NOTICE.—The public is informed that the partnership therefore existing between Ed. L'Hotte and A. Marion was dissolved by mutual consent, on the 10th of June 1835.

Ed. L'Hotte is alone empowered to settle the accounts of the partnership.

Ed. L'Hotte has this opportunity to inform the public that he has recently opened a Bay St. Louis, opposite the wharf, an establishment known by the appellation of Bel Air Hotel.

The advantageous situation of this hotel, its proximity to the landing place are too well known to require further explanations.

Madame L'Hotte justly appreciated by the great care she always took of her borders, and by the attention she paid to the visitors in all the public houses she has represented and assisted the Marine Hotel in New Orleans, will take charge of the interior department of the establishment.

Mr. L'Hotte will endeavor to give every comfort to persons visiting his hotel, when he placed himself so that they will find comfort, cleanliness, good fare and attention.

He has arranged a good cook, transient and permanent boudoir, tables d'hôte, with wine at very modest rates.

ED. L'HOTTE.

MANDEVILLE HOTEL

This undesignated informs his friends and the public that on the 1st of June, he will be ready to receive in his establishment all persons who may favor him with their visits, and receive boarders. To persons acquainted with the aspects situation of the establishment, a description of it is superfluous, but the subscriber desires proper posture to the public its many advantages.

Mandeville is situated in 50 miles distance from New Orleans on the Lake Pontchartrain. The New Orleans is about 10 or 15 feet above high water mark, and the purity of the air excludes all contagious diseases. There is abundant fishing and plenty of game.
All provisions, wines, liquors &c. of the last quality will be spared to afford comfort and pleasure to visitors. To that end the subscriber has provided boats, pirogues, flat bottomed boats, and a place for picnics. Two steam boats plying alternately between New Orleans and Mandeville, and making the trip in 8-10 hours will keep up a constant communication. Nothing so necessary in the heat of summer has been provided. A large wharf makes the landing easy and safe.

For the time of starting of the boat, see the advertisement of the steamboat Delta.
