction, and rolling resistance without sacrificing treadlife. Research may also go into the reduction of parasitic losses such as from friction and aerodynamic drag.

Basic research in manufacturing technologies would also be useful because new materials frequently present new manufacturing challenges. Current Research Directions

The current programs of vehicle downsizing to meet Federal fuel economy requirements have resulted in a substantial amount of materials development work in plastics and high strength low alloy steels. There is also some basic research into composite materials. Composite plastics such as fiberglass have been used in new prototype and production applications for such things as wheels, engine supports, and side door beams.

New concepts for energy absorption have also been developed for both low speed impact damage and high speed crash energy management. One of the most promising for both is foam filled structures where the material containing the foam is either a plastic or sheet metal.

There have been several interesting recent developments in tire technology. The beadless, geodesic tire is probably one of the most advanced tire concepts available today to achieve high levels of performance with low weight. Other concepts for run-flat performance and bead retention have been developed, and new materials for tire cord have been introduced into production in recent years.

Some other major research and development initiatives that are currently underway are in the area of vehicle design and test methods using computers, and manufacturing techniques for new materials.

Illustrative Vehicle Structures and Materials Research

A number of studies have identified various multidisciplinary research needs for advances in structures and materials including the following:

Structural Mechanics Research. To provide an understanding of the loads sustained by vehicles, components and occupants during the normal operation and collisions of them so that greater design efficiency and safety can be achieved.

Materials Science and Engineering. To provide an understanding of the relationship between composition, microstructure and engineering properties of materials that may be used in vehicles and how these properties vary under the conditions of processing and service. Also, to provide improved experimental techniques that would reduce uncertainties in material and system behavior in manufacture and service.

Biomechanics Research. To provide insight into the biomechanical stresses imposed on occupants of vehicles, particularly in crashes, to establish relationships between injury, test specification, vehicle design, and the crash environment.
