ALBERNI LANDMARK DESTROYED BY FIRE

Alberni, Feb. 16.—The building occupied by H. J. Walton's Pool Room and J. Collette's Barber Shop was completely gutted by fire at 10 o'clock last night.

Fire was discovered as a number of young people were on their way home and they immediately turned in an alarm, to which the Volunteer Fire Department responded promptly, but it was seen to be a hopeless task to save the building, which belongs to Mike Carlin.

Mr. Walton, who occupied a room in the rear of the pool room, had a very narrow escape, getting out in his undershirt and trousers only.

Messrs. Walton and Taylor, the proprietors of the pool room, lost everything, as it is understood there was practically no insurance carried. Mr. Collette did not fare quite so badly, as most of his goods were saved, although somewhat damaged by water. In addition to the stock, tables, etc., Mr. Walton lost in the neighborhood of $100 in paper money and all his clothes.

A football match was played in Port Alberni Sunday afternoon between teams representing Alberni and Port Alberni, and resulted in a draw, each side scoring twice.

J. G. C. Wood, formerly member in the local House is a visitor in Alberni, the guest of Capt. and Mrs. Hodgson.

ELECTION DEMANDED BY LEADER KING

The Liberal Chieftain Says Meighen Government Lacks Mandate

NO AUTHORITY TO DEAL WITH TARIFF

House Hears Meighen First Time as Prime Minister

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—The Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition joined in battle in the House of Commons yesterday on the direct issue of an appeal to the people.

It came during the debate on the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne. The mover and seconder had made their speeches along the usual lines, when Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, at the close of nearly two hours' speaking, moved an amendment, expressing direct non-confidence, and declaring that retention of office by the Government "constitutes a usurpation of the powers of popular government."

The debate was followed with the keenest attention. The public galleries were packed. Practically every seat in the House was filled, and, as point after point was made, there were cheers and counter cheers from either side.

Cheered.
When he arose Mr. King was greeted with cheers from the Liberal side of the House. He tendered sincere compliments to Mr. McIsaac of Quebec, the mover, and to Mr. McKeibly, Yale, B. C., the seconder of the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne.

He also congratulated Premier Meighen on his attainment of his present position, and then launched into his demand for an election. "By what right," he asked, "does my right honorable friend presume to carry on the government of this country?" That, he declared, was the question which the leader of the Government must answer before consideration could be taken to any of the lesser matters mentioned in the Speech from the Throne.

Changes.
Significant changes had taken place since Parliament prorogued. The Government of Sir Robert Borden was a war administration, concerned solely with the winning of the war. On its character, personnel and purpose, it had been supported by the people. The Government which met Parliament today was an entirely new and advanced last session by the Leader of the Opposition were absent because they had all ceased to be true. The amendment this year did not advance should go to the country. The present Government was in office by the same right as any other Government, either of the Dominion or the provinces. It was in office by a majority of the votes of the people.

Meighen's Speech.

Mr. Meighen, when he arose after adjournment, was greeted with cheers from the Government members. "My desire," he said, "is to extract as fairly as I can what there is of substance in the attack on the Government delivered by the Leader of the Opposition." Mr. Meighen said he would endeavor to extract this information in a manner at least understandable to the House.

The present Government was honestly doing its duty by the people, he declared. Mr. King's amendment, said the Premier, did not mean anything and the reasons advanced last session by the Leader of the Opposition were absent because they had all ceased to be true. The amendment this year did not advance should go to the country. The present Government was in office by the same right as any other Government, either of the Dominion or the provinces. It was in office by a majority of the votes of the people.

In Accord.
Replying to the claim that this Government should go to the country because it had chosen a new Prime Minister, Mr. Meighen said that, in point of character, purpose and aim, the present Government was in full accord with the Government it succeeded.

To the assertion that the Government did not have a mandate because several of the members of the former administration had retired, the Premier said it might as well be argued that because a member of the Government died the Government had lost the confidence of the people. Never before in the history of Canada had any Government been so well supported by so many ex-Ministers, he said.

Problems.
In admitting that the 1917 election was fought on a carry-on-the-war issue, Mr. Meighen said that that did not mean that the Government's work was done now. Many problems arising out of the war still remained to be dealt with. "This Government's duty is not yet done," he said.

The Prime Minister referred to soldier re-employment as not yet being completed, although more had been done in Canada than in any other country. If the country was

ASK MORE FOR CATTLE KILLED

Calgary, Feb. 16.—Requesting the Dominion Government to increase the basis of compensation for grade dairy cows slaughtered after the tuberculin test, from $80 to $120, a resolution was carried by unanimous vote at a meeting of the Calgary and District Milk Producers' Association here Tuesday. The actual compensation paid is two-thirds of eighty at the present time, the owner retaining the carcass after slaughter.

HARDING MUST PAY INCOME TAX

Washington, Feb. 16.—Warren G. Harding, as president of the United States, will receive something like $18,000 less compensation from the government annually than Woodrow Wilson has received. The treasury will pay Mr. Harding the same amount that it pays Mr. Wilson, $75,000 annually, but internal revenue bureau officials say that Mr. Harding must return nearly one-fourth of this in income tax. President Wilson came into office before the enactment of the 1916 revenue laws, affecting the president and federal judges.

LOCAL OFFICERS

ATTEND FUNCTION

Canadian Scottish Battalion Holds Anniversary Dinner

Vancouver, Feb. 16.—To celebrate the sixth anniversary of the landing of the 16th Battalion in France, the survivors of that famous unit in Vancouver gathered at a dinner on Monday night. There were sorry gaps in the family circle, but the hundred and fifty ex-members of the battalion present entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion. The dinner was voted a great success.

"Originals" Present.
Not for a long time have so many of the well-known figures in the old battalion been gathered together. "Gus" Lyons, "Sandy" Urquhart, "Syd" Johnson and "Dad" Hart were over from Victoria, and "Jack" Leckie, "Casey" Jones, Corporal Camp and "Wullie" Williamson, each famous in some way, were on hand. Of the original officers who sailed from Quebec in 1914 with the battalion there were eight present. These were: Major-General R. G. E. Leckie, C. M. G., original commanding officer; Colonel J. E. Leckie, C. M. G., D. S. O., O. B. E.; Lieut.-Col. H. M. Urquhart, D. S. O., M. C.; Major R. H. Tupper, Major S. D. Armour, D. S. O.; Major G. H. Davis, Captain J. Mac Reid, M. C., and Captain V. A. MacLean, M. C.

Toast to Fallen.
"All our honors and decorations are less than their reward, and all our sacrifice is as nothing to their sacrifice," said Lieut.-Col. Urquhart, in proposing the toast to "Fallen Comrades." The men who had passed on had left a wonderful and glorious tradition. They had made the battalion one of the most famous in the British army.

The toast was drunk in silence after Piper Gordon Ross had played the famous lament, "Flowers of the Forest."

The toast of "Our Guests" was proposed by R.S.-M. W. C. Byng. He stated that he had a pretty speech prepared, but had forgotten it. He welcomed the guests briefly and hoped that they would be present at future reunions.

Brig.-Gen. J. M. Ross, C. M. G., D. S. O., in replying, stated that his duties made it necessary for him to attend many such gatherings, but none were more enjoyable than the Canadian Scottish dinners.

"The Battalion."
In proposing the toast of "The Battalion," Lieut. M. Rutherford eulogized the work of the 16th. He declared that the battalion had worthily upheld the traditions of the Cameron, Seaforth, Gordons and Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, the Canadian battalions of which had each contributed to the original Canadian Scottish.

General Leckie in reply voiced his pleasure at seeing so many of the old originals on hand.

Several impromptu speeches were made later on in the evening. In these Gus Lyons, Jack Leckie and many others scored distinct hits.

The guests were: Brig.-Gen. J. M. Ross, C. M. G., D. S. O.; Brig.-Gen. J. A. Clark, C. M. G., D. S. O.; Major Alex. Wilson, D. S. O.; Major D. B. Martyn, D. S. O., M. C.; Lieut.-Col. John McMillan and Henry Bell-Irving.

WANT LARGER SUM FOR UNIVERSITY

Governors of B. C. University Wish More From Government

Vancouver, Feb. 16.—The Board of Governors of the University of British Columbia is dissatisfied with the amount of the grant promised by the Government, and at a special meeting held last night instructed L. S. Klinek, President, to make inquiries from other universities on the question. President Klinek, who said the Board would not divulge the amount of the grant, will report the result of his investigations of other universities to the Governors, who will then send a delegation to interview the Minister of Education with a view to obtaining a larger sum.

BOLSHEVIK REGIME SCORED BY SPEAKERS AT MOSCOW FUNERAL

London, Feb. 16.—In his account of the funeral at Moscow of Prince Kropotkin, Russian author and revolutionary leader, The Herald's Moscow correspondent says that some of the speakers used the occasion to criticize the Russian Bolsheviki Government. Particularly bitter, he added, were the anarchists, but the Social Revolutionaries also spoke freely. Emma Goldman was among the funeral orators.

OPINIONS ON STREET CAR FARE DIFFER IN TWIN CITIES

Port Arthur, Ont., Feb. 16.—Hon. Harry Mills, Minister of Mines, has been asked by the cities of Port Arthur and Fort William to sponsor a bill in the Ontario Legislature empowering the cities to charge a seven-cent fare on the street railways. Last night the Fort William Trades and Labor Council passed a resolution advising Mr. Mills against such action.

SEARCH FOR AGED MAN NEAR BARNET

Vancouver, Feb. 16.—A piece torn from a slipper, believed to have been worn by S. B. Netherby, an aged man, who disappeared from his home at 1842 Venables Street a week ago, was the sole reward of the work yesterday of officers Hann and McGill of the city police patrol boat and Constable Markland of the provincial police. The portion of slipper was found just above high water mark near the plans of the Canadian Explosives Company at Barnet. Dragging operations were commenced yesterday and it was during an inspection of the shore line that the piece of leather was found.

MEMBER FOR YALE HEARD AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—Delivering his maiden speech in the Commons yesterday afternoon, J. A. McKelvie, the Meighen follower returned in the by-election in Yale, B. C., last November, said he wished to be classed as a reasonable optimist. Canada, at least the portion which he represented, was not in danger of any great menace from unemployment.

The ability of any country to meet its obligations, he went on, was inseparably wrapped up with the tariff issue. He would say this matter was almost of supreme importance.

Mr. McKelvie referred to the fruit-growing industries of Yale and Okanagan. This year the shipments were 5,000 cars, and he thought the success was due "to the well-advised administration of the Borden Ministry in placing a protective tariff of from 13 cents to 20 cents a box on fruit."

If it had not been for this, the business would have been extinct, he believed. "My district would consider me a failure in their interests if I condoned any attempt to reduce the tariff," he said.

Referring to British connection, Mr. McKelvie supported a sane system of imperialization, leaving Canada mistress of her own house. And deviation from the protective tariff would be a course of folly leading to disaster, he thought.

He pleaded for a closer cementing of the French and English-speaking races in Canada. It was his sincere hope that the name "French" and "English" would be moulded into the more comprehensive name, "Canadian."

BRITISH ADMIRAL VISITING STATES

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 16.—Praising the co-operation of the United States fleet with the British naval forces during the war, Admiral Bayly, a retired officer of the British navy, who commanded the Allied sea forces off the Irish coast, delivered a brief address to the midshipmen yesterday. He was given an ovation. Admiral Bayly, though visiting here unofficially, was received with formal honors.

GENERAL BOOTH TO MAKE SPEECH HERE

Salvation Army Head to Address Canadian Club

General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, will address a luncheon of the Canadian Club here on Thursday, March 17. John Cochran, President of the Club, received word to this effect yesterday from William Eadie, Commissioner of the Salvation Army's Western Canada division at Winnipeg, who is arranging the General's itinerary in this country. While General Booth will not be in Canada for several days yet he will travel according to arrangements to be made by Mr. Eadie. Announcement that he would visit Victoria was made in The Times several weeks ago.

What subject General Booth will choose for his address here is not known yet. It is probable, however, that he will tell of the work of the Salvation Army during the War or will speak on some topic of international concern.

Commissioner Eadie, it is expected, will be in Victoria some time this month, and will complete arrangements for the General's visit. General Booth will make an extensive tour of Canada while on his way to the Orient. Last year he passed through here on his way to Australia, but he could not speak to the Canadian Club on that occasion.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND

By Cyril McNeile "Sapper"

"You ask a great thing of me, your Grace," he said. "Only by the exertion of my power can I show you this secret—even if I can show you at all. And you are unbelievers." He paced slowly to the window, ostensibly to commune with the gods on the subject; more materially to flash once again the signal into the darkness. Then, as if he had decided suddenly, he swung round.

"I will try," he announced briefly, and the Duchess headed the chorus of delight. "Will the Presence stand back, and you, your Grace, take that," he handed her some powder material. "No hand but yours must touch the pearls. Wrap them up in the silver and gold." Aloofly he watched the process. "Now advance alone, and open the box. Place the pearls inside. Now shut and lock it. Obediently the Duchess did as she was bid; then she stood waiting for further instructions.

But apparently at this time the Great Brooding Spirit was beginning to take effect. Singing a monotonous, harsh chant, the Indian knelt on the floor, and poured some powder into a little brazier. He was still close to the open window, and finally he sat down with his elbows on his knees, and his head rocking to and fro in his hands.

"Less light—less light!" The words seemed to come from a great distance—ventriloquism in a mild way was one of Lakington's accomplishments; and as the light went out a greenish, spluttering flame rose from the brazier. A heavy, odorous smoke filled the room, but framed and motionless in the eerie light sat the Indian, staring fixedly in front of him. After a time the chant began again: it grew and swelled in volume till the singer grew frenzied and beat his head with his hands. Then abruptly it stopped.

"Place the box upon the floor," he ordered, "in the light of the Sacred Fire." Hugh saw the Duchess kneel down on the opposite side of the brazier, and on the box on the floor, while the faces of the guests—strange and ghostly in the green light—peered like spectres out of the heavy smoke. This was undoubtedly a show worth watching.

"Open the box!" Harshly the words rang through the silent room, and with fingers that trembled a little the Duchess turned the key and threw back the lid.

"Why, it's empty!" she cried in amazement, and the guests craned forward to look.

"Put not your hand inside," cried the Indian, "in sudden warning, for perchance it will remain empty." The Duchess rapidly withdrew her hand, and stared incredulously through the smoke at his impassive face.

"Did I not say there was power in the box?" he said dreamily. "The power to render invisible—the power to render visible. Thus came power to the jewels of the Chow Queens."

"That's all right, Mr. Ram Dar," said the Duchess a little apprehensively. "There may be power in the box, but my pearls don't seem to be."

The Indian laughed. "None but you have touched the cabinet, your Grace; none but you must touch till the pearls return. They are there now; but not for mortal eyes to see."

Which, incidentally, was no more than the truth. "Look on my sabins, look; but do not touch. See that to your vision the box is empty. . . ." He waited motionless, while the guests thronged round, with expressions of amazement; and Hugh, safe from view in the thick, sweet-smelling smoke, came even nearer in his excitement.

"It is enough," cried the Indian suddenly. "Shut the box, your Grace, and lock it as before. Now place on the table when it came. Is it there?"

"Yes," the Duchess's voice came out of the green fog. "Go not too near," he continued warningly. "The gods must have space."

Again the harsh chant began, at times swelling to a shout, at times dying away to a whisper. And it was during one of these latter periods that a low laugh, instantly checked, disturbed the room. It was plainly audible, and someone trially said: "Be quiet!" It was not repeated, which afforded Hugh, at any rate, no surprise. For it had been Irma Peterson who had laughed, and it might have been hilarity, or it might have been a signal.

The chanting grew frenzied and more frenzied; more and more powder was thrown on the brazier till dense clouds of the thick vapor were rolling through the room, completely obscuring everything save the small space round the brazier, and the Indian's tense face poised above it.

"Bring the box, your Grace," he cried harshly, and once more the Duchess knelt in the circle of light, with a row of dimly seen faces above her.

"Open; but as you value your pearls—touch them not." Excitedly she threw back the lid, and a chorus of cries greeted the appearance of the gold and silver tissue at the bottom of the box.

"They're here, Mr. Ram Dar." In the green light the Indian's sombre eyes stared round the group of dim faces.

"Did I not say," he answered, "that there was power in the box? But in the green light that power—unknown to you—I warn you: Do not touch those pearls till the light has burned low in the brazier. If you do they will disappear—never to return. Watch, but do not touch!"

Slowly he backed towards the window, unperceived in the general excitement; and Hugh dodged rapidly towards the car. It struck him that the green light, and the fact that he had time to see Lakington snatch something which appeared to have been let down by a string from above, before turning into the bushes and racing for the car. As it was he was only a second or two in front of the other, and the last vision he had through a break in the trees, before they were spinning smoothly down the deserted road, was an open window in Laidley Towers from which dense volumes of vapor poured steadily out. Of the house party, however, he saw nothing. As it was he had time to see Lakington snatch something which appeared to have been let down by a string from above, before turning into the bushes and racing for the car. As it was he was only a second or two in front of the other, and the last vision he had through a break in the trees, before they were spinning smoothly down the deserted road, was an open window in Laidley Towers from which dense volumes of vapor poured steadily out. Of the house party, however, he saw nothing.

It took five minutes, so he gathered afterwards from a member of the house party, before the light had burned sufficiently low for the Duchess to consider it safe to touch the pearls. In various stages of asphyxiation the assembled guests, and the writer as passenger, and the cynical comments of the men were rightly treated by the ladies with the contempt they deserved. Was the neck lace not in its gold setting, and a few minutes before there had been nothing?

"Some trick of that beastly light," remarked the Duke peevishly. "The dam' thing out of the window."

"Don't be a fool, John," retorted his spouse. "If you could do this sort of thing, the House of Lords might be some use minutes later they stared horror-struck at a row of ordinary marbles laboriously unwrapped from a piece of gold and silver tissue, the Duke's pungent remark there, wrapped in his gold passed uncontradicted. In fact, it is to be understood that over the scene which followed it was best to draw a decent veil.

Drummond, hunched low over the wheel, in his endeavor to conceal his identity from the man behind, knew nothing of that at the time. Every nerve was centred on eluding the pursuit of the Canadian flight; the thought of Lakington, when everything was prepared for his reception, being snatched from his clutches even by the majesty of the Duke, was the last thing that he had in his mind.

And for much the same reason he did not want to have to deal with him until The Elms was reached; the staging there was so much more effective.

But Lakington was far too busy to bother with the chauffeur. One snarling curse as they had started, for not having done as he had been told, was the only thing that he had in his mind during the rest of the time the transformation to the normal kept Lakington busy, and Hugh could see him reflected in the recent moving in the systematic search for promising forms of wild native fruits, flowers, trees, and shrubs, says W. T. Macoun, Dominion Horticulturist. Canada has been far behind other countries in this respect. Explorers have for many years been sent in search of new plants to many parts of the world from Great Britain and the United States, and a vast number of valuable new plants have been discovered and brought together through this means. The United States has had explorers in Canada during recent years to search for wild fruits, especially in the colder parts of Canada, that would be suitable for them in their breeding work, as it is believed that the native material offers a very rich field for obtaining new species.

W. J. Boughen, Valley River, Man., was employed to carry on this work for the Horticultural Division in 1920. He travelled during the growing season about the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, and collected a large amount of promising material, part of which was sent to the Experimental Station, Morden, Man., and part to the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. It is planned to continue this work in 1921.

New Hampshire Legislature passed a bill to prohibit daylight saving.

AERIAL FORESTRY

RESEARCH PROVED OF GREAT VALUE

Work Covered Large Tract of Ground in Short Space of Time

Through the co-operation of the Air Board, the Commission of Conservation and the Entomological Branch, an interesting experiment aerial forest reconnaissance was conducted last Summer over the country north and west of Lake Timiskaming in northern Ontario, says the Agricultural Gazette of Canada. The Air Board furnished a Curtiss flying boat, type E-3, with a wing spread of 75 feet, and equipped with a 360-h.p. Liberty engine. In addition to the pilot the machine carried two observers.

Colonel Robert Leckie, D.S.O. M.C., D.F.C., piloted the machine from Ottawa to Halleybury, with Clyde Leavitt, Chief Forester of the Commission of Conservation, and the writer as passengers. The trip by way of Mattawa and North Bay, covering 336 miles, was made in five hours' flying time. Colonel Leckie had to return to Ottawa for his trans-Canada flight, and left Captain P. Wickens, A.F.C., as pilot. Later, Captain C. McEwen, M.C., D.F.C., relieved Captain Wickens.

Messrs. R. D. Craig and S. H. Edgcombe conducted the forest reconnaissance for the Commission of Conservation, and the writer and M. B. Dunn that for the Forest Division of Insects of the Entomological Branch in connection with their survey of the forest resources of Ontario, Messrs. Craig and Edgcombe determined the feasibility of aircraft work for the special investigation they were conducting.

Four Days' Work. In four days' flying they mapped in the main timber types, such as conifers, hardwoods and mixed forests, recent burns, muskegs and clearings, in approximately 1,800 square miles of the region around Temagami lake. At an altitude of 3,500 feet it was possible to distinguish the more conspicuous species of trees, and to gether with a limited amount of ground work in the various types, to secure a comprehensive knowledge of the forest conditions on a large area in a very short time. Three weeks were spent in the aerial survey about Lake Timiskaming, and it is estimated that to obtain the amount of information by ground survey it would have taken two men at least eight months.

The officers of the Division of Forest Insects of the Entomological Branch studied an extensive spruce budworm outbreak spreading through the northern pulpwood forests from northern Quebec across the inter-provincial boundary into Ontario. A strip of country more than 100 miles long and 25 miles wide had been freshly infested during the last two Summers, and the injury was spreading westward. It was very important to determine the area covered by the outbreak last Summer and to obtain definite data upon the rate and direction in which the injury was spreading.

A Ground Party Held. A ground survey party attempted to obtain the information we required, but it was impossible to cover the whole area in that manner before Winter. The spruce budworm outbreak spread only in spruce and balsam. Much of the Temagami country carries strips of hardwoods with pine along the water courses, and since the latter offers the only available route for a rapid survey, it is evident that a ground party must have difficulty even in locating the balsam and spruce stands. There is the added drawback that the party cannot foretell how far or in which direction it must travel to reach the boundaries of the infestation, and it is, therefore, difficult to outfit properly. The possibilities of an air survey appealed to us strongly, and the results were even beyond our expectations. From a height of 3,500 feet it was possible to determine the different types of timber and to locate the blocks of spruce and balsam accurately. The information thus easily obtained through a few days' flying would have taken two men more than six months to acquire by hard work by ground surveys.

The view from the air enables us to determine only the area attacked, and with some accuracy, the severity of the infestation. It is necessary to supplement this work by short ground surveys then carefully planned and to study minutely the nature and effect of the injury.

Dean Coleman, of the University of British Columbia, prefaced his address before the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon.

Taking as his subject, "Old and New England," the speaker related at some length the circumstances surrounding the settlement of the Pilgrim Fathers nearly three hundred years ago, reviewing their characteristics and their early history in New England.

"If Americans can claim a joint inheritance with us in Shakespeare and Magna Charta, then we can claim a joint inheritance in the Pilgrim Fathers," he declared. In looking back over three hundred years, there was a tendency to accentuate the religious, idiosyncrasies of the Pilgrim Fathers to allow this tradition of religion to cloud our vision of their magnificent pioneer qualities, continued the Dean. To emphasize this point he observed that he would rather have a spiritual ancestor like John Harvard, who gave three hundred dollars and nine hundred books to start Harvard University, than any of the millionaire philanthropists of the present day.

Interesting excerpts from old laws of the period revealed the measures taken in the interests of the community's well-being. As early as 1646 legislation was enacted in the New England colony calling for an improvement in schools.

Coming to a later period in the history of New England, Dean Coleman observed that when Britain gained Canada she lost the United States, for prior to the conquest of French Canada, the New Englanders had depended upon Britain for protection against the aggression of the French. The future, observed the speaker, would determine whether Britain had chosen wisely in this unconscious choice.

Reviewing the differences in the historians' accounts of the events of importance to the British Empire and the United States, the Dean stated that a welcome movement was now afoot to revise the history books of the two nations, which in view of the disturbed conditions prevailing would be an important and far-reaching step.

The address was followed with the keenest interest, and at the close a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the speaker. Vocal solos by Mrs. Harold Campbell enhanced the pleasure of the afternoon.

MRS. DOIG TO HEAD ALEXANDRA CLUB

New Executive Elected Yesterday; Rooms to Be Open Daily

Mrs. David Doig will direct the activities of the new Alexandra Club for women until the close of the Club's year in October, her election as president being unanimous at yesterday's meeting of the members. The meeting was held in the new quarters in the Pemberton Building, with Mrs. W. H. Belson, the temporary president, in the chair. The appointment of Mrs. Doig to the presidency is of particular interest in view of the fact that her mother, Mrs. I. W. Powell, besides being one of the originators and charter members of the original Alexandra Club, was for many years its president. It was largely due to her untiring energy and initiative that the original Club was maintained through the trying years of war and financial depression.

The meeting was held in the new Club Rooms, with Mrs. W. H. Belson, president pro tem, in the chair. Other officers elected were as follows: First vice-president, Mrs. A. Hall; second vice-president, Mrs. Umbach; secretary, Mrs. Willis Deane; treasurer, Mrs. C. Ellison; auditor, Mrs. Percy Taylor, while the committee includes: Mrs. Belson, Mrs. Hodgins, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. W. J. H. Holmes, Mrs. Beaumont Boggs, Mrs. Guy Langton, Mrs. W. H. Belson, Mrs. F. C. Pioda, Miss Rowson, Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. Brentzen.

The meeting resolved that only light lunches and teas should be provided by the Club for the first few weeks, and the rooms are to be open from 10 to 7 o'clock under the care of a caretaker, and further arrangements are now being considered. It is announced that a meeting of the executive of the committee will be held at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning next at the Club Rooms, and it is currently requested that the committee will be present, as many details need immediate attention.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT

WHY MR. WOODPECKER IS MARKED

Mr. Woodpecker is a marked bird, as you all know who have seen him, for the red spot on the back of his head is a mark which he is pecking away at a tree, or even if half hidden by leaves the red spot is pretty sure to be seen and to reveal his working place, even when the sound cannot be located. Mrs. Woodpecker does not wear this red spot, for she is the one who caused her mate to be so marked, and why, do you suppose I will tell you what she said about it in Birdland, for there is always a little bird, you know, that gives away secrets and that is how this one was learned.

Long ago ago a certain Mrs. Woodpecker, so the story goes, had a great deal of trouble with her husband, because he went away from home early and stayed late and never brought anything home to help support the birdlings. Mrs. Woodpecker pleaded and peeped at this all in vain. Mr. Woodpecker declared he could not find enough insects for himself, let alone bringing some home.

Little Mrs. Woodpecker tried to watch her mate and flew after him when he went away, but he was too clever to do that for he would follow him, for he could easily hide against the bark of a tree and she could not find him.

Of course, she could hear him hammering, but his bright eyes always saw her afar off and he was on the wing and away before she could get near.

One day Mrs. Woodpecker became very desperate and asked the goblins to help her. "I can't get him," she said, "and they eat so much I am just worn out. Do tell me what to do. If I could follow him and catch him at work then I should be certain he finds plenty of food, but I cannot prove that he does not, for I can never surprise him."

The little goblin was sitting on a rock, out of which he had just jumped, and laying a finger on one side of his nose, he thought a minute. "I have it, Mrs. Woodpecker," he said, jumping up. "I will get the fairies to let you have some of the red like my cap. You can paint his head red some night when he is asleep, and with a red cap like mine you can see him anywhere in the forest."

Mrs. Woodpecker went home with a light heart and that night she met the goblin, who had an acorn cupful of red paint for her. But the rest was not so easy, for when she flew home with the paint, and tried to paint her husband's head while he slept he kept waking up and asking: "Who is tickling the top of my head?" and poor little Mrs. Woodpecker could not mask her mate.

But the next morning, just as he was flying away, Mrs. Woodpecker was so upset she lost her temper and after him she threw the paint brush, which struck the back of her husband's head and left a spot of red paint.

Of course, he did not know about the paint and thought his wife was cross, but there it was; and then Mrs. Woodpecker followed and caught her lazy husband, for now that she could see him some distance away, she took good care that he should not see her until she was beside him.

It was no use to deny it now, for she saw with her own eyes that there were plenty of insects and he had to do his part after that toward supporting the family.

And that is the reason that Mr. Woodpecker wears a red spot on the back of his head, and his wife does not, so the little bird from Birdland told the story.

ST. COLUMBA CONCERT SPLENDID SUCCESS

Minister Commends Use of Church as Centre of Community Entertainment

Not an inch of available space was unoccupied last night in St. Columba Church Hall when the Scottish concert programme commenced a few minutes after 8 o'clock with the Rev. Mr. Menzies, M.P.E., in the chair. Mr. Menzies made an ideal chairman, having a fund of humor and anecdote which made him a favorite at once. In his opening remarks he stated he was glad to occupy the chair because he believed the church should not only be the centre of the religious life of the neighborhood, but the centre of the ordinary life of the people, and these concerts an entertaining and pleasurable were certainly part of the ordinary life of the people.

At the close of the concert the Rev. Mr. Lister, Cedar Hill and Gordon Head, in a very witty and pointed speech, proposing a vote of thanks, referred to the joy and gladness that had been spread abroad that night, the squire of the pipes and the dancing of the Highland Fling, the Scottish National Dance in the fine old national costume, had brought brightness to the eye and stirred the souls of many an old Scot in the audience. Wm. Henderson heartily seconded the motion, and the vote was given with thunderous applause.

The programme, which was given under the direction of J. G. Brown and Mrs. Lewis Hall, assisted by the same chorus and artists that gave such a successful concert in Semple's Hall about ten days ago, was splendidly rendered.

The choruses by the choir were very much enjoyed. "The Campbells Are Comin'" receiving an enthusiastic encore, the choir were well trained, and the beauties of the lovely Scottish part songs were well brought out. Mrs. Ogilvy, Mrs. Knight, Miss Peatt and Mrs. Butler were all heartily encored, and responded with other numbers.

Messrs. Ogilvy and Guy were also in fine form as the veteran conductor and songster, J. G. Brown, who received a great welcome on his appearance. The male quartette, Messrs. A. and J. Stewart, Smith and Munroe, were forced to respond to an encore for their rendition of "A Kiss Ahint the Door." The duet by Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvy, "The Crooked Rawbee," was well sung and acted, and they, too, were compelled to respond to an encore.

Mrs. Ogilvy's recitation, "Selling Sewing Machines," kept the audience in fits of laughter throughout, and was one of the most enjoyable numbers on the programme. The dancing of the Highland Fling by little Miss Agnes Wallace was the "piece de resistance" of the evening, and roused the audience to extraordinary enthusiasm. Mrs. Lewis Hall had a big task, playing all the accompaniments in a faultless manner throughout and in much of the success of the programme was due to her splendid accompaniments.

"Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" were sung by the choir and audience in a hearty and spontaneous manner, bringing the most successful entertainment ever given at St. Columba Church to a close.

EVELINA.

The feminine names beginning with "Eve" are legion, yet each, curiously, is a separate name and possesses a different meaning. Eva, for instance, signifies life, while Evelyn means hazelnut, and Evelina or Eveline is translated "pleasant."

Eveline made its appearance among the Normans before the marriage of the Earl of Pembroke. Eveline, said to be its equivalent, was the name of the sister of Gunnar, the great-grandmother of William the Conqueror. The Lady of the Garde Douloreuse in the "Be-Truothed" was named Eveline.

Eveline seems to have been more popular than its equivalent in early times, since older records show more instances of the former name than the latter. The wife of the last Earl of Lancaster was called Eveline of Campo. Her daughter Eveline was heiress to the great county of Lancaster. Before the marriage of the Earl of Lancaster was called Eveline, a name which she herself invented as an elaborated form of Eveline—was called Eveline, but almost disappeared in England, but there was an immediate revival of the name. "Eveline" was followed, of course, and Eveline was established in popularity for many years. Unfortunately for Eveline, the tendency was to confuse her with Evelyn, especially when the

GENERAL MEETING

Friday, the 18th. At the Union Club (bottom entrance), Victoria, at 4 p. m. HON. SECRETARY.

Attorney-General Tells How B. C. Makes Bad Boys Into Useful Citizens

Even Bars Removed From Provincial Institution; Inmates on Honor System, Have Own Band and Strive For Efficiency In Training.

Legislative Press Gallery February 16

Bars have been removed from the windows, fire escapes are kept unlocked day and night, and the honor system introduced in the reorganization during the year at the Provincial School for Boys at New Westminster, with the result that not even one boy has attempted to escape, according to the annual report of the institution, presented to the Legislature this afternoon by the Hon. J. W. de B. Farris, Attorney-General.

To encourage good behaviour and industry among the boys and to permit every boy to earn a remission of a part of the term for which he was sentenced, they are grouped into classes and rewarded according to the progress they make.

Get Extra Cake and Jam. Star class boys are given a separate honor room with certain privileges, thirty-five cents a week and wear three stripes and a star on their uniforms.

All Escaped Return, But One. At present there are seventy-five boys on the register, forty were admitted during the year and fifty-one discharged. The ages run from eight to seventeen years.

Even Have Foot Washer. The boys are under military hours with reveille at six o'clock, then breakfast, prayers, school and dress parades, school or duties, retreat, feet washing, prayers and bed. Lights out goes at nine o'clock. Two hours and one-half on Saturday are given over to bathing and part of the afternoon to play. There is church every Sunday afternoon.

Neglect a Cold You Develop Catarrh. Few people realize the vast amount of ill-health that arises from the absorption of catarrhal poisons into the system. Languor, apathy, loss of appetite, indigestion, and many other discomforts are caused by catarrh. But to know this is to know disease, and affects more than 90 per cent of the people to-day. It undermines health, and if unchecked will surely and quickly lead to the grave.

This Remedy Is Real Good. In his recommendations for the year, Mr. Brankin says: "Sending of boys for an undisciplined period of not less than two years as practiced by the Juvenile Court of Vancouver is the most satisfactory way of all as it makes the boy settle down much quicker and get hold of himself. Again, it is much easier when he completes his term here, to arrange through the court for his release and future supervision."

Win Pageant Prize. During the year the Victorian Order of Nurses visited the home and were impressed with the number of cheerful encouraging mottoes hanging on the walls, as each is eminently suitable and of a nature to induce serious thought.

Scottish and German Win. A Scottish born boy, a German born boy and an American boy won the first, second and third prizes in the essay competition on the blockading of the Zeebrugge Canal, conducted under the Provincial division of the Navy League.

Have Own Band. Band instruments were presented to the boys by the Government and now the school has a capable band which leads parades and gives concerts.

Express Appreciation. "Many were the letters of appreciation and gratitude received from the mothers who were benefited. To many who had struggled on, deprived of the rightful bread winner, with failing health, due to the double burden of providing for the family and caring for the home, as well as in some cases nursing invalid husbands, it seemed, as they said, 'Too good to be true.' David B. Brankin, superintendent of neglected children, from mothers benefited is included in the report.

Can Care For My Children. Another says: "It will enable me to care for my children in a better way than I have been able to do this last three years. My mother's heart is when she has to leave her children to look after themselves while she goes to work to keep them and a mother is very dear to a child when it is left alone all day. But I am so thankful that this pension will give us the chance of giving what is every child's birthright, a mother's love and care."

Will Repay State. "The work of the Advisory Boards in Vancouver, Kamloops, Revelstoke, Armstrong, Nelson, New Westminster, Trail, Rossland, is reviewed. It will eventually pay the state an hundred fold," says Mrs. Crease of the Nelson Board. "The mothers will be able to keep their children at school longer than they did, then to care for the mothers themselves later. One said, 'Now I shall be able to put my girl through for a teacher and look at what that means. She'll help us all later for she is a good girl! In several cases the mothers were working too hard, and for them the grant is a great boon.'"

Is Labor Of Love. "Too much praise cannot be given to the various Advisory Boards throughout the Province," the Attorney-General's report says. "Their work of visiting, investigating and keeping in touch with the various families, has been wholly a labor of love for public welfare. They have repaid their reward in the knowledge that they have so infinitely bettered conditions among the many widows and children."

Praise For Mothers. "Those of us who have been in close personal touch with the mothers themselves cannot but express our great admiration for the kind of women who are receiving pensions. Nowhere could a 'better type of

Act Proved Justified. "Speaking generally the administration of the Mothers' Pension Act, even for the very short time it has been in force, has accomplished what its most earnest advocates hoped it would do in the cause of social reform."

Mother's Care Valued. "The principle is simple. It is the recognition of a widely held and deeply rooted conviction that home life and a mother's care are of such value in the proper rearing of children that no child should be deprived of their benefits on account of poverty alone."

Tells of Movers For Act. "Compulsory education laws had made it necessary to make state provision in the way of clothing, books, and in some cases, of money for the children of indigent parents, to attend school."

Solves Foster Home Problem. "The Children's Aid Society of Vancouver and the Providence Orphanage of New Westminster were inspected and it was found that the children there are being well taken care of."

Grants to Children's Societies. "Since January, 1919, $2 a week for each child has been paid through the department as a per capita grant to Children's Aid Societies taking care of children committed from unorganized districts. For last year 985 children came under this invoice at an expenditure of $4,432.96."

Boon To Mothers. "In October $28,750.50 was expended, and in November $34,511.50, making a grand total of $63,262.00. It was a great boon to many mothers to receive the pension for three months in a lump sum in September. They were enabled in many cases to take their children out of orphanages, rent little homes or rooms, purchase furniture and provide for the winter clothing and fuel."

Express Appreciation. "Many were the letters of appreciation and gratitude received from the mothers who were benefited. To many who had struggled on, deprived of the rightful bread winner, with failing health, due to the double burden of providing for the family and caring for the home, as well as in some cases nursing invalid husbands, it seemed, as they said, 'Too good to be true.' Matters dealing with reconstruction, which involved resettlement as well, were dealt with by J. B. Clearihue, M. P. in an address before the Grand Army of United Veterans last night.

"We must do our share of the building up of what has been destroyed during the war," said Mr. Clearihue. We must remember that we have done with the fighting overseas, and are now back to take our place again as citizens.

"What we need more than anything else in this country is the source of permanent employment, and in order to promote permanent employment we have got to develop our natural resources and establish permanent mining and other industries."

"This cannot be done unless they are made to pay, and in order to make them pay we must seek foreign trade. We have not to go out hunting for a market for our produce. We have markets right at our door, throughout South America and Mexico."

Must Remove Strife. "In order to carry on successfully industrially we must get rid of strife and in order to do this it might be well to form an Industrial Council, on the same plan as adopted in the Old Country known as the Whitley scheme, where capital and labor are equally represented, sitting together and discussing hours of labor, wages, conditions of work and all questions relating to the industrial life of the country," said Mr. Clearihue.

Women As Brave As the Men

THEIR STRUGGLE SHOWS A REMARKABLE SPIRIT. "Talk of the bravery of men, but where can you find a finer spirit than among the half-sick women who are fighting and struggling to do their duty against the terrible odds of ill-health, and who will not give up. One woman in every three is struggling against weakness. Most of them are not exactly sick, but oh, how miserable!"

The burden and misery of it all has its foundation in the blood which is thin and watery. The red cells are too few. The very stream of life is reduced in vitality. Weakness and inevitable ill-health are the certain result.

Every ailing or weak woman can quickly regain her health in this very simple way. By filling the system with the nutrition that comes from rich red blood, a quick change for the better will result. To accomplish this, take two chocolate-coated Ferrozone Tablets after each meal. You'll feel better immediately for the simple reason that Ferrozone renews the blood. It gives you vim, vigor, endurance, restores a tired, worn-out system very quickly.

You'll feel like new all over once you get Ferrozone working through your blood. It puts color into faded cheeks, brightens the eye, quickens the step, brings back that wonderful feeling of youth.

One of the finest things Ferrozone does is to make you eat lots and digest it as well. With keen appetite, sound sleep, strong nerves and lots of nourishing blood you're bound to regain robust health. Any sickly girl or ailing woman that Ferrozone won't make well must be incurable. There is a secret power in Ferrozone and it is worth a trial at all events. Fifty cents, per box, six for $2.50. At all dealers in medicine, or by mail from The Catarrhzone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Brandon appeared for the Crown, with A. J. Aikman for the accused.

ASSERT ALL IS OVER WITH "P. R." HERE BUT THE SHOUTING

Necessary Number Has Now Signed Referendum Petition

It is all over with Proportional Representation in Victoria except for the burst of shouting which will mark its final demise.

This was the confident assertion which enemies of the system made to-day when announcing that already a sufficient number of voters had signed a petition to make the submission of a referendum on "P. R." compulsory upon the City Council. Up to noon, they said, over 500 voters had signed the "P. R." petition, though only about 500 names are needed.

"There is no trouble about getting names, people flock around one to sign the petition," Alderman E. B. Andros, who started the move to have the system abolished, declared this morning. "However, the copies of the petition have been placed at different convenient places all over the city and, as we have gone to the trouble of starting the move, it is up to the people, I think, to sign the petition if they want to see "P. R." discontinued here. From the way people have hastened to sign the petition I have no doubt that the citizens do not want the system any longer, and that they will turn it down at the polls."

The referendum on Proportional Representation will be submitted to the electors at the Police Commission election, which probably will be held March 10. It is expected that by this time the "P. R." petition will contain a thousand names at least.

Copies of the petition are ready for voters to sign at the following places: The Times and Colonist business offices, W. N. Lanfesty's gun shop on Government Street, Steele's tobacco store on View Street, the Pacific Hotel, and John Waugh's barber shop in the Windsor Block.

NOTABLE EVENT FOR CANADIAN CLUB

Major-Gen. Sir Jocelyn Percy Will Speak Friday

The members of the Canadian Club are anticipating with much interest the address of Major-General Sir Jocelyn Percy on "The Situation in Russia," to be delivered before the club at luncheon on Friday next.

General Percy, who is Chief of Staff to General Plumer, on the western front in France during the late war, having commanded the army which crossed the Rhine after the armistice, and later being head of the British mission attached to General Wrangel's headquarters in Southern Russia, is eminently qualified to speak from first hand knowledge of European conditions with special reference to Russian affairs.

He is an eloquent and forcible speaker, and the executive of the club looks forward to a most interesting address on Friday next. Tickets for members of the Canadian Club are on sale at the usual places. The luncheon is set for 12 o'clock noon, and the members of the Women's Canadian Club are invited to be present at 12:30 p. m. to hear the address.

Chamber of Commerce—A "house warming" will be held by the Chamber of Commerce in their new quarters in the Arcade Building on Thursday, February 24. The affair will take the form of a concert and smoker and will be in place of the fortnightly forum meeting.

Students' Welfare—Installation of officers will be held by the Chamber of Commerce in Nanaimo next week when the Students' Welfare League meets. Provincial President Alfred E. Hall, Jr. will leave next week for the purpose of visiting the branches of the League at Nanaimo, Ladysmith, and Duncan, and will preside at the installation of Nanaimo officers.

Judge as Peacemaker—The application for the custody of children in the Milwards versus Milward action in the Supreme Court's chambers yesterday resulted in the application being refused. Mr. Justice Gregory, however, was instrumental in effecting a reconciliation between the disputing parties before they had left his chambers, where he had taken them to bring the matter to a successful issue.

Claim for Commission—In the County Court to-day before His Honor Judge Lampson a case of Cory & Power versus Moggy was called, the action being one for commission of $250 in connection with the sale of a house. Charles E. Wilson appeared for the plaintiff, and Frank Higgins, K. C., for the defendant. The hearing continued all morning, with a number of witnesses called.

Flying Boat Here—A Government flying boat, F. 3 type, from the B. C. Air Station at Jericho Beach, flew over to Victoria from Vancouver to-day with Major MacLaurin and others on board. The machine landed here at 12 noon, and came to rest in the Inner Harbor near the J. B. A. A. float. The boat carried her pilot and two passengers, and it is understood is here in connection with departmental business in this city.

Nocturnal Visitors—Visions of crime and violence filled the mind of Robert Gurney, of Oak Bay, last night when he was awakened by a noise near his house and saw two men dash out into the darkness. The visitors disappeared without offering any violence, however.

Veterans of France Card Party—A good attendance of members and friends at the usual Tuesday evening card party of the Veterans of France resulted in a very pleasant evening being spent, the scoring resulting as follows: First prizes, ladies, Mesdames R. K. Thompson and J. G. Bloom. Consolation prizes, ladies, Mesdames R. J. Porter and Dumbleton; gents, Messrs. R. Robinson and E. A. Kidner.

The body found by the police at Beecher Bay, Monday, in a launch, has been identified as that of Sidney Clarence Wilson, aged twenty-nine years, who resided with his wife and son of three years of age at 1233 Juno Street, Esquimalt. He was born at Calgary, and formerly a member of the R. N. W. M. P. at Saskatchewan and served overseas in the war. World's Champions Get Ready to Defend Title

Amateur Lacrosse Players Are Conditioning Themselves in Preparation for Hard Games—Word Expected From Orangeville—Pro Lacrosse Gossip

Victoria amateur lacrosse players, holders of the Mann Cup, emblematic of the world's championship, will be prepared to defend their honors against all comers this Spring. In order that no challenger may catch them napping and out of condition the athletes have commenced to condition themselves and are holding regular workouts in the J. B. A. A. gymnasium.

Last year the Orangeville team, champions of Ontario, sent a challenge to the Victoria club and were anxious to have an opportunity to lift the cup in November. The officials of the Victoria Lacrosse Club, however, replied that owing to the wet season and the impossibility of setting definite dates that contests at that time would be out of the question. The officials, however, stated that the Victoria team would be prepared to defend the trophy in the Spring.

It is expected that the Orangeville team will be communicating for dates within the very near future. This club made a clean sweep of the Eastern fields and is very anxious to lift the silverware which belongs to the world's champions.

Victoria will have a splendid team ready to take the field this Spring to defend the trophy. The team will include most of last year's players, among whom are Boss Johnson, Joe Dakers, Bob MacKay, Ed. Brynjolfsson, John Johnson, Alie McDougall, Fred Kroeger, Ernie Popphans, Tom Humber, Toos Plump, Norton, Everett Taylor and many other crack stickhandlers.

Mainlanders May Come.

Mainlanders will probably want to take a whirl at the champions. New Westminster dawdled about last Summer until they thought Victoria's team had been riddled to pieces and then came over and tried to lift the cup, but they were outgunned and had to go home with nothing more than a lot of bumps, bruises and sore heads.

The Mainland wants the cup and they will not rest until Victoria is beaten, but there is a tough row ahead of any team which has a hankering for the honors.

SOOKE BASKETBALL

Sooke Harbor, Feb. 16.—On Thursday night the newly-organized Otter Point basketball club will play its first game with the Sooke Harbor Athletic Club team at Sooke. Another game will be played between the Sooke school girls' team and the local Boys' Naval Brigade. The games will be played in the local basketball hall, and will be followed by a dance and supper in the hall.

ARISTOCRATS WORRY SEATTLE METS LIKE A TENDER PET CORN

Mouldoon's Men Have Funny Feeling Over Outcome of To-night's Game

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 16.—The Seattle Mets to-night face the task of playing a team which has beaten them three times in the last three games. The Victoria Aristocrats, last-placers in the hockey race, but playing the best game of the year right now, will oppose the champions this evening at the Arena, and the supporters of the home club are wondering if the men of Mouldoon will be able to avenge the last two beatings.

Injured Mets.

The local squad returned in fair shape, although one or two minor injuries are scheduled to hamper somewhat. Foyston's side received another bump up North, but Frank had the pain rubbed out yesterday and reports himself in good shape to play. Jim Riley is troubled with a slightly sprained ankle, while Rowe sustained a sprain in his wrist when he fell in Vancouver. But neither of these men will be greatly handicapped on the ice this evening.

Mets Want Some Breaks.

"The boys are not a bit worried over their little slump," states Pilot Peter, who still thinks the champions are going to repeat this year. "We are due to get some breaks ourselves now, and, playing on the home ice, I look for a Seattle win."

SOKE BASKETBALL

Sooke Harbor, Feb. 16.—On Thursday night the newly-organized Otter Point basketball club will play its first game with the Sooke Harbor Athletic Club team at Sooke. Another game will be played between the Sooke school girls' team and the local Boys' Naval Brigade. The games will be played in the local basketball hall, and will be followed by a dance and supper in the hall.

South Wellington Making Initial Appearance Here

Miners Will Meet Victoria West in Keen Game at Royal Athletic Park on Saturday Afternoon

South Wellington, runner-up for the championship of the Upper Island Football League, will make their first appearance here this season on Saturday afternoon. The team is scheduled to meet Victoria West at the Royal Athletic Park at 2.45 o'clock in a Vancouver Island League fixture.

West Are Hopeful.

Two weeks ago the Wests travelled to Wellington and played the miners. The local boys were beaten by 1-0, although it was admitted that the Wests had the better of the play. The Wests are quite confident that on Saturday they will be able to hang the sign of defeat on Wellington.

Local Teams Travelling.

The Metropolis and Yarrows are due to travel this week-end, the former appearing in Cumberland, and the latter in Nanaimo. This will be the first week-end in which three games have been played in the Vancouver Island League.

Sons of England a Bye.

The Association granted permission to the Sons of England to play a game on Saturday afternoon. A district transfer was given Fred Kerley, formerly of the Sons of England, to Vancouver.

Referees' Association attended the meeting of the Football Association at British Columbia on Saturday.

The formation of the District Executive of the B. C. P. F. A. has been decided upon. The Victoria and District Football Association and the Victoria Division of the Vancouver Island League will each appoint two delegates. The executive will appoint its own chairman.

PRESBYTERIAN GIRLS DEFEAT FAIRFIELDS

Scotch Lassies Are Heading Well For Championship; Game Defaulted

Fairfield girls were unable to stop the fast First Presbyterian in their mad dash for the championship of the Sunday School Ladies' Basketball League. These teams met at the First Church gymnasium last night and the First's beauties were winners by 30-3.

WON BY DEFAULT.

The second ladies' games scheduled for last night between the First Presbyterian "Wide Awakes" and the St. Andrew's was won by the latter by default. One of the "Wide Awakes" was asleep and when it was discovered that only four were present it was decided to default the game. A friendly match, however, was played and St. Andrew's lost by 4-2.

POSTPONE COMPETITION.

The competition in aid of the Pacific Officers' Association, for the two clubs presented by V. A. Macan, has been postponed until February 27.

LUXURIES GALORE TO BE PROVIDED FAMOUS EQUINE MAN OF WAR

Great Race-horse Retires to Private Pasture to Live With Old Pals

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 15.—Every luxury which can be lavished on equine royalty is to be the portion of Man of War, champion thoroughbred, at Hinata Farm, near here, where he has just retired to the stud.

Back to His Pals.

When he was taken from the track to Hinata Farm, a distance of six miles, he was again placed in a van and hauled over the smooth highway to the farm. There he was unloaded and placed in a stall specially prepared for him, with the companion of all his travels, Major Treat, the old steeplechase racer, on one side and Golden Broom, Mrs. Walter M. Jefford's four-year-old stallion, on the other. Man of War loves equine company and he is to be kept satisfied by having his chum with him as well as another high-bred animal.

Kept From Harm.

Feed tubs for Man of War have been specially built by a Lexington smith, precautions being taken to see that the famous racer cannot injure himself. The stalls in the barn are much like those in the barn of any thoroughbred breeding farm, but through and about the barns at all hours of the night a watchman makes his way to see that no harm befalls any of the racers.

Manager Who Piloted Spokane Indians Last Season Will Be Here This Year—Has Fine Bunch of Players on Hand and Hopes to Land Pennant

Cliff Blankenship, who handled the Spokane Indians last season, has been signed to pilot the Victoria club in the Pacific International Baseball League this year.

This decision was made at a meeting of the temporary board of directors of the club held yesterday afternoon in Mayor Porter's office. The board had several applications before them for the job, including one from Bill Leard, but owing to his demands, he was early eliminated from consideration.

Cliff Is Well-Known.

Blankenship is fairly well-known in this city and has a splendid reputation throughout the Pacific Northwest. He is no youngster and his record as a ball player and manager is backed up by many years' experience on the diamond.

To Gather Team Soon.

Blankenship will assemble his team very shortly. He has a fine bunch of ball players in tow, including Fisher, the big catcher who walloped the pill for over 300 last year, and several infielders, pitchers and outfielders. This string will be bolstered by several players now in tow of the Victoria Baseball Club.

Major Porter, who acted as chairman of yesterday's meeting, is particularly optimistic over the prospects for the coming season.

"Prospects are very bright for the best season we have ever known," said His Worship this morning. "Conditions in this city will be better than they were last year and I think we will be able to lift another championship."

Officials of the Victoria ball club have arranged to start selling shares in the club to-morrow morning. The shares will be sold at $25. Last year the club got 75 men to sink $100 into the business, but this season the directors are anxious to let in more fans and have cut down the price of shares. It is expected that there will be a big demand on the part of the public to obtain an interest in the club.

MINSTRELSY HOLDS SWAY AT PANTAGES

Primrose Darkface Comedians Are Top-Liners This Week

The death of George Primrose, probably the most celebrated of minstrels, did not mean the death of his company, and to-day a troupe of minstrelsy, accompanied by Mrs. Primrose, is touring the Pantages circuit, pleasing audiences wherever they appear.

This week's bill at Pantages is headed by the Primrose Minstrelsy, who portray an assortment of genuine minstrelsy, introducing clever soft-shoe dancing, a witty line of talk between a couple of famous end men, and some very good harmony singing.

The Patrowars will present a stupendous, dazzling novelty act, embracing singing, feats of strength and posing. The scenic investiture and costuming are magnificent, and the beautiful effects, combined with the remarkable performance of these versatile artists, make this one of the big sensations of the season.

Music lovers will be delighted with the efforts of the Five Violin Misses, if predictions materialize. Miss Hattie Kitchener, well known by musical circles as a soloist, supported by four charming young ladies in a symphony of tone and color, is the star in a musical offering that is one of the premier hits of this season's vaudeville.

Miss Zeldia Stanley, the brilliant comedienne, offers her latest success, "Little Miss Everybody," including impersonations of Broadway stars, all enacted with a charm and individuality which only an artist of Miss Stanley's ability can portray.

Austin & Allen appear in a miniature melange entitled "From Broadway to the Orient," character songs and dances interspersed with chatter. It is a distinctive production in many ways and therefore doubly interesting.

present a very artistic act that is full of thrills and exciting features. Another episode in "Pirate Gold," starring George B. Seltz and Marguerite Courtot, is shown this week.

COLUMBIA

"Half a Chance," which is at the Columbia Theatre, has all the virility, punch, drama and outdoor appeal of Jack London, Rex Beach and Robert Service. It's a regular "he-man" story of the "under dog"—a man who, sunken to the depths, beats his way through almost insurmountable obstacles with the force of physical dominance, determination and will power. Jesse D. Hampton produced "Half a Chance" for Pathé Production, which means that the director is the star. The idea of starring the director is getting to be quite the vogue, and a wise one, we believe, as it minimizes the danger of a good story being sacrificed to a star with a contract demanding that they occupy centre position in nine hundred and ninety feet out of every thousand. An example of practical camouflage is given by Charles Chaplin in his second million-dollar picture, "Shoulder Arms," which is the extra attraction at the Columbia Theatre, when he disguises himself as a tree stump and starts on a spying trip into enemy territory, only to be met by a small party of Hunns, seeking firewood, who promptly decide to chop down the human stump as an addition to the load of wood they are about to take back to their trenches.

VARIETY

George Fitzmaurice, the motion picture director, who is now producing films under his own name, is an airplane enthusiast. Every morning when the weather is favorable, Mr. Fitzmaurice leaves his little home in Mamaroneck, on Long Island Sound, for a spin in a seaplane belonging to a friend of his. So exhilarating has he found the sport, that he recently ordered a 'plane for himself. The producer claims that this is not at all an extravagance, for "shots" from the air are often of great value in the movies. For instance, in the first George Fitzmaurice production, "On With the Dance," which is appearing at the Variety Theatre this week, one scene shows the whole of Manhattan Island. To secure this view, it was necessary to go up eighteen thousand

"ISLE OF DREAMS" TO OPEN TO-NIGHT

Mildred Page Players Have Another Attractive Offering

To-night at the Princess Theatre the Mildred Page Players will present "The Isle of Dreams," an Irish play of rare beauty and charm. James Coots is being featured in "The Isle of Dreams" and will sing some delightful Irish songs. There will be some beautiful scenic effects and dainty costumes and from every angle this play will be an artistic triumph.

To-night at the first performance the large framed portrait of Miss Fitzmaurice will be seen in the foreground nearest the correct number of words spoken by Miss Page in her part of Elaine in "The New Morality" last week, winner must be in the theatre to receive the picture.

Little folks who attend the Saturday matinee of "The Isle of Dreams" will be given a special contest as well as seeing a most enjoyable play.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Lenore Lynard, who appears in the production of "My Lady's Latchkey" in which Katherine MacDonald is starred and which will be seen at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-night has a brother who has been here at the mail service ever since a letter containing a cheque was delayed in delivery until after he had started on his vacation last Summer. "Why he a native who is a sergeant in the 29th United States Infantry. Recently the sergeant, who had been very ill in France, received an official notice that he was dead. He was relating the incident to Miss Lynard's brother who was overheard to remark: "Well, once in a great while these days a letter does get in a little ahead of time." "Cheerful, aren't you," replied the sergeant.

DOMINION

Hope Hampton, the pretty screen player, who is appearing in "The Bait," at the Dominion this week, is fast gaining a name for herself as an exponent of photoplay traditions. Miss Hampton's first stunt was to blossom out into film prominence virtually overnight. Winner in a Texas beauty contest, she was given an opportunity to appear in pictures and, without previous screen experience, was soon shining with success in feature roles.

Now Miss Hampton has declared war on that age-old enemy of the heretofore deemed a necessary grease paint.

"I used grease paint in my first picture," declared Miss Hampton recently, "because everybody told me it was the only thing to do, and I didn't know any better. The result was a caricature of my face on the screen. There were shadows and blotches that I had never seen in the looking glass. I was frightened, actually, for a time. Then I learned that it was the fault of the grease paint. I never used it again. In "The Bait" I relied entirely upon heavy talcum powder for make-up, and the results were more than satisfactory. I'm sure grease paint in an enemy, not an aid to the screen actress."

SAN CARLO OPERA COMPANY HERE WEEK AFTER NEXT

Fortune Gallo, impresario of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company, has wired from San Francisco the good news that, in addition to the regular personnel of his company, he will bring the beautiful, young prima donna, Anna Fitziu, to the Royal Victoria, for engagement beginning at that theatre on Monday, February 22, for two days.

Miss Fitziu is the young American prima donna who gave the staid patrons of the diamond horse shoe a thrill when she sang at the Metropolitan Opera House, in New York four years ago. It was she who introduced the fiery Spanish opera "Goyescas" to America. The opera did not live long when Miss Fitziu abandoned it, but it served to introduce her as a prima donna star of the first magnitude. She will be heard here in the role of Chochosan, in "Madame Butterfly," at a special matinee to be given on Tuesday afternoon, March 1.

Other notable stars who remain in the ranks of the San Carlo Opera are Bettina Fremont, dramatic soprano; Stella DeMette, Vicente Balloster, Mario Valle, Pietro De Biasi and Natalie Cervi. The lovely lyric soprano, Sofia Charlebois, is again featured with the Gallo force, as are Giuseppe Agostini, Alice Homer and Nicola D'Amico. Among the new artists are May Barron, mezzo soprano; Filade Sinagra and Giuseppe Inzerillo, tenors, who have been received with enthusiasm everywhere on the present tour. The repertoire for the two days engagement here will be: Monday, "Aida;" Tuesday matinee, "Madame Butterfly;" Tuesday evening, "Carmen." Seats will go on sale Monday, February 21. Mail orders are being received now.

HOW SHOULD ACTORS DRESS FOR SCREEN?

Gareth Hughes Thinks Small Perfect Touches Necessary to Gain Convincing Appeal

Beat Brummels of the screen beware! For a new best-dressed-man-of-the-screen has appeared upon the horizon.

Gareth Hughes, the boyish featured player of Metro pictures, has been picked by sartorial experts as the most likely candidate for this oft-bestowed title. And, judging from the individuality of the exquisite Hughes' exterior decorations both on and off the screen, it is probable that the laurels will remain upon his brow.

But it must not be imagined that Hughes is one of your neatly pressed and tailored matinee idols. On the contrary, he prefers low, soft collars, tweeds and knickerbockers to the more formal attire affected by the popular screen heroes.

It is his ability to lend distinction to a wrinkled suit of cast-offs that has won him the title of best-dressed-man-of-the-screen. "I simply dress as I feel," is Hughes' way of explaining his choice of garments. "On the screen, a player must simply look the part. On the speaking stage, one may add to an impersonation by little spoken mannerisms that tend to carry conviction. But on the screen, you either look the part or you don't. I don't know why certain little items of wearing apparel are associated with certain characters, but it is certainly true. Unless a film actor plays close attention to these little features of his appearance, he is as certain to fall short of giving a perfect portrayal of a role as if he failed to properly study his action."

Mr. Hughes just has returned to Metro's Hollywood studios after a two months' stay in New York, where he appeared as the featured player in Famous Players production of "Sentimental Tommy." He was permitted to enact the role by special

Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies

Every true mother realizes the fact that her baby's health depends upon her own, that the very vitality of her child is influenced by her own physical condition. How important it is, therefore, to guard against any derangement of the female organs, which induce general weakness, nervousness, constant fatigue and utter inability to properly care for her child. Please remember, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and strength to thousands of such mothers.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered from neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia. I had gained in strength and pound I was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when 7 months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. FRANK MORTMAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during and after maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

agreement between the two producing companies.

AN IBANEZ PICTURE.

have brought to New York the original print of the picture for a special preview before Metro officials, prior to its early premier in New York. Mr. Ingram and Miss Mathis desired to be present at the special private showing of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," in order to make any changes able to be suggested in the cutting and titling of the production. In mass effects with which the picture abounds; and in the delicacy of intimate characterization, the Metro screen version of the Ibanez novel is reported by those who have seen it to be one of the finest achievements in the art of the silent drama.

CONFERENCE CALLS FOR FURTHER DATA ON ASSESSMENT

Saanich Rural Wards Decline to Be "Milch Cows For Taxation"

MUNICIPAL LEADERS HEARD VARYING VIEWS

A large attendance of Saanich rate-payers, namely from Wards Six and Seven, last night gathered at the Municipal Hall at Royal Oak to discuss with the Council and School Board school taxation questions.

After a long debate a motion was agreed to calling for further data before petitioning the Legislature for power to create special ward assessments.

Reeve Watson took the chair after ex-Councillor Tanner had secured endorsement of a motion that the Council sit in order that the speakers might have an opportunity to which to address their remarks.

Limit to School Taxation. In opening the meeting Reeve Watson pointed out that the Council was only sitting informally, and as the discussion of school taxation in Saanich was of itself a large subject, he would only agree to officiate as chairman if the discussion was confined to that one subject.

Ex-Councillor Tanner then took the floor, and stated that the system of a general school rate was unfair, there being an undue burden on rural wards.

Wards Three, Five and Six had all paid greatly in excess of the benefits received. Sometimes more than double the sums needed by the wards, while Ward Seven had paid less than one-half the cost of school services.

"I am here to-night to request the Council to go with us to the Government to ask the Council be given the right to assess by wards for ward purposes," he said, maintaining that the Ratepayers' Association objected to paying unjust impositions, and the stand on assessment taken by Ward Six was approved of by the other wards, this being shown by their endorsement of the central Ratepayers' Association platform.

"We expect our public men to play the game, we know that all election talk is not to be relied upon, but we expect some action to be taken," he said, and received much applause as he took his seat.

R. E. Collis asked for production of documents showing favorable consideration by the Government was possible, but was informed the only information Mr. Tanner had was verbal, received at the time a deputation had waited on the Government.

Several queries as to the attitude of the 1920 Council towards a change in the assessment system were then addressed to Reeve Watson, these being in reference to the slender majority which the Council had petitioned the Government for a change.

Reeve Watson remarked, "speaking as a citizen, for we are here quite informally, can you expect the Government to give strong attention to the request under the circumstances?"

Reeve Watson pointed out that a solution to school questions had been given unanimous support at the last session of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, but the suggestion was not that advanced by the speakers present.

Being asked by several present what the remedy might be, he replied, "Government assumption of schools cost," being applauded by several of those present.

An Insurmountable Burden. Ex-Councillor Tanner remarked: "I feel sure that if the urban wards had to pay for their own expenditures they would be more careful as to their demands. They would not mind their children being taught in nice clean basements. In our wards we are not afraid of our children playing in a little rain, and I repeat, if they had to pay, the inner wards would spend less recklessly."

That taxation for school purposes was proving an insupportable burden to newly-started fruit-growers was the burden of another complaint, the speaker saying "the line must be drawn somewhere, and the sooner the better."

R. E. Collis declared that the figures possessed by Mr. Tanner were wholly insufficient to warrant carrying on the meeting, figures to show what the cost of education per ward amounted to, and until they were available from official sources it was of little use to continue the discussion.

George Stewart retorted, "You know that Ward Two cost $25,000 to educate the children and Ward Three cost $4,000, so what more do you need?"

Clerk Cowper then protested that such figures were quite unreliable, as Ward Two schools were attended by children from other districts, while Ward Three children attended the Cedar Hill school as well as the Gordon Head institution.

He also stated that education had cost Saanich $43,526 net, and which was against Saanich lands, of which one-eighth the value was in Ward Six.

"Ten Dollars Overtax." This brought a school tax revenue of $6,440, while the cost of the Ward Six schools was last year $6,430, "an over-taxation of ten dollars," he said amid laughter and applause.

He admitted that other wards had a better case for a change but the whole agitation had started in Ward Six, and he suggested that for extraordinary expenditure it would be practical to capitalize the value of all the schools and make each ward pay for its schools, as it would be unfair in the extreme to have wards which had shouldered the cost of constructing schools in the rural wards should now, when needing new schools, be required to carry its load unassisted.

Mr. Tanner maintained that the farmer was realizing he was the milch cow of school taxation, as the residents in the urban wards paid school taxes of only $7, while the rural residents paid on the average $50.

"Ward Two does not ask we farmers to pay to give them water, then why should they ask us to pay for their education? They will pay cheerfully for their water, let them pay also for their schools."

Ernest Orr retorted, "The education of children is a matter for the good of the nation, water service is a local improvement. These are two different matters." Councillor Kingwell then moved: "This meeting memorialize the Council."

Saanich was too unequal, citing a newly-arrived resident with four children, who was paying $15 taxes for a lot less than one which he had owned in the city and paid $35 taxes for.

"Canada Thistle." Councillor Brooks said the general opinion of the Saanich farmer was that he had got to get out, sell his land for subdivision. "Now, gentlemen, I'm sick and tired sitting in this Council Board until 2 o'clock in the morning cancelling subdivision plans," he said, and declared subdivision a waste of time and money.

The farmers made the lands pleasant to look upon. He therefore hoped to see a change in taxation which would lighten the tax burden on the farmers, which was driving them to subdivision. He favored a system which would enable those secured improvements to pay for them.

A. E. Hall, Jr., asked who had benefited by paved road works, and Mr. Tanner retorted, "When Mr. Hall was elected, he recognized the complaint of the outer wards as to pledge an enormous road grant as a quid pro quo for existing taxes."

Reeve Watson then brought the meeting back to school taxation. Councillor Simpson said it was putting the clock back to any particular parent or district should educate the children, as the trend of British practice was toward increased Government financial control.

Government financial control of children it was difficult to consider the question before detailed figures were available.

"One and Indivisible." W. Tones said the only remedy was to get the Government to take over control of schools, which was no utopian idea if it could be regarded as to be gained in the immediate future, a possibility since the Union of Municipalities has taken up the matter.

He considered that if Wards Two and Seven were required to pay for their own school buildings they would endeavor to be absorbed into the city.

R. Genn said the mode of assessment was wrong, the subdivided areas were assessed at too low a figure, but it was a mistake to consider the wards as individual entities, as Saanich was and should remain united.

Trustee Holloway said his taxes have for years proven a hardship, and he opened his eyes as to where his onerous taxes had gone. "They have gone to the support of the inner wards, near the border of Victoria," he said, maintaining it was unfair to tax him and other like him out of existence. "It is British to tax the man who cleared these lands until he has to sell? You have to face two alternatives, either secession of the inner wards, or secession of the rural wards."

"I am here to-night to request the Council to go with us to the Government to ask the Council be given the right to assess by wards for ward purposes," he said, maintaining that the Ratepayers' Association objected to paying unjust impositions, and the stand on assessment taken by Ward Six was approved of by the other wards, this being shown by their endorsement of the central Ratepayers' Association platform.

to capitalize the school buildings and charge the wards rental on the basis of school attendance." Mr. Tanner considered the idea as embodied in the earlier resolution, and the proposal was abandoned.

Councillor Simpson wanted Mr. Tanner to explain how a more equitable solution of assessment could be expected from the Council which had, only last week, sat as an assessment revision court and considered that it had done its best. Mr. Tanner refused to aid elucidate the problem, but in a secure endorsement of a motion calling on the Council to prepare a number of alternative schemes and submit them to a later meeting of the Ratepayers' Association.

FOR MOTORISTS.

To the Editor:—Would you kindly permit me a little space on the matter of fast motor driving on Oak Bay Avenue. This has been conspicuous for some time, and I must confess that to-day I feel particularly keen on the subject as one of the hooligans who race down the avenue killed a favorite dog of mine. While I am on this matter, I would like to draw the attention of motorists in general to the contemptible brutality and carelessness that some of them display in regard to dogs, to say nothing of pedestrians. I have driven a motor for many years, but although I have found that dogs can be very aggravating at times, I have never found myself in such a hurry that I could not slow up to avoid them. There are times when the police are over zealous and lay in wait to trap motorists, and then there are times as now when they permit motorists to run wild. I think many people will agree with me that a little care is necessary.

WENDELL B. SHAW. February 15, 1921.

FAIR PLAY FOR SERBIA.

To the Editor:—During the past year statements have appeared in the Canadian press implying that the Montenegrins are being oppressed by the Serbians and that they do not wish to form part of the new Jugoslav state. It is a far cry to the Balkans and the majority of Canadians have neither the time nor the facility for personal investigation of these fanciful tales which seem to be sent out with the idea of estranging Canadian sympathy from our plucky little Serbia, which did such noble work during the war.

May I ask your kindness in giving publicity to the attitude Great Britain and France have taken in the matter? On December 4, 1920, in the House of Commons, a question was asked regarding the alleged atrocities in Montenegro, the freedom of the Montenegrins to vote in the recent plebiscite and the matter of forming a commission to conduct an investigation into the whole question.

The following account of the question and answer is taken verbatim from the official British Parliamentary Record: "Mr. Adamson asked the Prime Minister whether his attention had been drawn to the alleged crimes committed by Serbian troops in Montenegro; whether his attention has also been drawn to the assassination of Dr. Sekule Drljevic, a leading Montenegrin jurist; whether the report of Count de Sallis is not being published for the reason that persons who gave evidence might suffer reprisals; if so, whether the circumstances in which these witnesses could be persecuted are such as to enable the Montenegrins to vote freely and without fear on questions of self-determination; and whether the Allied Governments are prepared to accede to the demand of the Montenegrin government that an International Commission should be set up to investigate the crimes committed by the Serbians, and that Serbia and Montenegro should be equally represented on the Commission?"

Mr. Harmsworth, Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs: "His Majesty's Government has received from the partisans of ex-King Nicholas repeated reports as to alleged atrocities. On investigation, these allegations have proved to be grossly exaggerated. As regards, in particular, the reported murder of Dr. Drljevic, I can state that this gentleman is alive and well. It is true that I stated that among the several reasons for our not publishing the de Sallis report was the fear that its publication might act to the detriment of certain persons who gave evidence, but it does not appear that the Montenegrins voted otherwise than freely at the recent election for the Constituent Assembly. We have received information that before the election all political offenders in Montenegro were amnestied, and that out of an electorate of 32,000 more than 27,000 voted, which tends to show, I think, that intimidation was not exercised on the electors. The answer to the last part of the question is in the negative."

France's attitude is seen in a statement published by the Government of that country to the effect that following the Treaty of Rapallo and the recent plebiscite in Montenegro the Government of the French Republic announced that it withdrew its charge d'Affaires from the Court of ex-King Nicholas of Montenegro and consequently it would no longer recognize as official any representative of that Court. France henceforth acknowledged the Kingdom of Yugoslavia.

I am sure that the Consul-General or any official representative of the French Government will be glad to supply the exact wording of this announcement to any interested person. If the Governments of the two world powers, having every facility for investigation, have reached the conclusions that they have officially announced, surely their statements

Plan to Tighten Up On Loose Talk Before Private Bills Committee

Members Get Down to Work To-day, With Vancouver City Bill Off At Start; Inadequate Advertising Holds Up Victoria City Measure.

The Private Bills Committee of the Legislature is going to live up to its rules this session, according to steps taken at its first meeting to-day, when James Ramsay, Government member, Vancouver, gave notice that at the next meeting he will formally propose that all rules be adhered to strictly.

This would exclude all persons seeking to object to anything in any bill, unless they have established their position by giving three days' formal notice to the other side or give notice through the House.

"In the past some of the objections made to this committee were ridiculous," said M. B. Jackson, K.C., Government member for the Islands, who was elected temporary chairman. "People did not give notice that they were coming before us. The fact is that we waste an enormous amount of time by not living up to the rules. I would not like to cut anyone out on this technical point by enforcing this rule too suddenly."

Many Objectors From Vancouver. F. W. Anderson, member for Kamloops, declared that there is no reason why people who have complaints should not be heard before the committee and be heard.

"You will find deputation after deputation coming over from Vancouver seeking to have certain clauses in the Vancouver Bill," said F. A. McDiarmid, Parliamentary Agent for the Union of B. C. Municipalities, who appeared before the committee and raised the question of how strict its members were going to be this year in enforcing the rules.

To Tighten Up By Degrees. "We might not tighten up too much at the start so there will be fair warning for people after this," said Mr. Jackson. "I am proposing to tighten up and to have more constitutional. We have been brought four-square to the violations of our own rules."

Mr. McDiarmid said that in the past there have been immense numbers of changes introduced into bills by outside parties who have come before the committee without establishing their standing.

Vancouver Bill Started. Mayor Gale and E. E. Jones, City Solicitor of Vancouver, appeared in connection with the Vancouver Incorporation Act. This seeks to consolidate the Vancouver Act and some nineteen amendments to it since 1910.

The committee found that the preliminaries of the bill have been carried out, the $300 fee paid and the advertising carried out.

The bill will be introduced to-day by M. A. Macdonald, K.C., of Vancouver, and be given its first hearing before the Private Bills Committee next Tuesday morning, when the Vancouver City officials will again appear.

Advertising Proof "Sloppy." There was some doubt whether the advertising of the Port Mann Incorporation Bill had been carried out for the full six weeks required by law. The advertising was done in a New Westminster weekly paper.

"It is a very sloppy proof of the time it was done," said Chairman Jackson. It was decided to stand the bill over for one week to find out about this advertising.

To Join Anglican Colleges. It was found that all preliminaries have been completed with in the case of the Esquimalt Bill.

The Bill to Incorporate Latimer and St. Mark's Halls, of Vancouver, into the Anglican Theological College of B. C., was also ready.

"Incorporation of these two colleges is very necessary, as they have been working at cross-purposes heretofore," said Mr. Ralph.

Victoria Bill Held Up. The City of Victoria Bill was left over when it was discovered that sufficient advertising has not been done.

When the Sea Island Incorporation Bill came up Thomas Pearson, of Richmond, who is a member of the committee, gave notice that residents of Richmond want to oppose the bill and ask for a chance to appear before the committee. This privilege will be given them, the committee decided.

RECORD OF SUNDAY CONCERTS

G. W. V. A. Member Taxes Gathering With Acting Without Knowledge

"Will you be men, I am afraid to say the things I thought to-night, will you come out in the open and go to those concerts," exhorted H. P. Thorpe, of the G. W. V. A., to band members attending the Lord's Day Alliance gathering last night.

The members of the Lord's Day Alliance in annual meeting of the Victoria branch, had spent some two and a half hours in discussing whether or not they could get the power to pull a stop to the G. W. V. A. band concerts held each Sunday evening here at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

Opinion of Organizer. In explaining the objects of the Lord's Day Alliance and its powers, Rev. Dr. C. H. Huestis, organizing secretary of the Victoria and British Columbia, remarked: "People say to me why don't you stop the Sunday concerts; but we have no power to do that, our function is to use our influence to bring it to bear on inducing into people the habit of worship."

A sacred concert held on Sunday evening on a commercial basis is a violation of the law, the sacredness or otherwise of the music not affecting that case, the violation of the law lying in the fact that a fee is charged, and that the performers are paid, which is highly illegal," said the speaker.

"Action may be taken against any organization giving such a performance and ordering the performers to leave if the Sunday concert here is on a commercial basis, and I have not information one way or other about that yet, the Lord's Day Alliance should take the matter up with the police."

The Attorney-General of this Province has directly stated several times that a flat would be granted to enforce the law when a genuine application is made by the Police Commission or as soon as Mr. Macdonald takes the Lord's Day Act here.

"We are facing the menace of new privileges for favored classes. When the question of Sunday concerts came up in Vancouver last I told the police that they should have the motion picture theatres closing Sunday performances authorized, but was informed that the latter would not be granted. That is direct privilege to a certain class, you see."

Stores Open Here Sunday. "You have here in this city stores open on Sunday, in contravention of the Lord's Day Act, and if this goes on there will be no respect left for the law of the land, and we will not be able to carry out our state of democracy at all. I am deeply impressed with the truth that the heart of the question lies in the fact that the Lord's Day should be reserved for religion."

Symptom of Worse Disease. "It is a deadly disease that is making itself felt in the lives of people to-day, golf on Sunday is as a rash, a symptom of worse disease, and the Lord's Day into one of fun and pleasure to the extinction of worship. That is why I feel so strongly on the question of the Lord's Day, and these Sunday concerts, it is not worship, and we ourselves must first realize that we must get set straight."

Should Take Matter Up. "Undoubtedly something should be done to stop these Sunday concerts," stated Mr. Howell, a member present. "I have not been to any of the G. W. V. A. concerts, but looking at the programme I see the numbers have no names of any of our men, they have 'wormy' titles. I see by the press that by buying a programme beforehand you can insure your chance of getting a seat and surely that is a violation of the law. We ought to get in touch with the police commissioners when they are appointed and press on them the urgent question of putting a stop to all this sort of thing."

Little Sympathy. H.P. Thorpe, of the G. W. V. A., here got to his feet. "Speaking as a citizen and without any connection with my organization I would like to say to you gentlemen the Lord's Day is sacred, and many organizations have little sympathy with the returned man, who fought for your overseas. Many of the boys are over there now, and will not come back until they are discharged. I have said here to-night and reiterated it—that you don't know what takes place at these concerts—that you have never been there, you think the law is sacred, and you have heard that they have 'wormy' titles."

"It is hard for me to restrain myself when I think of it. Will you be men, go to these concerts, I am afraid to say some of the things I have thought to-night."

"Actions of Angry Men." "If these concerts have been responsible, have not the churches been to blame for that, you have come to your own churches, and you have lived in the front room for the last five years. He had used the second room occasionally when it had been occupied by the other Chinese before the man died, after that he had been afraid of ghosts."

Mr. Lowe for accused held that there was not sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction. Counsel suggested that the cocaine and morphine had been placed there previous to the search of the police by some one who had then laid information with the idea of catching the accused. The police had gone there with a search warrant all in order and to do that they must have had information.

"Look at the accused," Mr. Lowe asked the court, "does he look like a man that has money enough to get that morphine. Would he be foolish enough to have Chinese liquor and opium smoke about the place if he had feared the police in this connection?"

"Why did he keep the keys of the ghost room?" asked Mr. Harrison. "To keep the ghost locked up in a cage," answered Magistrate Jay (laughter).

Magistrate Jay stated that he would reserve judgment.

What the British Columbia Legislature and Its Politicians Are Doing.

Industries Bill Passed. Several minor bills were put through committee yesterday, including three amendments to the Loan Acts of 1916, 1917 and 1919, providing for the increase of interest rate from 5 1/2 to 6 per cent.

The two among the Department of Industries Act was read a third time and passed. This provides for the increasing of the rate of interest on loans made through this department from 5 1/2 per cent. to 6 per cent.

Civil Servants and Returned Men. Col. Lister, Opposition member for Kaslo, wants to know about the number of appointments made to the civil service during 1920 and the number of these appointees who were returned soldiers.

Advertising in Soldier Paper. Col. Lister is also seeking information about how much has been paid to the B. C. Veterans' Weekly of Vancouver for Government advertising during 1920.

Those Cement Purchases. Eighty-four carloads of cement were bought for the South Okanagan development scheme at a cost of $3,900 to $4,350 a barrel, less a discount of five per cent. for prompt payment. The agreement was between the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, to questions asked by W. A. MacKenzie, Opposition member for Similkameen.

About E. & N. Land Grant Minerals. Kenneth Duncan, Independent member for Cowichan, wants the Hon. Railway Co. with a view to bringing the minerals within the E. & N. Railway land grant under the administration of the Government."

Island Road Monies. R. H. Pooley, Opposition member for Esquimalt, is asking the Hon. J. W. Gray, Minister of Public Works, how much money has been spent from January 1 to December 31, 1920, on the roads and bridges of each municipality of Esquimalt, the Islands, Saanich and Cowichan.

How Many Soldier Forest Rangers? Information about the number of returned soldiers given training as forest rangers during 1920, where the training at the Metropolitan Sunday School was given, and where the training was sought by Col. Lister from the Hon. J. D. Maclean, Provincial Secretary.

Land Board Officials. All the information sought by J. W. Jones, Opposition member for South Okanagan, from the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, about the number, names, salaries, expenses of officials of the Land Settlement Board, will be furnished the House in the annual report which will be tabled in a couple of days, the Minister informed the House.

Provincial Officer Asserts Power of Councils Grows. Mrs. S. D. Scott of Vancouver Addressed Women's Council at Annual Meeting.

Representatives of all the women's organizations of the city met this morning at the Metropolitan Sunday School for the opening of the two days' annual sessions of the Local Council of Women. Miss Crease, the president, was in the chair.

Officers Elected. The election of officers resulted in the re-election by acclamation of all officers except the five vice-presidents, and the executive for the ensuing year is as follows: President, Miss Crease; first vice-president, Mrs. H. W. Gray; second vice-president, Mrs. Ryan; Mrs. W. H. Gee, Mrs. Schvin Burns; corresponding secretary, Miss Sara Spencer; recording secretary, Mrs. W. J. H. Holmes; treasurer, Mrs. William Grant.

In her annual address Miss Crease reviewed the Council's activities for the year, and touched upon the volume of work still to be done. She emphasized the need for the extension of the police women's department of the local force; alluded to the development of the Social Service Club Welfare, and Boy Scouts' movements; and expressed regret at the absence of Bible instruction from the curriculum of the public schools.

Old Timer of City Found Dead in Bush. Frederick Berryman, who spent between thirty and forty years in Victoria, was found dead in the bush at Burnaby on Monday afternoon, according to word which was relayed here by some of his friends to-day. It is presumed that he died from heart failure. The remains are being brought to Victoria for burial to-day, and his family will arrive in the city this afternoon from the Mainland.

Mr. Berryman was very well known among the old-time residents of Victoria. He had come here about forty years ago. He went to live on the Mainland, a short time ago. One doesn't have to stick a pin in hope to make it spring eternal.

secretarial report, gave a resume of the work accomplished. Mrs. Grant also presented the annual financial statement.

Excellent reports were given by Mrs. Douglas Hallam, on Social Service; Mrs. Andrews on the W. C. T. U.-Home; and Miss Oldfield on the Victoria and Saanich branches of the Victorian Order of Nurses.

Dr. Tolmie Wires He Is Pressing Question at Capital. Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Federal Minister of Agriculture, notified City Solicitor H. S. O'Brien by telegraph to-day that he was taking up with the Minister of Marine and Fisheries the city's claim for a title to foreshore land needed for the installation of the new Johnson Street bridge.

The city wants to get a clear title to the property, while the Federal Government so far has refused to grant any title for a long term lease. The city has been informed that the Government's policy now is to grant only leases on foreshore land. It is hoped, however, that in this case an exception will be made, as the land is needed for the installation of a public highway.

Delay in the granting of a clear title to the property is not delaying construction of the new bridge, for the Ottawa authorities have given the city permission to proceed with the work of installing the viaduct. The land question, however, is holding up the passage of the Order-in-Council formally authorizing the construction of the bridge.

To Address Federal Civil Servants. F. Knowles has been appointed by the Civil Servants of Vancouver to address a mass meeting of Federal Government employees which is to be held in the Duck Building, opposite the Crystal Theatre, on Saturday next, commencing at 8 p.m.

The object of the meeting is to state exactly what has been done in Vancouver on the subject of one association, embracing all Dominion civil servants. In the Vancouver district a referendum vote was taken on the one association idea and now stands at 450 for, 40 against. In the New Westminster district the vote stands 140 for, 5 against.

These mass meetings are being held over Canada, with a view to one organization.

PLAN GAME FOR THE COOPER-KEITH RUGBY TROPHY IN VICTORIA

Vancouver, Feb. 16.—"I purpose putting it up to our players, and if they are agreeable we will accept Victoria's challenge immediately and meet them in a 'sudden death' game for the Cooper-Keith trophy," R. Bell-Irving, President of the Vancouver Rugby Union, stated to-day in reply to Victoria's request for a match at the Capital.

INDIA CHALLENGES FOR THE DAVIS CUP. New York, Feb. 16.—Formal challenge for the Davis Cup from the All-India Tennis Association was received by the United States Lawn Tennis Association here yesterday. It was filed through London.

Mr. Jacob, in his letter, challenging for the international trophy, states that he has just completed articles of agreement between the British Isles and the All-India organizations. As a result of this affiliation, it is probable players will appear in the English championships at Wimbledon previous to taking part in the Davis Cup preliminaries.

Entry of India brings the total team tennis championship to four, with several others expected during the next few weeks. The British Isles, Spain and Australia have filed challenges.

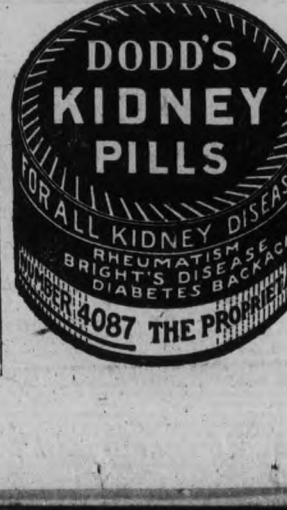

BURNS CONCERT SUCCESS. Mrs. Ralph Smith presided at First Presbyterian Church Entertainment.

Mrs. Ralph Smith presided at the Burns lecture and recital given at the First Presbyterian Church last night. There was a large attendance and the programme was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Smith in a few brief remarks introduced Rev. J. Gibson Inkester, who gave a very interesting talk on Burns, and illustrated his lecture with a number of beautiful lantern slides.

The second part of the programme was given by Miss Iona Robertson, who sang several Gaelic and Scottish songs and also gave a number of very good recitations.

Bishop Macdonald, who is of Highland extraction, expressed his appreciation of the Gaelic songs, and delighted the audience with a brief witty talk.

PREMIER LAUDED BY CONSERVATIVE FOR NEW SPEAKER

J. A. Catherwood Says Alex. Manson Not So Young As He Looks

OPPOSITION HOLDS FLOOR FOR SESSION

Legislative Press Gallery, February 15, Tuesday was "Conservative Day" in the Legislature, three members of the Opposition participating in the debate. The sitting was also marked by an unprecedentedly early adjournment at 4:30 o'clock.

Colonel Fred Lister, member for Kaslo, first of the Opposition speakers, denied the statement of the member for Grand Forks that he had not been properly elected by the Kaslo vote. The fact that his opponent, John Keen, now clerk of the House, had called him to his office and sworn him should be sufficient denial, said Colonel Lister.

Compliments on Camp Lister. The new Kaslo member complimented the Government for opening up the soldier settlement at Camp Lister, near Creston. However, he pointed out, there were difficulties which had not been removed. The returned men residing there had kept their grievances to themselves, despite stories to the contrary, but it was true that the promises of the Government's representatives particularly Lieut. Kirchner and Lieut. Walker had not been carried out. Colonel Lister urged the Government to remedy these difficulties, predicting that if this were done the Government could look back with pride to the success of that undertaking.

Urges Agricultural Roads. The colonel advocated building up the road system in the agricultural districts rather than the expenditure of money upon such highways as the Trans-provincial, feeling that the latter was more of a luxury than a direct necessity, however desirable it might be.

He advocated Government aid for irrigation, placing this ahead of reclamation work, but at the same time pointed to the reclamation of Kootenay Plains as a work which would bring big results for a small expenditure.

Wants Compensation Increased. Colonel Lister registered himself as a firm believer in the eight-hour day, an advocate of Government control of Provincial hospitals and a believer in the benefits of district nursing and broader educational advantages. He would like to see the compensation paid workmen under the Workmen's Compensation Act increased from 50 per cent. of their regular earnings to 65 per cent.

Taking over Tranquille Sanatorium by the Government would also receive his endorsement, he said. South Vancouver Blushes. T. Pearson, member for Richmond, dealt at some length with the autonomy of South Vancouver. He said there was no Shylock who would not blush if he had been a party to the transaction which deprived the people of South Vancouver of their franchise.

Mr. Pearson urged the Government to hasten a return to normal conditions of that municipality. He said the real estate values had depreciated as a result of the loss of independence of the citizens, and predicted a quick reclamation if the franchise were restored.

University of B. C. Cramped. The University of British Columbia occupied the time of the speaker for a few minutes. He pointed to the cramped accommodation furnished by the present quarters, where it was necessary, he explained, to repeat lectures two and three times in order that all the students might attend them. The question of liquor vending was receiving a great deal of attention, said the member for Richmond, but he argued that the education of the young of the Province was equally important.

The advantages of town planning as applied to the lands in the neighborhood of the Point Grey university site was referred to by Mr. Pearson, who was of the opinion that there would be little difficulty in securing through loans all the money necessary to carry on the construction of the new university.

Pleads for Municipalities. He also wished the Government to grant a liberal share of the automobile tax to the municipalities, where the burden of taxation was becoming "unbearable." With regard to the municipalities profiting from the sale of liquor, Mr. Pearson asked what would happen in the event of a municipality having no Government dispensary. He felt that a better plan of revenue distribution should be worked out.

Referring again to the question of South Vancouver, Mr. Pearson urged the Government to take the citizens of that municipality out of the class of Orientals and make them self-governing again.

Mr. Catherwood in this connection told the story of William Pitt when one of his political opponents remarked "that it was a slight to make surrounding nations stare, a kingdom committed to a school boy's care."

"With due reference to my friend from Albert who said that the Speaker was too young, I think that before the end of the session he will discover that he is not so young as he looks," said Mr. Catherwood.

"None Better." Mr. Catherwood in this connection told the story of William Pitt when one of his political opponents remarked "that it was a slight to make surrounding nations stare, a kingdom committed to a school boy's care."

"We must sacrifice our own prejudices and spirit if we are for God's great day of recreation. 'Sabbath' was made for man and not man for the Sabbath."

The Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick delivered the first address. "Great things sometimes grow from a very small start," he stated in opening his subject.

"I look upon the press as the greatest power in public affairs, and we need the sympathy and intelligent cooperation of the press. I was a little surprised and sorry recently to see an editorial in The Colonist criticizing the Rev. Mr. Huestis, who had spoken on shooting on the Lord's Day, which tended to infer that our secretary was taking too much on himself to suppose that from Red Deer he could dictate to the people of this great community."

"Blood Boiled." "My blood boiled when I read that editorial and I was much surprised when nobody made a reply to it. Dr. Huestis was not acting as an individual, but has come as the representative of a very large body, the members of the Lord's Day Alliance. I think, perhaps, the paper did not realize who Dr. Huestis was and what he was trying to do; but I do like to see the sympathy of the press with us, and I find that when we approach them in the proper spirit we always get that sympathy."

"In connection with the power of the press, we should try to use it to educate the public to the principles of Sunday observance."

Manner of Action. "A great deal of the result of our effort will lie in the manner in which we put it before the public, in the matter of approach, the angle of approach. We should consider very carefully how we should best lead the public into a better appreciation, and proper appreciation of the Lord's Day."

"In this I think patriotism will be our aid, people are apt to listen when the patriotic note is struck. The two great pillars which the British Empire were founded are God's Word and His Day. Queen Victoria said that the greatness of the Empire was due solely to God's word, the Bible."

"What the keeping of the Sabbath meant to the Israelites the observance of the Lord's Day means to us here to-day, and to the British Empire. When the Israelites kept the Sabbath strictly, they were a great and wonderfully powerful people, and I believe it would be so too with us in the keeping sacred of the Lord's Day."

"It is one of the fundamental institutions of the human race, one of the primary, eternal and unalterable laws linked with the preservation and life of the human race, like the law of gravitation. They speak of 'breaking the Lord's Day.' I tell you it cannot be done, no more than you can break the law of gravitation."

"A man may disregard the law of gravitation, he may climb to the top of a tall building and jump off, but he cannot break the law of gravitation. Similarly he who disregards the Lord's Day is going to be broken, and he is breaking himself."

"There is in the use of the Lord's Day a day of rest, the Lord's Day should be devoted to God Almighty, if we take the Lord's Day for our own use, we are like the man who breaks into my property and gets away too far from the spirit of devotion that made the Empire."

"There is in this tendency to-day, even in our churches we are getting away from the proper manner of worshipping God. We have our Sunday band concerts and all that sort of thing, making the Lord's Day a day of rest, the Lord's Day should be devoted to God Almighty, if we take the Lord's Day for our own use, we are like the man who breaks into my property and gets away too far from the spirit of devotion that made the Empire."

"The Rev. Dr. C. H. Huestis spoke next, being introduced to the members as the organizing secretary of Alberta and British Columbia for the Lord's Day Alliance. I am sorry there is not a great number present," he stated in opening, "but I am at least glad that the press is here. I have suffered much from the press, but I have also received great blessings from it. I love them still. Mr. Chadwick was wrong when he said The Colonist editorial went unanswered. I answered it myself."

"We were being greatly disturbed in the shooting on the Lord's Day, and I applied to the Premier to have the municipalities affected to put a stop to the practice, where it had become a nuisance, but enough of that. We are thinking more and more to-day in terms of 'functions,' even in politics we are thinking functionally. I think along these lines will be found the solving of all our great problems."

"I find a great deal of difficulty in trying to induce people to see that the Lord's Day Alliance is not working for a blue Sunday, or to make people go to church. Forced goodness is not goodness at all. I would have nothing to do with the Lord's Day Alliance if I thought it was to try to legislate people to heaven."

"I think our function is chiefly educational; firstly, secondly, and, lastly, all educational work, but at the same time to become necessary sometimes to force the powers that be to enforce their laws, but I still believe our chief function is education. The forthrightly gathering of the Dicken's Fellowship, of which Mrs. Unsworth was president, took the form of a Valentine Night farewell at the residence of Miss Leslie Har, Mackenzie Street. Mrs. A. Leighton was chosen president of the Fellowship."

Fire in Poolroom. Port Alberni—On Sunday evening the premises occupied by Harry Walton as a poolroom in Alberni accidentally caught fire and in a very short time the whole building was ablaze. The fire departments from the two towns were soon on the scene, and succeeded in putting out the fire before it completely consumed the building."

Teachers' Association. Nanaimo—There are now fifty-eight members in the Nanaimo and District Teachers' Association, which held its monthly meeting on Saturday, President G. S. Martin in the chair. The committee which presented to the School Board the salary schedule approved by the B. C. Teachers' Federation, reported that the trustees would discuss the matter again at an early date. The superannuation scheme for teachers, which comes under the general Civil Service plan, was left to the individual action of teachers. The Association accepted the invitation of the Ladies' Mission Association for March 5, Mr. Harris to be the speaker of the day. His experiences in the Army Medical Corps were given by Mr. Coombs, of the High School.

May Take Over Plant. Port Alberni—R. D. Hendry and H. Rushon, of New Westminster, representing the Dominion Shingle Company, accompanied by A. A. Plummer, of Vancouver, were visitors in town recently, looking over the plant of the Acme Shingle Company, says The Port Alberni News.

Providing suitable arrangements can be made with the owners, the Dominion Shingle Company may take over the plant, but there are some objections to this which were voiced by the visitors, the main one being lack of facilities for disposing of mill refuse. The method of the Acme Shingle Company is unsatisfactory, and unless some arrangement can be made that is better the negotiations may fall through.

Jubilee Mining Company. Nanaimo—At a meeting of the shareholders of the old Jubilee Mining Company, Thursday evening, it was decided to form a new company to be called the New Jubilee Mining Company. The following officers were elected: President, H. Shepherd. Vice-President, W. H. Morton. Secretary, H. L. Horne. Treasurer, John R. McKenzie. Board of Directors—L. Manson, D. H. Elliott, F. Wagstaff, H. Watson, and H. Crewe.

To Lecture Twice. Cumberland—Under the auspices of the B. C. University Extension Committee, and of the Comox Tech. Association, Dr. McLean Fraser of the University staff, will give his lecture on "The Sea Beach at Ebb Tide," at Cumberland on Friday next, February 18, and at Union Bay on the Saturday following.

The lecture will take place in the Anglican Church hall, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Huestis Succinctly Explains Object of Lord's Day Alliance

PLES ARE GENERALLY CAUSED BY CONSTIPATION

There are few, if any, complaints more common than hemorrhoids, or piles, as they are commonly called, and scarcely any which cause more trouble, annoyance and misery. Ninety per cent. are troubled with them at some time or other, owing to allowing the bowels to become in a constipated condition.

They are classed under three headings, i.e. itching, bleeding and protruding, and the excruciating pains which accompany them cause misery which is beyond description.

Obstinate and suppurative piles may help and relieve for a while, but to cure them, it is necessary to have a free, easy and natural motion of the bowels, at least once or twice a day, and by doing this the cause will be removed.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the liver and bowels, thus removing the constipation and all its allied troubles.

They contain no calomel or drastic mineral ingredients, being purely vegetable. They are small and easy to take, and do not grip, weaken or sicken.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all druggists or dealers, or mail it direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"We were being greatly disturbed in the shooting on the Lord's Day, and I applied to the Premier to have the municipalities affected to put a stop to the practice, where it had become a nuisance, but enough of that. We are thinking more and more to-day in terms of 'functions,' even in politics we are thinking functionally. I think along these lines will be found the solving of all our great problems."

"I find a great deal of difficulty in trying to induce people to see that the Lord's Day Alliance is not working for a blue Sunday, or to make people go to church. Forced goodness is not goodness at all. I would have nothing to do with the Lord's Day Alliance if I thought it was to try to legislate people to heaven."

"I think our function is chiefly educational; firstly, secondly, and, lastly, all educational work, but at the same time to become necessary sometimes to force the powers that be to enforce their laws, but I still believe our chief function is education. The forthrightly gathering of the Dicken's Fellowship, of which Mrs. Unsworth was president, took the form of a Valentine Night farewell at the residence of Miss Leslie Har, Mackenzie Street. Mrs. A. Leighton was chosen president of the Fellowship."

Fire in Poolroom. Port Alberni—On Sunday evening the premises occupied by Harry Walton as a poolroom in Alberni accidentally caught fire and in a very short time the whole building was ablaze. The fire departments from the two towns were soon on the scene, and succeeded in putting out the fire before it completely consumed the building."

Teachers' Association. Nanaimo—There are now fifty-eight members in the Nanaimo and District Teachers' Association, which held its monthly meeting on Saturday, President G. S. Martin in the chair. The committee which presented to the School Board the salary schedule approved by the B. C. Teachers' Federation, reported that the trustees would discuss the matter again at an early date. The superannuation scheme for teachers, which comes under the general Civil Service plan, was left to the individual action of teachers. The Association accepted the invitation of the Ladies' Mission Association for March 5, Mr. Harris to be the speaker of the day. His experiences in the Army Medical Corps were given by Mr. Coombs, of the High School.

May Take Over Plant. Port Alberni—R. D. Hendry and H. Rushon, of New Westminster, representing the Dominion Shingle Company, accompanied by A. A. Plummer, of Vancouver, were visitors in town recently, looking over the plant of the Acme Shingle Company, says The Port Alberni News.

Providing suitable arrangements can be made with the owners, the Dominion Shingle Company may take over the plant, but there are some objections to this which were voiced by the visitors, the main one being lack of facilities for disposing of mill refuse. The method of the Acme Shingle Company is unsatisfactory, and unless some arrangement can be made that is better the negotiations may fall through.

Jubilee Mining Company. Nanaimo—At a meeting of the shareholders of the old Jubilee Mining Company, Thursday evening, it was decided to form a new company to be called the New Jubilee Mining Company. The following officers were elected: President, H. Shepherd. Vice-President, W. H. Morton. Secretary, H. L. Horne. Treasurer, John R. McKenzie. Board of Directors—L. Manson, D. H. Elliott, F. Wagstaff, H. Watson, and H. Crewe.

Association, Dr. McLean Fraser of the University staff, will give his lecture on "The Sea Beach at Ebb Tide," at Cumberland on Friday next, February 18, and at Union Bay on the Saturday following.

The lecture will take place in the Anglican Church hall, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Huestis Succinctly Explains Object of Lord's Day Alliance

PLES ARE GENERALLY CAUSED BY CONSTIPATION

There are few, if any, complaints more common than hemorrhoids, or piles, as they are commonly called, and scarcely any which cause more trouble, annoyance and misery. Ninety per cent. are troubled with them at some time or other, owing to allowing the bowels to become in a constipated condition.

They are classed under three headings, i.e. itching, bleeding and protruding, and the excruciating pains which accompany them cause misery which is beyond description.

Obstinate and suppurative piles may help and relieve for a while, but to cure them, it is necessary to have a free, easy and natural motion of the bowels, at least once or twice a day, and by doing this the cause will be removed.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the liver and bowels, thus removing the constipation and all its allied troubles.

They contain no calomel or drastic mineral ingredients, being purely vegetable. They are small and easy to take, and do not grip, weaken or sicken.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all druggists or dealers, or mail it direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Vapo-Cresolene

Est. 1879

A Vapor Treatment for Coughs and Colds

The time for Vapo-Cresolene is at the first indication of a cold or sore throat. It is simple to use, you just light the little lamp that vaporizes the Cresolene and place it near the bed. The soothing antiseptic vapor makes breathing easy, relieves the cough, eases the soreness and congestion, and protects in epidemics. Recommended for Whooping Cough, Spasmodic Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, Croup, Measles, Catarrh and Asthma. Cresolene has been used for the past 40 years. The benefit is unquestionable. Send for descriptive booklet. Sold by pharmacies. VAPOR-CRESOLENE CO., Leominster, Mass. U.S.A., Montreal.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.
