

I send my letter to Mrs Brooks think you may see it & the Protest licked state & had no time to copy it - show it to Dear Garrison & Mann
 Oct 1845
 Deborah Ann Stone

enclose it in Mrs Brooks letter & send by mail your name up to Sat - noon - my letter to Wendell contains the outline of the Anti-Slavery battle - I send you copy the Protest for you - we are fighting a your fight - & it is as pretty a ground as you ever saw - the richness of the getting up is indistinguishable - Capt Merrill when asked to give a reason for doing proposed action said that he would not do "to quote Shakespeare reasons were as plenty as huckleberries" - being asked he said - "both were it just the same - huckleberries & blackberries are one" - Joseph - "has no professor - but he noticed many pious men present who were - they were laughing at him for a conscientious expression of his opinion & because he was trying in a case where his duty would plainly to him to do change it -" he was drawn upon them with Jesus Christ - & the day of Judgment - Nov 5 / 1845

Wendell will show you his letter I sealed it by accident will over with us the old thing about annual emanation - "ten bands niggers" - "great scarcity for niggers" - & other elegancies - on Tuesday the final explosion will take place - the universal protest will be given - and the business will be mercifully settled - we should not go any distance from the as the business stands now none ought to go who has not power to speak or vote - the others only go to protest and resign -

When this affair will be made public we shall publish our protest in all the papers &c - Now mark - as soon as you get this go to the Liberator office & tell Garrison - not to publish any thing that I think may hurt the cause - I think is not in the counsel of the abolitionists - and his reason would be such as to do harm in doubt only - he has not been at any of the meetings - & the public has better have the story from those who have through the bottles. We will write as soon as is proper to the Liberator and Standard. — I send by the next bundle — the black Cassel that was left in the front Chamber also Deborah's coat that hangs up in the upper back entry — also my tooth brush that I left in my confession — If you send these letters to Weymouth as I suppose you will — they will seem here written ~~with~~ I believe they did not ~~write~~ ~~with~~ ~~any~~ ~~of~~ — I know they did not send my flannel to us there was the principal thing I want or else — the striped one by which contain on the things — I am afraid they will be burnt — Mrs. letter was very rich I don't feel as if they would be burnt up but they may Charles Morgan could not face up but went off to Philadelphia a Dove white freedom or the Lycium meeting Monday morning Greatest Sunday after noon James Boydon came to Mr. Brewster and said the mistake he had made is not going right at first - that is in making things & trying to save the credit of the Lycium at the expense of the truth. He begged to place his name on the Protest which he did - thus justifying our prediction - I have felt very anxious of course having to manage all this business quite this document with out advice or assistance but a man can but do his best - My grand son must have chosen a very low or Hasbrouck - when the Brethren returned from the Saturday meeting - Mr. B. told me they had signed & read the Protest, which was a few verbal alterations - I was frightened - I looking at them found that they changed "most" to "greatly" & one more of equal moment - "Wh. said I greatly relieved - "they have left me any" in no way I feared they had taken their money" -

While the Lyceum meeting was going on Sat. evening we were at the A. S. Slowing meeting it was well attended & went off well - but the best of the joke was that Debra went & called on Miss Williams & invited her to meet with us which she was very glad to do & said she had so much time running on her hands - she could do a great deal for the fair - Kitteridge went too - she fool as she was - but that was not our business - Our school flourishes - as yet - but the bitterness of this hatred & malice is in the families of our pupils - this morning Joe has taken the

MS. A. 9. 2. 1. 63

protest to get open it to Ephraim Penhony for signature - it will worry Ephraim - awfully -

Dear Anna - I pray you to divine your favor in mine very carefully - It be true to do with great caution all that is done for now the cause holds together depends very much in my name upon my walking alone but upon a real affectionate desire to uphold all who pertain to us.
If we win over this Grand shameful Job - above all in preparing any article for publication let its perbance be unexceptionable I receive the Christian Register today for the first time & I was sorry that the word "humboldt" was in the article about Dr Parkman - It is of no great importance - but it comes under the ~~circumstances~~ the head of "Let Men left to shift for themselves &c" - come what may elegance be good even to the unthankful & the evil as your father in Heaven is; I hear with Ellis patiently perhaps he will do better than we hope & alone think that he is had at heart - he has a conscience I rather think - at any rate he is going abroad & will be clear of this coast soon - above all take care of your beauty for the coming fair there is great searching of hearts on the subject - don't set up night - I have your gown pelisse bonnet of the most recherche & becoming description, get all the works you can out of wardrobe and people without putting any thing of consequence into their hands -

Don't let the Prince disgrace himself in the liberty bell - exercise the great with caution with respect to vulgarity in the bell - = Don't let in any blabby folks - be sure to burn this letter for I don't intend my country or my solicitude for your beauty & goodness for the benefit of either Catherine Parthen the cabal clique or the public generally

The Protest goes on well - Shows a green sign it - and Ben Rotch - and Ephraim will have the trouble of refusing if Joe seen little soul - lived the noon, of which there is some doubt - The Memorial Board & we think as this paper may be very generally signed it is important to say nothing of its authorship -

I hope you will make use all this for we are in such a state of interruption & commotion that we have no time to breathe our School proceeds with the most even tranquillity - but all the rest is one for me & Harry & you
