The GOOD EATING.

In this country, where the arts are daily making such rapid progress, the collinary at has hitherto been neglected—pastry, especially, has never been undertaken on an extended scale. It is true great many articles of that kind are daily imported from Europe; but the high prices asked for these delicacies, prevent great many nersons from enjoying them: and when a such rapid progress, the collinary at has hitherto been neglected—pastry, especially, has never been undertaken on an extended scale.
