

Post-Edit Peer Review Form
Name of Student Reviewer:
Date of Review
Name of editor
URL of editor's Userpage
Reference page number in Schultz & Schultz
Permanent URL on PsycInfo of article
Item	Points	Points Earned
Evidence of posting ahead of the edit on the talk page	1 point
Signed post on talk page	1 point
Each response to questions on talk page	1 point
Sandbox with intended edit	1 point
Number of sentences in edit	1 point
Appropriate image in edit	1 point
Appropriate link to another Wikipedia page or external page	1 point
Textbook based reference information correct	1 point
Research article based reference information correct	1 point
Research article is empirical	1 point
Research article is peer-reviewed	1 point
Research article is primary	1 point
Reference and footnote formatted correctly	1 point
Each response on talk page after edit	1 point
Student made changes to article in response to editor comment	1 point
Each editor change to student's edit	minus 1 point
Fancy formatting (1 point for each up to 3 points for each: new section	3 points

w/ heading; bulleted list; numbered list etc)
Total	-----	