REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE CHINESE SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION

(Adopted at the Annual Meeting on December 17th, 1926)

ARTICLE I. NAME.

This Association shall be known as the Chinese Social and Political Science Association.

ARTICLE II. OBJECTS.

The objects of this Association shall be

- (1) The encouragement of the study of the social and political sciences;
- (2) The promotion of fellowship among persons interested in the above sciences.

ARTICLE III. QUALIFICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Any person who is interested in or identified with any branch of the social and political sciences shall be eligible for membership in the Association.

ARTICLE IV. PRIVILEGES.

Members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Association.

ARTICLE V. RESOURCES OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The resources of the Association shall consist of

- (1) Endowments, gifts, legacies, etc. to the Association;
- (2) Membership fees and other forms of income.

Funds and properties included in group (1) shall be administered by the Executive Council of the Association, subject to such condition as may be attached thereto.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS AND THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

The Officers of the Association shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall be elected annually, and of an Executive Council consisting ex-officio of the officers above mentioned and six elected members, whose term of office shall be three years. These elected members shall be divided into three groups of two each, the term of office of the members of one of the three groups expiring each year.

All officers shall be nominated by a Nomination Committee composed of three members appointed by the Executive Council.

All officers shall be elected by a majority vote of the members of the Association present at the meeting at which the elections are held.

ARTICLE VII. DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS AND THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

The President of the Association shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Executive Council and shall perform such other duties as the Executive Council may assign to him. In his absence, his duties shall devolve successively upon the Vice-Presidents in the order of their election, upon the Secretary and upon the Treasurer.

The Secretary shall keep the records and take charge of the correspondence of the Association and perform such other duties as the Executive Council may assign to him.

The Treasurer shall receive, have custody and make disbursements of the funds of the Association, subject to the provisions of Article V.

The Executive Council shall have charge and direction of all the funds, properties and general interests of the Association.

The Executive Council shall have the power to fill vacancies in its membership occasioned by death, resignation or otherwise for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE VIII. QUORUMS.

Five members shall constitute a quorum of the Executive Council and a majority vote of those in attendance shall control its decisions.

Twenty members shall constitute a quorum of the Association and a majority vote of those in attendance shall control its decisions.

ARTICLE IX. AMENDMENTS.

Amendments to this Constitution shall be proposed by the Executive Council and adopted by a majority vote of the members present at an annual meeting of the Association or at a special meeting called for the purpose.

BYE-LAWS

1. The members of the Association shall be of three classes, namely: Life members, Resident members, and non-Resident members. A life member shall pay a fee of One Hundred Dollars; a resident member an annual fee of Ten Dollars; and Non-resident member an annual fee of Six Dollars.

2. Each new member shall be proposed by one member and seconded by two others and approved by the Executive Council.

3. Each member shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the Association, to use the books of the Library of the Association, and also to receive a copy of each issue of The Chinese Social and Political Science Review published by the Association in addition to such other privileges as may later be available.

4. Any person who makes to the Association a donation of Two Hundred Dollars or upwards, or the equivalent thereof, may become of the invitation of the Executive Council a Donation Member and be entitled to all the privileges of the Association.

5. Meetings of the Association may be held once a month or more often.

6. Amendments of the Bye-laws may be made at any regular or special meeting of the Association.

LIBRARY RULES

(Revised by the Board of Management of the Library on September 28th, 1934)

- 1 — The Library is open to all members of the Association, and to guests introduced by them, on week days from 9 to 12 a.m. and from 2 to 6 p.m., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 p.m.
- 2 — Guests not residing in Peiping may be introduced on written recommendation of a member in good standing. A book is provided in which the names and addresses of each guest and of the member introducing him must be recorded.
- 3 — Members residing in Peiping who have paid in full their membership dues and guests introduced by them may draw from the library at one time not more than two volumes except reference books and valuable works which the Board of Management may withhold from use outside the library. Books so taken out must be registered with the Librarian. Every member may introduce not more than two guests who shall be entitled to such Library privileges
- 4 — Books drawn by members or guests may be kept for two weeks with the privilege for renewal for another two weeks at the discretion of the Librarian. A fine of ten cents per day shall be incurred for each volume kept beyond the period allowed.
- 5 — No person borrowing a book from the library shall write in or mark any book belonging to the library, or turn down the leaves, or otherwise deface it. If any book is lost, one and a half times the actual cost of the volume, or of the set, if the book is one of a set, must be paid by the borrower to the Librarian.
